Argentina is First to Break With the League of Nations

GENEVA, Dec. 4.—The Argentine delegation's withdrawal from the league assembly this afternoon was the first real break during the course of the three-week deliberation which had been going on with reassuring smoothness until it got into a fog in the discussion on proposed amendments.

INDUSTRIAL BOARD REVEALS WIDESPREAD ERA OF DEPRESSION

REPORTS RECEIVED FROM FORTY-FIVE STATES FORM BASIS FOR STATEMENT.

RECALL THAT SITUATION IS APPARENTLY PARADOXICAL

Industries Emerging From a Period Of Intensive Operation And Super-Production.

These were the current opinions of the Argentine delegation. One is that the directing minds of the assembly have too much neglected the feelings of the smaller powers and have striven in opposing discussion of amendments; the other is that the Argentine delegation has been too precipitate in its action.

NO HOPE FOR EARLY RELIEF IN BUSINESS SAYS RESERVE BOARD

BASIC CAUSE IS SAID TO BE FOUND IN GENERAL "CONSUMER'S STRIKE."

ATTEMPTS NO FORECAST OF FUTURE CONDITIONS

Impossible To Estimate Extent Of Embarrassment From Readjustment Process.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—No hope of early relief from business depression is held out in the monthly statement of the federal reserve board made public tonight. Depressed exists in most communities, the statement said, and one of the basic causes so far as the board could determine, was "a consumer's strike" and "evident public determination to wait for prices to come down."

ATTEMPTS NO FORECAST OF FUTURE CONDITIONS

Impossible To Estimate Extent Of Embarrassment From Readjustment Process.

NORFOLK, VA., Dec. 4.—An American pre-eminent in maritime commerce, cultivating friendly relations, but justly determined to defend its rights, was pictured to the world by President-elect Harding today as he ended his vacation and turned soberly to the task of formulating the policies of his administration.

He also spoke a word for an international peace understanding that should not sacrifice American nationality and took note of his presence in the south by forecasting a national unity that would "have the people of the old confederacy understand that this is only a memory."

FARMERS READY FOR DRIVE ON CONGRESS TO GET LEGISLATION

WANT PROTECTION FROM SPECULATORS AND PROFITEERS IN FOOD.

PROGRAM IS OUTLINED BY PRESIDENT BARRETT

As First Step Have Organized Country-Wide Public Relations Committee.

Editor's Note.—In the second of the series of interviews given the United Press by representatives of the industry, labor and farming, President Charles S. Barrett of the National Board of Farm Organizations, tells what farmers want from this session of congress.

By RALPH F. COUCH (United Press Staff Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—More than 1,500,000 farmers banded together in the national board of farm organizations now are preparing for a drive in congress to get legislation to protect the consumer and farmer from being victimized by speculators and profiteers in food, President Charles S. Barrett of the board announced today. "Seven million farmers now are forced to sell their products at the lowest price in history in proportion to production costs," said Barrett. "But 100,000,000 consumers are paying the highest price in history for these same products. Billions of dollars of profit thus is going into the pockets of the speculators and middlemen."

As the first step in the drive for protective legislation, Barrett said, he is organizing a country-wide public relations committee to coordinate the common aims of farmer and consumer. The committee to be developed under the direction of national board of farm organizations will include representatives of the national consumers league and the labor group, as well as farmers according to present plans.

Plan to Sell Direct. The farmers' program for protective legislation begins with amendments to the anti-trust laws to permit farmers co-operative societies to engage in interstate business. Through many of the co-operative societies farmers plan to sell direct to the consumer.

"As the anti-trust laws now are interpreted the co-operative societies in many cases can be made subject to prosecution," said Barrett. "If the present interpretations are changed, the societies can make a big and permanent dent in the high cost of living. Under direction of the national board, attempts are now being made to organize co-operative societies in every section of the United States. In addition to getting food direct to the consumer, the societies enable farmers to buy supplies wholesale, thereby increasing agricultural efficiency."

"Tax," said Barrett, "increased efficiency by the farmer practically always spells decreased prices for him at the same time. Increased acreage and harvest and prices which have been the experience of the farmer. His only recourse, therefore, is to market more wisely and eliminate the middleman and speculator whose possible by assuming the legitimate functions of the middleman and by encouraging the consumer to do likewise."

Depresses Price to Farmer. The department of agriculture has discovered that a majority of the seven million farmers of the country annually are forced to dispose of the bulk of their crops to the dealer immediately after harvest, and months in advance of consumption. That depresses prices paid the farmer but boosts prices paid to the speculator and cold storage men who buy when food is low and plentiful.

"The remedy, which will give the farmer higher prices and the consumer lower prices, is gradual marketing by the farmer throughout the year. To market his produce gradually the farmer must have additional credit. Another step in the protective program therefore, will be to demand that congress investigate crop banking to determine how farmers may obtain wider credits."

Other laws to be demanded of congress, Barrett included: Govt. control and encouragement of consumers societies which can buy direct from the farmer.

SAN FRANCISCO WOMAN CAPTAIN IN SYRIAN ARMY

Mrs. Anna L. Finer of Damascus Syria, a captain in the Syrian army, had charge of the Social Service in Syria under the Arabs. She went to Damascus with the Red Cross and when this was withdrawn she was asked by the Arabs to remain.

regulation of the meat packing industry and cold storage business; increased appropriations for the agricultural department; those divisions studying cultivation; "effective legislation" making compulsory "correct and guaranteed" information on labeling, branding, marking, tagging and otherwise designating the character of seeds, feeds, fertilizers, foods, drugs and materials for wearing apparel; maintenance of the "graduated income and excess profits taxes supplemented by graduated inheritance taxes to furnish the additional revenue needed to meet the expense of government."

Stringent immigration laws to maintain the American standard of living. Creation of proper facilities for short time loans of farm commodities and a system of co-operative personal credit on favorable terms.

Strengthening and broadening of the federal farm loan system to encourage farmers to own and operate their own farms.

Tariff legislation to protect farmers in the same measure as all other interests.

BELIEVE MEXICAN WANTED FOR VIOLATION OF THE NEUTRALITY LAW

BROWNSVILLE, TEXAS, Dec. 4.—A man whom American officials believe to be General Pedro C. Gusman, wanted in connection with alleged violation of neutrality laws of the United States by crossing into Mexico with an armed band two weeks ago, was lodged in jail here today. He was arrested at Harlingen, Texas, and is being held pending arrival of witnesses to the recent raid on Ramirez, Mexico, who will attempt to identify him as Gusman. The prisoner told officers his name was Pedro Gusman, but denied participation in alleged Mexican revolutionary activities.

WIDE VARIETY OF LEGISLATION WILL BE URGED IN TEXAS

REGULATION OF PUBLIC UTILITIES, TAX MEASURES AND OTHER QUESTIONS.

GOVERNOR IS EXPECTED TO SUBMIT LAND-MEASURE

Anti-Japanese Legislation Will Be Urged By Senator Bledsoe And Others.

AUSTIN, TEX., Dec. 4.—Legislation regulating public utilities, revising the entire state tax code, stabilizing prices of farm products and barring Japanese immigration, as well as a wide variety of other measures, will be sought at the session of the Texas legislature beginning next month, it was announced here today.

Pat M. Neff, who will then be governor, will also probably submit his land and home ownership legislation, as outlined in his campaign.

Organized labor leaders are formulating plans to try for a repeal of the so-called Hobby open port law. It was disclosed, since this measure was passed, considerable condemnation has been voiced from union labor and its sympathizers. The law, however, was passed by the last special legislature by a good majority and proponents today were laying plans to squelch efforts for repeal as soon as they appear.

To Urge Welfare Laws. In addition to the port law repeal, labor will demand a number of welfare laws, including better wages and working conditions for women, T. C. Jennings, state labor commissioner, minority member of the state commission promulgating the $13 a week minimum wage for women in the four leading industries of the state, condemned the figures as far too low.

Welfare leaders in larger cities of the state branded the wage as too low immediately after it was decided upon, and declared the January legislature would be asked to increase it.

The measure seeking stabilization of farm products will be fathered by legislators who are themselves farmers and a majority of the commercial organizations of the state, it was declared. Plans now under consideration include provisions for enabling growers to warehouse and gradually market their products, especially cotton. Laws permitting more leeway in financing export corporations were also regarded as possible.

Senator W. H. Bledsoe, Lubbock, is expected to lead the American legion's fight on Oriental immigration. Agitation against Japanese originated in the Rio Grande valley where the Japs, fearing drastic California measures, sought to colonize. Land was actually bought in some localities between El Paso and Brownsville for this purpose, but temper of white residents, backed by legion posts was believed today to have checked it, not halted the influx. Anti-Japanese legislation sought will be patterned after California laws which have received international attention because of Japan's objection to them.

