"To you," Captain Koenig was quoted as saying, "the trip of the Deutschland is a great achievement. You must be too enthusiastic over it, for a bigger surprise is coming. A great Zeppelin airship—or may be I should say airships—is being built in Germany. In the not distant future one or more of them will sail through the air to the United States. Just as sure as the Deutschland came to America, so will the Zeppelin come. Ambassador von Bernstorff visited the Deutschland at Baltimore, and his visit was the occasion of a gala day for those interested in the submarine enterprise and for Germans in Baltimore generally. He was accompanied by Hugo Schmidt, New York agent of the Deutsche bank of Berlin, and Dr. Albert, the American financial representative of the German government. The three men were met by the German consul in Baltimore, Carl Ludewitz. The ambassador was in a jovial mood all during the trip about Baltimore harbor.

NEGRO FANATIC SLAIN AFTER HE TAKES 4 LIVES

HE AND HIS WIFE ARE KILLED AFTER BATTLE WITH POLICE IN WHICH DYNAMITE IS USED TO WRECK HIS DWELLING.

SAID WAS PROPHET

Note Left By Negro Shows Him to Be Laboring Under Religious Hallucinations—Six Dead and Three Wounded as Result.

By Associated Press. Chicago, July 18.—H. J. McIntyre, negro religious fanatic, becoming violently insane, killed four persons and wounded three others with a rifle before the police when he held a building for an hour, killed him and his wife. "In all, McIntyre's hallucinations that he must 'carry my report to the Almighty' cost six lives. Hundreds of shots were exchanged between the crazed man, harried in his flat in a two-story brick structure on North Irving avenue, and the police. The latter made an ineffectual attempt to burn the place and exploded three charges of dynamite under it as they were unable to make headway against the rapid and accurate fire of the negro.

Among the injured were a policeman and a detective sergeant. The explosion blew the rear porch and part of the kitchen into the alley and when the police were able to enter the building it was a wreck. They found an explanation of the negro's deed in a note which he left scrawled with a lead pencil on a soiled piece of wrapping paper.

DENY APPEAL IN CASEMENT CASE

HIGHER COURT SUSTAINS VERDICT AFTER HEARING LONG ARGUMENT.

By Associated Press. St. Paul, July 18.—Hints of a change in the name of the prohibition party, which opens its national convention here tomorrow, were contained in the address by which Virgil G. Hinshaw, chairman of the Prohibition National Committee, today called to order a "Get Together" meeting. He said in part: "Eighteen months ago a call was issued from Prohibition national headquarters which read in part: 'We, the undersigned, hereby issue a call to bring all voters and citizens of America together into one national conference, who believe in a political party committed by state and national platform declarations to the complete overthrow of the liquor traffic.' This call was signed by one hundred and fifty names, the foremost citizens of the land. It was signed by Ben H. Lindsey, the famous juvenile judge; by ex-governor Eugene N. Foss, three times lieutenant governor of Kansas; by Governor Arthur Capper of Kansas; by ex-governor Hodges and ex-governor St. John of Kansas; by ex-governor Sulzer of New York; by Thomas Wilson, ex-consul to Hawaii and Brazil; by John H. Light, four years attorney general of Connecticut; by Landrith president of the World's N. C. A. convention; by Wm. Shaw, general secretary of the World's Christian Endeavor; by J. W. Bryson, congressman from Washington; and Charles H. Hall, congressman from southern California.

Matter May Be Taken to House of Lords Under Certain Circumstances.

By Associated Press. London, July 18.—Without hearing the attorneys for the crown the court of criminal appeals today dismissed Sir Roger Casement's appeal from the verdict of the lower court which found him guilty of treason for which he was sentenced to death. For a day and a half Alexander Sullivan, Sir Roger's counsel, argued before the court, quoting many authorities in favor of his contention that the offense of treason depended upon whether the accused dwelt under the protection of the king and that the crime could not be committed without the realm. He abandoned his other points in regard to the lord chief justice's definition of the offense.

SULZER MAY BE PRO CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT

CHOICE BELIEVED TO LIE BETWEEN HIM AND FORMER GOVERNOR HAULEY OF INDIANA—FOSS WITHDRAWS HIS NAME.

HENRY FORD SILENT

Not Believed He Will Permit Use of His Name—Delegates Hold "Get-Together" Conference Preliminary to Convention.

By Associated Press. St. Paul, Minn., July 18.—Delegates to the national prohibition convention which opens here tomorrow learned today that the triangular contest for the presidential nomination had narrowed overnight to a race between J. Franklin Hanley former governor of Indiana and former Governor William Sulzer of New York. Eugene N. Foss former governor of Massachusetts announced he will not be a candidate. Henry Ford of Detroit failed to arrive on any of the early trains, although he had been expected to attend the "get-together" conference today. His absence and silence lend color to national chairman Hinshaw's belief that the Detroit manufacturer will not permit his name to be placed before the convention as a presidential candidate.

John M. Parker's rallying cry to the surviving Progressives and his call issued last Saturday for a new national convention of the party in Chicago August 1 was blasted by Prohibition leaders for the collapse of their plans for a monster "get-together" conference at which they had hoped to enroll as members of their organization scores of men who have been prominent in the progressive, republican and democratic parties.

CHANGE IN NAME OF PARTY IS SUGGESTED

By Associated Press. St. Paul, July 18.—Hints of a change in the name of the prohibition party, which opens its national convention here tomorrow, were contained in the address by which Virgil G. YACHT COMPLETES
100,000 MILE TRIP
Long Voyage in Small Craft Finished After Variety of Experiences.

Associated Press Mail Correspondence.
London, The little 23-ton yacht "Mama" has arrived safely in an English port after a voyage of a hundred thousand miles.
Mrs. M. M. Routledge, the vessel left England over two years ago on a scientific mission to Easter Island, in the South Pacific.
The last stage of the little vessel's voyage was from San Francisco, which she left five months ago. At that time there were eleven persons on board including two men from Easter Island. Mr. Routledge had some interesting details of the voyage.
"After leaving San Francisco," he said, "we came down the Mexican coast. Two hundred miles from land we came upon three islands marked as uninhabited and I decided to land to try and get some mail. But our business was delayed as a mouth of the cove was occupied by two whales who were feeding and who refused to move until the following day. On landing, we found a rough sandy beach with a derelict boat and alongside a rough cross evidently marking a grave. In a rift in a cliff we found a sort of cave strewn with old bottles and ends and ends of a canna. Nearby was a piece of wood bearing the name of Annie Larsen which I learned from a shipwrecked sailor who was on the yacht was the name of a man engaged in blockade running or contraband. There is no doubt that the remote island had been a dumping ground for Mexican revolutionaries. There were so many turtles that we got tired of feeding on them. It was curious to see these creatures being regarded by the birds as a kind of floating island, and to see gulls preening themselves on the turtle's backs.
The "Mama" visited one small island in the Gulf of Panama where elephantiasis was rampant among the people. The currents in this r. were very difficult and there was one sailing ship that had been drifting for thirteen months and had been unable to get out. The Panama Canal was closed to traffic but the American government kindly allowed the "Mama" the vessel of a scientific expedition, to go through.
"Some fifty miles from Jamaica we saw what appeared to be at first a burning ship, and afterwards looked like the smoke from a naval action. We

New Baking Plant Is of Novel Type —F. O. Stone Company Invests $75,000 in Dallas—To Open Monday.

Although they have never sold 5c worth of their product in this state, the F. O. Stone Baking Company, confident of the future of Dallas, has established a $75,000 manufacturing plant in this city. The building is a modern structure by the new concern is now nearing completion at McKinney and Thomas avenues and Phelps street, and the initial baking will take place Monday. The company is a Texas corporation, partly financed by Dallas capital. The sole product of the plant consists of six varieties of package cakes. They are soft cakes, made with butter and sold in wax paper packages. According to Mr. Stone, his company is the only one in the United States confining its products to soft cake.
"We will not compete with anyone now in business here," said Mr. Stone, "as we make a cake that is not now on the market in Texas. We do not make pies, bread or cookies."
Mr. Stone said that when he first started in the business eight years ago in Cincinnati he was the only man in the country putting out a package cake of that character. Nearly three years ago he opened another plant in Atlanta, Ga. He said he expects his Dallas establishment to be the biggest of the three plants, although he has done no business before in this section. One hundred agencies have been established in the State, although the prospective agents have never seen a sample of the cakes.

