VON MACKENSEN FORCE NOW WITHIN 35 MILES OF CAPITAL AND TWO IMPORTANT CITIES ARE CAPTURED BY INVADERS

ACTIVITY IN FRANCE

Hints Given of British Drive at New Point—Berlin Announces Repulse of Strong Entente Attack on Monastir Front

The Associated Press summarizes European war operations as follows: Two important announcements are made by Berlin today, in reporting progress of the Teutonic invasion of Roumania—the capture of Giurgiu on the Danube, and the taking of Curtea de Arges on the Tisza river, 80 miles northwest of the capital. The capture of Giurgiu places Von Mackensen's army, advancing from the southwest only 37 miles from Bucharest, with a railroad running thence. In occupying Curtea de Arges, General Von Falkenberg's troops apparently have driven the Roumanians from the line of the Topoloz and have even broken it near its northern end, the line along which the Roumanians were expected to make a decisive stand. Thus a semi-circle, drawn about Bucharest and the Roumanian army, is gradually but steadily being drawn closer. Substantial successes are being reported by Berlin in new operations for tightening the grip. Considerable interest attaches to the reports of artillery activity that continue to come from the Ypres, Arras and Armentieres districts. The Franco-Belgian front. The Ypres sector in particular has been twice mentioned within the last 24 hours in the reports as the scene of a British bombardment, while today heavy German shelling of the line north of Ypres is recorded. Recent reports from Berlin declared that indications were accumulating that an attack by the entente at some new points along the German line on the western front was in contemplation. Berlin today emphasizes the importance of the German-Bulgarian success in defeating a strong attack by entente forces along a wide front in the Monastir region. Extremely heavy losses are declared to have been suffered by the French, Serbian, Italian, Russian forces in an assault which netted them nothing.

Reinforcements Leave Juarez With Ammunition—Treviso's Infantry Said to Have Deserted

By Associated Press. Juarez, Nov. 28.—A persistent report is current here that Trevino has evacuated Chihuahua City and is retiring eastward, leaving Villa and his bandits in control of the city. The report is said to have been brought by courier to Terres station and telegraphed here. The Carranza officials here say they have nothing definite regarding the reported retirement of General Trevino, but admit the possibility that Villa holds Chihuahua city. The message which the report is said to have been based upon, is declared to have been received by General Gonzalez. Reinforcements for General Trevino are being assembled at Siaz station and will be led toward the city by General Francisco Gonzales, commander of the Juarez brigade, who left here early today on a train loaded with men and munitions, it was officially announced at military headquarters. One report current here, though not confirmed, is that General Trevino was able to take only his cavalry out of Chihuahua city, being forced to abandon his artillery to Villa, and his infantry deserting to the bandit leader. It is known that ammunition sent to Trevino at the outbreak of the battle was stolen from the train near Salgado north of Chihuahua city. No intimation was given in the report of the affair as to whether the shots were deliberately fired at the Neptune as an insult to the United States or whether someone aboard the Scythian was indulging in target practice. BOARD RETURNS FROM LONG TRIP

TO SELECT SITES FOR FARM LOAN BANKS WITHIN THE NEXT 20 DAYS

EFFECT ON INTEREST

Rates Already Lower, With Prospect of Competition, Board Announces

By Associated Press. Washington, Nov. 28.—The federal farm loan board which has just returned from its tour of the country to determine the best locations for the establishment of twelve federal farm loan banks today began studying the mass of testimony received during its trip. The board announced the selection of the twelve federal districts in which the banks are to be located is expected in 30 days. Its tour of the country covered 20,000 miles and held 50 hearings in an effort to get the first hand information from farmers generally. The board announced today that the government's new cooperative banking system, from its installation, will have a volume of business which will insure its operation at a minimum of cost. The testimony according to the board, emphasizes the great demand for an agency to lower and equalize interest rates on farm loans and to provide long time loans, repayable in small installments through a period of years. It also shows the board states that farmers have been required to pay exorbitant interest and unbusinesslike commissions, and that since the farm loan law was enacted interest rates in most parts of the country have been reduced to a marked degree to meet the new cooperative competition.

BOYS' CLUB BANQUET HELD MONDAY NIGHT

Large Number of Students and Grownups Attend—Several Speakers Heard

About 100 high school boys and a liberal sprinkling of grown-ups attended the banquet of the Boys' Club at the high school Monday night and were given a new insight into the activities and workings of that organization. An excellent repast was served and a number of inspiring talks were heard, the boys receiving a full share of good advice and encouragement.

The banquet was held in connection with the State Conference of Boys Clubs which meets at A. & M. the latter part of this week and which will be attended by a score or more from this city.

Prof. Clyde H. Watkins, who is in charge of the Boys' Club work, called last night's meeting to order and presented Andrew Urban, who presided as toastmaster. The first speaker was Alfred Burruss, president of the club who welcomed the boys and grown-ups on behalf of the club.

Mayor A. H. Britain, whose subject was "What the City Can Do for the Boys" said that it was not so much a question of what the city could do for the boys as what the boys could do for themselves. There were many things in the way of play grounds and the like that the city would like to do for the boys, he said, but he considered it of more importance that the boys should do things for themselves and not become pampered hot house plants, but boys "clean limbed, stout hearted, clear eyed and clean minded."

