

RESULT STILL IN DOUBT LATE WEDNESDAY, WITH PROSPECTS FOR WILSON VICTORY INCREASINGLY BRIGHT

WESTERN STATES KILL HUGHES' EASTERN LEAD

PUT DEMOCRATS AHEAD IN ELECTORAL VOTE

MAY BE MANY HOURS BEFORE RESULT KNOWN

Several States Too Doubtful To Be Listed For Either Side. Early Calculations Upset

Although the election returns at 3:45 Wednesday afternoon seemed to be a shade in Wilson's favor, the result at that time was too much in doubt to permit of any announcement that either candidate had won.

The apparently commanding lead which the Eastern States gave to Hughes was cut down relentlessly and steadily by the returns from Western States that, one by one, gave pluralities to the Democratic ticket.

Mid-afternoon returns gave Wilson 247 electoral votes to 229 for Hughes. These figures are based on official and unofficial returns, indicating as follows:

Wilson—Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, Florida, Georgia, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, North Carolina, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Virginia, Washington, Wyoming, Idaho.

States still considered too doubtful to place in either column, with their electoral votes, are: California 13, Minnesota 12, Nebraska 8, New Hampshire 4, North Dakota 5, Wisconsin 13.

The apparent certainty, at midnight Tuesday night, that Hughes had won, was removed early Wednesday, when additional returns made it certain that the announcement in some quarters that Hughes was elected had been premature, and as the morning hours sped by, Wilson gained State after State, his total of electoral votes mounting gradually until it topped that credited to the Republican ticket.

The almost unprecedented closeness of the race may cause many hours to pass before a definite announcement of victory for either side is possible.

Returns from California and Wisconsin were expected to figure largely in the final accounting. In the former, Hughes had a slight lead. In Wisconsin, Wilson's early lead was being reduced by later returns, with the possibility that the State might eventually be recorded for Hughes.

Aside from the uncertainty of the result, the most remarkable thing about the election was the sudden wiping out of the Hughes majority, piled up in the East, by returns coming in from the West. When the Republican landslide in New York became known and was quickly followed by Republican victories in New England, there was a veritable stampede to announce the election of Mr. Hughes.

Hundreds of thousands waiting in the streets saw the signal lights flash the defeat of the President. New York newspapers which have been prominent in their support of him, conceded the President's defeat before some of the Western States had been heard from.

Thousands of persons in the East went to bed believing Hughes elected and woke up this morning to find the result apparently changed while they slept. Hundreds who made plans for what they expected to happen in Wall Street today found them set all awry.

The first figures of Wilson's majority through the West did not shake the confidence of Hughes' supporters, and not until the steady stream of Wilson majorities began eating into the Hughes columns, piled up in the East, did any of them suspect that the result was in danger.

At midnight it was apparent that the free predictions of a sweeping Republican victory over the country were being contradicted by results from the West. As every hour saw the Hughes lead melting down, it became clear that the President was not to be defeated so easily, and when daylight came without any decisive result, it became apparent that the battle was being fought out in the doubtful States, with the advantage decidedly in favor of Mr. Wilson.

Not since a next day's revision of the returns seated Grover Cleveland in the contest of 1892 has the country been compelled to wait so long to know the result. More than twelve hours after the polls had closed President Wilson and Mr. Hughes were still running neck and neck, with the result still in doubt.

FLORIDA MAY ELECT INDEPENDENT GOVERNOR. Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 8.—Few returns from the gubernatorial contest available today—most decide the close race between W. S. North, democrat, and Sidney J. Catts, independent prohibitionist. With approximately 35,000 votes counted Catts was leading today with 2,898. The state gave its usual majority to President Wilson.

WASHINGTON. Seattle, Wash., Nov. 8.—Returns from 1,218 precincts of 2,385 in Washington give Hughes 94,711; Wilson 103,516.

WASHINGTON. Seattle, Wash., Nov. 8.—Returns from 1,218 precincts of 2,385 in Washington give Hughes 94,711; Wilson 103,516.

WASHINGTON. Seattle, Wash., Nov. 8.—Returns from 1,218 precincts of 2,385 in Washington give Hughes 94,711; Wilson 103,516.

WYOMING. Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 8.—Reports from 179 precincts out of 588 in Wyoming give Wilson 8,218; Hughes 5,849.

INDIANA. Indianapolis, Nov. 8.—While republican headquarters today claimed the state for Hughes by 25,000 more conservative estimates placed the plurality between 10,000 and 15,000.

CHICAGO. Chicago, Nov. 8.—The vote of the city of Chicago complete for president is: Wilson—men, 211,629; women, 130,951; total, 342,580. Hughes—men, 229,887; women, 135,159; total, 365,046. Benson, socialist—men, 21,747; women, 6,684; total, 28,431. Reimer, socialist—labor—men, 593; women, 377; total, 970. Hanley, prohibitionist—men, 659; women, 624; total, 1,283.

CALIFORNIA. Los Angeles, Nov. 8.—Semi-official returns announced today by Thomas McLarrie, registrar of votes showed 412 complete city and county precincts gave Hughes 41,412; Wilson 35,071.

CALIFORNIA. San Francisco, Nov. 8.—3,090 precincts of 5,917 in California given Hughes 246,182; Wilson 237,586.

CALIFORNIA. Los Angeles, Nov. 8.—Semi-official returns announced today by Thomas McLarrie, registrar of votes showed 412 complete city and county precincts gave Hughes 41,412; Wilson 35,071.

CALIFORNIA. San Francisco, Nov. 8.—3,090 precincts of 5,917 in California given Hughes 246,182; Wilson 237,586.

CALIFORNIA. San Francisco, Nov. 8.—3,090 precincts of 5,917 in California given Hughes 246,182; Wilson 237,586.

MINNESOTA. St. Paul, Nov. 8.—In the precincts from the rural districts shortly after noon today gradually cut down President Wilson's lead over Hughes in Minnesota. 1,629 of the 3,024 precincts in the state giving Wilson 92,066; Hughes 82,144.

MINNESOTA. St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 8.—Further returns into the Wilson lead had been made by Hughes when nearly half the total precincts of the state reported early this afternoon. In 1,439 of the 3,024 precincts Wilson polled 111,173 votes and Hughes 103,699.

CONNECTICUT. New Haven, Conn., Nov. 8.—The county vote in Connecticut was: Hughes 105,224; Wilson 98,832.

MISSOURI. St. Louis, Nov. 8.—Returns from 2,476 out of 3,459 precincts in Missouri including all but four in St. Louis give Wilson 298,973; Hughes 254,304. With four precincts missing in St. Louis the city gave Hughes a plurality of 9,522. Insufficient to overcome Wilson's plurality in the rest of the state.

