30 YEARS

Spring Honored On Anniversary At Bank

Now that spring is here, that annual herald of spring, the dandelion, is much in evidence.

An article in the current Reader's Digest points out what a hardy and tenacious plant the dandelion is (as if you don't know). The big secret to the dandelion's incredible tenacity lies in its tough, resilient root.

Ordinarily about 20 inches long, it penetrates the soil deeply enough to nourish the flower even during extended dry spells. Cutting the roots even as deeply as 12 inches below the surface only encourages the severed parts to produce new plants.

Only during the current century has the dandelion been thought of as something to get rid of. Its reputation as a plant with beneficial powers goes far back in history, according to the article. The dandelion is thought by some experts to be one of the "bitter herbs" mentioned in the Bible.

The Pilgrims at Plymouth Colony are said not only to have used the leaves of the dandelion for salad and cooked greens, but also to have prepared an extract from the dried roots to form a mild, but effective, laxative.

Such home remedies are not entirely without basis, either. The dandelion is listed in our National Formulary as a recognized medicinal source, and pharmacists use dandelion extracts in tonics.

Horrifying as it may seem to homeowners who struggle each spring to root out dandelions from their lawns, every year the United States imports several thousand pounds of dandelions for food and medicinal use.

As a good, dandelions are versatile. They can be used in salads, stewed or curried. The stems may be made into jam, and the roots may be prepared as a substitute for coffee.

Myself, I'd like to know the name and address of the company or companies importing dandelions every year. I may be missing out on a good cash crop, which comes up volunteer every year, and some years seem to have been down with a wheat drill.

The national day of mourning (April 15) has passed, and this year, the income tax deadline was made even more gloomy for many taxpayers by the disclosure that many wealthy citizens throughout the country are not paying a cent of income tax - all within the law.

This has set off a public clamor for tax reforms; and it would seem to us that some reforms are needed. What with the extension of the "temporary" federal surcharge for the Vietnam war, the rank and file taxpayer could be helped by a more equitable tax law - one in which everyone - the wealthy included - pays his fair share.

Joseph Barr, the secretary of the Treasury under Lyndon Johnson, has predicted that there will be a "taxpayer revolt" if something isn't done about the tax inequities.

The Nixon administration has made at least some moves in recent days to trim some of the "fat" from federal spending. Perhaps this proposed tax reform will be considered as well.

If the United States could just get out of the money-give-away program, then the surcharge could be dropped, and taxes might even be reduced. But this will be even harder to do than the trimming of certain programs, which President Nixon has found a harder job than when he was making campaign promises.

Currently, the Treasury officials say that former secretary Barr's remarks were "inflammatory," and are spreading word that although tax reform is desirable, it is a highly complicated subject needing further study - maybe until 1971.

Let's see -- Nelson Lewis, what were you saying last week about over-simplification and over-complication?

Frank A. Spring, president of Friona State Bank, was honored by the board of directors of the Friona State Bank on the occasion of his 30th anniversary with the local bank with a dinner in his honor on Wednesday, April 10.

Spring, who has seen and helped to chart the bank's phenomenal growth in recent years, was presented an engraved gold watch by A.L. Black, on behalf of the board of directors.

The Friona banker actually started to work as a bookkeeper at Friona State Bank on March 1, 1931. But he left after five years to enter private business.

After a stint with the International-Harvester Company as a collector, and with the Chevrolet agency in Muleshoe, Spring returned to Friona in 1940, when he purchased an insurance agency from Dan Ethridge.

Then in 1944, Spring had the opportunity to get back in the banking business, when he and a group of four others purchased the stock in Friona State Bank. He has served with the bank continuously since that time.

In 1945, Spring sold a half-interest of the insurance company back to Ethridge, who returned from the service, and it has been known as Ethridge-Spring Insurance Agency since that time.

"I've seen a lot of change in money in my tenure with the bank," said Spring, who remembered when a $10 loan was sometimes extravagant. "But I wouldn't like to go back to what some people call the 'good old days,'" he said.

On March 1, 1931, when Spring began working as bookkeeper in the bank, the total deposits stood at $29,925, and loans amounted to $160,642.57. A recent day's figures at the bank pegged deposits at $8,946,294.49, and loans at $6,771,268.01.

Spring had just graduated from Texas Tech when he was employed by the Bank in 1931. "There were only three or four of us - so I also served as teller, and 'general flunkie,'" he says.

Spring says he thinks the "FDIC" is the greatest thing that ever happened to the banking business. "It gives people more faith in the bank, and after all, that's what banking is based on," he says.

SPRING HONORED. . . Frank A. Spring, left, was honored by the board of directors of Friona State Bank on the occasion of his 30th anniversary with the Bank. Spring is being presented gifts by A. L. Black, chairman of the bank's board of directors.

Fire Ruins KNNN Board

A fire destroyed the main control board at Radio Station KNNN last Saturday afternoon, doing an estimated $1,000 damage at the station.

