ANNUAL MEETING B. I. M. I. T. OPENS THIS AFTERNOON

OPENING DELAYED BY CANCELLATION OF SPECIAL TRAIN FROM FORT WORTH

AN INDUSTRIAL EXHIBIT

Moving Pictures of Texas Industries Will Be Shown at Majestic Theater

Owing to the delay in arrival of the special train from Fort Worth being cancelled at the last minute, the opening session of the third annual conference of the Buy-Made-in-Texas Association this afternoon was considerably delayed. The B. I. M. I. T. members did not arrive until shortly before 2 o'clock when the program was scheduled to open, and as a result it was past 3 o'clock when the Association was called to order at the Lako Wichita pavilion, John E. Shelton, of Fort Worth, the president, in the chair.

Tensities of the markets just at this time and other business arising contingent to the afternoon, as well as the fact that the announcement having been received from numerous members who had planned to attend that their arrangements were disrupted by business.

The session was opened with an invocation by Rev. S. A. Barnes of the M. E. Church, South, and the manufacturers were formally welcomed to Wichita Falls by Mayor A. H. Britton on behalf of the citizenship and by J. A. Kemp on behalf of the manufacturer.

T. association for this occasion. It has been shown at practically every big gathering of business men and salesmen in the country including the Salesmanship Congress, the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World and others. Dallas, Texas, June 27.—R. H. Newton, formerly postmaster at Midlothian, Texas, was released from the county jail on order of Federal Judge G. W. Jack Monday evening, after the judge had learned that Newton's wife was dying. Judge Jack set aside a sentence of 60 days in jail and a fine of $750 in Newton's case. He allowed the man to go home on bond to appear here at the next term of court. Newton last week pleaded guilty to embezzling $761 of postoffice funds, and told the judge that he had lost about $200 betting on baseball games. He was fined the amount of the embezzlement, which had been made good by relatives.

BULGARIA RELUCTANT TO BREAK RELATIONS

INFLUENCE BOTH OF SENTIMENTAL AND PRACTICAL CHARACTER AGAINST RUPTURE.

By Associated Press. Copenhagen, June 27.—Although Bulgaria is opposed to breaking off relations with the United States the fear is expressed, according to information reaching here, that Premier Radetsky may have been compelled to make concessions for which he went to Berlin by a sacrifice of American relations as part payment.

The influence against a break with the United States are of a twofold nature, one half of a sentimental character based on the influence of the American Roberts College education of many prominent men of old and new Bulgaria and from the respect for the far away republic which has no axe to grind in Bulgaria—on the other hand, practical, inspired by the belief that the capital from the same republic may after the war prove advantageous to Bulgaria without risking economic existence.

The only circumstances which would lead to native Bulgarian sentiment for a rupture with the United States would be, according to information received by the Associated Press correspondent, the appearance of American troops at Salonika, a possibility which has some influence in Bulgaria apparently has some interest in pointing out to the Bulgarian mind.

Bulgarians are apparently loyal to the Teutonic allies for the period of the war. They say they are open to overtures to abandon the struggle, though willing to use their influence against a so-called Hindenburg or German peace.

W. & S. DEPUTIES REJECT SEPARATE PEACE PROPOSAL

RESOLUTION PROPOSED BY REVOLUTIONARIES REJECTED BY OVERWHELMING VOTE

AN EARLY PEACE SOUGHT

Delegations Will Be Sent to Several Countries to Prepare For International Conference

