Atlanta, Ga., July 19.—As reports continue to filter through from parts of western North Carolina, which have been isolated by the recent floods, the death list grows. Six additional fatalities reported bring the known death list to 40, while at least six persons are missing.

Eleven persons were drowned in the villages of Bat Cave and Chimney Rock, which, it now develops, were hard hit by the storm. Two unidentified bodies were found near Belmont today, while another death is reported from near Greenville in the falling of a railway scaffold undermined by floods.

While flood waters were receding in North Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia today, the Wateree river in South Carolina was rising, and Atlantic Coast Line officials reported that two bridges on their line had been flooded with a consequent interruption of service.

Conditions about Asheville and thru-out western North Carolina were most improved today with workmen repairing railroads, replacing bridges and putting industrial plants into operation again. In Virginia and the Piedmont section of North Carolina rapid headway is being made in repairing railroads.

The material damage in the floods in the four states probably never will be definitely estimated but it seems certain that it will total at least $150,000,000.

SAYS GARRANZA BITTER CONTEST TROOPS DID NOT FIRE ACROSS LINE NOW THREATENS PRO CONVENTION

NO OFFICIAL REPORTS TO SUBSTANTIATE ADVANCE OF CLASH NEAR EL PASO LAST NIGHT WITH MASSACHUSETTS GUARD.

MAY BE SMUGGLERS

El Paso, Texas, July 19.—General Gonzalez, commander at Juarez, said today he had received no official report of the exchange of shots yesterday between a Massachusetts outpost and Mexicans below El Paso. Mexican customs inspectors, General Gonzalez said, claimed to know nothing about the affair.

Military authorities on the American side assume that the Mexicans belonged to a band of smugglers said to have been operating in this district. There are only a few Carranza troops in this section of the frontier, Gonzalez said, and none are stationed along the "island" where the shooting took place.

Last night's advances said that a party of mounted Mexicans exchanged fire with Company L of the Ninth Massachusetts Infantry. According to reports, the guardsmen were doing outpost duty when the Mexicans rode up on the opposite bank of the Rio Grande and opened fire. The guardsmen suffered no casualty, but reported they believed they had killed one Mexican. Captain Hickey, major quartermaster commanding the company, estimated the number of Carranza at fifteen, but asserted that he was unable to determine whether the shots were for soldiers. Approximately fifty shots were fired on each side, it was said.

Both General George Bell, Jr., commanding the El Paso military district, and Lieutenant Colonel Leon Buckan, acting garrison commander in Juarez, said they had received no official reports of the incident and both said it seemed unlikely.

The shooting occurred in an isolated district about three miles down the river from El Paso, known locally as the "island" section. The Massachusetts Infantry in this district, on duty in this district, one-third of the sixty men being on patrol and the remainder being held in the camp about half a mile to the rear.

BURLESON TALKS OF ONE-CENT POSTAGE

Says He Will Recommend It Next Year If Certain Things Take Place.

Washington, July 19.—Postmaster General Burleson was the principal speaker today before the National Association of Postmasters. Burleson, afterward there was a discussion of the advantage to the government of one cent postage for mail transportation, particularly in rural areas.

Mr. Burleson told the postmasters that if revenues from second class mail were increased, "extraneous for useless political service" in the rural mail system were curtailed and payments to railroads for mail transportation under the new space basis were reduced, he could recommend to congress next year that letter postage be reduced to one cent.

The postmaster general, making today's principal address before the convention spoke of the space provision for railway mail pay in the postal bill as "the first step toward settlement of railway mail transportation."

"If I can keep down useless extravagance and pay in the postal bill for rural mail service, I could promise you now that I will take the first step toward penny postage," Burleson said.

Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Blakelee was loudly cheered when he said, "There is a real interested party in control in Washington. There is no war with the nation, no strikes or special privilege; no back stairs for the soft foot artist in Washington, for at least three years, I think expressions of satisfaction and security floating around in Washington are founded on what is about to happen. I don't think anything but a calamity could prevent it and I don't believe it is necessary to say to you that your part is of course back home and I'm sure you'll attend to it when the time comes."

Postmaster Weaver of Oklahoma City, a former congressman, made a speech in which he told the postmasters to "go home and remember that the great work of all the nation's, is the re-election of Woodrow Wilson."

DEUTSCHLAND IS BELIEVED ABOUT TO START HOME

SULLZER AND HANLEY FACTORS IN CONTEST WHICH BECOMES FIGHTER HEATED—DELEGATES BEGING THEIR WORK TODAY.

KEYNOTER IS HEARD

De Facto Officers Say That No Carranza Troops Are Stationed in Vicinity Where Shots Were Fired at Americans.

St. Paul, Minn., July 19.—With the contest for the presidential nomination between advocates of William Sulzer and J. Frank Hanley at its peak, delegates to the seventh quadrennial convention of the national prohibition party began their first session at the auditorium here this afternoon.

Agassiz participated in the keynote address, and the speaker of the convention, chairman, was particularly marked when he deplored the European war, declared military aid to be a national sin, and called for a peace conference at the expense of the prohibition movement.

Virginia Hinshaw of Chicago, chairman of the national committee, opened the convention to order at 10:30 a. m. Mrs. Francis H. Beauchamp of Lexington, N. Y., secretary of the national committee, read the official call and Mr. Poling was introduced as temporary chairman, immediately launching into his speech.

An early morning Sulzer meeting at a downtown hotel was the signal for the unmasking of the batteries of the Sulzer and Hanley forces, and bitter debate took place in a hotel lobby in which the New Yorker's followers accused Hanley of trying to seize control of the party, while some of Hanley's adherents accused Sulzer of seeking the support of liquor interests in his candidacy for the prohibition nomination.

These charges caused bitter quarrels in a crowded crowd of partisans. Meetings of the Hanley and Sulzer followers were held in the city. Sulzer is expected to arrive not later than tomorrow morning and will throw himself into the fight to prevent Hanley's ascendance.

