

GERMANY REU... TREATY CLAUSE

Overrule A Motion For An Instructed Verdict In The "Doc" Snow Case

MOTION CLAIMED THAT STATE HAD NOT PROVEN DEATH, OR THAT SNOW HAD FIRED.

WITNESSES TESTIFY DEAD MEN HAD BEEN DRINKING

State Rested Case Soon After Noon—Several Witnesses Testify For Defense.

A motion for an instructed verdict was the first step taken by the defense in the trial of Doc Snow Friday afternoon after the state had rested. No argument was heard, but the motion was overruled by the court. The state rested its case on the testimony of the witnesses who testified that both Caple and Toney were under the influence of liquor at the time of the shooting. The doctor who examined the body of the man who was shot testified that he had graduated from medical college in June, 1918, and since that time he had practiced medicine in the city of Wichita. He testified that he had seen the body of the man who was shot on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. He testified that he had seen the body of the man who was shot on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. He testified that he had seen the body of the man who was shot on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

The doctor, as well as the next witness, G. F. Emerson, testified that the odor of liquor on the breath of both men was perceptible. On cross-examination the witness stated that Toney was dead and then when asked how it was possible that he could detect the odor of liquor on the breath of a dead man, he testified that it was the odor of corn liquor. When the state rested, the defense filed a motion asking the court to instruct the jury to return a verdict of not guilty, setting forth that the state had not proved its case inasmuch as it had not proven that Caple was dead, and that they had not shown by testimony that the shot fired by Doc Snow had inflicted wounds that caused the death of the deceased, and further set forth that the state had not shown that the man who was shot had been drinking in the mind of the defendant. The motion was overruled.

The first witness for the defense further testified to his attention to the fact that something was happening in the gambling house was the fact that he heard a shot fired and that there was a slight pause, after which three more shots were fired. The doctor stated that he had run to the front of the house and that there he saw a man who he believed to be Caple, whom he said was Deputy Sheriff Atchley. The witness testified that the deputy had called to him and told him that he had a gun and should come in and help as they had some highjackers in there.

The fifth witness for the state called to the attention of the County Attorney John Davenport, who testified that Deputy Constable Spiller had come to him and asked him about going out to raid the gambling house. He told of the fact that he had intended going with the officers that night but that he had informed them at three o'clock in the afternoon that it would be impossible for him to go with them. He said that he did not know that the officers had gone until it was all over.

The state put the county attorney under a severe cross examination during which time there were continuous objections by the state and the last witness before the state rested was Officer Lee McDonald, who told of the capture and arrest of the defendant on Sunday morning at 1:30 o'clock following the Thursday night of the shooting. He stated that he was found in bed in a test along the Wichita river and that at the time of his apprehension he was asleep, but that there was a revolver under the man's pillow.

At a late hour Friday afternoon E. S. Sheets was on the witness stand, being called as a witness for the defendant. The large number of interested spectators increased during the progress of the trial and after several interruptions due to the laughter in the court room, the court announced that another violation of this sort would necessitate his being excluded. Fully half of the spectators are ladies, and here and there a small child is held up at times in an effort to get a glimpse at the man whose fate is in the balance.

The defendant Friday afternoon maintained his resolute attitude and infrequently a smile enlightened his face. The first feeling of nervousness which he displayed when brought into the court room three days ago has vanished and he seems to have become accustomed to the ordeal of a murder trial.

The state, it was apparent, kept back a large number of witnesses who were sworn in to be used in rebuttal after the defense rests.

Whether the defendant will take the stand in his own defense is not known and cannot be ascertained at this stage of the trial. He was not sworn at the time the witnesses in the case took their oath. Should he be put on the stand it is highly probable that this will not be done until some time Saturday.

"The demand of the two men in the rear of the building 'Black Up' did that make the impression upon you that they were highjackers?" This question directed to the witness by the counsel for the defense on cross-examination brought forth a most strenuous objection by the prosecution.

It had been rumored that this would be the nature of the defense of the accused and the state's attorneys in the case against Doc Snow, who is being tried for the murder of Marvin Caple, were waiting for the first direct examination.

NOTIFIES LEAGUE OF NATIONS OF ATTITUDE IN CONNECTION WITH THE SURRENDER OF HER COLONIES

GENEVA, November 19.—Germany no longer considers herself bound by the clauses of the peace treaty under which she surrendered her colonies.

This position was taken in an appeal Germany addressed to the league of nations today. The appeal protested against establishing mandates in former German colonies.

Mr. Barnes stated that the league of nations was urged before the assembly today by George Nicoll Barnes of the British delegation. Mr. Barnes knew the great majority of the laboring people of England demanded that all the enemy states be admitted without delay. He declared that the allies had not abided by the treaty which provided that mandates for the former German colonies were to be distributed by the league. Germany states that she signed the peace treaty and the league covenant with the intention of being admitted and thus being permitted to participate in the distribution of mandates over her colonies. Since she has not been admitted to membership and had no part in the distribution of mandates, the appeal said, she therefore considered herself no longer bound by the treaty clauses affecting her colonies.

Two of the men, T. A. Daly and H. A. Reed, are white, and the others are negroes. The money was recovered from the chicken house of the Daily home, following the confession of Reed. Reed lives at the Daily home.

The negroes arrested are members of the Daily family and are held in connection with one mail sack not yet recovered.

Reed was arrested at 7:20 o'clock last night following his implication in the case by Fred Poffenbarger yesterday afternoon. He was taken to the federal building and put through a severe grilling and at length gave information which led to the arrest at 2:48 o'clock this morning of Daly, at whose home he had been living. The money, which was recovered by the investigators with the arrest of Daly and Reed was in a sack of mail.

The automobile used in the robbery was driven alongside the Burlington fast mail as the train was slowing down for a crossing. Daly, at whose home he had been living, the money, which was recovered by the investigators with the arrest of Daly and Reed was in a sack of mail.

OVERRULE MOTION FOR INSTRUCTED VERDICT

had been summoned after Deputy Constable W. W. Belcher had undergone a severe cross examination at the hands of the defense late Thursday afternoon. Smith was recalled to the stand at the opening of court Friday.

Tells of Shooting.
Charging the Officer Belcher used him as a breast protector, the witness told of the shooting affair at the alleged gambling hall in Kemp City on the night of September 20. He stated that he had started to tell the men in the hall that the officers had come, but that to the best of his recollection before he had time to tell them the law was there, the shooting had started. He testified that when he first saw Spiller and Belcher they were standing in the doorway and that upon turning around after the first shots had been fired the two officers had disappeared, but that up to that time there had been no rush to get out of the building.

Smith stated that soon, however, Spiller and Belcher returned and that Belcher then called to him and wanted to come over to him as he wanted to use him as a breast protector.

ANNOUNCED THE LAW.

The witness on cross-examination, conducted by Officer Belcher, testified that he had run around the call calling as loud as he could after the shooting had occurred that it was the law. He said he met with Doc Snow, who had a gun in his hand. Smith testified that he told Snow that it was the law, but stated that he was of the opinion that Doc Snow did not believe it, but he was not allowed to go further as objection was interposed by the state.

After the officers from Wichita Falls had arrived and the men had been placed in automobiles, the witness stated that he and Porter Lawson, Frank Dodson and R. L. Snow were in one machine and that Deputy Constable Belcher came on them and said, "I am sorry that this shooting happened. If I had known it was our men that had been shot I would have opened up on the bunch. If this shooting had not occurred, we would have got the man who was running the place and would have had it all straightened up and been gone and the place would have been running again in twenty minutes."

TIPPED OFF BY JOE HANCOCK.

In the examination of previous witnesses it was brought out that the officers had been tipped off to the place by Joe Hancock. Smith told the jury that Hancock had been there the night before and had lost practically all his money. He also said that after the crowd had been pushed back into the room that Hancock ran around accusing every one of doing the shooting. The next witness, after a brief recess, was J. F. Reynolds. He stated that he was sitting at the same table with Doc Snow the night the shooting occurred. He was sitting to Doc's left with one man between them. Reynolds told that he heard the two men in the back room repeat the command, "Stick 'em up" three times and then add, "and be damn quick about it."

Reynolds then told that he saw Doc Snow hold his gun in both hands and fire a shot and when he turned around to see the men back of him, he saw one of the two men fall on the floor.

but added that there were other shots fired at about the same time.

Leaves Through Window.
From the evidence it was gleaned that Doc Snow had remained in the building perhaps a minute after the shooting and then Smith saw him leave through the window in the rear in company with several others.

During the brief recess of the morning session, the defendant stepped into a side room to smoke a cigarette. He gazed out of the window and commented on the weather and its wonderful effect on cotton.

