

BURN BODY OF NEGRO SLAYER AT SEYMOUR

BLACK WHO OVERPOWERED AND KILLED SHERIFF ELLIS SUNDAY IS SHOT BY DEAF POSSE AND REMAINS CREMATED

BLACKS LEAVING

Are Ordered To Quit That Vicinity and Many Head Warning Promptly in Spite of Promises of Protection By Officers.

Special to The Times. Seymour, Tex., Aug. 7.—Sheriff Will Ellis is dead, and the body of his slayer, a negro named Steve Brown, is a charred mass of flesh, as a result of tragic events here Sunday. The sheriff was overpowered and killed by the negro, whom he had taken to the Brazos bottoms to search for property the negro was charged with stealing. The negro was later shot to death by a posse and his body was burned on a vacant lot near the business district.

An exodus of negroes from Seymour began this morning. A number of citizens were taking upon them last night to leave and the warning was generally heeded.

Brown was arrested Sunday morning, charged with theft of a shotgun. He was believed to have secreted the gun in the Brazos bottoms about four miles from this city and the sheriff took him there in an effort to locate it. Deputy Sheriff Durham accompanied them, the negro was handcuffed and there was nothing to indicate an outward action on his part.

When the three reached the river, Durham left the others and went to a point about three hundred yards distant where he thought the goods might have been placed. While he was absent, the negro suddenly turned upon the sheriff and grappled with him. There was a struggle, during which the sheriff reports he was hit in the head and face with the hands still worn by the negro. Brown then secured the officers' pistol and fired three shots, one taking effect in the side of the abdomen, the others in the arm and shoulder. Either before or after shooting the officer, the negro kicked and threw the sheriff.

Durham heard the shots and hurried back to where he had left the others. He found Ellis in a ditch, where he had been thrown by the negro. The alarm was quickly given, the news reaching Seymour just as church was being dismissed. Poses were quickly formed and a systematic search of the river bottom began. Ellis was brought to Seymour, where he died about 4 o'clock. The posse was able to make a statement setting forth the facts as above stated.

Many more citizens joined in the search when word was given that Ellis had succumbed to his wounds, and several hundred were engaged in the search, but late in the evening, about 7 o'clock, a posse of about 200 men was searching a corn field about three miles from the scene of the morning's struggle. The negro was discovered. He broke and ran, but was practically every member of the posse opened fire at about 25 yards range with pistols and rifles. The negro hit his body with his bullet and was dead when the posse reached him.

The body was brought to Seymour, saturated with oil and ignited, and burned to a crisp. The burning took place on a vacant lot near the business district of the city and was viewed by practically the entire population.

Before the negro was killed through a lynching were freely made and there is little doubt that he would have been hanged had he not been shot down by the posse. The town and adjoining country were thoroughly aroused and until long after midnight.

Ellis was about 50 years old and was serving his third term in prison. He was known as a careful, efficient officer, and was quite popular.

His friends believe that he was unable to adequately resist the negro because of an old wound sustained some months ago and from which it is said he had never fully recovered. The negro was an average size and was secretly laughed at as that the sheriff would not have seemed in any danger.

Ellis survived by a widow and two children. The funeral took place at 4 o'clock this afternoon, being largely attended.

The negro colony in Seymour was dwindling rapidly this afternoon, following the issuance of warnings to its members to leave no time in getting out of the city. A number of white citizens served notice on the blacks that their presence was undesirable. A number of the negroes left for Wichita Falls on this morning's train, and many more will leave for Haskell, Stamford, San Angelo and other West Texas points this afternoon.

County officers are said to have assured the negroes that they would be protected if they chose to remain, but this assurance seemed to carry little weight with the members of the colony, practically all of whom promptly took steps to move themselves and their belongings from the city.

It is only within the past year or two that negroes have been permitted to reside in Seymour, being for many years one of the numerous West Texas towns where they are not permitted to reside. Within the past year and a half, however, a hundred or so have been allowed to make their residence here.

Steve Brown was a strange negro who had been known by a short name and little is known of him by either whites or blacks.

NEW SUCCESSES BRING RUSSIANS NEARER LEMBERG

FIGHTING AT VERDUN

Paris Reports Germans Fail to Recapture Lost Ground—British Announce Victories at Suez and in German East Africa.

