PRESIDENT DID NOT SLEEP WELL BUT IMPROVES SHOWS NO SIGN OF FATIGUE AS A RESULT OF ATTENTION TO PUBLIC AFFAIRS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—President Wilson did not sleep so well last night, but his condition was improved this morning, according to a bulletin issued by his physicians at 11:30 a. m. today.

The President's prostatic condition remains as before, said the statement. "Chemical examination of the blood shows the kidneys to be functioning normally. He did not sleep so well last night but showed no signs of fatigue this morning."

The statement was signed by Drs. Grayson, Ruffin and Stitt.

The President insisted on writing a letter to Secretary Lane with regard to the threatened disruption of the industrial conference. His physicians advised against it, but were compelled to yield, both because of Wilson's wishes and the pressure brought to bear by high officials of the government for him to take a hand.

Not Fatigued. The President was not fatigued by his efforts in writing the letter, according to Grayson. This was considered surprising in view of the fact that Wilson did not sleep well during the night.

Participation of the President in industrial conference does not mean any general resumption of work will be permitted, Grayson said. The prescription of a complete and absolute rest will remain in force, except in matters of unusual moment where executive action is imperative, he declared.

Wilson sent word through Mrs. Wilson to Secretary Tammany early this morning that he wished to work with him. It was after this that he, lying in bed, dictated the letter, which was about 600 words in length.

Colored Ridley, the President's military aide, conveyed the official condolences of the government to the death of Ambassador D'I. Cellere.

Secretary Lane said he would not lay the letter before the conference except as a last resort to prevent a solution of the gathering. He added that he thought the conference should "work out its own destiny if possible and be its own master."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—A declaration of the imperative necessity of holding the national industrial conference together until it has accomplished the purpose for which it was called is understood to form the keynote of a 600 word letter which President Wilson sent today to Secretary Lane of the interior department, chairman of the conference.

The President's Secretary has outlined these purposes at some length. His letter was described by those who had read it as "an extremely powerful document" written in the vigorous style which characterized the executive's writings before his illness.

PRESIDENT IS INFORMED OF TREATY PLANS

Is Also Advised of Threatened Miners Strike and Conference Tie-Up.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—President Wilson has been informed of the treaty situation in the Senate through a letter from Senator Hitchcock, it was learned at the White House today.

Wilson has been told of other matters, such as the threatened miners strike and the deadlock in the industrial conference, by means of reports laid before him by Secretary Tumulty.

Information is conveyed to the President directly by Mrs. Wilson and Dr. Cary T. Grayson, who talk with him and read to him, it was stated at the executive mansion.

Tumulty today was requested to come to the White House; he did not know whether he would see the President personally. Tumulty conferred last night with Secretary Lane, chairman of the industrial conference; Bernard M. Baruch and Chairman Chadbourne of the committee of 15.

Wilson desired, it was believed, more information about the conference.

Hitchcock in his letter to Wilson made an optimistic report, according to what was given out at the White House. This, it was said, greatly cheered him.

The President rested well last night and his condition was improved this morning, according to Tumulty. Complications which have disturbed his rest during the past week did not trouble him.

The cabinet will meet again today with Secretary Lansing presiding. The principal matter for consideration, it was learned, was the impending miners strike.

PRACTICABILITY OF AIR MAIL SERVICE IS DEMONSTRATED

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—The recent trans-continental air race has demonstrated the practicability of extending airmail service to the Pacific coast, in the opinion of Otto Praeger, second assistant postmaster general.

Praeger addressing members of the American Flying Club here, said: "We can and will extend the air route to San Francisco by next spring if congress gets behind the bill introduced by Congressman Kahn."

Cities suggested as mail stops in the proposed mail route are New York, Cleveland, Chicago, Omaha, Salt Lake City, Carson City and San Francisco. Emergency landing fields, it was said, might be established at Bellefonte, Pennsylvania, Bryan, Ohio; Des Moines, Iowa; Cheyenne and Battle Mountain, Nevada.

AWARD CONTRACTS FOR CONSTRUCTION OF DEPOTS

JAKEHAMON, TEX., Oct. 21.—Contracts have been awarded by Hamou and Kell, who are building the Wichita Falls, Ranger and Fort Worth railroad, for construction of depots at Janger, Breckenridge and Frankell.

The contract was awarded to the Jarrett Construction Co. of Springfield, Mo., and the three depots awarded are to cost $18,000 each. They are to be completed as soon as possible and work is to begin on all of them within sixty days. The Ranger depot is to begin within thirty days.

Work will be resumed on the depot at Jakehamon this week and it will probably not be again interrupted for want of material as the contractors have safeguarded against repetition of the delay that has kept the structure at a standstill for a week past.

Oil Enthusiasm Again Runs High

KEMP-MUNGER-ALLEN EXCITES INTEREST OF DEVELOPERS AND THIRD BOOM OF YEAR IS ON

Wichita Falls is in the throes of the third big oil boom within a year's time, and today, less than 24 hours from the time that it became known that the Kemp-Munger-Allen was a flowing well, there is all the excitement that characterized the early days of the Burnburnett townsite and Waggoner pool booms, with companies already beginning to organize on acreage in the new territory and offer stock for sale.

The hope that has been expressed that Wichita Falls would have time to draw its breath and clean house a little before the next big sensation broke in to be unfulfilled. It would seem, and there is every indication that the winter of 1919-20 will be a repetition of last winter, when the city was the mecca of investors, speculators, curiosity seekers, boomers, adventurers and so on down the line of every class that is attracted to a boom, that the same conditions had the desirable and the undesirable alike.

Monday night at the stock exchanges the Waggoner pool stock was practically forsaken and the buying turned to the newest sensation, Kemp-Munger-Allen stock sold as high as $2,500 and $3,000 a share and several companies, whose names were almost unknown to the buying public, suddenly sprang into popularity and were in great demand, the desire for them being seemingly fanned by the fact that so little was offered for sale.

The Munger Ranch Oil Co. adjoining the Kemp-Munger-Allen, on the northeast, got a big play, the stock going from 75 Monday afternoon to 275 that night, and selling Tuesday at 250.

Park Pool stock was also in great demand, though there was little available and the rise on this is rapid. This company's acreage, which is the Munger Ranch on the north, it is stated.

Acreage fairly close up to the well was reported Tuesday as having sold at $5,000 an acre while prices on acreage from one to four miles away were $1,500 and $2,000, down to $400 and $500 for the isolated acreage. Acreage adjoining the tract on which the well is located is being held at high prices.

