MEMBER LIST IS APPROVED TODAY

Secretary Sent to San Antonio to Investigate—Several Matters Await New Board.

Approving the lists of applications for memberships in the Chamber of Commerce as published, appropriating $150 to supplement government and county appropriations for the home demonstration work carried on in the county under the direction of the federal department of agriculture, and endorsing Amarillo as a place for the establishment of a West Texas branch for the Farm Loan System located at Houston were among the more important actions taken at a busy session of the Chamber of Commerce directors this morning.

A number of appropriations asked for were passed over until the next meeting, as a new board of directors are to be elected at the annual membership meeting Tuesday night and the present board did not want to take any action or make appropriations which might tie their hands in this matter. Among these items were the question of trying to secure the Buy It Made in Texas Association, which will be taken up at the next meeting, the continuation of the appropriation for the Texas Industrial Congress and the advertisement of the local summer normal, requested by Lee Clark.

Secretary Johnson was authorized to go to San Antonio to confer with army aviators in regard to the inspection of the site offered for the establishment of an aviation training camp at this place. He will also investigate reports that San Antonio has offered a site to the government for a similar purpose. Mr. Johnson goes to Austin Wednesday to address the Texas Road Association, and while there will also confer with members of the legislature in regard to proposed amendments to the Wichita county road law which are expected to bring about a more economical good roads construction.

The applications for membership were examined by a committee which recommended the approval of the list which report was adopted. It was felt, however, that in some instances some raised by the committee should be made and committees will wait on these few to this end. A number of voluntary raises in the amount subscribed have already been made. The appropriation to the home demonstration work was not an outright appropriation, but the Chamber of Commerce undertook to raise the money over the county, in which very little trouble is anticipated. Banks at Burkburnett, Electra and Iowa Park will be asked to aid Wichita Falls institutions in subsidizing this amount, it being felt that the Wichita Falls institutions had so long borne the burden for this work that others should be asked. In view of this it is not thought that the least difficulty in raising the money will be encountered, the total being only $15 per month to be secured from all contributors. This amount is sufficient for one of $500 for the work recently made by the county commissioners and one of $250 allowed by the government, which will make an amount devoted to this work $1,000 and put the work on a ten months basis.

The endorsement of Amarillo for the branch Farm Loan System was taken at the request of the Commercial Club of that city in a letter from Porter A. Whaley, secretary in which he referred to the disappointment of all West Texas in the location of the bank at Houston, to the inconvenience such a location would put the farmers of this section about a West Texas branch. Inasmuch as Wichita Falls had made no application for the location of the bank and that the locating board while considering Amarillo as a bank location intimate of the West Texas branch might be established there, the Wichita Falls directors took the desired action.

An affirmative vote was cast on the question submitted by the United States Chamber of Commerce as to whether that body would initiate an effort to secure an amendment to the federal constitution empowering the president to veto items in appropriation bills without vetoing the whole bill. Such an amendment would not stand on their merits if introduced alone and would result in the cutting down of "pork barrel" appropriations.

At the instance of Judge Huff the directors voted to memorialize E. R. Greenwood, member of the legislature from this district, expressing his reported intention to introduce a measure to provide for state taxation of automobiles instead of county and city as at present, or urging that such a measure was introduced not to provide for more than a third of the tax to go to the state, the rest of the money remaining in the county.

In postponing action on the appropriations they were asked to make the directors explained that they were not taking an adverse action, but were merely putting the matter up to the new directors. H. A. Clapp of Collegeport, president of the state dairymen's association and field agent for the Texas Industrial Association, asked for a continuation of the $250 appropriation to the work of the latter organization. Lee Clark, superintendent of the city schools, asked the board to ask for an appropriation for advertising the summer normal in an effort to build the normal into a permanent institution. Both these matters will be considered at the next meeting. Gas W. Thomason of Dallas, secretary of the Buy It Made in Texas Association urged that this city make an effort to secure the annual convention of the association, which he expected to be attended by 1,000 Texas manufacturers. The expenses at that time the entertainment of the association will be in the neighborhood of $500 which will include the printing of badges and programs and the securing of a convention hall. The matter will be taken up next week with T. B. Noble, who is a director in this association as well as the Chamber of Commerce.

Present this morning were President R. E. Huff, Secretary Johnson, Assistant Secretary Thomas and the following directors: J. A. Kemp, M. J. Gardner, J. A. Ward, Joe A. R. Leopold, E. V. Lawton, A. L. Huey, Myles O'Reilly, J. M. Bland, W. R. Ferguson and Frank Kell.

Fall Covers Wide Section of Texas and Oklahoma of Benefit to Wheat

Slightly less than two inches was the sum of the snowfall beginning just before noon yesterday and continuing far into Sunday night. Wichita Falls part of this snowfall which has general over North and West Texas and Southwest Oklahoma, was somewhat less than that reported in every other direction.

