

DELEGATIONS CALL ON SENATOR HARDING

Tells Them He Would End "Governmental-Meddling And Bungling"

of governmental meddling and bungling in the financial world and a "return to an era of sober business" was promised by Senator Harding today in an address to several delegations of business men of Illinois and Indiana. Charging the democratic administration with waste in the conduct of its fiscal affairs and dictatorial intrusion in its relations with private enterprise, the republican nominee declared it was his purpose to wipe out many war-time government restrictions and to re-establish co-operation between government and business. In reorganization of the government's financial system, he said, he would seek the advice of the nation's ablest administrators. Revision of taxation and of the tariff, curtailment of profiteering, establishment of a federal budget system, reorganization of the postal service and promotion of a merchant marine were among the remedies he named. He declared a "conspiracy of perfect accord" between the administration and the democratic nominee was seeking to perpetuate the war powers exercised by the executive over private business.

FIVE ARE ARRESTED IN CONNECTION WITH KIMBERLIN ROBBERY

THREE MEN AND TWO WOMEN IN CUSTODY OF COUNTY OFFICIALS.

ANOTHER ARREST IS TO BE MADE DURING SUNDAY

Statements Are Made By Four Of Those Held—Most Of Goods Are Returned.

Five people—three men and two women—are in the county jail and another is being sought and will undoubtedly be under arrest before Sunday night as the result of the robbery of Kimberlin's upstairs garment shop. All the arrests in the case have been made by the chief of the city detective force, H. T. Martin, and his assistants. The stolen property, all of which has been recovered by the Kimberlin Detective Agency with the exception of two dresses, has been returned to the store.

The first arrest took place last Tuesday when Arthon Campbell was taken into custody. Saturday the city detectives arrested Roy Stator and his wife, Dora Stator, W. C. Campbell and Mrs. W. C. Campbell.

According to the statements of those under arrest, there were two robberies instead of one. On the first occasion only two dresses were taken, it was said, and these were alleged to have been stolen by Arthon Campbell.

On the following night, A. Campbell and Roy Stator returned to the same place and this time took the large consignment of valuable furs, valued at $1,500.

All of those under arrest have made statements regarding the affair with the exception of Mrs. Campbell who, it was said, became hysterical when turned over to the county officials.

From the various statements made it is learned that the morning after the robbery was committed Mrs. Campbell came to her husband, who was employed at a local cafe, and told him that all the stolen goods had been brought to their house on Travis street. Her husband informed her, it is stated, that the goods would have to be removed from their house immediately as he did not care to become connected with the affair.

W. C. Campbell states that he ordered his wife to have the stolen goods all taken away and he further states that Mrs. Stator came to his house and she took one of the dresses which were stolen the first night. He then related that he ordered his wife to cut up the remaining dress and burn it, which he says she did.

Carried to Burk Burnett.

Campbell in his statement further recites that he told his brother that he would have to remove the furs and advised him to take them to Burk Burnett. He says these orders were obeyed.

Later the goods were taken to Fort Worth, where they were recovered by the local detective agency and returned to the store which had been robbed.

The one dress was found, it is said, in the custody of Mrs. Stator. This dress has been turned over to the sheriff as evidence.

It appears that all those taken into custody were very frank in making their statements and endeavored to shield no one.

The name of the sixth party was made known to the officials by those under arrest and detectives stated last Saturday night that this party would also be in custody in a very short time.

GULF PRODUCTION BRINGS WAR CLUBS INTO PLAY AND TROUNCES TEXAS COMPANY

The Gulf Production company slaughtered the Texas company yesterday afternoon at athletic park, 14 to 5. Both Brotherton and "Squak" Johnson failed to stop the Gulf's heavy artillery and a total of 19 hits was garnered off their delivery. Johnson was rushed into the fray late in the game, but failed to stem the tide.

On the other hand, Foster's airtight twirling was one of the features of the game. He allowed only five safeties and passed but one, the majority of the Texas company's tallies being due to errors.

The all around playing of Gardner for the Gulf, was one of the outstanding features of the game. Score: Gulf 450 411 412-15 19 3 Texas 600 561 0-1- 5 5 6 Batteries—Foster and Sinclair; Brotherton, Johnson and Stanforth.

NIGHT INSTRUCTION AT HIGH SCHOOL IF THERE IS A DEMAND

SUPERINTENDENT LEE CLARK MAKES ANNOUNCEMENT ON SATURDAY.

ACTION WILL DEPEND ON THE APPLICATIONS

Meeting Of Those Interested Has Been Called For Monday Night At High School.

If there are enough applications to justify the organization of classes, the Wichita Falls high school is ready to offer night instruction in any branch of education afforded by the public school system, according to an announcement made by Superintendent Lee Clark of the high school Saturday afternoon.

"If we have as many as six applicants, 14 years old or over, we are prepared to organize night classes at the high school in mathematics, science, literature, grammar, English, or the 14 languages now taught at school," Mr. Clark stated. "We have the faculty to take care of the work. And if there are foreign-born residents or citizens who are interested in instruction in English, citizenship, etc. we are prepared to give instruction to them in those branches at night."

Mr. Clark has called a meeting for all those interested at the high school Monday evening at 7:30, and an urgent invitation is extended to young or old men and women who wish to take advantage of the offer for night class study.

School-Book Covers.
The public school children of the city are being asked to make a contribution of 25 cents to the school book cover fund. Mr. Clark stated, and in explanation, said that while the state free text book law provides that books furnished for the use of the children must have covers, it does not provide a fund for the purchase of the covers. Last year several hundred dollars were taken from the local public school maintenance fund for this purpose, but this year it was not thought advisable to deplete the fund for any available expense, and the school has arranged for strong, durable, sanitary covers for all books, for which the students are asked to pay a very nominal sum. The payment provides covers for all books used by the student, including the books added or changed at Christmas.

Teachers' Meeting.
At the Saturday teachers meeting, Mr. Clark stated that much interest was taken in the discussion of local and state-wide education plans, and the teachers decided to begin a campaign to bring the State Teachers' Association to Wichita Falls by year after next, if possible. The state meeting is to be held next year in Fort Worth, and a big attendance from Wichita Falls faculties is expected to attend.

ANNOUNCE TEACHERS FOR PUBLIC SCHOOLS; 119 ARE REQUIRED

WITH FEW TO BE EMPLOYED LIST AND ASSIGNMENTS MADE PUBLIC.

With the completion of the assignment of teachers for the coming year everything is in readiness for the opening of the Wichita Falls public schools Monday. The myriad details have been cleared away and school officials are now getting their first breathing spell within three weeks time.

W. W. Brown, manager of the school system, announced Saturday that the cafeterias located in the high school and Austin building would not be opened until Tuesday. Both of these lunch rooms have been cleaned and overhauled during the summer vacation period and will be in readiness to supply the wants of the hungry youngsters.

In regard to the year's enrollment of students, officials of the system were uncertain and stated that it was extremely difficult to predict with any degree of accuracy the number of pupils that would be registered after school had been in session for a few weeks. All agreed that the registration which was held last Thursday was no indication of the actual number that would enter later on, and one man stated that he expected the total number to be about the same as last year, which was 2,320 at the close of the schools in June.

The matter of teachers, which is always the one of most vital importance, has finally been settled. The assignment list, which was completed Saturday, contains 119 names. This, together with the four supervisors and three instructors yet to be appointed, gives a total of 123 teachers to be employed in the local school system.

In making the final announcement Mr. Brown requested that all students be reminded of the 25-cent book fee which they will be expected to pay to defray the cost of the book covers issued by the state. He also stated that the school authorities wished to thank the citizens of Wichita Falls who had opened their doors to the teachers and were providing them with homes. All teachers have now secured accommodations for the coming year.

The assignment of teachers is as follows:

FRANK KELL RETURNS FROM EL PASO TRIP

Attends Opening Of New Building For Branch Federal Reserve Bank.

Frank Kell has just returned from a trip to El Paso, where he went to attend the opening of the new building for the branch bank of the 11th federal district located in that city. The building was formally opened on Monday, all of the member banks of the section and business men of El Paso being invited to attend.

The lot for this building was purchased six months ago and the quarters of the bank is splendid and modern in every feature. The building is now two stories high and has foundation and walls strong enough to carry five more stories, when they shall be needed.

This is the first building erected in the federal reserve system. Mr. Kell says for a branch bank. One or two other branch banks have purchased buildings, but none, prior to this, have erected one.

After the ceremonies, which occurred during the day, an elaborate banquet was held at night and was attended by representatives of nearly all the banks in the 11th district and nearly all the leading business men of El Paso. Hon. W. F. Ramsey, chairman of the federal reserve board at Dallas, and Hon. Marion Ramsey, of Fort Worth and Mr. Kell were representatives of the parent bank at Dallas.

Speeches were made at the banquet by leading citizens of that section of the 11th federal district, by General Howe, commanding officer at Fort Bliss, and by Judge Ramsey, Mr. Sansom and Mr. Kell.

MARION HARRIS PRESENTS TWO NEW "BLUES" SONGS

Marion Harris, the little vaudeville artist who has done a lot to make "blues" songs popular, has two new syncopated laments on Columbia records this month. In "Oh Judge (He Treats Me Mean)" she tells her troubles as a wife, and in "He Done Me Wrong" she tells her troubles as a sweetheart. Whatever troubles Marion tells are good for a whole lot of laughs.

Frank Crumit makes an eloquent plea for jazz in that rousing melody "Don't Take Away Those Blues" on a Columbia record this month. His "Good-bye, Dixie, Good-bye," on the other side of this record, is a southern syncopation with a real appeal.

The Paul Bliss Trio trots through its best pieces in its two new fox-trots for Columbia records this month. "In Sweet September" is its dance version of Al Jolson's latest song hit, and "Sweet Sugar Babe" is a southern melody.

Patrons of the City National Bank of Commerce derive pleasure from their connection with this strong financial institution because of the friendly and courteous interest which the clerks and officers manifest in the business affairs of customers.

REV. BONIFACE TAKES ISSUE WITH DOCTOR

Defends Chiropractors And Issues Challenge To Dr. Walker To Discuss Question.

The Times has received a communication from Rev. P. Boniface, pastor of the Catholic church here, in which he takes issue with Dr. M. M. Walker in the latter's allegations against certain chiropractors in Wichita. Falls against whom he has filed complaints charging that they have practiced medicine without a license.

Rev. Boniface in his communication declares that the constitutional rights of the defendants have been endangered by the action of the city health officer. He says that the charge that the defendants publicly profess to be physicians and surgeons is not true as is also the charge that they are not graduates of some legal and reputable college of medicine. He declares that he is sure that the great institution of Dr. Palmer of Davenport, Iowa, of which those of the defendants are graduates, is without reputation, is silly.

Rev. Boniface challenges Dr. Walker to a public debate of the matter of the prosecution of the defendants. He says:

"Now, if Dr. Walker is anxious to show the public that either the one or the two motives propel him, I am ready to meet him either on Ninth and Indiana or on Seventh and Scott, that is to say, either in open debate or discussion through our paper, and I will prove that the benefit of the public is not the motive, which I derive from revelation in connection with the last grand jury, and furthermore, I will prove that the law has no grievance against the chiropractors, but that the chiropractors have a grievance against the law, that the application of medical act in the appointment of the board of medical examiners is contrary to the constitution of Texas. Now, my dear sir, let us have this out! Hundreds of dollars of this county have been spent in fighting chiropractors in the past. Shall we have another spell of it? Hundreds of people of this city know more about chiropractors than you do, and they claim their God-given right to sick to and to live their own opinion, and any tyrannical action will be strong enough to down this American sentiment. Let us have it out before the people of this city whether chiropractors are beneficial or not, whether chiropractors are transgressors of the law, or whether the law is handled in an unlawful way. You may choose the manner of debate as stated before, but if you fail to prove that either the first or the second motive is yours, or failing to prove this, you desire from prosecution, then you are forced to accept the third motive as your propelling power, viz., the struggle for existence of the medical profession."

OLDEST AND YOUNGEST VETERANS CONFEDERACY TO GET AIRPLANE RIDE

HOUSTON, TEX., Sept. 11.—The oldest and youngest veterans of the Confederacy who attend the reunion at Houston, October 3 to 8, will get a free ride in a racing airplane.

If the oldest and the youngest, "Johnny" prefer to stay on the ground, the next in order of age get their chance to go.

This offer was made today by H. C. Block and R. McCabe, pilots on the staff of S. E. Cox, a Houston oil magnate, who maintains his own flying field adjoining Herrmann Park, where the veterans will be camped while in Houston.

Block and McCabe, both "veterans" of the air service in the World War, are keenly interested in the preparations for the Confederate encampment. They promise more hair raising stunts in the air than the oldtimers have ever seen, during the veterans stay on the neighboring tract.

There is a fleet of eight fast planes at the Cox field hangar. It was there that Harold Van Buren, a young motion picture actor, recently rode a maddie strapped to the backbone of a fast plane while it executed spirals, loops and hog dives in the air. Block piloted the machine. He promises not to "cut any monkeyshines" with the veterans, unless they find straight flying too tame.

"I'll bet those old boys will want everything we've got in the stunt line," grinned Block after he had made his offer.

The question now arises: Who will be the oldest and who the youngest veteran at Houston? Who are the candidates in your locality?

PLAN TO REGULATE THE TRAFFIC THROUGH PARKS

The city council will in the near future take up consideration of an ordinance regulating traffic through the city parks. Dr. J. F. Reed of the park board brought the matter to the attention of council. He told of some of his experiences with drivers of heavy vehicles who drove through the city parks tearing up the driveways when they were softened by heavy rains. He told particularly of some incidents in Scotland parks. He remonstrated with the driver of a truck who was going through the park. "Get out of the road, there is no law against it," he said this man told him.

Dr. Reed's attention was called thereby to the necessity of an ordinance on the subject and members of the council agreed that such an ordinance was necessary.

NEWS FROM THE COURTS

"WANT NO PARTNER" SAYS LOCAL JUVENILE OFFENDER

"I have no partner. I don't want a partner. Partners tell." This statement from a fifteen year old boy who has been in trouble several times and who on Saturday afternoon was sentenced to the reformatory at Gatesville...

