Pennsylvania, New York Central and Other Lines Take Action To Invalidate Law

By Associated Press. New York, Nov. 15.—The New York Central Railroad today filed suit in the Federal District Court to test the constitutionality of the Adamson eight-hour law. The road's principal contention is, according to Albert H. Announcement that the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad would also file suit to test the constitutionality of the Adamson law was made today by Howard Elliott, the road's president.

GERMANS STRIKE BACK AT FRENCH

GAIN SOME GROUND AT SOUTHERN END OF BATTLE LINE ON SOMME

NEW BRITISH GAINS

Both Roumanians and Germans Win Successes in Fighting in Transylvania

The Associated Press summarizes European war operations as follows: With a battle between the British and Germans still raging around Amiens, the Germans have struck the French line a hard blow at the other extremity of the Somme fighting front, attacking early today between Albertcourt and the Chaulnes wood, south-west of the river.

Paris declares that this attack which was desperately pressed with the assistance of liquid fire resulted in a gain of ground only east of Fresnoire, half way between Chaulnes and Albertcourt. Here the Germans reached a group of ruined dwellings.

The latest news from the British offensive in the Amiens region, reported General Haig's troops pressing on beyond the village of Beaucourt sur Ancre, the ground about which has been well consolidated. The taking of more than 5,000 German prisoners has been officially announced.

North of the Somme the Paris announces progress for the French in the St. Pierre Vaast wood region, where possession of the dominant ground of Sallil-Sallisel is facilitating their operations.

Successes for both the Roumanians and Teutonic forces in the bitter struggle in progress along the Roumanian-Transylvanian border are reported today.

Progress for General Von Falkenberg's armies in their invasion of Wallachia from the northern mountain passes is announced by Berlin and admitted in part by Petrograd and Bucharest. Austro-German columns have been reinforced by fresh troops. Their advance has been most notable in the Jiu and Alt Valleys.

On the Moldavian frontier the successes are on the side of the Roumanians who claim to be pursuing their Teutonic foe beyond the Transylvanian frontier.

A Roumanian advance on the Dobruja front has been reported also. Petrograd reports a Russian success along the Narayuvka river in Galicia where the Germans have been driven out of trenches they captured in a recent fighting near the village of Licholna.

Berlin admits a retirement of the German and Bulgarian forces on the Cerna river on the Alcedonia front southeast of Monastir, owing to pressure on their flanks, but denies an attack on the Monastir plain have been repulsed.

Neighbors Had Understood That Missing Girl Had Gone To Visit in Florida

By Associated Press. Pontiac, Ill., Nov. 15.—Interest was manifested here today in the holding to the grand jury of Jacob Diemer, his wife and daughter, in connection with the death of another daughter, Christine.

On November 8, however, Mrs. Frank Haines, rowing a boat across the Vermilion river, came upon the girl's body floating. An autopsy disclosed a fractured skull and but little water in the lungs, indicating, it was said, death from outward violence.

At the inquest yesterday members of the family testified that Christine was last seen alive by them October 27. Christine, they said, told her father good night and retired.

WOMAN IS OUTRAGED BY NEGRO

FOUND UNCONSCIOUS IN THICKET AFTER BEING TAKEN FROM HER HOME SECOND TIME. OFFICERS SEARCHING

IN CLAY COUNTY

First Attacked Near Home Late Tuesday and is Missing Again Today Afternoon

Bound to a tree stump in an out of the way thicket, unconscious from the effects of assault by a negro man, a white woman in Clay county, just across the Wichita county line in the direction of Charley, was found by officers early this afternoon. She was a tenant on the farm of C. C. Bunnberg just over the line into Clay county.

She was seized while alone early in the night last night, blindfolded, gagged and dragged into a thicket where she was outraged by her at that time unknown assailant.

Her clothes were torn off her body in the ineffective struggle she put up to save herself from her assailant.

When Sheriff Hawkins and officers from Clay county arrived on the scene after being notified of the crime, the woman could not tell who her assailant was.

After putting her all night last night searching the vicinity of the place for traces of the woman's assailant the officers returned to their homes for a little sleep.

At an early hour this morning they were notified that someone had returned to the woman's house and carried her away from the place. Search was instituted at once, but the woman was not found until early this afternoon.

She was then still unconscious from the effect of her treatment, but upon being revived she identified a negro man who had been hanging around in the vicinity for some time. She is now searching for him.

BRITISH THINK NEW OFFENSIVE OF IMPORTANCE

(Copyright 1916 by Associated Press) With the British Army in France, via London, Nov. 15.—The British advance along both sides of the Ancre which continued yesterday with the capture of the village of Beaucourt is considered by the British commanders as one of the most important successes in the four months of the offensive. They insist especially on the relative insignificant character of the German resistance in a position which they consider of great strategic importance and one of the most highly fortified on the entire western front.