The Lotus Club, unofficially an organization of about 40 state leaders, held a long secret conference late last night in an effort to settle on a candidate for the presidency. The club was divided between Sulzer and Hanley and a decision was postponed until morning when another conference will be held.

Members of the Lotus Club, most of whom are out of accord with the present administration and were not expected to press today that Mr. Chaffin, candidate of the party in 1908 and 1912, may be accepted as a compromise candidate.

Dr. Ira D. Landrith of Nashville, Tenn., practically conceded the nomination for the vice-presidency and it is acceptable to the club. Mr. Hinshaw, in his opening remarks, spoke as follows:

"This convention completes the rounding out of 46 years of uninterupted history."

"Greenbackers, Populists and Bull Moosers may perish from the earth, but we live on forever, or until our purpose is achieved."

"Our party ship has served as a refuge to those who would vote with clean hands, and as a life-boat to those who have been cast adrift by wrecked leaders."

"This, the year 1916, marks the high tide of prohibition sentiment in America and the world. We are not here to perpetuate and we are not here to express of expression for the multitudes who have caught the vision and desire to register their convictions for an abolition of the 'rum, whisky and gin' trade, for the abolishment of crime, for the ultimate establishment of a world court of justice, and for honest government."

"We are met here to put in nomination candidates for president and vice president the mention of whose names will be recognized in every home in America."

"We are here to inaugurate a campaign that will reach every voter of every county and every state of the Union. We are here to enlist together, to call for sacrifice, and to perfect an organization that will be as efficient as our conscience is clear and as productive of result as our mind is purposeful."

"We have a clear field. We are the one organization in this campaign that stands for the woman, the child, the home, and for the conservation of humanity."

"In these words Temporary Chairman Daniel A. Poling concluded his keynote address."

Mr. Poling declared that the prohibition party was now the sole representative of progressivism in national politics. He extended an official and hearty invitation to the 4,000,000 voters who supported the progressive party ticket in 1912, and suggested that whatever the technical name of his own party should be upon the official ballot this year, it would be known henceforth as the liberal party of the United States.

Expressing the evidently overwhelming sentiment of the convention, Chairman Poling assailed the campaign of militaristic preparedness, arraigned the republican and democratic parties alike for what he alleged to be an extravagant waste of national funds, eulogized Jane Addams, attacked at length the activities of the Navy.

WOODMEN FROM ALL OVER TEXAS TO ATTEND CAMP

ENCOURAGING REPORTS RECEIVED BY OFFICERS—GROUNDS AT LAKE WICHITA ARE NEARLY READY FOR VISITORS.

BIG OPEN AIR DANCE

Downtown Street Will Stage This Feature of Entertainment—Meeting Scheduled For Tonight Has Been Called Off By Local Camp.

Brigadier General McDill, commanding officer of the uniform rank W. O. W. of the state is receiving notices from the commanders of local companies all over the state signifying that their companies will report promptly for the encampment and attendance that will run into the thousands is assured.

The camp is all ready for the reception of the organizations. The work for the lights has not been turned on yet, and the officers who are making the preliminary arrangements and who are staying out at the encampment enjoyed sitting around in plenty of the night.

The open meeting that was scheduled to be held off tonight by the local camp has been called off. This action was taken on account of the fact that the local officers have on account of their familiarity with local conditions been requisitioned to such a large extent in making the preliminary arrangements that they were unable to devote sufficient time to getting up a program for the occasion.

Permission has been granted by the city authorities for the Woodmen to rope off Eighth Street between Ohio and Indiana Tuesday night for the holding of a monster dance. In the neighborhood of a thousand couples will find room to dance on this "floor" the music for the occasion will be furnished by the five military bands that are encamped.

The dance will follow the big parade over the downtown streets Tuesday night which will open the encampment. The sixty horses for mounting the highest officers in the parade have nearly all been secured.

SAYS WAS MISREPRESENTED IN INTERVIEW RECENTLY

John W. Thomas, assistant secretary of the Chamber of Commerce stated to a representative of The Times this morning that he had been misrepresented in an alleged interview recently appearing here to the effect that the Chamber of Commerce and the people of Wichita Falls were not interested in the holding of a monster dance to be held at Vernon. Mr. Thomas says in reality that he had promised to do all in his power to work up a delegation from this place to attend the fair, but owing to the disinclination of Wichita Falls people to leaving home he entertained small hopes of getting any very large number to attend.

Judge R. E. Huff stated that he also had been misrepresented in an article which represented him as taking issue with Mr. Thomas' alleged stand in regard to the fair when in reality he was attempting to correct the impression created by the previous article in representing that the Chamber of Commerce was not interested in the fair.

Mr. Thomas' letter to Secretary Francis of the Vernon Young Men's Business League in regard to the matter, written yesterday after the appearance of the first article, is as follows:

"Permit me to acknowledge your letter regarding attendance at your fair and to advise:

"I was certainly glad to do what he can toward working up a delegation to come from Wichita Falls. Our people usually are somewhat indifferent to such things, but I am leaving home but I believe we can interest a goodly number to attend your fair and it will be my pleasure to assist in all possible ways.

This morning's paper contained an item purporting to be an interview with the undersigned which stated that we would not attend your fair and that we were not interested in what is going on around us in any degree. This, of course, you know is untrue.

Please send me some additional advertising matter and I will try and bring a goodly delegation to visit you. Yours very truly,

LABORING MEN TO HEAR CANDIDATES

Colquitt to Speak Tomorrow Night—Smoker is Planned For Friday Evening.

Plans for the open meeting of the union men of Wichita Falls are practically complete and will include a program extending through two evenings instead of one, as heretofore announced.

Tomorrow night a meeting will be held at the Lanning Air dome at which Ex-Governor Colquitt, candidate for United States Senator, will be the principal speaker.

If time permits other candidates will make their announcements during the program which will include only the address of Mr. Colquitt. At this meeting it is expected that the ex-governor will vary somewhat from his usual discourses and will deal at greater length on the submission question, voicing his sentiments in opposition to this proposition.