New Building for Plant.
The plant is housed by a new two-story brick, mill-constructed building, 80x125 feet. It has a capacity of 3,000 cakes an hour. The latest devices in baking machinery are installed.
The oven, made of white tile, has a forage of sixty feet. It bakes by radiation heat and not by direct flame, as the fire never gets into the baking chamber. It is fired with gas.
Mr. Stone has made special provision for the health and comfort of his employees. The hottest work is put in the coolest part of the building. Even the negro washers are provided with shower baths and lockers rooms.
J. E. Fraley is manager of the Dallas plant.
Mr. Stone said that he first heard of Dallas five years ago at the convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World at Boston. At every convention since that time—whether of advertisers, Rotarians or bakers—he was impressed by the spirit of Dallas boosters, who were characterized by originality, enterprise and aggressiveness.

"When I visited here for the first time I was even more impressed with the city," said Mr. Stone. "And the Chamber of Commerce—it finished me. Whatever information I wanted they had for me in about five minutes. For example, they showed me that there are more people within a prepaid express rate limit from a central point in Dallas than in Atlanta—a city that claims twice the population.
Mr. Stone will probably make Dallas his home. He said that Mrs. Stone and the children are very anxious to remain here.
We clipped the above from Friday's Dallas News. We feel it is an honor to be selected as the local representative of this concern.
We expect the first shipment, Tuesday or Wednesday, and ask a trial order of one or more cakes delivered FRESH FROM THE OVEN. Our personal guarantee with each package. STONE BAKES CAKES EVERY DAY.

NEW GAINS FOR BRITISH TROOPS RECORDED TODAY

FOLLOW UP RECENT SUCCESSSES AND MAKE FURTHER THRUST RESULTING IN PROGRESS ALONG FRONT OF HALF A MILE.

LOSSES FOR FRENCH

Germany Succeeded in Regaining Some Lost Territory—Belgians Secure Important Successes in German East Africa.

The Associated Press summarizes European war operations as follows: Following up their successes near Bazentin le Petit and Longueval, where they have driven close to the third line of German defenses, the British have carried out a new thrust forward north of Cylovers, making considerable progress along a front of about half a mile.

In an attack last night the French used in the "Rommée" and "Blanche", the Germans succeeded in regaining territory along the canal east of Bliocourt. Their assault on Malsme in itself, a costly operation was a failure says this afternoon's Paris bulletin.

In the Verdun region there has been further activity. The French broke up a German raid on Hill 304 west of the Meuse while grenades lighting on the eastern bank of the river resulted in advance to the French, the Paris report says.

Belgian troops have won an important success in German East Africa, capturing a German base near Lake Victoria and reaching at two points the shore of the lake in the northern part of the colony.

DEATH LIST IN FLOOD LARGER; WATER RECESSES

LATER REPORTS INDICATE PROPERTY DAMAGE IS MUCH HEAVIER THAN WAS AT FIRST ESTIMATED—19 LIVES LOST.

RAILROADS SUFFER

Are Very Heavy Losers in Some Sections, While Damage to Mills and Farms is Enormous Throughout Flooded Territory.

Atlanta, Ga., July 18.—Flood waters throughout the stricken district of North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia and Tennessee were receding today, but latest reports increased the death list from 15 to 19.

The property losses continue to grow and white counties and towns now cut off from communication are heard from. The first estimate of $10,000,000 for the 1900 damage probably will be increased.

Railroads apparently have suffered far more than at first realized. Reports from western North Carolina are that some lines there will have to be almost entirely rebuilt while bridges were carried away at many points in all four states and serious washouts and landslides occurred along the roads.

Fifty automobiles are being used to move the 250 passengers from the marooned Florida special of the Southern Railway to Asheville.

Cotton mills in North and South Carolina have been heavy sufferers in the flood and thousands of workers have been thrown out of employment.

Several cities along the Catawba in North Carolina including Hickey and Lenoir still are cut off from communication. Great damage has been done along the waterway and the same is true along the Yadkin.

In central South Carolina damage to mills, railroads and crops are heavy.

Latest reports there made it certain that Lake Toxaway dam has held against the flood waters. In Tennessee the flood waters were expected to begin falling today. Great damage was done to crops, railroads, mills and washhouses in the eastern part of the state. Many towns and villages there were yet to report.

In southern Virginia, considerable damage was done to industrial plants and crops.

General Elizondo reported from San Francisco de Borja that all bandits in the Benito Juárez section of Chihuahua state have been wiped out by troops at Sierra Baquistic. Seven captured bandits were executed.

Reports from sections of northern Mexico indicate tranquillity. General Trevino announced today that he has strong garrisons at Mapimi, Bermejo and other centers in Durango state and dealer that bandits appeared near these towns as reported. He added that reports in the United States of defection by Villa by several prominent leaders were without foundation.

PART OF CREW OF RECENTLY BUILT BIG ZEPPELIN

Baltimore officials who visited the translucent merchant submarine Deutschland quoted Captain Koenig as saying that Zeppelin airship freighters are being built in Germany for transatlantic service. "To you, Captain Koenig was quoted as saying, "the trip of the Deutschland is a great achievement. You must be too enthusiastic over for a bigger surprise is coming. A great Zeppelin airship—or may be I should say airships—are being built in Germany. If the net distant future one or more of them will sail through the air to the United States. Just as sure as the Deutschland came to America, so will the Zeppelin come. Ambassador von Bernstorff visited the Deutschland at Baltimore, and his visit was the occasion of a gala day for those interested in the submarine enterprise and for Germans in Baltimore generally. He was accompanied by Hugo Schmidt, New York agent of the Deutsche bank of Berlin, and Dr. Albert, the American financial representative of the German government. The three men were met by the German consul in Baltimore, Carl A. Ludewitz. The ambassador was in a jovial mood all during the trip about Baltimore harbor.

NEGRO FANATIC SLAIN AFTER HE TAKES 4 LIVES

HE AND HIS WIFE ARE KILLED AFTER BATTLE WITH POLICE IN WHICH DYNAMITE IS USED TO WRECK HIS DWELLING.

SAID WAS PROPHET

Note Left By Negro Shows Him to Be Laboring Under Religious Hallucinations—Six Dead and Three Wounded as Result.

By Associated Press. Chicago, July 18.—H. J. McIntyre, negro religious fanatic, becoming violently insane, killed four persons and wounded three others with a rifle before the police, when he held the rifle for an hour, killed him and his wife.

"In all, McIntyre's hallucinations, that he must 'carry my report to the Almighty' cost six lives.

Hundreds of shots were exchanged between the crazed man, harranged in his flat in a two-story brick structure on North Irving avenue, and the police. The latter made an ineffectual attempt to burn the place and exploded three charges of dynamite under it as they were unable to make headway against the rapid and accurate fire of the negro.

Among the injured were a policeman and a detective sergeant. The explosion blew the rear porch and part of the kitchen into the alley and when the police were able to enter the building it was a wreck. They found an explanation of the negro's deed in a note which he left scrawled with a lead pencil on a soiled piece of wrapping paper.

"The Almighty God has made me a prophet unto all nations and also my wife, Hattie McIntyre," said the note. "You shall know that the Lord is with me and that I am the chosen of the Almighty." McIntyre's wife is supposed to have assisted him in the deed. She was reloading his weapons. As a cartridge belt was found around her waist similar to that of her husband.

CHOICE BELIEVED TO LIE BETWEEN HIM AND FORMER GOVERNOR HAULEY OF INDIANA—FOSS WOULD WRECK HIS NAME.