PUT IN AUTOMATIC FIRE EXTINGUISHER
Wholesale House Installs Apparatus Which is Designed to Prevent Damage

There is one concern in Wichita Falls which will be a very little danger of fire loss when it completes installation of what is known as the Grinnell Fire Extinguisher system which automatically puts out fires. This firm is Carroll-Brough-Robinson & Gates which has installed this system at a cost of $7,000, but the insurance rates will be lowered 25 per cent and in this way alone the system will be paid for in about five years, besides furnishing ample protection at all times.

The system is of the dry pipe kind and has pipes with sprinkler valves every ten feet throughout the building. In case of a fire in any part of the building, the heat melts one of these sprinkler valves which automatically shuts off the air pressure and in this way turns the water from the city mains into the building and sprinkles over the place where the valves are open. Should the water from the city mains not have as much pressure as the water in the 25,000 gallon reservoir on the roof of the building, the water from the reservoir goes into the main pipes instead.

This is the only one of these systems this side of Dallas and Fort Worth, the Carroll-Brough, Robinson & Gates Company taking the lead in installing the system. The system will be finished by Saturday November 18.

TO ERECT BUILDING FOR DEPOT EXHIBIT

Plans Now Being Prepared For Structure Which Will Display Local Products

Plans for the exhibition building which the Chamber of Commerce expects to erect shortly on the platform at the Union Station are being prepared by Field & Clark, architects and will soon be ready for submission to the board of directors of that body. Notwithstanding the fact that the Chamber of Commerce plans to construct the building almost entirely of materials of local manufacture, which they hope to have donated to them on account of the advertising value derived by their use in the building, it is expected that the cost of the building will be $1,500 or $2,000 permanency being the aim in constructing the building.

The building will occupy a space approximately 11 by 25 feet in dimensions, the four sides of which will be solid plate glass in order to allow the fullest possible display. It is thought that the formal lease contract will have been signed in another week or two and the directors can take the necessary steps toward the erection of the building.

The exhibit is being packed up and shipped from Waco by Jerome Stone who had charge of it at that place during the recent Cotton Palace at that place. Shelves for the Chamber of Commerce rooms for the temporary disposition of the exhibit.

WARMER WEATHER PREVAILING TODAY WICHITAN ATTENDS FARM LOAN HEARING

Norther Less in Evidence and Mercury Climbs Steadily to Higher Levels

J. L. McConkey Goes To Fort Worth To Testify Before Meeting Today

That the norther which has held the vicinity of Wichita Falls for the past few days is finally broken is indicated by the fact that the thermometer late yesterday afternoon registered 58 and after the usual drop last night is giving signs of going even higher today. Last night the low point of 12 degrees was touched, but since the sun appeared this morning the mercury has been rapidly rising reaching thirty after only two hours of sun shine. The weather man's prediction of clear weather here to these signs, and warmer weather right away seems a certainty.

Although perhaps dropping a couple of degrees lower than at this place, the weather in the Valley, Western Oklahoma and the upper Panhandle has been much the same as here. All traces of the light snow reported from the last two sections have disappeared. The cold wind which has been blowing over the Wichita Falls vicinity from the north plains county has been noticeable for its absence during the past two days.

The Western Union reported Texas weather as follows:
North Texas—Clear to cloudy, 28 to 34.
East Texas—Clear, 26 to 30.
West Texas—Cloudy to clear, 20 to 28.
Central—Clear to cloudy, 28 to 33.
Gulf Coast—Clear, 33 to 44.

POLICE VACANCY TO BE FILLED TOMORROW NIGHT

When the council meets tomorrow night one of the things which will call for its consideration will be the filling of the vacancy on the police force rendered vacant by the resignation of Constable Hawk. This has created a second vacancy on the police force, but inasmuch as one of them has been unfilled for the greater part of the year, it is not thought that any effort will be made to fill this vacancy at this time.

TEMPORARY COURT HOUSE HAS BLAZE

Defective Flue Sets Fire to Roof But Quick Action Prevents any Damage

A defective flue caused a small blaze at the temporary court house this morning, the roof catching fire above the 30th district court room. It was discovered by workmen on the new court house and E. H. Walpole climbed upon the roof and quickly put the fire out with a hose. A bucket brigade was formed, reaching the roof via sand pile and a convenient tree, but it was not needed. The damage was trivial. The fire in the heater in the court room had been out for some minutes before the blaze was discovered. No alarm was turned in.

NEGRO FAMILY ROW AIRMED IN POLICE COURT

The recent intoxication of a couple of color, later led into a fuss between the ladies escort and her brother, which in turn led into the appearance of the bellie, and parties in the police court this morning for an airing of the family disturbance. The case was not finally disposed of however, and the introduction of more witnesses in the morning will lead to a rethrusting of the controversy.