Other legislation planned, it was announced, will include reappointment of congressional, senatorial and representative districts of Texas. Amendment to the constitution increasing membership of the supreme court to twelve and abolishing the nine courts of civil appeals will also be proposed. If it disclosed that the three amendments to the constitution voted on last November prevailed laws will be passed putting them into operation.

MAN HELD ON SWINDLING CHARGE CONFRONTED BY TWO WIVES AT THE COURT HOUSE SATURDAY

FIRST WIFE WITH TWO CHILDREN COMES FROM HOUSTON.

PRISONER'S GREETING IS CONFINED TO TWO WORDS

"Hello, Son", Comes From His Lips
When Carried Into Presence Of The Two Women.

Wife No. 1, with a three-year-old boy, and wife No. 3 of J. E. Whitley met in the county attorney's office in the court house Saturday afternoon. Shortly afterward the husband was also introduced and seemingly for the first time wife No. 1 believed that her husband was not the man she thought him to be.

Wife No. 2, who comes from Missouri, burst into tears and before the ordeal was over she had fallen into unconsciousness. She was revived, but was led away crying as though her heart had been broken.

Whitley said but two words while before his two wives and his little son. They were "Hello, son."

The man was arrested several days ago by operatives of the Shelton Detective Agency. He had been indicted here by the special grand jury and charged with swindling. It is alleged that he secured $700 from a lady here upon false documents.

Traced to Kansas City. He was traced to Kansas City, Mo., where it was discovered that he had married a girl whom he had met here in Wichita Falls at a rooming house where both resided. He was arrested in Florida and brought to this city.

His first wife came to Wichita Falls Friday evening, and when Whitley was ushered into the room she immediately began to tell him her opinion of him. He took it all in without uttering a sound. In fact, he seemed highly distressed on account of the weeping of his second wife whom he married only a month ago. Mrs. Whitley came here from Houston where she has resided. She brought her three-year-old son and a two-month-old baby with her. She told that her husband had promised to meet her on November 15, stating in his letter that he had made some money and was coming back to live with her and his children and support them. She informed him of this fact in her one-sided conversation.

Wanted in Other Cities. It is stated by county officials that Whitley is wanted in half a dozen different places in the country. Among the places are Colorado Springs, Houston, Beaumont and one or two other Texas cities. In each place he is alleged to have committed the act of swindling or passing bad checks.

It is further alleged that he is also a deserter from the army and that army officials have been seeking him for over a half a year. While in the county jail here it is said that he wrote a letter to each of his two wives, stating that the newspapers had circulated the story that he had two wives, but that it wasn't true and if either of them heard of such rumors that they should not believe it.

It appears that Whitley, after his marriage to his second wife visited at the home of his wife's parents and there, it is alleged, he succeeded in getting $500 from a brother of the wife. The brother is in the city, but was not present at the three cornered meeting Saturday afternoon in the county attorney's office.

As yet no additional charges besides the swindling charges have been placed against him.

Perkins-Timberlake Inaugurate Holiday Season on Saturday

The Christmas season was inaugurated Saturday night by a formal Christmas opening at the big store of Perkins-Timberlake and as customers and sight-seers wandered through the broad aisles and gazed admiringly at the holiday goods displayed on every hand, Templeton's orchestra scattered melody upon the air.

The walls and higher fixtures were decorated with the red and green of holly and mistletoe and poinsettias and ruscus leaves, interspersed with glittering frost, and the dark mahogany of the store fixtures contrasted sharply with the snowy whiteness of the walls and pillars.

On the second floor were things of peculiar interest to women. At the front of the second floor was a tiny room which contained in bewildering array such things as delight the little people. There were carts and wooden horses and woolly sheep and poodles and elephants and bears and houses and boats and furniture, all in miniature, and tooting horns and drums and books and blocks gay with color and fairly bursting with potential noise.

Special Service. On the mezzanine floor, upon which the orchestra was placed, is a counter bearing the legend "Wrapping Service", and here at all times till the arrival of that day which is sacred to the patron saint of children, will be an expert parcel wrapper who will wrap for mailing, all parcels presented. The goods may have come from this store or from any other or may be home-made. No questions will be asked, but the parcel will be prepared for mailing, without money and without price.

One of the centers of attraction was Master Billy Frank Glenn, aged three years, who had come to the opening and declined to go home until he had seen the orchestra depart.

Billy Frank has a dancing foot and when the music sounded his feet started to move and it kept moving till the last strain of each piece was played. Very sedately he danced, and seemed entirely unconscious of the gaze of the spectators who kept a ring formed about him which grew thicker as each musical number progressed and which melted when it finished, only to reform when the next number started. Between the numbers the tot's mother urged him to go home but Billy Frank shook his flaxen head and protested, till when he saw the members of the orchestra filing out with their instruments in their hands he gave a sigh of contentment as one who realizes the end of a perfect day, and placing his hand within that of his mother, he gravely departed.

JOHNSON NAMED TO ATTEND CONVENTION

Will Represent Local Real Estate Operators At State Meeting in San Antonio.

At a meeting of local real estate operators held Saturday at the chamber of commerce rooms B. F. Johnson was named as a delegate to the convention in San Antonio December 12-14 of the Texas Association of Real Estate Boards.

The Texas Association of Real Estate Boards has in preparation a bill which would license every real estate dealer in Texas. In the judgment of a number of local realtors this measure will save thousands of dollars to the legitimate operators, and will curb the activities of "curbstone" brokers who are interested only in turning over quick sales on small commissions and who have no intention of giving genuine service on a permanent basis.

Nat L. Ingle and Guy C. Haley were named a committee to raise sufficient money to defray Johnson's expenses as delegate from this city, the money to be pro-rated among the established real estate operators here.

ASK INJUNCTION TO RESTRAIN WOODMEN

Oklahoma Attorney General Would Bar Universal Camp Certificate And Juvenile Policy.

OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLA., Dec. 4.—Attorney General S. P. Freeling, in District court here today filed an injunction restraining the Woodmen of the World from selling certain classes of insurance on complaint of A. L. Welch, state insurance commissioner.

The petition alleges the fraternal organization is issuing two types of policy—the universal camp certificate and the "juvenile policy." Freeling charges these policies are in violation of both state law and the constitution and by-laws of the organization itself.

It is charged these policies are being issued through Security Degree camp No. 70, which is alleged not to be organized or chartered in compliance with the W. O. W. executive office. It is alleged policies are sold to persons other than members of the lodge without proper medical examinations.

The juvenile policies are sold children under 16, the petition alleges.

Freeling asks the camp be prevented from issuing further policies of the type outlined above, and that the camp be made to cancel policies already issued and refund the money to policy holders.

CUTS WIFE'S THROAT AND THEN KILLS HIMSELF

CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—The fifteen-month-old child of John and Marie Steticka slept quietly in its crib while the father cut Marie Steticka's throat with a razor and then killed himself in the same manner.

Questions Whether Independent Man is Getting the Grapes

O. C. Jensen, president of the Sunshine State Oil & Refining Company is wondering if the independent producer who is charging the independent refiner a premium on crude is "getting the grapes" after all. He is of the opinion that they are cutting their own throats and in a statement to The Times Saturday expressed himself as follows:

"Why should the independent producer discriminate against the independent refiner when he realizes that he could benefit himself much more by giving him a 'fifty-fifty' play with the Standard? Can't these fellows see what they are coming to?"

"They are now forcing the independent refiners to pay the premium by stating that they will turn over all their crude to the Standard or its subsidiaries if the independents refuse to pay the premium. The result is that the independents have got to pay the premium instead of the posted price if they want to keep running. As things stand now, many of the independent refiners have been forced to close their plants while those which are operating are barely breaking even and some are even said to be operating at a loss.

"If these refiners, which are now operating, should be forced to close, where would the independent producer get off? The Standard will then be able to make its own price and the producer could be made to deliver his crude at $2 a barrel if the Standard said so. This has happened before and can happen again.

"Why the mid-continent producers can't see this is beyond me. The independent refiners are not looking for any preference, but they do think they should get an even break with the others as it will benefit the producer in the long run."

Mr. Jensen thinks that if the looked for drop in price of posted crude does not come before the first of the year there will be no drop at all and he is inclined to believe that the drop will not come. However, he does look for an advance in the price of refined products after the first of the year.

"Laughing Gas" is Administered to Force Confession

KANSAS CITY, MO., Dec. 4.—With the statement today that "laughing gas" was administered Friday to Dennis Chester, held in the general hospital here for alleged connection with the death of Miss Florence Barton, without the knowledge of the police department, Chief Scott Godley today began an investigation of the affair.

