SITUATION HAS IMPROVED SOME FOR ROUMANIANS

GERMAN ARMIES ON BOTH WESTERN AND SOUTHWESTERN BORDERS PARTIALLY CHECKED, ACCORDING TO CLAIMS

SERBIANS ADVANCE

French Maintain Recent Gains at Verdun While Rumanians Reported to Have Blown Up the Tchernavoda Bridge

The Associated Press summarizes European war operations as follows: The situation of the defeated Russo-Rumanian army in Dobruja appears slightly less critical in the light of the official report from Petrograd, which describes the pressure of Field Marshal Von Mackensen's armies as somewhat weakened. Unofficial despatches from Berlin report that the entire force were split into two parts with the fall of Tchernavoda some of the troops escaping over the great bridge across the Danube while the others fled northward in Dobruja.

Apparently, the sections remaining in the Black Sea province have usually been able to make something of a stand against the onrush of the Bulgarians, Germans and Turks north of the Constanza-Tchernavoda line. Von Mackensen's guns are now said to be dominating the bridge.

As a whole the situation for Rumania is considered by military commentators in Berlin as increasingly precarious in connection with the operations in Dobruja and the Austro-German successes in the mountain passes on the north. Petrograd, however, asserts that the Teutonic pressure also has been arrested in the Transylvanian border regions. Farther north in the Carpathians near Kapul mountain the Russians report the repulse of a Teutonic attack.

On the western front the Germans are reported by Paris to have ceased their counter attacks at Verdun, following the French success in Tuesday's drive which resulted in the recapture of Fort Duhamont and the advance of the French lines along a wide front in this sector. The new French positions which are declared to have been held intact, are still under German artillery fire, however. French military writers declare that the position of Fort Vaux is such that its capture by the French is momentarily expected.

In Macedonia, new entente advances are surrounded. French cavalry has occupied the village of Golubrad and Laska in the vicinity of the Greek-Albanian border, while the Serbians have driven the Bulgarians and Germans further back in the region of the Cerma river southeast of Monastir, according to Paris.

The British report carrying out successful naval aeroplane attacks on the railway stations at Saloniki and on the Constantinople-Saloniki railway.

Bucharest's account of the fighting along the Transylvanian border reveals the capture by the Rumanians of Mount Kerekharas, south of Biaz. In this region some 25 miles south-east of the junction of the frontier of Bukovina, Transylvania and Rumania, the Russians apparently have again advanced several miles into Transylvanian territory. They also have held their ground in the Otuz valley, Bucharest declares.

Berlin reports further gains for the Austro-German forces on the northern Rumanian front. Marshal Von Mackensen is making progress with his campaign in Dobruja. The Rumanians have blown up the Tchernavoda bridge, Berlin reports.

PAYROLL FUNDS RECOVERED AT ST. LOUIS TODAY

St. Louis, Oct. 26.—Detectives here today recovered $15,000 of the payroll funds of the Burroughs Adding Machine Company in Detroit August 4.

The detectives recovered the money by opening two safety deposit boxes at the Mercantile Trust Company. These boxes were rented three days after the robbery by a man who gave the name of James Lane. The keys to the boxes were received today from Dallas where James Walton of St. Louis was arrested last Saturday. In his confession Walton said the money was in the safety deposit vault.

The trust company turned over the money to Leigh Turner, representative of a company that had insured the payroll of the Burroughs Adding Machine Company.

PAST HISTORY OF MAIL SEIZURE BLACK ATTACKED BY GERMANS IS NOW REPORTED

DEFENSE IN GALVESTON TRIAL TRIES TO SHOW VICTIM NEVER WAS PRIEST

HEAR FROM FATHER

Says He Knew Nothing of His Son's Having Been Educated for Holy Orders

Galveston, Tex., Oct. 26.—The defense in the trial of John Copeland indicted in connection with the killing of William Black, anti-Catholic lecturer, today delved into the past life of Black, with the intention of establishing by testimony that he had no personal knowledge of the lecturer, today delved into the past life of Black, with the intention of establishing by testimony that he had no personal knowledge of the lecturer.

After the court had admitted as evidence for the defense the judgment of the district court of Harrison county, awarded Harry A. Minn in connection with the killing of Black, Copeland's attorney succeeded in introducing over the state's objection a deposition of John B. Black of Washington county, Ohio.