Secretary R. F. Johnson of the Chamber of Commerce, who was to tell the boys what they could do for the city, said that each of these might become a walking, talking advertisement of the city. He pointed out the home in the interest of home industries and home patronage. If the boys would do their part toward keeping the town clean, he continued, this city would be one of the cleanest in Texas, and urged the boys, in whatever they were called upon to do, "to do their best willingly."

Rev. R. C. Miller, to whom was assigned the subject "What the Church Can Do for the Boy" said that one function of the church in connection with the boys' lives, was to be the center of their social life. He said that churches ought to be equipped so as to provide wholesome amusements for the boys. He spoke of the influence of the church, the home and the school, upon the boys and said that the greatest thing any boy had to do was to take care of his immortal soul.

Rev. F. F. Walters speaking on "What the Boy Can Do for the Church" said that few things were done that did not have the boy and girls in view, and that all churches were built with the needs of the boys and girls in mind. He urged participation in church activities by the young people, saying that if boys and girls were regular attendants at church they could not change the character of the worship in that church, and that everything that was done for the church would be amply repaid.

W. J. Bullock, president of the school board, spoke on "What the Schools Can Do for the Boy." He said that the youth of the nation were its greatest asset and that with the facilities afforded in this day, the youth enjoyed greater advantages than ever before. He spoke of the need for more school funds here and said it was his plan to establish a course of business training as soon as there was money enough. Mr. Bullock told of the rapid growth of the school system here, from two schools and 25 teachers ten years ago to nine schools and 75 teachers at the present time. He declared that Wichita Falls school children were entitled to the best and that the school board would do all it could in their behalf.

"What the Boy Can Do for the Schools" was the subject of an inspiring talk by W. W. Brown of the school board, who stressed the importance of proper conduct, honest methods and high ideals in the school life.

one connected with activities of a like nature throughout Texas; he explained the plans and purposes of the S. M. conference and urged all the boys to attend who could do so, saying it would "help them to get hold of life in the right way."

C. H. Watkins was the closing speaker, expressing the appreciation of the boys at the attendance and inspiration of the speakers, and discussing the work of the club and its plans. He led the boys in cheers for "Miss Miller and the girls" who prepared and served the banquet, and then the boys of their own volition gave hearty cheers for "Watkins."

The menu, consisting of tomato soup, sandwiches, potato chips, salad, ice cream and cake, was prepared in the domestic science department of the high school, under the direction of Miss Miller, and was served by the girls in that department.

Among those attending the banquet were several from Burkburnett, Superintendent J. B. Bird and Roy Gilbert, Herbert Knauth, Ed. Willis, Jones Walling and H. Jackson coming down for the meeting.

WINE AUCTIONS SOON TO BEGIN IN GERMANY

Associated Press Mail Correspondence.
Trevos, Germany.—The wine auctions of the 1915 vintage in the famous Moselle district are soon to begin with big profits expected. Last year's wine was not only of remarkably high quality but also the yield was almost phenomenal. Wine experts have exhausted their vocabulary in trying to find terms to describe it. Following the example of previous years they have adopted a nickname for last year's vintage, and the term selected not only expresses their judgment of wine but also a prediction that Germany will come out of the war victorious; they call the 1915 vintage the "Victorious."

NEGRO PREACHER LEADS OFFICERS TO AN OASIS

(Frederick Leader)
A negro preacher named Moore was arrested by Officer Downs Saturday night in a badly intoxicated condition and locked up, despite his tearful protestations that a such a course would hurt his church. In his pockets were found a bottle of gin and a bottle of whisky, indicating that somewhere in this dry land he had discovered an oasis. The presence of so many wet goods on the "reverend" excited the curiosity of the officers and they induced Moore to lead them to the place where he had got the liquor. Moore was given marked money and sent into the house to make a purchase, while Officer Downs watched through the window. Moore had no trouble in negotiating a purchase from a couple of blacks in the room where he entered. They filled his bottle out of a large jug. When he had seen this Downs raided the place and arrested the two sellers, who gave their names as Harris and Williams. They were each fined $100 and sentenced to serve 90 days in jail when arraigned before Mayor Rogers. Moore was let off with $16.50 on a plain drunk charge.

POULTRY SHOW READY TO START

MORE THAN 200 ENTRIES ARE RECEIVED UP TO NOON TODAY

STAY OPEN TONIGHT

To Receive Late Entries—Secretary Candy Urges Exhibitors To Send Birds In

Another exhortation to local breeders to send their birds in for an annual poultry show of the North Texas Poultry association is extended by Rev. T. E. Cannedy, secretary and treasurer of the association. The show opens tomorrow. The show room will be open all night for the reception of birds coming in on night trains and entries will be received until at least midnight, Rev. Cannedy states.

Birds entered by out of town breeders which do not arrive during the day will be in on the night trains, and a night shift will be necessary to get things ready for the judging which will begin tomorrow morning. The show room is fast filling up with birds, and with the birds which were in the building before noon a right successful show could have been held. Over 200 entries had been received by noon and the total list of entries is expected to reach a total of 350, much more than at any show in the history of the association.

