Later the crowd agreed to withhold action while a committee of two citizens went to the girl's home to determine whether or not the girl had identified the suspect, Hawk said she had, while others denied it and at the appeal of Sheriff Clark the committee was agreed to. While this committee was absent, the negro sent out a request that he wanted to talk to some one. Oliver Hiett, accordingly, went into the jail. The negro admitted committing the assault on the girl and asked into his admissions and professed his innocence.

MAY NOT LEARN OF THE RESULT IN CUBA FOR NUMBER OF DAYS

HAVANA, Nov. 2.—Work of canvassing the vote of yesterday's presidential election moved slowly last night and it seems probable that if the rate is continued the result of the presidential election in the United States today may be known here before Cubans learn the name of their next president.

Returns from 111 of the 2,002 precincts in Cuba had been received by the central electoral board when it ceased counting shortly before midnight. At the time Dr. Alfredo Zayas, coalition candidate, was leading General Jose Miguel Gomez, standard bearer of the liberal party, by 102 votes. The tabulation as announced by the electoral board gave Zayas 11,034 and Gomez 10,282.

Various reasons were given by leaders for the delay in transmitting the official result. Some liberals charged that the count was being held up by the government. But this was denied by officials who declared that the government itself had received and made public returns from a larger number of precincts than had been reported to the board.

There was a feeling of intense relief when dispatches indicated that the day had passed without serious outbreaks. The number of persons killed around the polling places was no greater than expected.

Dr. Zayas was a bit more optimistic than General Gomez, for he claimed a sweeping victory, while Gomez declared the tabulation was too meager as a basis for predicting the final result. The general's followers, however, went to bed after a night of great hilarity in Havana, satisfied that he had won.

REX CANDLISH GETS TWO YEAR TERM IN THE PENITENTIARY

By RAYMOND CLAPPER, United Press Staff Correspondent.

MARION, O., Nov. 2.—The outcome of today's election is being awaited by Senator Harding with complacency.

Both the senator and Mrs. Harding were still in their home early this morning. They expected to leave the house shortly after breakfast to vote in the small brick garage a few blocks away.

Mrs. Harding will cast her first presidential vote for her husband and the senator will place an "X" at the head of the column of Harding electors. Then they will turn to the enjoyment of the 55th birthday anniversary of the candidate, which falls on election day this year.

If weather permits, Senator Harding will motor to Columbus for a game of golf. He will be back in Marion before dinner to receive the election returns. Senator Harding will be kept busy during the evening greeting the crowds that will collect around the front porch, glancing over election figures copied over special wires which run into the press quarters at the rear of his home and talking over long distance telephone to party leaders at New York and Chicago.

Senator and Mrs. Harding appeared in a happy frame of mind this morning and neither gave any sign of having the slightest doubt about the result. Both rested most of the day and appeared completely refreshed.

"We are all set," Senator Harding said. "I have made the best fight I know how and await the result with complacency."

CHARLTON IS ACQUITTED OF CHARGE OF MURDER

DALLAS, Nov. 2.—Allen Charlton, prominent Dallas attorney, was acquitted of a charge of murder in connection with the shooting to death last June 23 of Charles Eubank, local business man, by a jury here today.

The jury, which had deliberated about twelve hours, brought in its verdict of not guilty shortly after 10 o'clock today. The case went on trial Monday of last week.

Eubank was shot and killed in his office in a downtown building early in the morning of June 23. Charlton, testifying in his own behalf during the trial, said his life had been threatened by Eubank the day before the shooting because Charlton had filed a suit against Eubank to collect attorney's fees due the defendant.

On June 23, Charlton said, he entered Eubank's office to obtain papers from a safe used by occupants of the building. Eubank protested against his entering the office, Charlton testified, and in the ensuing quarrel Eubank opened a drawer of a desk. The defendant said he began shooting because he believed Eubank had the drawer to get a gun.

The case attracted wide attention due to the prominence of the parties involved.

First—you see it in the cost. Calumet is sold at a moderate price.

Then—you observe it in the quality. Calumet has more than the usual leavening strength, therefore less is required.

Next—you notice it in raising quality—in the evenness—lightness and texture of your baking. They look better—merely grained.

OIL FIELD WORKER INJURED IN ACCIDENT DIES MONDAY EVENING

Tom L. Burgess, the oil field worker who was seriously injured in a boiler explosion at Bridgetown late Sunday night, died at a local hospital Monday evening. He had suffered a fractured skull and severe internal injuries and no hope was held out for his recovery from the first.

Burgess had been employed by the Scully Oil company Sunday and had been at work but three hours when the accident occurred. Water in the boiler of a drilling rig which was at work on a lease north of Bridgetown had been allowed to become too low with the result that the boiler exploded, badly damaging the engine and other equipment. Burgess was standing near by at the time and was struck in the jaw by a heavy piece of pipe. Other bits of flying metal fractured his skull and the force of the explosion hurled him to the ground, causing the internal injuries.

Little is known about the man as he only recently came to this section of the state. He is said to be survived by his wife and eight children, none of whom are over twelve years of age. The family has been living at Bridgetown but a short time.

No funeral arrangements have been completed as yet and the body is being held at the Merkle and Lunn undertaking establishment pending instructions as to the disposition of the body. It is believed that a brother is living in eastern Texas and efforts are being made to get in touch with him but no accurate information is available as to his whereabouts.

YOUTH IS CHARGED WITH VIOLATING THE ANTI-NARCOTIC LAW

A youth still in his teens, was arrested by Chief Detective Martin Tuesday morning and is now in the city jail, charged with violation of the federal narcotic laws. According to officials of the police department he has been known to them for some time and is said to have recently confessed to have stolen a diamond ring valued at $1,000 from his mother. He is alleged to have removed the stone from the ring and to have sold it to a local jeweler. It was later recovered by Chief Martin and returned to the owner.

In a statement to the police he said that he had stolen the morphine, which he is alleged to have sold and to have disposed of it to the inmates of a local hotel. It is known where he obtained the narcotic and to whom it was sold, but this information was not divulged by the police.

The boy is further alleged to have operated in cahoots with a band of juvenile auto thieves who were recently apprehended and it is said that he had confessed to have stolen an automobile from a local man a short time ago. No charges are thought to have been made against him in regard to the diamond and auto thefts but the sale of supposedly stolen morphine will necessitate action by the federal authorities.

YOUTH IS INJURED WHEN FRONT FORK OF HIS BICYCLE BREAKS

Herman Bell, aged sixteen years, call boy for the M. K. & T. railroad company was the victim of an accident Monday afternoon when the front fork of the bicycle he was riding broke and he was thrown with force to the pavement at Seventh and Lamar streets. His condition became serious during the evening and he was rushed to a hospital at Dallas.

According to eye witnesses he was coming up Lamar street and intended to turn on Seventh and just as he reached the pavement the front fork broke and the boy was hurled to the sidewalk. Several men who saw him fall went to his assistance and an automobile which was passing took the boy to the office of the railroad.

It was not thought at first that he had been seriously injured but developments were of such a nature that led officials at the Katy offices to believe that he was suffering from a fractured skull.

The boy was taken to his rooms on Lee street. The little fellow is an orphan but it was stated that he had a brother residing here.

New Hair Growth After BALDNESS

HAIR GROWN ON MR. BRITAIN'S BALD HEAD BY INDIANS' MYSTERIOUS HAIR GROWER

My head at the top and back was absolutely bald. The scalp was shiny. An expert said that as he thought the hair roots were extinct, and there was no hope of my ever having a new hair growth.

Yet now, at an age over 66, I have a luxuriant growth of soft, strong, lustrous hair. No trace of baldness. The pictures show hair here from my photographs.

Indians' Secret of Hair Growth

At a time when I had become discouraged at trying various hair lotions, tonics, specialista treatments, etc. I came across, in my travels, a Cherokee Indian "medicine man" who had an elixir that he asserted would grow my hair. Although I had but little faith, I gave it a trial. From recent photo. To my amazement a light fuzz soon appeared. It developed, day by day, into a healthy growth, and ere long my hair was as profuse as in my youthful days.

That I was astonished and happy in expressing my state of mind mildly. Obviously the hair roots had not been dead, but were dormant in the scalp, awaiting the fertilizing potency of the mysterious pomade. I suggested for and came into possession of the principle for preparing this mysterious elixir, now called Kotalbe, and later had the recipe put into practical form by a chemist.

That my own hair growth was permanent has been amply proved. Many men and women, also children, have reported results from Kotalbe.

How YOU May Grow YOUR Hair

My honest belief is that hair roots rarely die even when the hair falls out through dandruff, fever, excessive dryness or other disorders. I have been told by experts that often when hair falls out the roots become imbedded within the scalp, covered by hard skin, so that they remain for a time like bulbs or seeds in a box which will grow when fertilized. Shampoos (which contain alkalis) and hair lotions which contain alcohol are enemies to the hair, as they dry it, making it brittle. Kotalbe contains those elements of nature which give new vitality to the scalp and hair.

PROVE FOR YOURSELF

Get a box of the genuine Kotalbe at a reliable druggist's $3.00. 00 GUARANTEE with each box. A small testing box of Kotalbe (with testing nails, etc.) may be obtained by sending ten cents, silver or stamps, to my address below.

"In this glad era of self-determination, why is the scenery cluttered up with colonial secretaries?"—Denison Herald.

We don't know; we don't know. But we have heard a lot about this self-determination thing, and after knowing a few self-determined people, we are glad somebody helped us make up our own mind about a few things, and made up their own mind about us on a few others. First of all, we are glad our most immediate maternal ancestor self-determined that we should be raised for a few years during the first decade or so of our life. Being able to mind one's own business, when it is absolutely necessary, from our parents and custom, self-determination had been discovered during our early youth the chances are that we would have reached an entirely different conclusion from our parents about the matter. We are also glad that during a period of years when self-determination is most attractive, one or two interested people decided to censor our reading, and direct it into the proper channels. If they hadn't, it would have got into an entirely different channel, such as self-determination between sixteen and twenty. Of course, now that we are grown up, we don't pay any mind to anybody for compulsion. But having contracted at least the making of a habit of taking counsel during our plastic years, it is hard to get away from, and the older we get the more we realize that there is always counsel worth taking. Of course we realize that there are a few rude people who will smile at the idea of our taking counsel; there are always people, extant who don't know beans, but it won't do away with the fact that there are occasions on which we do.

SILVER TROPHY PRESENTED MRS. WELDON AT GOLF CLUB

Open house Saturday night at the golf club was one of the most attractive entertainments yet given at the club. While the guests did not come in costume, the affair was in the nature of a Halloween party, with house decorations and refreshments appropriate to the "ghosts" night off. Autumn and Halloween features included beautiful foliage, vines, pumpkins, witches, black cats, etc., with the living room mantel a particularly attractive center of interest.

A feature of the surprise of the evening was the presentation to Mrs. M. Finley Weldon of a beautiful silver loving cup, appropriately inscribed, as winner of the recently past elimination putting contest. Music was furnished by the Templeton orchestra, and forty or fifty couples enjoyed dancing and games. Refreshments of old-fashioned sweet apple cider and gingerbread were served during the evening. The hostesses, Mesdames G. D. Whitney, S. Walker, J. E. Packer, E. E. McCutchen, and F. T. Timberlake, were assisted by Mesdames William McGregor, Leslie Burns, and Fred Cooper.

MISS LILLIAN HANDLE GAVE HALLOWEEN PARTY SATURDAY

Miss Lillian Handle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Handle, entertained a number of her friends informally Saturday night with a Halloween party. When the guests arrived at the door, the Handle home they found it placarded. This entrance closed; go to the back back. At the back door they were solemnly received by ghosts, after shaking hands with whom they fled from the touch of the cold and clammy members into the house, only to be met by more departed spirits. When all had assembled, however, the evening was most enjoyably spent, and some of the ghosts turned out to be most interesting characters under their sheeted regalia. Miss Frankie Adickes was an Italian girl, Miss Burleigh Davenport, an Egyptian dancer, Miss Jane McAllister, a clown, Miss Stella Winters, an Egyptian queen, Miss Marjorie Woolsey, a dancer, and Miss Gwendolyn Walters, who occupied the fortune teller's tent, a very talented Gypsy queen. Other guests in attractive costumes included Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Broughton, Miss Helen Knotts, Gamble Fountain, Aline Haynes, Sallie Tevis, Marjorie Dullin, Lillian Handle and Kathryn Handle, Mr. and Mrs. McCracken, Master "Toby" Broughton, the mascot of the party, Joe Haskins, Leroy Zeigler, Jack Pink, Raymond Smith, Claude Harris, S. H. Ryder, Clifton Haynes, William Powers, Charles Jeter, Reagan Andrews, C. L. Snow, C. C. Handle Jr. and Mrs. S. M. Winters, Raymond Smith, Claude Harris and Leroy Zeigler were awarded prizes for the best ghost stories, and Mrs. Winters, who appeared mysteriously on the scene and told fortunes in a foreign tongue, also distributed fortunes on apparently blank sheets of paper. Held over candles the fortunes appeared. A prize was offered for the best toast and S. H. Ryder asked to act as judge. In that capacity Mr. Ryder decided that all of the toasts were "fierce," and refused to make an award at all. A salad and ice course was served at a late hour.

HALLOWEEN PARTY FOR MOVIE EMPLOYEES AT J. A. PIERCE'S

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Pierce of 2407 Grant street, assisted by Miss Virginia Coleman of 2415 Buchanan, entertained with a Halloween social in honor of the employees of the local picture shows. The house was appropriately decorated in yellow and black, chrysanthemums being chosen to carry out the yellow color effect. The evening was very pleasantly spent and dainty refreshments served at a late hour, after which the entire party attended the midnight matinee at the Olympic.

BIRTHDAY LUNCHEON THURSDAY HONORING C. D. SHAMBURGER

Mrs. C. D. Shamburger, assisted by Mrs. J. T. Abbott and Miss Grace D. Shamburger, surprised Mr. Shamburger with a birthday luncheon at their home Monday afternoon, an unusual and pleasant feature of the affair being that Mr. Shamburger's lumber company managers from several nearby towns were among the guests present. Those included H. Tolly of Vernon, H. T. Hretedova of Decatur, A. E. Vannoy of Turkburnett, and G. W. Gafford of Elberta. The other guests included J. T. Abbott, local manager; W. O. Hudgins, manager of the Factory Lumber house; and J. E. Hargland, R. M. Morrow, James Crow and Elbert Vannoy, local office men.

