RIOTING IN THE CITY OF BOSTON

Treaty Is Reported to the Senate

RESERVATIONS AND AMENDMENTS ARE RECOMMENDED BY MAJORITY; MINORITY IS TO SUBMIT REPORT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Characterizing as an alliance and not a league which "will breed war instead of securing peace," the German peace treaty including the covenant for a League of Nations was formally reported to the senate today by the Foreign Relations Committee with 45 amendments and four reservations.

It will be the first great document of its kind to be discussed in the open without the confines of "executive session." Accompanying the treaty was the majority report of the Foreign Relations Committee subscribed to by every republican member excepting Senator McCumber of North Dakota, explaining the amendments and reservations, all of which were declared to be "governed by a single purpose and that is to guard American rights and sovereignty, the invasion of which would stimulate breaches of faith, encourage conflicts and generate wars."

Reservations Proposed. The reservations proposed: 1.—Unconditional right to withdraw from the League. 2.—Declination by the United States to accept any of the legal or moral obligations of the much-discussed Article 10, which by action of the Congress of the United States. 3.—Reserving to the United States the exclusive right to decide what questions are within its own domestic jurisdiction. 4.—Absolute reservation of the province of Shantung.

German delegates, the report contends, could easily be brought to Paris and as Germany is not a member of the League she should not be consulted about changes of the covenant. At the outset the majority report deals at length with criticisms of delay and points out that whereas the treaty is in session for six months before the senate of the United States, the report says, "largely the work of the administration and its newspaper organs."

PRINCE OF WALES IS MODEST YOUNG MAN

THE PRINCE OF WALES WITH COL. BROWN, AND BRIG. GEN'L BUNSTALL

The Prince of Wales is a "regal fellow." This youngster, with all his English dignity and titles, is making his big trip to the United States and Canada, and notwithstanding all the bluster made over his every move, he is showing himself to be a most democratic and modest young man. The Prince has made a hit.

President Says Issue Involves "A Question of War or Peace"

BISMARCK, N. D., Sept. 10.—President Wilson took a Bismarck audience today that the issue involved in his speech-making tour for the treaty was "a question of war or peace."

There was only one way in which peace could be maintained, he said, and that was by such a concert of nations as was proposed in the League of Nations. He declared there was no more danger of America staying out of the League eventually than of reversing all the other processes of her history. But it was the delay, he added, that was upsetting affairs everywhere.

General Pershing Leads Parade Honoring First Division Heroes

By FRANK J. TAYLOR (United Press Staff Correspondent.) NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—The First Division, first in France and first in battle, today was honored in the heart of its countrymen.

Behind the General rode two non-coms, one bearing the Stars and Stripes, the other Pershing's four-starred pennant. Then came his staff, followed by the famous Composite Regiment, representing practically every unit in the A. E. F. which participated in the London and Paris "Victory parades."

ENTIRE FOURTH BRIGADE OF THE STATE GUARD IS CALLED OUT IN EFFORT TO QUELL DISTURBANCE

BOSTON, MASS., Sept. 10.—The entire Fourth brigade of the state guards, including cavalry, machine gun companies, motor corps and infantry was rushed this afternoon to protect Boston from further outbreaks of rioting and lawlessness, following a strike of police.

BOSTON, MASS., Sept. 10.—Rioting broke out in Scollay Square shortly after 1:30 this afternoon. Great crowds were reported moving toward the downtown business section. There was much fighting. The police were forced to retreat.

BOSTON, Sept. 10.—Lawlessness was rampant in Boston today. Without adequate police protection, private citizens were left to their own resources to protect their lives and property.

Rowdies started almost with the walkout of the patrolmen. Shot night. Thousands of persons gathered about the police stations before 6:00 p. m. and when the officers emerged in civilian clothes or without insignia or equipment, they were greeted with stones and beer and at some stations youths, with grudges against certain officers, threw mud, sticks and stones.

Rowdies started early and continued through the night. Windows in whole blocks of stores were broken and their contents scattered. Those who could not get near the windows were able to buy rare bargains in wearing apparel and cheap jewelry from others who were overstocked.

WITHOUT PROTECTION DURING LAST NIGHT

BOSTON, MASS., Sept. 10.—Daylight brought partial restoration of order in Boston today, following a night in which the city was virtually without protection as a result of a strike of the police force.

The few emergency policemen, consisting of captains, lieutenants and sergeants, augmented by civilian volunteers, were unable to handle the situation in several sections. Several stores were looted, some property was destroyed and scores of street fights occurred. The damage amounted to thousands of dollars.

Strike Tuesday Afternoon. The strike went into effect at 5:45 yesterday afternoon. Practically every policeman left his beat at that hour. The principal demand was for recognition of the union. Soon afterward rowdies started their work of looting and destruction. There were clashes with the handful of police on duty but as soon as one disturbance was quelled others broke out in other sections.

Jewelry stores, shoe shops and many clothing stores were broken into and robbed. In many cases the looting was done by boys but in several cases, organized mobs smashed their way in and robbed more valuable contents.

Novel Spectacle. In shoe establishments, the novel spectacle was presented of thieves sitting in the store while other thieves fitted them to shoes.

Several groups of vandals roamed the streets, broke into store windows and scattered their contents about the streets in an orgy of willful destruction.

Law-abiding citizens, including women, were terrorized in several districts and these streets were soon deserted by all save the lawless elements.

Stores in Avery, Westminister, Washington and Sumner streets were looted. Harvard students were called upon to do police duty following the offer of services by President Lowell. A few hundred citizens who volunteered for police duty were also assembled to patrol the streets.

At 8:00 o'clock today several hundreds of Harvard students were called upon to do police duty following the offer of services by President Lowell. A few hundred citizens who volunteered for police duty were also assembled to patrol the streets.

Nation-Wide Steel Strike To Be Called For Sept. 22

BURLESON DENIES EFFORT TO CONTROL

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Postmaster General Burleson denied that he had sought at any time to "improperly" control postoffice appointments by the civil service commission in a statement replying to recent charges made by former Civil Service Commissioner Galloway that Mr. Burleson was attempting to "debauch the civil service and make a sham of the merit system."

