MAKE SECOND ATTEMPT TO LIMIT DEBATE

Cloture Petition of Senator Lodge Pending and Will be Voted On Saturday

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—The Senate adjourned today out of respect to the Senator Martin, of Virginia, whose funeral will be held at his home in Charlottesville, this afternoon. Many Senators left to attend the funeral.

When the upper house meets Saturday another attempt to limit debate is expected unless there are pronounced signs of increased activity. Pending before the Senate is a cloture petition offered by Senator Lodge. A vote will be taken on the motion at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning without debate. A two-thirds vote is required to pass the motion and if it carries, an limitation of debate on the peace treaty begins instantly. After that each senator can speak only one hour on the whole subject of the treaty and no other measures can be brought before the Senate until it is finally acted on.

The Lodge reservation program has gone through without a slip thus far. Three reservations now stand approved by a safe majority, including that on Article Ten, which was adopted in the form which President Wilson said would "cut the heart out of the treaty." These reservations were passed without any change whatever despite a score of amendments and substitutes offered largely by the Democratic side.

SNOBBISSNESS NOT CONFINED TO DUKES SAYS LADY ASTOR

PLYMOUTH, ENGLAND, Nov. 14.—"SnobbiSSness is not confined to Dukes," Lady Nancy Astor told her audience here last night.

The unionist candidate for her husband's former seat in the House of Commons, answered the laborite charges that she represents the "upper classes" by declaring: "I know a lot of people who live in two rooms who consider more my class than some of those living in forty."

"Have you ever noticed that snobbiSSness is not confined to Dukes?" she asked. Then, answering her own question, she shouted: "No! You'll find it everywhere."

On the eve of the elections the Viscountess redoubled her efforts today. She was scheduled for an almost continuous speaking session today and tonight.

Both the opposition candidates—W. T. Gay, laborite and Isaac Foot, liberal—were hammering away in a class appeal against the Viscountess, who is England's first woman candidate for a seat in the House, as the campaign drew to a close. But Lady Nancy continued her way unperturbed.

When a persistent woman heckler caused a disturbance last night the crowd for a time showed an ugly temper. One of England's first woman candidates from all sides, but Lady Astor quieted the clamor.

"I'm used to her," she declared. "She comes every night."

PETITION ASKS EXPULSION OF W. O. JENKINS

Is Presented to President Carranza But No Attention Is Paid to Request

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—President Carranza has been petitioned by a small group of Puebla citizens to expel William O. Jenkins, the American consular agent at Puebla, who recently was kidnapped and held by Mexican rebels, advices from Mexico City today said.

The request is made under article 33 of the constitution which permits the president to send out of the country any foreigner he chooses without court proceedings.

Carranza is asked in the petition to request the United States Government to withdraw the consular commission from Jenkins or to cancel his executive before expelling him, the advices assert.

No attention is being paid to the petition, either by officials in Mexico City or Washington, it was said today by a state department official, as it is regarded as the act of a small group of radicals who seek to provoke trouble between the two countries.

SECOND VICTORY BALL DEATH WAS A SUICIDE

LONDON, Nov. 14.—London's second "victory ball" death was a suicide, a coroner's jury decided today.

Mrs. Alma Vetzera Steane, central figure in many international romances, died from cyanide poisoning, self-administered, the jury found. She was believed to have been insane. A physician testified at the inquest she previously had attempted to take her life.

Mrs. Steane's death came almost exactly one year after that of Billie Carleton, American actress who was found dead in her apartment after London's first "victory ball" immediately following the signing of the armistice.

The cases presented many parallel incidents. Both Miss Carleton and Mrs. Steane were beautiful and very popular in a certain class of London society.

LATIN AMERICAN SENTIMENT EMBODIED IN RESOLUTION SENT TO THE REPUBLIC OF MEXICO

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—The national holiday, September 16, has been made a state holiday in Colombia, the senate of the latter nation by resolution decreasing that such an honor should be paid "our suffering sister republic" advices reaching Washington today said.

Copies of the resolution as adopted with a letter signed by all members of the Colombian state have been forwarded to President Carranza through Gersayu Ugarte, Mexican minister to Colombia and former private secretary to the Mexican president.

Urgate is credited by officials here with creating and fomenting much of the anti-American propaganda recently circulated in Colombia. An album has been sent to the Mexican foreign office containing the signatures of 5,000 Colombian university students, lauding Mexico for her attitude toward foreigners, having reference, it is believed, to the controversies between Mexico and the United States over the attempted confiscation of properties owned by Americans.

In the dedication of this album Mexico is called "the sentinel of Latin-American nations."

CURB MARKET ISSUE DIES WITHOUT VOTE BY THE COUNCILMEN

OPPOSITION OF THREE ALDERMEN GIVES NO HOPE OF MARKETS' REVIVAL.

POLICE FINANCES ARE PROBED

Chief Smith Will File Report and Says Will Issue Public Statement.

