

WEST ROMANIA NOW OVERRUN BY GERMAN FORCES

FATE OF DEFENDING ARMY IS STILL IN DOUBT BUT LARGE SECTION OF TERRITORY ARE KNOWN TO BE ABANDONED

NO OTHER CHANGES

Allies Unable To Advance Further in Macedonia and Only Artillery Activity and Air Raids Along Front in France

The Associated Press summarizes European war operations as follows: Later reports of the campaign General Falkenhayn is waging against the Rumanians indicate that the Teutonic forces are overrunning western Wallachia, following the bloody defeat of the Rumanians in the Jiu valley region and the capture of Craiova.

Berlin had reported progress for the Austro-German armies that are extending the Teutonic front westward from the Jiu region toward Orsova. The fate of the Rumanian army that was operating in the Orsova region remains in doubt, as does the extent as to the Russo-Rumanian forces in the Danube near Corabia, 50 miles southeast of Craiova; the firing of stores of ammunition there and the taking by the Rumanians of large cargoes in the Danube presumably in the region indicated.

It appears that the entente forces which capture Monastir have not been able to take their action beyond the new line taken up by the Bulgarians and Germans a short distance north of the city. Sofia records the repulse of the Teutonic advance beyond the Cerna and eastward, and of the advance guard which were pushing forward in the regions of Lake Prespa and Ochrida to the west.

Only artillery and aviation operations along the Somme in northern France and elsewhere on the Franco-Belgian front are reported in today's Berlin dispatches.

The British admiralty today confirmed press advices that there were no wounded on board the British hospital ship Britanic when she was sunk in the Aegean sea. Those on the vessel were her crew and the hospital staff.

A Bucharest official statement today, the first received since last Saturday, reports the withdrawal of the Rumanians from the Jiu valley. In this report the Rumanians state the situation around Craiova. The Rumanians are reported to have maintained their positions in the Jiu valley.

TWO A. & M. STARS CAN'T OPPOSE TEXAS

Will Be Unable to Play in Thanksgiving Game on Account of Other Work

By Associated Press. College Station, Tex., Nov. 23.—Two of the best men on the Texas A. & M. football team are not expected to take part in the Thanksgiving day game with the State University.

McGillan and Brooks have won places on the team that will represent the college in the championship five-stock judging contests at Chicago, Saturday, December 2. It is impossible, it was said today, for them to play at Austin, Nov. 30 and get to Chicago in time to take part in the judging contests.

With these men southwestern honors this year are considerably dimmed. Mitchell, a speedy back, probably will replace McGillan at half back in the Thanksgiving game.

Texas A. & M. now holds the world's championship both in team and individual honors in stock judging. The team which will go to Chicago, Dec. 2, hopes to retain the title; it will be composed in addition to McGillan and Brooks, of Jack Shelton of Brownwood; J. B. Bennett of Cuero; Paul Reilly and H. H. Roth of Hondo.

MANY INQUIRIES SENT TO BERLIN ON SUBMARINE

WASHINGTON ASKS FOR INFORMATION ON SEVERAL RECENT CASES IN WHICH VESSELS WERE SUNK

MARINA AND ARABIA

Another Period of Complications Between the Two Governments is Promised—Several More Inquiries Submitted Today

By Associated Press. Berlin, Nov. 23.—A period of complications may be impending in German-American relations. Germany's conduct of submarine warfare has brought forth an abundant crop of American inquiries of which Joseph C. Grew, the American charge, recently has filed no less than ten, five of them today.

Six remain to be answered including the cases of the Marina on which a number of Americans were killed, and the liner Arabia, the sinking of which the American government declares to be inconsistent with the promises of the German government regarding the treatment of passenger liners.

The United States bases its attitude in the case of the Arabia on the assumption that it was unarmed and torpedoed without warning.

Washington believes the submarine commander on ascertaining that there were women and children on board, would have refrained from making an attack.

WASHINGTON INTERESTED IN DISPATCH FROM BERLIN

By Associated Press. Washington, Nov. 23.—The wording of the Berlin dispatch, that "a period of complications may be impending in German-American relations" aroused much interest in official circles, especially as the dispatch was allowed to pass a very strict censorship. Officials refused to disclose details of the inquiries sent to Berlin, on the ground that they were only inquiries for fact and would have a very little effect on public opinion if an alarm were given only to be shown groundless.

BAPTISTS TO TAKE ACTION ON FUNSTON

Convention at Waco May Consider Controversy—Opening Session Today

By Associated Press. Waco, Texas, Nov. 23.—The annual meeting of the Baptists' General Convention of Texas was opened here this morning, Dr. S. P. Brooks, president of Baylor University, presiding. With a large enrollment of delegates at the opening of the morning session, officials of the organization predicted that the attendance of delegates and messengers will reach 4,000 before the close of the convention.