By Associated Press. Washington, June 27.—A resolution categorically rejecting any move for a separate peace between Germany and Russia has been adopted by an overwhelming majority of the Congress of Workers and Soldiers Deputies of all Russia. The resolution at the same time declares that restoration of peace at the earliest possible moment is the important need of the Russian revolutionary democracy. The text of the resolution which was proposed by revolutionary socialists and the Manimalist-Social democrats follows in part: "The present war arose in consequence of aspirations of imperialist classes prevailing among the ruling classes of all countries, and tending toward the usurpation of markets and submission to their economic and political influences of small and decadent nations. The war is leading to complete exhaustion of the peoples of all countries and is bringing to the Russian revolution on the edge of a precipice. The congress recognizes consequently that the struggle for more rapid conclusion of the war consists of the most important problem—a problem imposed as much by the interests of the workers of all countries to put an end to the mutual extermination and restore their fraternal union for the complete struggle for complete liberation of humanity. The congress recognizes first that ending the war by means of defeat of one of the belligerents would constitute the point of departure for fresh wars, increase of dissension among the nations and lead them to complete exhaustion, famine and ruin, secondly that separate peace would strengthen one of the belligerents and give it the possibility of gaining a decisive victory over the other, and thirdly, that the war, by its very nature, is a struggle for the liberation of Russia from the grip of world-wide imperialism, would hinder the development of an international proletarian front. Consequently the congress categorically rejects every policy tending in fact to the conclusion of a separate peace or to the conclusion of a separate peace with one of the belligerents. The workers and soldiers deputies will send a delegation to Sweden, England and France to prepare for the conclusion of an international conference on the basis of the program adopted."

This opinion was by the 7-5 of the San Antonio and Arkansas Pass Railroad vs. Mrs. Lulu Blair from Karnes county, motion for consideration of petition for writ of error by the Supreme Court. The constitutionality of the act was assailed in this motion on the grounds that the law empowered the delegation by the Supreme Court of its powers to others, contrary to the constitution.

CHEERING CROWDS GREET SOLDIERS AS THEY LAND

Immense Number Motor Trucks Gathered to Transport Troops to Camp

A French Seaport, June 27.—The second contingent of American troops arrived and disembarked this morning. The troops landed amid the frantic cheers of the people who had gathered for hours before. Enthusiasm rose to fever pitch when it was learned that the transport and convoys had successfully passed the submarine zone. The port was speedily be-flagged in honor of the occasion. All the troops now arrived were transferred today to a camp not far distant from this point, where Major General William L. Sibert is installed.

All the troops are in excellent shape, enthusiastic over their successful trip and their reception, and are eager for action. Major General Pershing, the American commander, is expected tomorrow, when additional troops are expected. The harbor is filled with convoys; the streets are filled with troops in khaki and American blue jackets. Great numbers of trucks are transporting immense supplies to the camp in which the troops are concentrating.

TROOPS SUCCESSFULLY EVADE SUBMARINE AMBUSH—WILL SOON BE SENT TO THE BATTLEFRONT

By Associated Press. Washington, June 27.—The successful landing of American troops in France can not be fully discussed at this time for obvious reasons concerning the safety of other contingents. It is entirely permissible to say that they are part of the force which will be under the command of Major General Pershing, and for whose arrival the General and his staff have been arranging ever since they landed on the other side.

The American troops will be an entirely independent command, just as are the British troops, working, of course, with the French at the head of operations, as they are on French soil.

When the troops have had their period of preparation behind the lines, they will take their places on the battlefield, to be arranged by General Pershing and other officials and probably very soon will be carrying the Stars and Stripes in the assaults which steadily are driving the Germans out of France and Belgium.

All the troops under General Pershing's command are regulars and comprise the division which President Wilson directed to proceed to France "at the earliest possible time." Information of whatever troop movements may be made is surrounded by censorship to insure, so far as possible, a safe voyage through the submarine zone.

It is not permissible to say what precautions were taken to get the American troop ships past the waiting German submarines, but there is no doubt that the precautions were most carefully worked out, because it is most generally believed that some time ago most of the German submarine fleet was withdrawn from its attacks on commerce shipping to make ready to ambush the American troop ships in force.

The successful landing, while a source of gratification to officials here, viewed from a point of military operations, is regarded as an added significance for its effect in Germany, if it is permitted to become known there.

The reference in press dispatches to a duplication of "yesterday's surprise," indicating that there was also a landing yesterday, passes without comment, but obviously records the landing of a contingent not recorded in yesterday's dispatches.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS
DEFENSE COUNCIL
SINCE ORGANIZED

Washington, June 26.—Accomplishments of the defense council since it was organized last March are set forth in a comprehensive report made public by Director Grifford.

Only eighty persons, according to Director Grifford's report, are drawing salaries and most of these are clerks and stenographers.