Replying to Mr. Burleson, Mr. Galloway today declared the postmaster general avoided the issue and resorted to "mud-slinging."

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—A nation-wide steel strike will be called for September 22, union leaders said today.

Declaration that a strike will be called on that date was made by delegates after they had left a meeting of heads of 24 international unions of the steel industry. The meeting had sent a telegram to President Wilson asking him to bring about a meeting with officials of the steel corporation if a strike was to be averted. The President's reply was read to the meeting this afternoon just before it adjourned. Its contents were not made public but delegates said it was unsatisfactory.

BULGARIAN TREATY NOT YET SIGNED IS TO BE CONSIDERED

Paris, Sept. 10.—The supreme council of the peace conference arranged with the Bulgarian delegates today for formal presentation of the Bulgarian treaty at the French foreign office Friday.

This action was taken after the Bulgarian representatives had refused presentation of the treaty without any ceremony.

Colonel E. M. House will return to Paris from London Sunday to resume his duties as the peace conference.

Advices to the state department in Washington from Paris yesterday said the treaty had been signed. This obviously was an error.

GEORGIA NEGRO IS BURNED AT STAKE

ATHENS, Ga., Sept. 10.—Obs. Cor. negro, alleged murderer of the wife of an Oglethorpe county farmer, was captured by a posse today, taken to the scene of the crime, his body riddled with bullets and burned at the stake. Several thousand persons witnessed the scene.

ILLINOIS IS ELECTING CONSTITUTIONAL DELEGATES

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—Illinois went to the polls today to nominate Republican, Democratic and Socialist delegates to a state constitutional convention. Each party was to nominate two candidates in each of fifty-one senatorial districts.

 Mexico has presented and its government maintained through all the years of turmoil and strife, revolution and counter revolution. Ever since the overthrow of Diaz, and even before, conditions have been unbearable. So rigid have they become now that the air of the entire continent is fettered; and the head of the republic, when urged in a respectful way to give the matters serious attention, replies by recommending a list of alleged wrongs committed in the United States on Mexican citizens, and at the same time makes no promise to redeem his own country from the hands of bandits and marauders who have made life uncertain and property interests valueless.
 It is quite clear that President Carranza is depending upon a continuance of the "watchful waiting" policy announced some years ago by President Wilson, and on that plea is delaying the work of cleaning up the country and making it a safe place to visit or live in or to make investments. Either that, or he is so blindly insensitive to the duties imposed by virtue of his office as to render him wholly incapable of redeeming a revolution-torn country, and establishing a government of order.
 It would be wise for the first chief to listen to the advice of his friend, General Alvarado, who knows that forbearance will be long cease to be a virtue with President Wilson, who will substitute positive action for the "watchful waiting" that has been fruitful of no results.—Denison Herald.

PEACE TERMS ARE SIGNED BY AUSTRIAN DELEGATION TODAY
 ST. GERMAIN, Sept. 10.—Dr. Karl Renner, head of the Austrian delegation to the peace conference, signed the treaty of peace between the Allied and associated powers and the Austrian Republic at 10:15 o'clock this morning.
 Today's ceremony at St. Germain brings to a close three months of negotiations between the Austrian Republic and the Allied and associated powers. An incomplete draft of the conditions of peace was handed the Austrian delegates at St. Germain on June 2, the reserved sections, relating to the military, financial reparations and some boundary features of the treaty being presented on July 26. The Austrian government laid its counter proposals before the peace conference last month and the answer to the Austrian delegation was made on September 2.
 China, which did not sign the treaty with Germany because of the inclusion in that convention of the section giving to Japan the German rights and concessions in the province of Shantung, announced last week she would sign the treaty with Austria so that she would be able to join the League of Nations.
 The Austrian Republic, representatives of which signed the treaty today, is very different from the proud Austro-Hungarian Empire of 1914. The former provinces of Bohemia and Moravia and the Duchy of Teschen and most of Galicia have been incorporated into Poland.
 All that remains of the former great empire is what is known as German Austria, including Upper and Lower Austria and parts of Styria and of Tyrol.
 Since the close of hostilities there has been a marked effort to which Austria would be annexed by Germany. By one of the most important clauses of the treaty signed today this is forbidden.
 The treaty does not stipulate an exact sum to be paid in indemnities but this amount will be fixed by the reparations commission on or before May 1, 1921. The commission also will be empowered to determine the details of the payments which will extend over a period of 30 years.
 This sum must be paid by the Austrian Republic and it is not to be apportioned over the component parts of the country which have been declared independent.
 In addition to paying indemnities, Austria must also replace for ten years all ships lost by the Allies through the activities of the Austrian navy during the war and physically restore invaded areas. She is also to deliver up to Allied countries works of art and objects of historic value, which were carried away by the Austrians during the conflict.
 Austria's army is reduced to 30,000 men on a purely voluntary basis and all her military establishments are cut down in a proportionate manner. The entire Austrian naval fleet is to be handed over to the Allies, and ships under construction being broken up and the salvage is not to be used except for industrial purposes.
 The economic clauses and those relative to freedom of transit are similar to those of the German pact.
 Questions relative to the disposition of the city of Trieste are not settled in the Austrian treaty but Austria renounces in favor of the Allies and associated powers all her rights and titles over territories formerly belonging to her, which, though outside the new frontiers of Austria, have not at present been assigned to any state. She undertakes to accept any settlement made in reference to these territories.
 By HENRY WOOD
 (United Press Staff Correspondent.)
 PARIS, Sept. 10.—In the absence of the elaborate details such as accompanied the setting at Versailles, the Allies made formal peace with Austria today. Dr. Karl Renner, Austrian chancellor and head of his country's peace delegation, signed the treaty at St. Germain at 10:45 o'clock this morning.
 No speeches were made by the Austrian delegates. Premier Clemenceau on behalf of the Allies, invited the Austrians to sign in the same terse fashion he had employed at Versailles before the German pact was signed.
 Renner first to sign.
 Chancellor Renner was the first delegate to sign. He was followed by Henry White, General Tasker H. Bliss and Frank L. Polk of the American delegation.
 Aside from the peace treaty, the Austrians signed two engagements, one by which they agreed to the peace conference Allied ships lost during the war which were sunk by the Austrians and another which obliges them to furnish within a month a list of property and works of art which the Allies may place them on trial.
 The ceremony of affixing the signatures ended at 11:10 o'clock. French guards presented arms as Chancellor Renner made his exit.
 Given Three Days.
 After the signing the supreme council of the conference announced the Rumanians and Jugoslavs would be given three days in which to sign the treaty.
 The stone age room in the St. Germain palace was the scene of the peace ceremony. In every respect the occasion was greatly overshadowed by the event at Versailles. All the principal European statesmen and military leaders who signed the peace treaty had returned home, leaving minor members of their delegations to sign the Austrian document.
 No Elaborate Ceremony.
 There was no attempt, moreover, at an elaborate ceremony or historical setting such as prevailed at Versailles (owing to the small size of the stone room, only the most limited attendance was permitted). The room was fitted with a horseshoe table similar to the one used at Versailles, with a small table in the center where the delegates signed their names.
 At the conclusion of the ceremony, while the Austrian delegates were returning to their hotel, a 75 millimeter gun was fired, announcing the conclusion of peace.