The reception and dining rooms were attractively decorated with American beauty roses and La France roses, with a most effective centerpiece of the roses, and an elaborate four-course luncheon was served by the hostess and her assistants. After luncheon Mrs. Abbott gave two very entertaining readings and the guests were invited to remain for a social evening with Mr. Shamburger, during which cigars and music were enjoyed.

EPWORTH LEAGUE MEMBERS GUESTS OF BOWIE LEAGUE

Eleven members of the First Church Epworth League were weekend guests of the League at Bowie, Texas, Saturday night, the occasion being a party at the church. Games were enjoyed, and the costumes of several of the guests proved a very interesting diversion. R. W. H. McCulloch and Vernon Graves being dressed to represent black cats, Murrell Hooper, a black mammy and Jack Cole as a devil. Sunday noon the visitors were the guests of Mrs. Covey, Miss Alene Covey's mother, Miss Covey being among the visiting party. In the evening Mr. McCulloch conducted the League service, assisted by other members of the Wichita Falls party.

CALL FIELD FOLKS HAVE BIG "PUNKIN PIE AND COFFEE" PARTY

Call Field folks enjoyed a halloween dance and social at the barracks Saturday night which very nearly turned into a "punks" pie and coffee" contest, owing to the lavishness with which the ladies had provided those refreshments. THE LOVE FLOWER'S ADDS ANOTHER FILM TRIUMPH

The Love Flower, D. W. Griffith's latest feature production, is being offered at the Olympic theatre again Tuesday and promises to draw large crowds again. The picture has added another film triumph to Griffith's long list and has already gained in popular favor to an extent a degree as "Broken Blossoms" and "The Idol Dancer," which were his last two pictures to cause comment in the movie circles of the world.

"The Love Flower" has its setting in the islands of the South Sea and none of the mystic beauty and charm of these far-off islands have been lost to the camera's eye. With these natural surroundings as a background it gives exceptionally fine work, and this they have done. Richard Barthelmé, George Meeker and Carol Dempster in the leading parts have, under Griffith's direction, evolved a play that is the best work in artistry. The athletic beauty of Miss Dempster is shown to great advantage and some of her feats in the aquatic line are the best that have been seen here in weeks.

"THE BELOVED CHEATER" HAS APPEAL TO MOVIE FANS

Low Cody in "The Beloved Cheater" has been given another role which he has made famous and the Coles-Robertson star has turned out another of those productions which though silly and shallow seem to have an appeal to the theatre-going public. Cody's business in life is to affect elegant manners, and in the present play is woven around conditions like that, but an entangling domestic scandal adds complications to the picture and incidentally furnishes quite a few thrills.

The board of directors of the general provisions department has this time to initiate a public relations campaign, and calling a committee to work on the matter. The committee will submit ideas and plans to the board, and the board will then decide on the best course of action. The committee will also be responsible for the execution of the plan.

Calling attention to the fact that the general provisions department is now in the process of manufacturing a new line of products, and that these products are of the highest quality and are guaranteed to be the best in the market. The department is also offering a special discount on all purchases over $10.00.

And the future of Wichita Falls, Texas, is bright. The city is growing rapidly, and the general provisions department is proud to be a part of it. The department is also offering a special discount on all purchases over $10.00.

GENERAL PUBLICITY CAMPAIGN PROVIDED IN A RESOLUTION BY DIRECTORS CHAMBER COMMERCE

The board of directors of the chamber of commerce this morning passed resolutions declaring it essential at this time to institute a general plan of publicity for Wichita Falls on a large scale, and calling upon the publicity committee to work out the details and submit ideas and estimates. During the past eight months barely $200 has been spent by the chamber in publicity advertising, and the general impression prevailed this morning that the time is now ripe to let the outside world know of this city's future possibilities.

Calling attention to the existing opportunities for same, sensible investment in the oil industry; the new manufacturing and jobbing interests that are developing; the direct rail connections recently established between this city and Stephens county; the construction of the Dallas interurban electric line and the assured success of the big Wichita Valley irrigation project, Frank Kell declared that "conditions justify a general publicity campaign on the part of the chamber which is supported by J. A. Kemp, who expressed the belief that there are thousands of men and women all over the country who are anxious to invest their money and make their homes in a city of possibilities."

Possibilities Great. "And the future possibilities of Wichita Falls," he added, "are greater than those of any city in the southwest today. The advantages of Wichita Falls should be told to the world. We can help others, and others will help us by bringing us blood and new money into this city."

Myra O'Reilly told the board members that he had been traveling over the United States for 50 years seeking a city with a future, and that he had never seen a town that showed a possibility of making a greater city than Wichita Falls. The board also authorized the business council of the chamber to work out the details of a trade territory plan to be given at the Kemp hotel in January. The plan will be further featured by an exhibit of articles and goods manufactured and jobbed in this section. There are 150 men traveling out of Wichita Falls as representatives of various houses here, and all these men will be invited to the dinner as well as the heads of the wholesale and jobbing interests in this particular trade territory. In this manner it is hoped to make every traveling man a booster in general for all the interests of this section. The expense of the dinner will be borne by the chamber of commerce, and the cost of the manufacturing, jobbing and agricultural exhibit will be charged against the interests that will be benefited.

One Property Owner Refuses. The question of delays in receiving the money necessary to complete the installation of the street lighting system was brought before the board by Secretary Hubert Harrison, and discussion of the advisability of making the payment of property taxes was discussed. It was pointed out that only one property owner had refused to hear any of the expense. Resolutions, finally were adopted authorizing the committee in charge to employ legal counsel to aid them in handling the situation. J. B. Marlow was asked on the question of organizing a fair association. He stated that he is one of the owners of the only strip of land available for the use of such an organization, but that he is unwilling to sell this land, but that he is willing to do so until the city has had an opportunity to decide whether or not it will decide whether a fair association would be of benefit to Wichita Falls. Marlow was requested to present the matter to the business council at its regular meeting Friday noon. Demonstration Agent. The matter of engaging the services of an agricultural and home demonstration agent, half of whose salary would be borne by the county commission, was referred to Secretary Harrison for further investigation and a later report. Harrison also was instructed to take up by letter certain matters concerning the organization and sale of stock of the motion picture company that produced the picture, "White Gold," in this city some time ago. A report of the financial standing of the chamber of commerce for the past month showed $2,829 on hand and the probability that $3,600 will be received from the Wichita Falls Water company within the next ten days. The last sum mentioned is a refund of money advanced by the chamber for the construction of the water main to Call Field.

Old Dobbin is Coming Back, Says an Expert. DETROIT, MICH., Nov. 2.—The next five years will see the horse drawn carriage, the saddle horse and the trucking horse on the boulevards, in the parks and on the highways in a great revival of Old Dobbin's usefulness, was the statement today by the United Press by J. C. Buckley, for twenty-four years a horse-shoer of Detroit. Buckley is now "shoeing horses on paper" as editor of the Horse-shoer's Journal.

Old Dobbin is Coming Back, Says an Expert. Buckley, who is former business in one location of Exclusive north Woodward avenue, Buckley shod the horses of many Detroit millionaires, among them Hazen S. Pingree, former mayor of Michigan; C. A. Newcomb of the Newcomb-Endicott company and Simon J. Murphy, millionaire lumber man and owner of the present office building and many others. Buckley bases his statement on the movements being forwarded by many states setting aside driving space along the boulevards and in the parks; on the fact that the tonnage of horse shoes and nails manufactured today is greater than at any time in the past two or three years and on the introduction of legislation in various states to maintain shoeing shops where the farmers can be taught the trade. The lack of driving horses on the highways now, Buckley said, is not due to much to the fact that the automobiles replaced them, but to the fact that a man losing his driving horse, would not risk driving him among the automobiles. There is also a serious shortage of men to shoe horses, he said, adding that the horse shoer, in fear that the auto might put him out of business, is taking up with other lines of work, such as auto repairing and welding. The blacksmith trade ranks high in wages, he said. Speaking of the trade in the horse to the trucking business Buckley cited statistics that a horse can be used in this business at an expense of 25 cents a mile while carrying 100 pounds of freight while the automobile truck expense for the same distance while carrying the same weight is 25 cents.

Although conceding that the horse cannot completely replace the auto truck, Buckley maintains it can be used in more classes of work and that the larger firms are now using both and that large numbers of business firms have already replaced trucks with horses. "The next few years will see Old Dobbin's vindication," he said.

Two men giving the names of Horvath and John Hill have been arrested by detectives Teas De Graffenreid and John Hoome for alleged implication in the series robberies which have caused losses of over $1,000 to merchants between Wichita Falls and Vernon. Information in regard to the robberies was given out Tuesday afternoon.

The operations of the two men began in Vernon the latter part of last week when a hardware store was entered and robbed of several hundred dollars worth of guns and ammunition. The two thieves then made a straight line for Wichita Falls, stopping over night at every town and village en route and adding to their growing collection of loot. At Harrold a clothing store was entered and several suits of clothing and other articles of wearing apparel taken. From Harrold the two journeyed to Electra and broke into a drug store, leaving with a large assortment of drugs and cosmetics.

Arrested on Arrival. Oklaunion and Iowa Park were visited before Wichita Falls was reached and it is believed that the robbers had intended to dispose of their loot in this city, but a quiet tip was received by the local detectives and when the men showed up they were promptly arrested.

A high-powered touring car had been used by the robbers in their traveling and a description of this which had been furnished the officers gave the clue, which led to the capture of the men. It was said to have been stolen in Vernon some time ago and was taken back to that city Monday night by the graffenreid, where it was identified. Neisley and Hill have also been returned to Vernon by officials of that city and are said to have confessed to the robbery charges. Fire arms, drugs, tobacco, dry goods, clothing and even groceries were included in the stock which the two had accumulated and which was valued at well over $1,000. The articles are now being sorted and efforts made to establish their ownership.

MYSTERY MAN GETS SIX MONTHS TERM, THEN DEPORTATION

LONDON, Nov. 2.—Six months at hard labor and deportation thereafter was the sentence imposed in Bow street police court today upon Erkie Weltheim, the "mystery man" who was arraigned last week charged by the government as acting as an intermediary between members of revolutionary circles in Great Britain and Russian revolutionists. Neither the name nor the nationality of the prisoner was made known at the time of his arraignment. It was upon Weltheim that the government's attorney announced that a letter from Sylvia Pankhurst to Nikolai Lenin, premier of soviet Russia, had been found in which Miss Pankhurst was alleged to have written: "The situation is most acute; not ready for a revolution yet."

REPORT OF CHURCH IS CHEERED BY CONFERENCE

Rev. W. L. Tittle returned Monday from McKinney, where he attended the session of the North Texas conference. When he reported the accomplishments of the Floral Heights church of this city during the first year of the church's existence the conference cheered the report vigorously. It was stated on the floor of the conference that it was altogether likely that no such report was ever made by any church at the close of the first year of its history. Rev. Mr. Tittle was returned, as was also his assistant, Rev. C. B. Garrett. The new church being built by this congregation is now about ready for the roof and the work is being pushed with all possible speed. The tabernacle at Tenth and Denver streets has been enclosed and heating arrangements made. Rev. Mr. Tittle will open the work of the new conference year with a sermon next Sunday morning at which time plans for the new year's work will be made public. He is of the opinion that many new members will begin immediately with this new congregation, a number of whom are expected to be received next Sunday. It is now thought that the new church will be fully completed in every particular within four months time. A great opening service will be held when the church is ready.

THREE STRONG INFLUENCES HAVE BEEN WORKING IN FAVOR OF COX DURING LAST DAYS OF CAMPAIGN

By MARK SULLIVAN
National Political Correspondent of The New York Evening Post.
(Copyright 1920 by N. Y. Evening Post)
NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—I said on Saturday that the democrats will be likely to carry every one of the southern states and in addition four of the border states, namely, Oklahoma, Maryland, Kentucky, and West Virginia. Outside the southern and border states, I said the democrats would be likely to carry Utah, Arizona, Montana and New Mexico. The total electoral votes of these states would be 175 out of a total of 531.

The only changes I would make today would be these:
I think that during the past few days West Virginia has become a little more secure to the republicans. Also, I think that developments of the last few days have made it probable that Nevada will go democratic rather than republican. The net result of changing these two states from the list as I had it on Saturday would be to give Cox 174 electoral votes.

Influences at Work

And yet there can be no doubt whatever that three strong influences have been working in Cox's favor for the past three or four days; for that matter, several of these influences have been working in Cox's favor for fully four weeks. The influences which have been working more strongly during the past few days, than any time before, are the race issue in those states and communities where there are large numbers of negroes, and where this issue counts; the League of Nations issue, and certain influences which have been tending to modify the rather implacable opposition which voters of Irish descent have had toward the democratic party throughout the campaign until recently.

Cox Makes Rapid Gains
As a result of these influences there can be no question whatever that Cox has been making rapid gains during the past few days, and it is difficult to calculate how much progress he has made. The effect of these changes has, in my judgment, made the following three large states generally doubtful: Missouri, with eighteen electoral votes; Indiana, with fifteen electoral votes, and Ohio, with twenty-four electoral votes. Two weeks ago these states seemed safely republican; today they are doubtful, and it is in these three states today that probably the most intense fighting will take place. As to the control of the United States senate, I said on Saturday that it seemed likely that the republicans would control the new senate by fifty-two to fifty-four. I still think that is approximately correct.

May Lose Places.
The senatorial seats now held by the republicans, which they are in grave danger losing are: Cummins in Iowa, Leffron in Wisconsin, Smoot in Utah, and Brandegee in Connecticut. All four of these republican senators are in grave danger. Cummins, especially, is in grave danger. Without predicting that the republicans will lose all of these seats, I think it is likely that among the four they will lose two.

publicans are practically certain of winning in Colorado and Idaho.

Independent Figure.
The republicans would be reasonably certain of winning in South Dakota, except that just recently an important independent candidacy has developed there. In Oregon, although the state is strongly republican as regards Harding, the republicans would have no chance of winning the senatorship except that the Wilson democrats have recently put forward a candidate of their own to take votes away from Senator Chamberlain. In Kentucky the republican candidate for senator, Ernst will win, even though the state should go for Cox.

The republicans also have hopes of winning a senatorship in California. It is undoubtedly true that California will go for Senator James D. Phelan, who is running to succeed himself, is much more popular in California than Cox is. If the republican majority for Harding is less than 100,000 Phelan will probably win.

