BATTLE ON AGAINST HIGH COST OF LIVING

Chicago is Quiet Today; Street Car Men Expected to Vote for a Settlement

FIVE DAYS OF RIOTING IN CHICAGO.

Dead: Monday 1, Tuesday 10, Wednesday 16, Thursday 5, Friday 3. Total, 35; 20 negroes and 15 whites. Number injured, including those stabbed, shot and beaten, 500. Damage by fire to property between $50,000 and $150,000. Damage by bullets, clubs and pills, $50,000. Area of district affected, 640 city blocks or 10 square miles. Loss in time, food, work, estimated at $1,000,000. Police protection used, 3,000. Soldiers guarding black belt, 6,200. Population of black belt and environs 200,000.

CHICAGO, August 1.—George Stauber, 23, alleged to have started the race war here by throwing stones at a negro youth at a white bathing beach, was charged with murder today and held under bond of $5,000. Detectives say seven witnesses will swear a stone thrown by Stauber knocked the negro into the water where he drowned. Stauber's was the first of 160 hearings scheduled today. Most of the men, whites and blacks, demanded jury trials.

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—Extreme penalties for men convicted of arson and murder in the race riots here will be demanded by the states attorney, it was announced today. Attorney General Brundage and States Attorney Hoyne with their staffs began investigations today. A start was said to have been made with a confession from one negro suspect.

Photographs were studied in the effort to trace murderers. Police officers recovering from long stretches of service were to be sent out to bring rioters they were compelled to let go free at the height of the trouble when quelling of riots was regarded as more important than arrests. Negroes picked up in the looting today. Porters were at work again in barber shops and department stores. Additional troops aided colored workers of the stock yards in getting to their jobs. In entering the yards were searched for weapons. Despite the precautions, the packing houses were operating short handed.

Patrolling of the riotous black belt by militiamen was in the nature of a picnic today. The guardsmen were led at their bivouacs in lodge halls and they had hours of freedom. Orders for the stopping of search belts. One was enforced but there was no trouble. Both white and blacks in the riot district favored the soldiers with dainties for breakfast.

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—Race rioting in Chicago had ceased today. The city was calm. Officials and civic leaders set about the task of rushing food supplies into the stricken negro districts where, during the four days of arson, slaying, looting and wrecking, inhabitants were reduced almost to starvation.

John Ward, white, 32, died today from wounds he received yesterday when he was shot by Policeman Daniel Carlson. He had shot Carlson above the heart. The officer raised himself on his elbow and shot Ward.

The death list today stood at 34. William Debold, white, 32, died from injuries received yesterday. One negro was shot and killed yesterday while another died from wounds. In all, 19 negroes and 15 whites lost their lives.

Soldiers in Control. Soldiers were in complete control of the situation, patrolling the streets in the black belt where most of the fighting took place, and manning machine gun positions on the edge of the belt facing white residential districts.

Adjutant General Dickson and Police Chief Garrity, who men the soldiers relieved after 72 hours of work, after a tour of the district early today, reported the trouble had stopped and that little else was to be done except keep watch side street and to keep the flames menacing the negroes, who have grown so frightened during their four days of terror that few of them are seen outside their houses.

Temporary Pay Stations. Packing houses today arranged to pay negro workers at temporary pay stations outside the yards. Trouble was feared when the colored men gathered to receive their pay.

Both white and negro civic organizations scheduled meetings for today for discussion of means solving the race problem. Politics was blamed by several, high illidene, high prices and general unrest was usually taken as responsible for the outbreaks.

FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD OFFERS NO HOPE FOR RELIEF

FORECASTS CONTINUED HIGH PRICES FOR SOME TIME AT LEAST.

JULY SAW SOME INCREASES

Says There Is Disposition to Accept the Situation and Expect Continuation.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—No relief from present high costs is forecast in the federal reserve board's monthly review of business conditions issued today, which notes that July saw increases in many lines.

In general, the review said, "there is a disposition to accept present price levels and to expect a continuation of the prevailing level for some time to come."

In many districts high prices have not served to check demand, but the possibility of obtaining goods was found to be of greater moment to the buyer than the price fixed.

Continued high prices, along with constant growth in trade, both wholesale and retail, and increased activities in some of the basic industries, sustained confidence in the industrial situation and led to expansion in many lines.