RETRENCHMENT NECESSARY.
 Assessed valuations in Texas this year are estimated at $3,101,000,000. This is an increase of about $2 million dollars. Investments in Liberty Bonds which are not taxable and the three-year drouth, through which a large part of the state had come when the assessments were made, are believed to be responsible for the small increase.
 The increase will by no means give the state enough additional revenue to meet the depreciated buying power of the dollar. The state will get more dollars in revenue all right but these dollars will not buy as much as the dollar of a year ago and retrenchment will be necessary by the state government if a deficit is not to be incurred.
 There are now thousands of people living in houses and tents in Wichita Falls that are without gas connections. These people must depend upon wood or coal for fuel. Will there be a supply of fuel in Wichita Falls when cold weather comes? The question is one that may well concern all the people of the city, even those who live in comfortable homes with ample gas connections. A severe winter would likely result in distressing fuel shortages. This situation would almost certainly bring an epidemic of influenza and pneumonia. It will therefore readily be seen that the fuel problem is one that concerns all the people. Some committee from the city council or the chamber of commerce ought to be named to investigate the situation and recommend what ought to be done.
 Nobody has any sympathy with a rent profiteer but there is still less sympathy for those who make anonymous threats. The Dallas "Vigilantes" who sent their announcement to the newspapers without disclosing their identity haven't done anything toward reducing rents. They have rather prejudiced their cause.
 In an interview in Washington J. W. Bailey is quoted as saying: "My friends and myself will take charge of the democratic party and we will have candidates from constable to congressmen." The former senator appears as full of egotism and confidence as ever.
MEXICO MUST CLEAN UP.
 Just what effect the warning of General Alvarado to the Carranza government to clean up Mexico will have remains to be seen. It is to be presumed, however, that the very timely advice of the Mexican leader will go unheeded, just as repeated warnings from foreign governments to the same tenor and effect have gone unnoticed.
 General Alvarado is an able man, in fact, he is one of the very few clear thinkers in Mexico today. And of the number, he doubtless stands singly and alone in the possession of sufficient bravery to give expression to sentiments that must in the nature of things be thoroughly offensive to the first chief. Nor would he have spoken so openly had he not been impressed by the deep conviction that his country is hovering over a volcano that is liable to erupt at any time, and when it does Mexican sovereignty will be imperiled.
 No government on the face of the globe, save the United States, would have tolerated the squalid affairs in

 LACLEDE, MO., Sept. 10.—"Johnny" Pershing is coming home and Linn county is a beehive.
 Knighted and titled by European crowned heads; honored and glorified by President Wilson and congress and praised and feted by the nation, General Pershing will be welcomed back to his birthplace. The date is not definite. General Pershing, responding to Mayor Edmund B. Allen's cablegram, "Laclede, your old home, your boyhood friends and Linn county is calling you," replied, "I have heard the call. Will be there soon after my arrival in the United States."
 And then Laclede went to work, preparing the home-coming. When "Johnny" comes home to Laclede it will be a simple affair. There'll be no "Gee-ing" and "Whoo-ing" and "Ho-ing" going to be just plain Johnny, and that is just what he will want to be. Mayor Allen said, giving the keynote of the celebration. "Lord knows he's been 'generalized' enough by this time, and 'Johnny' is going to sound powerfully good to him."
 So Laclede is planning: singing, shooting, handshaking and music and much oratory followed by a fried chicken dinner "on the ground" when Johnny's in town.
 The Pershing family will reunite after the celebration. James Pershing, a brother of Chicago; their two sisters, Miss May Pershing and Mrs. Jessie Butler of Lincoln, Neb., will meet again in the old Pershing home here.
 "Aunt" Susan Hewitt, who baked apple pies for the general when he was a barefoot boy, will be a guest. "Aunt" Louisa Warren, who officiated at the birth of Pershing and first bathed and clothed him, will be another guest of honor. George F. Davis, aged resident of Quincy, Ill., will be another honored guest. Davis gave Pershing's father his first job in Laclede—that of section boss. Prof. Smith of Chillicothe, Mo., the living member of the committee giving examinations when Pershing won his appointment to West Point, also will be a guest. Nearly a score of boyhood chums will attend.
 Secretary of War Baker and governors of Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska, Illinois, Oklahoma and Arkansas have been invited.
 Good words from the world powers, crosses of war and other costly gifts of recognition will be mere gew-gaws and trinkets in the life of Pershing on homecoming day. He will receive a photograph and a revolver. The photograph—faded and worn and five years old—was a picture of Pershing's mother. It was found recent-

Embargo Against the Denver Is Raised by Director Bush
 Word that the embargo of Southwestern lines against the Port and Denver has been raised, was received by the local Chamber of Commerce Wednesday morning. What concessions, if any, were made by the Denver to effect this settlement were not mentioned. Mr. Bush's wire containing the bare announcement of the withdrawal of the order.
 Neither were local railroad officials able to furnish any additional information, in fact official notification of the withdrawal of the order has not been received as certain restrictions retained by the Denver in raising their own embargo recently, were given up by the reason for the action of the Southwestern lines for pronouncing a sweeping embargo, it is considered likely that the Denver at least partly removed these restrictions, which are thought to have made the raising of their embargo affect only freight originating on their own lines.
 It is known at least, that the raising of the Bush embargo followed a conference of several days between Mr. Bush and Hale Holden, the regional director controlling the Denver.
 The raising of the latest embargo averts what promised to be the most critical situation in the history of Wichita Falls.