The convention sermon at this morning's session was delivered by Rev. George W. Truett of Dallas. According to reports in touch with the inner workings of the organization, it was stated today that the controversy between General Frederick Funston and Dr. J. B. Gambrell, corresponding secretary of the executive committee of the Texas Baptists, with reference to preaching to soldiers on the border, will be brought before the convention. This controversy started several weeks ago, when General Funston said he objected to the soldiers being referred to as "lost souls."

BANK DEPOSITS SHOW BIG GAIN; OVER $6,000,000

STATEMENTS FOR NOV. 17 BREAK ALL RECORDS AND INDICATE GAIN OF OVER TWO MILLIONS SINCE SEPTEMBER

By Associated Press. Chicago, Nov. 23.—James E. Wetzel, a Chicago-egg speculator sometimes called the "egg king" said today he controlled 2,000,000 eggs which he purchased last April at an average price of 20 cents a dozen. Last year, Mr. Wetzel asserted, he lost speculating in eggs and is endeavoring to recoup.

Deposits in the banks of Wichita Falls totaling over $6,000,000 have broken all records here, according to the statement of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas, Nov. 17, 1916. The amount on deposit in the four banks of this city is now considerably over six million dollars and shows a gain of over two million in two months.

The deposits this year are more than double those of about the same time last year. The figures follow: Deposits November 17, 1916: City National, $2,981,668.03; First National, 2,595,860.53; Wichita State, 427,158.15; Nat'l. Bank Commerce, 217,836.25.

Total, $6,222,522.96. Deposits September 12, 1916: City National, $1,961,313.49; First National, 1,746,418.87; Nat'l. Bank Commerce, 300,827.97; Wichita State Bank, 297,525.21.

Total, $4,306,095.57. Deposits November 10, 1915: City National, $1,184,316.80; First National, 1,200,312.30; Wichita State Bank, 200,673.36; Nat'l. Bank Commerce, 148,808.97.

Total, $2,734,111.43. The figures are taken to indicate unprecedented prosperity here and are believed to establish a record far ahead of anything ever before shown by deposits in a West Texas city. Practically every bank statement for the past two years has shown a substantial gain in deposits over the preceding statement.

While an increase in loans and discounts is also shown by the detailed statements these gains are far from keeping pace with the gain in deposits. CONGRESSMAN SPENDS $687.70 TO GET ELECTED

72,000,000 EGGS CONTROLLED BY ONE SPECULATOR

Last year, Mr. Wetzel asserted, he lost speculating in eggs and is endeavoring to recoup.

FINANCIAL HISTORY OF TEXAS IS PUBLISHED

Special to The Times. Austin, Tex., Nov. 23.—Edmund Thornton Miller, professor of economics in the University of Texas has just published "A Financial History of Texas." He has devoted the past six weeks to his researches in the archives of the state capital for material. The history begins with the Spanish colonial period, and reviews the history of the state up to the present time. While it is a financial work, treating of the taxes received and the disbursement of them, the story of political events is so interwoven that it makes interesting reading.

This is the first work of its kind since 1852 when William Gowley published his "Fiscal History of Texas." In his preface Dr. Miller says: "The chief difficulty met with in the work has been the complete absence of financial reports for some years, and the many imperfections in the reports extant. Too often do the reports of the state's financial officials seem to have been gotten out in a perfunctory way, and merely to meet the minimum requirements of the law and the auditor is convinced that a decided reform must occur if the reports are to fulfill their purpose of presenting to the average citizen an intelligible conception of the financial operations of the state government. The financial system of this state, is and always has been, defective and it is surely in need of change if the most elementary justice is to be done among men."

General Trevino is in command of the forces defending the capital of the state, and has approximately 5,000 men with artillery and strong fortifications surrounding the town to the west and south, the Carranza officers in Juarez declared.

Ammunition from the Juarez arsenal was rushed to Chihuahua yesterday on a special train to be used by General Trevino's troops.

TO DISCUSS WHAT WILL FOLLOW WAR

Many Prominent Speakers To Address Southern Commercial Congress at Norfolk

By Associated Press. Norfolk, Va., Nov. 23.—What will happen after the war is the problem to be discussed at the convention of the Southern Commercial Congress here December 11 to 14. It will be the eighth annual gathering of the Congress and "International Reconstruction" has been chosen for its theme.

