MAGSWEENEY GIVEN ONLY 24 HOURS TO FINISH SENTENCE

IRISH PEOPLE FANNED TO WHITE HEAT OVER REFUSAL TO RELEASE MACSWEENEY. BROTHER IN CHICAGO LAUDS-MACSWEENEY'S STAND

By United Press. LONDON, Aug. 26.—Terence MacSweeney, lord mayor of Cork, was given but 24 hours to live by physicians at Brixton prison today. Interest in the condition of the Irish official, who is near death from a hunger strike, was at white heat throughout England and Ireland.

The majority of British papers urged the government to release him, declaring it would be a "fatal blunder" to allow him to die. They pointed out that the situation in Ireland rapidly is nearing an irreparable breach and that MacSweeney's dramatic death would fan the flames into veritable anarchy.

House for MacSweeney's release, abandoned yesterday with receipt of Premier Lloyd George's message from Lucerna declaring it would be impossible to make an exception to the law of the lord mayor's case, was revived by King George's reply to a communication from Redmond Howard, newly elected leader of the Sinn Fein.

Howard urged MacSweeney's release. The king "gratefully acknowledged" the Redmond family's sacrifices for the country and concluded: "Your appeal will receive my immediate and careful consideration."

Thirty thousand Irish sympathizers gathered in the streets outside the prison last night. The police dispersed them after arresting several members of the British labor party participated in the demonstration.

British government officials in Dublin issued a statement denying that MacSweeney was arrested while peacefully performing his duties as lord mayor. The statement said that, on the contrary, he was attending a meeting of officers of the "republican army," in which he had ranked as a "brigade general," when he was taken in a raid.

COX PREPARED PROVE BIG CAMPAIGN FUND RAISED BY G. O. P.

REPUBLICANS PLANNED MORE THAN $15,000,000 TO ELECT HARDING. HAYS STARTS COUNTER CAMPAIGN FUND CHARGE

Political leader encountered admitted the trend of the presidential battle may turn on the governor's scheduled "expose"—his answer to the senate investigating committee's demand for information to support his charges.

From a reliable source it was learned that figures Cox is expected to reveal will show the republican financial goal a few millions more than $15,000,000.

Cox's statement: "I am going to produce evidence to prove my charge that the republicans are seeking a campaign fund of at least $15,000,000 to elect Mr. Harding."

One of the outstanding features of the governor's address yesterday at Evansville and Princeton, Ind., was the applause for every attack on Harding's front porch campaign.

Cox dismissed the charge of Representative Britton that he had been in the back of the democratic candidacy by saying: "If it were that I would look out for a cool catcher."

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—A gray haired man sat in a little room on the east side today and tried to speak bravely of his "kid brother's" slow suicide by starvation in a British prison.

Deliberate Murder: "If my brother dies in prison and I don't believe that it will be the government will be guilty of deliberate murder," he said.

RUSSIAN WAR WILL STOP WHEN PEOPLE CAN ELECT LEADERS

GENERAL WRANGLER DECLARED BOLSEHEVISM MUST BE DEFEATED AT ALL HAZARDS.

AMERICA'S ATTITUDE PLEASE ANTI-BOLSEHEVIC LEADER

Army is Being Equipped to Wage Terrific War Against Men Who Would Oppress People.

By Associated Press. SEBASTOPOL, CRIMEA, Aug. 23.—Civil war would cease immediately if the Russian people were free to organize a government according to their own wishes, General Baron Wrangel, who was recognized as head of the south Russian government by France a few days ago, declared here today. They are not able to do this at present, however, because of the domination of the soviet leaders, and the fight must go on until the Russians are free to take matters in their own hands, he said.

General Wrangel expressed the gratification he felt over the note sent to Italy by the United States government, in which the Russian situation and declared recognition of the south Russian government by France was the first expression of an ally's appreciation of another's sacrifice in the common cause. He asserted his forces on all fronts are well equipped and that the naval arm of the service was at last able to assist in the struggle against the bolsheviks.

General Wrangel, who leaves tomorrow to personally direct the organization of forces rallying against the bolshevik, received the correspondent of the Associated Press at his home in this city and gave him an exclusive interview. While he talked, aides and ministers grouped about his desk with telegrams and reports requiring his consideration.

Urges Expeditions. "Ever since the south Russian army honored me by placing itself under my command, leaders of various Cossack organizations have been urging us to send expeditions into the Caucasus and Kuban regions to assist in throwing off the tyranny of the bolshevik," he said. "Soviet domination has always been hateful to the Cossacks, but it was not until the last fortnight that it was possible to meet their appeals. We have been too busy organizing here and establishing our northern fronts to do anything else."

"Various Cossack expeditions have been sent to Teisk and other points in Kuban and the Don territory, are advancing eastward, being heartily supported and joined by local Cossacks. Our navy is now restored to a point where it can effectively support our troops in any possible action and consequently, the time is propitious for giving the Don, Kuban, Astrakhan and Terek Cossacks the organization needed for utilizing their united resources against their oppressors. The Cossacks have men, foodstuffs, and animals sufficient for a long fight and the spirit with which they have joined the expeditions sent to help them indicates they will soon hold all important ports and roads to the Georgian border."

"I cannot conceal my surprise," he continued, speaking of France's recognition, "that other allies have not given the same generous recognition of bloodshed, not for Russia alone, but to protect the entire civilized world against plunder, murder and rapine. It is not only Russia's battle which is being fought in south Russia."

"May I ask," the correspondent said, "what impression the American note to Italy on the attitude of the United States toward bolshevism created?" "It was most gratifying," he replied. "It was very gratifying to me personally and I am sure to all right minded Russians that the United States should thus express its disapproval of the murder and rapine committed by the group which is trying to rob the Russian people of all liberty. If it were possible for the Russian people to organize a government today according to their own will, I should be willing to conclude this civil war instantly, but a great majority is dominated by tyrants and this war must continue until Russians are free to organize a government expressing the popular will."

"Asked as to the economic future of south Russia, General Wrangel said: 'Control of some surplus grain has already been gained by our government, and we will soon be able to export it as transportation conditions are improving.' 'When we control the Kuban and Don territories, Russia's richest grain sections, we will be able to export large quantities of foodstuffs in exchange for needed manufactured articles.' General Wrangel insisted the bolshevik military and political strength was greatly overestimated. Scoffers who predicted General Wrangel would not last a fortnight when he took over the fragments of General Denikin's fleeing government last March, now give him great credit, especially since the successful movements of troops into the Don and Kuban regions as these promise to consolidate the Cossacks' strength with that of the Crimea."

SPLENDID CROPS IN BYERS COMMUNITY

Town Now Enjoys Electric Lights—School Building Remodeled—Other Improvements.

By Staff Correspondent. BYERS, TEXAS, August 26.—Crops have never been better here than they are this year. Valleyland wheat yielded an average of 40 bushels to the acre, much of it running as high as 42 bushels. The prospect for cotton is excellent, notwithstanding the fact that boll-worms are damaging it to some extent, owing to the unusual amount of rain. The dampness prolongs the period during which the fiber inside the bolls in the milky stage, thus extending the feeding time of the worms, for when it is sweet and milky they thrive upon it but when it becomes dry and tough they can no longer eat it.

The new corn crop is now assured and therefore farmers are hauling in the surplus of their last year's crops to make room in the cribs for the new corn.

Have Electric Lights. The electric lighting system has been in operation about two weeks and is giving good satisfaction. All the business houses, including the moving picture theater, are using the lights.

Remodel School Building. The school building is being remodeled and three new rooms are being equipped, one of which will be used for class work, one for a laboratory and the third for the office of the superintendent. The high school is to be affiliated with the state board of education this year. One additional teacher will be employed and the salaries of the teachers have been raised from 35 to 50 per cent over the pay of previous years.

By agreement among the citizens the property valuation is to be doubled in the school district to enable the necessary additional taxes to be collected.

To Rebuild Derrick. The derricks at the Byers location No. 1, at the edge of town, and the Green location, two miles out, which blew down in a recent wind storm, are to be rebuilt and drilling is to commence at once. The well on Mrs. Harding's place, four miles northeast of Byers, was stopped last week owing to tools being lost in the hole, but the regular program of drilling was resumed Monday, and the well is reported to be now about 1,800 feet deep.

This well is in unproven territory and is to go to a depth of 2,500 feet unless oil is found at a less depth, and will go deeper than the contract depth if indications warrant the additional expenditure.

Marriages Reported. Bruce Henderson of the Byers community, and Joy Massey of Riverview community were married last Sunday at the home of Rev. Hale, by whom the ceremony was performed. Monday night word was received here that Walter Bangston, who lives seven miles southeast, had been a benedict for about ten days.

Events of his friends in Byers at once procured some cow-bells, diana pans and other "musical" instruments, and started for the Bangston home-stead. But the groom learned by telephone of their approach and being a lover of jokes himself, decided to turn the tables. So he and his bride departed for Byers in their automobile, by another route, and soon after this the revelers arrived. Upon learning that the twain had escaped they set out in pursuit and overtook the newly wedded pair in Byers, but the leading automobile of the pursuers and a slight fire accident at that moment and before they could proceed the pursued had disappeared in the darkness in the direction of Petrolia.

A few minutes later the "hounds" again took the trail, but lost it when they passed a certain farm house, behind which stood a lone automobile with all lights out, in which, with beating hearts and suppressed giggles, sat their intended victims. But "when far beyond their piercing ken the burricans had swept the glen," the lone automobile, with lights still out, crept from its retreat and sped northward toward Byers and home.

