REVIVAL SERVICES M. E. CHURCH SOUTH

Rev. McIntosh will speak morning and evening—Special Meetings at 4:00 P. M.

Rev. W. M. McIntosh, the evangelist will conduct three services at the First M. E. Church, South, today, from which great good is prayerfully expected. He will preach at both the morning and evening services and at four o'clock this afternoon will address an audience of men only. At the same hour Mr. McIntosh will speak to the women of the city at the First Presbyterian Church.

Friday morning Rev. McIntosh spoke on the subject, "The Great Superior" and on a "Four of Inspection." He cited some of the things the Great Inspector would find, emphasizing jealousy and envy. He said that he would rather have a breeches leg full of yellow jackets than a jealous woman for a wife. He said that one could not expect to enter heaven with these things in his life.

At ten o'clock yesterday morning Rev. McIntosh spoke on "The Spirit of the Law." It was a service of intense feeling and left a deep impress upon the thoughts of a man who attended.

expressions are obtained here regarding the newly created situation in Athens the German press gives the impression that King Constantine has not permanently abdicated, but merely announced that he was leaving Greece with the queen and crown prince as the latest step with the three powers.

The new king had his military training in Germany. He was always considered keenly interested in military affairs and was regarded as a sportsman rather than a diplomat.

The German newspapers agree that Alexander will only be a nominal king if not a mere puppet for the British, French and Italian designs.

JONNART ISSUES A PROCLAMATION

By Associated Press. Athens, June 16.—M. Jonnart, the high commissioner representing France, Great Britain and Russia, who recently brought about the abdication of King Constantine has published the following proclamation, addressed to the Hellenes:

They intend to defend the brave little land they have liberated against the united efforts of the Turks, Bulgarians and Germans. They are to check the hereditary enemy of the kingdom. The hour of reconciliation has arrived. Your destinies are closely associated with those of the protecting powers, your ideals are the same as theirs, your hopes are identical. We appeal to your good sense and patriotism. This is a new era of peace and labor which is opening before you. We have no intention of forcing upon the Greek people general mobilization.

WILKES GARMANY WEDDING IN DALLAS MONDAY

A wedding of more than usual interest to the large number of friends of the bride in this city, was that which occurred at the home of Dr. George Elliott in Dallas on last Monday, June 11, by which Miss Mary Matt Wilkes became the bride of John Hammond Garmany of Lafayette, Georgia. The wedding was very much of a surprise to many here, but the completeness of preparation and the charmingly arranged program proved that it was a case of "insider's" information. The bride was accompanied by Miss Rhea Gardner of this city, who has been attending the S. M. U. at Dallas, and by Mrs. Maloney of Dallas, another close friend. The bride's costume of blue with old gold was a work of art and extremely appropriate for the "girl, the time and the place." The bride is the daughter of Mr. J. F. Wilkes of Lebanon, Tenn., but has made her home in this city for the last four years and has been one of the most popular of the Wichita Falls teachers as well as a general favorite with all with whom she has been associated. The groom is a son of R. S. Garmany of Lafayette, Ga., but has spent the last several years in Texas, Oklahoma and surrounding states.

Mr. and Mrs. Garmany left Dallas immediately after the ceremony for visits throughout Tennessee and Georgia. They take with them the best wishes of a wide circle of acquaintances.

DAVIS HAYN'S WEDDING SATURDAY MORNING

Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, Miss Julia Davis, daughter of Mrs. J. A. Davis, 1206 Broad, was united in marriage to C. M. Haynes of Fort Worth, in the parlors of the First Presbyterian Church, the Rev. N. F. Grafton, pastor of the church solemnizing the marriage. There were present only the immediate family and Miss McGinnis of Brownwood, an intimate friend of the bride. Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Haynes left in the groom's automobile for Manhattan, Kan., and Colorado points on a wedding tour until Sept. 1 when they will be at home in Fort Worth.

The bride is an attractive and accomplished young lady, prominent in musical circles. She is a finished musician and one of the most popular violin teachers of the city. The groom is supervisor of manual training of the Fort Worth high schools. The congratulations and best wishes of the many friends of the bride in this city are with the young couple in their new estate.