President Duncan U. Fletcher, senator from Florida, and other leaders declare that the changed outlook resulting from the war will greatly affect this country, and no section more than the South, and they hope to solve at this convention a plan of action with which to meet the new order. Economic, agricultural, industrial, military, governmental, financial and commercial problems will be considered.

Acceptances already have been received from the following men of prominence who have been invited to address the congress: Secretary of State Robert Lansing; John Skelton Williams, comptroller of the currency; Secretary of Labor William R. Wilson; Secretary of the Navy Daniels; Secretary of Commerce Redfield; Frank A. Vanderlip, Dr. William C. Coker, the Organizational William Jennings Bryan; Don Joaquin Mendez, the Guatemalan minister; Romulo S. Naon, the ambassador from Argentina; Alberto Membrillo, minister from Honduras; Carlos Manuel de Cespedes, minister from Cuba; governors from nine states including Governor Swift of Ohio and Governor Dunne of Illinois, and United States Senators Ransdell, Overman and Owen.

Seventy-seven set speeches at 12 sessions will be followed by open discussions in which all the delegates and guests will be free to participate. Coinciding with the meeting of the Southern Commercial Congress six other organizations will hold their conventions under its auspices. They are the House of Southern Governors, the National Association of Commissioners of Agriculture, the Southern Cotton Congress, the American Association of Agricultural Organizers, the Southern Commercial Secretaries Association and the Woman's Auxiliary of the Southern Commercial Congress.

Secretary Daniels has ordered the Atlantic fleet mobilized in Hampton Roads while the congress is in session and the smaller vessels of the coast and geodetic survey, the bureau of navigation, the bureau of fisheries and the lighthouse service will be assembled in Norfolk harbor for the inspection of the visitors. A review of the fleet is planned as one of the features of the congress. There will be also a military parade in which the Virginia national guard and officers and sailors of the fleet will participate.

The Southern Commercial Congress is a union of effort on the part of Southern commercial bodies and individual business institutions to educate the people of the United States including the southern people themselves, as to the resources of that section. Its slogan since its organization has been "a greater nation through a greater south."

Dr. Zimmermann is the first commoner to hold the great post of Prussian and German foreign minister.

TWO NEW BUILDINGS AT A. & M. COLLEGE

By Associated Press. College Station, Texas, Nov. 23.—The $25,000, which was appropriated by the thirty-fourth legislature for completion of the steam, water and light plant at Agricultural and Mechanical College will be used at once. Contracts for unfinished work on this structure and for the construction of a $100,000 building for the school of veterinary science will be awarded Nov. 30, when the board of directors meet at Austin. Class rooms, laboratories and administration offices will be located in the new building, which is to be of three stories.

SPOKESMAN FOR RAILWAYS GIVES HIS VIEWS TODAY

WASHINGTON, NOV. 23.—The railroad view of the matter with the country's transportation facilities was presented to the joint congressional investigating committee by Alfred F. Thom, counsel for the Railway Executives advisory committee.

QUESTION OF RATES

Declares Cost Should Be Secondary To Service—Says: More Railroads Will Help To Reduce the Cost of Living

Mr. Thom, chosen as first spokesman for the road, when the committee decided to hold a hearing on the present system of "corrective" regulation divided between the state and federal government for most of the problems troubling the public and the carriers and appealed for a discussion of necessary changes "not upon any mere theoretical inquiry as to the distribution of governmental power but upon the large issue of what public interest requires."

Mr. Thom declared, are less important to public interest than "certainty, safety and sufficiency of transportation." Under present conditions in which "the railroad business is largely controlled by political instead of business considerations," he added, "railroad credit is so poor and returns so small that adequate extensions of lines, undeveloped territory and enlargement of facilities are impossible." He said increased transportation facilities would reduce the high cost of living by opening up new country, thereby causing increased production.

Mr. Thom pointed out that the present system of rate regulation has its beginning in the abuses of the past and was based on the principles of repression, correction and punishment. He contrasted this with the plan of governmental regulation of banks.

"The system of bank regulation," he said, "was born of the spirit of helpfulness and encouragement, intended to build up and make adequate for the American people its system of national banks. It was a result of a spirit of anger that grew out of real or fancied abuses in the present system of rate regulation."

"The present system of regulation are entirely adequate to protect the public against excessive rates but are not adequate to insure the public sufficient facilities for its present and future requirements."

"Less than 1000 miles of new railroad have been built in the United States during the past year," he said, "less than in any year since 1848 except the period of the Civil War. And yet the cost of living is daily advancing owing to a short of supplies which might be remedied by procuring access to new areas of production."

