PRESIDENT BACK AT DESK, FACING MANY PROBLEMS

SUBMARINE AND MEXICAN QUESTIONS TO RECEIVE FIRST ATTENTION AND SITUATION IS ADMITTED TO BE SERIOUS

RUMORS ON CABINET

Denies Meet Reports of Prospective Changes, Though Not all of Present Secretaries May Retain Places After March

By Associated Press.

Washington, Nov. 12.—President Wilson was back at his desk in the white house today after an absence of two months.

The president prepared to take up important foreign problems which have been held in abeyance pending the election as well as other questions. These included the German submarine situation, the Mexican problems and a number of federal department questions.

The president was expected to consider first the situation which is admittedly serious. A summary of recent developments in German submarine warfare, prepared by the state department, was ready to be laid before him and in addition he probably soon will confer with Ambassador Gerard on one situation.

The president has not considered the question of changes in cabinet according to administration officials who characterized as premature the reports that he had decided on certain changes. It is possible, however, that one or two cabinet officers may not remain after March 4.

Although Mr. Wilson was tired out when he returned to the white house last night, he was up early today and had a breakfast before eight o'clock. Immediately afterward he began reading a huge stack of mail accumulated during his trip to Williamstown, Mass. The president asked first for information on the political makeup of the House of Representatives. He was told indications from present returns were that the republicans would have 217 and the democrats 212 with six members of other parties.

The president was understood to be more concerned over the makeup of the next house, chiefly because of its effect on the selection of a speaker and chairmanship of committees which he is anxious to see in the hands of democrats.

As far as legislation is concerned it was said today, Mr. Wilson is confident that most measures to be proposed by him would gain the support of enough republicans to carry them through.

Mr. Wilson continued to refuse to make any comment on the election pending receipt of formal word from Mr. Hughes and the republican national committee concerning the reelection of Henry Morgenthau, chairman of the finance committee of the democratic national committee, called on the president today. After a brief stay in Washington, the president is to go to Hot Springs, where he will make no definite visit, however, until he has gotten into the routine of official business here and learned whether the submarine or Mexican situation requires his presence. Secretary Lansing planned to confer with the president today on a recent submarine attack on vessels carrying American and on the Mexican situation.

While officials admit that the submarine situation is filled with grave possibilities no action will be taken until further reports have been received. It was said today that no evidence so far had been received by the state department which would justify a plea for war has been violated.

In case there are any changes in President Wilson's cabinet it was understood today that among those being considered seriously are Harry A. Garfield, president of Williams College, a son of former President Garfield, Samuel L. Seabury, the defeated democratic candidate for governor of New York, and Vance C. McGehee, chairman of the democratic national committee.

There have been many reports circulated regarding changes in the cabinet but officials in close touch with the president declared today that it is almost certain that he will urge all the present members of the cabinet to remain at their posts.

It is considered possible, however, that one or more members of the cabinet may resign for personal reasons. Secretary McAdoo has been frequently mentioned as one member likely to resign and Representative Carter Glass of Virginia, chairman of the House banking and currency committee has been suggested for his post. It was stated definitely today that Mr. McAdoo can remain in the president's cabinet as long as he desires.

Because of the probability that the next House will be republican the president is laying plans to procure as much important legislation as possible during the short session ending next month. The president has begun preparation of his next message to Congress.

By Associated Press. Laredo, Texas, Nov. 12.—Mexico City newspapers rearing the border Saturday contain statements that the Gulf Oil Company, an American corporation, will purchase the Mexican properties of Sir Wessman Pearson of England. The Pearson interests control large oil holdings in Tehuantepec and Tampico, as well as being largely interested in the National Railroad of Mexico, and in improvement concerns at Vera Cruz, Puerto and Salina Cruz.

Points to Approach of Time When Labor Must Make Move For World Peace

By Associated Press.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 12.—Organized labor activities in the field of legislation, international politics and domestic affairs during the last year were set forth at length in the annual report of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor, presented here today to the Federation's 25th annual convention.

The membership of the Federation is given at 2,071,836 on September 30, the close of the fiscal year, an increase of about 17,000 over the previous year and more than 8,000,000 in the nineteen years of its existence. There are 21,311 local unions in the Federation and 43,475 federations. Receipts for the year are shown at $404,497 with a cash balance at its close of $289,360.

The report closes with a plea to workers to continue their efforts for better conditions through organization and cooperation.

There are opening up before the labor movement, the report says, "many opportunities to mold and influence the foundations of economic, social and political organization. It is a time to call attention to our well known slogan which represents the way by which present progress was achieved. 'Organize'."

The report also points to the fact that the great opportunity that lies before the labor movement is to bring about a strong organization on an all-over basis that will be able to bring that we should expect our disorganization to be the respect and confidence manifested to us by the great nations and the organized labor movement of the world.

In discussing international labor relations the report speaks of the effort to have a world labor congress held at the time and place of the holding of a world peace conference.

The report also speaks of the rejection of the suggestion of an organized labor in Great Britain and Germany which would be a necessary step in our proposal to have a world labor congress.

The attitude of the labor movement in the United States is also discussed. It is said that the labor movement in this country is in a position to make a definite contribution to the general peace movement.

The report also speaks of the need for a world labor congress and the need for a world labor movement.

The conference was called to discuss and if possible reach some agreement or confidence as to working out the provisions of the law which took effect January 1.

NEW BRITISH DRIVE MAY BE IN PROGRESS

Another Offensive Suddenly Opens to North of Somme Sector—Two Villages and Some Prisoners Taken

By Associated Press.

Paris, Nov. 12.—The British offensive in the Somme region has been reported to have begun this morning. A press dispatch from British headquarters says fighting is still in progress and that 2,000 prisoners have been taken.