The conditions by districts include: Dallas: There has been practically no summer demand for cotton and financial circles this year; the unusual condition being attributable largely to the petroleum industry, which has exerted a very favorable influence on trade.

The 77 cities in the surveys are divided into four groups, according to population, and represent every section of the country.

The 77 cities in the surveys are divided into four groups, according to population, and represent every section of the country.

Los Angeles, Portland (Oregon), Philadelphia, Seattle, Chicago and Baltimore had over 2,000 men to place in that period and all, except Seattle and Baltimore, placed over 70 per cent of them.

Of cities from 100,000 to 200,000 in population, the Middle West, with Dayton, Ohio, led, is the leader, Dayton placed in that time 124 per cent, or 82 men.

San Diego, California, in the third group, has the most sensational percentage record to her credit for that period, although the actual number placed was not large.

Of the "little cities," those with population under 50,000, Poughkeepsie, New York, has the best percentage record, although Chevenne, Wyoming, with 895 men to place, made by far the biggest showing by getting jobs for 860 of these.

AMERICA'S HELP IS NEEDED.

The man without ideals and without desire to help not only his own condition but that of those around him is a dead soul indeed. The same is true with a nation.

"They will require a generation of actual national life in peace to develop free education and skill in government. Unless these countries have a guiding hand and referee in their quarrels, a court of appeals for their wrongs, this Europe will go back to chaos."

"To abandon the covenant means that the treaty itself will lapse. It would take the exposure of but a few documents at my hand to prove that I have been the most reluctant of Americans to become involved in this situation in Europe."

"We have succeeded in a most extraordinary degree in imposing upon Europe the complete conviction that we are absolutely disinterested. The consequence is that there is scarcely a man, woman or child who can read in Europe that does not look to the United States as the ultimate source from which they must receive assurances and guardianship in the liberties which they have now secured after so many generations of struggle."

Most interesting is the story of the passing of the Pacific armada through the locks of the Panama Canal. When the news came that the dreadnaughts sailed into the lower locks, easily as a shuttle into a sewing machine, and that the great steel gates closed "like jaws," lifting the ships "as easily and rapidly as an American perseverer."

The Panama Canal dates back to the seventies, when the first concession was obtained from Columbia in response to an old dream of a waterway connecting the two oceans. Ferdinand de Lesseps, flushed with the success of the Suez Canal, organized a French company in 1879, and in 1881 bought the original concession.

The war with Spain thrust the United States into world affairs. The first voyage of the Oregon around Cape Horn to join the Atlantic fleet demonstrated the necessity for the Panama Canal.

purchase was made in January, 1903, but Columbia controlled the Panama zone, and some plan had to be devised to obtain control. On January 22, 1904, a treaty was made with the representatives of Columbia, but the Colombian government rejected it. The Panama revolution and the organization of the Panama Republic in August, 1903, on November 18, 1904, a treaty was made with the new Republic of Panama whereby the United States acquired "a perpetual right of occupation, use and control

"Don't Think I'll Be Without It Again," Says Mrs. Smith

"I can put all my faith in Orgatone as it took hold of my troubles and put me back in perfect health," said Mrs. Florence Smith of 218 Pecan street, Tanager, Texas, a few days ago in telling of her restoration to health. Mrs. Smith is the wife of one of the largest coal and confectionery stores in Tanager, Texas.

"I had been suffering from a general ailment for some time, and after eating, I had a very uncomfortable pressure from the gas which formed. This would get so bad sometimes that I would hardly be able to breathe. I was nearly always constipated and I would get up in the mornings feeling more worn out than when I went to bed and I just dragged myself around all day, feeling weak and all out of sorts and unable to exert myself to do the least little thing."

"I had soon after Orgatone was brought to Wichita, Kansas, I began hearing so many people talk about it. So many of them had felt better, my appetite improved and in a few days I could eat more and relish it and I could tell I was getting stronger. All the gas and humors left my stomach, my nerves improved and then my strength came back rapidly. My friends and family noticed how strong and well I had gotten--my health was better than it had ever been, and although it has been a year ago since I took any Orgatone I have been in good shape all along. I am still a bottle now for my daughter who has been complaining of late, with a severe pain in her side, and I am sure it will have the same beneficial permanent results in her case that it did in mine. If any person doubts what Orgatone will do for them just tell them to come over to my place of business and I will be only too pleased to tell them personally about the wonderful work this Orgatone did in my case."