Among the conditions affecting railroad credit which deter investors Mr. Thom mentioned the following: "Railroad revenues are not controlled by investors, but are fixed and limited by governmental authority and not by one, but by several governmental authorities, which do not recognize responsibility for assured results to investors and are entirely uncoordinated."

"Railroads cannot limit, the expense accounts. "The present system of regulation is based on a policy of regulation and not on a policy of helpfulness and encouragement."

"The outstanding obligations of the railroads have already exceeded the amount of obligations and involve a disproportionate amount of obligations bearing fixed charges."

"The investor must accept a subordination of obligation or security, with no assurance of a surplus of earnings to support it."

"Other competitive lines of investment present superior attractions."

STATE FAIR OFFICIALS HONOR GUESTS AT DINNER

By Associated Press. Dallas, Texas, Nov. 23.—A big dinner, complimentary to state dignitaries, will be given tonight under auspices of the Chamber of Commerce and Manufacturers Association. Applications for tickets indicate a large number will be present.

In view of the fact that the state fair has been successfully managed and because of the fact that the attendance records of the past year exceeded the coveted mark of one million, it was considered that the proposed dinner would make a fitting testimonial to the men who had contributed largely to the success of this annual event.

MORE WELLS IN ARCHER COUNTY

NUMEROUS LOCATIONS HAVE BEEN MADE IN PAST FEW DAYS

PLAN THOROUGH TEST

Leasing Continues Active at Good Prices—Knight Well Not Yet Completed

Plans for thoroughly testing the Archer county oil field are taking form in local circles and with two wells completed, another nearly so and locations made for starting eight or ten others, activity in that section is becoming pronounced. Operations now under way or contemplated include:

Coline Oil Company No. 1 Orton, southeast corner of the north half of S. P. R. survey No. 2; location, L. Nussbaum et al No. 1 Kemp and Kemper, southeast corner of block 28, S. P. R. survey No. 1; location,

C. H. Clark et al, northeast corner of southeast quarter of S. P. R. No. 1, owned by Kemp and Kemper, the well being close to the Wichita Valley tracks; location,

Panther Oil Co. No. 2, American Tribune Colony lands, section 3, block 2, 1/4 mile south of some company's No. 1; rig,

Sixty-six Oil Co. lot 14, block 25, American Tribune Colony, on middle of east line, quarter mile south-west of Panther No. 1, drilling,

South Side Oil Co. quarter mile south of Sixty-six well, on northeast corner of lot 1, American Tribune Colony lands; rig,

F. P. St. Clair et al, northwest corner of west half of H. S. T. C. survey No. 28, about a mile from Panther No. 1, a little south of east of same, on the W. F. Parrish tract; location,

McGregor et al on W. Baldrige ranch; location,

R. S. Allen, on east end of Woodrum ranch, ten miles southeast of Panther No. 1; rigging,

J. W. Stone et al on W. M. Mayer survey (in Wichita county), tract occupied by Joe Bagshaw; location,

The Gulf Production Company is expected to drill on some of its holdings north of the Knight well and the Magnolia Petroleum Company is also reported to have plans for at least one well in Archer county. A company has been formed at Archer City to drill near that place, but the location has not been announced.

In addition, some of the leases already taken are drilling camps which call for beginning of operations within short periods, and it is expected that the next 30 days will see fully 20 rigs in operation in that section.

Leasing continues active and practically all desirable tracts within reasonable distances of the Knight and Panther wells are now leased up. A lease was closed this week, bringing $24,000 bonus on a 320 acre tract more than a mile from the Knight well, which is somewhat of a record for land that distance from production in an unproved field.

The Coline Company's well on the Knight ranch is not yet completed but the test will be finished within a few days. Some estimates place the production as high as 75 barrels daily and it is certain from the flow which have been witnessed, that it is a substantial producer. This well is on block 12 of S. P. R. survey No. 1; the Orton well, so far as started by the same company, will offset it.

Of the four wells that have reached any depth, two, the Coline No. 1, Knight and the Panther No. 1 are making oil. Two others apparently miss the pay zone. One of these was the Developers well, which was shut down at over 1,900 feet. The other was that of the Gulf Production Company, which is still drilling at 1,950 feet.

The Archer operations are really in two distinct fields, one about six miles east of Holliday, where the Panther, Sixty-Six, South Side and Gulf wells are located, the other, opened up by the Knight well, immediately west of the town of Holliday. Both sections are some distance from Archer county's first "field" which was opened up when a well was brought in near Annamore, south of Archer City; the first well made a little oil and was followed by extensive drilling operations, all being practically total failures.

