DISCUSSES POSSIBILITY OF THE SPREAD OF BOLSHEVISM IN THE EVENT OF DEFEAT OF LEAGUE

DES MOINES, IA., Sept. 6.—The Versailles treaty with its League of Nations covenant was explained here tonight by President Wilson as a purely American document extending democracy over the world and shifting foreign relations from a basis of force and war to one of arbitration and peace. Making his second address of the day, the President spoke in the Des Moines coliseum, said to seat 7,500. Every chair was taken and many were standing. Earlier in the day he had spoken at Kansas City, Mo., more than 300 miles away.

Belshivism May Spread. A possibility that bolshevism may spread in threatening proportions to the United States unless the peace treaty is ratified promptly, was suggested by President Wilson in an address here tonight. The whole world was waiting, he said, while the poison which had wrecked Russia was spreading among peoples who did not yet know what guarantees there were to be for liberty in the new world order.

World Needs Peace. "The world is desperately in need of the settled conditions of peace," the President said in perfect innocence, and was intended to give right way to the Monroe doctrine in the western hemisphere. The language was put in, he continued, because the other delegates thought it wise to make a specific reference to a policy of one country without leaving the way open for other countries to develop similar policies in their own localities.

Threatened Invasion By Miners of West Virginia Is Abandoned Last Night

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Sept. 6.—C. F. Keeny, president of district No. 17, United Mine Workers of America, in a telephone conversation with Governor Cornwell tonight, stated that the trouble at Coal River "unless the miners would call off the invasion of Logan county and would return to their homes on a special train tomorrow, Keeney left Charleston at noon in an automobile in an effort to deter the miners from proceeding further."

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Sept. 6.—Five hundred miners who left Oak Grove this morning to march across the mountains to Coal River where they said they intended to enforce unionization in mines were joined at Racine by 1,000 more men, according to word received by Governor John J. Cornwell, shortly before noon. All of the men are said to be armed. According to information received from a local coal operator, the coal operators of the Guyan field yesterday unloaded a car load of machine guns at different places in Logan county as means of preparation to meet the miners from the Kanawha and Coal River fields.

Details of three robberies in a week in the Tampico region have been received at the offices of the oil companies. The robbers secured $50,000 Mexican gold, American companies being the victims, and the robberies all took place in the territory where no one but Carranza troops are permitted to carry arms.

DEMAND EXACT AMOUNT. The robbers demanded the exact amount, according to the report, which was not known until the men carrying it and it was counted before the robbers would let their victims go. A Tampico bank made up a $50,000 pay roll of the Trans-Continental Oil Co. in an effort to thwart the robbers, and placed it in a box to be sent to the camp at Mata Redonda by launch. The Mexican authorities, who said to have delivered the departure of the launch unexpectedly for one night, and when it reached the camp, a box of old iron had been substituted for the original.

LAREDO, TEX., Sept. 6.—Americans enroute to the Tampico oil fields in Mexico here today, were presented with force affidavits, relinquishing all rights of themselves and heirs to claims against the Mexican government in event they met with mishaps while in Mexico.

GERMANS TRIED TO GET DRUGS TO KELLY FIELD

SCHEME DISCLOSED BY A SECRET SERVICE MAN

Smuggling Across Border Is Carried On Extensively, Is Report Made.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—Between $17,000,000 and $20,000,000 worth of goods are smuggled annually across the Mexican border, more than one-fourth of which are arms and ammunition, according to a statement issued here today by the National Association for the Protection of American Rights in Mexico, quoting Dr. P. B. Altendorf, former member of the United States military intelligence department, as authority.

Responsibility for the "deviltries" of Villa and other bandits was placed by Altendorf at the door of American manufacturers of arms and ammunition, who "work hand in hand with the smugglers." Incidentally, he declared that a renegade American was responsible for the attack on American troops at Carrizal in June, 1916, when two American officers and thirteen men were killed, and twenty-three wounded. Dr. Altendorf said that the Mexicans who made the attack were short of ammunition at the time but obtained supplies through the renegade, who he claimed, smuggled $165,000 worth across the border prior to the attack.

Smuggles Munitions of Villa and other bandits was placed his munitions," Dr. Altendorf said, "if that part of his supplies were cut off he would be forced out of business, for he could hardly keep a stock of 40 per cent he buys from Carranzistas. Doesn't it look as if the responsibility for Villa's deviltries came pretty close to the American manufacturers and dealers who supply the sixty per cent? And as the Carranzistas are worse, if that be possible, than the Villistas, and as they are in common with other bandit down there, must also depend entirely upon smuggling for supplies, does not the whole Mexican situation create a somewhat embarrassing situation of ethics for these same manufacturers and dealers?"

Renegade American

The renegade American mentioned by Dr. Altendorf was said by him to be an agent of the Mexican Consul Garza at Brownsville, Texas, and also to be a confidential envoy of Carranza while at one time he acted for Von Eckhardt, the German ambassador, to Mexico City, who was involved in the scheme for an attack on the United States by Mexico and Japan. This man is declared to have bought $36,000 worth of nickel in August, 1917, to prevent it falling into the hands of the Americans.

Dr. Altendorf said that there was one big drug store in Brownsville, which receives shipments of ammunition in boxes marked "drugs" and that another dodge resorted to by the smugglers was to conceal ammunition in watermelons so as to get it past the custom officials. "Usually," he said, "it does not seem worth while to take so much trouble, for there are such long stretches of unguarded territory that nothing much but laziness need drive a smuggler to take such risks."

"Villa Hard Pressed."

As an evidence that at present Villa is rather hard pressed, Dr. Altendorf declared that in March of the present year, the bandit's wife pawned her jewelry in San Antonio for $4,500.

Biaggi, of the Italian army.

and used the money to pick up a bar in ammunition.

The smuggling is far from being a one-sided affair, however, according to Dr. Altendorf. He said that one-third or more of the total amount represents goods smuggled from Mexico into the United States and that this includes great quantities of opium. The drug, according to the former government agent, comes to the west coast of Mexico in Japanese vessels and thence finds its way across country to the border. One smuggler reported by Dr. Altendorf was captured outside Nogales with 4,500 pounds of opium in an automobile truck.

"Morphine and cocaine," he continued, "are also smuggled extensively. Germans paid special attention to smuggling drugs into Kelly field, the aviation field near San Antonio during the war, the idea being to break down the American flying force, but it did not work."

Dr. Altendorf said that government agents along the border were doing the best they could but that they need help from "higher up," which was not forthcoming.

NEW EQUIPMENT FOR DEPARTMENT TO REDUCE RATE

INSTALLATION WILL MEAN BIG SAVING TO PROPERTY OWNERS OF CITY.
MAY FURTHER DECREASE

Expected That Key Rate Will Be as Low as Eighteen Cents by January First

When, with the installation of equipment for the fire department now contracted for by the city council, the insurance key rate of Wichita Falls drops from 26 to 21 cents, the city will hope a total credit of 17 cents on its key rate by reason of the fire department. Back in 1909, which saw the beginnings of the city's present fire department, the key rate was 33 cents, one of the highest, instead of being as now one of the lowest, of any city of its size in the state.

What this means in saving of insurance premiums, to say nothing of the protection to property rendered by the department, can be appreciated when it is understood that the premiums for the millions of insurance carried here are figured by adding the penalties for hazards to the key rate, in the case of business property, and to half the key rate in the case of residence property, the result being the premium on each thousand dollars of insurance carried. The city of Dallas, which is credited with having the largest and most thoroughly equipped department in the state, has the lowest key rate, its rate being 17 cents per thousand dollars of insurance. Fort Worth has a key rate of 18 cents, a number of places of importance in the state have key rates in the thirties, while the city of Paris tops the list with 40 cents.

When the number of firemen is brought up to that required of a city of this size for a standard department, 20, which is expected before the first of the year, the key rate for Wichita Falls will drop to 18 cents, one of the lowest in the state, and will give insurance holders in the city a total credit of 20 cents for its fire department, a reduction of more than half the existing rate at the time of the organization of the present department.

It is not expected that the city will have a rate of less than 18 cents for a number of years to come, at any rate, for the only credit that will then be lacking will require the burying of all electric and telephone wires and the installation of a large amount of fire mains, which it is not thought will be justified for some years to come.

FRIENDS TO URGE NAMING OF HARRELL FOR U. S. ATTORNEY

Wichita Falls friends of H. B. Harrell, assistant United States attorney, last evening started a boom for him for U. S. Attorney for the northern district of Texas to succeed Judge Odell, who has recently resigned.

While sheer has been considerable talk of the effect that Jed Adams, of Dallas, would succeed U. S. Attorney Odell in accordance with an agreement reached by Senators Culberson and Sheppard last May, the appointment of Mr. Harrell to the place would meet with approval here, where he has hundreds of friends and admirers. No appointment has been made as to Judge Odell's successor, and some of Mr. Harrell's friends are hopeful that he may yet be chosen for the important post.

Mr. Harrell was appointed assistant United States attorney soon after Mr. Odell's appointment and since then he has been in attendance every time federal court has met here. He is a veritable whirlwind as a prosecutor and has many convictions to his credit. It is he who works with the grand juries at the various terms, questions the witnesses, makes out the government's cases and handles much of the prosecution work in court.

For the last four or five years he has been making friends in this division of the court, it was pointed out by one of his admirers last night, and his appointment would be exceptionally popular.

TO HEAR WITNESSES FAVORABLE TO BILL TO CONTROL PACKERS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—Members of the Senate agricultural committee indicated today they will hear witnesses in favor of the Kenyon and Kendrick bills before making up their minds on the measure.

Chairman Gronna said today that farmers and many small cattlemen are unable to leave their work to come to Washington and that a recess of 30 days ought to be taken to give them time to appear.

"So far we have heard only three witnesses in favor of the bills," Senator Gronna said. "It does not prove that sentiment is opposed to these measures, but rather that the time chosen for the hearings is inopportune. If we can wait 30 days the real farmers will be able to appear and then we will hear the other side of the question."

At the close of three weeks of testimony, most senators on the committee are convinced that the backing industry needs some attention from Congress and the big questions what form this attention will take.

Wichita Falls Defeats Henrietta Team Saturday

In a game so crazy and lacking in pep and interest that even the players did not know it had gone but seven and a half innings, Leopold's Leopards won from the Henrietta team at Katy park yesterday afternoon by a score of 6 to 2.

The visitors were outclassed, but it was due to the wildness of Clowers more than to any brilliant playing on the part of the Wichitans that humbled the visitors. Excepting for his wildness and the loose support accorded him, he might have pulled out, but batted balls went for hits that should have been fielded, and the five passes he gave proved costly.

Moore on the other hand twirled a good game and at least two of the visitors' hits were lucky swats while a third should have been fielded with more dispatch.

Graves Features.

A running catch by Graves of Basham's line drive in the sixth was easily the fielding feature of the game. Thompson caught an excellent game, as did Covington.

It was Thompson's held throw that drove four of the local's six runs home. The big catcher placed a single and a double in the same place out back in center field. Ray Bourland got a double, too, while McFarland for the visitors put one way out for a three-bagger.

Mr. Sylvester evidently is not an umpire. Not one of the many fans there would have given him a recommendation as one, and the worst of it was, in the visitors' opinion, the most end of his decision, which is not very sportsman like, to say the least.

Umpire Reads Paper.

In the sixth, inning when a new paper blew into the field, the big lefthander threw work base won such favorable comment here, will twirl for the Leopards, while Douglas, who has always been able to jinx the Wichitans heretofore, will probably be one end of the visitors' battery.

"Rag" Home Team.

Incidentally, it might be remarked that the home team doubtless would play better ball if the fans would not continually "rag" most of the players. As far as known, knocking never won a ball game and the mere fact that somebody is picking the visiting team to win always, but increases the knocks on the home team and hurts baseball here.

Yesterday two passes, a sacrifice and a single netted two runs for the home team in the second. Graves and Powell walked and Menor laid down a perfect bunt, pushing both runners up a peg. Thompson singled over second and both men scored.