AND THEY TALKED ABOUT THIS MAN FOR THE PRESIDENCY

By Associated Press.
Chicago, June 16.—Mayor Thompson apparently did not purchase a Liberty Bond. The mayor's backwardness in the matter of inviting Marshal Jeffre and party to Chicago on the grounds that Chicago is the sixth city in the world in German population and other acts lent peculiar interest to his position on the issue. It required four days to get a permit for canvassers to sell bonds in the city, and daily thereafter reporters heckled him as to whether he had bought a bond. Daily the reply was silence or "No." Yesterday, twenty-five minutes before the books closed the mayor was asked the usual question. He again replied "No."
Bond salesmen in the city hall confirmed this.

The damaged craft was towed to port. It is believed many of the crew were killed or wounded.

J. B. SELF SCALPED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Seymour Man's Car Turned Over Coming Into Wichita Falls—Injures Very Painful.

J. B. Self, a prosperous ranchman and farmer living at Seymour, was painfully injured when his car turned over about twelve miles from Wichita Falls, Saturday. Self was coming into town with a negro, intending to get some harvest hands here, when the accident occurred. He was scalped as effectively in the smashup as if an Indian of the old days had done the job, his hair being torn loose from the top of his head. The negro was uninjured.

According to Self's statement, fast driving in a Ford car was the cause of the accident. The injured man is a nephew of Sheriff Self of Seymour. Self was brought to town by passers by and taken to the general hospital. His injuries are not considered dangerous.

Film Features of Week

"The Girl Philippa," a picturization of Robert W. Chambers' great war novel, will be the feature attraction of the week at the Empress, being booked for two days, Tuesday and Wednesday. Anita Stewart is in the leading role. This picture is hailed by critics and reviewers alike as one of the greatest of the year. The Plaza is featuring for Monday a return engagement of "The Common Law," in which Clara Kimball Young is starred. This picture was secured by the Plaza management after numerous requests had been made by patrons. One of the Majestic features comes on Tuesday and in "The Highway of Hope," a Paramount in which Kathryn Williams and House Peters are starred. On Wednesday the second picture of "The Seven Deadly Sins" will be shown, this being "Pride" in which Holbrook Blinn stars with George Le Guere and Shirley Mason. The entire program for the week follows: MONDAY—"The Common Law" at the Plaza, Clara Kimball Young starred, George Belan in "The Marcellini Millions" at the Empress. Scene Owen in "A Woman's Awakening" at the Majestic. TUESDAY—Anita Stewart in "The Girl Philippa" at the Empress, Kathryn Williams and House Peters in "The Highway of Hope" at the Majestic. "Liberty" at the Plaza. WEDNESDAY—Holbrook Blinn in "Pride" one of the "Seven Deadly Sins" at the Majestic. Anita Stewart in "The Girl Philippa" at the Empress. Official war pictures at the Gem. THURSDAY—Jane Caprice in "The Small Town Girl" at the Empress, Dorothy Dalton in "The Dark Road" at the Majestic. FRIDAY—"The Railroad Raiders" at the Gem.