Friday night another meeting will be held at the Moose hall, at which district and county candidates will be heard. This meeting will be in the nature of a smoker and every member of the laboring men of Wichita Falls will be invited to attend.

On this date the county candidates are billed for a speaking appointment on the streets, but it is expected that a majority, if not all, will avail themselves of the opportunity to make their announcement at the smoker.

TWO FINES FOLLOW NEIGHBORHOOD ROW

Two Men and Two Women Take Part With Wives Doing Most of Fighting.

An attempt of two women to settle a neighborhood quarrel by resorting to fists resulted in one of them paying a five dollar fine for a fight in the police court this morning.

The men of the families seem to have attempted to intervene in the case of their own sorrow. One of them who attempted to check the conflagration by means of a bucket of ice water was let off with a certain lecture from the city attorney, and the other who resorted to some vigorous measures drew a five dollar fine for disturbing the peace. One other case of a fight resulted in a five dollar assessment against the defendant. A charge of indecent exposure was dismissed for cause. Three cases of gaming were placed.

KAISER STANDING WAR STRAIN WELL

American Who Returns From Germany Tells of Meeting of Kaiser Ruler.

New York, July 19.—Kaiser Wilhelm is far from being the haggard, worn old man he has been pictured recently—he is hale and hearty, sun-burned and tireless and absolutely confident in Teuton success.

This was the word brought back to the United States today by George K. Nippert, Common Pleas Judge in Cincinnati, who has been in Germany for three months, and who, on June 24, enjoyed an opportunity to study the German Emperor throughout an entire evening when he was his guest at the front.

It was the Kaiser's guest at the grand headquarters in the west, Judge Nippert said on arriving here on the steamer Frederick VIII. "I took dinner with him at 8 o'clock and afterwards with him until midnight. I was surprised at his appearance. I had expected, according to continental newspapers, to see a man haggard and worn and decrepit. Of course the Kaiser is 57 years of age now, and his hair would naturally be a little gray, but I saw a man whose face was sun-burned and flushed with health. He walked me up and down in his garden for two hours—and nearly walked me off my feet."

Nippert went aboard as representative of the German societies of the United States, who are trying to rebuild East Prussia from the ravages suffered by the Cossack invasion.

AUSTRO-HUNGARIAN HEIR IS FORMALLY CHRISTENED. Kaiser Wilhelm, Nippert said, was so interested in the case of the women and children captured by Russians in East Prussia and deported that he asked Nippert to see President Wilson and make personal appeal on the Emperor's behalf for the United States to intercede. Nippert hopes to see the President tomorrow or Friday. The Emperor showed real emotion when talking of these women and children. "The judge said, 'He told me, I have an army which is able to take care of itself and take care of our frontiers, but seizure of these women and children is not war.'"

Consolation
There's a comforting thought at the close of the day,
When I'm weary and lonely and sad,
That sort of grips hold of my crusty old heart,
And bids it be merry and glad,
It sets in sole and drives out the blue,
And finally thrills, through and through—
It 's just a sweet memory that chants the refrain,
"I'm glad I touched shoulders with you."

Did you know you were brave? Did you know you were strong? Did you know there was one leaning heart? Did you know I waited, listened and prayed, And was cheered by your simplest word? Did you know that I longed for the smile on your face— For the sound of your voice ringing true? Did you know I grew stronger and better because I had merely touched shoulders with you?

TALKING ABOUT THE ELECTION

Quite a little fuss is being raised on both sides about the dependability of the "guide" tickets which were apparently mailed out wholesale from Austin recently. Their source is not known. Another batch of guide tickets, for the pro side of the question is said to have been mailed out of Dallas, but was squelched before it gained much circulation, according to reports. The anti "guide" ticket follows:

"Our cause is defeated unless there is some active and effective work done at once."

"Emphasize the importance of this matter."

"See that our forces understand the serious situation that we are now facing."

"It is equally essential that the corporations and their allied interests be made to realize that the life hinges upon the election result; July 22."

"This slip is sent to you and several thousand other dependable voters. This critical time you will understand to whom and where an appeal and demand that every vote be counted to the victor."

"You must understand that in addition to a solid liquor vote and a solid Mexican vote, we must secure a good number of independent voters to enable us to overcome the Morris-Campbell-Harper-Louise-Jenkins combination."

"The administration must gain this fight or it will mean disaster to our country."

"Make memoranda of the following ticket, which should be voted without deviation: Then destroy this slip."

For governor: James E. Ferguson.

For congressman at large: Jeff McCombs.

For United States Senator: R. L. Henry.

For attorney general: John W. Woods.

For judge court criminal appeals: F. C. Morrow.

For justice of the supreme court: J. E. Yantis.

For chief justice of the supreme court: Nelson Phillips.

Prominent anti's, including the governor, deny responsibility for the ticket as Ferguson says he is expecting to get some thousands of pro votes as he did in 1914. Such tickets are not new in Texas politics.

The growing tendency of candidates to use newspaper space rather than to circulate the voters, is being manifested sharply in this campaign, and most of the newspapers carry numerous political advertisements, while the amount of matter sent to the voters through the mails is smaller than usual.

"Cyclone" Davis has gone into the courts in an effort to forest the putting of his name on the ballot, by alleging that he is commonly known as "Cyclone." He has filed suit against Paul Wyclose, chairman, and Charles J. Kirk, secretary, of the committee, in an effort to mandamus them and asks, in the event he is too late to have the omission remedied, damages in the sum of $50,000.

Some of those in the inner circle of prohibition are alleging more or less of senatorial race, in the case of the committee in leaving out the words "submission of" in putting the "submission question on the ballot, was an intentional error, and an intentional oversight, part of a scheme to bring about the defeat of submission. It is said the mistake has been corrected in practically all of the counties.

