

ORDINANCE REQUIRING HEALTH CERTIFICATE FROM RESTAURANT WORKERS TO BE ENFORCED

Intimidation which is said to be openly practiced against the help in the Open Shop restaurant, attacked by the cooks and waiters strike, and failure of punishment to follow the several cases of personal abuse visited on workers in these restaurants, alleged to have been perpetrated by members of the Cooks and Waiters union, was the basis of a vigorous complaint made Monday morning by directors of the Open Shop association to city officials.

The directors were assured by W. C. Bralley, police commissioner and by Walter S. Curlee, mayor pro tem, that all laws will be positively enforced by the city police, who will arrest and hold violators of laws coming under the jurisdiction of the city court, and will turn violators of laws coming within the jurisdiction of the higher courts over to the officials of those courts with the evidence in such shape that prosecution and punishment will follow quickly. That these laws will be enforced with no regard to persons or the side to which they belong was made clear by the city officials.

Such additional police as are necessary to give full protection will be placed on duty by the city, according to Mr. Bralley, who pledged personal supervision of the work of the police in order to see that it is enforced.

Intimidation Reported.

Restaurant proprietors told the city officials of skilled cooks and waiters who had applied to them for employment, many of them in actual need of employment, and who had agreed to work, but had later been driven off through fear of personal violence following threats received by them. This safe owner declared that seven people had been driven from his place by this means. He declared that on Sunday night a man, apparently in the kitchen, had come into the front of his place while he was in the kitchen, and calling one of his waiters by name had told him that if he saw him in there (the restaurant) any more, he would kill him. Hearing the disturbance, the restaurant man declared that he had run to the front of the place, and that while he was in the front, parties had entered through the rear and broken such glassware as was in the kitchen. Other restaurant proprietors declared that no trouble at all would be encountered in getting help if the help was assured of protection from violence. This man declared that two of the cooks who had struck from his place had told him of a desire to go back to work, but had stated that they were afraid to. John Galois, seventeen-year-old Greek boy who had been three or four months an employe of the Boston cafe, told of being taken from his room Sunday night at 11 o'clock by three men and abused and beaten two blocks away. He exhibited marks and bruises about his head, and declared that he had been kicked by the men after having been felled to the ground.

The city officials reiterated their declarations that full police protection would be accorded these workers and violators of any laws prosecuted, and that if convicted they would be liable for terms in the penitentiary.

Following this discussion the directors were informed by Walter S. Curlee, mayor pro tem, that Whitey Hoffling, business agent for the Cooks and Waiters union had demanded that the city ordinance requiring a physical inspection of employes in restaurants be enforced with respect to the cooks and waiters furnished by the restaurants by the civic league. Mr. Curlee informed Hoffling, he stated that he could file complaints charging violation of this ordinance, and it would be acted on by the city authorities.

The insinuation which it was alleged that this demand by Hoffling carried against the help, who are from the most exclusive social sets of the city, was bitterly denounced by several of the directors present.

The requirements which complied with by the ladies, who will obtain certificates from their family physicians, was the belief expressed by the directors, several expressing the belief that they would embrace this opportunity to express their desire to have all laws rigidly enforced.

"I believe that this move will be welcomed by the ladies, all of whom are members of the Civic League," said T. B. Smock, one of the directors.

"Such a law is demanded in force on the city statute books for over a year and during all that time the civic league has made unavailing efforts to have the law enforced. This is a reasonable confidence the members of the league will be glad to have this question brought forward."

MONTHLY MEETING OF CIVIC LEAGUE WILL BE HELD TOMORROW

A full attendance is requested for the Civic League's regular monthly meeting which will be held Tuesday, June 1, at the Kemp Library at 3 o'clock. There will be important matters to discuss, according to Mrs. T. B. Smock, the president.

Mrs. Smock also issued a call for additional volunteers among the women to serve in the open shop cafes, where the women are cooperating in the efforts to serve the public and keep the cafes open.

"We are helping to make several additional cafes," Mrs. Smock stated, "and for this reason will need more volunteers. However, I wish to correct an impression that seems to have been prevalent, that one must be a member of the Civic League to help. Any woman and girl who will support the movement which the business men of town have started will be welcomed. Your help will be appreciated. Telephone your names to Miss Florence Jackson, Phone No. 1821."

The League has received a substantial donation to the treasury from a number of traveling men now in Wichita Falls, the donors saying that it was in appreciation of their work and co-operation. The donation is to be added to this week, the traveling man who is making the collection, told Mrs. Smock.