Prospects were this morning that the association would be hard pressed for coops for the birds, but an effort was made to secure more and assurances were given that every bird entered could be cared for. Among the early entries from out of town breeders were birds owned by W. G. Airhart of Penile, near Greenville; Sid Smith of Grandfield, Okla.; T. E. Cannedy of Oklahoma City; R. T. Matson of Oklahoma; Henry Willingham of Gould, Oklahoma; Sam Mays of Dixon; A. Lee Hill of Greenville; W. F. Norman, Byers; W. J. Snowgrass; J. E. Wright; Byers; R. E. Alexander, Munday; T. C. Priestly of Ladonia. Among the early entries by Wichita exhibitors were birds of J. L. Richardson, Mary Nicholson, Zack Waddell, W. D. Nelson, C. O. Simmons, Sam Apple, A. W. Mullins, G. B. Swopes, S. L. Hansard and W. B. Stephens.

LITTLE INTEREST SHOWN IN YALE-HARVARD GAME

The Yale-Harvard football game, for years considered the real classic of autumn sporting events, now excites less public interest than many other games, judging from the inquiries received regarding it on Saturday nights during football season. The Times receives dozens of telephone inquiries, most of them from Wichitans but some from out of town points, as to football results; last Saturday night only two inquiries on the Yale-Harvard game were received; four inquiries on the Army-Navy game were answered, while the Ohio-Northwestern game was the subject of four inquiries also, two more than the Yale-Harvard game. Most of the inquiries are as to games in which Texas or Oklahoma teams take part, but it is not uncommon for someone to want to know the result of some remote game in the north or east. There are several football fans in small towns in Northwest Texas and Oklahoma that seldom call up. The Times for the football news. The worst jolt that came on the Yale-Harvard contest, which at one time always held the breathes of interest of football fans the country over, was when a local Yale graduate came into the office on another mission. He remained some time and did not inquire as to the outcome of the game until reminded of it by someone in the office.

One reason for the failure of the Yale-Harvard game to excite the interest that it used to is that it is no longer as decisive a contest as in the earlier days when the smaller schools did not get into the game. The small end of the score on the Blue or the Crimson.

MANY GERMAN SOLDIERS TO BE GIVEN FURLONGHS

Associated Press Mail Correspondence.
Berlin.—This autumn is to be another furlough period for a good majority of the soldiers now in the field for the ministry of war has issued an announcement whereby each troop commander has been instructed to send men home as fast as he possibly can spare them.

The first men to go, many of whom are now on leave, are those who in normal peace times are farmers or are employed on farms. They are needed of course for the second harvest. When they get back to the front men in all sorts of other walks of life will be sent back home, those who are married being given the preference.

The minister of war especially asks commanders to give furloughs wherever possible to men who have been in the field continuously for a year, regardless of their married or single state. The plan, it is believed, will make it possible for almost every soldier to face the coming winter campaign more or less fresh from a rest at home.

Don't you ever buy a flower for your sweetheart, wife or mother on their birthdays, or the holidays that mean the most to them? Now we are not here to censure, or to reprimand another, nor to worry you; but here to serve you if we can. Everyone should try to specialize and make a life-long study, trying to help his fellow-man, looking over the list of subjects, we decided to be florists; Yes, we're into it for life and shall try no other plan.

Flowers have a way of telling what one soul says to another, loving messages of consolation oftentimes they bring; Or it may be joy abundant they're foretelling to some other, round about the wedding bells that are just about to ring. All emotions of a living soul should be given to their keeping. Last our weak words should fail to give the meaning they are seeking. Come and see what we can show you, if you need a flower or two, on some glad or sad occasion to say a word for you.

IN THE SPHERE OF WOMANKIND How far is it to Christmas? It's across the Land of Dreams, Where are the laughing valleys and the ever-singing streams, And up the hill of doubting and along the road of smiles, Until you reach the border of the land of otherwhiles. It's far away and near; it is there and close at hand— Oh, earnest little fellow, can I make you understand? For I know just whisper, you count and count the days, And try to bring it nearer in a hundred varied ways. Already you have seen it in a gleam of joy afar, Have seen its joy approaching in the twinkling of an eye, You hear the bells that jingle and clatter of the hoofs That tinkle a song of gladness as they gallop on the roofs. How far is it to Christmas? It's not so far away— For all I know, already you have and hold the time nor season; it is not set apart, But sends its blessed sunshine to every little heart. —Wilbur D. Nesbitt.

BIG HOSPITAL FOR TROOPS ON BORDER

Ample Arrangements Made For Caring For 150,000 Troops Now on Duty

Special to The Times. San Antonio, Tex., Nov. 28.—Within the last five months the most complete medical organization known to the United States army has been developed to care for the 150,000 state and regular troops stationed at border points and in Mexico.

The system includes five base hospitals, located at strategic points in the long stretch of border territory; eight camp hospitals at other points where troops are stationed; a cantonment hospital at Columbus, N. M., to serve the force on duty in Mexico; and 26 ambulance companies and 41 field hospitals distributed among troops in the field.

The base and camp hospitals afford accommodation for a total of 6,000 patients. Each has medical and surgical facilities, equal to the finest hospitals. Not more than half the beds have been occupied at any one time since the nation's military strength was called into the federal service, but the room is available in case of need.

Each of this array is the potential organization. A hospital train of ten Pullman cars, with a capacity of 250 patients, has been placed in use to transport patients from base hospitals to general military hospitals in various parts of the country, should a campaign in Mexico be undertaken.