The boy, although large for his age was arrested two weeks ago and held in connection with the disappearance of a large consignment of brass joints. The joints were recovered. The father was notified but the first night the boy was in the juvenile cell he effected an escape.

Thursday, while Juvenile Officer Morgan has combing the city for the escaped boy, the city police again arrested him. This time he was apprehended while he was endeavoring to dispose of a large automobile casing near the union depot.

When apprehended the last time he was wearing a brand new pair of shoes, but where he received or secured them is not known. The boy made the statement above when he was asked about several checks which had been cashed in which it is believed he had a part.

Friday night he endeavored to make his escape again and in his efforts, which proved futile, he tore up a radiator and other fixtures in the juvenile jail. He also is said to have hurled a soapbox at a passerby.

JUDGMENT FOR BOTH THE PLAINTIFF AND DEFENDANT

A case, which was termed "a pretty suit," came to an end Saturday morning in the county court of law, when Judge O. Rogers after hearing the testimony returned a decision and rendered judgment to both the plaintiff and defendant. The case was entitled E. D. Culligan vs. Farmers State Bank of Hutchinson.

The plaintiff filed suit for judgment to the amount of $550, alleging that the defendant cashed check, aggregating this amount, without the proper signature. The defendant then filed a cross action to which the plaintiff filed a general disclaimer and in the trial contended that the plaintiff had come to the paying teller in the bank stating that another man would take care of his business while he would be away in Oklahoma on business. The teller, it is said, cashed these checks which bore the signatures of the man in whose case the plaintiff had placed his business.

A cross action was also filed by the defendant in which they asked that the court find that the bank did not have the right in cashing the checks that they should have judgment for $500. In support of this contention they offered proof that the man in whose favor $550 worth of checks had been drawn was legitimately entitled to this money and offered the court an assignment of the alleged debt.

The court overruled the demurrer filed by the plaintiff, gave the plaintiff a judgment of $550, holding out that the defendant did not offer sufficient proof that they were authorized to cash the checks and then gave the defendant a judgment of $500 against the plaintiff on the cross action filed.

FAMILY FEUD IS AIDED BEFORE COUNTY ATTORNEY

A family wrangling match occupied a greater portion of the time of the assistant county attorney Saturday morning. A Greek who has a wife of Scotch-Irish descent, gave a complaint against his wife alleging that she had endeavored to take his life. Both were present and the entire affair was aired. Each denied what the other said and the latter stated that each was telling lies. The wife was arrested Friday evening by the city authorities.

CASES ARE ADVANCED TO DOCKET FOR THIS WEEK

Insufficient time for the trial of all the cases set for the past week in the 29th district court made it necessary for Judge E. A. Martin to set the remaining cases for trial the week beginning Monday, September 13. The cases are as follows:

- 6700—Chas. F. Noble vs. American National Bank of Tulsa.
6870—Tarrant County vs. J. J. White et al.
6902—J. F. Horn vs. W. R. Fagg et al.

COMMUNITY SERVICE PLANS WILL BE TAKEN UP WHEN FOLKS RETURN FOR WINTER

When the summer vacationists have returned home for the winter, and matters of community interest can be depended on to attract more uninterrupted attention, plans for community playground work in Wichita Falls under the direction of the chamber of commerce are to be worked out. It is expected that the playground work, including block parties, etc., will be taken up in October.

None of the plans for the community play activities have been announced yet, as they have not been completed, but after a thorough course of instruction given three classes under direction of Mr. Haughtell, the national community service man the past summer, it is expected that there will be interesting developments in the work this winter.

ATTENDING TO CHICKENS AND GARDENS

"My neighbors are surprised to see me looking so well, for they thought I would not live to see summer. I had such pain around my heart as to cause me to faint. I knew it came from my stomach. A friend in St. Louis told me to use Dr. Williams' Wonderful Remedy and I now feel better than in all my life. I am doing my own work, attending to my chickens and my garden and have cleaned house." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allows the infirmities which cause practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.

The above photo was taken by The Times photographer just before the start of the final Spudder-Spuder game at Athletic Park. Judge H. F. Weldon is presenting Skipper Walter Salm the chest of silver that was donated to him by the members of his own club and the local fans.

SHREVEPORT, Sept. 11.—The Gassers had little difficulty in making it two straight in the Spudders today and easily won, 7 to 2. Carl Eberhard was sent to the mound by Skipper Salm in an effort to stay in the running for second place, but the Spudder midget had an off day. He was as wild as a hawk and when he did manage to get the ball over the Gassers pounded it into the Spudders' innards.

RED JOSEFSON STILL HAS EDGE ON NIXON IN TEXAS BATTING RACE

JOSEFSON AND NIXON INCREASE AVERAGES BUT SPUDDER STILL HAS 7 POINT EDGE ON EXPORTER

By WILLIAM B. RUGGLES
League Statistician

With but a week remaining in the Texas League campaign after the Labor Day bargain bills, Godfrey Spudder held a seven point lead in the race for the batting supremacy. His mark of .347 led Nixon's .340, while Camp and E. Brown had failed to improve their status. Brown, however, had gained a pair of hits on the Tilton locked Spudder in the chase for the honor of achieving 200 base blows this season, and last Monday night rested just nine bingles from the coveted mark in spite of a slump. Friday, McDonald holds an even chance to finish the season above the 300 mark. Twelve survivors are batting .300 or better.

GALLAGHER AND PATE TIE FOR HIGH SCORE AT GUN CLUB SHOOT

The weather man slipped a cog last Friday and a very successful shoot was held by the members of the Wichita Falls Gun Club. What the weather man missed in rain, however, he made up in wind and a choppy breeze-battered the shooters considerably although several good scores were turned in.

Four squads were on deck for the shoot, an exceptionally large number considering the fact that the dogs season is open. Several members have tried their luck with the birds lately and have been rewarded with a small bag, a good wetting, and the pleasant experience of getting stuck in a mudhole up to the running boards. (See H. G. Burlew or J. P. Lanck.)

Grover Spencer of the Peters Cartidge company visited the traps Friday and showed good form, though his score of 47 was tied by Gallagher and Pate. Gallagher won the toss for the silver spoon.

The regular weekly shoot will be held next Friday at 4:00 o'clock. Friday's scores were as follows:

Spencer 47, Gallagher 47, Pate 47, King 44, Douthett 44, Nash 42, Gibbs 42, Schutt 41, Ripley 41, Danaher 39, Kookan 39, Cowden 38, Holmes 38, O'Connell 30 out of 25, Lanck 35 out of 25, Lisle 32 out of 25.

STEPLIGHTLY WINS CLASSIC FUTURITY FOR TWO YEAR OLDS

Man O' War Adds Another American Track Record To Already Long List.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—Steplightly won the classic Futurity for two year olds at Belmont Park today. Star Viceroy was second and Gray Leg third, Time 1:12.8.

Man O' War, champion three year old, made another American track record today when he won the Jockey Club stakes, one mile and a half, in 2:28.4.

The best previous time for the distance, 2:29.5, was made by Thunderclap at Laurel Md, last year. Thunderclap carried 108 pounds when he made this record. Man O' War today carried 112.

AMERICAN OLYMPIC COMMITTEE CHARGED WITH GROSS NEGLIGENCE

U. S. Athletes Have Nothing But Praise For Army And Navy.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—Gross neglect by the American Olympic committee of the welfare of the United States athletes on the voyage to Antwerp, was charged by athletes arriving home today on the transport Sierman from Belgium. Dismissal of the committee will be demanded, they told newspapers.

Praise for the army and navy in efforts to make the trip over and back as comfortable and pleasant as possible, was virtually unanimous.

The Olympic athletes blamed the committee for sending them by train to port, declaring it was too slow and tended to let the men grow "stale" before they arrived in Belgium. They also said their quarters were unsatisfactory for athletes who needed to keep in training.

On the way home on the Sherman, they came on a "sea-going hearse," they said, characterized by the voyage as "gruesome" for the ship brought 742 bodies of American soldiers dead from Europe, "almost directly under the sleeping quarters." The loading of the bodies on board made so much noise that a number of the athletes "had to go to Antwerp hotels to sleep," they added.

PRE-SEASON WORK WILL BE ATTENDED BY ELIGIBLES ONLY

Seventy Texas University Gridiron Warriors Expected To Be On Deck September 14.

AUSTIN, Sept. 11.—With the gridiron season only about 10 days off, the University of Texas athletic force in Austin is completing all arrangements for the accommodation of the 85 or 90 men who will be on hand September 14 to participate in the early practice. Gridiron fields in wonderful shape, and players will receive no hard bumps from hitting the grass.

Only eligible men have been invited to the pre-season training, as the coaches will have a difficult enough job rounding the team into first-class shape in time for the first game on September 23 without having to take charge of a bunch of ineligible players before that time. Freshman Coach Clyde Littlefield will call the freshmen together about the 15th of September and Assistant Coach E. D. Bryan will gather together the ineligible about the same time. Very good schedules are being prepared for both the freshmen and the ineligible teams this fall. In fact, the freshmen and ineligible schedules of the University of Texas will be just as strong as those of small Texas colleges which are not in the Southwest Athletic Conference and so permit freshmen to play on the college teams. In addition to games with strong secondary schools, the freshmen will have a number of practice games with the Longhorns, and will thus be able to pit their strength and football knowledge against one of the strongest teams in the south. With two coaches devoting their entire time to them and with sport strong competition during their first year, the freshmen of this year should make possibly the greatest team ever at Texas in 1932.

Head Coach Berry Whitaker is at the gymnasium every day working out his plans for the season. Clyde Littlefield was in Austin for about 10 days, but left recently for Oil City, La., and will not be back until about the tenth. E. D. Bryan has been in Colorado for part of the summer and Albert Penn has been playing semi-pro baseball in Texas. Captain Maxey Hart has been playing baseball during the summer and is in fine shape for the opening of the season. This is Hart's last season at Varsity and he expects to make it his best.

Quimet did not win the hole on the way to the turn in the afternoon round and halved only four.

Harry Coveleskie had a somewhat erratic career, finally drifting to Detroit, where he became one of the most successful pitchers in the league. Ty Cobb had a brother and Nap Lajoie had a bunch of them, so did Hans Wagner, and they played ball too. So when Harry Coveleskie mentioned, casually, that he had a younger brother named Stanley, who would become a greater pitcher than himself no one paid much attention to him.

It wasn't long until Stanley appeared in a Cleveland uniform, and he made good from the start. Today he is one of the best in the league, and doing more than his share in keeping the Indians at the top of the column.

FUR COAT RETURNED BEFORE LOSS IS DISCOVERED BY THE OWNER.

OTHER VALUABLE GOODS RECOVERED BY POLICE

An Arrest is Made in Connection With Each Case By Members Of The Force.

The police department pit in a busy day Saturday...

The arrests of those charged with the theft of furs and other articles from the Kimbomba Tailors' Shop last Saturday night were made Saturday and the major portion of the stolen booty recovered and returned to the proprietors of the store.

The second feat worthy of mention took place Saturday afternoon when a shop lifter was captured with a $160 fur cape which he was alleged to have appropriated on the spot.

The third case concerned shop lifting also and several hundred dollars worth of wearing apparel are now in the custody of the police while a search is being made for the owner.

In commenting on the three cases Chief Huff highly commended the work of his men and was justly proud of the record they had made.

The last case was the most dramatic of the record they had made. Detective De Graffenreid and Jackson together with Sergeant Hunter were largely responsible for the arrest.

SPECIAL SERVICE AT THE JEWISH TEMPLE

Congregation Begins Celebration Of Rosh Hashanah On Sunday Evening.

The indictment of the Year 1920 will be the subject of Dr. David Goldberg's sermon at Temple Israel...

This evening is the Jewish New Year's eve and the choir of the temple will give special music and the congregation has extended a very cordial invitation to the public to attend.

The service will start promptly at 8:00 o'clock. Visitors will be welcomed to any seat in the temple.

At 10:00 o'clock Monday morning Dr. Goldberg's sermon topic will be "The Permanent and the Transitory." Again at this service the public will be welcomed and there will again be special music by the choir.

Rosh Hashanah, the Jewish New Year, will be celebrated Monday, by Jews throughout the world.

It is the beginning of the New Year and one of its principal features is the blowing of the shofar or ram's horn.

Apart from its joyful and festive nature, Rosh Hashanah is rich in moral import and significance. The fact that it is the beginning of the New Year lends it special sacredness.

It is the time of higher resolves, the turning point of the year. It is the time which brings home to the Jew with great force the lesson that the time is short and the work is great.

The festival is a gentle reminder of the brevity of human existence, but it optimistically stresses the doctrine that man, far from being a plaything in the hands of fate, can realize his life's work if he but takes advantage of the swiftly fleeting moments.

PLOT TO ASSASSINATE GEN. ALVARO OBREGON

President Eliot With Others Are To Be Killed According To Information Given.

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 11.—A plot to assassinate General Alvaro Obregon, president-elect of the republic of Mexico, and Generals Elias Calles, Francisco Serrano and Benjamin Hill, has been unearthed in the United States, according to an announcement made here tonight in Mexican circles friendly to General Obregon. It was stated that a prominent Mexican, friendly to the president-elect, left San Antonio today for Mexico City to warn General Obregon and the other three generals of the plot.

The courier is due to arrive in Mexico City Monday morning. It is claimed here that the plot was arranged to be executed on the night of September 15, Independence day of the Mexican republic. It is said that the plot implicates high Mexican military officials, and that while the plan was agitated in the United States and the evidence of it was first uncovered here, the principal actors are now in Mexico. Realizing that a revolution in Mexico at this time is impossible, according to the report, those directing the plot hoped to assassinate the four generals, who have been called the brains of the present government, in the hope that the chaotic and anarchy-ridden affairs which would follow such assassinations would be the means of their riding into power.