The blue print companies were on hand promptly, with new maps of Iowa Park, and the blue prints, which had sort of become less prominent since the Waggoner pool development has been outlined more or less definitely and the world had gotten used to 1,500 to 2,000 barrel wells, were out in force Tuesday morning, and instead of the bumps of Red river, the blocks and squares of the Wichita Valley lands subdivision were the subjects of close study.

The sidewalk brokers would have cleaned up, for the crowds that could not get into the stock exchanges stood longingly on the outside, listening for a scrap of the joyful conversation that was being carried on inside, and a map case and a handful of stock certificates would have reaped a glorious harvest. The crowd exchanges were quite reminiscent of the wild days last winter, when exchanges found it necessary to run almost continuous calls to accommodate the business. The printing offices are reported to have put in hurry orders for more blank oil stocks by the gross, and the banks are all contemplating the opening of more receiving tellers' cages. Experience of the past year has taught Wichita Falls what to expect of a new oil boom, and the city is already getting ready for the boom that is already on it.

DOUBLE F CO. HAS REACHED THE SAND IN SECOND WELL

The Double F Oil Co. has reached the sand in their second well in block 98 and the casing is set ready for completion, which it is announced will be on Thursday or Friday of this week. Officials of the company state that indications are such as to lead them to believe that they will get an even better well than their first, was credited with initial production of around 3,000 barrels.

Pipe line connections are now secured for well No. 1 and they expect to begin running it either today or Wednesday, and will be able also to connect No. 2 as soon as it is completed.

The company on drilling two other wells, which will give them four producers on their acreage in block 98.

OIL ASSOCIATION TO MAKE PROTEST AT AUSTIN HEARING

Representatives of the Wichita Producers and Refiners Association will attend the hearing before the railroad commission in Austin Thursday when the application of a Wichita county producing company to force the Texas and Magnolia pipe lines to run one-fourth of its potential production will be heard on its merits.

The commission last week issued a temporary order to the pipe line companies to run one fourth of this company's oil, as represented, it will be remembered, and a protest against this action was sent the commission by the newly organized association, on the ground that such an order would be unfair to the other producers in the field, since the two pipe line companies could not carry one-fourth of the potential production of the Waggoner pool.

The association's representatives have not yet been named, according to C. H. Clark, but they will probably be named at the regular morning session of the executive committee of the association Wednesday morning.

PIPE LINES BEING RUSHED TO KEMP-MUNGER-ALLEN WELL

Pipe line connections have been promised by two lines for the Kemp-Munger-Allen well on the Munger ranch in a few days' time. J. A. Kemp stated this morning, and it will be possible for a test run to be made. Some tankage is on the ground but it will be impossible, he added, to get tankage to the well to amount to much, so it has been decided to wait for the connections.

The Sunshine Pipeline Co. and the Texas Co. have lines within two and four miles, respectively, of the well, and these companies have promised to rush lines to the new well.

STALEY AND LANGFORD SELL 50 ACRES IN WAGGONER FOR CONSIDERATION OF $3,000,000

Monday afternoon the deal which has been pending between J. I. Staley, P. P. Langford and the Middle States Oil Company, through C. N. Taskell, the first governor of Oklahoma, was consummated. Mr. Staley announced Tuesday morning. For three million dollars the company acquires 50 acres in the Waggoner pool with 17 producing wells, and an aggregate production of 25,000 barrels daily. The deal was made through F. A. Merrill of Wichita Falls and Tulsa and I. M. Putnam of New York, Mr. Staley stated.

The property involved was purchased by Mr. Staley and Mr. Langford early in the Waggoner pool and extension developments, and was developed by Mr. Staley personally. There are two 15-acre tracts, one in the Lillis Morgan tract and the second in the southwest corner of block 96, a 10-acre tract out of the Tidwell subdivision of block 97, and a 10-acre tract in the north part of the A. A. Morgan 120-acre tract. The 17 producing wells on these properties have an average daily production of 1,500 barrels.

Ex-Governor Haskell, who represented the Middle States Oil Co. in this deal, is one of the principal stockholders of the company and also has a large interest in the Sinclair companies. This is one of the largest deals ever closed in the Wichita Falls district. Mr. Staley, who has had active charge of the development of the field, and is one of the most successful. He and Mr. Langford retain a large interest in the Northwest Burkburnett, as well as in the older parts of the field, in the partnership, Staley, Langford & Chesnut, which has played a prominent part in the development of the Wichita Falls district for a number

ACTIVITIES IN BLOCK 96 ARE ON THE INCREASE

Activities in block 96 are on the increase and in addition to the numerous new producers which have been brought in in this block within the last few weeks, new operations which seem to forecast an unusually active drilling campaign for the immediate future. The Missouri Burkburnett Oil Co. has three wells drilling in the southeast corner of the block, according to F. J. Devine of St. Louis, the secretary, who is in charge of the company's affairs locally.

The big Staley deal, which was officially reported Tuesday morning, included a ten-acre tract and three producing wells in the southwest corner of the block. The No. 3 of J. I. Staley & Co., the Verschoyle and Touman Oil companies and the Volunteer Oil Co. are among the recently reported food completions.

GARY EDITOR HAS ANALYSIS OF PRESENT INDUSTRIAL SITUATION AS AFFECTING THAT LOCALITY

(Editor's Note: Following is the first of two articles, written at the request of the United Press, by Henry Burgess Snyder, editor of the Gary (Ind.) Evening Post, analyzing the present industrial situation at Gary and giving particular attention to the reports in this city of an anarchistic and revolutionary plotting. The second article will be published tomorrow.)

By HENRY BURGESS SNYDER, Editor Gary (Ind.) Evening Post. Written For The United Press.

GARY, IND., Oct. 21.—Reports have exaggerated largely the serious situation that exists in Gary. Until all metropolitan newspapers develop a type of news gathering that aims at truth rather than sensationalism, a few of them will continue to aggravate a growing distrust of their news sources in the part of labor. Stories of riot and bomb throwing anarchists here are totally unfounded. The only disturbances of any moment occurred, a few hours before the United States soldiers arrived and it was the direct cause of the soldiers being called. Some two hundred strikers paraded, led by three hundred black-clad ex-soldiers, and held a mass meeting in defiance of the orders of Mayor W. F. Hodges. It was a direct challenge to law and because of the meagre force of state militia the mayor could only ask for government aid.