In the fourth with one out, Powell and Menor walked. Thompson doubled and they scored. Thompson went to third on a wild pitch and Moore walked. Haile fanned and Ray Bourland doubled, scoring Moore and Thompson, that was the local's last score.

Henrietta made one in the third. With one out, McFarland hit for three bases. He counted on Basham's out, second to first.

Clowers fanned. McMullin doubled down the first base line. McFarland singled, but was caught off first by a quick heave by

Moore, Fulwider and Ray Bourland running him down. Basham singled to right, McMullin scoring. Blades fanned and the players thought the game ended and left the park.

OWNERS MUST BE COMPENSATED FAIRLY

Suppose a case like this:

A number of years ago John Smith, a railroad man, located in Wichita Falls. Being a thrifty person he bought a home. In those days real estate was cheap, materials cost much less than today and labor was not so high.

The case of Smith mentioned above is a good deal the same as will be that of the owners of the railroads if the Plumb plan is adopted. One difference is that there is not the prosperous situation with the railroads that there is in Wichita Falls real estate and another is that while the railroads, some of them, have put back a part of their earnings into the roads Smith added no improvements to his house.

PROGRESS THROUGH DIPLOMACY

The American government appears to be making some progress in a diplomatic way with the Mexican government, and under pressure from the United States Mexico has recently taken several steps that may take it a long way in the direction of restoring order in Mexico and better relations with the United States and other foreign governments.

HAMBONE'S MEDITATIONS

MISS LUCY WANTED KNOW HOW BE OLE 'GAM LOOKIN' ATTEN SHE BIN SICK BE LAY PAS' WEEK—AM TOL' ER SHE LOOKIN' RIGHT POLY—SHE LOOK LAY SHE DONE FELL OFF BOY TWO HUNDRED POUNDS!

This is an important step. Payment of claims for damages ought to cause the Mexican government to use every possible precaution to prevent them, a thing it has not always done heretofore.

The next time we hear of Carranza declaiming against the United States we will wait to learn just what concession for the benefit of Mexico and citizens of foreign governments has been obtained by diplomacy.

Plumb—a term in American politics meaning appointment to public office through political preferment. "Plumb plan." Is there anything in the name?

PAYING THE PENALTY.

The announcement by the Wichita Falls Motor Company that it had bought a plant at Oklahoma City for the expansion of its business will be received with gratification mingled with regret by the people of Wichita Falls—gratification over the expansion of the company's business—regret that Wichita Falls is to divide this expansion with Oklahoma City.

The bare truth of the matter is that the Wichita Falls Motor Co. is expanding at Oklahoma City rather than in Wichita Falls because living conditions in Wichita Falls will not permit the expansion here. It is impossible for the motor company to expand without largely increasing the number of its employees. This has been tried in Wichita Falls without success. Skilled workmen such as the motor factory must employ demand houses to live in and rents that they can afford to pay. They have been unable to find them in Wichita Falls with the result that workmen who have been brought here have remained only a short time. It is impossible to build a great industry under such conditions.

The Wichita Falls Motor Co. is not the only important industry that is seeking expansion elsewhere. Other industries will be forced out of Wichita Falls by the lack of houses for the working man and by the exorbitant rents.

LET'S KEEP THE PROMISE.

The Waco Times-Herald says that Mr. Wilson in his Columbus speech told us something that nobody had ever told us before—that the League of Nations was formed, in fulfillment of the promise that the United States was fighting this war to "end bustiness of that sort" forever.

This promise was not only made but was repeated many times—it was made to young men enlisting in the military service. It was made to parents who gave their sons to their country, it was repeated in every Liberty Loan campaign and in every campaign to raise money for war activities. It is true that the vision was that of Woodrow Wilson but it was a promise that echoed the idealism of the American people.

Particular acts of aggression were the immediate occasion of the declaration of war against Germany but the people of the United States entered the war to stop forever the monstrous things for which Germany stood and practiced. Parents were willing to give their sons, the sons themselves were willing to make the sacrifice but it was their hope and the promise that was made them that their sacrifice would forever end these things.

The American people will be unfaithful if they fail to make a earnest effort to fulfill this promise.

The Times a few days ago carried a dispatch from Chicago telling that the National Socialist convention had adopted a declaration of principles unqualifiedly endorsing the soviet government of Russia and condemning the League of Nations. The same issue of the paper told how the bolshevik—the army of the soviets—had executed more than a thousand inhabitants of a Russian town with sledgehammers when they were forced to evacuate it. "Soviet" and "bolshevik" ought to have no place in America.

While data on other lines of industry and business is not available, a study of the charters filed shows an increasing number of commercial institutions of all kinds. Discover a Body 12 Feet in Length in Jackson, Mich.

JACKSON, MICH., Sept. 6.—What is thought to be the body of a prehistoric man 12 feet in length, was found buried in the yard of a Jackson policeman while excavating work was being done there Friday.

The body, it is said by physicians who examined it, is in a perfect state of preservation, even to the hair on the head and the teeth which show no signs of decay. The physicians gave it as their opinion that the body was genuine.

The spot where the body was found was occupied till a few years ago by a large mound of earth, it was said, and specimens of petrified animal and vegetable matters have been found there, supporting the pre-historic man theory.

The legs of the body are six feet long; the arms four. The head is round with a face nearly flat, while the skin is tightly drawn and resembles brown leather. A stake, rotted, protruded from the chest of the body which appeared mummified.

GRAHAM WELL IS PREPARED FOR SHOT; FLOWS BY HEADS

ARNOLD WELL MAINTAINS DAILY PROGRAM OF FLOWING IN SPURTS.

UNDERREAM BLAIR - HUGHES

Good Progress Made on Well of Humble Oil Company Now Drilling Around 1,000.

NEWCASTLE, Sept. 6.—The Texas Company's well on the M. K. Graham lease has been prepared for shooting, the tubing set and the hole swabbed as a test. When the bore is cleaned the oil speedily runs to 1,800 feet, and continues to flow by heads as it has every day for weeks. The Arnold well maintains its daily program of flowing in spurts. The tools have not been in the hole for two weeks so that caving has been practically eliminated.

have a considerable job ahead of them, hundreds of acres still being in the shock. Feed crops are nearly all cut and shocked and work being cleared up just as the cotton bolls begin to open generally. The pickers are busy from Archer City to Newcastle and all the rigs running full time. The weather is ideal for harvesting and picking, more like October days than the September brand usually served out in this section. Warm, clear, sunny days and cool nights. Fall plowing is in full swing. If Wichita Falls people knew what delightful cool nights the people have been enjoying for two weeks past they would wish to annex Newcastle for a sleeping porch.

Headmaster Melvin, who has just been appointed to supervise this division of the Katy, made an inspection of the track this week and announced that two large repair gangs could start about midnight and aim to be put to work at once, one from Lake Wichita southward and the second between Archer City and Olney, to put the roadbed in condition for fall and winter business.

Newcastle has a milk attack of skating rinkitis, since the floor in the new Majestic Theatre building was completed and anybody that is missing from his or her usual haunts is reported, "at the rink." The young folks are not allowed to monopolize all the pleasures and bumps.

The new theatre is a credit to Newcastle and H. B. Harris, the manager, is being congratulated by means of a record breaking patronage. His hotel, cafe and confectionery would have been completed by this time if material had not been delayed beyond all possible calculation. In another month this city will boast one of the finest hotels and most unique entertainment houses south of Wichita Falls over a wide expanse of territory. The most prosperous season in its history is assured to Newcastle and Young county, a condition in which Southern Archer and Throckmorton counties will share in a marked degree. A rig arrived here Thursday which will drill a gas well near the Mahatten company's well on the Johnson lease. They plan to tap the heavy flow encountered, in sinking the other hole at a depth of 480 feet. It was estimated that more than a million feet a day was produced before it was cased off.

MID-KANSAS WELL IN STEPHENS COUNTY REPORTED ON SAND

The Mid-Kansas Graham No. 1 in the center of Section 1038 Texas Emigration Company survey, one mile east of Ivan in Stephens county is reported to be on the sand. Reports received here did not state the depth at which the sand was found. The well, if it is a producer, will make an important extension of the pool in the northeastern part of Stephens county.

GO TO WITNESS THE BRINGING IN OF WELLS

W. E. Norton and Fred Schmann, Jr., have gone to Ranger, where they will attend the bringing in of several wells of the Leon Oil Company on the Allen lease, close to the famous Norwood and Perkins wells. The Leon Oil Company is owned principally by Wichita, including W. J. McCallister, W. E. Norton, W. D. Cline, Guy Brown and G. P. Adams. The company has seven wells drilling at present, five on the Allen tract, and three nearing completion.

COMPANY IS ORGANIZED BY AMARILLO CITIZENS

AMARILLO, TEX., Sept. 6.—The Amarillo Petroleum Company has just recently been organized in this city, with a capitalization of $150,000, fully paid, and with holdings in the Amarillo field to the extent of 3,200 acres, located south of the Canadian River and east of the Trigg holdings. Derrick and rig have already been placed and the company expects to spud in their first well within the next two weeks. Drilling is now delayed on account of non-arrival of material, which they expect to receive any day. Their first well will be located on section 15, A. B. & M., block M.3.

The organizers of this new company are W. E. Herring, W. O'Brien, F. E. Durham, J. H. Pritchard, John Brownlee, J. W. Sherman, J. Levy, and J. W. McQueen, all of this city, and J. F. Jacobs of Bartlesville, Oklahoma, from whom the company's acreage was secured. Mr. Jacobs is a man of long experience in the oil business, having once been connected with the Standard Oil Co., and will be in charge of the drilling.

TWO HUNDRED QUART CASK OF CORN WHISKEY IS SEIZED BY OFFICERS

BROWNSVILLE, Sept. 6.—United States customs officers today seized a 200 quart cask of fresh corn whiskey, alleged to have been smuggled across the Rio Grande. The barrel was hidden in a load of corn wood, in charge of a Mexican, who said he had been paid $10 to haul it. Appearances indicated the barrel had been floated across the Rio Grande just before it was seized. The driver was seized and the other arrests may be made later today, officers said.

ATTENDING TO CHICKENS AND GARDEN.

"My neighbors are surprised to see me looking so well, for they thought I would not live to see summer. I had such pain around my heart as to cause me to faint. I know it came from bloating and pressure of gas in my stomach. A friend in St. Louis told me to use Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and I now feel better than in all my life. I am doing my own work, attending to my chickens and my garden and have cleaned house." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.—Mack Taylor and druggists everywhere.