Chief Godley termed the anesthetic experiments made upon Chester by physicians as "inhuman treatment."

Instructions were issued that Dr. W. L. Gist, superintendent of the hospital, shall be permitted to make no more experiments.

Chief of Detectives Robert Phelan also stated today that he had granted no permission to use such methods to make Chester talk. Phelan added that anything Chester might say while under influence of gas would not be used against him.

Another attempt to make Chester talk was made at the hospital today but the "laughing gas" was eliminated. A small quantity of ether was used, it was said.

COLD SPRING BANKER IS KILLED IN AN ACCIDENT

HOUSTON, TEXAS, Dec. 4.—Emmanuel McMurray, vice president of the San Jacinto State bank at Cold Springs, Texas, was almost instantly killed late last night when a motor struck him as he was crossing a street.

BOMB EXPLOSIONS REPORTED IN MANY SECTIONS OF SPAIN

MADRID, Dec. 4.—Bomb explosions are reported in many sections of Spain, considerable damage being done in various cities last evening.

At midnight an infernal machine exploded on the window sill of the place of the archbishop of Sevilla. Bombs were thrown at the house of a handworker near Granada.

Two flour mills in this city were shattered by explosions attributed to striking bakers.

Reports from Verona state a general strike has begun there.

AUSTIN, Dec. 3.—The medical school of the University of Texas may be removed from Galveston only by a vote of the people of this state, the attorney general held today. A committee appointed by the last legislature to investigate the desirability of relocating the medical college in some other city, has practically completed its work but has made no report.

NEWS FROM THE COURTS

THREE PRISONERS REMOVED TO STATE PENITENTIARY

Three prisoners of the county jail, who were sentenced to the state penitentiary last Saturday afternoon in the custody of Bud Russell, a representative of the Huntsville state penitentiary. Mr. Russell was making a trip through the various counties in this part of the state taking all those convicted and sentenced to the state institution.

WILL ASK FOR NEW TRIALS IN THE CASE OF REX CHANDLISH

A letter written to a district official from the father of Rex Chandlish was introduced Saturday afternoon in the 17th district court when the defendant appeared before the judge for sentence to be pronounced. Chandlish was found guilty by a jury of the charge of assault with intent to murder and sentenced to serve two years in the state penitentiary.

NO ADDITIONAL DEPUTIES ARE NAMED BY SHERIFF

Sheriff Fred Smith late Saturday afternoon stated that thus far he had made no more appointments, but that he would make others the first of the coming week. He stated that it would be impossible to do the work with the number of deputies he had already appointed. The deputy sheriff at Burkburnett has not been named as yet, but it is believed that one of the first appointments will be for an officer at this place. There are two applications for the position, it is understood.

Just Folks

Seems like he lived his life to see Just how much a man can be. A helpful feller—that's his style. Makin' things easier all the while. Even the dogs would jump to him With splintered foot or broken limb. As though they understood an' knew. That something for 'em he would do.

Trouble? He never spoke the word! At least nobody ever heard Him utter one complaint that he was overtasked. He seemed to be Delighted if you asked for aid. As if he knew that he had made Your path a little easier, then He was the happiest of men.

When folks were sick, to him we'd go Because we knew that he would know Just how they would best be soothed. As we'd have done, if only we Were half-way like him. But we found Life easier with him around. We let him do the things we knew Down in our hearts we ought to do.

Side Talks

"Bad Samaritans." Did you ever hear of a Bad Samaritan? The phrase is a letter-friend's. She uses it to describe the kind of people who give you a boost with one hand and a slap with the other.

"Well a year or two ago she was taken seriously ill and had to give up and be removed to a hospital, and the bad Samaritans in the parson's church workers entered her house, put it in order, and looked after her brother. That of course was good Samaritanism, but the bad Samaritans came in—they have talked about the condition of that house ever since (behind her back) while receiving her overflowing gratitude for their help."

"I know a woman who, when she goes to a certain friend's house to visit, always says, 'Now what can I do to help you?' The friend, a busy woman with three small children, (the other has none) in the midst of the spirit of good Samaritanism in which she is apparently made, and lets her visitor help. Whereupon the first woman of civic dolerism, who has the best So-and-so she has to get nearly all the meals."

Still another woman invites guests to her house, insists upon their letting her wait upon them by inches, and then complains of the way they have lived her out. Samaritanism, to be good Samaritanism, must be consistent. One can scarcely imagine the original good Samaritan demanding his money back with interest, or going about hinting that the man who fell among thistles was pretty drunk when the accident happened to him.

Real good Samaritanism is charity in the big beautiful sense of that word, and as you may remember, "Charity thinketh—and speaketh—no evil."

WHY?

Is an airplane used called a "hangar"? (Copyright, 1920, by Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

So widespread has become the new "language of the air," that we now speak of a "hangar" almost as familiarly as we do of a garage, but it is doubtful if any word ever made the rounds of romantic meaning more thoroughly than this French term. In the original French usage, the word means nothing more than a shed where vehicles are stored, and it has been so used in England for many years past. The common derivation of both the English and French terms is the Latin "angarium," or blacksmith shop, which, in turn, comes from "angaria," a station for the dispatch of horses of the Roman empire. Delving still further back into the ancestry of the term, we find that "angaria" is descended from a Persian word meaning "messengers," which has the same root as the Greek word from which "angel" is derived. "Angar" is used in the Scriptures as the name of the winged messengers of God, so the word "hangar" has therefore passed through the centuries until it has finally come to be understood in the name of the resting-place for the winged vehicles of men.

RIPLING RHYMES BY WALT MASON. Desemellars. I used to find my evenings cheering, a time for reading and repose; but since, I have been profiteering I've lost all taste for things like those. I'll come home tired, from basket labor, and when the evening meal is done, there would blow them steering in my direction any more; in a bunch of neighbors, and we'd indulge in harmless fun. Alas, I do not see since I got busy profiteering they all insist that I'm a bore. Each day I'm bringing home the bacon, I put another wedge in mine; but I am lonely and forgotten, and how I miss those friends of mine! In other times the evening found me gay as a monarch on his throne; with all my loving suite and me I'd sit and play. Our graphophones, then hearts were glad and smiles were sunny, and laughter made the windows shake; but now my thoughts are all of money, of civic dolerism, and when I care no more for helpful reading, the birds don't stir me worth a cent, to busy marts my thoughts are speeding, on useless schemes of profit bent. Old ways, old dreams are trampled under by this late mania of mine; then man whose mind is fixed on plunder gets out of touch with all that's fine.

HOROSCOPE

The stars indicate but do not compel. (Copyright, 1918, by The Astrological News Service.) Sunday, December 5, 1920. This should be a fortunate day, according to astrology. The Sun and Neptune are in benefic aspect. Venus is adverse. Most activities today the stars are favorable, making for friendly inture, pleasant companionship and serene mind. It is a fortunate away under which to visit friends and relatives, especially those whose favor is especially advantageous. The churches should benefit from this away, which makes the mind alert and quick to accept good influences. Preachers should find congregations exceedingly responsive. There is a sign read as presaging great discoveries of oil from which Americans will benefit. While the stars seem to preange new wealth from oil, the signs indicate, also, extension of its use to an unprecedented degree. The seers foretell that scientific investigation is to take the place of psychic experiments to such an extent that absolute knowledge concerning occult things will be attained. Women are subject to unfeeling influences today. They should avoid inattentive in all important matters. It is not a lucky day for love affairs and engagements made today are not likely to be lasting. Marriage laws are to be assailed and there is to be agitation concerning existing conditions, the seers forecast. Warning is given that women will incur serious criticism by business methods that are different from the established code. All the signs seem to indicate great progress on the part of women in business. One will attain supreme place as a financier. A political leader among the new voters will achieve fame, owing to some radical movement which she will lead. Persons whose birthdate it is should pursue an even way during the coming year. Those who are employed will be promoted. Children born of this day will be fortunate in their undertakings. Girls have the augury of romantic and happy marriage. New residents and new business enterprises are coming to the Wichita Falls district week by week. The City National Bank of Commerce welcomes them and extends to them the facilities of its various well organized departments, assuring the most helpful service in the handling of any banking matters.

ELECT OFFICERS OF THE INTERSCHOLASTIC LEAGUE OF COUNTY

On March 22, the interscholastic league of Wichita county will hold its meet at the Iowa Park school. This was the decision reached at the meeting of the league held Saturday afternoon in the office of the county superintendent.