HENRY FORD SILENT

Not Believed He Will Permit Use of His Name—Delegates Said "Get Together"; Conference Preliminary to Convention.

By Associated Press. St. Paul, Minn., July 18.—Delegates to the national prohibition convention which opens here tomorrow learned today that the triangular contest for presidential nomination had narrowed overnight to a race between J. P. Morgan and former Governor William Sulzer of New York. Eugene N. Fox, former governor of Massachusetts announced he will not be a candidate.

Henry Ford of Detroit failed to arrive on any of the early trains, although he had been expected to attend the "get-together" conference today. His absence and silence lend color to national chairman Houshaw's belief that the Detroit manufacturer will not permit his name to be placed before the convention as a presidential candidate.

John M. Parker's rallying cry to the surviving Progressives and his call issued last Saturday for a new national convention of the party in Chicago August 6, was blamed by Prohibition leaders for the collapse of their plans for a monster "get-together" conference at which they had hoped to enroll a membership of 10,000. Scores of men who have been prominent in the progressive, republican and democratic parties.

"I believe the 'get-together' event the meeting became prohibition lore feast and revival service. The leaders had pinned their principal hopes to those progressives who had refused to submit their names as candidates. Theodore Roosevelt declined to lead it in the coming campaign. They had expected such men as William Allen White and Hiram Johnson, Judge Albert E. Norton of St. Louis and perhaps Colonel Parker himself to meet with them and pledge their affiliation with the party. But none of these appeared.

"They are afraid to join with us until they know we intend to go after the voters with a distinct program. A progressive can support conscientiously said Chairman Houshaw referring to the absent Progressives.

CHANGING NAME OF PARTY IS SUGGESTED

By Associated Press. St. Paul, July 18.—Hints of a change in the name of the Prohibition party, which opens its national convention here tomorrow, were contained in the address by which Virgil G. Houshaw, chairman of the Prohibition National Committee, today called to order a "Get Together" meeting. He said in part:

"Eighteen months ago a call was issued from Prohibition national headquarters which read in part: 'Issue a call to bring all voters and citizens of America together into one national conference, who believe in a political party committed to the complete platform of declarations to the complete overthrow of the liquor traffic.'

"This call was signed by one hundred persons, including the names of the foremost citizens of the land, it was signed by Ben B. Lindsey, the famous juvenile judge; by ex-governor Eugene W. Fox, three times governor of Massachusetts, commonwealth; by Governor Arthur Capper of Kansas; by ex-governor Hodges and ex-governor St. John of Kansas; by ex-governor Wm. Sulzer of New York; by Thomas Wilson, ex-consul to Hawaii and Brazil; by John H. Light, four years attorney general of Connecticut; by Ira Landrith president of the World's Christian convention; by Wm. Shaw, general secretary of the World's Christian Endeavor; by J. W. Bryan, congressman from Washington; by Thomas H. Bell, congressman from southern California.

"The purpose of the call was to bring into one national convention all voters who believe in the national prohibition of the liquor traffic.

"During the past four years there has been a great deal of effort to obtain the enlistment of five million voters who will agree to support such candidates and political party as stand committed to the complete platform of the prohibition of liquor traffic. Hundreds of thousands of voters have been enlisted. Men high and low from every walk of life have come to our rescue. Professor Irving Fisher of Yale organized his committee of sixty, whose slogan is: 'Whenever a political party prefers the liquor traffic above the public health, morals and efficiency, such political party must be abandoned. Belonging to this committee are David Starr Jordan, ex-governor of Oregon; Arthur Capper, Wm. Sulzer, Professor Jacques Loeb, and the Rev. Charles M. Sheldon. This committee represents a part of the great five million movement.

"All three of the other political parties in national convention assembled turned down the committee of sixty; turned down the World's Christian Endeavor of the great Methodist Church turned down the millions of voters who sought either in person or by representation the adoption of a prohibition plank.

"There is but one party today that stands committed by both state and national platform to the prohibition of the liquor traffic. That party is the Prohibition party. Hence there seems but two alternatives for the hundreds of thousands who have come to us, either to support the Prohibition party or engage in the formation of a new party.

"And it is for this conference to decide whether we will do as these thousands who believe that the name 'Prohibition' is the name of the party.

ST. JOSEPH CASE ONE OF MYSTERY

SEVERAL THEORIES ON KILLING OF WIFE OF OUTING ATTORNEY.

SUGGEST REVENGE

Threatening Letters Received By Husband of Victim—Important Element.

St. Joseph, Mo., July 18.—The police are yet searching for the murderer of Mrs. Oscar D. McDaniel wife of the prosecuting attorney of this county. If they catch him it will take strong faith to hold him against a mob, for this city is worked up into a heat of excitement about this mysterious crime. Both Mr. and Mrs. McDaniel were members of old families in this county and both were very popular.

Mrs. McDaniel was slain in her bed in her own home as she lay asleep, her two children sleeping in the next room. The skull was crushed by three blows from a heavy iron weapon that has not been found. The police believe it was done by burglary, because a screen on a rear ceiling window had been cut and the window pushed open, and two rings were taken from the fingers of Mrs. McDaniel.

Revenge the Motive?
The assistant prosecuting attorney and Mr. McDaniel believe that the murder was done for revenge. Perhaps by someone whom he had persecuted. This theory is borne out by the fact that Mr. McDaniel had received threatening letters to kill him. But there are facts and circumstances connected with the crime which seem to be incompatible with any of these theories and which leave a mystery.

The McDaniel home is at 1306 South Twentieth Street, less than a mile southeast of the business center. It is a large frame house that stands upon a terrace about ten feet above the street level. The garage is immediately south of the house, built into the embankment and is front door flush with the inner edge of the sidewalk.

A Mysterious Telephone Call.
Friday evening Mrs. and Mrs. McDaniel had been talking on the telephone. He was going there on business and she intended to accompany him. At 11 o'clock Mrs. McDaniel had gone to bed in the southeast room upstairs. Two of her children were asleep in the room adjoining hers. The son, a year old, and the daughter, was away visiting his grandfather, D. L. McDaniel, a wealthy farmer who lives ten miles south of St. Joseph. Mrs. McDaniel was getting ready to go to bed when his telephone rang and someone at the other end of the line told her that her brother was drunk at the saloon of Hart & Blackley at Eighth and Mesquite streets.

Mr. McDaniel has a brother who drinks great deal and has been in trouble on that account. Mr. McDaniel says that he decided to take his motor car and go to the saloon and get his brother. He went to the garage, opened it and got his motor car. He was standing in the doorway when the telephone call was made. His brother had not been there. At once he suspected it was a trap because the phone call was late and his heart was filled with fear for his wife and children asleep in the next room. He hurried to the garage, got out to open the door and just then, he says, some one in the shadow of a dense, dark bush, shot at him. He drew his own revolver, which he had been carrying since he received the telephone call, and was scrapping around partly behind the machine, he fired into the shadow of the tree.

Five shots were fired at him and he fired five shots, aiming at the bushes. He says he was in a great deliberation, waiting for each shot until he saw the flash of a revolver in the bush and then he would take aim at that flash. The only shot that was fired in all five by Mr. McDaniel and five by the assassin. One of the shots fired by the murderer struck the roof of the house and went through the upper right hand corner of the glass of the windshield.

Mr. McDaniel's revolver when it was empty and ran into his home. He did not see the man who shot at him nor anyone else. He was standing in the doorway when the assassin shot at him with her skull crushed but not yet dead. He went into the next room, saw that his children were sleeping and then he returned to the entrance through cellar window.

A police investigation showed that a screen on a cellar window at the back of the house had been cut and through the opening a man could have put his hand and pushed open the window, which the police found open. That would have let him into the house. Then his foot was clear upstairs to the first floor and up to Mrs. McDaniel's room and another ring, a diamond, were gone from her fingers, and those were the only things stolen from the house. Although there was $500 worth of silverware in the dining room and several hundred dollars worth of jewelry in a box in her room, no jewelry was taken and a table in her room had been upset.