The offensive was inaugurated on both sides of the Ancre river and represents an extension of the fighting front of the Somme region. Although there has been some fighting in the vicinity of Beaumont-Hamel in recent months the main engagements have taken place below the Ancre. There where the battle is now going on in nearly four miles north of Thiepval at the northern end of the Somme offensive sector.

The Ancre river or brook approximately bounds the northern limit of the sharp salient made in the German lines by the prolonged Franco-British offensive in the Somme region. Apparently General Haig's strategy is now attacking this salient from both sides.

In a broad sense, this salient extends some six miles northward to Arras, but whether the next British operation covers its entire breadth or an attempt is under way merely to cut it in two, has not been made plain by the official statement.

Reports from Petrograd, so far unconfirmed by official advice, declare that the Russian army in Dobrudja is continuing its retreat in Dobrudja under disastrous conditions. It is even said that the Russians have been ordered to evacuate the town of south of Tchernovod which if correct would mean that Von Mackensen's army was being taken in the rear of that it has been forced back from the Constantza-Tchernovod railway line.

His force is said to be demoralized from reverses, losses, disease and lack of reinforcements.

The Black Sea port of Constantza is reported again under fire of the Italian fleet.

The recent Serbian victory in Macedonia appears from the entente reports to have been a brilliant one. Paris reports that the Germans and Bulgarians were pushed back nearly two miles in the Cerba river region, southwest of Monastir, in a two day battle and that the German prisoners were sufficient to account for an entire additional Serbian successes to the north along the bend of the river, carrying the existing 16 miles on Monastir still further east. Official Berlin today reports that entente artillery was yesterday shelling Tchernovod in Dobrudja from across the Danube.

Teutonic progress continues on the Transylvanian border of Roumania. The German statement says three towns were captured by German troops by the Roumanians were repulsed and more than 1,000 prisoners taken.

The French according to Berlin opened an offensive yesterday in upper Alsace, but were defeated in their attempts to advance.

Germany's offensive efforts to gain ground in the Somme region. Today's German official statement, besides indicating that Field Marshal Von Mackensen is still in possession of the Tchernovod-Constantza railway line, declares that hostile forces advancing down the Danube in Dobrudja were driven back.

Regarding the fighting along the Transylvanian border, Bucharest reports the Roumanians as holding their own in an all day battle northeast of Campulung but being compelled to retire under pressure on the right bank of the River Aluta.

German torpedoes made a raid into the Gulf of Finland along the water route to Petrograd Friday night and bombarded the coast at an unannounced point for a short time. The Russian official statement today announcing this raid says that a majority of the raiders, which were 36-knots torpedoes were sunk. There were a dozen killed or wounded in the bombardment, including five children according to the statement.

He had been helped from a charitable organization and was given a job as a fur dyer. "How many immigrants have you here now?" he asked. "It was told me 200."

NUMBER OF CONFIDENTIAL DISPATCHES GONE AND INQUIRY STARTS

DENY GRAVES' STORY

Embassy Officials Ridicule Interview of Man Arrested on Extortion Charge

By Associated Press.

Washington, Nov. 12.—The German embassy here today denied the story of a number of highly confidential official dispatches at present missing were in the pocket from which Karl Armand Graves extracted letters he is charged with having used in an attempt to obtain $25,000 from the British ambassador.

The nature of the dispatches is unknown. The German government has been sent all information regarding the incident. An investigation is being held immediately by the British with a view of ascertaining what is an exact paper are missing, as well as the identity of the messenger from whom Graves secured the letters.

It was made clear today that Graves' story, as told by the embassy, through whom Graves attempted to get the $25,000 may testify against him but would prefer not to do so. It is deemed essential to the prosecution of Graves' permit him to appear in court will be asked by Counselor William.

It was learned today that the packet from which Graves obtained the letter addressed to Countess Von Bismarck had been officially sealed by the German foreign office. The letters which have so far been seen by embassy officials are dated early in September. It is presumed they were stolen on their way to the United States sometime between the 1st and 1st of September.

All details of the story told by Graves last night in New York were ridiculed and denied today at the German embassy.

BIDS FAREWELL TO HIS CONGREGATION

Affecting Scene When Dr. Andrews Takes Leave of M. E. Church, South

Eyes were wet and voices choked with feeling as the members of the M. E. Church, South, bid their former pastor, Dr. Andrews, farewell at the close of his farewell sermon delivered Sunday morning. After a stirring sermon, said to be one of the strongest delivered in the city, the invitation for church membership was given and nine persons accepted the call. With the closing hymn, "And Be With You 'Till We Meet Again" over and the benediction said, the congregation pressed forward to bid farewell to the pastor who had been with them for two years but who leaves this week for his charge in Fort Worth.

The sermon was prefaced by a tribute to Dr. Andrews delivered by Judge John A. Ray on behalf of the congregation. Feelingly Dr. Andrews responded to the words of love, esteem and friendship as expressed by the speaker.

"I had not intended," he said, "to let anything of a personal nature enter into this, my last sermon to you, but after that beautiful expression of love that there are some things I must say. I want to thank you for your love, confidence and friendship. You can never know in full what they have meant to me. That I love you but feel I must express my feeling for you, I have entered into all your joys and sorrows. I have baptized your babies, married your young people and buried your dead and I have had a share in your lives which experience nothing could buy. And now that the time has come to say good-bye, perhaps forever for some of us, I want to say that if at any future time you can do anything for any of our people, please do not hesitate to ask. May God bless you every one."

Amplifying his text as 1 Thessalonians, III, "And we beseech you brethren to know them who labor among you and are over you in the Lord and admonish you; and to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake," Dr. Andrews delivered his sermon on the church's obligations to the pastor.

