

COX NOMINATED ON 44TH BALLOT

fight that won the nomination for the Ohio governor, said it had been made without promises.

The struggle was exceeded in voting duration in democratic annuals only by the fight at Baltimore in 1912, which gave President Wilson his first nomination on the 46th ballot.

Fresh from an over-Sunday study of the 22 ballots taken last week, the convention went to work Monday seemingly hopelessly tied up in a triangular deadlock between Cox, McAdoo and Palmer. Leaders had no predictions to make, although they then thought that Cox with a lead of some sixty votes over McAdoo and more than 200 over Palmer on the 23rd roll call, which even proved to be just the half way point, had a decided advantage.

McAdoo and Palmer Firm Neither Palmer nor McAdoo supporters were daunted, however, and the 23rd roll call, first of the twenty-two more the convention was to go through during the day and night to follow, showed their forces relatively as strongly entrenched as ever. Firmly and again the rival forces launched their noisy demonstrations in an effort to force the issue. The roll call went through swiftly except for those interruptions. Chairman Robinson and his aides on the platform proved to be just the half way point, had a decided advantage.

This final ballot for the nomination of presidential candidate, was never finished. The delegates had passed when her name was called, and before she had time to declare her vote at the end of the roll call, the motion to suspend the rules and make the nomination unanimous had been carried.

The unofficial totals were: Cox 701-2; McAdoo 267; Palmer 1; Davis 52; Owen 34; Cobly 1; Glass 11-2; absent or not voting (including Michigan) 35.

Majority vote recorded for any candidate, did not shake them loose. Forty-Third Ballot. The 43rd roll call began in a riot of noise that made the roll audible only as the surges of sound paused to let the figures reach the clerks.

Little by little the drift to the Cox column continued, gaining momentum as it ran. "Get into the wagon," roared a man in the galleries and the Cox rosters took it up. Votes for other candidates than Cox or McAdoo brought yells to "come out of it" and "wake up."

In the New York delegation a challenge for a poll sent a dozen men scurrying to argue with the challengers. He was the center of a fire of argument and abjuration he could not resist. Finally after a move by McAdoo supporters to adjourn in a last desperate effort to stave off defeat had been roared down, the last ballot, the 44th began.

Result Forecast. The result was forecast with the first vote. Alabama swung solid to Cox. State by state, delegations who had stuck out for McAdoo with divided delegations, followed suit. The slide had set in and there was no stopping it. The convention had its mind set to nominate on that ballot. Up and up mounted the Ohio's total of votes. As it passed the 700 mark the necessary two-thirds just ahead, the tumult increased minute by minute until the last votes were heard only vaguely on the platform. Pennsylvania went over and the Colorado chairman leaped to his chair to change the vote of his state to Cox. Half a dozen other chairmen were waving for recognition to make similar announcements.

Chairman Robinson hurried to his desk with Sam Amidon of Kansas, a McAdoo chief, who he presented only after a furious assault with the gavel forced a partial hush in the cheering. Through continuous racket, Amidon moved that the rules be suspended and the nomination be made unanimous. All over the great hall men climbed on chairs to wave their arms for silence and then stand poised like college yell leaders to signal the answer to the question.

Banging Put the Question. Chairman Robinson in a final thump and the answer roared back at him with all the volume of a thousand voices in shouting the tremendous "aye" that made Governor Cox the democratic nominee.

The 44th ballot never was completed. In the great chorus of affirmation it was swept away as unnecessary. Many of the changes which would have been made had the vote carried through, were never recorded on the face of that ballot. Governor Cox received officially 702-2 votes, but they were never totaled for he was nominated by unanimous voice of the convention.

The nomination of Governor Cox means that the two great parties not only have gone into the same state for their candidates, but have picked men who for years have been associated more or less closely in the same profession. Like Senator Harding Governor Cox is a newspaperman and their home towns in Ohio are not far apart.

COX WON OUT BY HARD WORK

other candidate on the democratic ticket was defeated. In this connection it may be stated that no other governor has served three terms in the state of Ohio save Rutherford B. Hayes, who left his third term as governor to become president of the United States.

During the turmoil preceding the war when industrial unrest was so prevalent in states where large manufacturing interests were centered Governor Cox displayed his ability as a leader of his constituency in meeting the situation. This same leadership was carried on during the period of the war and has since come through the reconstruction, with all its attendant disorders, with domestic peace and without at any time resorting to force.

School Teacher. James Middleton Cox started his active career as a school teacher in District No. 1 in Wayne township, Butler county, where he had earlier attended school. His evenings were spent in the printing offices of the local publications and a few years later he was accepted as a reporter on the staff of the Cincinnati Enquirer. The next 10 years were devoted to active newspaper work in almost every capacity of that newspaper.

He is next heard of as private secretary to Congressman Paul Sorg of the Third Ohio district, which he held for his service in Washington he purchased the Dayton (Ohio) Daily News, borrowing most of the money with which to carry on the business of the paper which at the time had a very small circulation.

Mr. Cox put all his energies into making the publication a successful business venture and so well did he carry out his plans that he was soon owner also of the Springfield Daily News which today stands as one of the newspaper successes of the country.

Congressman. In 1908 he was nominated and elected to congress from the Third Ohio district and was re-elected for a second and third term. In public life Governor Cox was always regarded as a progressive and many of the laws now on the statute books of his home state which bear this progressive trend were sponsored by him both as congressman and governor.

Among these laws for which the governor assumes responsibility are: A model workman's compensation act; a child labor law that has been copied by several other states; mother's pension system; the initiative and referendum; a scientific budget; a prison farm providing health occupation for convicts; elimination of sweatshops; a blue sky law to protect Ohio investors; consolidation of useless bureaus; limits on storage of food products and to check profiteering; extension of a good roads system by main market and inter-country roads.

School men in Ohio are quoted as saying that the Ohio school code of today will live as an everlasting monument to the achievements of Governor Cox.

Governor Cox recently purchased the farm near Jacksonburg upon which he was born and is transforming it into a modern farm where he expects to spend his later years. He has a comfortable, modern suburban home at Dayton, which he designed and where he resides when not in the state capital attending to his official duties.

Governor Cox has four children, two boys and two girls. SAM AMIDON, McADOO LEADER PICTURESQUE CHARACTER. TOPEKA, KAN., July 6.—Col. Sam B. Amidon of Wichita, one of the most picturesque figures in Kansas politics. More than six feet tall, he is a striking figure in any crowd, and as he has demonstrated at San Francisco, he speaks with an eloquence that commands attention and awakens audiences on all occasions.

In Kansas politics he is known as a man who stands by his convictions and who does not allow the swing of public sentiment to sway him when he believes he is right. His reputation as a fighter has won him the respect of all factions in his state and has made him a power throughout the state.

Colonel Amidon has practiced law in Wichita for more than 25 years and is considered one of the ablest lawyers in the state. He has always been a bitter political opponent of Governor Henry J. Allen, his fellow townsman.

BUCKEYE STATE LEADER IN PRESIDENTIAL LIST. SAN FRANCISCO, July 6.—Ohio, always a doubtful and important state in national elections, has assumed added importance this year because both parties chose as their presidential nominees men from the Buckeye state.

It is the first time since 1904 that a similar thing has occurred. That year Roosevelt and Parker, both from New York, were the nominees. With Harding and Cox contending for honors in the nation, Ohio is certain to be hotly contested this fall.

The next president will be the sixth Ohioan to occupy the White House. The two candidates are alike in many ways. Cox is now governor of Ohio; Harding is lieutenant governor. Both are newspaper owners and formerly were practical newspaper men. Both have been in congress, Harding now being a member of the senate, while Cox was once in the house of representatives.

In temperament they are totally unlike. Harding has frequently been compared with William McKinley. He is of that even tempered, friendly sort that seldom makes enemies. Cox is an aggressive, active man, somewhat blunter on occasion than Harding, but able to use the arts of diplomacy or good politics.

Politically, Cox has been classed as a progressive. Harding is known as a thorough-going stand-patter. Cox lives in Dayton, O., and Harding in Marion.