Repeal of the ordinance forbidding an oil stock curb market in Wichita Falls died at the meeting of the city council last night when the matter could not even be brought to a vote. Although C. A. Everts, a broker, made an ardent plea for revocation of the law so as to legalize the sale of oil stocks by public hawkers in the streets, when Councilmen Weldon and Reed opposed the return of the curb market, it was allowed to die by default, without a vote.

Later, Councilman Bundy announced that he was opposed to the return of the curb market, showing at least three votes against it. This effectively kills all hope of the curb returning, it is thought.

This was the outstanding feature of the meeting, although council held its regular weekly executive session, during which police finances again held the boards. Chief of Police Smith appeared before council and it was later announced that he would file a report as to the department's financial status at the time management of the funds was placed in the hands of the day desk sergeant, incidentally, Chief Smith says he will likely have a statement to the department within a few days, outlining his side of the controversy which has resulted in him being shorn of virtually all of his powers as police chief.

After Dr. Reed had suggested, without tangible result, the construction of another city-owned rent house at Fifth and Brook streets for occupancy by a city employe and his family, and J. W. Pond had been given a permit to extend an oil line down an alley from Scott avenue to the new laundry, he is building between Sixth and Seventh streets on Austin street and build a stairway and smokestack in the alley, the curb market matter was taken up.

It was Everts' argument that the big companies do not do the city as much financial good as do the smaller companies. Dr. Reed told Everts that his firm had not ceased to do business with a tax here that opposed the return of the curb, and Everts acknowledged this was so.

Alderman Weldon said he opposed the return of the curb because he did not think council had a legal right to permit the use of the streets for any class or business to the detriment of other businesses and classes.

Dr. Reed declared the women did not want the curb market re-established and he opposed the plan. Mayor Marlow and Alderman Curlee were the only other two members of council present at the time, showing that a vote would result two to one against the curb, supporting Mr. Curlee's forced it and the mayor had no vote, so the matter was dropped. Mr.

Bundy's later announcement to the reporters that he was opposed to the return of the curb signified that even should the proposal come to a vote at some future date when all members of council are present it would die, at least 3 to 2.

Councilman Newton Macer that it would investigate his proposal that he be refunded the cost of a curbing at his residence, the curb having been destroyed, trees killed and water pipes unseathed at great cost there several months ago.

E. E. Anderson appeared before council to combat protests that had been made against his plan to open a combination furniture store and real estate office in Tenth street between Lamar and Travis streets near the Methodist church old parsonage. He made a lengthy talk, during the course of which it developed that opposition to the establishment of a business house in that location had about crystallized in prospective injunction proceedings.

Mr. Anderson declared he "was cornered now and intended to fight it out." He pointed out to council that when other residential property had been changed to business and office property no permit to make the change had been necessary. He finally proposed to use the house he has erected there as sleeping quarters until he can gain the consent of a majority of the property owners in the block to establish a business there.

L. Mears appeared in behalf of E. H. Blanton and procured a permit for Blanton to erect a 2-story brick building at 1008 Scott avenue.

Mayor Marlow read a petition from residents living in the neighborhood of the glass factory complaining of what they said was a plan of Blanton to erect a frame building in that locality. Thinking there was some mistake, council decided to investigate.

Joe Carrigan was given a permit to install a gasoline filling station at 818 Tenth street. Incidentally, he took occasion to complain of the erection of a galvanized iron warehouse near the standpipes, declaring its lack of beauty reduced property values there by detracting from the beauty of the neighborhood, in which his home is situated.

Council agreed with him, but said the complaint had been made too late, as the warehouse was built.

Jerome Stone inquired as to when Indiana avenue's unpaved parts would be paved, and promised council to assist in getting the property owners there to sign up for the paving.

A permit was granted J. C. Joplin, who has the contract to erect the telephone building annex, to place materials in the street with the usual provisions. He was denied the right to block the sidewalk at Ninth street and Scott avenue, however.

The Wichita Valley railroad made application to build a switch track in Twelfth street to the Wichita Produce Co.'s business, and the privilege was granted.

An application for the right to sell fountain pens in the streets was denied.

The Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroad either must repair Pecan street and keep it in repair or tear up the switch track it has there, council decided.

Council bought 2700 feet of fire hose from the Eureka Fire Hose Co.

and thus was assured of a further reduction in the insurance key rate.

The new and improved milk ordinance was passed to second reading and council then went into executive session, after which George Thorburn was formally appointed city clerk.

TWO DISTILLERIES SELL WHISKY OPENLY IN KENTUCKY TODAY

LOUISVILLE, KY., Nov. 14.—Two local distilleries sold whiskey openly in Louisville today at $75 a case, regardless of the war-time prohibition law. Hundreds of barrels, filled before July 1, when the war-time law went into effect, were being sold by the distilleries which resumed sales following the granting of an injunction to them yesterday by Federal Judge Evans, restraining the government from interfering with the sale of "floor stock" whiskey.