GAME IS REVIEWED TO SETTLE CONTROVERSY AS TO NUMBER OF INNINGS

For the purpose of settling many controversies as to the length of the game between Wichita Falls and Childress at Katy park Sunday, August 31, The Times sports department makes this explanation:

First, the game was only 15 innings and not 16 innings.

The Times baseball reporter kept a tabulated score of the game, play-by-play. His score book is a matter of record. It can be turned to at any time, no matter how long after the game, and every play made can be sold, accurately and completely.

This tabulated score, from which the box of the game was made, shows convincingly that there were 15 innings played; that there were 46 put-outs, and had there been 16 innings there would necessarily have been 48 put-outs, unless the locals had scored enough runs to win their last inning with none, one or two men out.

Further proof, and this is conclusive beyond all doubt, shows that 46 of the Leopards were counted as "times at bat"; one man was hit (Roy Bourland), one man sacrificed (Graves), making 45 men who had a chance to get on base. Three men were left on base, and these three and the 45 outs, make 48 men who walked to the plate. Always, and this never fails, the number of men "AB" and men who got on by walks, being hit, sacrificed, balk or otherwise that does not count a time at bat, and the put-outs together with the number of men left on base must tally.

That is proving it from the locals' end of the score. From the Childress end it looks like this:

Wichita Falls put out 45 Childress players. In all 55 of the Childress batsmen are charged with times at bat. One man got hit, or got to first without a time at bat, and this makes 56 men who walked to the plate. Two men scored, nine were left on bases and 45 were put out and this makes 56 and if figures do not lie, they prove in this instance that the game was 15 innings.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 10.—Walter Cox achieved the ambition of his career at the Syracuse grand circuit meeting today when he piloted McGregor the Great, fleet son of Peter the Great and Ruth McGregor, to a straight heat victory in the classic empire state stake and for 2:12 class trotters.

Cox not only won the event but established a new record in the first heat which McGregor stepped in 2:03 1/4. Hollywood Billy sprung a big surprise in the first race, the 2:13 race, which he walked to straight heats. Horsemen had figured Homefast as the probable winner.

ARMY BILLETTS WOMEN WORKERS WITH Y. W. C. A.

French and English girls working in the offices of the American Army in Montoir, Tours, Brest and Paris, during the next few months, will be billeted with the American Young Women's Christian Association.

These girls are organized into the Army Service Corps and will be responsible largely for the clerical work necessary in completing the records of the American Army overseas.

The girls at Montoir, 100 in all, live in barracks. Those in the other cities live in houses which the Y. W. C. A. will secure for this use.

As the work so closely resembles Signal Corps work, Miss Vera Shafer, who was director of that branch of overseas work, will be in charge. The plan for the management of the houses is modeled after that of Hotel Moderne, where 30 French girls who worked in the American offices at Tours were housed under the direction of Miss Sarah Watson. The house was run on exactly the same plan as Y. W. C. A. Signal Corps and Hostess Houses and was a great success, despite protests of many French women that girls of their nationality could not be allowed the same freedom that American girls were allowed.

FORMER PRESIDENT REVIEWS THE PART OF JEWS IN WAR

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—If the war does help the Jew, it will indeed be a blessing in dreadful disguise," says William Howard Taft, in a communication to the National Geographic Society.

The former president reviews the part the Jews played in the war and predicts some effects the war will have on their world struggle for liberty as follows:

"One-half the Jews of the world have had to bear its miseries, cruelties, its sufferings. They lived in the theater of war between Russia and Germany and Austria. In this region, almost without ceasing, the campaign continued. The Russians laid waste the country in order to embarrass their pursuing enemies, and between the two armies the population, of which the Jews were a large part, suffered untold horrors.

"As soon as the war came on, as soon as mobilizations were initiated, Germany and Austria, on the one hand, and Russia, on the other, vied with each other in a cultivation of the good will of the Poles and the Jews.

"Russia promised that an autonomous Poland would be created from all three of the incomplete tribal districts of the partitioned kingdom. Some of the leaders of the Austrian government announced an intention of giving autonomy to Galicia.

"When the war came to an end, tremendous governmental changes occurred in the countries where the Jews are so greatly congested.

"The dreadful destruction of life, the necessity for rehabilitation of these countries where the war raged with such violence and destruction, must necessarily give greater economic value to every man who survives.

The loyalty which the Jews have shown to their respective governments under a ruler trying to oppress them, to impress their governments with the claim that they make to equal treatment.

"While it is true that in the past much of the cruelty to the Jews has been immediately prompted by popular prejudices, nevertheless it is also true that, with the increase of popular control in all countries, their condition has ultimately been much improved. A war like this, which must be carried on by the people, increases their ultimate power.

"If education and opportunity and freedom and equality are extended to them in the next generation, the fruits to which objection is made will be less and less conspicuous, and Russia's great domain, which needs people of energy, people of keenness, people of enterprise, people exper-

EVERY AMERICAN SOLDIER CASUALTY IS ACCOUNTED FOR

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—Every American soldier who became a "casualty" in the war against Germany at last has been accounted for.

A list of missing and unaccounted for which at one time was as high as 25,908, gradually was reduced until for weeks it remained at two. It is now presumed there is no doubt the two soldiers are dead and they have been so listed officially.