MISSOURI. St. Louis, Nov. 8.—Returns from 2,476 out of 3,459 in Missouri give Wilson 298,973; Hughes 254,304.

NORTH DAKOTA. Fargo, N. D., Nov. 8.—With North Dakota's returns nearly half complete, indications early this afternoon were that President Wilson had carried the state by less than 3,000 plurality over Hughes.

MONTANA. Butte, Mont., Nov. 8.—In Montana 284 precincts out of 1,239 give Wilson 33,979; Hughes 23,972.

FLORIDA. Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 8.—523 precincts out of 947 in Florida give Catts for governor, 23,877; W. S. North, democrat 20,781. Hillsborough county (Tampa) with one precinct in complete gave Catts 2,404; Knotts 2,401.

WEST VIRGINIA. Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 8.—Returns from 729 precincts out of 1,713 in West Virginia give Hughes 60,905; Wilson 58,352.

DELAWARE. Wilmington, Del., Nov. 8.—Returns at 11 o'clock showed Hughes carried Delaware by about 800. Senator DeLoach was defeated by Joseph O. Wolf, democrat by 900 to 1,000 votes.

COLORADO. Denver, Colo., Nov. 8.—Returns from 577 precincts out of 1,713 in Colorado give Hughes 47,532; Wilson 77,443.

KANSAS CITY. Kansas City, Nov. 8.—Kansas county, in which is Kansas City, gave Wilson 44,229 and Hughes 32,839. The vote on governor was Gardner 41,064 and Lamm 25,929; and senator, Reid 43,528 and Dickey 33,706.

IDAHO. Boise, Idaho, Nov. 8.—In Idaho, 228 precincts out of 742 give Wilson 24,476; Hughes 19,486.

MINNESOTA. St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 8.—Returns from the three large cities of the state, Minneapolis, St. Paul and Duluth, Hughes showed rapid gaining strength. In 691 of the rural precincts Hughes had 42,172 to Wilson's 34,139.

OHIO. Cincinnati, Nov. 8.—President Wilson with slightly more than 3,518 out of 5,570 Ohio precincts reported, had a plurality of 39,958.

MASSACHUSETTS. Boston, Nov. 8.—The vote of Massachusetts complete was: Hughes 268,361; Wilson 247,327.

CHARLESTON, W. VA. Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 8.—Returns from 995 precincts out of 1,713 in West Virginia give Hughes 49,711; Wilson 45,787.

SAN FRANCISCO. San Francisco, Nov. 8.—315 precincts out of 712 in the city of San Francisco give Hughes 26,135; Wilson 32,207.

ST. PAUL, MINN. St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 8.—650 precincts in Minnesota out of 3,024 in the state give Wilson 72,587; Hughes 65,369.

CHEYENNE, WYO. Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 8.—Returns from 202 precincts of 588 in Wyoming give Hughes 5,625; Wilson 7,011.

DEMOCRATS TO CONTROL SENATE

MAJORITY OF FROM EIGHT TO TWELVE INDICATED BY TODAY'S FIGURES.

SMALLER IN HOUSE

Democrats Lose Several Seats and Are Not Yet Assured of Majority.

By Associated Press. New York, Nov. 8.—Late returns from Ohio indicate the reelection of Senator Allen Pomeroy, democrat, over Myron T. Herrick, republican, virtually ending the possibility of republican ascendancy in the Senate. With democratic leaders insisting that Hitchcock in Nebraska and Pittman in Nevada have been re-elected and with Kendrick probably elected in Wyoming, the political status of the new Senate would be: Democrats 52, republicans 42, with the result in Arizona and New Mexico still in doubt. Should the republicans carry both the democratic majority in the Senate would be eight.

REPUBLICANS GAIN IN CONGRESS. Trenton, N. J., Nov. 8.—Democrats and republicans split even on the two congressional districts in New Jersey which were doubtful in the early returns. Edward W. Gray, republican carried the eighth district and John A. Mathews, democrat, carried the ninth. This gives New Jersey seven republican and five democratic in Congress a loss of one seat for the republicans.

WATSON CASE WITNESSES DENY SIGNING NOTES. Watson, Tex., Nov. 8.—Testimony in the T. R. Watson case up to 11 o'clock this morning was that of witnesses living in an obscure Texas town who testified they had not signed notes or fragments of notes shown them or given authority to anyone else to attach their signatures. One of the witnesses was Peter Farrell, a negro who said he had $15 on deposit in Watson's bank when that institution was closed.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE WINS IN BROWNSVILLE. Brownsville, Texas, Nov. 8.—Returns today show that R. B. Creager, republican, carried this city and Cameron county by a safe plurality. One precinct went for Hughes by five votes.

ST. PAUL, MINN. St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 8.—Five hundred precincts in Minnesota including 78 in Hennepin, 137 in Ramsey and 54 in St. Louis give Wilson 58,763 and Hughes 50,711.

FRESNO, CAL. Fresno, Cal., Nov. 8.—One hundred sixty nine precincts out of morning Fresno give Hughes 19,451; Wilson 12,990.

PORTLAND, ORE. Portland, Ore., Nov. 8.—Oregon was still in the doubtful column with Wilson maintaining a 400 lead on the face of incomplete returns from 30 out of 31 counties.

BOISE, IDAHO. Boise, Idaho, Nov. 8.—With half of Idaho's vote in Wilson has 25,104 votes to Hughes 22,507.

KANSAS CITY, MO. Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 8.—Returns from 1,074 out of 2,474 precincts in Kansas give Wilson 145,863; Hughes 126,227.

SAN FRANCISCO. San Francisco, Nov. 8.—Official returns for governor in this state, Wilson is now leading by 700.

SEATTLE, WASH. Seattle, Wash., Nov. 8.—Wilson has apparently carried the state by ten thousand.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. Albuquerque, N. M., Nov. 8.—Less than a fourth of precincts give Wilson a slight lead.

KANSAS CITY, MO. Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 8.—President Wilson continued to hold his lead in Kansas. Returns out of morning brought the total of precincts reported to 1,083 out of 2,474. The standing there was Hughes 144,512 and Wilson 154,921.

CHEYENNE, WYO. Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 8.—Two hundred and thirty two precincts of 588 in Wyoming give Wilson 9,229; Hughes 7,225.

HUGHES' PLURALITY IN NEW YORK STATE 100,000.

By Associated Press. New York, Nov. 8.—New York gave Hughes a plurality of 100,000 or more and re-elected Governor Whitman by an even larger vote. All of the rest of the republican state ticket won by large pluralities including the candidates for United States senator.

Returns from all but 282 out of a total of 5,807 election districts give Hughes 826,424; Wilson 725,288, a republican plurality of 101,136. Governor Whitman's plurality over his democratic opponent, Samuel Seabury with 528 districts missing is 132,233.