Community Picnic. A community picnic was held here last Saturday in Mason's park. The picnic was a success and the largest attendance of any gathering held in this county for many years. Music was furnished by a band from Bowie.

A joint political debate was the feature second in importance on the program. Judge P. A. Jartin of Wichita Falls speaking in behalf of Neff and Attorney Dickey of Henryetta for Joe Bailey.

Lucian M. Parish, congressman from this district, spoke on the subject of Americanism.

The principal feature of the occasion was, of course, the attack upon the picnic baskets at the noon hour.

SHE NEEDED A DIVORCE AS CHANCES DON'T COME EVERY DAY OF THE YEAR

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 25.—"I gotta get a divorce." Her complexion evidently was applied. Her hair was of the dead yellow shade acquired by chemical properties. Attorney Frank Flynn of the welfare legal aid bureau, knew the type. "That's the talk," she cut in. "I wouldn't ask it in such a hurry, but you see there's another fellow what wants to marry me. Chances don't come every day. So I thought I better get him hitched right away."

Vernon Budget

Teachers Institute. VERNON, TEX., Aug. 25.—Convening at the high school auditorium at 7:30 o'clock Monday morning, September 6, and continuing until September 10, annual Willbarger County Teachers' Institute will be held. Think in terms of years in buying paint, not in terms of first cost

THE INITIAL COST of good paint is practically its final cost. But cheap paint must be re-bought two or three times as often. Good paint requires less gallons per job because it covers more area per gallon. It costs less to apply because its long life makes frequent re-painting unnecessary. This not only cuts your cost for materials and labor, but also gives you property better protection and a better appearance from the day the paint is applied until the end of its long term of service.

COMPLETING PLANS FOR OPENING SCHOOL

High School Pupils Requested To Prepare Programs Without Delay.

Preparations for the opening of the fall term of the local schools is now in full swing and the myriad details which arise in the operation of a school system are being attended to as fast as possible. The more extensive work of cleaning, painting and otherwise improving the buildings was completed several days ago and the officials and their staffs are now turning their attention to the actual opening.

Principal S. H. Rider of the local high school has requested that those students who expect to enroll in high school classes this year, but who have not filled out their program, come to the high school building and consult with him in regard to the matter. This applies not only to those who are entering this school from other cities but to any students who attended last year and failed to fill out their programs for the approaching term. Mr. Rider states that it is imperative that juniors and seniors shall attend to this matter at once and that it will be greatly to the advantage of freshmen and sophomores to inform the authorities as to the studies which they wish to take. This information is necessary before the state books can be distributed and it is hoped to be able to issue the texts immediately after the opening registration of students.

Prospective pupils entering the local school from other cities are required to present cards from their former teachers stating that all books and supplies issued by the state had been returned in good order. No books will be given to students who cannot supply this information. It is also necessary that statements of credits which outside students have earned be secured from the principal of the school last attended. Mr. Rider is in his office at the high school from 8 o'clock in the morning until 5 in the afternoon and any high school students desiring interviews with the principal may see him between these hours.

LUNCHEON ON FRIDAY FOR BUSINESS COUNCIL.

The business council of the Chamber of Commerce will meet at luncheon at the Wichita Club tomorrow noon, the luncheon gathering taking the place of the regular Friday night business session.

A feature of tomorrow's meeting will be a request that each member of the council in turn contribute a suggestion for the civic improvement of Wichita Falls.

Amusements

BLANCHE SWEET MAKES HIT AT THE MAJESTIC

Blanche Sweet made a decided hit with her latest film production "The Hushed Hour" which began a two-day run at the Majestic on Wednesday. This picture is the film version of the story that appeared in one of the leading magazines of the country early in the year and none of the interest that was attached to the story as originally written by Gertrude Brooke Hamilton has been lost in transferring it to the screen.

A cast of unusual strength and merit has been secured to support Miss Sweet in this production. Rosamory Thobe, Wilford Louca, Milton Sills, Harry Northrup and Wynham Standing appearing in important parts in the picture. The scenario of this film was prepared by Charles Maigne, who wrote the scenario for the world famous picture "The Bluebird" which was taken from the play of the same name by Maeterlinck. The play was directed by Edmund Mortimore and is released by the Harry Staron Picture Corporation.

HART AS "THE DISCIPLE" SHOWING AT EMPRESS

William S. Hart, a popular favorite with every lover of the moving picture art, will be seen at the Empress theatre Thursday in a religious engagement of "The Disciple" a picture known to the movie world as one of Hart's greatest productions. As usual, he appears in the lead role that has made him famous the world over. The story is vividly dramatic and tensely interesting holding the attention of the audience from the start. Briefly stated, Hart appears in the role of a minister of the gospel who having been seriously wronged by a man in whom he had implicit faith, preaches earnestly that the evil does he through him, the minister's path long enough for vengeance to be done. But when this finally happens the story takes a peculiar turn.

"The plot is well worked out and with the splendid acting of Hart and the supporting cast makes a remarkably interesting photoplay."

FAMOUS GAMBLING HALL FEATURED IN PICTURE

The famous gambling hall of Monte Carlo, where men and women from the ends of the earth, members of the nobility and royalty, adventurers and the idle rich assemble at the shrine of chance is faithfully reproduced in "Passions Playground," screen version of the novel "The Guests of Hercules." Katherine McDonald, as a captivating debutante, fresh from a Scottish convent, appears at the famous gambling resort and "breaks the bank" winning an immense fortune in a few nights. Dramatic and romantic touches are given by the introduction of an aspirant prince from Italy who turns out to be an exception from the general run of princes and proves himself a real man.

The plot of the story is novel and the splendid acting, together with fine photography make the picture exceptionally interesting.

MISS SHIRLEY MASON IN "MOLLY AND I" AT THE PLAZA

Miss Shirley Mason, the Fox star who is known as "the girl of pep, personality and prettiness" is to be featured at the Plaza Thursday in the screen version of Frank R. Adams' story, "Molly and I" and the Silver Ring. In the movie, the title has been shortened to "Molly and I"; but if the performance she gives is a fair sample of Shirley Mason's work there's no need shortening her nickname. In the picture she is at all times, appealing, charming and forceful and makes one of the most delightful screen personages that has appeared in a local theatre in a long time. In the more serious scenes as well as those of a comedy nature Miss Mason displays rare skill.

FORMER COUNCILMAN IN CITY ON WEDNESDAY

M. R. Bundy, former police and fire commissioner, was in Wichita Falls for a few hours Wednesday evening. He expressed himself as "sorry to find the police department torn up" but delighted with the progress and improvement in the fire department. Bundy was one of the first men to urge the city council to expend money for a complete fire-fighting system, and he was greatly pleased after Chief McClure had explained the new alarm system and had shown him the new motor apparatus.

Bundy's home is now in Bentonville, Ark. where he is in the real estate and automobile business. He also has a big apple farm outside of Bentonville which is bearing a heavy crop this season, he told Chief McClure.

FLORAL HEIGHTS CHURCH HAS GOOD ATTENDANCE

Members of the Floral Heights Methodist church, under leadership of the pastor, Rev. W. L. Tittle, express pride in the summer attendance record. The Sunday school attendance was larger the last Sunday in July than upon any other Sunday in July. Rev. Tittle and his congregation are especially anxious for a full attendance next Sunday in order to show the best attendance on the last Sunday in August of any Sunday during the entire summer. Congregations at the preaching services have also been good, and a number of additions to the church membership during the summer months are reported. This congregation worships in an open tabernacle at Tenth and Denver.

GERMAN SENTIMENT.

An American of German descent who can vote for any candidate who finds favor in the eyes of President Wilson is equally unworthy of his German ancestry and his American citizenship," declares Joseph C. Terrell, monthly editor of the "German American," in his editorial, "German Sentiment." He goes on to say:

"Between Harding and Cox we are for Harding. We do not hate Cox. We do not love Harding. But we mean to re-educate in no uncertain terms the party tainted with Wilsonism. In the view of the presidential situation the congressional election gains in importance. Let us vote for men, not parties. Democrats like James A. Reed, Hoke Smith, Tom Watson deserve our support. Republicans like Robert M. La Follette, need not and will not receive our suffrage. In order to accomplish our aims in order to make our influence nation-wide, let us organize along the lines of the Committee of 96. The name of the organization does not matter. The leadership does not matter. An informal association, a gentlemen's agreement, among various groups, may be preferable to a formal alliance, but something must be done if Americans of German descent are to vindicate their honor.

In other words, if Terrell's Monthly has any weight with the German-American vote, it is urging them to punish the public men who backed up the President in the world war, without regard to party, and to support all those who sought to prevent the execution of America's full citizenship to the winning of that war. What do loyal Americans—that includes the overwhelming majority of Americans of German blood as well—think of it? The one safe way for loyal Americans to do is to vote against every candidate who has the faintest shadow of support, whatever the camouflage behind which the candidate is seeking to deceive them.

NEARING A SOLUTION.

What happened to stiffen the resistance of the Poles before the Russian attacks on Warsaw and enabled them to transform a seemingly crushing defeat into an overwhelming victory does not appear in the dispatches from either Warsaw or Moscow, which deal only in concrete results. One week one reports a cease-fire, another reports victories over badly beaten Poles. The fall of the Polish capital seems imminent. Russian cavalry are reported in the suburbs.