More than one hundred highly trained men, says the report, are giving their entire time to the council without remuneration. Several hundred more, it says, are giving free a large part of their time.

The chief accomplishments of the council are summarized by Mr. Grifford as follows:

"Mobilization of the 262,000 miles of railroads of the country for the government's defense.

"Close-knit organization of the telephone and telegraph companies of America to insure to the government the most rapid and efficient wire communications.

"Settlement of the threatened national railroad strikes.

"General acceptance by labor and capital of the suggestion of the council that existing labor standards should not be changed until the need for such action had been determined by the council with the steady influence on industry growing out of such action.

"Procurement of 45,000,000 pounds of copper for the uses of the Army and Navy at less than one-half of the then current market price—a saving to the government of approximately $10,000,000.

"Similar accomplishments as to steel, zinc and aluminum.

"Completion of an inventory for military purposes of 27,000 American manufacturing plants.

"Money saved to the government, through appointment over the country of committees of business men to assist the quartermasters' department of the Army in the economical and efficient purchase of supplies.

"Saving to the government of millions of dollars by the co-ordination of purchases through the agency of the General Munitions board.

"Creation, under the medical section of the council, of a General Medical board, of many of the most highly qualified surgeons and physicians of the country.

—at least 30 minutes every day. Each time follow the gum with a glass of pure water.

Selection by the same section of thousands of doctors specifically qualified for membership in the medical office corps, and the standardization of surgical instruments and supplies.

Creation by the Council of the Aircraft Production Board, which is setting out to make 3500 airplanes and to train 6,000 aviators this year.

Definite results obtained by the Council's Committee on Coal Production in the procurement and expeditions shipment of coal, both in the civilian and federal interests.

Successful initiation of a movement to co-ordinate activities on the part of the states of the union for the national defense brought to a clear and workable form by the conference of states held recently in Washington at the call and under the auspices of the Council.

Organization of a railra committee to aid to Russia and enlistment of reserve engineer regiments to aid in rehabilitating the railroads of France.

Besides the many things done by the Council, Mr. Grifford enumerates in detail the work of the board and committees. He begins with the General Munitions board, of which Frank A. Scott is chairman, which, according to his report, has the following accomplishments to its credit:

Development of the capacity of small arms factories to supply one million men with arms; contracts signed for small arms ammunition to meet all requirements; artillery ammunition supply developed; sources of machine gun supplies developed; raw material obtained for gun carriages and caissons; standardization of motor transports; supply of material of ambulances bodies and satisfactory production of armored cars assured; reduction in price of machine guns obtained and increased production arranged; arrangement of sufficient supply of surgical instruments; development of an improved optical glass for military instruments; recommendations made as to fair and equitable prices for army and navy contracts; arrangement made for taking over British small arms plants in this country; establishment of priority in manufacture of machine tools to assure government of proper supplies; compilation of list of munitions manufacturers for guidance of army and navy in making purchases.

"The General Munitions Board," the report declared, "has, since its organization, through the co-ordination of purchasing alone, saved many millions of dollars to the government.

"The work of the Aircraft Production Board is set forth at length. Some of the main things it had done are:

"Assisted in organization of aircraft manufacturers into an association.

"Negotiated with aircraft companies and others to obtain a basis for settling patent disputes and helped put through an agreement.

"Evolved, in cooperation with the chief signal officer, a training plan for aviators; assisted in starting schools for preliminary training of aviator cadets; arranged for sending professors to Toronto for instruction in this work.

"Developed in cooperation with the signal office and the aeronautical division a standard type of aviation school building and equipment of buildings; assisted the aeronautical division in selecting sites for aviation schools.

"Investigated the production facilities of airplanes in the United States and made recommendations covering orders that should be placed immediately.

"Arranged for standardization of machine tools of machine between English, Canadian and United States types.

"Developed plans for battle types of planes, orders for which are being placed now by the military authorities.

"The medical section, under Dr. Franklin Martin and Dr. F. E. Stimpson, has spent much of its time selecting civilian physicians for recommendation to the army and navy. Public Health Service and the Red Cross. The work has been done through committees named in each state. Selection of 21,000 physicians has been completed, and the men have been given application blanks which they have been asked to file with the surgeons general.