Black said that he was William Black's father and it developed during the reading of the deposition that he had no personal knowledge of the lecturer, having been educated and ordained for the Catholic priesthood. The defense next summoned Rev. James M. Keenan, vicar general of the Catholic diocese of Galveston and head of St. Mary's Seminary for Boys at Laredo, Texas. A former student sought to question him as to the requirements of priesthood, but the state objected. Judge Briggs sustained the objection but said the liberty of the defense to introduce the evidence at a later time is not prejudiced.

Court recessed for lunch just after M. J. Wiseman, a Marshall resident, had testified that he had known Copeland all his life and his reputation for peace and order was good. He said he was of Hebrew faith and not a Catholic.

WATSON TRIAL AGAIN STARTED WHEN HOSPITAL BUILDING BURNS

NEW MOTION FOR CHANGE OF VENUE IS OVERRULED TODAY

CONTINUANCE ASKED

Motion Presented This Afternoon is Charged With Killing Bank Examiner

By Associated Press. Waco, Oct. 26.—The trial of John S. Watson, charged with the murder of former State Banking Commissioner John S. Patterson, T. B. Watson, president of the Farmers and Merchants State Bank at Tanager, was started on trial with his two sons here today.

Very little progress was made in the case this morning. Much time was consumed in consideration of a motion for a change of venue on the ground that prejudice was great against the defendant in McLennan county to permit him to receive a fair trial and that a dangerous contamination of influential citizens had been formed against him in this county.

The prosecution filed a countervailing affidavit denying the assertions for the change of venue and Judge Munroe overruled the motion. Court recessed at noon with the trial to be resumed at 2:30 p. m. which will be the first day of the trial.

The killing took place in the Watson bank last August and was said to have followed a dispute between the president and the bank examiner in regard to the notes of a certain firm. The charges were filed in Waco where Patterson died shortly after being wounded and trial was started early in September. The first attack of the defense was for a change of venue. It was alleged that Watson could not get a fair and impartial trial in McLennan county. Alleged activity of Governor James E. Ferguson against the defendant was one of the reasons cited.

District Judge Munroe finally declined against the change of venue, which was promptly followed by the defense with motions to quash the special venire of 150 prospective jurors summoned for the case. It was charged the venire was not drawn according to law. Judge Munroe denied the application and reset the trial for today with a new venire of 150 summoned.

It was expected that the selection of a jury would require several days following which introduction of testimony and hearing some time was to start. Prominent legal talent has been retained by the defense as well as additional counsel being used by the state in prosecuting the case.

Forster is accused of having sold the letters through an agent to Barrett.

VILLA'S ACTIVITY BARS THOUGHT OF TROOPS' REMOVAL

WASHINGTON OFFICIALS FEAR BANDIT MAY GET CONTROL OF MOST OF NORTHWESTERN MEXICO IF NOT CHECKED

DENIAL BY TREVINO

Says He Is Not Short of Ammunition and Has No Intention of Abandoning Chihuahua City, Now Threatened by Villa Forces

By Associated Press. Washington, Oct. 26.—Villa's activity near Chihuahua had not stopped today of continuing attacks here that no thought should be given soon to removal of guardmen from border patrol duty or withdrawal of General Pershing's cavalry forces. General Trevino was said to have stated that if Villa should succeed in his apparent movement to capture Chihuahua City, he might find it easy to get control later of nearly all northern Mexico. The entire Mexican situation was regarded as more serious than for months.

Conditions at Chihuahua were the subject of greatly conflicting reports, Mexican ambassador Arredondo received from Consul Garcia at El Paso a denial Gen. Trevino, Carranza's commander at Chihuahua, that he was short of ammunition or intended to evacuate the city. Carranza's losses at Santa Ysabel had been slight, he said, and some troops had arrived reinforcements to the garrison.

War department reports, however, were that Villa was encamped five miles from Chihuahua with a considerable force, after having defeated Carranza troops severely and that General Trevino was planning to abandon the town.

Official reports received here showing that numbers of Carranza, Obregon, Trevino, Huerta and Madero families are now living in San Antonio have puzzled observers seeking an explanation of the gathering in the United States of non-combatant Mexicans. The reports do not explain the movement, but officials here take the view that economic conditions in the Mexican republic are such as to make Mexicans of the wealthy class anxious to get their women folk out of the country for the present. The disastres indicate that most of the women have come recently from Mexico.