The police theory is that burglars, 30 or more, knowing that Mrs. McDaniel had jewelry in her home, fearing to enter it while her husband was there, called him away on the case that his brother was drunk; then went out and one entered the house while the other waited in the shadow of the tree to warn the burglar inside of the return of Mr. McDaniel. And that the first shot he fired was not aimed at Mrs. McDaniel but at the man who was intended to warn the burglar inside.

Crude Methods For a Burglar.
The assistant prosecuting attorney argues that no burglar would be dull witted enough to call by telephone a house that he intended to rob and rob within the next five or ten minutes, because it would be reasonable to suppose that Mr. McDaniel, aroused by a telephone call, would tell his wife that he was going out in the motor car. No husband would do such an unusual thing as they argue, as to leave his home a half hour before midnight on such a mission without telling his wife about it. Therefore the doubt here would expect to find the wife fully awake and the children, too, when he forced his way into the house.

Also it is argued if robbery were the only motive, why should the thief watch outside around the neighborhood window, when he could just as well notify his confederate by tapping on the window or by a whistle. Also it is argued why burglars would enter a house by shooting at the head of a man who is asleep in bed, when they expect to find the house empty and the burglar himself says he was gone from the house thirty minutes and that was ample time for a burglar to have ransacked the house from top to bottom.

Seek Motive For the Killing.
Also, if it was burglary, why did the murderer wait until the victim was asleep? If the murder was done for revenge, argue the police, why kill a man who is asleep? Why not wait until he is awake and then shoot him when he came out of the house at first and was unlocking the doors of his garage? That was the best opportunity he had. He was in full view of them without any motor car to hide behind. The man in the street could have seen him as he stepped out of the house and down on a wild goose chase, thus arousing the neighborhood with the noise of the motor car. He would have been seen departing motor car would arouse the wife and children, in all probability, so they would have three wide awake witnesses to go with when they entered the house with the telephone handy to notify the police. Why did he do this?

Mr. McDaniel's departure in the motor car did arouse some of the neighbors. William Berghoff, who lives on the street next to the McDaniel garage, came home exactly at 11:30 o'clock. He says he saw Mr. McDaniel taking out his car. I came down the street on the side of the street. I saw him come down the steps from his home, open the garage door and start out. He was wearing a white shirt, a white hat, a white, unbuttoned shirt, and I think it was 45 minutes or so when I heard four or five shots fired from the house. I grabbed my flashlight and revolver and ran across the street. It was 12:30 o'clock, about the old judge. I ran up the steps of the McDaniel home and I went in where Mrs. McDaniel lay and Mr. McDaniel was sitting on the floor, propped up with grief. I didn't see anybody around or running away. But of course, they ran through the house and brush I couldn't have seen them anyway.

Heard Only Five Shots.
Miss Caroline Berghoff, his sister, was in a room about 145 feet from the window of which looked directly across the street upon the garage door. A young woman friend, who lives on the street next to the McDaniel house, said:

"At 12:30 o'clock exactly, for I looked at the clock at the time, I heard one revolver shot. There was a pause and then four more shots right across the street by the garage. The young lady who was sitting beside me counted the shots, too. We both counted the shots. There were just five shots and no more. I am certain of that. We jumped out of bed and looked out the window and saw the car standing over there, but did not see Mr. McDaniel. I thought I heard footsteps going north along the sidewalk away from the McDaniel house."

Mr. McDaniel got a letter through the mail July 7 threatening his life. It was written on the letter paper of the Hotel Robidoux; and the letters were printed with a pen as if they had been typed. It was signed and told him that he would die with "death, hell and destruction." And also threatened the family unless he signed a name pending against James Barrett before July 12. Barrett is under sentence of five years in the penitentiary for a robbery he is being held in jail for trial in September on another charge of robbery. It is the theory of Mr. McDaniel that Barrett is a member of a criminal gang of which Ed Carboy was also a member. Carboy was in jail a month or so ago, but was let out to the insane asylum to the state hospital, from which he escaped and is now at large.

Threatening Letters Worried Him.
Mr. McDaniel carried this threatening letter in his pocket and showed it to his friends and talked a great deal about it and was uneasy about it. He talked about it to Frank Wickiser, a reporter on the News-Press. This conversation was just a few hours before the murder of Mrs. McDaniel. Mr. McDaniel said:

"I don't believe anyone who is coward enough to write that kind of a letter would have nerve enough to execute the threat and yet I am very uneasy about it. So much so that I am not taking any chances, as far as I can avoid. Ever since I received that letter I have been carrying my revolver, and I am especially careful at night. I never go out to go out alone, and I am avoiding all alleys and questionable places. I have even thought of having a bodyguard but decided it was not necessary. When that story came out in the newspaper about me receiving this threatening letter, I was out of the house to my wife would see it as I didn't want her to be worried. But a neighbor woman brought the paper to my house and showed it to my wife by my absence, and she has been very much excited since."

Killed With Her Own Revolver.
Mr. McDaniel also told Mr. Wickiser about the presence in St. Joseph of a large number of "I. W. W.'s" and wondered what they were here to do with the threatening letter he had received. In the same conversation yesterday he said his wife was so nervous about the threatening letter that she was carrying a revolver.

This revolver is another mystery in this case. A. M. Gilliam, real estate man and a neighbor and intimate friend of Mr. and Mrs. McDaniel, who was a crack shot with a revolver and that she kept the pistol in her dresser drawer. It is not known since the murder. One theory is that a burglar ransacked that dresser found the revolver; that she awoke and that he killed her by beating her head with the butt-end of her own revolver. The coroner who performed the autopsy says that the three wounds in her head look as if they were made by the butt end of a revolver.

Questioned Eleven Suspects.
One theory about the threatening letter is that Ed Carboy could not have written it, because to have done so he would have had to return to St. Joseph and enter the Hotel Robidoux, which is in the business center and the police were on the lookout for Carboy. Nearly every word in the letter was misspelled, showing either that it was written by a very illiterate man or was written by a man who wished to disguise his identity by appearing to be illiterate.

Soon after the murder, bloodhounds owned by private detective agency were taken to the McDaniel home and they seemingly followed a scent downtown to a boarding house a few doors away from the saloon from which the fake telephone call is supposed to have come. The police arrested several men at the boarding house, but the investigation resulted in nothing and the men later were released. The police had eleven men in all detained, but released them.

Mr. McDaniel has the sympathy of everyone in St. Joseph. The Commercial Club adopted resolutions of sympathy for him and recommended that the city, county and state officials, officers, libraries, schools and churches observe a day of mourning for the arrest of the murderer.

Failed to Verify the Message.
Friends of Mrs. McDaniel express regret now that they did not follow up his expressed intention made a few hours before the murder of never going out alone at night and at some questionable places. The saloon at Eighth and Mesquite is not in a good neighborhood, but Mr. McDaniel in his safety at his home, where his brother was drinking and in his anxiety to bring him to his home, where he could be properly cared for and kept out of trouble, evidently forgot those precautions and rushed out after him without even stopping to call up the saloon to verify the message.

Mrs. McDaniel was Miss Harriet Moss, known among her girl friends as Miss Moss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luke H. Moss of this city. She was reared in St. Joseph, attending the public schools here and was a member of the Westminster Presbyterian Church, where the funeral was held.

BAGGING AND TIES ARE BEING SHIPPED

Sixteen cars of bagging and ties consigned to the grain and compresses on the line were handled through here by the Northwestern yesterday, the beginning of the heavy shipments of the cotton season, which mark the opening of the cotton season. Shipments of these materials will keep up for the next thirty days. During the winter and spring great supplies of these materials are moved from New York and stored in the big warehouses at Galveston, from where they are distributed over the country, beginning about the middle of July. It is said that three thousand cars of this material is used in baling the cotton crop of Texas and Oklahoma alone.