The Associated Press summarizes European war operations as follows: General Brusiloff is pressing his offensive against the Teutonic allies in Northern Galicia, where the passage of the River Sereth was recently forced by the Russians along a wide front south of Brody. Petrograd today reports further advances for the Russians in the field of the allied offensive along the Sereth and the Gruberka rivers.

The forward push of the Russians in this sector is not only bringing them closer to Lemberg on the direct line of advance, but it is pointed out by military critics as likely seriously to endanger the entire Austrian front along the Strypa south which is rapidly being outflanked.

Heavy fighting continues on the western front in the Verdun region. According to Paris, however, the Germans have been entirely unsuccessful in their efforts to regain ground lost to the French in General Nivelle's vigorous offensive of last week. An attack on the Thioumont work is declared to have been checked at the onset by the French parter fire, while an assault in the Vanx-Chapelle woods was broken up by the artillery and machine guns.

In the field of the allied offensive along the Somme today's Paris statement reports only artillery activity which, however, was intense in the region of Chaucourt north of the river. British reports of the fighting show the Suez Canal in Egypt show a crushing defeat for the Turks, who are said to have lost fully one-fourth of their remaining forces, which numbered some 14,000 men.

In German East Africa the British have driven the Germans beyond the central railway line blanching the possession, thus presenting them with a comparatively narrow area on the other side of which Portuguese forces from the neighboring colony of Portugal are expected to be operating. London dispatch report Premier Louis Botha of the union of South Africa on the scene in anticipation that the task of driving the Germans out of their remaining colonial possessions is soon to be accomplished.

BRITISH UNEASY AS TO PRISONERS' FATE

News of British Soldiers Captured at Kut-El-Amara Cannot Be Secured.

By Associated Press. London, August 7.—Apprehension exists as to the fate of the British prisoners taken at the time of the surrender of Kut-El-Amara to the Turks. Lord Robert Cecil said in the House of Commons today repeated inquiries had been made through the American embassy at Constantinople to ascertain the whereabouts of these prisoners, but that no reply had been received from the Porte. This, he said, inspired considerable misgivings as to the fate of the British prisoners after the fall of Kut-El-Amara. To cross the desert at the worst season of the year.

NO LOCAL PRICE CHANGE, BUT ONE EXPECTED SOON

There was no change in the price of oil here up to two o'clock this afternoon, the quotation remaining at $1.25 per barrel. The reduction in the Mid-continent field probably means another cut here very shortly, in the opinion of local men. PROS UNDECIDED ABOUT PLANS IN PLATFORM FIGHT

SCRAP IN PROSPECT

Not At All Certain That Convention Will Be Harmonious—Governor and Senatorial Contests May Cut Figure.

By Associated Press. Houston, Tex., Aug. 7.—Machiner for the state democratic convention which opens tomorrow was set in motion today at a preliminary meeting of the state executive committee, which resulted in the appointment of three subcommittees to consider the most important propositions to be presented at the convention.

Consolidated with the executive committee meeting there was a caucus of platform democrats discussing the subject of submission. Following the appointment of the subcommittee the executive committee meeting adjourned until 4 o'clock this afternoon. The subcommittee are to meet tomorrow to consider the platform and representation for returns from the July 22 primary and for finance. The subcommittee will meet immediately after the adjournment of the executive committee, which will be held in the afternoon.

The platform democrats are discussing the subject of submission in the state platform. Unless we are satisfied that we are going to win it, we will not propose that the platform meeting adjourn and adjourn tomorrow. A steering committee of five was named to caucus among the delegates and associates at the strength of the proponents of the submission plank. The committee will report tomorrow.

Decker of Quanah, who came to Houston from his military command on the border is slated for the temporary chairmanship of the convention. His candidacy is understood to be favorable to Governor J. F. Ferguson.

Who controls the convention is the question which is puzzling them in the political dopesters. The assurance that "the Ferguson men are in absolute control" is not so very assuring to many on the extreme anti-side of the house, and is not so very assuring to many on the extreme anti-side of the house, and is not so very assuring to many on the extreme anti-side of the house.

Nobody seems to be quite sure what Governor Ferguson's intentions are with respect to putting submission in the platform. There will be several husky delegations in the room to give instructions to see to it that very thing is done by the convention, and they are expressing the opinion that the governor certainly will not propose that the convention violate the law.

On the other hand, the governor has given the impression that he is of the opinion that the law might be violated by placing a submission plank in the platform, and that he is sure it will be such violation if the law is to be given a strict interpretation.