As he looked from the second story of the court house he saw three small boys playing in the court yard. He told how the smallest one had broken his arm when he was yet a baby and how the three of them had never enjoyed a mother's love as the mother had died when they were small.

MEXICO ADOPTS A PLAN FOR THREE FREE PORTS

By RALPH H. TURNER (United Press Staff Correspondent.)

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 18.—Mexico's newest bid for an increased international commerce, represented by the creation of "free zones" on both the east and west coasts, has just become a law. This movement, sponsored by Secretary of the Treasury Alvarado and enacted into law by a decree over the signature of President de la Huerta, provides that Guaymas and Salina Cruz, on the west coast, and Puerto Mexico, on the east, shall be converted into free ports.

According to its official backers, the project will stimulate manufacturing within Mexico, at the same time promoting the country's foreign trade. During the discussion of the proposition, heavy opposition was voiced. Many of its opponents declared the idea was impractical and simply represented the desire of certain government leaders to promote their private interests. Regardless of its merits, however, the project is interesting because of its proposed relation to the commerce of North and South America, as well as Europe and Asia.

The central idea of the plan has been directed toward utilizing the narrow strip of territory known as the isthmus of Tehuantepec, which is traversed through the states of Vera Cruz and Oaxaca by the Tehuantepec Railway, with Salina Cruz and Puerto Mexico as its termini. Mexican officials assert that by conveying both of these cities into free ports, the isthmus can be made a center of foreign trade in the Western Hemisphere, and only to the Panama Canal. Thus, by the terms of the law, free zones will be established surrounding the ports, customs formalities will be suspended, and merchandise which is in transit, or which is to be re-exported outside the country, will be admitted free of duty.

The officials believe that the zones will then serve as assembling places for raw materials which may be turned into manufactured products within the zones, thus upholding national industry. The Tehuantepec Railway, it is hoped, will serve as a logical medium for the transit and distribution of merchandise between North and South America and Europe and the Orient. Bonded warehouses will form one feature of the new program.

Guaymas, it is pointed out, also has been made a free port because its location in the Gulf of California, in the northern state of Sonora, gives it a position of vantage with respect to North America and Asiatic commerce. Guaymas also is the southern terminus of the Southern Pacific Railway of Mexico, which would be expected to transport raw products from northwestern Mexico, developing Guaymas as a manufacturing and exporting center.

The decree provides that the free ports of Salina Cruz and Puerto Mexico, as well as the Tehuantepec Railway, be placed under the administration of a single board of directors, to be named by the government.

"A number of my friends, after seeing the wonderful good Tanlac did me, began taking the medicine, and now they all agree with me that it is the greatest medicine on earth," said Mrs. Ella Leftwick, 722 Fifth St., Kansas City, Kans. "Tanlac completely restored my health," she said, "and just seemed to give me a new lease on life. If I could talk personally with every woman suffering as I did, I would urge them to take this medicine. "For the first time in three years I am able to eat and enjoy three hearty meals every day and not suffer in the least with indigestion afterwards. I am never troubled now with the awful smothering spells that used to frighten me so much, and the dreadful headaches that came upon me every day have been entirely broken up. "I was extremely nervous and could not sleep well, but now my nerves are in splendid shape, and I sleep like a child every night. My strength has been so wonderfully increased that I can now do all the housework in my eight-room house and attend to the children besides. I feel just splendidly all the time now. Tanlac is certainly worth its weight in gold." Tanlac is sold in Wichita Falls by Miller Drug Co., and in Electra by the Tanlac Drug Store.—(adv.)

HARDING DECLARES PRESENT DEPRESSION IS ONLY MOMENTARY

STATEMENT IS MADE IN LETTER ADDRESSED TO PRESIDENT OF MINING CONGRESS.

SAYS NATIONAL POLICY HAS BEEN MISJUDGED

Expresses a Desire to Take Counsel With Mining Interests in Formulating Policies.

DENVER, COLO., Nov. 18.—Despite a "trying period in which national policy and aspiration have been misinterpreted and misjudged, the United States is sound and secure," and the "world's mainstay and hope," President-elect Harding declared to Bulkeley Wells of Denver, president of the American Mining Congress, in a letter which was read tonight at the annual convention of the congress.

He also declared that he was anxious to take counsel with such men as would attend the congress in outlining the policies of his administration.

Senator Harding's letter follows:

"My dear Mr. Wells: I have to thank you for your invitation to the 22nd annual convention of the American Mining Congress and to express my regrets that it will be impossible for me to accept. My regrets are the more keen because your meeting will bring together a body of men with which I am anxious to take counsel in outlining the policies of the next administration. I am aware of the difficulties that confront the mining industry of the country, and would be glad of the opportunity to familiarize myself with some of the details.

Only Momentary. "It is my hope and belief that we will presently be brought to realize that the tendency to reaction and industrial depression is only momentary. Not only is our own country sound and secure, but is the world's mainstay and hope. We have been through a trying period in which national policy and aspiration have been misinterpreted and misjudged. We have now had a convincing demonstration of the real attitude of the American people and it will not fail to reassure both our own people and the rest of the world, which so greatly needs our steadfast support and aid. A mighty effort will be required of us to meet the demands that a recovering world will impose. In no direction will these demands be more pressing than in supplying those necessities of life and reconstruction that must come from the richness of American mines. With wisdom and distribution such as we hope to secure by dint of enlisting the aid of such expert authorities as your own organization represents, I believe we shall place our country and its industry once more on the high road of prosperity and success. To that end you may be assured that every energy and effort of the new administration will be directed.

"Please be good enough to convey to the congress and all its members the assurance of my pleasure in receiving your invitation and of my wish to serve you, in common with every other worthy citizen, in the best interest.

"Most sincerely yours,
(Signed) "WARREN G. HARDING."

FURTHER EXTEND BOLSHEVIK OCCUPATION OF THE CRIMEA

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 18.—The text of a treaty alleged to have been signed in Washington in May, 1917, by the United States, Great Britain and France, outlining their course of action in Mexico and South America, was published on Thursday by La Vanguardia, a newspaper recently established to support former Minister of the Treasury Luis Calzadilla.

The important clauses of the treaty, according to the newspaper, provided for recognition of the Monroe Doctrine by Great Britain and France and priority for United States rights in Mexico. England agreed not to permit Japan to acquire territory in Central or South America or on the Pacific coast.

Extensions provisions were made for the development of the Tampico oil fields for the benefit of the three nations. La Vanguardia asserts.

FIRST BLOCK IS ORGANIZED FOR FALL COMMUNITY WORK

The neighbors in the Buchanan street block met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hutson, 2102 Buchanan street, Thursday evening and elected temporary officers for a block association. R. J. Hutson was named chairman, Leon Deatherage secretary and J. H. Cline treasurer. Various matters of interest to residents in the block were discussed, and after the short business session a musical and reading program was given.

The Buchanan block association will meet December 2 again at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Deatherage.

CHARGE YOUTHS WITH ROBBERY OF STORES

Stage Two Holdups in Fashionable Neighborhood in Atlanta, Georgia.

ATLANTA, GA., November 19.—Two youths, giving their names as Eric D. May, 17, and Stuart Taylor, 19, were under arrest here today charged with staging two store robberies in the fashionable Peachtree neighborhood in old-fashioned western style.

Both, police said, confessed they were enroute from Minnesota to Florida and took this means of obtaining money to continue their trip. They said they came originally from England. The money was secured.

The holdup of Stephens and Hawks drug store at West Peachtree and Fourteenth streets last night in which employees and patrons were lined up against the walls with their hands in the air, was a replica of that staged the night before in the Parker-Brannan drug store at Peachtree and North avenue. In the first robbery about $100 was obtained. Last night about $22 was taken. A clerk managed to telephone police headquarters last night, however, while the robbery was going on. Police arrested Taylor nearby. The other youth was arrested later at a hotel.

Robberies of two grocery stores in other sections of the city in one of which a man was shot and slightly injured, gave the police a busy night.

SAYS ONLY DIRE NECESSITY WILL JUSTIFY USE OF ARMS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—"Only the direst necessity" can justify a resort to arms for the adjustment of disputes in Ireland, Frederic C. Howe, chairman of the commission from the committee of 100 investigating the Irish question, declared today at the opening of the commission's hearing. He added that the conditions in Ireland "have created and are creating a widening rift in the friendly relations of English speaking people not only in America, but all over the world."

THERE is a big difference between Calumet and all other Baking Powders.

First—you see it in the cost. Calumet is sold at a moderate price.

Then—you observe it in use. Calumet has more than the usual leavening strength, therefore less is required.

Next—you notice it in raising quality—in the evenness—lightness and texture of your bakings. They look better—finer grained.

"S-o-m-e Biscuit!"

