

STRIKE ORDER IS RESCINDED AS RESULT OF SENATE'S PASSAGE OF ADAMSON 8-HOUR BILL

CALAMITY IS AVERTED BY LEGISLATION

MEASURE TO PREVENT WALK-OUT OF 400,000 RAILWAY EMPLOYEES WILL BE SIGNED BY PRESIDENT THIS MORNING

EMBARGO LIFTED

Railroad Managers and Brotherhoods Have Accepted the Plan Proposed by the Administration as a Settlement.

Washington, Sept. 2.—Threats of a general railroad strike which have been hanging like a pall over the country for a month were lifted tonight. Three hours after the Senate had passed without amendment the Adamson eight hour day bill passed by the House yesterday, heads of the four-railroad brotherhoods telegraphed code messages to their district chairmen in all parts of the country, canceling the strike order issued a week ago to take effect next Monday morning at seven o'clock.

The legislative expedient to avert the strike was passed in the Senate by a vote of 43 to 28, almost a strict party vote. Some senators, thoroughly aroused, declared Congress was being coerced into enactment of legislation that it did not desire and that it knew would return to plague it in the future.

In both houses, the measure was signed within a few minutes after the final vote in the Senate and it was sent at once to the white house, where President Wilson will sign it at 7:30 tomorrow morning after he returns from Shadow Lawn. Officials of the brotherhoods who witnessed the final passage of the bill had announced early in the night that cancellation of the bill had been signed by the president and actually had become law, but later they conferred, changed their minds and flashed the code messages, signaling to the waiting trainmen of the country, through their chairmen, the fact that a satisfactory settlement had been secured.

The bill that stopped the strike provides that on January 1, 1917, eight hours shall be regarded as a basis of reckoning for a day's pay of men engaged in the operation of railroad trains in interstate commerce (excluding roads that are long, and electric lines); that they shall receive pro rata pay for work in excess of eight hours and that their rate of compensation shall be changed pending an investigation for six to nine months, of the effect of the eight hour day upon railroads by a commission to be appointed by the president.

Efforts to amend the bill in the Senate were futile, the supreme effort to alter it having been led by Senator Underwood, who sought to provide that the Interstate Commerce commission should have power to fix railroad wages and hours of men in the future. This amendment was defeated by a vote of 57 to 14. Only two democrats—Senator Hardwick of Georgia and Senator Clarke of Arkansas—voted against the bill and one republican, LaFollette of Wisconsin, voted for it.

Railroad officials have declared that the action of Congress will cost them sixty million dollars a year in increased wages in the treatment. Brotherhood officials say the enactment not increase an annual income of twenty million dollars. In Congress and among the railroad officials there has existed doubt as to the constitutionality of the law, but what steps may be taken to test this has not been indicated. Quick action by the brotherhood heads followed the action in the Senate. No doubt existed in their minds that President Wilson would sign the bill as it was handed to him. The measure embraces and the railroad heads, although it is only a part of the legislative program he took to Congress last Tuesday when his resignation had fallen. Issuance of the orders of cancellation followed a meeting of the four brotherhood heads and thirteen remaining members of their committee of 40. Some opposition to acting before the president actually had affixed his signature was "evanescent. The seventeen finally voted unanimously to call off the strike immediately.

THE MEASURE THAT AVERTED BIG STRIKE

Following is the text of the revised eight-hour bill that was passed by the house and senate for the purpose of preventing a railway strike:

"A bill to establish an eight-hour day for employees of carriers engaged in interstate commerce and for other purposes.

Section 1. Beginning December 1, 1916, eight hours shall, in contracts for labor and service, be deemed a day's work and the measure for the transportation of persons or property on railroads, from any state or territory of the United States or the District of Columbia, to any other state or territory of the United States, or the District of Columbia, or from one place in a territory to another place in the same territory or from any place in the United States through a foreign country to any other place in the United States.

Section 2. That the president shall appoint a commission of three, which shall observe the operation and effect of the institution of the eight-hour standard workday as above defined and the facts and conditions affecting the relations between such common carriers and employees during a period of not less than six months, nor more than nine months, in the discretion of the commission, and within thirty days thereafter said commission shall report its findings to the president and congress; that each member of the commission created under the provisions of this act shall receive such compensation as may be fixed by the president. The sum of $25,000 or so much thereof as may be necessary, shall be and hereby is, appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated for the necessary expenses of members and employees and rent, furniture, office fixtures and supplies, books, salaries and other necessary expenses, the same to be approved by the chairman of said commission and audited by the proper accounting officers of the treasury.

Section 3. That pending the report of the commission herein provided for, and for a period of thirty days thereafter, the compensation of railway employees subject to this act (of a standard day's wage, and for all necessary time in excess of eight hours, such compensation shall be paid at the rate of not less than the pro rata rate for such standard eight-hour work day.

Section 4. That any person violating any provision of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than $100 and not more than $1,000, or imprisoned not to exceed one year or both.

going rapidly upward for several days. They were also jubilant that at last the way looked clear for adjustment of Congress, but many members of Congress were convinced that with the reassembling in December the question would come up again and that permanent legislation suggested by the president along the line of compulsory arbitration would be pressed.

Meantime the joint sub-committee recently created by Congress will get to work on problems of railway legislation. The falling of the gavel on the passage of the bill in the Senate tonight marked the end of a dramatic and precedent-breaking week in Congress. When President Wilson taking to bring the railroad brotherhoods to agreement, turned to Congress for relief, he made unannounced trips to the capitol to consult leaders about appearing before Congress in person to lay the situation before it. Hurried arrangements for the ceremony were made and the president addressed a joint session of the House and Senate, Committees of both houses went to work at once and the president paid daily visits to the capitol to see, as he put it, "that things are kept moving."

Senator Keel, taking up the cudgel for the brotherhoods in the hour of debate, regretted that a quorum of the House was not in Washington, that it therefore would be impossible to pass, if amended in any particular, in time to avert the strike on Monday and Congress would be blamed for the disaster if it were not stayed in accordance with the plan suggested by house leaders. This line of argument not only prevented the adoption of the Underwood amendment, but also served to defeat an amendment by Senator Newlands to make interference with operation of railroad trains a misdemeanor punishable by fine and imprisonment, and an amendment by Senator LaFollette which would make it a crime to repeal or modify the prohibitive hours of service law which had been passed by Congress continuously more than sixteen hours.

The majority of the senators admitted that they were afraid to "change the dotting of an 'i' or the crossing of a 't'." In the House bill in the fear that it might serve to forestall prevention of a strike. The Senate galleries were crowded to capacity when the vote was taken. The negotiations in which the agencies of the federal government were used to avert the strike began nearly a month ago when it became apparent that the railroads and the trainmen could not agree among themselves, and the United States board of mediation and conciliation undertook to adjust the differences. Several days of mediation by members of the board ended without a solution of the problem and the situation narrowed down to a point where the railroads were willing to arbitrate some of the union's demands, but the employees were not.

Then came the invitation, three weeks ago, to both sides to come to Washington for conferences with the president. The four brotherhood chiefs and the 24 chairman of the principal local organizations as well as the conference committee of railway managers which were handling the questions at issue, came here yesterday. They were unable to agree on a basis of settlement and after several discussions at the white house the summons was sent out for the 540 representatives of the trainmen's organization who were all New York and the presidents of several rail-

RAILROADS TO ACCEPT BILL FOR PRESENT

WILL TAKE NO PRECIPITATE COURT ACTION AGAINST LAW BUT WILL WAIT UNTIL MEASURE HAS BEEN INVESTIGATED.

COST IS HEAVY

Managers Allege That Extraordinary Expense on the Part of the Railroads Will Total Into the Millions of Dollars.

Chicago, Sept. 2.—Accepting passage of the Adamson bill by the Senate tonight as a complete assurance that the threatened strike had been averted, western railroads announced they would take no precipitate court action against the law but will wait until the measure has been thoroughly investigated.

At the same time railroad executives declared that the period of time a strike would have necessitated extraordinary expenses on the part of the railroads that will total perhaps into the millions.

Informed by the Associated Press that the Senate has passed the bill, Hale Holden, president of the Chicago Burlington & Quincy declared the railroads would not be discommoded by any precipitate action.

"It is my belief," said Mr. Holden, "that we will wait for the governmental investigation before taking any action against it."

The cost to the railroads of the three week strike has already been high. The loss to the public cannot be estimated at this time but shippers and travelers have suffered inconvenience and insurance losses under stand that the western parks have suffered as a result of the strike threat and that many resorts have closed down.