The English of which there is going to be a pretty scrap if the submissionists insist upon a platform endorsement and if Governor Ferguson sees fit to oppose such an endorsement.

There are those who are hinting that Governor Ferguson is not so much interested in what the convention does about submission as he is about its action on the Robertson insurance law. And that puts another angle to the meaning of the phrase "Ferguson men in control." For he knows that there are delegates who will "go down the line" to extent of voting against an endorsement of submission, but who will balk at refusing to vote for a plank directing the legislature by party mandate to keep its profane hands off the Robertson insurance law.

However, be this as it may, and aside from whether Gibson will control the convention, it is being pointed out that any fight that is being waged against a plank endorsing the Robertson insurance law must be waged against submission also. For if the governor is to base his fight—assuming that he will make a fight—upon the construction of the law which holds that platform demands voted on in the primaries must receive a majority of all votes cast in the election, he must be made upon both propositions alike.

An interesting question which is being propounded with regard to the prospect of fights on these two propositions is "What will happen?" The former junior senator is a duly accredited delegate from Cooke county, and incidentally the county convention which is going to be held in respect to platform propositions voted upon in primaries that is causing much interest.

Some are expecting a scrap, led on the one side by Governor Ferguson and on the other by former Senator Bailey. Others say that Bailey will agree with Ferguson's interpretation of the law. And still others say that

By Associated Press. New York, Aug. 7.—Settlement of the street railway strike in New York, which has partly halted the surface lines of the city, is in the balance this afternoon. Striking employees of the New York Railways company today ratified a tentative agreement proposed yesterday by Mayor Mitchell and Public Service Commissioner Straub, but the directors today are not considering its ratification which began this forenoon and which was still in session this afternoon.

Second, the company shall agree to meet and deal with all matters which the employees might object in the event of differences arising. Fourth, that if no agreement is reached by August 20, the differences shall be referred to an impartial board of three citizens for arbitration.

SELECTING JURY TO TRY DALLAS NEGRO

By Associated Press. Dallas, Tex., Aug. 7.—Five prospective jurors to try Houston Wagner, negro self-confessed slayer of Miss Zola Cramer, March 26 had been examined at noon today. A special venire of 150 takers was on hand. A motion for continuance was overruled by Judge W. L. Crawford.

While there was no sign of violence a guard of fifteen uniformed police officers surrounded the prisoner. The death of Miss Cramer was one of the most stirring crimes in Dallas and followed a series of murders and attacks which occurred here almost daily throughout the winter. The nurse had returned from a professional school at North Texas and was going to her home in Oak Cliff from a detention hospital.

She was attacked while crossing the high school lawn, strangled to death and left lying on the ground with the contents of her pockets and handbag scattered about her. The body was found by the school janitor early the following morning.

Wagner, a negro, was held in custody on many delinquencies and arrested four or five times, including some negroes. The only tangible clue found was a motion picture camera which was a detainer removed from Miss Cramer's hair. It had become tangled there during the death struggle. No evidence of criminal assault was found on the body.

Information was given to Dallas officers during the middle of July of this year that a negro had been seen at McKinney, Texas, in connection with the robbery of the postoffice at Plank near there. Dallas detectives went to McKinney, where they placed in communication with Wagner, and after several days of grilling, the negro according to the officers' report confessed that he killed Miss Cramer.

The confession officers said stated that Wagner intended to rob her and did not mean to kill her, that she strangled and that to smother her cries he placed his hands about her throat. Soon after, Wagner said, she fell from his arms. He became frightened and ran away.

Wagner said the officers he could not rest, but was continually having visions and hallucinations of a crowd of men firing arrows around his neck and a bullet into a tree.

Arrangements were made to have a special guard about the prisoner and the court room during the trial.

OIL PRODUCTION IN THIS COUNTY

Wichita county ranked second among the oil-producing districts of Texas in 1915, according to figures just made public by the United States Geological Survey. In 1914 this county was in first place, but the phenomenal gains at Humble put that field in the lead last year.

Last year Wichita county produced 5,833,951 barrels of oil valued at $3,662,794, an average price of not quite 63 cents per barrel, the price being 45 cents for much of the year.

This showing is considerably less than that of 1914, when wells in this county produced 8,229,968 barrels of oil valued at $4,789,359, an average of 58 1/2 cents per barrel. The 1915 figures represent a decrease of 2,394,017 barrels in production and a decrease of $1,126,565 in price.