Officers were elected as follows: Director-general, W. R. Bradford, superintendent of schools at Iowa Park; director of debates, Miss Frankie Sheppard, teacher of English in the Burkhardt high school; director of declamations, J. R. Slavicek, principal of the Electra high school; director of spelling, W. F. Lewis, essay writing, Miss Bessie P. Dunner; director of athletics, P. M. Brickley; and director of rural schools, E. W. Cutler.

The final games of the basketball championship are to be held on January 15, and the best team in the county will be sent to the district meet. A schedule of the basketball games between the various schools will be given soon.

On March 22, all contests in the county will be decided. Much interest was shown at the gathering Saturday afternoon and a discussion was had as to the benefits which will be derived from these various contests.

The meeting was called by Superintendent of Schools Burt Bryant, and seven teachers and principals were in attendance.

MACCABEES ELECT OFFICERS AT MEETING WEDNESDAY

The Knights of the Maccabees met in regular business session Wednesday evening, and elected the following officers:

Commander, J. M. Martin; lieutenant commander, W. A. McClintock; recorder, A. L. Wallers; physician, Dr. D. Meredith; chaplain, W. S. Underwood; sergeant, W. T. Crouch; master-at-arms, C. M. Duke; first master guard, C. F. Friede; second master guard, L. C. Cole; sentinel, W. A. Soule; picket, J. H. Martin; trustee, three-year term, W. W. Burns.

A social meeting followed the business session, during which refreshments were served. The knights decided during the business session to make certain changes and improvements in the hall which will enable the W. B. A.'s, the women's auxiliary of the lodge, to hold their meetings there also. They have been meeting in the homes of members.

COMMITTEE MEETS TUESDAY TO ARRANGE MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

A meeting of the local committee of the University of Texas Ex-Students' association will be held Tuesday at 4:30 in the offices of Weeks, Morrow, Francis and King in the Commercial building to discuss plans for the coming membership drive. The committee includes Orville Bullington, Charles Francis, Raymond Myers, Warren Dale, Miss Willie Mae Kelt, L. H. Buchanan, W. J. Townsend, R. F. Bailey, Martin Alday, Mrs. Carter McGregor, Miss Lila Boone and Miss Jennie Morgan.

Mr. Francis, secretary of the local organization, has requested that all ex-students of the university send in their names, addresses and telephone numbers by Tuesday with the statement as to whether or not they are members of the association. This roster is to be used as a basis for the drive.

Thursday will be known as "Loyalty Day," and the slogan for the day is "Five thousand new members of the Ex-Students' association in five hours." The drive is being conducted throughout the state.

ODD FELLOWS TO CONFER THE INITIATORY DEGREE

The Odd Fellows will confer the Initiatory Degree upon a large class at the hall Monday night, and give a report of the good time the 73 members had who went to Bowie last Monday. On the Bowie trip they had full charge of the train, and two of its members were dressed in regalia. They took Bowie by storm, but were welcomed with a brass band. One of those from Wichita Falls was arrested and taken to the city hall, but as the charge could not be proven the cause was dismissed and they went on their way rejoicing.

The members were made somewhat nervous by reason of one of the Bowie members announcing in the lodge to please be careful, since the lodge room had never been put to such a severe test, and that stranger things had happened than to have a building collapse. However, it withstood the ordeal, even if two of the members from Wichita Falls did get cold feet and return on an early train.

All had the time of their life, and the spread had tasted was much enjoyed. It was there that the members learned that one of their number had served as toastmaster on occasions here, and another had served on an interesting criminal jury trial here.

The encampment is not expected to meet Thursday night, but is giving way to the Jokers, and will meet on Tuesday night, December 14, instead, which night the K. of P. will give up.

MRS. MARY BELLE HALE HOSTESS FOR B. O. P. CLASS

Mrs. Mary Belle Hale was hostess for the B. O. P. class of Floral Heights church at a light luncheon and business meeting last Wednesday. After a short business session the time was spent doing needle work. Refreshments were served to Mesdames J. E. Schube, Ralph Penn, D. L. Fritz, W. L. Naylor, Wilbur Lea, Joe Stokes, Paul Cotner, D. A. Burkett, P. S. Richardson, Glenn Berry, W. H. Richardson, James H. Hill, Paul Hathorn, W. Gilmore, O. E. Narroon and S. M. Black.

On account of other plans future regular meetings will be postponed until after Christmas.

FIRE CHIEF SAYS MUST STOP CARS

Notice is Given That Heavy Fines Will Result From Interfering With Department.

Fire Chief J. L. McClure is serving notice on the public in general and motorists in particular that failure to clear the streets for the department, while the trucks are answering an alarm, will cost a heavy fine in the police court.

This announcement came close on the heels of the arrest Saturday afternoon of R. L. Caywood, truck driver for the Moore Sheet Metal Works, who came within a hair's breadth of causing a second serious accident to the chief's fire truck. Saturday's near disaster started as an exact duplicate of the collision last Tuesday, when a fireman was slightly injured and the small roadster used by the chief was badly damaged, for it occurred at the same street intersection, Travis and Ninth, at precisely the same hour of the day.

No damage resulted in the last affair for the driver of the fire truck swerved far to the left of the street, grazing the commercial truck and running his own machine up onto the boulevard. However, Chief McClure was so incensed that he stopped the car, leaving the fire to be cared for by other members of the department, and arrested Caywood on the spot. The latter was taken to the police station where a charge of interfering with the fire department was lodged against him. He was released under bond for appearance for trial Monday morning.

F. A. Tindell, driver of the commercial truck which caused the smashup last Tuesday, is now out on $100 bond and is scheduled to appear for trial Monday also.

In commenting on his action the fire chief declared that there is no cause whatsoever for the foolish action of auto drivers in attempting to beat the fire apparatus across street intersections. Neither are there grounds for the excuse that the fire wagons can not be heard approaching, for each and every truck is equipped with large bells and sirens that can be heard for blocks. These warnings are in constant operation while the truck is running to a fire and drivers are given ample time to draw over to the curb. Chief of Police Huff has promised to aid in every possible way in the work to eliminate this practice of the public in disputing the right of way with the fire department, and he joins with Chief McClure in asserting that it will go hard with any one who interferes in the future with the progress of the fire trucks.

The alarm which McClure was answering Saturday afternoon was turned in from the corner of Brook and Eighth streets where a small blaze was discovered in the rear of a residence. No damage resulted.

PROF. CLARK IS TO ADDRESS INSTITUTE

On Program For Meeting Of Educators Of Five Counties At Quannah, December 18.

Lee Clark, superintendent of the local school system, has been placed on the program of the North Texas Teachers' Institute, which the educators of five counties in the Panhandle are to hold in Quannah on December 18, according to an announcement made Saturday. His subject has not been announced.

This honor accorded Mr. Clark not only reflects favorably on himself but on the local school system as well, for the northern institute is one of the largest and most important ones held in Texas.

These institutes are required by state law, which says that "a conference of all public school teachers shall be held between September 15 and January 1, these same conferences to be at least five days in length." Each county is granted the privilege of determining the date and they are also given their choice of three different methods. Five separate meetings may be held on five separate days, each meeting to last one day, or they may be held continuously for the required five days. The conference may also be strictly county affairs, or a number of counties may band together in joint sessions. It is this latter method, employed by a group of five counties, that Mr. Clark is to address.

The method employed in Wichita county is the first mentioned, namely, five one day meetings at different dates. The local authorities are exceeding the required annual amount, however, and have been averaging nine meetings yearly. The next conference is to be held Saturday, December 18.

The building program of the schools is progressing rapidly, according to reports from the officers, and it is hoped to have the six rooms now under process of construction at the Austin school, ready for occupancy by the close of the holidays. The new wing is practically complete now and needs nothing but the interior finishing. This will give accommodations for an additional 200 students.

BIRTHDAY PARTY IN HONOR OF MARY ELIZABETH SMITH

In honor of the eighth birthday of their daughter, Mary Elizabeth, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Smith gave a birthday party at their home at 1100 Denver street Saturday afternoon. Games were played and a program of music and readings was given by the children who attended. The decorations were in green and red. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Those who attended the delightful event were Robert Dillard, Jack Dillard, Margaret Norwood, Ted Norwood, Marie Browning, Carlys Norwood, Dorothy Davis, Aaron Kruger, W. J. Hawthorn, Jamie Hawthorne, Lona Gessie McGee, Mildred Reid, Francis Reid, Lida Lee, E. M. DRUNKS KEEP THE CITY FORCE BUSY

Seven Arrests Made During Saturday By Members Of Police Department.

Disciples of John Barleycorn were out in force Saturday afternoon and made a busy three hours for the cops at the city hall, who landed five joyful inebriates in the linkup between the hours of 1 and 4 o'clock. Two others were arrested before noon.