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

Finally—what a difference in the taste. There is a deliciousness, a goodness that can be had in no other manner. Biscuits, pies, cakes, muffins, doughnuts—never were so tasty—so all satisfying.

And then there is the satisfaction of knowing that Calumet is made in the World's largest, best equipped and cleanest Baking Powder Factories.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. cans instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

Calumet Biscuit Recipe
4 cups of sifted pastry flour, 4 level teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder, 1 level teaspoon of salt, 2 rounding tablespoons of butter or lard, 1/2 cup of milk, 3/4 cup of water. Then mix in the regular way.

MARK SULLIVAN SIZES UP POLITICAL SITUATION

Panama Tolls Act Likely To Be Very Much To The Front In New Congress.

By MARK SULLIVAN,
National Political Correspondent of the Evening Post.
Copyright 1920 by New York Evening
Post.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 19.—Senator Harding is on the sea, bound for Panama. He says he is giving no thought to cabinet appointments. A good many politicians at home, however, are acting as if the cabinet appointments were already being made. They could not be more energetic if it were known that Senator Harding is going to hand out his completed list when he gets off the boat on his return home, December 4. But there is better evidence that what Senator Harding says about the state of his own mind is a simple statement of fact. And it could readily turn out that the energy of those who seek cabinet appointments, and of their friends, may be a handicap rather than a help. A man who goes into the white house with such an emphatic commission as Senator Harding enjoys, backed by the authority of so huge a popular majority, has no need to placate minor or local leaders, and is not in a position to be the victim of pressure. So far as that goes, men of the caliber fit a big cabinet do not urge themselves, and do not allow their friends to urge them. Most of the seeking is done by those who are less likely.

Seventy Names Mentioned.
A careful compiler has listed seventy names that have been "mentioned" for the cabinet positions. Fully sixty-five of those names represent the cases of local party leaders who are given a friendly boost by the factor of their position on the ground of local patriotism, or minor leaders to whom a friendly newspaper man can pay harmless courtesy without doing any specific injury to versatility by saying they are cabinet "possibilities."

Mr. Harding, in selecting his cabinet, is in a position unique among recent presidents. His majority was so large and his leadership is so secure that he does not need to make cabinet appointments on the basis of securing the co-operation of factions whose opposition might embarrass him, which, for example, it is fair to assume was the motive President Wilson had in making Bryan secretary of state.

Neither does a president, whose franchise from the public is so all-embracing that it includes unprecedented majorities in every state except ten, and who even in the south secured an indorsement not other republican ever had, need to take into serious account the factor, universally taken for granted, of "geographical considerations."

No Thought to Politics.
Senator Harding says also that he is giving no thought to politics; and the evidence of those around him is that this also is a simple and accurate expression of his state of mind. Many assume that Senator Harding chose Panama as the objective of his recreation trip because in his campaign he laid so much emphasis on the exemption of American coastwise ships from tolls in the canal and wants to familiarize himself with conditions there preparatory to a prompt and energetic urging of that measure as one of the first acts of his presidency. The fact is that in Senator Harding's mind Panama as a place to go

Pittsburgh Slide Does Big Damage Past Two Weeks

PITTSBURGH, PA., Nov. 19.—(Minn.)—Age estimated by engineers to vary from $1,000,000 to $2,000,000 will result from the great slide of earth and stone which for the past two weeks has been steadily moving down the hillside from Bigelow boulevard to the downtown passenger terminal of the Pennsylvania railroad here. Nine steam shovels are working day and night to move the earth as it reaches the railroad tracks and approximately 5,000 tons are sent out on special trains every 24 hours. The slide began when the city attempted to straighten a curve in the boulevard, which follows the hill side high above the railroad terminal and connects the business section of the city with the east end residence district. Some 200,000 cubic yards of earth had been cut from the hill and dumped into a hill before the engineers discovered that the earth was moving steadily toward the railroad.

HANGED IN CHICAGO FOR MURDER OF HIS WIFE

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Arthur Haensel, convicted of murdering his wife and accused of attempting to kill his mother-in-law, was hanged today. He was pronounced dead at 8:49 a. m. 18 minutes after the trap was sprung. Haensel was convicted more than a year ago and was saved three times out on special trains every 24 hours. He maintained his innocence to the last.

JEFF WAGGONER HAS PURCHASED THE HOME OF ALDERMAN CURLEE

The magnificent home of Walter S. Curlee, city street commissioner, which was completed at a cost of $80,000, was sold today to Jeff Waggoner. The deal involved a similar figure of $80,000, including the valuation placed on 1506 Tenth street, which Curlee accepted in part payment. The Tenth street house, incidentally, was built by Curlee four years ago, and was sold to Waggoner early this year when Curlee moved into his new place on Buchanan street.

The Buchanan street house is one of the show places of Wichita Falls. It covers four city lots, taking in half the block between Avenues F and G. At the present time Martin Rowe is building a home on the four other lots on the west side of the block, and the Buchanan street at that point will be the only spot in the city where one side of an entire residence block is covered by two homes.

Waggoner will move into his new home December 1st.

Of even greater interest, perhaps, than the sale of the Buchanan street property is the announcement that Curlee is preparing to build a country home on 20 acres of land directly south of the Seymour road and adjoining the city limits. It will be on a section that is included in the area to be watered by the Wichita Valley irrigation project, and Curlee is planning a country estate that will include orchards, shade trees and gardens.

The recent trip to El Paso, and the visit to the Elephant Butte dam convinced me of the enormous possibilities of irrigation in Wichita county," Curlee said this morning. "and now I am really and honestly interested in getting back to the land. Plans will be drawn by the architects immediately, so that it can start building and laying out my trees in the spring."

J. A. Kemp, it has also been learned, has retained George E. Kessler, who designed the city plan for Wichita Falls, to make a study of the section to which Curlee proposes to build his country home, and to draft a plan for a "country district" in that

PRESIDENT-ELECT HARDING WILL NOT VISIT WICHITA

Christian, secretary to President-elect Harding, in which Mr. Harding expresses his thanks to the chamber for the invitation to visit Wichita Falls on his return trip from the Panama canal, but regrets that it will be impossible for him to come. Plans for the return trip from the canal have already been made, and these will not permit of a tour of this part of Texas.

FORMER EMPRESS AUGUSTA VICTORIA OF GERMANY IN A SERIOUS CONDITION

DOORN, HOLLAND, Nov. 19.—Former Empress Augusta Victoria of Germany, who yesterday suffered another severe heart attack, appeared last night to be in a more serious condition than officials at Doorn castle would admit. All her sons and daughters were notified of her illness and are expected today.

DENY THE EXISTENCE OF A TREATY AS CHARGED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Under-Secretary Davis of the state department denied today that the United States, Great Britain and France had entered into any treaty outlining their course of action in Mexico and South America as alleged by the La Vanguardia, a Mexico City newspaper.

Turtles are fond of strawberries.

REPORT BIG SIX WELL NOW DRILLING AT 1500

NOCONA, TEXAS, Nov. 19.—The Big Six well on the Dunn farm is making progress around 1,500 feet after waiting a few days for casing. A heavy bed of blue shale was picked up just below 1,200 feet, which contained a fair showing of dark oil. Such oil is believed to originate in shale and take lodgment in sands imbedded in or above the shale. This may be considered at least in showing the approach of more favorable conditions. And since the Schaffer well, drilled west of Montague, had gas at 248, those who are watching Montague county development are strengthened in the belief that something worth while will be found in the Big Six. No structure in the Red river district has better clearance papers from a geological point of view. The formation is apparently coming in good form and close to the calculations made in the geological survey.

One other well is likely to start yet this year, while two or three others should be under way soon. In 1921, and again, two additional wells may be off during December. Montague county prospects are very good.

The Gulf Production's No. 1 Potter Lewis test in the Iowa Park district will be drilled deeper, according to information received here today. The sand at 1750 feet was tested out and the casing bailed dry.

The fishing job at the Gulf's C. A. Walling No. 2 has been completed and the well was reported today as drilling again around 2500 feet.

Preparations to set 5-3-16 casing at a depth of about 2000 feet are being made at the M. J. George No. 1 test. The casing and all the tools are on the ground.

The 1400 foot sand which was struck recently in the K. M. A. field by the Kemp, Munger Allen Oil Co. at the No. 6 Munger, has been picked up by the Walker Consolidated Petroleum company at its No. 2 Ferguson, and the test is now being standardized preparatory to drilling in.

The No. 21 test of the Texas Chief Oil Co. on the Danieis in the Tenthom field was drilled into the same sand Thursday that was struck by the No. 20 test last week and which is producing about 40 barrels. The sand was struck by both tests at a depth of about 1200 feet, 50 feet deeper than any previous test.

