President Wilson's Condition Improved STATEMENT OF PHYSICIAN SAYS THAT HE HAD GOOD NIGHT'S REST; FURTHER CONSULTATIONS HELD

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Dr. Grayson announced this afternoon that President Wilson's condition remains favorable and that doctors called into consultation agree with him in this opinion. The examination of Wilson's eyes made by Dr. DeSchwinitz showed there had been no change since the last examination, six months ago.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—The President had a good night's rest and his condition is more favorable, said a statement issued at 10:55 a. m. today by Dr. Cary T. Grayson. Issuance of Grayson's bulletin was delayed by a long conference of physicians. Those at the conference were Dr. E. P. Taylor, of the Naval Medical School; Dr. Sterling Ruffin, and Dr. Grayson.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—The President is still gravely ill. He showed slight improvement last evening. Hope for this improvement, recorded by Dr. Cary T. Grayson's last official bulletin, would mark the turning point in his illness and that he would show steady progress today.

UPRISING IN ARKANSAS WAS PREARRANGED

LONDON, Oct. 4.—Efforts of trade unionist mediators to find some means of bringing the government and leaders of the nation's unions of railwaymen together have not been abated in spite of breach in negotiations. Their chosen delegates met this forenoon at the headquarters of the transport workers federation for the purpose of formulating further proposals. It is expected they will approach Premier Lloyd-George Monday and place their proposition before the trades congress to be held Tuesday.

ELAINE, ARK., Oct. 4.—Inhabitants of this little town breathed easier today than at any time since early in the week when race disturbances of a serious nature burst without warning. Generally the people here believed the worst of the trouble was over.

Through this organization, officials say, the negroes in this locality were banded together for an uprising. Among the papers brought in by patrols is a printed copy of what purports to be "the United States of America, the negro business league. The object of the 'union' is stated in the pamphlet, 'shall be to organize the negroes, mentally and intellectually, and to make him a better citizen and a better farmer.'"

CHICAGO PRAYS FOR PRESIDENT'S RECOVERY CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—Solemn prayers for the recovery of President Wilson were said in synagogues here today. Rabbinic urged their congregations not to forget the executive's illness. Pastors of all denominations announced today they will include prayers for the President's recovery in services tomorrow.

OKLAHOMA MINISTERS TO PRAY FOR PRESIDENT OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Oct. 4.—Every minister in Oklahoma City, it was indicated today, would pray tomorrow for the speedy recovery of President Wilson. The President became ill the morning of his scheduled speech here eight days ago.

BATTING AVERAGES OF WORLD SERIES IN THE GAMES PLAYED

Making but seven hits in the last two games, the Cincinnati Reds have slumped woefully in their batting averages, and have fallen behind the White Sox in this feature of the world's sport classic, too. In yesterday's game the two teams batted as follows:

Table with columns: Club, AB, R, H, PCT. Rows for Cincinnati and Chicago.

It's a freak of statistics that makes the White Sox's batting average for the day and for the series the same—250 per cent. Series club averages follow:

Table with columns: Club, AB, R, H, PCT. Rows for Cincinnati and Chicago.

"Greasy" Neale and Duncan, two "weak" hitters, are the only two in the game regularly who are maintaining the hitting stride they started the series with. On the other hand, Sox batters who slumped in the first or second game came to the fore with a rush in the third tray and have topped the Reds.

Table with columns: Club, AB, R, H, PCT. Rows for Cincinnati and Chicago.

It is noteworthy that Chicago has used 15 men to win one game, while Pat Moran got two games and played a third by using but 14 men, two of whom have been catchers and but three of them pitchers. The Reds have used a pinch hitter once, while Chicago has used McMillin twice.

Of the pitchers, Ruether, Sallee and Kerr, the deminutive Texan, have been the winners, and Cicotte and Williams the losers, although Manager Gleason has used two other hurlers.

Cincinnati has made four errors while Chicago has made but two. There has not been a home-run knocked, although triples have been frequent.

PITCHED GREATEST GAME IN HISTORY OF WORLD SERIES

By ROSS TENNEY (Written for The United Press) CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—Today for the first time, I can pick a White Sox hero. Up to the present Chicago has been busy furnishing goats in this series, but now it's different.

The little Kerr is now the big dog. The Reds laughed at the idea that the little fellow could stop them. But Dickie pitched the greatest game ever hurled in a world series.