TWENTY-FIVE PATROLMEN ADDED TO FORCE FOLLOWING ATTACKS UPON NON UNION WAITERS HERE

Twenty-five additional patrolmen were added to the city police department on Monday and more will probably be added within a few days. Police Commissioner W. G. Bralley announced that the police force is being reinforced to cope with the grave situation arising from the cooks' and waiters' strike and reports of disorders resulting from the strike and the open shop movement. Under plans outlined Monday by Police Chief Goodfellow and Police Commissioner Bralley a patrolman will be assigned to each of the larger restaurants and hotels of the city with instructions to prohibit disorder.

That outbreaks of disorder are following in the wake of the cooks and waiters' strike is evidenced by reports received at police headquarters which tell of the beating of three non-union restaurant employes since Saturday night. Two non-union employes of the Mecca cafe No. 1 were attacked shortly after they left their work Saturday night, while another non-union workman was taken from his room at a local hotel late Sunday night and beaten, according to reports received at the police department. The non-union workmen complained to the police that their assailants were union cooks and waiters who attacked them due to the fact that they were non-members of the cooks and waiters' union and that they had worked in non-union places.

Whitely Hoffling, business agent of the cooks and waiters' union and leader of the present waiters' strike, vigorously denied that union culinary workers of Wichita Falls had been implicated in any disorder, asserting that there was no truth in the reported attacks by unionists upon non-union workmen. He conferred with police officials Monday and offered to assist in apprehending any member of the waiters' union, who resorted to violence during the present strike.

Assistant County Attorney J. M. Martin announced Monday all efforts possible are being put forth to apprehend the assailants of Jack Davis, non-union workman, who, it is alleged, was attacked late Saturday night near the Labor Temple. Police Chief Goodfellow declared that information had been received that will probably result in the arrest of several persons on charges of "whitewashing." District Attorney Fletcher Jones Monday again warned laborites and open shopers alike to beware of violating the boycott or white-cap statute, declaring that both offenses are ranked as felony charges and that all persons guilty of violating either will be prosecuted.

Police Commissioner Bralley declared that the city government would take no partisan stand in the present labor troubles, but will see that all parties obey the law.

SPECIAL APPEAL FOR SCHOOL FUND MADE BY COMMITTEE

An especial appeal, directed to the "Mothers and Fathers" to come to the aid of the school during the present week was issued Monday by C. H. Clark, chairman of the citizens' committee in charge of the fund for relief of the school. The appeal is in connection with a request addressed some weeks ago to the parents of school children for a contribution of $10 for each child in order that the $50,000 needed immediately by the schools to meet this year's deficit might be raised. Contributions are now coming in at a more rapid rate than has been the case in the past. Mr. Clark states, but even as yet the great majority have not responded. Mr. Clark's appeal reads as follows: "A great many parents are unaware of the relief of our schools, but a great many more mothers and fathers have not yet acted. Many citizens with no children have subscribed liberally. "Will you not do this one great thing for your children? Do it now. Please act this week."

HERMANN HAS COMMISSION PORTRAITS SIX WICHITANS

Six portraits of members of Wichita Falls prominent families are to be delivered by Emil Hermann, portrait artist, this week before his departure for New York city for the summer. The commissions which have been executed, include the second portrait of Mrs. J. A. Kemp, and the third portrait of Mrs. Peery Hancock. Mr. Hermann has painted, these two last portraits going to the Kemp home. The largest canvas on which he has worked is three-quarter canvas of Mrs. James C. Mytinger, which now needs only one or two more sittings for completion. The portrait is attracting much admiring comment from those who have seen it and Mr. Hermann expects it to form one of the features of the exhibit of portraits of local people, which he will hold in October on his return to re-open his studio in Wichita Falls. His first child portrait work in Wichita Falls is a canvas of little Margaret Wells, formerly the 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Weaver of Grant avenue. This portrait, a full figure of the little girl seated in a flower pot, is conceded by Mr. Hermann to be one of the most attractive of the various child portraits which he has painted. The portrait of the late Herbert M. Hughes, formerly of Wichita Falls, has also been finished by Mr. Hermann, for the Blair Hughes company, to hang in the Dallas offices. The artist is also executing a commission for an ivory miniature of Mr. Hughes for Mrs. Hughes. Friends and acquaintances of Mr. Hughes who have seen the portrait are impressed with the splendid likeness. The sixth portrait of this group of newly finished work is a head and shoulders of Mrs. Louis M. McGinley of Mineral Wells, formerly the wife of Adelle Robertson of this city. The Irish beauty of this bride of the spring season has received full justice at the hands of the artist, and the portrait, which will hang in the home of Mrs. McGinley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Robertson of Rose avenue, is very attractive. There are a number of commissions which Mr. Hermann is taking to New York with him, and which will be completed on his return to Wichita Falls, in September. The rough sketching is usually done with the subject present, then the ground work is finished from a photograph when the commissions are executed out of the city. The finishing of each portrait is then possible in two or three sittings. Mr. Hermann announces that he will open a studio and will accept students on his return in September. This studio, he says, will be conducted on the same principle of the Academy of Fine Arts, open at all hours for students to work when they so desire, and with special days for lecture and criticism work. Full details of this studio will be announced later.