William Courtenay in "The Record" and Hank Mann in "Bods of Love," comedies, at the Majestic. Viola Dana in "God's Law and Man" at the Empress. SATURDAY—Barry Williams in "The Hawk" at the Empress, Marguerite Clark in "The Fortunes of Phil" at the Majestic. CLARA KIMBALL YOUNG AT THE PLAZA MONDAY Clara Kimball Young, the screen star supreme, will be seen on return engagement in the first of her own productions, an adaptation of Robert W. Chambers' novel, "The Common Law," at the Plaza Aldrome on Monday, June 18. This picture has already proven the greatest of Miss Young's many successes and is particularly interesting because of the fact that it associates the Clara Kimball Young Film Corporation, the first producing organization ever created in the name of a woman screen star. The production was screened under the direction of Albert Capellani, who has produced a number of Miss Young's finest pictures, including "Camille" in which Miss Young scored her greatest triumph to date. Mr. Capellani has surrounded Miss Young with a remarkable cast. The leading male role is played by Conway Tearle, one of the best known of the younger stage stars of the day, while Paul Capellani, who has supported Miss Young in several of her pictures, will be seen in another powerful production, "The Italian Quarter," in which he is teamed with the great actress, Julia Stuart. Other stars in the cast are Edna Hunter, Lillian Cook, Julia Stuart, Edward M. Kimball, Lydia Knott and D. J. Flannigan. THE GIRL PHILIPPA AT THE EMPRESS THIS WEEK The long-awaited motion picture showing of "The Girl Philippa" is at hand. This Robert W. Chambers story superbly staged under the supervision of Albert E. Smith, president of Greater Vitagraph, and with Anita Stewart starred in the title role, is all ready. It will open here for a run of two days at the Empress theatre Tuesday. A special musical score has been written for "The Girl Philippa," by Samuel L. Rothapel, the presiding genius of the Rialto theatre, New York, who is recognized as a master hand of motion picture presentation. The score, created by "The Girl Philippa," when it ran a short time ago, as a serial story in The Cosmoopolitan magazine, is fresh in the memory of all. To every one of the millions of readers of The Cosmoopolitan, the stirring adventures of the wistful Philippa became a household topic the world over. This story has now been absorbingly developed through the eloquent magic of the screen, by Greater Vitagraph. "To it is devoted a wealth of picturesque costumes, faithful and beautiful scenery, a star cast led by the incomparable Anita Stewart herself, and the masterful direction of S. Rankin Drew. The result is an eight-reel motion picture classic. The plot is fundamentally fascinating. Philippa, a girl of aristocratic mold, is discovered as the serving-maid in an obscure cafe, some years in France. She sparkles, a jewel against a background of infinite world tragedy—at once baffling and poignant. A lonely and a taskmaster, the host of the tavern, Wildresse, holds the key to her past and her future. Into this seething environment, fate draws conflicting personalities from the depths of the earth, after which the plot spins dizzily about the frail central figure of the girl herself. TRIANGLE FEATURE AT THE MAJESTIC MONDAY Scene Owen returns to the screen after several months' retirement to star in "A Woman's Awakening," a Triangle-Fine Arts picture directed by Chester Whitley, which will be shown at the Majestic Theatre Monday. Her role is that of a young wife striving to maintain her ideals though married to a rake who is enamored only with her fortune. No play produced at the Fine Arts studio in recent months has given a star better opportunity for displaying the variety of her wardrobe. Besides a number of evening gowns, Miss Owen wears a score of dashing street costumes, novel sport attire, chic riding habit, and even dons male dress-clothes for an adventurous expedition to gambling resort. The story, written by Frank E. Woods, deals with a young wife who discovers that she was married for her fortune. Her mother is an invalid, and the only friend in whom she can confide is a former admirer. One night as the husband is preparing to quit the house, taking with him the balance of the wife's fortune, she is ordered. The wife and the young lawyer, her former admirer, suspect each other, and the spectator is mystified until the startling revelation at the end of the play. GEORGE BEBAN STARRS AT EMPRESS MONDAY The poorer Italians of Los Angeles will all retire millionaires if George Beban, who will be seen in the Majestic-Paramount production of "The Marcellini Millions" at the Empress on Monday, remains in that city much longer. Mr. Beban, wishing to have everything true as to detail, ascends upon the Italian quarter and—thinks nothing of buying the furnishings of an entire house, or the entire wardrobe of some fruit peddler. He recently rented the horse and wagon of an Italian vegetable man at such a fabulous sum that the vegetable vender is still hanging around the studio waiting to be hired again; his one day's work for the actor-author shows more profit than a month selling vegetables. KATHLYN WILLIAMS AT MAJESTIC TUESDAY Kathryn Williams, the brilliant Moserco-Paramount star, will be seen at the Majestic Tuesday in a picturization of Willard Mack's thrilling story, "The Highway of Hope." Miss Williams is introduced in the picture in a most unique and novel manner. All first all that is seen is a wooden staircase, then a cascade of water pours down the steps; this is followed by feet clad in heavy shoes, and gradually, scrubbing down step after step, Miss Williams appears. Her usually straight hair hangs in coarse strands about her face and down over her torn gingham dress. Later in the picture after months of privation on the desert, Miss Williams is seen handsomely gowned and a capable business woman. Her wonderful transition from a drudge in a mining camp saloon to a beautiful woman of modern society is considered one of the finest examples of character portrayal ever seen on the screen. In the cast supporting Miss Williams and Mr. Peters are included Jim Farley and Harry de Vere. PRIDE AT THE MAJESTIC WEDNESDAY Manager Johnson announces that Holbrook Blinn in "Pride," one of the "Seven Deadly Sins," will be shown at the Majestic Theatre on Wednesday. "Pride" is a five-reel feature which opens in a girl's boarding school and ends aboard a transatlantic liner. Mr. Blinn is supported by Shirley Mason and George Le Guere. Others in the cast are Helen Strickland and Guido Colucci. "Pride" tells the story of a girl who begins to think she is a little better than the man who loves her. She is sought by a Count and by a powerful banker, portrayed by Mr. Blinn. The girl jilts her deserving sweetheart, escapes from the banker and elopes with the Count. The banker and the young lover follow the elopers aboard the liner, the youth is a stoker. There, amid throbbing engines, pride is followed by a fall and the girl is cured of the temptation of the second sin. "Pride," although one of the group of "Seven Deadly Sins," is a complete story. It is one of the most artistic dramas Manager Johnson ever has presented at the Majestic Theatre. It includes comedy, "big" scenes and thrilling climaxes. The special feature is the mountain and the steamship Carpathia, which was chartered for taking the picture and was uniquely fine. WICHITA COUNTY CALLED ON TO RAISE $25,000 FOR RED CROSS