CLEAN-UP C

PROGRESS MADE CLEAN-UP WEEK

Many Citizens Join in Movement and City Wagons Collecting Trash Today

A great many Wichitans devoted a considerable part of their independence day holiday to cleaning up, and while the weather has interfered somewhat with the sanitary program, it is already apparent that much progress has been made.

Wagons from the city sanitary department, as well as a number loaned by the street department, are collecting trash from all parts of the city, and this service will continue through tomorrow, by which time it is hoped to have the work ended. Some thousands of cubic yards of trash have already been hauled.

After tomorrow, an inspection of the business district will be made by city sanitary officials, and any merchants whose places are not strictly up to requirements will be prosecuted, it is announced.

Y. W. C. A. OFFERING EDUCATIONAL COURSES FOR EX-SERVICE MEN

E. J. Lang, representative of the educational department of the Y. M. C. A. in Wichita Falls in the interest of special educational features now being offered ex-service men by the "Y." The Y. M. C. A. is spending money left over from the United War Work drive conducted in the late fall of 1918 in free educational courses for ex-service men and Mr. Lang is maintaining offices at the First Christian church and will be glad to talk things over with former service men who desire to take either night school or correspondence school work.

A large variety of courses are offered ex-service men by the Y. M. C. A., educational department. Among the courses offered are the following: civil engineering, commerce, mechanics, electrical engineering, steam and power plant engineering, agricultural and rural engineering, architecture, mathematics, science and inspirational and cultural courses.

Full details regarding the free educational letter for demobilized men will be furnished by Mr. Lang at his office, First Christian church, Tenth and Travis, or by calling telephone 5205.

Word comes from the Methodist hospital at Call field to the effect that Clyde Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Taylor, 1014 Grand, is progressing rapidly toward recovery. The boy was taken to the hospital a week ago, suffering with tonsil and adenoid trouble, but a recent operation was pronounced a success and he will soon be able to return home.

JOHN E. BROWN COLLEGE REPRESENTATIVE HERE IN INTEREST OF SCHOOL

JOHN E. BROWN, Founder of College.

Dr. Franklin W. Collins, assistant dean and general field agent of the John E. Brown College of Siloam Springs, Arkansas, with his wife, are spending several days in Wichita Falls.

Dr. Collins has had an interesting career as lawyer, educator and editor, and is thoroughly attached to John E. Brown and his great school in the northwest corner of Arkansas. "Up in the Ozark country," he said, "close to the scene of the battle of the Eikhorn and of Pea Ridge, and close also to the lime-kiln where he first earned wages in Arkansas, John E. Brown, the evangelist, has founded a school which is different. It is called the 'school with a soul,' for it is absolutely the most unselfish proposition of school idealism which has ever been launched.

the carrying out of the beneficent project, he is devoting the best thought and energy of his life.

"Last year 25 boys and girls of high character and aim pursued studies in this school and paid for their tuition and board and room by working four hours each day.

"They enter without money and they leave without financial obligations. Here they learn the dignity of labor. Here they fit themselves for some real life occupation.

"How they love this school of a superb chance. How they revere its founder. One of the finest young men of Wichita is coming in the fall; others are to follow. As the mayor of Whittier, Calif., said recently, 'I am firmly convinced that you will lead large aid toward the solution of the industrial problems of America.'

"Why not, since we educate the head, the hand and the heart? The school has many staunch friends in Wichita Falls."

JAMES M. COX.

While unquestionably the sentiment of Texas democrats was favorable to the nomination of W. G. McAdoo, the selection of James M. Cox of Ohio as the democratic presidential candidate is acceptable and pleasing.

Mr. Cox is a man of wide experience in administrative affairs. He is a newspaper man who has won financial success in a business in which few succeed in a financial way. His papers, the Dayton News and the Springfield News, are representative American newspapers. He made them what they are. His success in the newspaper field alone would stamp him as a man of unusual ability. He has served in congress and is now serving his third term as governor of Ohio. He is the second man who has ever been elected governor of Ohio three times and he has carried the state when the republicans elected the remainder of the ticket.

He will compare most favorably with the republican candidate. In his home state he will, at least, have an equal chance with his republican opponent. Ohio is a pivotal state and if the democrats can win in Ohio they will stand a good chance of winning the election.

The democratic campaign starts with one of the most enthusiastic conventions in the history of the party. The morale of the party was never stronger. If the republicans win in the coming contest they will know that they have been through some fight.

THE PROHIBITION.

Neither of the two major political parties have taken a stand on the prohibition question in their natural conventions, although the democrats by decisively voting down a light wine and beer amendment to the platform committee report have come nearer to an expression on the subject than the republicans. However, there is some doubt as to whether this action voiced the real sentiment of the convention for this vote was more in the nature of support of any administration platform than anything else.

The time has not yet arrived when sentiment in either of the parties nearly enough unanimous to permit a straightforward endorsement of the prohibition amendment and a declaration for its rigid enforcement.

The democrats, by having brought the question to the floor of the convention, are perhaps in better situation than the republicans. They can at least say that the convention had a fair chance at the question which is something the republican convention did not have.

THE "IMMORTAL FORTY."

Texas "Immortal Forty" failed to be the dominating force in the San Francisco that it was at Baltimore. It won for Woodrow Wilson at Baltimore by standing firm and immovable. The same tactics at San Francisco held it to its candidate until after his defeat had been made certain.

The "Immortal Forty" has thereby lost its eminent prestige. If Mr. Cox is successful, as we believe he will be, Texas is not likely to have the leading part in his administration that it has had in the Wilson administration. And perhaps the result may be helpful to the party. A feeling was beginning to grow in Texas that some of the leaders among the "Immortal Forty" were assuming too many prerogatives for themselves. This is said in no disparagement of these fine men. They have been patriotic and unselfish and they have taken their places of leadership within the party because they have been ready to defend the administration and to fight the enemies both within and without the party. No doubt many of them would have been glad to step aside if there had been others who were ready to volunteer for the fight.

SPENDING ORGY PASSING.

From the status of affairs it would seem that the era of the spender is passing. It is a peculiar fact of the psychology following the war, the people everywhere indulged in an orgy of spending. The higher the price, the greater the demand was the rule. People who could ordinarily be found making their purchases with discretion, became the plungers and the spenders. They tried beyond an altitude little dreamed of.

During the war we were all making money, particularly the tradesman who could make his work contribute to the demands of a country in war. Not being given to thrift in the main, our nation spent money. Men who had been saving to buy liberty bonds received the war savings stamps which they had saved. As things go with such spending, there will come a let up and lightening of up money. People have begun to realize that they are not as prosperous as they thought. Reports from England are to the effect that the orgy of spending following the war has passed. In America the big drives being launched by clothing houses to unload the stocks that have been accumulated at high prices; the general tendency of all who have a large surplus in any line to let go and get in close to the bank are indications that the era of the prodigal spending is off. The day when every workman will boast of his collection of silk shirts is soon to pass away. People are finding out that there is no way by which the world can get rid of its present debt and get things to something like a normal condition, save by the practice of thrift and efficient industry.

Studying the people to discover the great mass of them who have been reasonable prosperous through all the vicissitudes of the war, the fact that people who are under the stimulation of the message of the church represent that element. The virtues of self-control and industry as spoken by that institution seem to tend toward general prosperity.

Mr. Cox is a man of wide experience in administrative affairs. He is a newspaper man who has won financial success in a business in which few succeed in a financial way. His papers, the Dayton News and the Springfield News, are representative American newspapers. He made them what they are. His success in the newspaper field alone would stamp him as a man of unusual ability. He has served in congress and is now serving his third term as governor of Ohio. He is the second man who has ever been elected governor of Ohio three times and he has carried the state when the republicans elected the remainder of the ticket.

The Sunshine to Today.
 Let me go singing down the way
 Claiming the sunshine of today.
 The future things that are to be,
 It may not be my lot to see,
 But they, when all is said and done,
 Will know the same old kindly sun.

If now the sun is overhead
 And round my feet are roses red,
 I can rejoice and claim that I
 Know all the splendor of the sky.
 No jeweller beauty shall there be
 On earth through all eternity.