The state department has not received so far as is known any official reports bearing out the charges of General Carranza's political enemies that his grip is relaxing and that he is preparing to leave Mexico. The exodus to San Antonio has been used to support this view but high officials have seen nothing showing such a development is to be expected.

It is agreed in official circles that the military situation in Chihuahua state has for the most part remained as received bandit activities. Despite persistence of reports that Villa is personally leading his men against the Carranza garrison at Chihuahua City, neither the state nor war departments has convincing reports that he is alive.

Military experts are frankly pessimistic so far as Carranza's campaign against these bandits. They believe the de facto troops have little chance to destroy the brigands because they have no adequate highly trained systems which would permit them to chase the outlaws into the barren hill country. It is known that this weakness of Carranza's forces has been strongly presented to the American military commissioners. To the minds of army officers it represents a serious obstacle to the present restoration of order in northern Mexico.

PREPAREDNESS IS SERMON SUBJECT

Downtown Revival Service in Undertaking Parlors—One Conviction Last Night

An impressive sermon on "Preparedness" was delivered at the downtown meeting of the Presbyterian revival service in the undertaking parlors of the Wichita Falls Undertaking Company. The solemn portend of the words of the speaker, Rev. F. Fitzhugh, was made still more impressive by the surroundings, and the sermon was one of marked effectiveness, dealing first with the necessity for preparedness in things military, intellectual and industrial, and then with the necessity of preparedness to meet the Almighty.

Two well attended meetings were held last night, Dr. Hendrick speaking at the First Presbyterian Church on "A Business Man That Miscalculated" and Rev. W. B. Fitzhugh speaking at the Floral Heights church on the text from Proverbs, "He that sinneth against God wrongeth his own soul."

There was one conversion, a young man, following Dr. Hendrick's sermon, which dealt with the parable of the rich fool, who when he was taking undue pride in his wealth, was suddenly called by death. The man was a fool, Dr. Hendrick said, because he reasoned like an animal, because he left God out of his reckoning, because he did not consider his fellow men and because he thought his soul his own and forgot to prepare it. It is a miscalculation, said the speaker, to leave spiritual things out of one's consideration.

The sermon at the Floral Heights Church, brought out the idea that a man, in sinning, punishes not God, but himself.

"God has established the law and he executes the penalty," said Mr. Fitzhugh, "but it is the man who sins who brings God's punishment upon himself. He does not punish God, he punishes himself."

Dr. Hendrick's subject at this morning's 10 o'clock service at the church was "The Other Little Ships" dealing with the unseen helpers in life's troubles.

At the downtown meeting, Mr. Fitzhugh, after referring to the marked trend of the times toward preparedness of various kinds, said that if preparedness for things military, industrial and intellectual were necessary, it was still more true that preparedness for things eternal was necessary.

"If you are prepared for eternity, your heart must have anchorage, and the best anchorage is Jesus Christ," said the speaker, "you must have Christ in your life, to color and shape and plan your endeavors. In that way, God expects to evolve the highest degree of service, with a minimum of waste and to enrich and endow the human heart with that purpose in view."

"Preparedness is essential because of the certainty that you will meet God. Your engagement with God is like an overhead charge in your business, yet some of you flirt with life like an idle boy, until you find your dream is ended, and calamity confronts you. If you are not certain of the richness of your preparation, there is no better time than today to make sure."

Tomorrow morning's meeting will be held at W. B. McClurkin & Co.

Announcing The Aeolian-Vocalion!

This store takes pleasure in announcing the achievement of another success in securing the Aeolian-Vocalion. This wonderful instrument represents a new phase in the development of sound-reproducing instruments and so far does its perfection outstrip previous conceptions of the talking machine as to be notable above all other instruments. By means of a new feature—the Graduola—the Aeolian-Vocalion has been made an instrument of actual musical expression—an instrument which you may play, and through which you may express your own musical ideas and emotions. The Aeolian-Vocalion is not born of a single inspiration of genius, but rather is the logical result of scientific and artistic capability and unlimited resources combining to make an instrument of unequaled merit and unapproachable beauty.

The Aeolian-Vocalion, in a number of different styles, is now shown at our store and we cordially invite all music lovers to inspect and play for themselves their choicest selections.