WILLIAM M. CALDER of Brooklyn, republican candidate for the United States senate led by 74,000 over his opponent, William F. McCombs, democrat.

Most of the missing districts are outside New York City. This city complete gave Wilson a plurality of 40,000 but the greater Hughes vote up state swamped this lead. The president ran ahead of his ticket both in and out of New York City.

The New York delegation in the house of representatives as indicated by present returns will be republican 25; democrats 17, with one district, the twelfth still in doubt.

LARGE MAJORITY FOR HURDLESTON

HAS UNDOUBTEDLY BEEN ELECTED TO FILL VACANCY ON COMMISSION.

AMENDMENT AHEAD

is Believed to Have Carried—Democratic Lead in Texas May Reach 100,000 Votes.

By Associated Press. Dallas, Tex., Nov. 8.—C. H. Hurdleston of Palestine undoubtedly has been elected to fill the unexpired term as railroad commissioner, figures on the Texas election show today.

Returns on the school tax amendment are so fragmentary as to render an accurate forecast of its fate impossible, but it is believed it has passed.

The pluralities of the state candidates and of President Wilson may reach nearly 100,000 more than 100,000 as indicated last night.

REPUBLICANS LOSE ONE SEAT IN NEW JERSEY. Trenton, N. J., Nov. 8.—Democrats and republicans split even on the two congressional districts in New Jersey which were doubtful in the early returns.

Edward W. Gray, republican carried the eighth district and John A. Mathews, democrat, carried the ninth. This gives New Jersey seven republican and five democratic in Congress a loss of one seat for the republicans.

WATSON CASE WITNESSES DENY SIGNING NOTES. Watson, Tex., Nov. 8.—Testimony in the T. R. Watson case up to 11 o'clock this morning was that of witnesses living in an obscure Texas town who testified they had not signed notes or fragments of notes shown them or given authority to anyone else to attach their signatures.

One of the witnesses was Peter Farrell, a negro who said he had $15 on deposit in Watson's bank when that institution was closed.

355 CANDIDATES FOR UNIVERSITY DEGREES. Austin, Texas, Nov. 8.—Figures compiled by Dr. T. U. Taylor, dean of the faculty of the University of Texas, disclose that there is a total of 355 students at the University who are candidates for degrees this year.

The College of Arts leads with 150 applicants for Bachelor of Arts degree, 38 for the Master of Arts degree, nine for Master of Business Training, and about a dozen for Bachelor of Science in Home Economics.

There was 323 applicants for degrees last year. The number would be larger, Dr. Taylor said, but for the fact that 65 members of the senior class are in the Texas militia on the border, and could not obtain discharges.

TORPEDOING OF STEAMER ARABIA REPORTED TODAY

By Associated Press. London, Nov. 8.—The Peninsular & Oriental Line steamship Arabia, which was sunk by a submarine, was torpedoed without warning, the admiralty announced today. All the 427 passengers including 169 women and children, were saved.

NO NEW RAILROADS IN TEXAS SINCE WAR BEGAN

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, Nov. 8.—There has been no railroad building in Texas during the past two years, or since the beginning of the European war, according to reports received by the Texas railroad commission from all railroad corporations in Texas. The mileage of 15,000 has remained stationary. Inability to get sufficient financial backing is the cause assigned for the dearth in railroad construction.

PROHIBITION IS GIVEN MAJORITY IN KANSAS CITY

By Associated Press. Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 8.—This city voted for prohibition yesterday by a vote of 1,112. The majority for this amendment in Jackson county was 3,119. Latest returns from St. Louis show that city voted against prohibition by 126,313.

"IS HELL A MYTH?"
SERMON SUBJECT

Large Crowd Hears Dr. Jenkins at First Baptist Church Tuesday Night

That hell is a real place, established by God as an abode for moral refuse, but that man sends himself there, instead of being sent by the Almighty, was the message of last night's sermon at the revival at the First Baptist Church, where Dr. Millard Jenkins of Abilene is conducting services. Dr. Jenkins' subject was "Is Hell a Myth?" The church was again packed to its capacity and there were five additions at the close of the sermon.

As to the location of hell, Dr. Jenkins said that, geographically speaking, no one knew but that it was a place "morally down." He declared it to be a very real place. Hell's sufferings, he said, was that of the memory and consciousness of sin and that a man began to suffer the punishment of hell when he realized his wrong doing.

Dr. Jenkins spoke of the purpose of a place like hell.

God does not send men to hell, but men go of their own accord when they reject God. In his closing appeal, Dr. Jenkins urged his hearers to select their place of everlasting abode and said that Christ had provided a way of escape for men to use, if they wished, to avoid the eternal punishment.

Dr. Jenkins spoke this morning on "The Song of Solomon." His subject tonight will be "The Devil's Trap For Men."

115 FIRE ALARMS SO FAR THIS YEAR

Loss, However, Has Been Smaller Than in Years When Alarms Were Fewer

With a total of 115 alarms the local fire department this year has answered 100 more alarms than they were called on for in 1909, which year marked the beginning of the present paid fire department. The fact that the actual property loss is under $70,000 and the insurance loss around $40,000 speaks well for the department in stopping incident blazes for each of the 115 alarms answered this year represented blazes which once allowed to gain headway would in each case probably have meant a heavy loss.

The department has been called out more times this year than was ever the case before in its history. Last year the total number of alarms was only 85, the year before that 74 and in 1913 only 47.

In 1909 the fire loss was $51,000 notwithstanding the fact that the embryo department was only called out to combat 15 fires. In 1913 with its 47 alarms the loss was the highest in the history of the city, the actual loss being $96,000 and the insurance loss about $60,000. It was in the following year that the installation of the present motor fire department was begun and although the number of fires they have been called on to fight has increased with the succeeding years and the consequent growth of the city, in the year succeeding the big fire, the actual loss to the city was $37,100 and an insurance loss of $21,000.

The record would have been in all probability lower than even that for this year had it not been for the disastrous McFall fire in July which had gained considerable headway before being discovered, and where the heart of the fire was on account of the construction of the building, practically inaccessible to the fire fighters.

on the Beaver, Mead and Englewood unless their train should run into it self in rounding some sharp curve.

The way in which the road was financed was another consideration making the Northwestern wary of the proposition. Indeed, the matter of ownership of the line would give a Philadelphia lawyer no little trouble should one try to unravel the puzzle, it is said. The voting of bonds by a municipality for the purpose of aiding in railroad construction is not permitted under the Oklahoma constitution, so like other Oklahoma towns have done, the people of Beaver voted $60,000 for a water works and electric light system, $16,000 of this being used to put in the said system. As the bonds were sold at $12,000 below par that left $32,000 with which to build the railroad. It built about half of it, then the farmers living along the way chipped in and graded the road the rest of the way. At this juncture the road was struck up with some Kansas capitalists who put something over $20,000 into the road and finished the job.