The snow fall in the upper Panhandle was six inches and six inches is reported from Fort Worth, two to five inches from the Wichita Valley and from four to six inches from Western Oklahoma. Snow was still falling today in Northwestern Oklahoma and on the Wellington branch of the Northwestern in the upper Panhandle. Temperatures were uniform over the whole region: reports being about 20 degrees at all points. The local temperature was practically stationary, varying only a degree or two from 20 degrees through last night. Reports from all railroad offices report a plentiful supply of coal for the railroad and of commercial coal for use in stations along the line.

Although the snow is of the dry variety, it is expected, it is expected, that the wheat throughout the section covered; the extent of its benefit will depend upon how rapidly it melts. Wheat throughout North Texas has been needing moisture badly and will be helped materially by the snow.

One or two sleighing parties were formed in Wichita Falls yesterday and today but the number was far below that of the days when buggies instead of automobiles, were the chief means of locomotion. In three days nearly everyone who had a buggy also had a pair of sleigh runners in the barn, and these were pretty apt to be put into service when there was sufficient snow. As yet, nobody has invented a means whereby sleigh runners and automobiles can be combined with any success. The small boy with a sled, however, finds the auto much superior to the buggy for pulling his sled around.

MANY CONFEDERATE GRAVES UNMARKED

U. D. C. to Place Small Monuments Over 32 Resting Places in Riverside Cemetery

For the 32 unmarked graves of Confederate veterans in Riverside cemetery small markers of marble or stone will be provided by the local chapter, W. R. Scurry of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. In accordance with the plans perfected at the regular monthly business meeting of the chapter Saturday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. W. M. McGregor. It is not generally known that so large a number of the Confederate dead is buried in the local cemetery but the records revealed the fact that this number is unmarked, while there are numerous other veterans whose families reside here and whose graves are well kept. Memorial Day plans and investigations revealed the fact that these graves were neglected like those in so many other southern cities and the Daughters made plans to remedy this neglect. The markers will be simple affair with the names of the veterans, the dates of birth and death and the letters "U. D. C." with possibly the company and regiment.

The Amarillo chapter of the U. D. C. has lately erected markers over graves of veterans hitherto neglected and the Wichita Falls chapter will use much the same form of markers employed by that chapter. It is probable that some entertainment will be given so that the public may have a share in raising of funds for this purpose.

WICHITAN WITNESS IN SPANNELL CASE

Felix Payne to Testify For State in Case Set For Today at San Angelo

Felix J. Payne of this city left recently for San Angelo, where he is a witness in the trial of H. J. Spannall, charged with murder in connection with the killing of Major Butler. S. J. and Mrs. Spannall, some months ago. Mrs. Spannall, who was clerk in the hotel owned by Spannall will be a witness for the state. The killing in Alpine, Texas of Lieutenant-Colonel E. M. Butler of the Sixth United States Cavalry and Mrs. Harry J. Spannall by Harry J. Spannall while the three were automobile on July 20, 1916 and her which the latter was indicted on a charge of murder, caused a sensation among army men on the Mexican border. Spannall was indicted by the grand jury at Alpine on a charge of murder but because of the local feeling it was deemed advisable to grant a change of venue and the trial was set for San Angelo.

Spannall was a music teacher at Baylor University at Waco, Texas, when he married Crystal Holland the daughter of Colonel John Holland, a wealthy cattle man of Western Texas. Later Spannall went to Alpine with his wife, where he assumed the management of the Holland hotel which was owned by Mrs. Spannall's father. Mr. and Mrs. Spannall made their home at the hotel. It was there that they met Lieutenant-Colonel Butler who came to Alpine in command of the cavalry troops on that part of the border. Lieutenant-Colonel Butler made his headquarters at the Holland hotel and became the friend of Mr. and Mrs. Spannall. On the evening of the tragedy Spannall drove up to the door of the hotel, his automobile and invited Lieutenant-Colonel Butler to accompany him and Mrs. Spannall for a ride. When only a short distance from the hotel and the principal street of the little town, shots were heard from the Spannall automobile and Mrs. Spannall was found in a dying condition in the rear seat of the car with Lieutenant-Colonel Butler's body beside her. Her death followed soon after. Spannall gave himself up but refused to make any statement regarding the tragedy.

Because of the prominence of the victims, a board of inquiry was appointed from the army to make an investigation of the facts leading up to the tragedy. This board completely exonerated Lieutenant-Colonel Butler from any blame and the report stated that the army officer's friendship for Mr. and Mrs. Spannall was honorable and his conduct above reproach at all times. Lieutenant-Colonel Butler was the son of Major General Calvert Matthew Butler (retired) of South Carolina who was a United States senator at one time. His wife is the daughter of a leading family of Nashville, Tenn.