NEW FILLING STATION IS HANDSOME STRUCTURE

One of the finest gasoline filling stations in the southwest has been erected by the Texoma company at the corner of Tenth and Broad streets in this city and is now in operation. The building is one story high and is of white vitrified brick, ornamented with small diagonal squares of green.

The grounds are ample and the building sits well back, leaving abundant room for the sheltered driveway.

Although in the heart of the residence district, there is nothing incongruous in the appearance of the locality, as the new business establishment fits into the landscape as harmoniously as though it were a dwelling.

MRS. W. W. SILK HOSTESS AT LUNCHEON THURSDAY

Mrs. W. W. Silk was hostess at her home, 1700 Tenth street, at 12 o'clock luncheon Thursday for Mrs. Wadsworth, house guest of her sister, Mrs. F. P. Langford.

The hospitality extended the visitor was one of the prettiest of the season. A color scheme of yellow, with a flower motif, was suggested in the decorations, table appointments and the luncheon courses. Yellow plum chrysanthemums and pots of full-blooming yellow and white narcissus featured the decorations. While the dining table centerpiece was an exquisite mass of pom-pom chrysanthemums, arranged in an effective bed of sun-colored grass. Delicate pale gold ribbons led from the centerpiece to the place favors, which were button-roses of tiny French flowers. The place cards were an especially dainty feature of the table appointments, the cards supporting a single yellow blossom standing upright on a slender green stem and tied with a fluffy bow of pale gold maline. Places were arranged and luncheon served to twelve guests, including Mesdames Wadsworth, Langford, C. W. Snider, J. C. A. Guest, C. H. Hartsook, H. B. Knickerbocker, N. H. Martin, W. B. Hamilton, G. Clint Wood, T. B. Grisham, and the hostess.

"Y-B" CLASS ORGANIZED; VISITORS INVITED TONIGHT

The "Y-B" class, growing out of Mrs. E. S. Goodner's twice-a-week Bible study class at the Y. W. C. A., was organized this week at the Y. with an interested group of members. Miss Louise Dewey was elected president of the class, and Mrs. Packer secretary, with Mrs. Goodner teacher.

The class meets tonight at the Y., and a special invitation is extended to visitors. The study will be a final review of the life of Christ, for which a chart will be used. It is expected to be one of the most interesting lessons of the course.

Gift of Bibles.

Mrs. Goodner recently mentioned to the Y. board that not enough Bibles were available in the building for the class, and that the members, coming from their various employment of the day, found it very inconvenient to bring them. She suggested that old Bibles would be appreciated. The next day a package of ten arrived from a local book shop, with Mrs. J. W. Culbertson's card. The gift was deeply appreciated, and the new Bibles are in use.

BEAUTIFUL BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR LITTLE MISS BERTHA MAY KRUGER

Little Miss Bertha May Kruger was the hostess Thursday afternoon to about 40 little friends in celebration of her fifth birthday. The party was beautifully planned from beginning to end, and the little folks were thoroughly delighted at the pretty attentions they received. A color scheme of pink and white was chosen as most suitable for the occasion, and carried out with a profusion of pink and white carnations and roses. The children enjoyed a number of games and contests in the living room during the early part of the afternoon, and prizes were awarded to several of the participants. Later, the dining room was thrown open, and it was found that places had been arranged about the beautifully decorated table for 40 little guests. The table centerpiece was the big pink-and-white birthday cake, with its five rose candles, and pink and white ribbon streamers led from the chandelier to each one of the 40 places, indicating a dainty little pink lady doll. The birthday cake, with a number of fortune favors, was cut and served with each one of the 40 places. Little pink baskets filled with pink and white candies were beside each plate, and also served as favors.

STRICTLY ENTRE NOUS

The dray of San Celestin,
Weeping widow of the bank of Kara-Nahu.

(Creek-of-the-Dying-Summer)
Gave to Lorenz, son of Miteu, and He-of-the-Pure-Heart.

A divining rod.
It is the Rod of Riches' Celestin promised.

And from that hour
The earth yielded its secrets of gold and silver to Lorenz.

And his raiment was rich,
And the sandals of his feet set with gems.

And the Maid of His Heart sat beside him,
Splendid with jewels and perfumes.

And I would that God
Would make of my heart a divining rod—

A Rod of Riches—
And that I might find with it
All of the sweetness, and the truth
And the nobility

Of the courage and steadfastness
Of our hearts;
That I might know no more
The poverty of misjudgment,
Or of criticism, or of unkindness,
Or of a thorny thought.

"A front porch may be all right for a political campaign, but when a fellow wants to catch tarpon, a skiff located just off the coast of Texas is the right prescription."—Galveston, Tribune.

Some of the exchanges are comparing President-elect Harding's greater enthusiasm in his campaign for tarpon over that displayed in his campaign for president. For us, if we thought that down in his shoes the occupant-presumptive of the white house retained a primitive and subconscious preference for tarpon fishing as a sport as compared with office-fishing, we should be half an inch nearer recognition to the result of the "late lamented" election, as the Sherman Democrat aptly characterizes it.

He's All Right.
For kings and crowns we do not care
A pink-striped jelly bean.
But we don't see why France and England should snub Constantine.

"Might as well stand the deflation philosophically. Every child knows that 'what goes up comes down.'"—Leamont Journalist.

But does it come down as hard as it went up? We don't want one of these broken-in-transit bumps, ending in a soft thud and a cat-step off the emerald carpet. We want a regular smash on the pavement, with the fragments thereof making twelve basketfuls, "everything."

"When Judge Keneaw Mountain Landis was offered that $20,000 job as head of the proposed new baseball organization, he asked for time to think the offer over. He didn't claim to have as much sense as a federal judge, but darned if he couldn't have decided a question of that kind without asking for an extension of time."—Leamont Journalist.

You forget that judges have a certain dignity of office to maintain. You could have made a suitable answer, and the public, knowing that you were a newspaper editor and only ate three meals a day during a democratic administration when all the signs of the Zodiac were favorable and the wind blew sou'-by-nor-east, would have tempered their thoughts with kindness. But nobody feels kindly toward the judiciary, and had to ask for time to subdue his bizarre emotions. What would the world and the major league think of a federal disciplinary who blurted out something like "Y-y-y-e-s-y-e-s" all of a heap like that?

SHIP BOX TO O'BRIENS, CONDUCT STUDY, AND HELP JAP GIRLS

Circle Two of the Central Presbyterian church said one of the most pleasant and profitable meetings of the entire year Tuesday, when its members "showed" the Highland Orphanage in Kentucky, conducted an interesting mission lesson study and bought and sold hand-made articles from a little Japanese girls' school in Japan.

The members met for an all-day session at the home of Mrs. E. S. Goodner, and baskets were brought for an all-day session. At noon the hostess poured coffee and tea to serve with the buffet luncheon of sandwiches, salads and other appetizing delicacies. After dinner the text book now being reviewed, "Serving the Neighborhood" was taken up by different members chapter by chapter, and a very interesting lesson presented.

The showery of the Kentucky Orphanage comprised medical and sewing supplies recently asked for, and a big and most attractive box was packed for shipment. The hand-made articles from the little Japanese girls' school in Kochi, Japan, were made by girls under charge of Miss Annie H. Boyd, known and loved throughout the missionary world for her work among the girls of the Orient. A box had been sent in care of Mrs. Goodner, and about twenty dollars' worth of articles were sold to the circle members.

SIX MEMBERS OF POLO CLUB TO LEAVE FOR DALLAS CONTEST

Six members of the Wichita Falls polo club will leave for Dallas tonight to battle the Dallas polo club tomorrow and Sunday for loving cups, individual honors and the polo championship of West Texas. Eighteen ponies belonging to members of the local club were shipped to Dallas Wednesday, and Warren Jennings is now in that city making final arrangements for the games.

The supremacy of the two teams will be decided at the fair association polo grounds in a best-two-out-of-three series. If the games of tomorrow and Sunday bring a tie, the Wichita players will remain over and swing their mallets in a third game Monday.

The Dallas News has offered four big loving cups to be given to the individual members of the winning team—and, as C. A. Wilfong remarked this morning, "Wichita Falls is sure going to be the future home of those four cups."

The Dallas club has the reputation of possessing a hard-riding quartet, but every man on the local club is an experienced polo player and the "Millionaire Four," as William Ruggies, Dallas sport writer, has termed the Wichita men, is considered to have just a faint "edge" on their rivals.

The local players who are leaving tonight are Rhea Nixon, Zeb Nixon, H. D. Hemphill, C. A. Wilfong, Horace Robbins, and Dr. John Fletcher.

Do You Know a Baby Sick With Constipation

Tell the mother to give half a teaspoonful of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

NO thoughtful mother with children in the house will risk being without a good, reliable laxative. It will save many a serious illness, many a doctor's visit.