WAR SUMMARY

The Associated Press summarizes European war operations as follows: In the first hard battle between Rumanians and Austrian troops, the Austrians have been forced to retire across the Cerna river, north of Orsova, near the Iron Gate on the Danube. Vienna announced that the Austrian troops withdrew after five days of heavy fighting.

In eastern Transylvania the Austrian retreat continued. Hermannstadt has been added to the towns given up to the invading Rumanians. Apparently the Austrians are carrying out their reported plans of shortening the battle line in Transylvania and are giving the Rumanians little opposition except near Orsova.

London, Sept. 2.—Former Premier Venizelos of Greece, leader of a party which favored participation in the war on the side of the entente allies is quoted in a dispatch to the Star from Athens as having said to friends that the situation was becoming more and more grave for Greece.

With the Bulgarian troops between the Rumanians and the armies of the entente allies, the Russian general, who is advancing through Dobruja, who can doubt that Bulgaria will seek to sign a separate peace with the entente. If this should happen before Greece goes in on the side of the entente, it would mean the burial of Greece.

The Greek government has sent a note to the belligerent powers, says a dispatch from Athens dated Friday, asking them "during military operations in Greek territory as well as in the event of a siege and bombardment to preserve the ancient monuments and other national treasures."

As the ancient monuments and treasures of Greece are situated principally at Athens the note has given rise to some comment in the capital.

Reported dissensions in union ranks gave officials of the railway brotherhoods in Chicago considerable anxiety. T. A. Gregg, vice president of the Order of Railway Conductors met representatives of the conductors on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul roads who, according to officials of the union, yesterday voted to disregard the strike order if it is not rescinded. While Mr. Gregg and the conductors discussed the situation the date set for the walkout, Embargo has been lifted by the following railroads:

PRESIDENT IS NOTIFIED OF NOMINATION

8000 PRESENT

Notification Speech Delivered by Senator Ollie of Kentucky, Who Eulogized President's Peace Record.

President Wilson Severely Rebuked the Republican Leaders for Their Record in the Past and Made Strong Bid for Progressive Vote.

By Associated Press. Long Branch, N. J., Sept. 2.—President Wilson today formally opened his campaign for reelection with a speech accepting the democratic nomination in which he characterized the republican party as a "practical and moral failure," eulogized American and European policies, recited legislative achievements of his administration and declared for a "big America."

The president left Shadow Lawn at eleven o'clock today for Washington to renew his efforts to prevent the threatened nation wide railroad strike.

His speech President Wilson was unsparring in his criticism of the republican party as a party of "masterly inactivity and cunning resourcefulness in standing by for Washington."

Speaking in the open, his voice could be heard by only a small part of the crowd, but those who did hear him constantly interrupted with applause. Once when he said he would seek the favor or fear the displeasure of that small alien element among us which puts loyalty to any foreign power before loyalty to the United States, the crowd stood and cheered.

Senator James of Kentucky, chairman of the notification committee, introduced the president. When he declared Mr. Wilson had kept America at peace the crowd responded instantly and applauded several minutes. He concluded by having a copy of a copy of the St. Louis platform.

Reading slowly but distinctly from a printed copy of his speech and frequently looking up, an emphatic particular point, Mr. Wilson spoke of the democratic platform, as a "definite pledge." Reviewing the achievements of the administration, he said: "Altogether in the domestic field, and in the wide field of the commerce of the world, American business and life and industry have been set free to move as they were never before."

Concluding his list of measures passed by Congress in the last three years, the president declared: "This extraordinary legislation must sound like a platform, a list of sardine promises, but it is not. It is a record of promises made four years ago and now actually redeemed in constructive legislation."

The president made a bid for the progressive vote by saying that "we have in four years come very near carrying out the platform of the progressive party as well as our own, for we also are progressives."

Further along, rebuking foreign born people who are not loyal to America, he said: "I am the candidate of a party, but I am above all things else, an American citizen."

When Mr. Wilson declared that the revolution in Mexico is right, and that so long as its leaders represent, however imperfectly, a struggle for freedom, he is ready to serve their ends, the crowd applauded. Applause also greeted his declaration that America must do its part in laying the foundation of a new world order.

The policy of the United States in dealing with violations of the rights of American citizens as a result of the European war, the president outlined thus: "That property rights can be vindicated by claims for damage when the war is over and no modern nation can decline to arbitrate such claims, but the fundamental rights of humanity cannot be."

The audience which listened to the president's address of acceptance was made up largely of residents of New Jersey coast towns, but included representatives from every section of the country and delegations from New York, Pennsylvania and other nearby states.

Long Branch and West End were decorated in red, white and blue for the occasion and the crowds which attended the ceremony were in festive mood.

PRESENT LINCOLN FARM TO NATION

Little Home of 110 Acres, Log Cabin and Memorial Hall To Be Dedicated Monday.

By Associated Press. Hodgenville, Ky., Sept. 2.—The Lincoln farm of 110 acres, the little log cabin in which Abraham Lincoln was born, a magnificent memorial hall which shelters it and an endowment fund of $25,000 for its maintenance will be presented as a gift to the nation next Monday by the Lincoln Farm association.

He sent Mr. Richard Lloyd Jones to Kentucky to investigate the possibility of acquiring title to the property. Mr. Jones found the farm involved in court proceedings and returned to New York, first instructing local attorneys to notify him when the case was finally adjudicated.

In August of the same year came word that the farm had been ordered sold at auction at the court house door of Laure county. Mr. Jones immediately returned to Kentucky, arriving in Hodgenville somewhat in advance of those most keenly interested in securing the farm for commercial exploitation and it was knocked down to him for $3,500.

Shortly after Mr. Collier had acquired the Lincoln farm and cabin, the Lincoln Farm Association was organized, to which Mr. Collier deeded the property to be held in trust for the nation.

Joseph W. Folk became president of the organization. Robert J. Collier, vice president and chairman of the executive committee. Clarence H. Mackay, treasurer and Richard Lloyd Jones, secretary.

A campaign for funds with which to rear a memorial over the log cabin, on its original site, was then begun and the response was quick and generous. More than 270,000 persons advanced of those most keenly interested in securing the farm for commercial exploitation and it was knocked down to him for $3,500.

Here upon the log cabin in which Abraham Lincoln was born, destined to preserve the union and free the slave, a grateful people have dedicated this memorial to unity, peace and brotherhood among these states.

Upon the walls of the interior are etched the Gettysburg speech and the Lincoln ancestry. Beneath the building is a basement with arrangements for keeping the records of the association and its roll of membership which includes every contributor of 25 cents or more.

The farm itself is divided by a turnpike which leads directly from the square at Hodgenville, where the pedestal of the Lincoln statue by Weinman points the way to Lincoln's birthplace. The road where it passes through the farm, is flanked by an old fashioned worm fence, made of rails such as Lincoln himself split.

In 1906 Mr. Collier learned that the Lincoln farm was about to be sold and was in danger of falling into the hands of persons who wished to use it for exploiting their wares, among them being a man with big distilling interests.

Judge Bonner Holds That Verdict of Jury For $30,000 Was Excessive

Motion for a new trial was presented in the 30th district court Saturday in the case of C. Jack Hays vs. C. E. Schaff, receiver, et al. In which the plaintiff was recently awarded judgment for $30,000 damages for personal injuries sustained in an accident in the factory yards.

Hays, who was a switching crew foreman on the Katy, sustained the loss of one leg, and other serious injuries when a switch engine ran over him near the glass factory.

CULBERSON HAS LEAD OF 69,084 OVER COLQUITT

FINAL RETURNS AS CANVASED YESTERDAY GIVE THE SENATOR TOTAL OF 152,182 AND EX-GOVERNOR COLQUITT 84,098.

ANALYSIS OF VOTE

Colquitt Carries Only 21 Out of 230 Counties in the State, While Culberson's Strength Was Distributed Over Entire State.

Special to The Times. Dallas, Tex., Sept. 2.—Practically complete returns, generally verified by mail and further brought to vote by officers canvass of the race for the majority of Senator Charles A. Culberson over ex-Governor O. B. Colquitt in the primary of August 26 at 69,084, in the final figures given out tonight by the canvassers.

Finals of vote show Colquitt carried 21 out of 230 counties. These were Lee, Washington, Austin, Fayette, Colorado, Lavaca, Dewitt and Victoria in the south; Medina, Gillespie, Blanco, Kendall, Comal, Guadalupe and Wilson grouped around San Antonio; Duval and Jim Wells in the southwest; Presidio on the border; and Callahan, Archer and Searcy in isolated positions in the north and north central section.