Ruether pitched a grand game in the opener. But the midget White Sox southpaw, who doesn't stand five feet seven in his stocking feet, pitched a grander one in blanking the Reds 3 to 0.

Where the White Sox made six hits off Ruether, three of them were scratches, on that opening day. The Reds made only three hits off Kerr and nobody reached third base. Only two runners got as far as second, and only four men got on. The fourth one got there on a pass.

THREE DIVORCE SUITS FILED IN 78th COURT

Three suits for divorce were filed in the 78th district court today, as follows: Myrtle Boyer vs. Clay Boyer, desertion.

NOT DISCOURAGED BY REDUCTION IN BURKBURNETT OIL

Gloom is not spelled for all independent operators by reason of the recent cut to $2 per barrel in the price of Burkburnett crude, as is shown in the following expression of one of the leading independent operators in this district, made in the hearing and its sentiments echoed by the heads of the three leading banking institutions of Wichita Falls, whose heads of necessity must keep in close touch with any situation affecting the fortunes of the operators:

"This cut is only a temporary matter at best, and it is my honest opinion that the next 90 days will not only see Burkburnett crude back to its former level, but again commanding a substantial premium. This pool is the only pool in the country with a big production of high grade oil. The other pools of this section, after having a big flush production, have shrunk away to nothing, which is not the case with any of the pools in this district. During the next 90 days sufficient pipe lines will have been completed to the field to take care of any production, and then you will see prices stepping up again with a bang, for oil of any grade, much less the grade of this crude, is too much in demand to keep the price down."

"I don't agree with those blaming the big companies for this small cut in the price, thinking that those same big companies have done mighty well in paying $2.25 during the last 60 days when there was absolutely no necessity for them doing so, as they could have had the oil at any price for which they would take it. Their action has done more than anything else to keep the price up to a decent level, with no way lacking pipe lines and with an enormous flush production, of getting the oil run at any price, which condition might otherwise have easily led to a price-plashing spree which would have ruined most of the independents and left the big companies to take the field. If they had been going to play a game of freeze out, they could have certainly done so by cutting the price to a low level right in the beginning. I don't blame them a bit for getting the oil a little cheaper than the top figure under conditions like these."

VISIT TO THE AIRDOME IN THE ROLE OF CENSORS

Acting as censors of what they had heard was a decidedly risqué and suggestive show, Police Commissioner Bundy, Alderman McFall and Assistant Police Commissioner Goodellow, accompanied by two newspapermen, visited the Plaza Airdome last night with a view of clamping the lid on any parts of the attraction calculated to lead the youth astray or endanger the morals of U. S. city.

But they all got fooled. The show was not indecent, nor even vulgar. On the contrary, it won the approval of the officials and the newspaper men. Of course, theatrical censorship at the best is more a matter of view point. Different people have very different ideas of what is and what isn't naughty. There were catchy songs, a bit of fairly good dancing, in which the chorus of the seven shapely dancers excelled and some rather mediocre acting, the best of which was done by the black-faced comedians.

"Naughty" was not spicy, twas and while some men might not take their mothers and sisters to such an attraction, a lot of others would, for right and wrong as stated, mostly is a question of what one thinks.

The steady and dignified official sat through the show and a time or two they were forced to laugh, although they and the newspapermen refrained from applauding. The party had been told at Thursday night's council meeting that the dressing rooms had been dispensed with and the aforesaid shapely seven made their toilettes en stage, as it were. Expecting something smacking of Paris or of the bourgeoisie houses in the wicked east, the officials and newspaper men were disappointed, for it wasn't even naughty.

SILVER CLOUDS OF HOPE LINE SKIES OF CHICAGO TODAY

WHITE SOX FANS ARE EXPECTING THAT SERIES WILL BE EVENED UP.

REDS ARE NOT DISCOURAGED

Pat Moran and His Red Legs Wear No Crepe as a Result of Friday's Defeat.

By HENRY L. PARRELL (United Press Staff Correspondent)

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—Silver clouds of hope lined the skies of the strong hold of the White Sox today.

Battered eyes of the Gleason family brought back close to normal condition by the soothing balm of their first victory saw a chance to even the score with the Moran dope batters at Comiskey Park this afternoon.