Wright and Taylor and the Brown-Forman Company, which received the temporary injunctions, expected to sell all of their whiskey in a hurry, it was announced. They made their sales, however, with the knowledge that they are liable to prosecution, according to District Attorney W. V. Gregory, if the federal supreme court reversed Judge Evans' decision. It is expected to make November 20.

Other Kentucky distilleries apparently were disposed not to ask for injunctions and to await the supreme court decision as to the war-time prohibition law a constitutionality before trying to dispose of their whiskey stocks, all of which he said to approximate 40,000,000 gallons.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Nov. 14.—All roads lead to Louisville. Citizens from the surrounding towns and states are hastening to the metropolis of Kentucky by train, by automobile, motorcycle and on foot, to witness a phenomena of the dry year of 1919.

Whiskey is on sale here today! Openly without stealth or attempt at camouflage. By virtue of the injunction granted by Judge Evans of the United States district court two of the biggest distilleries in Louisville are permitted to dispose of their stocks in defiance of the war-time prohibition measure. The court granted a temporary injunction restraining the government from enforcing the law against them.

These distillers have huge stocks of genuine bourbon, 100 proof and guaranteed to harbor the well known prohibition punch. It is being sold right off the floors of the warehouse at $70 a case. Everybody is welcome. Everybody seems to be there. Automobiles glide to the doors, motors humming smoothly but make the return trip groaning and laboring under the weight of a tonneau packed with cases of fine spirits.

Wheelbarrows stand nose to nose with aristocratic 12 cylinders while their owners exchange the family jewels for drinks. Motorcycles put laboriously from the scene with a case or two strapped on behind. Citizens, both old and young stagger down the streets under the weight of a 12 quart case.

The crowds are steadily increasing.

NOTABLES FROM OTHER SIDE LAND IN AMERICA

Miss May Christie, Mrs. Capt. Godfrey E. Corbett, and Sir Thomas Lipton.

Sir Thomas Lipton was among the prominent persons arriving in America on the steamship Carmania the other day. The noted capitalist and sportsman has hopes of lifting the America's Cup. Godfrey Tearle, the English actor, and his wife were also among the arrivals, as was Miss May Christie, an English movie star. Mrs. Captain Godfrey E. Corbett, whose husband is in the Royal British Navy, came with her prize dog Wee Willy Wilky.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE ORGANIZER ROUGHLY HANDLED IN LONDON

LONDON, Nov. 14.—William E. Johnson, the American prohibition worker and Anti-Saloon League organizer, who yesterday was dragged from a platform and badly handled by the crowd while making a prohibition speech, discussed his experiences with a reporter today. He admitted that when he was first attacked he attempted to fight off the crowd but that when he found it was only a student's lark he entered the fun and enjoyed himself.

"The boys were all right," Mr. Johnson declared. "The police handled the situation well; if they had tried to force things a lot of people might have been hurt. I am sending this message to the students: 'You had a good time. I had a good time. I have no complaints. But if you want fun get into the game against the greatest enemy of the human race—drink.'"

Mr. Johnson hopes, when the injury to his eye is better, to visit the college and address the students.

The injury to Mr. Johnson's eye is a painful one and is said to have been caused by a missile thrown by an unknown person. He will consult a specialist today.

GREAT BRITAIN TO DISREGARD ANY RESERVATIONS TO TREATY ADOPTED BY THE U. S. SENATE

PARIS, Nov. 14.—Great Britain will disregard reservations to the peace treaty adopted by the United States Senate. It is learned from a semi-official source.

The situation created by the delay in ratification by the Senate was discussed at conferences in London by Stephen Pichon, the French foreign minister, premier Lloyd-George, Winston Spencer Churchill and Arthur J. Balfour, it became known here today.

In the French foreign office the idea prevails that until ratification has been completed by the Senate, as it doubtless ultimately be, the allies need not be concerned over the manifestations of American internal politics or directions to the government as to how to apply the treaty.

But should the American Government request the allies to take notice of reservations and assent to them formally, it is understood semi-officially, neither London nor Paris will acquiesce.

DAVIS PRESIDENT OF STATE COMMISSIONERS

AUSTIN, TEX., Nov. 14.—Fred W. Davis, Texas commissioner of agriculture, has been elected president of the national association of state agricultural commissioners, now in session at Chicago, according to information received here today.

William and Mary (England) 1689-1702

When William of Orange ascended the throne of England in 1689, there began what is sometimes known as the Anglo-Dutch period. Marquetry workers were brought from Holland and introduced the severe Dutch type of inlay into English furniture design. Among the designers who followed William from Holland were a number of Huguenot refugees, who impressed certain French tendencies upon the furniture design of this period.