When the baby cries and is fretful, when the boy has no appetite and won't play, when the girl is listless and feverish, when there are complaints of headaches and colds, the mother can suspect constipation. Give Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in the small dose prescribed on the bottle, when you put the child to bed, and with morning the ailment will have disappeared.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a popular compound of Egyptian Senna and other simple laxative herbs with pepsin and pleasant-tasting aromatics. It acts gently and mildly, and children take it without objection. A sixty-cent bottle is enough to last an average family many months. The ingredients are endorsed in the U. S. Pharmacopoeia, and last year American mothers bought over eight million bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin from druggists. It is the largest selling liquid laxative in the world, and few cautious families are ever without it.

PE-RU-NA

For Coughs, Colds and Catarrh

Mr. E. W. Marshall, Birmingham, Michigan, suffering from Systemic Catarrh involving Head, Nose, Throat and Esophagus, claims a complete cure. His letter is convincing.

"For the past two years I have been troubled with systemic catarrh. I used several boxes of Pe-ru-na tablets and they have effected a complete cure. I do not hesitate to recommend Pe-ru-na for all catarrhal conditions."

Mr. Marshall is just one of many thousands who have been benefited by Dr. Hartman's famous medicine in the past fifty years.

It is by stimulating the digestion, enriching the blood and toning up the nerves that Pe-ru-na is able to exert such a soothing, healing influence upon the mucous membranes which line the body. It is a wonderfully effective remedy to restore strength after a protracted sickness, the grip or Spanish influenza.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Following is the address of Admiral W. S. Benson, chairman of the United States Shipping board, before the American Petroleum congress, relative to the demands of the shipping board for oil: "It is indeed a pleasure to have the opportunity of addressing you this evening on a subject which is so vitally affects the successful development and operation of our American merchant marine, I, the American petroleum industry as it relates to the fuel and lubricants necessary for the propulsion of our enormous fleet. "For the reason that conditions are changing so rapidly in the petroleum owned American shipping, accurate data is not available as to the fuel oil requirements of shipping, and I have taken the liberty of reviewing the subject which I have been asked to discuss this evening as 'The Demands of the Shipping Board for Oil.' "I find that comparatively little is generally known of our enormous requirements of fuel and oil, and believe that a brief resume of the efforts of the shipping board to purchase its fuel oil requirements and of the problems which have confronted us in this respect during recent years, is essential to full appreciation of the extent to which our contracting of the shipping board and of the American petroleum industry are intertwined. "For the year 1919, our requirements of fuel oil amounted to approximately 18,000,000 barrels, and for the year 1920 we estimate our requirements will amount to approximately 40,000,000 barrels. Our first fuel oil contracts were made to cover the period from April, 1919, to April, 1920, and amounted to 12,000,000 barrels. The contracts covered the principal gulf and north Atlantic ports and ranged in price from 74 cents to $1.15 per barrel. The balance of our requirements were purchased in the open market at from seventy-five to one hundred per cent in excess of the contract prices. "During the early months of 1920, our fuel oil contracts were renewed with great difficulty in supplying the contract quantities of fuel oil which was also very scarce in the open market, our contractor reporting that the difficulty was due to unsettled political conditions in Mexico and shortage of tank steamers. In the face of these conditions, our failure to receive acceptable bids in February, 1920, was to be expected. However, we succeeded during March, 1920, in contracting for our requirements of fuel oil at the principal north Atlantic and gulf coast ports for a six months period, at prices ranging from $1.34 per barrel to $2.07 per barrel, an increase of over one hundred per cent, as compared with our 1919 contracts. "We have recently contracted to purchase over 50,000,000 barrels of fuel oil during the period October, 1920, to October, 1921, on the Atlantic gulf coast, at prices ranging from $1.50 to $2.20 per barrel. We have never been so successful in our efforts to contract for our fuel oil requirements on the Pacific coast, but by virtue of our agreement to purchase from the United States Department of Interior all of the government's royalty crude oil in the states of Wyoming and California, we have been enabled to secure our requirements of fuel oil on the Pacific coast since June, 1920, in exchange for the royalty oil from the Salt Creek, Wyoming, fields. It is the board's intention to conclude similar arrangements with respect to the royalty oil in the state of California. With reference to our fuel oil requirements in the Pacific, you may be interested to know that of the 14 shipping board vessels operating from the Pacific coast ports, only one burns coal as fuel. "The shipping board, though rather late in launching its foreign bunker station program, has diligently pursued the policy of creating fuel oil bunker stations at strategic ports on established trade routes. In October, 1919, we completed our first foreign bunker station on Hassel Island, St. Thomas, V. I. This station has a storage capacity of 110,000 barrels and will shortly be increased to 220,000 barrels. The board has also constructed fuel oil stations at Honolulu, which has a storage capacity of 110,000 barrels, and at Manila, which has a storage capacity of 165,000 barrels, and has also provided floating storage at Ponta Delgada, Azores, for 25,000 barrels of fuel oil. "The creation of these stations, and their operation, has enabled the board to contract with various oil companies to receive, store and redeliver fuel oil for our account at Shanghai, Iquique, Rio de Janeiro, Bizerta, Brest, Genoa, Savona and Hamburg. These stations are supplied with fuel oil purchased under our contracts and transported in shipping board tank steamers, and their operation has enabled the board to supply seventy-five per cent of its foreign fuel oil requirements at a saving of millions of dollars per annum. The establishment of these stations has, in each instance had the effect of reducing the price of fuel oil on the open market to a marked degree, thereby benefiting shipping in general. "We have for some years offered seriously for the effects of insufficient tank steamers with which to transport our constantly increasing requirements of fuel oil and the tank steamer fleets of the established oil companies were totally inadequate to meet the demand. A large number of our tank steamers in order to keep them fully employed were chartered to private companies before the growing demands of the merchant marine created such a shortage in tank steamers and they were thus beyond our control during a considerable period. This condition, I am glad to say, has been rapidly corrected and early in the year 1921, we will have at our command a fleet of tank steamers to enable us to expand our bunker station program and eliminate the purchase of oil on the open market, which will result in further enormous savings. "Lubricating oils also play an important part in ship operation and our requirements of this product now amount to approximately 4,000,000 gallons per annum. Our first contracts for lubricating oils were made in October, 1919, for all domestic ports for one year, at prices substantially fifty per cent below the prevailing market and we have recently executed contracts for another year. "I have discussed this matter in considerable detail, desiring that you leaders in the American Petroleum Industry should have an intimate knowledge of our requirements and the policy which we are pursuing to secure the necessary supplies of fuel oil and lubricating oils, in the hope and belief that we may have your sympathetic co-operation to the end that our efforts to uphold the American Merchant Marine may be justly successful. "In conclusion, may I impress upon you with all the earnestness at my command, that we are now facing the most unrelenting and stiffening competition of nations trained in all the fine points of ship operation. One of our greatest advantages lies in the fact that about seventy-five per cent of our entire fleet burns oil for fuel, as compared with about fifteen per cent for all foreign shipping. This advantage cannot be realized to the fullest extent unless the shipping board and the American Merchant Marine as a whole can be assured of an adequate supply of fuel oil not only now, but of more importance, in the future as well, at reasonable prices. To this end, I have no hesitancy in appealing for a continuance of that support which the American petroleum industry has so patriotically tendered in the past."

CUNNINGHAM HOLDS OPTIMISTIC VIEW OF INDUSTRIAL SITUATION

By RALPH M. COUCH,
United Press Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The labor department by bringing employers and workers together, is helping to make the possibility of industrial disturbances more remote, according to Edw. Cunningham, industrial relations expert of that department, in an interview today.

"Despite the many predictions that industrial warfare is about to break out, there are now less strikes and lockouts, taking the country as a whole, than at any time since the war," Cunningham said today. "The winter months, however, may prove a critical period in industrial relations. The labor department is trying to bring about industrial peace. In some localities it has persuaded workers and employers to set up permanent arbitration boards in advance to deal with any differences that may arise. The number of these boards is constantly increasing. "One is justified in believing that if industrial warfare is being planned it will not get a chance to develop. If it does, the result will rest on both employers and workers because of the menace of the third figure in the situation—radicalism. "Communists, now seemingly suppressed, are merely waiting a new opportunity. I have faith, however, that the situation will be smoothed out by co-operation between employers and workers."

THE CRACK O' DOOM FOR NASTY CALOMEL

Forth Abandoning Old Drug For "Dodson's Liver Tonic" Here In South.