The Holliday community is not yet showing any signs of a boom, the only development being the opening of a new grocery store. If developments in the Knight district justify extensive operations there, most of the field crews will probably make their headquarters at Holliday. The roads in that section are causing considerable complaint by oil men, though Wichitans are forced to admit that there are some in Wichita county that are just as bad as these.

Drilling operations are being hampered somewhat by difficulty in getting equipment. The price of pipe for casing has been advancing steadily for months and is now hard to get. Oil men declare, even at the fancy figures that it commands, tools of all kinds are hard to obtain, and this fact is delaying the Archer county work to a noticeable extent.

WORK AT LAKE IS NOW COMPLETED

Dam Materially Strengthened For Entire Length—Presents Changed Aspect

The main dam at Lake Wichita will present a considerably altered appearance when work resumes, as the result of work which has been in progress for several months and which has just been completed.

This work consisted in building wooden buttresses along the dam, from the pavilion to the extreme upper end. The upper end, where the danger from high water was greatest, was increased several feet in height and was generally strengthened. It is believed that the danger of a break has been reduced to a minimum by these improvements.

The work at the lake was part of a general program to lessen the danger from flood waters in this section. Another part has also been completed, being the work on the river front of this city, where piling was used in an effort to divert the current of the river and prevent further damage on the south bank. The third part of the program is still unfinished; it consists of a new bridge over Holliday Creek, where the Denver's former structure was said to be responsible for flood damage.

POULTRY SHOW PLANNED AT VERNON NEXT MONTH

Nichols, secretary and treasurer. The dates of the Vernon show are December 14, 15 and 16. Unusually liberal cash prizes are being offered. The association is doing strong on cash prizes in order to attract some of the local breeders of the state. Officials are confident that the Vernon show next year will be one of the best in the entire state.

"A PRINCE FOR A DAY" PLEASES AUDIENCE HERE

The first of two entertaining musical comedies, "A Prince for a Day" was offered to Wichita Falls theatre-goers by the Schuster Musical Comedy Company last night at the Wichita Theatre. The offering was pleasing both from the side of a musical production and a comedy, there being rather more plot than is customary with shows that are strong on their song and dance offerings. The chorus was a feature and the character comedy of the owner of the company, Milton Schuster, was highly pleasing. Tonight the company will offer another musical comedy, "Prancing Around."

CAULEY GILLESPIE TO HAVE NEW TRIAL

Clay County Youth's Case is Reversed and Remanded By Higher Court

The case of Cauley Gillespie of Clay county, convicted of murder and given a nine year sentence at the spring term of the sixth district court at Henrietta, was reversed and remanded by the court of criminal appeals at Austin Wednesday. It will probably be tried again before next spring.

Cauley was convicted in connection with the killing of J. B. Murphy in his southern part of Clay county. Cauley had been keeping company with Mrs. Murphy's sister, now his wife, and Murphy was given reason to believe Cauley's intentions were not proper. He forbade Gillespie to come to the house, but the youth disregarded the warning and drove to the Murphy home in his buggy to keep an appointment with the young woman. Murphy went out to the buggy and was seen to raise his hand as if reaching toward Gillespie; a moment later he fell with his throat cut and died shortly afterward. Gillespie plead self defense. The jury disagreed at his first trial but at his second trial he was found guilty and given nine years. He is represented by R. E. Taylor and L. W. Parrish of Henrietta.

Since the killing of Murphy, Gillespie married the young woman. The case was reversed because the state was permitted to show the jury the blood stained clothing of the deceased, it being held that this was improper.

EXECUTIONS ARE OCCASIONS FOR HOLIDAYS IN MEXICO

By Associated Press. San Luis Potosi, Mexico, Nov. 23.—Candelario Arins, an alleged bandit chief, who has been operating in this vicinity, was recently captured and escorted to a grave yard, stood up and executed by constitutional soldiers before a large number of spectators. Events of this kind are made the occasion of a holiday in Mexico, and thousands rather to witness the various executions.

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Musterole Gives Delicious Comfort When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it were split, just rub a little Musterole on the temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.

Wichita Falls, Texas, Nov. 23, 1916

Funny isn't it, how in the nation and in Texas our laws have been directed against combinations in industry and distribution, and now come government and experts and tell us that in combination and co-operation lie our hopes in the industrial struggle that is believed inevitable after the European war.

A few weeks ago a case was reported in Dallas where a thief stole from a preacher praying in the street. Now we read that a man is being tried in Dallas for the theft of a Bible. Dallas is as up to date in novelty of knavery as she is in many of the better things of civilization.