There were no hanging lips decorating the countenances of the Sox. They paraded with a brisker step. Crestfallen faces that had the tragedy of Cincinnati written over them on their arrival yesterday were brightened today with the hope that the tide had turned and the jinx had been broken.

Pat Moran and his Red Legs wore no crepe, however. The cocky spirit inspired by their flying start has not warped under a defeat. The peppery leader of the Cincinnati crowd told his clan at a little session this morning that they still had the jump on the Sox.

Scent Battle Royal. Chicago scented a battle royal on the south side yard this afternoon. There seemed little likelihood of another sight of the bare pine boards in the bleachers that shone conspicuously under the dazzling sun yesterday. A capacity crowd was anticipated to see the Sox make the effort to edge away from the wall that their backs are hugging.

Gleason probably will call Eddie Cicotte back as a repeater and place in the hands of the veteran "shine ball" the mission of evening up the scores.

While the Sox boss has to resort to a repeater, Pat Moran has a pick to make from two stars that have not yet performed for the sands. Jimmy Ring, the young right-hander, king of hard luck pitchers in the National League, probably will get the call for the Reds. Hod Eller also is ready.

Tough Assignment.

It will be a tough assignment for the Red youngster. Held in abeyance for two days by left hand hurling, the Sox attack broke loose for fury yesterday. They are ready for more. Unless his jinx has been chased, Ring will have a doubly hard task as the Reds persistently refuse to make runs behind him during the pennant race.

Dickey Kerr, the hero of the series, who turned back the rampaging Reds and blanketed them with three feeble hits, won by doing what Cicotte and Williams failed to do—control the ball. The Reds couldn't wait him out. Kerr proved himself possessed of a lion's heart and courage to spare. He faced the heavy artillery of the Reds without a flincher of concern and coolly placed his slants right over the pan. But he had so much stuff on them that the Reds couldn't connect.

The performance of the Texas boy was one of the best ever seen in a world's series. Only 39 men faced him in the nine innings. In the second, third and fifth innings four Red batters came to the plate but in every other session he was the absolute master and retired the side in one, two, three fashion. After the fifth inning not a Morante reached first base. Only one got a pass to the bases. Only two men reached second and not a Red got near Buck Weaver's corner.

Stock Not Reduced.

One defeat, however, has not reduced the stock of the Reds very materially to their way of thinking. After seeing all the Sox hurlers in action but Bill James and Faber, Moran believes that Kerr is the only man able to stem the Red tide and he can't win the four more games lone-handed.

The Sox have their big chance this afternoon. If Cicotte makes a comeback, the chances for Claud Williams on Sunday seem good, for he is famous as a comeback pitcher. Three victories on the home lot would send the Sox back to Cincinnati with a three to two lead over the Reds. Kerr should be able to stop them again and Cicotte would then have a royal chance to retrieve his lost tracks and prove the winner of the big series. At least this is the way the Chicagoans figure—but the Reds are still a game to the good.

SHERWOOD MAGEE GETS OPPORTUNITY AFTER 16 YEARS

By TOM SWOPE (Written for The United Press)

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—They say everything comes to him who waits and yesterday afternoon a fellow who has waited a long time for a certain thing to happen found it suddenly thrust upon him—then failed to do anything with his opportunity.

We speak of Sherwood Magee, veteran of 16 National League campaigns. Magee waited 16 years to land on a pennant winning team and get into a world series.

When this happened he was playing the bench for the Reds. As the eighth inning of yesterday's clash with the White Sox at Comiskey Park opened, Magee got the high sign from Pat Moran that he was to bat for Ray Fisher.

The veteran was like a kid. Here was the chance for which he had waited 16 years. Instead of waiting till it was his turn to bat and then stalling to the plate as has been his custom when acting as pinch hitter, this season, Magee immediately began prancing up and down in front of the Reds' long strings of bats, hunting a club with which to whale his way to fame. He picked up one bat, swung it tentatively, then laid it aside for another. He repeated the stunt several times before he found the proper weight. There were two out and none on when he walked to the plate, and play was halted while the announcer megaphoned that Magee was batting for Fisher.

Those words sounded good to Sherry. They were the realization of his dreams. When he was through batting there were three out—Liebold gathering in his long fly.

Magee now is dreaming again. Although he accomplished nothing on this opportunity he is hoping he will get another chance or two at the swat for Redland that will make Cincinnati's team the ruler of the baseball universe.