The heavy shipments of these supplies will do their part in relieving the shortage of cars for the grain shipments from Oklahoma. Although the situation is now much better than it has been, it is still a hard matter to provide all the cars which are required, and any movement which is likely to provide empty cars in which the grain may be carried back is welcomed by railroad officials in this section. All stations north of Woodward on the Northwestern are said to be tied up as far as grain shipments are concerned. At Woodward and this side the situation is little worse than normal.

HONOR GUARD WILL MEET TOMORROW

Session Will Be Held at Home of Lieut. Carver To Form Organization

There is already a vast amount of interest aroused in the Girls' Honor Guard which is going to be organized Wednesday afternoon at the home of Lieut. Genevieve Carver and inquiries are being received from out of town as well as in Wichita Falls. All girls and women interested are urged to forget the warm weather and be in attendance tomorrow when the full plans of the organization will be announced.

Just what Lieutenant Carver's plans are for the activities of the guard has not been given out as yet but they will include an active working organization, that much is assured. A camp that will be the equal of the Fort Worth camp or of any other in the state will be the aim of Miss Carver and her aides and the organization will be given an opportunity to contribute its share to the girls training camp scheduled to be held in Fort Worth soon. This camp will be along the lines of the famous Chevy Chase camp conducted this spring and will arouse national interest.

The first meeting will be held at 6 o'clock at the Carver home, 1096 Brook. For those girls who are employed and who will be unable to attend the afternoon meetings a special branch of the guard is being planned and further information will be given in a short time. A full complement of 100 is the aim of those who are at work on the organization. The only fee connected with the guard is the 25 cents for enrollment.

WAR BRINGS REVIVAL OF BICYCLING IN LONDON

Associated Press Mail Correspondence. London.—The war has caused a distinct revival of cycling in England. More bicycles are to be seen than at any time in the past twenty years. This cheapest of all sports is to a large extent taking the place of motor cars which are gradually being given up for reasons of economy. Women find that the fashion of short, wide skirts and high boots is ideal for cycling. No sooner did the government's campaign against the use of motor cars for pleasure begin to bear fruit than all the veteran cyclists arranged a merry rally on a road leading out of London that was popular with them in years gone by. For one day the historic road was almost like it was in the golden days. Wheel behind wheel, the machines came pouring down the last hill, and the villagers stood by their gates, as they stood every fine Sunday twenty years ago, to watch and identify by familiar names the men who once were kings of the road.

ANNUAL ENCAMPMENT OF NEGROES OPENS AT AUSTIN

Austin, Tex., July 18.—Upwards of 20,000 negroes from all over Texas were expected to attend the annual St. John's encampment, which opened today on the 500-acre tract owned by the St. John's Orphan Home, near Austin. It continues until July 25. The program includes addresses by prominent negroes from all parts of the United States. The purpose of these annual encampments is to bring together negroes from the rural districts for instruction in better farming, sanitation, self help and educational improvement.

IN THE SPHERE OF WOMANKIND

Walk My Ways
I walk my ways with poetry in my heart
Nor heed the fevered hurry of the throng
In life's activities I find no part
But tread, the highways with a silent song
I have no traffic in the worldly mart,
I know no certainties of right and wrong
But I shape my fleeting dreams to forms of art
Knowing that life is short and art is long
And who shall say I do not play my role
Because I do not clamor in the frenzied strife
But rather choose with song to worship life
And feed the flickering flame within my soul
And silent stand because the stars are sweet

M. E. SOUTH CIRCLE 3 MEETS MONDAY AFTERNOON

Those of Circle No. 3 of the M. E. Church South who braved the heat and attended the meeting of the circle Monday afternoon with Mrs. Joe Durkin as hostess felt indeed well repaid for so doing. The members were greeted with a cup of refreshing fruit punch and then enjoyed an excellent program. Devotional were led by Mrs. J. C. Smith and Mrs. Bralley read an entertaining paper on "Korean Life in America." Mrs. C. Miller told of everglacial work done by Korean women and Miss Lois Martin concluded the program with readings which were much enjoyed. The hostess had prepared a delicious ice cream and a food cake was served late in the afternoon. A generous free will offering amounting to $15 was taken. During the business session plans were made for a dinner to be held by the circle on circus day and for a rummage sale to start about Nov. 19.

GETTING READY FOR PRIMARY SATURDAY

Times Making Arrangements to Display County, State and District Results.

The Times is making extensive preparations for compiling election returns, county, district and state, next Saturday night. Arrangements are being made for the finishing of these returns in front of the Times office for the benefit of the public.

The Times is a member of an organization of Texas newspapers, formed to collect accurate, prompt returns, and through this agency, it expects to be able to supply its readers and friends with early information Saturday in getting the returns in this county, the assistance of election officers has been requested, and with their cooperation the results will be made known as early as possible.

The Times wishes to request in advance that its friends avail themselves of the bulletins which will be flashed on the screen, rather than attempt to get information from The Times by phone. The members of The Times force will have plenty to do that night without answering phone calls.

Unusual steps have been taken this year by the state Democratic Executive committee to assist in securing the public quiet and comprehensive returns following the primary of July 22. It is announced from the office of the organization which will tabulate and compile these returns.

Every county chairman has been called upon to do all possible to induce precinct election officials to make immediate reports and to comply with the spirit of the law which calls for a fast count and early announcement as to the standing of candidates.

This effort on the part of the state committee originated with Secretary Charles J. Kirk, and it is stated that this is the first time the state committee has seen fit to go further, in holding primary elections, than to accept the ordinary slow course, determined by long custom, in securing the public reports thereafter.

This year, it is said, the fact appears to have been recognized that the early report of the result of an election is secondary, in public importance, only to the actual holding of the election.

FRANCE BANISHING "FIELD OF HONOR"

Believed Quelling Will Be Unknown After Present War Is Ended.

Associated Press Mail Correspondence. Paris.—The duel is one of the ancient institutions of France that has fallen into neglect during the war. The last sensational encounter on the "field of honor"—a bloodless one—took place after the war, in the Chamber of Deputies in 1914, not long before hostilities broke out. It was between Joseph Caillaux, former minister of France and his unsuccessful opponent Louis d'Aillieres. Caillaux fired into the air and d'Aillieres fired into the ground.

Since that meeting M. d'Aillieres has been grievously wounded on another "field of honor." Acting as intermediary officer between the firing line and the command in the rear, he was hit by a fragment of a shell that maimed him, probably for life.

It is attributed to the fact that so many Frenchmen, like M. d'Aillieres, have shed their blood on battlefields that the duel has been abandoned and there is a well-defined sentiment that it has come to an end for good and all.

Some credit the "sacred union" of parties and classes with this reform while there are certain proofs that it is due to popular depreciation of personal conflicts between Frenchmen while "the Germans are still at Noyon." The "sacred union" has not prevented disputes and provocations.

Two men contesting for a favorable place from which to witness a review of troops on the Esplanade des Invalides came to blows and one of them tossed his card to the other.

"If you are so eager to fight" cried a bystander, "why don't you do as these boys did" and pointed to some armless and legless soldiers lined up before the troops to be decorated.

Two young men in a popular cafe exchanged sarcasms, followed by insults, blows and an exchange of cards. "To Verden with them," cried the spectators, "Put them out."

The manager threw both of them into the street where the idlers jeered them until in common defense they made up their quarrel and walked off together.

Friends in this section of the state of Governor Ferguson and supporters of his land rent laws will not allow the governor's charge of a conspiracy to have this law declared unconstitutional to prevent them from supporting Judge H. W. Hall, formerly of Vernon, and now of Amarillo, for associate justice of the supreme court. This section know there is absolutely no foundation for his "boogey". They know Judge Hall to be a high minded lawyer, qualified in every way for the office he seeks, and above the petty politics with which the governor has accused him. Judge Hall's vindication will be the great majority which the counties in this section, where he is well known, will give him. His friends, however, are not unmindful that Governor Ferguson's position gives his charges a weight they would have coming from a private citizen and that their effect will be unfairly detrimental. They will, therefore, work the more zealously in Judge Hall's behalf. Judge Hall has many personal friends in Wichita county, both among anti and prohibitionists. Some of them are supporters of Governor Ferguson. They regret deeply that Governor Ferguson has been so badly deluded in this matter.