Deposits in Wichita Falls' four banks aggregated $6,322,522, at the last call for statements. A good part of this money is ready for investment, and it ought to be no trouble for anybody with a good proposition to get action in Wichita Falls.

Michigan, Nebraska, Montana and South Dakota were added to list of dry states as result of the recent election. The wine growers saved California and only the big wet vote in St. Louis prevented Missouri from going dry. At the present rate of progress the solid South and the solid West will be dry territory within a few years. The people of the West as have the people of the South are finding that living is better, life and property more secure without the licensed liquor trade than with it. There is no much doubt as to what the people of Texas will do if the legislature will give them a whack at the legalized liquor trade.

A TELEGRAM THAT WILL NOT BE SENT

Whitehouse, Washington, D. C. "Because of my grouch over my defeat in 1912, I have waited to send my telegram. It's been hard to live down but I have gotten over it. Permit me to extend my congratulations upon your reelection. Until now I haven't been able to bring myself to say it, but I have felt all along that it was really best for the country. I don't amount to much politically anymore but you will have my hearty support in the progressive and forward looking measures which you will champion, as you did so successfully in your first term. Permit me to express best wishes for your most successful administration.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

With the patience of the United States exhausted and hope abandoned for an understanding for joint action by the United States and Mexico for the protection of the border and of foreign residents in Northern Mexico the Mexican commissioners in the conference with American commissioners have been told definitely that the United States can agree to, and have been given to understand that the conference must end if these views are not met. It is hard to believe from his proud and stubborn position in the past that Carranza will accept sensible and effective proposals. This will mean that the conference will end and that each country will pursue its own course. It is likely that General Pershing's troops will be withdrawn, the border patrol tightened and preparations made to take very drastic measures if attacks are made from the Mexican side of the border.

IS WAR KILLING WAR?

The tyrannies that all Europe under the passion of the moment is now voluntarily adopting would have caused revolution five years ago. Liberties dearly won are today lightly sacrificed and despotism is classically embraced on the plea of necessity. Prophecy is one of the most futile of all imaginations, but there are judgments as to the future, based upon the records of the past, which do not necessarily come under this heading. For the first time in the history of Europe, the saddest, methods and results of a devastating general war will ultimately be passed upon by an enfranchised people.

In the most backward of the nations involved the inhabitants are no longer in complete darkness. They read and write. They have a voice in their government. Those who survive this struggle will not always be deceived as to its needlessness, its awful cost in life and treasure or as to the fearful hardships inflicted upon civilian populations. Comparing their own miseries with those of nations which they have been taught to hate and viewing keenly every phase of the situation to see what has been gained and what lost in the struggle that probably can have no climax but exhaustion, there can hardly fail to be agreement in every country that such a war is useless as well as barbarous.

Every battle-field, every trench, every desolated town and province, every hospital, every prison camp, every death and child forced into the world of men and phase of hunger and deprivation is a profoundly prophetic of a better day when the true lesson of this struggle will be understood and when all the hideous falsehoods by which strife is engendered and glorified will be nakedly revealed.

There will come a time, and soon, in all Christendom, when a man who even suggests war for any consideration save self-defense, and then only when necessary measures will be regarded not as a hero but as a scoundrel and a criminal. If Europe's years of agony lead to that great end, the sacrifice, even though prodigious, will not have been in vain.

POLICE TRYING TO CHECK "MOOCHERS"

Public Too Kindly Disposed Toward Able Bredmen, Local Officers Declare

Probably no other class gives the local police quite as much trouble as those who come to town to blow in what money they have and when that gives out hang around town drinking on what they are able to buy or "mooch." It is not infrequently the case that a man will manage to hang around town and stay about half drunk for weeks by this method. Members of this class are usually hard to catch and it is hard to obtain a conviction after arrest. As a result when a policeman is fortunate enough to catch one of these individuals red handed he considers it quite a feat, and a stiff fine from the police court is usually hung on to the offender. If the public itself is in a large measure responsible for this state of affairs, according to the officers for it is a rare case where a request for the price of a drink or a meal is refused, and it is quite easy for those whose lack of pride permits them to take this method of keeping in liquor to not only keep a plentiful supply but to make pretty good days wages on the side. If more of the public would think again before acceding to the request for the price of a meal from some able bodied individual this class would soon disappear, say the police.

MEET TOMORROW STATE RESTS TODAY ON ROAD CAMPAIGN IN TRIAL OF LOTT

Executive Committee Will Organize For Campaign—One Member Reported Opposed

Organization of the executive committee for the good roads campaign will be effected tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at a meeting to be held at the office of C. W. Reid. The committee consists of C. W. Reid of this city, J. A. Watkins of Iowa Park, D. T. Cross of Electra and J. G. Hardin. Since his election to membership on the committee, Mr. Hardin has been quoted by friends as being opposed to a road bond issue in this county.