Caught by Camera at Recent McCalister Barbecue

COLONEL GOODNIGHT SHY OF PHOTOGRAPHER

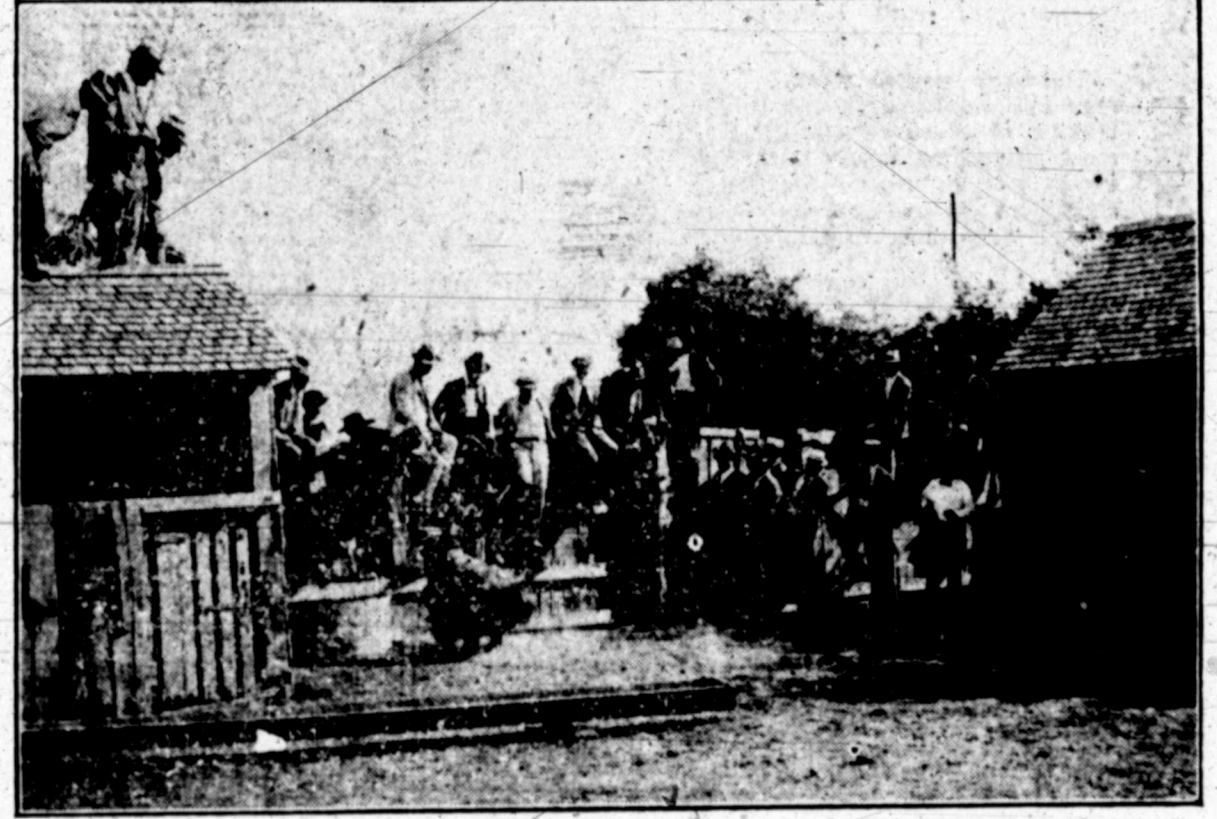

Colonel Goodnight fought shy of the photographer, with the result that the photographer had to get him off his guard. He is seen here seated under one of the big old trees which surround the Goodnight ranch house, in conversation with some of the guests at the Karakule Bill barbecue last Monday. Colonel Goodnight, like his friend, Pat Doolan, also celebrated Indian fighter and plainsman, is averse to publicity. Monday he was all over the place, to see that everybody had a good time, and admonishing them not to be too shy with the buffalo meat and other edibles. Colonel Goodnight is an experienced host at barbecues, and he and Mr. McCalister saw to it that this big affair was a success as far as their efforts could make it. That their efforts had the desired effect is the unanimous decision of all the guests.

PARTY THAT MADE FLIGHT ON TRIP TO GOODNIGHT RANCH

Mr. McCalister, the host, Mrs. E. E. Sanders, and Colonel E. D. Steger of Bonham, with Messrs. Erwin, McDonald and Erwin of the Erwin Airplane Company made a part of the flight to the ranch by airplane. Lack of gasoline forced them to land at Childress, and a shortage of the joy juice at that place delayed them until after dark, so the flying was abandoned and the three joy riders boarded the train for the remainder of the trip, leaving the pilots to fly on to the ranch in the morning.

GUESTS ENJOYING ANTICS OF "WILD BILL"

This is the ram that lives on the ranch that Bill bought. There are doubtless been many thrilling tales told by Wichitans regarding their experiences with this ram, so far be it from us to take any of their glory away. So this chapter closes.

FEW OF THE NOTED HERD OF BUFFALO

A corner of the buffalo corral, and a few of the big herd that has helped to make the Goodnight Ranch famous. There are on the ranch more than three hundred of these shaggy animals, survivors of the vast herds that once roamed the plains of Texas. No, the animal in the foreground is not the one which was barbecued, snapped after his decapitation. This buffalo merely decided to investigate a coodle on his right front leg at the time the photographer shot. He might have also had a personal objection to having his face appearing in print. Who knows?

NEW YORK CROWNS OIL AS KING AND BIDS FOR TEXAS OPERATORS

New York is making a bid for a part of the time of the Texas oil men, many of whom are becoming almost as familiar with the big town as with the Texas world-be metropolises and an evidence of this is the advertisement of welcome to the oil men which the Harriman National Bank inserted in the New York Evening Post a week or so ago, a copy of which W. R. Duke brought with him on his return from New York as an unusual example of the reception that the oil developers of Texas have made upon the large and conservative financial institutions of the east. The advertisement declares, "It used to be cotton. It has been coal. Steel has held the throne. Railways, exercised all the power, but finally, and today Oil is King. Oil is them decidedly agreeable. They are men of force, character and without veneer, and they possess the quality of true men that is characteristic of the true American. Deeply interested in Texas oil, but has grown wary of any proposition except that which lays all the cards on the table, Mr. Duke says. Literally thousands of persons have gone to New York with every conceivable kind of oil proposition. Mr. Duke says he is informed by John Duane, president of the association of New York curb brokers organized to investigate and keep off the boards non-meritorious oil stocks. Mr. Duane, a multi-millionaire, and heavily interested in oil; Mr. Duke added, says he has been visited by as many as ten different people with various oil propositions, in one day. Some of these schemes were amusing, by reason of the ignorance of the people; he stated, and practically none of them would stand up under investigating. "Million dollar propositions that can

DISTRESSING CONDITIONS REPORTED FROM POLAND

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—Conditions in Poland, due to lack of food, clothes, medical aid and hospitals, are described graphically in a message just received by the Overseas Committee of the Y. W. C. A. from Lois Downs of Pittsburgh, head of the Y. W. C. A. Commission to that stricken country. This mission went into Poland several months ago to investigate conditions and discover how members of the Polish Grey Samaritan unit which had been trained for reconstruction and social work in their native land might best be used to advantage. Miss Downs tells of a trip into the Department of the East—territory that is being taken from the bolshevik. "It is just impossible for me to give you any idea of the utter lack of food, houses, clothes, medical aid, hospitals—everything," she writes. "I saw many sick, hungry, uncared-for children that were too weak to eat or cry. I saw many children in all sorts of conditions and only heard six crying. It sounds unbelievable. Men, women, children, horses and cows, if a family is lucky enough to have them, are all living together in dugouts, in box cars, in open wagons, along the roads in the open with no covering or shelter from the heavy rains. Refugee camps have, at best, only a bare wooden platform for each family. All these camps are filled with typhus, smallpox and cholera. In one hospital 66 cases of dysentery broke out within two days. Men, women and children were all lying on the floor in small airless rooms with only one dirty blanket. At the same camp we found a ward filled with badly wounded soldiers suffering from dreadful lung, head and stomach wounds. The surgeon, a splendid man who spoke English perfectly, had operated on these men without an anesthetic. I saw an eight-year old girl stand up and have iodine put on her hand, which had been blown off by a hand grenade and never make one cry. "Poland is surely in dire need of relief and workers. Everyone here is in great need of normal recreation. The women and girls are dreadfully nervous as the result of years of fear. One simply cannot keep them from continually discussing horrors. "Very few factories are running so that the girls who formerly worked in them are now doing public work with the men—clearing up buildings that have been burned or blown up by the Russians and Germans, helping in the public gardens and such things. I did see some women and girls working in a factory outside of Warsaw. They were carding wool and received less than a dollar a day. Conditions in the factory were most primitive. The girl simply came in, hung up her shawl on anything handy and went to work. Few of them wore more than one garment. None of them had shoes or stockings. "I visited a club of business girls the other evening and with great difficulty got them to play some games and forget the serious things they ordinarily discuss. In the end I was swamped with requests for classes in English and stenography. "The advance unit of Polish Grey Samaritans arrives in Warsaw tomorrow and will go to work the next day. We have had difficulty in arranging their work as there are so many things to do. Mme. Paderewka wants them to train some of the Warsaw girls for canteen work. The minister of public health wants them to help nurses in the epidemic hospitals and the military hospitals wants them, too. We are anxious that they be used to the best advantage, and in the meantime have the cooperation of Mme. Paderewka and of all the government officials. "For some time Miss Downs has been doing Americanization work with foreign-born people in Pittsburgh as director of the Y. W. C. A. International Institute there.

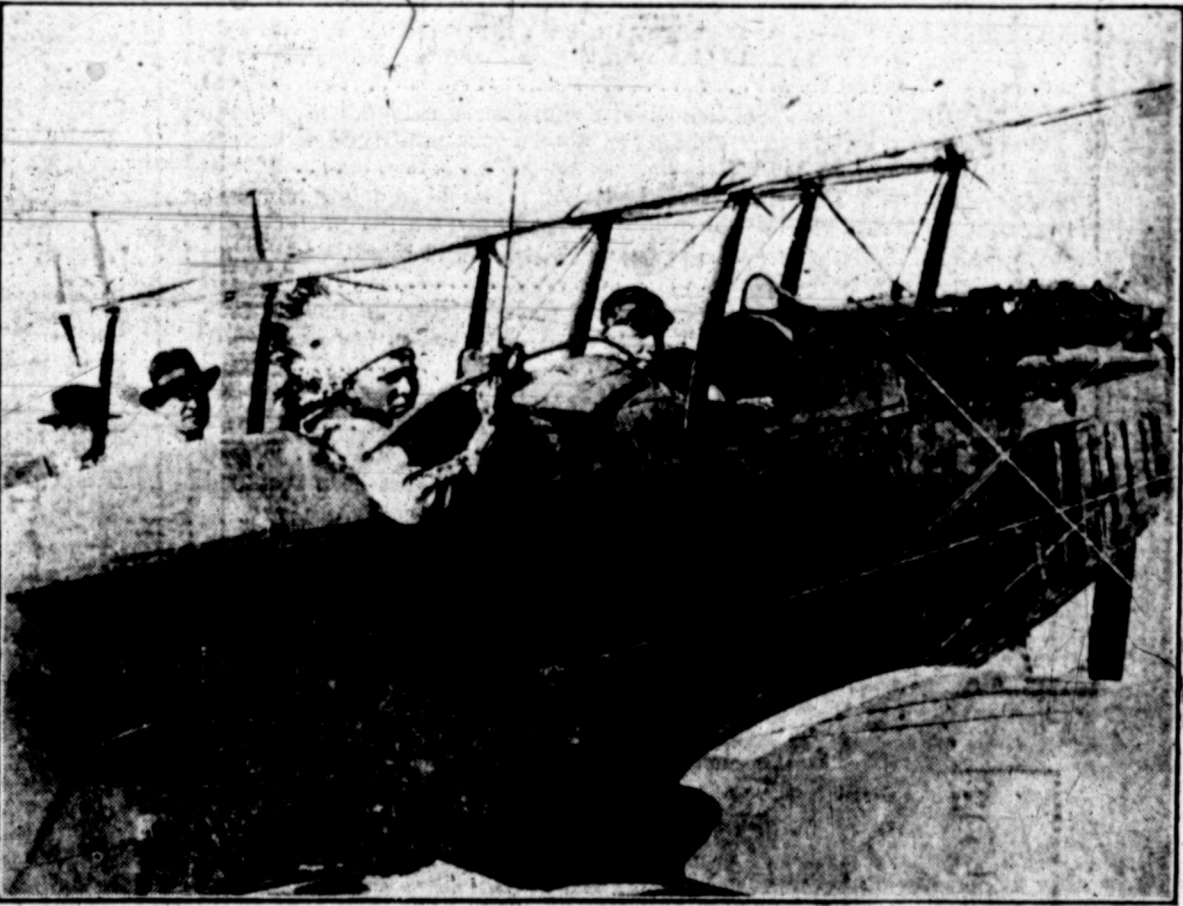

The men who direct the affairs of the National Bank of Commerce are progressive, successful men who have won public confidence by their integrity and ability. Your best interests will be fully protected if you bank with this institution.

PROVIDE LEMONADE MADE IN THE SHADE

"Lemonade, made in the shade; stirred with a— nice clean pitchfork, quenched the thirst of the hundreds at the barbecue. J. A. Greener of Leola Lake made the lemonade and made it so good that there were many demands for "encore". He also wielded the pitchfork in a professional manner.