Since then there has been no disorder. The city is under military control and the strikers say openly they are glad the military was called in. Except for soldiers on patrol, Gary today is the Gary of a month ago.

It is practically impossible to learn the degree in which foreign workingmen would have been infected by bolshevism. The military believe the infection is widespread, not only in Gary but in every other similar industrial center. Colonel Mapes, who is in command of the troops, said:

"We have conclusive evidence that the strike is in the hands of the Reds and we can prove it."

The military believe that a large percentage of the men still out on strike are led by I. W. W. and bolshevik beliefs. The radicals have run the gamut of their warfare. Men of foreign birth, foreign breeding, men often who can not understand the English language and have not the slightest conception of American ideals, have been the real teachers and leaders of many of the foreign groups. As a result, rattle brains who have no understanding of the difference between the civilization of Russia and America, have been telling these people they can take over the mills and many have believed. We have known here in Gary that the radicals were at work. But they speak in a foreign tongue, and not until the army came did anyone have any comprehension that the infection is as widespread as military investigation would indicate. And even now some of the people wonder if the military are not seeing things.

There is no general belief that the Gary radicals would attempt a revolution. A very large majority of potential bolsheviks have no heart for "rough stuff." If they take over the mills they will want to put on their Sunday clothes, march over to the mills and let the bosses do the work. That sort of bolshevism is not very dangerous unless it is given an untrammelled leadership by men of action.

It is these men of action the military are seeking out. Thus far eight men have been deported. Before the military get through with Gary they expect to have the trouble makers, who, with few exceptions are aliens, turned over to the immigration authorities.

All of which would indicate that Gary is not the center of a nationwide conspiracy as some reporters have imagined. Chicago is the center of American radicalism. Gary is only one of a number of infected industrial centers, but its proximity to Chicago has made it something of a radical experiment station.

The situation, while not alarming is serious. Alien agitators must not be permitted to teach immigrants the ideas of America. A vast deapmo effort must be made by Americans to do our own Americanizing.

But the trouble can not be settled unless there is a change in the relations of capital and labor. Unless labor is safeguarded, the radicals will succeed in their efforts to seize the machinery of unionism. Then the situation will not only be serious but alarming.

Here in Gary we are watching the industrial conference with intense interest that has back of it the knowledge that the steel industry needs a new deal.

DIRECTORS LAUNCH MOVE FOR A NEW FEDERAL BUILDING

Chamber of Commerce Body to Ask Congress For Million Dollar Structure.

FAIR EXHIBIT A SENSATION

Secretary Harrison Reports Thousands Are Attracted By Showing of Oil Resources at Dallas.

A million dollar appropriation for a new postoffice and federal court building in Wichita Falls is to be asked of congress through Congressman Lucian Parrish, the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce decided at a meeting Tuesday.

The board also instructed Secretary Harrison to obtain specifications for a temporary addition to the postoffice from Postmaster Ed Howard, and together with all other necessary data forward these to Congressman Parrish at Washington, in an effort to get immediate action on relieving the fast growing congestion here.

A communication from Mr. Parrish was read explaining that the congressman would use every available means to get prompt approval of the request for the temporary addition to the postoffice and federal building as soon as data and information concerning both were placed in his hands. The letter was addressed to Mr. Howard and turned over to the Chamber of Commerce for action.

New Site Probable.

Mr. Howard said that it would probably be feasible to select a new site for the postoffice and federal building as growth of the city would warrant the establishment of a number of the substations and the government, no doubt, would make good use of the present postoffice building for one of these.

President R. E. Huff of the Chamber of Commerce brought the postoffice matter before the meeting with the suggestion that $25,000 be asked for the temporary addition to the postoffice.

It was brought out in this connection that the present federal building has long since fallen beneath the needs of the local postoffice alone, besides which it afforded no provisions whatever for use as a federal building, the federal court and its officers being thrown on the courtesy of the county courthouse to carry on their work which is badly needed for the State courts, and the lack of which severely hampers all parties in the carrying on of their work.

A motion was passed calling for the appointment of a federal building commission to work with the postmaster in keeping in behind the post-office projects and supplying Congressman Parrish, the postoffice department and congress with all necessary data and information.

Census Enumerators Inadequate. Another matter disposed of was a decision to ask the federal census department for more than the eight census enumerators appointed for Wichita Falls. B. F. Johnson pointed out that it was essential that the city be thoroughly covered in the census and that unless a sufficient number of census takers were appointed, Wichita Falls might not be given credit for its full population.

A letter from the census department admitted that eight enumerators would probably not be enough and a resolution was passed providing for a committee from the Chamber of Commerce and the realty association to aid Secretary Harrison in districting the city, and empowering them to employ necessary assistance to make the census complete.