The William and Mary case created for the Official Laboratory Model is charmingly expressive of the grace and delicacy that were so noteworthy of English furniture in the days of William and Mary. The inlaid border takes us back to King William's marquetry workers and the legs, stretcher and pendant pull are authentically typical of the period. The grille typifies the more florid motifs introduced in the latter part of the reign of William and Mary. The feeling of antiquity developed in this cabinet will be agreeably apparent to the lover of fine furniture.

Why the President Collapsed

Graphic Story of How Woodrow Wilson Met The Five Great Crisis of the Paris Conference

Written in Six Installments. (Copyright 1919 By United Feature Syndicate.) By Ray Stannard Baker.

SEVENTH INSTALLMENT.

The struggle over Shantung: the last Great Crisis at the Peace Conference: Conclusions as to the President's work at Paris.

In meeting the Far Eastern Question—particularly the disposition of the Shantung peninsula—President Wilson found himself in a veritable wire entanglement of secret treaties "understandings" "conversations."

At a dark moment of the war, the spring of 1917, the British and French, in order to sharpen Japanese support of the Allied cause, made private agreements to sustain the claims of Japan at the Peace Conference to German rights in Shantung. It thus happened, in the Council of Three, for Orlando had been gone home, that two of the powers, Great Britain and France, were bound by their pledged word to Japan. Indeed, the British argued that they felt themselves indebted to the Japanese not only as a long-tried ally but as a helping hand to keep the Pacific free of the enemy while Australian troops were being transported to Europe and thus relieving a great burden for the British fleet. It must not be forgotten that China was also bound by the treaty and notes of 1915 and the notes of 1918 with Japan—although China vigorously asserted that all of these agreements were entered into upon her part under coercion by Japan. In fact one of the China delegates at Paris had actually signed one of the agreements which he was now asking the Conference to overturn.

It was not only this wire entanglement of treaties which Mr. Wilson found in his advance, but it must be said, in all frankness, that in opposing Japan's demands for "economic privileges and a sphere of influence" in China he was also opposing a principle which every other strong nation at the Conference believed in and acted upon if not in China, then elsewhere in the world. Japan asserted that she was only asking for the rights already conceded to other nations. Japan was thus in a very strong position in insisting upon her claims, and China in a very weak position.

Two Courses Open.

If in this crisis Mr. Wilson had two courses—and only two—open before him. First, he could stand stiffly for immediate justice to China. If he did this, he would have to force Great Britain and France to break their pledged word with Japan. Even if he succeeded in doing this, he had still to face the probability, practically the certainty, that Japan would withdraw from the Conference and go home. This would not only keep Japan out of the league, but it would go far toward eventually disrupting the Peace Conference, already shaken by the withdrawal of Italy and the dangerous defection of Belgium. Such a weakening of the Peace Conference and of the alliance of the Great Powers would have the immediate effect of encouraging the Germans not to sign the treaty and of holding off in the hope that the forces of industrial unrest then spreading all over Europe might overwhelm France or Italy. It would also have a highly irritating effect upon all the Bolshevik elements in Europe—increasing uncertainty, and the spread of anarchical conditions. With Japan out of the association of western nations there was also the probability, voiced just at this time in both French and British newspapers, that she would begin building up alliances of her own in the east—possibly with Germany and Russia.

No statesman probably ever had a more difficult problem presented to him than Mr. Wilson upon the momentous 29th of April, 1919. At that moment three things seemed of supreme importance if anything was to be saved out of the wreckage of the world. The first was a speedy peace so that men everywhere might return to the work of production and reconstruction and the avenues of trade everywhere be opened. Peace and work! The second was of supreme importance—keeping the great allies firmly welded together to steady a world which was threatened with anarchy. It was absolutely necessary to keep a going concern in the world! The third was to perpetuate this world organization in a League of Nations; this the most important of all, for it had reference to the avalanche of new problems which were just ahead.

Step in Great Process.

If the Conference were broken up, or even if Italy remained out, and Japan went out, these things could be kept firmly together, peace established, and a League of Nations brought into being, there was a chance of going forward with world reconstruction on the broadest lines, and of the full realization of the principles of justice laid down in the armistice terms and accepted by all nations. The treaty, after all, is no final settlement; it is only one step in the great process of world reconstruction.

It was with all these considerations in view that the Shantung settlement was made by the Council of Three sitting in the President's home in the Place des Etas Unis—with the Japanese in full agreement.

This settlement was in two parts. The first set forth in the treaty itself, and the second a special agreement of the three great powers with Japan. Under Sections 156, 157 and 158 of the treaty all the rights at Kiao-Chau and in Shantung province formerly belonging to Germany are transferred without reservation to Japan. This conforms broadly with the various treaties, and gives a proud nation what

It considered its full rights.

On the other hand, the Japanese delegates at the Conference, on behalf of their government, made a voluntary agreement "to hand back the Shantung peninsula in full sovereignty to China, retaining only the economic privileges granted to Germany and the right to establish a settlement under the usual conditions at Tsingtao."