This is National Red Cross Week When Americans Will Raise $100,000,000 To Carry On Work

(1) William H. Taft, (2) Henry P. D. Gilman, (3) Edward N. Hurley, (4) Elliot Wadsworth, (5) Grayson M. P. Murphy, (6) Cornelius N. Bissell, Jr., (7) Charles H. Norton.

Wichita county's young men have for Liberty the dead or wounded, mangled, maimed, or the hands of the boys of women and children; are selective draft. Wichita falls, business and industry; hundreds of have suffered by the hands of an enemy and citizens have been destroyed thousands, for the Liberty Loan, now, it is not only a duty, it is a right. Wichita county is called on to do her own young men are preparing to part for the Red Cross. Wichita county is forward into this mission of suffering. The record of achievement and reason, and every expenditure for doing her duty, and every effort within our capacity, splendidly, of her people love to be made to alleviate their suffering. The county will do its full duty and to protect them. The Red Cross is the greatest of all. The greater part of this work must be done by the hands of the young men of the county. The Red Cross is the world to do suffering. Cross must have one hundred million new recruits in the Red Cross. Mr. Davidson has issued a proclamation setting forth the duty of every citizen to do his part.

business to do his part in working for a world at peace. The right hand man of the new order is Elliot Wadsworth of Boston, the chairman of the Red Cross Central Committee, who as a member of the Council is the coordinating link between it and the society itself. Mr. Wadsworth has since he left Harvard University have interested in large contracting enterprises and is known in contracting circles as the builder of the great Kewaukoo dam.

William Howard Taft, formerly president of the United States, and once head of the American Red Cross, has a record also as an administrator in the once troubled Philippines. Charles H. Norton, who is now the first vice president of the First National Bank of New York city, also has been Assistant Secretary of the Treasury. He is an enthusiast in Red Cross work, and owing to him, Mr. Davidson originally became interested in this beneficent organization.

Cornelius N. Bissell, Jr., the head of several large corporations, is the son of the late political leader and Cabinet officer of the same name. Edward N. Hurley, of Chicago, is a manufacturer of pneumatic tools, which are sold the world over, and is accustomed to dealing with labor and material on a large scale. He was a member of the Federal Trade Commission.

The executive head of the American Red Cross in France will be Grayson M. P. Murphy, the first vice president of the Guaranty Trust Company of New York. He is a graduate of West Point and has seen active military service in both Cuba and the Philippines. He has the rank of major. With him in France, where he will stay during the war, are engineers, sanitarians and others to act for the Red Cross in the reconstruction and relief work abroad.

Men who have distinguished themselves as organizers in large affairs are giving their services as freely as are the members of the Council who whom they are cooperating.

The task of coordinating the work of the Red Cross chapters and that of other organizations under one head is being done by Judge Robert S. Taft, formerly chairman of the United States Railroad.

Like members of the War Council, he is giving his time free of charge to this great cause. In this way, these men are doing their bit.

Addressing this Council at Washington, D. C., recently, Henry P. Davidson told some reasons why the Red Cross needed $100,000,000. He said:

"First, our duty is at home. We hope never to let them wanting here. We hope, and we have every reason to hope, that through an organization to be effected by Mr. Hurley, there will be no camp, no cannibalism in this country, while it will not be supplemented by the Red Cross. Of course, the position of the Red Cross relative to our own army is that purely of supplementing our medical department.

"Something of what we must expect to do and something of the sacrifices which we must expect to make, will be indicated by the following summary of the present situation.