Culberson carried every county in northeast and east Texas; every county in the Panhandle and in Presidio in the West. In Presidio county relatives of ex-Governor Colquitt are large land holders and influential citizens. Kaufman county, however, the former home of Mr. Colquitt went for Culberson by a vote of 1,59 to 1,376.

All other counties were carried by Culberson by good majorities. Even Bexar county was carried by him. The vote was close but the rule held. Some of the peculiarities of the vote are indicated in Duval and Starr counties. Duval went for Colquitt 533 to 5. Starr went for Culberson 203 to 3.

In Franklin the vote was a tie, 348 for each candidate. The smallest vote was in Gaines county, 14 of which ten were for Culberson; on the face of the returns Harris county polled the greatest number of votes, 15,603. Dallas was next with 19,222. Interest in Harris county was stimulated by a local "jinx election."

The tabulation, showing the vote by counties follows:

READ TO DELEGATES

Response Was Testimonial From Fifty of Brotherhood Who Visited Texas Senator.

H. T. Cook of Stamford, district representative for the ironmen on the Wichita Valley, stopped on his return home after being in New York and Washington as a representative of his brotherhood, to read a telegram to a group of delegates who represented the Fort Worth & Denver Ironmen and Mr. Cook at Washington, following their visit to Senator Culberson, asking their impression as to his mental and physical condition. The telegram, sent to all the Texas newspapers signed by the fifty of these members of the Texas delegation of brotherhood representatives was the result of that telegram.

Mr. Cook believes that the publication of this telegram and its circulation among the railroad men of the state called attention of laboring men generally and railroad men particularly to Senator Culberson's excellent labor record and caused activity among them that helped roll up the big majority for the senator.

Mr. Cook said that about eight hundred brotherhood delegates were holding a business session in a Washington theatre when the telegram addressed to J. Y. Fricker of this city and himself was called out. Mr. Fricker walked forward to receive the telegram which, after opening, he handed to the presiding officer, who read it before the delegates. Immediately the reply published in The Times was drafted and the signatures of all the Texas delegates secured, after which it was dispatched to the larger daily newspapers of the state.

He says that no one can deny, nor does anyone, least of all Senator Culberson, that his physical health has been impaired, but none, he says, can say that Senator Culberson's mind is not strong and clear. Mr. Cook was much impressed with President Wilson's sincerity and earnestness. President Wilson, he believes, is one of the greatest men of his time and one of the greatest presidents in American history.

Mr. Cook continued his journey to Stamford Saturday afternoon. He is a brother of R. W. Cook of this city.

WILL COST MORE TO GO HUNTING

Shells Have Increased Fifteen Cents Per Box as Result of the War.

Hunters who want to go out after quail and other game birds this season will find that a single box of fifteen cents more per box than last season. The advance, which is said to be due to the war, brings the cost of the better shells to one dollar per box and of other grades to 90 cents per box. The prices last season were 45 and 65 cents per box.

The prices of practically everything in the way of fire arms and ammunition have been advanced this year, on account of the demand from Europe, where there is an open season on the people, resulting in heavy exports from the United States.

So far, wet weather and muddy roads have prevented local hunters from inaugurating the dove season, although a few nimrods braved the elements yesterday.

EXPORT OF RAILWAY SUPPLIES HAS INCREASED

Washington, Sept. 2.—Railway materials and equipment valued at 75 million dollars were exported from the United States in the last fiscal year, according to figures compiled by the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, department of commerce. The exports of this class have more than doubled since 1914.

Until very recently Canada and Cuba and the foremost foreign markets for our freight cars. Cuba, Canada and Brazil, the largest markets for exported locomotives, and Central America, Japan, Argentina and Mexico the leading markets for our steel rails. At present we are sending unusual quantities of freight cars and other supplies to Russia, chiefly via the Pacific frontier, and important consignments are also going to France and Spain, as well as to our established markets in Cuba, Canada and Central America. The following figures for June exports indicate the present important markets for railway supplies, the total exports of freight cars for the month were valued at $1,512,000, of which $1,085,000 worth went to Russia. Steel rails to the value of $1,730,000 were sold abroad during the month, the exports to France alone amounting to $1,182,000. Of the $721,000 worth of steam locomotives sold abroad, $272,000 worth went to Spain.

HAYS JUDGMENT IS SET ASIDE

Judge Bonner Holds That Verdict of Jury For $30,000 Was Excessive

Motion for a new trial was presented in the 30th district court Saturday in the case of C. Jack Hays vs. C. E. Schaff, receiver, et al. In which the plaintiff was recently awarded judgment for $30,000 damages for personal injuries sustained in an accident in the factory yards.

Judge Bonner ruled that the $30,000 judgment was excessive and announced that unless a remittitur of $3,000 were filed, reducing the judgment to $27,000, he would grant a new trial.

W. F. Weeks, attorney for the defendant, declined to file the remittitur and the case was transferred to the 78th district court.

Hays, who was a switching crew foreman on the Katy, sustained the loss of one leg, and other serious injuries when a switch engine ran over him near the glass factory.

THE POSTMASTER GENERAL'S WORK

Where These Officials Have Come From and National Unions Some Have Accomplished.

The recent meeting of the National Association of Postmasters in the capital city of the nation, the many interesting papers that were read and the general interest shown in the work, calls attention to the remarkable activity displayed in every branch of the postal service since the beginning of Postmaster General Burleson's administration. The press of the country has taken notice of this great development, which is not only a compliment to the present head of the department, but would seem to show that the South can furnish quite as capable and energetic business men as the East, from which section nearly one-half of all the postmasters general have been drawn.

It is a noteworthy fact, however, if not explained, that, excluding the border states, the South, properly speaking, has had but two men in that office since the days of Benjamin Franklin—Joseph Habersham, of Georgia, and Albert Sidney Burleson, of Texas. The more populous States of the East, with their political power and material advantages, have had the greatest number of such appointments. 23 of the 45 men who have held the office have come from that section. The border states have had 15 and the West only 8. It was not until 1856 that the West was at all recognized in the appointment of such cabinet officers, when Alexander W. Rankin of Wisconsin was chosen by President Jackson. Subsequently, that state furnished three more postmasters general, viz., Howe, Vilas and Payne. In 1829 the postmaster general became a member of the cabinet by the action of President Jackson, his first appointee to that position, Hon. William T. Barry of Kentucky, receiving that honor.

TALKS TAXATION AT NATIONAL MEET

Advantage to Be Gained From a Greater Knowledge of Subject is Discussed

By Associated Press. Indianapolis, Sept. 1.—The principal advantage to be gained from a more widespread popular knowledge of taxation is a greater ability to analyze the economic effects of tax measures and this will be lost unless there is the capacity to marshal facts and apply established principles thereto in the advance to sound conclusions. Prof. H. L. Lutz of Oberlin College, told delegates to the conference of the National Tax Association here recently, that the subject was "The Study of Taxation in American Colleges."

"The first thing that students of taxation should learn is that the burden of taxation is a real burden, that every dollar paid in taxes is a real deduction from the available income of the community and that unless every dollar so paid is properly expended, every class in the community, the tax payers and others are distinctly the losers. It is with the merely productive expenditures that we are most concerned, for those that are clearly reproductive may, under proper safeguards, be financed by public loans. But the expenditure that is socially productive in a positive though often vague sense, requires to be scrutinized with exceeding care. The very possibility of ascertaining quantitatively the social gain to be derived contributes to a corresponding haziness in counting the cost. Greater attention to a proper classification of public expenditures becomes therefore of considerable practical importance in developing adequate standards for testing the wisdom of the tax levy.

LABOR PLANS FOR BIG DAY MONDAY

INDICATIONS POINT TO MOST SUCCESSFUL CELEBRATION FEATURING PARADE.

TO AWARD PRIZES

Old Fashioned Picnic Will Be Had at Lake Wichita Following Exercises in City.

With the big railroad strike called off, and all trades generally in fair condition as to work, the celebration of Labor Day here tomorrow will be marked by a grand parade, an event among the members of organized labor. The two big features of the celebration will be the parade in the morning, and the basket picnic which is to take place at Lake Wichita immediately following the parade. All of the labor organizations have signified an intention of joining in the parade, and these will be augmented by platoons of mounted police, the mayor and councilmen, and citizens in automobiles. The parade will start at 10 o'clock and will be led by Taylor's band. Ed Anderson will be grand marshal of the day, and will be assisted by numerous aids so as to keep things moving without a hitch. A number of merchants have also indicated their intention of getting into the parade with decorated floats, and many of the fraternal societies will appear in allegorical representations of their orders.