BRINGING OUT NOTABLE CONTRAST OF HISTORY

Kiowa Charley, (he is a college graduate and speaks much better English than the average Texan, but his real name doesn't sound near so picturesque as this appellation) hunted the buffalo with primal bow and arrow, shooting from an airplane, driven by Captain William F. Erwin. Some more contrast and local color.

Many of them are straight in line and loosely belted to emphasize their youthfulness.

Furs, in many instances, lend themselves to pockets, cuffs and the modish stand-up, throw and shawl collars.

Profuse braiding, buttons and elaborate embroidery in flat stitch or French knots, embellish many of the models.

A BEAUTIFUL BACK

Need not be envied. In most cases it is simply the result of careful corseting. Women who prefer front lace Corsets naturally think of

"La Camille"

Front Lacing Corsets when deciding on the corset that will best care for their figures. La Camille Corsets keep the abdomen perfectly in place and prevent bulging, a much criticised drawback of ordinary front lace corsets. Instead, La Camille actually flattens the abdomen by means of Ventilo Front Shield, a device which enables the corset to be laced more firmly, prevent flesh from protruding between the laces and insures ventilation. The Ventilo Back insures perfect ventilation and relieve the spine of all injurious pressure. We invite you to inspect the new Fall modes. La Camille Corsets are priced from $3.50 to $20.00

 No. 2.—Newly completed home of Mr. and Mrs. Norris Martin, corner of Eleventh and Harrison.
 No. 3.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Clint Wood is considered one of the show-places of all Northwest Texas, and has just recently been completed. It occupies a commanding site on Tenth street, at the Brook intersection.
 No. 4.—One of the most unusual and attractive homes in the city from an architectural standpoint is that of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Perkins, 1800 Tenth street.
 No. 5.—This Spanish or mission style residence at 710 Van Buren is the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hayne, among the newcomers to the city. The house and grounds are exceptionally attractive, having been built and planned by Orville Bullington and wife, who sold the property last spring.
 No. 6.—Noticeably attractive on a street of attractive homes is the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Norton. Tastefully arranged grounds lend an additional charm to the handsome building.
 No. 7.—The M. J. Bashara home, Tenth and Van Buren, was one of the first fine homes constructed in the city, and remains as one of the most attractive, though there are a large number of beautiful residences completed, or under construction now.
 No. 8.—Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Adams have one of the most beautiful homes in the city, completed this spring. Situated on Brook and Huff Avenue, it has a most attractive location, and the stately colonial architecture, combined with the commanding site, makes it one of the most imposing residences in Wichita Falls.
 No. 9.—The R. O. Harvey home has been completed for about two years. Cornering on Tenth and Brook it arouses comment from visitors and newcomers for its exceptional beauty.

NIGHT LIFE IN WICHITA FALLS PRESENTS ACTIVE PICTURE AND DIFFERENT FROM EARLIER DAYS

One by one the lights go out. Hurrying pedestrians become fewer and fewer. The clang of street car gongs dies out. The honk of the auto horn is few and far between. The odor of gasoline lifts and the noise of switching locomotives becomes more distinct and grating as the buzz of other noises, the day noises, ceases. Street lights flicker and flare as a myriad of bugs swarm about them. The tramp of heels on the sidewalk sounds loud, while the words of lounge-ers in low converse can be heard plainly.

The restaurants empty. The theaters close. Groups of taxi drivers gather and discuss their fares and the ill luck, or the fortune, that befalls them. City goes to bed.

Lights in the show windows go out, and a city-Wichita goes to bed, or rather, that part of it which does not stay up all night, goes to bed.

When this reporter was assigned to write the story of "night life in Wichita" he did not know what he was doing. He did not know there was very much night life in a city that is just passing the 60,000 milestone of its mushroom growth. But he found out some things.

Probably you, tucked in between the sheets if it's not too hot and sleeping more justly, possibly, than you deserve, do not know that there are hundreds of people here who toil by night and sleep by day. But there are.

Many on Duty.

There are hotel clerks and porters and bell boys. There are cooks and waiters almost legion, for fully ten restaurants remain open all night. There are half a dozen or more guardians of the law, the police, who watch over you and yours in the hours when you are off guard, as it were. There are the street sweepers and the multitude of railroad men in, nearly every brand of transportation. Druggists, who if they do not stay up all night, are up all hours of the night filling prescriptions. There are doctors, and men at the other end of life's journey, the undertaker, who may be up all night and who may be lucky enough not to be. There are the sweet young "centrals." There are printers and newspaper men who stick it out until around 3 o'clock before they call it a day and turn in. There are bakers and baggagemen. And then, a short distance from the city, out in the oil fields, labor never ceases.

All Will Be Found.

The glare of the lights, the constant hum of machinery, the clank of tools, the skil of steel as it rubs steel, the harsh notes and tones of voices—labor and the per-ification of labor, all of it you will find out in the forest of grease-scarred derricks where men toil continuously to rob the earth of its riches with their magic of exploitation.

Night life is not new to Wichita Falls, but it is new to the new Wichita. In "the good old days" there used to be all-night saloons, all-night lowdown and lawlessness, all-night sin and all-night shame. Going back to the "wide-open days," when gambling was rampant, the town never closed.

Comes Early Closing.

Then came the 9:30 o'clock closing law and Wichita forgot some of its night life. The blare of mechanical music did not rent the atmosphere so frequently. There was less "whooping it up" and order prevailed to a greater degree than in the days when Wichita's chief aim was as it were town. There were, during that period of the city's development, some night workers, but they were the exception.

Now of nights, if that is permissible, night work is the rule with any number of people, and not the exception.

But, what a difference! Telemachery has given way to commercialism and industry. Gone are the times when fellows stayed up all night for the joy of it, the novelty in the experience, or for the sake of a quiet little game of poker. Gone, too, are most of the men of that sort. Their personalities and habits and modes of living of those days have been merged into business demeanors and money making, not money spending, habits.

They, like the embryo butterfly, have burst the cocoon and have learned to fly without the aid of old stimulants and old, degrading habits.

Stays Up to Work.

Now, the fellow who stays up all night, does so to work. He is clear and not a hang-over. He is a doer and not a hanger-on.

That era of the city's history when it was in the midst of a night boom, when men had "gone stark mad for the snuck called gold," and out with all of its silliness and coarseness, was on every tongue—that time when people were glad to pay a dollar for a chair to sit in all night—it, too, has passed. Usually, now, a bed can be had. The city has found itself and can care for its night traffic as it cares for its day traffic.

Soon, with the great volume of building being done, there will be no excuse, other than business and work, to keep one up during the night. But the night life had come to stay, for it is a night life that counts, that fits in and that carries on in order-rotation, the work left off when the "day men" quit.

That is the night life in Wichita.

HEALTH OF COUNTY WILL BE PROTECTED BY APPROPRIATION

When the county commissioners meet tomorrow an appropriation of $5,000 will be made toward the Rockefeller foundation fund for making a health survey and conducting a clean-up campaign in Wichita county. Two of the commissioners already have expressed themselves as favorable to the plan and the appropriation, and it is known that Judge Jones is in line behind the proposition, so even at the event the other two commissioners would be adverse to making the appropriation, and it is not thought they are, there would still be a majority vote in favor of it.

It is expected that the appointment of a director of public health for the county will be made in the near future and that the work of cleaning up the county and making it more sanitary and healthful will begin within a few weeks, or as soon as the ap-

USE OF MARKED MONEY TO CATCH BOOTLEGGER

The use of marked money assisted the police in catching two negro bootleggers Friday afternoon. A man was sent to a local hotel with marked bills. He bought two half-pints of whiskey, or what passes for whiskey in this day of dryness.

Later the negroes were arrested. The marked money was found upon them. Saturday they were turned over to the federal authorities.

Following the summer vacation adjournment the Wesley Girls have resumed their meetings, holding the first business session on Friday, September 6, with Mrs. S. Barnes as hostess. The routine business was transacted and at the close of the afternoon the hostess served refreshments of ice cream and cake. Those present included: Miss Humphrey, Mesdames Campbell, Wallace, Bullington, Bauch, Cyrus, Trawick, White, Billingsley, Kufner, Drake and Taylor. The club will be entertained next Friday at the home of Mrs. K. E. Bauch, 1617 Eleventh street, with Mrs. Groves' Ballington as joint hostess with Mrs. Bauch.

FORMER WICHITAN ONE OF HOSTESSES AT AMARILLO

The Wichita Falls ladies who were guests of honor at the Tea Room at Amarillo on Monday evening, when the McCallister special went to the Panhandle city, following the Goodnight Buffalo Barbecue, were delighted to meet a former Wichitan, Mrs. J. L. Harvey, as one of the hostesses. Until July Mr. and Mrs. Harvey resided in Wichita Falls, but Mr. Harvey's oil interests have taken him to Amarillo, and they are now at the Amarillo Hotel. The informal hospitality of Amarillo was much enjoyed by the Wichitans, the ladies going to the tea room, following the drive over the city, while the men were guests of the commercial club at a smoker, and later the entire party met at the Elk's home, where a dance was in progress.

MISS HELEN HINES TO OPEN A STUDIO

Miss Helen Hines, talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hines, who for several years, while a student in the Texas Woman's College was prominent in musical circles in Fort Worth, and in much demand as an entertainer, will remain in Wichita Falls during this winter, according to her present plans. During her high school days in this city, Miss Hines was spoken of as possessing much talent—dramatic and vocal, and the early predictions for her success have been more than fulfilled. She is to have a studio for the teaching of oratory and singing this winter in her home, and her work will be followed with interest by her many friends. Miss Hines is a pupil of Andrew Hemphill, well known teacher of singing, who has a studio in Fort Worth, and last year he had the distinction of being his accompanist, and also assisting him in his downtown studio. Her last studies in oratory were with Jessie Millspaugh, Curry graduate, of Texas Woman's College.

ANNOUNCEMENT PARTY WEDNESDAY EVENING

The interesting announcement that on September 12, Miss Audrey Adickes, daughter of Mrs. M. M. Adickes of this city and one of the most popular members of the younger set, will become the bride of James Hood Barnard, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Barnard, prominent local family, was made on Wednesday, September 3, Miss Berenice Jackson being the hostess, with the occasion ostensibly an open meeting of the newly organized morning bridge club. The groom to be has been returned from France only a short time, having served as lieutenant of infantry with the Thirty-sixth Division, remaining in France and England for a special tour of the continent and of the British Isles. The bridge game occupied the early part of the morning, and then as an inkling of what was in store came a miniature wedding, with little Josephine Bell, niece of the hostess, and

Jack Murchison as bride and groom, while Mrs. Ben M. Bell played the wedding march. A number of friends and relatives, who were not present for bride game, arrived for the juvenile wedding, and for the luncheon course, at which time the announcement was made. Miss Jackson's decorative notes were roses, and floral arrangement of rose dahlias in ivory baskets of graceful design being most attractive. The favors repeated the color scheme, the honoree's gift from the hostess being silken lingerie in rose, while the high score favor, won by Miss Kathleen Blair of Dallas, was a rose French touches. The announcement was made on a heart shaped scroll, tied with white tulle bows to the long stemmed ice glasses. The luncheon tables were adorned with bud vases, holding flowers. A two course luncheon, with salad and ice course, was served. With the announcement a huge cluster of American beauty roses was given, the bride-elect, the remembrance of her fiancé for the occasion, which was her birthday, as well as the date of her engagement announcement. The engagement diamond in its box was in the cluster of roses. Miss Adickes wore a striking frock of white pussy willow tulle, with touches of emerald green. Her hat was of black taffeta. Misses Kathleen Blair and Louise Maupin of Dallas, close friends of the bride, who are to be of the wedding party, were in the city for the announcement, as was Mrs. Wiley Blair Jr., also of Dallas, cousin of the bride. Miss Hae Rominger of Fort Worth, was another out of town guest. Miss Jackson was assisted in entertaining by her mother, Mrs. J. L. Jackson, and sister, Mrs. Ben M. Bell.