Agreement to Remove Troops.

Under this agreement by which Japan makes an unqualified renunciation of the sovereign rights in Shantung troops remaining on the peninsula "at the earliest possible time."

Japan thus gets only such rights as an economic concessionaire as are already possessed by one of two great powers and the whole future relationship between the two countries falls at once under the guarantee of the League of Nations, by the provisions of which the territorial integrity and political independence of China will be insured.

If the President had risked everything in standing for the immediate and complete realization of the Chinese demands, and had broken up the Conference upon that issue, it would not have put Japan either politically or economically out of China. Neither our people nor the British certainly would have gone to war with Japan solely to keep her out of Shantung. The only hope of China in the future—and Wilson looks not only to the removal of the sphere of influence which Japan controls but to the removal of all other spheres of foreign influence in China—through a firm world organization, a League of Nations in which these problems can be brought up for peaceful settlement, is at the President's request. I went to see the Chinese delegates at their headquarters immediately after this decision was made, on April 30, in order to explain it in all its aspects. I found them bitterly disappointed. They had expected, as so many other hopeful groups at Paris had expected, the formal and immediate realization of their demands at the hands of the Conference, and had not succeeded—because other tremendous forces in the world's affairs, other considerations and necessities, had prevailed.

The settlement, of course, was a compromise; a balance of considerations. It was the problem of the President, all through the Conference, when to "accommodate," and when to use decided policies. It is the rarest genius of statesmanship to know the time for each. "The wisdom of the statesman," said Cavour, (quoted by Thayer in his admirable "Life") "consists in discerning when the time has come for the one or the other."

The Shantung decision is about as good a settlement as could be had out of a dirty past.

Well, the Chinese issued a number of statements criticizing the decision which must appeal to the sense of justice and the sympathy of every thoughtful reader for this great, weak, unformed nation; and finally refused to sign the treaty; and yet it may be that a solution which results in bringing both Japan and China into a League of Nations, where the moral forces of the world can operate, may in the long run be the best thing for China herself.

Indeed, the determination to keep

It is a marvellous portrayal of the human body at its best. One beholds in its composition detail a true symbol of strength. It presents a figure of striking appearance in its erect carriage, clear skin, sparkling eyes, strong limbs, steady nerves and firm muscles, fairly vibrating in animation—lean, alert, fresh and energetic, with an air of unbounded confidence and a face radiant in color and illuminated with a glow of hope and cheerfulness.

Could Nature have taken you for her model? Suppose you study yourself in the mirror of the present and compare your looks, your feelings and your condition with the human characteristics of this picture of the human body in perfect working order, all parts of which are sound, well-organized and disposed, performing their functions freely, naturally.

If you fall in any single point of resemblance, you are not the picture of health. It is imperative, then, that you look to a means to rebuild your strength, energy and vigor—bring your body up to a normal state of efficiency in all of its parts.

ANOTHER TURKEY SHOOT IS TO BE HELD AT GUN CLUB ON SATURDAY AFTERNOON

A turkey shoot at the Gun Club for Saturday, starting sharp at 2 p. m., is announced by J. G. Nabb, secretary.

The Dupont system of handicapping will be used, based on a score of 25 with handicaps on a sliding scale. This means that every member has a chance to win a turkey, the only way the few sharpshooters can now eliminate their less skillful club members is by breaking the program of 50 targets straight. Straight scores take precedence over handicap scores.

The Registered tournament on "Victory Day" was a big success, as shoot-off came from as far south as Houston, and from points in Oklahoma.

John D. Clay, who wields a 26-inch barrel Ithaca Trap Gun, journeyed all the way from Houston, but did not shoot up to the usual form. Trener, Oklahoma State Champion, won the match.

The home team won the match with the Dallas team, and the trophy will adorn "Charlie's" new plate glass window for some time to come.

Great rivalry exists between two well known members of the club, and one of the prominent sportsmen in town has donated a prize for the winner at next Saturday's shoot. No announcement of the names of these two contestants will be made until after the program has been shot, thus adding to the mystery. Considerable betting is being done among the few club members who think they know the shooters in question, but the donor of the prize refuses to make any names public, and they may all be wrong.

Shooting starts promptly at 3 o'clock and Secretary Nabb states that the "turk" will be on the grounds with a line fast to his leg, so that the winner can drive him home to fatten up for Thanksgiving.

All shooters are welcome, whether they have guns or not. It is not necessary to be a member; come out anyway, some one will gladly loan a gun. Shells always on sale at the grounds.

SETTLEMENT OF BASEBALL WAR UP TO BIG FELLOWS

SPRINGFIELD, MASS., Nov. 14.—Settlement of the war between the minor and major leagues is now up to the big fellows, the minor magnates said here today, following the annual meeting of the minor association.

By the appointment of a committee to work with the majors in drawing up a new agreement, leaders claim the next step was put up to the two major leagues and the national commission. They predicted a quick settlement as soon as a meeting is called, with few exceptions. The minors favor a return to the draft, optional agreement and all the old working relations.