Question, who owns the railroad?

Some Wichita county farmer, whose expenses will be paid by the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce, will go to Fort Worth about November 15 to explain the needs of a loan in this county and to set forth the existing conditions here at the hearing of the federal farm loan bank board which will be in Fort Worth then. Secretary Johnson of the Chamber of Commerce of this city has been asked by the Fort Worth body to select the man and with the assistance of J. W. Campbell, demonstration agent, is trying to pick the strongest man for this mission.

Farmers from the other counties adjacent to Fort Worth will also be present, this move being a part of the program of the Fort Worth organization.

NORTHWESTERN NOT TO TAKE LINE OVER

Indications Are Short Road From Beaver To Forgan Will Not Be Absorbed

The negotiations for the operation by the Northwestern of the Beaver, Mead and Englewood railroad a short line from Forgan to Beaver, Okla., which have been hanging fire for some time, seem to have fallen through for the present at least. The point at which no agreement could be reached is reported to be the refusal of the owners of the road to relieve the Northwestern from responsibility for accidents occurring on that line. The matter may come up again later, as although the road is only seven miles long an enormous traffic has been developed, and more could be developed should any thing approximating regular train service be maintained through the rich country traversed by the road. Since the road was first put in operation only a few months ago four grain elevators have been constructed in Beaver alone.

In case the Northwestern had taken over the operation of the road, it would practically have had to be rebuilt, say officials of the former road, for although about half of the road has been constructed out of 56 pound steel, the rest is laid with second hand steel varying from 48 to 70 pounds. The Northwestern has never sent one of its engines over the line.

It is pointed out that at present there is little danger from collision

WANT WICHITAN TO ATTEND FARM BOARD

Some One From This County Will Be Chosen To Testify at Hearing

ALSATIAN GIRLS LIKE TO POSE WITH FRENCH ARMY OFFICERS

So I Take Real Pleasure in this Aeolian-Vocalion Music
"I was one of those who held aloof from phonograph music, and while I could not but admire the excellence attained in many phonographic reproductions, they still were not quite satisfying to me."
"Thus it was with a quite critical attitude toward, if not with an actual prejudice against phonographs, that I first heard the Aeolian-Vocalion."
"A voice, a wonderful voice was singing. The aria was that very beautiful one from Tosca—'Vissi d'arte e d'amor.' What fine, sweet tone!—how rich with emotion!"
"Never had I heard such a human voice from a phonograph. The artistic qualities were beyond reproach."
"Then taking the Graduala—the Vocalion expression device—I played a violin record myself—played it as I wanted it, with every tone shade, every crescendo as I felt it should be played. I play the piano, but I have always wished to play the violin. How I enjoyed that first opportunity!"

AMERICAN DRIVERS DO VALIANT SERVICE

Some of Those in French Army Are Cited in Orders of the Day.

By Associated Press.
Paris, Nov. 7.—Drivers of the American field ambulances continue to receive citations and letters of appreciation for their work. Chief Surgeon Gubal, of a division operating at Verdun, writes:

"At the moment when an unexpected order of departure, deprives the 12th division of American Sanitary Section No. 3, the divisional surgeon desires to express to all its members his deepest thanks."

"Since April 25, 1916, the section has followed the division to the various points on the front where it has been in action: at Lay St. Christophe, in the dangerous sector of Thiaumont at Verdun, and at Bois-le-Petre."

"The American volunteers have everywhere shown an unforgettable example of devotion."

"They carry away with them the gratitude of our wounded, the admiration of all those who have seen them at work and the regrets caused by their departure."

"They leave behind them an example which it will be sufficient to recall when in another Verdun their successors will be called upon to show the courage and self-abnegation so necessary in the accomplishment of their mission."

General Blondin, commanding another division of American Sanitary Section No. 2, under your command, since their arrival at the division, and particularly in the course of the days and nights from September 15 to 25.

"The American drivers have shown themselves worthy sons of the great and generous nation for the emancipation of which our ancestors shed their blood."

"I cite to the order of the Division Drivers Carroll-Rieck and Owen Keenan, and would ask you to kindly transmit to all your drivers my congratulations."

"(Signed) BLONDIN."
General Blondin also mentions Rieck and Keenan in general orders for their courage and devotion. Carroll Rieck is from Washington, D. C., and a graduate of Yale University. Owen Keenan is from Kenansville, N. C., and was graduated from the University of North Carolina.

Stanley Dell of Princeton, N. J., and of Princeton University, has been cited in orders for his coolness, energy and disregard of danger as an automobile ambulance driver in Section No. 4, attached to Division 64 and especially for having brought, at a great personal risk, a non-commissioned officer to a surgical dressing station whose injuries were so bad, had he not had immediate attention, he would have died.

ANCIENT "RIKISHA" IS DISAPPEARING IN TOKIO

Associated Press Mail Correspondence.
Tokio, Nov. 7.—The electric car and automobile is steadily forcing the tiny and artistic rikisha to the wall. Rikisha are now scarcely met with.

Not so very long ago Tokio was filled with fleet rikisha runners. Wealthy families boasted of their kuruma men. But these fast runners, tall and strong, are now scarcely met with.

Today the Japanese gentlemen who afford neither carriage or motor car, has a bright-looking kuruma hung on bicycle wheels with huge pneumatic tires. With the reduction of the number, the price of the public rikisha has steadily increased until it has almost become a luxury for the masses of the people. The two-passenger kuruma which used to figure in elements and double suicides has entirely disappeared.

ARCHER CITY PURCHASES POWER PLANT EQUIPMENT

(Archer Dispatch)
Another definite forward step toward the installation of electric lights in Archer City was taken Wednesday night when at a called session of the city council the necessary equipment for the completion of the plant was purchased. The purchase included dynamo, wires, poles, transformers, etc., and also a stock of electrical merchandise to be used by the public. The entire cost will be approximately $3,000. It is estimated that the plant will be installed, ready to turn on the lights, by January 1, 1917.

Willingness to Oblige

THE public has a right to something more than perfunctory service from those who supply its telephone needs. There is something more to a telephone service than merely placing at the disposal of the public adequate telephone equipment. Courtesy, willingness to oblige and patience, under trying conditions on the part of telephone employes, promote friendly feeling and are essential to the best kind of telephone service.

While the returns are yet indefinite, early this afternoon they indicated the re-election of President Wilson by the largest popular vote ever cast for a presidential candidate.

LAW AND THE RIGHT OF SUFFRAGE.

The many and wonderful manifestations of the Terrell election law are again brought to the attention of the people by the latest decision of the supreme court.