Are Your Teeth Sensitive?

Does it hurt to bite into an apple or something hard. Some teeth are so unusually touchy. They're painfully sensitive to heat or cold. Some are even affected by the acid juice of a lemon or grape fruit—a peculiar, deep-seated sensation. That's a serious, dangerous—the very symptoms of pyrotoxicity. 88 per cent of all adults become victims of this insidious disease. Use PYROS at once. You should have done it long ago—when the gums just started bleeding—but it isn't too late. No ordinary remedy could eradicate the poisonous, germ-laden pus sacs, way down at the tooth-roots. PYROS can! It penetrates. Pyros destroys the germs—Resorcinol—the gums—Preserves the teeth—Disintegrates tartar. Harmless to healthy tissues, dentine or enamel. Amusements

At the Empress

The attraction at the Empress theatre today will be the Paramount Art-craft screen version of Jack London's famous novel, "The Sea Wolf." The picture is declared to be in several respects out of the ordinary. Striking sea scenes, including a collision between a ferryboat and a schooner filmed on the very locale of the story—San Francisco bay—are among the features. But the chief interest is in the story. The chief figure is the brutal sea captain, "Wolf" Larsen, a peculiar mixture of villain and hero, philosopher and near animal. The plot centers around this terror of the deep and the adventures of one befall a beautiful girl and her young idler admirer when they are involved in a collision and, rescued by Wolf, are kept by him aboard his vessel. Noah Beery gives a notable performance as "Wolf." Tom Forman is the rescued youth who becomes a cabin boy and Mabel Julienne Scott is the girl. Walter Long, Raymond Hatton, Eddie Sutherland, James Gordon and Fred Huntley are also in the cast. The picture is a George Medford production.

F. H. METHODISTS TO START REVIVAL MEETINGS SUNDAY

Announcement was made yesterday in the services of the Floral Heights Methodist church that all of the services next Sunday will be held in the new tabernacle now being completed at Tenth and Denver streets. Rev. Tittle, the pastor, preached sermons preparatory to the revival meeting, which is to begin under the tabernacle next Sunday. Rev. J. W. Fort, pastor of the First Methodist church at Hillsboro, will assist the pastor in the meeting. Rev. Mr. Fort has just recently held a very fine revival at Gilmer, Tex., and is said to be one of the very best revival pastors in the state. The singers of the city are urged to help in this revival by joining in the music. A preliminary service of song and prayer is to be held next Friday evening under the tabernacle. B. H. Ellis, an experienced evangelistic singer, will have charge of the music. Mrs. E. K. Trawick will be at the piano. Rev. Tittle authorizes the Times to state that the entire religious force of the city is invited to help in this revival. Extensive preparations are being made and a thoroughgoing revival is expected.

Notice.
To members of O. O. O. nest, No. 1773: On next Wednesday night at 8 o'clock the order will hold its meeting at the Labor Temple, corner Eighth and Travis streets. W. B. Scott, President.

I. C. C. PLEDGE MORE COAL CARS FOR TEXAS

FORT WORTH, May 31.—Following protests from Texas commercial organizations, particularly the coal dealers, interstate commerce commission officials today wired here that diverting of coal cars from Texas and Oklahoma would cease for the present and the cars retained in the southwest for the use of dealers. Two hundred cars a day have been taken east from the Texas and Pacific, many from the Rock Island and other lines for relieving traffic jam. The protest said that coal cars were unable to lay in the winter's supply and that factories soon would be unable to operate in the southwest if the exodus of coal and flat cars continues.

GLORIES OF UPPER REACHES HELD FOR THOSE WHO CLIMB

One height has been attained by high school students who graduate this week, but in the distances are greater heights to be scaled and the climbing will not always be easy; this was the message that Rev. J. Lem Keevil, pastor of the First Christian church brought to the high school seniors Sunday morning in the baccalaureate sermon to the 1920 graduating class.