MEETING IS HELD FOR HONOR GUARD

Girls Gather at Home of Lieutenant Carver Late This Afternoon.

The organization of the Girls' Honor Guard is to be held this afternoon at the home of Lieutenant Genevieve Carver, the meeting being called for 5 o'clock. Election of officers and enrollment of the members will complete the business features.

Lieutenant Carver will explain the purpose of the Guard and will detail the duties of each corps, of which there are three in the company. The first division is to have training in practical nursing, camp nursing and first aid work; the second will endeavor to care for the families of soldiers and soldiers and guardsmen while the men are called to the front; the third corps will include girls with more strenuous tendencies and they will be trained in automobile driving, shooting and other practices such as are met with in times of actual conflict.

Several physicians will be patrons of the Guard and will give practical instruction to the first corps. Competent instructors will head the other departments. This instruction work will be done by volunteers who will receive their services in the interest of furthering patriotism.

Miss Carver, who was with Miss Lebane during the time of the organization of the Fort Worth camp, of which she is captain, finds that Wichita girls are rather slow in becoming interested in the movement than those in Fort Worth. However she attributes this to the fact that in Fort Worth enthusiasm was keyed to the highest pitch by the presence of the New York and other eastern companies of the National Guard which passed through Fort Worth. The girls of the Guard met all trains bearing guardsmen and served them sandwiches and drinks. The reality of the nearness of war thus brought very close home and interest in the girl's patriotic organization was at fever heat. Nevertheless, Lieutenant Carver finds a pleasing degree of interest and is confident of a splendid enrollment in the Wichita Park company.

Dr. Everett Jones is to give lectures to the guard members on first aid and other helpful subjects and Miss Carver is anxious that other physicians volunteer their services, so that the burden of lecturing and demonstration should not fall on one too heavily. In other cases there have been from a half dozen to a dozen physicians volunteering for this work and the service of all are needed.

Miss Carver desires to ask also through The Times that any nurses who will volunteer to give instruction in practical nursing notify her. The nurses have in every instance, where the guard has been organized, proven invaluable, their training and experience fitting them to instruct the girls in the essentials of nursing in a very short time.

TEXAS STUDENTS SHOW UP WELL IN MILITARY WORK

By Associated Press.

Austin, Texas, July 19.—Fifty students from various educational institutions in Texas where military training is a part of the curriculum, have been certified to the Adjutant General's department of Texas as "displaying special aptitude for military service."

These students, many of whom are graduates of the several institutions, will be given assignments in the national guard. They have an opportunity to offer themselves. The largest number came from the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas at College Station, there being seventeen from that institution. Others came from military academies throughout the state, and there were also several from high schools where military science has recently been added to the course of studies.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months. I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles."

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look like a healthy woman again.

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.

RESULTS SHOW FOLLY OF PRODUCING FERTILE EGGS

(Houston Post)

The folly of producing fertile eggs for the market has resulted in the destruction of 32,500 spoiled eggs in Houston in the last three days and the campaign is still in progress.

With the proper information among farmers, Dr. W. H. Minton of the State pure food and drug commission, who is now working with city health authorities, says all this waste could be prevented. Dr. Minton has been engaged in the campaign against bad eggs in Texas for the past several weeks. These are some of the observations he has made:

Of all the bad eggs destroyed, 90 per cent were fertile. Seven per cent were bad because of washing, which resulted in breaking down the tissues of the shell and so reduced the resistance against decomposition.

Only 2 per cent were bad because they were too old.

Kansas eggs command a greater price in Texas than Texas eggs because the former are not fertile.

Dr. Minton says that dead men in the department with which he is connected are going to preach about the production of infertile eggs for marketing purposes to the farmers from one end of the State to the other, until Texas eggs command as high a price as eggs produced in Kansas or any other state. He says that infertile eggs can be kept for considerable length of time in any climate, while fertile eggs will spoil in a very short time in hot weather. He says that eggs should be gathered twice daily and then kept out of the sun and if possible placed in a refrigerator. At a temperature of 70 degrees a fertile egg starts incubation and increases in rapidity with the increase of heat. As an egg starts incubation spoiling begins.

The campaign against bad eggs is Statewide, and Dr. Minton says that good results are sure to follow in a short time. He is asking commission men to have their supply produce merchants to impress on their farmer customers the importance of producing infertile eggs.

Dr. Minton feels that a great deal of progress in the right direction has been made not only in Houston, but in the country for many miles adjacent to the city. One commission man told him that his sales had doubled since the campaign was started in Houston. Another told him that one of his supply produce merchants shipped a consignment of eggs of an inferior quality a few days ago. The produce merchant was informed that nothing but the best eggs would be accepted in the future. He was advised to instruct his farmer to produce and market their eggs and the next consignment showed a marked improvement.

Dr. Minton says that the farmers should candile all their eggs before marketing and destroy the bad ones. They should again be candiled by the commission men and still again by the retailer.

Campbell spoke from the platform of the Ham-Ramsay revival at Fort Worth recently, after the sermon. He did not discuss the campaign farther than to invite everybody present to come out and hear him speak the next day.

A circular recently distributed in Johnson county charges that trips to New York, the San Francisco exposition and other places were taken by prominent officials at the expense of the people. The circular adds that some of the officials took their wives and others their stenographers.

Some opponents of Chief Justice Nelson Phillips of the supreme court are making capital out of the fact that it was he who held the pool hall law unconstitutional. Both Phillips and Yantis concurred in an opinion that there was no constitutional warrant for the law. But the Waco Times-Herald accuses C. Jenkins, Phillips' opponent, of having suffered a relapse of populism, in commenting upon some of his campaign utterances. Judge Jenkins was a member of the people's party in the days when it flourished in this State. Some others more or less high in the state's councils at present were also Populists a decade or so ago.