Market Report

Fort Worth Livestock. Fort Worth, Jan. 13.—Cattle receipts 5,900, strong, steers $6 to $8.75. Hog receipts 6,000 ten cents higher, bulk $19.15 to $19.35. Sheep receipts none; lambs $11.50 to $12.50.

New York Cotton. New York, Jan. 15.—Liquidation was resumed at the opening of the cotton market today and while the tone at first steady with prices eight to twelve points lower, later developments were decidedly bearish following the census bureau report. May contracts broke to 17.74 under stop loss selling representing about 16 points net loss. After moderate rallies which carried the market up to about twelve points, a renewal of heavy liquidation around noon broke May to 17.45, a drop of 45 points under Saturday's close about $8 a bale down from last week's high level. Cotton closed steady, January 17.60; March 17.27; May 17.49; July 17.49; October 16.23.

Chicago Grain. Chicago, Jan. 15.—Wheat prices tended upward today owing largely to diminished stocks and enlarged clearances for export. Opening prices which ranged from 14 to 7.5 advance were followed by a material up turn all around and then something of a reaction. Corn advanced. Wheat closed heavy at 1.84 1/2 to 3/4 with May at 1.48 1/2, 1-2 decline to 3-8 advance compared with Saturday's close.

AUCTION SALE OF JERSEY AND HOLSTEIN CATTLE

On Thursday, January 18th, J. A. McSpadden will sell at public auction at the Waller place, two miles from Wichita Falls, on the Burk Burnett road, his entire herd of Jersey and Holstein cattle, and also dairy equipment, horses and mules and farming implements. Included in the dairy herd are 40 head of cattle of which 18 are giving milk, three head of young calves, three head young Holstein bulls. Auction starts at 10 o'clock. Free lunch. No by-bidding, but owner reserves right to stop sale. 211-21c

WILL NOT TRY TO GET MINNEAPOLIS TEAM HERE

No effort will be made to secure the Minneapolis American Association club here for their spring training, according to a decision at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce directors this morning. While the American association is only a step below the big leagues, it is not considered that enough advertising would result from their training here to justify the outlay of money, which would be a problematical matter in the case of a major league club. As E. Leopold, one of the directors, summed up the matter: "We could run a ball club of our own for what these people want as a bonus to do their spring training here."

No argument is needed against whiskey. If the facts are told they are enough. Two items in Sunday's Times will illustrate. Up in Denver a drunken bryte so abused his former wife in trying to force her to drink the stuff that had made him a beast, that finally she was forced to shoot him: Over at Columbus, Ohio, a poor fellow still dazed from the effects of alcohol who is under arrest for the murder of a young girl, exclaimed: "If I did it I was out of my head and drinking. I must have been crazy. I was drinking hard. I know." These things did not make pleasant Sunday morning reading, but sometimes it is best to face the facts.

Friends of the Times have compared the Sunday issue of our paper with the Sunday issues of some other papers published in towns much larger than Wichita Falls and have found that the Times does not suffer in comparison. The Sunday Times may not be as large as some papers, but every effort is made to keep it clean and of high quality. That it is appreciated is attested by the fact that it is hard for us to print enough extra copies to supply the demand. Of course, we could print more than enough papers but what we have been trying to do is to print no more papers than will be sold so as to conserve the paper supply. The number of copies required is steadily increasing.

There is growing recognition of the fact that the Indian affairs of the United States government are being administered with an efficiency and honesty such as has been unknown until the Wilson administration came into power. A large part of the credit is due to Cato, Sells, commissioner of Indian affairs, and to Congressman John H. Stephens, chairman of the Congressional committee on Indian Affairs. Here are two men of high integrity and sincerity of purpose. They have worked with a sympathetic understanding of the problems of the Indians and that they have made progress is attested by the following from the general report of the Indian Rights Association, which says in its 34th annual report:

A review of the Indian affairs under President Wilson's first administration makes it evident that substantial results have been gained. Commissioner Sells is a man of high ideals, and he has proved on more than one occasion that his position is not a job, but an opportunity. He declined the offer of an important position with the interstate commerce commission at a much higher salary, and he refused to become a candidate for Congress under conditions where the nomination was practically equivalent to a election, because of his interest in the Indian and a desire to advance his welfare.

Machinery of Federal Farm Loan System Is Explained

By FRANK R. WILSON, Federal Farm Loan Bureau, Washington, D. C. The Federal Farm Loan Act, adopted in June, 1916, and signed by President Woodrow Wilson, shortly thereafter creates a comprehensive, cooperative banking system to lend money to farmers and prospective farmers for purposes of land purchase, farm development, and the refunding of indebtedness.