The court indicating that in his opinion he ought not to be even if he was. Four other cases of intoxication stood the promoters in $5 each. WOMAN RESCUES CHILDREN FROM DEATH IN FLAMES

(Frederick Leader)

Splendid heroism on the part of Mrs. Eunice Stanley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Stinson, saved her three and Thomas, aged five, Saturday morning. Shortly before noon the two children were playing in a shed in the rear of the house, where Mrs. Stanley was working in the house. Mr. and Mrs. Stinson and the other children were in the country. The shed was fairly well filled with barrels, shucks, and other things. Mrs. Stanley did not know of the fire until Elmer Lankford, who was passing and had noticed it knocking on the door and told her the shed was burning. She at once thought of the children. Running out of the house she could hear them screaming. When she got to the shed she found that the fire was between the children and the roof of the shed. They were unharmed at that time, but were hemmed in by the flames and in imminent danger of death. Mrs. Stanley did not stop, but ran through the flames, seized the children and brought them both out through the fire to safety. The children were both badly burned about the head, face and hands. Mrs. Stanley was the most severely burned of the three, her clothing catching fire. She was burned about the face, hands, feet and ankles. With much presence of mind Mrs. Stanley hurried the children to a yard hydrant. When she reached it she found no fire on their clothing and quickly extinguished the fire on her own. The fire department was called out and made short work of the blaze. Dr. T. F. Spurgeon was summoned. He dressed the burns and found none of them of a dangerous nature, although all three persons were severely injured. They are now improving.

ELECTION DOUBT COST WILLCOX MANY WEARY HOURS AT PHONE

Chairman—WM. R. WILLCOX

It was no enviable job that William R. Willcox, chairman of the republican national committee had in the anxious days that followed the taking of the presidential vote. Naturally, he was jubilant when the returns from New York, Illinois and Pennsylvania seemed to indicate the election of Hughes, and he showed his joy, which was transformed in a few hours to doubt and gloom as the western figures became unfavorable to his cause. He remained in his office, at national headquarters in New York City for many hours, receiving reports by telegraph and telephone, as depicted in the accompanying picture.

A Girl's Song. The Meuse and Marne have little waves; The slender poplars o'er them lean. One day they will forget the graves That give the grass its living green.

Some brown French girl the rose will wear; That springs above his comely head; Will twine it in her russet hair. Nor wonder why it is so rare.

His blood is in the rose's veins, His hair is in the yellow corn; My grief is in the weeping rains And in the keening wind forlorn.

Flow softly, softly, Marne and Meuse, Flow lightly, all ye browsing sheep; Fall tenderly, ye silver dews, And here my dear, love lies asleep.

The earth is on his sealed eyes, The beauty marred that was my pride; Would I were lying where he lies, And sleeping sweetly by his side!

The spring will come by Meuse and Marne, The birds be hithersome in the trees; They heap the stones to make his grave, When many sleep as sound as he. —Katherine Tynan.

FIREMAN ON MOTORCYCLE BARELY ESCAPES INJURY

On returning from a run of the fire department this morning E. H. Hickman, a fireman from the central station, who was mounted on a motorcycle, collided with the ladder truck in rounding a corner, but by the exercise of rare presence of mind, managed to jump barely in time to save himself from possibly serious injury. Neither the truck nor the motorcycle which supported by the side ran along with it some distance after Hickman jumped, was injured to any great extent. The explosion of an instantaneous gas heater, in which the gas had been turned on too soon before the application of the match, caused the run of the department to 1411 Eleventh street. No damage resulted, the loose gas burning out without igniting the walls or contents of the room.

FUNERAL OF WINTGEN IS HELD IN FRANCE

Associated Press Mail Correspondence. St. Quentin, France.—While fellow aviators wheeled their machines overhead and dropped wreaths of flowers upon his coffin, Lieutenant Wintgen, next to Capt. Boelke, the most successful German aviator flying in the west, was buried in the little French city, which had had its fill of the kind of drama that the war brings. It was attended by almost every military person quartered in St. Quentin, and by a large number of civilians as well. The interment was in the local cemetery by special wish of the dead flier, who had asked that in case he fell he should be buried as near as possible to the scene of his death.

After a heart-rending service in the little evangelical church here, Wintgen's body, in a thick white coffin smothered in floral offerings, was placed on a gun carriage and carried to the cemetery. Behind the coffin walked three fellow aviators who, with Lieutenant Brummann, was borne to his last resting place. He had been killed in an air battle late in September.

Lieutenant Wintgen's burial was one of the most dramatic episodes in the history of the little French city, which had had its fill of the kind of drama that the war brings. It was attended by almost every military person quartered in St. Quentin, and by a large number of civilians as well. The interment was in the local cemetery by special wish of the dead flier, who had asked that in case he fell he should be buried as near as possible to the scene of his death.

In the procession behind the gun carriage were representatives of the commanding general and hundreds of representatives of the various flying corps of the many German armies, all of whom had known and appreciated Wintgen, and his exceptional ability as an aviator. At the cemetery, while a comrade of the dead Lieutenant spoke a few final words, two aviator friends of the deceased who had followed the funeral procession in their airplanes, let their machines whir to within a short distance of the ground and let fall floral wreaths, and then opened up with their machine guns the crashing military salute of three volleys for the dead.

GERMAN WOMEN WORKERS ARE STEADILY INCREASING

Associated Press Mail Correspondence. Berlin.—According to the official municipal insurance bureau, the number of women employed industrially has advanced to 47.5 per cent of all workers, as against 20.6 per cent a little over thirty years ago. It rose from 24.5 per cent in 1907, an average year, to 35.3 in 1914, to 42.3 in 1915, and to 47.5 in 1916.