Work to Be Done Abroad.—Hundreds of American doctors and nurses are already at the front. A force of 12,000 American engineers will soon be rebuilding the railroad of France. Tens of thousands of our men are now on the battlefields of Europe, fighting as volunteers in

Long Lived Bonds for Short Lived Roads is Unsound Finance

At a luncheon of the Merchants' Association of New York, Henry L. Stimson, former Secretary of War, said:

"We have outstanding $65,000,000 of fifty year bonds for highways, and the life of the highway for which these bonds were issued has been less than five years."

This is unsound finance. The township or county or state which engages in it is headed toward bankruptcy.

The New York road situation exists in many other states, in kind if not in degree. Macadam roads were never intended for motor traffic. Only a rigid surface can stand any great amount of it.

The remedy must be found elsewhere in issuing short-term bonds to build short-lived roads, if the bonds must be paid in cash or rounded with new issues after the road has worn out.

There is only one economical solution, and that is to build permanent roads.

State legislatures are beginning to recognize the financial unsoundness of long-term bonds to pay for road improvements which are less permanent than concrete. A New Jersey law, recently passed, limits road bonds issues as follows:

- For sand and gravel roads—Five year bonds.
- For water bound macadam roads or penetration process—Ten year bonds.
- For bituminous concrete—Fifteen year bonds.
- For block of any material or sheet asphalt on concrete—Twenty year bonds.
- For Concrete Roads—Twenty year bonds.

The United States Government has made some very thorough and exhaustive tests of various types of road construction with a result which altogether favors concrete. Bulletin 136 P. S. Department of Agriculture makes the following statement:

"The cost of all maintenance and repairs, over a series of years, has ranged in the past from 6 to 10 per cent of the original cost of construction, on the average, and varies with the type of construction. Concrete roads and brick roads apparently are a marked exception to this rule."

After building two hundred miles of concrete roads during the past four years, the State Road Commission of Maryland, in its report for 1915, remarks—"The cost of maintaining these concrete roads has been so small that the Commission feels that the building of so many miles of them has been of great benefit to the State and will greatly reduce the burden of maintenance."

Expressions like this come from all parts of the country. Road authorities who have had experience with concrete roads are earnest advocates of them. They know that the even, gritty surface prevents slipping of horses and skidding of automobiles, and is free from ruts, holes, dust and mud, 365 days in the year. The construction cost is less than that of any other permanent road and the maintenance cost almost negligible.

Write us for full information about the cost of the building and maintaining concrete roads. As a taxpayer it is to your interest to see that your own road authorities investigate them.

Valve-in-the-Head Motors

Increase the Mileage—Lessens Cost

The Buick

The motoring public, the court of last resort in all things having to do with motor cars, has definitely accepted the valve-in-head motor as being the nearest to perfection in internal combustion motors that has yet been achieved.

The growth of the Buick valve-in-head motor in public favor has been in exact proportion to the spread of motor car knowledge. The experience of thousands of Buick valve-in-head owners has taught them this type of motor gives the least vibration, the greatest flexibility, power and efficiency.

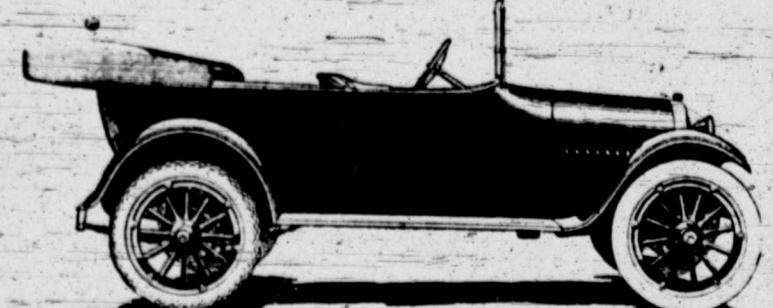

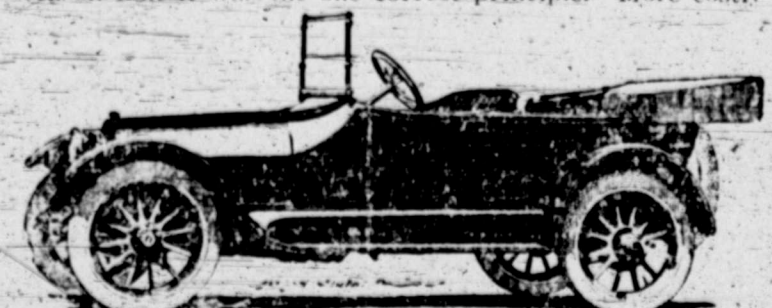

Buick adopted the valve-in-head principle of motor construction with the building of the first Buick car, for the reason that it was the one correct principle. More costly

At the wheel of an Oakland Six you are free to roam as you will—smoothly idling along awhile—then a slight pressure on the accelerator and an instant response.