Quick-thinking by an employee on duty was credited with keeping the loss from being even greater. Donna Lorraine cut the station's power switches, which kept the fire from spreading further, according to station manager Ted Lamora.

Luckily for the station, it had completed an auxiliary control board just about a month ago, so all broadcasting has been done the past few days from this studio. The replacement control board should arrive in about another week, Lamora says.

"We appreciate the quick work by the Friona Volunteer Fire Department, who got to the scene and soon had the fire extinguished," Lamora said.

Enter Regional

Two members of Friona High School's track team will compete in the regional meet this weekend in Lubbock.

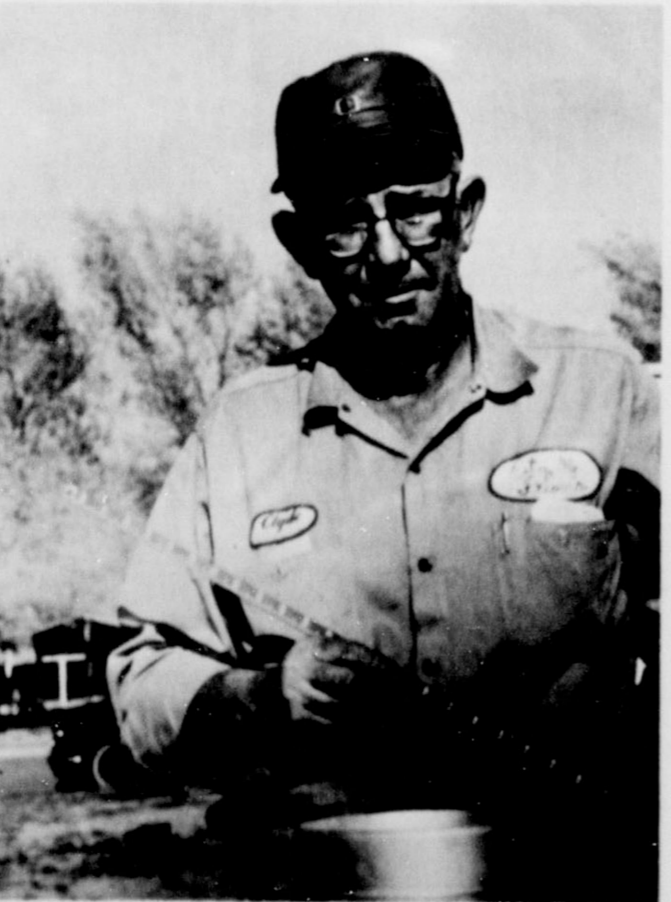

Tony Perea and Mike Pavalus are the FHS representatives. Perea will be entered in the pole vault, having won the event in the district meet. Pavalus will enter the 100 and 220-yard dashes. He won the 100 and was second in the 220 in the district meet.

Perea also won first-place in the pole vault in the meet for regional qualifiers at Hale Center the past weekend.

Set Ticket Drive

Members of the Friona Cub Scouts and Webelos will canvass the town next Tuesday, selling tickets for the Scout-A-Rama and rodeo, to be held in Amarillo May 2-3.

Tickets for both functions are $1.

OFFICIAL TALLY. . . Clyde Fields, City of Friona Water Superintendent, is shown making the tally of the official rainfall in the city during the past weekend, which amounted to a total of .88 inches.

DRY HOLE . . .

WILDCAT RIG. . . Shown is the oil drilling rig which has been drilling the past few weeks on J. C. Redwine property two miles south and one west of Hub. The drillers, the Baker and Taylor Company, have declared the location a dry hole, after drilling more than 8500 feet. The rig will be moved to a new location in the near future.

MBP Names Sales Mgr.

J.C. Walker, Executive Vice President, Missouri Beef Packers, Incorporated, announced the appointment of Mr. Jim Trail as Sales Manager of the Friona, Texas Division.

Trail spent two years in the United States Air Force. In 1954, he graduated from Texas A & M University with a B.S. Degree in Animal Husbandry.

From 1954 to 1961, he was employed by Swift & Company at Fort Worth, Texas. For the last 8 years he was employed by Texas Meat Packers, Dallas, Texas, and held the position of Sales Manager and Vice President.

Trail and his wife, Priscilla, have two children, James and Mark.

TONIGHT

Farm Bureau To Hold Fire Demonstration

Students and residents of Friona will have an opportunity to see for themselves how fire can be man's best friend or his worst enemy by observing a graphic fire demonstration to be presented at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, April 17, it was announced today.

The demonstration, in seven parts, will be given under the direction of Joe Smetana, Safety Director of the Texas Farm Bureau.

A variety of demonstration equipment will be placed on tables sixteen (16) feet in length to illustrate seven basic points: (1) What fire is; (2) How to control fires; (3) The fact that nothing is fireproof; (4) Kitchen fires and their control; (5) Fuel vapors; (6) The power of petroleum products; and (7) Household wiring and overloaded electrical circuits.