Taking his text from Deuteronomy 34:1-7, particularly the words "the other side of the hill," Mr. Keevil told the graduates that "he reaches the highest who gets nearest the heart of God."

"You will find that life is a contest, a struggle," he said, "the glories of the upper reaches are held in trust for those who climb."

Mr. Keevil sought to impress upon the graduates that, much as their high school diplomas meant, they should not signify the close of a school career, but only a mile post on the pathway of learning.

A crowd that filled the church auditorium heard Mr. Keevil, members of the families of graduates being present in large numbers. Special music numbers were a feature of the morning's program.

Tartar on Teeth

Shows That You Don't Clean Them—Note These Facts

All Statements Approved by High Dental Authorities

This is to men and women who find that brushed teeth discolor and decay. Who find that tartar forms, or pyorrhea starts. You are not keeping teeth clean. You let a film remain and the damage is traced to it.

Dental science has found a way to end film. It is now embodied in a dainty tooth paste which millions are employing. We urge you to try it ten days at our cost and see the results for yourself.

That Film on Teeth Can Now Be Ended in This Way

You can feel on your teeth a slimy film, ever-present, ever-forming. That film is the great tooth wrecker. Dental science now traces nearly all tooth troubles to it.

The film clings to the teeth, gets between the teeth, enters crevices and stays. The tooth brush does not end it. The ordinary dentifrice does not dissolve it. So millions find that teeth discolor and decay despite the daily brushing.

Why Teeth Discolor

That film is what discolors—not the teeth. It is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Millions of germs breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Dental science, after years of searching, has found a way to combat film. Many able authorities have proved its efficiency. For five years it has been subjected to every sort of clinical and laboratory test.

Now, for home use, it is embodied in a dentifrice called Pepsodent. Leading dentists all over America are now urging its adoption. This week we offer a 10-Day Tube to anyone who asks. And we urge that someone in every home prove its unique effects.

Based on Pepsin

Pepsodent is based on pepsin, the digestant of albumin. The film is albuminous matter. The object of Pepsodent is to dissolve it, then to constantly combat it.

Pepsin long seemed impossible. It must be activated, and the usual agent is an acid harmful to the teeth. Dental science has now discovered a harmless activating method. And now everyone can fight the film with active pepsin constantly.

See What It Does

Present the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Use like any tooth paste. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the slimy film. See how teeth whiten as the fixed film disappears.

Watch the results and read the reason for them. Compare this new method with the old. Then adopt for yourself and have your children adopt the method which seems best. This is of lifetime importance to you. Cut out the coupon so you won't forget.

Look Now

That film, to some extent, clouds nearly every set of teeth. And most tooth troubles are now traced to it.

Look in Ten Days

See how the teeth whiten—how they glisten—as the fixed film disappears. Then you will know there is a way to cleaner, safer teeth.

BUSINESS LETTER CITY NATIONAL BANK OF COMMERCE

Thrift is the key to national prosperity; thrift and work says the June business letter of the City National Bank of Commerce.

The astonishing strength of the pound sterling affords conclusive evidence of the resiliency of the British empire. The world's foreign exchange market testifies to the fact that the merchants, manufacturers and workers of the United Kingdom have set about recovering ground lost in four years of war.

Already London has shipped gold in enormous quantities to meet the issue of Anglo-French bonds which matures October 15, 1920. More is to come. Moreover, every report from overseas indicates enormous business activity in the United Kingdom, notably in manufacturing articles exported to the continent, to the colonies and to America. There is record activity in the shipping trade, and a notable improvement in investment and industrial conditions.

All this promises stiffer competition for America in the struggle for world trade, but it is not without temporary compensations. The depression of British exchange placed the American exporters at a great disadvantage earlier in the year since Latin America and Europe and the Orient could hardly afford to pay American prices with the dollar at an unprecedented premium.

For some months the American dollar has bought more overseas—and less at the store around the corner—than ever before. The sooner this condition is corrected the better it will be for all concerned.

Amortization of Mortgages. The American Bankers' association has joined forces with the Federal Reserve Board in the effort to reduce financial inflation, and its activities chiefly along the line of amortization of mortgage loans are meeting with much success. In many cities bankers are requiring borrowers on real estate to pay 4 per cent a year on principal over and above interest due, thus increasing the liquidity of assets, encouraging thrift, and providing money for new improvements.