Tomorrow's sun for which men pray,
 Shall be the sun which shines to-day,
 And men a thousand years from now
 Beneath the self-same skies shall bow;

This June with loveliness to see
 Is all that June shall ever be.
 So, I would walk along my way,
 Glad with the sunshine of today;
 I can be steadfast, knowing this—
 Despite the trifles that I miss,
 That future ages shall not own
 More loveliness than I have known.

Men's lives may change—in better ways
 And happier, they may spend their days,
 They may grow kinder and give more
 More thought to how their brothers live,
 But never shall the sun display
 More splendor than it does today.

More splendor than it does today.

More splendor than it does today.

More splendor than it does today.

More splendor than it does today.

More splendor than it does today.

More splendor than it does today.

More splendor than it does today.

More splendor than it does today.

More splendor than it does today.

More splendor than it does today.

More splendor than it does today.

More splendor than it does today.

More splendor than it does today.

More splendor than it does today.

More splendor than it does today.

More splendor than it does today.

More splendor than it does today.

WHY?

Are There So Many Flies?

(Copyright, 1920, by Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

After examining the rapidly with which the average house-fly propagates, this question would probably be revised to read "Why are there so few flies?"—in spite of every year and the vast quantities which are destroyed by birds and other insect-eaters.

A single fly lays four times during each summer, an average of 80 eggs each time, or 320 eggs during the season. Half of these eggs usually produce females, so that the first generation would also lay four times during the season, would produce 12,800 flies. The first eighth of these, or 1,600 females, would produce three times or 384,000 offspring; the second eighth, twice, or 384,000 and the third and fourth eighth at least once each, or 384,000 between them. There would thus be 905,120 flies as the result of the first of four batches of eggs laid by a single fly in one season. The second batch of eggs laid by the original fly would produce 777,600 during the remainder of the season, the third, 262,400 and the fourth, 131,200.

Therefore the total number of descendants of a single female fly during one summer reaches the staggering proportion of 2,080,000! A considerable number of these figures show why "Swat the fly!" is a most excellent slogan.

Side Talks

By RUTH CAMERON

HE EXPECTS TOO MUCH.

The higher cost of living is a fact. I cannot imagine that anyone in the world would deny that (except the people who write the magazine articles to prove it is all the cost of high living).

And yet there are many people who do not face this fact in any sane, logical way.

They know the fact exists, but when they are brought up against certain instances of it, they rave and fume or try to shut their eyes as if they could somehow get rid of the facts that way.

His Poor Wife!

One of the most noteworthy examples of this type is the man who expects his wife to work the miracle of running the house in approximately the same amount of money, when the cost of everything she uses in her business has risen a good deal, and up from 50 to 100 per cent.

He knows perfectly well that she cannot do it. And yet whenever she complains, he raves and scolds about her. He must have more money, instead of talking the thing over and deciding between them where they must cut down. He raves and scolds about her hard work and how little he can save and how he doesn't see what is going to become of them all. Poor man, I don't blame them for feeling that way sometimes. It is terrible to strain every nerve and find oneself not making any progress, and perhaps slipping back. But I do blame them for going on their wives as if they were to blame, when they are not.

And I do blame them for accepting the state of affairs with more or less philosophy. And I blame them for their expenditures and resenting it bitterly when it applies to those of their wives.

She is a Muscle Worker.

I know a woman whose husband gives her exactly what he gave her five years ago to run the house on.

Does she manage it? Yes—because she is a wonderful woman. She gets along somehow. She has a garden, she puts immense amounts of time and energy into making cheaper cuts of meat taste like good ones, she puts up hundreds of jars of preserves, she stints herself on spending money to the last penny, and clothes herself from rags.

Has He Changed His Brand?

And here's another thing—the brand of cigars he used to smoke has gone up 50 per cent. Has he changed his brand? Certainly not.

Has he given up his lodge? No. Does he walk to work (he might) No.

The high cost of living is putting a grievous burden upon that big class of people who are neither capitalists nor organized laborers. They are being almost unendurably crushed between the upper and nether millstones of prices in the street and wages.

But the burden becomes even more grievous if it is not fairly carried on the shoulders of all. And this means wives as well as husbands. The wife who does not want to do her share is far from an unknown quantity. The only thing to do is talk the whole matter over just as any business matter would be talked over between partners, making a budget—and then do the best that fallible human beings can in a difficult situation.

Pop was smoking with his feet up last night, and I sed, Say, pop. Say it yourself, sed pop. Meaning wat did I want, any sed, Will you get me a bicycle, pop?

Have you any deer wat bicycle's cost nowadays? sed pop. No sir, but I can't say find out, I sed and pop sed, Don't trouble yourself, I know wat they cost and they're darn expensive.

Well, O, gosh, pop, I sed, I wouldn't half believe the very most expensive, one, and pop sed, That's very considerate and thoughtful of you, but you fall down and hurt yourself quite enough as it is.

Aw, O, pop, no I don't, I sed, and pop sed, Do you mean you think you could fall down still more if you had a bicycle?

Yes sir, no sir, I sed, if I had a bicycle I bet it would make me so careful I bet I would never fall down again even wen I wasn't riding it, gosh, G, pop, think of all the reasons why a bicycle would be a great thing for me to have, I sed, and pop sed, I can't think of any of them, much less all of them, and I sed, Well if I give you 4 good reasons, pop, will you get me one?

If you give me 4 good reasons I'll get you 4, sed pop, and I sed, Well in the first place I bet think how quick I could go errands with it, and in the 2nd place, G, pop, I'd be glad to go errands instead of sorry like I am now, and I'd always be asking you and ma if you had any errands you wanted me to go, and in the 3rd place look at all the extra exercise I'd get, and in the 4th place if I had one I wouldn't get a cold any more, more about getting me one, and I sed, 4 good reasons, pop?

No, sed pop. And he kept on smoking with his feet up and I asked him to get up and get me a ball bat and then went out to see if any of the fellows was out.

RIPPLING RHYMES.

The Pelican.

Some pelicans around me sail, as I wind up my tale that I may earn a slice of kale, to buy a rubber tire. The pelican is most absurd, it has no warbling skill; it is a bonehead sort of bird that largely runs to bill. It catches fish before my door, by every artful means, instead of going to the store and buying canned sardines. It hangs around in my long, sad beach, and to and fro, I watch its valiant parades; as stilly as an ancient beau who ogles blooming maids. It thinks it is a shining star; pure rascance to spoff; but, like the chap who fix my car, it mostly runs to bills.

NEW DISTRICT COURT IS OPENED TUESDAY

Judge Martin Devotes First Day of New Court to Setting of Cases

The first session of the newly created 89th district court opened at 9 o'clock Tuesday forenoon with Judge F. A. Martin presiding. The initial day of the new court was devoted to case-settings and scores of non-jury cases will be disposed of during the present term, which will be devoted to trial of non-jury cases, it is announced.

The new court is being conducted in the office formerly occupied by County Auditor W. W. Murphy. Ben F. Allred, formerly of Grandbury, appointed Tuesday by Judge Martin as court stenographer for the 89th district court.

CONVENTION SEEKS COX'S RUNNING MATE

Secretary Daniels sent a telegram of congratulations to Governor Cox and said he was glad that "another country newspaper editor" had been honored.

Daniels wires Cox.

Secretary Daniels sent a telegram of congratulations to Governor Cox, saying: "Your record for progress, policies as congressman and governor gives assurance of a continuation of the measure of progress necessary in our national and international policies."

Mixed with the talk of the vice presidential nomination was consideration of the congressional situation. The senate presidential leaders realized so close that it probably would go with whichever party was successful in electing a president.

To give the convention managers opportunity to meet with Governor Cox and also from some of the men being mentioned for the vice presidential nomination, no attempt was made to get under way promptly, and it was arranged to dispose of some routine convention business having to do with the national committee and the next convention before proceeding to the vice presidential nomination.

Prayer was offered by the Rev. Barey of Butte, Mont.

Joseph B. Shannon of Kansas City offered a resolution to authorize state central committees to fill vacancies on the national committee. It was agreed to without opposition.

Gavin McNab of San Francisco moved a recess until 3 o'clock so the convention might deliberate further on the vice-presidential nomination. It was drowned out in a chorus of noes and Chairman Robinson ordered the call of the roll of states reminding the delegates that the convention rule limited nominating speeches for vice-presidential candidates to ten minutes and seconding speeches to five.