"As I am no longer your pastor," he began, "I can say to you what would have been unbecoming had I said it when your pastor. I want to talk to you plainly as a congregation of your duties to your pastor, who is over you in the Lord. I want to exhort you to be at peace among yourselves and to hold him who is over among you in high esteem. Know your pastor."

There are several phases of the problem of the church's obligation to its pastor which I want to discuss. First is the material phase; give your pastor your financial support. And right now I want to state that never have I had a charge where the people were more liberal than are the people of Wichita Falls. They have come everything for me as a pastor. I want to thank all of you for the splendid way in which myself and family have been treated. It is true that the financial consideration of a church bill it amounts to much, nevertheless. And in this connection I want to urge you to support your stewards. Long experience with Methodist church stewards have given me the utmost respect for them. They are due all honor and praise and have much to contend with standing between the needs of the preacher and his family and a congregation that perhaps is not so liberal as it should be.

Several incidents of his ministry, in which the stewards were concerned, some bordering on pathos, and others humorous, for Dr. Andrews ever brings in a touch of humor, were told in concluding his appeal for the members' financial support of the church and pastor.

"Second," he continued, "give your pastor your sympathy. He needs it; he needs it with him. I have friends who have gained as a pastor scattered from the farthest point in Alabama to all parts of Texas and I regard them as pleasant oases in the desert of my life. O, my friends with your pastor! Banish all misunderstanding. Don't talk about him behind his back, go straight to him and tell him if you find any fault with him. And above all don't destroy the faith of your children in your pastor. Don't criticize him in the home. How can you expect your children to have faith in the church and in religion when you criticize God's representatives?"

"Then I would urge that you give your pastor your moral support," the speaker said, "back him up when he takes a stand for the right. Some of you fell out with me on one occasion when I took a decided stand for prohibition and made it a prominent issue. Some took a little cool and, perhaps, thought I rather exceeded the bounds of ministerial authority. But let me say that when a pastor makes the opinion of the people the standard by which to judge his pulpit utterances, that same day the devil takes control of the church."

"Amen" was fervently echoed from all parts of the building at this last remark.

The preacher takes his marching orders from God," Dr. Andrews continued, "don't criticize him in the performance of his duty."

He told of an incident in connection with his charge in a church in Alabama, when he once thought he would be driven out of town because of his stand in a certain matter.

"There was a cancer in the life of the people of the town, an institution that was ruining young lives and blackening souls, and the resort, a lido, a shore pavilion and dance hall, was owned by the big man of the town, so it should be let alone."

He told of his fight on the evil and of the subsequent backing of the stewards and the church which saved the day for him. "Give the preacher your moral support when you know he is right. Many a preacher has been driven out of town, broken hearted and broken spirited because his people withheld their moral support when they knew he was right but when right would have interfered with their little selfish ends. As he peared the close of his sermon the speaker's voice broke and his last exhortation that the congregation give their pastor their prayers was delivered in much feeling."

HIGHER SCHOOL TAX TO BE ASKED HERE

Passage of Amendment Will Be Taken Advantage of By Local Trustees

With the success of the school tax amendment to the State constitution apparently assured, on the face of it complete returns, the trustees of the Wichita Falls independent district are already making plans for taking advantage of it.

A twenty cent advance in the local school tax, making it 70 cents instead of 50 cents, will be asked by the trustees. It will be necessary to submit this to the voters of the district and this will be done before the tax levy for next year is made. The 20-cent advance will yield about $25,000 more revenue annually on present valuations, it is estimated.

TURKEY SHIPPING SEASON UNDER WAY

Much Higher Prices Being Paid Here—Several Cars Already Sent Out

The turkey shipping season has started in this city and promises to continue until nearly Christmas. Wichita Falls has come to be one of the principal turkey shipping points of the Southwest within recent years and while the shipments will not be as large this year as in past seasons due to a scarcity in the birds, a heavy business is anticipated by the Overstreet Produce Company, which handles most of the shipments from this city.

Four cars have already been sent out, all going to Boston, where Overstreet ships most of his turkeys. This is only a small portion of the season's business.

Turkey growers are getting 50 percent more for their birds this year. Last year they received twelve cents per pound, live weight; this year they are being paid eighteen cents per pound. A corresponding advance has resulted in the price that the ultimate consumer pays for the piece de resistance of his Thanksgiving dinner.

NOTABLE COMPLIMENT PAID LOCAL MUSICIAN

A compliment of much import has been paid a local singer, Mrs. Walter B. Robertson, that of being mentioned in a very flattering way in the Musical America of the current week. The item follows:

"Mrs. Walter B. Robertson of Wichita Falls, Texas, is one of the most gifted and successful pupils that McCall Lanham has turned out in several years at the American Institute of Applied Music. She is a soprano with a voice of unusually lovely quality, and under Mr. Lanham's direction has acquired a large repertoire in oratorio, operatic and song literature. She has spent six summer sessions at the American Institute of Applied Music 212 W. 59 st., pursuing her vocal studies with Mr. Lanham and at the same time has worked with William Fairchild Sherman in piano and harmony. Mrs. Robertson is well known both as an artist and teacher in the south, where she has convincingly shown her ability in both roles and has directed choruses in the Baptist churches in San Angelo and Wichita Falls, Texas. Mrs. Robertson has a large class of pupils in Wichita Falls. The last of November she will give a concert in her home town."