WICHITA DAILY TIMES

Published Every Week Day Afternoon (Except Saturday) THE TIMES PUBLISHING COMPANY (Printers and Publishers) Times Building, Corner Seventh Street and Scott Avenue. MEMBER THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Entered at the Postoffice at Wichita Falls as second-class mail matter. SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By the year (mail or carrier) $5.00 By the month (mail or carrier) $50c

So far as The Times has been able to observe the only thing that has been urged against Senator Culberson in this campaign for the senatorship is that he is a sick man, but sick as he is, it appears that he is still able to attend to his duties as a representative of Texas in the upper branch of Congress, and the Congressional Record shows that he has missed but one day since February of this year. It is going to be left up to Texas, the Democratic home State, to turn down an efficient and most able man just because he is sick.

The voters of the Thirteenth congressional district will give their endorsement next Saturday to Hon. John H. Stephens. They will do this because of his record of long and useful service and the equipment his long service and influence gives him for special service to his constituents in matters of importance that are impending in Congress. Mr. Stephens is recognized by his colleagues as one of the most useful members of Congress. The limitation of space does not permit a complete review of his record but attention may be directed to the fact that he is responsible for the extension of the national irrigation act to include in its provisions the state of Texas; that through his efforts a bill to pension Texas Rangers who served on the Texas frontier from 1875 to 1890 is to become a law; that he is proper also to direct attention to the number of federal buildings for this district for which he has secured appropriations and to the fact that there are more rural mail delivery routes in his district than any other in Texas. Mr. Stephens secured the opening to settlement of the Indian reservations in Oklahoma, opening up a rich and productive territory tributary to Wichita Falls, encouraging the building of the Wichita Falls and Northwestern and bringing a string of benefits which have been a large factor in the growth and prosperity of this city. But even the list of measures for the benefit of his constituents and of the country which he has introduced in Congress is too long to mention.

Mr. Stephens has not only given his vote but the weight of his influence to every important act of constructive legislation of the administration. No member of Congress has been more consistent as a whole than has Mr. Stephens in his support of the administration. Even while strong efforts are being made to supplant him in his home district Mr. Stephens is remaining in Washington, helping the administration push its legislative program so that the democratic party can go before the people in the November election with a record of unparalleled achievement. A great deal has been made of Mr. Stephens' views against militarism but an examination of his record will show that he has voted for every measure of preparedness advocated by his party in caucus or reported by the committees in the house or by conference committees. Mr. Stephens has been a consistent supporter of laws advocated by organized labor and one of the few instances when his vote has not been in complete accord with President Wilson was when he voted for the Burnett immigration bill which President Wilson vetoed. The Times believes that President Wilson was right in vetoing this bill for the reason that he gave but Mr. Stephens is not to be criticized for supporting a measure to restrict foreign immigration which was the purpose of the Burnett bill. This bill had the endorsement of the Wichita Falls Labor and Trades Council, whose telegram was quoted in a speech in Congress made by Mr. Stephens. But while his record of useful service in the past entitles him to an endorsement by the electorate of his district as a whole there are special reasons why Wichita Falls should be interested in his return to Congress. Wichita Falls wants and needs a federal court. Congressman Stephens has always been a friend to Wichita Falls. He helped get the postoffice building and in new work in the interest of Wichita Falls for a federal court. His influence among his colleagues and his experience in matters of this kind will be needed to help Wichita Falls get a federal court. It is certain that Mr. Stephens is doing what he can for Wichita Falls in this matter. It is to be certain that some of the other candidates would favor Wichita Falls. Indeed the probabilities are that at least one of them would favor another city. But aside from securing the federal court there is no harder or more effective worker in Congress than John H. Stephens. The Times does not know whether he will ask to be returned to Congress after he serves this term or not, but if he is and keeps voting and working as he has done during the present session it is perfectly willing that he should have his wishes gratified. But should he conclude to retire, then the Times believes he ought to be succeeded by one of half a dozen of our own citizens of congressional size and availability, who are known to have ambitions along that line. If one of Mr. Stephens' opponents is elected the chances are very slim for a Wichita Falls man to go to Congress for a long time. John H. Stephens is sticking to his job of duty and is depending on his friends to take care of his interests. His friends here should see that Wichita County gives him a splendid endorsement next Saturday.

NO DISCOURTESY TO BE PERMITTED. Courtesy, kindness, gentlemanly bearing to our own citizens and to the stranger who comes among us—these things that pay in more important ways than dollars and cents. Cities and business concerns alike have found that the courteous man is more likely to be the efficient man. He is the man who builds the business up. The grouch is the man who can not be pleased. He is a back number whether he is in the office or the factory, the private business or the city hall. Mayor Lindsey of Dallas has found this out and hereafter there must be no discourtesy shown to any one by any employe of that city. Dallas has an emergency hospital. Naturally when people call the emergency hospital they are in a hurry. They are excited and it is sometimes hard for them to express themselves intelligibly. And in the past this has led to rough words from attendants. People naturally make complaints and requests of an emergency hospital. They appear and are unreasonable. They have neither time nor disposition in an emergency to stop and reason out whether their request is proper or not. Now are they particular as to the form in which they make that request. The city's attendants at the emergency hospital have been accustomed to answer inquiries quickly, gruffly and without proper consideration for their feelings. But this is to be no more. Mayor Lindsey rightly says that the people must receive courteous treatment from every department. In a recent order the mayor said: "It is, as you know, the rule of this administration that our citizens shall invariably be treated by those in the employ of the city with the utmost courtesy and consideration; that when any one in any department of the city does not or can not so act toward the public, then employment of such person by the city must cease. If reductions in city and county governments would remember at all times who it is that pays him his wages there would be better service in our courts, service to the public. The emergency hospital of Dallas is no different in this regard from any other department of the city or county government. Courtesy is a good thing everywhere.—Houston Post.

VOTE FOR DANIEL E. GARRETT.