Of the total first reported missing, 13 per cent died; 16 per cent were found to be prisoners; 25 per cent were lost from their organizations in the confusion of battle but subsequently rejoined them. The remainder were found scattered through various hospitals.

JONES COUNTY TO IMPORT MEN TO GATHER COTTON

STAMFORD, TEX., Sept. 9.—A committee of farmers met with representatives from each of the banks and of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday to arrange for importing laborers for

R. H. Baird and J. D. Crow left last night for East Texas to look for cotton pickers, they will keep the Chamber of Commerce advised of their success, and the Chamber of Commerce will keep them advised of the needs of the farmers, according to regulations made for their laborers.

It is estimated that in Stamford vicinity, alone, 2,000 cotton pickers will be needed and that will mean about upward of 7,000 for Jones county. The farmers are needing pickers now. All prefer to get white men, but realize that there is no choice left to them.

Gins in all sections of Jones county are beginning their fall run. There are only a few farmers who can leave their feed crops to begin cotton picking, but the feed crop is being harvested rapidly and as soon as that is finished, a cotton picking season is here that will continue until late in March.

If ever men are "Tom" and "Bill" to each other, it's when good pipes are a-going. If ever good pipes go their best, 'tis when Velvet's in the bowl.

For Velvet is a mighty friendly smoke. Kentucky Burley is the leaf that Nature made for pipes. Wholesome and hearty, honest as the day. And Velvet is that same good Burley leaf, brought to mellow middle age.

For eight long seasons Velvet "meditates" in wooden hogsheads, throwing off the rawness of "young" tobacco—truly "ageing in the wood." Out Velvet comes—cool, calm and generous—the tobacco Nature made good, kept good and made better.

Velvet's sweetness is the sweetness of good tobacco, not "put on" like "frosting" on a cake. Its mildness comes from natural ageing, not from having the life baked out. Its fragrance is true tobacco fragrance, not a perfume. And Velvet makes an A Number One cigarette. Roll one.

As good old Velvet Joe says:

GREECE IS ABOUT TO EMERGE TO MORE INFLUENTIAL PLACE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Greece whose classic ideals still constitute one of the most potent forces of world culture, is about to emerge to a more influential place among modern nations as the result of peace adjustments, says a bulletin from the National Geographic Society.

The bulletin, quoting from a communication of George Higgins Moses, describes contemporary Greece as follows: "The established religion of the land is, of course, Orthodox Greek. The clergy, headed by the Metropolitan of Cetinje, are a splendid lot of men in physique and character. The Catholics, numbering some 15,000 have their own archbishop at Antivari, and the few Mohammedans possess a Grand Mufti.

"Many ways Greek life is unchanged from its classic aspects. Modern Athens, before the war, was a brilliant capital well worth its title, 'The Paris of the Levant.' Less than a century ago it passed finally from Turkish possession, and it was then a small collection of mere hovels huddled beneath the Acropolis.

"In 1914 it was a city of wide and gay streets, dotted with small parks and adorned with many handsome public buildings, most of them the gifts of rich Greeks who have delighted to spend in the mother country the fortunes which they have earned abroad. "To such generosity Athens owes the noble group of buildings which comprise the university, the National Library and the fine classical reproduction which houses the Academy of Science, and above all and to my mind the most interesting, the noble stadium, built upon the old foundations and along the old lines and 'ingeniously carrying in its fabric every fragment of the old structure which could be found.

"In the midst of all this modernity stand the remnants of the golden days of Athens sedulously preserved and open to inspection and study with freedom nowhere equalled. The focus of course, is the Acropolis—incomparable even in its ruins—its cliffs and grottoes still the home of legend and of fable.

"A of old the Greeks swam the sea. Before the war the Piraeus was one of the busiest of the Mediterranean ports—indeed, it was the center of transshipment for all the East—while the Corinthian Canal, after many financial vicissitudes, now seems to be in the way of becoming each year a more and more useful route between the Ionian and the Aegean Seas.

"The Greeks are a town people. One-tenth of the population is to be found in Athens and the Piraeus. The drain of emigration from the rural districts is enormous. In the words of a Cabinet Minister, it constitutes 'a grave national hemorrhage.' Indeed in some villages, in the mountainous interior, remain scarcely enough men to fill the offices.

"In the land of much sunshine, as Greece is, life is followed much in the open. The oven is almost invariably to be found in the courtyard, and it is heated with dried twigs almost the only fuel of the country, which are brought in huge piles upon the backs of the patient little donkeys, who vie with the goats in being the most useful members of the household.

"At Megara the native costume appears at its best. It is rarely seen anywhere nowadays, and has almost wholly disappeared from the cities. But for the Evzones, or household troops, the fustanella would be a rare sight in Athens as in the classic garb, which is worn only by Americans."

WALT MASON INSPIRED BY BEAT OF DRUM AND RATTLE OF TAMBOURINE

Lured by the beat of the big bass drum and the rattle of the Salvation Army tambourine Walt Mason, America's prose poetry writer was converted in Los Angeles a few days ago, in his characteristic manner he wrote the following poem:

On the Glory Trail
"One night while walking down the street, my mind on pleasure bent—I sought the pleasures of the world, but my soul was not content—I saw the bright lights of the theatre; they beckoned me to come, as did the music and the son in the place where they sold rum. I stepped into a pool hall and found a vacant chair, and thought that I would rest a bit and drive away dull care, but my mind still persisted in turning memory sod, reminding me of the time when I was winning souls for God. I couldn't find that rest and peace—satisfaction would not come—when suddenly I heard the sound of the good old Army drum. Its voice it called me closer, and I found an open air, and once more I could see myself kneeling there in prayer. For I had been a soldier and known the Saviour's smile, but now I was a deserter—a sinner weak and vile. But in spite of my meanness, I went to the hall that night. My intentions they were proper—I meant to do the right. But a deserter is a coward—always ready with some excuse to keep a cowardly person, and wonders, What's the use? But the prayers of God's faithful people won my hard and stony heart, and at the front of that night I made another start. And today—praise God! I'm fighting! Jesus took me back, and now once more I'm traveling in the good old Calvary track.