Mr. Grifford's report emphasizes the work of an inter-departmental committee whose purpose is to prevent duplication of work in the various government departments.

The Council has in the Naval Consulting board a board of inventions, which just now is investigating plans to combat the submarine. The board is headed by Thomas A. Edison and members among its members some of the country's most noted scientists and inventors.

A Commercial Economy board, with A. W. Shaw as its chairman, is studying means by which commercial business may best meet demands made on it during the war, and how large quantities of supplies may be diverted to government use without upsetting the essential services of trade. This board is studying a plan to economize on its delivery systems and is investigating measures of economy for adoption by retail stores.

The coal problem is in the hands of a committee on coal production, headed by D. S. Peabody of Chicago. It is assisting the War Railroad board in expediting the movement of coal and is taking measures to stimulate production.

A women's defense committee was created in April with Dr. Anna Howard Shaw as its chairman. Its work is directed along the following lines:

Organization of state committees, registration of women for service with the Food Administration, home and alert work, food production, conservation and thrift; educational propaganda, protection of women and child workers, conservation of the health and morale of women, conservation of the moral and spiritual forces of the nation.

Scientific research is being conducted by the National Research Council. The work is headed by Dr. George E. Hale and Dr. R. A. Millikan. The Research Council is co-ordinating the research activities of the country in the fields of science and engineering. It is now engaged in studying devices to detect submarines and mines, investigating range finders and instruments to detect invisible craft and improving wireless apparatus.

A committee on shipping is working with the Shipping board on the problem of lessening the country's merchant tonnage.

The work of state defense councils is co-ordinated through a department headed by George E. Porter. It has assisted in organizing state councils and is giving them advice as to what the Federal government expects of the states in assisting in the conduct of the war.

Transportation questions are studied by a committee on transportation. Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, is its chairman. It is co-ordinating the War Railroad board, of which Fairfax Harrison, president of the Southern Railway, is head. This board is running the vital transportation lines as one continental system.

The Railroad board has given reference to fuel and is moving coal ahead of all other commodities. Fuel probably will be the next commodity given preferential shipment. Coal is moved in this order, fuel for the government, for roads on which mines are being worked, for other than military and finally for general purposes. The committee recommended the personnel of the railroad commission now in Russia. It is engaged in discontinuing passenger trains not considered essential and expects to discourage conventions and other meetings that would require unusual train service.

The recommendations of the railroad board are given as follows:

Enlistment of nine regiments of engineers to rehabilitate the French railway systems; an arrangement for moving coal to the Pacific Coast in box cars to prevent an uneconomical haul back; expeditious movement of food products.

Telephone and telegraph committees of the Council have arranged a system of cooperation between the wire companies and the government. Government calls are given preference. Such army and navy purchasing has been done by the committee on supplies, of which Julius Rosenwald of Chicago is chairman. The committee is composed of six business men, chosen from different industries, who are giving their entire time to the work. This committee is said to have saved the government millions of dollars in the purchase of supplies. All army and navy contracts, before entered, are submitted to the committee for approval, and the committee in many instances has instituted new purchase questions. Associated with the committee are a large number of subcommittees made up of experts on various commodities.

The committee on raw supplies, headed by Bernard M. Baruch of New York, has organized the purchase of raw materials. It saved the government according to the report, $10,000,000 on the purchase of a supply of copper.

Samuel Conners' committee on labor is engaged in settling industrial disputes and maintaining existing labor standards.

The committee on Industrial Preparedness has obtained 27,000 detailed reports from the country's largest manufacturing plants as to capacity to

How to Choose Your Drug Store

Select your drug store with the same care that you select your doctor. Trade at a drug store that pays more attention to making a customer than to making a sale.

Trade at the drug store where you can be sure that you are getting the most and the best for your money.

Trade at the drug store where you can "feel at home." Where you feel at liberty to make use of all the resources a real drug store peculiarly has for your help, convenience and accommodation.

IT IS THAT KIND OF A DRUG STORE WE TAKE PRIDE IN RUNNING.