Alabama yielded to Tennessee and Major General L. D. Tyson was placed in nomination by Harvey H. Hannah of Nashville, Tenn.

Cox Accepts Nomination.

Chairman Robinson read to the convention a telegram from Governor Cox, accepting the nomination and expressing his appreciation of the honor.

The talk among some of the eastern leaders that if Mr. Colby stood by his determination not to accept the nomination, it would go to the west and that Governor Colby, of Montana and Victor Murdock of Kansas, chairman of the federal trade commission and a progressive republican leader during his last terms in congress, should be considered.

Richard Seely Jones of Seattle, seconded the nomination of General Tyson.

Jones, a private in the army during the world war, declared an evidence of democracy of a common soldier should be heard to second the nomination of a general officer.

After much pressure had been brought to bear on Secretary Colby to accept the vice-presidential nomination, it was said the secretary would accept "if drafted." The nomination seemed to be conceded to New York.

Mrs. D. A. McDougal of Sapulpa, Okla., also conceded the nomination of General Tyson.

"Some years ago," said Mrs. McDougal, "I drafted into the matrimonial service a son of Tennessee and he rapidly rose to the position of commander-in-chief of that service and he has never surrendered."

"But truth compels me to say," continued Mrs. McDougal, "that when I wanted to exercise the right of suffrage, I moved to the state of Oklahoma."

Governor Stewart of Montana was placed in nomination by Senator Walsh of that state.

Wilbur W. Marsh of Iowa gave his opinion that the vice-presidential nomination was an open fight with Colby, Roosevelt and Murdock featured.

Judge Moore, manager for Governor Cox, did not quote to inquirers any work received from the president, nominee but it was said by others that Mr. Cox was willing to leave the choice to the convention. Miss Alice Reynolds of Provo, Utah, seconded the nomination of Governor Stewart.

Edward L. Doherty of California was placed in nomination for the vice-presidency by Lorin A. Handley of Los Angeles.

Senator Pittman of Nevada also seconded the nomination of Governor Stewart.

Michael L. Sullivan of Salem, Mass., seconded the nomination of Mr. Doherty.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy, was placed in nomination for the vice-presidency by Timothy L. Ansbury, a former representative in congress from Ohio, who sat in convention as a District of Columbia delegate.

Mrs. Roosevelt's nomination from the District of Columbia, instead of New York state was accounted a political strategy which would meet the demands of the western delegates for a candidate not accounted a member of the Tammany forces of New York. Mr. Roosevelt has had his political difficulties with Tammany for several years.

SEVERAL INJURED STREET CAR CRASH

Car Backing to Switch Crashes Into Another—Eight Taken to Hospital

Many Wichita Falls citizens, among them a number of women and girls, were injured early this morning when two heavily-laden street cars met in a rear-end collision on Ninth street, between Baylor and Denver. Several persons were cut by flying glass, others were thrown into the street and many were bruised and hurt in the panic that followed the crash.

It was stated today at the offices of the traction company and also at the Wichita General hospital that no one had been injured dangerously. Eight persons were taken to the hospital, but were able to go to their homes later after receiving first aid treatment.

Responsibility for the accident had not been placed by company officials this morning. The accident occurred shortly after midnight. An inbound car and trailer, bringing more than 100 men and women from Lake Wichita, was stopped between Baylor and Denver streets by an outbound car that had run through the Tenth street switch.

The motorman and the inbound car began to back his car to the switch on Ninth street near the barns, and in doing so crashed into another car on the platform of the trailer were thrown into the street by the shock; the platforms of the colliding cars were badly crushed, and many men and women were struck by broken glass from the car windows. Lights were extinguished in the two cars, and a general rush to reach the street followed, several persons being bruised and hurt.

According to T. A. Bradley, who was in the car to which the trailer was attached, members of the car crew and masculine passengers showed unusual coolness in checking the panic and in caring for the injured. A hurry call for ambulances brought immediate response, and men and women most seriously hurt were taken at once to the general hospital.

The heavy rains in the night and the fact that all lights in the city had been extinguished for several hours, made the work difficult; but only a comparatively short time passed before the injured were receiving medical attention and street car traffic had been resumed.

Among those who were treated at the hospital and in homes near the scene of the accident were H. G. Bennett, Walter Hagenstein, E. Parker, Abe Rothblatt, Peggy Smith, Dorothy Kosenberg, A. Males, Sophia Sibpson, W. T. Follis and E. B. Kitchen.

OIL TANK BURNS ON THE A. WILLIS LEASE

Lightning last night struck a storage tank on the Texas Pipe Line company on the A. Willis lease near Burk Burnett and the oil was still burning at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Oil tank workers rushed to the scene immediately upon the outbreak of the fire and prompt action on their part saved other storage tanks in the immediate vicinity.

It was announced at noon Tuesday by officials of the Texas Pipe Line company that the loss was heavy although actual figures were not available until later in the afternoon. Officials of the company expressed great satisfaction with the work of its employees in successfully fighting the flames back, thereby saving other tanks in the neighborhood.

A heavy cloud of smoke from the flaming oil gathered over the northern horizon early Tuesday and floated over Wichita Falls.

Oil Tank Unroofed.

The entire roof of a tank containing 30,000 barrels of kerosene at the North Wichita plant of the Lone Star Refining Company was torn off in strips by the violent wind. To guard against any possibility of a disastrous fire, officials of the company at once ordered the kerosene drawn from the tank, and a crew of carpenters was rushed to the plant today to repair the damage.

$60,000 FIRE LOSS LONE STAR PLANT

Pump-House With 17 Oil Pumps Destroyed Monday and Some Oil Burned

Fire that sent dense clouds of smoke drifting over Wichita Falls for hours destroyed a new pump house, equipped with 17 oil pumps, and caused a property loss of $60,000 Monday afternoon at the plant of the Lone Star Oil and Refining company, near the M. K. & T. tracks in North Wichita. The loss, however, is covered by insurance of more than $500,000, and the company carries, in addition, a profits insurance that will protect against any loss that might result from the leasing of production.

Frank B. Wilcox, vice president and general manager, stated today that arrangements have been completed for the Lone Star company to lease and operate two other refineries that are now idle, and that the plant probably will not lose more than three days of real operation despite the fire. New pumps already have been obtained, and the work of installing them in a new pump house will be rushed immediately.

The fire Monday started from spontaneous combustion in a sewer through which hot water was being drawn from stills. The blaze spread over the ground to the pump house, and went beyond control as one pump after another was reached by the flames. Hard work by employees aided materially in protecting other buildings of the $1,000,000 plant, and kept the flames from spreading to six 1,200-barrel run-down tanks filled with gasoline that were only about 150 feet from the burning pump house.

SEVERAL SEEK VICE PRESIDENCY BERTH

By L. C. MARTIN (United Press Staff Correspondent)

SAN FRANCISCO, July 6.—The elimination contest for the vice presidential nomination which the democratic convention took up at noon today promised to be brief.

Governor Cox's supporters went out to get the second place on the ticket for Edwin T. Meredith, secretary of agriculture. Cox, it is said, personally prefers Meredith as his running mate to any other democrat who has been mentioned.

The claims of other deserving democrats are due to be presented forcibly to the convention, however. They include Franklin D. Roosevelt, of New York, assistant secretary of the navy, and Governor Smith of New York. New York feels it has "something coming" for the 70 votes it handed Cox and kept on handing him when his fortune looked poor.

Joseph E. Davies of Wisconsin is one of the most active aspirants. Davies made an unsuccessful effort to get into the senate, being defeated by Senator Lenroot, a republican, in the fact of a personal appeal from President Wilson to the voters to elect Davies.

The two Walshes, Senator Walsh of Massachusetts and Senator Thomas Walsh of Montana, have both been spoken of favorably in connection with the vice presidency. Then there is General L. D. Tyson, whose platform includes a ban on sectionalism.

Vice President Marshall probably could have the nomination if he wanted it, convention leaders said. Marshall, however, has publicly stated that after two terms he is "fed up" on the senate, over which the vice president presides, and his friends said he would make no effort to get the nomination.

Former Senator J. Hamilton Lewis of Illinois believes he should be chosen, while Secretary of State Colby, James W. Gerard and others are more or less in the race.