In 1914, the Humble district produced 2,793,453 barrels, but last year it yielded more than four times as much, 11,061,802 barrels.

There was also a decline in the Petrolia field last year. In 1914 that field produced 559,885 barrels valued at $465,628, while in 1915 its yield was 349,957 barrels valued at $220,955. Figures for the separate fields in Wichita county are not available.

The production of Texas as a whole increased in 1915 over 1914, the figures following:

The total production for the United States last year was 281,014,104 barrels, valued at $179,462,890, an average of 64 cents a barrel. The leading oil-producing states were:

State	1915
California	99,775,327
Oklahoma	73,631,724
Illinois	23,919,749
Texas	20,068,184
Oklahoma	24,942,791

Oklahoma went into first place last year, as shown by these figures, while Texas advanced from fourth to third place going ahead of Illinois.

Generally speaking, prices throughout the country were lower in 1915 than in 1914, the composite average for 1915 being $68.48, as compared with $69.14 in 1914. In Wichita county, the average price for oil was $62.52 in 1914, as compared with $63 in 1915.

Field	1914	1915
Corseana	133,811	123,556
Jetrolia	559,685	465,628
Wichita County	282,279	189,490
Marion County	827,968	678,359
Moran	18,079	17,404

WARRANT ISSUED ON FORGERY CHARGE

Cashing of $150 in Checks of Local Law Firms Results in Filing of Complaint.

A warrant has been issued for the arrest of a young man of this city following the cashing of checks to the amount of $150, alleged to have been forgeries. No arrest has yet been made.

Firm checks were used in securing the money, the firm name of Huff, Martin and Bullington being printed on the signature line as is the custom and the name of M. A. Martin being signed below. Since the checks were missing from the bank of the check book and it is possible that the amount secured may be increased, only four checks having come in to the bank up to this time.

Those cashing the checks and the amounts are as follows: D. M. Hardy, $40; Club Bar, $25; Hatton & Bemred, $20; and the Independent Meat Market, $35. In filling out the checks the party took the pains to use two colors of ink and with one exception the signature was almost an exact duplicate of that of M. A. Martin. The checks, with the exception of the signature, were written in green ink, such as had been used before, while Mr. Martin's name was signed in black as has been his custom.

Another precaution taken by the party was noticeable from the fact that Mr. Martin was out of the city on that particular afternoon, having gone to the lake, and a telephone inquiry as to the genuineness of the checks was not calculated to bring the information that they were forgeries.

The party accused of the offense worked during the day Wednesday and it was not until Thursday that he was missed. Mr. Martin visited his rooming house and by the receipt there was informed that he had left the night before, first communicating with a local garage over the phone. Later, his suspicion being aroused, Martin had the bank look over his late checks, and advised them of the action of the man suspected. The checks that had come in were found to be all right, but Friday morning these were had been forged were presented for payment, which was refused. Three of the checks had been cleared through another bank, while the fourth was presented direct to the City National for payment, the firm having their account with this bank.

The wife of the accused had left the Saturday night before in response to a message announcing the serious illness of her father, and on the following Monday the accused had been advised a week's salary to assist in defraying his expenses.

BAYLOR COACH IS VERY OPTIMISTIC

Although some four weeks are yet to elapse before football candidates are listed for the various centers of the higher learning of the state, coaches are already laying the plans for the campaign through which they intend to put their charges on the winning season and football talk is already being heard. As in the winter league in baseball, the griffin champion of the title last year, the Bapists and A. & M. with the edge in favor of the Bapists, are the favorites to win the championship. Although the Farmers were awarded the popular decision for the title last year, the Bapists and A. & M. did not go up against either A. & M. or Texas last year, and for that reason more coaches were worked out for their positions last year.

The Baylor coach looks for Rice to attain a good standing this fall in spite of the loss of several good men. Southwestern also looks good to him for a good season, as well as S. M. U. which will have their entire last year's club back in school with the benefit of last year's training. As well as having a number of good men who were on the ineligible list last year, Baylor is expected to get into the game this year. Another coach who looks good is the coach of Trinity, Daniel Baker and Howard Payne do not look bad for this season on the Baylor coach.

The Baylor coach, a third-year at Baylor, and each year he has put a winning team in the field. The former Baptist star is the first man this year to have coached a team that had a record of who was able to fill the shoes of Ralph Glaze, the former All-American and major league star. Moseley expects to put a team in the field this season which will be remembered along with the great machine Glaze turned out at Baylor in 1910.