Worth received by the police from their Oklahoma today disappointed expectations that the negro being held there by officers might be the assailant of Miss Beulah Lafayette. The black established his identity and proved his whereabouts in a thoroughly convincing way and secured his release.

ALLEDALE

The large crew of men laying the heavier steel on the Wichita Valley road is now passing through this community.

Mrs. Bernice Billingsley left for Cameron, Texas, Saturday night in response to a telegram from her mother. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Mamie Carroll of Wichita Falls. The country roading man is making some excellent roads in this community by widening all the roads to forty feet and grading them to a uniform smooth.

Miss Lillie Stek returned Friday from a two-weeks visit with relatives in Stamford.

Last Saturday Robert Quinn was the victim of an occurrence which is altogether too common. One of his horses was crippled by some extremely careless hunter. The horse's left leg was so badly mangled that the animal had to be killed. This is not the first time that live stock has been injured by hunters and it would be well for them in the future to remember that while in this neighborhood they are not to shoot at ever.

Mrs. Fred Warren and baby of Iowa Park are visiting her sister, Mrs. J. J. Johnson and brother James Hornum.

A good road (left Monday) which was just what was needed to bring up the life south highway. It will prove very beneficial to all small towns.

Miss Bernice Johnson, teacher of the Alameda school, spent Saturday and Sunday with her home folks at Iowa Park.

On last Monday evening when the thermometer stood around zero 22 army trucks came into the little city of Byers. They had faced their storm from Bowie that day. They were on their way from Fort Sam Houston to Fort Sill, Okla. Traveling most all the way on the 9th Meridian highway, Byers being located on this important highway made it a convenient lodging place for the night. The company consisted of 64 men including the captain and a social gentleman. Early Tuesday morning they were on their way to Fort Sill crossing the 9th Meridian highway bridge four miles north of Byers, the best bridge to be found on the Red River anywhere. The citizens of Byers were made to think of their own boy, Harry Fooker, who is a truck driver on the border. Our depot agent, C. C. Benson is to be commended for having thrown open the doors of the depot for the use of the boys.

CAR CRASHES INTO CURB, IS WRECKED

Accident at Tenth and Baylor Last Night, But No One is Injured

Three wheels smashed, the right fender torn off and one side of the gasoline tank torn out was the sum total of damages accruing to a Buick six roadster driven by Fred N. Cook, which crashed into the curbing at the intersection of Tenth and Baylor at 11 o'clock last night. Neither Mr. Cook nor two men who were with him at the time were hurt. The car was coming down Tenth street on the way to a downtown garage when Mr. Cook attempted to turn off into Baylor. However, he was unable at the speed which the car was making to complete the turn and the car went almost straight into the curb.

MEETING EXPECTED EARLY NEXT MONTH

Secretary Johnson Recommends December 8 and 9 For West Texas A. & M. Conference

That the date for the meeting of the West Texas A. & M. association scheduled for this city last year for December 8 and 9 was the request addressed to the executive committee by E. F. Johnson, secretary of the local chamber of commerce and there is every prospect that these will be the dates agreed upon. However the date of the Wichita Falls meeting will not be finally decided until after the joint meeting with the executive committee of the association and the board of trustees of the present A. & M. institution which will be held at College Station Wednesday, November 23.

Young Old People

Do Your Eyes Leak? The way you can tell is your eyes will itch and burn and your reading blur and run together. You are most always troubled, quite often with headache and indigestion. If you have these symptoms your eyes are leaking, your nervous energy away and you had better have them examined and fitted by a competent optometrist. No eye drops, the late method, the fogging system.

statement in The Times of Tuesday that recent statements and writings of Henry N. Pope had been discussed in the convention. The Times wishes to make it plain that its information was not received from any member of the press committee or from anyone authorized to speak for the union, but that it came from sources which were considered, at that time, absolutely trustworthy. J. C. Albritton, chairman of the press committee of the union and Tom B. Taylor, a member of that committee, last night authorized the statement that the report as to Mr.