"Ugh! Calomel makes you sick. It's horrible! Take a dose of the dangerous drug tonight and tomorrow you lose a day. Calomel is mercury! When it comes into contact with your bile, it cracks it into it, breaking it up. Then is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish, if liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tonic tonight. Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic for a few cents. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous, go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tonic is destroying the sale of calomel because it can not salivate or make you sick.—adv."

American Legion of Kansas Has Declared War on a Woman

TOPEKA, KANS., Nov. 19.—The American legion soldiers have declared war on Miss Lucy Gaston of Chicago, who has come to Kansas to make war on cigarette smoking. A resolution has been adopted by the Topeka post calling upon the next legislature to repeal the anti-cigarette law except in so far as it applies to minors. The resolution was adopted by a vote of 200 to 1. Governor Henry J. Allen, who spent much time in France during the war distributing cigarettes to soldiers, also will be asked to aid in getting the law repealed. Every American legion post in Kansas will be asked to take similar steps, it is said. Miss Gaston, who admits she is receiving $10 per week and expenses for fighting the cigarette, has been in Kansas for several weeks advising the adoption of Carrie Nation tactics in order to get rid of the cigarette. It is reported that she has gone so far as to take cigarettes away from smokers.

You Can't Kill Half A Duck

"Look here," said the guest, "how long must I wait for that half portion of duck I ordered?" "Till somebody orders the other half—we can't go out and kill half a duck," replied the waiter. With that for a text we want to drive home this fact—YOU CAN'T ORDER HALF A VALUE at this store this Winter because every other customer is receiving a FULL DUCK so to speak—there are no half portions to be had. If the last three years of unholy prices have deviled your diet to be contented with half portions—you need our kind of values to help you recuperate. Or, if the dollars you have planned on putting into Winter Clothes still have the appetite of a longshoreman—there is one store in Wichita Falls to usher them into. And we are talking to you about ducks—to make you see your duty. And we are more than meeting the demands of the people by taking our medicine in giving reduced prices on our entire stock of merchandise, in many cases lower than replacement prices. Mills in the East are cutting their production greatly, and indications today point to an increase in prices and to a scarcity of merchandise in the near future. Buy your needs now.

Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucous membrane shrinking into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.—adv.

RIGHTS OF OTHERS.

Now that the excitement over the death of Archie Martin has in a measure abated, it may be well for the citizens of Wichita Falls to view the situation calmly and perhaps to draw a lesson from the tragedy.

This boy, entirely innocent of contributory negligence, lost his life because the speed ordinance was violated. Not alone because it was violated in this single instance, but because it is generally and habitually violated.

When people are in Rome—they are apt to do as the Romans—and newcomers to Wichita Falls, finding that the ordinances are held in general contempt at once adopt the general practice of ignoring them, and thus the practice grows and increases from month to month.

Every driver in the city who has exceeded the speed limit prior to Monday's accident and every car-owner here who has permitted his car to be run in excess of the speed limit is in part responsible for that horrible occurrence.

Law enforcement restrictions and with them complementary rights. If the law forbids the throwing of banana skins upon the walks, it gives pedestrians the right to walk abroad with freedom from the danger of slipping upon banana skins.

If automobilists are restricted to a certain maximum speed, all other automobilists, and drivers of horses, and pedestrians, are warranted in expecting the automobile to conform to the authorized speed and are therefore warranted in governing their own actions accordingly.

If the law of this state prohibits spitting in public places, for the reason that it spreads disease, he who disregards this law violates the rights of other people. He violates their right to pure air, their right to freedom from disgusting sights and their right to health.

So through the long catalogue, each law that has any reason for being, creates rights which correspond to its prohibitions, and the prohibitory clause is for the purpose of securing those rights against the encroachment of others.

When Torris sped his car through the downtown street he invaded Archie Martin's rights; the rights which his Creator gave him and which the city ordinance attempted to secure to him; his rights to life and limb and the pursuit of happiness.

So have all other speeders violated the rights of these two and of every one else in this city, and have contributed to the tragedy of last Monday. So all who violate the speed ordinance in the future will be trampling under foot the rights of others, and some of those others will meet the fate of Archie Martin some day unless the people come to their senses, and do as they would be done by.

While recent rulings by courts and prohibition commissioners on various phases of the Volstead act have a tendency to loosen its enforcement, the Houston Post asserts that the country may "rest assured that there will be no important modification of the law by the next congress."

The Post bases its confidence upon scrutiny of the returns of the recent congressional election as clearly indicating the temper of the people with regard to the liquor issue. Two hundred and sixty-eight members of congress who voted for the Volstead act were re-elected, the Post declares, "including Mr. Volstead himself, whose defeat the liquor interests would have paid almost anything to accomplish."

The name of Secretary Tumulty has been put forward as national democratic chairman to rehabilitate the fortunes of the party. Mr. Tumulty, it is said, is assured in advance of the support of influential Cox leaders; he has, of course, the backing of the Wilson and McAdoo supporters. And would have, therefore, only the possible opposition of Mr. Bryan, who has suggested a "complete re-organization" of the party, "complete" in Mr. Bryan's view being probably the elimination of both the Cox and Wilson influences in the democratic leadership.

News from Dallas that there is still a reasonable hope for the Dallas-Wichita Falls interurban being built in the near future is good news. The decline in the cost of interurban building materials, it seems, has markedly offset the stringency in the money market requiring less financing, and it is this fact which again gives rise to the hope that the preliminaries in the way of financing can soon be got out of the way and construction begun.

Eickenroth, candidate of the fusion between the American and republican parties in the twenty-first senatorial district, has been definitely defeated by Richards, the democrat, according to the full returns, and the next Texas senate will be solidly democratic as usual.

Elevation of the Texas League from Class B into Class A is a recommendation of the kind of ball rendered for Texas League patrons. There were other considerations and prerequisites, of course; but the fact that the championship of Class B organization had little difficulty in trimming the champions of a Class A—as happened when Fort Worth of the Texas League defeated Little Rock of the Southern Association—had a lot to do with the Texas League's improvement in classification.

Sir Herbert Shackleton is planning an expedition to the Polar regions, this time to the north. If Sir Herbert is looking for a good place to start from and the cold weather is any indication of proximity to the North Pole, we would suggest that he come to Amarillo or other points in the Texas Panhandle, between which and the pole, according to the ancient version, there is nothing but a broken-down barbed-wire fence.

Miss Ada Oakes was married to Walter Pine. Their best man was named Birch, their bridesmaid named Laurel and the preacher named Wood. After the wedding they went to Hickory, North Carolina, to spend a week with the bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. Shingle. It was a sort of wooden affair all around.

With Other Editors

Senator Harding grew so enthusiastic over his first experience with a Texas tarpon he refused to come in for lunch, stayed out all day, and announced his intention of continuing until he has landed one of the great game fish abounding off the Texas coast.

The main point of Mr. Harding's first adventure with a tarpon is that it will serve to emphasize wherever newspaper readers live in the chilly north, Texas' bountiful opportunities for winter recreation, the Silver King being only one. The president-elect has still ahead of him a number of more interesting winter sports, including a nine-pounder in Medina lake, shooting wild turkeys, bringing down a ten-point buck, running a bobcat, or even engaging a Davis mountain bear.

Nor do all Texas' winter sports have a flavor of the wild. For where else can the visitor find winter tennis, or golf, or polo to equal the Texas variety? Pictures of the president-elect's pictorial adventures shown in the north will, it is to be hoped, stir an eagerness on the part of many more visitors. With election out of the way, and good crops made, Texas is in a particularly beautiful mood to entertain guests.

CAPTURED MAN IN DALLAS BELIEVED RESPONSIBLE FOR MANY JEWELRY ROBBERIES

DALLAS, TEX., Nov. 19.—Wholesale jewelry robberies from Dallas residences were believed cleared up by police officers here with the detention of a man who gave his name as Herbert Evans of Leadville, Colo.

Detectives said that when arrested the man's overcoat pockets bulged with jewelry, including wrist watches, pins, diamonds, rings and necklaces. He was captured by police answering a burglary alarm after a chase through the streets.

Just Folks

State Pride. I heard a stranger boasting of the glories of his state. He held that California is the greatest of the great: The chap who sat beside him lived somewhere in Illinois. And he boasted of her riches and her comforts and her joys: But while I listened to them make their native splendors known, I'd have sworn that they were talking of the state I call my own.

There are charms this country over, here are joys in every state, here are forty-eight divisions and each one of them is great, And I like better the sparkle and the touch of honest pride.

Who rejoice in supposing and see who such a love is shown That each one of us is faithful to the home he calls his own.

In Michigan or Kansas, in Idaho or Maine, The hearts of men are beating to the self-same singing strain; The love of all that's lovely sets the eyes of all aglow, And the old flag laughs to hear us as it proudly flies.