Orgatone is not a so-called patent or secret remedy, but a new scientific treatment absolutely free from alcohol in any form and is sold in Wichita Falls exclusively by the T. F. Young Drug Company, under the personal direction of a special Orgatone representative. Other agents are Clark Drug Company, Burk Burnett.

LATEST NEWS AND VIEWS OF INTEREST TO SPORT FANS

SEE DANGER FOR DEMPSEY SHOULD HE FIGHT IN LONDON

By H. C. HAMILTON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—If Jack Dempsey agrees to go to London to fight Joe Beckett or Georges Carpentier, he will be flying in the face of late and past history of American boxers.

The American fight follower is jealous of his country's reputation as a producer of champions and will howl loud and long if Dempsey allows himself to be lured abroad before defending his title in this country.

It seems improbable that Jack Kearns, who has showed so much astute business sense in guiding Dempsey to the world's championship, will not walk blindly into the pitfall where so many Americans have fallen.

The average American sports follower takes defeat with victory and generally shuts up about it. He is not the kind who cries over a loss, but he is unable just now to erase from his memory the defeat of Willie Ritchie by Freddie Welsh, the defeat of Joe Lynch by Jimmy Wilde, the victory of Willie over Pal Moore, and the feat of Georges Carpentier in winning from Gumbo Smith, although he has been knocked out to all intents and purposes by the American heavy-weight.

There must be some queer twist to English rules that boxers on this side of the water cannot fathom. What it is no one yet has been able to figure out. Eugene Corri gave a world's championship to Freddie Welsh, although Willie Ritchie chased the Welchman all over the 24-foot ring they fought in and scored heavily numerous times.

Corri gave Wilde a decision over Pal Moore, although England's sensational little man was practically exhausted and was bleeding freely from the punishment bestowed on him by the American. He said Moore had fouled and thus lost the decision. He should have disqualified the American if there was fouling.

With this history to gaze upon Jack Dempsey could do well to do his title-defending on this side of the ocean. New Jersey would like to see Beckett or Carpentier in action against the champion and it would pay Kearns to insist on the fight being staged in this country. Dempsey is the champion and has the privilege of naming the site for a championship encounter. He will make no mistake if he exercises it.

SQUINT AT THE SCORE.

Phil Douglas, pitched his second game for the Giants and defeated the Pirates, 5 to 2.

The Reds are gradually drawing in on the Giants. They hung up two shut outs at the expense of the Braves, 5 to 0 and 2 to 0.

The heavy artillery was brought up by the White Sox with a 7 to 2 result over the Yankees.

Shocker won a hard fought duel from Walter Johnson, 3 to 2.

HUGH JENNINGS IS SUSPENDED BY THE LEAGUE PRESIDENT

BOSTON, Aug. 1.—Notice of his indefinite suspension was received by Manager Hugh Jennings of the Detroit Americans before the Tigers left this city for New York last night. This action by President Johnson of the American League was a result of an argument between Jennings and Empire Moriarty during the double header here Wednesday.

HEINERMANN PROTESTS THE USE OF WAITE HOYT

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 1.—Use of Waite Hoyt, 19 year old pitcher, by the Boston Americans against Detroit, brought a protest from A. J. Heinermann, president of the New Orleans Southern Association club, who recently said he had purchased Hoyt outright from Rochester. Heinermann last night wired President Ban Johnson of the American League requesting immediate action in the case. In sport circles here it is predicted this will be the beginning of a fight between minor and major leagues. Hoyt has been due here several days.

YANKEES MAY ASK AN INJUNCTION IN CARL MAYS CASE

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—Owners of the New York American League baseball club may ask an injunction from the courts to protect them against any action by Ban Johnson in dealing with the case of Carl Mays, star pitcher, who joined the club yesterday.

This was intimated by Col. Jacob Rupert, president of the Yankees, following receipt of word here that Johnson had suspended Mays.

Contenting that Johnson could not have escaped knowing negotiations for the purchase were under way, it was declared that he should have imposed the suspension sometime ago. The pitcher jumped the Boston Sox on July 12 in Chicago, where Johnson has his offices.