Smetana will point out that fire is like a three-legged stool it can't work with one of the legs missing. The "legs" fire depends on are: (1) fuel, (2) heat, and (3) air. Yet, in American homes, these three things come together in deadly and destructive combination every 57 seconds.

"That's eight times the number of fires in factories and stores. Worse yet, four out of five of all fire deaths occur in homes, and for every death there are about 100 serious injuries," the TFB Safety Director explained.

As part of a program for fire prevention, the Texas Farm Bureau Safety Department has presented this demonstration over 750 times for some 200,000 people. The program is being brought to Friona under the sponsorship of the Farmer County Farm Bureau. The public is invited to attend.

New Preacher For Local Church

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gipson and son, Bill, moved to 510 Woodland Street last week from Big Spring. Gipson recently accepted the position of local preacher at Sixth Street Church of Christ.

He grew up in Hall County and has preached in Austin, Dallas, Ballinger and Big Spring. Bill Jr., who is 12, has enrolled in the local school and is in the seventh grade.

The Gipsons have two married daughters, who live in Abilene, and two granddaughters.

Sixth Street Church of Christ has not had a regular preacher since C. J. Horton, who worked with this congregation several years, moved to El Paso several months ago.

County Tabulated Ten Rural Wrecks In March

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated ten accidents on rural highways in Farmer County during the month of March, according to Sergeant W.E. Wells, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in one person killed, nine persons injured and an estimated property damage of $7,285.00.

The rural traffic accident summary for the county during the first three months of 1969 shows a total of 29 accidents resulting in one person killed, 17 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $21,570.00.

City Gets .88" Rain

Friona received a total of .88 inches of moisture during the gentle-falling April showers of last weekend.

A measurement of .18 was made at 8 a.m. Friday, with another .52 falling during the day. Then Sunday night's shower added another .18 to the total. Many farmers in the area reported rains exceeding an inch, and the moisture was highly beneficial to wheat, sugar beets and land being prepared for planting.

The final entry in the 1968 Texas traffic records has been entered and closed. An all-time record of 3,481 persons killed, 216,972 persons injured, and an estimated property loss of $836,802,000.00 was sustained.

Since the death count of 2,254 in 1960, Texas has gained steadily each year. The Sergeant stated, "If the number of deaths continue to increase as they have since 1960 by 1975 they will have increased 100 per cent."

BARBECUE LINE. . . A scene similar to the one above, taken at last year's annual meeting of the Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative's annual meeting, will be repeated again this year when the Co-op is host to a free barbecue lunch on its annual meeting day, April 24. The meeting will be the 31st anniversary meeting for the cooperative.

(Editor's note):

The following letter was submitted to us by a reader. Because of its timeliness, we are reproducing it here:

Dear Editor:

As a farmer's wife, I have wanted to express my opinion on a number of things, but the new tax raise fed the torch that blew my top. So here I go. My sentiments concerning the tax raise:

Now he is a common, common man.

Tax him, tax him all you can,
Tax his house, tax his head,
Tax the bald spot on his head,
Tax his bread, tax his meat,
Tax the shoes clear off his feet.

Tax his pipe, tax his smoke,
Teach him government is no joke.

Tax his hennery, and tax his gas,
Tax the road that he has to pass,
Tax the farmer, tax his fowl,
Tax his dog and tax his howl.

Tax his plow and tax his clothes,

Tax the rags that wipe his nose,

Tax his pig, tax his squeal,
Tax his boots run down at the heel,

Tax his cow, tax his calf,
Tax him if he dares to laugh,
Tax his barns and tax his lands,

Tax the blisters on his hands,
Tax the water and tax the air,

Tax the sunshine if you dare,
Tax the living and tax the dead,
Tax the unborn before they're fed,

Tax them all and tax them well,
And do your best to make life hell.

I hope our congressmen and governor take a look at my sentiments and stop and think a little bit before they cast their yeas and nays. I also thank God that I live in a country that is still free enough that even a farmer's wife can blow her top.

Pause And Reflect

By Nelson Lewis

"I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help" (Psalm 121)

Sir Edmond Hillary, the English explorer and mountain climber, is credited with saying that his reason for climbing Mt. Everest was simply "because it was there."

I suppose that is as good a reason as any. My own interest in hiking and camping spans a half century; that seems a long time until I find myself humbled and dwarfed by gigantic rock cliffs that were formed eons ago.

There is one common trait that is shared by all hikers, mountain climbers, and most "rock-hounds" - they are not content to remain in the valley, they must climb and scramble until they stand at last upon the tallest peak in the range.

Why? I don't know, unless it is symbolic of man's refusal to be content in a valley when there are heights to be reached. Militarily speaking there is great advantage to be had in holding the high ground.

There is a satisfaction about standing alone in the high, rocky, sunshine, with the wind tugging and pushing, and the entire countryside spread below like a giant jigsaw puzzle.

Many miles toward the northwest the canyon rim rests in the shadow of a small cloud. Then the cloud drifts away and the caprock is illuminated to shine in clear antique gold.