The relations between a druggist and his customers are akin to those between a doctor and his patients. The moment a druggist forgets this fact, he ceases to be a real druggist. We want you to make use of all the advantages our Service holds out to you.

We are always ready to refund your money without question or quibble on any purchase you make here that is not perfectly satisfactory to you in every respect

MY AMERICA.

Thou land of beauty, land of peace,
Where freedom opens wide the door,
Send out to all who seek release
From tyranny and hate and war.

The stars have been the wanderer's guide
From outworn customs, narrow creeds,
The stripes, the blood of those who died
To save thy vision by their deeds.

Let not our faith prove weak, thy stars
Be dimmed by coward hearts or fear,
Let not thy sons forget thy scars,
Nor hold the victor's prize too dear.

For, as thou keep'st that high trust,
That vision thou alone canst give,
Though stars be hidden into dust,
And nations perish, thou shalt live.

O, brotherhood of all the world!
O, heritage our fathers earned!
Be ours to keep that flag unfurled,
Be ours to keep that flag unstained.

TOO LATE TO FILE COLLATAREL SUIT AGAINST BONDS

The time limit has elapsed in which a collateral attack may be made against the Wichita County road bond election. Such an attack must be instituted within thirty days after the election, according to a letter from Assistant Attorney General Dumas to C. H. Van Horn, a Wichita county tax payer. The election was held on May 23rd, and more than thirty days have elapsed.

Mr. Van Horn wrote to the attorney general protesting the approval of the proceedings for the road bond. W. P. Dumas, assistant attorney general, has enclosed a carbon copy of his reply to Mr. Van Horn to County Judge Harvey Harris. This letter follows:

"Mr. C. H. Van Horn,
"Iowa Park, Texas.

"Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter of the 21st instant, addressed to the attorney general protesting the approval of Wichita county $7,000 road bonds.

"I have not as yet approved this record. However, Judge Harvey Harris was in the office a few days ago with some of the papers in reference thereto and I examined them and found them to be correct, but requested some additional data before finally passing the bond transcript for approval.

"In this connection I will state that under our law a suit can be filed and set aside an election within 30 days after the election. This is a direct attack upon the election proceedings. If, however, this remedy does and no suit is instituted for the purpose, the election cannot be attacked collaterally for any irregularity therein contained and especially so after the bonds have been issued.

"I will carefully consider your protest when I finally pass upon the bond transcript and will advise you the result of my investigation.

"Yours very truly,
W. P. DUMAS,
Assistant Attorney General.

Says Watoga Lady, "As To What Cardui Has Done For Me, So As To Help Others."

Watoga, W. Va.—Mrs. S. W. Gladwell, of this town, says: "When about 15 years of age, I suffered greatly... Sometimes would go a month or two, and I had terrible headache, backache, and bearing-down pains, and would just drag and had no appetite. Then... it would last... two weeks, and was so weakening, and my health was awful.

My mother bought me a bottle of Cardui, and I began to improve after taking the first bottle, so kept it up till I took three... I gained, and was well and strong, and I owe it all to Cardui.

I am married now and have 3 children... I have never had to have a doctor for female trouble, and just resort to Cardui if I need a tonic. I am glad to testify to what it has done for me, so as to help others."

If you are nervous or weak, have headaches, backaches, or any of the other ailments so common to women, why not give Cardui a trial? Recommended by many physicians. In use over 40 years. Begin taking Cardui today. It may be the very medicine you need.

This country did all that was possible to keep out of the war. Note after note was sent to Germany by President Wilson, and in the heat of a presidential campaign the President was denounced, bitterly by those opposed to his re-election for not declaring war on Germany at once instead of writing so many notes.

The Whole Story

The growth and development of the J. C. Penney Co. might be likened to a small snow ball set in motion at the top of a mountain. Moving downward it gathers more snow, growing bigger and bigger until, as it reaches the bottom, it sweeps everything before it in a mighty avalanche.

Only fifteen years ago the J. C. Penney Co. started in the small town of Kemmerer, Wyoming. From this single store a mighty chain was welded which now comprises 175 links. More are being added each year, and with each additional store the prestige and buying power of the company is increased, thus enabling us to offer you merchandise at surprisingly low figures.