DISTINGUISHED TEXANS TO OFFICIATE AT OPENING OF TEXAS COTTON PALACE

WACO, TEX., Sept. 11.—Pat Neff, democratic nominee for governor, Governor Hobby and Congressman Tom Connally probably will be among the notables to officiate at the opening of the Texas Cotton Palace here Oct. 26. President W. V. Crawford announced today that invitations have been extended to these distinguished Texans to be present and to take part in the exercises which will mark the sixtieth annual exposition of the Waco association.

While the Texas Cotton Palace, according to Mr. Crawford, has increased its premium list by several thousand dollars for livestock exhibit prize winners and is building larger barns to take care of the livestock entries, the show is going in for a bigger social program this year than ever before, he says.

The bringing of the San Carlo Grand opera company, an organization of 12 artists, to Waco to present seven operas, according to Mr. Crawford will not only mark a new era in the history of the Cotton Palace, but also will have to do with the revolutionization of all other Texas fairs.

"The people of Texas love music just as much as the people of New York," Mr. Crawford says. "This has been proved by the sale of tickets for the opera we are bringing down here direct from that city. If they want

Their stomachs are about the same size

It would take a stomach larger than the cow herself if the big milker were to give her maximum amount of milk. The low producer in giving protein for the small amount of milk she is capable of giving.

Any milk cow should be fed while on pasture.

It balances the irregularities in grass. Otherwise she will overwork her system and wear feed in digesting carbohydrates she can't use for milk.

Jordan Makes Startling Record On Fifteen Famous Hills

Fifteen stock Jordan cars in fifteen different sections of the United States climbed fifteen famous Hills in a big country-wide Hill-climbing demonstration, Thursday, Sept. 2nd.

The tests were made by Jordan Distributors under the supervision of an official observer appointed by the local newspaper.

The public knew the Jordan was a beautiful car. Those who had known the joy of riding in the Jordan were delighted by its real comfort.

A few weeks ago the Jordan broke all economy records in a nation-wide test—27 cars going 12,546 miles at an average of 24.1 miles per gallon.

This Hill-climbing test was organized to acquaint owners of all cars with the remarkable ability of performance possessed by the Jordan.

Ten thousand Jordan cars in every part of the world have brought conviction to experienced motorists of Jordan superiority in at least five striking particulars.

—The real beauty of line and contour as possessed by the Jordan.

—Superb balance, making it the most comfortable car on the road.

—Light-weight, compact, rattle-proof, making the Jordan as a car of real economy in operation.

—Pride of ownership which raises it above all considerations of mechanical features and price.

Now, to complete the proof of Jordan service and Jordan ability, fifteen stock cars make remarkable showing in nation-wide Hill-climbing test as shown from figures listed below taken from telegrams.

TIMES DAILY MARKET'S

New York Stocks, Grain and Provisions, Cotton and Livestock. Cotton Market. NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—There was some further covering by October shorts in the cotton market here today, but it was much less active after yesterday's sensational advance, and prices broke severely because of the better weather in the South and unfavorable reports from the goods trade and easier foreign exchange rates. The gain list closed easy at a net decline of 23 to 33 points. The opening was weak at a decline. The early selling movement was followed by rallies, but these met increased offerings and the market became weak under Southern and heavy Wall Street selling. Closing prices were the lowest of the day on most positions. Some of the local traders expressed disappointment over the failure of week-end review to show more indication of an improvement in goods demand, but much of the selling was attributed to the better weather in the South and prospects for its continuation of the week-end. The local situation was considered one of the unfavorable features while the opinion was expressed in some quarters that Friday's advance had carried October nearly high enough to attract shipments here from the South. NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 11.—The opening was lower in cotton today and the market was depressed throughout the short week-end season, closing 72 to 73 points net lower. Heavy resistance from buyers in the earlier session of the week, great improvement in the

GRAIN AND PRODUCE

Grain and Provisions. CHICAGO, Sept. 11.—Wheat displayed a firm tone today while coarse grains were off. At the finish wheat showed a net gain of 10 to 12 with December $2.47 and March $2.21; corn was $1.02 net lower. Oats were 80 lower to 10 higher, and provisions were unchanged to 30 up. There was a strong undertone in wheat and prices averaged higher. Trade, however, was light and inclined to press the selling side. Corn averaged lower on local and commission house selling. Provisions were lifted by export business. NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—Cattle receipts 490; market for week: beef steers steady to 40 higher; best steers weak to 50 lower; bulls weak; calves and stockers and feeders steady to 30 higher. Hog receipts 300 head; market uneven, 17 to 20 higher; mixed advancing; most, top $14.40@15.00; heavy $13@15. Sheep receipts 2,000 head; market for week: mostly 20 lower; lambs 10 to 20 higher; feeding lambs steady to 20 higher. FORT WORTH, Sept. 11.—Cattle receipts 1,400 head; unchanged; heavy $6@11; stockers $5@8; cows $4@8; calves $4@8. Hog receipts 300 head; market uneven, 17 to 20 higher; mixed advancing; most, top $14.40@15.00; heavy $13@15. Sheep receipts 2,000 head; market for week: mostly 20 lower; lambs 10 to 20 higher; feeding lambs steady to 20 higher.

STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—Stocks were under incessant pressure during today's first trading period on the further weakness of foreign exchange and lack of constructive developments. The reaction in exchange forced the British rate below 2.0, the lowest quotation for demand bills since the early part of last March. French, Belgian and American remittance rates broke sharply. News of the day bore little relation to the financial markets. The clearing house statement was favorable, actual loans and discounts showing another substantial contraction, with a very moderate decrease of excess reserves. Net demand deposits increased slightly over $1,000,000 more than they settled last week's decrease. Bonds reacted with stocks, most domestic issues, including Liberties, losing ground. Total sales, par value, $1,150,000. NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—Pronounced improvement in investment conditions as evidenced by the success attending the new French loan offering and a growing conviction that the credit situation is relaxing were the propelling force of a fairly active and irregularly tightened movement in the stock market this week. Bonds also were stimulated by the steady absorption of the French issue, excepting the Liberty group. Money and foreign exchange pursued widely different courses. Greater ease being evidenced in the rates for time and demand loans; while remittances to London fell to lowest levels in almost five months, with concurrent heaviness in continental European points.

A class will be initiated in the rank of Esquire, and business of special importance will be discussed. Electra lodge No. 382, Knights of Pythias, of Electra, Texas, is very anxious for a Dokey ceremonial to be held in this city at an early date, and it has been suggested that Pioneer lodge No. 49 make arrangements with Asotes temple No. 773 Dramatic Order of Knights of Khorasan of Fort Worth to visit this city and put on this ceremonial.

All Knights of Pythias in this city as well as surrounding places, who are interested in securing this ceremony, are especially urged to meet with the local lodge next Tuesday night promptly at 8 o'clock, when something definite will be decided upon relative to this matter.

MEMBERS POLICE FORCE EQUIPPED WITH 'BILLY'

Members of the local police force equipped Saturday morning with a complete equipment of clubs, more commonly known as "billys," and handcuffs. These articles will be included in each patrolman's outfit.

Clubs have never been used by officers in this city before, but Chief Huff has always been of the opinion that they were needed and soon after assuming the duties of chief of police he ordered a supply. The new clubs are of the regulation size and shape and when wielded in the hands of a bushy officer should be an added terror to evil doers. All patrolmen will be required to carry their clubs while on duty.

H. C. M'BRIDE PASSES THE STATE BAR EXAMINATION

NEW CHAPEAUS FIRST TO BE CONSIDERED FOR WARDROBE

After the strenuous summer days, how gratefully one comes back to prepare for the more restful fall and winter season. One's first thought is of the new wardrobe, and first to be considered for that are the new chapeaus necessary for daytime and evening wear. It is never too early to plan one's hats for the season. It is a subject to be thought of long and seriously, for it is not true that a woman's hat can make or mar her costume as it will? A hat should look as if it had been placed on a head by the hand of Fate, and not as if it had been hither and thither, alighting on just the wrong head.

Fascinating, indeed, is the prospect of choosing one or more hats from the enticing, though bewildering array in the hat shop this fall. There are those delightful soft little hand made affairs of early colored duvetya, or velour for early fall sports wear, and for walking and driving the silk fabrics, not until later the latter's push seem to be greatly favored. While for evening wear, there is the large picture hat of the finest velvet, or one of those airy transparent bits of lace and tulle worn so much by the ingenue type. Never before has one's choice seemed so unlimited, as it is this fall, even the fastidious will have no trouble in finding among the innumerable artistically made hats, the one designed to suit her individual type.

To brighten the sultry moments of an autumn day, there are the smart little duvetya and velour hats worn for almost any occasion, very gay in color and soft and jaunty in shape. Jade green has been revived for these fall hats, and also the soft tans, henna, an occasional bright red and lovely turquoise blue are much used. Duvetya is perhaps most striking note this fall, but besides the brilliantly colored models to be worn very early, there are the darker grayish browns, soft dull henna and the always proverbial navy blue, which will be featured later in the season.

What sub-deb would not delight in one of these charming models of buttercup colored duvetya. This hat has small round crown and an alluring upright brim composed of two horizontal lines, the second of which is very full, on either side of the hat is a perky little bow of corded silk ribbon, the one on the right being placed lower than the other, and ending with a silk fringe, which falls softly over the hair in a most becoming fashion.

The use of sectional crowns of duvetya is interesting. Such crowns are very often used in combination with taffeta, taking from the heavy effect of an all duvetya hat. In some instances these are combined with roll brims of taffeta, closely hemstitched, each roll of hemstitching wired to attain the roll effect.

This fall will be quite incomplete without a taffeta hat, which adds so much to one's smart tailleur. An enticing model is gold brocade displays becoming points, around which folds rich brown silk braid, bright with golden threads. A distinctly new note is found in the use of baronette satin in making hats. How completely satisfying are these, charmingly simple in design, made up usually in off the face effects, and trimmed with just a spray of uncurled ostrich.

It is interesting to know that wide moire ribbons are being used for fall hats. Often in brown combined with natural color chamamois, they are most attractive. The moire is used for the top of the hat with chamamois, facing it with light brown crystals making a unique design over the entire surface.

CITY COUNCIL PASSES FINALLY THE ORDINANCE FOR SEWER EXTENSION

The city council held another meeting Saturday morning at which the ordinance, bearing $250,000 in warrants for sewer improvements and extension was passed on its second reading. The ordinance will be placed on its third reading Monday morning. Meetings of the city council were held daily last week to pass appropriation ordinances, to approve the contract for the sanitary sewers and to pass the bond issue election ordinances.

WICHITA VALLEY FIFTEEN HOURS LATE ON FRIDAY

Friday the Wichita Valley rolled in just 15 hours late. It was due in this station at 2:15 a. m. from Abilene, but was delayed by a washout and several stretches of softened roadbed. It arrived at 5:15 in the afternoon. Aside from this all trains were running on schedule time Friday and at noon Saturday none were marked up as being late. The cessation of the heavy rains has enabled the railroads to put their tracks back into shape and the precautionary low speed which was maintained during the wet spell has been done away with.

Priced $39.50 to $395.00.

Tailored Frocks Assume Embroidery to Avoid an Appearance of Severity

Tailored types—the coat dress for instance, fashioned of tricotine and velour and of combinations of woolen and silk materials promise to be the vogue. Priced $39.50 and up.

WALLIE REID SPEEDS AGAIN THIS TIME AT THE OLYMPIC

as a result a goodly amount of mass action was obtained. Among other well known screen stars in the picture are Henry J. Herbert, Harry De Vera, Raymond Nye, Clarence Morgan, John...

WALLACE REID FEATURES IN "WHAT'S YOUR HURRY?"

A breezy drama of the type that has made Wallace Reid famous is to be shown at the Olympic on Monday and Tuesday.

The popular Wallie has climbed higher in public estimation with each release and "What's Your Hurry," which is the picture in question, has enthroned him on the pinnacle of public esteem in the cities where it has been shown.

The story tells of one Dusty Rhoads who is a professional racing driver, but who gives up this vocation when he learns that the father of a certain American theater going public has begun...

all of Mr. Farnum's pictures are as unique as they are enjoyable and the American theater going public has begun to expect this sort of thing from him.

The scenes of the story are laid in the great northwest and the plot deals with treasure and romance. Mr. Farnum plays first the hero of youth who discovers the vast deposits of gold but who is compelled by circumstance to leave the country before he can acquire the wealth in his own name.

At this point the romance of the story begins. The plot is developed through the scenes that show the search for the treasure and of its final discovery in the bed of a great river which had changed its course and buried the gold beneath its waters.

Lois Wilson plays opposite Mr. Reid in "The Joyous Troublemakers," a William Fox photodrama starring William Farnum. The picture is of the type known as "different" and a number of new and novel ideas are introduced in it by the producers, but...

doesn't gain publicity, so he persuades the cops to use Pakro spudsters in chasing speeders. This fails, also, although it managed to drag Patrick himself into a police trap.

Patrick then decided to get the publicity himself and arranged to haul a gigantic load through the streets on one of his trucks, but the truck breaks down and the publicity it gains is of the wrong kind.

Through a cross telephone connection Dusty hears of this peril and, putting a force of racing drivers on Pakro trucks laden with sand bags and explosives, he leads the procession for the valley in a driving storm.

The rest is easy. Patrick is delighted when he learns that Pakro trucks did the trick and when the president of the Cabrillo concern seeks to employ Dusty as superintendent of the new construction work, Patrick announces that he can't spare him as Dusty is to be his future manager.

Lois Wilson plays opposite Mr. Reid in "What's Your Hurry" and does a very creditable job. Charles Oglet, Clarence Burton and Ernest Butterworth also appear in the cast.

INTEREST IN FORTHCOMING PRODUCTION OF HUMORESQUE

As the date for the presentation of "Humoresque" draws nearer, interest in the picture is increasing and the management of the Olympic is laying plans to accommodate the greatest crowds in the history of the theater.

The amusement writer of the American interviewed Kreiser and his wife as they were leaving the Rlyoff after viewing the picture for the fifth time and in his article he set forth quotations which he attributed to Mrs. Kreiser. The production evidently met with great favor with that lady as well as with her husband for both declared it superb and the master violinist stated that it was a fitting melody over written for the violin.