Close by, in a near valley, a rickety old wooden windmill tower thrusts its rusting warbonnet above the treetops. Far away on the horizon a bright silver municipal water tank is silhouetted against the hazy landscape.

The contrast is a sign of progress - so I am told!

In case you don't know, mesquite makes a wonderful cooking fire. Not hard to kindle and burns down to make a splendid bed of coals that last and last.

Added to its worth as fuel is the small amount of smoke and a delightful aroma which can be improved upon only by bacon frying and coffee boiling.

While the big Texas stars hovered overhead a bunch of coyotes gathered on a hill across cottonwood creek and for a few minutes the air was replete with their half plaintive, half rollicking, music.

These sights and sounds were enjoyed by Tommy Baird and myself last weekend when we camped near the Quitaque river in Briscoe County.

Our primary purpose was the investigation of a deposit of petrified wood.

We found this ancient forest halfway up the canyon wall and as an added attraction we came across tons of iron-like material that in ages past had been squeezed, molten and smoking, through the rock crevices.

A giant hand had thrown together a great pile of boulders and it was on top of this huge mass of stone that we found evidence of that prehistoric lake that has helped "confound the wisdom of the wise."

Here, a thousand feet above the present river, were traces of water erosion and more tons of volcanic iron.

Whenever the cares of this twentieth century rat race begin to get us down, and frustration lurks around every corner, there is no better antidote than that which mother nature supplies.

There is strength to be drawn from a mighty mountain, and understanding - that fore runner of wisdom - is ours. We begin to appreciate the meaning of such expressions as, "from eternity unto eternity", "Thou restoreth my soul", and "the earth endureth forever".

Anyone suffering from an over-dose of that pride which goeth before a fall should stand on a mountain top, or on the brink of a yawning canyon and be reminded of the question the Almighty asked of Job (38-4) "Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth?"

Five-Cent Bar May Be Doomed

One of two remaining 5-cent items, the chocolate bar, may be doomed, according to Extension home economists. In the past three years, the chocolate cravers have gobbled up all the world's yearly production and most of the reserves. The result: increase in prices from 17 cents a pound in 1965 to 49 cents. Other factors which may jeopardize the nickel candy bar are the higher manufacturing and distribution costs.

AN EDITORIAL

Support Your Public Library

Texans support their public libraries to the tune of $1.24 per capita per year; in California the figure is $3.89; and in Massachusetts it's $4.61.
 You might be interested to know that the Friona Public Library budget amounted to only 13 cents per capita during the past year, considerably below even the shamefully low state average.
 National Library Week this year in Texas has set its purpose this year to call attention to the value of libraries in a free society, to note the essential need for books, magazines and other readily available information in a world where the sum total of all human knowledge now doubles every 7 years.
 Your public library cannot begin to meet the demands of this technological revolution unless it gets adequate support from the community it serves.
 Call your librarian, or write to the Field Services Division of the Texas State Library in Austin and ask how you can help give your public library a level of support worthy of the name.

Smiley Honored For Ford Sales Record

Ronald Smiley of Friona Motors, Friona, was honored for outstanding sales performance in 1968 at a Ford 300-500 Club banquet last Saturday at the Hilton Hotel, Albuquerque, N.M. W. J. Stroud, Phoenix district sales manager for Ford Division, said a select number of Ford dealership salesman will be presented a club membership award for "excellent retail sales performance." Their performance is based on the size of the dealership.

The 300-500 Club was founded in 1950 to focus attention on car and truck selling as a profession that performs a "valuable service to the national economy and the local community," said Stroud.

The average 300-500 Club member sold nearly $500,000 worth of automotive merchandise in 1968 to qualify for the national honor.

Pipeline Co. Applies For Increase In Gas Rates

Transwestern Pipeline Company today filed an application with the Federal Power Commission to increase its rates to customers for natural gas service. Transwestern, a subsidiary of Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation, said the application was made "solely to cover increases in the cost of purchased gas occasioned by producer rate increase filings."

The company pointed out in its application that it had earlier reduced its rates to present levels to reflect a reduction in its costs of purchased gas attributed to producer rate reductions in effect since October 1, 1968. Since that time, however, producers selling gas to Transwestern have "either filed, placed into effect or could now place into effect, rate increases totaling $3,936,000."

Transwestern proposes in its filing to increase its rate by 1.45 cents per thousand cubic feet. Company officials said that this would provide an annual increase in revenues of $3,916,000.

If approved by the FPC, the rate increase would go into effect May 15, 1969.

THOMAS B. SHERLEY

Shirley Attends ROTC Conclave

Thomas B. Sherley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Sherley of 1204 W. Fifth St., Friona, was among outstanding Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps cadets who attended the 21st National Arnold Air Society (AAS) Conclave just concluded in New Orleans.

The cadets represented their school squadrons of the honorary military society that was named for the late General of the Air Force Henry "Hap" Arnold. More than 2,000 cadets from 175 colleges and universities met to discuss the AAS program for the coming year and to hear addresses by top level aerospace leaders.