Such amortization is regarded as imperative under existing conditions, since long term mortgage loans are, in the last analysis, necessarily based upon savings. Just now the accumulation of savings in banking institutions is hampered by the burden of war debts, by governmental competition and, of course, by the flood of securities, many of them of doubtful value, now upon the market.

Canadian Customs Receipts for the past twelve months show an 18 per cent gain over the preceding year, with a total of $184,079,579 as against $156,471,703. The best preceding year 1917 had receipts of $161,598,629. Customs receipts for the year past constituted approximately 50 per cent of the dominion's revenue. Rather more than half the imports were from the United States, despite an unfavorable exchange situation, and the fact that this country does not enjoy the benefit of any preferential arrangement.

Within the same period Canada's immigration reached 57,702, of whom 40,715 were from the United States. Shipping congestion has materially cut down emigration to the Dominion from Europe, and this country's contribution also shows a material reduction.

Cottons are Firm. The firmness of cotton goods market has been the feature of the dry goods trade for weeks. Prices are at record levels, although raw material costs seem hardly to warrant this condition. Indeed, it is estimated that raw cotton could go to 50 cents a pound without loss to the mills, if current prices are maintained.

Of last year's 11,250,000 bales, more than 5 millions were exported and nearly 5 millions consumed here. The cotton year lasts three months more if the 1920 crop falls below 12,000,000 bales there will, assuredly, be nothing resembling a surplus.

Oil. Increased demand for petroleum products keeps pace with increased production. Best estimates indicate that today the domestic supply is sufficient for less than four months.

As a result of mounting prices and assured demand, deeper borings are being undertaken on a great scale in older fields, and Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Kentucky, and Ohio are being re-prospected. Mexican shipments show a notable increase and Oklahoma and Northern Louisiana gains have more than compensated for the diminution of the Texas output.

The demand for quantity production is responsible for the invention of another mechanical tool in the shape of a device which cuts a button hole or a pocket slit through 100 thicknesses of cloth at one time.

PASSAGE OF BILL TO EXEMPT SCHOOL BONDS FROM TAXES

The outlook for the passage of both bills to exempt county and school bonds from state taxation, and for appropriations for completion of the Northwest Texas Insane asylum, at this place is extremely favorable, with no opposition whatever in sight, according to a message received Sunday from Porter Whaley, manager of the West Texas chamber of commerce, by Hubert Harrison, secretary of the local chamber of commerce. The two bodies are working together in behalf of the legislation. Both have been submitted to the special session by the governor, and bills are to be introduced both in the house and senate Monday. Representative Parnell from this district is introducing the asylum bill in the house, and Senator Bledsoe from this senatorial district in the senate.

Prospects for passage of the legislation relieving the bond issues from taxation are regarded as particularly bright. Texas is one of the few states which now impose a tax on these securities, which has heretofore had the effect of forcing their sale outside of the state, the taxes making their purchase by citizens of the state prohibitive. As a result of this driving the bonds from the state, the state has derived no benefit from the measure. The exemption from taxation, allowing the bonds to be marketed in the state, will afford a considerable measure of relief for the cities and school districts who under present conditions in the bond markets can not now be marketed save at a prohibitive discount.

HENNETTA BUSINESS MEN PLAN VISIT HERE

A booster trip to Wichita Falls is planned by the Henrietta chamber of commerce for about June 15, according to a message received by Hubert Harrison, secretary of the local chamber of commerce Monday. Mr. Harrison has extended a cordial invitation in the name of the local body to the Henriettans to be the guests of the local body on that occasion.

NINTH STREET MEETING CHAMBER COMMERCE ROOM

Tomorrow night's meeting of Ninth street property owners to consider paying will be held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms. It was announced this morning. The committee urgently requests that everyone owning frontage on Ninth street, between Broad and Pierce, attend the meeting. There is understood to be a chance to get work started with little delay, if the property owners will act promptly.

The innovation of supplying comfortable arm chairs and rockers to the enlisted men on board the vessels of the British navy is to be made soon. Heretofore it has not been regarded as wise to allow men these comforts.

This is the Fifth of a series of advertisements to be published by us, in an endeavor to overcome a false impression concerning retail prices in Wichita Falls. In these articles we use our own experiences and prices as typical of local retail conditions—if they are not, the fault is not with us. We can only vouch for ourselves—and to that extent they are absolutely correct.