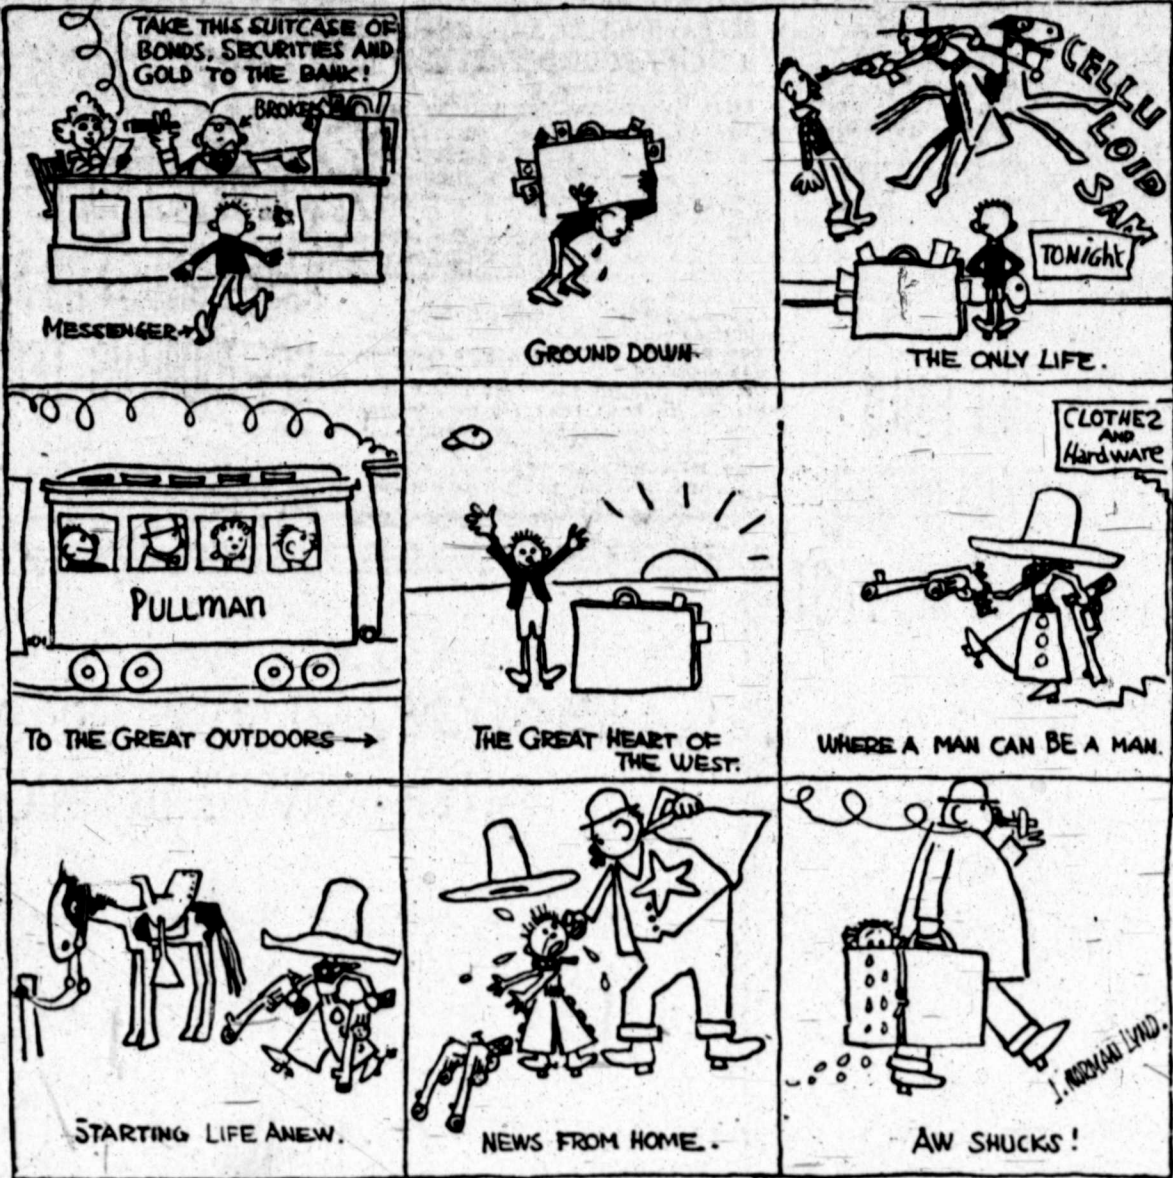

The city is to be laid into districts of 1,500 to 2,000 population. The census is to begin January 2, it is understood.

To Assist Realty Association. In connection with the part taken by the Chamber of Commerce, Secretary Harrison explained that the plan issued by the Metropolitan Improvement Association of Dallas could be followed here with much success, he thought. He said that the city could be laid into districts and community societies appointed to promote extension of pavements, sewers, light, gas and water, and that a friendly rivalry might be injected into the plan by pitting one society against another in maintaining the best kept front and back yards, neat sidewalks and an artistic appearance of private homes.

Mr. Harrison said he saw in the organization of the realty association with a general manager one of the most enthusiastic movements started here, and he believed that it would accomplish much in pushing public improvements, especially paving. He pointed out that if other streets like Tenth were paved, the value of the property would be much enhanced and just as popular thoroughfares as Tenth street.

Harrison Makes Report. Secretary Harrison also made a report on the Wichita Falls exhibit at the fair, declaring that it opened the tors would probably not be enough and a resolution was passed providing for a committee from the Chamber of Commerce and the realty association to aid Secretary Harrison in districting the city, and empowering them to employ necessary assistance to make the census complete.

The Dallas newspapers gave Wichita Falls five times more publicity than any other city or county, Mr. Harrison said. The Lions Club honored Wichita Falls, Mr. Harrison said, by inviting him to address its members in the Adolphus hotel on the activities and progress of the city.

The exhibit was put on at an expense of $1100, half of which will be paid for from donations from realtors.

A vote of thanks was extended to H. D. Frankfort who built the mixture refinery which was an interesting part of the exhibit in Dallas.

Mr. Harrison was also given a vote of appreciation by the board for his efforts at Dallas.

The board voted to pay $50 for membership in the United States Chamber of Commerce. This is an increase of $50.

CLEAN-UP DAY PLANS BEING WORKED OUT BY CLUB COMMITTEE

General plans for bettering of sanitary conditions in Wichita Falls which included a decision to have a "Clean Up Day" and take definite action against the property owners who continue to maintain unclean premises, were discussed at a meeting of the sanitary committee representing the various clubs with the sanitary committee of the city council at the city hall yesterday afternoon.

The club committee, which is composed of W. W. Salk, W. B. Hamilton, Mrs. T. B. Smock and John W. Thomas, has another meeting planned for today and will continue to work on the matter until their plans are completed. The exact date for the official "Clean Up Day" will probably be determined at the conference today. A close co-operation between the citizens and the city officials in regard to the enforcement of the recommendations made by these sanitary committees is expected to cause an immediate improvement of sanitary conditions in this city.

A court decision against the strikers meat cutters union in a suit brought by Cudahy is said to have provoked the disturbance.

OKLAHOMA SUPPORTERS OF LEAGUE OF NATIONS ARE CLAIMING VICTORY

OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLA., Oct. 21.—Oklahoma supporters of the League of Nations covenant today were claiming a clean cut victory in last Tuesday's election. The fight congressional district through the apparent overwhelming defeat of Ed Boyle, anti-league candidate for renomination. Boyle on the other hand, virtually complete returns finished eighth in a list of nine candidates. Claude Weaver, who made an active campaign on a pro-league platform, has received the Democratic nomination, according to returns from 261 of 289 precincts. Although the exact figures will not be known until Friday, when the vote is canvassed, Weaver's friends are claiming his majority will exceed 1,200. Roy Stafford, his nearest opponent, has conceded Weaver's nomination. That league issue will be the principal one in the November election is indicated in statements by Weaver and by V. Harold, who received the Republican nomination, and who has announced that he expects his opposition to the league plan to carry him into office. The election is to name a successor to the late Representative Joseph B. Thompson.