Pope was without foundation. "Henry N. Pope's name was not mentioned on the floor of the convention," said Mr. Albritton. "His statement in reference to the Adairson law were not mentioned or discussed in any manner. Statements to the contrary are absolutely untrue and without foundation." Mr. Taylor affirmed Mr. Albritton's statement. E. J. Pope, commercial agent for the Northwestern, is in Alford on business. Grace (sobbing)—"You don't love

AT THE THEATRES

The Gam. "Barriers of Society" a Universal special feature will show today at the Reg. Most of the scenes of "Barriers of Society" by Lloyd B. Carleton's latest product were filmed on the Pacific Ocean, and therein lies a tale that is well worth telling. When Carleton selected "Barriers of Society" to produce, he did not think that he was doing anything amiss. The story was a fine one from the pen of Clarke Irving, the western correspondent of the Motion Picture World, and the scenario was by Fred Myton, of the Universal staff. Everything seemed as usual, and now was the poor director to know of his coming life! The play called for action on a yacht on the open sea that was running craft and the whole company set out for a glorious holiday. The party included Dorothy Davenport, the leading lady and Emory Johnson, who plays the hero, as well as Richard Morris, so adept at the portrayal of heavy parts. How was the director to know that all discovered simultaneously that there really is such a complaint as mal de mer. But, at last, the sea calmed down a little, and it was possible to take the scenes. The high sea that was running adds a great deal of realistic atmosphere to the picture. The story itself is a gripping one of how fate brings together two souls from entirely different strata of society and how, at last, their strong love overcomes the barriers that society has put in their way. Dorothy Davenport is very convincing in the rather difficult part of the society girl who falls in with a poor sailor, Emory Johnson, as the sailor, looks very well in his nautical costume, and performs some swimming feats that deserve mention.

Brevol and her maid fell asleep in the Pullman. The train stops at a country village and Ali, who is out on the platform, sees several children playing nearby. The French girl leaves the observation platform to play with the children and crosses the tracks to reach them. A second train passes between her and the one on which she was riding and while she is thus cut off, the first train pulls out, leaving her in the middle of the track. As she stands there, bewildered she is startled by the approach of two tramps. Lili runs and the man follows. To escape her pursuers, she now thoroughly scared girl takes to the open country and finally reaches a small village. All the villagers in sight are gathered in front of the local garage and to them she applies for aid. None can understand her with him. Jim Pemberton, who is responsible for the crowd, and who has just had a fight with a customer and been discharged from the garage where he worked, understands French and comes to her assistance. Jim's father is also an automobile manufacturer, a rival in business to Lili's uncle. Jim places Lili in the care of one of the women of the village, Miss Disconsolate when Jim leaves her, she runs after him and by dint of much pleading persuades him to take her with him. Both are penniless and when they try to telegraph for funds the agent refuses to send their message without payment. The local hotel keeper refuses them lodgings, so they start for Boston on foot. This seems rather a plight to leave the heroine and hero in but it makes it more interesting to wait and see the picture. Suffice it to say the end is thoroughly interesting and a happy one as well.

The Majestic

Vivian Martin, the youthful, talented and beautiful star, is to be seen today at the Majestic in a delightful picture, "The Little Mademoiselle." Lili Brevol, a charming little French girl, goes to New York from France to make her home with her uncle, Henry Brevol, a wealthy automobile manufacturer. Her uncle decides to open a Boston office and starts for that city, taking his family with him. In the party so make the journey is Eugene, son of Henry, who the elder Brevol, who is a miser, has a very different strata of society and how, at last, their strong love overcomes the barriers that society has put in their way. Dorothy Davenport is very convincing in the rather difficult part of the society girl who falls in with a poor sailor, Emory Johnson, as the sailor, looks very well in his nautical costume, and performs some swimming feats that deserve mention.

The Empress

Virginia Pearson is the beautiful star of the new photoplay which William Fox presents, "The War Bride's Secret" at the Empress Theatre today. Supporting Miss Pearson is an excellent cast of Fox players, Walter Law and Glen White have leading roles, and Miss Pearson herself has the only girl's part in the film. The photoplay was made under the direction of Kenneth Buel. This is the story: Jean MacDougal is a Scotch peasant girl whom two men love. She marries one secretly, just as he is about to leave for the front. Then, Mrs. George D. Keith went to Fort Worth today to visit relatives. Walter Smith, of Holliday, who had been to Hobart, Oklahoma, was in the city today returning home.

RESTRICTED DISTRICT vs. TENTH STREET.

Tooth street is all right and at this time is the principal residence street of the city, but don't let it be your head that all the fine homes will continue to be built on 10th street. The time is now close to hand when the restricted district of Floral Heights will have more well, up-to-date homes building than any other section of the city.

THERE IS A REASON FOR THIS.

The elevation is higher, the scenery more beautiful; it is farther away from the noise and dust; lots are cheaper; sold in pairs which gives more yard room and gives your home a much better appearance; no cheap houses can be constructed around you. It will be the ideal residence section. For prices on these lots see or phone me.