WIFE TAKES HOME DRUNKEN HUSBAND

Lands on Him When He Shows Resistance and Raises Objections

The unusual scene of a woman forcing a drunken husband to go to his home was enacted yesterday afternoon much to the gratification of many who witnessed the pluck and determination of the wife in enforcing a respect for her demands.

The trouble started when she told him from the saloon and the drunk husband objected to accompanying her on the trip. Persuasion seemed to avail nothing, when the woman proceeded to give him a few healthful "swats" of sufficient force to awaken the man to his senses and he let well for a time.

However, reaching another block, he again entered a protest and managed something about the officers, saying he was not afraid, at the same time pulling loose as if to strike. The lady thereupon landed a healthy open handed blow to the right cheek and a forelock to the left side of the face, and the trouble was over for the remainder of the trip.

A city policeman was keeping close tabs on the proceeding, with but a few steps between, and would have been on the job readily if the man had started anything "rough." As he said it was better that the man be taken home than thrown in jail, especially when the wife seemed so well able to handle the situation.

CLAY COUNTY BOY'S CASE IS REVERSED

New Trial is Granted Jay Wilson Who Shot and Killed His School Teacher

Jay Wilson, the seventeen year old Clay county school boy who last spring shot and killed his teacher, J. G. Wright, and who was sentenced to 25 years in the penitentiary, will have a new trial. His case was reversed and remanded by the court of criminal appeals at Austin Wednesday.

Failure of the trial court to admit certain testimony offered by the defense is understood to have been the cause for the higher court's action.

Wilson killed his teacher at a school in the southern part of Clay county after the teacher had reprimanded him and a young woman student for examination papers they had turned in. Wilson's plea was self defense. He was represented by Judge R. E. Taylor.

YOU CAN GET A DORT--NOW

We are today unloading the first of a shipment of twenty-five of these famous Money-Value Cars, so that buyers may be assured of immediate delivery.

Price Only $740 Delivered

BE CONVINCED—NOT PERSUADED

In common with your friends—you have the desire to possess a motor car; to be forever independent of sidewalks, streetcars, or the automobiles of obnoxious friends as your mediums for coming and going. Because of your lack of a motor car, you appreciate more keenly the liberal freedom that it brings. But—

There is a striking difference between being persuaded to buy an automobile and the conviction that you should own it. This is so important a difference that we try always to mention it in ever, sort of a DORT car. We want you to be fair to yourself. There is such a thing as square-deal buying as well as selling. See that it is your privilege, and that you use it. A simple way to a decision is this: Test the car you are considering by these three things—Responsibility of the makers; Efficiency of the car; Practicality of its purchase. Let us measure the DORT against Responsibility of the makers as a reason for its possession.

Here the entire industry gives recognition to the thirty years of uninterrupted vehicle manufacture behind these cars, in place of a newly-made and timid stepping organization. The DORT Motor Car Company's conservative policy and progressive expansion both to dealers and user.

Again the factor of Efficiency, measure the DORT's mechanical worth. That investigation will show you how superior to its price are the modernness and performance of the car. Seidon at less than $1,000 do you find features so unique as the combined clutch-and-brake, doing away with the awkward emergency lever; the two-blade "aeroplane" fan; the independent cooling of the motor cylinders; the double exhaust system, increasing actual road power of the engine 12 per cent; the extra heavy body finish; the famous Westinghouse large bearings; the careful enduring body finish; the famous Westinghouse system of electric starting and lighting (strictly a "big-car" feature); the general harmony and symmetry of the car's appearance.

And against the final factor of Practicality—test the sensibility of DORT light weight, wheelbase, comfort provision (the most luxurious spring suspension ever fitted to a medium-priced car) seating capacity, roadability at all speeds, ease and safety of steering and fuel economy.

THIS DORT MARK UPON THE RADIATOR OF YOUR CAR IS ITS STAMP OF WORTH—THE SYMBOL OF MOTOR-CAR GOODNESS. IT SIGNIFIES THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE MANUFACTURERS, THE CONTINUED SERVICE THE CAR WILL RENDER YOU, AND THE ABIDING VALUE OF THE MECHANICAL PARTS WHICH COMPOSE IT. THIS IS THE VISIBLE PLEDGE OF THE MAKERS FOR THE SATISFACTION WHICH THEIR PRODUCT WILL GIVE TO ITS USERS.

WHAT DORT ENGINEERING MEANS

DORT Motor Cars are built as nearly trouble proof as it is possible to construct anything composed of myriad of simple but efficient operating and moving parts.