"Humoresque" is to be shown at the Olympic on Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Thomas H. Ince and The Times to Provide Trip Through the World's Greatest Motion Picture Studios

Douglas MacLean can't escape the camera, not even when he's peacefully engaged in eating breakfast. As intimate glimpses from the Thomas H. Ince production, "A Trip Through the World's Greatest Motion Picture Studios," coming to the Olympic September 21 as an added attraction.

All preparatory for "A Trip Through the World's Greatest Motion Picture Studios."

With arrangements complete for the presentation of the great Thomas H. Ince film depicting every phase of studio life, local movie fans—from little Willie who has often wondered how they do it to great-grandmother who recalls the exciting day when the Nickelodeon flourished forth in regular, P. T. Barnum style—are ready for the joyous journey into the magic realms of shadowland.

"A Trip Through the World's Greatest Motion Picture Studios," produced by Thomas H. Ince, world-famous director-producer of the west, cast by special arrangements with the Wichita Daily Times, will be shown for the first time at the theater September 21 as an added attraction.

If the thousands of local film devotees were to board the "California Limited" direct for Los Angeles, California, arrive at the world's greatest cinema capital and proceed promptly to the immense Thomas H. Ince studios, they would behold no more (and perhaps not as much) than is vividly portrayed in "A Trip Through the World's Greatest Motion Picture Studios."

For few, if any, of the most per-as H. Ince has anticipated the favor of the public, and his shown, clearly and interestingly, exactly how the sets are constructed, decorated and draped for feature pictures. The evolution of an artist's blue prints and a miniature model, from which the actual set is built, is portrayed with unflinching accuracy. Even the courageous "spot" men, perched at dizzy heights to adjust their lamps, are flashed amid the vivid panorama of hustle and bustle.

Next in the march of action comes "longshots," "fillshots" and "close-ups" of the Thomas H. Ince stars and companies at work—on the immense stages. All minute details of the actual filming of scenes, from the adjustment of the camera and "props" clear down to rehearsal and the final command of "Camera!" are carefully presented for the benefit of the Press readers. Douglas MacLean, Robert Bogworth, Louise Glaum, Enid Bennett, Lloyd Hughes, Florence Vidor, Lewis Stone, William Conklin, Gladys George and other luminaries are shown busily engaged in the filming of their forthcoming Thomas H. Ince productions.

Music With Camera.

The charm of music upon the temperament of the screen artist also is depicted in the scenes which show Louise Glaum and James Kirkwood in an emotional moment, and Florence Vidor and Lewis Stone in a dramatic situation from the coming Thomas H. Ince-Louis Joseph Vance special attraction, "Beau Reveil."

Then there's that mighty pooh-bah, the director! (Those fans who credit the megaphone wizards with the "easiest job in the movies" will find much to surprise them, for there are "close-ups" of well-known Thomas H. Ince directors as they crouch before a battery of cameras, megaphone in one hand and big black flag in the other, with hair flying and voices flaring as they shout, talk and whisper their directions to the famous personages who heed their word.

There is also a peep into the "still" photo department, where photos for advertising and publicity purposes are developed before the very eyes of the spectators. The art title department, depicting how titles are created and etched; the wardrobe room; the draughting department; the scenic and camouflaging shops; the hair and wig department; the action and other departments devoted to general studio operation, are included in the continually fascinating "trip through the world's greatest motion picture studios."

Great News for Fans.

And then there's great news for all the film-struck hopefuls! Thomas H. Ince takes the press readers from the alluring land of make-believe to the great kingdom of Reality, where great paint and powder puffs are supplanted byingham dresses, gowns or any of the attire worn by those in pursuit of their favorite diversion and sport.

Fans who have seen the line "Thomas H. Ince presents," on scores and scores of photoplays perhaps have pictured the celebrated film magnate as a staid, stately gentleman who has forgotten how to play and make merry. Perhaps others have mirrored him as of the extreme scholarly type who takes leave of the studio only to step into some deep, dark, professor-like Museum of Books and Hugs! But behold! Thomas H. Ince, the "regular fellow" and the real "sport-loving man" that he is, "for the man who discovered and developed no less personages than Charles Ray, William S. Hart, Dorothy Dandoe, Frank Keegan, Bessie Barriscale, Enid Bennett, Douglas MacLean, Sesue Hayakawa and others, is an ardent exponent of healthful physical training—and he practices what he preaches!

Producer Ince is seen with his wife and three husky young sons as play on his handsome estate in Hollywood, California. Easing, writing, tossing the medicine ball, swimming and tennis are all "hobbies" of the famous producer and one of his cameramen was on the job full speed one fine California afternoon to "shoot" the "strenuous home life" of a persistently strenuous worker! Only one young gentleman has ever been known to administer severe punishment of any kind to Thomas H. Ince. The young gentleman who holds this record is shown in the picture. He is well, well, well, not going to divulge his identity, but suffice to say that Thomas H. Ince "takes the count" as the young gentleman laughs merrily and tears off to see that all his little pet's are safe and sound in the Harbor of Doggone Bliss!

Douglas MacLean is introduced at breakfast in his comfortable bungalow on South Alvarado street, Los Angeles. But "Doug" hasn't a great deal of time for the morning repast, "cause he's an early bird at the studio and much prefers to dash out and dash in, rather than peacefully punish a flock of muffins which his Japanese chef has so appetizingly prepared.

"A Trip Through the World's Greatest Motion Picture Studios" is the first film which combines accurate views of actual production with the intimate "off-stage" scenes which bring life and fascination and enlightening for the vast army of motion picture followers.

"VOLKS AND DON" ARE VAUDEVILLE HEADLINERS

"Volks and Don" are to be the headliners at the Wichita theatre for the coming week and advance reports indicate that the act is one of the best that will be offered this season. Don is a "hilarious" more or less a good, intelligent dog, but he has made a "hilarious" success out of his life as a good many men could name.

Don's specialty is intoxication, and he plays the part of an inebriated can-can singer in every land and in every clime. His master, Volks, is "some manager" and the two stars give a presentation that is warranted to bring down the house.

Another top-notch act will be that of Doc Baker and his Bevy of California beauties who present a lightning revue of fun, fads and fashions, entitled "Flashes." This act comes direct from the Orpheum circuit and is heralded as one of the season's best.

The shrill cathe (skunk) Eduk m... An artist in impersonation is Claudia Coleman, who offers a "skit" entitled "The Smile Girl." With the assistance of a few bats and some marvelous facial expressions Miss Coleman successively different types of individuals appear before the audience. She is an artist of ability in this line and has been a favorite of all occasions.

Harold and Willa Brown, the "Artistic Rag Pickers," are all that their name implies and their act is composed of weaving pictures out of a bewildering assortment of old rags.

The bill will be closed by Howard Langford and Ina Frederick, who offer a comedy playlet entitled "Shopping." This team is an old favorite from the musical shows and the two have blended into some fifteen minutes their many successes of bygone days. Mr. Langford will be remembered as playing the principal roles in "Katinka" and "The Velvet Lady."

The usual run of comedies and news reviews will precede the vaudeville bill.

OPERA HOUSE TO FEATURE THE BETTER OF ONE NIGHT SHOWS UNDER THE NEW MANAGEMENT

WALTER S. CROSSBIE, Manager of the Opera House

Although having been in charge for two weeks or more no formal announcement has been made of the new management of the Opera House. The change in the personnel of the theater officials was effective on August 29, when Walter S. Crossbie took over the management of the local play house from Charles Kirkpatrick, who has retired from the theater business.

Mr. Crossbie has been connected with the Inter-State Amusement company for 12 years and has had a wealth of experience in the management of both vaudeville and moving picture houses. He began his career as manager of the old Orpheum theater at Jacksonville, Fla., but was soon transferred to the Majestic theater in Fort Worth which was opened shortly after his entrance into the theatrical world. Later he took over the management of the Myers theater in Fort Worth and remained as its manager until four years ago when he became the traveling director for a series of moving picture theaters. A year ago he gave that up and went back to vaudeville, taking over the management of the United theater in Birmingham, Ala., remaining there until coming to Wichita Falls.

Mr. Crossbie has made one important change in the policy of the theater, having arranged for the vaudeville bills to be present on the last four days of the week only. This will leave Monday and Tuesday open for the presentation of road shows. The first of these attractions have been booked for November 16 and 18 when the Klav and Erlinger success "Oh Daddy" will be presented. A number of other important attractions have been secured but the dates have not been definitely settled. Among the celebrated stars whom he has secured for engagements here are Eva Tausig, Blossom Seeley, Eva Shirley and the Kirkamith sisters.

Mr. Crossbie has expressed himself as well pleased with the theatrical possibilities in Wichita Falls and has promised that local theater lovers will see the best productions that the market affords. He extends a hearty invitation for theater-goers to "drop in" and see how a modern vaudeville house is conducted and it is his earnest wish to give to Wichita Falls a theater that is worthy of the other enterprises of the city.

The oil and other important industries of Wichita Falls and surrounding counties demand the very highest type of bank service. This accounts for the fact that many of the most substantial corporations of the community entrust their banking business to the City National Bank of Commerce.

Resources of the City National Bank of Commerce have grown until they now aggregate more than $22,000,000, justifying the title "The Big Bank of West Texas." The City National Bank of Commerce now serves customers in all parts of Texas and the South, its service being featured by its dependability.

A GREAT SHOWING OF RUGS

WILL COMMEMORATE BATTLE OF ST. MIHIEL

Program To Be Rendered at the First Methodist Church On Sunday Evening.

Sunday night, September 13, at the Methodist church at the corner of Seventh and Lamar street, a meeting will be held in commemoration of the great battle of St. Mihiel, which was fought on September 12, 1918, which prepared the way along a 40-mile front for the charge of the French and American troops in the St. Mihiel drive, turning the tide of victory from the Hun groups to those of the allies.

This drive prepared the way for the Meuse-Argonne battle in which many of the boys of Wichita Falls victoriously participated, and the memorial service in their honor will be conducted under the auspices of the local post of the American Legion. Dr. P. E. Blagden, chaplain of the post, announces the following program:

A concert by the local band at Ninth and Indiana, beginning at 7:30 p. m. Ex-service men and their friends are requested to meet at Ninth and Indiana, where the Salvation Army will give a brief service, and all will fall in and march to the church at Seventh and Lamar, where the service is to be held.

The principal address of the evening will be made by Hon. Mr. Hinton of Denver, Colo., adjutant for the Sons of the Confederacy, and considered one of the foremost orators of the south. Other addresses will be made by Major Strong, Frank Kell and Mrs. Bartek. An orchestra for the occasion is to be selected by Comrade Joseph Ward. Let us all turn out and show our appreciation of the boys who are sleeping beneath the scarlet poppies," Mr. Blagden urges, "not forgetting that at this service will be men who bear the scars of battle, nor forgetting the sacrifices of those who kept the home-fires burning."

MAKE PREPARATIONS FOR SOUTH DIVISION REUNION AT OKLA. CITY, SEPT. 25

What is promised to be the largest gathering of former members of the justly famous Ninetieth division since that organization was demobilized will be the second annual reunion to be held in Oklahoma City, September 25, 26 and 27. Special rates of one and one-third round-trip fare have been granted by all railroads from all points in Oklahoma and Texas. Date of sale of tickets will be from September 10 to include, with return limit of September 23. Identification certificates can be secured from Arthur J. Reinhardt, secretary of the Ninetieth Division association, Dallas, Texas. Anyone who served, at any time, with the Ninetieth division is entitled to take advantage of this reduced rate and should write to the secretary for a certificate. Special trains will be run from main points in Texas and Oklahoma, arriving in Oklahoma City Saturday morning, September 25.

It is expected that Major General Martin, Brigadier General O'Neil and Alexander will be present. Maj. Gen. Henry T. Allen, who organized the division at Camp Travis and commanded it throughout its fighting, is still in command of the American army in Germany and is not expected to attend the reunion. Nothing will be left undone by members of the division residing in Oklahoma City, by the American Legion post, city and county officials and all civic organizations in Oklahoma City to make the reunion a big success in every way.

ACCEPTS A POSITION WITH STEHLIK & BABER

C. W. Smith, formerly a successful real estate dealer of Detroit, Mich., has accepted a position with Stehlik & Baber as manager of their real estate department. Mr. Smith is enthusiastic over the prospects for future business and predicts that the fall season will be a prosperous one.

MOST OF THE COUNTY SCHOOLS OPEN MONDAY

Some Are Without Teachers As a Result Of Recent Resignations Of Instructors.

Vacation days for practically all of the estimated 2,000 school children in the country schools will come to an end Monday, September 13, when the schools will open. Several schools, and especially those in three cotton districts of the county, will probably not open until the first of October.

County Superintendent of Schools Earl Bryant announces that within the past few days several resignations by teachers have been received which leaves some of the schools without a teacher. He states, however, that he does not believe there will be any difficulty in replacing these vacancies as several applications have also been received lately.

The county superintendent is advised by the various trustees that sufficient amount of text books have been received so that there will not be any shortage experienced in this line. It is expected that the attendance at all the county schools in the county will show a substantial increase in attendance this year.

W. F. SLATER, Mayor REBE J. THOMAS, Pastor of First Baptist Church.

Regular meetings of the various troops of the city were held Friday night. Quite a number of boys have returned to the city from summer vacations and have reported to their troops for duty. It is thought that as soon as school has opened, and the boys have had a chance to become satisfied that the attendance at the troop meetings will increase to a large extent.

Boy Scout News

The 20 boys, who have been encamped on the Brazos river near Newcastle returned to Wichita Falls Saturday. They reported a fine time and were enthusiastic over the prospect of returning next year. Scoutmaster J. M. Bland, who was in charge of camp, received a letter signed by the mayor of Newcastle and some dozen citizens which expressed appreciation of the visit which the local scouts had made. It is reproduced below.

Dr. Mr. Janko and Scouts of Troop 6: We take this liberty of letting you and your scouts know that we have appreciated you while you have been with us, that your conduct has been far beyond excellent and that your presence in church, as was attended in a body, was an inspiration to all.

J. M. Bland, president of the scout council in this city, has returned from his vacation. He has spent the summer in California and Colorado.