Begins then a reversal of form. The Poles start a counter drive, the Russians "muss up" their earlier successes and soon are in headlong flight with whole armies wiped out through death or capture. General Weygand, chief of the French military mission, disclaims the credit, but it is significant that the Poles started their counter-drive on the advice of Weygand and the several hundred French officers comprising the French military mission, and it is wholly probable that French reinforcements and French strategy helped in the reversal.

The Russo-Polish situation is now nearer a satisfactory solution from an allied standpoint than it has been since the fighting began. A badly defeated soviet government will be much more amenable to reason in the formulation of terms of peace than it was when its troops were at the gates of Warsaw and the United States warning to the Poles that it has been since their ethnological boundaries, a warning in which both Great Britain and France have since joined, is earnest of the allies' demand that Poland wage no war of aggression if it is to depend on allied assistance.

QUALIFIED WOMEN VOTERS.

Regardless of ratification of the Nineteenth amendment and its effect on the Texas primary suffrage law, these women can vote in next Saturday's primary if they are democrats. Who are at least 21 years of age, citizens of the United States, who have lived in Texas for at least a year preceding the election day and at least six months in the county in which they offer to vote, and who have paid their poll taxes between October 1, 1919, and Feb. 1, 1920.

Who are 60 years old or more and thereby exempt from poll tax payments. (In cities of 10,000 or more these exemptions must have taken out exemption certificates, but in smaller cities or counties boxes exemption certificates are unnecessary.)

Who are otherwise qualified but who were not liable for poll taxes because they were not residents of Texas on January 1, 1919; when poll tax liability was created.

Women who are blind, deaf or dumb or who have lost a hand or foot or were otherwise permanently disabled, are also entitled to vote without poll tax payments if within the ages and conditions as given.

Comparatively few women voted in Texas in July. With efforts under way in the state to get republicans and American party members into the primary, it is up to all of the women who are qualified to vote to do so.

The same question that is up in Texas confronts the Railroad Commission and railroads of a number of other states where there is a statutory passenger fare prescribed and where the commissions have held that it was beyond their jurisdiction to grant any increase beyond the statutory limitations. In Illinois the state has been enjoined from enforcing its 2-cent fare law, the state railroad commission having rejected the roads' application for increased passenger rates. In New York the public service commission has taken the same action. In these states, as in Texas, the commissions granted increases in intra-state rates, approximately to conform to the increases granted on interstate rates by the Interstate Commerce Commission. The Texas commission, however, refusing to grant the full 35 per cent increase sought and granted on interstate rates, is being sued by the railroads. It seems to us, that Texas earnings and valuations should govern Texas rates instead of the roads' valuations, earnings and different conditions obtaining in the southwestern division, which governed the Interstate Commerce Commission in granting the roads in that division a common advance of 35 per cent. Texas has a 3-cent passenger fare law and railroads are prohibited from charging more. The roads have recourse to the courts if that rate is confiscatory or yields revenue insufficient to bring earnings up to the 6 per cent level required under the Eoch-Cummins law. And the railroad commission is right, we think, in holding the matter beyond its jurisdiction and compelling the railroads to resort either to the courts or to the legislature in getting the rate advanced if necessary warrants.

TERRELL'S ANSWER TO HIS FELLOW REPUBLICANS.

(Fort Worth Record.)

Mon. Henry Terrell of San Antonio, in the county of Bexar, has been a republican politician and leader for 35 years. In republican days he was the United States district attorney for West Texas. He has been high in the esteem of the republican party in the state and the nation. Now comes the Eagle Pass Daily Guide with a remarkable signed editorial written by this republican leader, former office holder and who exists to hold office again should senator Harding win the presidency. Now what is Terrell's advice to the republicans in the border counties? First he asks the following questions:

Should one for years disfranchise himself at his home simply because he is a republican? Should one, who is a republican, be a republican in a party which is always a minority party, and whose interests lie, where he has lived for over half a century and where he expects to die and be buried?

Having asked the question, this republican leader asks the following questions: "First he asks the following questions: Should one for years disfranchise himself at his home simply because he is a republican? Should one, who is a republican, be a republican in a party which is always a minority party, and whose interests lie, where he has lived for over half a century and where he expects to die and be buried?"

It Can't Be Done

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

When Ma Wants Something New, Last night Ma said to Pa: "My dear, The Williamson's are coming here to visit for a week or two. An' I must have a talk with you. We need some things which we must get—"

"You promised me a dinner set, An' I should like it while they're here."

An' Pa looked up an' said: "My dear, A dinner set? Well, I guess not. What's happened to the one we've got?"

"We need a parlor rug," says Ma. "We got a parlor rug," says Pa. "We ought to have another chair." "You're sittin' in a good one there."

"The parlor curtains are a fright!" "When these are washed they look all right."

"The old stuff's pitiful to see." "It still looks mighty good to me."

"The sofa's worn beyond repair." "It doesn't look so bad, I swear."

"See whiz; you make me tired," says Ma. "Wh'y, what's the matter now?" says Pa.

"You come an' go an' never see how old our stuff has grown to be. It still looks just the same to you. As what it did when it was new. An' every time you think it strange That I should like to have a change, 'I'm gettin' old," says Pa. "Maybe You'd like a younger man than me."

"If this old rug was worn an' thin An' might you still come walkin' in An' throw your hat upon a chair, An' never see a single speck? So long as any chair could stand An' bear your weight you'd think it grand."

"If home depended all on you, It never would get something new." "All right," says Pa. "Go buy the stuff!"

"But, say, am I still good enough?"

Side Talks

By RUTH CAMERON

Why Do They Resent It?

"If there is anything I can't bear," I heard a woman say the other day, "it is to hear a woman call a dog 'dear' and talk baby to him, and act as if he were a child."

The woman who spoke has three children and two grandchildren whom she greatly enjoys.

The woman whom she criticized has no children. She is fond of children, but the Lord hasn't fit to send them to her. Her treatment of her undoubtedly represents an outlet to the pent-up mother instinct.

Why should the other woman, rich in her own happiness, resent it?

Why, indeed, and yet one often hears women speak in this slighting, resentful way of the various ways in which the mother instinct finds outlet in the childless woman, both married and unmarried.

Of course the ready question rises: Why does not this woman adopt a child?

For just one reason, as I happen to know. Because her husband, who is a traveling man, might be willing, at present, but his wife is able to travel about the country and make her headquarters where he can most easily be with her. She has adopted a child, and she is able to do that, and is therefore not willing to have her take on that burden.

In another case of which I know, the neighbors all criticize the wife because they think she might take one of the fresh-air children for at least a few weeks during the summer. She has a pleasant summer home and no children of her own. The answer in this case is the same. Her husband, who is an artist and home most of the year, would be too much of a strain on him.

Yet I never heard anyone criticize him. Why is it that criticism so easily flows toward women who are so common, and so seldom toward men? They know well enough that everything in their own lives does not represent their own choices. Why should they not resent that it is probably the same in other women's lives?

I spoke of the various ways in which the maternal instinct seeks an outlet. It means work of all sorts, including the splendid settlement and civic betterment work often done by this class of women. I have known many times when the husband of a woman does not want to do such work, opposed it.

It is a dangerous opposition. The maternal instinct is a natural force. If you deny it outlet you create an abnormal and dangerous condition. The more such outlets a woman can have, the better for her husband, and for the better, as an inevitable consequence, for her husband.

WHY?

ARE BELLS USED IN CHURCHES?

(Copyright, 1920, by Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

No matter how far we dig back into authentic history we find traces of metal instruments which yielded musical notes when struck by beating hands or clappers. Aaron, for example, is described as wearing golden bells upon his priestly apparel and small bronze bells have been taken from the palace of Nimrod in Nineveh. In the far East, where the use of large bells is supposed to have originated, bells of just the kind were used long before the Christian era, but, owing to the secrecy with which the early Christians were forced to practice their faith, church bells did not come into common use in Europe until about the sixth or seventh century. Prior to this time, the monks announced the hour of prayer by blowing a trumpet, or rapping with a hammer upon the doors of the monasteries. Bishop Paulinus, of Nola in Campania, is generally considered to have been the first to recognize the value of bells as a signal for summoning congregations to church, and in support of this theory, etymologists point out that the words nola and campana appear both in Latin and Italian as synonyms for "bell." Paulinus, it is stated, was annoyed at the excuses offered by his congregations for not being prompt in their attendance at church late that Paulinus by "supposed the fifth century—devices for keeping track of time were very crude and inefficient and members of the Bishop's flock would get an arripe long after the service had been concluded. It was in order that they might have no excuse for being late that Paulinus is supposed to have installed the first church bell, though its metallic clang was at first opposed as an availing of pagan practices.

Tomorrow—WHY are "logansberries" so called?

I used to see them whizzing by, and envy turned to me and thunder, how they used to do! Some seven miles an hour! I wonder what Jim Piek would say, if he could shake his shroud, and for three quarters of a day mix with the modern crowd. He was a dead game sport, was Jim, before he cashed his string, and nothing was too good for him—he sampled everything. And when he in his carriage rode, behind his cap, he thought his outfit was an ode, and he, himself, a scream. Dates.
Dates are wat keeps callenders from being useless. If it wasent for the date you might be left on a picture of a girl without any information. All callenders for the same year are exactly alike, so if you need one you know wats in them all.

Dates have their good points and their bad points. Thus dates make history one of the hardest things to study but on the other hand people that make a lot of engagements would get all mixed up if there wasent any dates.