Two of the drunks were captured in the flats, while three others were taken into custody on complaint of the proprietor of a tent hotel in the southern part of the city. When searched at the police station each one of the individuals disgorged at least one bottle of Jamaica Ginger, while two of the prisoners had small flasks of hair tonic on their person. The last man to be arrested was violent and resisted the efforts of five officers to subdue him.

Each member of the quartet was locked up in the special detention cell on the ground floor of the city hall, and late in the afternoon officials were being entertained by an endless concert of "music," solos, duets, quartets and choruses, vociferous exhortations and violent bursts of oratory.

This is the largest number of intoxication cases that the police have been called upon to handle in one day for some time.

DENY MOTION OF SUDDETH FOR NEW TRIAL OF CASE

Motion for a new trial by counsel for W. S. Suddeth was not granted in the 30th district court at Henrietta Saturday afternoon, according to a statement from District Attorney Fletcher S. Jones.

Suddeth was found guilty by a jury of the murder of Matt Perkins, a service car driver last Tuesday and was sentenced to serve five years in the state penitentiary.

CAMPBELL ESCAPES FROM THE COUNTY

Man Sentenced To Penitentiary Makes Getaway While Serving As Trusty.

Artabon Campbell, a trusty at the county jail in a prisoner at large, having escaped from the county institution, it was learned Saturday afternoon. The prisoner had been sentenced to two years in the state penitentiary on the charge of having robbed the upstairs Garment Shop last August. He pleaded guilty to the charge in the district court last month and a penalty of two years was assessed.

He had been made a trusty around the jail and last Monday morning he carried out a can full of trash from the jail and dumped it at the end of the walk just as he had done many mornings previous to that time. An officer accompanied him part of the way. While the officer was watching him do the errand, a boy came along passing circulars and handed the officer one. He started to read it and when he looked up he saw Campbell fleeing down the street. Pursuit was made but he effected his escape in an alley by going through an open garage door which he closed and fastened behind him.

A thorough search was made of the premises where he disappeared and strict watch was made in the city but no trace of the prisoner was found.

HUNTER IS TRANSFERRED TO PLAIN CLOTHES SQUAD

P. T. Hunter, formerly sergeant of the local police force, has been transferred to the plain clothes squad and is now giving all of his time to the prosecution of the anti-vag campaign which city officials have launched. Hunter has accomplished decidedly satisfactory results already, having arrested and convicted some dozen or more vagrants and habitual loafers around domino and soft drink parlors.

A. M. Barnes has been appointed sergeant in Hunter's place and is in charge of the local patrol squads.

This Is the Season of Closed Cars

We have a model of MARMON 34, seven-passenger Sedan and of our MARMON Coupe now on our floor. We invite your special attention to these new models.

Even a hasty examination of the Marmon Sedan and Coupe will to an extent reveal their quality. For, in a motor car as in a man, inner character is outwardly shown in many ways. But no careful buyer will accept a car upon this evidence alone. He should study those deeper values which are proved, not by examination but by performance; and not by performance only but by the record of the car in the hands of its owners! Take at least as much pains to investigate the Marmon as you would to learn the qualifications of any other servant you expect to employ in your family. If you will do this, you will learn that Marmon really is the car with a longer life, and the car with less trouble and more genuine satisfaction during all the years of that long life!

Yuletide is close at hand. Either of these models would make not only a handsome present, but one that would be appreciated and serve your wife or your family well through these winter months ahead.

Income Tax Savings

Now is the time for all taxpayers who had an income of over $5.00 from community property in 1919, who have not paid their last installments, due December 15th, to make amended returns. If you do not do this before you pay this installment, you will be at a disadvantage. The saving is large and if you will communicate with us at once, we will take pleasure in explaining this in detail.

Nation's Water Power Essential To Industry

INTERIOR OF A GREAT NIAGARA POWER STATION. NEW YORK STATE WITH FEWER, MORE-POWERFUL DEVELOPMENT AREAS THAN THE COUNTRY IN UTILIZING ITS "WHITE COAL" RESOURCES.

A CHARACTERISTIC COAL CAR IN ALASKA. THE CAUSES OF INCREASED FUEL COST WHICH IS MAKING WATER-POWER DEVELOPMENT ESSENTIAL TO INDUSTRY.

A 90,000 HORSE-POWER HYDRO-ELECTRIC PLANT ON THE FEATHER RIVER, CALIFORNIA—THE STATE WITH A TOTAL OF 942,000 HORSE-POWER IS A CLOSE SECOND TO NEW YORK.

ELECTRIC LOCOMOTIVE IN SUCCESSFUL TEST-OF-WAR WITH TWO STEAM MOGULS. HYDRO-ELECTRIC TRACTION FOR RAILROADS IS MUCH MORE POWERFUL AND ECONOMICAL THAN STEAM.

GREAT CATARACT IN ALASKA—THE TERRITORY HAS VAST WATER POWER RESOURCES NOT YET EVEN SURVEYED.

By FRANCIS H. BISSON,
Vice-President of Guaranty Trust Co. of New York.

THE increased costs of fuel and the state of available fuel reserves are forcing upon attention as never before upon the need of more economical power. According to the latest report of the Federal Reserve Bank, the fuel supply continues to be the most limited character and much more energetic action is necessary if industrial conditions are to be made safe for the coming winter.

Probably the most significant post-war achievement in American industry is to be the development on a large scale of the nation's vast water-power. With the revival of normal industrial activity by the former belligerents, competition in the world's markets will become increasingly severe. Economy in the application of power to the production and transportation of goods will in large part measure the competitive ability of the various nations.

Water-power, therefore, will have a new significance as a national asset. It is estimated that the United States has the means for effecting a saving in its energy supply of well over a billion dollars a year, for the most part through fuller utilization of its water-power.

The Federal Government's control of the development and use of water-power has been liberalized by the recent Water-Power Act. Already there is under way a survey of the power resources of the Atlantic Seaboard between Boston and Washington by the United States Geological Survey under the special direction of Congress.

A proposed plan of development in this region is being considered, whereby, through the co-ordination of hydro-electric enterprises with steam generation of electricity in the mine fields and at convenient points elsewhere, an estimated saving of $500,000,000 annually is to be effected.

It is in the possible reduction of the proportionate reliance of the industries and the transportation systems upon bituminous coal for energy that water-power development promises the greatest economies. The price of bituminous coal at the mines has increased about 175 per cent since 1914.

Eventually, we shall be compelled to supplement and in large measure supplant the use of coal and petroleum through the development and utilization of the nation's vast water-power. Once installed, hydro-electric plants are operated at comparatively low cost.

The principal progress in this region promises to be the linking of scattered water-powers in comprehensive undertakings, including the co-ordination of carbon-electric with hydro-electric undertakings.

Fortunately those regions, generally speaking, which are without coal are best supplied with potential water-power. By linking steam generating plants at the mouths of coal mines with hydro-plants great areas may be economically supplied with power.

It is by no means an untried field into which capital is invited by the fuel problem and the liberalization of the Federal Government's control of water-power development. The growth in water-power installations in recent years, despite certain deterrent influences, is suggestive of the progress which it is reasonable to expect in the near future.

In 1901, when the Federal legislation was enacted under which most of the water-power development of the country has taken place, there was less than 2,000,000 horse-power at the beginning. It is estimated that at the beginning of 1920 the development reached 9,823,540 horse-power, or one-sixth of the maximum potential resources. The Atlantic States lead the country in water-power development. Among the individual States New York holds first place, with 361,234 horse-power development, California, with 242,000 horse-power, is second, and Maine, with 750,000 horse-power, is third.

Estimates of potential water-power vary, according to the bases upon which they are made. The maximum flow is taken by the Geological Survey to be that amount the continuance of which for six months of the year may be assured. On this basis the estimated potential water-power of the United States is 50,300,000 horse-power.

Generally speaking, more than three-quarters of the potential water-power of New England has already been developed; in the remainder of the country east of the Rockies roughly one-third is developed, and in the Far West about one-sixteenth is in use. While, then, most of the water-power awaiting development is in the Far West, where 65 per cent of the potential power is found, the center and eastern States also have immense power resources not yet brought into use.

And Alaska possesses vast water-power resources which have not as yet been surveyed. It is estimated, however, that there is water-power available in such quantity in the Territory as eventually to assure great industrial development in Alaska.

Although not the first large-scale electric transmission development in point of time, the electrification of portions of various trunk line railroads has demonstrated the practicability of this method of providing motive power.

Mountain sections of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway, for example, have been electrified. The service has been improved thereby and the volume of the tonnage hauled has been increased, one electric locomotive taking the place of four steam locomotives. The Butte, Anaconda & luciferous relatives as the cause for the act.