Scout Executive H. E. Taylor left Friday to attend the national scout executive conference at Tuscon, N. Y. He will be gone three weeks. This conference is to be held at a large camping ground, located on the Fallsides of the Hudson river, 30 miles north of New York city. A feature of his trip will be a visit to West Point Military Academy and a sight seeing tour through Sing Sing prison. He will return by way of Lowell, Green, Ky., and visit the Mammoth Cave.

At the regular meeting of Troop 6 Friday night, the troop was reorganized into four patrols. The Flying Eagle, Beaver, Wolf and Black Bear patrols were the ones to be instituted. All of the old personnel of Troop 6 was present at the meeting.

Scout, Wright Cox of Troop 6 was operated on for appendicitis at the General hospital Friday night. A silent prayer was offered for his welfare by the members of Troop 6 at their regular meeting. He was reported to be doing as well as could be expected Saturday morning.

It takes two to make a bargain

Did you ever stop to think that a bargain is not a bargain until it's bought?

Well, it isn't.

And until we get together with you we are in the same position as the lady who asked the conductor of the electric train if she would receive a shock if she stepped on the rail below—and he replied —"No Ma'am,—not unless you put your other foot on the wire overhead."

We have done our share—bought close—marked closer—kept our foot on the soft pedal and watched our OVERHEAD like a hawk—but with all that, we can't transform these bountiful bargains into actual bargains until you take a hand and help yourself.

The values are here all right but the bargains rest with you.

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

There's a way of spending money that spreads incomes over bigger "sandwiches."

Big business calls it financing. Government calls it budget-making. We call it the Budget Plan.

Would you like to own a New Edison? Our Budget Plan will show you how to "swing" the purchase, without cutting in on your present necessary expenditures.

Now is a good time to buy. The New Edison has advanced in price less than 15% since 1916; this includes War Tax. Mr. Edison has kept prices down by absorbing increased costs out of his own pocket.

An Invitation

Is extended to all who are fond of music to visit the Phonograph Shop and hear all the new and popular records. Our attendants will take pleasure in playing any record you may desire to hear.

Every Style of Edison Manufactured Will Be Shown at This Shop. Choose the one that suits your fancy and our budget plan will make the purchase easy.

Do You Pay Your Bills?

A Story

Once upon a time, a young man, wide awake, aggressive, promising and with a good standing in his community, walked into a clothing store, tried on several suits of clothes, picked out one and said: "charge it." The merchant, knowing the young man to be a man of honest intentions—charged it.

The same young man, several days later, walked into a shoe store, selected a pair of shoes, and said: "charge it." The shoe merchant, also acquainted with the promising young man's reputation, entered the charge upon his books.

The young man then in turn, visited the tailor, the barber, the haberdasher, the florist, the jeweler and all other merchants in the community, made purchases from each and said: "Charge it."

Before long the promising young man owed every merchant in the city and the bills became due.

"They're suckers," said the young man. "They were willing to take a chance with me—they sold me their goods and now they can sweat for the money." And having decided upon his course, the divers merchants perspired profusely in their attempts to collect what was justly due them.

But another day came. The promising young man with the apt brain had an opportunity to "get in on something big." He had no money; he hadn't saved—but he would go to the bank and borrow some, like all business men, and after he had "cashed in" he would settle his accounts with the "sucker" merchants.

In high hopes he wended his way "bankward."—told his story—but, to his infinite dismay, the committee wouldn't pass upon his note. Indignation knew no bounds—but he was told that the Retail Merchant's Association of the city had catalogued him as "no good;" "Credit poor" and "Require cash."

The opportunity of his young life slipped away. In his youthful foolishness he had "dubbed" all men "suckers." His was the brilliant mind—all others were "numskulls." Yet the "numskulls" knew one thing, that the young man, in all his brilliancy hadn't reckoned with "INTEGRITY." He had yet to learn the value of CONFIDENCE.

While this story has reference to a young man the same trouble here related is applicable to accounts made by young and old men and women.

Credit

Credit is "the faith man has in the integrity of his fellow-man."

Credit buys more on the open market in the world today than all the gold in existence. Credit even buys gold—therefore credit is more valuable than gold.

Yet men who wouldn't for one moment hazard their gold—will unhesitatingly hazard their credit.

Men who would hold up their hands in horror at the very thought of stealing gold—steal credit. They steal the very faith men have in them—they appropriate the confidences of others, friend or foe.

And in so doing they will help to undermine the very fabric upon which the industry of the world has grown—"the faith man has in the integrity of his fellow-man."

Being the first and introduction to a series of talks on bills and the prompt payment of them.

Credit is the most wonderful thing in the commercial world.

It has made millionaires overnight.

It has kept scoundrels from being men of might.

Credit has the same weight in all circles.

The little child at home credits the father's assertion that tonight he will bring home a package of chewing gum—credits it until he fails—until "the faith man has in the integrity of his fellowman" fails.

Then even the little child credits no more.

Bankers, world bankers, float billion-dollar loans upon "the faith man has in the integrity of his fellowman"—upon credit.

Each individual can be measured on a credit basis. Each carries a plus sign or a minus sign—each is born into the world with an equal call on credit.

It is withheld from none—it is open to all. It's merely a matter of integrity linked with a determination to be honest.

YES, credit is a wonderful thing.

The Retail Merchants' Association

The Retail Merchants' Association is a number of men identified with the wholesale and retail interests of this city, who have organized to fight the man, who constantly abuses his credit by imposing upon "the faith man has in the integrity of his fellow-man." The man who has become obnoxious to society and is known in commercial life as a "dead beat."

The Retail Merchant's Association has also organized to help the men who, not fully aware of the value of credit, is letting himself slowly, but surely slip into the "dead beat" mire.

It is almost impossible to resurrect a "dead beat."

By an injection of honor it is, most time possible to prevent a man from becoming a "dead beat." That is one object of the Retail Merchants' Association.

This association has established a clearing house.

At any time a member of this association can upon a moment's notice learn just what each individual owes to the various merchants of this association.

If the credit a man has at a certain store is abused—if the account is not paid promptly—the association will from this date on report to other members. If a merchant refuses to sell a man on credit, because of a faulty record, that information is also given to every member of the association.

In a "nutshell," the association was formed to prevent the ABUSES OF CREDIT—which are manifold—and which abuses will be taken up from time to time, and discussed publicly in a series of advertisements, of which this is the first.

BABY FALLS FROM THE FOURTH STORY WINDOW INTO CUSHIONED BUGGY

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Charles Darwin, when he said the struggle for existence results in the survival of the fittest, forgot one essential element—luck.

Proof of this oversight was supported today by an infant member of New York's east side's most famous families. When Mrs. Joseph Vecchio, the baby's mother, saw him fall from a fourth-story fire escape last night, she ran out, panic-stricken, expecting to see him crushed to death.

With the opening of the school term this week plans for raising $100,000 by popular subscription to supplement the regular school funds will again be taken up and the work pushed.

The movement to raise such a fund was started last spring when the school board was faced with a deficit to keep the schools running the full term and higher pay to the teachers was a necessity.

THE GREEK GOD OF A COP BOMBARDED BY LOVE ARTILLERY OF FEMININE HEARTS

HERBERT KENNEDY, CALLED THE HANDBSOMEST PATROLMAN BY ARTIST.

LEAP YEAR DELUGE IS NOW ON

Lovers in Lullaby All Over Country Desist Film Heroes For Him.

By Sam Dixon
Yes, it's leap year, BUT— Accept it from one Herbert A. Kennedy, patrolman, New York Police Department, those birds "Dusty" Farnum and "Duke" Fairbanks and Bryant Washburn and the rest of the salient he-satellites lead a hard life. The speaker knows whereof he speaks.

How does he know? Because during these past few weeks he has romped into the matinee idol class, has Patrolman Kennedy, to the tune of sever hundred billets-doux a day.

From every state in the union, not to mention the Dominion of Canada, he has been bombarded with pink and blue postcards, epistles offering him anything from a photograph to a farm in Texas.

The "heat" of Patrolman Kennedy, which begins suspiciously at the Century Roof and winds upward along Central Park, is beset with languishing ladies waiting to pounce upon the harrowed officer and ask him any irrelevant question.

This matinee idol business is not so sweet and pretty as it seems. There are moments when Patrolman Kennedy would exchange his entire trunkful of nifty notes for a half hour of that peace and quiet he enjoyed before fair femininity began to bombard him with the heavy artillery of their hearts.

How Idol Was Created.

How, do you ask, did a perfectly good light of the leap ever come to take himself into the "film" favorite class? It all happened when Mr. Howard Chandler Christy, delineator of true American types, tagged Patrolman Kennedy "the handsomest cop in New York."

Artist Christy lives in that home of high scholasticism, the Hotel des Artistes, No. 1 West Sixty-seventh street. Part of the duty of Patrolman Kennedy is to keep an eye on the upper art colony to see that the temperaments of its members do not run riot and collide with plain citizenry.

Along came the Police Field Days. Artist Christy was selected to contribute a poster which should in a single figure typify the brave, brawny, good humored New York "cop." He had expected to make a composite figure, using the best features of individual officers. Then he stumbled across Patrolman Kennedy, nabbed the young officer, dragged him straight to the studio and set to work.

The result is that fine upstanding fellow in blue and brass, hand raised high in gesture of command, the same that confronts you from every show window, counter, billboard and binnacle.

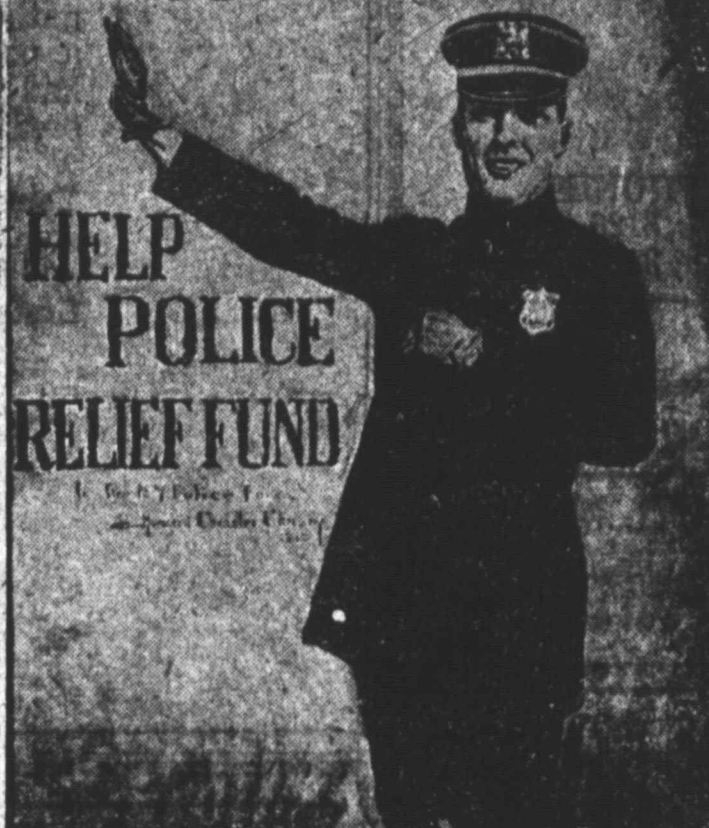

The completed poster caused a stir in artistic circles and a flutter among feminine hearts. It was published broadcast in the newspapers. And this is exactly where Patrolman Kennedy's trouble as a matinee idol began.

Only a few hours after Artist Christy had labelled him the "handsomest cop" and the poster was put in public view all available desk rooms at Police Headquarters began to pile and overflow with Patrolman Kennedy's mail.

When the "owner arrived" he looked suspicious, but he gingerly possessed himself of the first missive and then opened it.

It was from Lott, Texas. Patrolman Kennedy has since tried to locate Lott on the map, but there was no microscopically handy, so he had to give it up.

Here's a note from Lott:
Scribbles the lady from Lott:
"Mr. Kennedy—I guess you are wondering who I am. Well, my name is could be friends with you. Dare you take a chance, only on friendship basis?"

"My father is without faults and everyone loves him. Your friend, if you are game."
The note of President's contribution to the following eloquent page of romance to add to the swelling collection:

"Dear Mr. Kennedy: As I am a single, G— H—, today I found in the paper a good looking boy, and I just couldn't resist the temptation of writing you.

"I cut your picture out and I will always keep it, even if I never know you. Oh, gee! I suppose you will think I am too young for you. I am sixteen. Don't guess you write to any girls in Texas. Under your picture, it said you are the handsomest man in the metropolis. We could all see that without the tache.

"I have my mother and father and two brothers. I am the only girl— thank goodness! Now, of course, I have your picture, and oh, boy! it is some keen looking. I will close, hoping paper, and it looks to me like a dare. I am daring you now to write to me. Are we to be friends? To give you some idea how I look, here is my description:

"Dark brown hair, blue eyes, fair complexion, pink cheeks, with no drag health. Love outdoor sports, love all animals that will be friendly—and I believe I am the one that you are looking for."
Add another wrinkle: "This is leap year and I take the privilege of writing to you. I am lonely and you look lonely, too. My age is 24 years. I am black, complexioned, have gray eyes, a mass of beautiful brown hair and am five feet six inches tall. I have no company whatever; so if you wish a true and sincere lady friend, write at once. You will get my photo soon. With love and best wishes. A. G."

The postmark label the above tender missive, as being from Sebring, Ohio. If Sebring is in Ohio, it must be entirely obscured by elderly bushes.

Love's S. G. S. from Wheeling.
Moving across the muddy banks of the "Beautiful Ohio," we have a very stirring episode from the outskirts of Wheeling, West Virginia. Follow:
"Dear Sir: I see you are looking for some nice girl for your company. I am single and wish to become the sweetest heart of somebody. I saw your picture in the paper. Was it for fun or true?"

Anxiously waiting your reply, I remain yours,
T. N. By, by, dear."

Do not gather, gentle reader, that the corn belt has this romance business sewed up. We must admit they work fast out in the Big Slicks, but how about this dainty ditty, penned by one from a class which is privileged to pass the better paths of the metropolis?