CONVENTION AT HOUSTON MAY BE SCRAPPY AFFAIR

Bailey will not come to the Houston convention. Truth to tell, on crowd of prognosticators seems to know just about as much about what Bailey will do as the other—and as little.

If there is such a scrapp, with Governor Ferguson leading one faction and Senator Bailey leading the other, it is safe to say there will be a very interesting time. This is one of the possibilities which will make the San Antonio convention a thing to be forgotten.

Lets pause again to say, however, that this is what hide-bound copy-writers on the non-sensory journals would call "pure speculation." (One can't be too cautious about such matters.)

If Bailey does come—though there seems to be a reliable report to the contrary—then one thing is certain: The convention will be asked to go on record against the use of immense sums of money for political campaigns. In that event, and the decision is in the affirmative, then what may be called "the El Paso cycle" will be completed.

Those who heard Bailey declare "the party bearer is among you, my countrymen" before the special session of the Thirty-third legislature, will have a fair idea what to expect in the event there is opposition to the proposition.

And now comes the consideration of an angle of the situation that is likely to upset all the calculations, and then, again, is likely to play no part at all. And that is the senatorial race between Culbertson and Culbertson. Rumor has been rife ever since a considerable number of the county conventions endorsed the candidacy of Senator Culbertson that an attempt will be made by the Culbertson men to obtain an endorsement from the state convention. To which leading Culbertson men reply: "Taint so!"

Moreover, it is known that the Culbertson forces are planning to head off such a situation meantime declaring that such an endorsement would be the best thing that could happen to Culbertson, inasmuch as it would crystallize the campaign cry. "The politicians against the people."

The truth seems to be that the Culbertson leaders wish to ask for an endorsement by the State convention unless they believe they are compelled to do so to avoid the charge that they are not to be trusted. They have demanded the delegates begin to arrive there will be a counting of noses. What effect the senatorial race will have upon the campaign is difficult to fathom, but this much is certain: The senatorial race will divide in the convention in more ways than one.

Both sides will temporarily move their State headquarters to Houston during the convention. Meetings of the supporters of both candidates will be held Monday and Tuesday. The delegates begin to arrive there will be a counting of noses. What effect the senatorial race will have upon the campaign is difficult to fathom, but this much is certain: The senatorial race will divide in the convention in more ways than one.

On the other hand, there are some strange bedfellows in the other camp and also there are some veterans of many "battles, fought side by side" who find themselves opposed to one another. If there is any political dopester who can forecast what is likely to happen and such chaos upon his brow, he best keep his laurel wreath for charity, because it would take nothing less to dope it.

Free For All Fight At Negro Ball Game Several Arrests Made

What threatened to be a free for all fight resulted from the matched game of ball here yesterday between a team of negroes from Henrietta and the team from this place. The game started off smoothly and everything went well until some of the players objected to the decisions of the umpire and proceeded to storm the court. The first player in language that was more forceful than polite. One word followed another until a fight was started and for a time looked as though it was about to break out. The referee stepped in and the fight was broken up. The referee was charged with fighting at the morning session of the police court. Yes, boss, boss I was empire, for a while," replied the defendant. "Did you enjoy yourself?" asked Judge Whitely preparing to fix a five dollar fine.

"Well, sure, I believe I would have enjoyed myself more if I had let me loose and let me run." According to his version of the affair he had called out one of the Wichita niggers as he slid into third, which was the signal for the start of hostilities. This was about the sixth inning with Wichita leading Henrietta about 9 to 6. The defendant believed that that had ended the game, but he had not. He had nothing but hearsay evidence about it game ending at this time, having absented himself from the field of battle in the meantime.

One of the players who took part in the free for all started parrying with the court as to what his fine would be. That he wished to plead guilty to the lowest fine.

Two of the five plead guilty to gaming and drew ten dollar fines. The scene of operations was the Red Front rooming house. Although a door kept closed had been posted as a precautionary measure, so interested did the fickle changes of fortune prove for that individual and so closely was his attention held that officer Gilham approached unnoticed and looked over his shoulder watching the game for perhaps a settlement of the amounts past due and the office will probably be engaged in this work for some time, as there are about 5,000 of such suits filed and to be filed by Attorney W. T. Carlton, representing the county attorney's office.

RAILROAD WAGES

Shall they be determined by Industrial Warfare or Federal Inquiry?