Larger institutions are the Walter Reed hospital at Washington, D. C., the General Army and Navy hospital at Hot Springs, Ark., and the Pittman hospital at San Francisco. About 1,200 beds are vacant in the three hospitals at the present time.

In addition, a number of army posts have been selected for transformation into general hospitals in case of emergency. This list includes Fort McPherson, Ga.; Fort Benning, Ga.; Fort Benning, Ind.; Fort Harrison, Ind.; and other army stations where barracks are available for hospital purposes.

The medical corps has complete equipment in storage for twenty evacuation hospitals and two base hospitals. An evacuation hospital takes care of 500 patients and a base hospital accommodates 500 or the total reserve equipment ready for use at a moment's notice is sufficient for 4,000 men.

Evacuation hospitals are entirely under canvas and are intended for use along an extended line of communication. They are located at Fort Sam Houston, Fort Bliss, Brownsville, Eagle Pass and Nogales, serving as feeders for the base hospitals. The camp hospital, located at the following points: Laredo, 120 beds; Del Rio 15 beds; Marfa 150 beds; Deming 150 beds; Douglas 200 beds; Grande 200 beds; McAllen 150 beds, and Fort Clark 150 beds.

Last July when state troops began arriving at the border the only army establishments for the care of sick were the post hospitals at Fort Sam Houston and Fort Bliss and a few other border posts. Practically the entire system of base and camp hospitals has been built since the fall of the National Army was made.

As a result of the scientific methods adopted by the medical corps and the steps taken to insure absolute sanitation in border camps, the big company of regulars and militia has set a new health record. From May 1 to October 31 there were only 75 deaths from disease in the force of more than 150,000, and of this small number only 21 deaths were due to infectious maladies.

Typhoid fever was formerly the worst scourge of camp but it has no place among the troops along the Mexican border. From May 1 to October 31 only 24 cases of typhoid fever and no deaths resulted from the disease. All of these cases were among the National Guard organizations, where in some instances the men were not inoculated with typhoid serum until after regiments had come to the border. There was not a single case among the 42,000 troops of the regular army engaged in patrol duty, and stationed in Mexico with General Pershing's command.

In Spanish-American war days, or a period of eight months in 1898, among 147,000 regulars and volunteers the typhoid epidemic reached an enormous total of 21,000 cases and there were 2,192 deaths from the disease.

WICHITAN REMBERS LATE AUSTRIAN EMPEROR One Wichitan who read the news of the death of Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria-Hungary with more than passing interest was Ernest Katz, local musician, who is a native of Austria and who has been often in Vienna, capital of the kingdom. Mr. Katz has often seen the late emperor and recalls him as a tall, stalwart, dignified individual. It was no uncommon occurrence for the emperor to appear on the streets of Vienna, unattended, Mr. Katz says. Mr. Katz attended the celebration of the 50th anniversary of the emperor's birth in Vienna some years ago and recalls it as an occasion of magnificent splendor. The new emperor was a mere child when Mr. Katz left Vienna, nineteen years ago, and he does not recall having seen him.

HIGHWAYS' EFFECT UPON FARM VALUES

Department of Agriculture Shows That Improved Roads Result in Increase

Washington. To determine as far as possible the exact dollars and cents value of the improvement of farm roads, specialists of the office of public roads and rural engineering of the U. S. department of agriculture, made economic surveys in eight counties in each of the years from 1910 to 1915 inclusive.

This study of the increase in the values of farm lands in the eight counties reveals the striking and interesting fact that following the improvement of the main market roads the increase in the selling price of tillable farm lands served by the roads has amounted to from one to three times the total cost of the improvements.

The increase in values in those instances which were recorded ranged from 61 per cent to 80 per cent in Spotsylvania county, Va.; from 68 to 74 in Dinwiddie county, Va.; 70 to 87 in Lee county, Va.; 25 to 100 in Wise county, Va.; 9 to 114 in Franklin county, N. Y.; 50 to 160 in Dallas county, Ala.; 25 to 50 in DeKalb county, Ga.; 50 to 100 in Manatee county, Fla. The estimates of increase were based for the most part upon the territory within a distance of one mile on each side of the roads improved.

In Spotsylvania county a careful record was made in 1910 of 25 farms located on the road selected for improvement. Of the seven farms sold in 1912, the prices actually paid show increases of from 37 to 116 per cent over the 1910 valuation. The average value after the roads were improved was $28.26 per acre as compared with $17.11 previous to the improvement. In 1913 four tracts of farm land were on the basis of $39.11 per acre, whereas the properties were listed in 1910 at only $18.89 per acre. It appears that 1,451 acres sold in 1914 increased in value $28,500 or 80 per cent or from $24.45 to $44.10 per acre.

In Dinwiddie county, Va., the actual price of 42 farms sold or offered for sale from 1909 to 1914 ranged in price from $28 to $45.74 per acre before the roads were built, and from $24.70 to $75.00 per acre after the roads were improved.

In Franklin county, N. Y., the figures seem to indicate that the benefits of the roads selected for improvement to adjoining macadam was followed by increases averaging $12.50 per acre or about 30.7 per cent.