Absolute Merit Responsible For Orgatone's Success

This is the age of advertising, and everyone is familiar with the popular saying: "It is the advertisement that sells." Advertising is a business fact. So potent is the charm cast by its spell it has been known to perform marvelous feats and to accomplish phenomenal results. It cannot be truly said, however, that everyone who advertises succeeds, for unless full value underlies the article advertised the advertising would ultimately fall of its own weight. In this connection we must not forget the words of the immortal Lincoln, who said: "You can fool some people some of the time; you can fool all of the people some of the time, but you cannot fool all of the people all of the time." There is not behind every advertisement a dollar's and cent's value to the article advertised, no amount of advertising will stimulate the sale of such an article beyond a certain point.

One of the most successful advertisers of the day is Harry Kessinger, the southern and western distributor of the famous stomach treatment, Orgatone. On one occasion Mr. Kessinger said: "Hot air will send a balloon up, but it won't keep it there." When we offered Orgatone treatment to the world, something over two years ago, we did so with the firm conviction that we were offering to the people the best and purest product of its kind on the American market today, and we did not hesitate to spend vast sums for advertising, because we knew that the more the people knew about it the more they would buy it. "The success of the treatment was immediate, and people everywhere were quick to recognize its genuine merit and wonderful curative powers. We have never claimed Orgatone to be a cure-all or that it would perform unheard of wonders, but we stated facts—stated them in a straightforward and business like manner that has commanded confidence in the conservative claims set forth.

"Underlying these claims there has been real value, not from a dollars and cents point alone, but from health as well. The phenomenal success the treatment has now achieved is familiar to everyone. No matter where you go, Orgatone is a household word. It has brought a new romance to the modern business world. It is a story of an acceptance and appreciation of merit never before obtained by a medical treatment. Conservative business men to whom the actual figures of the production of Orgatone have been presented have scouted them until the proof was shown. These enormous sales mean but one thing, that is merit. One little is sold in a neighborhood through advertising, but ten more are sold after the first bottle produces results. People are always willing to tell others of any medicine or treatment that helps them. It is something they can't keep to themselves because the impulse to sympathize with fellow sufferers and desire to help them is one of the strongest as well as the biggest things in human nature.

"One of our critics said Orgatone was a skyrocket in the field of medicine. Maybe it is, but the skyrocket is still going up, and it will be a good many years before it starts downward. Orgatone is not a so-called patent or secret remedy but a new scientific treatment absolutely free from alcohol in any form and is made in Wichita Falls exclusively by T. Young Drug Company, under the personal direction of a special Orgatone representative.

FIREMAN'S RELIEF FUND TOTALS MORE THAN $2250

The "Fireman's Relief Fund" now amounts to something over $2,250 as a result of a nice sum realized by the three nights benefit show at the Wichita theatre last week in conjunction with several liberal donations from public minded citizens. This fund was created, according to Chief McClure, for the worthy purpose of providing the firemen with an emergency fund, to be used for the benefit of firemen who are injured or become ill while on duty and an attempt will be made to perpetuate this fund by adding any donations that happen to be made to the department. In the near future an election of officers will be held by the firemen to select the administrators of the fund and other steps are to be taken to perfect the plans now projected to make this fund a real help.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Corn jumped up in price today as a result of action by the Railroad Administration putting into force the permit system of moving grain. Arrivals of corn at primary markets were expected to be limited.

Opening prices ranged from 1/2 to 1 1/2c higher, with December 1.25 to 1.26 1/2c and May 1.14 to 1.15c. The market was followed by a reaction after the initial rush of buying had been satisfied.

Oats strengthened with the fluctuation in corn. After opening a shade to the up, including December at 71c, the market made a slight further gain and is a basis to sag.

Weakness in hog value pulled down provisions.

Later, the demand proved to have far less energy than had been looked for, and the market weakened owing more or less to the depressing effect of a big drop in the price of hogs. The close was heavy, 1 1/2c to 1 1/4c, and May 1.11 1/2c to 1.12 1/2c.

Subsequently, additional breaks in the hog market rendered an important rally by provisions impossible.

INJUNCTION AGAINST BURKBURNETT MADE PERMANENT TUESDAY

Judge Scurry in the 78th district court Tuesday afternoon perpetuated the temporary injunction granted a few days ago restraining the city of Burburnett from constructing a sewage disposal plant on land that would cause the sewage to flow over lands owned and controlled by Dr. V. Gish and C. A. Bond, trustees of the Roberts Refining Co.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR DR. MOORE HELD TUESDAY AFTERNOON

This afternoon at 4:00 o'clock funeral services for Dr. Mark H. Moore were held from the First Methodist Church, South, corner of Tenth and Lamar, Rev. E. A. Barnes and Dr. N. F. Grafton officiating. Burial was in Riverside cemetery.

Dr. Moore was 34 years of age, born in Hamburg, Arkansas. When a small child his parents moved to Wichita Falls, and he has made his home here since that time. He was educated in the Wichita Falls schools and received his M. D. degree at the St. Louis Physicians and Surgeons School. He has been practicing in Wichita Falls since he was 22 years of age. On August 4, 1916, he was married to Miss Lillian Kell, who with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ransom M. Roome, of California, but now in this city, and two brothers, Sam and Ransom Jr., survive him.

"I believe that it can truthfully be said of Dr. Moore that he had more friends than any other man in Wichita Falls," said a prominent local business man this morning, as a group of men were expressing their regret at his death. "I had an office next his for some time and I have never known a man with more genuine good feeling for his fellow man, nor one who made and deserved more friends. Many similar tributes were paid by his associates and friends, who have watched with sorrow the rapid approach of death, and have marveled at the calm, brave manner in which Dr. Moore awaited it."

For several months, after examining tion by specialists, and treatment. It had been known that death was only a matter of a short time, since the tumor of the lung was pronounced incurable.

In the practice of his profession Dr. Moore lost no opportunity of service, and among the many tributes that were paid his memory by friends and associates today were those which recounted his faithfulness in attending to charity patients, and the implicit faith that these people had in him. Those who have had occasion to work among this class of people knew, as others could not, just how much time Dr. Moore gave to them, and how much his efforts were appreciated.

The pall bearers for the funeral, both honorary and active, included: E. S. Morris, T. W. Roberts, E. H. Freedlove, Dr. J. B. Nelson, Harley Heath, Dr. H. A. Walker, Dr. Fletcher, Dr. W. H. Walker, Dr. M. M. Walker, O. F. Marchman, W. J. Gisham, Dr. J. C. A. Guest, Dr. M. A. Cocksman, Dr. L. Mackachney, W. R. Ferguson, N. O. Monroe, T. F. Hunter, Horace Nutt, R. O. Harvey, W. T. ### OFFICER IS KILLED BY HIGHWAYMEN IN JAMES CO. TENN.