GUIDES FOR AMERICAN WOMEN SEEING GRAVES

An information bureau and guides for American women going to France to visit the graves of American soldiers is soon to be established in Hotel Petrograd, the Y. W. C. A. Hostess House in Paris which since has been headquarters for Allied women workers in Paris.

Hotel Petrograd is to be turned into the American Woman's Club in Paris this month, and will continue to be managed by the American Y. W. C. A. As a club it will continue to accommodate both transient and permanent guests. Large reading and writing rooms and a large library are being fitted up.

In this movement for saving women visiting soldiers' graves every possible help, the Y. W. C. A. is associated with a large movement of the American Churches in France, which is under the direction of Dr. Goodrich, pastor of the American Church in Paris. Prominent women residents in Paris are backing the movement.

Arrangements will be made for caring for as many of these women as is possible in the Y. W. C. A. Hostess Houses in devastated regions such as Rheims and St. Quentin.

KEPT HER AWAKE

The Terrible Pains in Back and Sides. Cardui Gave Relief.
Marksville, La.—Mrs. Alice Johnson, of this place, writes: "For one year I suffered with an awful misery in my back and sides. My left side was hurting me all the time. The misery was something awful.

I could not do anything, not even sleep at night. It kept me awake most of the night. I took different medicines, but nothing did me any good or relieved me until I took Cardui.

I was not able to do any of my work for one year and I got worse all the time, was confined to my bed off and on. I got so bad with my back that when I stooped down I was not able to straighten up again. I decided I would try Cardui. By time I had taken the entire bottle I was feeling pretty good and could straighten up and my pains were nearly all gone.

I shall always praise Cardui. I continued taking it until I was strong and well." If you suffer from pains due to female complaints, Cardui may be just what you need. Thousands of women who once suffered in this way now praise Cardui for their present good health. Give it a trial. NC-133

CARDINAL MERCIER COMES TO THANK AMERICAN PEOPLE

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Cardinal Mercier, primate of Belgium, who arrived here yesterday to thank the people of America for the aid they gave Belgium during the war, is a guest of Archbishop Patrick J. Hayes, among several thousand persons invited to witness the parade of the First Division headed by General Pershing in Washington. The cardinal stood erected in front of St. Patrick's cathedral.

Cardinal Mercier, after a hearty greeting from city and church officials, said that he was overjoyed to be in the United States where he considers that he has so many warm friends. "My mission," he said, "is to carry the expression of gratitude due from the Belgian people to the American people. I have come to see the people of this great land whom I learned to love."

The cardinal was the guest last night at the residence of Archbishop Hayes. He plans to return to New York on September 17, when he will be officially received by Mayor John Hylan at the city hall. Later he will go to Albany where he will be accorded a state reception arranged by Governor Alfred E. Smith. From Albany he will return to Baltimore and there address a meeting of Catholic bishops in Washington. The cardinal is due to begin his tour of the country September 13.

WANT EXTENSION OF FACILITIES TO MEET GROWTH OF THE CITY

MATTER IS TAKEN UP AT MEETING OF CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TODAY.

PLAN FOR GENERAL MEETING

Importance of Matter is Discussed at Length by Leading Citizens.

Plans for a membership meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, to be held the latter part of the month, at which determined and definite steps will be taken to secure an extension of sewer, water, gas, telephone and light facilities to meet the growing needs of the city, and permit its further growth and expansion, were made at a special meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce at the Elks club rooms Wednesday morning.

Various needs of the city, a new sewer, an adequate water supply, electric lights, gas and telephones were brought out by various members of the board, and the prime importance of each to the development and growth of Wichita Falls were brought up by the various members of the directorate, and each came in for an animated discussion.

"There is no doubt that we are now at the most critical stage of the development of the city," said J. A. Kemp, vice president, who presided at the meeting. "It is up for us now to determine whether the city is to go forward, or is to fall back to the place of a second class city."

Need New Charter. "One of our chief needs right now is for the proposed new charter. We must be able to vote bonds for city buildings to the point necessary for us to get and hold the enlarged population which is now being brought to us through the oil field. We must get away from distrust of a bond issue and thinking in little figures, and prepare to handle the big things we have a chance to accomplish.

"In my opinion it is of vital importance that the city of Wichita Falls should have a first class city manager, employed at such a salary that he can give his entire time to studying and meeting the needs of this city.

"An adequate water supply is another thing which is of the utmost importance to us. I think we should make arrangements to give this city an assured water supply that will suffice for a city of 100,000 population, and that this water plant should be owned by the city."

Extensions Urged. "Extension of gas, telephone and light facilities to the areas which are potential residential sections, was stressed by W. S. Curlee. "Unless we can immediately take some means of extending sewer, lights, gas, telephone and other facilities to all parts of the city, we will be unable to hold our population," said Mr. Curlee. "Without these conveniences we have no inducements to offer a man to build his home here, and after making a comfortable fortune elsewhere, he is going to see them go away and make their homes at other places, unless we place ourselves in a position to offer these inducements for homes here."

"We are now at the parting of the ways, and it will be decided by the action taken at this time whether we are to go forward or backward," was the way Hubert Harrison, secretary, summed up the situation.

"Hurling a bomb under various public utilities corporations to secure the extensions vital to the needs of the city," was B. F. Johnson's suggestion. The proposition also elicited a favorable comment from the other directors in attendance, and the secretary was authorized to proceed with plans for the meeting by the unanimous consent of those present.

Those present at the meeting were: J. A. Kemp, president; Hubert Harrison, secretary, and W. S. Curlee, vice president. Also present were: O'Reilly, A. W. Bland, B. F. Johnson, C. E. McCutcheon, J. S. Bridwell, John F. O'Donohue, W. S. Gurlee and F. N. Lawton, directors.