FRIEZE-MORGAN WEDDING HERE THIS AFTERNOON

At 1:30 this afternoon Miss Ethel Frieze became the bride of Chester Morgan, the ceremony taking place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Arizee with Rev. R. C. Rosten, some time sooner than originally planned, comes as something of a surprise to the friends of the young people, none of whom had been apprised of the change in plans. There was present only the immediate family of the bride but all arrangements were most attractive and in keeping with the fall wedding. Chrysanthemums in gold and white blanketed the mantel pieces and marked the columns between music room and dining room. The reception and dancing were held in the living room and the light clusters as well were shaded by masses of chrysanthemums. The roses were full wedding. The nuptial music was furnished by Miss Louise Frieze, sister of the bride, the piano selection preceding the entrance of the young couple, unattended and continuing through the reading of the ring ceremony. The bride wore her traveling suit, a modish tailored model of midnight blue velvet with sea-shell collar. The gown and skirt were trimmed with dapples of grey which was matched in the high-cut boots. A blouse of white georgette with other accessories to harmonize and a black velvet hat trimmed with gaurah completed the attractive toilette. Her flowers were of white roses and orange effect. The groom was garbed in a dark business suit. Mr. and Mrs. Morgan left this afternoon for Dallas, Oklahoma City and other points in Oklahoma.

The bride, a girl attractive and charming in every way, was born and reared in Wichita Falls. After finishing at the local high school she studied at Kild-Key at Sherman. The groom, for several years connected with the First National Bank of Oklahoma is a graduate of the University of Oklahoma and is known as a most estimable young man, highly regarded in social and business circles. To Mr. and Mrs. Morgan in their new estate will be extended the sincerest of congratulations from their host of friends. They will be at home on their return at Kemp Kort.

DISCOURAGES DISCHARGE OF NATIONAL GUARDSMEN

By Associated Press. San Antonio, Tex., Nov. 13.—National guardsmen are not to be discharged for any reason other than the "interest of the government" according to new instructions from Secretary Baker. It was admitted by army officers that this practically closes the door to guardsmen who are desirous of leaving the service for various reasons.

Included in the order was the explanation that the granting of all the numerous applications of business and professional men from the guards would disorganize many militia service and seriously impair the efficiency service and favorable action on the part of the government would be a discrimination against others similarly circumstanced.

It was stated that it was impossible for the department to definitely say when the guard or any part of it would be returned to home stations.

CAMPAIGN AGAINST VILLA IS PUSHED

Two Columns Sent in Pursuit, Defenders of Chihuahua Are Strengthened

By Associated Press. Chihuahua City, Nov. 13.—The division of troops under General Murgas, it is officially announced here, has begun to advance northward from Escalon in two columns one of which is said to be proceeding up the line of the Mexican Central, repairing the track, while the other, consisting of 300 cavalrymen is paralleling the track on a hunt for bandits.

Local military authorities here state that Villa is near the burning border, so that this movement will cut him off from the north or in the event of his escape northward will place him beyond the reach of the forces of Murgas and the cavalry that General Trevino would dispatch from Chihuahua. The temporary fortifications encircling Chihuahua, nine miles in circumference are being strengthened. A double row of barbed wire entanglements has been constructed outside the infantry trenches while within three strong earthen redoubts are being built.

These redoubts hold 300 men each and are provided with artillery. Santa Rosa, the hill dominating the approach to the city, is fortified and armed with seven large caliber guns.

General Gonzales Cuellar, a classmate of General Trevino at the military academy and in charge of the fortifications, commands 2000 men, mostly veterans of the war of Eban, which held out 72 days against a force double its size, led by Villa.

CHANGE IN RULES FOR ARMY SERVICE

Soldiers Who Become Proficient to Serve Only One Year—Several Recruits Here

Active service on an enlistment in the regular army may now be terminated after one year's service under a new law which has just gone into effect, according to a notice received by the local army recruiting station. The terms of enlistment remains the same, three years in the active service and four years in the reserve, during which latter period no active service is required.

The new provision allows the discharge of a man after one year's service when he has shown proficiency in military science and is certified by his company commander to be a thoroughly trained man. It is expected that thousands of young men who would be willing to give one year from their civilian life to military training, but who would not be willing to sacrifice three years from private life.

Five recruits were from the private to the recruit depot last week by the local recruiting station. They are: Carl and Claude S. Parker of Robert Lee being sent to the coast artillery corps; Hartwell H. Griffin of Port O'Connor to the cavalry; and George F. McCommas of Lehigh, Pa., and William J. Timms of Woodson to the infantry.

Saying that he was enlisting because he was hungry, and making no bones about the matter, he said he was recruited Uncle Sam's navy via the local recruiting station during the past week. He was a magnificent specimen physically and seemed to possess above the average of intelligence. Commenting by the local office had no hesitation in enlisting him as an apprentice seaman.

Other recruits secured last week are: Henry S. Carter of Robert Lee, Texas; apprentice seaman, Carl Madden of Bolton, coal passer; Robert C. Phillips of Scurry, Texas, apprentice seaman.

KATY COMMITTEE COLLECTING JUNK

Party of Officials Here to See That No Scrap Metal Goes to Waste

Collection and sale of junk metal has already bought the Katy system thousands of dollars and is expected to bring much more, the opinion of a party of officials of that road who were here recently on a job of the system; they are giving special attention to this question.

Scrap iron and junk are now worth as much as the finished articles were when first turned out of the factory, prices on all metals having advanced greatly within the past two years. The office of old paper has also advanced. Realizing this, the Katy decided to market all its useless metal or to find some use for apparently worthless pieces.

At Whitesboro the officials discovered a car load of scrap iron and some other valuable salvage. They will spend ten days on this division, where the work has just started. Yesterday morning they went to Newcastle on a special train and after returning will proceed north on the Northwestern. The party includes M. M. Drake, general superintendent; W. M. Ham, timber inspector; C. B. Foster, traveling storekeeper; J. C. Jackson, traveling stopkeeper; L. M. Fontaine, secretary; W. M. Drake, All are from Parsons, Kansas.