Monday is Labor Day, our store will be closed. We want to state that our cash raising sale has been the greatest in the history of the business and our friends and customers through their liberal buying have been largely responsible for it. We want to thank them. We will be open Tuesday morning with bargains never before heard of in Wichita Falls. These prices apply to Fall and Winter (of which we have a full line), as well as Summer goods. We must sell them at some price. Come and get them while they are here.

WILLIAMS CASE SET FOR SEPT. 25

Man Charged with Killing T. C. Hollander to Have Hearing This Month.

The case of O. E. Williams, charged with murder in connection with the killing of T. C. Hollander, several weeks ago, has been set for trial Monday, September 25, in the 75th District court, and a special venire of 75 has been ordered for the trial. Practically all of the criminal cases resulting from the recent batch of indictments by the grand jury of the 75th district court have been transferred to the 75th district court, the September term of which opens tomorrow. Most of the cases transferred have been set for trial in the week beginning September 18.

NORTH TEXAS FURNITURE CO. COMPLETING IMPROVEMENTS

Work of remodeling the store of the North Texas Furniture Co. at Tenth and Indiana, is about completed and the firm will be in better shape than ever to entertain its trade by the middle of the week. Two rows of steel beams have been put in through the center of the building, relieving the weight of the second and third stories, which have been sagging ever since the building was constructed. Interior decorations will also add to the beauty of the store.

UNORGANIZED RAILROAD MEN WANT 8-HOUR DAY

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 1.—Representatives of unorganized railway employees have telegraphed Congressman W. C. Adamson at Washington urging that he include in his eight-hour law provisions for an eight-hour day for the unorganized employees also. The telegram stated the unorganized employees are working from nine to eighteen hours daily.

Former County Attorney of McLennan County Will Represent Man Who Killed Patterson

By Associated Press. Waco, Texas, Sept. 2.—Pat M. Neff of Waco, county attorney here, announced this morning that he had been employed to represent T. R. Watson and his sons, J. E. and W. R. Watson, who have been indicted by McLennan county grand jury for the murder of John S. Patterson. In all probability Mr. Neff, who was at one time speaker of the Texas House of Representatives, will become leading counsel for the defense.

Paralysis Has Killed 1922 In New York City

New York, Sept. 2.—More than three-fourths the children who have died of infantile paralysis in New York City in the epidemic which has prevailed for the last three months were less than five years old, according to figures issued today by the department of health. The total number of deaths from this disease for the three months is given as 1922; of these 1459 were of children less than five years old. The figures show that apparently the most susceptible age is between one and two years.

Workmen Return Diamonds Found Worth $35,000.00

By Associated Press. New York, Sept. 2.—Mrs. William H. Thompson, wife of a banker, returning to this city, discovered just before she got on the train Thursday that her hand bag containing $35,000 worth of diamonds had been stolen. She placed in the newspaper advertisements offering a reward for the return of the handbag. Today two workmen found the handbag near a park, found that it contained diamonds and returned it to Mrs. Thompson.

CODE MESSAGES RECEIVED HERE BY EMPLOYEES

MESSAGES CAME LATE SATURDAY NIGHT TO MEMBERS OF BROTHERHOODS RESCINDING ORDER TO STRIKE MONDAY.

EMBARGO IS RAISED

General Freight Officers Announce Earlier in Day That All Classes of Freight Would be Accepted for Shipment.

Code messages conveying word that the strike of railway trainmen set for tomorrow morning, had been called off, were received late Saturday night by Mr. H. Barwise, chairman of the Wichita Valley engineers and by John Y. Prince, district chairman of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen. Advice was also received by local chairmen, and by early today it was expected that official notification of the rescission of the strike order would have reached all the men affected.

While satisfaction was plentifully evident among local railroad men, they were not as jubilant as they would have been had the eight-hour day been gained in a different way. Most of them felt, however, that the main point at issue had been gained, and all of them were heartily pleased that the strike, with its idleness and privation, had been averted.

Earlier in the day, local railroad officials had been officially advised that the freight embargo had been lifted and throughout the day there was a general feeling that there would be no strike. In spite of this, the local members of the brotherhoods continued preparations for the strike, including that all necessary steps in anticipation should be taken until it was absolutely certain that the strike would be called off.

Conferees were issued and everything done to put the strike order into actual force Monday morning. These preparations, as a matter of course, ceased when the rescinding order came Saturday night.

The preparations for the strike by the brotherhood officials, as stated in The Times Friday, included instructions to all brotherhood members to remain entirely away from railroad property and to commit no untoward acts, it having been the plan that disorder whatever should attend the strike.

The message received by Mr. Barwise last night was as follows: "Satisfactory settlement reached. Wheat selling off."

(Signed) Warren S. Stone, Mr. Prince also received a code message, the wording of which had been prepared, and he in turn communicated the news to the chairmen of the various locals in his jurisdiction.

While the railroad employees are pleased and while railroad officials are dissatisfied, with the turn of events, the attitude of the general public seems to be one of satisfaction mingled with perplexity. That general feeling had been called off, unprepared, and he in turn communicated the news to the chairmen of the various locals in his jurisdiction.

Preparations for strike conditions had continued up to the last hour on the part of local merchants. Large supplies of goods for which the city depends upon freight shipments had been obtained in anticipation of a tie-up, and everything possible had been done to minimize the inconvenience and privations which a strike would have entailed.

While a number of Wichitans cut their vacations short in order to get home before the strike began, most of these would have returned early this month anyhow. Many who had planned business trips for next week, and hesitated because of the probability of a strike were planning to go ahead. Travelling men who had faced a period of idleness were planning to resume their schedules tomorrow instead of looking ahead to times of inactivity caused by the strike, which for a time, threatened to make tomorrow the most memorable Labor Day in the nation's history.

The first intimation in railroad circles received locally that the big strike would not be pulled off as scheduled for Monday morning, was a wire lifting all embargoes on the Katy received from J. F. Garvin of Dallas, general freight agent of the M. & N. line, which was received by E. J. Potts, commercial agent for the Katy-Northwestern at this place. This was followed soon after by instructions from J. W. Butz, lifting all embargoes declared in his name, and a wire from Port Worth headquarters cancelling orders given to officials of the Denver and Valley roads.

Members of the brotherhoods were given final instructions regarding the strike at meetings held Friday night. These instructions were especially explicit in forbidding the men to do anything about the company property during the strike, forbidding them to even visit the passenger station or eat at the restaurant at the depot, which was ruled to be company property. Several of the men who owned meal tickets at the depot were warned that they would not be allowed to use them during the strike. The only exceptions made to the rule forbidding the men to go on company property were in favor of the local officials who might have occasion to visit offices of the company for conferences, should such an occasion arise.

U. S. TO BE PUT TO SEVERE TEST

Such is Declaration of Republican Candidate Made Yesterday at St. Louis

By Associated Press. St. Louis, Sept. 2.—Chas. E. Hughes told a non-partisan audience of St. Louis business men what he believed is needed to place American prosperity on a lasting basis and what he proposed in doing so.

"Opening the door of achievement to the lone American enterprise."

The nominee declared that business men were entitled to know what they could do and what they could not do, that a way could be found whereby they could take counsel together to eliminate waste, and work together for the development of legitimate enterprises; that the time had come to make the ideals of the declaration of independence the facts of American life and that American industry could never meet the test of after the war competition unless in every instance "we maintain the supremacy of reason and justice and never surrender principle to force."

"I want to know," he said in speaking of framing the proposed protective tariff, "the condition of the industry affected here and abroad. I want to know the cost of production at home and in Europe as nearly as can be ascertained. I want to know the wage scale and what adjustment is necessary to develop our economic independence. I desire that in every way we should uphold, foster and encourage it."

"The day is coming when the United States will be put to a severe test."

LOSS FROM FIRE HEAVY IN AUGUST

The Total is Reported to be $5,465 With Insurance Amounting to $4,300.

The month of August was the most disastrous month of the year, as regards the fire loss, with the exception of July during which month came the McFall fire. The loss last month amounted to $5,465 with $4,300 insurance. This leaves a margin of about $1,200 for the fire department to work on in order that the insurance loss of the year amount to less than loss of the year amounts to less than and the securing of 15 per cent insurance discount. This is the third year in succession that the loss has been under that total, if the department is able to get through the remaining three months without a disastrous loss.

The department made 14 runs last month with about 10 fires. Nearly all of the fires, however, were in dwelling houses where a fire can gain headway in a very few minutes start. For the season the department has answered 98 alarms, the largest number in the history of the department.

TROOPS ARE BEING MOVED TO CAMPS

General Pershing Reviews Regulars and Inspects Camp Site at Columbus, N. M.