Your 2 most important dates is the date you was born on, and the date you die on. And get somebody has to tell you wat day you was born on, and you dont know weather to believe it or not, and you never find out wat date you die on.

Many dates get more important as they get older. Thus wen somebody says 1922 the first thing you think of is Columbus discoverin' America; but in 1922 everybody was properly thinking of something intirely different.

Some people never know wat date is, wile others are always asking you wat date is. This proves that people takes all sorts of people to make a world.

It is always a good thing to start a letter with the date for 2 reasons, first, because whoever gets the letter would probably miss it if it wazent there, and 2nd because then you hav at least one fine date.

QUESTION OF WATER SUPPLY FOR CITY IS DISCUSSED IN A STATEMENT BY F. N. LAWTON

With the election to vote bonds of $4,500,000 for completion of the irrigation project only two weeks distant, F. N. Lawton today made public a statement explaining the project in detail and urging the necessity of a heavy vote for the bond issue. His statement, prepared for The Times and the Better City, the monthly publication of the Chamber of Commerce, follows in full:

Irrigation Project.
An important election will be held on September 7, 1926, by the Wichita County Water Improvement District No. 1 which comprises the city of Wichita Falls and some acreage of farm lands to the north and to the south of the city, to vote bonds in the amount of $4,500,000 to complete the irrigation project. This project is to furnish the city of Wichita Falls with a permanent and adequate supply of pure water and also to irrigate approximately 150,000 acres of the rich Wichita Valley land lying on both sides of the Wichita river in the vicinity of Wichita Falls.

A large dam will be placed across the Wichita river in the north central part of Baylor county thus forming an artificial lake covering some 17,825 acres of land and holding 44,168 acre feet of water, an acre foot being water one foot deep over one acre of land. In addition to the large reservoir there will be a diversion dam and reservoir built some 20 miles east of the main reservoir which will have an additional capacity of 45,000 acre feet of water. From this diversion dam site two canals will be constructed, one running north and one running south of the Wichita river and following the valley to the city limits of Wichita Falls. The south canal will be used to supply Lake Wichita with an abundant supply of water at all times. A chemical analysis of the river water made by the Fort Worth laboratories May 29, 1926, shows that the water contains very little hardness of any character. Their report in part follows:

Calcium carbonate, 66 parts per million.
Calcium sulphate, 245.8 parts per million.
Calcium chloride, 1044 parts per million.
Sodium chloride, 112.8 parts per million.
Thus indicating that the water is excellent water to drink and also to put on the land for irrigation purposes. Supply is inadequate. The city of Wichita Falls at present is in a situation very similar to the condition confronting Los Angeles, Calif., in 1905 when the population having grown from 102,479 in 1900 to over 200,000 in 1905, the city water supply proved inadequate. All attempts to develop underground water were unsuccessful. In August, 1905, a committee appointed by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce made the following report:

First: It is imperative necessary to secure a new water supply for the development of the city is to be continued.
Second: The Owens river valley is the only source that promises a permanent supply that will be sufficient.
Third: There is an ample supply for our needs and the quality of the water is satisfactory.
Fourth: There are no difficult problems presented in building the conduit needed. It is a large but simple proposition.

The city of Los Angeles with great spirit and city pride by a vote of 10,787 to 755 determined to avail themselves of this water supply. This project consisted of acquiring the right of Owens river located some 250 miles away in the Sierra Nevada mountains, and bringing the water across the mountains, deserts and canyons in concrete and steel flumes, tunnels, siphons, etc., at a cost estimated to be $24,485,500 and five years time to complete same. In 1907 the people voted by a 14 to one vote to issue bonds in this amount. The project was completed on time and within the amount estimated. The magnitude of this work may be realized when we know that one tunnel of the many tunnels drilled through the mountains was 25,870 feet long and 10 by 12 feet in dimensions. This tunnel was drilled at the rate of 22 feet per day through very hard rock. This time was a world record for this character of work. This tunnel has a capacity of 27,000,000 gallons of water per hour.

Owing largely to the magnificent water supply Los Angeles has at present a population of over 700,000 and over 2,000 manufacturing plants. An increase of 200 per cent over the population at the time the new water supply was started. The city of Wichita Falls is now confronted with a situation similar to that confronting Los Angeles in 1907. In order to maintain our present prosperity and to provide for the future growth of the city, a permanent and adequate supply of pure water is imperative. After many years of testing of the underground water in this part of the state we are assured that the underground supply is entirely inadequate and so full of mineral salts as to make it unsuitable for drinking purposes. The only adequate and satisfactory supply within the reach of this city is the Wichita river which extends some 200 miles to the west and flows sufficient water for all purposes. The location of the large dam and reservoir is ideal and seems to have been made by nature for this very purpose. A large natural basin has been surveyed in north part of Baylor county and a dam will be built across a narrow gap in the hills impounding sufficient water to take care of a city of a million people and also to irrigate some 150,000 acres of the rich Wichita valley land in Archer and Wichita counties. It is difficult to realize the change that will occur in the surrounding country when this irrigation has been completed. On the Seymour road and the Electric road we will see hundreds of homes surrounded with five, 10, 20 acre tracts intensively cultivated in field and garden truck of all character. Fruit and shade trees in abundance, berries of all kinds, sugar beets, long staple cotton, wheat, alfalfa, corn and other field crops will be grown with a certainty of success because an abundant supply of water is ready to be placed on the land whenever required. Farmers will make as much money from a 10-acre tract under irrigation as they now make from a hundred acres without sufficient water. Many prominent people in this city have already decided to acquire a small acreage under this irrigation ditch and build a home where they can have fresh vegetables, eggs, milk, etc., every morning with beautiful country surroundings, and run in to the city for business on concrete roads that will be built along the valley.

Intensive cultivation of some 150,000 acres of land in the vicinity of this city will give us the most densely populated agricultural district in the state and will furnish the necessary labor for the operation of the many factories which will locate here in order to handle the agriculture products and also to avail themselves of the labor thus afforded. Traction lines will probably be run through the thickly settled valley lands to accommodate the people and to handle the products of the farms. Schools and churches will be built and a community of prosperous and happy people established.

Will Accomplish Two Things
The completion of this project will accomplish two things: It will furnish the city of Wichita Falls an abundant supply of pure water for all future time and thus stabilize and maintain our present real estate values, and provide for the future a confidence on the part of our present and future citizenship in the continued growth of our city.

It will also bring hundreds of farmers from outside our county who will locate here and take up the valley land in small acreage farms and build their homes amongst us and intensively cultivate this rich valley. Under irrigation one acre of land frequently nets the farmer from $500 to $1,000, and such acreage planted in fruit, pecans, etc. in other irrigated districts sells from $1,500 to $2,000 per acre. Agriculturists have examined the soil in the Wichita valley and have pronounced it as rich as any irrigated land in Colorado or California and state that with irrigation we should be able to duplicate the wonderful results in those states. In many respects our climate is more advantageous to some crops than either Colorado with its severe cold or California with its rainy season. This project has been favorably passed upon by some of the best irrigation experts in the country and there seem to be no unfavorable features to overcome. The water is here in abundance of good quality and favorable for the land. The entire project will be gravity flow, thus saving the expense of pumping the water as is done all along the Rio Grande.

The project will be owned by the people and managed by a board of directors elected by them. It will be carried out under the irrigation laws of the state of Texas and there will be absolutely no profit to anybody connected with the enterprise in the way of promotion or the sale of the water rights. The entire project will be owned by the people and the cost, owing to the favorable engineering features, will be less than any other irrigation project of this magnitude ever completed. The entire cost will be divided between District No. 1, comprising the city of Wichita Falls and some fifteen acres of irrigatable land north and south of the city, and District No. 2, comprising the remainder of the valley west of the city in the Wichita valley. The only other expense will be the maintenance and operating expense each year. The bonds will be 40-year ones and the principle and yearly interest will be arranged in easy payments.

District No. 1 has been organized by vote of the people with the following directors: J. A. Kemp, president; J. E. Noble, vice-president; N. H. Martin, secretary; G. Clint Wood and J. S. Strickwell, Mr. Kemp has devoted many years to examining the merits of this project and for the past six months the directors have devoted a large amount of time going over the engineering plans, financing the bonds and perfecting the project. They have given their endorsement to this project and have called the bond election for September 7, 1926. All citizens who have the best welfare of the city at heart are earnestly asked to remember the above date and help to get out a large vote on this occasion. A large and favorable vote for this project will help very materially in solving the bond issue. Let us show Los Angeles that we are not afraid to take the step that she did and thus make assured the stability and permanent growth of Wichita Falls. Auto Paint at Decorators Co. 51-1276

IT'S TOASTED
The Burley tobacco leaves have pores, like a sponge. When "it's toasted" their pores are closed, the flavor sealed in, permanently. When you burn Lucky Strike in your pipe or cigarette, you are releasing the original Burley flavor that was sealed in by toasting. Exactly that. Heat seals it in, heat releases it.
You know how a bee seals in the flavor of honey with the thin coating of wax. This coating holds in that delicious honey flavor until it's used.
Just so the toasting process seals in the Burley flavor. This flavor is preserved until you release it by smoking. A wonderful process and a great discovery for smokers.