POKER GAME NEAR ALTUS RESULTS IN TWO DEATHS

(Frederick Leader)

Once Phipps, formerly a resident of Frederick, was killed at Altus last Thursday evening in a card game. A negro, Louis Drake, understood to have been his murderer, was in turn shot and killed by another white man in the game. Phipps' body was brought here for burial. Funeral services were held Sunday and burial made at the home of Mrs. M. Woods. According to a message received by the leader from Altus, Phipps, Roy McClain, T. J. King and other white men and Louis Drake and "Heavy" Jones, negroes, were engaged in a card game behind the oil mill dam, adjacent to the dam. When he insisted on leaving, Drake is said to have shot him three times with a 22 automatic pistol. One of the shots went through Phipps' heart, another through the hand and another in the hip. He died instantly. The other white man in the game is said to have then shot Drake with a 22 automatic pistol, wounding him twice, one ball entering just above his heart and the other in the hip. Drake was shot and died several times. His dead body was found in Kimberlin's pasture, with nearly all of the clothes torn off, evidence of a dark, curly negro in his dying agony. Two poker hands were found at the scene of the tragedy the following morning, one consisting of aces and the other of aces and a jack. McClain, Prior and Johnson were all arrested and are being held for investigation into the double killing.

CARLOAD OF TURKEYS IS SHIPPED FROM GRAHAM

(West Texas Reporter)

Last Friday a drove of about five hundred turkeys left Woodson and arrived in Graham Tuesday afternoon. They were in charge of W. J. Corley of Woodson and upon arrival were quickly dressed for the market and will be shipped to W. E. Scott & Co. of Weatherford. About 600 head were taken from the car here and met with the same fate yesterday morning. This is the first shipment of dressed turkeys in carload lots ever shipped out of Graham, and to think of them leaving us just on the verge of Thanksgiving, makes us feel that our chances for the usual big dinner will be rather slender.

SIMPLICITY MUCH IN EVIDENCE IN FASHIONS THIS SEASON

Special to The Times. Fashion has not asserted in the least from the simplicity that has been a marked feature in the very first models with which the season opened. Now, as then, most frocks depend on the beauty of the material and simplicity of line for their success rather than on very elaborate trimmings. There was a time when the trimmings for a dress cost as much, if not more than the material, to the amusement especially of the woman who wanted to can add a great deal of style to her incipuous woman, with very little of dress by a simple embroidered motif worked in heavy silk or wool yarn. A narrow banding of fur added to a collar or the edges of sleeves also gives a distinguished touch to any dress.

Another means by which fashion eliminates the need for trimming is by the use of two materials for fashioning a dress. It may be two contrasting shades of the same material or two different materials in the same shade that are used. Both effects are very charming and highly popular.

The pretty one-piece dress sketched here may be developed in two shades of satin, or in satin and broadcloth. The upper collar should be of Georgette finished with neat edging, and the lower one of the same material used for the pleated section of the skirt. The new sleeve, curving out to a point below the elbow is outlined with a row of tiny buttons, and the lower edge is finished with braid.

The other illustration shows a stylish model which has met with great success. The design, which breathes simple elegance, is distinctly appropriate for the formal dress that every woman finds it necessary to have at least one of. Such frocks this season are fashioned of beautiful chiffon velvets, velveteen, lustrous satins or soft woolen materials with a sheen, like duvetyne, velours and broadcloth. The snug bodice, fitted with soft pleats at the underarm, is which is surely gaining favor this season. The ubiquitous pockets are here represented in the form of an extension of the bodice, and they are decorated with colored embroidery in a conventional design.

The Use of Paisley Shawls. Something very attractive and distinctly attractive in the line of trimmings is the use of Paisley shawls, or Oriental silks giving this effect. At all the social gatherings this touch has been very prominent and proved exceedingly popular. The genuine Paisley shawl has been used by those fortunate enough to possess one of these shawl handed down from previous generations will find substitutes in the new silks specially designed to give this effect. The Paisley shawl is employed in many ways, not only for trimming dresses but for hats, too. A very handsome dress was seen recently in which the upper part was made of a Paisley shawl and the skirt and sleeves of broadcloth. In the collection of Paris importations there was a striking set of cape collar, fur-ban and muff of Paisley combined with fur. This combination was also seen on the collar of a dress, the fur being used to edge the Paisley collar. Another use to which the Paisley shawl has been put is the making of pretty, fancy handbags, and it is also used very effectively by milliners.

Dainty Neckwear. Fashions have turned again to dainty neckwear in the form of jabots and collars of real lace, embroidered nets and fine tulle with hand embroidered decorations. A smartly dressed woman on Fifth Avenue wore a beautiful jabot of real lace over the shoulders of her dark green tailored broadcloth suit, which had a deep sailor collar of fur.

Henry Morganthau, chairman of the finance committee of the democratic national committee, announces that the presidential campaign closed with the national committee $270,000 in the hole.

Announcement is made that the Confederate Reunion at Washington next year will be held during the week of May 25th.

Tex. Rickard has again gotten into the limelight. This time Tex. has the distinction of being the heaviest bettor on President Wilson's re-election.

Organization of a county committee to have charge of the campaign for a road bond issue is being perfected and the time will soon be at hand when the people of the county will be called upon to vote bonds.

Fortunate indeed, is the United States during this critical period in the world's history to retain in the President's chair the man who has guided us through troubled waters and knows where the dangerous breakers are lashing against our neutral shores.

The Dallas Times-Herald says: "The next four years will be years in which the president of the United States will have to face the staggering problems that will result from the termination of the European war and the resulting world-wide reconstruction."

For solving those problems the people need the very best skill that they have. They have determined on the strength of the record Woodrow Wilson has already made, that he is their man.