Pacific Railway is reported to have accomplished with 17 electric locomotives work which had formerly required 26 steam locomotives of the mastedon type. Similar results have been achieved by the electrification of a part of the Norfolk and Western system.

The superiority of the electric motor over the steam locomotive is no longer in doubt. The steam engine is a wasteful consumer of fuel at best and especially in low temperatures. The locomotive, moreover, consumes much of its fuel when "standing by" and in descending grades. It must carry supplies of fuel and water with it, and its operation requires an excessive amount of labor. On the other hand, the electric motor ceases to consume energy when idle and is even made to utilize the momentum of its train in descending grades to feed electric current back into the line. It is not burdened with the carrying of the source of its energy, and its superior effectiveness on grades saves time and permits heavier loading of trains.

In the Pacific States there has been a remarkable development in the construction of long-distance power lines fed with current from a great number of stations. Through the consolidation of utilities and the interconnection of systems there is now in California, from a practical operating point of view, but one vast system, with lines reaching from the Oregon border to Mexico, over a distance of 800 miles, with 75 hydro-electric and 47 steam plants and 7,200 miles of high tension transmission lines. The installed capacity of the system is 78,000 kilowatts, and approximately 900,000 consumers are served.

It is worthy of note that the applications of electricity outside the field of transportation and lighting are rapidly expanding.

The new water-power legislation is, in part, an outgrowth of the changed conditions and has further stimulated interest in the general problem and possibilities of water-power development in this country. Heretofore the privilege of using the national forests or other public lands for water-power development has been conferred by the Department of Agriculture or the Department of the Interior. The privileges have been granted through the issuance of permits for no definite period and revocable at the will of the granting authority.

The new law creates a Federal Power Commission, composed of the Secretary of War, Interior and Agriculture. The Commission is authorized to issue licenses for works on the public domain, in national forests and on navigable rivers for a period not exceeding 50 years. At the expiration of a license it may be renewed, or a new license may be issued, or the Government may take over the enterprise upon compensation of the license for the net investment in property used in the generation and transmission of power other than the franchise. The law was signed on June 11, and by the middle of July applications for licenses to develop more than 1,000,000 horse-power had been filed.

DENNIS ELECTED CAPTAIN OF LONGHORN FOOTBALL TEAM FOR NEXT YEAR

AUSTIN, TEXAS, Dec. 4.—Tom Dennis of Cleburne, who played tackle for the Texas University football team, has been elected captain of the 1921 squad by his team mates. In addition to his work on both the offense and defense in the line, Dennis was the Longhorn punter, and is considered by some sport writers as All-Southern tackle. Football letters were awarded to Jones, Hulse, Gray, Hill, Vowell, Green, Dennis, McCullough, Moore, Hart, Elam, Watson, McCullum, Lelander, Tynes, Ellis, Barry and Dominguez.

Work, Play, Politics THE TIMES WOMAN'S PAGE—A SUMMARY News and Reviews

Strictly Entre Nous

By L. M. D.

It isn't what the hands can hold, that build our old-age peace; Nor what the arms can reach out for; not fame, nor gain, nor gold; Not a rainbow-colored, that may capture happiness; And save a shining bit of it, for years when we are old.

It isn't costly things that we may buy, and put away In coffers, or in lavender; these things all have their hours. But they may not go with us on the long, lone road; they catch Their cue, and play their little part; then perish, like the flowers.

Oh, it is not what we may grasp, and clutch our fingers round, Not things that Youth and Strife may pile about our eager feet; It's what we give, and share, and live, and love, with other lives— That we can store up in our hearts, that make the old years sweet.

Leather was used as money in the reign of Peter the Great.—Denison Herald. History repeats itself.

Strawberries can now be kept sufficiently fresh for jam making by freezing for a period of months.—Shreveport Times.

If we knew anybody who would freeze a fresh ripe strawberry to make jam months later we would probably be able to learn the component parts of that diet.

Chop Suey. The New York authorities are going to investigate the chop suey establishments in this city. They will probably be able to learn the component parts of that diet.

There are many who don't object to being shaved—provided the shaver is handling the cabinet.—San Angelo Standard.

William Allen Delivers a Warning. The editorial in the Tribune, which is edited by a man so thin he has to wear a pair of glasses, is a warning to the editors of the Tribune.

Dry Leader Runs to Death—Headline. We wouldn't be facetious about such a thing. The headline suggests that a little dampness might have saved Chafin's life.

A professor in a Kansas college asserts that the average American male has the mentality of a 13-year-old boy. He spent seven years in research.

SENIORS ARE HONOR GUESTS OF SOPHS AT Y. W. FRIDAY. Members of the senior class of the local high school were entertained in royal fashion by the sophomores at the same institution at a social held in the Y. W. C. A. rooms last Friday evening.

The social was arranged by Joe Paschall, president of the sophomore class and Dorothy Walters, chairwoman of the social committee. A short program, given by various members of the two classes was followed by an hour of dancing. The affair was concluded with the serving of refreshments.

The Y. W. C. A. rooms were adorned with blue and silver decorations, which were the sophomore class colors, while the program cards and even the refreshments carried the same color scheme.

The program which was thoroughly enjoyed by the 125 persons present was as follows:

- 1. Welcome Sentences—Joe Paschall.
2. Piano solo—Stella Walters.
3. Reading—Gwendolyn Walters.
4. Saxophone solo—Myron Lyles.
5. Violin solo—Linda Kay.

MEMPHISANS MET THURSDAY WITH MRS. CROWELL ON HOSTESS. The Beta Delphians met Thursday afternoon of last week with Mrs. Chas. Crowell, 1119 Monroe, Thursday afternoon. The present included Mesdames Fred C. Barron, John C. Kay, Knight, R. A. Lincoln, E. L. McGee, J. D. Merrill, Dava Shepherd, W. E. Chaucer, and Crowell.

Interesting papers were read by Mrs. Paschall, Mrs. Lincoln, on "When and Where, Mrs. Kay, on "The Following a general discussion of the lesson, the hostess served refreshments of hot chocolate and cakes. The club was invited to meet this week with Mrs. Fred Barron, in regular social session.

Saturday Is Tag Day For Children's Home

Flowers? I love flowers! And I'll say that they are sweet: But no flower has not pink toes on soft or rose-red feet; And no flower has got arms that go up round a fellow's neck; And no flower ever tells you that it loves you 'most a peck; And no flower is so weary when the long play-day is by.

It is little human blossoms that can holler, and can run With their hands held up to greet you when your working day is done; That your eyes begin to look for when you turn into your street; And your arms begin to harken for the patter of their feet; That makes your arms reach to hold them, and your face break into smiles; It's life's little human blossoms that make glad life's weary miles.

And the blipet morning-glory—its rare blossom garnished with dew— Ain't as pretty as a baby with its hands held up to you.

I know lots of millionaires—I know about them anyhow; I know how their very presence makes me start to scrape and bow; But I never envy them none; they ain't got the things I seek; Dollars can't climb in your arms and hold their cheeks against your cheek Like a baby can, and love you; Dollars seem plum cheap and cold.

When they're put beside a baby that your arms can lift and hold; Millions are not necessary—roses may not climb your wall— But life without human blossoms ain't worth anything at all.

Washed them, dressed them, cared for them, and made them over into clean, sweet, happy little human blossoms. On Saturday morning a hundred girls and young women of Wichita Falls will be in the downtown district, each group with its captain, prepared to exchange a tag of honor for each contribution received.

But the home isn't in Wichita Falls, one woman said to Miss Henricke Friday. "There are so many local things we want to contribute to."

Yet the Children's Home and Aid under Miss Henricke's direction, has taken 43 delinquent, hungry, forsaken, orphaned, and, in some cases, humanely treated little bits of humanity out of the bottom of humanity, and set them on their feet during the past year.

Millions are not necessary—roses may not climb your wall— But life without human blossoms ain't worth anything at all.

Y. W. Plans Beautiful Commemoration; "A Candle in the Window" Christmas Eve Will Attract Sweet Christmas Carolers

A candle in the window Christmas eve this year will find a beautiful recognition, according to the plans being made by the Y. W. C. A. for the 1921 commemoration of the Christ Child's coming.

On Christmas eve groups of young singers from the Girl Reserve, the High School girls' club and the Business Women's club, assisted by other interested singers of Wichita Falls, will sing old-fashioned Christmas carols about the city, stopping at each home where a lighted candle in the window signals an invitation. The singers are practicing the carols now in various places about the city, including the "Y."

Beginning with the week before Christmas, the association will put on its Christmas clothes for its part in the Christmas celebration. The High School club will have an open vesper service at the First Christian church, with a vested choir. Christmas carols will be sung. The general public will be invited to this service.