In Dallas county, Ala., careful investigation seemed to indicate that road improvement had added at least $2 to each acre of land within a half mile of improved roads. Tracts sold at from $8 to $10 per acre were sold again after road improvement at from $20 to $25 per acre.

In Laurens county, Miss., the total assessed valuation of real property outside of the city was $2,757,122. This increased in 1914 after road improvement to $3,183,809 or 15.4 per cent. Local real estate men place the increase in land values on account of improved roads at from 25 to 50 per cent.

In Manatee county, Fla., careful study of sales and real estate records indicated that the improvement of roads had added from 15 to 100 per cent or at least $15 per acre to the selling price of all lands within one-half mile of improved roads. This would give a total of $611,000 or more than twice the value of the bonds issued.

Hughes and Wilcox have conceded Wilson's election graciously enough, and gone fishing, but Collier's Weekly is still suffering with the belly-ache.

Troubled shadows will brood over the Thanksgiving festivities at the State University at Austin, where the inauguration of President R. E. Vinson and the annual football game will this year be the occasion for a "home-coming" reunion of alumni and ex-students. Home-comings are supposed to be joyous affairs, but many of those who have interest of the University at heart will be unable to overlook the threat that hangs over the institution as a result of the attitude of the governor. Ferguson is angered at members of the University faculty and he has means for indulging his wrath; the law gives him no direct control over University affairs, but it does place in his hands the right to eliminate the appropriation for any University department. If a University official has displeased the chief executive—which doesn't seem very hard to do—that official's department can be made to suffer severely when the question of obtaining funds comes up. The University has weathered some unpleasant storms in its career, but it has never before been exposed to submarine attacks. The fate of the offending faculty members is of comparatively small importance though no one can censure them for not desiring to become the governor's lick-spittles—compared with the disadvantages to which the boys and girls of this state, desiring higher education, will be put.

The Times is in receipt of a letter from Gifford Pinchot in which he attacks the Shields waterpower bill which has passed the Senate, and the Myers bill, which he says does for waterpower on public land what the Shields bill proposes to do with the waterpower on navigable streams. Concerning the Shields bill Mr. Pinchot says: "It makes a present of the public waterpower on our navigable streams to the waterpower interests. The power thus handed over without compensation is estimated at 60,000,000 horsepower, or double the power of every kind now used to run every train, trolley, factory, shop, mill, boat, mine and electric light in the United States." Mr. Pinchot goes on to say that while the grant is ostensibly limited to fifty years, it is in fact perpetual because the conditions under which the property might regain control of their property are prohibitory as even the advocates of the bill frankly admit. The avowed purpose of the Shields bill is to permit private capital to develop the waterpower of our navigable rivers, and the bill provides for fifty years franchises for such companies, with some provision whereby they may be taken over by the government at the end of such period. Now the waterpower of the country ought to be utilized, according to Mr. Pinchot's statement, enough water is going past the dams that have not been built to operate every train, trolley, factory, shop, mill, boat, mine and electric light plant in the United States. This is a fearful and shameful waste of power. It means the consumption of an amount of coal equal to every ton that is now being mined in the United States. Unlike the water that goes past the un-

DEATH RESULTS FROM INJURY IN AUTO ACCIDENT

The injuries sustained by W. C. McFall of Weatherford, father of J. M. McFall and Louis McFall of this city, in an automobile accident Saturday afternoon proved fatal, death resulting this afternoon at the Wichita General Hospital where the injured man was brought. The accident occurred at Haskell, Okla.

While definite funeral arrangements had not been made this afternoon the family will probably take the body back to Weatherford for burial. This is the second death in the McFall family within a short time, the eldest son having died suddenly in the east and being brought to Weatherford for burial. Mr. McFall was 67 years of age, being born in Fulton, Texas, in 1849. In 1876 he came to Texas, settling at Weatherford and made his home there from that time. He was county clerk of Parker county for three successive terms.

He was dragged several feet before the wheels passed, crushing his left arm, crushing it off between the shoulder and elbow. He was taken to the general hospital and while suffering much pain is not thought to be fatally injured. His home is on Sixth street.

EFFECT OF DAIRY ORDINANCE SEEN

No Adverse Results in Evidence—Tuberculin Tests Are Being Made

After being in effect for nearly three months by J. T. Taylor, city food and dairy inspector is unable to see the fulfillment of anticipations entertained by some of an adverse effect on the dairy business through the workings of the ordinance. Some dairies have been sold out since the ordinance went into effect but their places have been taken by others. A few dairies are said to have stopped selling milk and turned to the making of butter which is not governed by the ordinance.

Over 400 dairy cattle have been given the tuberculin test by Dr. Taylor since the final passage of the dairy ordinance. As reports have been taken out for nearly 700 cattle it will be seen that quite a little work in this line remains, but Dr. Taylor states that many of those taking out permits at first are not in the dairy business or are making butter and their cattle will not have to be inspected. He expects to finish the administration of the test by the first of the year.

WALTERS ASKED TO FORM NEW CHURCH

Local Pastor Urged To Organize Institution at Texas Christian University

The organization of a new church at Texas Christian University is the task which has been submitted to Rev. F. F. Walters for the past four years pastor of the First Christian Church at Wichita Falls, this call being issued to Mr. Walters Monday afternoon at a district meeting of executives of the Christian Church held in this city. This move has been considered by the church for several months and the plan was made public by Rev. A. D. Rodgers, state superintendent. Mr. Walters states that some time next week his decision will be ready, as yet he has not made up his mind. That Mr. Walters should be chosen as the one to undertake this church organization is considered a distinct compliment.