CHATTANOOGA, Oct. 21.—With James Oliver, aged 29, in jail, posse today were still scouring the vicinity of Ooltewah, James county, for Ed Martin, his alleged confederate in the killing of Deputy Sheriff McIntosh, and the robbery of many travelers on the Dixie Highway Saturday.

The two, discharged soldiers, it is charged, barricaded the highway near Ooltewah early Saturday, holding up all travelers who approached, and finally capturing and holding for hours several citizens who came to investigate the killing of Deputy McIntosh, who was shot by one of the boys whom he attempted to arrest.

Oliver was wounded in an exchange of shots with a posseman, and was only captured, according to officers, when he feared he was bleeding to death. Citizens who were held by the men were forced to take him to Ooltewah for medical attention. His companion escaped.

Oliver was threatened with lynching at Ooltewah. A rope was placed about his neck and he was strung up, but citizens begged when he promised to give the name of his companion. Deputy Sheriff McIntosh died in full view of citizens attracted to the spot. Attempts to reach him with medical aid were repulsed at the point of pistols.

Six men and a woman were huddled along the roadside, covered by the pistols of one of the bandits while several of the holdups were in progress.

DEAN PROHIBITION AND OTHER NEW LAWS GO IN EFFECT TODAY

AUSTIN, TEX., Oct. 21.—Laws enacted by the second called session of the thirty-fifth legislature without specific date for becoming effective go into force Monday. Included among them is the Dean prohibition act, legislated by law students to be the most drastic dry law ever framed.

GOVERNOR OF IOWA IS ALARMED OVER THREATENED STRIKE

DES MOINES, IOWA, Oct. 21.—A conference to avert the coal strike November 1, is being urged by Governor W. L. Harding, Iowa, in telegrams to executives of states producing bituminous coal.

The Iowa governor also sent letters to J. C. Lewis, president of the Iowa miners and J. D. Cushing, president of the Iowa Operators Association, urging arbitration by Iowa miners and operators under the state mediation code.

"I am reliably informed," the governor said in letters to Cushing and Lewis, "there is not more than a week's supply of coal on hand in this state and a mine tie-up will mean stopping of all industries, a shutdown of schools and state institutions and intense suffering of children and aged people."

FITZPATRICK SAYS STRIKERS INCREASE FIFTY PER CENT

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—The number of steel strikers has increased 50 per cent since the men walked out five weeks ago, John Fitzpatrick, strike leader, declared in an appeal for funds.

He urged organized labor to come to the aid of the "hungry wives and children" of strikers. "Our workers will not be starved into submission," he declared. In telling of the efforts of the steel companies to beat the strike, he said "even Major General Leonard Wood felt like a sheep" for their propaganda.

OPINION IS RENDERED BY ATTORNEY GENERAL ON CHILD LABOR LAW

AUSTIN, Oct. 21.—It is the intention and purpose of the Texas child labor law to prevent children under the age of 15 years from working as messengers because of the hazard to life and limb and morals, according to an opinion by the attorney general's department made public today.

This opinion said that the term messenger is defined as one who bears messages and includes delivery service. County judges are authorized to issue permits for children over twelve years of age to work under conditions set out in the law, and it is immaterial whether the child works during or after school hours, said the opinion.

Another opinion issued today holds that the legal term "shall file with the county clerk" means that the instrument to be filed with the county clerk must be presented for filing to him at his office.

A third opinion holds that fees allowed county judges and district and county attorneys for collection of inheritance tax are cumulative for all other fees allowed them by law and need not be accounted for as fees of officers.

COLD STORAGE PLANTS TO PRESERVE LIFE GIVING GLANDS IS ADVOCATED

PARIS, Oct. 21.—Establishment of municipal cold storage plants in which alleged life giving interstitial glands could be kept on ice to supply the demand for renewing human youth is advocated by Dr. Serge Vernoff, said to be the originator of the operation.

"If removed from the body of a hopelessly injured man while he is still alive, certain vital organs, especially the interstitial glands, will live for weeks in ice boxes," said Vernoff.

"In large cities, where they are by accidental deaths daily, why not take out the organs of the injured—after verifying they belong to some persons—and put them in refrigeration for use when needed? Every city should have a hospital where such operations could be performed. Unfortunately, there is still a popular prejudice against such practices, but through natural evolution of science

WICHITA FALLS

Is confronted with a great shortage in residence lots. The above statement is absolutely true and we can convince you in very few words. Study the topography of the city for a minute, located between a river and a creek, which run together, forming a city in a "V" shape. Both streams occasionally overflow, which naturally condemns considerable low lands for building purposes. The city can't grow east and not much further south. To the north of the river, outside of Scotland Addition, practically every tract of land for quite a distance is occupied or owned by the railroads, refinery and industrial sites.

What does this prove? That at least one-half the area of all land surrounding the business district of Wichita Falls is eliminated for residential purposes, forcing the city to grow in a shoestring shape along the car line to Lake Wichita. This condition brings about high price residence lots, even out miles from the business district. Scarcity naturally enhances values.

How are we to grow and expand? We talk of building a city of 100,000 population. This would require more than double the number of houses we now have. Where will we put them? Have you ever figured on the scarcity of sites for additions? The first thing to take into consideration is the distance out and transportation facilities. The next thing is the city conveniences, water, lights, sewerage, gas, telephone, etc. Do you know how difficult and almost impossible it is to get these conveniences? Of course if you had all these problems solved it would be easy enough to go way out on high lands in any direction and put on an addition to the city. Under present conditions this is prohibitive and no one is going to undertake it.

The consequences are that vacant lots are only becoming scarcer and more valuable and there is no excuse or reason why anyone wishing to purchase vacant lots should wait for something better and cheaper.

Located about half way between the business district and all the refineries and industrial plants on the north side is the only close in addition that you will ever have a chance to buy lots in. It is in easy walking distance, only one mile from the postoffice and lots are much cheaper than lots four and five miles out on the car line. This addition is now within the city limits and will soon have most of the conveniences and we are fighting hard for all of them. The lots are 50x140 feet, elevation four feet higher than court house block and impossible to overflow. The stockholders are now considering the advisability of raising the price of every lot, and no doubt a raise will take place in the near future.