NEBRASKA AND RUTERS CLASH AT POLO GROUNDS

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—University of Nebraska's heavy football team invaded the Rutgers polo grounds today to test the prowess of the Rutgers college eleven. Graduates of the western institution in the east planned to turn out in force and root for the Corn Huskers. A box was reserved for General John J. Pershing, an alumnus and former instructor in mathematics at the university.

Begin Right Now to Conquer Your Rheumatism

If you are going to again rely upon the liniment bottle to try to rub your Rheumatism away, you will be doomed again to nothing but disappointment. A disease that can cause so much pain and suffering is not on the surface of the skin, and cannot be rubbed away. Many forms of Rheumatism are caused by a tiny disease germ in the blood, and in such cases the only logical treatment is to search out and remove these germs from the blood. For this purpose there is no more satisfactory remedy than S.S.S., the fine old blood remedy that has been in use for more than fifty years, and has given such general satisfaction for Rheumatism. Begin taking S.S.S. today, and if you will write a complete history of your case, our medical director will give you expert advice, with each charge. WORDS OF HENRY GRADY.

The Fort Worth Star-Telegram prints approvingly the words of that great orator, Henry W. Grady, and says these times are a fitting day for their transmutation into reality:

"When every farmer in the South shall eat bread from his own fields and meat from his own pastures and be disturbed by no creditors and enslaved by no debt, shall all among his vineyards and his orchards and his barnyards, pitching his crops in his own wisdom and growing them in independence, making cotton his clean surplus and selling it in his own time in his chosen market, and not at a master's bidding; getting his pay in cash and not in a receipted mortgage that discharges his debt but does not restore his freedom—then shall be the breaking of the fullness of our day."

Times have changed since the great Georgian said that—there is less of the "master's bidding," less of the mortgaged-cropper system, more of independence than the South used to know. But there is still room for more improvement, the eating of bread from more of our own fields and meat from more of our own pastures. The economic greatness of the South, increasing by leaps and bounds during the past ten years, during which we have largely thrown off the tremendous handicap imposed upon us by the Civil war and conditions following it, can be made to continue that growth by adherence to the doctrine leading to full independence of living at home.

County Clerk Mynatt of Tarrant county, after long experience in the issuance of marriage licenses and some knowledge of the heaviness of divorce dockets, is going to ask Tarrant county legislators to introduce and push bills for more drastic laws governing the issuance of marriage licenses. The principal change he would recommend is that couples desiring to marry should be required to announce their intention thirty days before the license is issued, eliminating, he thinks, many hasty and unhappy marriages. Mere children come to a county clerk's office, demand a license to marry, make the affidavit if it is required that they are both of age, and the clerk is powerless to deny them what they want. Perjury is frequent at the marriage license counter, but prosecutions for it are few and far between, because those interested usually decide that with the marriage consummated it is better to let the matter of prosecution drop. Clever schemes are used some times to avoid being sworn. In a Texas office not so long ago a couple came in for a marriage license. Neither was known to the clerk, but they were obviously of marriageable age—the man apparently was forty-five and the woman about forty—that they were not required to make affidavit as to ages. It transpired a few days later when an irate father demanded to know how a 19-year-old boy had procured license to marry a 17-year-old girl without making affidavit that the middle-aged couple had acted for the youthful couple and had got by with it. One court in Houston has 924 divorce cases on its docket, and in perhaps less degree that situation exists in every district docket in the state. Making marriage more difficult and divorce less easy is something badly needed in Texas and adoption of the Tarrant county clerk's suggestion would help materially at one end of the line.

Mentioning the British labor situation the other day we said that British labor unions had 3,000,000 members out of a population of less than 40,000,000 and that British labor exercised greater political strength than in any other country in the world; organized labor in the United States, for example, out of a population over two and a half times as great, having a nominal membership of less than 4,000,000 claimed. As a matter of fact, as we learn from more recent statistics, there are over 5,000,000 closely bound members of British trades unions, giving them the one-eighth of the total population of the United Kingdom and having more than doubled their membership in ten years. The eighty labor party members in the British Parliament hold the balance of power in the House of Commons, and they use it regularly to the advantage of organized labor.

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

I love the merry Christmas day And holds its meaning dear, And I observe in fitting way The best of the year.

But still the greatest day of all in freedom's land, I say Is this which we have grown to call Our own election day.

This is all free men's day of days, When there's no creed or class, The humbles now his voice may raise And none may him surpass.

The poor man and the millionaire, With conscience as their guide, In freedom's greatest day are As equals, side by side.

Today the humble man is great, Nor need he speak, To him no other day dictate, Today there are no weak;

The timid need not backward lag, For boldly they may stand, As true protectors of the flag And rulers of the land.

I sometimes think of all the days Which men have set apart To celebrate in fitting ways By service of the heart,

Where freedom has full sway, Is this, observed from coast to coast— Our own election day.

"Back-Seat Driving" on Trial. (From the Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.)

A good many wives in these days when not to own an automobile is a sign of hopeless indigence, will read with sympathetic interest of the ground upon which a Chicago sister seeks a legal separation. She charges cruelty in that her husband habitually drives his car in a reckless and willfully malicious manner, thereby endangering their lives.

To her mild remonstrance he is accused of replying: "What's the difference? Our lives are not worth anything, anyway."

No doubt the husband's friends will claim he is a victim of what is known as "backseat driving" or the giving of constant instructions to the man at the wheel, which have been known to exert a directly contrary effect from that intended. There have been husbands who have been brought to the point of desperation by the reiterated admonitions from the rear seat to drive slowly or watch this corner or "look out for this hill" or "take care, there's a dangerous curve just ahead."

In cases of excessive irritation long continued, they have been known to disregard the wifely instructions and proceed to the opposite extreme, replacing ordinary prudence with a sudden but perhaps justifiable recklessness.

RIPLING RHYMES

By WALT MASON

The Drive Idea.

All of lives will be more sunny, and we'll chirp a gladder song, when they quit the "drives" for money, which have bothered us too long.

All of schemes were glad pardoned when the kaiser danced his jig, and the heart was cold and hardened that neglected to up-dig. I am always prompt and willing to help out a worthy cause, but I will not place a shilling in the drive-committee's eager paw.

For I'm sick of people telling what I ought to give and where, tired of always digging, shelling, for some scheme that makes me sweat. I will give to help the living and I'll give to plant the dead, but I won't be bossed in giving, and I won't be chased or led. In the war time drives were splendid, and they helped to can our foes, but the war is done and ended, and the people need repose.

Do not bother friends or neighbors with requests for honest dimes; leave them to their quiet labors, as we did in olden times. Do not think up worthy causes that require financial aid, for we've all been Santa Clauses till our nerves are tired and frayed.

We design your signs and make them. Upstairs Silk and Novelty Shop, Commerce building. 153-7c

WHY?

Do Some People Have Dimples? (Copyright, 1920, by Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

The peculiar mark which we call a "dimple" is really nothing more than a dent or depression in a part of the body where the flesh is quite soft. When we speak of dimples we naturally think of those in the cheek, the indentations which appear when a person smiles. But it should be remembered that dimples are also to be found in other parts of the body. Babies, for example, usually have dimpled elbows and knees, while infants who are plump often have several in their backs and shoulders.

These are due to the fact that the fibers which lie under the outside skin and help to hold it firmly in place are of varying lengths and run in all directions. Occasionally these fibers will be too short in one spot or another and pull the skin in, forming the dimple. This natural effect can be easily imitated by a slight surgical operation, the outer layer of skin being opened and lifted and the fibers underneath snipped so that the skin, upon healing, is pulled slightly upward. The fact that dimples frequently occur in the cheek is due to the comparative irregularity of the length of the skin-fibers of this part of the body.

You might fancy by that that she herself was doing something real. On the contrary she was doing nothing at all. And I have a feeling that she was spring her desire to justify herself by crying down what other women were doing.

Another example of this type is a correspondent who wrote me saying he wished I would write an article against the boy scouts. There are few things he could do to make me write anything less likely to write against. I forgot what his objections were—it seems to me one of them was that there was no religious clause to the oath of membership.

It seems impossible that anyone could see only some minor flaw in all the work of the boy scout movement, all the miracles of boy power turned from harm to good. But alas, it is true.

If I, Wells says in one of his books that in every gathering that is seriously considering how to go about some good work in the wisest way, there is always some one who gets up and says, "For God's sake, let's do something!" Then, he says, the committee goes ahead and does something foolish in a hurry. He calls the people the "God-sakers" and is very bitter against them.

I suppose they do no harm. And yes I think we need some "Godsakers" to balance the other type who are always ready to obstruct and criticize any attempt to do good. The women who knitted and Hooverized and rolled bandages were "Godsakers." They felt they must do something. Who dares say whether we would stand where we do today if it had not been for them? Presently, I find more and more "Godsakers" than I have for the eternal hanger-back. We may need them to keep the old earth in a state of balance, but I don't think we need very many of them, do you?

Side Talks

By RUTH CAMERON

"We can forgive mistakes but not every day."—Stevenson.

At a club meeting last week the plan of having the club pledge a monthly payment to a certain charity was talked over (for the fortieth time, more or less) and was just on the verge of being settled affirmatively, when one of the members at length said she had heard that philanthropy was not systematically conducted and that she thought it would be better to go in for something more definite.

The discussion thus precipitated was a lively one and, needless to say, the meeting adjourned with the whole matter still in the air.

Don't you recognize that type of obstructor and objector? And don't you hate her, or him?

I remember a member of this class who, during the war, could not say enough of the "lilly way women go round knitting all the time. In the cars and at lectures and even in church. If I were a minister and they did it at my church I'd have them turned out. It's nothing at all but a pose. If it weren't for that I'd just as soon have had her at my house as in church, and not always be at it in public, but bet they waste and spoil so much yarn that they do more harm than good. Why don't they find something real to do?"

You might fancy by that that she herself was doing something real. On the contrary she was doing nothing at all. And I have a feeling that she was spring her desire to justify herself by crying down what other women were doing.

I love the merry Christmas day And holds its meaning dear, And I observe in fitting way The best of the year.

But still the greatest day of all in freedom's land, I say Is this which we have grown to call Our own election day.

This is all free men's day of days, When there's no creed or class, The humbles now his voice may raise And none may him surpass.

The poor man and the millionaire, With conscience as their guide, In freedom's greatest day are As equals, side by side.

Today the humble man is great, Nor need he speak, To him no other day dictate, Today there are no weak;

The timid need not backward lag, For boldly they may stand, As true protectors of the flag And rulers of the land.

I sometimes think of all the days Which men have set apart To celebrate in fitting ways By service of the heart,

Where freedom has full sway, Is this, observed from coast to coast— Our own election day.

"Back-Seat Driving" on Trial. (From the Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.)

A good many wives in these days when not to own an automobile is a sign of hopeless indigence, will read with sympathetic interest of the ground upon which a Chicago sister seeks a legal separation. She charges cruelty in that her husband habitually drives his car in a reckless and willfully malicious manner, thereby endangering their lives.

To her mild remonstrance he is accused of replying: "What's the difference? Our lives are not worth anything, anyway."

No doubt the husband's friends will claim he is a victim of what is known as "backseat driving" or the giving of constant instructions to the man at the wheel, which have been known to exert a directly contrary effect from that intended. There have been husbands who have been brought to the point of desperation by the reiterated admonitions from the rear seat to drive slowly or watch this corner or "look out for this hill" or "take care, there's a dangerous curve just ahead."

In cases of excessive irritation long continued, they have been known to disregard the wifely instructions and proceed to the opposite extreme, replacing ordinary prudence with a sudden but perhaps justifiable recklessness.

RIPLING RHYMES

The Drive Idea.

All of lives will be more sunny, and we'll chirp a gladder song, when they quit the "drives" for money, which have bothered us too long.

All of schemes were glad pardoned when the kaiser danced his jig, and the heart was cold and hardened that neglected to up-dig. I am always prompt and willing to help out a worthy cause, but I will not place a shilling in the drive-committee's eager paw.

For I'm sick of people telling what I ought to give and where, tired of always digging, shelling, for some scheme that makes me sweat. I will give to help the living and I'll give to plant the dead, but I won't be bossed in giving, and I won't be chased or led. In the war time drives were splendid, and they helped to can our foes, but the war is done and ended, and the people need repose.

Do not bother friends or neighbors with requests for honest dimes; leave them to their quiet labors, as we did in olden times. Do not think up worthy causes that require financial aid, for we've all been Santa Clauses till our nerves are tired and frayed.

We design your signs and make them. Upstairs Silk and Novelty Shop, Commerce building. 153-7c

WOODS CONFIDENT OF THROWING IRSLINGER

Sailor Will Try To Bring Pet Brown Here For Match If He Wins.

SAILOR JACK WOODS

If confidence ever won a battle Henry Irslinger is due for a trimming in Vernon a week from Friday night at the hands of Sailor Jack Woods. The sailor left Wichita yesterday to attend to the final arrangements for the bout and he was chuffed full of confidence. He has been on Irslinger's trail for some time looking for a bout and it looks now as if his ambition were to be realized for the first time.

Woods was an interested spectator at the recent Irslinger-Montana bout in the Wichita theater and when the bout ended he said, "I can beat both of those birds more ways than a farmer can go to town." He wanted to meet Irslinger here on a winner-take-all proposition, but the opera house management did not see fit to stage another bout so soon, and the chances are that there will be no wrestling here for another month.

If the sailor is as successful as he thinks he is going to be in Vernon he is going to try to bring Pet Brown here for a match. A Brown-Woods match here would break all local attendance beyond the shadow of a doubt.

What Carpentier Showed

By Wood Cowan

CARPENTIER

IS ALWAYS SET TO DELIVER A BLOW WITH EITHER HAND

HE PUNCHES FROM HIS TOES, SPRINGING FORWARD AS HE STARTS HIS SWING, PIVOTING ON THE BALL OF HIS FOOT.

BUT IN SO DOING HE LEAVES HIMSELF WIDE OPEN. A THING THAT WOULD BE SUICIDE WITH ADEMPEY OR EVEN A FULTON

What are Carpentier's chances with Dempsey? That seems to be the big question wherever fans gather. It will take more than his bout with Levinsky to get a real line on Georges' ability. "Bat" did not extend the Frenchman nor make him show his defensive powers—fact is, Levinsky did nothing with his right, seemingly afraid to risk an opening by leading with it and what few left jabs he sent at Georges would not have broken an eggshell.