Some dairies have been sold out since the ordinance went into effect but their places have been taken by others. A few dairies are said to have stopped selling milk and turned to the making of butter which is not governed by the ordinance.

Over 400 dairy cattle have been given the tuberculin test by Dr. Taylor since the final passage of the dairy ordinance. As reports have been taken out for nearly 700 cattle it will be seen that quite a little work in this line remains, but Dr. Taylor states that many of those taking out permits at first are not in the dairy business or are making butter and their cattle will not have to be inspected. He expects to finish the administration of the test by the first of the year.

WALTERS ASKED TO FORM NEW CHURCH

Local Pastor Urged To Organize Institution at Texas Christian University

The organization of a new church at Texas Christian University is the task which has been submitted to Rev. F. F. Walters for the past four years pastor of the First Christian Church at Wichita Falls, this call being issued to Mr. Walters Monday afternoon at a district meeting of executives of the Christian Church held in this city. This move has been considered by the church for several months and the plan was made public by Rev. A. D. Rodgers, state superintendent. Mr. Walters states that some time next week his decision will be ready, as yet he has not made up his mind. That Mr. Walters should be chosen as the one to undertake this church organization is considered a distinct compliment.

Real Thrills in the Pursuit of the African Elephant—Beast Not Afraid of Anything.

MACHINE GUN FOR DEFENSE, DR. ALEXANDER HAMILTON RICE, and THE ALBERTA

"For many reasons the chase of the elephant stands at the apex of sport. As a man-killer in open combat he ranks with the lion and the African buffalo. He is the only beast that fears no other. While he will almost invariably run from the scent of man, he is as invariably ready to attack on the slightest provocation. Fear does not exist for him. His overwhelming bulk, power, speed and intelligence make him supreme beyond the range of rivalry. "As though this were not enough to establish his pre-eminence, he alone carries a trophy which is one of the staple products of the industrial world. The value of ivory rises; it never fluctuates. Nor is this all. In the mind of the East the elephant is intimately associated with dignity, pomp, pageantry and kingship; but in the mind of his native African he is king—a king in his own right. "In this regard, let it be affirmed that no elephant born in Africa has ever docilely paced a hippodrome stage, trundled a circus wagon, or taken children for a ride in the park. Those sleep-walking cattle known to the American public as elephants come from India, and are mere bastard cousins to the king. You may have seen the African elephant in captivity, but never in subjection. Chain him to the floor behind iron bars, and after ten years he is still quick to throw muck in the face of the man that jeers at him."—George Agnew Chamberlain in Century.

A naval lieutenant, assigned to command a submarine, found the storage batteries in which he considered an unsafe condition and reported to his superior, a rear admiral. The superior considered the lieutenant's action merely a "kick." He refused to have all batteries examined, even after investigation showed that the subordinate officer's "kick" was based on fact, and accepted the vessel as it stood. The matter went to court-martial, and the rear admiral was acquitted of negligence. Secretary Daniels disapproved the finding of the court. Any superior who objects having his subordinate kick occasionally is not deserving of his rank. Bureaucracy, wherever it has developed to curse democracy, is based on precisely the theory this rear admiral appears to have adopted; that all wisdom is centered in the heads of chiefs, and that the only thing that need concern subordinates is the following of orders without questioning or protest. The world advances by kicking.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Dr. Bentley left for San Antonio this evening where he will visit his sister, Mrs. D. E. Murphy. Mrs. Annie Erwin, of 1406 Eighth Street, left today for Amarillo for a visit with relatives.

Prosperity Pointers For Farmers.

In the interest of further developing and upbuilding the territory through which their lines are operated, the Fort Worth & Denver City and Wichita Valley Railway Companies have issued an attractive thirty page booklet entitled "Prosperity Pointers For Farmers" and containing valuable information regarding soil conditions and the money making crops to which same is best adapted as proven through the production of the numerous bumper crops which have produced generally prosperous conditions and are constantly making it possible for renters to become prosperous home owners. A few of these booklets are still available for those whom it may be possible to interest in the question of locating in North west Texas. If, therefore, you have any friends that you desire to interest, and will send us their names and addresses, we will find pleasure in mailing them copies of the issue referred to. AT THE THEATRES

The Gem.
Jack Holt in "The Better Man" is starred at the Gem today. Jay Hunt has produced in "The Better Man" a play that tingles with the fresh spirit of the out of doors, with the rough and ready atmosphere of the lumber camp. Into this man's world where weak men crumple and strong men become rough and uncouth, there comes a little girl to act as a stone-grinder. She tames them all and in the end chooses to live this life of hardship instead of taking the path of luxury that is opened to her.

The Majestic.
Mabel Trunnelle and Conway Tearle are featured in "The Heart of the Hills" today at the Majestic. The former playing "The Girl from the East," while the latter plays the role of the young lawyer who rescues her from her enemies is masterfully portrayed by Mr. Tearle.

The Empress.
Clara Kimball Young, who was last seen in this city in "The Common Law" is coming back at the Empress today in "The Dark Silence" a World Film picture, directed by Albert Capellani. It is in five parts, replete with thrilling situations and an unusually fine feature throughout.