Side Talks

Harder Than Work. I think the very hardest thing to stand among all the strains and complexities of life is the strain of being pulled several ways at once by different interests and affections.

And I think that women have five times as much of this sort of thing to stand as men. How many women we know who are harassed and torn by the conflicting necessities of being wife, mother and daughter all at once.

Of course the answer rises to mind that many men are husband, father and son at once.

But it isn't the same. Man's function in life is far more specialized and simple. He is the provider. He may have to provide for wife, children and parents, but he does not have the conflicting claims of personal relationship to pull him this way and that as women so often do.

Then, too, men in their relation to their wives and children seldom have the conflicting pull that a wife and mother has. Whoever hears of a wife who complained because her husband devoted too much attention to his children? But how often we hear men justifying their outside interests by such a claim.

I think any strain of this sort is three times as wearing as hard work. I believe a woman who has to devote to a breakdown had she? Early on cause for a breakdown had she? Early on cause for a breakdown had she?

Under this way the best laid plans may be thwarted and for this reason matters of importance should be conducted with the greatest caution.

SOUVENIR EDITIONS OF THE MARION STAR PUBLISHED ON SHIP

HAVE TYPESETTING EQUIPMENT ON VESSEL CARRYING PRESIDENT-ELECT.

SENATOR PLANS TO DO THE WHOLE JOB HIMSELF

Live Turkey For Party Is One Of The Centers Of Attraction On Board The Ship.

ABOARD STEAMSHIP PARANGINA. Nov. 18.—Senator Harding, en route to the canal zone for a vacation trip, tried to settle down today to the task of doing nothing—but he found it difficult.

The wireless news reports which came in were scanned for word of what had occurred in the United States and elsewhere since the Parangina left last night and started plowing across the blue waters of the Gulf of Mexico. Harding strolled on the decks until late last night, puffing at his pipe.

A live turkey was one of the centers of attraction. Crowds thronged to view the bird which soon will make a meal for the president-elect and his party. One hundred ducks were put aboard ship just before sailing time for the benefit of the Harding larder.

White as sea Harding will get out one or two souvenir editions of the Marion Star. There is a typesetting outfit on board and the plan is for the senator to do the whole job himself, typesetting and all.

The United States steamer Parangina was completely overhauled for Senator Harding and his state-room repainted and new fittings put in. Cut flowers were scattered in profusion through the presidential suite. A number of other passengers were on board in addition to the Harding party, which included besides the president-elect and Mrs. Harding, Senator and Mrs. Frelinghuysen, New Jersey Senator Hale, Maine; Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Sawyer, Marion, O.; and George B. Christian Jr., Harding's secretary.

Friendly relations with Mexico during the Harding administration were predicted by those close to the president-elect. Harding, they believe, will extend a helping hand to the Obregon administration in the hope of putting the country on its feet industrially and politically.

General Obregon, it can be said, will assume power in Mexico with the best wishes of the incoming administration in the United States and there will be no attempt at interference from the northern side of the Rio Grande other than such friendly assistance as may be desired by Mexico.

Senator Harding's position has already been made clear to Mexico where it is generally understood that as long as American rights and lives are respected there will be nothing to fear. Senator Harding's view is understood to be that what Mexico needs is peace and an opportunity to develop her schools and good roads and build up the farms which have been neglected during the last decade of revolutionary disturbances. Recognition of Obregon's government is expected from President Wilson soon after the inauguration November 20.

U. S. STEEL COMPANY RECOMMEND PRESENT PRICES BE A BASIS

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The United States Steel corporation has decided to recommend to presidents of its subsidiary companies that the present base selling prices of all commodities "continue in force" until it is necessary to make changes to meet altered conditions, Chairman E. H. Gary said in a statement today.

Gary's statement follows: "Our subsidiary companies have consistently and uninterruptedly maintained the base selling prices of all iron and steel commodities which were mutually fixed by representatives of iron and steel interests in the United States and representatives of the government on March 21, 1919. "Since that time producing cost of all manufacturers of iron and steel, including an advancement of wage rates aggregating $71,000,000 a year to the steel corporation, and larger freight rates have materially increased. Under usual circumstances we would be justified in making additions to the average base price.

IMPORTANT DEVELOPMENTS EXPECTED FROM THE RAIDS ON CLEVELAND BREWERIES

CINCINNATI, Nov. 19.—Important developments are expected to follow raids made yesterday by federal prohibition agents on eight Cincinnati breweries and approximately one hundred saloons. The raids were conducted by 25 prohibition agents brought here from northern Ohio points by supervising Federal Prohibition Agent Thomas E. Stone of Baltimore, officer in charge of the Ohio-Maryland division.

CORSETS, ROLLED OATS AND ROOFING MATERIAL TAKE TUMBLE IN PRICE

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Corsets, rolled oats and roofing material took price tumbles today. The Kabo Corset company announced a slash in prices from 20 to 25 per cent because of the reduced price of cotton, silk and elastic. Armour Grain company reduced the price of rolled oats 17 per cent. Roofing material was reduced from 20 to 25 per cent by the Prepared Roofing company.

ACQUIT NEGRO WOMAN OF CHARGE OF MURDER

Instructed Verdict Is Returned On Recommendation Of County Attorney.

Malinda Higge, negro, was found not guilty on an instructed verdict by the jury in the 78th district court of the charge of having murdered Homer McClain last July. The trial came to an end suddenly. The state had closed and so had the defendant. Attorney John Davenport arose and said to the court in substance that he had never before prosecuted a case where the defendant appeared to be an innocent of the offense charged as this one and recommended that the jury be instructed to return a verdict of not guilty.

CAPT. EMMETT KILPATRICK WAS ALIVE OCTOBER 30

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Captain Emmet Kilpatrick of the American Red Cross unit in south Russia, who was captured several weeks ago by the soviet army, was alive at midnight Saturday, October 30, and probably has been taken to Moscow, says cable advice to Red Cross headquarters from Sebastopol, quoting an escaped prisoner. Previous reports said Captain Kilpatrick had been killed after having been stripped and beaten by bolshevik troops.

OHIO STATE-ILLINOIS GAME IS ONLY TITLE GAME ON SCHEDULE

Harvard and Yale Meet in Annual Battle But No Championship Is At Stake This Year.

By HENRY L. FARRRELL, U. P. Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Oil in the football lamp is running low. Just a few more puffs and flickers and the light will go out for 1920. A few bright spots shine on tomorrow's card, which is practically the end of the season.

The brightest rays of the day will shoot westward on the campus at Urbana, where Ohio State and Illinois come together for the second time in successive years to battle for the eastern conference championship.

The multi-colored "fein" will be fought on the Yale bowl, where Harvard and Yale play their twenty-third annual game. Brilliant as a spectacle with a crowd of about 20,000 looking on, the Yale-Harvard set-to lacks a little at stake, which makes the Ohio State-Illinois battle the premier event of the day. Undefeated as she is, Ohio is favored over Illinois, but the most ardent Buckeye backers still have a recollection of the last fifty seconds of last year's battle, when Fletcher boot-kick a goal for Illinois and won the championship.

For a real honest-to-goodness battle the Lehigh-Lafayette game should be one of the best of the day. Little Lehigh, which scored, Penn State pale last week, is considered the favorite.

Dartmouth, scamping after second place in the eastern race, takes on Brown, the worst stumbling block in these parts. It's Syracuse's turn for a good game. The New Yorkers, who have been on again and off again alternating with the Navy, are expected to win from Columbia.

The Penn-Columbia game is New York's gala attraction. Penn State and Washington and Lee probably will stage the best battle in the south as Tech is idle and Centre has a set-up in Virginia.

The feature attraction of the Pacific coast is the battle between California and Stanford.

BLUE RIBBONS AWARDED TO "LITTLE FIRE LADY" HAVE BEEN WITHDRAWN

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The blue ribbons awarded this week at the National Horse Show in Madison Square Garden to Little Fire Lady, owned by Miss Patty Vaucian, daughter of Samuel Vaucian, head of the Baldwin locomotive works, have been withdrawn, the National Horse Show association announced today. A telegram sent to Miss Vaucian last night by the association says:

"It has been brought to our notice that your pony, 'Little Fire Lady,' entered as a four-year-old, was shown in classes 148 and 151 and awarded the blue ribbon in both classes. Investigation shows that this animal is less than four years old, and therefore not eligible. We beg to inform you that our executive committee has decided to withdraw these blue ribbons and prizes and not allow this pony to be shown in any other class at the show and to bring the matter to the attention of the other exhibitors in the classes in which the pony was entered. Furthermore, the matter will be laid before the association of American Horse Shows."