Button Holes Now Cost 37 1/2c

Why the high prices—and when will they go back to normal? Those two questions are asked daily by hundreds of thousands. Why the high prices? Prices, in the final analysis, are based on supply and demand. When the demand exceeds the supply, prices go up—when the supply exceeds the demand prices come down. That's a commercial law that's as certain as the physical law of gravitation. Since 1915 the demand has been greater than the supply. Prices have been on the incline since then. And prices will stay up until production equals and exceeds consumption. That time has not yet come. Prices for this fall will be higher than they are now. By that time, from the retail standpoint we believe the "peak" will have been reached.

The "peak" of high prices from the manufacturer's standpoint has been reached and passed, but the materials that will go into the making of all classes of garments for this fall has already been contracted to garment makers at the highest prices they have ever paid in addition to that they are paying the highest wages in the history of their experience. Today all the textile workers throughout the East get an advance of 15 per cent which means a million a week added to the cost of wages. Under these circumstances we cannot have lower prices unless we have a money panic that will upset all the laws of Commerce. To illustrate the conditions we quote below the comparative prices of the American Woolen Mills to the manufacturers from 1915 to the fall of 1920 inclusive, on 14 oz. No. 9714 Blue Serge.

Table with 6 columns: Year (1915-1920) and Price ($1.42 to $5.27)

Some few, reasonable lines are breaking now—not so from overproduction, however, but from less demand, in certain localities and financial reasons.

But the downward trend cannot become universal until we produce more and to produce more, we must all work more.

Five, six and seven hour days will not lower prices, in fact they will elevate prices, and increasing costs mean more money for labor, which in turn earns higher prices on the things labor produces, and so on.

All of which gets us no place.

In 1914, Alfred Dacker & Cohn, makers of Society Brand Clothes for men, paid five cents for the making of a buttonhole. Today it costs thirty-seven and a half cents to make the same buttonhole. A buttonhole is a little thing—and the button hole maker contributes very little to the making of a garment, but those figures are just indicative of the increasing cost of labor as well as the increasing cost of living.

The startling phase about the whole thing is that more buttonhole makers are making less buttonholes than they did six years ago, and that in spite of the fact that the world is in need of more buttonholes than ever before.

To those who are ready at all times to blame the retailer for the prevailing high prices—think of those things.

There is no profiteering in the latter stores in Wichita Falls. Prices quoted by local merchants are no more, and in many instances, are less, than those of merchants in other cities.

You can buy here just as reasonable as you can elsewhere. We know prices are high, but they are high everywhere, and are going to stay high until all of us get down to putting in a good days work between sunrise and sunset, every working day in the year.

Then prices will come back to normal. But in the meantime, remember, you can buy here just as cheaply as you can any place in the United States.

Aged Wichita Falls Citizen Tells Amazing Story

Friends Surprised Over Results Obtained From Orgatone Treatment—Gains 13 Pounds.

"I have gained thirteen pounds since taking six bottles of Orgatone Treatment, and my health has improved so wonderfully that I can say I don't look like the same man," said H. C. Whitley, a well known retired Wichita Falls citizen, residing at 1708 Kemp Blvd., Wichita Falls, Texas.

"For three years," continued Mr. Whitley, "I suffered with stomach trouble and my health was badly run down. I never cared to eat anything and what I managed to force down caused me to suffer tortures with indigestion, bloating, palpitation of the heart, and heartburn. I got so short of breath at times I became frightened. I was so nervous I couldn't sleep good, and in fact, I could not get any rest night or day. I had awful pains across my back and that greatly alarmed me. I was badly constipated and had to take purgatives continually.

"The way Orgatone Treatment overcame my troubles is the most wonderful thing I ever heard of. Why, now, after taking six bottles, I can eat anything I want, even such things as cabbage, raw onions, and the most indigestible foods you can imagine, and everything agrees with me perfectly. And I have a ravenous appetite. The constipation has been entirely relieved and I feel like I have a brand new stomach. I am no longer nervous and I sleep like a log. The pains in my back have disappeared and my kidneys seem to be in perfect order. That tired, languid feeling has left me and I am full of life and energy now. My color has improved so much that my friends are all commenting on it. In fact, Orgatone Treatment has made a well man of me, and considering the fact that I am eighty-one years of age, I would not take any amount of money for the change that has come over me."

Orgatone is not a so-called patent or secret remedy but a new scientific treatment absolutely free from alcohol in any form and is sold in Wichita Falls by the Young and Miller Drug companies, exclusively, under the personal direction of a special Orgatone representative.—Adv.