From snail's pace to the speed of the fast express is the power range of the Oakland Six.

The remarkable flexibility of the valve-in-head motor, provides abundant power for every need; every gallon of gasoline consumed returns the utmost in traveled distance. The long wheelbase (112"), the well designed extra long to build than motors of other types, but more powerful and economical in gasoline consumption.

For sixteen years Buick has been steadily building and perfecting valve-in-head motor cars. The line of Buick six-cylinder automobiles now offered the buying public is a complete one—a car to suit every need, any day in the year. Two-passenger roadster, five and seven-passenger touring type, and closed cars in the three-passenger collapsible top coupe and seven-passenger permanent top sedan styles. Each model especially designed and built around the famous Buick valve-in-head motor. Upholstery of genuine leather; easy riding qualities provided by cantilever springs; body lines and finish that are extremely pleasing.

WICHITA COUNTY TO RAISE $25.00 FOR RED CROSS WORK

(Continued from Page Four) the Allied armies; soon 25,000 American regulars will be added to their number. All our National Guard is to be mobilized, our regular army is to be recruited to full strength, and 500,000 other men shortly to be called to the colors. Within a few months we should have in service an army of 1,000,000 and a navy of 1,000,000 men. These men must have of our best. To prepare against their needs in advance will be a stupendous task which the Red Cross must undertake. Doctors, nurses, ambulances, must be made ready. Vast quantities of hospital stores, linen, bandages and supplies of every kind must be prepared and at once. If we wait it may be too late. When we ask our own soldiers and brothers to fight for our liberty 3,000 miles from home in a country already sore and afflicted, surely we cannot do less than prepare to take care of them in their day of suffering.

Immediately our soldiers go into camp, their dependent families will become a problem. Obviously, in a country the size of our own, the proper and practical way to distribute both the benefits and the benefits fairly and uniformly will be through the government itself. This is especially true when voluntary contributions must meet such enormous requirements in other words. There will undoubtedly arise a large number of special cases requiring additional or unusual assistance. Such assistance should be made systematic largely through local chapters of the Red Cross. The Red Cross a Foster Parent. When our men go to France, we must not only prepare to take care of them when sick and wounded; an other very serious problem will confront them and will confront us in our spare and thoughtful on their behalf. Englishmen and Frenchmen, when from time to time they are relieved from their army duties in the trenches, so long as soldiers in other countries on the same line cannot go home, there is no home to go to. They go to Paris. Many of them do not return from Paris as soldiers, soldiers as they were when they went there. Our American soldiers must have a home in France, somewhere to rest, somewhere to find a friendly atmosphere, somewhere to go for recreation and wholesome amusement. These men will be returning to this country soon, they will want to make it certain that as many as possible return in health and strength and not afflicted with disease from which our forethought might have protected them. The Red Cross must do it more can become a real Foster Parent of our soldiers while they are in camp. To be certain that this work will be a large sum of money.

CONFEDERATE REUNION WAS MOST DELIGHTFUL ONE

Even by reunion veterans, such as Judge Edgan, Scurry and Miss Mabel Simpson, the Confederate Reunion held last week in Washington, D. C. is charged to have been the best ever in point of entertainment and attendance. Miss Simpson has attended the past four reunions of the U. C. V. in some official capacity, this year as head of honor to the sponsor-in-chief, Commander Baldwin of the S. C. V. and Judge Scurry, well—the Judge isn't telling exactly how many reunions he has attended, but he is regarded by all as a fixture in the Sons of Confederate Veterans' organization, and is about the most patriotic rebel in the South.