Whereas the number of women now at work almost exactly equals the number of men in some industries, male help for outweights numerically male help. This is especially the case in the textile and paper industries, though the excess of women employed seems in no manner to have lessened the number of women who are now offering their services.

Declaring himself disgusted with the reelection of Wilson, an Oregon immigrant has given up his first citizenship papers and will remain a foreign subject. His name is Von Clafenbeck.

Hiram Johnson is too big a man for Harrison G. Otis to attempt to make a scapegoat of. Johnson is to California what Jim Hogg used to be to Texas. Some other excuse must be found for Hughes' defeat.

An automobile agency here is offering farmers a good sound for their cotton as well as for automobiles. When the offer was made cotton was selling at 15 cents a pound, it is now near the twenty cent mark. A few bales of cotton will now buy a six-cylinder automobile of the 1917 model.

Isn't it about time we were being furnished with copies of the stenographic report of the recent meeting of the board of regents of the State University at which Governor Ferguson raised such a rumpus? The people of the state have a right to know just what the Governor's attitude is and what he proposed to do.

ABOUT WOMAN SUFFRAGE

One of the stock arguments against woman suffrage was knocked into a cocked hat in the voting last week. This was the claim that the woman didn't care anything about the ballot and wouldn't vote if they had it. The returns last week from states which adopted woman's suffrage since 1908 show that the vote for the candidates for the two leading parties was practically doubled in 1916 over 1908, the last election to which a comparison may be made. This indicates that the great majority of the women took advantage of the opportunity to vote. The 1908 and 1916 votes in the states that have adopted suffrage since 1908 for the presidential candidates of the two leading parties show this plainly. The combined vote for the republican and democratic candidates in Washington in 1908 was 169,306. Washington adopted woman suffrage in 1910 and in 1916 the vote was 306,765. In other states adopting suffrage the increase in the vote was practically in the same proportion. The 1908 vote in Oregon was 100,579. In 1916 it reached 219,537. The two parties polled 341,890 votes in California in 1908 while in 1916 the combined vote was 97,709. In Nevada the 1908 vote was 21,987 in 1916 it was 26,672. Montana, 1916 vote was 61,893. In 1916 it was 148,000. Kansas adopted woman suffrage in 1912. The combined vote in that state in 1908 was 358,900 in 1916 it increased to 415,216. Illinois gave 1,023,724 votes to the candidates of the two leading parties in 1908. The women were given the vote and in 1916 the vote was increased to 1,779,820.

One of the most hopeful things noted in connection with the voting of women is the evident swing in their votes toward President Wilson and the progressive principles for which he and his party stand. Washington, a bed-rock republican state, in 1908, gave Taft a plurality of 52,000. This year with women voting it gave Wilson a plurality of 1,000. Oregon gave Taft 24,000 votes more than Bryan. The republican plurality in 1916 was out to less than 8,000. California turned ed its republican plurality of 80,000 in 1908 to a democratic plurality of more than 300 in 1916. Idaho went from 70,000 republican in 1908 to 20,000 democratic in 1916. Utah gave a Taft plurality of 20,000 in 1908. This year it gave Wilson a plurality of 22,000. Arizona was narrowly democratic when admitted to statehood, gave Wilson a plurality of about 6,000. Colorado gave Bryan a small plurality in 1908 but in 1916 it gave Wilson more than 62,000 lead. Kansas for Taft in 1908 by 36,000 with women's votes in for Wilson in 1916 by nearly 40,000.

The West is in the saddle. The majority of the western states have women suffrage. President Wilson was re-elected by the votes of women suffrage states. It will be hard to resist the urge for a constitutional amendment to give women the right to vote in all the states.

WHITE EXPLAINS DEFEAT

This is a Republican country—in spite of the fact that the President, and the Congress, are strongly and partially Democratic and soon we shall have a Democratic majority in the supreme court and the lower federal courts. The Republicanism of this country is indicated by the fact that majority of the states outside of the solid South elected Republican governors and Republican legislators and an overwhelming majority of Republican local officers.

In 1884 the mugwumps elected Cleveland. In 1916 the independent vote, largely Bull Moose, elected Wilson.

They buried the Bull Moose with a bullet in his heart last June, but his ghost got into the ballot box, and President Wilson may think his stars shall have a Democratic majority in the supreme court and the lower federal courts. The Republicanism of this country is indicated by the fact that majority of the states outside of the solid South elected Republican governors and Republican legislators and an overwhelming majority of Republican local officers.

MIXED MOTIVES GOVERNED MORE OR LESS. The cold blooded group that sat in the Republican convention this summer and ably nominated Hughes to beat Roosevelt, offended the average citizen of this Republic—of whether partisan affiliation, about as seriously as the same group offended the country four years ago. The Republican convention stagnated enthusiasm. After it adjourned no one cared much what happened. So it happened.