ONE-HALF MILLION BUILDERS OF GOOD WILL
Dodge Brothers business has just reached and passed another milestone in its history. In a little over five years more than one-half million Dodge Brothers Motor Cars have been placed in the hands of owners. If this sales record represented the appeal of a price, the total would not be particularly impressive. The important thing is that the car is not thought of in terms of price, but in terms of value. How often you hear the car spoken of—and how seldom the price!
It is the quality of thought that surrounds it which makes this success noteworthy. Because people think well of these cars, it is still impossible for Dodge Brothers to build enough of them. Seldom has there been a finer example of the force of friendly thoughts. It is an inspiration and an encouragement to build well—because the reward, in America, is so great and so sure. With nothing but good will toward them in American homes—how could Dodge Brothers do less than they have done? Nothing has checked or hindered for so much as a single week, the continued bestowal of this recognition and reward. The eagerness to own the car is greater today than it ever has been. The reason is not far to seek. Take first the mere numerical ownership. Remember that the satisfaction of one-half million owners is not casual, but deep and profound. Multiply them by the average family of even three. Remember that all of these are warm friends. Then think of that leaven of thought leavening the whole mass. You will begin to understand then, why Dodge Brothers have been building new buildings ever since the business began. You will understand why the works in which the car is built are still steadily spreading and expanding. You will get an idea of how much men can do when the homes of America are solidly behind them.

PLAYERS ORGANIZING TO REFUSE TO PLAY AGAINST YANK HURLER

Playing Days of Carl Mays Appear To Be Numbered According To Late Dope.

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—The days of Pitches Carl Mays in the American League appear to be numbered, according to a prominent baseball fan who is known to be in close touch with baseball players. The players in the American League are being organized for the presenting of a "united front" on the Mays case, according to this man, the purpose of the movement is to agree upon a flat refusal to play in any game in which the New York twirler is slated to pitch. Already two clubs, St. Louis and Washington, have made known their willingness to take a stand and it is indicated that within a few days most of the remaining American League organizations will have agreed to apply the "absent treatment" to Mays. The Cleveland team has apprised players on other teams of their version of the Ray Chapman tragedy. Meetings are being held to determine what course each team will pursue.

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—Members of the St. Louis American League team have agreed not to take part in any game which Carl Mays, Yankee twirler who pitched the ball that killed Ray Chapman, Cleveland shortstop, is assigned to work. It was learned today. The agreement was reached at a meeting of the players in the Red Sox clubhouse. The St. Louis players also declared they have received letters from members of six other clubs of the league, declaring they will not play if Mays is on the mound. The fact that Mays pitched a shut-out game since the accident has only heightened the feeling against him, the players declared. The St. Louis team is here for a series with the Red Sox.

Major League Bits

Tyler held the Braves last night and the Cubs made it three in a row, winning 4 to 0. And in Philadelphia Harris held the Indians to 3 hits, and the Athletics won 1 to 1. Duncan's double and triple featured Cincinnati's 5 to 1 victory over Philadelphia. Marmay went to the relief of Marquard after the Pirates had scored three runs in the third. The Robins ran out in the ninth, 4 to 3. Kelly's triple in the eighth put the fans back in the game after the Reds had secured a two-run lead. The fourth won 6 to 3. Boston downed the Browns 11 to 1.

CHANGE COURSE OF ROAD AND ELIMINATE BRIDGES

Work now being done on the Meridian highway between Erie and Bellevue will make that section one of the best paved along to entire route. The road course has been changed a trifle, and concrete pillars will eliminate many of the old wooden bridges.

By Paul W. Larkin

The Spudgers will wind up their home season with nine tough games, taking Shreveport on for four, beginning tomorrow, and the Taggers for five, starting Tuesday. Second place will be at stake in the Gasser series and Skipper Salm will uncover all he has in an effort to take every game.

Red Josefine made a big gain on Nixon yesterday by polling four victories. Since the season was split Red has hit an even 400. Still Camp gets the decision in right field. How come?

Buddy Tanner may not be leading the Texas League in stolen bases, but it is not because he does not use his lead while on the sack. Buddy is about the heaviest base-runner in the circuit.

Harvey Grubb handled the indicator yesterday a whole lot better than some of the birds who are paid regularly for it have done. The Marines refused to send a man out to call 'em with Harvey. The Patterson clan has succumbed to that Eya Tamquay "I don't care" feeling, and is almost waiting for the first and the fifth to roll around.

Just as we were beginning to think that the Mays incident was dying out there comes a report from Beantown that the St. Louis club has held a meeting and has decided not to play in a game in which the Yankee twirler participates. Several other clubs appear to be in the same frame of mind and it looks very much as if the Yankees will have to dispense with the services of their mainstay.

Carl spilled the beans when he blanked the Tigers the other day. Had he been beaten badly, the other clubs would probably let him go unmolested. The National Commission will now have a chance to show who is running baseball. If they believe Mays is definitely hit Chapman they should call a halt to the tactics adopted by the St. Louis club. If not, they should bar Mays.

Dempsey now comes forth with the statement that Miske is a far better man than Willard was when he whipped him. Jack ought to know, as he has defeated both. He wasn't able to knock Miske down in two battles and that speaks well for the heavyweight aspirant. However, in spots of all Dempsey's respect for his opponent, we can't see anything but a victory for Jack.

CASSER SHORTSTOP DRAWS INDEFINITE SUSPENSION FOR RUN-IN WITH SMITH

SHREVEPORT, Aug. 26.—Shortstop Joe Pepe of the Shreveport Texas League team was placed under indefinite suspension Wednesday following the game with Fort Worth. A row with Manager Smith that came about when a pinch hitter was sent in for Pepe in the ninth inning was responsible for the suspension.

OLYMPIC TRAPSHOOTING CHAMP WINS MORE LAURELS

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 26.—Mark Arie, Thomastown, Wis., Olympic trapshooting champion, won the American amateur 15 yard championship by powdering 129 out of 200 birds at the grand American handicap tournament here today.

Charles G. Spencer, St. Louis, won the professional championship in a shoot off with Rolja G. Briggs, Dayton, after each man had scored 194 hits out of 200 tries.

WHITE SOX ARE MORE FIRMLY FIXED AT TOP AS CLEVELAND LOSES

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—The wise gazes say even the tiniest creatures have an important part in nature's economy.

The part played by the Philadelphia Athletics may be to keep some team from winning a pennant. The Athletics stepped in and won from Cleveland yesterday. At this stage of the pennant race every game has an important bearing on the championship. Any game lost now by either Chicago, Cleveland or New York may be the one that means the 1920 is lost. With Cleveland losing to the Macks, Chicago and New York set tight with the result that the Sox are a trifle more firmly fixed in first place, with the Yanks now within striking distance of second place.

The National League race remained unchanged, Sox to the leadership, Brooklyn, Cincinnati and New York all trailing.

History can be made in the series starting today. The Sox and Yanks look up in New York, coming as close to a crucial series as will be permitted at present.

JACK DEMPSEY CLAIMS MISKE IS BETTER PUG THAN JESS WILLARD

BOSTON HARBOR, Mich., Aug. 26.—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, admitted today that both he and Manager Jack Kearns had serious respect for Billy Miske, the St. Paul challenger whom Dempsey meets in a championship match here a week from today. In anticipation of a hard, grueling contest, Dempsey has settled down to a vigorous training siege, and is rapidly rounding into perfect fighting condition.

Dempsey says he regards Miske as a better fighter than Jess Willard whom he whipped in the third round at Toledo fourteen months ago. He is an able judge of the fighting qualities of both men, as he has fought Miske twice and failed to knock him out in either engagement. They met in a ten round engagement in St. Paul two years ago last May and seven months later faced each other in a six round match at Philadelphia. Miske claiming a victory.

"I am frank to say that I think Miske is a stiffer puncher than Willard and certainly is much faster," the champion said today. "and he can stand an under severe punishment. I even failed to knock him down, although I put every ounce of strength behind my punches."

"Miske is as big as I am and perhaps will slightly outweigh me when he meets me on Labor Day. I figure to go into the ring under the 130 pound mark. I hope to be at the same weight as I was when I fought Willard—137 pounds."

DALLAS MAN KILLED BY FALL IN CHICAGO HOTEL

CHICAGO, August 26.—Police today investigated the mystery surrounding the death of James Sullivan, salesman, Dallas, Texas, who jumped from a window in the third story of a hotel here a week ago. Sullivan died today. Arthur J. Norton, clerk at the hotel, held in custody, said that Sullivan, former clog dancer, was demonstrating the art when he tripped over a rug, falling from the window. That Sullivan had threatened to leap from the window if he were denied business was another story told the police.

Bailey Is Solid With the Germans

"Der Hermannssohn" official organ of the Sons of Herman urges his nomination. "I know distinctly that Bailey would try his best not to enforce the prohibition laws," reads the editorial.

"Der Hermannssohn," official organ of the Sons of Herman carries the following in its last issue, printed in German:

PRINTED IN GERMAN

Of course, the appeals are all printed in German, but Jesse E. Mosley, chairman of the Pat Neff club, has had the paper translated. The longest editorial is signed by Fred J. Nagel, who closes his appeal by saying, "Gott ist mein rech." (God is my right).

The editor has a note at the head of the editorial which says:

"The following article has been sent to us for publication. We recommend same to our readers for particular attention.

A translation of the closing paragraph of that appeal is: "We not only appeal to you to vote for Bailey, but we want you to vote so as to show the people the will of the majority of our people. None is a citizen who does not express his opinion at the polls. Nobody is anything but a traitor to his country if he votes at the dictation of a party for a man, and especially if he doesn't consider him fit to fill the office. So I appeal to you to vote for Bailey on August 28, also to vote for the restoration of the democracy in Texas, and if the republicans or the American party or the prohibitionists put up a better man in November then vote for him."