The mechanical principles upon which they are built were fixed after a careful study of the motoring needs of those who desire a simple, serviceable car of low first cost, minimum of upkeep expense, great durability and riding comfort. To produce such a car DORT engineers have brought to their task a long and thorough experience in the designing and building of gas motors—an experience acquired in this country and Europe. The harmonious lines and rich luster are the cloak of unusual mechanical features and efficiency which are evident only to the experienced motorist or proclaim themselves by years of constant service.

THE DORT UNIT POWER PLANT

DORT engineers have perfected an automobile power plant which gives the maximum of power and flexibility through design methods never applied previously to light-car construction. They have gained this power and flexibility with a minimum of weight and great fuel economy.

Assembled in the car, the unit power plant presents a particularly clean-cut appearance. The motor, transmission and clutch are a single unit, and no moving parts are exposed except the fan. Mud and water cannot enter any part of the power plant, and grease and oil are confined to their proper places. The exterior of the motor gives a most pleasing impression. There is harmony and simplicity, combined with evident accessibility, which leads confidence to the DORT driver, and compels the knowledge that there is nothing to get out of order.

EFFORT TO AVERT LAUNDRY STRIKE

Proprietors Refuse To Sign New Agreement—International Official is Coming

The special committee appointed by the Trades Council to negotiate with the laundry proprietors in an effort to secure a renewal of the working contract with the local laundry worker's union, reported at a meeting held last night that their efforts were fruitless, the proprietors finally refusing to affix their signatures to a contract.

Considerable discussion was had over the matter, in which it was brought out that the new contract did not call for an increase in wages, but only provided for the continuation of working conditions along the lines provided by the international organization.

It is understood that the sentiment of the council is that the organization has rendered the laundry workers every cooperation possible in an effort to secure an amicable settlement of the controversy. It is also stated that the laundry employes have been working harmoniously with the council and have made it known that they will abide by whatever decision is reached by the local organization through the central body, and the international union.

In view of the fact that it has been found impossible to reach an agreement with the proprietors and with a desire to use every means available for a settlement before calling a strike, it was decided last night to send for a representative of the international and no further action will be taken until he arrives in the city, which will probably be within the next few days.

Samuel G. Blythe, is a versatile writer, a resourceful and brilliant analyst, for the Saturday Evening Post. But his forecasts are about as bold in this campaign, as Bill Sterrett's correspondence from Washington, in the old days when the Dallas-Galveston News used to pose as independent in politics. For instance, when the News editorial failed to express a definite policy relative to a pending bill before congress, Bill Sterrett would write a two column special article, in substance: "If so and so be true, so and so will happen; but, I don't believe it is true."

Governor Ferguson has designated Saturday as "Woodrow Wilson Day," in Texas. Every day is Woodrow's day in Texas. So far as has been learned there will be no celebration or demonstration here. Wichita Falls has already "demonstration" for Wilson by contributing more than one thousand dollars to his campaign fund. Wilson's admirers here are saving their demonstrative powers for the ratification meeting which they are confident will follow election day.

Col. Roosevelt was kept from the republican nomination for the presidency by the hyphen and Old Guard elements of the party and of the country. The same elements made sure the nomination of Hughes. Try as hard as they can the republicans cannot conceal these two facts. By his silence and evasion after his nomination Hughes disappointed the believers in Americanism and progressives. His eleven hour declarations cannot have the weight and influence that they would have had earlier in the campaign.

Colonel Roosevelt told a questioner at Denver, Colorado, who asked him what he would have done when the Ferguson war broke out that he would have done what he did at the first sign of trouble with Germany and with Japan and that was to place the American navy first in efficiency among the navies of the world. He added that he then sent the battleship fleet around the world and in the meantime dug the Panama canal. Naval experts have united in declaring that the sending of the battleship fleet around the world left the American shores unprotected. A good many people believe that the crisis of the battleship fleet was as in cautious and dangerous exploit which would have ended in disaster to America had any of the great powers decided to have attacked us during the cruise.