FORT WORTH, May 31.—Declaring the proposed boxing bill before the Texas legislature will make the state the mecca for fighters and promoters and the scene of international and national bouts, Fort Worth pastor's association at a meeting this morning requested the Tarrant county legislature to vote against the measure. Some of the pastors admitted they had witnessed bouts recently and enjoyed them keenly. However, they insisted prize fight followers as a rule don't adhere always to church ideals, that the commission bill might permit boxing on Sundays and encourage improper amusements. The resolution against the boxing commission was passed without a dissenting vote.

OBITUARY

Agnes Thornberry, who died Saturday morning at the General hospital, was the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Thornberry, and was born at Thornberry, Clay county, Mo., from this city Jan. 20, 1885, being at the time of death 22 years 4 months and 8 days old. With her parents she resided for years in Andrews, Tex., where she attended school. She had been in this city since last September with her sisters and relatives. About two weeks ago she was taken ill, presumably from the bite of an insect, supposed to be a black spider. Her father and mother reached her bedside last Tuesday and were with her when the end came. She leaves her father and mother and two sisters, Miss Rebecca Thornberry and Mrs. Lory Shields, beside a number of relatives and a host of friends. She had been converted in her childhood, and was a consistent member of the Methodist church. Her sweet and cheerful disposition endeared her to all who knew her, and her untimely death is greatly mourned.

MARKETS COTTON MARKET. New Orleans Cotton. NEW ORLEANS, May 31.—Favorable private weather reports from the interior of the cotton belt and a local paper's condition of 67.4 per cent contributed to an initial decline of 8 to 15 points in the contract cotton market here today. General trading was light, however, owing to the eastern holiday and the desire to await the bureau report and after sagging to 34.85 for October in the first call, values steadied up and toward the close of the first hour October had recovered to 35 cents. The rally extended to 35.07 for October during the second hour when July sold 17 points net higher, but the market contained very quiet with trading light. There was no decided trend toward the middle of the session, when the new crop positions stood within a few points of last week's closing. The market remained quiet and practically unchanged during the last hour with price movements confined to the earlier range. Scattered evening up in advance of the bureau report practically the only business and the close was steady at a net gain of 4 points on July to a net loss of 13 to 15 points on the new crops. The market closed steady at net gains of 4 points up to a loss of 15 points.

HOUSTON, TEX., May 31.—Six weeks ago doctors at the Municipal hospital asked for volunteers for a blood transfusion operation for Mrs. J. S. Lipscomb. In bold black type the local labor organ says that, organized labor stands ready to join in the prosecution of its members guilty of violating the law during the present strike. Is organized labor both blind and deaf. With every paper carrying a story of assault, violence and intimidation against workers. On Saturday a mere boy was enticed from the Mecca Cafe by nine men who brought him to the labor temple on pretext of meeting the walking delegate of the waiters' union. In the very shadow of the labor headquarters these cowardly thugs attacked and beat him and would in all probability have killed him had not the screams of neighbors frightened them off. On every occasion where a charge has been filed for this character of violence the walking delegate of the union has been on hand with ready purse to pay a fine or bail out the culprit. If we permit this kind of thugery to stain the fair name of the city we are not good Americans. In spite of repeated daily violations of the law there have been no convictions. There is ample remedy in the criminal code of Texas if the law is enforced. The riot law providing a fine of $500 is applicable to most of the offenses that are being committed almost hourly. A more drastic law "the White Capping Law" will apply to many of the cases of intimidation. This law provides a penitentiary sentence. Wichita Falls must wipe out this black stain against its citizenship. If we cannot guaranty the humblest worker safety in the pursuit of his daily bread then a state of anarchy exists. As American citizens we must stop this thuggery and every citizen whether a member of a labor union or not who stands for government and law and order should insist that the thugs responsible for this anarchy be either jailed or run out of town. The time has come for ACTION. Assert your American manhood now and ask that the law be enforced.

FRANCE PAYS TRIBUTE MEMORIAL DAY TO AMERICAN DEAD

Noted Statesmen Participate in Memory of the Fallen

PARIS, May 31.—Striking tribute to America's fallen war heroes was paid by France in observance of Memorial day, when graves of American soldiers dead were decorated from the English channel to Switzerland and from the banks of the Rhine to the Atlantic ocean.

Over the graves of 70,000 dough boys allied military chiefs saluted the "silent army."

American Ambassador Hugh C. Wallace, speaking at the Suresnes cemetery pointed out that the thousands of little mounds dotting the ground where the ceremonies were being held are the most powerful argument presentable for universal peace.

BELIEVED AT WASHINGTON THAT INVESTIGATION HAS DESTROYED WOOD'S CHANCES

Special to The Times. WASHINGTON, May 30.—The senate special committee investigating pre-nomination expenditures of presidential candidates has already accomplished one of its principal purposes for which it was created, namely, the destruction of the Wood candidacy for the nomination.