By Associated Press. San Antonio, Texas, Sept. 2.—The First and Second regiments of Kansas infantry, now stationed at Eagle Pass, Texas, will be brought to San Antonio by Major General Funston today. The trip, 175 miles, will be made in motor trucks, several companies of which will be required for the purpose.

The Kansas guardsmen will be used to replace the First and Second regiments of Illinois infantry in the protective division stationed here. Transportation of the troops in motor trucks is proposed in order that a thorough test may be had of the value of the machines for troop carrying in the border country.

The Second regiment of the First Illinois brigade will not get away from here today because of failure of rolling stock to arrive. It is announced at Fort Sam Houston, it was said that the First Missouri infantry was leaving Laredo.

Part of the Louisiana troops in the Brownsville district entrained this morning. Two battalions of the Fourth Maryland infantry passed through here from Eagle Pass about noon, northward bound and the third is expected tonight. All three of the New York regiments recalled will leave the Brownsville section on Monday or Tuesday. The Second regiment, First Illinois brigade, probably will not get away from San Antonio before

At The Churches

First M. E. Church, South.
Every one can see that we are living in strenuous and trying times. We are threatened with a nation wide strike; we are watching the spectacle of a world wide war. Business and politics are disturbed and there is a feeling of distrust and suspicion among the people. What is the trouble? This entire matter will be discussed by the pastor Sunday night from the subject, "The Kind of Men that are Needed for the Times." We begin at 8 o'clock. Sunday school at 9:30. We had present last Sunday morning and are expecting to go over the 400 mark this week. The pastor will also preach at the morning hour, the sermon to be followed by the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. League service at 7 p. m. Prayer meeting on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. We had 60 present last Wednesday night and a most delightful service. The district league will meet with our church Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. The pastor will preach to the young people on Tuesday night. Remember that ours is a church that has a welcome for everybody. No picture Sunday night.

PRESENT TROPHY TO THE BAPTISTS

Plans Are Made for Promoting Cleaner Sports During the Winter Months.

The handsome silver loving cup, the gift of Hultom and Friedly, was presented to the Baptists, champions of the 1916 baseball season in the Sunday school league, at a social meeting of the three teams Friday evening at the First Presbyterian church. The presentation speech was made by the Rev. N. F. Grafton, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, and responses were made by J. Wilkie Talbert for the Baptists.

Short addresses on the subject of clean and manly sportsmanship among the boys of the church were made by Walter S. Robertson, manager of the league and by J. C. Hunt, superintendent of the First Presbyterian Sunday school. The boys also made enthusiastic talks in an informal way. The meeting was concluded by refreshments of ice cream and cake, served by girls of the various Sunday schools.

In order that athletics may be profitable and not a source of disturbance of disturbing the peace and another for affray being passed until Monday morning.

HORNBY IS FIGHTING FOR BATTING HONORS

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 2.—Rogers Hornsby, infielder for the St. Louis Nationals, who is playing his first full season in the majors, is putting up a great fight for batting honors against such well known hitters as Daubert of Brooklyn, Wagner of Pittsburgh, Robertson of New York and many others as well known ability.

Hornsby when batting, stands well away from the plate, in a crouching position, and holds his bat at the extreme end. He has proved to be a tower of strength to his team, not only in batting but in defensive play as well.

He came to St. Louis as a shortstop, but Manager Huggins has used him in every position on the infield.

The only pitcher in the National league, who seems to know his weakness, is Mayer of Philadelphia, who recently caused him to strike out three times in one game.

RECORD IS GIVEN

Groceries Do Not Show a Like Improvement, But Inspectors Have Filed No Complaint

A decided improvement in meat-stalls and cafes and restaurants is the most noticeable feature of the August inspection made by Mrs. T. B. Smock and Dr. J. T. Traylor, local pure food inspectors and assistants, the scores being announced today. The grocery stores seem to be at a standstill according to Mrs. Smock, but a great reason for encouragement is found in the price and interest the cafes and meat markets are taking in improving their places of business and carrying out the suggestions made by the inspectors. Dr. J. T. Traylor scored the meat markets. Mrs. Smock, with a few assistants, making the other inspections. They announce that the Holiday Creamery and the Pure Milk Products Company were not scored owing to the fact that the special score cards for this business had not been received. The inspectors are now using a classified card for each business and by next month every class of business will be covered.

GOMPERS TELLS OF ACHIEVEMENT OF THE PAST YEAR

ISSUES STATEMENT CHARACTERIZING PROGRESS OF THE LABOR MOVEMENT AS A REMARKABLE ONE SINCE LABOR DAY 1915

GREAT CONFIDENCE

He Also Outlines Issues Which He Declares the Workers of the United States Must Face During the Year That is Ahead

Washington, Sept. 2.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, made public tonight a statement on "Labor's Achievements and Issues" for 1916, in which he characterized the past year as a remarkable one in the progress of the labor movement, especially in the shortening of the working day and in general labor legislation. The statement, in full, is as follows:

opportunities that have tested its practical efficiency. Through them the trade union movement has made sure progress and gained confidence for the future.

"Every national and international, every local union affiliated to the American Federation of Labor has made definite progress in securing for its members greater advantages in those things which are fundamental of betterment in all relations of life. In some organizations the success has been phenomenal.

"Taking the labor movement as a whole there has been greater progress in securing the eight-hour day or the shorter work day than in any other similar period of time. The meaning of these victories can be interpreted only in the light of full understanding of the meaning of the eight-hour day. The shorter workday is something more than an economic demand. It is a demand for opportunity for rest, recuperation, and development; things which make life more than mechanical drudgery.

"Shortening the period of work lengthens the period of development and for all the other activities that belong to the normal individual. Increases in wages give the workers the means for taking advantage of the increased opportunities of the shorter workday. The workers of short hours and better wages become very different citizens from those who are so exhausted by the daily grind that they have neither the time nor the energy for thought nor aspiration. These gains mean better homes, better food, better clothing; time and opportunity for the cultivation of the best and the highest that is possible in the life of man.

"Economic achievements are the basis upon which the workers can secure social and political progress. The power which secures these achievements is the power that will secure justice for them in every other relation, shorter hours and higher wages give the opportunity and the means to live better and more purposeful lives.

"Power through economic organization means political power. There must be an economic basis in order to fire political activity, reasons for existence and a program. By organizing its economic power to secure political protection and by adhering strictly to a non-partisan political program, the American Federation of Labor has won glorious legislative victories.

"The object of legislation which organized labor has sought to obtain is always to establish larger and better opportunities for life and freedom. Organized labor does not seek through legislation to do things for the workers that they can do for themselves. It only seeks to establish for them opportunities. This principle applies to workers in private industry. In the case of workers in governmental employment where the government is the employer and conditions of employment can be fixed only by legislation, then the organized labor movement seeks to do something more than merely establish opportunity. It must secure legislation regulating conditions of employment.

"The record of the legislative achievements of the labor movement since 1906 when the non-partisan political party was inaugurated is one of splendid victories. The two most important are the Seaman's Act and the labor sections of the Clayton and Trust laws. The greatest thing in both of these acts is the advancement of human freedom.

"The problem of human freedom was not ended by the work of Lincoln. There still remained a class bound to involuntary servitude, the seaman. The Seaman's Act brings freedom to these workers. It makes American soil as free to freedom, a country upon which a bondman may not step without losing his legal fetters. Freed and given an opportunity to protect themselves, the seamen are presenting their demands for higher wages and better conditions. Section 6 of the Clayton Anti-Trust Act contains the most advanced concept of freedom. The labor of a human being is not a commodity or article of commerce.

"According to old time philosophy, political economy, and legal thought, labor power was a commodity, an article of commerce in no way different from coal, potatoes, and iron. Under this concept the most recent attempts have been made to hold workers in oppression and under the domination of employers, but the power to produce commodities is something different from the commodities themselves. It is personal, human, a part of life itself. Under the concept that labor was a commodity, and therefore property, employers have tried to repress efforts of workers for progress and for larger liberty by punishing these efforts under the anti-trust legislation and by attempting to restrain them through the injunctive process. It was to protect the workers against these abuses and to establish recognition of the concept that the workers and all of their attributes were human, that the labor sections of the Clayton Act were enacted. In addition to these big achievements many other important humanitarian laws have been enacted by Congress, increasing in number with every session of congress since 1915 comes in one of the most critical political campaigns since the Civil War period. It is well to call attention to the big issue of the campaign which has a national as well as an international relation. The issue is the attitude of the political parties toward questions of humanity and human welfare. The party now in power has by its legislative achievements placed the highest valuation upon human life and human attributes that has ever been declared and enacted by any political party in power.