What is true in international affairs, can by the same process of reasoning be true in conducting the business of the nation. The President and his cabinet now have a settled policy that the people understand.

There are many subjects in which the public is interested, and one obvious fact is that the Republican management woefully misread the public mind. They thought it was treasonously heroic and writing under a sense of national disgrace, when in fact it was merely sensible.

I saw the United States after more than two years of world war, at peace and on as good terms with the world as could possibly be expected.

There is just one way of getting around this high cost of living. It is for more of us to get back on the farm. Even since the beginning of the European war the increased scale of wages in the factories and shops has resulted in still further drafts upon farm laborers and even farm owners and farm production has by no means kept pace with the demand.

The country underfoot that we accepted. Impassioned oratory about a futile protest against the invasion of Belgium, an impassioned prevention of the Lusitania, crimes, and generally imposing our own conditions upon fighting Europe—without at all fighting ourselves—simply bored the public.

The Republican party is originally formed was not a sectional party. Sectionalism was the result of the conditions that followed the war between the States, and possibly neither North nor South is altogether blameless.

Sectionalism is wholly unnecessary; it wears a hollower-than-thou aspect. But we shall not be rid of it altogether and absolutely so long as we maintain tariff taxation.

It is not a sectional party. It is a party that seeks to advantage itself at the expense of another section, and nothing is so great an aid in that behalf as tariff taxation.

Views Given on War's Outcome by Both Sides

By Associated Press.
London, Nov. 13.—Two optimistic views of the war from the standpoint of the allies are given in morning newspapers. The first is a quotation from the speech made at the lord mayor's banquet by Field Marshal Viscount French, who said: "It seems that the contest is approaching a climax to come either now or in the spring. We must remember, however, that a climax and an end are not necessarily the same thing."

The second opinion was expressed by General Alexis Brusilov, speaking to a British correspondent at Russian headquarters. He said: "The war is won today. It is merely a question of speculation as to how much longer it will be before the enemy is convinced that their cause is lost."

The general added that he spoke with authority in declaring that the whole of Russia from the emperor to the humblest soldier was determined to protect, help and support Roupina in every possible way.

AGENTS' EFFICIENCY MEETING IS HELD

Northwestern Association Has Session at Fredericks and Hears Several Lectures.
Prevention of freight claims was the subject of a lecture delivered to the meeting of the Northwestern Agents' Efficiency Association at Fredericks yesterday afternoon, by Joe Marshall of Dallas, freight claim agent for the Katy. Other lectures were those by E. J. Pope of this city, commercial agent for the Northwestern, and by G. I. Jarrett, agent at Burkburnett. The meetings were held in the Carnegie library building at Fredericks. The whole party enjoyed dinner at the Storey hotel. Following the business meeting, a religious meeting was held, A. B. Maples, agent at Wichita Falls, presiding at the piano. A social meeting in the library building at night was held. The next meeting of the association will be held at Fredericks some time in February. Those in attendance from this place included: J. W. Butz, superintendent; E. J. By Associated Press.
Brownsville, Texas, Nov. 13.—Juan de la Rosa, alleged leader of bandit raids in this section of Texas a year ago, has been executed in the prison at Monterey, Mexico, according to reports in Matamoros. Mexican Consul J. A. Garza stated that he had no official information on the subject. This rumor is the first heard of de la Rosa since last June, when he was known to have been near the Texas border with about 400 followers. Carranza officials at that time stated De la Rosa would be run down.

By Associated Press.
Austin, Texas, Nov. 13.—At the regular monthly meeting of the state board of education today, the board purchased $110,550 new school bonds, paying cash therefor. These bonds are for the permanent school fund. The board also received a large number of applications for aid under the $500,000 now available for rural schools, but decided not to make any apportionment of this money until next January or February.

A wide range of models, many of them copies and variations of imported models from famous European designers, are now on display in our Coat and Suit Section.

Note the rare touch of youthfulness in the lines of the new models. They show well that even in war times there is the joy of creative work in some hearts in Paris—the source of this Wooltex creation.

We are just now at the outset of the busy coat season, so it is well to attend to this matter of a reliable coat while such models as these are to be had. And while the range of sizes is unbroken.

DUCKS PLENTIFUL AROUND THIS CITY

Many Limit Bags Brought In—Change in Dove Season Likely Before Next Year

With ducks plentiful than ever at Lake Wichita, local hunters are enjoying good sport there, and limit bags are being brought in. Ducks were out in force yesterday and found the birds numerous, not only at Lake Wichita but at many other tanks and water holes in this vicinity. When the season first opened ducks were disappointingly scarce, but the recent colder weather has made them plentiful. The dove season has practically ended in this section. It is still in full swing, however, and is reported very plentiful and some good shooting is anticipated when the season opens December 1. This is probably the last year that dove shooting will be permitted as early as September 1; a strong effort will be made to have the law changed so that the season will operate in the movement. There is considerable sentiment in favor of protecting doves at all seasons. Few game law violations here have been reported this year. A sum in excess of $100 has been pledged, it is reported, by a number of Wichitans as a reward for the arrest and conviction of violators.

PAVING OF STREETS AT BURKBURNETT PLANNED

(Burkburnett Star) The city council held an interesting meeting last Monday night at which a number of important matters were considered, one of which was the paving of the principal business streets of town, leading east from the depot, with some of the cross streets. This matter has been considered for some time by some of our citizens who feel that a start should be made in street paving. Some of the owners of lots facing on Third avenue have proposed to donate a considerable part of the cost of paving. A committee composed of W. D. Chas. R. L. Eads, W. W. Graham and M. L. Alday was appointed to ascertain the cost of paving Third avenue from the depot to D street, at least. It is possible that if the matter is begun that B and C streets will be paved for the length of a half block in either direction at the intersection with Third avenue. The matter of raising money for the purpose was considered at length. It seemed a matter for discussion as to whether bonds should be voted or city scrip issued. All these matters will be thoroughly gone over, of course, before any definite action is taken.