"Handsome Man: I have seen you often and admired you immensely. Are you curious? Very well, I am a blonde, five feet five inches in height, weigh 120 pounds. But, you say, there are many blondes. Quite true, but there are not many blondes who ride through Central Park every morning on a black horse. Keep a lookout, I'll signal you. Perhaps you will answer. Until then,
D. C. F."

Patrolman Kennedy was still meditating over the contents of the blonde and black horse epistle, which seemed to intrigue his special interest, when the postman staggered in under a fresh burden of billet-doux, pink prevailing.

"Can you beat it," sighed Kennedy, wagging his head negatively. "The worst ones are in Texas. One girl down there offered to send me a cheque so I could come down, look over her oil lease and see if I liked it—object, matrimony. And can you tell me what a New York copper would be doing with an oil well in Texas?"

"You may fall for one of us yet," I warned our hero.

"Indeed, I will," came the hearty reply. "I've been waiting for the right girl to come along, and when she does there won't be a chance of her getting away. So far she hasn't shown up. But I may find her any day. If these dames will lay off long enough to give me a chance."

The postman returned. He had overlooked a lavender-note reeking with to hear from you soon.

"P. S.—I have gray eyes and brown hair. Yours truly, G. S."

When the patrolman caught the drift of this message he did a back flip, calling loudly for a shot of ice water. After his third helping he revived sufficiently to proceed to the next chapter.

It was an enclosed poem called "Smiles," in tribute to the debonair smile of Kennedy. Accompanying it was a bit of original rhyme running thus:
"From a lonely girl of the Bronx,
Who's looking for a pal like you,
With a white of Irish in her, too!"

"Nothing doing on the Bronx," quoth Kennedy. "To far away, I might stand for Texas, but the Bronx—well, I never was much for exploring foreign ports."

From Arnaudville, Va. another uncharacterized center of civilization, comes the following pulsing plaint:
"Dear Herbert Kennedy—Kind sir, I would be very glad to accept your hand and heart in marriage. You are surely a beautiful young man. I am a very true young woman, a courtplaster to the end, but I have not-as yet caught a true boy. I hope you will be true as your picture looks. Answer by return mail. Yours,
E. M."

Spencer, N. C., is responsible for 48 outburst from a young woman, who hates herself, as you can gather from her letter:
"Dear Sir—I saw your picture in the some sort of lily-scent, which spread its fervent fragrance through the room.

"Crank up the typewriter."
Patrolman Kennedy snifed: "If they don't stop it," he opined, "I'll have to give up my job and take it on the lam for packs unknown. He appeared sad, almost weary. Fame has become burdensome to him."
"Far be it from me to add to the tribulations of the dawning Adonis, but if you are anxious to test Artist Christy's judgment, girl, his yourself to the environs of Central Park West between Fifty-ninth and Sixty-fifth streets any afternoon."
When you meet five feet six inches of brawny manhood, with Jack Dempsey shoulders topped by gold blonde hair, deeping to bronze in its shadow; eyes the color of wood violets, with the dew of morning sparkling their velvet; features chisled in strength and perfection, and over all the merriest smile that ever broadened the face of a true Irish lad, then, Miss (romance, you will be in the presence of the big town's latest rave in the line of matinee idols—Patrolman Herbert A. Kennedy, New York police department.

Life of a Famous Vaudeville Star is Not Path of Roses

That the life of a famous vaudeville star is not all roses was one of the things that a representative of the Times learned from an interview with Toto, the little clown headliner on the vaudeville bill at the Wichita theatre last week.

Toto showed none of the "artistic temperament" that is supposed to be an indispensable part of all famous actors and he was genuinely glad to be interviewed. With his make-up removed and dressed in civilian costume he was a perfect mirror of fashion and appeared in startling contrast to the eerie individual that rolled and tumbled about the stage. He talked freely and gave an interesting account of his life as an entertainer, recounting a number of incidents that had occurred during his long association with the footlights.

Toto was born in Geneva, Switzerland, and began his professional career as an actor while yet in his teens. From the playhouses of the Alps he moved to England and after appearing in stock shows throughout the British Isles was featured at the Hippodrome in London. It was here that his fame began and he ran for two years at this theatre. From London he came to America, arriving in this country in July, 1914, and filled another two-year contract at the Hippodrome in New York. From the eastern metropolis he went to California and was engaged by the Pathé company to act before the camera, which he did for another period of two years. The vaudeville stage came next and he is now entering upon his second year as a headliner.

Entertained "editions" during the war Toto performed in practically every entertainment in the United States, giving his services freely in order that the soldiers in training might be entertained. He also worked with the Red Cross and on many occasions was called upon by that organization to aid in a drive. Even now he takes a great delight in performing at orphanages and no request that he give an entertainment at these institutions has ever been refused.

Toto has taken a keen delight in the Wichita oil fields and expressed a hope that he would be able to visit them before leaving the city. In his broken, but quaint and pleasing English he explained that he had heard of Wichita Falls as being a great oil center and that he had expected to find Indians and cowboys on horseback instead of the refined and cultured people that roads in Pierce-Arrows and other conveyances of a like nature.

See Timd Comes Before Harvest

Before Wichita County could gather a bushel of wheat or a pound of cotton, the soil had to be prepared and the seed planted.

All of this was not affected and it was easy to see that he really meant all that he said. When asked as to what he thought of vaudeville life, Toto grinned and replied that it was a great life if you don't weaken. He then stated that he had not had a vacation for over three years and didn't know when he would have another rest. However, he made no complaint and showed himself to be a true philosopher by surmising that any one who entered to the public wants must be governed by the public desires, and if the public wanted him constantly there was nothing to do but "fix up and go on."

Someone Is Needed To Keep Rain Gauge Reports for Public

For almost ten years there has been a government rain gauge on the Kemp & Kell building and A. W. Allen was its custodian. But as the town grew to be a city his other duties became more and more numerous and pressing and he requested the official of the United States weather bureau at Home, to whom he made his monthly reports, to appoint someone else to relieve him. After waiting some time for the expected relief, he wrote again and yet again, and about the first of the year, having received no reply to his communications, he notified the weather man that he had "quit," and since that time the rain gauge has been unattended and Wichita Falls has been off the weather map.

Mr. Allen says that there is practically no work connected with the keeping of the rainfall records and that what there is of an interesting and scientific nature. The government furnishes the report blanks and envelopes and carries the reports without postage.

"Someone here," he said, "ought to keep a weather record for the convenience of the public, if for nothing else."

It ought to include temperature and barometric pressure. People used often to telephone to me to know the rainfall and sometimes this information was wanted in important business matters, and I have even testified in court from my records.

"I think, however, that the appointment should go to someone whose time is spent in the public interest and who can always be found at his post, say, for instance, the librarian at the public library.

"I would be glad," Mr. Allen concluded, "to deliver the rain gauge to anyone who is to keep these records."

What Credit Men Think of Paying By Check

"Every effort should be made to have checks become more completely the Nation's real currency; the circulation of currency for the payment of accounts, when checks would be safer and more adaptable, is unwise and unsafe."

The above is the conclusion reached by the banking and currency executive committee at a recent meeting of the National Association of Credit Men.

To Give Us a Chance to Mark Down Prices and Arrange Stock for

The Greatest Sale That Has Ever Been Recorded in the Annals of the History of Wichita Falls or Surrounding Country

Aladin and his lamp could not do more. Most of the people have cherished hopes for the time when they could buy merchandise at pre-war prices, but not one ever dared to expect to realize this wonderful dream right now, yes sir-ree Bob. On Wednesday, September 15th we will open the biggest and most bonafide sale that any one has ever attempted in Wichita Falls. Our bargain prices will talk so loud that you will come and buy your winter supply at one-half their value.

A Wonder Talk

$100,000 worth of merchandise thrown to the public at merciless cut prices. Men's Women's and Children's wearing apparel, for fall and winter, sacrificed regardless of cost or value. Hundreds of men's suits of clothes, 3-piece suits and Boys' school suits, at prices that will open your eyes. It is not a dream, it is the truth. It is up to you to take advantage of this greatest of all opportunities that ever hit right at your door.

A BIT OF HORSE SENSE

Just at this time prices are as high as ever. You can not expect anything better. The merchants have paid big prices and are entitled to a profit. We are unfortunate enough to be overbought. Too much stock on hand and still more arriving daily. What are we going to do? A big sale is the logical answer. Let the public have the whole benefit, cost or value does not matter. The goods must go. Come in and compare prices. If you are the least bit interested in your own welfare you will buy your Fall suit and other things to wear at the greatest saving you ever anticipated.

Now or Never

DEAR PARENTS: School has just begun. Your boy will need a suit of clothes. Do not hesitate one moment but come right down to this mighty sale and buy him that suit. We have hundreds to pick from, and please believe us, that you will save enough money on one to buy one more, because we sell them at less than other merchants can buy. This sale opens Wednesday morning, Sept. 15, and will last 10 days only. Be wise, come early and get the pick of the choice.

If you turn a deaf ear to this plea you are your worst enemy.

The country is not going down. Look at the general prosperity of all classes! The laborer is getting more for his labor than ever before in the world's history. The farmers are getting top prices for their products. How do you figure for prices to come down? Only in our case there is an exception. Do not wait for later, that may never come. Be prudent, be thrifty. Do not waste an offer like ours may never come again. Think, just at the opening of the fall season we are cutting prices. A brand new stock. Sizes are all intact, of the latest and smartest styles. No odds and ends, no job lots, but a clean wholesome stock bought in a regular way for our regular trade. We have too much, we are crowded for space. Here, take it, or something like it. Our prices are cut so low it is almost giving it away.

MEXICAN RAILWAYS WRECKED BY BANDITS

Torreon Now Boasts Of One Train a Day From Capital To Border.

By RALPH H. TURNER
United Press Staff Correspondent.

TORREON, COAHUILA, MEX.—(By Mail)—The run-down condition of Mexico's railroads probably is better illustrated in Torreon than in any other city of the Republic. In the northwest a wealthy agricultural and mining district, supporting smelters and various other industries, Torreon rightfully earned its position as one of the country's leading railroad centers.

But with the present depreciated condition of the Mexican railroads, Torreon is not receiving just dividends from the network of rail lines that passes through the city.

The conductor operating from Mexico City to Torreon threw light on the situation as his train neared this city five hours late.

"Only one train a day," he explained, "leaves the Republic. In the northwest trip to Ciudad Jarez, via Torreon. That might be sufficient, if there were any local trains. But there are not. And there are scarcely any freight trains, either. As a result, everything possible is shipped by express and this train, the only passenger train on the line, must stop at every station to load or unload merchandise."

There is a reason for this, he explained. The same explanations goes for the rest of the country. Frequently, three or four freight cars are hooked on to a passenger train, causing heavy delay to passengers who may have some concern as to when they reach their destination.

So long as the scarcity of rolling stock continues, and long as a shipper resort to graft if he desires to obtain a car in reasonable time. By the clogging of gold within hearing of a petty railroad official, the merchant may obtain his necessary freight space. Without this juggle, his chances are materially decreased. Torreon, with its many agricultural and manufactured products, is one of the heaviest sufferers from this shortage of cars. Three American smelters, located in this district, are more fortunate. They own their own cars.

Ten years of revolution naturally have played havoc with the Mexican railroad system. Today it probably has reached its lowest ebb, consistent with any functioning whatever. Cars have been destroyed by rebel and bandit factions, the steel has been torn from others to be used for fire wood, bridges have been destroyed and hastily reconstructed and parts of the roadbed have been greatly damaged. In all this time, little money has been spent for maintenance.

The De la Huerta government, however, has recognized that the railroad problem is one of the most pressing in the entire country and already has taken steps to reorganize the equipment in purchases from the United States. There is some discussion, also, of returning the roads to the American bondholders, but no definite decision has been reached.

In one respect the railway service today is a vast improvement over the conditions which existed under Carranza. With the increased pacification of the country in the past two months, it is now possible for the trains to run at night, a risk that was never taken with dynamiters abroad. Nine trains arrive in Torreon daily and nine depart.

But until the present all the incoming trains reached the city in the evening and the outgoing trains all left in the morning. With the belief that it is now safe to operate at night, the railroad administration plans to rearrange the schedule.

HEALTH

The Result of Relieving Impinged (Pinched) Nerves

Here is shown a section of the spinal column with three nerves emerging from between the vertebrae (small bones of the spine). It will be noticed that the second vertebra (reading from the top) is out of alignment, or, to use a chiropractic term, subluxated. This causes an impingement (pinching) of the second nerve, and consequently the life force which should flow through that nerve to some particular organ, is interrupted. That organ, not receiving its full quota of life force, suffers from disease (lack of ease) and will continue to so suffer until the pinching is relieved. THIS IS WHERE THE SCIENCE OF CHIROPRACTIC COMES IN. The Chiropractor is called and he, with his bare hands only, adjusts the subluxated vertebra into its normal position so that it is in alignment with the other vertebrae, the pinching of the nerve is thus relieved, the life force flows uninterrupted to the organ involved, and Health is the result. SIMPLE, isn't it?

To the young man who worries about how his clothes look.

Every young man is embarrassed with the belief that all mankind is solely engaged in observing his manners and appearance.

As he grows older and acquires wisdom, he learns that this is not so; yet he feels that it is the part of a gentleman to clothe and deport himself as if it were so.

Society Brand Clothes

are for young men because their acknowledged style leadership keeps the young man conscious of good appearance.

They are for men who stay young because staying young consists largely of retaining the confidence and alertness of youth, even after age has swept away the self-consciousness of youth.

Automobile News

Excessive Rainfall Seriously Interferes With Auto Business

Automobile dealers in Wichita Falls and vicinity experienced the most quiet period of the year during the past week, all of the auto men reporting but very little business. The excessive rainfall was, of course, blamed for the inactivity and, as one dealer put it, "people won't buy cars when they can't use them."

Practically no sales were reported during the week and the volume of repair work at the various garages fell off to a noticeable extent. The gasoline filling stations reported a marked decrease in business and even the tire dealers felt the effects of the storm. Just what effect the rain will have on the price of gas is not known, but with water plentiful it ought to decrease.