The fact of the existence of these wide loopholes in that act is accentuated by the many cross-cut opinions handed down from time to time by the court of last resort of the state.

The decision in the Gilmore case is in keeping with others gone before. It decides nothing and leaves the voter as much at sea as had there been no election law.

The Terrell election law is a travesty on honesty and will never be a fair election under its provisions and mandates.

The law itself provides for party executive committees and clothes them with certain powers in no case yet coming to the supreme court, has that committee been given more standing than a school boy at the edge of the ice without skates.

Courts are established for the purpose of giving an intelligent and intelligible interpretation of the law. If the courts of Texas have done this in regard to the Terrell election law, they have risen so high above popular sentiment and belief that their decisions are as having been written in an untranslatable language.

When the secretary of state ordered the name of the nominee for railroad commissioners by the executive committee of the democratic party, to be printed on the ticket.

et. he was acting under the law as it existed and was in force at that time.

In the short interval between that time and the coming of the election the supreme court reverses the decision under which the secretary of state acted and tells the people that the printed name must be wholly erased and the name of the man for whom the voter desires to cast his ballot must be written thereon with a pen or pencil.

Suppose the voter lets his ballot go through without erasing that printed name and deposits that ballot with the printed name thereon as his choice for that particular office, and that ballot is thrown out under the decision of the court, is that really complying with the law?

The books are filled with decisions in contested election cases and there is just the one underlying principle involved in all of them—what was the intent and very of the voters? This is the one and only rule that can dominate a decision on the result of an election.

What was the intent and desire of the voter, what was he trying to do, for whom did he intend to vote, and the presumption conclusively is that if the name of a candidate was on the ballot be cast, written or printed there, that is the man for whom the ballot was cast.

The right of suffrage is the most sacred granted under the constitution. On it rests government and all its institutions.

Let any man, or set of men, politically intent, with malice pretense, seek to contest the right of the voter to cast his ballot with a name either written or printed thereon, and have that ballot rejected, and possibly, a result obtained for different from the wish and desire of the great majority of the people, one of the bulwarks, the most sacred institutions of free government would be broken down—Austin American.

SOUND CAUSE FOR COLONEL'S RAGE.

Not unexpected is the most recent development in the curious controversy as to what Secretary of War Newton D. Baker said concerning the soldiers of Washington at Valley Forge. This is the sarcastic allegation that the speaker was unfortunate in his selection of historians.

Instead of quoting John Fiske, as he did, he should have chosen Theodore Roosevelt, author of the "Life of Gouverneur Morris," and critic par excellence of all things mundane. Discussing the self-styled soldiers this morning he said that they "had to be soiled into line," meaning that they were arrant cowards.

In addition they were selfish, jealous and shortsighted. But this is not all. In spite of the sacred cause for which they were expected to fight and die they became disgustingly homesick and deserted Washington in large numbers. In short, they were molly-coddles and "exquisitely unfit."

It is to be feared that the platform, rage of Mr. Hughes in the presidential contest is that of the offended author rather than that of the outraged patriot. This episode should serve as a warning to all students to faithfully observe the ancient admonition: "Be sure of your references."—Sincinnati Enquirer.

THE FALSE AND THE TRUE

The Second Commandment is that we shall not worship the gods of our own making.

The ancient Greeks worshipped the outward and visible signs of beauty, which degenerated into sensuality.

The ancient Romans worshipped the outward expression of law, which degenerated into the law of the emperor.

The ancient Egyptians worshipped the crocodile, and they themselves became merely crawling things on the face of the earth.

From time to time complaint is made that we here in America are losing our religious instincts.

No, we are not losing them, for they are a part of us; more likely we are violating the Second Commandment.

Gods are our own fashioning, we are worshipping if the complaint as to our religious standing be true.

Here is a man who worships what has been irreverently called the Almighty Dollar, and he knows not the God of Israel.

Here is another man who worships Power in his own person, and he bends all of his energies to its attainment.

Here is yet another man who worships Authority, and he looks to the state for the redemption of sinners.

And here is another man who worships Art, and never ceases to be enabled to behold the King in his beauty.

Thus do we create other gods, the work of our own hands, and we worship these, to the exclusion of the Lord of heaven and earth.

Assuming that the complaint as to irreligiousness of the American people be true, and it is made by learned and observant men, the need of the hour is the same as confronted the Apostle Paul on Mars Hill.

And how did Paul, as he beheld the worship of many gods, meet that distracting situation?

Being forbidden by edict of the state to introduce another god, even the God of Israel, and seeing an altar erected to the unknown God, Paul seized the occasion to exclaim: "Whom ye ignorantly worship, Him declare I unto you."

The revelation of the one true God to a distracted humanity is the highest mission to which any man can devote himself.—Waco Times Herald.

WANTS CHARITABLE MEXICAN INVASION

Prominent Financier of Southern Republic in New York To Urge His Plan.

By Associated Press. New York, Nov. 7. A plea for an American invasion of Mexico, not with military force, but with the arms of charity, is made by Don Louis Roumagnac, a prominent Mexican financier who has arrived in this city with the hope of bringing the charitable invasion to a head.