The system consists of two main divisions: a money assembling agency through which the accumulations and savings of the country are gathered in, and a money lending agency, through which this money is distributed for agricultural uses.

The Farm Loan Act, in brief, pools the farm mortgages of the nation; issues a collateral trust security against these pooled mortgages, and sells these securities in the open market.

The establishment of this cooperative banking system made necessary by reason of the fact that banks in most parts of the United States have not possessed the facilities to properly take care of farm loans because these loans required too long a time of run, because interest rates to farmers have been too high, ranging from five per cent per annum to five per cent per month; and because private money lending agencies had not realized the reflex advantages to themselves of a long time, amortized loan to the farmers.

The machinery provided in the application of the Farm Loan Act has three main divisions: First, The Federal Farm Loan Board in Washington, D. C., composed of the Secretary of the Treasury, William G. McAdoo, chairman, ex officio; George W. Norris, Farm Loan Commissioner; Herbert Quick, Captain W. S. A. Smith and Charles E. Laddell.

Second, The twelve Federal land banks throughout the United States. Third, The national farm loan associations, each composed of ten or more farmer-borrowers, which associations secure loans for their members from the Federal land banks.

The Federal Farm Loan Board is in charge of the entire system. Its first important duty was to divide the country into twelve bank districts and to rate one Federal land bank in each. This board also provides the banks with temporary governing boards during the process of growth. Later a board of cooperative self government will be inaugurated under which the associations of farmers will direct these big financial institutions, under the supervision of the Federal Farm Loan Board.

Each of the twelve Federal land banks starts business with a paid-up capital of $750,000, subscribed by the government, if private investors do not subscribe it within thirty days after the books are opened. These banks have the right to lend to national farm loan associations up to twenty times the capital stock of the banks. The lending capacity of these banks is automatically increased by requiring the farm loan associations to invest in the capital stock of the banks one-twentieth of the amount their numbers borrow. Thus the capital stock of the banks increases in the same ratio as their loans. The banks acquire additional money for lending by selling their own bonds to investors.

When a bank lends money and takes mortgages on farms in exchange, it issues bonds against these mortgages and sells the bonds to produce more money to lend.

The bonds issued by one bank are secured by the assets of all the banks operating under this system and the rate of interest on the bonds is adjusted to meet the demand. The realized rate of interest charged to members of farm loan associations for money which they borrow from the banks cannot exceed by more than one per cent the rate of interest paid on the bonds. This margin is provided to pay the cost of operating the banks. So, if the bonds sell at 4 per cent and the cost of operating is one per cent, the interest rate to the farmer-borrowers will be 5 per cent. If the cost is held down to one-half of one per cent, the interest rate to the farmers would be 4 1/2 per cent.

So, briefly, the members of the associations of farmers borrow from the banks; the banks issue bonds against the farm mortgages and borrow money from investors; the farmers invest an amount equal to one-twentieth of the amount they borrow, in order to provide an increasing capital for the banks, and the whole process is done under governmental supervision and without profit to any individual.

Editor's Note: The next installment will tell how the farmers may organize national farm loan associations to borrow from the Federal land banks.

BOARD APPROVES CEMETERY PLANS. Contract for improvements to be Awarded January 25.—Work to Start Promptly.

Plans drawn up for the cemetery improvement work by Charles W. Hughes, landscape architect, have finally been approved by the park board, and the decision made to let the contract being continued to the building of the chapel-rest room, staking the lots and finishing the ornamental iron fencing with which part of the cemetery is now enclosed. The lots will all be staked with concrete pegs 10 inches long and four inches square which will permanently mark the boundaries of the lots. The chapel is a one-story and basement building of concrete, finished in stucco, and is expected to cost between $2,500 and $3,000.

Men will be put to work clearing off the ground as soon as the weather will permit so nothing will stand in the way of immediate work by the party to whom it is awarded the contract. The work will be pushed to completion before the spring season, the contractor being required to start work immediately. Dr. J. F. Reed, chairman, Mrs. J. A. Nichol and E. G. Hill were the members of the park board present at the meeting. Mayor A. H. Britain and Alderman J. A. Nichol were in conference with them considering the specifications presented by the architect.

LOCAL PHYSICIANS ATTEND CONVENTION AT AMARILLO. Several Wichita Falls physicians are on the program of the Panhandle District Medical Society, which convenes tomorrow at Amarillo. Dr. G. R. Hartsock of this city, president of the society, left for Amarillo this afternoon. Doctors Guest, Lane, R. C. Hargrave, W. D. Kalk and Q. B. was formerly on the conducting staff of the Metropolitan opera house, is now musical director for the Victor Talking Machine Co.