"The question that concerns the workers is how to hold their present advantages and how to secure from political parties still greater opportunities for freedom, the thing which is fundamental in Section 6 of the Clayton Anti-Trust Act, the labor of a human being is not a commodity or article of commerce. The party now in power has by its legislative achievements placed the highest valuation upon human life and human attributes that has ever been declared and enacted by any political party in power.

problems and to establish their own ideals of political, social and economic justice. The labor movement in Mexico has developed; that in, the most poverty and the most backward product of the revolution. Represents lives of the labor movement in Mexico have joined the representatives of the labor movement of America to insure to the workers and citizens of Mexico the rights of human beings, opportunities for freedom and for independence. Many of the problems of the Mexican workers are problems of the workers of the United States. Their welfare is our welfare. The boundary line between the two countries is only an artificial division that has little or no effect upon upon the course and the nature of industrial and commercial development.

"The problem of industrial welfare in the states of the southwest is largely a Mexican problem. With low standards of life and work prevailing upon the 35,000,000 Mexicans, there exists an obstacle to the establishment of higher standards within the United States. There are capitalists and exploiting interests of the United States who, because they have property in Mexico (often corruptly and dishonestly obtained) desire to maintain governmental agencies by which they can hold the people in subjection and deny to them the opportunity for protecting themselves through the organized labor movement and other opportunities for growth and development. These selfish exploiting interests are concentrating their political power in the hands of the government and are carrying on the part of our government toward Mexico. Even under the guise of intervention, no matter how unnecessary and unwarrantable, the aim of the conquest and annexation of Mexico, a few of the most reckless, such as the Oils and Heast interests, come out brazenly in the demand for intervention, invasion, conquest and annexation of Mexico. Of course, every effort must be made to safeguard the lives and the property of our people living along the border line but who can honestly say that the Mexican marauders were the only offenders. The allied forces of greed and profit would like the Mexican people the opportunity for their development; they would gladly embroil the United States in an unnecessary and unwarrantable war with Mexico. To them property, property rights are held far more sacred than human beings, international honor and human liberty.

IT'S SEVEN YEARS OLD

But Mrs. Swope Says It's Just as Good Today as When it Was First Made

Over seven years ago Mrs. Swope testified to relief from kidney ailments. Later she said that the benefit had lasted. Wichita Falls sufferers will take a deal of comfort in Mrs. Swope's statement. Read what she says: Mrs. G. A. Swope, 612 Burnett St., Wichita Falls, says: "I suffered terribly, at times from my kidneys. The kidney secretions were unnatural and I suffered constantly from weakness across my back. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills from the Wichita Drug House and quickly brought relief." (Statement given June 16, 1908).

On April 3, 1915 Mrs. Swope said: "I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills on several occasions and I am justified in doing so, as they cured me of kidney complaint." Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy, but get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Swope has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

"AMERICA FIRST" CAMPAIGN IS ON

Effort to Be Made to Increase Attendance of Immigrants in Night Schools.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 2.—On September first the United States Bureau of Education, in the department of the interior, began its nation-wide campaign to induce 3,000,000 non-English-speaking immigrants to attend night school and learn the language of America. The commissioner of education has designated men dealing with the problems of immigrants from every angle to serve on a national committee of one hundred to further the purposes of the campaign. This action is the result of resolutions adopted by Americanization conferences held during the recent meetings of the National Education Association in Detroit and in New York, at which times it was also agreed that the removal of the inability of the foreign-born residents to speak English could be hastened by concerted effort and cooperation of all interested agencies and individuals working intently in a nation-wide basis prior to the opening of evening schools in October.

Letters of appointment have been sent to representative industrial leaders, educators, law and immigration officials, state officials, editors, officers of patriotic, civic and racial organizations and public spirited citizens in every section of the United States. The function of the committee will be to cooperate with the bureau in enlisting the active interest of school superintendents, chambers of commerce, commercial organizations, industrial establishments, labor unions, and private organizations.

For the purpose of enlisting native and foreign-born American citizens to carry out the campaign, a national enrollment blank headed "Sign this enrollment blank" will be used. Thousands of it will be disseminated in states and cities where immigrants reside. Through the active assistance secured in this manner the bureau expects to be able to reach thousands of immigrants which it could reach in no other way. Cooperating sub-committees will be appointed in the principal immigrant communities.

Jim Holder has been placed in the county jail. He made a statement to County Attorney M. T. Lively. Mr. Lively declined to make this statement public.

Saturday night J. C. Holder surrendered to Constable J. C. Lowery. He and Hubert Jenkins were brothers-in-law. A pistol was given the officers. This pistol was not blood stained. County Attorney M. T. Lively said this morning that he had been advised that the dead man's head was badly beaten, apparently with the butt of a revolver. Mrs. J. J. Hoops, whose dead body was found July 21 in a corralled three miles south of Lancaster, was a sister of Mr. Jenkins. The affidavit against Jim Holder charged murder of T. H. Jenkins.

ACTIVITY IN ARCHER FIELD

MANY LOCATIONS BEING MADE IN VICINITY OF TEST WELL ON WILSON RANCH.

NAME IS CHANGED

Panther Oil Company Succeeds Art Oil Company and New Directors Are Elected.

The directors of the Art Oil company held a meeting yesterday afternoon, at which it was decided to change the name of the company, and application will accordingly be made to the secretary of state. Frank Kell and I. Markovitz, were elected directors of the company in the place of those who had resigned. The change of recent changes in the ownership of stock.

The company will hereafter be known as the Panther Oil company, the name having been taken from that of a creek on the Wilson ranch near where the well was drilled.

Interest in this well is still the leading topic of the oil men in Wichita Falls and vicinity. The well was put to pumping last week and while the second day showing was not of a very encouraging nature to some, yet no one can tell just what kind of a well it is. There is 36 feet of casing in the bottom of the hole and the water that has stood on the sand for the last three weeks is enough to keep judging from the showing the well made while being bailed and the first day on the pump, it certainly looks like a well. It is understood that the company will put in a small string of tools and clean the well out and then put it to pumping, and possibly drill it deeper, if the sand does not change.

In case the well is a failure, it does not necessarily condemn any more ground than the well is on, but to the contrary it gives the place the semblance of being very good territory to prospect in.

Oil men have faith in the outlook of Archer county as an oil field and a number of new wells are to be started very soon. The Developer's Oil and Gas company, a very successful concern, has made a location for a test on their 235 acre tract of the Wilson ranch, in Block 28. This well should be drilling next week. W. W. Silk and associates have blocked up some acreage southwest of the discovery well and will likely begin operations in the near future. The Gulf Production company have made a location for a test well on their 400-acre tract, the B. W. Owens tract, the Wilson Oil company, composed of local parties, capitalized at $16,000 have made a location for a test well in the north-east corner of lot 14, block 25. F. P. Sinclair, et al, has taken a lease on some of the W. F. Parrish lands, south of the Art well and it is said will drill a test well soon. The Art Oil company, as they start well No. 2, now that the company is reorganized, as soon as they get their charter from Austin. W. E. Norton, et al, have taken a lease of the Schibmecht farm south of Holliday and are to begin drilling in sixty days.

R. O. Harvey has leased block 69, 71 and 72 in S. P. R. survey No. 2. Producers Oil company have a lease on the A. E. Davis, west of Holliday. McCallister, et al, have leased the E. Hoff place near the town of Holliday. C. Hendrick, et al, has taken a lease on 1100 acres of the J. H. White tract, east of the Art well. Some of the talent had long eyes on this acreage, but "Bull" beat them to it. The Gulf Production company also have secured acreage on the White tract. A great many have faith in the east line, as the geological dope is to the effect that the rich pay will run east.

E. P. Bass jumped into the rush early and took a lease on the S. V. Jones 160 acres and 320 acres of the Ratty N. B. Chennett, and up to 200 acres of the Stanley Humphries tract, just north of the Art well. There are a number of outside investors who would like to see some acreage and probably drill some wells, but they do not care to pay the prices being asked, as one gentleman from Oklahoma said, he was not compelled to invest in Texas, and if the land owner thought so he was making a great mistake. He said he believed if he drilled a well and got a paying well, that the royalty the land owner was to receive would be greater than any bonus he could possibly get.

R. L. Taylor and associates are quite active in Archer county and are investing some in leases, and are content to wait future developments before making any further investments. Mr. Taylor was in the employ of the Producers Oil company up to August 1st, last, when he resigned to go into the business for himself. Mr. Taylor is one of the best oil men in North Texas.