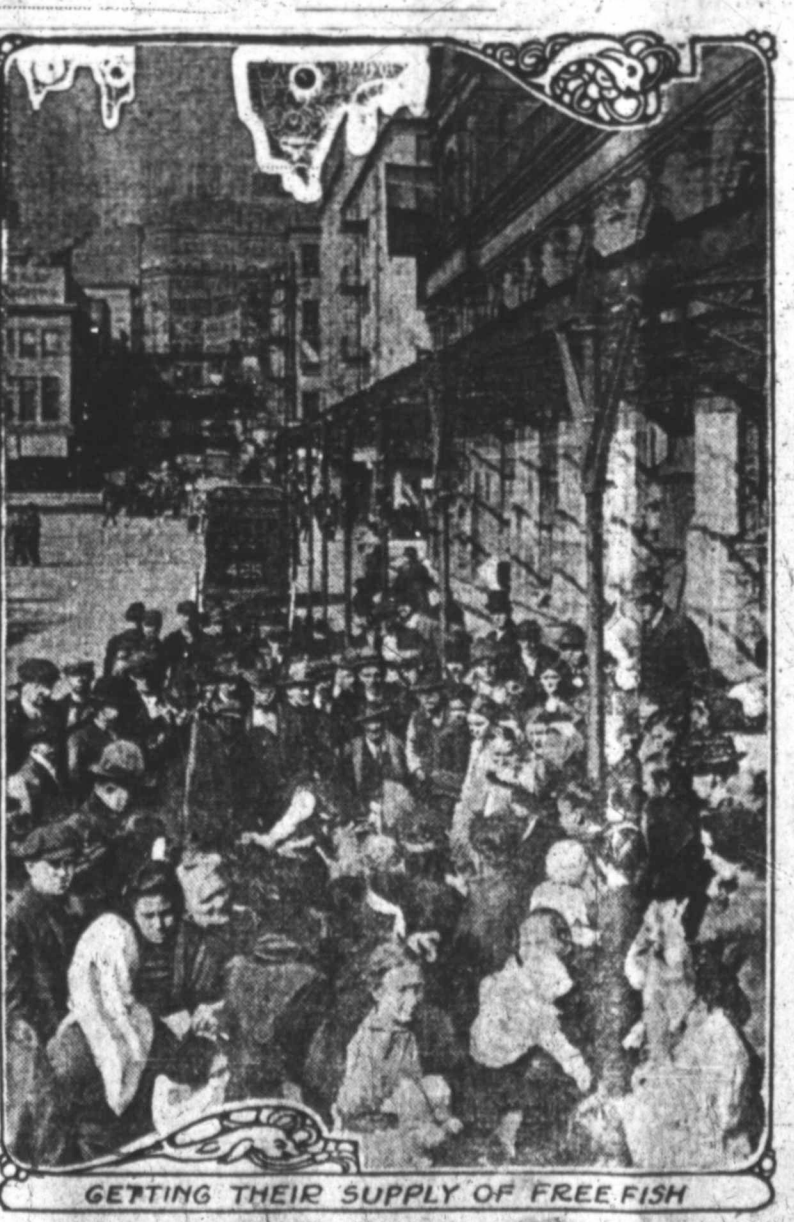

As I see the magnificent and truly admirable generosity of Americans lavished without measure on the children of dead or wounded allies, Mr. Roumagnac said, "I cannot but wonder why these splendid sentiments, these great philanthropic activities cannot, with the self same organizations—especially as regards the orphanage—also benefit that neighboring country, Mexico."

Mr. Roumagnac thinks immense advantages would result from a movement in America to aid the stricken and helpless orphans of Mexico. Many of them he would like to see brought to the United States for education, and then go back to their homes and spread a doctrine that will not only cement these two republics in strong bonds of friendship but will enlighten these 15,000,000 people of which at present, but one-tenth can read and write.

It seemed to him that although America had a great humanitarian program, Mexico in every case and "almost purposefully" was left out of this program.

"Mexico," he said, "has the same rights, the same aspirations, that any other country has. After the European war Mexico will offer the United States many compensations, both industrially and commercially. It is really the only independent neighbor of the United States, but still Mexicans are not being welcomed here as individuals or as a commercial entity."

SUFFRAGISTS ARE ACTIVE IN HOLLAND

Some of Them Are Rather Militant in Urging Their Demands on Parliament

Associated Press Mail Correspondence. The Hague, Netherlands.—The session of Parliament just opened by the "First Women of Holland" in a brilliant joint assembly of the two Chambers, held in the famous Koningin Hall at The Hague, is likely to be occupied somewhat prominently with the woman's question.

The Dutch women suffragists are by no means satisfied with the lukewarm proposal of the government to remove the constitutional obstacle in the way of giving women the vote.

They are free from more militant spirits abroad, they have set a daily picket of women outside the entrance to the second chamber, all decked out with their yellow and white rosettes, ribbons and notices.

The suffragists were there, indeed, on the opening day of the session, and lined up in double row with the idea of compelling members to run the gauntlet. Many of the worthy representatives of the people ran it, but were dosed with nothing worse than propaganda leaflets.

The suffragists drew the sovereign's attention to their cause by presenting her Majesty with a magnificent bouquet of lilies, dahlias and orchids, decorated with their colors.

What the women want is that the government shall definitely embody women's suffrage in the proposed revision of the constitution, but the prime minister, Carel van der Smissen, though himself in favor of women having the vote, declines to do this, knowing that it would imperil the entire revision measure, for the country and its politicians are by no means yet ready to accord the suffrage so easily to the sex of the sovereign who rules over them.

As the Roman Catholic "Tyd" remarks, therefore, no doubt a considerable time will yet elapse before the women of Holland march to the polling booth.

The bill to revise the constitution has got no farther yet than its preliminary stages. If passed, it will establish universal manhood suffrage in Holland and a system of proportional representation, as well as solve the thorny education problem that has for the best part of a century formed the great bone of contention between the church parties of the right and the liberal and radical parties of the left.

To the immense hampering of other crying reforms and the detriment of the nation's education. The education proposals include a compromise reached between representatives of the varying parties who sat together on a state commission.

The legislative program of this fourth and last session of the present parliament's existence further includes the old age pension bill which has the most perilous part of its journey still before it in the first chamber, as well as bills to set up a semi-elective, advisory colonial council in the Netherlands East Indies, to amend the Indian administrative regulations as to make the projected introduction of European and later native conscription permissible and to enclose the Zuyder Zee and drain

SUPPLIES ELECTION NEWS TO THOUSANDS

Flushed Bulletins, Telephone Calls and Times Extras Tell of Developments

With hundreds of people watching the election bulletins flashed on the screen in front of its office Tuesday night, hundreds of others crowding the office Wednesday morning and several score of folks both in Wichita Falls and in Northwest Texas and Oklahoma besieging the office by telephone, in addition to the thousands who receive the news through the regular and extra editions of the paper.

Although the early returns favored Hughes so overwhelmingly that eastern papers declared him elected and some news gathering associations notified their clients to the same effect, The Times pinned its faith to the Associated Press. This faith was justified to a great extent when this morning's returns showed that Wilson's "counter attack" was reclaiming many of the states thought to have been lost in the Hughes "drive."

Without waiting for the "flash" that would remove doubt as to the result, The Times issued three extra editions, one at midnight Tuesday, another at 9 a. m. Wednesday, and a third at noon Wednesday. Throughout the morning The Times office was thronged with visitors who wanted the latest information. Conflicting and contradictory reports spread over the city through the day but there was no definite word. The Times sought, most of all, to make its reports accurate and did not follow the example of many good democratic newspapers throughout the country in announcing Hughes' election prematurely.

Melvin Hull, manager of the Para Vulcanizing Company, returned yesterday from a business trip of several days in Dallas.

WICHITA FALLS IS FOR WILSON BY BIG MARGIN

Complete returns from all the city boxes give the Wilson electors 1,249, Hughes 223, socialist 58 and prohibition 6. Hurdleston led Gilmore more than four to one, getting a vote of 679 to 172. The amendment carried by a ratio of more than four to one also, 554 for and 216 against.