At Waco, the seat of that great exponent of local self government and home rule, the Waco Times Herald, an election was held this week on several proposed amendments to the city charter. Only 527 votes were polled. There are probably four thousand voters in the city of Waco. The Times mentions this not to discredit Waco or the Waco Times Herald but simply as a matter of fact, on which in due time it expects fight to be thrown by the Times Herald with its usual clarity and direct-

So far as the Times has been able to learn no collection was taken in any of the churches last Sunday for the Armenian relief fund. The matter seems not to have been presented properly to the pastors of the churches. It is never too late to do good and somebody in Wichita Falls ought to take the lead and urge that a collection be taken in every church in Wichita Falls next Sunday for this fund. At Anstillo a committee has been named and the chairman has stated that three thousand dollars ought to be contributed in that city. Already a number of contributions have been acknowledged there. No one can read of conditions among that people and not have their sympathies quickened.

ANOTHER CALL FOR DEMOCRATIC FUNDS

Governor Muckelbauer $10,000 and Calls on Wichita County to Help

Governor James E. Ferguson has been called upon by the Democratic National Committee to raise $10,000 for the democratic campaign, an emergency existing and the campaign being severely handicapped for lack of funds. Governor Ferguson is calling on his friends over the state to help raise this fund. One Wichita Falls democrat has already telegraphed $100 to Governor Ferguson. This man had already contributed liberally to the fund raised by the local committee. Efforts are being made to raise another hundred dollars. Judge W. N. Bonner has given $10 in this direction and has pledged himself to raise not less than $25 more. Others who will help Governor Ferguson in his commendable undertaking may hand their contributions to Mayor Britain, chairman of the local finance committee. It was learned last night that a substantial fund is being raised at Abilene, contributions totaling several hundred dollars having already been received. It is reported that many citizens of German birth or descent have contributed to the fund indicating that the German-American vote will not be sold against the president by any means. A fund is also being raised at Burkburnett and another at Iowa Park and it is expected that Wichita county will make a better showing for the campaign fund than any other in the state, population considered. Since the publication of the list of names last Tuesday when the thousand dollar mark was passed two dollars has been received at The Times office for the fund. The contributors are:

Milton Clendennin $1.00
A. Bonner 1.00
Mr. Clendennin is editor of the Burkburnett Star and he made his contribution to the Times before he knew that efforts were being made to raise a fund at Burkburnett. His contribution will be turned over to the Burkburnett committee, which would also be credited with contributions totaling $200 by W. O. Myers and J. L. Haydel.

2 STORES ROBBED AT BURKBURNETT

Goods Worth $2500 Believed Missing—Delivery Wagon and Horse Taken
After robbing two Burkburnett stores of good estimated at a value of $2,500 robbers last night took the horse and delivery wagon of one of the stores to haul the goods off with. The wagon has been tracked to Wichita Falls and local officers have been put on the lookout for the robbers. The grocery store of W. L. Hawkins and the dry goods store of W. W. Viles were the places reported to have been looted. It has not yet been ascertained just what is missing, but Mr. Hawkins believes that he is loser by a large quantity of flour, and the dry goods people estimate their loss at 100 suits of men's clothes, a lot of silk dress goods and a quantity of women's underwear. The horse taken is described as a big faced brown horse with splints on each lower foreleg. The wagon has the words "W. L. Hawkins, crockery painter on the side." It is the belief of the officers that the parties who raided the stores are probably within the city and intend to lay low for a time before trying to dispose of their loot. E. J. Elgenstrand, claim investigator for the Kansas Flour Mills Co. was a business visitor this morning.

FATAL ACCIDENT AT COTTON OIL MILL

Father of Nath McBride Discovers Son's Body Caught in Seed Conveyor

Nath McBride, about 23 years of age, an oiler at the Farmers Supply Cotton Oil Mill, was instantly killed in the seed house at that plant shortly before 1 o'clock today, his arm being caught in the seed conveyor which threw his body violently against the heavy galvanized boxes, almost tearing his arm off, breaking his neck and injuring him internally at several places. Outside of his arm however, the body was not mutilated except for two abrasions on the left side of the trunk and a slight one on the neck. Just how the young man's arm became caught in the conveyor will always be a mystery, say the officials of the company. The only theory that has been advanced is that McBride stumbled, his arm striking the galvanized tin at a joint where it gave allowing his arm to get caught in the auger which conveys the seed into the seed house. If this arm had struck the casing at any other point than at the joint, the 16 gauge galvanized tin of which the casing was constructed would have held him up. From the condition things were found in when the dead man was found, it is thought that the machinery must have stopped after about two revolutions as no outcry was heard if it is believed death was instantaneous. McBride was in the seed house alone at the time. None of the men at the plant knew that he was even in the house, having seen him about other parts of the mill a few minutes before, and not having seen him when he returned. On the account when the machinery stopped no one thought of looking for McBride and it was left for his aged father, Andy McBride, night watchman at the plant, who was bringing his son's dinner to find his son's body mangled by the machinery which had caused his death. This was McBride's third season in the house, he having been employed in that capacity since the mill was built three years ago. He was a capable, steady, sober workman, according to his employers. He is survived by his father and mother and an older brother, Church McBride.