Cadet Sherley is a member of the class of 1970 at Texas Technological College.

Aggie Muster Set For Bovina

Farmer County former students of Texas A&M and their wives will Muster April 21 to mark the passing of comrades and honor Texans who won independence at San Jacinto.

The 7:30 p.m. meeting will be held at Bovina Restaurant, Muster Chairman Dolph Moten reports.

The Aggie Muster began in 1903 when the 300-member Corps of Cadets paid homage to the Texans who defeated the Mexican Army in 1836. Musters have been held since—wherever A&M might find themselves on that day. More than 500 Musters will be held around the world this year.

The ceremony is the same in every location. Aggies pay respects to those who are absent. When the names of honored dead are called from Muster rolls, a friend of the deceased answers, "Here."

A vicious circle. With the clogged roads of today will we return to yesterday's travel?

The average speed of traffic in New York city in 1907—when vehicles were horse-drawn—was 11.5 miles per hour. In 1966, motor vehicles averaged 8.5 miles per hour. America's first auto race Thanksgiving Day, 1895, from Chicago to Evanston and back (52 miles) averaged 5 mph. More than 200 vintage cars can be seen at the Harold Warp Pioneer Village, Minden, Nebraska.

Theodore Dubois' dramatic and moving presentation of the seven last statements of Christ on the cross will be portrayed by 92 members of the church choir and supporting cast of Plainview's First Baptist Church. Music will be under the direction of Mr. Ed Wittner with Mrs. Rex Ramsower directing the drama.

Many hours have been spent in preparation of the costumes for this large cast. Mrs. Ollie Linder is serving again this year as chairman of costumes. ROBERT DON COLLIER

Collier Accepts Traineeship

Robert Don Collier, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Collier, Route 1, Friona, recently accepted a traineeship at Cornell University, Ithaca, New York, for graduate study, which will lead to a Ph. D. in Agriculture Engineering, beginning with a master of science program in September.

Collier, who is a 1964 graduate of Friona High School, will receive his bachelor of science degree with a major in agriculture engineering from Texas Tech, Lubbock, in June.

He is a member of Phi Kappa Phi National Honor Society, Tau Beta Phi National Engineering Honor Society, Alpha Epsilon National Agriculture Engineering Honor Society and American Society of Agricultural Engineers.

This traineeship was awarded on basis of scholastic achievement and outstanding character and will cover fees, tuition, expenses and an annual cash stipend.

Frionans who remember Eve Branschweiger will be interested in reading about her recent marriage to Blaise Thonney in Basel, Switzerland. Kay Johnson, daughter of the Herschel Johnsons, is a civilian employee at Patton Service Club, Heidelberg, Germany. She attended the wedding, which included two ceremonies, and wrote her parents, and Eve's American parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Osborn, the following report of her trip.

"Left Heidelberg Thursday evening and spent the night in a hotel in Basel. Met Eve, who was very calm, Blaise, Eve's mother and two friends for the civil ceremony. Two other couples were there. Eve wore a navy and white check dress and coat and looked darling. The setting was very stately. The ceremony was in German and probably took fifteen minutes.

After the ceremony we went to a super place on the Rhine for lunch. Eve's father joined us for a delicious meal and red wine. During the afternoon we went to the Branschweiger home and prepared goodies for a reception Friday night.

At the Friday night party Eve and Blaise were cheered by a large number of friends. Since I am very dumb and speak only English, I visited with those who could speak my language. Many of the people from the bank where Eve and Blaise both work speak three languages. However, most of the conversations were in German. I spent Friday night with Peter and Yvonne, two friends who were witnesses at the Friday morning ceremony, at their flat.

On Saturday morning we all drove to Bell and Neuchatel for the church ceremony. We stopped in Bell for tea with Eve's aunt and uncle. By this time we were in French Switzerland and all of the conversations were in French. Peter and I spoke English and smiled.

Mr. and Mrs. Branschweiger stayed in Bell and Peter, Yvonne and I went with Eve and Blaise to the home of his parents, who were very warm and friendly as all the French in this part of Switzerland are. Had soup and sandwiches in his home - fantastic soup - and then we all got ready for the wedding.

Cast Chosen For Cheaper By The Dozen

The Junior High School speech department will present a three act play, "Cheaper By The Dozen," in the Junior high auditorium, Thursday, May 1. This is a popular story of a large family ruled by an efficiency expert father during the twenties.

Household Stains Need Cool Water

A large number of common household stains do not require special treatment except for a fifteen minute cool-water-soak period before garments are put in the washer, says Doris Myers, Extension specialist at Texas A&M. For fabrics which can be bleached, the addition of chlorine bleach to hot sudsy water will remove many common stains.