HIGH COST OF PRODUCTION SUSPENDS GERMAN NEWSPAPERS

Amsterdam, Netherlands.—Fifteen hundred German newspapers and periodicals have been compelled to suspend publication owing to the increased cost of materials and labor says the Wurzburger Landeszeitung in its last issue before suspending for the period of the war. According to this journal, newspaper paper has reached a price which is ruinous to any but the wealthiest papers, while grease and oil for lubricating machines are only obtainable at usurious prices.

DISCOVER GERMAN PLOT TO BLOW UP NORWEGIAN STEAMER

By Associated Press. Christiania, Norway, June 27.—Discovery of the German plot to destroy Norwegian steamers by explosives unearthed late last week, has appalled the whole nation. The newspapers demand publication of all the facts in the case. In all a ton of explosives has been discovered, concealed in artificial basins of coal, which presumably were to be placed in ship's bunkers and in bombs fitted with the most ingenious mechanism.

KILLED MAN BECAUSE SHE SAYS HE SLANDERED HER

By Associated Press. New York, June 27.—Mrs. Randall Willard, aged thirty-two, wife of a farmer, is in jail here charged with having shot and killed Grover C. Osborne, twenty-nine, son of a neighbor. Officers say Mrs. Willard told them she had killed the young man because he had made slanderous statements concerning her. The shooting occurred at Swifton, twenty-four miles from here. Officers say that the woman borrowed a shotgun and shot Osborne while he was cultivating a corn field, unsuspecting of danger. The woman's husband, who arrived here tonight with their two small children, said he would stand by his wife.

MEXICO REMOVES ALL IMPORT DUTIES

By Associated Press. Mexico City, June 27.—By order of the government all orders of import duty were removed last night from articles of prime necessity including food stuff, from July 1 to December 31. Export duties were also removed on gasoline and higher derivatives from petroleum. This places the refineries in Mexico in competition with the refineries of the United States and is undoubtedly due to the rise in gasoline to approximately 50 cents a gallon.

CHILD TELLS STORY OF AN ALLEGED ASSAULT

BULLETIN:—FISHER WAS FOUND GUILTY LATE THIS AFTERNOON AND GIVEN 99 YEARS.

Men's faces set in sober, stern lines in the Thirtieth District Court room this afternoon as a bright-faced, clear-eyed eleven-year-old girl, her hair hanging down her back in golden ringlets, told the story of an alleged assault upon her virtue by a sixty-five-year-old man. Her story was told in the trial of G. B. Fisher, charged with assault with intent to rape.

The little girl, the daughter of a railroad man, told how she had gone with her mother to a rooming house, or at least larger to Fisher's shop. How she had been induced to enter a room in the shop with Fisher and the mother gone and of the attack upon her there while the other girl looked on and laughed, according to her story.

She testified that Fisher held his hand over her mouth for half an hour while she screamed, and that she kicked him until he was compelled to desist. She testified that she was kept in the room for half an hour with the door locked. After falling in his attempt, she said Fisher exhibited to her and the other girl nude statues which he kept in a trunk in the room. She told the jury that Fisher told her in the presence of this other girl of his illicit relations with the latter.

She said that after the attempt her eyes were blood shot and that she feared to go home because "mama can look into your eyes and tell what you have been doing." Fisher, she said, "put out some salve to put on her eyes so that their bloodshot condition wouldn't show. He told her, she testified that he kept the salve for this purpose.

Fisher, she said, threatened her if she ever told any one what had occurred. He said he had a trunk in the room where he kept girls who told, and "fed them on bread and water," the child testified.

She said that Fisher gave her a dime and told her to spend five cents of it to go to a picture-show and five other five cents for street car fare to her home.

The child said she went to the picture show and later started home the time then being after midnight. She said the nearest street car to her home was the one she took, and that she would learn what had happened. She stopped at the Presbyterian Church on Tenth street intending to sleep on the steps, she said, but it was so cold that she gave this up. She then thought of the Union Station and decided to go there for the night. She spent the night there and most of the next day, and it was there that her father found her hiding in a toilet the next night according to her own and her father's testimony. She said that on the first night she looked out at the window and thought she saw Fisher, and hid.