Army orders are strict in prohibiting soldiers from crossing the border and a penalty of six months confinement with six months loss of pay is the usual sentence against those discovered and found guilty on violation of the order. While a large number of guardsmen were sent out in visiting Nuevo Laredo, the sister city of this border point across the Rio Grande, especially on Sunday for the purpose of attending a bull fight, the majority of soldiers are deterred from hazarding the trip through fear of detection and subsequent punishment. There is nothing good or bad, but the ruling makes it so. (San Antonio, A. T.)

$25,000 CASE WILL REACH JURY TODAY

Argument Heard Today in Suit of J. D. Horton vs. Wichita Valley Railway

The argument of attorneys is in progress in the case of John D. Horton vs. the Wichita Valley Railway Company in the 25th district court. The evidence in the case was concluded this morning and the charge of Judge Nicholson to the jury was completed about 11 o'clock. T. R. Boone for the plaintiff was the first speaker and was followed by A. H. Britain and T. J. Fontenot for the defense, the closing argument being delivered by Judge J. C. Wolfe of Sherman in behalf of the plaintiff. It was expected that the case would be given to the jury late this afternoon. The case in which $25,000 in damages is asked for injuries alleged to have been sustained while a mail clerk on the Wichita Valley in August, 1914 was begun Tuesday afternoon. About twenty witnesses were examined during the progress of the trial a number of whom were plaintiffs.

BOND OF ALLEGED ROBBER FIXED AT $1,000 WEDNESDAY

M. P. McCall, charged with robbery with a knife in connection with the holding of E. B. Barnett Tuesday night, was given an examining trial Wednesday afternoon before Justice of the Peace J. P. Jones, who placed his bond for appearance before the grand jury at $1,000. In default of sureties the defendant was remanded to the custody of the sheriff and was returned to the county jail.

THINGS NEEDED TO MAKE REVIVAL WIN

Dr. Jenkins Speaks on This Subject at Baptist Church Wednesday Night

Elements that are essential to a successful revival were discussed Wednesday night at the First Baptist church by Dr. Millard Jenkins of Dallas, who is conducting the series of meetings at this church. Last night's service followed a splendid afternoon meeting, the attendance being gratifyingly large. Last night Dr. Jenkins took the Pentecost as his theme, comparing the disciples who were present to the church congregation of today. He said that the disciples were all in accord, all of one mind and that this was essential to a successful revival. The man who really loves the Lord, he said, will not get ruffled or displeased, but will work in cooperation with the others, and will not let the things of the world lure him away. He spoke of the fact that the disciples waited ten days for the Lord's time, and that they prayed constantly as they waited. The mere presence of a man at a revival meeting is worth much sometimes, said Dr. Jenkins. He suggested that the Pentecostal spirit might animate the workers in this revival. At the close of the sermon there were three additions to the church. Services were held again this afternoon at 2 o'clock and tonight's meeting will start at 7:30. The subject tonight will be "A Revival that Saved the Town."

EXAMINING TRIAL FOR NEGRO HELD

Bond Fixed at $750 For Shooting in Which Several Were Wounded

Jim Anderson, the negro charged with shooting things up at the Pleasure Garden, a negro resort in the flats, in an effort to put a rival, Oscar Hunter, whose he could not interfere with his attractions to the women in the case, was given an examining trial before Justice of the Peace J. P. Jones yesterday afternoon and his bond to appear before the grand jury was placed at $750. Failing to provide the required sureties Anderson was returned to the county jail. At the time of the difficulty two negroes were shot and another was carved with a knife. It seems that Anderson took one or more shots at Hunter as he was passing, one of which took effect in the arm. Another party not implicated in the quarrel was wounded, while still another received severe knife wounds. Anderson was taken into custody while still trying to make a rough house out of the place. At the examining trial Hunter swore that he had never spoken to Anderson prior to or since the trouble.