Noted Inventor Who Died Last Saturday Was American Knight

SIR HRAM MAXIM

Sir Hiram Stevens Maxim, American born, was one of the most famous inventors, civil, mechanical and electrical engineers of Great Britain. He was most widely known as the inventor of the Maxim machine gun, which makes the recoil of the weapon serve as the power for reloading, and which is the weapon largely used in the European war today.

He was born in Sangerville, Me., February 5, 1840, the son of Isaac Weston and Harriet M. Maxim. He received only a common school education, but he acquired scientific knowledge by reading and attending lectures. He went to England in 1861 and had resided there ever since. He was knighted by Queen Victoria in 1901.

His son, Hiram Percy Maxim, is a well known inventor in the United States, known particularly as the inventor of the Maxim silencer. For many years Sir Hiram was a director in the firm of Vickers Sons and Maxim, but resigned that post in 1911. For more than thirty years he experimented in aerodynamics and invented flying machines. In the light of the present war, with its numerous German airship raids on England it is remarkably interesting to recall that eight years ago Sir Hiram took the British nation to task for its small interest in aerodynamics and pointed them at a time when aero planes were in their infancy that England was in grave danger of bombardment by airships.

"Does any doubt for a moment," said he, "that in case we find ourselves at war with a continental power, airships will be used for bombing English towns, both on the coast and inland? The city of London within a year's time can be attacked without our enemy needing to fear the boasted British fleet."

Following the success of the Wright biplane, Sir Hiram renewed his long continued interest in aviation and in 1910 perfected a machine which he declared had certain advantages over the Wright's. It was his invention in beginning its career as an aerial navy, and though he then 70 years old he lived to see the great war-birds air fighting over the greater measure, proving that he himself had dreamed.

In addition to his gun and aeroplane he perfected many electrical inventions, including incandescent lamps, self regulating current machines, several pieces of ordnance, and a smokeless powder.

The aged inventor had a keen interest in the war, and from time to time there were unconfirmed reports of his invention of devices to meet the needs of the war, one of them being an apparatus to counteract the effects of the poisonous gases which the Germans were first to bring into use. In 1915 he was appointed a member of the inventions board of the British munitions department under Lord George.

Sir Hiram applied himself so strenuously to science throughout his long life that even his occasional leisure was given to the study of scientific books and studying the abstract sciences. He wrote many important articles and an autobiography "My Life" in 1915.

Now is Best Time to Plant Roses for Blooming in Spring

According to horticultural authorities, the best time to plant rose bushes is in November, after the first freeze. Bushes planted now will develop sturdy roots during the winter months and be ready to produce beautiful flowers in the spring.

Preparation of the Beds.—Roses will grow and give good return in any fertile, well drained ground; but it is worth while to use some care in the preparation of the beds, as the general health of the plants quantity and quality of bloom usually more than repays the extra care expended on this detail.

The ideal way is to dig out the bed to a depth of two feet or more, and, if drainage is imperfect, must be provided for by putting broken brick or gravel in bottom of bed about 6 inches deep. Fill in with a mixture of soil and manure, mixed about one-half good rich soil, although splendid roses can be grown by spading any good, well drained soil to the depth of 12 inches and mixing with 6 inches of well-rotted stable manure. Many attempts to get good results from roses fail for want of proper care in preparing the soil and planting. After the soil is settled, it should be about an inch below the level of the adjacent surface; make the beds not over three and one-half feet wide, which enables you to pick the blooms without stepping on the bed.

When field-grown roses are received and the roots seem dry, soak them in lukewarm water or this mud for a few hours before planting. Roses are great feeders and must be supplied with ample fertilizer and water. When watering roses soak them thoroughly; a light sprinkling of water does more harm than good.

Planting and Summer Care.—The ideal time to plant is during November, after the first freeze and during January, February and March the earlier the better.

Set eighteen inches apart, eight inches from the edge of the beds. When the plants are supplied in pots, they should be set so that the ball of earth is about two and one-half inches below the level of the ground. Firm the soil well around the plants, and give a thorough watering if the soil is dry. Throughout the summer the surface of the soil should be cultivated weekly.

Prunings.—About the end of November it is well to cut back to about three inches all the canes of the strong-growing sorts. The principal pruning should be done in spring in February or March.

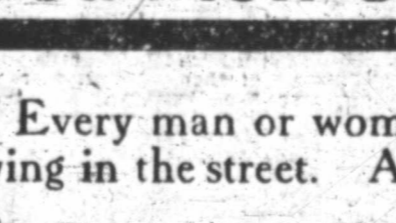

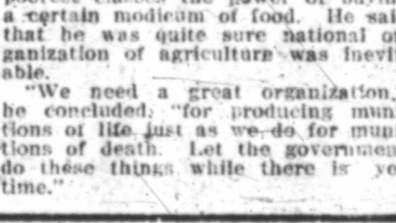

If quantity of bloom for garden effect is the object sought, there four or five canes may be left three feet in length and all very old or weak growth cut away entirely.

If quality is desired, all weak growth should be removed, and the remaining canes cut back in proportion to their development, the weaker ones to about four inches from the root, and stronger ones eight to nine inches. All canes should be cut off about a quarter of an inch above an outside bud. By doing this, the plant will grow in an open head, as the buds usually grow in whatever direction they first take. Roses, pruned in this way, require no staking up, and will need no summer pruning, the cutting of the flowers with good stems being sufficient.