What the bout did show, was a few very startling weaknesses on the part of the Frenchman. He worked his right over time, leaving himself wide open. He may have done this knowing that Levinsky never had a wallop, in hopes of landing a haymaker the sooner. Only future bouts will bring this out. It would be suicide though to lead with his right, as Carpentier did, against Dempsey or even Fulton. Levinsky, who has always been fast on the followup, never took advantage of these openings. He seemed scared stiff.

Where was Carpentier's celebrated left? He did not exhibit it against Levinsky, and his right did not carry the worst batting slumps of his long career.

Veteran fans will recall Charley Faust, the mascot who accompanied the Giants on many of their road trips in 1912 and 1913. He always could be noted on the Giant bench at the Polo grounds.

While the vast majority of fans thought Faust was taken along because he made fun for the players and fans, dropping fly balls in practice and the like, he really was a part of the club because of his superstitious effect on Catcher Chief Myers.

One afternoon, while sitting on the bench with Myers before a game, Faust happened to tell the chief that he would make a single and a double that afternoon.

Myers went out and got them. Next day Faust informed Myers that he'd made two singles and a home run on the following afternoon that he would fail to get a hit.

All of this actually happened, no matter how strange it may sound. Myers went to McGraw and asked him to retain Faust as his (the Chief's) own individual oujia board.

Because Myers was a valuable member of the team, and McGraw wanted him to go as well as possible, he granted the request.

Each day while sitting on the bench, Myers would ask Faust what he was going to get at the plate that game, and the mascot seldom missed in his guess.

In 1905 when the Giants were on the crest of a pennant-winning wave, Leon Ames had the flimsy luck to lose more games by a single run than all his competitors combined. He pitched four and five-hit games, but could not get away with them.

One night in the Astor hotel he was introduced to a Broadway theatrical celebrity, who was as pretty as she was famous. The actress was a Giant fan, and grieved with Ames over his hideous luck. Then, with much ceremony, she presented him with a glowing red necktie that she claimed would change it.

Leon donned the horror at once. Next day he twirled a two-hit shut out. From that day until the necktie frayed into nothingness, the pitcher wore it continually—under his shirt on the diamond, in plain view elsewhere. He ran up a streak of eight straight victories and probably would have set a new record if the battle flag had held out.

Bob Shawkey's red shirt is the successor to Leon's bull tester. On a few occasions that he has ascended the hill wearing one of another color the opposing batsmen have literally murdered his stunts.

Oh, superstition, what crimes are committed in thy name!

Superstitions

Talking about superstitions in baseball, Manager George Stallings of the Boston Braves is famous for discovering jinx of one kind or another. So, last year, when the club had lost nine straight ball games and it rained seven more days he tried his best to locate the particular hoodoo which was hanging over him.

John Henry, former Amherst college and Washington catcher, happened to be sporting a dandy little mustache at the time—one of those natty English effects.

Stallings decided Henry's mustache was the jinx. Calling the catcher into conference Stallings informed him of his discovery, and said that the whiskers would have to come off. He even went so far as to suggest release for the player if he didn't apply the lather.

A baseball cap is a player's most treasured possession, next to his bats and glove. If there is anything he hates to lose it is this bit of headgear. He is extremely superstitious on the subject.

Back in 1908 Hans Wagner of the Pittsburgh club, was enjoying a notable hitting streak. He was hitting the ball hard and often—and was going at a better stride than even this great star usually set.

Hans, in a double-header at Pittsburgh, had just made seven hits and was leaving the baseball grounds in high delight when a fan happened to swipe his cap for a souvenir.

Wagner tried in every way to get that cap back, but failed. And following that incident he fell into one of the worst batting slumps of his long career.

EMPIRE STATE WILL GET BIT OUT OF BIG SERIES

Under the New York state income tax law non-residents must pay income tax on incomes earned within the state. All players who share in receipts of world's series games played in Brooklyn, where they "earned" their split, under this law have to pay the state its bit. For that matter, every player paid for a game played in New York all season would have to pay his bit, provided the salary earned for the games played amounted to enough to exceed the exemption. A St. Louis player, for instance, playing eleven games in New York during the season would have to figure his salary at so much per game and if it exceeded the exemption he would have to pay a New York tax. Empires also are subject to such tax.

A GOLFING MEDLEY.
Sing a song of golfers—
Sing a song of golfers—
In a locker room;
Four-and-twenty duffers
Pouring out their gloom;
When thespiel is started
Pipe their wretched fate—
"I should have had an eighty
But I took a ninety-eight."

Sing a song of golfers—
Hail the alibi!
Either short on precious sleep
Or sick enough to die,
Hear the mournful chorus
Echo through the frame—
"Yes, he beat me badly, but I was off my game."

A QUESTION—PLUS AN ANSWER

Dear Sir: Please answer this question. Through the season you had several boosters for Cicotte, Weaver, Jackson, etc. Now you have turned against them bitterly. In civil life, if a man commits a sin and asks for a new start, and ask for another trial, would you, or would you not, advocate that they be taken back and given another chance?—A. R. L.

If those without sin only could cast the first stone there would be no first stone cast. But the case of the White Sox players is different from that of the ordinary criminal. The entire foundation of baseball is the supposed honesty of the game. If these men were ever taken back it would mean the destruction of the game. They would never again be trusted, no matter how honest they were. If they forfeited their right to again wear the uniform of a clean game. To advocate their return would be almost as criminal an act against clean sport as the original betrayal of which they were a big part.

BROWBEATING OFFICIALS.

Attention from several sources has been brought to this column that in two games played by big colleges the officials were subjected to browbeating by the players.

This is exactly in line with the complaint that we have taken up before. One of the best officials football has ever known told us that he had quit the game this season and would never work again on account of this same browbeating by players and graduates.

"No matter how honest an official may be," writes one correspondent who knows the situation, "if he is dropped from the list by one of the larger universities the public at large infer there must be something dishonest in his ruling. If the big teams are to be permitted to continue this policy of cursing men, who have their names to defend, will refuse to act and the game, in consequence, will deteriorate. The Central Board should know that the public is already in possession of the facts."

TIME TO ACT.

These facts are absolutely certain of the larger colleges have been known far and wide for their unsportsmanlike tactics along this line.

This doesn't come to us as gossip or hearsay. It comes in direct statements from those who have been on the job.

And it's about time that the practice was abolished if football is to last. A competent, honest official is the backbone of the sport. Unless he has both qualities the game will soon be a farce.

Any player caught questioning the official ruling of an official should be ruled off the field. The captain or the coach can question some interpretations of the rule, go beyond that should bring a penalty of severe proportions.

THE BIG TEST.

Next Saturday brings the first big test on the part of the old triumvirate, when Princeton and Harvard, out of the once Big Three, meet at the Stadium. This contest should stand as one of the greatest Tiger-Crimson battles ever played, since it brings together two eleven with fast, powerful backfields that should be able to gain ground.

The clash of two strong offensive machines always bring on a thrill, just as the Harvard-Centre meeting did.

When neither eleven is able to gain any amount of ground to speak of, no matter how fine the material, there is always a heavy lull. But when the old ball begins swinging up and down the field the hullabaloo opens and the pulse begins to hop like a frog.

This is the type of game that Harvard and Princeton should offer—a scoring game, with the result in doubt to the finish.

WILBARGER COUNTY COTTON MARKETING ASSOCIATION FORMED

VERNON, TEXAS, Nov. 2.—A Wilbarger county cotton marketing association has been formed by cotton men of this locality, the organization being modeled after the Childress plan. The aim of the movement is to facilitate the easy marketing of the cotton crop of the county, and to obtain for the farmer the best possible price for his product.

Under the system, the farmer will take his warehouse receipt to the bank for deposit when he wishes to market his cotton. The bank immediately notifies the executive committee who in turn notify an agent in Childress, who will sell the cotton. The agent then will dispose of all the cotton entrusted to his care, thereby obtaining a better price for large lots and finding the most desirable markets. The money for the cotton will be sent the bank where the receipt was first deposited, and will be credited to the farmer making the sale. There will be a commission of fifty cents charged on every bale sold.

Work was started today on the erection of a $11,000 cotton warehouse in Vernon. The structure will have a capacity of nearly 1,500 bales, and will require two weeks to finish. Sufficient land has been purchased to build another structure in the event that this one is not large enough. Local merchants are stockholders in the new enterprise. It is estimated that such a warehouse will save the farmers of the county many hundreds of dollars annually.

To Protest Proposed Lake.
VERNON, TEXAS, Nov. 2.—Fifteen prominent Vernon business men will form a committee to appear before the water commission at Austin November 18 to present reasons why the proposed Wichita county lake should not be built. A similar number is expected to be represented from Seymour. It is said that should the proposed dam be constructed, it will eliminate all possibility of ever connecting Vernon with the south by railroad.

BEAUTY

Beauty has so many charms that one scarcely knows how best to define it. Socrates called beauty a short-lived tyranny; Plato, a privilege of nature; Theophrastus, a silent cheat; Theocritus, a delightful prejudice; Carneades, a solitary kingdom; Domitian said that nothing was more grateful; Aristotle affirmed that beauty was better than all the letters of recommendation in the world; Homer, that it was a glorious gift of nature, and Ovid, alluding to him, called it a favor bestowed by the gods.

But no matter what your favorite description of beauty may be—it is a charm which all women seek. Protect your beauty by using the

SHRINE CEREMONIAL AT FORT WORTH PROMISES TO BE A BRILLIANT AFFAIR

PORT WORTH, TEXAS, Nov. 2.—Mosiah Temple's fall ceremonial, which will be held, starting with the registration of nobles, Friday, Nov. 12, and the grand reception and ball that evening, followed by the registration of nobles Saturday, November 13, will mark the opening of the largest ceremonial ever held by Mosiah Temple.

New and novel floats will feature the street and parade which will be held Saturday, November 13, which are in charge of Noble Lester Cowan. The parade will also feature the nobility in dress suits as well as Mosiah Patrol.

The main ceremonial will be held, starting at 2 o'clock, Saturday, November 12, and the stunt committee have arranged an entire new stage setting for the ceremonial and an entire new set of stunts.

The ceremonial will be over in time for the nobility to attend the Majestic theatre party in the evening and catch the early trains from Fort Worth, Saturday, November 13, should they wish to. Tenison, Sherman, Cisco, Ranger, Ahlens, Brownwood, Coleman, Stamford, Jacksboro, Haskell, Seymour.

Graham, Denton and Cleburne have so far been heard from definitely and as petitions are being received in every mail, it is thought that indications point to a 500 class.

Never before has any temple made such elaborate entertainment arrangements for the visitors and the day will long be remembered by all who attend the ceremonial.

Out-of-town nobles and their ladies are especially invited to attend the ceremonial as arrangements have been made to take care of the largest crowd ever attending a Mosiah Temple ceremonial.

GOV. COX IS CREDITED WITH 127 WITH 13 IN DOUBTFUL COLUMN; ONLY SOLID SOUTH DEMOCRATIC

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The scope of the republican victory that swept the nation yesterday continued to grow as the returns were compiled today. These returns showed that: Harding has been elected president by the greatest popular vote ever amassed in the history of American politics and the largest electoral vote ever rolled up by a republican candidate.

LATE RETURNS

BUTTE, MONT., Nov. 2.—Harding carried Montana by 15,000.
RENO, NEV., Nov. 2.—With more than half the state vote tabulated Harding today was leading Cox by 4,000.
ROANOKE, VA., Nov. 2.—Reports from the sixth district are to the effect that the democrats concede the re-election of Representative C. H. Slamp, republican, over Holling H. Slamp, democrat. Slamp claims a majority of 5,348.

Make Good Prediction

Unless some sudden change were to appear, it appeared that the returns were making good the republican prediction that Cox would not carry a western or a northern state.

PLAN FOR A VACATION

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The farmer-labor candidate, Rayley P. Christensen of Salt Lake City, had not been located at an early hour today.

HARDING CARRIES TOWN OF ST. PETERSBURG, FLORIDA

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Nov. 2.—Harding carried all seven precincts of St. Petersburg by a majority of 287. This is the first time in history the town gave a republican majority and perhaps the only town in Florida to go republican.

SUGGEST POSSIBLE CABINET MEMBERS

MARION, Nov. 2.—Special interest regarding the next cabinet started here today before telegraph instruments in the Harding headquarters had ceased clicking off election returns.

BRITISH FEDERATION OFFICERS DECIDE TO CALL OFF STRIKE AND URGE MEN TO BEGIN WORK

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The executive officers of the miners' federation have decided to declare the coal strike ended and advise the men to resume work.

Republicans to Control Both Houses of Congress

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Republican control of congress for another two years with an increased house majority and a prospective increase in the senate was a major part of the election sweep.

A net gain of twenty votes in the house was shown with complete returns from only seventeen states, but with most of the democratic strongholds reporting.

Eight of the fifteen republican senatorial candidates had come in winners today, the seven others had substantial leads, while in ten other states all of the republican candidates were reported in the van.

For the nineteen democratic senate seats, nine of the minority party had been returned, five—all from southern states—while in the border and western states the others were fighting an uphill battle.

Further Gains Predicted.

That the general republican landslide would seat several more republican senators was predicted confidently by republican campaign managers, whose claims included a majority of eight to ten in the next senate.

Both the republican presidential and senatorial tickets were reported early today as ahead in California, Nevada, Missouri, Colorado, South Dakota, Idaho, Ohio and Washington. In Ohio, former Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, nominated Senator Harding at the Chicago convention, was reported in the lead.

SOMETHING OF THE HISTORY POLITICAL AND OTHERWISE OF THE MAN ELECTED PRESIDENT

Warren G. Harding, United States senator from Ohio was born on his grandfather's farm, where his father then resided, just outside the village of Blooming Grove, Morrow county, Ohio, November 2, 1865. He was the eldest of eight children.

He is the son of Dr. George T. Harding, who at the time of Warren's birth was the village doctor. In those days no night was too dark, no journey too long over almost impassable roads for him to go to alleviate the suffering of some patient.

The Hardings were of colonial stock, coming originally from Scotland, settling in Connecticut, removing later to the Wyoming Valley, Pennsylvania, where some of them were massacred. Others fought in the Revolutionary war. Warren's mother, Phoebe Dickerson, was descended from an old-time Holland Dutch family and thus was bleeded the blood of the Holland Dutch with that of the hardy Scotch.