KERR'S PITCHING TELLS THE STORY DECLARES EVERS

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—Kerr's pitching covers everything. There is little else to be said about the third game of the big series.

The little fellow made good the prediction that he would cause the Reds trouble. He pitched in wonderful style and I believe there has never been a better performance in all world series games of the past.

But the Reds should not feel at all discouraged by this defeat. Kerr would have beaten any team yesterday, and he did the job to the queen's taste, but his game does not change my prediction that the Reds will win the series. I look for them to get in and win in seven games. The Sox have no other pitchers to cause them any worry.

Break in Second

The break in yesterday's game came in the second inning when Ray Fisher, in his haste to make a force play at second on Feisch's tap, threw the ball into center field, putting Jackson, who had singled, on third and the batsman on second. Gandil's single did the rest. However, without the break there is no doubt that the Sox would have won anyway on little Kerr's pitching. Hand it to him.

The fielding was good on a surprisingly slow and soggy field. Groh stood out, fielding in his usual sensational style. Weaver also was in fine form. It is my opinion the two best "hot corner" men in both leagues are in this series.

The probable pitchers today are Ring and Cicotte. If Cicotte works Wingo will catch for the Reds.

In the Central West, six western conference football teams will play their first 1920 contests today and the seventh will make its second appearance of the season. None will have any bearing on the "Big Ten" championship race.

Interest centered upon the Nebraska-Iowa game at Iowa City. The corn huskers will furnish the acclimatized to Iowa's aspirations to a conference championship.

Coach Yost's Wolverines will make their debut against Case at Ann Arbor. Case is expected to have assembled an exceptionally strong team and it was expected to gain a victory over the

LOCAL MERCHANTS TO FIGHT SPECIAL SALES IN ROOMS OF HOTELS

Local merchants are to fight special sales put on in hotel rooms by out of town houses, according to John W. Thomas, secretary of the Retail Merchants Association, who announced that the Retail Merchants Association will request passage of an ordinance putting a prohibitive tax on these sales at their next session. Such an ordinance was passed on a first reading by the council about a year ago, but was never put to a final action.

"The practice of out of town merchants putting on a sale here through rental of hotel rooms is not legitimate business," said Mr. Thomas, in discussing this action. "They come in here, put on their sale, and are gone tomorrow, taking the money out of town, paying no taxes and in no other way benefiting Wichita Falls. It is not fair for them to come in here, rent a couple of rooms in a hotel at say $5 a day, and compete in business with merchants who are paying $500 a month rent, and whose expenses such as rent, taxes and salaries are soon again put into circulation in Wichita Falls.

"If any of these concerns would come in here, and put in a regular building and go into business in a legitimate way, we would welcome them. No objection, I think, would be raised against them for showing samples and taking orders, which would be a legitimate form of business, but these 'fly by night sales are not."

MEXICAN IS CHARGED WITH WHITE SLAVERY

Austin Hernandez, a Mexican, arrested Friday afternoon by Police Officers Morgan and Hunipris, was transferred to the federal authorities Saturday on a charge of white slavery. The woman in the case, a comely looking senorita, is said by the authorities to have been in three or four states with the man.

A quantity of loaded and shaven dice were found by the police, too. The man is said to be a gambler, and his arrest followed an investigation made at his request of an alleged hold-up in the flats in which he claimed to have lost $240.

BERT BEAN COFFEE HOUSE

For the first time in thirty years, I'm going to use I in an advertisement—and this one is literally sprinkled with them. On the 28th of September, 1889 My father and I opened a grocery store on Ohio avenue under the name of O. W. BEAN & SON. Of course, we handled coffee and I didn't like the blends we were able to buy—nor the idea of selling and drinking STALE COFFEE. So I bought a small roaster using gasoline for fuel and operated by an Armstrong motor and I was IT. Our coffee business increased enormously and I soon bought a power roaster and continued to roast coffee until I quit the grocery business. In fact, the coffee business crowded the grocery business out and in the spring of 1915 I moved to 824 Indiana avenue and established the BERT BEAN COFFEE HOUSE, wholesale and retail, and now my fast increasing business demands larger and better facilities and so I have built a thoroughly modern plant back at the old "stamping grounds" at the corner of Ohio and Sixth and after moving will supply the trade through the grocer, but will continue to furnish them coffees FRESH FROM THE ROASTER each day.