Governor Stewart of Montana also has been suggested.

EIGHT YEAR OLD GIRL DROWNED TODAY

Margery Gregory Loses Life While Wading in River at Burnett Street Bridge.

Margery Gregory, 8 years old, was drowned in the Wichita river early this afternoon near the end of the West Burnett street bridge. The child had been wading in the river with several little girl companions when she slipped into a washout in the river bed made by last night's storm. She was unable to swim, and drowned before her frightened playmates could bring any grown people to the scene.

The body was found more than an hour later by Pardee von Hagen, after diving into the river repeatedly. Ralph Hoshack and several other police officers brought the body to the surface with a net, and an unsuccessful attempt was made to revive the child by the use of a pulmonary from Hines undertaking establishment.

It is understood the little girl's father is an employee of the People's oil company, and that the family lives across the river in the Scotland addition.

ANTI-REDS CAUSE LOSS TO BOLSHEVIK

LONDON, July 6.—The British war office today gave out a message, the source of which was withheld, saying that the cavalry of General Wrangel, the anti-Bolshevik commander in southern Russia, had encircled a Bolshevik cavalry corps of eighteen regiments on which the Wrangel forces concentrated a fire from armored trains and airplanes.

The message declares only 150 of the Bolsheviks escaped, 1,500 prisoners being taken, and the battlefield left covered with dead. In addition forty guns were captured.

The message adds that a second Bolshevik cavalry corps, with its staff, also was captured by Wrangel's army.

DAYTON PLANS TO HONOR GOV. COX

DAYTON, OHIO, July 6.—During the morning, meetings were held by officials of the Dayton Chamber of Commerce who let it become known they were planning a huge jollification meeting tonight when the city of Dayton will extend congratulations to Governor Cox.

When the governor arrived at his newspaper office he was presented with resolutions of congratulations from the union printers working on the paper. The resolution pledged united support and continued:

"We recognized the fact that you have come from the ranks of the workers and therefore are in every way able to understand the needs and requirements of the man who toils."

In the composing room congratulations were extended by the printers following their noon hour. Other employees of the News extended formal congratulations through an editorial appearing in today's issue.

Before leaving for home after the convention adjourned early this morning, the governor shook hands with each employe about the plant.

JULY ISSUE BETTER CITY REAL HUMMER

Magazine of Twelve Pages Tell of Information And Inspection

The July issue of "The Better City" official monthly publication of the Wichita Falls chamber of commerce, which has just come from the printers is a real Wichita Falls magazine in 12 pages. Each page is brimful of very interesting information.

Among the articles is a review of the work of the chamber of commerce for the first six months of the year, a story on the Shrine Temple, a student's view of the city's future, a tribute by the editor of the Texas School Journal to the support given by Wichita Falls citizens to the public schools, an article on the block organizations, a story dealing with the new jobbing, manufacturing and retail concerns established here since the first of the year, an article dealing with the employment of George E. Kessler, the city planning expert, the 1920 census, railroad improvements, oil men and oil companies and other matters of interest about Wichita Falls.

At the Majestic. The moving picture bill at the Majestic on Monday and Tuesday of this week is attracting a great deal of attention in as much as the feature picture is a five reel unit of the Wichita Falls annual round-up. Those who witnessed the real events need no introduction to the picture or to the scenes which will be shown, and the large crowds which attended the initial performances on Monday indicated that at least a few wished to review again the daring stunts and hairbreadth escapes of the performers while at the same time those who were not fortunate enough to be spectators of the actual scenes are going in large numbers to see the "home talent" play. The pictures are really fine, all the scenes are lively and full of interest, the filming was clear cut and some excellent views were obtained of the most thrilling stunts. In addition to the round-up pictures there is a reel of Literary Digest topics, a Bray Pictograph and a cartoon comedy.

WICHITA GOLF CLUB FOURTH OF JULY FETE

The Wichita Golf club was host to about 200 members and guests Monday afternoon and evening at a Fourth of July tournament and buffet supper. Putting and approaching contests on the golf course for the ladies, a flag contest for the men, swimming contests for the boys and girls, and impromptu tennis matches, with fireworks in the evening, were big features of the entertainment provided by the club. In addition to the buffet supper served on the lawn at 6:30.

LIGHT LANIER BEATS EDDIE LEWIS IN 10 ROUND GO AT C. A. C.

Wichita fight fans who braved the sweltering heat of last night to take in the 10-round fracas between Light Lanier of Lawton and Eddie Lewis of Fort Worth at the Camel A. C. saw the Lawton whirlwind outpoint Lewis in the majority of the rounds and bring home the bacon.

Lewis won only one round decisively and had a shade the better of the argument in the final session; the rest either went to Lanier or were draws. Lanier did not use the same tactics that he has displayed in his other matches here. He did not tear into his opponent and try to beat him up in the earlier rounds, but took his time and watched his blows.

ELECTRA DEFEATS FORT WORTH IN SNAPPY GAME

ELECTRA, July 5.—The Electra team of the Twilight League defeated Fort Worth here today 6 to 3 before a large holiday crowd, making the second defeat in as many days and forcing by the Panther City outfit at the hands of the local team.

Table with columns: AB, R, BH, PO, A, E. Rows for Schamafert, Lemon, Brady, Scott, Nik, Sylvester, May, Henley, Ray, Totten.

Farmer Ray twirled good ball for the winners and was backed up in great style by pitchers, Brady, the former Bucknell giant, who has been burning up the league since he donned an Electra uniform, was the bright spot in the pitching.

Sport Shots By Paul W. Larkin

Barney Burch lost a tough one. The Spudders should have broken it up for him in the sixth inning but Wachtal had a little something on them. They filled the bags on three successive batters before a man was retired, but could push only one man across.

Walter Salm rushed Zinn into the breach with a club this round, but Wachtal has all the respect in the world for Zinn and his budgeon and he gave him four wide ones on purpose. It was a wise move as the Panther twirler got Grubb on strikes and forced Kitchens to hit to the infield.

The crowd in the air dome was pulling hard for Eberhardt to get over with a no hit game and a groan went up when Johns spoiled his record, the fifth with a scratch hit through Tanner. Hoffman put a terrible crimp in Eby's aspirations in the next frame however. There was nothing scratchy about his drive over the right field barrier.

The Panther City scribes maintain that if it were not for Hoffman we would have seen a classic yesterday. With all due respect to Danny Clark, we are inclined to agree with them. What "Dutch" can't do with a glove and a bat isn't worth doing. He's the cream of the Morris loop. He cut the sure looking hits yesterday for Wachtal.

Another Texas leaguer has broken into the hall of fame. Little, a Houston rookie, turned in his best game yesterday when he sent the Pirates back to the bench without a hit or a run for nine innings.

There's going to be some baseball here when the Spudders return next Sunday. The complexion of the circuit is very apt to undergo some pleasing changes. The Gassers will furnish the opposition for three days and then the Pirates will make their debut. It is possible that the Panthers will play six games here in their three-day stay. The Spudders have three postponed games with them that have not been played off and if Walter Salm says the word, they will be played. If not, they will be played by the fans who will have their fill of bargain bills.

We wonder if the Bears are going to duplicate their feat of knocking all their opponents six high at the get away and then what "Dutch" can't do with a present gait, the club that beats them will have to be the club that cops.

One baseball manager is responsible for the statement that the club that has the best record in the league is the one that has the best record in the league. There's more truth than poetry in that statement.

Manager Edwards is doing all in his power to stage his bouts for the next two months at Athletic Park. We hope he is successful because this is a better place on this mortal coil summer nights than the C. A. C. we haven't discovered it.

In a fast and snappy game of practice Pony Polo Sunday afternoon, between members of the Wichita Falls Polo club, the Blues won from the Whites by a score of 5 to 3.

The first period started off with a dash and Robbins for the White team, with several long drives made a goal and without any delay McDowell for the White team followed up with another goal. The Blue team braced up and after a hard fight came back with Paskins making a goal.

The second period was hard fought from the jump off, but the Blues were playing the stronger game. Jennings, Napier and Dr. Fletcher each scored for the Blue team and Wilfong was able to drive a long goal for the White team. The second period ended with the score standing 4 to 2 in favor of the Whites.