FINED FOR VIOLATION OF HARRISON NARCOTIC LAW

Fines of $350 each were assessed in the United States district court Wednesday by Judge Smith against Dr. L. E. Parmelee and Mrs. Parmelee, who was indicted as Mrs. Hudgins by the grand jury. Both pleaded guilty to violation of the Harrison narcotic law by failing to keep accurate and complete records of all narcotics administered by them.

The case had features that, in a way, exempted the couple from severe penalty and censure. Dr. Parmelee testified that he had practiced medicine in Florida, Memphis, Tenn., and other places, but had come to the Southwest because of ill health. Now he practices in Burk Burnett. Mrs. Hudgins was a nurse in his office. During the smallpox epidemic at Burk Burnett, Dr. Parmelee and Mrs. Hudgins were so busy they could not keep accurate records, it was testified. Dr. Parmelee was city physician at Burk Burnett and was kept continuously on the go.

Later, a romance grew out of the association of the physician and the nurse, and they were married. The indictment contains three counts, relative to three occasions when narcotics had been administered and no record made. Judge Smith took the case under advisement Tuesday afternoon and did not render judgment until Wednesday. Both fines were paid.

PLAN FOR PARTICIPATION IN 75 MILLION CAMPAIGN

Plans for the participation of the counties of the 14th district, which includes Wichita, in the Southern Baptists' Seventy Five Million Campaign, which will be actively waged in November, were discussed at a conference held by Dr. J. N. Dawson of Waco, chairman of the publicity committee for the state, with members of the district organization, in this city Tuesday afternoon. Rev. O. L. Powers of the First Baptist church, district commissioner, B. F. Johnson, district organizer, and Mr. Taylor of Graham, and Rev. Mr. Scott of Throckmorton, chairman of their respective counties, attended the conference. There are eight counties in the district, only three of them being represented at this conference.

NOT INTOXICATING BUT WILL SURE MAKE DRUNK

"Well, is it intoxicating?" asked Judge Smith when a negro was testifying in United States court Tuesday about some "Choctaw beer" she had made. "No, Sub, Judge, it ain't intoxicating, but if yuh drinks just a little bit of it, it shure will make yuh drunk."

PUGH ON TRIAL ON CHARGE OF VIOLATING ANTI-NARCOTIC LAW

"The iron cure"—jail bars—is very effective in weaning a "dope fiend" from his desire for the drug and his addiction to it. This was made evident in the case of Dr. W. W. Pugh and C. A. Downs in federal court this morning when Downs, in a clear-toned, outspoken manner, told of his cure from the horrors and degradations of the morphine and cocaine habit.

Four and a half months in jail cured him, he said. When he was arrested last April he weighed 137 pounds. On the witness stand Wednesday he testified that he weighed 210 pounds. He was a living, active picture of robust health.

The case of Pugh went to trial before a jury Wednesday. Downs pleaded guilty to one count of the indictment Tuesday, but Mr. Pugh pleaded not guilty and a jury was empaneled to try him.

Witnesses Testify. Several witnesses testified, among them being Will S. Wood, special agent of the department of justice assigned to watch on violations of the Harrison narcotic act.

He testified that he had known Pugh for about two years and had frequent visits to his office in Fort Worth. Wood knew that Dr. Pugh was addicted to the morphine habit, he said. The witness identified numerous order blank duplicates, explaining to the jury that they had been signed by Pugh and had been sent to various drug dealers. All were for morphine, cocaine or heroin.

He first saw Downs three days after the latter's arrest. "He was a bad way from the effects of the drugs and the lack of them," said Wood.

Questions Signature. As Wood was leaving the stand Pugh asked him how he knew his (Pugh's) name on the order blanks had not been forged. Wood said he knew Pugh's signature, and did not believe the blanks were forged.

Downs testified that he first met Dr. Pugh in Fort Worth last winter. At the time Downs lived in Healdton, Oklahoma, and was a victim of rheumatism suffering much pain. Narcotics, he said, had offered him his only relief, and he went to see Dr. Pugh with a view of getting morphine.

He and Pugh became friendly and decided to go into the drug business at Burk Burnett so that they could have all the narcotics they wanted. They went to the internal revenue collector's office in Austlin and registered, and then bought a stock of drugs that was in storage, having this stock shipped to Burk Burnett.

Dissolve Partnership. When they arrived there, however, they could get no building, so abandoned their idea and dissolved partnership. Pugh, testified Downs, signed several narcotic orders in blank, so that he could fill them out as he required the drugs. It was while in Burk Burnett that Downs sold an addict some morphine and paid for Pugh's board with more drugs, he said.

Downs testified that he and Pugh were both addicted; that it required about 1-8 of an ounce bottle—enough to kill several men not used to it—within 20 hours. "I have quit it now and am cured," said he. "No, thank God, I never want to see it or touch it again," and he pointed at 11 bottles of morphine, two or three bottles of cocaine and some heroin that had been introduced by

Prosecutor Harrell as government evidence. Guilt is Denied.

Dr. Pugh, a man probably past the 60th milestone of his life, whose hair is tinged with gray, whose voice is low and halting and whose hand trembled as he held a paper, took the stand. He denied his guilt and declared that Downs had signed some of the orders for narcotics against his will. He acknowledged that he was a "dope fiend," using about one and one-half grains of morphine three times daily. An average dose for a person not addicted to the drug is from one-eighth to one-fourth grain, he said.

He was not represented by counsel, but was cross-examined by Assistant U. S. Attorney Harrell, who brought out that Pugh had been tried before for being a "dope doctor" and that he had been warned frequently by the federal authorities.

He denied that Downs paid him for any of the drugs administered or that Downs had paid his board to a woman also addicted to the use of drugs. He was still on the stand when court adjourned at noon until 2 o'clock.

OFFICERS ELECTED FOR THE PANHANDLE SHORT LINE RAILWAY

At a meeting of the newly created board of directors of the Panhandle Short Line Railway company, held in the Wichita State bank Tuesday afternoon, officers for the railway to be built from Dalhart to Lubbock were elected. They are:

E. G. Cook, president; W. A. Squire, second vice president; M. McGinley, third vice president; W. A. Fritchard, secretary; W. R. Ferguson, treasurer; E. G. Cook, general manager. T. D. ("Tex") Richard, the prestige promoter and oil man, who was not present at the meeting, was elected ex-officio first vice president.