Two years ago Daniel E. Garrett was defeated for renomination for congressman at large. Since that time the majority of the people of Texas have realized that a great mistake was made as well as injustice done. This mistake and injustice will be righted at the ballot box Saturday. Prominent men, both prohibitionists and anti-prohibitionists in every part of the State have come out in support of Mr. Garrett. The following statement in behalf of Judge Garrett signed by thousands of citizens has been made public: "The undersigned feel that it is the duty of the democracy of Texas to take special interest in the campaign for congressman at large in the July primary. Judge Garrett is an original Wilson man, and although a candidate himself for congressman at large at the time, he made an open and vigorous fight for the nomination of Mr. Wilson. Before and after the presidential election of four years ago Mr. Garrett was in thorough accord and agreement with the president and his policies upon which the democratic party had been victorious, and having been himself victorious in his aspiration for congress, Mr. Garrett, based upon his duties at Washington and as once before identified as an original and loyal worker for the entire program of the president and his party. Two years ago Mr. Garrett was a candidate to succeed himself for a second term, and although he had spirited and formidable opposition, he declined to leave his work at Washington, and we feel that his fidelity to his people resulted in his regrettable defeat two years ago, and that special interest should be taken that this injustice be repaired at this time by returning him to congress by a large and complimentary majority. To the benefit of the people of Texas and the need of Judge Garrett to personally conduct his campaign in Texas was most urgent, some of the most important matters, which the democracy and the president had been obliged to postpone, were before congress. He was urged by the supporters of the administration to stay at his post and he did so. Mr. Garrett is still in hearty accord with the plans and purposes of the present democratic administration. "As a member of the sixty-third congress he supported the admirable tariff law now in force. This law for the first time placed farming implements and machinery articles in every likely use upon the free list. He supported the post-courageous anti-trust law which has yet been enacted. He supported the income tax law, and was an enthusiastic and effective supporter of the banking and currency law. Judge Garrett is one of those open and direct characters whose view on any pending matter has at all times been freely and fearlessly expressed. He favors a rural credit system, farmers' unions and labor organizations, government aid in the construction of roads, the prohibition, for the benefit of Confederate soldiers and their families, of the funds now held in the treasury of the United States which were realized from the sale of cotton and woolly raised in the Southern States during the civil war; a government owned or controlled merchant marine, but not a ship subsidy. Judge Garrett is a prohibitionist. He is in hearty accord with the efforts of the president to cause all American citizens to regard their patriotism and loyalty to our country entirely apart from the good will which they do and ought to have for their mother country. He is in favor of a program of defensive preparedness to the end that we may look with assurance to our country for defense and protection from foreign attack. Judge Garrett was born and reared on a farm, educated in the common schools and his sympathies have always been with those who toil. "We respectfully recommend him to the democracy of Texas.

BROOKS FOR SENATOR.

Dr. S. P. Brooks entered the race for the Senate a new man in the field of practical politics. Today reports from every section of the state indicate him making greater headway than any other candidate. Reasons for this condition are numerous and apparent. Brooks is a man of the people. He does not appeal to prejudices nor array one class against another. He splits no parties that fence his father's farm in Johnson county. He is the owner of the Santa Fe railway at $1.15 per day. Consequently he has the viewpoint of the laboring man. The people of Texas are familiar with the great work and constructive ability of Dr. Brooks. "It is not true, as has been said, that Brooks is making a hobby of prohibition. It is well known that he is a prohibitionist and he also has the support of numbers who vote and act on that question. He is making this race on a broad and patriotic platform. He is the only senatorial candidate who advocates elevating the public health service to membership in the president's cabinet. He is the only candidate who advocates elevating the department of education to the president's cabinet, because the matter of education vitally concerns all the people. He is the only candidate who favors a revision of the federal pension laws so as to limit its benefits to those who are actually dependent and worthy. He is the only candidate who favors reducing the mileage of congressmen to actual cost of transportation. He is the man, who as senator, will ever hear the voice of the people in their needs and rights. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF WICHITA FALLS BROOKS CLUB. (Political Advertisement.)

WHEN LAWYERS TAKE TO RAIL-ROADING.

A railroad which has gone into a receiver's hands in for the first time practically under government management. The practice of having the legal services for such roads performed by a host of private attorneys charging enormous fees for their labor is, as the railroad commission pointed out yesterday in the Western Pacific case, not only inconsistent but enormously wasteful. The fees in the Western Pacific case totaled nearly half a million dollars. Government or state experts could have done the same work under circumstances which would have enabled the mto do it much better, for a fraction of the cost. Such incidents are fortunate, in one way, for they show that the supposed benefits of private ownership and management of railroads are not as great as they are sometimes made to seem. And they make the demands of the railroad brotherhoods, whose members actually do run trains, seem more reasonable than otherwise.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF WICHITA FALLS BROOKS CLUB.

Government operation of the railroads by the government is a possible outcome of the efforts of the railroad brotherhoods to secure an eight-hour day basis of pay. J. J. Keegan, commissioner of the department of labor of the federal government, predicts that if the issue comes to a strike the government will take over the operation of the railways within twenty-four hours. The men, he predicts, will go back to work, for the government has long since recognized the eight-hour day. There are many who believe that once the government takes over the operation of the railways as a result of a strike they will never again be controlled and operated by private interests. A great railroad strike is likely to precipitate government ownership of the railways in the United States.