The country roundabout where the Hardings located was mostly woodland. His grandfather owned a small tract of land and was neither better or worse off than his neighbors. They were all engaged in cutting away the timber and transforming a primitive forest into cultivated farms. And in those days every child was expected to contribute his share of toil in overcoming the obstacles of nature in the transforming process.

As Warren grew up he learned to fell trees, chop wood, split rails, plant and hoe corn and do all the things incident to farm life. Those were the days when farm labor was performed by hand. In this way young Harding acquired the habit of industry.

However, it was not all toil for young Harding. He attended the village school until fourteen when he en-and his friend adjourned to the editorial room for a chat. Suddenly the rumbling of the press ceased. The inevitable which always haunts a newspaper office in the rush hours or on a holiday, had happened. Springing from his chair the senator rushed down to the press room. His trained eye soon located the trouble and it was not long before the edition was on its way again.

This mastery of detail was an early trait of the senator and has followed him throughout his career.

But to return to the Star. This was the senator's idol. It was the pet of his youth and the pride of his manly (Continued on Page 3, Column 1.)

FACE THE TASK OF SOLVING AMERICA'S STATUS IN NATIONS

By L. C. MARTIN, United Press Staff Correspondent. WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Sweepingly victorious in the presidential and senatorial elections, the republican party today faced the task of fixing America's status among the nations of the world and of ending a technical state of war that has endured longer than actual fighting by this nation.

President-elect Harding himself has frankly said that detailed plans for meeting this task are as yet unformed, but today these things stand out:

President Wilson having been defeated in the "solemn referendum" on the League of Nations, is expected to take no further action looking to the adoption of that pact.

Senator Harding favors first the declaration of peace by congressional resolution and second the formation of a new association of nations, to which task he has promised to call the country's best minds.

The new senate will be republican and even some democrats will be or Harding and against the Wilson peace idea, notably Reed of Missouri and Watson of Georgia.

That is the outline of the situation of which the new president will be the center when he calls a special session of congress which he is expected to do soon after assuming office in March.

London Globe Says It Is a Good Thing Cox Was Defeated

LONDON, Nov. 3.—"The United States has revolted against super-men in politics," the Evening Standard said today. The Globe called Senator Harding's election a fortunate thing for Anglo-American friendship.

"It is a good thing that Governor Cox was snowed under," the Globe said. "He had pledged an interference in Irish affairs which England could not and would not have brooked."

Senator Harding does not intend that America shall become involved in the controversies of a powerless League of Nations," the Globe said. The league must be remodeled to permit American membership if it hopes ever to acquire power, this newspaper declared.

The Evening Standard said the voters realized Harding opposed the League of Nations, but favored an association. "Names and forms are unimportant," the Standard added, "but a co-operative spirit is essential. We hope and believe that spirit will not be lacking."

hood. When he was nineteen, having completed his college course, his father, Dr. Harding, seeking a wider field, removed to Marion, Ohio, the county seat of an adjoining county, where he still resides, and despite his seventy-six years, is in active practice of his profession.

The Star was a struggling daily in a backward county seat of 4,000 inhabitants. Young Harding wanted to own it, however, notwithstanding the fact that it was difficult to tell whether it was an asset or a liability. His father having faith in the young man and wishing to gratify his supreme desire lent his credit in assisting in taking the plant over—the consideration being the assumption of its indebtedness. The county was democratic and this paper was not even the official organ of the minority party.

With youthful enthusiasm and the inspiration of a young man who has his foot on the first rung of the ladder of his ambition, he bent his energies to the task of making the Star a power in the community.

He lived with it by day and dreamed of it by night. Thoroughly with the rod and the greater share of the time the coffers of the treasury were depleted to the point of bankruptcy.

The story of how it grew and expanded, ultimately taking over its competitor is too long to be written here. It was the old "tory" devotion, energy, resourcefulness and determination.

The Star today is a prosperous, money-making plant and is not for sale. It has the largest circulation of any newspaper in any city of the thousand inhabitants in the middle-west. It has always been a "booster" and never a "knocker."

After Senator Harding had established the paper on a sound financial basis he organized a stock company, distributing shares to each of his employees and he still owns it. Senator Harding is closely identified with many large business enterprises. Since he took over the Star, Marion has grown from a country town of four thousand inhabitants to a flourishing manufacturing city of thirty thousand and the senator has been a factor in its industrial development.

He has been a "booster" for new industries in a substantial way by taking stock in these companies to the limit of his financial ability and at present he is a director in a bank, several manufacturing plants and other enterprises. He is a trustee of Trinity Baptist church of which he is a member and regular attendant.

During the past twenty years Senator Harding has been three times abroad, visiting most of the European countries to study at close range their systems of government and the economic problems with which this country has to deal.

After his election to the United States senate, and before taking his seat, Senator Harding visited the Hawaiian islands to get first-hand information upon the production and distribution of sugar.

Senator Harding has twice represented the thirteenth senatorial district of Ohio in the state legislature, served one term as lieutenant governor, refusing to stand for re-election, and he is now nearing the close of his first term as United States senator.

One of his first official acts upon reaching Washington was to sponsor the bill for preparedness which had the endorsement of Colonel Roosevelt and he was closely associated with the late president during its pendency.

He was selected a chairman of the national convention soon after he entered the senate, without factional strife.

As a public speaker he is calm, yet forceful. He has a wide vocabulary and is quick at repartee. Senator Harding was selected to present the name of William Howard Taft for re-nomination at the turbulent convention in Chicago and was again selected to present the keynote speech at the last national convention. He was the presiding officer at this convention.

His friends point to the fact that he resembles in many ways the late William McKinley. Both were of Scottish descent. In presence and manner of speech, in pains-taking mastery of detail and tact in bringing opposing factions on a common ground, mutual friends point out the similarity.

In 1891 Senator Harding married Florence Kling, daughter of Amos Kling, now deceased, who was one of the leading business men of Marion. Mrs. Harding inherits the business acumen of her father and has been a wonderful helpmate in business and political aspirations of her husband. Mrs. Harding's ambition is for the success of her husband but she laughingly remarks that "a man must be well fed and well groomed if he would succeed."

BOSTON, Nov. 3.—Calvin Coolidge vice-president elect, former "law-and-order" governor of Massachusetts, is just what his name implies—a sturdy son of New England, unassuming, almost taciturn, endowed with a singleness of purpose and the same determination that gave his ancestors, John and Mary Coolidge, the courage to make themselves a home in the wilderness of forest that was Massachusetts in 1630.

Born on a farm, the son of a prosperous farmer near Plymouth, Vermont, Calvin Coolidge spent his early youth much as any other farmer's son in doing the chores about the farm. His ambitions, however, did not lead him to follow in the footsteps of his father, and the latter with the wisdom of one who understands, encouraged and assisted young Coolidge in his plans to enter college.

Coolidge was born on Independence day, 1872, a coincidence which his admirers say gave him the singleness of purpose and Yankee obstinacy characteristic of the man.

History and affairs of government were subjects of interest to Coolidge even when a boy. He specialized in these subjects at Amherst college and graduated in the class of 1895. In his senior year he won first honors, a gold medal offered by the Sons of the American Revolution, for the best essay by an undergraduate of an American college, on the principles of the war for American independence.

After studying law for less than two years in a small office at Northampton, Mass., Coolidge was admitted to the bar. He took a prominent part in the city government, being elected to the city council, and later was elected to the Massachusetts house of representatives. He was mayor of Northampton in 1910 and 1911, and later was elected to the state senate in which he served four years. His participation in the government of his state was the first step in Coolidge's political career. After serving in the senate, he was elected lieutenant-governor, and held office for three years until he was elected governor in 1919. He was re-elected in 1920.

His firm stand for law and order during the police strike in Boston brought Coolidge national recognition, and was the most significant incident in his career and the first step toward the place of honor to which he has been elected.

Coolidge does not answer the description of the popular conception of a politician. He is reserved, even shy. He is not a good public speaker, his voice being colorless and seldom rises above a certain note. It is what Coolidge has to say and the very apparent air of personal conviction that holds his audiences and makes up for what he lacks in tricks of oratory. As a politician he shows none of the traditional traits—bluster and extravagant promises—nor did he indulge in bitter personalities. His criticism is calculated to be constructive rather than destructive and he propounds his ideas of government upon his principles that "there will come out of government what is put into it."

Away from the glare of public life, the vice-president elect lives the quiet life of the average American citizen. He is devoted to his home and family and is the most important member in the councils of his two sons, John and Calvin, Jr., who call upon him for advice and bring into play their father's skill with tools in constructing boyish "contraptions" such as automobiles and kites.

"Cal" as Coolidge is known to his close friends, whether it be at his home at Northampton or "resting" at his old homestead near Plymouth, in the type of home-loving man who tinkers about the household. He still can plough a furrow straight and clean, milk a cow and toss hay with the best of them.

POINT ISABEL, TEXAS, INTO PROMINENCE AS RESULT OF ELECTION

POINT ISABEL, TEXAS, Nov. 3.—Lying eight miles north of the mouth of the Rio Grande, on the Laguna Madre, an arm of the Gulf of Mexico, Point Isabel, chosen by Senator Warren G. Harding, republican presidential elector, as his resting place after the arduous presidential campaign, is one of the oldest and quaintest towns of the Texas coast.

Point Isabel's population is about four hundred and with a few exceptions all are Mexicans who obtain their livelihood by fishing and raising goats. The town up to fifteen years ago was a quiet port, big steamers calling there regularly for more than forty years. But when railroads entered this country in 1904 it was abandoned as a port of call and since has lain dormant.

Point Isabel points with pride to one thing only, its United States radio station. It has a light house, a United States coast guard station nearby, splendid surf beaches and what is declared to be the finest duck shooting on the gulf coast.

The town is connected with civilization via Brownsville by a little narrow gauge railroad, the rolling stock of which has been doing duty since 1876. Point Isabel obtains its water from nearby waterholes and from Brownsville, the waterboys deliver it in barrels, to which are hitched little burros which uncomplainingly drag these barrels through the streets day in and day out.

R. B. Creager of Brownsville, Texas, 25 miles from here, who seconded Senator Harding's nomination at the Chicago convention, is responsible for the president-elect coming here to spend his vacation. Mr. Creager, a close personal friend of Senator Harding, exacted a promise from the senator months ago that he would visit Point Isabel for his post-election vacation. Mr. Creager owns a summer cottage here, where his guests probably will spend most of their time in this section.

This Xmas let it be a Furniture Aristocrat

Let us show you what an exquisite thing a phonograph cabinet can be.

Every New Edison on our floor—no matter what its price—is encased in a genuine period cabinet.

Period Furniture is the world's most exquisite development of furniture. It originated in the 16th, 17th, and 18th Centuries. Europe was ruled by a Gorgeous Aristocracy. Fine living was the ideal of the day. An unparalleled race of artists, architects, and designers built palatial living-places for kings and nobles, and furnished them. The palaces of the nobility became treasure-houses of fine furniture. It was called the "Golden Age of Furniture."

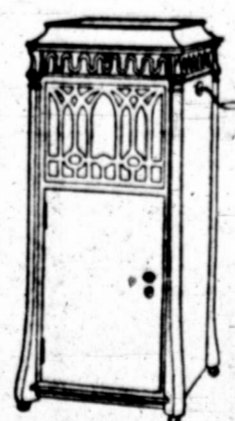

So Mr. Edison had his designers go back into the manor houses of England, the chateaux of France and the castles of Italy. They adapted 17 designs from historic masterpieces. They preserved entire "the character and feeling of the best periods" in these superb phonograph cases for the modern American home.

No matter which Edison cabinet you choose, you get both the arts that make your house a cultured home—music perfectly RE-CREATED and furniture of purest period source. What finer gift for all the family?

WICHITA FALLS CIVIC LEAGUE TO PUT OVER BIG DRIVE FOR A THOUSAND MEMBERS FRIDAY

WHY YOUR MEMBERSHIP IN THE CIVIC LEAGUE WILL HELP MAKE WICHITA FALLS A BETTER CITY IN WHICH TO LIVE

Because you are a citizen of this city, with a voting power and influence in matters of civic and political welfare which will have to be reckoned with.

Because, through your training in home, household and child-rearing matters you have the viewpoint and experience necessary to guide you in working with certain educational, social and sanitary problems.

Because these problems are among the biggest and most vital ones of the day, and have, in their turn, the most serious bearing on the home and the school, and the citizens of the future which the homes and schools of the present are turning out.

The Civic League of Wichita Falls will put over their big fall membership drive for 1,000 members Friday, November 5, according to final arrangements made at Tuesday afternoon's meeting of the league at Kemp library.

The drive will begin at 8:30 o'clock Friday morning, chairmen for four district divisions of the city and their assistants meeting at points agreed on in the morning, and reporting at Brown's confectionery downtown when they have finished their territory.

Chairmen for the four districts include Mesdames Charles F. Spencer, Bentley Bacon, C. C. Randall and N. H. Pounds. These, with some of their assistants, were appointed at Tuesday's meeting. Each chairman has a territory of similar area to cover and 12 to 20 assistants. With this organization it is planned to complete the drive workers Friday will average more than ten new members apiece, and bring the new membership total alone to more than a thousand. Volunteer members have been "cropping up" at the past two meetings with an encouraging enthusiasm and in increasing numbers. At Tuesday afternoon's meeting a dozen or more interested visitors were present. In addition to a score or more of old members who have not attended before this year and the call for discussion on several matters considered got ready and energetic response. The general tenor of the meeting was that the Civic League was not only going to put itself on the map of Wichita Falls, but is going to have a hand in putting Wichita Falls on the map.

As stated, the drive will begin at 8:30 sharp Friday morning. If possible, it will be finished by noon. Some of the members laughingly protested against selecting Friday as the day to "start anything," but one of the committee chairmen immediately reminded them that it is all right to start anything on Friday that is finished on Friday, and that if the members were sufficiently superstitious about the day there would probably be an extra effort put forth to complete the drive early.

Public Affairs Committee.