BADGERS PUT FAITH IN MYERS AND WESTON

MADISON, WIS., Nov. 14.—Badger supporters today placed their hope of holding Ohio's speedy backs in Saturday's game here on the Cardinal's end. Weston and Myers will be called on to hold for the main defensive work in holding Harley and the other Ohio back field stars. The two ends will be depended upon to take a leading part in the offensive. The Badgers are expected to use the open play and Myers and Weston will receive the forward passes.

MONARCHS OF GRIDIRON TO MEET ON SATURDAY

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Like that noted water pitcher of old, the monarchs of the gridiron go again to the football field tomorrow.

For at least two of the eleven—Colgate and Dartmouth—who make their weekly trip of hazard on the slippery rocks, it may be that proverbial "once too often" journey. Syracuse and Brown look to have the best chance of the season to twist the wrists of the championship hands and spill two of the season's best on the already large pile of wrecks at the well.

Yale and Princeton get the center of the spotlight. That battle in the New Haven game may not be the best of the day of big games but it is Yale-Princeton play and it will get the call from the sport aristocracy.

Battles of far more importance will be waged between Colgate and Syracuse, Pittsburgh and Pennsylvania and Dartmouth and Brown.

SOUTHPAW PITCHER RAS TEETH REMOVED AND IS EXPECTING "COME BACK"

CHICAGO, Nov. 14.—George Tyler, southpaw pitcher for the Cubs, had an early appointment with a dentist today and before the end of the day he expected to have only two teeth left in his mouth.

The pitcher, who did little work for his team last season because of pains in his arm, spent several days of the present week at a hospital at Rochester, Minn., where practically every expert at the institution examined him. All except one pronounced his condition "almost perfect." The expert who made the unfavorable report examined Tyler's teeth and declared that the lameness in his arm came from "pus sacks" which had formed on his gums.

After removal of his teeth, the expert declared that Tyler would be in better condition than he ever was.

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Rejection of the peace treaty by the Senate, or by President Wilson himself, is assured if the resolution of ratification goes to a vote containing the reservation of article 10, already adopted by the Senate, sitting in committee of the whole. This was the opinion in administration quarters here today based on the President's own words, frequently reiterated, during his recent tour of the United States. Whether the President then will carry out his threat to send leading treaty opponents, including Senator Lodge, to Welmar to negotiate a new treaty remains to be seen.

Wilson has served notice that he would consider adoption of the reservation to article 10 rejection of the whole treaty. There is nothing to indicate that he has changed this attitude. When Senator Hitchcock recently called at the White House, Wilson told him the treaty would be unacceptable if certain of the pending reservations were attached to it and although Hitchcock never has specified what these "certain reservations" are, it is generally known here that the qualification of article 10 is one of them.

Leaders Have Plan. What the Hitchcock forces in the Senate hope to do is to reject the resolution of ratification containing the objectionable reservation, then propose a new resolution of ratification, which they expect the opposition to defeat and then get together on a compromise. But the strongest members of the opposition hold that rejection of the reservation now in process of formation will constitute rejection of the treaty and end the whole affair. And if they succeed in securing adoption of the resolution containing the objectionable clause the President will have none of it, unless he goes back on his own words and completely reverses himself.

As soon as Secretary Tumulty returns from New York the President is expected to get in touch through him, with his leaders in the Senate and decide what is to be done next.

Substitute Reservations. The administration forces are going ahead with plans for what they will do in the event the resolution of ratification containing the reservations Wilson considers objectionable fails to get two thirds vote and is thereby defeated. In that case, they disclosed today, they will offer a program of substitute reservations.

REPORT ALL IN READINESS FOR SEVENTY FIVE MILLION CAMPAIGN

Completion of an organization in the Wichita Falls district which is expected to put the Baptist Seventy-five Million Campaign in the district over in record time when the campaign opens, November 30, was reported by organizers from the eight counties of the district in Wichita Falls Thursday for a conference with Dr. George W. Truett, Dr. G. O. Neal and Dr. Kellum, all of Dallas, who were in Wichita Falls on a tour of the state in behalf of the Seventy-five Million Campaign.

There were about fifty out of town Baptist workers present for the conference with the visiting party, and with Dr. O. L. Powers, of the First Baptist Church of this city, district organizer and all reported organizations perfected, and promise of great success in the campaign.

The conference was held in the afternoon at the First Baptist Church. At six o'clock the women of the church served a luncheon to the visitors and the men of the church, and at 7:30 Dr. Truett delivered an address in the church auditorium on the Seventy-five Million Campaign. There was a large audience for this address. The conference was considered in every way a success. Baptist workers were present from Seymour, Henrietta, Olney, Archer City, Vernon and Bellevue.