AT THE THEATRES

"BEHIND LIFE'S STAGE" AT THE GEM MONDAY

Charming is "Behind Life's Stage," the latest picture of Allan Holubar, in which Flora Parker, Dehaven, is starred and which will show at the Gem Monday. There is no use wasting words describing this masterpiece in miniature, for it is perfect in all the details of plot, direction, acting and photography. Nanette has a difficult time endeavoring to provide livelihood for herself and her small sister, and the care of her relatives. Her four-faced manager, answering an advertisement for an errand girl in a millinery shop, Nanette is at first refused the position by the milliner, but before she leaves the shop the proprietor, who has seen the pretty little girl, stops her and gives her the position. In spite of the fact that Nanette promises the payment of her rent, the landlady turns the two into the street. Nanette is frightened, yet she bravely leaves the small sister in the park while she goes to "rescue" her. Nanette has a fight as soon as possible. That evening she decides that the two will sleep in the store, and surreptitiously sneaks the small sister into the store after closing time. Nanette has a dream, in which the milliner plays the part of a witch and the proprietor the Black Prince, both bent on her destruction. Actually she is Nanette and her little sister, so great is her fear that she awakens and finds herself looking into the face of a man, held by a burglar who has entered the store. The policeman, who has long wished to become Nanette's guardian for life captures the burglar. Nanette, her sister and quickly leaves the store. Dan follows closely and later has the pleasure of rescuing her from a high beam fence upon which her dress is caught. She promises to allow him to care for them.

"THE COMMON LAW" TO SHOW AT THE MAJESTIC

The management of the Majestic Theatre takes special pride in the announcement that Clara Kimball Young will be shown here on Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 21 and 22 in the widely advertised Selznick-Picture production of Robert W. Chambers' novel "The Common Law." Few screen productions have attracted the advance attention that this picture has aroused, and from all reports it will prove the greatest of Miss Young's many successes. The story of the book has been faithfully adhered to, and under the mastery of direction of Albert Capellani, it has been filmed as a six-part photoplay of unusual beauty and dramatic power. Mr. Lewis J. Selznick, the noted film producer, founder and president of the Clara Kimball Young Corporation, has surrounded the star with a brilliant cast including such names as Robert T. Harlan, Paul Capellani, Edna Hunter, Lillian Cook, Julia Stuart, Edward M. Kimball, Lydia Knott and D. J. Flannagan. The picture is a story of a woman, Valerie West, artist model, and Louis Neville, an artist. The scenes are mainly set in the heart of New York City and feature some of the most interesting phases of life in that Metropolis.

BLANCHE SWEET AT EMPRESS WEDNESDAY

Blanche Sweet, the brilliant Lasky star, who has established herself among the idols of the screen, will be seen at the Empress Wednesday in the thrilling society drama, "Public Opinion" written especially for her by Margaret Turbill, celebrated novelist. It is a Paramount program release. Blanche Sweet is one of the most interesting personalities before the theatre going public. In each of her roles she has shown a versatility which has appeared, she is seen in a totally different role, and gives each one a different characterization. She has been seen as a Russian royal household, a Swedish maid of all work, and an anarchist, and now in "Public Opinion" she is seen in a sensational newspaper report prejudices the mind of the public against this young woman, who is absolutely innocent of all wrongs, and how her whole future happiness is jeopardized by what is supposed to have been one false step. This is a gripping and enterprising picture. One of the unusual features of this striking photodrama, is the efforts of the spirit of the woman, who is supposed to have been poisoned, to direct the hand of justice towards the guilty person. Throughout the story until the murderer is exposed, including such well-known players Earle Foxe, Edythe Chapman, Elliott Dexter, Tom Forman and Raymond Hatton. The production is one of the most lavish the Lasky Company has ever made. The big court room scene is an exact replica of that in which the trial was held upon which the story is based.

THEATRE OWNERS.

There has been a change in management and the business incidental to the change has interrupted the arrangements for the booking. This is not to be taken to mean that there will be no more vaudeville, such an announcement would bring howls of grief from every section of Wichita Falls, but Mr. Markowitz announces that he is trying to arrange to continue the weekly vaudeville. Further arrangements will be made with much interest.

TRIANGLE FEATURE AT THE MAJESTIC MONDAY

Billy Austin, the central figure of the new Triangle play, "Hell to Pay" starring Wilfred Lucas, will be shown at the Majestic Theatre, in the best of a big lumber camp in the Northwest. He is known as "Hell to Pay" because, when his orders are not carried out, that is exactly what happens. He is a very bitter man, but a just man withal, and when it comes time for him to do his duty to the little daughter of the camp evangelist who has lately died, Austin becomes the guardian, by common consent. The little girl's name is "Briar Rose," and she is the idol of the camp. Her influence softens Austin in many ways. He does everything in his power to make her happy and to bring her up well; but when Jack Dale, the son of the mill owner, returns from college and falls in love with her, he takes it for granted that the young couple will be married. Then, one day there happens into the camp a woman from the East. She has fine clothes and the manners and poise of a socialite. She is quite captivated. Then Austin sees the woman. He is amazed to recognize in her Doris Neville, a girl with whom he has long been in love. From this point the Valentine, with whom he was once leading now to the busy city where the girl goes to find the life she longs for. Austin is right at hand and the closing reel is a most striking one.