The local club opens a critical series today with the Detroit Tigers who have been advancing through good pitching and hitting. The Yanks need good pitching if they are to recover while meeting the strong westerners and the season is so near a close that unless they stage their comeback at once, it is very likely they will be unable to stage it at all.

The weakened condition of the hurling corps was well known yesterday when the White Sox battered Ernie Shore from the box.

AMERICAN TROOPS DEMORALIZE ARMY OF FRANCISCO VILLA

EL PASO, TEX., Aug. 1.—Francisco Villa's army which advanced on Juarez with the intention of conquering north-western Mexico and establishing a rebel government in the north, retired before United States troops badly demoralized and disorganized, say deserters, impressed soldiers who escaped and civilians who saw them at Villa Ahumada.

After two days and nights of intermittent fighting for possession of Juarez, Villa had depleted his ammunition supply. A member of his staff who came to the border after the retreatment said many of Villa's men had no ammunition. Only Villa's body-guard had more than 100 rounds. Soldiers had thrown their rifles away while crossing the desert with the American cavalry in pursuit.

Villa's telegrapher, who escaped from Villa at Villa Ahumada, reported to Mexican officials in Juarez that the rebels were without food, and that their morale was very low.

Dissensions took place among Villa's men after the Juarez battle. Martin Lopez, who led the fighting in Juarez, is said to have denounced Villa and accused the bandit leader of deceiving his men into believing the United States government would recognize the Villa revolution, and American troops would not molest them when they attacked Juarez.

Another report reaching the border stated Villa selected 2,000 picked men from his forces and started south toward Parral, announcing that "he could not fight the Americans" and saying he was going back to the mountains. Villa activities in the vicinity of Parral, recently would tend to confirm this report. General Angeles was reported to have separated from Villa and to be hiding in the hills near the border.

Villa partisans here denied that Villa's army was demoralized. They say one of Villa's tricks is to scatter his forces after a battle and then reassemble them when he is ready to conduct another campaign. Pilar de Conchos, on the Conchos river near Parral, is said by Villa's agents here to be the rendezvous for Villa's forces and all of his bands are drifting in that direction.

SENATOR FALL CRITICIZES THE LEAGUE PLAN

Charges Wilson Asks Senate to Join in "Deadening American Patriotism."

SAYS LEAGUE WOULD RESULT IN SURRENDER OF FREEDOM

Argues That Provisions Exploit Weaker Races as Also Weaker Nations.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—President Wilson, the League of Nations and the German peace treaty were criticized by Senator Fall, republican, of New Mexico, member of the foreign relations committee, in an address today in the Senate.

Urging adherence to the American policy against European entanglements, Senator Fall declared President Wilson was asking the Senate to join him in "deadening American patriotism."

The League of Nations, Senator Fall said, would create a great super-government, subvert the American government, strike at the power of congress and result in the surrender of American freedom.

Other provisions of the peace treaty were declared by Mr. Fall to exploit weaker races and nations and establish selfish rights.

President's Appeal.

"The President appeals to the Senate," said Senator Fall, "to join him in overturning the American policy of 140 years in undermining every influence with other nations which that policy has created and maintained; in deadening the influence of American patriotism here at home; in rendering obsolete the word patriotism in our vocabulary; in joining this nation, now possessing the confidence, respect and admiration of the people of the other nations, in a bond of alliance with the very selfish nations who have caused our conduct to stand out in such brilliant contrast and in a council where our freedom of action hereafter would be controlled by the vote of eight of these nations. We are requested—may we be commanded to surrender our freedom, to yield our sovereignty to, subvert our government."

Voices Objections.

"Joined with the other people of the world in this so-called peace treaty; constituting only a fraction of the governing body of the league; unable within the league to impress ourselves and our ideas and to make our demands, as we could out of it because of the fact that we delegate to others the right to vote, eight votes to one against us in any matter of selfish interests in which they can unite; we have not only destroyed the government of our fathers but in my mind, we have committed a crime against the nations of the earth, against civilization itself and retarded for more than a thousand years that reign of Christ which we all hope will eventually bring the people of the earth together." Regarding opposition to reservations protecting the Monroe Doctrine, American sovereignty, immigration and other democratic questions, Senator Fall said that in 1912 every democrat, including many now in service, insisted upon and voted for reservation to arbitration treaties then submitted by President Taft expressly reserving those questions.