To the American Public:

Do you believe in arbitration or industrial warfare?

The train employes on all the railroads have voted whether they will give their leaders authority to tie up the commerce of the country to enforce their demands for a 100 million dollar wage increase.

The railroads are in the public service—your service. This army of employes is in the public service—your service.

You pay for rail transportation 3 billion dollars a year, and 44 cents out of every dollar from you goes to the employes.

On all the Western railroads in 1915, seventy-five per cent of the train employes earned these wages (lowest, highest and average of all) as shown by the pay rolls—

	Passenger	Freight	Yard
Engineers	Range 1747 Average 2195	Range 1537 Average 2071	Range 1056 Average 1378
Conductors	Range 1543 Average 1878	Range 1454 Average 1935	Range 1151 Average 1355
Firemen	Range 1053 Average 1317	Range 751 Average 1181	Range 418 Average 973

The average yearly wage payments to all Western train employes (including those who worked only part of the year) as shown by the 1915 payrolls were—

	Passenger	Freight	Yard
Engineers	$2038	$1737	$1218
Conductors	1772	1624	1292
Firemen	1218	973	832
Brakemen	921	1000	1026

A 100 million dollar wage increase for men in freight and yard service (less than one-fifth of all employes) is equal to a 5 per cent advance in all freight rates.

The managers of the railroads, as trustees for the public, have no right to place this burden on the cost of transportation to you without a clear mandate from a public tribunal speaking for you.

The railroads have proposed the settlement of this controversy either under the existing national arbitration law, or by reference to the Interstate Commerce Commission. This offer has been refused by the employes' representatives.

Shall a nation-wide strike or an investigation under the Government determine this issue?

In the Senate, Senator Culbertson has promised to get the bill through the committee and believes it can be passed with little difficulty.

O. B. COLQUITT.

The better informed union men are generally for Culberson. Culberson's record on legislation for workmen could not be improved upon.

Harmony is the keynote of the democratic state convention at Houston. The headlines in the morning papers say, A large majority of the delegates are Ferguson men, but many of them are instructed for the retention of the Robertson law and for submission.

FUNSTON PRAISES TEXAS TROOPS.

The Post thinks Texas is under obligations to General Funston for disposing of the slanders some of the correspondents on the border have uttered against Texas. It will be remembered that only the other day The Post reproduced a special from the correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger which contained the vilest misrepresentations of both the Texas troops and Texas people.

The general declares that Texas has reason to be proud of the way its soldiers are acquitting themselves. The general might have added that since the president's call hundreds of men have enlisted in the Texas organization and that in all probability it will be recruited to full strength before any other State can show full strength.

And The Post likewise feels sure that the Northern soldiers on the border who have come in contact with the Texas troops will, as General Funston has so generously done, testify of their soldierly bearing and their fortitude in meeting all the requirements of the service.—Houston Post.

DIRECTORS TAKE OPTIMISTIC VIEW OF GAS QUESTION

DO NOT BELIEVE THAT IT WILL AFFECT CITY'S MANUFACTURING PRESTIGE—POINT TO SUPPLY OF OIL AND COAL.

HUNTING NEW FIELD

Oil-Well Bonus Offer Challenged So As to Apply to Gas Also.—Mr. Kell Declares Factories Are Not Seriously Affected.

At a well attended and optimistic meeting of the Chamber of Commerce this morning for the purpose of considering what effect the cutting off of the gas supply would have on the manufacturing enterprises of the city, it was the unanimous sense of the meeting that the future of Wichita Falls as a manufacturing center or that the future of the manufacturing plants located in the city was not in any way endangered and was just as sound as it ever was before the order cutting off the supply for industrial consumption.

The following resolution offered by Frank Kell was unanimously adopted as expressing the sense of the directors:

"After a thorough and careful analysis of the fuel situation we can say definitely to the citizens of Wichita Falls that the change from gas as a fuel for oil or coal or other fuels will not in any sense affect the manufacturing industries of Wichita Falls, and that the future of the manufacturing plants located in the city was not in any way endangered and was just as sound as it ever was before the order cutting off the supply for industrial consumption.

Prior to the introduction of the resolution the situation was discussed at some length by Mr. Kell, who stated at the start that he had made a careful analysis of the situation as he knew it and was entirely optimistic in regard to the situation.