The third period was opened by the fast, spectacular play of the White team in put over the necessary goals to even up the score but the defense of the Blue team was great and the smashing offense of the White team was broken in the last minute of the play the Blue team was able to advance the ball toward the White goal and Jennings scored again for the Whites.

The fourth period was hard fought by both teams, neither scoring, giving the game to the Blues by a score of 5 to 3.

Unusual interest is being taken by the Wichita Falls people, in these practice games, many automobiles lining the sides of the Polo field.

The lineup was as follows: White Team No. 1. Gardner Paskins No. 2. Robbins Jennings No. 3. McDowell Dr. Fletcher No. 4. Wilfong

The SPORTLIGHT By Grandland Rice

No. this isn't a declination of "Babe" Ruth. "Babe" is the Colossus of Swat, not its Olympian dweller in the way of an average.

It all goes back to a matter of nine years ago. Nine years ago Ty Cobb set a season's output that was supposed to be an enduring record. That season he batted .420 and in the course thereof delivered 254 base hits—the greatest number ever gathered in a major league year.

Now, only a limited few ever pass the 200 mark. Tris Speaker and Joe Jackson have the best year but even these two have found it a rasping job. So to go beyond 200 and climb to within two hits of 250 is an accomplishment of more than zephyry note.

Cobb's 248 hits may not be enduring after all. Very likely they will be for this generation at least—but there is a challenger out upon the trail. We refer to none other than George Sisler, Michigan's contribution to the galaxy of St. Louis and the depression of all rival pitchers.

Sisler made his 100th base hit when the St. Louis club was playing its 55th ball game. This meant that Sisler still had 96 games left in which to break Cobb's total.

It also meant that if he continued to hit through the remainder of the season as he had through April, May and June, he would break this total. One hundred hits for 55 games, or an average of 1.818 hits per game, or around 270 hits for 154 games. Sisler could fall slightly away from his first 55 games and still pass Cobb's amazing total.

Unless the St. Louis star skids into a heavy slump, he will undoubtedly be the new American League leader. Speaker and Jackson have been hanging on grimly, but neither up to July 1 was able to keep pace with the Brownie premier.

After you reach 400 it is no easy matter to maintain this average. But Sisler had day after day where he contributed two and three hits, rarely falling down to one lone blow.

Most of his hits have been of the whistling variety, hit with great speed through the infield—entirely too fast for even the most alert shortstop or second baseman to knock down.

Sisler, in addition to a fine swing and a keen eye, has remarkable speed. He is as fast as Cobb in Ty's best days. The fact that he has been up above 350 through several campaigns, shows that this season's mark is no part of a fluke. Cobb had been in the big league six years before he gathered those 248 hits and reached his highest peak. A year later he dropped to .410; 1911 and 1912 were his two finest seasons, the only two years he ever crossed 400.

But Sisler, with two such men as Speaker and Jackson, can't afford to do any skidding. These are the same pair who gave Cobb his hardest battles. Jackson finished only a few hits behind Cobb when the latter went beyond 400, while Speaker was the only one to stop the Georgia's long run.

Neither is a fledgling, but they can both crash the old apple, in the classic dictation of Signor Ping Pizzola.

If Sisler and Hornsby both come through, St. Louis will be the first city on record to harbor the two leading hitters of the major leagues. Detroit and Cleveland have held the honor in the American League for the last thirteen years, while Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Brooklyn and Cincinnati have shared the fame of Wagner, Zimmerman, Magee, Daubert and Roush.

Hornsby is still holding his field at bay, but he also has plenty of competition. The next move is for Sir Thomas Lipton to report the Shamrock as being in the pink of condition. So far we have seen remarkably few pink Shamrocks in our wandering.

Senator Harding is pictured as being of the calm, untroubled type. Does this apply to his third stroke in a bunker or the occasion of his fourth putt? An untroubled player who has just taken 9 on some hole is odd enough to be awarded high honors.

Between her football team and her crew Syracuse can see no reason to be classed second to any Eastern college sport. This university sent forth representatives that deserve a tidy bit of credit. To wit: Pittsburg and Colgate at foot and Cornell and the Navy on the water is not the easiest assignment that one can draw when assignments are being handed out.

And just a year ago it was still a matter of some doubt as to whether Dempsey could spot Willard sixty pounds and get by. The bulk of this doubt was removed twenty-four hours later.

and in the sixth and seventh fought the champion so furiously that it began to look as if there were a possibility of scoring a knockout.

In the ninth, with the fight apparently won, White rushed madly from his corner, Leonard, coming out slowly suddenly stepped forward like a flash, and shot a left hook to the peak of White's chin. The challenger's legs flew up from under him as if he had touched an electric wire, but instead of taking a count of nine in order to rest, White leaped to his feet only to be floored for the second time. How many times he was knocked down was a question in dispute today as the champion landed so swiftly with six inch punches that it was almost impossible to keep track of them. Ringsiders agreed that White went down five times.

White declared today that he could have claimed the championship on a foul in the fifth round when Leonard's seconds went to his aid in pushing him back into the ring. This is not allowed, but White asserted that he had no desire to claim any fouls and wanted to win by a knockout if possible.

It was the first time White had ever been knocked out and he has been engaged in 145 fights. Leonard plans to leave for New York today.

The champion declared he was ready to accept any matches offered. He bore no marks of the bitterly fought battle except a cut lip. White's face, however, was badly swollen from the blows he received in the final round.

White had been growing stronger as the bout progressed, while Leonard apparently was becoming tired and feeling the effects of White's vicious left hooks. In the fifth round the challenger knocked Leonard into the ropes and half way out of the ring.

DIAMOND STICK PIN WON BY GALLAGHER IN GUN CLUB SHOOT

Shooting in the form that won him fame in the land of "The Riders of the Purple Sage," W. F. Gallagher, field captain of the club, romped under the wire a winner in the extra heat with 25 straight, spinning the aid of any handicap at all. His scores for the four events were 25, 23, 23 and 24, making a total of 94, which with the aid of his allotted handicap, got him in a tie with seven other members of the club, with the results mentioned above.

Will Daniel and Major Schutt, U. S. A. V. C. and D. S. O., were tied for the high scratch honors of the day, each breaking 95 of the 100 targets shot at. Secretary Nabb had the best chance to win this honor when at the end of 75 targets he was but one down. The strain of shooting and selling adults proved too much for him and he dropped five in the last event.

There were prizes for everybody, and the winners in the four events had their choice of the prizes contributed by the merchants of the city. Four squads of shooters were at the firing line, and with both traps in use the events were run off in quick time.

The scores of the day follow:

Table with columns: Name, Broke, Hdcp, Ttl off. Rows for Will Daniel, A. P. Dorris, A. P. King, W. J. Gibbs, P. M. Armstrong, Maj. R. K. Schutt, W. F. Gallagher, J. L. Nabb, Paul Adams, E. E. Hardin, F. P. Williams, Phil Greenberg, Phil Miller, E. J. Kelech, C. J. Pate, S. F. Holmes, H. Kooker, L. H. Little, Howard.

Actual high score for the day went to Phil Miller, professional representative of the Hercules Powder Co., of Dallas, Texas, who broke 95 of the 100 targets, after missing two in the first event.

Howard, of Fort Worth, another visitor, broke 96 of the 100.

HAMPSONSHIP OF PANHANDLE GOES TO VERNON BEARCATS

Before a large holiday crowd at Athletic park yesterday afternoon the Vernon Bearcats won a hard fought battle from the Quanah Indians 7 to 6. The victory gave Vernon the championship of the Panhandle as both teams had previously won three games.

PASKINS AND COUPER WIN PRINCIPAL EVENTS AT GOLF TOURNAMENT

Two horrible calamities featured the progress yesterday of a series of golf tournaments staged by the Wichita Falls Golf club in celebration of the Fourth. Calamity No. 1 occurred when Judge H. F. Weldon showed such poor judgment as to win third prize in a flag contest, medal play under handicap, and Calamity No. 2 was the breaking of T. P. Adams' heart when Fred Couper, secretary of the club, posed him out for first honors in the men's approaching contest. The Judge showed miserable judgment in view of the fact that his prize consisted of a golf hat, whereas it is well known that "the court" when indulging in golf always wears what he calls his "little, old fool cap of many colors," for which he paid 25 cents almost two years ago.