The High School club has decided as a Christmas service to plan and contribute for a Christmas refreshment at the day nursery Tuesday, December 21. Christmas turkey and all the "fixings" will be taken to the nursery for the children. Every resident or transient in the city will be welcomed to come and rest, visit or meet friends at the association headquarters, which are centrally located, and a special welcome will be extended to young business women and employed girls of the city, as well as young men. The association and the general secretary, Miss Margaret Du Bose, wish the young people of the city to feel that the "Y" is "home" during Christmas. The carol singing will be but on part of the Christmas celebration. The festivities for members and their friends, including the half dozen or more auxiliary clubs and classes, will begin privately with the Christmas party to be given by the Business Women's club December 14, and publicly with the Y. W. C. A. Christmas party scheduled for the evening of December 17. Invitations are to be mailed to association members in advance, and a big affair is being planned. The refreshment committee, headed by Mrs. Stenwall Brown, comprising the following members: Mrs. Mendenhall, E. F. Weldon, J. S. Coyne, Culp, William Patterson, Duff and Bentley Bacon, and Miss Fay Garrison.

W. O. W. circles 1447 and 1457 met in all day session together Friday at the hall in the Schwarz-Wood building, and effected a consolidation. New officers for the new lodge, which is to be called the Durbin lodge 1457, were elected as follows:

Advisor, Mrs. Frankie McDowell; guardian, Mrs. Callie Talley; clerk, Mrs. Ruby Hart; banker, Mrs. Emma Fitzgerald; attendant, Mrs. Alvina Prang; assistant attendant, Mrs. Annie Walsh; chaplain, Mrs. Emily Walsh; past guardian, Mrs. Sarah Nantz; inner sentinel, Mrs. Fawcett Marshall; outer sentinel, Mrs. Geneva Cook; manager, three-year term, Mrs. Hulda Sherrill; manager, two-year term, Mrs. A. K. Kanaugh; manager, one-year term, Mrs. Anna McConkey; capitalist degree team, Mrs. Harriet Oakley; musician, Mrs. Louise Scott.

Mrs. Ella Durland, district deputy for whom the new circle grove is named, was an honored guest at the all-day meeting, which convened about 10 o'clock Friday morning. A big dinner was served at 12:30, and after a short social interim, the business meeting was called to order. Mrs. Durland dissolved the organization of both groves, and re-organized them into one. The election of officers was then accomplished.

The membership of the consolidated circle is about 52, and meetings will be held each Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the hall. Members were enthusiastic over the future of the grove, which business work with an unusually strong organization and an exceptional membership.

A general meeting of the new grove will be held Friday of this week, and all members are asked to be present, as important business is to be considered.

Interesting Child Visitors

Charlotte and Joe Unice, recently from Beirut, on the Mediterranean Sea, are a sparkling pair of child visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Bastard. The two children are with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Unice, who recently arrived here from New York after coming over from Syria, and who are guests at the home of their sister and brother.

Charlotte and Joe have had a rather unusually interesting bit of life crammed into their very few years. They are citizens of America, by birth in Jackson, Mississippi, eight and six respectively. Just before the outbreak of the war, Mr. and Mrs. Unice took them, babies of five and eighteen months.

Charlotte and Joe have had a rather exciting time of life the past several years, and they were probably as glad to be taken from their birthplace as good old Americans would agree several years ago. In 1914, just before the outbreak of the war, and when Joe was a young man of five months, the children were taken from their birthplace and home in Jackson, Miss., for a visit with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Unice, in Beirut. Then the war broke out, and in another few weeks their father, to escape service with the Turks on the Russian side of the world conflict, ran away to England and joined the British forces. The children and their mother remained in Beirut, and Mrs. Unice was unable after the first year to get into communication with her husband. Life in Beirut was uncertain and exciting, but the little family stayed in comparative safety with the older people, and at the close of the war, Mrs. Unice, with General Allanby's troops that took Palestine, after many weary months of fighting, he rejoined his family at once. After a sojourn of the year as it was possible, made his plans to return to America. The family returned several weeks ago, and after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Bastard will return to their old home in Jackson, Miss.

And Charlotte and Joe, after enjoying the company of a "daddy" they were separated from for four long years, will probably expect to remain in their own country for quite a long while.

They will be poured by the members of the R. O. C. class of the First Methodist church at their entertainment Tuesday evening at the church, Tenth and Lamar.

The coffee will accompany the box supper which are invited to be present. A general invitation is issued, and there will be an informal musical program and other entertainment. The boxes will be auctioned for a girls' benefit.

CIVIC LEAGUE ENTERTAINS NEW MEMBERSHIP TUESDAY, RECEPTION AT KEMP HOTEL

The Civic League will entertain its old and new membership with a reception and party at the Kemp hotel Tuesday, December 7, and a special invitation is extended to all members and all those who wish to become members of the league to be present. The affair will be in the nature of a "get acquainted" meeting, and the social committee is planning a number of attractive features for entertainment. It is the regular monthly meeting date for the league, and the social has been planned for some weeks. A very short business session will be held, during which Mrs. Sharp, secretary of the league, will give her report of the San Antonio federation meeting, to which she was a delegate from the league. The informal musical program will feature the entertainment and refreshments will be served. During the afternoon, the picture recently donated by the league for the day nursery benefit, will be auctioned off by Mr. Herman for the league. All who are interested in the picture, which is a beautiful painting of the Susquehanna valley, are invited to be present. Guests will be received from 3:00 to 5:00 o'clock.

LANDSCAPE GARDENER FOR SCHOOLGROUNDS AT ALAMO

The Alamo Home and School club voted Friday to permit its grounds improvement committee, which Mrs. Walter S. Carter is chairman, to receive bids for landscape gardening work at the Alamo school grounds at once.

Improvement of the school grounds was one of the activities decided on at the beginning of the year, when the year's budget was made, and several tentative plans have been discussed. It was decided to receive bids for certain parking work from landscape gardeners at once, and to make further decisions with regard to other outside improvements.

The club met Friday afternoon, with Mrs. L. R. Buchanan, president, in the chair. Devotional exercises were led by Mrs. E. W. Carter, and a short program was given. The numbers included a chorus by the low fifth students, directed by Miss "Bessie" Dean, report by Mrs. W. J. McAllister from the mothers' congress meeting in Dallas, a reading by Miss Mary Elizabeth Featherstone, a violin duet by Misses Margaret Bond and Harriet Brandell, and reports from Misses Ruth Staylor, Hessel Dean, Kate Haynes and J. E. Parks, who attended the state teachers' association meeting.

The treasurer reported $200 in the treasury. It was decided that a banner, each month which is the best represented by parents in the Home and School club.

GUSKIE KUEHN CELEBRATED BIRTHDAY WEDNESDAY

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Kuehn entertained for Guskie Kuehn, Jr., on his ninth birthday Wednesday past. The children played games and enjoyed company from 2 to 5 o'clock. Little Miss Mary Delaney winning a dainty bottle of perfume and John White being consoling with a Christmas card in one contest. At 5 o'clock the young guests were invited into the dining room, which was very attractive with its holiday decorations. A beautiful birthday cake centered the table, with a Santa Claus and nine lighted candles atop. Each guest was given Christmas greeting cards, after which ice cream and cake were served with fruit. Miss Edna Kuehn presided at the piano while refreshments were being partaken of and the following children spent a very delightful afternoon: "Lillian," Rosemary Ann, Mary Delaney, Edith White, Dorothy King, Frances Ward, Dorothy Ward, Katherine King, Edna Kuehn, John White, Bill Fitzgerald, Eddie Moran, Aaron Adams, Bob Young, Richard Delaney, Carlton Johnson, J. Members of W. O. W. circle 1061 gave a surprise party Wednesday afternoon for Mrs. Joe Frang, meeting at the home of Mrs. Lee McDevitt and going in a group to Mrs. Frang's home. Many beautiful little gifts were included in the miscellaneous shower, ranging from handkerchiefs to cut glass articles.

Mrs. J. V. C. Christensen left Friday evening for Denver, where she will spend a few days with her mother, Mrs. C. W. Comas.

Parties Honor Attractive Visitors

Centre—MISS THEKLA KAHN.

Right—MISS ELGIN HERRING.

Bridge luncheons, movie parties, dances and other hospitalities have honored three attractive visitors in the city the past two weeks. The young ladies are Misses Olice and Elgin Herring of Oklahoma City, house guests of Mrs. C. C. Cabiness, and Thekla Kahn, a formerly popular Wichita Falls girl who is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. and Miss Helen Stone.