The president announced the creation of a new department of work, growing out of the requests for assistance from various local individuals and organizations to handle it. The department is public affairs, and Mrs. Flora M. Perham, chairman, will be assisted by Mesdames W. W. Silk, O. A. Scharrf, M. Gaffney, Frank Kell and W. O. Davidson, and Miss Katherine Henricle. Miss Henricle was present, having made a recent request to the league for the backing of that organization in her work and made a short and very informative talk. Other matters which came up for consideration were the fall and spring tree-planting campaign, in which the members voted, on motion, to give the committee which handled the campaign last year power to act according to their own judgment after an investigation along certain lines; Mayor Cline's request for the co-operation of the Civic League in enlisting the assistance of the league and other local women's organizations to put over the Red Cross Christmas roll call, which request was met by a unanimous vote in favor of granting the assistance; and the instructing of the delegate to San Antonio in a matter of club matters.

Winter Social Affairs. One matter which the president stressed was that of the league's winter social program. According to plans tentatively made for some time, the November meeting of the league will be in the nature of a big social affair for the old and new members and their husbands or other escorts, but beside this, it was intimated that the entertainment committee has a "hard season" ahead, and that there will be one or two more big community affairs planned by the Civic League. A benefit tea, to which the invitation will be general and which is planned to be one of the most interesting events of the winter, in a community social way, was mentioned. Mrs. J. W. Stone is chairman of the entertainment committee.

New Secretary. Mrs. Smock announced the appointment Wednesday morning of Mrs. O. P. Maricle as assistant secretary of the league. Mrs. Maricle will assist Mrs. J. E. Sharpe, recording secretary, and Mrs. J. V. C. T. Christensen, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. John J. Williams arrived here Monday from Fort Worth to make her home. Mr. Williams, manager of the Howell store, has been here some time. Our expenses are small and our prices reasonable. Upholsters Silk and Novelty Shop, Commerce Bldg. 165-21c

Just Pickle Our Bones. (A Requiem) Oh, all the world's a wilderness, a dry and cracklin' wilderness. Oh, all the world's a wilderness of dead and dying logs! We are demition how-wows bound at last; our minds are all unbound; the country's on the batty blink, and going to the dogs.

The country's on the highroad to a place I cannot name to you— The tide of progress has been stemmed; the lid is on the run. The little birds have ceased to call; they're singing that Dead March from Saul; We've gone and leaved the country to a dom republic-un.

LONG REFUSES TO CONCEDE THE ELECTION OF SPENCER

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 3.—Breckenridge Long, democratic candidate for United States senator, this morning refused to concede the election of Senator Spencer.

"I'm still in the race and except the complete returns to give me a good majority," he said.

REPUBLICANS GET TEN OF MISSOURI CONGRESSMEN

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 3.—Incomplete returns early today indicated that ten republican congressmen were elected, with several doubtful.

Republicans are probably victors in the fourth, seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth, twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth, fifteenth and sixteenth districts.

DISCUSSION OF CABINET POSSIBILITIES IN ODER

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Discussion of cabinet possibilities followed close today upon the election of Senator Harding.

Apparently well founded reports named Elihu Root as the likely secretary of state. It was intimated Root would be selected to guide the work of settling the treaty and League of Nations negotiations with foreign powers and that after this was accomplished he would retire.

Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois was mentioned as a possible secretary of commerce or head of the treasury department, with the former post most likely.

Herbert Hoover's name was heard persistently as the possible secretary of the interior and Henry Wallace of Iowa, publisher of a farm newspaper, as secretary of agriculture.

For secretary of war, it was learned that Lindley M. Garrison, who held the post at one time under President Wilson and who had a difference of opinion with him would be considered.

What is Nuxated Iron?

Physician Explains — Says Public Ought to Know What They Are Taking — Practical Advice on What to Do to Build Up Your Strength, Power and Endurance and Increase the Red Blood Corpuscles

The fact that Nuxated Iron is today being used by over four million people annually and that so many physicians are prescribing it as a tonic, strength and blood builder in weak, nervous, rundown conditions has led to an investigation of its merits by distinguished physicians and others whose reports should be of great importance to the public generally. Among these is the statement made by Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician of Bellevue Hospital (Outdoor Dept.), New York, and Westchester County Hospital, who says: "When one patient after another began asking my opinion of Nuxated Iron, I resolved to go thoroughly into the subject and find out for myself whether or not it possessed the real value claimed by its manufacturers and attested to by so many prominent people. This is exactly what I believe every honest, conscientious physician should do before prescribing or leading his endorsement to any product whatsoever. If an article is worthless we practitioners ought to be the first to know of it and if it is efficacious we are in duty bound to recommend it for the welfare of our patients. A study of the composition of the Nuxated Iron formula so impressed me with the therapeutic efficacy of the product that I immediately tested it in a number of obstinate cases. So quickly did it increase the strength, energy and endurance of the patients to whom it was administered that I became firmly convinced of its remarkable value as a tonic and blood builder. I have since taken it myself with excellent results. There are thousands of delicate, nervous, run-down folks who need just such a preparation as this but do not know what to take. Therefore, I have urgently suggested the widespread publication of the sworn statement of the composition of its formula so that the public may know what they are taking. This complete formula is now to be found in newspapers throughout the country. It is composed principally of organic iron in the form of iron peptonate of a special specific standard and, glycerophosphate which is one of the most costly tonic ingredients known. To the credit of the manufacturers it may be said that they use the most expensive form of iron peptonate, whereas by employing other makes they could have put the same quantity of actual iron in the tablets at less than one-fourth the cost and by using metallic iron they could have reduced the cost to less than one-twelfth, but by thus cheapening the product they would undoubtedly have impaired its therapeutic efficacy. In my opinion a careful examination of this formula by any physician or pharmacist should convince him that Nuxated Iron is so placed among the very highest class and most strictly ethical preparations known to medical science. It exceeds anything I have ever used for building up the system and increasing the red blood corpuscles thereby enriching and fortifying the blood against the ravages of disease."

win, at the present ratio about 300,000 and Pennsylvania about 400,000.

Alien Land Law Carries.

In California, where Senator Phelan, democrat, was trailing far behind Samuel M. Shorridge, republican, and with Senator Harding even farther ahead on the ticket, adoption of the alien land law amendment relating to Japanese land tenure, had a majority.

Prohibition was a subject not reflected upon the face of the returns, but Volstead, republican, of Minnesota, author of the prohibition enforcement law, was in a close race.

Republican governors in Connecticut, Illinois, where former Senator Lewis was defeated by Len Small—Kansas, Massachusetts, Michigan and New Hampshire were successful, and in Tennessee Governor Roberts, democrat, upon unofficial returns was behind Alf Taylor, republican, but the democrats were claiming Roberts' election.

Status for Harding.

Without final or official returns, decisive pluralities and leads indicated certainty of the following for Harding: California, 13 votes; Colorado, 6; Connecticut, 1; Delaware, 1; Illinois, 23; Indiana, 15; Iowa, 13; Kansas, 10; Maine, 6; Massachusetts, 18; Michigan, 15; Minnesota, 12; Nebraska, 8; New Hampshire, 1; New Jersey, 14; New York, 45; Ohio, 24; Oregon, 5; Pennsylvania, 23; Rhode Island, 1; Utah, 4; Vermont, 4; Washington, 7; West Virginia, 1; Wisconsin, 13; Wyoming, 3. Total 223.

Governor Cox had safely the following: Alabama, 12; Arkansas, 2; Florida, 6; Georgia, 14; Kentucky, 13; Louisiana, 10; Mississippi, 10; North Carolina, 12; South Carolina, 8; Texas, 20; Virginia, 12. Total 127.

Classed As Doubtful.

Lacking sufficient returns and doubtful were the following: Arizona 3 votes; Idaho, 4; Maryland, 8; Missouri, 13; Montana, 4; Nevada, 3; New Mexico, 3; North Dakota, 5; Oklahoma, 10; Tennessee, 12; South Dakota, 4. Total 75.

Harding 223; Cox 127; doubtful 75. Total 425.

The republican ticket, presidential and senatorial, was leading in Arizona, Nevada, Idaho, Missouri, Montana and South Dakota. In Oklahoma the race was said to be the closest in history, with the democrats ahead. Official figures from Tennessee gave Governor Cox a lead of 11,000 with but one-fifth of the returns in. In Maryland, Senator Harding was leading.

ROOSEVELT EXTENDS HIS CONGRATULATIONS TO COOLIDGE

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Franklin D. Roosevelt, defeated democratic candidate for the vice-presidency, today sent this telegram to Calvin Coolidge:

My successful republican opponent, at Boston:

"My sincere congratulations to you. I trust that under the administration of Mr. Harding and yourself the nation will grow in prosperity and in the unselfish ideals of Americanism which surprised citizens of all the parties desire."

CARAWAY TO SUCCEED KERRY IN THE SENATE

LITTLE ROCK, Nov. 2.—Thaddeus H. Caraway of Hope, Ark., elected yesterday to succeed United States Senator W. P. Kirby, is a democrat, a lawyer by profession and served two terms as prosecuting attorney. He has served as congressman from the first Arkansas district since 1912.

WILSON'S HOME DISTRICT IS STRONG FOR HARDING

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 2.—President Wilson's home district here, the seventh election district, was carried by Senator Harding by more than 2 to 1. This district is a strong democratic district and was carried by Wilson four years ago.

INTENSE INTEREST CENTERS IN CONGRESSIONAL RACE

DALLAS, Nov. 2.—Intense interest centered today in the congressional race in the 14th Texas district where, on the face of unofficial returns from an estimated 50 per cent of the voters, Harry M. W. T. Bach, republican, was leading his democratic opponent, Carlos Hee, incumbent, by more than 2,000. Senator W. W. Warshaw, republican, lead, it will be the first time in 25 years that a republican congressman has been elected from southwest Texas. The democratic state ticket, according to unofficial and incomplete returns, made a clean sweep by majorities of about 5 to 1. All democratic congressmen also were elected except in the 14th district.

MAJORITY IN ILLINOIS ESTIMATED AT 77,000

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Setting a record that will be hard to overcome without a greater outpouring of female voters than obtained yesterday, the republicans polled an estimated majority of 77,000 votes in Illinois for Senator Harding and Governor Coolidge, and did not fall short of that figure in electing Len Small of ankakee, governor, and William B. McKinley, senator. Most of the Illinois congressmen will be republicans, while the entire state ticket, including the legislature, and the Chicago and Cook county officials will be of the same party as the coming national administration.

REPUBLICANS LEADING IN VOTE OF MISSOURI

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 2.—Although both parties today still claimed to have carried Missouri in yesterday's election, the republican candidates for the principal state and national offices continued to increase their majorities. With 2,274 of the state's 2,310 precincts in, Senator Harding led Governor Cox by about 69,000, and Senator Selden Spencer was about the same number of votes ahead of his democratic opponent, Breckinridge Long. Arthur M.

Hyde, republican candidate for governor, was running well ahead of the national ticket and had an advantage of more than 25,000 votes over Atkinson, the democratic nominee.

DEMOCRATS ARE LEADING THE VOTE IN OKLAHOMA

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 2.—An early tabulation today of complete unofficial returns from more than a thousand precincts of the 18th in the state showed that the democratic presidential and senatorial tickets were leading in Oklahoma by 2,500 to 4,000.

In the congressional races it appeared upon the face of returns from approximately half the precincts in each district that the democrats had carried the second, third and seventh districts, the republicans the long and short term contests in the eighth, fifth and sixth districts.

One thousand and eighty-seven precincts gave: Cox 97,873; Harding 93,498; while 1,155 for United States senator had 18,411 for Cox 49,212. Senator Curtis had 22,813, against Hodge's 45,206. Allen for governor had 114,950 and Davis, his opponent, 67,234.

David Milvane, republican national committeeman, was claiming Harding would receive a majority of 200,000. It appeared that the republicans had at least seven out of the eight congressmen. Congressman Ayres in the eighth district, was still leading his republican opponent by a small majority. The only other congressional candidates who were running close to their republican opponents were, however, in the second district and Republican in the sixth.

The last time Kansas cast her electoral vote for a republican was in 1905.

HARDING GETS UNPRECEDENTED VOTE IN NEW ORLEANS

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 2.—Senator Harding polled the unprecedented total of 17,000 votes in the city of New Orleans with eight of the 127 precincts missing. He carried ten known county districts and eight city precincts, mostly in the uptown residence section, gave the republican candidate majorities.

SATISFIED WITH SHOWING MADE BY THE SOCIALISTS

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Socialist headquarters today expressed satisfaction over the showing made by the party in its efforts to elect Eugene V. Debs.

Otto Branstetter, national secretary, last night sent a telegram to Debs estimating that the total vote for so-

HARDING IS ELECTED BY LARGE MAJORITY

West Virginia this morning continued to maintain a wide margin in favor of Harding for president and Morgan, republican, for governor. The election of candidates to congress was in doubt, however, although the republicans were leading in all six districts.

SOUTH DAKOTA VOTE IS TO CREDIT OF HARDING

MITCHELL, S. D., Nov. 3.—South Dakota's five electoral votes may be placed to the credit of Warren G. Harding, republican headquarters here claimed today. They predicted a majority for Harding approximating 40,000.

REPUBLICAN OPPONENT OF CHAMP CLARK LEADS

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 3.—T. Hukerick of Warren, Mo., republican, today passed Champ Clark, democrat, former speaker of the house of representatives, in the race for representative from the ninth congressional district. Returns from 103 out of 148 gave: Hukerick, 12,912; Clark, 11,487.

BLAINE HAS BEEN ELECTED GOVERNOR OF WISCONSIN

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 3.—James Blaine, republican, supported by the non-partisan league, was elected governor of Wisconsin. Returns early today gave him a two to one lead over Colonel McCoy.

CLAIM FRAZIER ELECTED GOVERNOR NORTH DAKOTA

FARGO, N. D., Nov. 3.—With practically no returns on the election in North Dakota reported here early today, except on the race for governor, the Courier-News, non-partisan league organ, claimed victory for Lynn J. Frazier, league candidate for governor, and also claimed the lead for the rest of the league ticket.

TENNESSEE SEEMS TO HAVE GONE REPUBLICAN

MEMPHIS, TENN., Nov. 3.—While the advantage on the face of incomplete, unofficial returns from 71 of the 95 counties in the state, which gave Senator Harding a lead of 9,568 votes and Alf Taylor, republican nominee for governor, a lead of 18,844, apparently rested with the republicans, for the time being at least, democratic managers early today held to the contention that more complete returns would show a democratic victory in both the presidential contest and the race for governor.