OFFER REWARD FOR OKLAHOMA BANDITS WHO ROBBED BANKS

OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLA., Aug. 1.—Fifteen hundred dollars today was offered for the capture and conviction of the bandits who in less than 24 hours yesterday plundered three Oklahoma banks and escaped with about $13,000 in currency and bonds.

Governor Robertson today added $1,000 each to the $500 rewards posted by the state banking board. The three men who held up the Wheatland bank and carried away about $6,000 in cash and bonds were traced to Oklahoma City, county authorities today were searching for a high powered green Stevens automobile. The men are believed to be in hiding here.

After 70 shots in a running pistol engagement between the posse and five bandits who took about $4,000 from the Jenks bank, the bandits escaped into the Osage hills. These men and the two unmasked horsemen who rode away from the Millerton bank with $2,600 in cash were still at liberty today.

Authorities working on the case doubted there was concert among the bandits.

STRIKE OF M. K. & T. SHOPMEN SETTLED; WORK IS RESUMED

The walk-out of the Katy shopmen at the roundhouse was settled this morning, according to officials of the company. About 100 men had been out for the past six days because of poor transportation service. The company had furnished a plug-train for the men to and from work. The men complained that the service was extremely poor as the train was frequently late. Also that the company failed to give credit for overtime caused while waiting for the train. The trouble was satisfactorily settled and the company reports that all of the men have now returned to their work.

SENATOR SAYS SOME ACTION IS DEMANDED

Points Out That Congress Is Stalled and Plans No Immediate Relief.

FLOODED WITH MASS OF BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS

Declares That the Country Has Had Enough of Investigation and Talk.

By RAYMOND CLAPPER (United Press Staff Correspondent)

KASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 1.—Demanded for action in meeting the high cost of living crisis was made today by Senator Kenyon, Iowa, in an interview.

Flooded with nearly 50 resolutions and bills seeking relief from high prices, congress is stalled and plans no immediate action on any of the measures, he pointed out.

Kenyon declared congress could pass one or more of these pending measures and obtain partial relief. In face of this situation, the House plans to take a month's vacation beginning tomorrow.

Only One Hits the Spot.

Out of the mass of resolutions and bills only one aimed direct at the high cost of living has passed—the resolution requiring the secretary of war to sell surplus food at once, it was emphasized.

"We have had enough investigation and talk," Kenyon said. "This question of the high cost of living is more important right now than the League of Nations."

Bills Now Pending.

Pending bills would prohibit exportation of certain food stuffs, including sugar, halt stock speculation, abolish the government guarantee on wheat in hope of lower prices, attempt to reduce the amount of currency in circulation, prevent excessive prices of fuel, prohibit cold storage houses to hold food more than 10 months.

Resolutions introduced would investigate proposed price increases in shoes, sugar, clothing and coffee, ascertain why flour prices have increased and ask President Wilson to tell congress what additional powers he needs to bring down prices.

EDITOR REFUSES TO APOLOGIZE AND WILL SERVE A SENTENCE

MEMPHIS, TENN., Aug. 1.—Edward T. Leech, editor of the Memphis Press, will go to jail next Monday to begin serving a sentence of 10 days for alleged contempt of court. Leech refused to apologize and stated that he stood on the right of a free press.

Leach was convicted as the result of an editorial entitled "The Shame of It All" in which he discussed general political conditions in the city administration and courts of Memphis without making specific reference to any particular judge or court.

Answer is Filed.

On the ground that the editorial was directed at Chancellor Israel Perea, who had decided an important local case the day before, Leech was summoned on a charge of contempt. He filed an answer in court admitting the authorship of the editorial and refusing to retract or qualify it. He denied its statements regarding the evils of corrupt politics referred to any specific individual and asserted that it referred to a general bad condition. He swore he intentionally wrote the editorial along general lines so that "all persons whom the shoe fitted might put it on."

Maximum Penalty.

Leech was given the maximum penalty in Tennessee for contempt of court outside the court room, 10 days in jail and a fine of $50. The decision was sustained in the court of civil appeals. The Tennessee supreme court refused to review the case, and yesterday issued a memorandum containing its reasons, stating:

"That the editorial or part of the same was intended to and did, in fact, refer to one of the judges of Shelby county is evident from the article itself; that same was written because of the approaching election and promulgated by a desire to influence the same."