VERY URGENT IN APPEAL

"Then you have done your full duty to your state of Texas. A decision of the supreme court of Texas says you can do this lawfully.

"This writer is very urgent in his appeal to all Germans to take part in the coming democratic primary, regardless of their party affiliations, for he says in another page:

"Before the people of Texas there is but one question, whether we are republicans, socialists, prohibitionists or members of the new American party, I know you folks have not taken part in the primary election in July because you want to be free to vote in November. How long will you stick to that superstitious idea to be dictated to by a certain class of people in regard to your right to vote?

"Our constitution gives us the right as citizens, whether we belong to one party or any clique, or another party, to be at the primary or general election, to fulfill our duty, therefore the principal to sustain and vote for the nominee of the primary election is all wrong and unconstitutional. Especially is it wrong if a better candidate should show up to be voted for at the general election. It is your duty to recognize our constitution and all are privileged to vote at any primary, be he democrat or republican.

JOE BAILEY EXTOLLED

"On Aug. 28 go to the polls and destroy the greatest of two evils, that is your plain duty. And in November it is again your duty to vote for the best man. Joe Bailey stands for all that is connected with democracy."

Another fervent appeal on the editorial page of the Sons of Herman:

"What I like best about Bailey is his opposition to the administration's policies which prevailed with the people the last few years, which opposition has been indorsed by the people in the last general election. Of course, neither one of the candidates has any power to abolish prohibition but I know distinctly that Bailey would try his best to not enforce the prohibition laws on the citizen if unforeseen events should force a change in this constitutional amendment. Therefore vote for Bailey.

"I want to call attention to voters all over south Texas to some plain provisions of our election laws and ask that they look to their enforcement next Saturday.

"No person is eligible to vote at a primary election who is not a native or naturalized citizen of this country. The fact that he has declared his intention is no longer sufficient. He must either be a native born citizen or have completed his process of naturalization. The penalties are heavy for fraudulent voting and I trust the Neff forces everywhere will see to it that this provision of our statutes is enforced.

URGES G. O. P. GERMANS TO VOTE

This publication makes an open appeal for German republicans and American party man or woman to enter the democratic primary next Saturday. It then advises them if the nominee does not suit them to vote for whom they please in November.

It was declared that supporters should challenge every republican or American party man or woman who attempts to vote. The attorney general has ruled it then becomes the duty of the election judge to take an oath from the person offering to vote, swearing him to support the democratic nominee in the November election, it was pointed.

"If he fails to do so then he becomes subject to prosecution for perjury. Democrats of this state have never attempted to dictate or influence the nomination of American party candidates," it was asserted. "Democrats must be left free to pick their own nominees and republicans must not attempt at the primary to dictate who they shall nominate for governor.

"I cannot understand how any red blooded American can read these appeals to Germans and the reasons given they are supporting J. W. Bailey and do other than repudiate him. A man whose course of action has been such as to commend him to these German writers for the reasons they assign is not fit to be governor of a loyal state."

How Old Is Ann?

Hon. Barry Miller, at Burkburnett Wednesday night, read a telegram from the register of the University of Virginia, which states that J. E. Bailey, born Oct. 6th, 1862 and registered there Oct. 3, 1881. Judge Miller stated that the Congressional Record in Mr. Bailey's biography, gives the date of his birth as Oct. 6th, 1863.

Where Does Bailey Live?

Diligent search has been made in Gainesville, his former home, for Mr. Bailey's abiding place, but without avail. On his occasional visits to Gainesville he stops at the Turner Cottage.

LARGE CROWD HEARS CONGRESSMAN EAGLE

Speaks Wednesday Night in Behalf of the Candidacy of Bailey For Governor.

One of the largest crowds of the campaign was out to hear Hon. Joe Eagle espouse the cause of Senator Bailey last night, and although those present were not as vociferous in applause as had been the case in most previous campaigns, they gave close attention to the speaker, and were evidently much impressed with his statements.

Mr. Eagle reviewed the events of the campaign, dealing with questions of Mr. Neff's age, his attitude on the Patterson case, and other personalities that have crept into the campaign.

He made no direct charge that Neff had evaded the draft but recited the incidents in which Neff had given his birthday as November 26, 1872, and drew the conclusion that Neff must either have falsified as to his age in several important instances, or else had evaded the draft.

Getting away from these personalities, the speaker took up the fundamental principles of the Democratic party, urging on his hearers the necessity of individual effort if the rights and liberties of the people and the states were to be maintained. He contended that history showed that governments would not protect the freedom of the people, that it was the history of governments to oppress the people, and that it was the duty of the people to take from the people the liberties that were rightly theirs, and that to maintain these liberties, the people must be continually on the alert and active.

He lauded Bailey as being one of the last great statesmen who stood for the rights of the people, who had the courage to stand for his convictions in the face of tremendous opposition from socialist influences. He stated that Joe Bailey was recognized in Washington and throughout the north as the greatest modern statesman the south had ever produced.

The speaker also took up the labor question, and said that he believed that the main reason why he wanted to come to Wichita Falls was to talk to laboring men, both members of unions and non-members. He recited the position of both Mr. Bailey and Mr. Neff on this important issue, saying that both believed in the right of men to join unions or to stay out, as they preferred, but that Bailey would not make any private deal with any union that would give that union special privileges over other citizens.

Mr. Eagle was introduced by Judge Edgar Scurry, who gave the speaker a most enthusiastic welcome to his old home here.

CALL FOR A COTTON CONFERENCE ISSUED, TO MEET IN DALLAS

Call has been issued for a cotton conference to be held at Dallas September 1, to discuss the present situation as affecting the market and the reduction in acreage for another year. The call, which is signed by the Chamber of Commerce and the Clearing House Association of Wichita Falls, is as follows:

"Cotton has dropped $15 per bale from the high price of last season. This means a loss to the south of nearly one billion dollars. Business is slowing up, money is getting tight, the farmer is selling his cotton below the cost of production.

"Many cotton mills are running on short time, yet the spinners say that the world needs and must have 12,000,000 bales American cotton. The government says we will have only 12,000,000. The world is suffering for cotton goods, but still cotton declines. Authentic information is that 2,000,000 bales have been sold for September and October delivery at high prices. The people who sold this cotton cannot deliver it until they buy it from the farmers. The farmer should not sell a single bale at present prices.

"Hold your cotton back and market slowly.

"Build warehouses and store your cotton.

"Reduce next year's cotton acreage.

"These are the things which will insure fair prices for cotton and prosperity to the south.

"In order to discuss the situation and take such action as shall be found necessary, we hereby call a statewide mass meeting to assemble at the city hall auditorium in Dallas at 10:00 o'clock a. m. on September 1, 1920.

"We urge every banker and business man in Texas to aid us in getting an attendance at this meeting. The crisis is urgent and time is short. Immediate action is desired.

"Let all farm organizations of every character send delegates to this meeting."

GIFT OF VALUABLE FARM TO THE SALVATION ARMY

DALLAS, Aug. 25.—A gift from a man who insists on keeping his identity hidden has made it possible for the Salvation army to commence planning for the operation of what will ultimately be the best equipped children's industrial home and farm in the United States.

The whole transaction by which the Salvation army has received a farm of 181 acres just outside Hillsboro in Hill County, Texas, together with $25,000 in Liberty bonds is shrouded in a veil of secrecy. This is not because the Salvation army officials are loath to speak of the matter, but because the donor himself does not care to have his name mentioned.

Lieutenant Colonel George Wood, chief divisional officer of the Salvation army, yesterday departed with the features of the work of the Hill county clerk the papers which turned the farm over to the Salvation army. Consideration of the plans for the operation of the farm will be one state advisory board of the Salvation army.

It is because of the wonderful record of the Salvation army officers during the war and the fact that the same unselfish service that was given to our soldiers in camp and in France is being extended to the needy and suffering here at home every day that the donor of the farm and bonds finally made up his mind to transfer the property to the Army.

"I have been watching the work of the Salvation army for the past 12 years," this man said, "I have seen the good that the Salvation army has done here in Texas and I don't know of any organization in this country that can do as much good with so little. I did intend to leave this property to be divided at my death between another religious organization and the Salvation army, but there might be some sort of a fight about it, so I am giving it to them now."

CITY IN SECOND PLACE IN BANK CLEARING GAINS

The report of the Federal Reserve Bank, made public Wednesday credits Wichita Falls with second place among the Texas cities in the percentage of gain in bank clearings for the first seven months of this year as compared with the 1919 record for the same period. Houston leads with a gain of 86.9 per cent. The gain in clearings in Wichita Falls was 44.2 per cent. Other Texas cities are rated as follows: Dallas, 43.1; Waco, 33.4; Fort Worth, 31.5; San Antonio, 21.7.

AT LAST, RELIEF FROM RHEUMATISM

Now is An Excellent Time to Get Rid of Its Tortures.

Rheumatism is more than a mere local disorder confined to the locality of the painful parts. It cannot be rubbed away because it is a deep-seated disease that has its source in the blood supply. The millions of little disease germs that cause the disease must be reached and eliminated from the blood before real relief can be had.

S. S. S. has been successfully used for Rheumatism for more than fifty years. It is the most thorough and reliable blood remedy because it searches out and eliminates the disease germs which infect the blood.

object, he said, looked to be about the size of a barrel, from which a blast of fire extended. While falling what appeared to be a small piece became separated from the main object and while continuing in the same path came down much slower.