FLANAGAN OUTPOINTS WATSON IN EIGHT ROUNDS

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 19.—Patsy Flanagan, St. Louis, outpointed Red Watson of New Orleans in eight rounds here last night. Watson landed a terrific left hook in the third round, breaking Flanagan's nose and sending him down for the count of nine. Watson, however, injured his hand and the rest of the bout was all Flanagan's.

FULLERTON TELLS HOW ONE DETECTIVE WORKED

Hugh S. Fullerton, who has been as close to the baseball situation as any sporting writer in the game, has this to say in one of his articles: "Some quite interesting developments came out of Joe Gardner's evidence before the Chicago grand jury. Gideon testified that on the morning of the fourth game of the 1919 World's Series there was a meeting in Chicago, at which some players of the White Sox demanded more money. 'I came near exploding the entire plot to throw the World Series this morning. I knew Comiskey had hired the detectives to watch his men, and thought they would be on the job. Happening to be in the hotel looking for John Evers, I was sent to a room where, instead of Evers, I found a traveling man named Everts. I apologized for the intrusion and talked with him a moment, then stepped into the hallway. 'At that minute I saw several of the White Sox entering a room further down the corridor. I watched for several minutes and saw six or seven persons enter that room. I wondered what was happening and started around to the elevators when I met Gideon and a man I did not know. On top of what I had heard, this meeting looked bad. 'Down stairs I saw and talked with one of Comiskey's adherents, a former detective who, I understood, was working on the case. I asked him why the Sox were meeting there and he said they were at the park. Thinking he merely was trying to throw me off the scent, I said nothing. Perhaps he did not know how close he was to discovering something.'"

Squabble On as to Division of Money Coming to Chicago

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—The nineteen twenty world's series prize money, amounting to almost $15,000, which belongs to the Chicago baseball league team for finishing second, has not been awarded, it was announced today. The old national commission is awaiting the outcome of the trials of eight White Sox players charged with "throwing" the 1919 championship games to the Cincinnati Reds.

ILLINOIS CAPTAIN UNABLE TO PLAY IN OHIO GAME

URBANA, O., Nov. 19.—Ohio's prospects of coping the Big Ten conference championship here tomorrow from Illinois went up considerably today when it was learned that Captain John Depler of Illinois probably will be unable to play. Depler was badly mangled in scrimmage Wednesday and watched the play from the side lines yesterday.

GIANTS MAY GO TO MEXICO FOR SERIES OF GAMES

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The New York Giants are considering an invasion of Mexico, it was learned today. If the new Mexican government is recognized by the new administration at Washington, Manager McCarraw recently said, he would take his team to the Mexican capital for a series of exhibition games.

CHAMPION AND BRENNAN TO GO 15 ROUNDS IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Champion Jack Dempsey and Bill Brennan, Chicago heavyweight, will meet in a 15-round bout in Madison Square Garden, December 14. The state boxing commission, after lifting the ban on heavy weight encounters, sanctioned the application of Promoter Tex Rickard to stage the bout.

HOW OTHER CITIES VIEW SELECTION OF LANDIS

Chicago.—"Baseball should feel proud over the fact that Judge Landis has agreed to sit as a high court of its game and that he is still to remain on the federal bench. Predictions are made here now that if any dishonest players are left in the ranks they will soon be cleaned out. Within the next year it is safe to venture to say that crooks and gamblers will see the error of their ways and seek other sports in which to make their livelihood."

New York.—"There is much work in store for Judge Landis and it will be extremely interesting to see how he performs his duties while sitting on the pet corns. If the judge is a big man, sure enough, he will stand no nonsense and the pin-headed magnates who are looking out for their own pockets soon will find this out. The eminent Chicago jurist, however, will assume a tremendous burden. He must put the belligerent club owners whose selfishness and small minds have caused heaps of trouble."

Washington.—"With the absolutely necessary addition of practical baseball men to assist in his administration, the judge should do very well. Of course it could not be a success without them. Mr. Laster may think otherwise, and want to have baseball governed by generals, admirals, song and dance artists, etc. But, so far as is known, he has not decided to secure the services of baseball players to run the business he is connected with."

Cincinnati.—"As we read it in the papers, it's all lovely again, but we find it hard to believe. Surely the leopards have not changed their spots, nor will they, even under the whip, kindly or keen, of an autocrat like Judge Landis or the Most High himself. No, it can't be possible that the major league baseball magnates are going to show some common sense, quit their fighting and get back to a sane, sound basis. It doesn't seem at all like the doings of the big fellows. One thing is sure, however: If Judge Landis ever got the chance to deal with baseball thugs as he does with liquor sellers, they'd reform or skip to Zanibar."

Vernon Budget

Homes For Nine Orphans.

VERNON, TEXAS, Nov. 19.—Homes for nine of twelve orphans brought to Vernon by the Children's Aid Society of New York have been found, and applications have been received for the remaining three. Every effort is being made to insure the children in the best homes that can be found. The twelve children were brought to Vernon last Friday from New York City. Numbers of prominent families in Vernon have taken one or more of the children.

Three Boys Win Prizes.

VERNON, TEXAS, Nov. 19.—Three Wilbarger county boys won prizes at the Cotton Palace in Waco, it was announced at the meeting of county agents last week and in Waco. They are Robert January, Tolbert route 2, Alvin January, Tolbert route 2, and Robin Crim, Tolbert route 1. These announcements were made today through N. R. Tisdal, county farm agent.

Robert January won $10 as first prize for the best exhibit of corn. Alvin January won $10 first prize for the best exhibit of fertilizer. Robin Crim won $2 as fourth prize for an exhibit of corn. Alvin January is the only one of the trio who won in competition in another fair in the state. He took second prize at the Dallas fair on his exhibit of fertilizer.

Wilbarger District Leads.

VERNON, TEXAS, Nov. 19.—At a meeting of the Texas county agents at Sweetwater last week, it was announced that this state leads the nation in work done by farm demonstrators, that this district under the supervision of John H. Edmondson, county agent, and that Wilbarger county leads this district. Deduction naturally places Wilbarger at the head of all counties in the country in respect to this service. This is the third year Wilbarger county has led the district of which it is a part.

Wilbarger county has proportionally more club members than any other county in the state, according to a chart prepared for and submitted to those at the meeting. There are 428 members in Mr. Edmondson's organization, and Coleman county, where W. F. Robinson is county agent, is nearest with 402. These two counties are the only ones listed with memberships over 400. Only three others exceeded 300 in number.

Wilbarger county received the highest rating in grain sorghums and corn among the counties of the state, and contestants from Wilbarger were awarded the best record books in these crops at the state fair. Wilbarger county boys won more prizes proportionately this year than did those from any other county. Tarrant county claimed a larger total membership in its clubs than that of the state, but has 2238 farmers compared to 1549 for this county. Following is Wilbarger county's record of club membership as compared with that of its nearest competitor, Coleman county. Wilbarger: corn club 125 members; cotton club 60 members; grain sorghum club 49 members; potato club 5 members; dairy calves club 6 members; poultry club 21 members. Coleman: corn club 24 members; cotton club 24 members; peanut club 7 members; grain sorghum club 26 members; pig club 283 members; sheep club 5 members; baby beef club 9 members; dairy calves club 10 members; poultry club 1 members.

Price Drop Due to Immutable Law of Supply and Demand

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Reduction in price has reduced competition to such an extent that only the "fittest will survive" the period of readjustment through which the big business of the country is now passing, James Simpson, vice president of Marshall Field and company, largest drygoods wholesalers and retailers in the world, told the United Press today.

"Every progressive business is stripped for action," said Simpson. "Every ounce of ability, efficiency and resource will be put to the test."

Simpson said that during the war standards of service in business suffered but that now merchants of the country are resuming their course of normalcy.

Simpson attributed the price readjustment to the "immutable law of supply and demand," and expressed the belief that the action of the federal reserve banks, by controlling credits, had very little to do with it.

"Production of merchandise," said Simpson, "was curtailed during the war to make place for the necessities of war, and it has required the two intervening years since the armistice to catch up with the demand, and in the very nature of things during that time prices of a great many commodities have been on a mad debauch. When production increased to a point where it supplied the demand the inevitable happened—a sudden decline in price of nearly every commodity.

"In fact the world has witnessed during the last 60 days a very orderly collapse in value of commodities in such an extreme that retail distributors began to unload their stocks at sacrifices and stopped placing orders for current wants and for spring of 1921."

Simpson said the lack of orders has caused the closing down of many manufacturing plants with the result of throwing many out of employment. According to Simpson, if orders are not placed there will be a scarcity of goods in the spring which will mean enhanced prices.

"I am an optimist in business, but I realize that the developments of the last few weeks have been a considerable shock to a large number of business men," he said. "It is necessary to set our thoughts to the realization that we are a commercial nation deep in the combat for business, racing against formidable rivals."