Characters in the play are Michael Martin, Mr. Gilbreth; Kay Woody, Mrs. Gilbreth; Patricia Phipps, Anne; Nancy Martinez, Ernestine; Johnnie Rule, Frank; Renee Taylor, Francis; Cynthia Hutson, Martha; Jayson Grimsley, Jackie; Matt Garth, Dan; James Bartlett, Bill; and Susan Martin, Lillian. The last nine are children of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbreth.

Kirk Taylor, Joe Scales, Anne's boy friend; Johnny Bandy, Larry; Deborah Kretzmann, Mrs. Fitzgerald, the housekeeper; Davy Hill, Dr. Burton; and Debbie Bengel, Miss Brill, a teacher.

Eve wore a white gown and off white jacket and veil she borrowed from Blaise's sister. She looked lovely and was so calm. She has known Blaise three years. He is 27 and very nice. He seems to be just Eve's type and I approve. They found a flat - quite impossible in Basel - in December.

Then about 2 p.m. members of Blaise's family started coming. They were so warm and friendly and felt sorry that I was missing out because I didn't speak French. Even though I couldn't communicate with them very much, I looked and listened and learned so much from the experience.

As we drove to the church, each of the ten cars in the procession was decorated with white streamers. The church was right on the lake, covered with English Ivy and very charming. Guests arrived and stood around in the yard about ten minutes.

As the wedding procession started, Blaise and his mother led and Eve and her father were at the other end. Everyone stood until the minister signaled for all of us to sit down. Eve and Blaise were on the front pew; their parents were right behind them and then other wedding guests sat behind the parents.

The minister spoke a sermon in French and German. It was very personal and humorous. Most of the guests thought he did a very fine job. After a trumpet solo by Shubert, Eve and Blaise stood up and spoke their vows. Church decorations were some kind of yellow blossoms and pink roses. Eve carried a bouquet of roses and other white flowers.

The ceremony lasted about an hour. Attending it was a marvelous experience and I was most lucky to be invited as European weddings are strictly for family. The things which impressed me most were the family setting, the time Eve and Blaise spent with members of both families and the relaxed atmosphere. Very unlike our American hustle and bustle and trappings which cost so much money.

After making pictures in the yard and extending good wishes to the bride couple, everyone went to a little place on the lake for wine, dessert and chat. We stayed there about 1 1/2 hours and some of the guests left. The rest of us went to a hotel between Neuchatel and Bell to a dinner which was out of this world.

Since it was French, there were six courses -- three hours of eating. After dinner, games, laughs and dancing, which lasted until about 2 a.m., Eve, Blaise, Peter, Yvonne and I spent the night at the hotel. It was most charming, small and spotless as all Swiss hotels are. The view out on the lake was delightful.

After coffee and rolls Sunday morning, we all returned to Bell to the home of Eve's aunt. We had to push Eve's car to get it started. In Bell we went out for tea and said goodbye to Eve and Blaise and her parents. The newlyweds left by train Monday for a two week ski trip to Zermatt, which is near the Matterhorn. I am so thankful Eve married while I am in Europe and that I could attend the wedding. She is still the same. Speaks three languages to my one.

After spending the night with Peter and Yvonne, who were so very nice to me, we saw Basel on foot and ate dinner in a Swiss German restaurant. I really ate my way through the weekend. After lunch I returned to Heidelberg."

Announcing the first car of the '70s at 1960 prices.

FORD MAVERICK $1995*

(You don't have to read it all-but it's nice to know it's all there.)

Most new cars look like other cars. But when the word gets out that something really different is on the way, rumors run wild. Few cars have caused as much talk as Maverick. Ford's new entry in the small car field rivals the economy imports in price... but tops them in power, performance, passenger room and luggage capacity. We've been bombarded with questions about Maverick. Now, for the first time, here are the answers.

car. Because it's all there. A complete car all ready to drive home.

Q. What kind of gas mileage can I get?
A. That depends on you as well as the car. You can get as much as 25 or 26 miles per gallon—if you have an educated foot and the right road conditions. If you have a lead foot or do a lot of city driving, you will get a lot less. In tests by professional drivers at our tracks, where we do our best to duplicate actual driving conditions, Maverick averaged 22.5 mpg.

36,000 miles. The leading economy import recommends oil changes every 3,000 miles (twice as often as Maverick) and chassis lubrication every 6,000 miles (six times as often as Maverick). Those are just a few examples of the many ways Maverick lessens inconvenience and lowers operating cost.

Q. Can I do my own maintenance work?
A. Yes. If you have an average amount of mechanical ability. The Maverick owner's manual contains 24 pages of detailed diagrams and easy-to-follow instructions for routine maintenance jobs you can do yourself, if you wish. You'll find it easy to change spark plugs, replace ignition points... plus many other do-it-yourself repairs and replacements.

Q. Can a small car be safe? And how safe is safe?
A. This small car incorporates the latest advances in engineering. Maverick's brakes are as big as a standard compact—designed to stop cars weighing hundreds of pounds more. Maverick gives you weight, power, stability. Designed for American driving conditions.