The child's father and mother were the first two witnesses examined today. The father told of the little girl's failure to come home and of his search for her, and of finding her in the toilet at the station.

Her mother testified as to what the child had told her of what had occurred at Fisher's place. Several other witnesses were examined, including James Briggs and a man named Moody who worked in Fisher's shop were other witnesses.

About half a dozen other little girls, most of them under twelve years of age, have been subpoenaed by the state.

Some of those in the courtroom recalled the trial of Fisher about eight years ago when he was convicted on a charge of rape and sentenced to two years in prison.

When Fisher was arraigned in the court room this morning he had employed no attorney. He said that he had no money and had no opportunity to consult an attorney. He declared that he didn't know anything about the charges against him. Proceedings were delayed until the court appointed W. E. Huffines to defend him.

Archer, R. E. Taylor, Dr. T. K. Jones, and J. C. Shostantz, Henrietta. Knox, James Stevens and Dr. G. H. Beavers, of Benjamin, and S. B. Madrox, of Truscott.

GIRLS ENTICED TO JOIN SHOW FOR IMMORAL PURPOSES

By Associated Press. Fort Smith, Ark., June 27.—J. Z. Burland, U. S. district attorney here, has started a crusade against members of tent shows operating in this section and Eastern Oklahoma alleging that they are guilty of violation of the Mann white slave law.

The district attorney has secured writs for the arrest of nine persons, namely Curley West, Ada Hise, Arthur Lancaster, Roy Stanton, Nora Miller, Martha Wooten and one other described in the writ as "a blonde woman about 20 years old."

Presumably Richard Bradbury and James Mickel of the same amusement company had been arrested in this city in connection with the transportation to Williams, Okla., where the show was held, of Della Young, aged 14. The district attorney alleges that with the one exception noted the women before named are girls from 14 to 16 years of age and that they have been enticed from their homes in small towns into joining the show on pretense that they were to become "stage actresses," whereas their share in the performance is to do stances of questionable character.

NEW ZEALAND TROOPS ARE SOLDIERLY LOT

Sydney, Australia, May 29.—New Zealand troops bound eventually for the front were characterized in inspectors in Sydney recently. The streets were alive with them, stocky, soldierly-looking youths whose uniforms contrasted markedly with those of Australian troops in that they wore tunics, very like in cut those in use in the United States army and peaked caps instead of the flat-topped hats of the Dominion military service, was represented. The Maoris during a parade of the troops through the city attracted the particular attention of the onlookers. The New Zealand Minister for Agriculture, W. D. S. Macdonald, said of the troops, who were composed of both volunteers and conscripts, and of the operation of the compulsory service law in New Zealand.

Although the conscription system is in force men still have the right to volunteer and it is always found when men are called up that more than half are volunteers. In my own electorate they have never had occasion for a draft. They have always been able to find the quota through the voluntary system.

New Zealand does not make the slightest distinction between its volunteers and its conscripts. To each class precisely the same privileges are accorded.

COUPLE DROWNED WHILE ON BRIDAL TOUR

Houston, June 27.—Barney McDonald, 25, his bride of less than a week, and his sister, Marie McDonald, 20, were drowned this afternoon when their motor car ran off the Lynchburg ferry over the Houston ship channel. Clarence Weller and J. V. Bierly, also members of the party, escaped. The McDonalds had been on a honeymoon trip to Galveston, having been married at Silsbee Saturday. Weller and Bierly were nephews of McDonald, who was an oil field worker.

HONOR GUARD GET INTO THE MOVIES; CAMP IS BROKEN

AFTER TEN DAYS' ENGAGEMENT OF CAMP LIFE AND INSTRUCTION ENCAMPMENT ENDS

Camp Huff is no more; the second annual encampment of the southern department, Girls National Honor Guard is over, ranks and titles have been put aside and the lark is in vogue. A result of the year or even longer, depending on war conditions. The girls have worked and played for ten days, some have been in the movies, some in the cause of patriotism and all have been preparing themselves for service for their country at home.