T. P. Adams was accused of pocketing 50 pounds of horseshoes in his pocket when he dropped an approach shot within three feet of the flag from 100 yards away—and he bloated to his heart's content. And then Fred Couper, the last man to play in the contest, gently oozed a maulie shot two feet inside of Adams' effort, thereby collecting six golf balls that T. P. already had mentally stowed away in the pocket of his bag.

John C. Paskins annexed the men's flag contest. With an allowance of 160 strokes, his final shot rested on the nineteenth green. Tommy Cochran, playing at scratch, planted his flag a few feet off the edge of the green, and Judge Weldon grabbed third place with a final shot that stopped just short of the creek that guards the same hole.

The results of the other contests follow: Putting contest (ladies): Mrs. H. F. Weldon, first; Mrs. W. W. Bilk, second.

Approaching contest (ladies): Mrs. John C. Paskins, first; Mrs. Fred T. Couper, second; Mrs. H. F. Weldon, third.

Approaching contest (men): Fred T. Couper, first; T. P. Adams, second; Frank Collier, third.

Swimming contest (boys over 12): John Ray Duke, first; Raymond Smith, second.

Swimming contest (boys under 12): Albert Cotton, first; Edward Smith, second; Fred T. Couper, Jr., third.

Swimming contest (girls over 12): Elizabeth Weldon, first; Mary Francis Collier, second; Katherine Marcus, third.

BLUES DEFEAT WHITES IN FAST POLO GAME

In a fast and snappy game of practice Pony Polo Sunday afternoon, between members of the Wichita Falls Polo club, the Blues won from the Whites by a score of 5 to 3.

The first period started off with a dash and Robbins for the White team, with several long drives made a goal and without any delay McDowell for the White team followed up with another goal. The Blue team braced up and after a hard fight came back with Paskins making a goal.

The second period was hard fought from the jump off, but the Blues were playing the stronger game. Jennings, Napier and Dr. Fletcher each scored for the Blue team and Wilfong was able to drive a long goal for the White team. The second period ended with the score standing 4 to 2 in favor of the Whites.

The third period was opened by the fast, spectacular play of the White team in put over the necessary goals to even up the score but the defense of the Blue team was great and the smashing offense of the White team was broken in the last minute of the play the Blue team was able to advance the ball toward the White goal and Jennings scored again for the Whites.

The fourth period was hard fought by both teams, neither scoring, giving the game to the Blues by a score of 5 to 3.

Unusual interest is being taken by the Wichita Falls people, in these practice games, many automobiles lining the sides of the Polo field.

CARELESSNESS COSTS WHITE LIGHTWEIGHT BOXING CHAMPIONSHIP

BENTON HARBOR, MICH., July 6.—Chandler White of Chicago, six times contender for the world's lightweight boxing championship, realized today that he had lost his greatest opportunity to win the title through sheer carelessness.

Fighting the best battle of his career, the Chicago lightweight yesterday afternoon completely outpointed Benny Leonard, the champion, in five of the first eight rounds of the championship match, only to be knocked out in the ninth when he rushed out of his corner with his guard down and gave Leonard the opening he had been seeking.

White had been growing stronger as the bout progressed, while Leonard apparently was becoming tired and feeling the effects of White's vicious left hooks. In the fifth round the challenger knocked Leonard into the ropes and half way out of the ring.

RAIN, WIND AND ELECTRICAL STORM CAUSES DAMAGE; ADDS EXCITEMENT TO CELEBRATION

A house was unroofed, plate glass windows blown in, an oil tank set on fire, trees blown down, and thousands of Fourth of July picnickers drenched in a heavy rain, wind and electrical storm that swept over Wichita Falls at about 9:30 o'clock Monday night. During the storm one street car crashed into another on Ninth street between Denver and Baylor streets and several persons were severely cut with flying glass. In the downtown district the flood water swamped the storm sewers and a number of basements were flooded.

Thousands of Fourth of July merry-makers were caught by the storm at Lake Wichita. All could not find shelter and many were drenched. During the storm lightning played on the buildings and fences at the lake grounds giving a display of fireworks of a kind that was not on the program. The heavy rain made the highways to the lake muddy, slippery and almost impassable. Scores of cars stalled in the road and all through the night and early morning hours automobiles puffed and slipped and strained along the road. Many did not reach the city until after four o'clock this morning.

Residence Unroofed.
At 1916 Buchanan avenue in Floral Heights, the residence of C. H. Dunington was unroofed by the wind. There were only two persons in the house at the time and both escaped unhurt. The furniture and other contents of the house were badly damaged by the drenching.

Ambulance that responded to the call from the street car accident had difficulty in getting the injured to the hospital on account of the muddy and slippery streets. In all parts of the city shade trees were broken and some unroofed. A number of chimneys were also blown down.

Plate Glass Blown In.
Many plate glass windows in the business district were blown in. Several upper window panes that were insecurely fastened in the Perkins-Timberlake building were broken in and the glass scattered over the adjoining street.

At the Faust Cafeteria, 507 Eighth street, a large front window was completely shattered by the force of the wind and a perfect shower of glass was scattered over the sidewalk and street. Several patrons were in the place at the time but fortunately no one was injured.

At the Camel Athletic Club during the Lanier-Lewis bout, a window fronting on Tenth street blew in with a resounding crash and for a moment attracted more attention than did the battle in the ring.

Reports from a number of other sources have been received to the effect that the high wind had caused damage of more or less serious consequence, but those have not been verified.

Basement Flooded.
There's a wet plank in the platform of the Chamber of Commerce and the Open Shop association today; several wet planks—in fact, every plank in the flooring is wet.

The storm of last night created several swimming pools in the basement of the Kemp & Kell building, where the chamber and the association have offices. Hubert Harrison, secretary of the chamber; John Gould, publicity manager, and Col. E. E. Kelly, secretary of the open shop association, were considering this morning the profit that might be derived from operating a ferry line throughout the basement. Gould and Kelly, both having served in the army, also thought it might be practicable to construct a pontoon bridge for temporary use.

J. W. Chatham, manager of the traffic bureau, was not interested in the discussion; via the medium of a friendly sand bar thrown up by the waves he had been able to reach his desk.

Miss Steinfeld, being located on the mainland, also was little affected by the heavy surf. A trout brook merrily bubbled around the office of the Welfare Council.

Reports of two more residences being unroofed by the storm were reported at noon. One was the residence of C. B. Hudson on Ninth street and the other the residence of V. P. Buchanan. A garage was also unroofed in the same neighborhood. No one was injured.

HAMSTEAD BENTLEY DELIGHTS PATRONS OF NEW OLYMPIC THEATER

Hampstead Bentley, "southland's sweetest tenor," late of the Aly G. Field's greater minstrel, scored one of the biggest hits at the Olympic Monday night that has ever been accorded a singer in any of Wichita's play houses. Bentley is without doubt in a class alone as an entertainer in popular songs, and his opening last night to judge from the applause accorded each song, he has fairly sung himself into the hearts of local theater goers. He looks and listens the artist and the easy grace and expression he uses in a song program ranging from a classical selection to the latest popular song, show all the ear marks of "Big Time." He is the first to introduce here the late Broadway song hits illustrated in motion pictures which proved a delightful novelty. He carries his own pianist and the two offer a song program that is decidedly worth while. He comes to the Olympic for a week's engagement direct from a tour of the largest picture houses of the east, being handled through a southern agency.

GATESVILLE MAN FEARS BODY FOUND BROTHER'S

Was the badly mutilated body of a man found one cold morning last December beside the Burk Burnett-Wagoner City road that of H. L. Connell? This is a question that Wichita county officers are attempting to solve. While at Gatesville last week Probation Officer Morgan met A. C. Connell, brother of H. L. Connell, who told the probation officer that his brother had been missing from Gatesville since last September and that no word had been received either from him or his wife both of whom are known to have come to Burk Burnett last fall. Connell read newspaper accounts of the discovery of a body beside the Burk Burnett highway and believes that the body was that of his brother.