The guest list included: Misses Mable and Ruth Simpson, Ruby Moore, Pauline Richolt, Elizabeth Patterson, Grace Tancers, Lucile Tancers, Leicham, Louise, Leicham, Marion Maar, Ka'hleen Blair, Louise Maupin, Adele Adickes, Ellen Adelo Robertson, Cecelia Adickes, Sadie Adickes, Willis May Kell, Frankie Adickes, Sibyl Kell, Retta Barnard, Hal Rominger, Mesdames M. M. Adickes, H. G. England, N. Gaffney, C. J. Barnard, E. M. Kemp, Frank Kell, Wiley Blair, Carter McGregor, A. T. Burns, B. M. Bell, Lindsey Bibb, Mary Boyd, Robertson, Clarence Moore, John O'Donohoe, P. Richardson, R. K. Pond, Ivan Murchison, John T. Thomas, H. B. Patterson and Smith Langford.

WICHITANS PROMINENT AT LOS ANGELES

Out in Los Angeles, Wichita Falls oil folks are being taken notice of, according to an item appearing in the Los Angeles Times of last Sunday, which recorded a dinner given at the Hotel Alexandria by Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Silk, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Baasara. There were forty guests, all residents of Wichita Falls, now summering on the Pacific coast, though the Los Angeles reporter has these "former residents." The item follows: "That the wells in and around Wichita Falls, Texas, have made many millionaires was evidenced last night when Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Silk and Mr. and Mrs. J. Baasara, prominent in the oil business of Texas, entertained a number of former residents of Wichita Falls and their wives at a banquet at the Alexandria Hotel. There were forty persons seated at the table in the main dining room and it is reported that no fewer than $75,000,000 was represented by those present. Practically all this money was made in the oil industry of Texas.

YOU CAN'T TELL HOW ITS GOING TO COME OUT

Folk who are good at guessing the outcome of movie plots after the first few scenes have been shown on the screen, will find themselves entirely at a loss to predict the outcome of "Love and the Woman," the new World Picture, which is scheduled for showing on Thursday at the Plaza airdome. June Elvidge is the star of this production, appearing in two distinct, decidedly dramatic roles. This is a picture you will long remember. Be sure to see it.

"SANDS OF SACRIFICE" AT THE GEM ON FRIDAY

William Russell, the athletic star of the motion picture firmament, who is widely recognized as the chosen hero of photodrama, goes in for some wonderful desert adventures in "Sands of Sacrifice," American-Mutual production. Rendered desperate by doubts, "Big Bill" Darcy, the character to which Russell appears, and his little pal, Sammy Goode, take to the wide sandy spaces, there adventuring until the weaker of the two dies of disease and exhaustion and "Big Bill" staggers, ragged and nearly barefooted, back to the settlement. Scientifically the play is one of the most spectacular in which Mr. Russell has ever appeared. The production is a photographic as well as an artistic triumph. Mr. Russell is seen at his best in "Sands of Sacrifice."

WILLIAM FARNUM AT THE GEM THURSDAY

Do you love a Farnum fight? Did you see his screen battles in "When Man Sees Red," "The Rainbow Trail," and other big pictures? The fights in those productions sink into insignificance when compared with the battles in his new de luxe production, "The Man Hunter," which will be shown at the Gem theater next Thursday. For Mr. Farnum shows you not only one fight, but three, in this picture, and it is hard to say which one he does best.

You will be interested in each of these fights because each has a big powerful reason behind it. Every one of them thrills, but in two Mr. Farnum comes off second best, because in the first the police get him and in the second the officers of a ship arrest him and claim him up in the hold of the vessel. But the third battle is the one you will most heartily applaud, for on a desert island with only a pretty, wealthy girl as a witness, the villain meets his just end. Besides being a stirring story, the play has exceptional photography, exquisite scenes being shown on both land and sea.

CLARA KIMBALL YOUNG IN "MAGDA" AT PLAZA

"Magda," the new Select release in which Clara Kimball Young achieves a distinct triumph, is the story of a young girl unkindly thrust into the world by an overbearing and dictatorial father, how she works out her own salvation and in the end wins to peace and happiness. As an offering on the legitimate boards, "Magda" ranks almost as a classic and the screen production in which Miss Young will be seen next Monday and Tuesday at the Plaza airdome is a finished piece of picture art, well calculated to please the most capricious critic.

As an emotional role Magda provides the star with a powerful vehicle. The play is intensely dramatic founded on the struggle of the daughter to maintain her individuality in opposition to her father's wishes, and its incidents move along smoothly to the big final scene when Fate intervenes for the harried girl. Magda is a charming and beautiful girl with a promising voice. Her father, the old world type of domestic tyrant, is approached by his minister who wishes to marry the girl, but Magda brooks her father's anger and rejects the good man's advances. Her father gives her the alternative of complying with his wishes or leaving a home elsewhere. Magda holding to her rights is thrust out of doors. Ten years later a great musical festival is planned for the town and the heroine of the famous prima donna, Madeline Dall Orto, is secured. The diva who is met by the governor and showered with attentions, proves to be none other than Magda. Now wealthy and successful she is a very different person from the miserable child who was forced out upon the charity of strangers years before. Her father effects a reconciliation and she returns home during her stay. Magda stipulates that no questions be asked as to her past life and the old man grudgingly accepts the condition. It proves an unhappy arrangement, however, for Magda, used to the ways of the outer world proves a continual shock to her strait-laced family and their neighbors, and it becomes more and more difficult for the old man to accept her as she is.

The climax comes when she meets her girlhood betrayer in her father's home. Von Kellner bears an excellent reputation in the town and is anxious to avoid an expose of his past, but her father stumbles on their meeting and learns the truth. From here events move rapidly to the big denouement in a way to keep the spectator breathless with interest.

CAPTAIN JACK FLETCHER RETURNS TO CITY AND IS TO PRACTICE PROFESSION

Captain Jack Fletcher, a resident of Wichita Falls of 15 years ago, has returned and will make this city his home.

Capt. Fletcher is a veteran of the Spanish-American war, being one of the first 15 men who landed in Cuba when the American army invaded that island in 1898. He also took part in the suppression of the Philippine insurrection from 1898 to 1901, returning to the United States with the rank of first sergeant of infantry. During the late war with Germany he was commissioned a captain of artillery and served over a year in France as commander of Battery "F," 131st F. A.

Capt. Fletcher is a doctor by profession and will open an office as soon as he can find a suitable location. There is no better way of investing the money you save than by depositing it in a savings account or certificate of deposit with the National Bank of Commerce, which pays a per cent interest and provides the highest form of safety.

Items of Interest to "Movie" Fans

It has been arranged that the Pueblo Indians at Laguna, N. M., will do one of their feasts dances that few white men have seen for Carlyle Blackwell's new production.

Myrtle Sterman, who long has been absent from the screen, at least as a star, will play the role of Cherry Malotte in Rex Beach's screen version of his novel, "The Silver Horde."

Work has begun by a Goldwyn cast on "The Cup of Fury," by Rupert Hughes, first of the series of Eminent Authors, Inc., productions.

The name of Elsie Janis' first movie, which she now is making for Selznick, has been changed from "Everybody's Sweetheart," to "A Regular Girl."

House Peters will be featured in "Love, Honor and Obedy," a story by Monte Katterjohn, who also is producer.

Remember the song, "Good-by Broadway, Hello France?" Its author, Chuck Reiner, now is associated with Charlie Chaplin. They were friends back in London.

Kitty Gordon has grown blasé about pictures and will turn her famous back on them for the stage.

Realizing there's room for improvement in screen titles, Goldwyn has decided to empanel a jury to pass on its output at the studio.

With the exhibition of her feature film, "Deliverance," Helen Keller plans to make several personal appearances in important cities.

The "pitchers" have at last captured Eddie Rickenbacher, greatest of American war aces. He's arranging terms with one of the big California companies.

Only a year ago Irene Rich was a 15-a-day extra girl. Today she's Duse.

Thomas Hardy's famous novel "Tess of the D'Urbervilles," will be filmed by Metro, but probably not under that name.

"The Best of Luck" is the first of five Drury Lane melodramas just purchased in England to be filmed by Metro.

Jack Gilbert finished an engagement with Mary Pickford in "Heart of the Hills" and shut himself out of another temporarily by damaging his classic features in a basket ball game.

Theodore Kosloff, the Russian dancer, will play the name part in Paramount's filming of the stage spectacle, "The Wanderer."

"Kitty Kelly, M. D." will be Beaulieu Barricade's eighth picture for Robertson-Cole.

Richard Barthelmess, who was a "chink" in D. W. Griffith's "Broken Blossoms," is a Mexican bandit in that producer's newest, not yet issued.

A story of Alaskan adventure, with lots of extra hazardous stuff, will be Pearl White's first picture for William Fox.

For gallantry on the Lower Play where he drove an American ambulance, Charles K. Brown of Alla Novova's company has received by the Italian war-cross from King Victor Emanuel of Italy.

Soft Satins and Rare Bits of Lace Create Frocks of Distinction—

The most pleasing shades of the Autumn Season when Nature turns from her verdant casts to rich colorings that defy imitation, find expression in the Autumn Dresses. The nearest rivals to the pleasing colors of the Falltime, are the fabric colorings. The few women whose privilege it has been to see already the display of dresses arranged for your inspection, have with one accord pronounced them exquisite, and truly the most pleasing array that they have seen in years. The silhouette this season continues to follow the slender straight lines of the season passed, but pretty novelty effects are made possible by attractively fitted bodices, lapels and collars of redingote dresses and smart long-waisted modes. Ankle length dress skirts or an inch or two shorter prevail. You will note very little trimming on most of the skirts. The sleeves for the street and tailored models are quite tight, but the other types afford changes in shorter flowing sleeves.

The New Suits

Our Suit Display is a revelation to the style-loving. We have endeavored since our business was established to provide the women of this community with the season's most authentic and extensive display, and we have never fallen short to this time, neither shall we this year. Literally a host of pretty styles are to be worn through the months to come, with coats ranging from thigh-length to knee-length. Semi-fitted models and low waisted belters are popular. Fur will trim many suits of the better grades, and many times fur will cover collars and cuffs. We have models that are too elaborate and others too charmingly simple to be properly described. But we assure you that they are of a kind to please the most particular and style fastidious women. Prices are moderate this season, though they can't last through the Winter. The Fall opening shall serve to acquaint you with these splendid modes.

FALL DRESS FABRICS

The woolen markets today are typical of the unique situation in which the entire textile industries find themselves this season. Woolens are very scarce.

In spite of this, we have been rewarded for our diligent marketing by being able to display dress fabrics in quite a complete assortment. Every fabric we show is an aristocrat among textiles, and its quality is absolutely unquestionable. We accepted no second-rate fabrics in lieu of what we ordered and failed to get in some places. Dress fabrics are the same as those favored for suits, viz: Duvetyns, Velours, Tricotines and Serges. See them Monday.

The Newest Millinery Modes offer much diversity in styling

The charm of simple, but tasteful ornamentation and classic lines is definitely expressed in this showing of Autumn Millinery. Attractive colorings, rich fabrics and artistic designing have been combined to make your Fall chapeau a thing of beauty and a joy forever.

Ladies' Stylish Footwear

Nowhere can you find such beauty of style, excellence of quality and variety of shapes in fine footwear for women as shown at this store. The makes are all the best and as a graceful shoe gives tone to a handsome costume, your footwear is as much a matter of attention as gloves.

PROTEST EMBARGO AGAINST SHIPMENTS TO WICHITA FALLS

TELEGRAM IS SENT TO REGIONAL DIRECTOR BUSH BY SECRETARY HARRISON.

FAR REACHING IN EFFECT

Possible That a Delegation Will Visit St. Louis to Discuss Matter With Bush.