Yesterday afternoon the girls drilled, exercised, took their afternoon swim and various capers for the benefit of the movie man who will perpetuate the camp in a film. Numerous pictures for circulation in animated weeklies were taken of the camp and the girls engaged in the various routine of camp life. Last night pictures from last year's camp at Lake Worth were shown at the Lake open air theater. It went below, now until the girls can be seeing themselves as they see them on the screen in their home theaters.

Tonight is the dance given in honor of the honor guard to last year's camp. Though there will be only about 50 of the out of town guards present. The majority of the 100 girls will have returned to their respective homes on the afternoon train.

The camp is being dismantled this afternoon and in this as well as in the work of getting the camp in readiness for keeping it in condition the Wichita Falls Boy Scouts proved they were worth their weight in gold.

Former "Aide" Genevieve Carver, now a teacher, has been yesterday, was shipped to Hastings, Okla. This morning, Chapman had been living at Hastings and his wife saw there. He was about forty years old.

of the man who betrayed her. She floats over the prospect of vengeance when the general announces their engagement.

The Empress. In "The Undying Flame," Mme. Petrova's first Lasky Paramount picture, one of the strangest facts of human experience is touched upon and in fact forms the axis for the plot.

But in "The Undying Flame" we have a charmingly modern young English girl, depending on her beauty and it puzzles her greatly until one day a happy accident brings a mystic scarab into her possession from the hands of a strange old fellow.

The fascinating manner in which the other half of the mystic charm comes into her life and the happiness that follows may be seen at the Empress Theatre today where "The Undying Flame" starring Madame Petrova, will be the attraction.

FIRST OF NEW BRAND OF PICTURES AT PLAZA

"Eternal Love," the first Butterfly picture, which comes to the Plaza Theatre today is a beautiful story with which to start the Butterfly brand, and it has a beautiful little star to exemplify the title in Ruth Clifford.

fortune. Paul discovers her, and vainly tries to convince her that his love is sincere. This she will not believe until Paul's chum informs her that Paul is deathly ill, and is constantly calling for her, when almost in the stroke of the grave, the love of these two is plighted again.

EARLY SETTLEMENT OF CHINA'S TROUBLES FORECAST

Washington, June 27.—Early settlement of China's troubles was forecast today in dispatches to the State Department.

The new cabinet according to legion advisers, is to be a coalition body with representatives of both the constitutionalists and the militarists.

The American note to China urging both factions to compose their differences, about which so much misunderstanding centered, was reported as having created a very favorable impression in China.

American loans to allies passed the billion dollar mark today when the treasury placed $15,000,000 to the credit of British and French and $5,000,000 to France's account.

Road Dust is an Unnecessary Evil

Modern automobile traffic has ground to dust many roads that under horse traffic were comparatively dustless.

Major H. B. Ferguson, Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army, in an address to the Joint Committee on Military Engineering at Chicago, May 11, 1916, said:

The three pests of a camp are: dust, filth, and mosquitoes. The large number of automobiles today necessitates closing roads to traffic for one mile each side of the camp to eliminate the dust except in such localities as are fortunate enough to have dustless concrete roads.

A concrete road can not be ground to dust. Concrete is made of Portland cement, sand and pebbles or crushed stone. It is hard, rigid, unyielding and durable.

Concrete for roads is the same as the material used in building concrete dams, factories, bridges and big engineering works like the Panama Canal, where great strength and permanence are desired.

Table with 2 columns: CONCRETE ROADS: Their Advantages. Rows include: No Mud—No Dust, Moderate Cost, No Ruts—No Holes, No Skidding, No Slipping, Easy Hauling, Smooth Riding, Always Ready for Use, Low Maintenance, Long Life—Safety.

Remember these facts. Also write for a free copy of our Bulletin No. 136. You will then be in a position to discuss this matter authoritatively when it comes up in your county or state.

UNCERTAINTY

There are but few things in the cleaning game that we are uncertain about. One in particular—shrinkage. No cleaner can tell before wet cleaning a garment, whether or not it has been shrunk—particularly all good material is shrunk before being made up. However, some is not—therefore it is not your Cleaners' fault if your garment draws up. Its merchant Tailor or Manufacturer's. We can not clean a garment with the least possible shrinkage.