One of These 3 Men May Be Selected as British "Food Dictator"

Walter Runciman, president of the British board of trade, has advised that Great Britain appoint a "food dictator" with powers similar to those exercised by the German official. Three men have been suggested for the onerous post—Runciman himself (at top in pictures), Lord Devonport, a Briton who made a huge success in retail trade before his advancement of his paragon (middle portrait), and Lord Milner, who won fame as an administrator in South Africa under the name "Sir Alfred Milner" (at bottom in pictures). Col. Winston Churchill predicted in the House of Commons that it would be necessary to adopt ration tickets for all essentials, and that prices would have to be fixed to secure to the poorest classes the power of buying a certain modicum of food. He said that he was quite sure national organization of agriculture was inevitable.

"We need a great organization," he concluded, "for producing millions of life just as we do for millions of death. Let the government do these things while there is yet time."

To Rev. Mrs. T. D. Barr, an Indianapolis woman, falls the unique title of "the only woman evangelist" now conducting tabernacle campaigns and carrying a working party of nine members. As far as can be ascertained, the Rev. Mrs. Barr stands alone in this particular phase of religious work. Mrs. Barr holds a Sunday afternoon "men only" meeting in each city where she campaigns. She is a member of the western yearly meeting of the Society of Friends. This is her second year of endeavor in the evangelistic field, and she has met with success. She is now conducting meetings in Indianapolis and will soon start on a campaign in St. Louis under the supervision of the women's federation of that city. Mrs. Barr has been a Friends' minister, having held various charges in the yearly meeting for the past fifteen years.

Progressive objections to the election as speaker of James H. Mann, present Republican floor leader in the House of Representatives, may result in a compromise on Representative Irvine L. Lenroot of Wisconsin for speaker in the next house just elected. Lenroot has pronounced progressive tendencies. Unless called in extra session some time after March 4 next when the present house expires, the house just elected will not convene until the first Monday in December, 1917. With the control of the next house resting among the independents, the contest for the speakership will be close and interesting. Champ Clark, the present speaker, will be the democratic candidate for the position.

JOHN McCORMACK

64622—The Sunshine of your Smile (with violin obbligato) (Leonard Cole-Lillian Ray) 10-in. $1.00
74484 Don Giovanni—Il mio terzo (To my Beloved.) (Mozart) 12-in. $1.50

"We have become so accustomed to thinking of John McCormack in terms of Irish ballads, that we are apt to forget what a remarkable singer he is when he finds the proper opportunity," says Karleton Hackett in the Evening Post. "Mozart wrote for just such a voice and singer as McCormack and those long sustained phrases were of perfect beauty as he sang them."

Mr. McCormack's fame as a Mozart singer is international, he being chosen by Lilli Lehmann from all of the tenors of the world to sing at the Salzburg Mozart festival in 1914. Last season Mr. McCormack was specially engaged for a few performances with the Chicago Opera, and his performance of Don Ottavio, and particularly his singing of Il mio tesoro, aroused the audience to high pitch of enthusiasm. (Sung in Italian.)

For his other December record Mr. McCormack has selected Lillian Ray's beautiful song "The Sunshine of Your Smile," which, duplicating its European vogue, is a tremendous success in America. —Two extremely effective records which will appeal strongly to all classes of Victor customers.

DANCE RECORDS

Five double-faced dance records are offered for December, comprising three popular song medleys; two new musical production medleys; a record by a new organization, Joseph C. Smith and his Orchestra, who are very popular with New York dancers; and several of the "Blue" hits which the West and South seem to have gone crazy over. These are played with the dash and spirit and with the irresistible swing which have made the Victor dance records absolutely unapproachable.

It is no longer necessary, thanks to the Victor's splendid and comprehensive list, to depend on the amateur pianist who, although usually good-natured and self-sacrificing, did not always keep good time, and who generally grew tired just as the dancers got fairly started. The Victor never tires, never plays out of tune, and when the dancers are resting is perfectly willing to amuse them with the latest songs or the strains of Grand Opera.

POPULAR SONGS AND MUSICAL COMEDY HITS

A fine list of current successes is offered for December, and every customer can find something to his taste. The popular songs include three numbers with a Hawaiian flavor; two of them with guitar and ukulele accompaniment; another "Pretty Baby" is issued in response to calls for a quartet version; two "geographical" or back home songs, featuring "Alabama" and Virginia; several sentimental ballads; and a comic number by the inimitable Billy Murray.

The "hired girl" does not yearn for technical training, according to the women who have conducted a Minneapolis survey of the domestic help problem; also, they say, the average household could not afford to employ a highly skilled worker in the kitchen, hand of the back porch. Eros, it seems, is quick to discover, comely cooks who have gained proficiency, and the housewife's time and labor in training a girl all go to making comfy some home other than her own.

All Should Be Advertised.
There is no legitimate business, manufacturing an article, which people want or should have, which cannot be advertised. The thought that there is not enough profit in a line of goods for advertising is frequently a fallacious one. The idea that only novelties can be so exploited and that staples are not susceptible to advertising has been proven to have no real foundation.