DERAILMENT CAUSES A LONG DETOUR ON KATY

Train service on the Katy between Wichita Falls and points south and west was interrupted Thursday night and Friday morning due to a derailment of an engine and six cars of ballast on a small bridge the other side of Henrietta about 6:00 o'clock Thursday afternoon, which necessitated four passenger trains being routed over the Deaver to Vernon and the Rock Island to Ringgold to obtain connections with Dallas, Denison and other points.

The locomotive turned entirely over in the accident but no one was hurt, reports state, owing to the fact that the train was traveling at a slow rate of speed at the time.

Two wreckers were sent to the scene and the line was opened up by noon Friday.

Sam P. Sparks has returned from a business trip to Austin.

COTTON MARKET.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The cotton market continued nervous and irregular during today's early trading. The opening was 7 points lower to 23 1/2 cents higher with December relatively firm in response to higher cotton reports of billing from the west and generally in the belt and the census reports showing domestic mill consumption of 533,344 bales for October, against 460,354 last year. December sold at 27.50 and March at 25.20 during the first few minutes but the advance met considerable southern selling and prices soon weakened under a rain of Wall-st. and scattered liquidation. Near months were relatively weak on reports that the lower tenders showing a gain of 10 points, shipping and gains added to the market a broader foundation at advances of 1 to 2 points. Initial gains were materially reduced within the first half hour, General Motors reacting 20 points.

Meadowville, Ky.—Mrs. Pearl Patrick, of this place, writes: "I was very constipated. I had sour stomach and was so uncomfortable. I went to the doctor. He gave me some pills. They weakened me and seemed to tear up my digestion. They would gripe me and afterwards it seemed I was more constipated than before. I heard of Black-Draught and decided to try it. I found it just what I needed. It was an easy laxative, and not bad to swallow. My digestion soon improved. I got well of the sour stomach, no more griping, and I would take a dose now and then, and was in good shape."

BEAVER VALLEY TEST NEAR NOCONA PROVES AN EXPENSIVE WELL

NOCONA, TEX., Nov. 14.—The Beaver Valley test on the Green Hodges farm, lot 54, Kaufman County School Land, has been a very expensive well up to date, the depth being about 2,500 feet, principally on account of casing trouble.

FORTY-FIVE MILLION DOLLAR DAMAGE SUIT SETTLED AT HOUSTON

HOUSTON, TEX., Nov. 14.—The largest damage suit ever tried in Harris county, for $45,000,000 in an alleged claim to 160 acres in the rich Landlake tract of Frankell at the field ended today when Judge J. D. Harvey of the eightieth district court ruled that the grant of A. Goldman, from the State of Texas had been allowed to lapse and was rescinded.

BRECKENRIDGE, TEX., Nov. 14.—The Texas Company has completed a 15,000-foot gas well on the Dixon farm three miles north of Frankell at a depth of 2,100 feet. This is a new gas sand that promises to add much to the interest in the development of Stephens county and the drilling of further tests in this part of the field is being watched with interest.

EMPIRE COMPANY IS TO DRILL OKLAHOMA TEST ACROSS FROM MONTAGUE

NOCONA, TEX., Nov. 14.—Word comes from the Oklahoma side that the Empire Company is moving in material for a test on the Bay lands, the location being given in the SE corner of section 3-75-4W. ### GRADING RAILROAD ALL WAY THROUGH STEPHENS COUNTY

BRECKENRIDGE, TEX., Nov. 14.—Grading is under way on the line of the Wichita Falls, Ranger and Fort Worth railroad all the way through Stephens county from Ranger to Breckenridge and the line is promised to be in operation to this city by the latter part of the winter. It will reach Frankell, the new town in the Caddo oil fields by January 1. This place will then become the distributing point for material to the fields in the vicinity of Breckenridge and Caddo, reducing the haul by fifteen miles to most of the territory in Stephens county. Location of the line north of Breckenridge to Newcastle is practically completed and the oil industry in the fields between Ranger and the north line of Stephens county that is now attracting more attention than in any other Texas field, will be greatly stimulated by the new railroad.

CHRISTIANS RAISE ENTIRE QUOTA IN ONLY FEW MINUTES

TEN MEMBERS SUBSCRIBE $1,000 EACH AND REST IS EASILY OBTAINED.

ARE FIRST TO RAISE QUOTA

Expect to Continue Campaign and Exceed Quota by 50 Per Cent.

Meeting for the purposes of preliminary organization—then striking while the iron was hot and raising their quota of $20,000 on the state campaign in a few minutes time is the record of the members of the First Christian church Thursday evening.

and because less than half of the membership of the church was present a motion was made and unanimously carried that the quota be increased to the amount which could be raised. Enthusiastic members believe that it can be increased 50 per cent.

Wichita Falls is the first to raise the quota in the campaign, it is stated. About 200 members and visitors were present when Rev. J. Lem Keovil called the meeting to order after having served plentifully with good things to eat by the Ladies Aid Society of the church.