This beautiful addition must build up. Fifty houses have already been constructed. Houses are in great demand. Resolve to answer the cry for homes. Our lots are cheap. Rents are enormous. Get busy and do something for the wage earner, so we can build a great city here. You will make big money on your investment.

What Are You Going To Do When You Get Old?

"If you haven't got the money you needn't come 'round," seems to be the growing sentiment, with few exceptions, toward aged people on the part of their families.

WILL IT BE AT 70? OR CLOTHESLINE? UNTOLD TRAGEDIES

Are you going to do it? If you get old? If you will, you peg your ears, like a certain old man, who shrank lengthwise when he was "active," always digging ditches in wet mud, complains that they hang the tin cup too high in the infirmary. What a nuisance, always to have to ask some one to get the tin cup down for you, and there is nothing but water to drink, of course. Even before the war there was nothing but water.

But there is another side to this. A certain dumpy old man, who shrank lengthwise when he was "active," always digging ditches in wet mud, complains that they hang the tin cup too high in the infirmary. What a nuisance, always to have to ask some one to get the tin cup down for you, and there is nothing but water to drink, of course. Even before the war there was nothing but water.

Then the old women have to wear blue calico, which is a great irritation to some of them. People generally have a wrong impression that all vanity flies when falling eyesight comes on, and "a dullness" in hearing," as Bishop Tuttle describes it. Not so with women.

Cosmetic Peddler Finds Eager Customers in Home.

If they ever did like to be pretty, they wish it more than before as old age comes on. A cosmetic peddler finds eager customers in an old lady's home. Appetite may have failed, but rather than candy or custards in the roof of their poor mouths, would they like some magic to take the brown spots off their faces, or to make the gray hair more thickly, for "it comes out so in the summer, around the parting place, and it never used to."

There is a true story of a dear old lady. She had long been a widow, and never had children, but kept a little store, near a school, where the children spent one penny after another, for sweets and the like. All her trade was in pennies, and when it came to closing out and selling her "good will," the most that she could ask for this spiritual commodity was $300—exactly the sum needed for entrance into this quiet pleasing "home," which is really a beautiful place. The old stone house, once a "tavern" in Lewis and Clark days, is set far back from Broadway, so that great beds of sweet williams and asters may flourish, with bright verbenas, and a background of tansy and tiger lilies and bouncing bettes, just as grandmother might have planned it.

No foolish honeysuckle or climbing rose shields the porch, for the old ladies like to see who goes by, and if the street cars are behind time, even the delivery of a load of coal is an event. It is interesting to time the man and see if he is lazy.

So this one-time store-keeping old soul without other invitations and went to the home. Her sister, one has heard, was indignant over it, for the sister's husband was a rich man, and she would gladly have given board and lodging to her relative. But that house was clamorous with adolescence. The girls and their beaux kept lights burning late. The parlor was dominated by youth, and the old lady said, "I refuse to be shut up like a dog." So she wrote her declaration of independence and went to the "home." The chain of subsequent events made her very happy.

Nephew Fats Ray of Sunshine in Old Lady's Heart.

A favorite nephew refused to let his aunt be forgotten, and he has made it a point, at frequent intervals, to drive his car to the "home," and take her out for a spin, with great pomp and circumstance. This is more of a joy than any person out in the world can realize. It gives the old lady a distinction. Her status is established. She hits the high places in life when her nephew comes for her, and she counts time by his coming. He is "My Nephew," of whom she can boast to all those without nephews.

But the apex of this choice consideration, which has made the old lady's heart fairly burst with pride, came in the amending of her scanty locks of hair. Many store-keeping men go

AT 90, SHE LABORS FOR "DEAR SON" WHO IS 70

A VISIT to an old person's home brings to light many small sorrows. One spry old lady past 90 knits sweaters and sells them so that "dear son," who is out in the world at the age of 70, may have added comforts in his "old age." But this unselfish soul, who has made everybody love her by her sunny nature, has received the reward of the brightest room in the house, and for this she is envied secretly by those of less happy disposition.

"I just wish you would write it up in the newspapers," says one gloomy-looking creature. "She purrs around the matron and flatters her, that's what she does. And then she gets the reputation of being 'so sweet.' Huh! Anybody could be sweet with all that sunshine coming in her room. I can't even get the dining-room girl to remember that I like a glass of water with my breakfast. And I mustn't get up and get it myself. Oh, no, that's against the rules. Bosh!"

the rising generation would only remember that "Pa" and "Ma" and "Uncle" need a little "gentling," after they come into a household. Hagenbark, the animal trainer, says that when he takes in a new lion or elephant or other supposedly intelligent animal from the great outdoors, he always devotes several weeks to "gentling" before he tries to get any response from his "dumb" pupil.

The old person coming into his son's or daughter's household gives up liberty. The old people who went into the Altemhelm of St. Louis, when that institution was built several years ago, gave up their feather beds. The new mattresses were so much better and more sanitary. But the old people cried, many of them, when they left the feather beds behind. They were "poor things, but their own."

Old People Not So Fond of Other Old Folks.

Old people, as a rule, are not very fond of other old people. If you have toothache yourself, you do not particularly relish some one else telling you about his toothache.

Old men seek young wives and old women seek young husbands. There is a link to life in having youth about. Superficial friends at a St. Louis infirmary have bestowed much unnecessary sympathy because these old people were removed from their home, where it was "so nice and quiet." But it is not the old people who are complaining. They may be seen today, peering out joyously into the world, which they once knew from the garden benches in the park around the institution.

Old people are wisely brought to a place where they are diverted from

No Cup More Bitter

FROM an admiral of the United States Navy down, no one likes very well to be retired, willy nilly, at a certain age, even though a compensation goes with it. Worse than this it is to be "fired," without warning, so many a worker has been in civil life as he grew old. Worst of all it is to be pushed aside by members of one's own family, "all his faults observed, set in a notebook, learned and counted by note, to cast into his teeth."

her husband's pride, to see those plants admired. But here, too, is the sorrow of not being in one's own home, for the poor lady sees the carelessness of the gardener in putting pots of plants on the edge of the porch, in cold, late winter, where the blasts bring death to all things unprotected. "And if I were to go out and put something around them, I'd get a scolding," she says.