FOR SHERIFF OF WICHITA COUNTY J. L. HUFFINES. I am asking the support of the voters of Wichita County for the democratic nomination for sheriff, and I therefore feel that it is my duty to state plainly the return which I expect to give them for their support. I will conduct the business of the sheriff's department in a business like manner. I expect to be on the job at all hours of the day and night myself, and will not leave the management of the office to deputies. I will treat every man who comes under the action of the department in the same way. No matter what may be the cause or the consequence, if I am elected sheriff there will be one rule of action for all parties, and that is, the rule of the law. They will look alike to me if they break the law. I am a farmer—some folks call me a rube—but I know what the law is, and I know that it was not made for one man to kick about as a plaything and another to obey. I know how to handle the business of the office, to keep the books, and to take charge of the prisoners. I expect to be elected, and I am going to try to make you the best sheriff that Wichita County has ever had. I will thank you for your support, and after election I expect to be just the same common old farmer and decent man that I am trying to be now. J. L. UNION OPPOSES HANEY. Wichita Falls Typographical Union No. 506 is opposing Edgar P. Haney for re-election as a member of the legislature from this district, embracing the counties of Wichita and Wilbarger, or because he is not a friend of organized labor. Regardless of the fact that he has in the past posed as a friend of organized labor, and even now has subscribed favorably to a list of measures submitted by the Railroad Employees, we who have come in more intimate contact with him know that he is not a friend of organized labor. We know that in December last, when the yearly contracts between the employing printers and the Union was up for consideration that Mr. Haney was the only employer who opposed the new scale, and that he asked the other employers to join with him in a fight for a reduction of the wage scale, and that he was the last man of all the employers in the city to sign the scale, and that he only did sign it under pressure. We also know that his office has been in the most unsanitary condition for the past two years, and that the sanitary committee of the Typographical Union has on many occasions waited on him and asked him to put his office in condition for men to work in, but that so far nothing has been done, and his shop is now in condition that every man who works in it is in danger of illness. We do not believe that a man who will do this is a friend of labor, either organized or unorganized, and for that reason the Union printers of this city are opposed to him, and are favoring the candidacy of Mr. E. R. Greenwood. M. J. HAYS, R. C. THURSTON, Sanitary Committee. (Political Advertisement.)

The "MOVIE MAN" says, "I am on the last Reel Final Cut Now as Clearance is Close to Accomplishment"

Just a few more days and the greatest money-saving Clearance Sale that this community has ever seen will pass into history. We are not bringing it to a close because we want to, for we like to see this store crowded with people as it has been every day of the sale. But the response to the savings has made such great inroads to our stock that we can see complete clearance very close at hand. For the final wind-up, I have cut still deeper into prices—right down to the bone of cost and in many cases right into the marrow. We have done it by grouping short lots where the range of sizes is not complete and putting the higher priced garments into lower priced ranges to fill out the lines. That means that there are greater savings for you now than ever before. We show you below just how the lots have been reduced and just how many suits we have to offer before "The Movie Man" will have finished his work and have to bid you good-by. Get under the wire in the final stretch before you lose these bargain prizes.

DOCTORS TO MEET NEXT AT AMARILLO

Adjourn Convention Today—Clarendon Physician Reports Infantile Paralysis There.

The semi-annual meeting of the Panhandle district medical society adjourned at twelve o'clock today to meet in Amarillo the third Tuesday and Wednesday in January, 1917. The doctors finished up their program at this morning's session so the members will be able to take the afternoon trains back to their homes. The papers read and the discussions of cases that had come under the observation of the various members held the close attention of the doctors throughout the meeting.

At this morning's session a paper on "Drinking and the Insurance Death Rate," by Dr. John L. Davis, medical director of the Amicable Life Insurance company of Waco, proved one of the most interesting features of the meeting. Dr. Davis prefaced his remarks on this subject by the statement that the stand that the insurance companies took on the drink question was not dictated by sentiment or politics, but was purely a business matter with them. He quoted statistics compiled for a number of years by insurance companies in this country and in England showing that the percentage of sickness and mortality among drinkers was in some cases as much as three times that of total abstainers. The statistics also showed a remarkable difference in favor of the descendants of total abstainers in comparison with children of drinkers. There was also a remarkable showing as to the comparatively high rate of sickness and death among even moderate drinkers, and drinkers of beer and light wines as against that of the teetotalers.

The doctors were also much interested in the discussion of a case of "Empyematus Langrene" by Dr. L. Hargraves of this city. The case in question was that of Dean Shank's little grandson of Galveston. Dean, at this city who recently broke his arm while visiting his grandfather and the development of gangrene made amputation necessary. The boy was in attendance and the progress of the case on his arm was graphically illustrated by Dr. Hargraves.

A paper on "Chronic Intestinal Stasis," read by Dr. G. T. Thomas of Amarillo, provoked much favorable discussion on the position taken by Dr. Thomas that operations were rarely necessary in the treatment of these disorders and should not be resorted to except as a last resort. A paper on the "Early Symptoms of Syphilitic Involvement of the Nervous System," by Dr. Wilmer L. Allison of Fort Worth, was one of the interesting papers of the morning session. Dr. Bacon Saunders of Fort Worth,

Many Pains That Flee for Rheumatism, Arterially Due to Weak Kidneys. Is it rheumatism? Not every pain is. Weak kidneys let uric acid collect. Uric acid causes many queer pains. In the back, limbs, joints, in the nerves, neuritis, Gout, gravel, dropsy are uric troubles. When you suspect the kidneys use Dean's Kidney Pills. The home-recommended remedy. Wichita Falls testimony is the best proof. Read this Wichita Falls woman's story: Mrs. C. E. Sproule, 408 Lee St. Wichita Falls, says: "I was in bad shape with rheumatic pains in my arms and shoulders. My feet and hands were also swollen. I felt depressed and worn-out and my health was very poor. I had used only one box of Dean's Kidney Pills when I was in much better health. The dropsical swellings were removed and the rheumatic pains disappeared. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Dean's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Sproule had. Many features have entered into the making of the separate installments of the picture with the U. S. navy continually in the background. Lamar Johnstone the good looking "heavy" who has the role of General Morton in "The Secret of the Submarine" makes his influence felt much more in the second chapter than he does in the first, as he is directly interested in obtaining the secret of the submarine.

"HYPOCRISY"

A Dramatic Expose of the Shams of Society. Directed by Keanu Buel.

The rare Southern beauty and the powerful stage presence of Virginia Pearson is no better expressed than by the newspaper critics of the country who have seen Miss Pearson in her William Fox pictures "Blazing Love" and "Hypocrisy," the latter a striking expose of the evils of high society. Here are a few of the press opinions:

"An actress of force, distinction and vast possibilities hitherto undeveloped."—Dutie Miner.