Between the 11th and 12th there ought to be several additional boxes created in this county. Two of these boxes ought to be in Wichita Falls and a third at the site of the box in the Electric box in two of the boxes in Wichita Falls is getting too large to be counted without longer delay than there ought to be and without being a great physical strain on the election judges who serve the election boxes. In several of the boxes the election boards find it impossible to count the vote in one sitting and in the small hours of Sunday morning, on account of physical exhaustion, it is necessary to adjourn until the next day for the counting of the vote. Nothing is more to be desired than that the counting of the vote next Saturday night as rapidly as possible. In order that this may be done no expense should be spared in the employment of large forces of election officers in the boxes where a heavy vote will be polled, and every facility possible would be given these officers. With the proper preparation the count of the vote in all the boxes in the county should be completed by 3 o'clock Sunday morning.

Another position was added to the great democratic defenses yesterday when President Wilson signed the rural credit bill. When the rural credit bill was passed the shipping bill became law as they will within the next few weeks, the democratic lines will be thoroughly prepared for the assaults of the republicans under Commander Hughes. The democratic defenses include such positions as the Underwood tariff bill, the income tax measures, the Clayton act, the Alaskan railway measures, the anti injunction bill, the reserve bank bill, the rural credit bill, the army increase bill, the navy increase bill and the record of President Wilson for having upheld the honor of the nation and the rights of citizens with peace. Behind these strong positions the democratic forces, harmonious and well organized, are in a good position to anticipate the assaults of the republicans without fear. Mines, barbed wire entanglements and pitfalls have been put in front of these positions by Commander Wilson who has arranged masked batteries and big guns for scattering confusion and destruction in the republican ranks the moment they open their attacks. The democratic hosts have supreme confidence in their leader.

A FALSE MAJOR PROMISE

William Randolph Hearst is, in many of his characteristics, a great man. His benevolence and broad charities have been of untold blessing to thousands of suffering humanity. And, through the newspapers he owns and controls, he has become a potent factor in the development of art, science and industry. But, when it comes to playing the political game, Mr. Hearst is not a safe guide, though we must all acknowledge that he is a daring and brilliant manipulator. With the power of his wealth to employ the best talent and most skilled men in the newspaper profession, he has built up a machinery of publishing machines that promulgates the mandates of Mr. Hearst to the American people. Therefore, it may appear presumptuous for a reader of current events to question his authority to shape the destiny of this nation. Granted that Mr. Hearst, in his attack upon President Wilson and his appeal to the patriotism of the American people, is not prompted by his pecuniary interests in Mexico, the fact remains that he sets up a false major promise in his communication to Register O'Laughlin of Brooklyn, when he says: "The United States has no right to justify Mexican intervention. The distinction and difference is so great that it is unnecessary to refer to the history of diplomacy leading up to the Spanish-American war. Cuba was a dependent colony of Spain, taxed and depopulated until her people rebelled and set up an independent government in 1898. The United States was a sympathetic brother to the Cuban people; but never interfered officially, until the overt act of blowing up the Maine. The Mexican people are engaged in a civil war and by factional leaders. And, notwithstanding the deplorable conditions, resultant upon constant strife, the United States has no just grounds to intervene in Mexico until the de facto government fails to recognize international obligations. Wilson's attempts to ignore the seriousness of the situation growing out of the raids by outlawed Mexican bands across the boundary lines, and the United States is being compelled to send troops over the border, is a gross violation of the rights of the Mexican people. The United States is being compelled to send troops over the border, is a gross violation of the rights of the Mexican people. The United States is being compelled to send troops over the border, is a gross violation of the rights of the Mexican people." Without any legal responsibility or official obligation, Mr. Hearst is free to promulgate his false promises and his lies to the American people. TRACTOR DEMONSTRATION STARTS TODAY AT DALLAS

Dallas, Tex., July 18.—Something unusual in demonstrations—that of the tractor performing all kinds of farm work—was shown here today as the first of several such exhibits under the auspices of the National Tractor Demonstrations, which will continue through the month of August. The demonstrations, which will include exhibits in other parts of the United States as the harvest progresses, The Dallas affair has been designed as the southwestern demonstration, and was intended for the interest of farmers and land owners in Texas, Arkansas, New Mexico and Louisiana.

The demonstrations will be held at Grand Prairie, a farming center about 12 miles west of here, and will continue until July 27. Every possible feat to be performed by a tractor will be shown. The demonstration has the official recognition and recommendation of agricultural colleges of this section of the United States most of whom will send representatives to Dallas for the occasion. It was expected that not less than 50 tractor manufacturers would have exhibits on the ground, in addition to which there will be all varieties of farm machinery, including those operating as auxiliaries to the traction engines. Probably the good roads section will be as interesting to the general public as anything else. Daily lessons in road grading and ditching will be given in which the various machines will be used. Dallas was preparing to accommodate 100,000 visitors during the four days of the demonstration.

BACK FIRING AUTO SOUNDED LIKE GUN

Floral Heights, Folk. Call Police, Believing Shooting Was in Progress. An automobile that back-fired loudly and vigorously caused quite a few residents of Floral Heights to believe several persons were engaged in a gun battle in some hurry-up calls to the police station. Several officers made a quick run to the scene in a service car and found that the "shooting" was nothing more serious than a badly working automobile engine. The noisy machine was driven by a young son of the owner and had been placed in the scaling garage when the officers arrived.

WORKING ON PLAN FOR CONFERENCES

Fletcher May Be Head of Joint Commission to Settle Mexican Trouble. By Associated Press. Washington, July 18.—Eliseo Arredondo, Mexican ambassador designate called on Acting Secretary Fols at the state department today just before the latter went to the cabinet meeting. It was understood Mr. Arredondo had received instructions from his government approving a tentative plan for the settlement of the Mexican trouble in the form of a joint international commission. There are indications that Secretary F. Fletcher, ambassador designate to Mexico will head the three American commissioners if the plan is adopted. Mr. Fletcher was present at today's conference. At the close of the conference Mr.

INTELLIGENT MANAGEMENT OF A PUBLIC INDUSTRY

The interest of people in public affairs is considerably heightened when they learn that the revenues of the government are wisely and judiciously managed. A statement of economical expenditures which is susceptible which proof will always attract attention and please the thoughtful reader. Among the varied industrial enterprises of the Post Office department in Washington is an establishment devoted entirely to the manufacture of mail locks and the bag attachments used in mail transportation. When this administration came into power, the department sorely needed an improved type of mail lock. The shop was immediately reorganized, placed on a business basis, and its activities enlarged so as to meet this imperative demand. Within a short time a new and greatly improved lock had been devised and its production begun. The lock in use weighed 5 1/2 ounces; the new one weighs 2 4/5 ounces. As 450,000 of this new product have been put into service, the difference in weight (the government paying as much for the weight of equipment as it does for the mail itself) can be easily calculated. The locks replaced by this new and better style cost 21 cents each to make; those now being manufactured cost 8 1/2 cents, direct and indirect charges considered, the saving thus shown on original cost of production to date amounting to $53,750. Of the old style, 36,000 were annually returned for repair at a cost of about 3 cents each. Of the new style

BROOKS FOR SENATOR

Reliable reports show that Dr. S. P. Brooks in his race for the United States Senate is rapidly gaining ground in all parts of the state. Only a few days ago it became necessary at his headquarters at Waco to double his office force in order to handle the correspondence of the office. He turns his weakness into strength. He has the forward look.

Read the following (true) statements:

"He now looks very much like Dr. Samuel Palmer Brooks will be the next Senator from Texas."—Waxahachie Enterprise.

"I am sorry that my absence from the state will forbid my active help in electing Dr. S. P. Brooks to the United States Senate."—Hon. Cone Johnson, in introducing Dr. Brooks at Tyler.

"Antis and pros alike attribute to Brooks the place of pre-eminent ability, superior learning, and stalwart character. He is not a politician, but he is a man of great ability and experience, and what is needed in the Senate now."—Albany News.