Then the President, who is the most adroit and skillful manipulator or public opinion who ever sat in the White House, played a wise hand. He kept his eyes on the altruistic note. He insisted upon discussing economic measures, and he had laid the ground for the discussion, by forcing a number of important and largely progressive measures through Congress.

These measures appealed to the independent vote. The country had been so seriously shaken by economic changes for two decades, so the President had a talking point. And he talked plausibly. He made votes.

Hughes lost votes from the day he began to speak. He could have been elected in June. But his managers had no sense, and counselling with them he made a campaign of criticism, and the Republican mind ever was captured by negation and carping. And as the negation and carping went on, the soul went out of the campaign for the republicans, and Wilson struck row.

It was not so much that Wilson kept us out of war, as that Hughes kept us out of office—and that all in the best of intentions but under bad advice. When a Republican party cares for this is a Republican country and to return to its constructive, hopeful, positive attitude upon public questions it will return to power and will give the country the only effective government it will get.

It is curious that we have a Democratic administration elected in this country with all the Republicanism that is obvious in the lower levels of government. But until the Republican party reorganizes and reconstructs its present leadership we shall have the party of obstruction in power, and we should shake hands with the Fates over the glorious fact that at the head of this party is so shrewd a reader of history as Woodrow Wilson. For he is jealous of but one thing, which will hold him in check? The opinion of posterity. And that opinion, he can read as an expert. A leader of Democracy like Mr. Champ Clark in power might make the angels weep and the high gods shudder. William Allen White in Emporia Gazette.

WILSON'S POLITICAL LEADERSHIP

In nearly every State Mr. Hughes ran behind his ticket and President Wilson ran ahead of his ticket.

To appreciate the extraordinary political change that has resulted from Mr. Wilson's leadership of the Democratic Party, it is necessary only to read the returns in the Presidential elections of the last twenty years.

In 1896 Mr. McKinley's popular plurality over Mr. Bryan was 891,854. Mr. McKinley having 271 votes in the Electoral College to Mr. Bryan's 176.

In 1904 the Republican ascendancy increased tremendously. Mr. Roosevelt's popular plurality was 2,545,515, and he had 336 votes in the Electoral College to Judge Parker's 140.

In 1908 the Democratic Party picked up a lead but not much. Mr. Taft's popular plurality over Mr. Bryan was 1,269,804. His electoral vote was 321 to Mr. Bryan's 162.

Thus in four successive Presidential elections the smallest Republican plurality in the popular vote was 691,854 and the smallest Republican majority in the Electoral College was 95. In 1912 the Roosevelt bolt destroyed party lines and although Mr. Wilson was elected by an enormous majority in the Electoral College, the combined Taft-Roosevelt vote was 2,664,563 against a Wilson vote of only 6,236,215. The Republican-Progressive plurality of the popular vote was 3,211,354, or slightly more than in 1908.

In 1916 the Wilson popular vote is 2,161,000 beyond the previous Democratic record. It is 800,000 more than the Roosevelt-Taft total of 1912. It is more than 400,000 in advance of the reunited Republican Party. There is no more talk of a "minority Presidency."

Mr. Wilson has put the two parties on an equality again. The great Republican-majorities of the last twenty years have been broken, and the country will profit from this restoration of the balance. There is no better assurance of good government than two parties practically equal in power and each at the mercy of the independent vote.—New York World.

MAGNOLIA CONSTRUCTING ARTISTIC SUPPLY STATION

Something new and artistic in the way of gasoline supply stations is now being constructed in Wichita Falls by the Magnolia Petroleum Company, at Tenth Street and Ohio Avenue. This station is similar to those in Dallas, El Paso and other large cities of the South. The station is on the Meridian and Colorado-Gulf Highways, which makes it a convenient place for tourists to stop.

The station will have two openings, one on Tenth Street and Ohio Avenue, with cement driveways connecting them. These driveways will be under a roof which will protect cars from the sun and rain while being supplied. In the center of these driveways there will be two places where the motorist can be supplied with water, gas, air and oil. Thus, by having two places, instead of one, as is common with most supply stations, delays will be avoided.

In the building there will be a rest room for ladies, and on the outside of the building will be planted flowers which will help to make the building more attractive.

The building is to be finished by December 1 and will be occupied as soon as completed.

The Magnolia Petroleum Company expects in the near future, to build a supply station at Amarillo similar to the one being constructed here.

CHANCE TO SECURE BIG MOVIE PLANT

Film Company Looking For Location in Texas and This City Deemed Available

With the Gotham Film Corporation of New York City is reported to be seeking a Texas location, the suggestion that Wichita Falls may be an effort to secure the location of the proposed "Gotham City" on the shores of Lake Wichita is contained in a letter which has been received from the Northwestern to the Chamber of Commerce.

It is reported that the Gotham people have purchased the Simmons Hot Wells hotel property at San Antonio for the location of their plant. It is thought that even should this be the case, the scenic advantages of this place and the adjacent and easily accessible sections of Texas and Oklahoma would be powerful drawing cards for the securing of the company for Wichita Falls.