"Virginia Pearson scores a big success."—Philadelphia Evening Ledger.

"Virginia Pearson is truly an artist, slender, graceful and beautiful."—New York Dramatic Mirror.

"Virginia Pearson—the most wonderfully gowned woman on the American stage. Quite worthy of the wonderful costume art that Doucet and Poiret have lavished upon her."—The Boston Post.

"Virginia Pearson—A dangerously beautiful but feminine actress."—New York Evening Journal.

"Miss Pearson possesses Southern warmth and charm—is today the loveliest and most perfect physical specimen of womanhood that can be found in North America."—New York American.

"Virginia Pearson is an actress of marvellous beauty. She has sway and control audiences as Joan of Arc ruled the armies of an empire."—San Francisco Bulletin.

"Unless we are vastly mistaken, William Fox some day will cast Virginia Pearson for the principal role in a picture portraying some great and mighty pageant. She would attract audiences that would rival the annual attendance at the Yale-Harvard or Army-Navy football game."—Pittsburg Leader.

PRESBYTERIANS EASY PREY FOR METHODISTS

The Presbyterians remained in a submissive state of being and allowed the Methodists to take a 14 to 7 victory off of them Tuesday afternoon following a shutout by the Baptists Monday. The warm weather is said to have been instrumental in eradicating their pep, that and a shortage of regular players. Pentecost pitched for the Presbyterians and Montgomery caught. The Methodist batteries were Smith and Snell.

JAPANESE CUSTOM OF CONCEALING BOY'S SEX

Associated Press Mail Correspondence. TOKIO.—The army conscription examiners in session at a town in the interior were astounded recently when a young Japanese woman dressed fashionably and carrying a parasol, walked into the office and requested examination for military service. When the applicant explained that "she" was a man and not a woman the examiners recalled an old Japanese custom of concealing sex, a custom which, as it afterward appeared, the applicant was following. Old-time tradition held that a physically weak boy should be brought up as a girl from the belief that the child would thus escape the curse of death. This boy was talked into female costume and his hair was allowed to grow long like a girl's. Yasuichi, the son of Kinzo Mishi-kawa, the army applicant, was brought up under this tradition which is followed now only in remote districts. He learned to sew and to cook. He entered a retail bill at Osaka and worked as a female operative. No one suspected his real sex. The examiners found the young man of perfect physique and health and he has entered the army in man's clothes.

ALL SORTS OF NAMES ARE GIVEN CAMPS ON BORDER

Brownsville, Texas, July 19.—East-ern military guardsmen, as well as the Texas contingent, today assigned names to the Texas-Mexican border, are perpetuating the memory of their first night in camp by naming the various regimental stations, apart from the concentration camps, after their first companions, enemies, or bedfellows, as the case may have been.

One New York regiment maintains headquarters at "Camp Four-teen," while the Texas detachment established its residence at "Camp Hat-tie." Similar names, indicative of the soldier's first impression of his border surroundings, are given other camps.

The Texas sun which shines probably hotter and longer on the sandy and dusty plains of the Rio Grande valley than elsewhere in the state, was at first the worst enemy of the guardsmen when they concentrated on the border. Thousands had just left offices and other indoor work where the climate was less tropical. They felt the effects of the heat during their first week in camp.

Continuous irrigation streams and canals, as well as the Rio Grande itself, offered cool retreats. However, and it was but a short time before the sun's rays had again become a pest to the Texas in July.

New Baking Plant Is of Novel Type —F. O. Stone Company Invests $75,000 in Dallas—To Open Monday.

Although they have never sold 50 worth of their product in this state, the F. O. Stone Baking Company, confident of the future of Dallas, has established a $75,000 manufacturing plant in this city. The building to be occupied by the new concern is now nearing completion at McKinney and Thomas avenues and Phelps street, and the initial baking will take place Monday. The company is a Texas corporation, partly financed by Dallas capital.

The sole product of the plant consists of six varieties of package cakes. They are soft cakes, made with butter and sold in wax paper packages. According to Mr. Stone, his company is the only one in the United States confining its products to soft cake.

"We will not compete with anyone now in business here," said Mr. Stone, "as we make a cake that is not now on the market in Texas. We do not make pie, bread or cookies."

Mr. Stone said that when he first started in the business eight years ago in Okemah he was the only man in the country putting out a package cake of that character. Nearly three years ago he opened another plant in Atlanta, Ga. He said he expects his Dallas establishment to be the biggest of the three plants, although he has done no business before in this section. One hundred agencies have been established in the State, although the prospective agents have never seen a sample of the cakes.

New Building for Plant. The plant is housed by a new two-story brick mill-constructed building, 86x135 feet. It has a capacity of 3,000 cakes an hour. The latest devices in baking machinery are installed.

The oven, made of white tile, has a forage of sixty feet. It bakes by radiation heat and not by direct flame, as the fire never gets into the baking chamber. It is fired with gas.

Mr. Stone has made special provision for the health and comfort of his employees. The hottest work is put in the coolest part of the building. Even the negro washers are provided with shower baths and locker rooms.

ago at the convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World at Boston. As every convention since that time—whether of advertisers, Rotarians or bakers—has been impressed by the spirit of Dallas boosters, who were characterized by originality, enterprise and aggressiveness.

"When I visited here for the first time I was even more impressed with the city," said Mr. Stone. "And the Chamber of Commerce—it finished me. Whatever information I wanted they had for me in about five minutes. For example, they showed me that there are more people within a prepaid express rate limit from a central point in Dallas than in Atlanta—a city that claims twice the population."

Mr. Stone will probably make Dallas his home. He said that Mrs. Stone and the children are very anxious to remain here.

We expect the first shipment, Tuesday or Wednesday, and ask a trial order of one or more cakes delivered FRESH FROM THE OVEN. Our personal guarantee with each package. STONE BAKES CAKES EVERY DAY.