It is well understood here that the object of the investigation was to discredit any of the candidates except Johnson, who has spent comparatively little money in his campaign—probably because he could not get it.

The investigation has brought out the fact that Johnson's managers spent less than $70,000 to date—a mere bagatelle compared with the huge sums disbursed by Wood and Lowden.

PROPERTY OWNERS ON NINTH STREET WILL HOLD MEETING

Property owners on Ninth street between Broad and Grant streets have been called to meet Tuesday night at 8 o'clock to take definite action on plans for paving that thoroughfare. The place of meeting will be announced later.

In addition to the property owners, several contractors and representatives of the traction and power companies are expected to attend. A large majority of the property owners are understood to be willing to sign up for this improvement, and Tuesday night's meeting is expected to materially further the movement.

By having an attractive parkway in the center, with the telephone and light poles, and the street paved, it is believed Ninth street can be made one of the prettiest streets in the city. To pave it for its entire length would materially relieve the present congestion on Tenth street, giving residents of the western part of the city another paved connection with the business district.

The committee urges all property owners to be present Tuesday night.

THOUSANDS PEOPLE COMING INTO WEST TEXAS

ABILENE, TEX., May 31.—Every road used to lead to Rome; but now it leads to West Texas.

The unparalleled prosperity of West Texas in 1919 whose intonation was shared by both "wets" and "drys" is bringing thousands of new people to this region, according to a representative of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, having charge of the employment service department.

"Men with families, recommending themselves as having large families and being honest, hard workers, are making application to this department for place of employment on farms, ranches and in the oil fields," he declared.

A sample of the letters received by the U. S. Employment Service of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, follows:

"I have a large family, want employment on farm all year round. We are good farmers and good cotton pickers. We are good people. Any one wanting us will make no mistake in getting us. A good cow or two will cut a big figure in getting us."

Notice
Brother Carpenters: This is to notify you to be present Tuesday night, June 1. A special meeting at the Carpenters' hall, W. J. Heffner, 17-31p.

CERTIFICATES OF HEALTH TO BE REQUIRED FROM RESTAURANT WORKERS

All persons working in restaurants and other eating places of Wichita Falls where food is served, whether union or non-union, must first be examined by a competent medical authority and secure a health certificate, Acting Mayor Walter Curlee announced Monday. The mayor's announcement is based upon a city ordinance passed by the aldermanic board last December and which requires all persons working in Wichita Falls restaurants to be examined by competent medical officials and to pay a fee of $3. A fine of not less than $5 and not more than $100 is provided for violators of the ordinance.

Acting Mayor Curlee Monday gave instructions for prompt enforcement of the ordinance.

WEST TEXAS CHAMBER OPENS AUSTIN BUREAU

STAMFORD, May 30.—The West Texas Chamber has opened its Austin Bureau, an entirely new department, which is finding steady employment during the strenuous days of the special session. The office is temporarily in charge of Manager Porter A. Whaley and W. M. Woodall, secretary of Eastland Chamber of Commerce. W. H. Wright, publicity manager will soon take charge of the office.

The consensus of opinion of the representatives of the bureau who have talked with some of the leading solons is that the governor will not submit the matter of a state income tax at this session. Most of the legislators are opposed to the proposed measure. The West Texas Chamber of Commerce, the East Texas Chamber of Commerce and a number of other local chambers of commerce have voiced their displeasure at such a piece of legislation.

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce is espousing the petition of West Texas cities, including Wichita Falls, Cisco, Sweetwater and Hamlin that municipal bonds be not subject to county and state taxes so as to facilitate their sale. Many towns in the West which have voted large amounts in bonds are unable to dispose of them readily on account of the peculiar loan situation.

The Austin Bureau is fastening its eyes upon every new phase in the boll worm investigation and will guard all the interests of the West should the present squabble terminate intimately to West Texas. West Texas will ask to be eliminated from the proposed quarantine area, since it is farthest from the infested districts than Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi and some other states. The organization is also protecting the interests of owners of patented lands in Wilbarger and Wichita county on the Red river.

BIG INCREASE IN COTTON ACREAGE IN WEST TEXAS

STAMFORD, TEX., May 31.—It is conservatively estimated by the Research Department of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce that at least 75 percent more acreage will be devoted to cotton in West Texas this year than was the case in 1919, due largely to the restriction of acreage to wheat and oats. Much more maize, kafir and feterita will also be planted.