In this connection it is pointed out that San Antonio has nothing to offer in competition with Lake Wichita which would afford a background for almost any kind of an aquatic scenic advertisement. It is estimated that the proposed Gotham city will support a population of at least 2,000 and should efforts to locate here succeed, it is confidently predicted that it would be the biggest boost which Wichita Falls has ever secured, even without the world wide advertising advantages of the tourists which would be attracted here as a consequence of its location in this city.

DEMOCRATS NEED STILL MORE MONEY

Contributions To Fund To Pay Debt Will Still Be Welcomed Locally

Another dollar has been received by R. E. Huff, democratic county chairman, as a contribution to help make up the deficit of over $300,000 in the democratic national campaign fund. The contributor was J. Baldwin Montgomery, a general contractor, who indicated that he will contribute to the local fund which now totals $127.

Responding to a telegram from Wilbur W. Marsh, treasurer of the democratic national committee, The Times will receive contributions for the fund to help make up the deficit. Money received by The Times will be turned over to Judge Huff to be forwarded to New York. The following is the telegram received by The Times from Mr. Marsh:

"The Daily Times, Wichita Falls, Texas: Democratic national committee will definitely receive money if you will start at once vigorous campaign for funds to help wipe out deficit of over three hundred thousand dollars. We must attain our glorious victory to be clouded by failure to pay legitimate bills promptly. Quick action necessary."

CELEBRATE THEIR 51ST ANNIVERSARY

Judge and Mrs. W. J. Howard Honored By Children at Dinner Today

Judge and Mrs. W. J. Howard, who 51 years ago today began their married life in Alabama, today enjoyed an anniversary dinner given in their honor by their daughter, Mrs. George A. Hawkins and attended by their other children and their families in honor of the anniversary. Judge Howard also celebrated the anniversary by qualifying for another term as Justice of the Peace in this precinct. Besides Mrs. Hawkins and her family the dinner was enjoyed by Arthur Howard and family of Seymour, Iowa Howard and W. J. Howard Jr., and their families of this city.

November 15, 1865 shortly after the return of the then young Confederate veterans from Alabama, in the States, W. J. Howard and Miss Louisa C. Davis were united in marriage in the home of their youth, Shelby county, Alabama. Three years later they decided to move to Texas, first settling in Limestone county, and later coming to Weatherford. In 1872 they moved to Wichita Falls where they have made their home continuously since.

Judge Howard's foresight warned him of the future in store for Western Texas even at that early date, and it was the desire to come here and to give his children the opportunity of growing up with the country which led to his determination to move here.

The esteem and respect in which he has always been held by his fellow citizens here is testified by the fact that in the years which he has lived here he has been in the public service almost continuously, occupying a number of public offices, including that of sheriff, which he held two terms and that of Justice of the Peace in this city for ten years and to which he was recently again elected.

FIRE BREAKS OUT ON CIRCUS TRAIN

Sells-Floto Special, Which Spent Most of Tuesday Here, Has Blaze at Burk

Fire breaking out in one of the stock cars of the Sells-Floto circus train just north of Burk Station last night burned one of the horses so badly that it had to be killed and screeched two others slightly, but not injuring them to any great extent. The damage to the car was slight.

The fire was soon put out by circus men and train crew. The car with the other stock were carried on without being laid out by the train. It is not known whether the fire had its origin from a spark from the engine finding lodging in the hay bedding on floor of the car, or whether it was started by some of the circus men smoking.

The circus train was in Wichita Falls Tuesday, stopping here practically all day. It had closed its season at Fort Worth Saturday. During the stop here the horses were unloaded, groomed and exercised, the elephants and camels were taken from the cars and given a chance to work off the effects of the cramped quarters in the cars. While the menagerie animals were not taken from their cages, the sides of the cars toward the sun were taken off during the afternoon and all were treated to a welcome sun bath.

A number of Wichitans availed themselves of the opportunity of looking over the animals. One tableau in particular which impressed local visitors very much was the sight of a mother leopard playing with her cubs, a sight which strikingly reminded one of a gentle house cat affectionately romping with her kittens.

None of the acrobatic family in evidence on the train, either scattering to their homes for a brief stay before reporting for preliminary work in preparation for the next season, or going to Denver by the faster means of the regular passenger service.

The circus trains left soon after dark last night on their long ride. Toxline will be the only stop made before reaching Denver.

DEMONSTRATION OF COTTON HARVESTER

Machine Invented by Patterson is Given Satisfactory Test Here This Afternoon

A demonstration of the cotton harvesting machine upon which W. A. Patterson of this city has been at work for some time, was held this afternoon on lower Ohio and was viewed by a number of citizens. The machine performed excellently, and in the opinion of those who watched it, has extensive commercial possibilities. Mr. Patterson has the backing of J. A. Komp in his work and it is considered probable that the manufacture of the machine will be undertaken in this city.