The Burkhardt and Electra fields have been practically at a standstill on account of the shortage of water. Drilling operations are being curtailed in both districts and the production is declining materially. McCallister, Bean & Norton, No. 3 (Baum) got a gas sand in their test at 1700 feet which was quite strong but was into water the well is being drilled deeper. They expect to reach the oil bearing strata at about 1830 feet, early next week.

FREDERICK TO HAVE A WOODMAN PICNIC

Tillman county Woodmen of the World will hold a log roll and picnic in Frederick September 9, which promises to be the largest affair of the kind ever held in the county. An attractive program for the event has been arranged and is announced in an advertisement in this week's Leader. The program includes music by the Frederick Commercial band, addresses by Senator Thomas P. Gore and Congressman "Jim" McChittie, numerous contests and the awarding of a large number of prizes. A class initiation will be held at the W. O. W. hall and at the Woodmen Circle hall in the evening.

Everybody is invited to attend. Camps and groves are expected to bring their banners and degree teams will wear their uniforms. All visiting members will be provided with badges, furnished by The Frederick Leader, when they register at the W. O. W. hall. These badges will contain places for the wearers' names and addresses and will make introductions among the visitors unnecessary. Frederick Leader.

NOT TO APPLY FOR PERMITS

DAIRYMEN'S ASSOCIATION VOTES TO IGNORE REQUIREMENT OF CITY FOR LICENSE.

TEST IS DISCUSSED

Association Agrees to Stand by Any Member That May Be Arrested by the City.

After a spirited and at some stages rather stormy debate lasting the better part of two hours the Dairymen's Association voted unanimously that they would not apply for permits to sell milk under the new milk ordinance, and it was further understood that if any of the members were arrested for selling the milk without a license, in the event of the body would come to their support. As they understand their position on the question, they will not be starting a fight if they are arrested and require the city to take steps toward the enforcement of the ordinance, but the city, by being forced to take the initiative, will be in the attitude of starting the fight, should there be one.

At first the sentiment of the dairymen seemed to be divided, with some agreeing to comply with the ordinance and some against, but as the debate wore on, with G. W. Clark and M. M. Whitaker advocating the non-compliance, the rest of the dairymen gradually came over to the side of the action was taken, only two voted against it, and it is understood that they will abide by the decision of the rest of the members.

Dr. Tyson, the president of the association, made an extended talk on the tubercular test, in which he stated that when the test was given the injection was made by the inspector with the same instrument on each cow without disinfection after each injection, which in his opinion subjected every cow to exposure to the tubercular germs in case one of the cows of the herd was affected. He also stated that no protection was given to the wound made by the injection, but it was left exposed to what germs there might be flying around. Dr. Tyson also dwelt at some length on the importance of pure milk. Several of the speakers who followed him also remarked on the importance they attached to pure milk.

The attitude the dairymen seem to have adopted is that they are willing to abide by all state laws covering the milk proposition, but they are not willing to go further and comply with the provisions of the milk ordinance.

Although speaking to a disadvantage, G. W. Clark managed to say that he knew "one of the sharpest lawyers in this town who is just itching to get hold of this job, and who says that they can not do all the things that they call for in this charter."

Although the opposition to paying the fees for tubercular inspection was still manifested by most of the dairymen, the chief objection continues to lie in the fact that many of them say they will have to rebuild their barns to comply with the provisions of the ordinance, and that they can not afford to do so to that extent, while others say that they are renters and can not have any improvements made at all.

REFINERY MAKING IMPROVEMENTS

Iowa Park Institution to Increase Capacity of Plant Early This Fall.

The Wichita Valley Refinery Company is contemplating making many new improvements this fall, and within a few weeks they will erect a large brick barrel house, 36x72 feet, close to the railroad tracks. The old wooden building will then be torn down, and with its destruction all the buildings will be fire proof. In addition to this new work, a large new barrel acetester has been ordered and is expected to arrive at any time. They also expect to build a new brick receiving house a little later.

The capacity of the plant is now 1000 barrels a day, and they are running both a day and night shift, working every day and night in the week. The business is increasing rapidly, and they are receiving orders from all over the state. They are giving employment to about twenty people, and the force will increase and the plant enlarge as the business grows.

The refinery is a great help to Iowa Park and many people are benefitted by it in a financial way.

Kill Big Rattlesnake

On arriving home from church Monday night, Mrs. Dale Brown, heard something after her chickens, and on investigation, found what she thought to be a chicken snake, devouring her little chickens. She immediately killed it, and then discovered it was a big diamond rattler.

The rattler measured four feet in length and two and one half inches in diameter and had 7 rattlers. Mrs. Brown stated that it was much larger than the rattlers usually found around here.

Knocked Down by Car

As Rev. Eugene Lowrance was going to the Christian meeting Sunday evening, Fred Scott was driving in Mrs. W. T. Phillip's car from the garage to the front of the house and hit Mr. Lowrance, knocking him down and both the left front and back wheels passing over his body. He was able to attend the services, and with the exception of a strained shoulder and a few bruises and scratches says he has no serious injuries. He is attached to Mr. Scott as he was inexperienced with a car.

$800.00 Off of 15 Acres

R. M. Hall, the alfalfa farmer living one and one half miles west of Iowa Park, says he will make better than $800.00 off of the 15 acres he has in alfalfa. Mr. Hall also said that had it rained at the proper time he would have cut several more tons of the feed. In several places the alfalfa has died out on account of the long drought but he expects to sow several more bushels of the seed and try again next year, as he knows there is more money in raising alfalfa than wheat.

INITIATORY DEGREE BY I. O. O. F. MONDAY NIGHT
The initiatory degree will be conferred on a candidate at the I. O. O. F. hall Monday night at the regular meeting of the Odd Fellows. It is the intention of the active members to put the local lodge on a better basis at 8 o'clock.

Maxwell

$595 Maxwell motor cars have demountable rims and the same size tires on both front and rear wheels.

F. O. B. DETROIT

REMEMBER these important features, because they are not to be found on some of the lighter cars. Maxwell cars have 3 1/2 in. tires all around. This is a generous size. The tires are not overtaxed. They last longer and make riding easier. Tires of one size mean that you have to carry only one size casing and one size tube. Demountable rims, of course, are recognized as the best. They are on all good cars. Don't buy any car without demountable rims. If you do, you'll regret it. These two features—along with the other complete and up-to-date equipment; the economy and proved endurance of the Maxwell, make it the greatest automobile value in the world today.

DIRECTORS PLANNING FOR AUTO. PARADES

The directors of the new automobile club are in session at the Chamber of Commerce this afternoon for the purpose of taking steps toward the active campaign for members.
This campaign was to have been started during the past week, but on account of a delay in getting the printed forms for enrolling the new members the campaign did not get underway. However despite this handicap quite a number have already been secured but it is expected that the work of securing members will be in full blast next week and the end of the week it is hoped by the directors will see them well on the way to their goal, 2,000 members.

Among other things to be taken up at this afternoon's meeting will be the question of automobilists participation in the Labor Day parade and the automobile parade that is to take place on the opening day of the style show, September 13. In connection with the Labor Day parade C.
D. Willard, chairman of the arrangements committee of the parade, will meet with the directors and for the parade during the style show the parade committee of the show will meet the directors of the automobile club.

"THE NE'ER DO WELL"
AT WICHITA THEATRE

With the matinee tomorrow afternoon at 2:15, the Wichita Theatre will begin its season of high class attractions and if the seat sale for "The Ne'er Do Well" can be taken as a criterion the theatre will be sold out for both performances.

Dressed in a new coat of white,
the lobby and floor is live with brilliancy, a touched up auditorium lends a natty color of newness, while the new fold fire screens and two Powers projecting machines will add to the interest of the coming presentations.

The stage of the Wichita Theatre has been adapted to the offering of high class vaudeville bills, also feature motion picture plays. A host of accessories have been placed throughout the playhouse, and when time to open the theatre rolls round the public will be given a glimpse of what is really best in modern theatrics.

Manager Sol Dan has surrounded himself with a corps of expert assistants who understand high class productions, and with the attractions already booked it is needless to remark that the Wichita Theatre this season will be the meeting place of those who delight in amusements of the better class.

The first performance of this "Ne'er
Do Well" will take place tomorrow (Labor Day) at 2:15. The night show will begin at 8:15. Seats can be reserved at the theatre box office or by phone 1683.