Mr. Jones stated that he was making the report in the hope that someone might be in a position to explain the incident for which he was unable to account himself.

W. W. THOMPSON IS SERIOUSLY WOUNDED

Wife Is Charged With Assault With Intent to Murder—Released On Bond.

Ascertaining that she acted in self-defense, Mrs. W. W. Thompson, who is charged with having fired the shots which sent her husband to the Wichita General hospital, today told the story of her husband's life and of the shooting Wednesday evening about 10 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Bloomington, 511 Fifteenth street.

Reports from the hospital are to the effect that Thompson is doing nicely and that he is expected to recover. He is suffering with slight leg wounds, the abdomen and one of his right arm.

Examining trial was waived Thursday morning, and Mrs. Thompson's bond was fixed at $1000, which she made. She was taken to the home of her parents by her father, R. N. Horton, who resides six miles east of Wichita Falls.

Mrs. Thompson, cool and reserved, while preparations were being made for her release, told her story as follows: Mrs. Thompson's Story.

"We were married nearly a year ago on September 6, 1919, at Henrietta, Texas, working at the time at Wichita Falls. He came back from a short trip and told me that he had given up his bad habits and that he would go to work and earn both of us a comfortable living. After thinking it over seriously, I consented.

"Many times I talked to him and tried to make him quit his method of making a living and some times it seemed to have an effect but always he went back.

"Wednesday about 1:00 o'clock I was out walking with a little baby of the house when he happened to see me. He came to me after talking for some time on the sidewalk. He held a pocket knife in his hand all the time but it was closed. He told me at that time that if he would get me out alone he was going to cut my head off. I told him that if I were him I wouldn't try to do that, whereupon he told me he had better do it myself then. He wanted to show me a picture of his girl at that time and I told him I didn't care to see it. He said he had in his hand a picture of his girl. He used to carry it in his hand.

"He proposed to me at this time that we go out last night to the show and I told him I would not go. He came to the house Tuesday evening last and he saw me out in front of the house and told me that he was going over to the bakery and that he would be back in a minute to take me to a show. I told him that I wouldn't go but he said he was coming to get me and that he would have to go.

"I went back to the house and went in and looked at the screen and shortly he appeared and after saying a few words to Mrs. Bloomington, who was sitting on the porch, he came to the door and said to me to get out a string of my keys and he said, 'By—you are going and took out my knife and made for the door. Mr. Thompson told me that he tried to cut the screen, I didn't see that because I stepped back and picked up the revolver that was lying on the heavy table a few feet from the door. I came back and shot at him three times while he was standing at the door. He started to run and then I opened the door and shot at him three more times. I guess I didn't hit him while he was running."

"Rushed to Hospital." It appears from witness that Thompson ran out to the street and was leading up against a telephone pole. A man who was in a store near by picked him up and rushed him to the hospital. He stated that Thompson said nothing about the affair whatsoever until he was taken to the hospital. Thompson requested an interview with the district attorney. He told Assistant District Attorney Sam Holliday that he would like to see his wife and that he would endeavor to keep it from her.

"Told Her Brother." Mrs. Thompson told the district attorney Wednesday evening that she had told him of Thompson's threats and had asked him to get her a gun. She told Mr. Holliday that she was reluctant to get a weapon but that he gave her the 32 caliber automatic with which she did the shooting.

"Additional Names Are Added to Bailey Club." The Woman's Bailey club reports the addition of 101 names to the list of 15 published in the Times of Wednesday afternoon. The names of the new members are: Mrs. W. W. Cook, No. 6528; Mrs. A. H. Shepherd, No. 6528; Mrs. M. E. Carlton, M. Starn; Mrs. M. L. Jensen, H. M. Larken; T. J. Hunter, W. P. Hoyer, E. G. Abel, G. Y. OPENING OF MARKET IS LARGELY ATTENDED

Ladies Are Congratulated on the Success Forecast by the Interest Manifested.

At 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon the Wichita Falls Community Market, was the midst of an opening, the success of which was probably beyond the expectations of even the most optimistic members of the Civic League.

Women had begun to crowd the market by 1 o'clock and the committees in charge of the various tables had difficulty in keeping their displays well intact for the later crowds. At 2 o'clock the building was crowded to capacity and from then on with shifting and changing crowds of women and a few men, there was plainly "standing room only" to be had. The first-bought, specially decorated market-bags were gone very shortly after the opening and the plain bags gave out very little later. The punch bowl took on a new lease of life every quarter-hour or so, and the display of butter milk and other products of the market were kept very interestingly at it. The butter milk was served as a complimentary treat to all who came to the market, the former occupants of the building.

"Souvenirs in Demand." The market bags were happily chosen souvenirs, from the eagerness with which the women received them at the door and the hundred that had been specially decorated and unusually attractive. Fruit punch was served every guest from a decorated table near the door and members of the market committee and its "deputies" escorted small groups of women about the sale room. The delicatessen counter was a great attraction and after the first few minutes it became evident that the sales to each purchaser would have to be limited in order to keep any of the delicious home-cooked eatables on display for the remainder of the afternoon.

All of the departments were placards and printed signs placed in the individual sections with the prices in plain figures. The wares looked particularly fresh and choice. The big line of home-cooked eatables in the room attracted much attention and the women were invited to inspect it as they wished. Congratulations were showered on the market committee and the Civic League members present all afternoon on the success forecast for the community market by the auspicious opening.

FINDING SKELETONS REVIVES LEGENDS OF EARLY DAYS ON COAST

CORPUS CHRISTI, TEX., Aug. 24.—The legends of the ancient days when Spanish ships visited the Gulf of Mexico and Corpus Pass was the inlet for light draft vessels trading with tribes of savage Indians, were revived by the recent finding of 25 skeletons on Tete Island, a small islet 18 miles southeast of this city. Tales of treasure ships sunk in Corpus Pass with billions in bullion as their cargoes sent many romantically inclined people to search the vicinity for the bars of gold and silver and doubloons of ancient coinage. As far as reports have been verified here, however, the only find consisted of a razor hone, a pair of field glasses bearing the name of a once-famous Paris maker of optical instruments, and the hull of an old sword, inland with silver.

In the early days, before there was even a settlement at Corpus Christi, Spanish trading vessels brought their merchandise to the shores of the bay where they were met by traders' pack trains from the interior of what was then Mexico. Smugglers also made the bay their port of delivery, sending ashore heavily armed landing parties to prevent successful attacks by Indians from the island. Many of these parties were repelled by the district or to repel Mexican officials who might try to stop their illicit operations.

"Ambushed by Indians." Coastwise trading continued until railroads entered this district. Many vessels are said to have been lost on the shores of Padre and Mustang islands. It was the custom of such ships to anchor in the cove of Padre Island and later floated. To get one of them back in the water required the labor of many men, and when the vessel was almost ready to go down the way the captain discovered his funds were about exhausted owing to the cost of re-floating it. It would be impossible for him to raise more money, north of Matamorás. Desperately he walked along the shores of the island reflecting on his difficulties. Then a dark shadow loomed in the sand caught his eye. On picking up and examining it he found it to be a Spanish pistol, furnished by sea robbers. He began digging and soon he had uncovered 5,000 more of the coins that had been cast up by a storm and covered by the sands. He turned to his ship in possession of enough money to finish his launching operations, pay all his men, and have a surplus left.

"Wanna-Ley-Gee-George." LONDON, Aug. 25.—Mrs. MacSweeney, sister of Lord Mayor Terence MacSweeney of Cork, sent a message to Premier Lloyd George in Lucerne today, warning him again that he will be held responsible if her brother dies.

"The British home office informed Redmond Howard, nephew of the late John Redmond—who opposed to Lloyd George on MacSweeney's behalf—that it could not change its attitude.

Shortly after noon MacSweeney, near death in Lucerne prison from a hunger strike, was said to be "barely breathing." He had been unable to sleep for many hours.

BOY SCOUTS TO HAVE CLUB HOUSE AT LAKE

Will Be Known As Camp Felder In Honor of Judge C. B. Felder Of This City.

Announcement comes from scout headquarters in this city that a club house for the use of all scouts has been completed at the camp of Troop 7. A complete Boy Scout camp has been erected and equipped at Lake Wichita and while the work was done by members of Troop 7, who are to use the camp as their headquarters, it will be opened to members of any other troop. This is to be called "Camp Felder" in honor of Judge C. B. Felder, whose donation of the camping ground made it possible for the boys to secure their camp.

On next Wednesday night there will be an official opening of the camp in the form of a "council fire" to which all scouts in the city as well as those interested in scout life and activity are invited. A complete demonstration of the work in which the scouts engage will be given and an interesting program is being prepared by the members of Troop 7. An enjoyable evening Scout Executive Taylor indicated that this would be the beginning of a series of like events which will be of the interest of scouting in the near future.

"Other Scout News." Other news of interest pertaining to Boy Scout activity in this city are briefly summed up below. A big rally and first aid demonstration will be held by the boys of Troop 7 at the First M. E. Church, South, on Friday evening of this week.

Applicants for the scout examination will be held on Monday night of next week are required to send in their names to scout headquarters at once. Scoutmaster White and Townly will leave Friday for the same place.

Scout Executive Taylor reminds all scouts that they are not to wear uniforms while engaged in civilian work. This is strictly against the scout rules, but has been violated by a number of scouts in this city.