Mr. Kell said also that at the time of the installation of the gas as fuel in the manufacturing plants in which the cost of securing the necessary mechanical engineering in the last few years has so cut down the number of men needed for tending plants using other fuels that the city is now an almost negligible factor, and the addition of another man or two will be all that will be needed in the plants affected.

In discussing the internal combustion oil burning engines that have recently been perfected Mr. Kell mentioned the fact that in the mill at Vernon, where this power is used, and where the gas was unavailable, the cost of the manufacture of flour as far as the cost of securing the necessary mechanical engineering in the last few years has so cut down the number of men needed for tending plants using other fuels that the city is now an almost negligible factor, and the addition of another man or two will be all that will be needed in the plants affected.

Mr. Kell was borne out in this by representatives of other manufacturing plants who were in attendance. Mr. Kell added that he was certain in his own mind that there was no other large gas field somewhere close to the city and that it would be discovered some day. He suggested that the Chamber of Commerce be on the alert for the discovery of this field and try to gain control of such a part of it which could be held in abeyance for the future, not so much of the industrial plants, but for domestic purposes in Wichita Falls.

The further the fact that the Chamber of Commerce bonus fund for the discovery of an oil well be amended so as to cover the discovery of a gas well of a certain capacity near the city also.

John C. Kay stated that the announcement of the cutting loose from the industrial use of the gas by the North Texas company merely accidentally preceded a similar announcement by the Wichita Gas Company which might be expected right away. However, he stated that some provision would be made by the company to take care of the gas and compressed companies during the coming cotton season which is right upon them and gives them little time to install machinery to burn other fuel.

Couple Wed 9 Years, Discover They Are Brother and Sister

Madison, Wis., Aug. 7.—Roger Newton, a University of Wisconsin graduate, now a resident of Globe, Ariz., has discovered that his wife whom he married nine years ago, is his sister. How to straighten out the kink in their life story is the problem which is worrying them to distraction.

Newton, whose real name is George Porter, was the son of a carpenter in Spokane, Wash. When his father was injured by a fall, George was placed in an orphanage. Later he was adopted by Howard Newton, who moved east.

His adopted parents educated him at the University of Wisconsin. After leaving college young Porter, who had taken the name of Newton from his adopted parents, returned to the Pacific northwest.

While in Portland, Ore., he met a Miss Elizabeth Porter, who was attending a seminary there. The pair became infatuated and were married.

That was nine years ago. The other day in an old trunk Newton found a lock. He opened it and found a tiny likeness of his parents, given him when he went to the orphanage in 1880. When he showed it to his wife she fainted. The picture was one of her own father and mother. She had known of a brother, but had never heard what had become of him.

The Porters, brother and sister, are now on their way from Arizona to Eugene, Ore., to visit their parents, Newton's adopted parents died in Reedsburg, Ore., three years ago.

Mrs. Ina Dohlerhide and little son of Vernon and F. F. Holmes and Miss Gertrude Brooks of Georgia, drove down from Vernon Sunday and remained over until today, the guests of D. Shamburger and family.

BURN BODY OF NEGRO SLAYER AT SEYMOUR

Valley reaching here at 1:25 this afternoon. A few went on through to Fort Worth, the majority remaining here for the present. Those questioned made no secret of the fact that they considered it best to move and they said that all of the negroes would leave Seymour without delay. Some of them had reason to fear violence yesterday, they said, when feeling ran high, but the situation quieted today without anyone being harmed. They said that county officers tried to prevent their being ordered to leave, but that the element which want to get rid of them was in control and they consequently had no desire to remain.

WHEN A MAN'S A MAN

HAROLD BELL WRIGHT'S NEW BOOK NOW ON SALE . . . . $1.35

"When a man's a man" is a fine big, wholesome novel of simple sweetness and virile strength. While the pages are crowded with the thrilling incidents that belong to the adventurous life of the unfeared land depicted, one feels, always beneath the surface of the stirring scenes the great, primitive, enduring life forces that the men and women of this story portray. In the Dean, Philip Acton, Patch, Little Billy, Curly Elson, Kitty Reid and Helen Manning the author has created real living, breathing men and women and we are made to feel and understand that there come to everyone those times when in spite of all, above all and at any cost, a man must be a man.

Other novels by same author now on our 50c tables. "That Printer of Udell's," "The Shepherd of the Hills," "The Calling of Dan Matthews," "The Uncrowned King," "The Winning of Barbara Worth," "Their Yesterday's" and "The Eyes of the World."