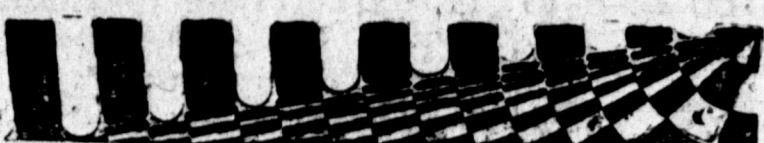

Dr. Keovil explained the purposes of the meeting and how the money to be raised would be expended—70 per cent going for higher education, 10 per cent for charities and the remainder for home missionary work of the church in the state.

Rev. J. B. Holmes, when introduced by Dr. Keovil, made a sound and convincing appeal for the support of the 300 Christian churches in Texas, "which are going to ruin, paper falling off, plastering gone, benches empty—and each one of which we can repair and make centers of right activity in each community if the funds are secured so that we can send out 60 pastor-evangelists."

Dr. Edward McShane Watts, president of Texas Christian University, told of the plans and needs for his institution, there being over 700 students now in need of dormitory facilities at that institution, the faculty underpaid, and a gymnasium badly needed.

And those responsible for the institution hope to make it a place where future leaders of the church are trained properly for the leadership which the world now so greatly needs.

Dr. H. O. Fritchard of Indianapolis, secretary and secretary of the Board of Education of the

First Attention to All Orders For the Sick

Christian church emphasized the need of the educational institutions of the Christian church for more and more funds, basing his plea on the need for institutions which could train the boys as the "boys" in France so aptly expressed it when about ready for a charge, "Let's go." Judge C. F. Spencer said that he felt the same way and suggested that the job be done then and there in true Wichita Falls style.

It was then that the fire works started. Five men immediately volunteered each to give $1,000—a slight drag, then W. T. Willis offered to be the tenth man, three others soon volunteered but the fourth was lacking until Dr. Keovil volunteered to be that man and stated that he would get the money by selling his new Reo, which his congregation presented him last Sunday. P. H. Pennington then arose and took Dr. Keovil's pledge.

The remaining $10,000 was readily subscribed in $500 and smaller amounts.

The campaign proper will begin over the state next Sunday and will last for 90 days. Wichita Falls is the first place to raise its quota—and with the amount which the committee is confident of securing from the membership which was absent last night they are confident of substantially increasing the quota and securing an amount greater than that given by any other church in the state.

Those contributing $1,000 each were C. F. Spencer, R. E. Shepherd, W. R. Duke, W. R. Ferguson, J. W. Bradley, W. M. Moore, W. T. Willis, Dr. L. C. Tyson, P. H. Pennington, Roy Fritzell and S. P. Spoles.

PERFECTING PLANS FOR COUNTY WIDE HEALTH CAMPAIGN

STREET AND SIDEWALK CONDITIONS HERE TO GET FIRST ATTENTION.

ALL AGENCIES CO-OPERATE

State, County and Red Cross Officials Are to Co-operate in Work.

Investigation of the county water supply, of the system of garbage disposal of conditions in restaurants, and an intensive campaign for the clean-up of streets and sidewalks are to be inaugurated next week by the county health board working in conjunction with state health and Red Cross officials who are coming to Wichita Falls on or about the 20th to help organize the health movement in the county.

The investigation, campaign and corrective measures are to be financed through the help of the Rockefeller Institute, which offered $5,000 to the first five counties in the state whose commissioners vote to meet that appropriation with another $5,000 from the county for the purpose of improving health conditions. Wichita county commissioners voted the necessary money several months ago and with the $10,000 appropriation and the assistance and co-operation of state health officials and the Red Cross, Dr. M. M. Walker, chairman of the county board is planning to literally sweep up the county.

Mrs. Parsons, head of the Red Cross in the state, will be here next week to help co-ordinate the work of that organization with the health board. The county chairman is also planning to work with the city health authorities and the clean-up committees. Preliminary plans are to be discussed at a meeting of the city clean-up committee with Dr. M. M. Walker at four Friday afternoon.

Dr. Walker plans to give first attention to street and sidewalk conditions. He is determined to prosecute all merchants who fail to keep the sidewalks in front of their business houses in good condition. He expects to see to the rigid enforcement of all existing ordinances that affect the cleanliness of city and county if necessary to introduce new laws. Immediate attention will also be given to Burk Burnett, Iowa Park, and Electra.

with a careful examination of the general water supply and of private sources.

The advice of the state sanitation engineer is to be asked with regard to questions of drainage and sewage. Dr. Walker continued. The system of medical examination of all children in the public schools is to be perfected. Efforts are going to be made to arouse the interest and support of the public through an extensive publicity campaign.

A state expert on sanitation and health conditions is to be employed, given an office and full office staff, working under Dr. Walker. The state officials have not yet given a definite assignment, but the name of the assistant here is expected to be announced within the next few days.