PAYS HUGHES BETS WITH SUPPER AT ST. JAMES

As a settlement of an election bet, in which he espoused the cause of Charles E. Hughes, Eugene Leopold was last night host to a party of friends at supper at the St. James hotel. The principal decoration on the table was a large sign which set forth the name of the host, and the reason for his plight. During the dinner mock messages were delivered to Mr. Leopold purporting to be from Mr. Hughes, National Chairman Wilcox of the Hughes contingent, and others high in the councils of that party, which bore such encouraging messages as that Texas was doubtful with Hughes leading in 25 counties to hold all bets as the election was still undecided, etc. The final message purported to be from Mr. Hughes and stated that all was off, to pay up. Those who enjoyed Mr. Leopold's hospitality were: Misses Myrtle Harness, Vivian Manley, Annie Fitzwater, Lee Weaver, Harness, Messrs. Joe Colonna and Jim Duncan.

"PEOPLE'S UNIVERSITY" IS PLANNED IN HOLLAND

Associated Press Staff Correspondence
The Hague, Netherlands.—The University Extension movement has taken root in Holland and The Hague in the form of a "Volke" or People's University, which proposes to throw open the doors of higher education to the poorest.

This movement early made its way in America, and has subsequently spread widely in Europe. The idea has been in the minds of Dutchmen for a quarter of a century, and to some extent put into practice, but it took definite and concrete form when the first Dutch "Volke" University began its courses in the capital, Amsterdam, in 1913. This institution proved a big success and the war brought it yet more students, for many of those thrown out of employment entered the university.

The Hague has now followed Amsterdam's example, and just inaugurated its People's University. Seventy-seven hundred students have already been enrolled.

He is discovered, and the landlady takes him to the Sunset Loan Office to pawn him. At the pawnshop he manages to get a pair of scissors which he uses to cut the landlady's hair and escapes. He then comes upon an offer of a thousand dollars to any man who will kill Timothy and loses him. Terry, the Terror, and determines to get the money. Finally the night of the fight arrives and Carter has cold feet. Jeff has a scheme which gives Timothy a chance to win the money. Timothy arrives, for Jeff's proposition is to make Terry lose the fight or kill him with a gun. He tries it out on the Terror. At last Timothy wins, but the manager has eloped with the money. The next morning Timothy is accused by a detective, who accuses him of forgery. Timothy recognizes his double at Universal City and takes his place. He makes a wonderful hit, and is given a contract at one thousand dollars a week. Leaving the manager's office he is seen by the detective, who comes to Universal City, but running around the studio, Timothy escapes and loses him. The detective then comes upon his double and makes the arrest. Timothy wins fame at last. As the picture fades we see Timothy and his faithful Jeff, settle down, contract in hand, before the huge announcement of their connection with the greatest film manufacturing company on earth.

BANQUET HELD BY OVERLAND AGENTS

Plans for Stunts at Toledo Meeting Are Discussed—Wichitans Have Prominent Part

Not only will an effort be made to put Wichita Falls into prominent place in the spotlight, will be the effort of the Overland dealers as outlined at the dealers banquet at the Westland hotel last night who made plans for the trip to the factory at Toledo next month.

The Texans will wear the traditional all big hats which outsiders associate with Texans, and with the aid of big revolvers and a plentiful supply of blank ammunition little doubt is entertained as to the Texas contingent being noticeable at the gathering. In addition to this the men from this district plan to wear some badge or other prominent and distinguishing mark which will be thoroughly distinctive of Wichita Falls.

From this district sixteen men have already agreed to go five of them being from the Wichita Falls office. The Texas contingent will number 300 strong. A special train will be made up at Denton for the trip to Toledo, the parties coming into Denton on special cars attached to the regular trains. A number of bankers and newsmen will be members of the party in addition to the dealers. It is expected that between 5,000 and 5,500 dealers will visit the factory in the week beginning December 9.

Although the Overland people have made a policy to keep in close touch with their distributors for some years, this visit to the factory in which the factory stands for most of the dealers' business is the first effort they have made to enter the intimate contact between the factory and their active field force, the dealers who sell their cars to the public.

In discussing plans last night it was suggested that there might be some legal complication about the carrying of the shooting machinery, but Newton Maer, manager of the Overland Sales company, ventured the suggestion that it would be no simple matter to arrest 300 men.

The trip to the factory was outlined in speeches by L. Adams, Dallas, factory representative and by W. Newell Maer, manager of the Overland Sales company whose headquarters are in this city. In addition to the factory trip some of the problems of distribution, financing of local dealers, and Overland service were touched upon. Some of the new models of the company were also described by Mr. Maer, who stated that the Willies-Overland people would this season enter the cylinder field with two new models, one a five passenger and one seven passenger style. A new six will also be brought out with a number of mechanical improvements and refinements of equipment.

A plan whereby the Wichita Falls office would be made a clearing house for used cars in the possession of the dealers in the district was outlined. Each dealer will regularly report such cars to this office with such other information as may be necessary to the salesman, and the office will send a bulletin containing this information to every dealer in its district.