Shipping and the Wichita Falls industries dependent on shipping, is again paralyzed by the most far-reaching embargo order ever declared against Wichita Falls, issued by the general manager of the Southern Railway system, affecting all car load shipments except live stock, perishables and foodstuffs, for points in the Fort Worth & Denver, or taking a Denver routing, notification of which was received in this city Friday.

No reason for the order other than a general issue, "account of accumulation" given in the notification, has been forthcoming from railroad officials. All local officials interviewed by M. E. Cox, traffic representative for the Chamber of Commerce, denied having made any recommendations to this end, and it was even said by some of the local officials that no apparent reason for the order exists here.

Protest is Made.

Following receipt of the order a strong protest was wired to Mr. Bush in the name of the Chamber of Commerce, and falling to secure an early and favorable reply from Mr. Bush it is expected that a delegation of local shippers and representatives of local civic organizations will go to St. Louis for a personal interview with Mr. Bush, where every effort will be made to bring strong pressure to bear to prevent the absolute isolation of Wichita Falls, which will be the effect of the order issued.

The wire to Mr. Bush, prepared and forwarded by Hubert Harrison, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, reads as follows:

Copy of Telegram.

"Wichita Falls shippers and general public outraged at your recent order making effective embargo on carload shipments for any point on, or reached via Fort Worth and Denver.

"From such information that we can gather, such an order is absolutely unjustified and works a serious hardship on our shippers and general citizenship.

"None of the local railroad officials advised of this action so far as we can learn. The Fort Worth & Denver raised its embargo on August 29, hence we are unable to understand your order.

"We wish to bring most forcibly to your attention the extreme calamity that your order means to this city, and urge you to rescind it immediately.

Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce. Far Reaching Effect. No embargo order ever declared by a railroad in the history of Wichita Falls will have the far reaching effects of this latest order. It at once absolutely ties up shipping to this point as the control of the regional director of the Southwestern lines extends to practically every line in the Southwest except the Denver, taking away every feeder for inbound shipments on the Fort Worth & Denver, over which practically all of the inbound freight reaching this city for the past several weeks has been routed.

Furthermore, the order practically nullifies the work of the Denver in clearing their yards at Wichita Falls, Fort Worth and the intervening lines, which enabled them to raise their own embargo on August 29. As the order simply means that all other lines in the Southwest will refuse to take shipments going to points on the Fort Worth & Denver, it is at once readily apparent that it means absolute tie-up of all building materials, and the stopping of building and extension of public utilities, with the exception of the remaining industrial plants in the city.

TEACHERS INSTITUTE CONVENES ON MONDAY FOR A WEEK'S TERM

Approximately all of the rural school teachers in the county are expected to be present tomorrow when the county teachers' institute begins. The institute will last a week and several exceptionally good features have been announced by County Superintendent Hall.

Four applicants for teachers' certificates yesterday completed their examinations in Mr. Hall's offices.

At the institute Monday R. L. Coffey, of the extension department of the University of Texas, will deliver an address on the University Inter-scholastic League.

Tuesday evening and Wednesday morning, C. L. Davis, of the State board of education, who is assistant director of vocational training, will deliver addresses.

John Autry, who is in charge of the war savings department of the federal reserve bank at Dallas, will deliver an address.

Suit Materials are Interesting

Suit materials in brown, taupe, green and blue tones, are indeed beautiful this season. These exquisite new materials, Peach Bloom, Chameleon Cord, Tinseltone, as well as Silvertone, are all that their name implies, softly shaded tones, changeable as those of a peach.

Our line of Coat Suits includes all the new materials and the latest touches of button, braid and embroidery trimming.

Few women wear suits to better advantage than women of large figures

All the graceful, slenderizing lines and effective tailoring that designers study to portray, appear in these Suits.

There are many fur-trimmed Suits, with fur pockets, muff-like cuffs and large, becoming collars. Priced at $25, $35, $45, $55, $75, $85, $100, $125.

Our Display of Furs

Furs in their natural colorings are decidedly in vogue. Hudson Seal, Mink, Raccoon, Red, Grey and Black Fox and numerous other rare and beautiful pelts.

Eitington-Schild Co. are the largest importers of Russian Fur Merchandise with branches at Moscow, Nijni-Novgorod, Irbit Siberia, London and Paris.

Mr. Eitington, who recently came from Moscow, says that at no time in the history of the fur business were there such small stocks to be found and that this seems to be the consensus of opinion of all big European fur shippers. He furthermore states that in his opinion prices are very likely to continue upwards.

We completely agree with the above opinion. We've backed our belief with an up-to-the-minute stock of Fur Neckwear, Muffs, Sets and Coats well worth every fur buyer's time and attention when in Wichita Falls.

We bought before the scarcity of furs was wholly apparent and profited thereby in the selection of choice furs, and also in the lower price. No store in West Texas can show a better selection and none can approach the prices we make.

INGENIOUS BOOZE DISPENSER DISCOUNTS SYSTEMS USED BY PROFESSIONALS OF LATE DAYS

That all is not bottled in bond whiskey that bears the stamp and seal of Uncle Sam's internal revenue department, is proven in another case, which will be tried at the present term of the U. S. district court along with the white slavery and boot-legging charges the accused now faces.

To this person, so the authorities say, goes the distinction of being one of the most thorough and ingenious smugglers of contraband liquor it has ever been their lot to deal with. The old plan of shipping in coffins loaded with booze corpses, the mock funeral procession bearing whiskey instead of the dead, the hollow cane and other methods that long since became known to the men whose duty it is to jail the festive revenue runner, were too common and he taboos them.

Innocent Appearing Cases.

There are in the "boozie room" of the marshal's suite of offices at the court house several innocent appearing sample cases such as grocery drummers used to carry samples of rice, sugar, molasses and peas in. They are leather covered, have straps and buckles and it takes a strength of the imagination to believe that they are whiskey tanks, but that is literally what they are.

These "sample cases" were made especially for the illicit transportation of whiskey, and that is all they are good for. They are merely tin boxes, with capacity of two or three gallons each, and are so expertly designed and covered that their innocent, rather usual and unassuming appearance would lead any sleuth to pass them by with a casual glance.

Articles Confiscated.

When the man was arrested, the tank-trip, rubber tubing for syphoning the whiskey from the tanks to bottles and other articles of the professional boot-legger's art were confiscated.

A pasteboard box containing a quantity of bonded whiskey used to have across the top a piece of material that would have for all anybody knows in this arid era) and many whiskey labels and other labels bearing the enticing legion "Aged in wood." See that seal is unbroken, it was found.

It was the plan of the boot-legger to fill the bottles and then paste on the labels and place the bonded stamp of the internal revenue department across the stopper. The buyer thought he was getting old top-proof whiskey. In fact he was getting some of "the man's own brand" whatever it was, and chance: are he tasted the water and the doctoring of dope given the staff after he had paid boot-legger prices—and they're high—had plenty of time to regret at leisure.

Prepared for Business.

There was nothing cheap about the operations of this party, classed by the authorities as the "star boot-legger" they have had to deal with. In fact, he was so tony he made bottled in bond whiskey (at least it was) He had costly cases to use in running the revenue blockade and to elude the sleuths of the department of justice with. He had costly trunks and traveling bags and was outfitted in a thorough manner and, say the authorities, he conducted his traffic in booze in a systematic, business-like manner. Many have been the whiskey law violations the marshal's office has had to deal with, but never has it had a case like this.

He is held on several charges of burglary, having been arrested by Sheriff McFall's officers in connection with the burglary of Fine's store. He is charged with being the leader in one of the burglary rings. He is charged with automobile theft. He is charged goods, and should receive a salary "adequate to his ability." He held also that it was not always advisable for the purchasing agent to ask for bids.

As examples of the saving he had effected he told of buying automobile license plates in 1915 for nine cents a set when the contract for the previous year carried a price of 28 cents. In 1916 the contract he let carried a price of nine and a half cents in the face of rising steel prices. In 1917 he obtained a 10 cent price and in 1918 a 14 cent price although steel was twice what it had been in 1914.

"In plain words I used my own judgment and bought the plates, at the dearest time the world has ever known, at 14 cents, against 28 cents at the cheapest time in the history of the United States. Had I been tied by the old methods of buying and waiting for bids and other things, I surely would have paid a great deal more than 14 cents, possibly 35, 40 cents, as some of the other states were forced to pay."

Now the plates are being manufactured at the state prison at a cost of 12 cents a pair but Mr. Blumenthal quoted from a recent conversation with a plate manufacturer who had just closed a contract with an adjoining state for plates at 33 cents, offering, in case the prison manufacture in Wisconsin is discontinued, to take over the remaining of the prison contract and furnish plates at 12 cents a pair.

The Wisconsin system of buying, the speaker said, had been given the endorsement of General Crowder and the United States food administration.

Methods by which money had been saved to Wisconsin, as detailed by Mr. Blumenthal, included installation of a power paper cutter and purchase of all type-writer paper and ribbons used by various state departments at savings of 10 to 45 per cent; quantity buying of lead pencils, inks and clips; the purchase of the middle-man eliminated; establishment of a mimeographing of all the index and tabulate work formerly done in each of the state offices and the mimeographing of all the index and tabulate cards at a cost 150 per cent less than printing, as well as letter heads and envelopes. He also reviewed the work of the state printing board which he said by "careful business methods" had effected a saving of $230,000 in four years.

CHICAGO CHILDREN FORCED TO WORK

CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—Children of school age in unrecruited numbers are going to work, according to a report by Clyde Brown, of the vocational division of the board of education, made public today. About 250 certificates a day are being issued to children between the ages of 14 and 16, the report states.

"Most of the children applying for certificates to permit them to work give as their reason the fact that they have to go to work because their fathers are out on strike and the family needs money," Mr. Brown said.

WHILE THE MOTHER LOOKED ON TWO SONS GIVE UP LIVES IN AN EFFORT TO SAVE THEIR FATHER

CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—While the mother looked on, her two sons gave their lives in a futile attempt to save their father who had been overcome by gas in an abandoned well near here late yesterday.

Herman Jahn, a farmer of Steger, Ill., a suburb, was the father and first victim. He had gone to the bottom of the 33 foot shaft to make some repairs. His cries attracted the attention of Fred, 15, and warned of the gas that had collected below the surface of the ground.

Starting down the ladder in heroic efforts to reach his father, gas overcame Fred. Unable to attract the attention of other members of the family by choking calls for help, Fred stumbled down the ladder to the bottom of the well and splashed into the water. Just then John and his mother and sister reached the mouth of the well. Fred warned them away.

"Something's wrong," he gasped; "so away."

John broke away from his mother, who had pleaded with him not to risk his life. Dashing down the ladder with a rope to try to rescue his dying father and brother, John too became sickened by the fumes.

As the mother looked down the shaft she could see John swaying from the ladder and attempting to speak frantically, she called for help. But the house, removed from the road, was not close enough for neighbors to hear.

She swooned, the boys' sister called for help. When Chief of Police O'Brien and helpers arrived and revived Mrs. Jahn, they could hear no sound from the bottom of the well.

The bodies were removed by am trying to characterize those who conscientiously object to anything in this great document. I take off my hat in the presence of any man's genuine conscience and there are men who are conscientiously opposed to it, though they will pardon me if I say ignorantly opposed. I have no quarrel with them. It has been a great pleasure to confer with some of them and to tell them as frankly as I would have told my most intimate friends the whole inside of my mind and every word that I knew anything that they might understand this thing and go with the rest of us in the confirmation of what is necessary for the peace of the world.

"I have no intolerant spirit in the matter but I assure you that from the bottom of my feet to the top of my head I have got a fighting spirit about it.

"And if anybody dares to defeat this great experiment then they must gather together the counselors of the world and do something better.

"Put Up or Shut Up."

"If there is a better scheme, I for one will subscribe to it but I want to say now, as I said the other night, it is a case of put up or shut up. Negotiation will not save the world. Opposition constructs nothing. Opposition is the specialty of those who are biologically inclined.