The roads leading from the city to the oil fields were bottomless bogs and the few trucks that assayed the trips between the fields and supply houses found themselves hopelessly mired before they gained a good start. Unpaved streets in the city were in a bad condition and the autoist who ventured off of the paved stretcher courted disaster. At one time seven machines were found abandoned in the mud between Ninth and Broad streets and the factory district. All of these could be counted from the factory of Lake cars.

To sum the situation up, the rain almost paralyzed the automobile traffic in the northern part of Texas and irate owners of machines cursed the weather as heartily as anyone. Automobile dealers suffered the most because of the prolonged spell of dampness, but they were joined by the public in general in praying, or at least hoping, for a cessation of the past week's downpours.

WITH THE AUTO DEALERS

A carload of Oakland machines was unloaded by the Marshall Huff Motor company last Friday. They also received during the week a new 1920 model, McFarland, seven-passenger sedan. This machine is the last word in automobile construction and equipment and its mechanical excellence is surpassed only by its furnishings and equipment. The car is finished in Robin Egg Blue and is upholstered with rich whip cord. Every conceivable comfort has been provided in the "cabin" and its interior resembles a modern Pullman more than anything else.

Two carloads of Studebaker machines were unloaded by the Excelsior Motor company during the past week. This company, which recently relinquished the Marmon agency, devoted its whole attention to the Studebaker car and has now received a complete stock of Studebaker parts and accessories and will soon be able to give local automobile owners as good Studebaker service as may be obtained anywhere.

Another instance of Hupmobile wearing qualities and stamina was brought to the attention of the Sokman & Von Altman Automobile company, local agents for the Hupmobile and Peerless cars, during the past week. S. B. Sutton of Odell, Texas, arrived in Wichita Falls while one of the heavy showers of the past week was at its height. He was driving his car through from Fort Worth to Odell and while waiting for the roads to clear up he placed his machine in the local garage to have some minor repair work done. Mr. Odell stated that he had driven the car constantly for five and a half years and that this was the first time that it had ever been in the shop. The spark plugs had never been cleaned nor the valves ground. Neither had the carbon ever been removed nor any bearings been replaced.

Performances of this kind are coming to be everyday occurrences with Hupmobiles and the agents here are wisely advertising the facts. The Hups on the market today are made of the same material and by the same craftsmen as those of former years that have been making such remarkable endurance records of late.

A. B. Booth, general manager of the Overland Motor company, and W. J. Daugherty, sales manager, attended a meeting of Overland dealers in Dallas last Friday.

We have an expert alteration department anxious to serve you. Just call 5461, De Luxe Dry Cleaners. 119-710

The 1921 Haynes Touring Car at $2935

actually impresses people as a $5000 car

TWENTY-nine hundred and thirty-five dollars never before bought such a beautiful car, such a remarkably perfect mechanical system as the new 1921 Haynes Seven Passenger Touring Car. It is really $1000 underpriced—compared with other cars of the same value.

Owners of these cars report to us that hardly a day passes without someone expressing surprise when told the actual cost of the car. The average person thinks it must be at least $5000.

This is natural, for the 1921 Haynes Touring Car is one of the finest automobiles ever made, through and through.

Its high hood, superb lines, splendid finish, deep upholstery, refined fittings and general air of luxury leave nothing to be desired.

And it is more than ninety per cent. Haynes-made—the famous Haynes engine is especially built by our own experts, and every essential feature of the car, from its first design to its final approval, is under the eyes and in the hands of the men who have made the reputation of the Haynes through all the years since Elwood Haynes created and built America's first car.

The four factors of car-character—Beauty, Strength, Power and Comfort—are scientifically combined in the Haynes.

Our policy is to give our patrons the benefit of our own economies, and in this instance the difference between what you think the car can be bought for and its actual price is a genuine surprise, which you will appreciate all the more when you look at the car.

Come and see the new 1921 Haynes—or phone 6409, for a demonstration

IN MEMORIAM

FOREVER LOST

An old man came into our office the other day, rich and prosperous, but broken in heart. Years ago he had buried a loved one and he wanted us to help him find the grave that was lost, but it was too late. Father Time will obliterate every trace, if they are not properly marked, and the time to mark them is now. Honor them with a Monument. They last forever.

THE MOTORISTS' PROBLEMS'

By WILLIAM H. STEWART, JR.

Motor Department: I have a Baxon with the Atwater-Kent ignition system which gave fine service until a few weeks ago. Since then I have had considerable trouble with the platinum points becoming pitted and burned. I replaced the old points with new ones, but they act the same way. Is there any remedy and what causes the trouble? The car has a generator and starter, which is in good order. J. K.

Undoubtedly you will find the condenser punctured or otherwise defective. When the condenser is out of order, the points will burn away quickly.

Motor Department: I have a 6-29, 1918 model Chalmers. Since purchasing this car in 1916, I have had four rear axles to break on me, all on the right side and the end next to the differential housing. There is, undoubtedly, something wrong, but as I have tested the clutch and it does not seem to grab, and there is no lost motion in the drive shaft, I am lost as to what the trouble can be. Can you advise me? I will appreciate any information you may give me through your column. I am, M. F.

Make sure that your axle housing is not out of line. Sometimes the axle housing will crack at the spring saddle and allow enough sag to throw additional strain on the driving shafts. Perhaps your axle has been hit at some time and slightly sprung out of line. A careful inspection should also be made for badly worn bearings, etc. If you find nothing wrong to cause such breakage, then would suggest having a new axle shaft made as heavy as possible from a better grade of steel.

Motor Department: Will you kindly advise me how to proceed in putting on a new clutch leather on an Overland, model 907. Thanking you in advance for an early reply, I am, A. N.

Disconnect universal joint and spacer shaft between clutch and transmission. Loosen transmission and move back as much as possible. Usually this will permit of clutch being removed, but if there is not enough clearance, then you will have to pull back the rear axle a few inches. You should purchase a new leather to fit your model clutch. Make sure that you counter-sink the rivets and then have the facing ground up on a lathe to remove high spots. An application of castor oil or neat-foot oil will soften the leather and prevent gripping.

Motor Department: I have a 1917 Chevrolet. I am having trouble with my carburetor. I am using a Zenith carburetor. The float is alright, but when stopped I have to shove the needle down. If I don't do this it won't shut the gas off. I have cleaned the carburetor. I have done all I know. I trust you may suggest a remedy. W. G.

If the float cover does not fit securely and properly, it will cause a binding effect on the needle and hold it from seating. See that the needle is free to move up and down. The slightest binding will cause the trouble you mention. Make sure that the stem is not bent and that there is no burr on the collar or guide.

Motor Department: Will you be so kind as to tell me what to do to my car. I do all of my repair work, but this is one on me. I started the engine up the other day, and after shutting it down I noticed my battery was discharging at full speed, and the only way I could stop it was to disconnect my wire from the generator or disconnect the ground wire. E. S.

Make a careful inspection of the cut out and regulator. See that this does not stick and that the parts are clean. You do not mention the electric system used, so cannot advise you more in detail.

Motor Department: Please let me know what makes my tires wear so unevenly on the tread. They are worn away in spots so that the fabric shows through. The fabric is loose in several places also. Is this due to faulty construction? READER.

If the tires are made by a reliable manufacturer, the trouble is probably due to faulty operation. Brakes adjusted unevenly, so that one will lock, jamming on brakes suddenly, letting in clutch suddenly, front wheels out of line, etc., all contribute to the same effect.

Motor Department: Kindly state which is preferable, a leather faced cone clutch or a multiple disc clutch. J. C.

You will find that there are many high-grade cars using the leather-faced cone clutch. There are also many high grade cars using the multiple disc clutch. Enginers differ as to which is the better. When both are designed and constructed properly they are very efficient.

Motor Department: Do you advise using the emergency brake in ordinary driving? OWNER.

As the name implies, the emergency brake is there for use in an emergency, such as failure of the foot brake and when the foot brake alone is not sufficient to stop the car as quickly as desired. However, it is well to use the hand brake frequently. The foot or service brake will then last longer and will require less adjustment. If one becomes accustomed to the frequent use of the emergency brake he will instinctively apply it in case of an emergency.

Motor Department: Please tell me how a man who is not a mechanic can locate the trouble when his car stops out on the road. What should be taken along when one starts on an automobile trip? A. O.

Your best guide will be the instruction book issued by the manufacturer of your particular car. Be sure to take a complete set of tools, including jack, tire pump, hub cap wrench, etc. Your past experience in driving should enable you to judge of other needed parts or accessories.

Motor Department: I have a radiator that has a few very small leaks. These seem to be at the bottom end of inner tubes. Is there anything I can put around the tubes on the outside and stop these leaks? Would a heavy mixture of white lead be of any advantage? L. S.

It is doubtful whether white lead would cure the trouble, since it would soon become hard and crack from vibration. If there is no repair man near you, try filling the entire space between the fins with lead. This may be done by laying the radiator on side and pouring the lead at the point of leakage. Have it properly soldered at the first opportunity.

HEPPLER HINTS.

If engine shows too great a tendency to overheat, the radiator is probably clogged and should be cleaned out with washing soda. But do not condemn the radiator unless you know that you are not driving too long on low gear, that spark is kept well forward, that fan belt is tight and mixture is not too rich. There are many causes of overheating besides clogged radiator.

A knock due to overheating will be noticed on a hill, but it also occurs on level roads. As it is always accompanied by steam from the radiator, it is not difficult to identify.

Where a pump is utilized to circulate the cooling water it is wise to fill the radiator to the top and turn the engine over several times so as to insure the water reaching and filling all parts of the system. If the motor is not turned the pump is an obstruction to the passage of the water into the jackets.

which remain partly empty or fill so slowly as to leave the impression that there is more water in the system than there actually is.

Watch out for steam at radiator vent, as it indicates that the engine is overheating, a condition which may result in serious damage to the engine if not taken care of in time. Overheating burns up the oil, causing friction, loss of power, scored cylinders, broken parts and possibly a bent crankshaft and cracked crank case.

$500,000,000 GOLD LOST TO BELLIGERENT STATES OF EUROPE

LONDON.—(By Mail).—Approximately $40,000,000 dollars' worth of gold coins disappeared from the coffers of the European belligerent powers between December, 1913, and December, 1919, according to statistics compiled for the League of Nations International Financial Conference to be held in Brussels September 24.

Carefully prepared statements from submitted documents of sixteen European countries show that the total gold in banks and circulation at the beginning of 1914 was the equivalent of $2,344,000,000. At the beginning of 1919 the total was approximately $2,260,000,000. The European neutral countries, Holland, Switzerland, Spain, Norway, Denmark, Sweden and the pseudo-belligerent Greece had increased their holdings by $722,760,000 in gold while the belligerents, Great Britain, France, Italy, Portugal, Belgium, Roumania, Germany and Austria-Hungary showed a loss of $1,244,860,000.

The United States gold supply which was $2,320,000,000 at the close of 1913 jumped to $4,112,000,000 by 1920 while Japan showed a gain of $223,000,000 over a similar period, or only 430 millions less than that of the United States.

The net increase of gold money and bullion in circulation as money in the five years amounted to $2,005,100. Although gold production dropped to 20 per cent. of normal during the war period, the increase is explained by those of Central Europe melted up vast quantities of gold plate in order to carry on the struggle.

KNOWLEDGE FOR CAR OWNERS

Interesting and Important Facts That Every Motorist Should Know.

Steering wheels and knuckles should be inspected at least once a week.

Nuts holding bolts should be kept tight at all times to prevent accidents.

When installing a fan belt use care to see that the pulleys are in line.

A few drops of oil on the speedometer drive once a week will cause the drive to operate quietly and for a long period without other care.

Ordinary tium powder will sometimes stop cone clutch slippage. First clean the leather or fabric surface with gasoline and then sprinkle with the talcum.

Washing soda, kerosene and plain soap and water should be the cleaning agents used by car owners for cleaning parts, tools, etc., about the garage.

Excessive generator output will cause cutouts to burn out. The generator brushes should be so adjusted that you will not charge the battery at a greater rate than fifteen amperes.

The motorist who uncovers and cleans his spark plugs every week or two will find that he has taken a big load off the battery and that he is able to get his engine turning over in noticeably shorter time.

A fairly stiff spray of water from the garden hose serves well to wash the wheels, running gear and mudguards, but will drive sand and dirt into the varnish of the body, ruining its lustrous finish so that no amount of polishing and rubbing will restore it.

If you would really appreciate the strain on the motor that is taken up by leaving the clutch in neutral instead of set in gear, just try cranking the car with the clutch set in gear and then try the clutch in neutral.

More fan belt trouble results from belts being too tight rather than too loose. A belt that is too tight has a tendency to draw one of the pulleys out of line, causing the belt to run against the flange of the pulleys, fraying the edges, and at high speeds climbing the flange and destroying itself. With the proper tension in the belt, there should be no appreciable wear in either belt or pulleys.

Owners of cars containing small-bore, six-cylinder engines sometimes complain of the difficulty of obtaining proper idling. The owner usually assumes that the carburetor is at fault. As a matter of fact, the trouble is usually caused by the spark plug gaps being set too close. This causes the motor to roll when idling with all the symptoms of loading. By increasing the spark gaps and cleaning the plugs, the trouble can be remedied.

A motorist will always find in the roadside emergency that his tubes are in the same serviceable condition as when he placed them in the car if he will carefully wrap them in soft cloth or paper so that they cannot slide around in the wrapping. Better even than this, however, is the purchase of a tube bag. It is not only excellent, but cheap insurance against tube cutting and chaffing.

Many motorists make mistakes in the way they employ tread filler or putty, the plastic material, used for plugging cuts. This material should be applied at night or when the car is not to be used for some hours. The cut should be cleaned out with gasoline. Then the cut should have a coat of cement which must be allowed to dry. Next the operator, whose hands must be clean and free from perspiration, should roll a little of the putty between his fingers and then force it evenly and firmly into the cut. Let the repair stand until morning and the results will be satisfactory.