The vote by boxes was: City hall Wilson 257; Hughes 64; Benson 58; Handley 2; Hurdleston 195; Gilmore 18; for the amendment 136; against 43. Court house box No. 2 Wilson 144; Hughes 17; Benson 4; Handley 0; Hurdleston 28; Gilmore 33; for the amendment 95; against 22. Box 11 Wilson 25; Hughes 17; Benson 2; Handley 0; Hurdleston 8; Gilmore 0; for amendment 68; against 25. Box 12 Wilson 425; Hughes 55; Benson 17; Handley 1; Hurdleston 91; Gilmore 82; for amendment 249; against 63. Box 13 Wilson 415; Hughes 72; Benson 13; Handley 8; Hurdleston 257; Gilmore 39; for amendment 266; against 63.

With incomplete returns to hand, P. P. Langford seems to have a substantial lead in the race for public weigher, having received two votes in box 12 to High Walpole's one, and one cast for Otto Stehlik in box 13. Although in some instances the name of Hurdleston was scratched from the ballot before they were handed out to the voters, in the most of the boxes the ballots were handed out with Hurdleston's name appearing as the democratic nominee.

NORTHER AND RAIN FOLLOW ELECTION

Decided Change in Temperature Noted and Wet Weather Prevails

Promise of a norther, held out all day yesterday by a stiff wind from the south was apparently well on the way of fulfillment today when the wind had shifted to the north, bringing with it a light rain of about two hours duration, followed by a drop of approximately 35 degrees in the temperature.

The rain seems to have been fairly general over this section, although light in most places. However points all over the district covered by the Northwestern-Katy division, from Whitesboro to Purgan, Okla., and Wellington, Texas, reported good rains from soon after midnight up to the day. On the Denver the rain was very light and extended from Kirklund to Decatur. The Wichita Valley was slightly by the rain which seems to have visited that section only at points near Wichita Falls.

VAUDEVILLE BILL ENTIRELY GLASSY

Hawaiian Troupe, Comedy Sets and Comic Opera Entertain Large Crowd

Wichitans last night for a brief space of time were transported to tropical Hawaii by Pauline Thurston and her company of Royal Hawaiians to their headline offering "The Garden of Aloha" on the vaudeville bill at the Wichita Theatre. The settings were realistic and the story was entertaining as interpreted in pantomime to the accompaniment of the ukulele players and singers, with their varied plaintive strains that are not without their witchery and their charm. The hula hula dance as given by Miss Thurston, the captive princess in the "Garden of Aloha" was most effective, the act standing out as unique in the realm of vaudeville.

The kitchen gods passed over the program headlines however, and gave the palm to Moore, Gardner and Rose, a comedy stunt, which was undeniably clever and full of new stuff. Something new in "ratty stuff" was pulled by the Hebrew character of the sketch, presumably the one entitled Rose, who also performed much praise a musical comedy with a ingenue a leading man, a comedian and a chorus and a minute portion of a dramatic or sketchy nature. There were seven musical numbers and some back talk that drew laughs. The costuming was quite elaborate.

An act that deserves much praise was the roller skating offering of Simmons and Bradley. The girl was little short of wonderful in her dancing on skates and the couple performed whirlwind dances and other gymnastics that few folks would dare attempt if their feet were not separated from terra firma by rollers that sometimes have a way of acting treacherous.

Emerson and Baldwin, the juggling act, showed the audience a number of things, highly so and took the audience quite into their confidence. Higher up on the program it would have received the applause merited perhaps. Fritz and Lucy Bruch, musicians, of their deserving this characterization there is not doubt by reason of the classic selection of "The Violin and Cello" opened the last night bill. The other act was the black face stunts of Kramer and Kent. All in all the bill averaged way above last, following precedents set by the previous weekly vaudeville programs.

AMERICANS HAVE AIDED SERBIA MUCH

Oregon Woman Receives Decoration—Much Relief Work Has Gone Far Naught

Associated Press Mail Correspondence.
Athena, Greece, Nov. 7.—Miss Marcella Reed of La Grange, Oregon, who for two years has been doing for destitute Serbian children, has received from King Peter of Serbia the order of the Miloschko in recognition of her work. For the past three months, during the absence of Madame Mrs. Drouot, the head of the H. P. Frothingham Institute, assisted by Miss Emily Simmons of New York, Miss Reed has been doing the relief work in the United States for a rest.

Mrs. Charles N. Farnham of New York has been selected by the Frothingham Institute on behalf of various American Serbian relief organizations. She has left Athens for Salt Lake City where she will continue her work of studying the needs of the Serbian refugees and the civil population of Serbia with a view to securing more unity in the American relief work.

Minister of Public Instruction Djordjevic of Serbia, expressed to the Associated Press correspondent the hope that more contributions could be secured in the organization of American Serbian relief work to spare waste effort and duplication of the United States have done and are doing to help distressed Serbia.

He said: "No one can have any idea how much it means to us, without the help of the Americans so many Serbs would die that the Serbian people would be in danger of ceasing to exist."

"Most of all we shall need medicines and clothing. But after these, the simplest and cheapest of food—starch, wheat, corn meal, rice, beans and sugar are the essentials. Our people are penniless. They neither know the use nor have acquired the taste for more elaborate things to eat. Last year they received a large quantity of green corn from the United States; but they did not know how to eat it or what to do with it, and this valuable shipment was wasted on that account."

"In the matter of clothing the simplest and warmest garments are the best. In the early days of the war, we received many boxes from America and England in which kind ladies had packed low necked, flimsy ball gowns if you could have seen the Serbian peasant women who needed flannel, chertina, shirting, etc., these gauzy creations of silk and chiffon, the like of which they had never dreamed of."

"The best way of shipment is for a central forwarding committee in New York to accumulate the supplies and a shipload is gathered, then to hire a vessel and send all the supplies aboard for to Saloniki. There a distributing committee can be charged with seeing that they are placed in the way to do the most good."

SEVERAL BASEBALL TRADES PROMISED

Sale of Red Sox May Be Followed By Other Major Leagues

Associated Press.
New York, Nov. 7.—The sale of the Boston American League club, which in a month after the team has won the world's championship, is thought by many close followers of baseball politics to mark the first of a number of changes and readjustments in major league circles. Former President J. J. Lannin made no secret of the fact that the Red Sox were for sale and that if or what to do with it, several other club owners are just as willing to dispose of their holdings but lack the frankness of Lannin.

The president of the Boston Americans placed a price of $750,000 upon the club early in the present year and it is understood, was offered an amount of $500,000. Under the circumstances the sale of the Red Sox, while the clamor of the world's series victory was still fresh, at $750,000 appears in the light of a compromise. Judging from past results and attendance figures at Boston the new owners made an excellent deal when the value of the club, franchise and park property is taken into consideration.