CHARGE ACCEPTANCE OF MONEY TO KEEP QUIET ABOUT WIFE'S CONDUCT

That he had accepted a money consideration as a satisfaction for his wife's conduct and to prevent his bringing charges under the Mann act was the basis of a complaint charging conspiracy against a man from Chickasha, Oklahoma, on which a hearing was held Friday morning before J. A. Lantz, United States Commissioner. The party was admitted to bond in the sum of $2,500. According to the testimony introduced at the hearing, the man's wife came to Wichita Falls in the company of another man. The former followed the couple here, but afterwards agreed to accept $2,500 for keeping "mum" about the matter, it was alleged. The case will come before the Federal grand jury in September.

Notice To Telephone Users

Today telephone properties are returned. After a year of Federal control the telephone property, which makes up the Bell Telephone System, is today returned to its owners by the United States government.

While the property has been properly maintained it is not the same property which the government took over on Aug. 1, 1918. It is not adequate for its job or as well manned as it was; that it is not, is in no way the fault of the federal control which was eminently fair.

A year ago today we were at war. Labor and material needed for both telephone operation and construction were turned to military uses. Some materials were so vital to the carrying on of the war that even the work of providing telephone facilities for the government was retarded and no part of them could be spared for commercial telephone purposes.

No less vital was the government need for those skilled to create, maintain and operate the vast intercommunication systems necessary in modern warfare in the conduct of the vastly increased government service.

Thousands of telephone men were already at the battle front. Thousands more were under arms, and still telephone experts and skilled operators went into the service of the government and contributory industries by the tens of thousands.

The reserves of plant and equipment were drawn upon until they were entirely used up and the experienced staff was gradually depleted. To find others to take the places of those who had gone was difficult, to train them takes time.

During the year came victory and the armistice; and instantly the business world sprang into intense activity. The demands for telephone service passed all former records.

To replace the exhausted reserves, which had been carried for just such purposes and to replace the skilled forces to meet this unprecedented emergency, there began a rush for construction, for readjustment, for high pressure repairs, for feverish extensions. All these must be continued with increasing effort.

The return of the property came in the very midst of this race between an overpowering demand and an upbuilding system whose growth was held and whose forces were shattered by the vital needs of war.

Much progress has been made in the upbuilding of this system, but far more is still required to meet the swift growth of business; and also to give first aid to every other business and every other service struggling against an unprecedented demand.

The prosperity which creates this emergency in service creates also a scarcity of those desiring employment in the service.

Under such conditions telephone service generally has not been and could not be up to the pre-war standard. It is beyond human power to immediately overcome the handicap which the situation imposes.

There are no people in public or private endeavor who are working more tirelessly or strenuously for the common good than those of the telephone companies. Service has always been given. More of it must be given and it must be improved. That improvement in some cases will take months. Eventually service must win the race with demand.

COTTON WEAKENS AFTER THE OPENING; PRICE DECLINES

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The cotton market had a steady opening today at 23 to 27 points decline but shortly afterward weakened further to 25 for October and 33 1/2 for December, or a net decline of 33 to 40 points. There was active selling by Liverpool, Wall Street and commission houses, while cables were weak and weather and crop news again favorable. High money with agitation for government action against high cost of living appear to be creating a more bearish sentiment among cotton traders, notwithstanding considerable bull weevil talk from Alabama, Georgia and Texas.

The government report at 11:00 o'clock was one of the most sensationally bullish ever issued at this time of the year. Its condition figures of 67.1 were lower than any of the private reports published with one exception and the report was out of line with the expectations of traders that the market had a wild advance of 200 points, reaching the limits allowed for fluctuations in any one day. October contracts sold at 34.95 and December at 35.15 on this upturn, followed by reactions of about 100 points under profit-taking. The government explained that the low condition was due to boll weevil and excessive rains in the eastern belt and as there has only been improvement during August twice in the last 20 years, traders were forced to believe that this year's crop may prove inadequate to demands.

In the early afternoon the market became strong again with buyers at the maximum prices and demand general. There could be no more advance $4.95 for October and 33.15 for December, but there were many orders in the market to be executed at these figures.