MAJESTIC FEATURE TUESDAY
FULL OF FASHIONS

"The Alibi" the five part Vitagraph Blue Ribbon feature to be shown at the Majestic Theatre Tuesday presents a number of Parisian creations, it presents them in an attractive manner, too, for dainty Betty Howe is the fortunate player who wears them.
Every possible sort of garment is shown from the negligee to the evening dress and from the evening dress to the walking suit. One negligee is fashioned with long lines and deep winged sleeves. The material is a pale flesh color chiffon and it is trimmed with silver beads which catch the large shawl collar and form a most attractive loop. The under dress to this creation is of old rose chiffon.
The waist is made with a large black tulle shawl collar and the skirt about the somewhat raised waistline is also black but is brocaded with large pink flowers. The skirt is fashioned with a number of small tucks and the underskirt, which shows through here and there, is a dusky shade of black.
A number of scenes find Miss Howe garbed in a trim walking suit. This is made from dark blue gabardine and is Norfolk style. The belt does not meet in the front, however, but stops a little past the hips. The skirt is made with a wide corded yoke. With this suit, Miss Howe wore a beautiful blue fox scarf and a fetching white satin turban. This hat is trimmed with flowers of the same material encircling the crown. The shoes were dark blue kid, cut in the latest vogue.

NEW SECRETARY ALREADY ACTIVE

RESULTS OF HIS EFFORTS, EVEN BEFORE ARRIVAL IN CITY, ARE BEING MANIFEST.

WELLRECOMMENDED

Chamber of Commerce Has Received Splendid Reports of His Work in Other Cities.

It would be perhaps an anachronism to say that H. F. Johnson, the new secretary of the chamber of commerce, is already on the job for he has been on the job practically since his election, keeping in close touch with the affairs through a regular correspondence with John Wickham, assistant secretary, and other officers of the organization. And the results of his work are already beginning to show, for it is partly due to his efforts that the city now practically assured of a large cotton mill. It might not be out of place to mention at this time that Mr. Johnson believes in activities, and the fact that he generally is testified to by a prominent business man of Gainesville who said that "Gainesville had secured more factories, schools and similar enterprises through Mr. Johnson's efforts in the past two years than they had secured in the preceding fifteen. The cotton mill which will be a large enterprise with a capital of probably more than $200,000, will be largely a local enterprise, with the most of the capital stock held by Wichitans. From the present outlook most of the stock will be easily placed and it will be up to the citizens of John Wickham, to take the remainder. "It doesn't take a close study of the city to show the need of a cotton mill," says Mr. Johnson. "Here we are in a big cotton growing section with no cotton mills anywhere near. A cotton mill will afford employment to a large number of women and girls who have now no market for their work."

The new secretary is not a stranger here by any means, having known a number of the leading citizens for some time, and having kept up with the progress of the city through his acquaintance. "However, the first thing I intend to do is to get acquainted with the facts about Wichita Falls. I expect that I shall be the eternal question mark about here for the next month, and all with whom I come in contact," may be expected to be showered with questions about the city and its enterprises."

Since his arrival in the city, yesterday Mr. Johnson has been meeting many of the members of the chamber of commerce, who have been previously known. He will have an early opportunity of getting more closely acquainted with the directors of the chamber of commerce, and with those with whom he will be most closely associated with in his work, at the regular weekly meeting, Tuesday afternoon, at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Johnson has already run across indisputable proof of the growth of Wichita Falls in his trouble in getting the chamber of commerce to agree that it is most impossible to secure one, which is a never failing sign of rapid growth. For the present Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, who are the parents of two daughters, are located at Mrs. Colons at 1100 Indiana.

The first impression that one gets on coming into contact with the new secretary is that of a man who is a business man. On looking more closely one will see a clean cut young business man, of average size and height, with a friendly smile. He is a native Texan, and a better still, a West Texan, being a son of Pecca. After finishing his education at the University of Texas, he returned to Pecca and entered the newspaper business, for several years editing and publishing the Pecca "Times."

After leaving the newspaper business, he worked with the McKinney chamber of commerce, leaving there to work with the late Henry Eckel, former president of the Texas Industrial Congress. His training there has proved invaluable to him in his later work on account of the wide information acquired by the position of secretary, and the people there thought speedily to let him go, and that more than was good there is testified to by the following editorial comment on his coming to Wichita Falls by the Gainesville Signal, which said in part: "He is untiring in his efforts and always busy for the welfare of his town and community. He has large ideas and has a way of crystallizing them into realities. He has more than made good in Gainesville and if he gets the support of Wichita Falls he will prosper as it has never prospered before."

Three years ago he was elected to the secretaryship of the Gainesville chamber of commerce and in the people there thought speedily to let him go, and that more than was good there is testified to by the following editorial comment on his coming to Wichita Falls by the Gainesville Signal, which said in part: "He is untiring in his efforts and always busy for the welfare of his town and community. He has large ideas and has a way of crystallizing them into realities. He has more than made good in Gainesville and if he gets the support of Wichita Falls he will prosper as it has never prospered before."

Wichita Falls Recruiting Offices Make Splendid Showing For Month of August

Congratulations on the fact that his station led all the other substations in the Dallas district in the number of recruits received into the navy has been received by Gunnars Mate Becker, officer in charge of the local naval recruiting station from Lieut. D. E. Kemp, officer in charge of the district. The district in addition to this place is composed of stations at Dallas, Oklahoma City, Fort Worth, Muskogee, Abilene, Fort Smith, Texasburg, Denison, Waco and Tyler.

The record of 126 recruits secured during the month of August establishes another record for the Dallas district. Wichita Falls stands third in the list for the month, being topped by Dallas and Oklahoma City only.

The six recruits secured at the local station last week are: Chas. G. Carrington, Wichita Falls; P. O. McCrory, Mangum; Donald Howard, Mangum; all apprentice seamen and John O. Dunn, Granger, seaman.

Six recruits were also secured by the local army station last week as follows: Andrews, McCoy, Avinger, Edward Flynn, New York City; M. Carroll, Clarendon; Henry Budrow, Dallas; William E. Waite, Happy, Tex.; all assigned to the coast artillery and Houston Gunter, Derol, cavalry.

PARAMOUNT FEATURE AT EMPRESS MONDAY

"The Evil Thereof," a powerful photoplay with a great moral lesson, written by Channing Pollock and Kenneth Wallis, is featured in the leading role, with Grace Valentine, Crauford Kent and others of equal prominence in important parts.

The scene opens with a gay party presided over by a wealthy broker—the role assumed by Mr. Losee. As favors the women each receive one hundred dollar bills, which are accepted with a nonchalance that tells plainly in

CAMPAIGN OF AUTO CLUB IS ON

TERRITORY ASSIGNED AND ACTIVE WORK IS TO BEGIN TO SECURE 2000 MEMBERS.

PROSPECT IS BRIGHT

Committee is Receiving Much Encouragement and Hopes to Interest All Good Roads Advocates.

The downtown district was divided into districts and those of the membership committee of the automobile club divided into pairs as a preliminary step toward the campaign for new members by that organization at a meeting of the membership committee at the office of J. L. Jackson Saturday morning. All the members of the committee were armed with pads containing membership blanks and were set to work at the meeting. Although some of the members of the committee were not able to devote much of their time to the work on Saturday it was not expected that they would secure many members, but it was thought that their work would get others warmed up for the campaign next week. The names of the new members secured will be published daily next week.

It is thought that the competitive element introduced into the campaign by dividing the workers into pairs, will make it a warm campaign from the go. The ultimate aim of the members of the club, they announced last week it was decided not to make membership in the club dependant on the ownership of an automobile, for as one of the members remarked, all who are not now owners are prospective owners, and most of the subjects that the club will be interested in and work for are subjects that would be of interest to any progressive citizen.

J. S. Bridwell, chairman of the membership committee and P. H. Pennington were assigned the block that the Kemp and Kell building is situated in for their section in the membership campaign. The north side of Ohio avenue, between Sixth and Tenth streets was given to Lloyd Weaver and Jack Shelton. The block in which the First National Bank building stands will be worked by Morris Marcus and John Thomas. The block which includes the National Bank of Commerce building will be the territory of J. L. Jackson and Stanley Field. At a previous meeting of the committee held at the Chamber of Commerce rooms Friday afternoon it was decided to issue a booklet which will give of interest to the motorists of the county containing, as it will, the names and numbers of each car owner of Wichita county, a map of the roads in the vicinity, state and city traffic regulations and other data of interest to the motorist. This book will be sold for 25 cents to cover the expense of publication. The data contained in the booklet will be compiled by a committee composed of Stanley Field, D. E. Talley and Lloyd Weaver. C. D. Willard, chairman of the arrangements committee of the Trades and Labor Council for the Labor Day celebration invited the new organization to participate in the Labor Day parade and there is a strong probability that a section from the automobile club will be organized for participation in this event.