The Boston club entered the American League in 1901 and since that season has won the junior league championship five times, and the world's championship three times. In the sixteen years the Red Sox have finished fourth or better every season except in 1906, 1907, 1908 and 1911. The average position of the team for the full period works out as 3-1-4. Furthermore Boston has always been noted as a good baseball town, and its popularity with club and fans, whether winners or losers.

Rev. F. F. Walters Describes Manual Training Department at Kansas City

Varying the usual character of the address made in Wednesday morning chapel exercises, Rev. F. F. Walters of the Christian Church this morning charmed the students at the local high school with a description of that wonderful institution, the manual training high school in Kansas City presided over by his friend Porter Graves, principal of one of the most interesting features of the description where in addition to the usual commercial, scientific and mechanical sciences is afforded. Mr. Walters told of one of the rooms where typewriting, stenography, bookbinding, and other features were being given where the girls at the typewriters turned out correct copy while keeping time to music by a Victrola. A remarkable feature of the school was the ten in the typewriting section was the getting out of four hundred individual letters, including the sealing, stamping and addressing in 11 hours.

A daily paper, the Mosaicette, of which Mr. Walters has a copy is turned out entirely by the journalistic department. All the work done in the school is done by the students. A perfect gas engine constructed by a 16 year old boy in the engineering department, and an electric motor built by a boy and girl together in the electrical department were other features of the school. The girls working together at the anvils and forges in the blacksmithing department, mechanical drawing, domestic arts and sciences, woodwork and turning and elementary courses in architecture are other features. Each of the 1,200 students are required to take some of the manual training courses in addition to the regular literary courses, and finish the four years' work thoroughly equipped in an industrial way. When the students finish, employment is secured by the school labor bureau, which also finds part employment for the 275 students of other cities, who are defraying all or a part of the expenses of their course by this means. Of this number 49 students, including seven, girls are doing outside work in $4 per week; a total of $190,000, or $40,000 per year. Most of them have money in the savings bank after paying their expenses.

NEW GERMAN AMBASSADOR GOES TO CONSTANTINOPLE

Associated Press Mail Correspondence.
The Hague, Netherlands.—Doctor Richard Von Kuhlmann, who since the outbreak of war was attached for a short time to the German embassy in Washington and has since then represented his country as minister at The Hague, is leaving shortly to take up his new appointment as ambassador in Constantinople during the absence of Count Wolf Metternich on urgent private business.

Dr. Von Kuhlmann, who is in his 44th year, is said to enjoy high favor with the emperor, and his promotion to this important post testifies equally to satisfaction with his record in the Netherlands—where he is credited with considerable influence on the economic policy followed—and to the high esteem in which his abilities are held in Berlin.

Curiously he was born in the Turkish capital, his father having been general director of the Anatolian railways and he has an intimate knowledge of eastern affairs. The absence of Count Wolf Metternich is likely to be permanent; the count has now reached his 63rd year and served for 24 years in the German diplomatic corps.

LOCAL ENDEAVORS TO ATTEND VERNON MEETING

That the interest in the coming district convention of the Christian Endeavor of the Wichita Falls district, which will be held in Vernon Friday, Saturday and Sunday, will result in a large attendance is the opinion of Attwood A. Hyde of Sherman, state field secretary of the association, who was here a while yesterday on his way to Stamford in the interest of the convention. That a number of Wichita Falls members will be in attendance at the Vernon meeting was the opinion expressed by H. H. Hamlin of the auditing department of the Northwestern, who will preside over the convention as district president.

AMERICANS NOW ACTIVE BUYERS OF ANTIQUE

Associated Press Mail Correspondence. London, Nov. 7.—American dealers in antique and "sham antique" furniture declare that the war has in local trade has been more than offset by American buyers. These Americans do not seem the least perturbed by the high ocean rates. They are however, driving better bargains than in the old days. It is no longer the custom to palm off sham antiques for real. It is said that people of moderate means are perfectly content to have things that look like the more valuable article at a correspondingly cheap figure.

ONE THING AND ANOTHER AT QUANAH RECENTLY

(Quanah Tribune-Chief.) Light-fingered gentry had to show their hand Tuesday, and with so many strangers in town, it was hard to find the criminals. One farmer had his pocket picked, while an attempt to rob the store of Baker-Hanna was frustrated by the watchman discovering at 3:30 o'clock that the back door stood open. A broken window pane showed how they had secured entrance. Nothing was found missing.

The residence of Edgar Norton, on Inglelake, was burglarized Tuesday evening while the family were attending a moving picture show. Two watches, some rings, and other jewelry and a valuable toilet set, all the silverware and a great deal of clothing were taken away by the intruders, who had forced an entrance by opening a window with a pick.

Viola, a negro of bad repute, who was turned severely in a drunken row some weeks ago, died Thursday night from the effect of her injuries. It is said that some man threw a lighted coal oil lamp at her, and that the blazing oil burned her body in a fearful manner. Nobody saw the man who did it, and the description the negro gave of him was vague, hence no arrest has been made as yet, though the officers have their eye on a certain party.

E. H. Ridley, a lightning rod agent, reports that when going to the fair grounds Tuesday night he was held up and robbed by two negro women, who took fifteen dollars away from him, and when he resisted, stabbed him in the left arm, and cut the other severely. Medical assistance was needed to stop the bleeding. The robbery occurred just east of the Blair-Hughes building.

Visitors to the circus Tuesday night were startled by seeing two negroes run through the arena, one in pursuit of the other. They dodged between the fast-riding cowboys, and the foremost darkey, seeing he was about to be overtaken, rushed into the crowd of spectators, many of whom had taken their cutting-up as part of the show. After running over some white people an Acme man jumped up and knocked one negro down, while the other was grabbed and roughly handled. About two dozen excited darkeys who had followed the two runners were hustled out of the tent, and the main culprit conducted to jail, while the show went on like nothing had happened.

Martin Crews, a childless, was greatly distressed Tuesday night when, after the show, he found his six-cylinder Buick gone. The car was found the next day east of the fair grounds, with the gasoline tank empty, and other proofs that the joyriders had been using the car to their heart's content.

STONE'S FRUIT CAKES

The simple announcement that they are STONE'S ought to be enough to insure their quality. It's absolutely impossible to give you any idea of the quality, flavor and richness of this cake through the medium of paper and ink. We could talk for pages about the materials that go into it—Pineapples from Hawaii, Almonds from Spain, Pecans from Texas, Cherries from California—what's the use of naming them over, even the entire list of twelve fruits that are used, when the deliciousness is only half in the materials, the other half being the art and skill with which they are combined to make the perfect FRUIT CAKE. And then, the price, 40 cents per pound to you. On the present market you can't buy the materials for that money. Mr. Stone informs us that his supply of fruits, etc., is limited, so it will be well for you to anticipate your wants for the entire holiday season, as a good FRUIT CAKE improves greatly with age.