Miss Simpson and the Judge are the only ones of the large Wichita Falls party who returned direct from Washington, the others going to New York, Virginia or other Eastern points or to spend the summer in Washington. Every minute of the stay was filled with delightful hospitalities, presented by the Southern by the residents of the capital and private citizens and members of the official family of the president and with each other in entertainment and Miss Simpson were guests on this occasion and Miss Simpson was one of the entertainers, singing "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia." Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels and Mrs. Daniels entertained the visitors Tuesday afternoon with a reception and dance and Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing also entertained in their honor Thursday afternoon. There were numerous social functions going on at all times and every night there were dances at the leading hotels of the city. This was the first time the reunion had been held north of the Mason and Dixon line but the hospitality was every bit as intense and its cordiality as that extended by Southern cities, so say Judge Scurry and Miss Simpson. The reunion next year is to be held in Tulsa, Okla. A number of those on the "Judge Scurry Special" went to New York following the reunion, those including Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Ferguson, Mr. Robert Thorburn, B. M. Ferguson, Miss Mary Orth, Judge A. H. Carrigan, Joe Carrigan, Mrs. W. P. Holdrege, stopped in Tulsa, Miss. for a visit with relatives. Misses Emma Carter and Ruth Downing remained in Washington. Miss Helen Stone will remain in Virginia for the summer, and Misses Alice Cunningham and Beulah Mae Cook are visiting relatives in Waltham, Va.

Athletic Underwear—the Kind That Spells Comfort

concluding his address, Mr. Davidson said: "The real question is not so much how much money we need, but rather how much can be spent wisely. The War Council therefore, after carefully considering the matter, is certain that even to approach compliance with the necessities will require at least $25,000,000. It is an enormous problem, it must be handled with a big heart and a broad vision and the highest business ability. The War Council regards this as a very sacred trust and it will give to this labor of humanity the best ability at its command. All Helping America Will Not Fail. Each individual American who contributes his mite to the cause will help. America will, we feel sure, in this again demonstrate her ability to handle a big issue in a big way. That we may not be certain of the great task, we shall appeal to the generosity and for the hearty co-operation of the whole American people. Are the people of this country going to be content with a Red Cross organization which will take care of only our own army here and abroad? Is that all business? If it is then we need no such campaign. Rather are we going to stamp the rest of the world with patriotism and an appreciation of the spirit of our heroes and four million American people remain for care and all for you to combine the rest of the people in your various and respective localities. That we will respond in a way which will electrify the world. "In making a survey of the indications and opportunities of the Red Cross, a report which we must not be discouraged, but rather rejoice in this undertaking and in the confidence that we can by our voluntary activities render service to our afflicted allies—which will for all time be a source of pride and satisfaction in a good deed well done. Ascent Wilson has said: 'But a small proportion of our people have the opportunity to serve upon the actual field of battle, but all men, women and children, with their hands and serve effectively. We must and will all immediately concentrate our energies and efforts and by contributing freely to this supreme cause help win the war.'

MRS. CALLAN TAKEN TO PASTEUR INST.

Cat That Bit Freiberg Woman Found to Have Been Afflicted With Hydrophobia.

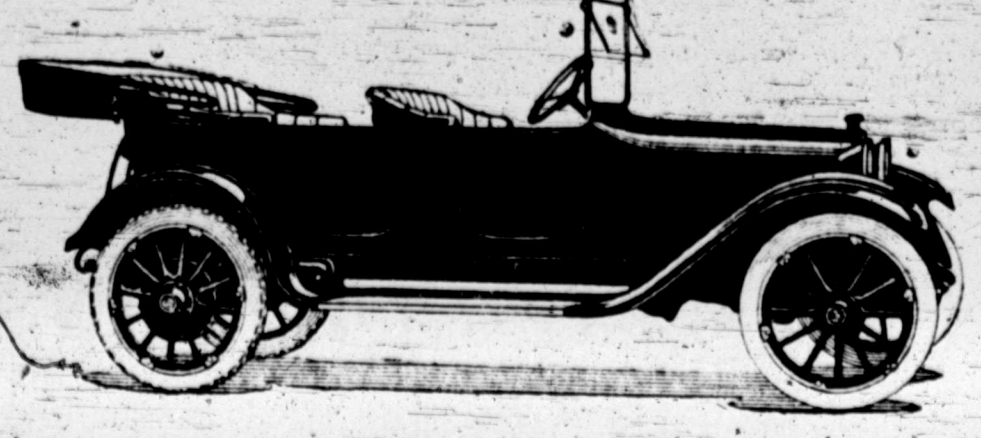

Mrs. J. K. Callan of the Freiberg community was taken to Austin yesterday morning for treatment at the Pasteur Institute. Two weeks ago Mrs. Callan was bitten by a wounded cat which she started to pick up to treat its wound. The cat fastened its teeth into the flesh between the thumb and the palm of the hand. Within a few hours her hand was greatly swollen and she suffered intense pain. The cat was killed and its head sent to Austin. Examination there showed the cat to have been afflicted with hydrophobia. As soon as this was established Mrs. Callan was sent to Austin. Since the first of the week she had not suffered greatly from the wound but it was still swollen somewhat. It is believed the treatment at the Pasteur Institute could be applied in time to arrest the infection in Mrs. Callan's system.