Those in attendance at last night's banquet were: R. Miller, Quannah, J. W. Quannah, Dallas; J. W. Adams, Dallas; W. A. Duncan, Beverly, Toledo, Ohio; factory mechanic, J. E. Ledbetter, Quannah, Ill.; J. W. Adams, Dallas; Clark A. Hood, Nacona, C. A. Rodgers, Newton Maer, general manager, Wichita Falls; J. W. Adams, Dallas; J. D. Decker, service director; C. J. Walker, salesman; C. W. Kohn, salesman; R. E. Smith, salesman; W. M. O'Connell, J. D. Decker, wholesale manager; T. B. Engle, salesman.

SLOW PROGRESS IN SMITH MURDER CASE

Only Two Jurors Chosen up to Last Night in Trial at Henrietta

Slow progress is being made at Henrietta in the trial of Alfred Smith, charged with murder in connection with the killing of his father, W. G. Smith, at Deer Creek last summer. Up to last night only two jurors had been selected and while several more were agreed upon during the morning, it was not thought likely that taking of testimony would start before tomorrow.

The case has brought into action quite an array of legal talent, and will probably be hard fought. Judge R. E. Taylor, Lucian Parrish, W. A. Wantland and Henry Allen are representing the defense, while R. P. Arnold and Walter Allen are assisting District Attorney Leslie Humphrey in the defense.

Most of Monday was consumed in arguing a motion for continuance, which was overruled by Judge Bonner. Two jurors were selected Tuesday out of the special venire of 100 summoned for the case.

It is expected that Smith's plea will be self defense.

VALUE OF GEOLOGY IN LOCATION OF OIL POOLS

Chicago, Nov. 15.—Oil and gas are found in nearly every formation in the entire geologic series porous enough to contain it, but profitable commercial deposits are found only when the formation containing them is enclosed within an impervious stratum of rock or shale, usually the latter. J. C. McDowell, president of a Pittsburgh gas and fuel company told the American Mining Congress this afternoon.

"Probably the most successful application of geology to gas and oil production is that of the last few years in the mid-continent field in Kansas

RAILROAD Y. M. C. A. PLANS BIG MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN

New York, Nov. 15.—It is announced that arrangements are complete for a continental campaign of the Railroad Department of the Young Men's Christian Association to get thirty thousand new members in ten days time. The campaign will attempt to establish a remarkable record. The campaign will begin on Tuesday, November 14, and end on Friday, November 24.

The membership committee which has been formed to carry out the campaign is one of the most formidable ever organized for a similar purpose, including ten thousand men representing every phase of railroad life, from company presidents down to the track laborer. P. Mamm, chairman of the committee, and John P. Moore, senior railroad secretary of the International Committee on Young Men's Christian Association, have established headquarters in this city from which the campaign will be directed upon more than three hundred and fifty railroad centers throughout the United States.

Daily during the progress of the campaign Secretary Moore will receive reports from the various centers showing the number of men enrolled for the day, and the assembled total will be telegraphed daily to all points in the thousands of workers informed of their combined success. Railroad and brotherhood officials are co-operating in the movement which, if successful, will give the railroad department of the Y. M. C. A. a membership of over 90,000, making it the largest railroad organization of any kind in the world.

It is said that there is an intense rivalry on the eve of the campaign between the East and West. Great quantities of literature descriptive of the campaign have been distributed and thousands of posters tacked to freight cars all over the country. In following up the campaign the committee on assimilation will attempt to get every new member in line with the ideals of the organization and serve to help them find in it the greatest service possible.

Preparing for "Drive" on German Lines As Viewed By American Correspondent

Associated Press Staff Correspondent, French Front, Tense excitement, but no hurry, reigns along 93rd sector.

They look to the breaches of their rifles, load their magazines, loosen their bayonets in their scabbards.

The Associated Press correspondent had an opportunity to be in the midst of one of these movements of preparation.

The French, however, were determined to advance.

The sector was not all "healthy" when the correspondents visited it.

The return march was made for half a mile along the parallel and the trench was very interesting from the fact that the occupants of a German trench.

The interval the correspondents were advised on account of a break in the firing to take refuge in the rear of the trench.

Local merchants will be asked to contribute towards the prizes.

The fault of the system lay to him in the extraordinary high number of retail shops.

The promotion of such a scheme would indeed be worthy of the whole-hearted support of our high and middle class bodies.

It is a really sacred enterprise which has direct connection with the happiness of numerous human beings.

RESTRICTED DISTRICT vs. TENTH STREET. Tenth street is all right and at this time is the principal residence street of the city. THERE IS A REASON FOR THIS. The elevation is higher, the scenery more beautiful; it is farther away from the noise and dust; lots are cheaper; sold in pairs which gives more yard room and gives your home a much better appearance.

WE FEEL JUST A LITTLE BIT PUFFED UP!
Last Friday we sold coffee to customers in Archer City, Byers, Graham and Ft. Worth, Texas; Cincinnati, Ohio and Long Island, New York.
We did not know these people—so they evidently bought our coffee because they liked it better than the coffees they are getting locally. Our mail order business is growing day by day—in the language of Battle Creek, "THERE'S A REASON."