When the tire goes down from a puncture, or especially through a slow leak, be sure to carefully examine the inside of the casing before inserting the repaired tube. It is quite probable that you will find a bit of glass, small nail, or some other destructive force that has thrust its way through the tread or sidewall and should be taken out. Also examine all the cuts in the casing on the outside, pull out all nails, take or glass and fill the cuts with tire putty. A few minutes' time taken in doing this may save considerable trouble on the road.

PEOPLES OF EUROPE IN DARK, DEEP PIT SAYS BANKER AND LECTURER

BUDAPEST.—The peoples of Europe are in a dark, deep pit and they must work themselves out of it," says Roland Hegedus, bank director and lecturer at the Budapest university. "The United States is richer than she knows, but she cannot reconstruct Europe by loans. All the nations of Europe are beset with a succession of political and economic problems that are well nigh insoluble."

"Russia is the key to the situation and until some sort of consistent government is established there, we can hope for little here."

"What the United States can do, perhaps, is to work to secure free trade among these central European countries. None of us can do any business with tariff frontiers."

"I believe the paper money situation will force a revision of the peace treaties. All these little nations are living from hand to mouth, printing up money to keep going. Poland is hardly a year old and already has a national debt of 130,000,000 marks, with a 40,000,000,000 deficit. The same is more or less true of Czechoslovakia, of Hungary and of all of us. The armies are eating up half our incomes, yet each nation is afraid to disarm because of possible attacks from neighbors.

"With this paper money carnival, central Europe can not trade with countries having better money, such as Spain, Holland and Switzerland. This situation also applies to Italy and France."

"Meanwhile, our civilization is going by the board. Because of the exchange, our universities and reading people can not afford to subscribe for science or law publications of England or the United States."

"For the same reason our educated but impoverished classes can not go abroad to find work, provided they could secure passports. These conditions are not altogether the results of a big war, but of a bad peace which has fallen harder on Hungary than any other country. (Holt) made her the center of a geographical and peace frontiers run not only new Hungary but the parts taken

OIL FIELD WORK

"CATERPILLAR" TRACTORS

THE 5 and 10 Ton "Caterpillar" tractors, offered for oil field work are duplicates of the tractors we furnished to the United States and allied governments for the hauling of guns, equipment and supplies.

These tractors that completely changed artillery tactics by their speed, tractive power and dependability, might have been specially designed for oil field work, so well do they fit the conditions. Holt engineers developed special "Caterpillar" trailers, gun mounts and numerous other equipment for army use. The same men have designed a special winch attachment as dependable as every other part of the machine, to provide the quickest power for pulling rods and tubing. This winch has been developed in conjunction with expert oil field operators for the special needs of the industry. It is Holt quality throughout.

The power of the Holt engine and the positive traction of the "Caterpillar" tread take the HOLT TRACTOR and its load out on the new lease—over new fields, through swamps, deep sand, heavy mud and mire and over roads impassable even for horses and mules. Behind it goes a train of trailers, carrying heavy machinery, boilers, lumber and steel for derricks, massive tools for drilling, iron casings or any other supplies necessary to support old and new operations. Rainy seasons and bad weather cannot hold up drilling or pumping operations when the "Caterpillar" is on the job.

Know all about the "Caterpillar" and what it will do for you. Learn how it reduces production costs by making constant, uninterrupted operation possible. Write today.

CHINA COMING TO THE FRONT, REPORTS AMERICAN AGENT

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—China, for centuries the unprogressive nation whose glory was in the past, is forging ahead in business way that remind one of aggressive American progress. William P. Hancker, general purchasing agent of the Western Electric company, declared here today in a resume of trade investigations he had made during a six months' tour of the world.

"China presents a most fertile field for American enterprise," he said. "Despite an occasional military effort by some small minority, that nation is a hive of industry. Labor seems plentiful and, what is more important, cheap. In fact the latter feature is so true that capital has a clear way for productive plans and new fields of effort."

"The Chinese business men, especially those who have been educated abroad are adopting American and British methods and are forging ahead. Exchange is working to the advantage of China because of the rise in its value of silver button, which works to the benefit of the big republic in its position in other countries."

India Also Makes Strides.

India, ancient land of mystery, also is making big strides commercially with Americans there as in other far eastern territory laying foundations for future trade, Mr. Hancker said. The hindoo is beginning to make himself an important factor in business and political circles, he continued, adding:

"It is remarkable how the average Asiatic as a result of foreign educational processes seems to be losing his reputation for self-effacing conservatism. Today you find him in positions of importance, competing with all sorts of foreign conditions."

Referring to China, Mr. Hancker said:

"One fact that Americans have to their advantage in China is the boycott which exists against Japanese and German relations. The combined Chinese Chambers of Commerce have gone on record as declaring a 10-year boycott against Germany and because of racial differences it is very improbable whether Japan will ever get a really strong foothold. Australia has been quick to jump into this breach and is now supplying quantities of foodstuffs which the Chinese use, but if we can promise any kind of a delivery and that is the really important condition which every one abroad is insisting upon nowadays, we should have no trouble in establishing firm trading relations."

"There is a certain sales psychology which must be remembered when dealing with the Chinaman and that is his respect for tradition. One foreign importer found himself unable for a time to dispose of a shipment of fruits which came in yellow colored cans, yellow being associated in China with death, while on the other hand it has been found that goods cloaked in red, the symbol of luck are in eager demand."

STATEMENT REGARDING RELATIONS BETWEEN JAPAN AND SIBERIA

Note: The following statement of the relations between the Japanese and the Far Eastern Republic of Siberia was obtained by an Associated Press correspondent in the course of a journey from Vladivostok across Siberia and Russia to Moscow and Finland.

VERKHNE-DVINSK, SIBERIA, July 15.—Representatives of the Far Eastern Republic recently established here have been frustrated in their efforts to make peace with the Japanese military command in Siberia by refusal of the latter to treat with them except as concerns territory west of Chita, according to a statement by A. M. Kraasnotchekoff, foreign minister of the republic, to The Associated Press correspondent. Parleys were broken off when the Russians insisted that the scope of negotiations should embrace the entire Far Eastern situation, should assume an international aspect instead of parleys between military commands and that military operations should be completely suspended while negotiations were in progress.

Efforts of the Far Eastern republic to establish friendly relations with the Japanese even at the expense of surrender temporarily of sovereign rights to a wide belt of territory, were described by Kraasnotchekoff, as follows:

"Parleys between the Japanese military mission and a mission of the Far Eastern republic were begun on May 24 at the station Gonskoto, between the Japanese-Semenoff and Russian fronts, about 10 miles west of Chita. The Japanese mission, headed by Colonel Ruroawa, presented three demands, namely that the soviet army must return west of Lake Baikal; that a neutral zone be established west of Chita 150 miles in extent and containing no armed forces; that free transportation and communications be established and that the Japanese have representation in the railway management."

"The Russians replied that the soviet army had not progressed beyond the left bank of the Selenga river, (south west of Lake Baikal) and that the question of their return west of Lake Baikal must be taken up by Japan with Soviet Russia."

"The Far Eastern Republic mission proposed that the railway in the Chita and Stretensk districts be considered within the sphere of influence of the Japanese military command in Siberia temporarily, until an agreement regarding Japanese evacuation could be reached, and that through transportation and communication be established as a whole, that fighting cease on all fronts, and that the negotiations assume the aspect of an international conference instead of parleys between two military commands."

GAINES MOTOR CAR CO. TAKES OVER CONTRACT FOR IMPORTANT AUTO PARTS

Announcement has been made by the Gaines Motor Car Company, that during the past week they have taken over two contracts of important automobile parts. The first was placed with the Alemite Lubricating Company, of Chicago, manufacturers of the lubricating system that is standard equipment on 119 of the foremost passenger and commercial cars in America.

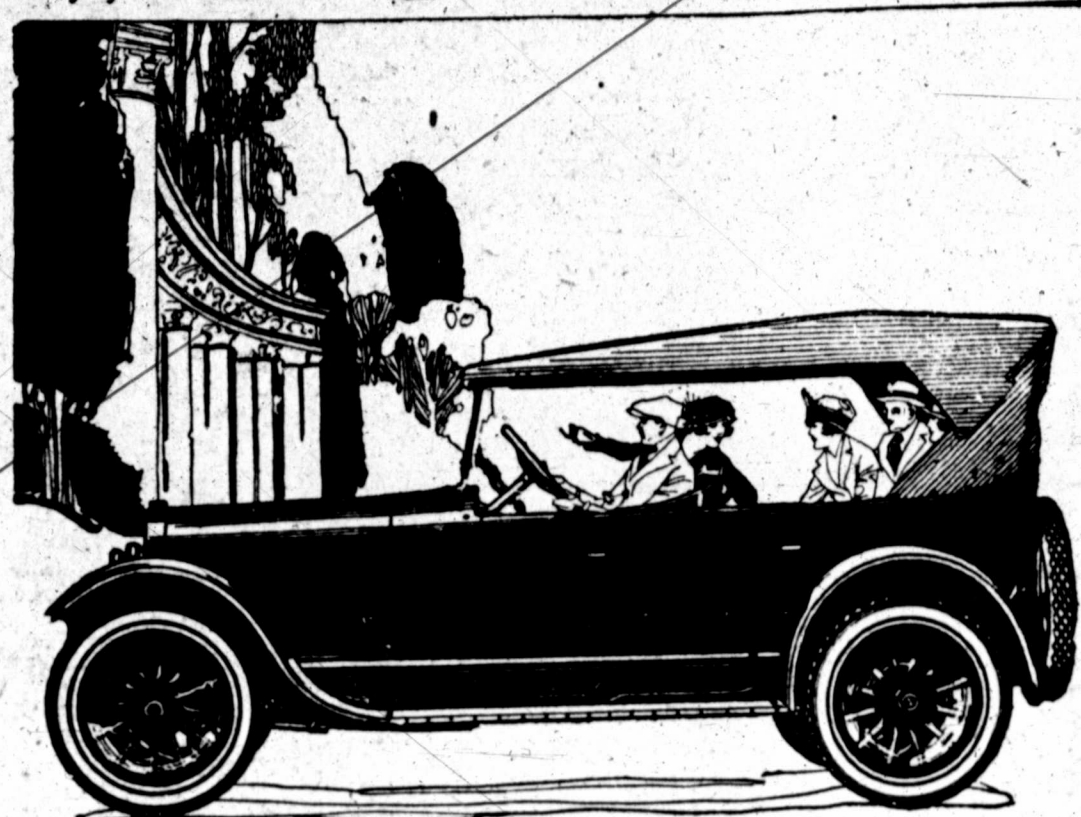

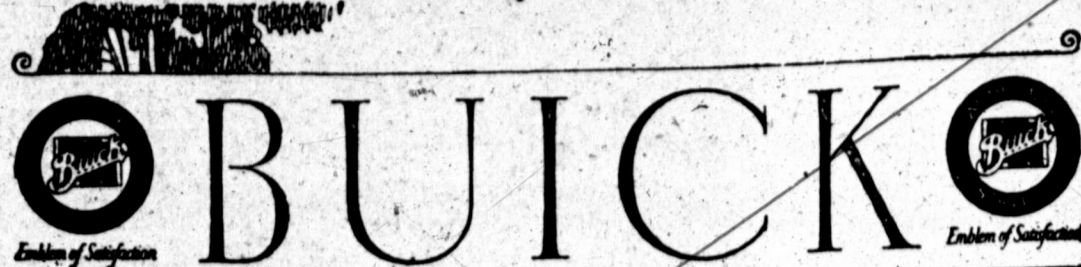

Through this contract the local concern is to be the exclusive agent for Alemite products in their territory, which includes all of northern Texas, the Panhandle and southern Oklahoma. The parts and accessories which are included in the Alemite line are in great demand by auto owners and the handling of these parts will mean an immense volume of business for the Gaines company.

The other contract was closed with the Continental Motor Co., of Detroit and Muskegon, Mich., for Continental parts and service in the southwestern territory. This will also mean that the local company will be called upon to render a large amount of service for the Continental Motor Co. is the largest manufacturer of gasoline motors in the world and their products are found in automobiles in every quarter of the globe. The local territory of the Continental people is about the same as that of the Alemite company, and is located throughout northern Texas and southern Oklahoma.

In connection with the Continental parts the Gaines company will take the agency for the Borg & Beck clutch parts, which are used exclusively on Continental motor equipped machines. The Borg & Beck clutch is standard equipment on 75 per cent of all automobiles in America and the care which must be given to these will require a great deal of attention.

STURDILY built—designed for power and dependability, possessing grace and beauty in every line—the new Buick Nineteen Twenty One series signally upholds the traditions that have made the name Buick a notable word in the automotive industry.

Two decades have more than justified the unwavering fidelity to the accepted engineering ideals to which Buick stands committed. The same rugged Valve-in-Head motor refined is a distinguishing feature of every model.

In appearance, the Buick Nineteen Twenty One series is notable for the harmonious blending of low, graceful body lines; in appointments, for those added refinements that so materially increase the pleasure and comfort of motoring.

In addition to the general features of the new models the Buick Five-Passenger Touring Car (Twenty One Forty Five) possesses a roominess of tonneau and new arrangement of seating that afford occupants the utmost in riding comfort. For the business man or his family; for the needs of city driving or country driving, this model excels because of its capacity for varied service.

Fall Days Suggest The Essex Sedan

Economical—Easily Handled, Beautiful and Comfortable—Compare its Price

Everyone now thinks of an enclosed car for cool nights and the coming winter

But the objection to enclosed bodies on light cars has been their restricted performance.

The Essex has ample power to offset the additional body weight.

Economical in Operation and Maintenance

It is a compact, commodious car, with a range of performance that answers every need. Owners have used their Essex Sedans for long tours. They know no limits to its service. It answers every requirement of comfort and beauty and it is economical as everyone expects a light car to be.

Gasoline, oil and tires are small items of expense in the operation of the Essex. But the greatest saving is due to its reliability. Repair and adjustment costs are negligible.

Much of the satisfaction in motoring comes from the appearance of the car. It expresses one's taste and individuality as much as one's clothes or the house in which one lives.

The Sedan is in every sense a family car of all seasons.

And its price is more than attractive in comparison with other Sedan types, regardless of the more important question of performance and durability.