"Again I assure you I am not comparing any of my respected colleagues to Bolsheviks; but I am merely pointing out that the Bolsheviks, as they lack every element of constructive opposition. They have destroyed everything that they have proposed nothing, (apparatus and character) and while there is a common abhorrence for political Bolshevism, I hope there will not be any such thing grow up in our country as international Bolshevism, the Bolshevism that destroys the constructive work of men who have conscientiously striven to cement the good feeling of the great peoples of the world.

"It is not a vision, my fellow citizens, this of the thoughtful world combined for peace and this of all the great peoples of the world associated to see that justice is done, that the strong who intend wrong are restrained and the weak who cannot defend themselves are made secure. We have a problem ahead of us that ought to interest us in this connection. We have promised the people of the Philippine islands that we will be free. It has been one of our perplexities how we should make them safe after we set them free. Under this arrangement they will be safe from the outset. They will become members of the League of Nations and great nations in the world will be obliged to respect and preserve them against external aggression from any quarter. The territorial integrity and political independence of the Philippines is simplified one of the most perplexing problems that has faced the American Republic.

American Spirit Triumphs.

"But it does not simplify our problems merely gentlemen, it illustrates the triumph of the American spirit. If anything that I have said has left the impression on your minds that I have the least doubt of the result, please dismiss the impression. And if you think I have come out on the errand to fight anybody, please dismiss that from your mind. I have not come to fight or antagonize any individual or body of individuals. I have let me say, without the slightest affectation, the greatest respect for the Senate of the United States, but my fellow citizens, I have come out to fight for a cause. That cause is greater than the Senate; it is greater than the Government. It is as great as the cause of mankind and I intend in office or out to fight that battle as long as I live. My ancestors were troublesome Scotchmen and among them were some of that famous group that were known as the covenanters. Very well, there is the covenant of the League of Nations. I am a covenanter.

OPTIMISM REGARDING THE FOREIGN MARKET

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—The reasons for the optimism which is evident in well-informed financial circles, are broadly sketched in the current issue of "American Goods and Foreign Markets," a semi-monthly publication of the Guaranty Trust Company of New York devoted to foreign trade.

The review, which gives its customary summary of trade conditions in the various important commercial and industrial countries of the world, says: "Accumulated experience gathered by competent observers leaves now little room for doubt that the lowest point in the economic state of the world was passed some time back and that, whatever may be the temper of the present moment, from this time forth progress must be ever more rapid toward stability and prosperity. World is Richer.

"To support this view there is in the first place this obvious fact: That while production has not been increased at a rate sufficient to make the entire satisfaction of the world needs a matter of less than years, yet the great waste of staple commodities which the continued prosecution of the war involved, has been almost entirely stopped. The destruction of life, too, has ended and the men engaged directly or indirectly in such destruction are now, each of them, an asset for constructive effort. During the years that the war lasted, the world was able to feed itself and clothe itself, despite the great proportion of its resources that were being consumed in the struggle. That toll is no longer being exacted and has not been exacted since November 11. The world is, therefore, richer by the amount that has saved by merely ceasing to fight.

Transition to Peace.

"The transition from peace to war was a slow and wasteful operation even in the countries best prepared for the struggle. The transition from war to peace, with all the readjustment of industry that it implies, is but little less difficult. It has, however, this advantage. That whatever progress is made is so much positive progress, each painful step being an actual gain, each factory restored to production taking the world that much further from the edge of the precipice to which it had so nearly approached, each individual who undertakes again the task which was his during pre-war days assisting by the tent of his efforts in the general revival.

"That such progress is being made cannot be doubted. To the most pessimistic observer the strides that Belgium has made in the apparent absence for a time seemed to have become inert, to have given up the effort to restore herself economically. Today we have the word of unimpeachable witnesses that she has passed the crisis, and is once again attacking her tremendous burdens with her old spirit. Italy, faced for a time with grave disorders, is now presenting a much more hopeful face to the world.

After a short discussion of some of the other factors in the situation, the review says:

No Attempt to Sell It.

"This is said of peace, without any attempt to belittle the seriousness of the present situation or to lose over the difficulties which must be met and overcome before normality in trade relations, and particularly in foreign trade relations, may be expected. It so happens that the United States, being in a position to supply so many of the world's needs during the war, had to extend credit to the purchasers of those materials until the normal exchange relations had been entirely disrupted. To place Europe again in production and so to continue our own prosperity requires a further extension of credit. The solvency of Europe being granted, the problem for the American banker, manufacturer and exporter shrinks to an economic problem into one of finance; that is, it is a question of deciding upon the terms upon which credit may be most advantageously supplied.

TIMES DAILY MARKETS
New York Stocks, Grain and Provisions, Cotton and Livestock.

COTTON MARKET.
NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—There was further covering at the opening of the cotton market this morning and near month was higher with December selling at 25.25, or 14 points above last night's closing figures on the call while the late deliveries were unchanged to three points lower. The weather map was favorable however, while disappointing export conditions were reflected in the small amount of cotton reported on ship board and prices soon turned easier under Wall Street selling and scattering liquidation. December sold over to 25.50, or 21 points net lower shortly after the call.

The market was weak later in the morning under Southern, Liverpool and Wall Street selling which was prompted by the weakness of the London exchange and the absence of any important support. December broke to 25.25 and the day was easy at the lowest point of the day, showing net losses of 21 to 22 points.

Cotton closed steady.

New Orleans Cotton
NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 6.—Week-end trading by shorts caused advances of 10 to 15 points on the first call in cotton today, but immediately after the opening market ran into a selling flurry and promptly broke. At the end of the first half hour trading price had fallen 70 points under the close of yesterday. Offerings were promptly met by continued buying, and the market closed at a decline of 32 to 37 points.

Cotton barely steady at a decline of 32 to 37 points.

The decline continued until it amounted to 27 to 30 points but towards the close realizing by shorts carried prices back almost to the level of yesterday's final.

Grain and Provisions
CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—Big setbacks in the price of corn have taken place this week largely owing to authoritative assertions that European ports were glutted with foodstuffs for which moneyed buyers could not be found and that the cost of the high cost of living had been passed in the United States. Compared with a week ago, quotations for corn were 64 cents to 37 cents lower, and oats down 1 1/2 cent to 2 1/2 cents. In provisions, the net change started from 86 cents decline to 1.50 advance.

Settlement in the corn trade became intensely hectic after Herbert Hoover, official representative of the United States on the inter-allied relief commission, had declared that warships and warplanes in Northern Europe were overflying with foodstuffs that were in danger of rotting as a result of lack of purchasers who could command adequate credit. Accompanying his statement was an embargo on all domestic grain shipments to Atlantic and Gulf ports.

New York Stocks
NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—The market made substantial recoveries in the early stages of this week's enlarged operations, the more hopeful labor outlook and money trend contributing measurably to the rebound of prices. Much of this improvement was forfeited later, however, chiefly as a result of the revival in more active form of the differences between organized labor and the United States Steel Corporation.

A Beautiful Los Angeles Bungalow Property For Sale—Price $17,500

The above cut represents a type of investment in residence property in Los Angeles, California. It consists of two 6-room and two 4-room bungalows situated on a large lot, and one of Los Angeles' beautiful residence streets.

The monthly income derived from this property is now $150.00 and could easily bring $200.00 per month owing to the great demand for residence property of this character. Among the many who have accumulated fortunes in the oil industry in Texas there are doubtless some who expect to make their homes or at least spend a part of the time on our Western Coast. There is no other spot on the coast or in fact, any part of the country that presents so many attractive living conditions, or which affords a safer field for investment than does this beautiful city of Los Angeles. Why not put a part of your fortune in a safe and sure investment where you can not lose and that will afford you a home and an income whether or not you meet with financial reverses.

If you are interested in this or any other class of investment in Los Angeles such as apartment houses, flat buildings or business buildings yielding good rentals, let us hear from you and we will be glad to go into details and furnish you with the most reliable information.

Special Sale of Town Lots
SAGERTON, TEXAS, SEPT. 12, 1919

We will offer for sale to the highest bidder a portion of the lots we own in Sagerton, Texas.

We now have two wells drilling within 1/4 miles of Sagerton, and another derrick awaiting machinery, a little more than 1 mile. There has been several findings of shallow oil already near Sagerton, different directions, which, with other favorable conditions, indicate strongly that we are just over or near a great oil pool. We are only offering a limited number of lots in this sale. We feel that a short time will develop oil here, and that these lots will be worth many times more than the price you can buy for on this sale. And in order to give every purchaser an opportunity to make good money on his investment, we are going to give away three-five lots. Each purchaser will be given a ticket which will give him a chance to draw one or more of these five lots free. He will also have his choice of any unsold lot belonging to the Sagerton Townsite Company. All applications by mail will receive our personal attention.

SUIT TO COMPEL REFINING COMPANY TO ERECT PLANT

PETITION ALLEGES FAILURE TO CARRY OUT CONTRACT WITH SHAREHOLDERS.

ALLEGES $3100 INVESTED

Charges That the Organization is "Straw or Paper Corporation."

Demand that the Texas-Electra Refining Company, either build a refinery and operate or return to him the $3,100 he invested in the company's stock is contained in the petition of W. F. Hamming in a suit filed against that company in the Thirtieth district court Saturday.

Hamming claims in his petition that he first purchased ten shares of the company's stock at $10 a share in May, of 1918. Later, upon representation of officers of the company that the investment was a good one and that the company owned 247 acres of land near Electra, he says, he bought 200 more shares at $10 a share.

He asserts in the petition that he since has found the company to be a "straw or paper corporation." He asks $3,100 or that the courts force the company to comply with the promises of development he alleges it made.

Suit on Lease Contract.

J. F. Cody, as his own counsel, has filed a suit in the Thirtieth district court against the Burk Main Pool Oil company, et al. He recites in his petition that in March he secured a lease on the north 1/2 of Block 7 of the E. J. Miller subdivision of the Lanier tract, six lots in Iowa Park, five acres out of the north end of the J. R. Pace tract and 10 acres out of the Nitsche tract, which he agreed to pay the E. S. Keller Oil Co. $8,300. He paid $2,000 cash and before the 60 days in which he was to pay the balance expired he had his goods on the Burk Main Pool Company at the same figure, he receiving $500 cash with the understanding that the other $1,500 was to be paid by the purchasers assuming his indebtedness to the Keller company.

When the case was in value, $1,800 from John T. Hogan, agent here for the Burk Main Pool company, he says in the petition, Cody was told that he could get the lease on the other five acres in the meantime, he says, he has increased in value until they are worth $1,750 to $30,000 an acre.

Cody asks the court to set aside the Burk Main Pool company be set aside by the court and that 25 per cent interest in all products and in the building be turned to him and that the court issue an order restraining the defendant from developing or selling the acreage until a full settlement with him is made.

Other suits filed Saturday included:

J. W. Gineberg vs the H. & S. Oil Co. et al., for $2,200 commission for the sale of oil tanks.

J. L. Schmalenberg vs I. H. Davis, et al., trespass to try title.

George P. Holman vs J. H. Bass, et al., trespass to try title.

There was no session of the 78th district court Saturday. All of this week will be devoted to the trial of civil cases, but next week the court will devote its time to criminal cases.

HILLCREST COMPANY HAS BEEN REORGANIZED WITH JOHNS RETIRING

Announcement was made yesterday that Al N. Green, a well known oil operator, had purchased all of the interest of J. H. Johns in the Hillcrest addition to the city. The consideration was not made public.

As a consequence of Green's connection with the Wichita Falls Improvement & Development Co., which owns the Hillcrest addition, the company has been reorganized, its officers being as follows: Al N. Green, president; Horace H. Smith, vice president and treasurer, and M. Walters, secretary and manager. Mr. Johns has completely severed his connection with the company, it was said.

Mr. Green said yesterday that he believed the city would grow toward the south in the direction of Lake Wichita and of the Wichita Truck Co.'s plant.

It was announced that drilling at Hillcrest well No. 1 will be resumed this week. Consent of the lot owners of the company has been obtained to not drill Hillcrest well No. 2, but the company will make a deep test of well No. 1.