"You will carry Fannin county. Even friends of your opponents make this concession."—S. A. Cowan, C. L. Bradford, D. Scarborough, D. W. Swainey, Sid Smith, H. A. Cunningham, F. M. Gibson, I. W. Evans.

"I consider Dr. Brooks a man of eminent ability, broad-minded in every sense, and a man well qualified to represent the great state of Texas in the United States Senate. We are sure that Dr. Brooks will sweep Ellis County."—B. Frince, Mayor, Waxahachie, Texas.

"S. P. Brooks will carry this county by close to a majority vote. He is strong in South Texas and strong in North Texas."—Port Lavaca Wave.

"More than one-third of the voters of Glendon believe that you best possess the learning, training, frankness, integrity, courage, ability, vigor, endurance and energy to represent the best ideals of Texas in the United States Senate have joined Brooks' club to promote your election. You will get a majority in Donley county."—R. Cole, Glendon, Texas.

"I am for Brooks for the Senate because he is clean, well-equipped, broad-minded, patriotic and right on every public question."—Sentiment for Brooks in Williamson county is more outspoken and forces are more definitely organized than for any other candidate."—C. M. Bishop, Georgetown, Texas.

"That Dr. Brooks will be in the second primary and that he will lead all others in the first primary is practical foregone conclusion."—Waxahachie Daily Light.

"He is tempered in speech, respectful of the views of others, tolerant to a marked degree, still young and vigorous in mind and body, absolutely honest, unimpeached and unimpeachable, brave and chivalrous as the famed Rosas, kind as a good woman, and entire freedom with all his camp from the soil and worked his way steadily to the front without fattening influential friends to the commanding position he now occupies in this state. He has a mind strong and vigorous, receptive and analytic, capable of dissecting, directing and showing the great questions which confront this government. We are splendidly organized in Dallas county and will carry it for him."—Felix D. Robertson, Dallas, Texas.

"You will get a fine vote in this section. Your friends here confidently expect your election."—W. A. Nabors, Winthorpe, Texas.

"Brooks' sentiment growing by leaps and bounds. The west is for you."—D. Sandless, Abilene, Texas.

"We now have a membership of the Brooks club 600. If they all vote like they have signed up to vote and the whole county votes, as it looks like it will, you will get an overwhelming majority in this county."—H. C. Glenn, Temple, Texas.

"My opinion of the conditions in Smith county is that you will lead the ticket considerably in the first primary; your friends are standing steadfast, while others are changing from one candidate to another."—Dabney White, Tyler, Texas.

A New Machine At The City National Bank

This machine is really a wonderful set of steel brains which we are putting to work in our accounting department.

Everything Is Done Automatically

It prints dates, adds your deposits to the old balance, subtracts checks, figures and prints your new balance. All of this is done automatically. The operator simply writes the amounts on the keyboard—the machine shifts from column to column and adds, subtracts, or prints the dates as desired, without the least attention being necessary.

There is no method of posting ledgers known which equals this Burroughs Bookkeeping Machine in either accuracy or time saving.

Helps Us Give You Better Service

By the machine method, every depositor's account is kept in balance all the time and there are no mistakes such as are unavoidable with other ways of handling figures.

The time saving made possible by the machine gives us an opportunity to improve the service to our customers in all departments of the bank.

CAMPBELL FOR SENATOR

W. G. Starnett, political writer for thirty years on the Dallas News has just visited Dallas, Houston, Galveston, San Antonio and other large centers of population and made careful inquiry about the race for Senator. He is a close observer and judge of politics and the Dallas News of July 15th among other things, has been following to say about the Senatorial race:

"Mr. Campbell is going to get a lot of anti-prohibition votes. He is going to carry a good part of what is known as the labor vote. Now this vote is far from being a prohibition one. If the issue came down to prohibition in the second primary the anti-prohibition element of labor would not vote for Mr. Brooks though it voted for Campbell. The labor vote is for Campbell because he passed 12 laws in their behalf while governor and has always been their friend. Campbell's name is a household word in Texas. He stands for all that is good and true both in public and in private life. As governor he ranked with Robertson, Coke and Hoger. There is no doubt but that Campbell is the strongest man to defeat the anti-prohibition candidate in the second primary. The runoff vote in the first primary for Campbell because he can win in the second primary which will elect the senator."

WICHITAN STUDENT AT TRAINING CAMP

Captain H. A. Baker Returns From Civilians School at San Antonio

Captain H. A. Baker of this city has returned from Camp Croft at San Antonio, where about 500 leading citizens, including the southern states received such preliminary military training as would fit them to hold commissions in volunteer service in case of war in the United States. The camp was modeled after the famous military instruction camp at Ft. Benning, Ga. The instructors were officers detailed from the regular United States Army.

The course embraced everything necessary for the making of an infantry soldier and special courses were offered in cavalry drill and tactics, machine gun practice, military topography and fortification.

The men taking the course of instruction were among the most prominent in the southwestern states in business and public life. They were separated into eight companies and two officers and eight non-commissioned officers of the regular army were assigned to each company as instructors.

The first two weeks were devoted to drills in clothing and equipment and the remainder of the month was taken up with drill in extended order, marching, advance and rear guard sections, and so on.

Captain E. Z. Steever, first lieutenant of Company G, which Baker was assigned, was the originator of the famous instruction plan which is serving as a model for military instruction in high schools throughout the country. Everybody's "for" regarding the instruction of the high schools of the future is being given to the plan of the high schools of the future. The plan of the high schools of the future is being given to the plan of the high schools of the future.

When asked about the military drill at the high school, next year, Captain Baker said that he didn't know what to say. Last year he had organized a battalion of cadets at the local high school, but in extra time and a considerable amount of money and had not even received thanks for it. Instead of this, he stated, he received hindrances and obstructions and he would not like to undertake the work again and try to make a showing if he was to continue to receive opposition, he said.

If the military training is taken out of the hands of the local authorities and carried out under the supervision of state authorities, Captain Baker thinks that the high schools of the state will be able to receive the full benefits that are to be realized from military training.

TO THE VOTERS OF WICHITA COUNTY

Wichita Falls, Texas, July 17, 1916.

Gentlemen: Having been informed that a report is being circulated to the effect that I had built a house in Wichita Falls and had violated a miss by the name of Elliott out of his plumbing bill, and had refused to pay for the plumbing that I had him to put in my house, and that I had swindled a man by the name of Conklin out of his bill for painting my house, and fearing that such statements might be believed by persons who do not personally know me, I take this method of denying such statements and branding them as absolutely false and malicious.

In the first place I never built a house in Wichita Falls or Wichita County. In the second place I never employed either Elliott or Conklin to do any work whatever for me, and do not now and never did owe either of them one cent on any account. June 26th, 1915, I purchased from C. A. Benton, the house and lot at 1315 10th Street, for which I contracted to pay $5,000.00 provided the title was good, and provided I could put in cash payment of $2,000.00 and assume the $3,000.00 lien note against it held by the Wichita Southern Life Insurance company, all of which he agreed to do. An examination of the abstract disclosed the fact that several judgments had been registered against C. A. Benton, aggregating several thousand dollars, also a claim in favor of Elliott and one in favor of Conklin aggregating about $125.00. As the property was a homestead, (Benton having built it and used it for a home for about one year before I purchased it), the judgments mentioned constituted a lien against it, and as neither Elliott nor Conklin had entered into a contract with C. A. Benton and wife, for work to be done on the homestead, the law provides, the claims mentioned did not constitute a lien on the property.

In the trade, I assumed the $3,000.00 lien note of Benton to the Wichita Southern Life Insurance company by executing my own note, for said amount, (which retained a lien on the property), to said company. I also conveyed the real estate mentioned and borrowed $1,500.00 to make the cash payment, did not assume or agree to pay any debts whatever to Elliott or Conklin or to any one else, other than the Wichita Southern Life Insurance company as Benton refused to allow me to pay either Elliott or Conklin out of the cash payment.