A committee on constitution and by-laws was named as follows: W. A. Squire, E. G. Cook and T. D. Richard.

ORGANIZED PROPAGANDA TO THE DISADVANTAGE OF CITY TO GET ATTENTION

"Highly organized propaganda of the most insidious kind to discredit Wichita Falls as an oil center, and make it appear that other cities remote from the sources of production are the centers of the Texas oil industry is being given wide circulation in papers over the United States," Hubert Harrison, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce told the board of directors of that body Wednesday morning.

Mr. Harrison is working on plans by which he hopes to offset the effects of this propaganda through personally conducted publicity work by the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce.

MATERIAL ENROUTE TO EXTEND LIGHT FACILITIES

With the arrival of poles for their new lines, ordered several months ago, and now in transit, electric light facilities will be extended to every home in Wichita Falls. F. N. Lawton, manager of the Wichita Falls Electric Co., told directors of the Chamber of Commerce this morning. "Inability to secure these shipments has held us back on our program, but immediately on receipt of this material we plan extension of facilities to every home in the city," Mr. Lawton said.

OPENING SESSION OF BAPTIST ASSOCIATION TO BE HELD TONIGHT

Tonight the opening session of the Wichita County Baptist Association which is meeting here, the guests of the Fourth Street Baptist church, will be held in the First Baptist church, with the opening sermon preached by Rev. T. J. Furness of Burk Burnett. The theme for this annual association meeting will be the Seventy Five Million Campaign, which the Southern Baptists are waging, and tonight's program, as well as Thursday's will feature this campaign. Business will be the order of Thursday, this being the regular annual meeting of the association, and the first meeting held since last year, the quarterly meetings having been temporarily abandoned during the war. A large attendance is anticipated since the Women's Auxiliary to the association, which held its meeting Tuesday, had an attendance of better than 250 members.

Dr. T. V. Neal of Dallas, from the State headquarters of the Seventy Five Million Campaign, will attend the meeting Thursday and with local members of the campaign organization will present special phases of the campaign, to the Wichita county Baptists. Rev. O. L. Powers, pastor of the First Baptist church, is the district organizer, and B. F. Johnson, also of this city, is district commissioner.

The association will be served with luncheon at the noon hour Thursday by members of the Fourth Street Baptist church, of which Rev. A. J. Holt is pastor. This church had extended the invitation to the association to meet at its guests, but a fire in the church last week made the change of the place of meeting to the First church, but the Fourth street members are acting as hosts.

TO CONTINUE FIGHT FOR ANOTHER TRAIN ON WICHITA VALLEY

Representatives of Wichita Falls will appear before the Texas Railroad commission to make a determined fight for the additional daily passenger train on the Wichita Valley Thursday when the commission reopens the matter at the request of the railroad administration, following action to this effect taken at the Wednesday morning meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce.

The train was recently ordered by the railroad commission, but the action of the national railroad administration in asking a reconsideration of the case is believed to indicate opposition from that quarter.

R. L. Penick of the Penick-Hughes orderers Co., of Wichita Falls and Stamford, and M. E. Cox of the Wichita Falls freight bureau will be the Wichita Falls representatives, and they will be supported by delegations from Stamford, Abilene and other Valley points.

Angry Organist's Note.
 The old pensioner who blew the bellows for the organ had a most exasperating falling. In spite of frequent admonitions, he would continue blowing after the music had stopped, thereby providing most undesirable sounds. One day the organist could stand it no longer. The congregation had been set tittering by the old man's forgetfulness, and during the sermon the organist seized the opportunity to write him a note on the matter and handed it to a choir boy to deliver. Misunderstanding the widespread directions, the lad handed the note straight up to the vicar, who astoundedly read the following:
 "Will you stop when I tell you to? People come here to listen to my music, not to your horrible noise."
Imaginary Choir.
 It was a fashionable bridge luncheon. "Have you a strong imagination?" asked the hostess. Every lady said she had. "Just imagine, then, that you are drinking a cocktail. It will do you quite as much good and there won't be any bad after-effects."
Tough Luck.
 There was sadness among the boys of the neighborhood, for the motion picture theater had burned down during the night. "Why couldn't it be the school!" they wailed.
Rest for the Broken.
 How doth the smiling moving man Fill up his swelling purse, Till father longs to take a ride Within the cashless hoarse!

I, F. F. Moore, president of the Double F Oil Co., in order to correct the statements that have been made relative to the Double F Oil Co., viz: That the Double F Oil Co. has a fishing job and that the well has been ruined. I wish to make the following true statements in regard to the Double F:

Last Thursday the clutch on our machine broke, necessitating my having a new one cast. Furthermore, we had been using temporarily a borrowed rotary and as our own rotary was on the way to our well, we returned the borrowed rotary, thinking our own would be at the well by the time we got our clutch. Unavoidable delay has kept us from getting a rotary until today. Everything is in good order and we expect to bring the well in the latter part of this week. Three more derricks are up and it is our intention to have three machines driving their bits down to the sands within the next ten days. I regret that any one should attempt to take advantage of those who put their good money in Double F shares by circulating a statement relative to this company that is on absolute falsehood.

(Signed) F. F. MOORE.

Another feature of the work in Wichita Falls which will derive a direct benefit from the funds secured in this drive, will be the extension of aid to returned discharged soldiers who are stranded at this point...

The funds to be secured in the Home Service drive are designed to take the place of funds collected on the streets. In other words the "ambulance fund," which for many years has been the sole support of the Salvation Army...

L. D. Wade, state organizer for the Home Service drive, spent Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday in the city in conference with B. Johnson, county chairman for the drive...

While the quota for Wichita Falls and Wichita county is placed at $4,000, an effort to double this quota is to be made by the local campaign committee.

The drive will open with a dinner at the Elks club, and committees will meet there daily to report progress.