"THE VELVET PAW" AT EMPRESS TUESDAY

The World Film Corporation which has been showing the most consistent program of any concern the past year now comes to the front with "The Velvet Paw," a story of political intrigue dealing more or less with the child labor problem which took up the attention of Congress the past session and which is a fearful arraignment of the lobbyist evil. With House Peters and Gail Kane in the leading roles, this excellent feature is presented in all its force and being directed by Maurice Tourneur at the Paragon studio, not a single detail has been left out or a single scene spared in making it complete and accurate in all its details. It will come to the Empress Theatre on Tuesday.

RED FEATHER FEATURE AT THE GEM THURSDAY

"A Romance of Billy Goat Hill" a Red Feather feature picture in five reels, produced by Lynn Reynolds, will be seen on Thursday at the Gem Theatre. This is a stirring romance of Kentucky in which Myrtle Gonzalez appears supported by such stars as George Hernandez, Val Paul, Fred Church and Thomas Jefferson. Miss Gonzalez appears to her best advantage as a girl who after a great misunderstanding with her lover at last marries him after he has been cleared of a crime that he did not commit.

HELEN HOLMES STARRS AT MAJESTIC TUESDAY

Helen Holmes, who is recognized for her daring work in numerous pictures of railroad life, has created a new role in the Mutual Star Production, "Judith of the Cumberlands" which comes to the Majestic Theatre on Tuesday. Instead of appearing in the cab of a locomotive she is seen as the leading character around whom a feud is started. The scenes which are laid in the Kentucky mountains, are exceptionally fine examples of outdoor motion picture photography, while the action of the drama is fraught with thrilling situations.

AUDREY MUNSON, "PURITY" STAR

Audrey Munson, the star of "Purity," will be shown at the Majestic Theatre on Tuesday. The picture is a story of a woman who is pure in heart and who is persecuted by a wicked man.

VIVIAN MARTIN STARRS AT EMPRESS MONDAY

"The Stronger Love" with Vivian Martin as star, the latest Morocco Paramount photoplay coming to the Empress Monday brings up the interesting question, "Which life will be the stronger, bigger and accomplish the most? Will the boy who leaves his backwoods surroundings and is refined by the culture of the city be the one? Or will the greater man be the one, who born and raised a Kentucky mountain 'Johnnie' prove by his life that he has attained the finer qualities of manhood in the rough school of experience? A difficult decision for a professor of psychology to decide, but, seemingly Nell Servais' heart leads her to the best decision in the charmingly sweet mountain love story, "The Stronger Love" the Morocco-Paramount photoplay.

No More Fights By High School Classes; Flag Pole Removed

No more will valiant and eager spirited high school students gallantly scout up the flag pole in front of the high school building to snatch from the opposing class flag; for today there is nothing but vacancy where the pole once was. The pole, at whose base the bloodiest battle in the history of the school was waged some two years ago between the seniors and juniors with a fatigued and torn class pennant as the goal sought, has been cut down and its privilege usurped by another pole erected recently on the dome of the school building. And lately Old Glory was flying in the breeze, from the dome, celebrating the democratic victory. The pole on the dome will of course serve to fly the flag whenever needed but it will not be surrounded by the glamour of past victories and defeats which the former staff held. There are those students now graduated and gone, who could tell of midnight expeditions of snatching the pole to nail up a class pennant, or to tear down rival banners. But those days have passed, along with the old pole, as well as the era of dome painting and similar sacrifice.

"Hell-to-Pay" was the nick-name they gave him back in the North-western Mining Camp because that was what happened when his orders were not carried out promptly. To see a TRIANGLE PLAY that is real—a picture that makes you feel you were a part of the great Northwest yourself—you should see "Hell-to-Pay-Austin." "WAR BETWEEN THE STATES" FAVORED AS DESIGNATION

By Associated Press. Dallas, Tex., Nov. 13.—Resolutions to "educate the people of the United States, especially the confederate veterans," in the use of the terms "war between the states" in preference to "civil war" were adopted today by the general convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy here today. Information that the veterans themselves preferred to use the term "civil war" and the daughters had made fruitless attempts to have the inscription on the Red Cross building at Washington changed, led to this action. Condemnation of text books used in parts of the south for their alleged partiality in reconciling southern history in the war between the states was contained in another report. The text book question is being investigated by subcommittees of every chapter. A resolution was passed demanding that "historians and readers used in the schools of the south should have a fair and impartial account of the events before the war, during the war and in the reconstruction period." All indebtedness of the United Daughters of the Confederacy incurred for the Arlington and Smith monument projects was declared liquidated at today's session.

CHRISTMAS It's just a little more than a month until Christmas, and we are making our "FIRST CALL" to early Christmas Shoppers. French Ivory

Makes an ideal gift, it makes the most useful kind of gift, and it's great value is helped by the fact that French Ivory has come to stay, as there is not anything that will take its place, and that extra pieces may be added from year to year until the most complete sets are made up. For this holiday season we have a most varied stock in sets and all extra pieces—and we are making special low prices. You can make your gift as small or as large as you like from this line and it will be appropriate and acceptable.

STONE'S FRUIT CAKES

The simple announcement that they are STONE'S ought to be enough to insure their quality.

It's absolutely impossible to give you any idea of the quality, flavor and richness of this cake through the medium of paper and ink. We could talk for pages about the materials that go into it—Pineapples from Hawaii, Almonds from Spain, Pecans from Texas, Cherries from California—what's the use of naming them over, even the entire list of twelve fruits that are used, when the deliciousness is only half in the materials, the other half being the art and skill with which they are combined to make the perfect FRUIT CAKE. And then, the price, 40 cents per pound to you.

On the present market you can't buy the materials for that money. Mr. Stone informs us that his supply of fruits, etc., is limited, so it will be well for you to anticipate your wants for the entire holiday season, as a good FRUIT CAKE improves greatly with age.