Roberts, democratic candidate for re-election, 16,829.

These returns included a number from mountain counties in east Tennessee, regarded as republican strongholds. Democratic leaders contend later returns will more than offset the apparent republican lead.

With 14 city precincts and two county districts not reported, the count in Shelby county, including the city of Memphis, early today gave Cox 10,772 votes and Harding 6,489 and in the contest for governor, Roberts 7,599 and Taylor 7,279.

Incomplete returns from the third congressional district indicate that Representative John A. Moon has a small lead over his republican opponent, Joseph Brown, and in the eighth district, the race between Gordon Browning, democratic nominee, and Lon A. Scott, republican, was regarded as close.

TWO CONGRESSIONAL RACES IN ARKANSAS ARE CLOSE

KANSAS CITY, KAN., Nov. 3.—With the close of the republican pluralities apparently the only doubtful question about the major contests, interests in yesterday's general election Kansas today centered on the contests in two congressional districts.

In the eighth a close race was in progress between W. A. Ayres, democrat, and the only member of his party in the last Kansas congressional delegation, and Richard E. Bird, republican. In the second district, the contest between Representative Edward C. Little, republican incumbent, and C. A. Bowman, democrat, was developing interesting possibilities as the vote from Kansas City, the most populous voting unit in the state, began to come in.

HARDING OHIO MAJORITY APPROXIMATELY 500,000

COLUMBUS, OHIO, Nov. 3.—Ohio, the home of the democratic and republican candidates for president, yesterday cast its vote decisively in favor of Senator Warren G. Harding, the republican candidate. His election came on his fifty-fifth birthday.

On returns from 4,128 out of the 7,348 precincts in the state early today, Senator Harding was leading his opponent by 196,070. If this ratio continues, Harding would carry his home state by approximately 500,000, the greatest plurality ever given by the Buckeye state for any candidate for any kind of office.

DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY IN GEORGIA ABOUT FOUR TO ONE

ATLANTA, GA., Nov. 3.—Returns from approximately half the counties in Georgia early today indicated the entire democratic ticket had won by a four to one vote. Several counties of the mountain region of northern Georgia usually vote republican in the presidential race and of them, Douglas, Gordon, Pickens, Polk, and Whitfield were placed in the leading column on available returns with a possibility that Harding might win one or two more.

VICTOR BERGER CONCEDES DEFEAT BY REPUBLICAN

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 3.—Victor L. Berger, socialist congressman from the fifth district of Wisconsin, at noon today conceded his defeat by William H. Stafford, republican.

NEW YORK CITY GIVES SMITH BIG MAJORITY

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The complete New York city vote for governor gave: Smith, democrat, 709,746; Miller, republican, 390,135. Thompson, pro. 8,453.

ELECT GOVERNOR IN 34 STATES REPUBLICANS SUCCESSFUL IN 26 AND THE DEMOCRATS IN ONLY 7

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Thirty-four states chose governors in yesterday's election, 26 choosing republicans, seven choosing democrats and one a non-partisan.

The democratic governors were elected in the old south with the exception of New Mexico. Eight candidates were re-elected, six undertaking a second term being republicans, one democrat, and the other, Lynn J. Frazier, non-partisan leader of North Dakota. In addition to those selected yesterday, Maine on September 12, elected a republican.

The list of new governors follows: Arizona—E. Campbell, republican, re-elected. Arkansas—Thomas C. McRae, democrat. Colorado—Oliver P. Shoup, republican, re-elected. Connecticut—Everett J. Lake, republican. Delaware—William D. Denney, Jr., republican. Florida—Cary Hardee, democrat. Georgia—T. W. Hardwick, democrat. Idaho—David W. Davis, republican, re-elected. Illinois—Len Small, republican. Indiana—W. T. McCoy, republican. Iowa—N. E. Kendall, republican. Kansas—Henry Allen, republican, re-elected. Massachusetts—Channing H. Cox, republican. Michigan—Alexander J. Groesbeck, republican. Minnesota—J. A. O. Prens, republican. Montana—M. D. Dixon, republican.

Nebraska—S. R. McKelvie, republican, re-elected. New Hampshire—A. O. Brown, republican. New Mexico—R. H. Hanna, democrat. New York—Nathan L. Miller, republican. North Carolina—C. Morrison, democrat. North Dakota—L. J. Frazier, non-partisan, re-elected. Ohio—Harry L. Davis, republican. Rhode Island—E. J. H. San Souci, republican. South Carolina—R. A. Cooper, democrat, re-elected. South Dakota—W. H. McMaster, republican. Tennessee—A. A. Taylor, republican. Texas—Pat M. Neff, democrat. Utah—Charles R. Mabey, republican. Vermont—James Hartness, republican. DENY THAT MILITARY REVOLTS ARE STAGED IN CITY OF MOSCOW

MOSCOW, Nov. 3.—Official denial that military revolts have occurred in Moscow was issued by soviet leaders today. They declared unfounded reports from border cities that soldiers were leading factory workers in uprisings.

The military communists said five armies were rushing the forces of General Wrangel in southern Russia. "The fate of Wrangel's principal force is settled," the communists said.

PRESIDENT ELECT TURNS THOUGHTS TO VACATION

Flood of Telegrams of Congratulations
Are Pouring into Marion.

MARION, OHIO, Nov. 2.—No longer a party nominee, president-elect of the United States, Warren G. Harding turned his thoughts toward rest and recreation today before approaching the formulation of his administration machinery and policies.

He plans to take a real vacation trip, which will give him two weeks of seclusion on the Texas coast and a week of outing in the Panama Canal zone before he goes seriously to work choosing his cabinet and making the work he is to do after March 4.

A few tag ends of the campaign remain to be cleared away from his desk first, however, and he will devote the next two or three days to rounding out his affairs here. He probably will leave Saturday morning, not to return again until about mid-December. One of his tasks today was to read and acknowledge hundreds of telegrams of congratulation that had been pouring in since the balloting began yesterday.

Messages of Greeting.
During the night as the proportions of the landslide to him became apparent, the Marion telegraph office was flooded beyond capacity and today the influx of messages of greeting and good wishes continued to come in proportions that out did the liveliest days of the campaign.

Satisfied of his own sweeping victory, the new president-elect carefully watched the congressional returns today to determine how great would be the party strength in the senate and house. Throughout his term he declared he did not want the presidency unless there were to be a congress to insure team work in the federal government and his expressed gratification today was that the voters had responded to his appeal.

With particular interest he scanned the reports of the various senatorial elections, because of the important part he expects the next senate to play in the formulation of a foreign policy. It is no secret that the major concern of the republican leaders was over the local fights made on a number of republican senatorial nominees, and Mr. Harding voiced unmeasured delight that the outlook was for retention of party majority in the upper house.

The vacation trip to be made by the

Teamster's Life Saved

Writes Letter That is Worth Reading
Very Carefully

Peterson Ointment Co., Inc., Buffalo: I was afflicted with a very severe sore on my leg for years. I am a teamster. I tried all medicines, but without success. I tried doctors, but they failed to cure me. I couldn't sleep for many nights from pain. Doctors said I could not live for more than two years. Finally Peterson's Ointment was recommended to me and by its use the sore was entirely healed. Thankfully yours, William Haase, West Park, Ohio, March 22, 1918, care P. H. Reitz, Box 139.

"Peterson says: 'I am proud of the above letter and the hundreds of others that tell of wonderful cures of Eczema, Piles and Skin Diseases.' Peterson's Ointment is 40 cents a large box at all druggists, and there isn't a broad-minded druggist in America that won't praise it. Mail orders filled by Peterson Ointment Co., Inc., Buffalo, N. BETTER THAN WHISKEY FOR COLDS AND FLU

New Elixir, Called Aspirinal, Medicated With Latest Scientific Remedies, Used and Endorsed by European and American Army Surgeons to Cut Short a Cold and Prevent Complications.

Every Druggist in U. S. Instructed to Refund Price While You Wait at Counter if Relief Does Not Come Within Two Minutes.

Delightful Taste, Immediate Relief, Quick Warm-Up.

The sensation of the year in the drug trade is Aspirinal, the two-minute cold and cough reliever, authoritatively guaranteed by the laboratories; tested, approved and most enthusiastically endorsed by the highest authorities, and proclaimed by the common people as ten times as quick and effective as whiskey, rock and rye, or any other cold and cough remedy they have ever tried.

All drug stores are now supplied with the wonderful new elixir, so all you have to do to get rid of that cold is to step into the nearest drug store, hand the clerk half a dollar for a bottle of Aspirinal and tell him to serve you two teaspoonful with four teaspoonful of water in a glass. With your watch in your hand, take the drink at one swallow and call for your money back in two minutes. If you cannot feel your cold fading away like a dream within the time limit, don't be thankful, for all druggists invite you and expect you to try it. Everybody's doing it.

When your cold or cough is relieved, take the remainder of the bottle home to your wife and babies, for Aspirinal is by far the safest and most effective, the easiest to take, and the most agreeable cold and cough remedy for infants and children.—(adv.)

new president-elect and his wife will have as its purpose not only rest and recreation, but avoidance of many of the small annoyances that always fall to the lot of a coming chief executive. Office seekers already have begun their siege of the successful candidate and in Texas he hopes to get away for a time from the premature cares of his new position. Point Isabel, near Brownsville, and the Mexican border, is to be his vacation ground, and hunting and fishing are to occupy him for the twelve or fourteen days he remains there.

After that he will make the voyage to the canal zone on a passenger liner sailing from New Orleans. He expects to spend a week about the canal, familiarizing himself with the details of government administration, as well as the practical physical working of the waterway. He probably will land on the return trip at New Orleans, about December 3 and on December 5 he is to speak at a celebration of the Order of Elks at Bedford.

Still Member of Senate.
Mr. Harding remains a member of the United States senate, but as his plans now shape up, he probably will not make more than a short visit, at most, to the national capital before inauguration day.

He has a standing pair with Senator Underwood of Alabama, the democratic senate leader, and his friends say that unless some emergency arises, he will let that arrangement protect the republican majority in the opening weeks of the session, which begins early next month.

On January 1, when election figures indicate that Governor Cox will be succeeded in this state by Harry L. Davis, republican, Mr. Harding probably will resign his senate seat. Because of the slender republican margin at present in the upper house he does not desire to step out sooner, and let the governor fill the vacancy by appointment of a democrat.

Council of Statesmen.
Aside from the ordinary work of assembling the personnel of a new administrative machine, President-elect Harding has before him the task of bringing together a council of leading statesmen to map out a plan for an association of nations. This he has promised to do as soon as possible after his election and it is understood he will not wait until he has been inaugurated to lay the foundations for the work.

In Texas President-elect and Mrs. Harding will be the guests of E. E. Scooby, who was a leader in the Harding pre-convention campaign and since then has been connected with the nominee's headquarters.

Mr. Scooby has been the senator's personal friend for several years and is expected to be his companion in his hunting and fishing expeditions.

FOOTBALL MENTORS GREAT SOB ARTISTS

By HENRY FARRELL,
United Press Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Imagine Will Hays coming out and saying that Harding didn't have a chance, that the democrats would win in a walk. Republican toes would point to the sky.

Imagine a football coach coming out and saying his team would win, that the opposition didn't have a chance. The campus would become a cemetery.

Lantern jaws, watery eyes and sob-choked vocal chords have become a characteristic part of every major coach's men and make-up.

Bill Roper, "miracle man" of the west, former gridiron tutor of the navy and now the handler of Cornell's football destinies, is the champion tear splitter of the game. He believes for purposes of his own, that behind every silver cloud there's a black lining.

Last fall he had a lot of newspaper men patting him on the back and extending sympathies over the bad night he pronounced himself in.

"The army will win by at least three touchdowns," he said. The Navy won 6 to 0.

Bill Roper is getting the same habit of draping a shroud around the Princeton Tigers. He says they have a poor chance to beat Harvard or Yale. Howard Besdek has one of the greatest teams in the east down at Penn State but his favorite music is the "blues."

"What do they mean calling us champions? We've gone stale; we'll lose this game," he said before the state eleven ruined Penn last Saturday.

KEMP HOST TO MEN WHO MADE EL PASO TRIP

REPORT IS MADE AT LUNCHEON AT WICHITA CLUB TODAY.

PLAN MASS MEETING AT AN EARLY DATE

States Work Will Start on Irrigation Project in the Near Future.

An announcement was made from the chamber of commerce Wednesday afternoon that the mass meeting of citizens to consider the irrigation project would be held at 7:30 Thursday evening, November 11, at the chamber.

J. A. Kemp, aided and abetted by the men who accompanied him on the recent trip to El Paso, sold the Wichita Valley irrigation project to members of the Wichita club today. The club is ready to aid in every manner possible to put the big project over in a big way, and its members have pledged themselves to the project.

The valley project already is safely launched and its success assured. It is Kemp's idea, however, that through the medium of a big mass meeting the moral support of the entire citizenship may be obtained. Such a meeting will afford an opportunity for prominent men who visited the famous Elephant Butte irrigation project to present to the public the hand information demonstrating that the project has meant to the El Paso valley and that a similar project would mean to Wichita Falls and this entire section.

The details of the mass meeting will be handled by the chamber of commerce and the Wichita club, and an earnest effort will be made to make it the biggest gathering ever held in this city to discuss a matter of municipal and county importance.

Host to El Paso Club.

Kemp was host today at the Wichita club to the men who made the El Paso trip. Following the luncheon, President Reid asked that the club as a body receive a report.

"I only regret that I am not host to a larger number of men, that more did not make the trip," Kemp began. "It has been a very profitable trip in many ways and it has proven to us all that we have here an opportunity to do things that other cities in this section and I believe in time to let the outside world know that nature has provided us the means whereby we can economically develop a large irrigable agricultural land that can be developed in any other spot in western America."

The Rio Grande valley is composed of rolling but silt made by the washing of the river bed for years. When the government built the Elephant Butte dam, and turned the water into the canal, it became greedy for water; they water-logged their lands. But that condition does not obtain here. Our lands in the Wichita valley are naturally nature has cared for their drainage.

"At El Paso the government is going to charge $20 per acre for the maintenance and operation cost of irrigation. The government will begin charging them 2 per cent next year, and in 10 years will charge them to pay up this $20 per acre. Here we expect to charge the farmers $2 per acre over a period of 20 or 40 years, at the end of which time they will own this irrigation system."

Will Then Have City.