Q. How does Maverick ride?
A. Here's where Maverick's longer, wider stance really pays off. You get a smoother, quieter ride. Maverick's light, strong, unitized body helps eliminate squeaks and rattles. Special insulation blocks out road noise. The people who brought you a Ford that was quieter than a Rolls-Royce now bring you a small car that doesn't sound like a power mower.

Q. Is there an advantage in the fact that Maverick is really a 1970 car?
A. Stower depreciation is one money-in-the-pocket advantage. Maverick's 1970 model designation means it keeps its trade-in value higher, longer. (Maverick is built to be a good investment from the minute you buy it to the minute you sell it.)

Better come take a look at this one. You'll find it where the action is... right in there with other great Ford values like specially equipped Ford Galaxie 500's... Fairlanes... Mustangs and Falcons. You'll find them at your Ford Dealer's... the place you've got to go to see what's going on.

For an authentic 1/25 scale model of the new Ford Maverick, send $1.00 to Maverick, P.O. Box 5387, Dept. N-50, Detroit, Michigan 48211. (Offer ends July 31, 1969.)

*Manufacturer's suggested retail price for the car. Price does not include white sidewall tires, $32.00; dealer preparation charge, if any; transportation charges, state and local taxes.

SOIL CONSERVATION NEWS

Watershed Project Is Back For Congress

By Gary A. Batte
Soil Conservation Service

Chances for the Running Water Draw Watershed Project now appear more favorable. This news was received this week by the Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District.

After a delay of more than two years, President Nixon has cleared the way for Congressional Committee review of 96 watershed projects, one of which is the Running Water Draw Project in Parmer County, Texas, and Curry County, New Mexico. The project plan was approved by local sponsors last November. Sites in Parmer County are on Catfish Draw near Bovina and on Running Water Draw near Lazbuddie.

Plans are being made to join in the National observance of Soil Stewardship Week May 11-18", District chairman L.L. Grissom announced. The annual event will be kicked off with a noon luncheon for all ministers in the Parmer County District on Tuesday, April 22, at the Parmer House Restaurant, Grissom said.

About 21 producers have signed up for the wildlife food planting program, reports ASCS Office Manager Prentice Mills of Farwell. Grain crops are being planted on diverted acreage to be used as food and cover for pheasants and other wildlife. This project is being sponsored by the Parmer County Technical Action Panel (TAP). The TAP is made up of representatives of the Soil Conservation Service, County Extension Service, ASCS, Farmers Home Administration, and the County Judge.

A team from the Bovina FFA Chapter took top honors in the District's annual land judging contest held last week at Hub. Members of the winning team were: Mike McMeans, Mike Deauchamp, and Doyle Merrell. Second place honors went to Lazbuddie FFA team composed of Scotty Brown, John James, Randy Bush, Clay Mimms, and Darrell Elliott. High point individual in the contest was Doyle Merrell of Lazbuddie.

"Conservation work is in full swing," reports Gary A. Batte, SCS District Conservationist at Friona. Farmers are continuing the installation of irrigation pipeline, and some are seeding waterways and pastures. It's now planting time for grasses such as midland bermuda, side-oats grama, switchgrass, and Inland grass.

Local Marksmen Win In District

The Friona 4-H rifle team represented Parmer County at the District I 4-H Club Contest at West Texas State University, Canyon, Saturday, April 12.

This team, which competed in the junior contest, won first place. Team members were Troy, Jay and Mike Messenger, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Messenger, and Trip Horton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Horton.

High individual honors were won by Troy Messenger with a score of 316 out of a possible 400. Jay Messenger, who came in second, scored 300 out of a possible 400. Jay also won high individual honors at Bovina's 22 calibre outdoor 50 ft. open division matches Sunday, April 13. This match was for junior and high school boys and girls. Jay shot 92 out of a possible 100.

Comes this gem from a local coffee spot:

Seems a lady got the attention of the auctioneer at a Clovis cattle auction recently. She had a French poodle that she wanted to offer for sale. The auctioneer asked her about what she'd like for the dog. "$100," she replied. A long, tall cattle buyer in the stands called out, "Say, Lady. I've got a couple of $50 tom cats. I'll just trade you even."

particularly enjoys speech and debate.

The Washington trip winners were among 30 high school students from the area served by Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative who prepared speeches for the contest. Alternates picked in the contest were Barbara Wilhelm of Nazareth and Bob Thomas of Friona.

Ruthie and Steve will be among 100 young people from all over the State participating in the fifth annual Texas Electric Cooperative Government-In-Action Youth Tour to the nation's capital city, June 6 to June 17. Expenses of the Youth Tour are shared by other electric cooperatives in Texas which sponsor oratorical contests similar to the one sponsored by Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative.

Electric Co-op Names Contest Trip Winners

Names of winners of an oratorical contest sponsored by Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative were announced this week by James Hull, manager of the Cooperative.

Winners whose oratory qualified them for an all-expense paid trip to Washington, D.C., are Ruthie Harris of Dimmitt and Steve Ray of Hereford.