In case the body was that of the Gatesville man, county officers are baffled to know what became of Connell's wife who also came here with Connell and has not been heard from since.

The body of a man, apparently 30 years old and attired in the usual clothing of an oil field worker, was discovered last December a mile or two out from Burk Burnett toward Newton. The body was found hidden in some tall weeds and the head was badly crushed. It is understood that a coroner's inquest declared that the man met death at the hands of highwaymen. The body was held by a Burk Burnett undertaking establishment for several days and, it is understood, was forwarded to a distant city for burial.

While the body was identified as that of another person, Connell believes that the identification might have been wrong due to the mutilated condition of the body. Connell also doubts that his brother was the victim of bandits believing that "personal enemies" are responsible for the murder.

An extended investigation of the disappearance of the Gatesville man is being made and interesting developments are expected.

A WORD TO THE PUBLIC

Owing to the fact that the general increase in all commodities that have gone into the manufacture of our product, ICE, is costing us more money from time to time, such as fuel, ammonia, lubricating oil, labor, feed for our teams, blacksmithing work, and everything that goes into the cost of manufacture, has increased to a greater extent than our past increases on ice to the general public, we are going to ask the public to bear with us in a small increase in ice, which will be effective on Tuesday, July 6th.

We wish, however, the public to know we are asking no more for ice in Wichita Falls; in fact, have not been asking as much as other cities of the same size and larger than Wichita Falls. For instance, Dallas has just increased its price on retail ice to 50c per hundred; Gainesville has been getting 50c per hundred for the past year; Amarillo gets 50c per hundred for ice, and we find, on close investigation, that a very large number of the smaller towns are getting even up to $1.00 a hundred.

We want the public to understand we are raising the price from a matter of necessity, for the reason our cost of doing business is enormous, and the present returns on our investment are inadequate.

We have gone to great expense this season in the purchase of additional equipment, such as a large fleet of new trucks, new wagons, additional teams and harness, to insure our customers the best of service, and we believe there is no city of the same size in the state of Texas that has rendered and is rendering the high class service which we are giving the public. All this is done at a great expense in the interest of the kind of service that you would like to have and that we are trying to give you.

Beauty Secrets for Women

A woman's fondest hope is to stay young. She often resorts to paints, powders and cosmetics to hide her years. Some women pay large sums to so-called "Beauty Doctors" in the belief that money will buy youth. Others wear girlish dresses, thinking they can fool the world about their age. But no one is deceived. The more you try to hide your age, the more it shows.

There is but one thing that holds old age back, and that is health. Sickness and weakness bring old age early in life. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a building-up medicine for women. It makes them healthy and strong when they suffer from women's troubles. It keeps them looking young by keeping them well. It is a woman's tonic for the frail, the delicate and those who are nervous, dizzy and who have backache and dragging down pains. Some women took it years ago and have felt young and well ever since. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is altogether vegetable and without a particle of alcohol. It is safe to take. Try it now. In tablet or liquid form at all druggists, or send 10c for trial package of the tablets to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y.

Be Young In Body, Mind and Looks Despite Your Years

How often you have wished that you could indulge in the strenuous exercise of out door sports with the vigor and enthusiasm of youth! But the end of the week finds you all in — you are tired, listless and lack the energy to go out for a vigorous walk or a round of the links—or any other exercise that requires much physical exertion. Many a man, even in his middle forties, has a vague feeling that he is "getting old"—and right at a time when he should be at his very best physically.

Thousands—yes millions—of people find themselves in this condition early in life. And there is no excuse for it. You can check that tendency to grow old. You can carry your youth with its joys and enthusiasm into your 70's and 80's. But you must give Nature all the help you can. The best assistance you can find—assistance of a sound, constructive character—is in the use of

N. O. MONROE REAL ESTATE. An Established Realty Firm. A Sacrifice. A seven-room plastered house with five rooms on the first floor and two above. Has hardwood floors, good servant house, garage and solid driveway. This place is situated on a corner lot on one of the best residential streets in town and can be bought for $10,000. If in the market for a home of this size we would appreciate the opportunity of showing you this property.

Ninth Street. A south front consisting of five nice sized rooms, full width and extra deep bath. This place can be bought if desired furnished for $7500. With no exceptions we consider this one of the best buys to be had in Wichita Falls.

Filmora Street. An east front practically new house consisting of five nice sized rooms, completely furnished throughout, $8,000. For anyone desiring a nice furnished house of this size this property is an exceptionally good buy.

Grace Street. An east front consisting of five nice sized rooms and garage, $8500. For anyone desiring a nice little house at less money than you can find for rent a house you should see this place.

Tenth Street. A south front consisting of five nice sized rooms, garage and driveway. This one is a real find. It can be handled with very easy terms.

Tenth Street. On a corner lot, south front with five rooms, double bath, $12,000. This is positively one of the best buys on this street and if in the market for a home on one of the best residential streets in the city we only ask that you allow us to show you this property with very easy terms.

Near the High School. Six extra nice sized rooms, besides a kitchen, dining room, a full width and full depth lot, good garage, $10,000. For anyone desiring a New York City home of this size and price you should see this property and if desired it can be handled with very easy terms.

Fifteenth Street. A nice five-room house with all modern conveniences and in the best of condition throughout, $7,000. This place is an exceptionally good buy for this money.

Rooming House. If in the market for a good buy in a rooming house at what it is worth, we have several that are priced right, and have some with leases at a much more reasonable price than most of the leases in the city at this time.

If in the above you do not see the home or the investment that you desire we would appreciate a call from you, as we believe that if we have all of the best buys to be had in the city at all times in the real estate line.

"BAD MEN" LAND IN JAIL AFTER DEMONSTRATION

BURKBURNETT, July 5.—The gas company lost its water station by fire Sunday afternoon in which the entire pumping machinery and house was destroyed. The plant was valued at $1,000. The fire was caused by a waste oil becoming ignited. One of the employees was slightly burned trying to shut off the engine and save the property. No insurance is reported.

Late Sunday afternoon a party of men, reportedly have been from New town and vicinity, attempted to play the "wild man from Bradley's Corner" and dashed hither and thither in the business part of Burkburnett, threatening to "shoot up the town and paint it red." But the only real damage was a fight with officer Layne, during which the bad man got his pistol and backing him to the wall shot at him twice but missed. Each time, then using the gun as a club struck the officer making ugly wounds. In the excitement, the Chief of Police Allen came to his rescue and marched the drunken parties to the jail. Later on as the spirit of the Fourth broke out in other sections of the thoroughfare several riotous demonstrations were witnessed, such as threats to kill out "the laws"; taking clubs to cab drivers who failed to respond promiscuously to drive to Wichita, Newton and any other place the fancy of the bad man demanded; much profanity and general bad behavior for the fourth, or say day and especially Sunday. Revolted General riot seemed evident and for while the situation for peace looked really serious. But order was finally restored and the offenders taken to the Wichita Falls and placed in the county jail this morning.

WORK IS STARTED ON SPECIFICATION FOR STREET LIGHTING SYSTEM

Preparation of the specifications for the street lighting contract in the downtown district is under way today, under the supervision of W. A. Porterfield of Dallas, representing the Southwest General Electric Company, which is to furnish the material. Mr. Porterfield is contributing his services in this matter, in order to insure a lighting system that will give entire satisfaction.

Some of the material for the system has been shipped, and it is expected that the installation contract will be awarded shortly.

The contract for installation is to provide for open shop conditions, it is announced.

BRYAN DEFEATED IN CONVENTION BATTLE

SAN FRANCISCO, July 6.—Beaten in every battle he waged in the convention William J. Bryan today had little to say regarding the selection of Governor Cox as the party's presidential nominee.

"I have already expressed my views on the candidate and what he stands for," said Bryan. "Repetition is unnecessary at this time."

The views Bryan referred to as having already been expressed included sharp criticism of Cox for his "wet" tendencies, also declaring the Ohio governor lacked progressiveness and said Cox was lined with Wall Street.

Bryan declined to say what part, if any he intends to take in the campaign in behalf of Cox. The Nebraskan not only made a losing fight to prevent the nomination of Cox, but he lost out in efforts to shape the party platform to his ideas on the treaty, the wet and dry issue, profiteering and other matters.