CAMP READY FOR HONOR GUARD

TENTED CITY PATTERNED AFTER REGULAR ARMY CAMP. - MENT LAID OUT.

OPENED TO VISITORS

Inspection of Camp Invited Today, After Which Grounds Will Be Closed to Visitors.

Old Glory is now floating over the camp now in readiness at Lake Wichita for the coming of the Texas National Honor Guard for their second annual encampment. For three days, carpenters, tax laborers and laborers of all kinds have been busy at the camp. The city has been working to the end that this afternoon the camp will be open to inspection to the citizens of Wichita Falls. And this will be their last opportunity for seeing the camp before the following Sunday, as the camp rules do not allow miscellaneous visitors. Sunday, June 24, will be official visitors' day.

The camp which has been laid out by Captain Robert D. Gordon, commander of the encampment, assisted by his drill sergeant, Sergeant Ray Connolly, is in reality a miniature model army camp. The tents have been laid out in company streets, headquarters tent, assembly tent, hospital and the kitchen and mess halls all being arranged according to the United States army regulations. And the strict sanitation demanded by the government observed in the camp arrangement, safeguarding the health of the girls in training. The camp is wired for electric lights and water has been piped, the water to be donated by the Wichita Falls Water Co. There will be no discomforts usually experienced in camping out, the arrangements being practically the same as those for the officers' training camps in various parts of the country.

No estimate can be made as yet of the girls to attend. Captain Carver wishes to urge again that all Wichita Falls girls, whether members of the guard or not, who desire to attend the encampment let her know today or Monday morning. It isn't too late to register for the encampment, she said. This morning, however, and some additional applications come in and would be glad to receive many more. This will be totally different from any other the girls have had before and for that reason will be all the more enjoyed. Some of the girls say their parents are afraid they will obligate themselves in some way to serve in the war as a nurse. It has been pointed out time and again that attendance on the encampment and membership in the Honor Guard involves no obligation for any sort of service whatever.

The girls who have had the aims of the organization thoroughly explained to them are very enthusiastic over the work and particularly the encampment. And they are sure to come through the ten days in splendid health and with a better knowledge of the part they, as girls, and young women, can go to help win the war. RIGHT AT HOME. Please note that the girls are to be at home. Captain Gordon has given all his time for the past week to arranging the encampment, and he is to supervise the camp. We are going to have just the best time ever on the camp though it is going to mean work, but there are few who are afraid of that.

A water to stand under the tent. Wichita Falls girl will be welcomed on this encampment. The camp for the entire ten days is only $10. The uniform costs only $25, and the girls can't outside of this there will be need for but little expense. Visitors at the camp on Saturday afternoon in the afternoon the work has been accomplished by Captain Gordon and Sergeant Connolly. The tent is located in the grove across the road from the circle, sitting in a place that, though shady is entirely free from mosquitoes and is dry and will be easily kept sanitary. Plenty of shade is assured and there will be a breeze, even though the weather is very warm, as it sometimes is here. There are two large mess tents, the girls to eat sitting down instead of distributing themselves all over the landscape with their tin plates, as was in order last year at Lake Worth. "The girls on duty on the circle are going to be well fed as well as well drilled," said Captain Gordon, who will supervise the camp arrangements, as well as be commander in chief of the whole affair. "I have the best negro chef in town and am going to have just a good meal as can be gotten on the Wichita Falls market. For instance, here is the first day's menu: Breakfast: Oatmeal, milk, bacon and eggs, rolls and coffee. Dinner: Roast beef with brown gravy, potatoes, peas, bread and butter and ice tea. Supper: Stewed fruit, bread and butter, potato salad and ice tea.

At 1 o'clock in the afternoon we will have a little rest and serve ice cream and cakes. The girls will have plenty of exercise and will work up an appetite that will make the ice cream very acceptable. "We have made arrangements to care for several hundred girls and we are anxious that we have a satisfactory crowd. In this way the Honor Guard can do the greatest good." From three to five will be inspection hours at the camp this afternoon and all visitors at the lake are expected to take advantage of the invitation.