The cotton market closed very strong at limits.

New Orleans Cotton.
NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 1.—Poor cables and a favorable opinion of weather conditions over the belt, combined with a slightly bearish attitude toward the government report on conditions opened the cotton market at lower levels today. In the first half hour of trading prices fell 22 to 37 points.

The decline continued until it amounted to 37 to 40 points. Following the condition report of 67.1, which was far below trade expectations, there was a quick bulge of a little more than 100 points on the active months. From then on the market was active and excited and at the highest level the trading months were 117 to 135 points over yesterday's close and 154 to 177 points up from the lowest of the day.

New high levels were reached in the afternoon with the market standing at 1:00 o'clock 180 to 190 points from the lowest of the day and 130 to 150 points over the final prices of yesterday.

The cotton market closed steady at maximum limits at an advance of 145 to 163 points.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—Stringent monetary conditions, as indicated by yesterday's unexpected rise in call loans to 15 and 20 per cent were mainly responsible for the uncertain tone of the stock market at the opening of today's session. Gains ranging from large fractions to two points in oils, equipment, tobacco and shippings, were offset by reactions of greater extent among motors, metals and sundry specialties. U. S. steel was moderately heavy and rails were only occasionally quoted at irregular changes in the first half hour.

The easy rates stimulated a demand for secondary industrials and equipments during the intermediate session, tobacco and rubber shares also advancing with Pacific Gas and Electric. Steels and some of the popular oils rested moderately under pressure.

Steels and oils recovered again in the last hour and high specialties were featured by a six point rally in American tobacco. The closing was strong.

DRASTIC SETBACK IN PRICE OF CORN IS RESULT TODAY

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—Drastic new setbacks in the price of corn resulted today from general rains, hog market weakness and from agitation for government measures to reduce the cost of living. Bearish crop reports counted also as a depressing influence. Selling was on a large scale. Opening quotations, which varied from 25c to 4 1/2c lower, with September $1.90 to $1.91 and December $1.59 to $1.61, were followed by only moderate rallies from initial bottom figures.

Gates were easier with corn. After opening 1/2c to 1 1/4c lower, including September at 77 1/2 to 78 1/2, the market sagged a little more and then recovered somewhat.

Gates were rejected the weakness of hogs and grain. Offerings, though, were light.

Later, the market rallied sharply owing to bullish crop estimates and to talk that much crop damage was irreparable. Buying, however, came to a halt and the market tumbled lower than before. The finish was semi-demoralized 3/4c to 7/8c net lower with September $1.82 to $1.83 and December $1.54 1/2 to $1.57.

BUILDING TRADES VIEW SHUT-DOWN AS A FIGHT ON LABOR

Any action on the part of contractors and owners of buildings in shutting down construction work in Wichita Falls will be viewed by the building trades as a deliberate starting of a fight on labor, according to the views expressed Friday by Jack Prather, state organizer for the American Federation of Labor.

The controversy with the electrical workers has no connection with the other trades, according to Mr. Prather. The action of the electricians in going out, after their demands for $10 per day were turned down, was entirely a matter between individual electricians and the contractors, and has not affected either the electricians union or the central trades council. The international organization of the electricians will still permit the contractors to bring in electricians from other points at an $8 wage scale, if they can get men to come here for that. But they can't do it, because they can't live on that in Wichita Falls with any degree of comfort. They will not make near as good a living here at $8 as they make other places for less than that.

While the local unions were not wanting a labor fight with the contractors, and have and will not do anything to start one, if one is started by the other side they will stay with it and can stay with a suspension of work as long as the public can do without the buildings, according to Mr. Prather.

KIMMEL-DILLARD WELL IS FLOWING MORE THAN 5000

Six hundred barrels of oil was put into the tanks in two hours and thirty minutes by the Kimmel and Dillard well, in Block 97, according to reports from the field. This well is the one which created a sensation early in the week, blowing itself in. Continuous runs with which to test the capacity of the well are impossible because there are no pipe line connections and little storage, it is stated.

The Munger-Lea No. 1 Wagoner, Block 86, completed early this week, is showing up better than 2,500 barrels. No. 2 is being completed today. Chenault, Rowe and company are drilling in their No. 1 Taylor, Block 97 today. This well is between the Kimmel and Dillard and the Texas Chief wells.