Miss Harris is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Jack Harris of 505 N.W. 8th Street in Dimmitt. A 17-year-old junior student at Dimmitt High School, she plans to attend New Mexico State University upon graduation from high school and major in archaeology. Her favorite pastime is reading.

Ruthie has the distinction of being the second member of the Harris family to win a top spot in the Government-In-Action Youth Tour speech contest. Her brother David, won the trip in 1967.

Ray is the 1969 winner in the young men's division of the speech contest. Steve lives with his parents, the Reverend and Mrs. Bill Ray at 233 Cherokee Drive in Hereford. Steve's father is minister of the Nazarene Church in Hereford. A junior student at Hereford High School, Steve participates in many school activities. He par-

LONG ON PROFIT

G-4333 is a short season high-yielding, strong-standing, single cross which established top yield records in 1968. 185 bushels per acre was chalked up at Tulia. G-4333 is very attractive with uniform stalk and ear height. It responds to higher plant population and narrow rows where fertility and water make top yields possible and does unusually well under average conditions. G-4333 has outyielded competitors in this early maturing category. Be sure to plant G-4333 in 1969.

G-4697 is a medium maturity high-yielding, strong-standing hybrid producing grain of excellent quality. Yields of 179.5, 175, 154, and 143 bushels per acre have been recorded in 1968 in Castro county. G-4697 produces uniform wide leaves and girthy ears. Excellent threshability is reported. Plant early for highest yields and superior standability.

G-711AA is unequalled for silage. G-71AA converts abundant fertility into tremendous crops of silage. 30.05 tons was recorded at the halfway test. G-5757 grows a little shorter and has a slightly higher percentage of grain per ton. For this reason some growers prefer it.

Candlelight Ceremony Unites Helen Stowers, Gerald Gerner

In a candlelight ceremony at Calvary Baptist Church Saturday evening Helen Darline Stowers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A.T. Stowers, 912 Greene Street, Friona, became the bride of Gerald R. Gerner.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Gerner, Route 2, Post, Texas, are parents of the bridegroom.

The double ring vows were read by Rev. Raymond Wiley, former interim pastor, before an arrangement of three 15 branched candelabra holding white tapers in front of an arch of greenery. Bouquets of white mums and stock and a brass kneeling bench covered with white satin completed the setting.

Janet Stevick, vocalist, cousin of the bride, sang "More", "Wedding Prayer", and "Whither Thou Goest." She was accompanied by Risa Howell, organist, who also played traditional wedding selections.

Laura Gerner, Lubbock, sister of the bridegroom, was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Sharron Stowers, sister of the bride, and Nancy Waite. Mrs. Fred Ferguson was the bridesmatron. Melody Patterson, Hereford, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. Candelighters were Kenneth Stowers, brother of the bride, and Gary Self.

Bridal attendants wore identically styled formal length dresses of different shades of pink dactron with round necklines and empire bodices. Their headpieces of pink illusion were attached to roses in a darker shade. They carried nosegays of pink rosebuds.

Kenneth Gerner, brother of the bridegroom, of Dallas was the best man. Groomsmen were Jackie Stowers, brother of the bride, Jerry Turner and Charles Huffman. Tommy Edwards, Tullia, and Dennis Germain, Los Angeles, were ushers.

The bride, who was escorted to the altar and presented in marriage by her father, wore a formal wedding gown of white Chantilly lace and peau de soie. The lace overdress was designed with a scalloped neckline and long fitted sleeves. Her cathedral length mantilla of illusion was re-embroidered with motifs of Chantilly lace and was held in place by a headpiece of flower petals outlined with seed pearls and sequins. Her bouquet was of white orchids and stephanotis.

A reception in Fellowship Hall followed the ceremony. The serving table was covered with a white linen cloth and was centered with the bride's bouquet flanked by candelabra. A three tiered cake, decorated with white icing and rosebuds in two shades of pink, was served with punch, cake, nuts and mints by Mrs. Tommy Edwards, Tullia, and Mrs. Johnny Tannahill. Date Set For Book Review

Announcement has been made by the publicity committee of Friends of the Library that there will be a book review at Friona Public Library at 2:30 p.m., Thursday, April 24. Mrs. Claude Osborn will review, "Papa Was A Preacher", by Alyene Porter. The public is invited to attend. This review will be one of the highlights of the local observance of National Library Week.

Flimsy as a Kite

What is as wonderful as a spring day, with just enough breeze to fly a new kite? It soars higher and higher, a bright blotch of color in the sky. It is a rare individual who won't pause to watch it, and, to most of us, it is perhaps a symbol of unsurpassed freedom.

Yet, in flying a kite there is need for control, or it will soon crash. What was sheer loveliness will become a crumpled heap of sticks and torn paper. This is true of many things that catch our fancies—true also of many of our dreams.

In this life, we need to learn the difference between the things that endure and those that are as flimsy as a kite in the wind. We need to learn control, courage and faith. None of these comes easily, but the first step will be found in the teachings of your church. Have you been going to church lately?