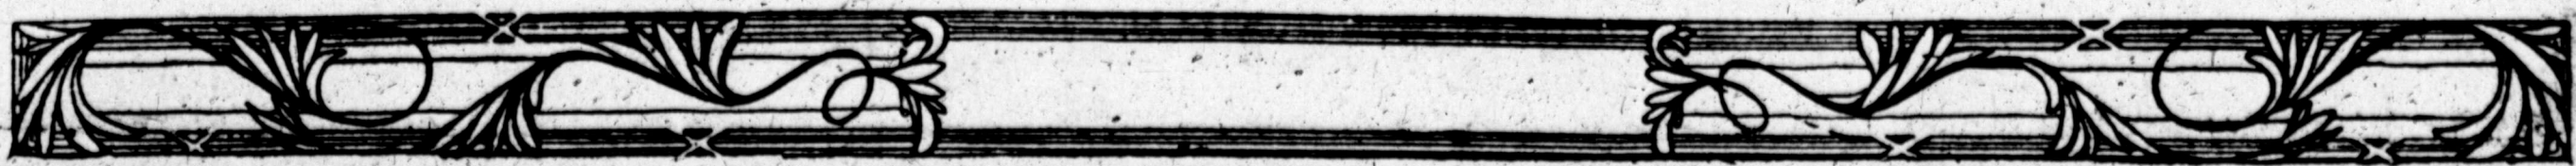

The "rule" it is, which is hardest on the old people in "homes." Where there are many, there must be regulations. All must dine at the same time, and all must take luncheon at the same time.

No More "Nightcaps" for Him When Bedtime Comes.

No cups of hot milk between meals, no "nightcaps" to make grandpa sleep well. Stairways must be descended and mounted again, doors opened and closed with every meal. Only now and then is there a bright young spirit to hop about like a birdling, saving steps for the old folks. In this home there is no elevator in operation, and no chance exists of evading the steps up and down, so painfully taken three times a day.

The Little Sisters of the Poor come nearest perhaps, to home care of the old people. Every "Little Sister" regards her old people as one of many parents, and she looks for idiosyncrasies in order to humor them, rather than to resent them.

The "Little Sisters" have the insight to shield their aged "children." They do not tell strangers the names of those in their homes; forsaken old King Lear, deserted by their children, have been grateful here for a place where they are diverted from

SERVICE CAR MEN KICK AGAINST THE PROPOSED LICENSE

Service car drivers are up in arms against the proposal Mayor Marlow recently made to license, tax and bond them and to regulate their business so as to eliminate the overcharge. It is claimed they make for traffic within the city.

The communication was brought to the Times last night by T. H. Holland, spokesman for between 20 and 25 service car drivers, in which the public is appealed to protest the proposed tax and bond. Asked if the mayor's proposal would have a tendency to rid the city of undesirable persons now engaged in driving service cars, Holland said that it might, but added that the risk of running "the little fellow" out of business was too great.

There has been a war on here between the more prosperous auto-cab-les and what Holland termed "the little fellows" for some time and at least one bloody personal encounter has resulted. There is bad blood between the drivers of small means and no backing and the more prosperous ones, and for weeks this has been threatening to break forth in open hostilities, but thus far anything more than a fistfight has been avoided.

In the communication referred to, the service car drivers for whom Holland spoke urged the public to assist them in inducing the city council to reject the proposed tax, license and bond plan. The communication asks the citizens if they think it right that "the little men should be crowded out of business that the men with money might monopolize the service car business."

Ninety per cent of the service car drivers, including Holland, he explained, in the communication, are ex-oligarchs, and are here trying to make an honest living. "You have to have service cars and we are trying to accommodate you," the statement proceeds, "by buying them for your use, at a reasonable rate per day or trip. Some of us have bought these cars on time, and above our car payments and a living wage we cannot put up any large cash bond, or pay my big city license. We have paid our special government tax and our state chauffeur's license, which is all we should have to pay."

"Some of us have families, and you know what it costs to support a family here. It means a man must make money every day, or quit."

"Now, we are just back from the army. Most of us are overseas men and we did not get rich while working for Uncle Sam. So it is up to you to help us."

MANAGER BELIEVES OUTPUT NEW WELLS WILL BE USED HERE

F. M. Kenny, manager for the North Texas Gas Company in this section, who returned to the city, holds out hope that the big new gas wells that have recently been brought in at Petrolia, will help minimize danger of a gas shortage locally.

As was stated in The Times Friday, the Lone Star Gas Company has the entire output of these wells, and contrary to the opinion expressed in the local offices of the gas company in the absence of Mr. Kenny, a part of the gas is expected to be turned into the Wichita Falls mains.

There have been two big wells, Mr. Kenny stated, one completed about three weeks ago, not previously reported. Both wells have a capacity of around 28,000,000 cubic feet, it is understood.

AMERICAN LEGION TO SELECT PERMANENT OFFICERS TONIGHT

Officers will be elected and a permanent organization effected by members of the local post of the American Legion at a meeting in the 30th district court room at the Wichita county court house, 8 o'clock tonight.

A list of available officers will be suggested to the meeting by a committee appointed at a former meeting for that purpose, but the choice of future officers of the post will not be limited to the suggestions of this committee. The list of proposed officers for the post will not be limited to those who were in attendance at the first meeting. It was decided at that time, but have been made from the ranks of ex-service men in the city who are eligible.

The name "Pat Carrigan Memorial Post" in honor of A. H. Carrigan Jr., the first Wichita Falls boy to fall in action, has been chosen by the committee, which was also instructed to take action in this connection. Luther Hoffman, who acted as chairman of the former meeting, urges that all previous service men in the city be present at tonight's meeting, and take part in the organization of the post, which is designed as an organization to knit together all the men who were in the service during the war with Germany, and to build up an organization which will truly represent the views of former soldiers, sailors and marines on all public questions.

SAYS EVERY ONE CARRIES FIREARMS IN NEWTOWN

According to F. C. Bohannon, arrested by the police Saturday in the negro district on a charge of unlawfully being in possession of firearms, Newtown must be a fairly unhealthy place to live in as he attempted to excuse the presence of the gat by declaring that all the residents of that town carry arms.

Even if this custom prevails there, the peace officers seem reluctant to accept that as an excuse and he is being held in jail awaiting trial.

OFFICERS RECOVER STUD LIFTED FROM VISITOR

Saturday night a man, who said he was an Iowa oil man stopping in the city, reported to the police that while he was seeing the town he had wandered into the flats and there a negro woman had lifted a diamond stud valued at $500.

From a description furnished by the man the diamond was recovered by Deputy Constables Spiller and Belcher and the man expressed himself as not wishing to prosecute the thief since he had the diamond.