"If we can place farmers on every ten and 20 acres in this broad valley, and can lay out good highways fringed with beautiful shade trees, we will have a city then, gentlemen, that will attract many thousands of people from all over this country; men and women who know the value of water. We will have a city close to the great markets of the southwest, a city with wonderful railroad facilities and a city surrounded by an oil territory hardly scratched as yet. It is up to the citizens of Wichita Falls to get busy to get busy now and attract these new people, and to show them that here they can invest their money and make their homes in the safe knowledge that they are linking themselves with a city whose future is assured."

"I want the citizens of Wichita Falls to get busy where they get busy," Kemp went on to say. "I want to see a mass meeting held in an open air place, at which our people will hold a meeting with certain gentlemen who are interested in bidding for our irrigation bonds. We have committed ourselves, we have determined that the entire plan is practical. Now we ask only that the citizenship stand solidly behind us in this great project."

Work to Start Soon.

N. H. Martin, president of the chamber of commerce, told the members of the club they might assure their friends that "work on the project will be started in the very near future."

"We had a wonderful agricultural project. But there is this to remember—that El Paso, although twice the size of Wichita Falls, has not our land deposits; its streets are not lined with fine automobiles as ours are; its people are not hunting and buying and selling as our people are. We have a great city here now. Its possibilities will be unlimited when this great irrigation project is applied to the Wichita Valley."

"The cost of this entire project is estimated at $4,500,000. It should be remembered that the water supply assured to Wichita Falls from this project is worth this amount of money alone."

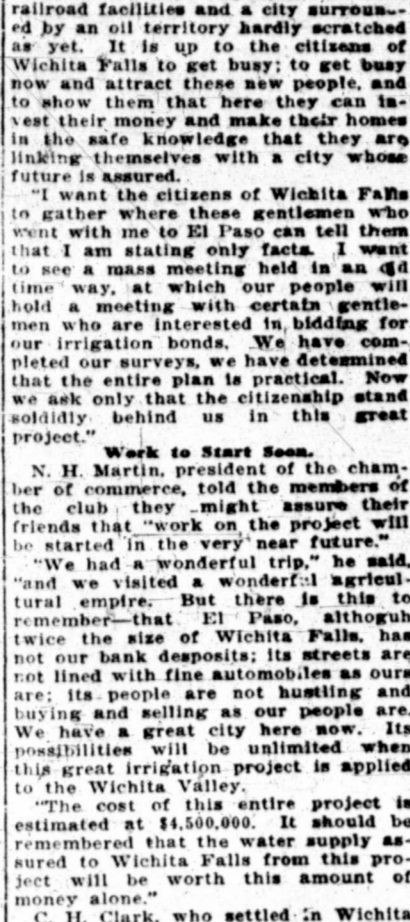

C. H. Clark, who settled in Wichita county 21 years ago, and whose wheat is sold at 35 cents a bushel, oats at 10 cents a bushel, and turkeys at 25 cents each, during some of the dry "yellow summers," also spoke.

"With this irrigation project completed," he said, "Wichita Falls would double its population in a short time. Instead of big ranches, this city will be surrounded by small farms and splendid homesteads. There will be a great increase in the population of this city. It will be in active circulation. There isn't a crop peculiar to this latitude that cannot be grown here with amazing success if properly watered. I have no fear of the outcome if our people get behind this great plan. We will have a wonderful city of happy people and contented home owners."

R. F. Johnson briefly emphasized the point that "we have at present time a good town, a live town," and urged the club members to convince themselves of that fact and then spread that gospel.

"Host, don't knock," he advised. "What outsiders think of our city is merely a reflection of what we ourselves think. And we know we have a real city."

GOV. COX TELEGRAPHS HIS CONGRATULATIONS TO PRESIDENT ELECT

DATON, OHIO, Nov. 3.—Governor Cox, the defeated presidential candidate, today wired his congratulations to Senator Harding, the president-elect, looking for support as a citizen in the executive authority in whatever emergency might arise.

His message, the first act of the defeated candidate today, read: "In the spirit of America, I accept the decision of the majority, tender, as the defeated candidate, my congratulations and pledge as a citizen my support to the executive authority in whatever emergency might arise."

The governor's telegram was his first formal concession of the election of republican opponent. From early last night, the governor had no illusion about the final result, but he refused to make any statement. His newspaper extra announcing a "Republican Landslide, Harding Wins" was said by him to be a "purely impersonal" expression, but once that it was in the street he manifested little interest in the accumulating returns.

The governor proved a good loser and the last hour spent at his office was devoted to comforting disappointed callers. He never lost his smile, or did Mrs. Cox, who spent the evening with him. To all friends who came with condolence he added these words to his smile: "I'm proud of your interest."

Before midnight his thoughts turned to his coming vacation. Once when talking over the long distance telephone connecting his office with the national headquarters at New York, he informed Senator Harrison of Mississippi, chairman of the democratic speakers bureau during the campaign, that he was ready at any time to go on a hunting trip to the senator's home state.

Watch the Returns.

Outside the governor's newspaper plant there gathered a Cox crowd to watch the returns, but it too lost interest and dispersed before midnight after receiving little cheerful news. Not far distant in a nearby street, another throng stood about republican headquarters and made merry until the early hours of the morning. Its shouts reached the governor as he quit his shop and left for home shortly after midnight.

Dayton itself did not accept the governor's candidacy with great favor. He lost his own precinct by twelve votes, but incomplete returns from Montgomery county, including the city, gave him a few hundred lead over his opponent.

Local Brevities

George E. Kensler, landscape architect, will be in Wichita Falls November 12 to spend a week going over details of the plan drawn for the future development of this city. It is probable he will be asked by J. A. Kemp to consider plans for a rural community to surround Wichita Falls in connection with the Wichita Valley irrigation project.

J. W. Chatham Jr., traffic manager of the chamber of commerce, left for Shreveport, La., today to attend the annual meeting of the Southwestern Traffic League. The meeting will last two days and will be devoted to discussion of freight rates and other traffic matters in this section of the country.

City Attorney E. M. Mann returned to the prosecutors' chair in the city police court Wednesday morning after an absence of several months. Urgent business pressure in connection with other civic duties made it impossible for him to attend to these and the police court duties in addition to his private practice. Attorney Paul Lauffer has been acting as prosecuting attorney for the city in Mr. Mann's absence.

SLAUGHTER AND GREEN ARE REMOVED TO HOT SPRINGS

HOT SPRINGS, Nov. 3.—Tom "Carley" Slaughter and Fulton "Kid" Greene, arrested in Sedalia, Kan., recently for the murder of Deputy Sheriff Brown here last month, were brought to Hot Springs this morning by local officers. The men are also wanted for a number of crimes in different states.

NO GREAT MYSTERY ABOUT IT, HE SAYS

W. B. Logan, special representative in the State of Texas for Tanlac, the medicine that has created such a sensation all over the United States and Canada, gives some highly interesting facts about Tanlac and the remarkable results achieved by it.

"Contrary to public opinion," he stated, "there is no great mystery about Tanlac, except in so far as the chemistry of the human body itself and what it does with substances taken into it, is a mystery. Some of the ingredients of Tanlac have been known and used as medicines for centuries. Others are of more recent discovery but every one of them is of recognized therapeutic value and used by the medical profession everywhere. Tanlac is simply a combining of these medicinal elements in a way hitherto unknown and which brings out their curative and reconstructive powers to a most remarkable degree. Briefly, it allays irritation of the stomach, strengthens the digestive and assimilative organs, builds up and revitalizes the whole system, and gives the body new powers of resistance and strength."

Gratifying gains in weight are not uncommon, especially where a person has suffered from under-nourishment brought on by dyspepsia, indigestion, illness, operation, the various kinds of stomach ailments, gastritis, indigestion, nervousness, kidney disorders, and liver complaints are among the more common troubles developed through the stomach. Scores of other diseases have been traced to the same source.

"Tanlac was made especially to overcome weakness, rheumatism, and the various so-called diseases and symptoms that follow them, but the astonishing reconstructive powers revealed by it have not only astonished the general public, but have surprised even the originators of the medicine themselves. Thousands of letters come from the offices of all parts of North America telling of remarkable results derived by people who have suffered for years without being able heretofore to find relief. "Naturally," these remarkable achievements have spread the fame of Tanlac to all quarters of the continent, and the demand for it has necessitated working the laboratories night and day.

"The tremendous popularity of Tanlac grows steadily instead of diminishing and can be explained in only one way—merit. Its remarkable restorative effects seem to be more permanent than hitherto loved possible. Thousands of persons who took it when it was first introduced five years ago reported that they are still enjoying excellent health, and millions of American homes are now using Tanlac as the family medicine after having first tried it out thoroughly. "Tanlac is sold in Wichita Falls by Miller Drug Co., and in Elberta by Tarlton Drug Store.—(adv.)"

REPUBLICANS CARRY BOX FOR FIRST TIME IN WICHITA COUNTY

One of the slats of "rock-ribbed Wichita" has given way, as, for the first time, it is said, in the history of the county, a voting box returned a majority for a republican presidential candidate...

Returns from the voting boxes throughout the county have been coming in slowly against us, the time of going to press reports of the final count of four have been received. In city box No. 2, the vote was 231, of which Cox received 224 and Harding 7.

In box 9, at Clara, the vote was for Cox 25, for Harding 17, for Culbertson 14, for Smith 42, for Dodge 12; for the first amendment 14, against 11; for the second amendment 25, against 11; for the third amendment 15, against 11.

In box 11, known as the Bridge box, the vote stood: Cox 114, Harding 17, Neff 117, Culbertson 40, Smith 119, Dodge 43, for the first amendment 117, against 37; second amendment, for 126, against 33, and third amendment, for 194 and against 44.

Box No. 10, at Electra, gave Cox 213 and Harding 232. Neff 216 and Culbertson 224. Smith 259 and Dodge 222. First amendment 237 for and 92 against; second amendment 434 for and 30 against; and third amendment 278 for and 196 against.

At box No. 12, eight clerks were still busily engaged late this afternoon in the tabulation of ballots. At that time there were approximately 150 ballots to count and the work of completion which was expected to keep them at work until late in the evening.

HOMER F. LOWERY IS SUSTAIN BURNS IN AN EXPLOSION OF GAS

An explosion of gas at the home of Homer F. Lowery, 227 Brook street Tuesday night caused minor burns to Dick Hendricks, a brother of Mrs. Lowery, and slightly damaged the house.

The gas flame under a hot water heater became extinguished unnoticed and the gas was allowed to escape into the small room in which the heater was located. Some time later Mr. Hendricks struck a match intending to light the burner and the explosion followed.

Returns Indicate That Champ Clark May Be Defeated

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 2.—With returns from a majority of the precincts in the stronghold of both major party candidates for representative in congress from the ninth Missouri district, Champ Clark, former speaker and member of the house since 1897, was nearly six thousand votes behind his republican opponent, T. W. Hukriede of Warren, Mo. Error in tabulation of returns in several counties, however, had cut an apparent lead of 8,000 for Hukriede and the race was still in doubt late today.

HOME COUNTY OF COX IS CARRIED BY HARDING

DAYTON, OHIO, Nov. 3.—The sting of the defeat, borne without emotion by Governor Cox, was increased today by the local county returns. For the first time in the governor's political career, it appeared that his home county had been carried by an opponent. The unofficial compilation of the vote showed that 235 of the 233 precincts of the county gave: Harding 41,380 against 32,158 for the governor. The governor's own precinct was lost by him by 12 votes.

REPUBLICANS UNABLE TO WIN IN ARKANSAS

LITTLE ROCK, Nov. 3.—Returns from the third congressional district, where republicans made a strong fight to elect their candidate to congress, although still far from complete, indicate that the democratic candidate will win by a large majority. Scattered returns give: Tillman, democratic incumbent, 2,616; Worthington, republican, 1,609.

A. & M. COLLEGE TO HAVE CELEBRATION ON ARMISTICE DAY

COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS, Nov. 3. As the greatest military college in the country, the A. & M. college of Texas will set a pace for armistice day celebrations in the south by the program which will be rendered here on November 11. With her well-trained cadet corps of 1,200 men and $500,000 of the United States government equipment the college will celebrate the great event in a manner most fitting the occasion. The program rendered will be a proper observance of the termination of the world conflict and a demonstration assuring all who see it that every member of the college cherishes the memory of the sacrifices made by American soldiers in the world war.

Distinguished guests of the college on this day will be Major-General James G. Harboise, commander general of Camp Travis and also of the second division; Colonel F. J. Morrow of Washington, D. C., who is head of the reserve officers' training corps and Cullen H. Thomas of Dallas.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the arrival of General Harboise at the college. This will be the first salute fired at the A. & M. college, as it was only by recent legislation that Major Dougherty has been able to procure powder from the war department. At 10 o'clock there will be a military review on the drill ground which will be participated in by the entire cadet corps of 1,200 students. The cavalry and field artillery will be mounted for the first time this year. Special drills are being given daily to have the men well trained for the review and one of the best military exhibitions of the year will be witnessed. Captain Bais will have one troop of cavalry mounted and Major Dougherty is planning for two horse batteries and one motorized battery of artillery. Caterpillar trucks will draw the heavy artillery in this review.

Immediately following the review at 10:45 college officials, students and guests will gather in Guion hall where memorial services honoring the 50 A. & M. men who paid the supreme sacrifice in the world war will be followed by the presentation of commissions to the cadet officers.

A football game on Kyle field between Bryan high school and Houston high school, preceded by 30 minutes of humorous field games to be staged by the cadet corps, will be the culminating event of the day. An admission charge will be made and the entire proceeds will go to the memorial stadium fund, which is being raised by the alumni for the purpose of erecting on the athletic field a memorial stadium to be dedicated to the lives and deeds of the sons of A. & M. who paid the supreme sacrifice in the world war.

BEAUTY

Beauty has so many charms that one scarcely knows how best to define it. Socrates called beauty a short-lived tyranny; Plato, a privilege of nature; Theophrastus, a silent cheat; Theocritus, a delightful prejudice; Carneades, a solitary kingdom; Domitian said that nothing was more grateful; Aristotle affirmed that beauty was better than all the letters of recommendation in the world; Homer, that it was a glorious gift of nature, and Ovid, alluding to him, called it a favor bestowed by the gods.

But no matter what your favorite description of beauty may be—it is a charm which all women seek. Protect your beauty by using the