I spoke to Benton about the Elliott and Conklin claims several times, and insisted on him paying them, he said they were not liens, but that he insisted to pay both of them every cent he owed them, but that he could not pay them NOW. I stated to him that I did not want to buy the property unless he would settle those claims, to which he replied that if I did not buy the property some other man would, that he was going to sell it, and that it would make no difference to either Elliott or Conklin who bought it, and he further stated that I had contracted to buy the property if the title was good, and that the title WAS good, which in point of fact and law was true.

Now Mr. Elliott having taken a transfer from Conklin or Conklin's claim, has a suit pending to foreclose the alleged liens, against the property, and if he has a lien he will foreclose it, and if he forecloses it, he will get

THE BEEBODIES

The "Beebodies" who are circulating the "reports" and "gossip" in Wichita Falls in the matter, but are circulating these false and slanderous reports for the sole purpose of trying to prejudice me with the voters of Wichita County, and do not know "me" personally from believing them.

It is very unpleasant to me to be compelled to refer to these matters, but should I permit such slanderous reports to go unrefuted, could not blame those who do not know me personally from believing them.

Messrs. Thomas & Bland know the facts herein stated are true, as they put the deal through for Benton, and they will verify what I have here stated in regard to my connection with the property.

As a candidate to succeed myself as judge of the 78th district court, I am not seeking to be elected upon the merits of any one, but am seeking election upon my own merits. I have all along conducted this campaign fairly and honestly, and no one of my friends, as far as I know or have learned, have done otherwise, and I was in hopes that the campaign would be closed without resorting to "slandering" or "carrying crows" who are so industriously engaged in the peddling of these slanderous, false and malicious reports, certainly, must think that the "carrying crows" is the only chance they have to defeat me in this race. I have been your district judge since March 1st, 1915, and my official record, as well as my private life is before you for investigation, and if you think it is such as to merit your confidence in me as a man and a judge, I earnestly solicit your support.

I have never harmed or injured the parties circulating the reports mentioned, but they are circulating them knowing they are false, slanderous, and untrue, and they are doing it for the sole purpose of trying to further the political interests of one of my opponents, but is that fair? Is it right? Is it giving a man a square deal to try to defeat him by falsehood and slander, by traducing and smearing his character? I do not think so, and I have too much confidence in the intelligence and fairness of the citizenship of Wichita county to believe that they will stand for it.

Yours for a square deal,

E. W. NICHOLSON.

The State of Texas, County of Wichita, ss.

Before me, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Mack Thomas and J. M. Bland, two credible, resident citizens of Wichita county, Texas, and after being by me duly sworn, depose and say, each for himself, that they have read the foregoing, and that all of the statements made in regard to E. W. Nicholson's connection with said property, and said alleged liens of Elliott and Conklin, are true.

MACK THOMAS AND J. M. BLAND.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, this 17th day of July, A. D. 1916, 1916.

ELECTION SUPPLIES BEING DISTRIBUTED

The sheriff's force will tomorrow begin the distribution of election supplies for the primary Saturday and Sunday. The supplies will be in the hands of the proper officers prior to Saturday. The delivery of the supplies would have started earlier, but for the fact that boxes other than those regularly used had to be provided. These contained the ballots of the recent bridge bond election and as that election is to be contested, the ballots could not be removed.

Some little trouble was experienced in finding enough boxes that would be suitable and the collection to be used contains a variety of shapes and sizes.

Western people have accused the Turks of polygamy, which is denied by the Oriental and the accusation returned with the remark that the Western men are worse, for they flee from a flower to flower, but as one brings any of these flowers home to make her his wife.

Reforms and Western modes have brought much unhappiness into the harems and often when too late the husband deprives himself of the law allows the husband a certain number of wives. It is wrong to think that bridegroom and bride have to marry each other by the will of the parents. The parents certainly make the proposal, but the young people are allowed the final word.

The Oriental, rich or poor, does not allow his wife to do laborious work; she has to live for her husband and children only. He wants her to live in ease and comfort and to accomplish this, the husband deprives himself of many things, to give his wife and children all the comfort possible. The Oriental works and is thrifty, while his wife sits at home on the carpet and dreams.

The strict marriage law gives the Oriental wife security and happiness while Western laws do not give wives that security.

Turkish men seldom are rude to the female population, but many Europeans who don't know the laws and customs of the Orientals, are the cause of the harem ladies being compelled to veil.

When Nails Loosen. Dandruff sends this hint: As soon as a picture nail driven in a wall gets loose and the plaster begins to break around it, it can be made solid and firm by the following process. Secure a bit of wadding with thick glue, wrap as much as possible around the nail and reinsert the nail in the hole, pressing it home as strongly as possible. The nail will then be firmly fastened to its place.

NATIVES CONFIDENT Firm in Belief That Their Land Will Be Wrested From Germans Eventually.

Associated Press Mail Correspondence.
 London.—A. J. Hombhill of New York, treasurer of the commission for relief in Belgium, has returned from a trip to Belgium which covered thoroughly the operations of the commission in Belgium and northern France, and he expressed himself to the Associated Press as very proud of the work which the Americans are doing in the occupied areas.

"I was greatly impressed while in Belgium with the difference of opinion which exists among prominent Belgians as to the advisability of permitting continuation of the present system of relieving the Belgians. The shortage of food supplies, however, has given rise to considerable criticism of the German government's action in agreeing to the relief commission's plan to distribute food supplies in Belgium.

"When I got to Brussels my first impression was that everything was normal except the absence of vehicles owing to the scarcity of horses and the position of motor cars. The markets were open and the shops were open and everyone goes about his daily life much the same as in London or New York.

"It is only after being in Brussels for a little time, and after visiting Charleroi and other places, that one realizes how misleading are first impressions. The outward appearance of normality is maintained only in the cities and to the value of over 1,300,000 pounds is so to speak, injected into the country every month. The general appearance of the relief organization provides and distributes to this whole nation supplies without chaos and unthinkable suffering.

LARGE SUMS ARE SPENT BY NEW YORKERS FOR MUSIC
 From the New York letter in the Pittsburg Dispatch.
 New York.—The restaurant and hotel managers of New York spend several millions a year for music for dining and to beguile the guests at dinner. Every large hotel has an orchestra and each member is an artist. With discriminating guests the managers realize the necessity of orchestras that will please the most fastidious. First a director is chosen—a man of some learning and experience. A comfortable salary is paid to each musician. He is worth it because usually he plays from 6 o'clock at night until 1 o'clock in the morning with few intermissions.

- FIRST—They are all absolutely free from restrictions as to residence, occupation, travel or place of death. You need not worry about what might happen to your insurance in case you move about or change your occupation.
- SECOND—If for any reason your premium is not paid when due, you will be allowed One Month's Grace in which to make payment, and no interest is charged for this accommodation, and your policy is in full force.
- THIRD—You can borrow on the sole security of the policy, either for the purpose of paying premiums or to secure ready cash. If, however, you should make no provision for the premium after the third year, then, without any action on your part, your policy shall be extended as a full paid up policy for the full amount for a period of years as shown in the policy; consequently, you have an absolutely non-forfeitable policy.
- FOURTH—In case you should prefer it, you may upon request, after the third year, take a paid-up policy for the amount specified in the policy, thus, giving you a policy paid up for life.
- FIFTH—If you should become disabled and unable to perform gainful work, the Company will pay all premiums accruing on your policy; (these payments will not be charged either as a lien on the policy or as an obligation upon the policy-holder,) and at your death the beneficiary will receive the full amount of the policy. Or, we will pay the full amount of the policy to you in 20 annual installments to be paid immediately after you become disabled, and in case of your death before you have received the 20 annual payments, then, we will pay the remaining installments to your beneficiary. Hence, it is impossible for you to lose your insurance.
- SIXTH—Your policy is drawn so as to conform with the laws of the State, and to give you every possible safeguard and convenience. It is simple, brief and easily understood, and those who are competent to judge, say it is the very best insurance policy ever issued.