The shortage of knapsacks in scout circles has been relieved with the announcement that the P. B. M. store has received a new lot of them. Scout Executive Taylor will attend the scoutmasters camp at Fort Hill, Okla. This will be on the 27th, 28th and 29th. Scoutmasters White and Townly will leave Friday for the same place.

DISTRICT CONVENTION OF BIBLE STUDENTS ASSN.

A district convention of the International Bible Student's Association will be held in Wichita Falls, on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, August 27, 28 and 29. The Labor Temple on Travis street will be used for the Friday and Saturday sessions of the convention. On these days the meetings will be of special interest to the delegates of which several hundred are looked for from this and adjoining states.

For Sunday, the committee has secured the Majestic Theater for the entire day.

The program announces a morning afternoon and night meeting, when timely topics of public interest will be discussed by speakers of ability. Further announcements of the Sunday program, giving the hours, subjects and speakers will be given out later.

HON. JOE EAGLE SPEAKS AT HOLIDAY REUNION

Hon. Joe Eagle of Houston addressed the assembled old soldiers and their families and friends on the reunion grounds at Holliday this morning. Judge Scurry of this city is scheduled to speak there tomorrow, which will be the closing day.

The attendance yesterday and today was satisfactory, there being between 20 and 75 of the veterans present from Wichita and Archer counties.

The grounds belong to Congressman Jackson Camp, U. S. Representative from Veterans, which is the Wichita Falls camp. They are 40 acres in extent and lying as they do at the boundary line of the two counties, are considered the purpose for which they are intended, that of annual summer reunions.

GRISWELL CO. REPORTS A 60-BARREL WELL

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Druggists Say Ladies Are Liable Recipe Of Sage Tea And Sulfur.

Hair that loses its color and lustre or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the blood. A mixture of Sage Tea and Sulfur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, is the best remedy. It is a simple and safe remedy, and it is the only one that will give you the hair you desire.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients, as asking, at any drug store for a bottle of "Witch's Sage and Sulfur Compound" which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray disappears but what delights the ladies with "Witch's Sage and Sulfur Compound" is that it does not dry or irritate the scalp. It gives the hair a soft, silky appearance, and it gives it an appearance of abundance.

Witch's Sage and Sulfur Compound is the only hair restorer that will give you the hair you desire. It is a simple and safe remedy, and it is the only one that will give you the hair you desire.

LOCAL COURTS

OFFICERS CONFISCATE 150 GALLONS OF WET GOODS

Following the arrest of William Loid on Tuesday, the sheriff's department and U. S. Deputy Marshal Jim Allen made a raid on an unoccupied shack in an alley between two of the main streets of the city and found what is believed to be the largest haul of prohibited wet goods made in this county.

The haul consisted of 150 gallons of sour mash and corn whiskey, about 15 pounds of corn mash and other ingredients used in making the liquor. It is believed that the liquor was found in a room that the U. S. authorities will order the seizure of the property on which the liquor was found.

"MEXICAN LABORER IS PLACED UNDER ARREST." Upon information furnished by postoffice inspectors, Senorio Castillo, a Mexican laborer was placed under arrest Wednesday evening, charged with stealing and forging a postoffice money order for $50.

According to his statements to Assistant District Attorney Sam Holliday, he is a roomer in the name of Joaquin Ramirez received a letter with the money order enclosed. He said that he read the letter to Ramirez and handed him the letter with the money order. Later he said he took the money order from the pockets of his roommate and signed his friend's name and cashed it at a local store last Saturday night.

"CHARGED WITH VIOLATING THE PROHIBITION LAW." J. G. Hayamen and his brother, Bill Hayamen, were placed under arrest Wednesday on charges of violating the national prohibition act. They were arrested by officers at Henrietta and turned over to United States Commissioner Lantz. They were placed under bond of $750 each.

JUVENILE DELINQUENTS DISCUSSED AT LUNCHEON OF ROTARY CLUB TODAY

B. F. Johnson, recently appointed chairman of the county advisory board of the ROTARY CLUB, spoke briefly before the Rotary club today on the necessity of co-operation between the army and the various clubs and civic organizations of Wichita Falls. Although conditions are ideal at the county poor farm, Johnson declared this statement could not be made with reference to the number of juvenile delinquents in this city.

"I am told," he said, "that we have more juvenile delinquents in Wichita Falls than in many other Texas cities, and for that reason I want to ask Rotarians for reports on their own children and to members of the board or to the personally.

"I visited the county poor farm yesterday, and was astonished to find only six inmates there. Other counties in Texas frequently have as high as 200 men and women on their county poor farms. The farm here is spotlessly clean, things are run on a business-like basis and the inmates are comfortable and happy.

"The entertainment feature of today's Rotary luncheon centered around the piano playing of Eric Zardo, headliner on the West Coast circuit. Zardo's excellent ball Zardo delighted the Rotarians with two solo numbers that were beautifully played.

FALL STYLE SHOW TO BE HELD SEPTEMBER 7

Members of the Retail Merchants' Association met this morning and fixed September 7 as the date for their second annual trade event in this city. The event will take the nature of a fall style show, with every store in the city belonging to the association putting its fall style on display on that date.

It was also decided to disseminate advertising outside of Wichita Falls calling attention to this city as the shopping center of north Texas.

PETROLIA EXPECTS TO SECURE A REFINERY

Project on Foot For Organization of Corporation to Construct Plant.

By Staff Correspondent.
PETROLIA, Aug. 23.—A project is on foot here for the organization of a private corporation to construct a refinery, ice, power and light plant, combined. Some outside capital will be necessary, but as the investment will be highly remunerative, no difficulty is anticipated on this score.

Monday night a Nef rally was held in the air dome which was crowded to capacity, and many were unable to gain admittance. Bert King of Wichita Falls and H. J. Dean of Petrolia spoke in behalf of the candidate and J. E. Robinson of Petrolia made a speech in favor of union labor. Mr. Robinson says that he is the only union carpenter in the town. He admits, he says, that the unions need reorganization and reform, but he contends for the principles of unionism as originally conceived by its founders. He believes that the foreign element which has grown so strong in the unions is responsible in a large measure for the disfavor with which the unions are regarded.

The audience received attention and applauded the speaker's statements. Music was furnished by five members of the Petrolia high school church improvements.

The Methodist church has recently been equipped with a direct current electric system by which lights and electric fans are operated.

Pastor Gilbert Irwin has instituted a plan whereby the church attendance has been largely increased and the Sunday school attendance doubled within the last 60 days.

A seven-piece orchestra has been organized and the choir augmented to 15 voices, and a musical service of 20 minutes duration is given each Sunday evening. Some of this talent is local and the remainder is supplied by persons employed in the oil field.

Each Sunday morning a truck, equipped with seats for the oil field and returns with the church-going people and their children and after church and Sunday school services are over, returns with them to

Safe Burglary Insurance

Safe robberies are reported in the papers nearly every day in the year. Even with a so-called "bullet-proof" safe, money and securities are not protected, as the professional burglar, with all his modern appliances, can in a very short time open almost any safe in common use.

Protection is granted for money stolen from the safe, also for damage done to safe and premises in an attempted burglary.

The premium charge, being moderate, is of minor consideration. Obtain protection now before the crackman's visit. Full particulars as to rates and coverage gladly given.

THE DOCTOR'S HELPFUL ALLY IS THE ACCURATE PRESCRIPTION

The doctor will tell you that medicine in itself does not cure. But the right prescription accurately compounded in the exact proportions the doctor finds necessary, after studying your personal needs, will help nature straighten things out.

That's the "cure." Putting nature to work normally. So our part is to furnish the ally to help the doctor win. And we watch each step carefully.

their homes. Many people from the Lone Star and government plants come in in their own conveyances.

To Leave Petrolia.
W. A. Harbin, and family, who have lived at Petrolia about 15 years, expect to move, within the next week, to Harlingen, Texas, near the mouth of the Rio Grande, where Mr. Harbin has bought land.

They will spend their winters there, but will return to their Petrolia farm in the summers if they do not find the gulf breezes to their liking.

Prospect Drilling.
Dr. Kelly, the local magistrate, reports that the only prospect drilling that is being done here is in the extending of the shallow field, there being no deep test in process of drilling at present. All activity of that nature, he says, seemed to cease about the time of the San Francisco convention and probably will not be resumed till after the November elections.

EXAMINATIONS TO BE HELD IN SEPTEMBER FOR RURAL CARRIERS

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination for Wichita county to be held at Burkburnett, Electra and Wichita Falls on September 23, 1920, to fill the position of rural carrier at Burkburnett, Iowa Park and Wichita Falls, and vacancies that may later occur on rural routes from other post offices in the above-mentioned county. The salary of a rural carrier on a standard daily route of 24 miles is $1.80 per annum, with an additional $20 per mile per annum for each mile or major fraction thereof in excess of 24 miles. The examination will be open only to citizens who are actually domiciled in the territory of a post office in the county and who meet the other requirements set forth in Form No. 1977. Both men and women, if qualified, may enter this examination, but appointing officers have the legal right to specify the sex desired in requesting certification of eligibles. Women will not be considered for rural carrier appointment unless they are the widows of U. S. soldiers, sailors or marines, or the wives of U. S. soldiers, sailors or marines who are physically disqualified for examination by reason of injuries received in the line of military duty. Form No. 1977 and application blanks may be obtained from the offices mentioned above or from the United States Civil Service Commission at Washington, D. C. Applications should be forwarded to the commission at Washington at the earliest practicable date.