COCHRAN MOTOR CO. TO HAVE NEW HOME FOR CHEVROLET CAR

Mr. Cochran, the manager of the Cochran Motor Company states that he has closed a deal for a new home for his company, just south of the Ford place on Indiana.

The new building is to be 50 by 150 feet, two stories. The first floor will be used as a sales department and the second floor as a shop and parts department.

The new building is to be modern in every respect as concerns automobiles, large show rooms, a complete suit of offices, for the different departments of the company including "ladies rest rooms."

Mr. Cochran is very optimistic with reference to the Chevrolet in this territory. He states that there are some four or five hundred Chevrolet cars in this county at present, and in making the move into these modern quarters, he expects, to give the Chevrolet owners, the best service on the market. He also states that the factory at Fort Worth, is having the third story put on their plant, and the line through the entire U. S. is taking a very fore-for- place. There will be 235,000 Chevrolet manufactured this year, which ranks the Chevrolet second largest automobile manufacturer in the world.

He says that his present car allotment calls for a car every twenty-four hours, and has no trouble keeping up with his contract, as he has them sold in advance.

Enthusiastic welcomes greet the men in every city, town and hamlet along the route. Receptions, street dances, band concerts and entertainments—each community endeavoring to outdo its neighbor—thus transforming an otherwise monotonous grid into a continuous pleasure jaunt.

Cheyenne, Wyoming, the caravan was greeted by 300 cowboys, headed by Fred Stone, the renowned comedian, who gave a "round up" exhibition. A mammoth celebration is planned at San Francisco, where the convoy is scheduled to arrive on September 1.

Thousands of people have heard lectures by S. M. Johnson, who represented the Lincoln Highway Association on the long trip, and by other speakers, on the importance of good roads and highway transportation. At Omaha C. V. King, representative of the H. F. Goodrich Rubber Co., joined the cavalcade with a movie film taken by his company of the army truck convoy and which was shown at each city along the route on the same days the train was there. Thus the people saw the convoy in camp and viewed the movies of it in action.

At Mr. Johnson's invitation Mr. King "took the stump" in behalf of good roads. In introducing his associate, Mr. Johnson said it was not his custom to single out any individual firm, but he couldn't refrain from commending in public the co-operation and interest in the Goodrich Company has shown in good roads work.

NUMBER OF WILDCAT WELLS ARE NEARING AN INTERESTING DEPTH

Wichita county developments have without feature this past week, as drilling reports show that there are several wild cats that are nearing interesting depths. The East Wichita, drilling immediately south of the city limits, about three miles has reached a ten-inch hole, and has set casing and is now underreaming, at a total depth of around 1,400 feet, according to reports. This test aroused considerable excitement last week, when a gas sand was encountered around 1,300 feet, but a dry sand was next encountered, followed by a salt water sand.

North of town, just northeast of the Lone Star Refinery, on the Fore farm, the Grisdale and Erickson cable tool test is reported as encountering interesting showings around 1,800 feet. The hole is now reported as cleaning out.

There is considerable interest at present in deep tests in Wichita county, where there has not yet been a deep test, 4,000 feet or deeper. This Grisdale and Erickson test is to be 4,000 feet, according to the reports, and is being financed by private capital, parties drilling being from the north. Out in the Friberg district the Krieger Oil Company's No. 1 Schmidt is drilling below 2,000 feet, but whether this test is to go a great deal deeper has not been announced. The Texas Oil Company's No. 1 Vandervo is below 2,200 feet. Drilling operations are to be started as soon as possible to secure all materials, on the 4,000-foot cable tool test in Block 26, Burk Burnett township, in the Bacon district, about midway between Wichita Falls and Burk Burnett, three tests are under way. The Burk Burnett Oil Company's No. 1 Donald is drilling around 2,000 feet; and the Hay City Production Company has a derrick up for its No. 1 Roller, with a test at 4,000 feet. The Denver Oil & Gas Company is rigging up adobe tools for their No. 1 Bidea, west of the city of Wichita Falls, less than three miles from the city limits, the Sun Company's No. 1 Waggoner is drilling around 980 feet.

The Waggoner pool continues the most active in drilling operations and there are still a large number of wells with casing set standardizing or drilling around sand depth. A drilling summary, comprising the following independent companies drilling in the pool, follows:

TIRE TALKS

By W. J. DAUGHERTY,
Representative of Firestone Tire & Rubber Company.

Introduction
There is no doubt in my mind that people in general pay too little attention to their tires. Tires, like the engine or any other part of the car, require a certain amount of attention if the owner expects to get the best results. There have been very many improvements in the construction of tires in the last few years, and the product that is built with quality as a basic principle of its manufacture is very dependable. Because this is so, the motorist frequently places so much confidence in his tire equipment that it is apt to overlook, so far as his springs are concerned, the frequent inspection and attention which he gives to the rest of his car.

The problem is to get a man interested before the accident befalls. An rule we are disposed to wait until our machines or tires let out a howl before attending to them. After the description of tire types, there will appear each week an article dealing with some one aspect of the proper care of tires. Remarks will be made on over-size tires, the proper application of tires, and the dangers of misapplication. The care and usage of inner tubes and the importance and use of flaps will also be discussed. There will be articles on rims, tire fillers, wheel irregularities, snag wear, and other topics which have to do with the everyday troubles of the tire user.

NEW CADILLAC FEATURE NOW BEING EXHIBITED

Latterday development of the motor car has relegated to the rear of the automobile the old-style ear-trumpet and rubber hose arrangement by which the driver, sitting in her limousine, gave the chauffeur, out in front.

Now a day's mildy simply touches a button; a buzzer sounds at James' ear, and James mistress, speaking in ordinary tones and without being compelled to remove her eyes from the passing crowds on the street, gives the instruction. There is no necessity for the mouth-piece and the rubber tubing, which formerly gave one the feeling that she was talking to a deaf person and must needs speak well above the usual conversational tone.

A latest model Cadillac limousine, received by the Mueker Automobile Company during the last week, has the new equipment. It is a sort of adaptation of the dictaphone. Touching one push button sounds the buzzer at the chauffeur's ear. Touching another pushes the transmitter and the ordinary conversational pitch is all that is necessary for every word uttered to be distinctly heard and understood by the driver. The button, released, closes the transmitter and the most intimate gossip may be resumed in the limousine, with never a fear that it may be overheard by the man on the box. This is one of the motor refinements which may be expected by visitors at the forthcoming State Fair Automobile Show at Dallas.

HIGH SCHOOL HAS SPLENDID SHOWING IN AFFILIATIONS

IS CREDITED IN RECENT DIRECTOR AS BEING SCHOOL OF THE FIRST CLASS.

TEACHERS ARE RETURNING

T. M. Clark Goes to West Texas Normal and Herman Glass Comes to This City.

If a recent directory of classified and affiliated high schools, issued by the State department of education, the Wichita Falls high school is listed as a school of the first class, having 27 affiliation credits and also as on the Southern list of accredited schools.

One credit in general science has been granted recently. This school would now have 30 credits, if it were not for the fact that the three credits of German were dropped when the teaching of that language was discontinued. Affiliation in no lately introduced subjects, French and Public Speaking, will be asked for this year.

The affiliation credits of several representative schools are as follows: Abilene 26, Amarillo 28, Austin 28, Brownwood 26, Cimbarron 24 1/2, Corpus Christi 24 1/2, Dallas 28, Dallas 28 1/2, Paris 20 1/2, Port Arthur 23, San Angelo 27, Tyler 25 1/2, Uvalde 25, Waco 27, Wichita Falls 27.

The difference in affiliation between Wichita Falls and other schools is due in part to the fact that a number of these schools have a commercial department and have credits in shorthand and bookkeeping, and to the additional fact that they have better equipped manual training departments and this gives additional credits. Two thousand dollars spent in these departments at this time would mean much to our school and to the boys and girls of our city.

T. M. Clark, formerly at the head of the Modern Language department, has accepted a position tendered him at the West Texas Normal College at a salary equivalent to $1,000 per year more than the local board could pay. Mr. Clark was in love with his work and with his pupils here, and leaves not so much for the difference in salary, but more on account of the housing and boarding conditions and prices.

Miss Lena McKee and mother have returned from Colorado, where Miss McKee took a course in bacteriology in the University of Colorado. She is entering on the fifth year of service as a teacher of science in the high school.

Burl Bryant, teacher of mathematics in the high school, has returned from the University of Chicago, where he has been studying for his Masters Degree. He desires to move his mother here from Verona.

Work is progressing well on the additions to the Austin and to the Alamo schools and on the repairs at the high school and on the new building across the river. The colored school building has been repaired and will be reoccupied soon.

Teachers Available. The list of teachers is again about complete, most of the recent resignations having been filled. There are many applications on file in the office of the superintendent, and little difficulty will be experienced in securing first class teachers if boarding places are provided at reasonable rates. Only about 50 have rooms now.

Miss Kate Burgess, principal of the Travis school, has returned from Peabody College for Teachers, Nashville, Tenn., where she took courses this summer.

Misses Florence Kell, Jennie Robinson, Selma Cloud, Olga Morris and Lida Smith are among the progressive teachers who have been attending college this summer and have returned to enter upon their duties for the coming term.

Herman Glass has resigned as head of the training school of the West Texas Normal College to accept a principalship here. The school management consider themselves fortunate in securing his services. He recently returned from foreign service.

ABSENCE OF HICKEY DELAYS MATTER OF TERMINAL MANAGER

The continued absence from the city of J. F. Hickey, general superintendent for the Katy here, has further delayed the forwarding of the chamber of commerce request for the appointment of a terminal manager at Wichita Falls, it was announced today.

Mr. Hickey's return to Wichita Falls is delayed by the burning out of a bridge on the Northwestern, and he is not expected to arrive here in time for a conference before Monday. When the chamber of commerce committee having the matter in charge conferred with the Denver officials and advised them of their intended action, with the Katy men was postponed in deference to Mr. Hickey, the ranking Katy man here, who was unable to reach the city in time for that conference.

"When we made the announcement yesterday that we found the Denver officials were ready and willing to co-operate in every way in their power in everything for the benefit of Wichita Falls, it was not intended to imply that they had agreed to join us or even committed themselves on the appointment of a terminal manager here," said T. B. Noble, chairman of the chamber of commerce committee, in discussing the matter Saturday. The fact is that they did not express themselves on this phase of the discussion, but listened very courteously to our statement of local conditions, and what we expected to accomplish through the appointment of a new official, and agreed to make a full report of the matter to their superior officers.

A report will be made by the grand jury Monday. It is probable that its labors will be completed by that time, at least until it is reassembled, in the event recalled for any special investigation. Criminal Docket Tuesday. Assistant U. S. No calendar for the criminal cases had been announced Saturday afternoon.

TWELVE AUTOS ARE RECOVERED FRIDAY BY DEPUTY ARRINGTON

Twelve automobiles, reported by Deputy Constable Arrington to have been stolen in California, Arizona, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas, were located by him in Burk Burnett Friday afternoon. All of them will be used in the State's case against James Erwin, held in the county jail on charges of theft following his arrest Thursday by the police.

Arrington went to Burk Burnett to look at five cars Erwin had there, and to endeavor to identify them from descriptions of stolen cars. He said Saturday that he had found 12 cars and that numbers on their motors and other parts corresponded with the numbers of automobiles reported stolen in the five states.

AN ADJUSTMENT OF VALUES

We are asked a good many times, "Why the high price of coffee?" There are, of course, many contributory reasons. Among them: The frost damage in Brazil last August. The fact that Europe has had practically no coffee for four years, and the surplus in the United States is practically nil. Prohibition is also a factor. But the REAL REASON is an adjustment of values among commodities. A few years ago Rio beans sold for 5 1/2 cents per pound, so did cotton. Now cotton sells for above 30 cents and Rio beans for twenty-two. Wheat used to fluctuate between sixty-five cents and a dollar, and is now twenty-two. So it stands to reason the Brazilian can't take the old prices for his coffee and get by. Coffee is still the cheapest commodity of consumption—and the last to advance.