Miss Kahn has been in Los Angeles with her mother, Mrs. Alex Kahn, the past two years, graduating from the University of California the past spring. She has been in Wichita Falls since the first of October, and will remain here until after the holidays. Miss Kahn has been the honor guest at a number of pretty parties, including the open house tea at the Stone home last week.

The Misses Herring will remain in the city until the last of this week, and several parties are planned for them this week. Miss Virginia Parks is entertaining in their honor with a movie luncheon Monday afternoon.

MRS. DELANEY ENTERTAINED AT BRIDGE AT KEMP HOTEL

Mrs. R. H. Delaney entertained at Kemp hotel Wednesday afternoon with a very delightful bridge party. Eight tables were arranged for the players, and at the close of the games a dainty refreshment plate of chicken salad, French pastry and delicatessen was served. After the score count the hostesses presented Mrs. F. E. Van Warner with a beautiful green ostrich fan as a high score remembrance, and a set of novelty pencils consoling Mrs. C. E. McCutcheon for ill luck. The following were guests: Mesdames J. L. McMahon, Claude Woods, J. W. DuVal, Strub Moore, T. W. Roberts, James Powers, E. Carver, Merrill Blair, H. O. Grayson, J. D. Moulder, Everett Jones, F. E. Van Warner, E. J. Bass, Harry Davis, O. F. Marchman, S. Walker, M. W. Lewis, Chas. Greenburg, Gannon, George Moulder, W. M. Moore, O. T. Mason, Bentley Bacon, J. O. Daniels, C. E. McCutcheon, Campbell, F. T. Cooper, H. A. Allen, J. C. Straus, and Lee Lucid, and Misses Grace Moulder of Chicago and Margaret McMahon.

MESDAMES MEREDITH AND BARKER ENTERTAIN FRIDAY

One of the pleasant events of the week was the social tea given Friday in honor of the D. O. D. class of the M. E. church, held at the home of Mrs. J. D. Meredith, 1605 Eleventh street, with Mesdames E. T. Barker and Meredith as joint hostesses. The class teacher, the class teacher, gave an interesting talk on the "Aim of the Class," followed by several beautiful selections on the Sonora. Mrs. W. F. Ward gave a very interesting and amusing talk on ancient Babylon. She displayed ancient Babylonian tablets, some dating back 3200 years. C. and from that up to the time of the world's destruction. Tablets were perfect, while others were chipped. One contained the record of the collection taken on a certain day and in order that the account would not be trifled with it was sealed with the Scribes official seal. It was a rare treat indeed to be allowed to handle the "Holy" Tablets. The class gave an interesting talk on "What the class might do." Miss Evelyn Barker gave a quiet reading entitled "Aunt Tabitha" and an encore gave "Fast Fun."
The house was beautifully decorated in Christmas greens and Chrysanthemums. A delicious two-course plate lunch was served and sprigs of mistletoe tied with red ribbon were the plate favors.

TWENTY-SEVEN EPWORTH LEAGUES VISIT HOLIDAY

Twenty-seven members of the Epworth League of the First Methodist church, Tenth and Lamar, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thorne, went to Holiday Friday evening to put on a "community party." About 155 leaguers from the Holiday church participated in the entertainment, and a most successful party was reported. Games were played in the school house, and refreshments served late in the evening, after which the Wichita Falls party returned here in cars. Those who went included: Misses Florence McCutcheon, Hilida Masters, Myrtle Bowman, Hazel Roberts, Elizabeth Peyton, Ora Lee Smith, Johnnie Young, Vera McCamack, Ida Baggett, Johnnie Moran, Donnie Roberts, Mrs. W. W. McCutcheon, H. Drake, Claude Ruffner, W. W. Barnes, C. T. Scott, E. A. Spear, John Duren, Baldwin Montgomery, Carroll Tillerson, Carl Hare, R. Higgins, Vernon Graves and F. M. Bass. Eight or 10 prize awards were made. A H. Drake and R. Higgins of the local party capturing a big brass safety pin (first) and a pocket watch, respectively. The games included, among others, the suit case relay race, the auto relay and the living alphabet.
This is the fifth community party the local leaguers have directed. The other four included parties at Dundee, Myers, Henrietta and Bessie. Next week a party expects to go to Archer City for the same purpose.

Stamps for sale at Times office.

The house was decorated with roses and chrysanthemums, and tables were arranged for twenty players. High score was won by Miss Sybil Kell, to whom the hostess presented a dainty French powder puff, and the consolation went to Miss Lilla Beal Anderson—a beautifully hand-embroidered handkerchief. Mrs. Weeks presented both guests with remembrance—a tinted plume gull pen to Miss Olice and a vanity set to Miss Elgin. A salad and ice course was served to the following: Misses Olice and Elgin Herring, Agnes Reed, Thekla Kahn, Helen Stone, Grace Tancred, Adele Adickes, Bessie Jackson, Sybil Kell, Lilla Beal Anderson, Marion Maser, Virginia Parks, Louise Friesel, Lillian Fain, Ruby Moore, Martha Ruth Corlett and Ruby and Gretchen Avis, and Mesdames D. H. Connor, Harry Weeks and Harry Baum.

Mrs. Jackson Price's Party.
Mrs. Jackson H. Price was hostess Friday afternoon at a bridge luncheon for the Misses Herring. A lovely floral arrangement was displayed by the room and table decorations of pink roses and narcissus, a pot of the blossoms centering the table with others scattered about the snowy luncheon set. The place cards were "longue twisters" and occasioned much merriment when the hostess gave the signal for their reading. Favors at each place were hand-tinted satin flower sachets, exquisitely dainty, and guests were presented with the pretty suggestion. A five course luncheon was served. Four tables were arranged for the games, which, necessarily, after the conclusion of the luncheon. In the high score count it was found Miss Lucy Morris had been most fortunate, and the hostess presented her with a beautiful hammered silver vase. Mrs. C. R. Nichols was consoling for low score with a teakwood tea jar, and both guests were presented with dainty vanity bags. Those present included: Misses Olice and Elgin Herring of Oklahoma City, Margaret McMahon, Lillian Fain, Bessie Jackson, and Wema of Dallas, her house guest, and Lucy Morris of Tyler, guest of her sister, Mrs. Frank Murchison, and Mesdames Harold Haynes, William Eganer, C. R. Nichols, L. R. Simmons, Frank Murchison, C. C. Cabiness, John Paskins, J. L. Jackson Jr. and A. W. Culp.

SAN HOUSTON MOTHERS MET; WILL SERVE LUNCH TUESDAY

The San Houston Mothers club decided to serve a plate luncheon for the school children of the San Houston school Tuesday noon, at 25 cents a plate, at their regular meeting last Tuesday.
There was much rejoicing in the meeting over the fact that the piano bought for the school is at last paid for. The Mothers' Guild has held recently at the school house having lifted the last of the debt.
A social club with 11 charter members, which will meet every Thursday afternoon at a school and home club auxiliary, was formed. A fee of 10 cents will be paid each week by those who attend, the money to go into the treasury of the club. The meetings will be held with hostesses among the membership.
The next regular meeting of the school society will be held the second Friday in January. Refreshments of coffee and sandwiches were served.

The Christian Women's Mission society will meet Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the church. Mrs. W. R. Duke's division of the society will present the following program:
Sole.

Vocal duet, Mrs. W. R. Duke and Mrs. R. E. Shepherd.
"Prayer for a Saviour," Mrs. C. J. Hunter.
Hidden Answers.
Every member of the society is requested to be present at this meeting.

CAMPFIRE GIRLS BANQUET LAST WEEK AT M. E. CHURCH

The Wah Wah Tay See Campfire girls gave a banquet Saturday at the first Methodist church, the girls meeting at the church at 8 o'clock to prepare the dinner. Each girl was assigned her part of the work and went to work immediately.
The table was beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums and U. S. flags, the place cards carrying out the Campfire idea. The turkey was baked to perfection and only one mishap threatened to mar any part of the repast—one of the young serving maids "stumped" her toe, according to a friend's account, and spilled a box of pepper into the dressing, which according was "L. L. O. D."
Miss Pauline Hill was toastmistress when the festivities began, and the Campfire president presented Miss Morgan, the guardian, with a big box of delicious candy from the girls. After dinner a program was enjoyed, and Miss Leah Fox, lay leader, gave a movie party. Those who enjoyed both affairs included: Misses Morgan, Leah Ford, Pauline Hill, Eloira D. Searser, Frances Saunders, Charlotte Kevell, Ina Myrl Robinson, Helen Gresham, Evelyn Parker, Beulah Gardner, Herma Pounds, Anna Brutan, Ava Lucille Vernon, Henrietta Allen, Cecile Black, Mary Anderson and Sybil Hancock. Two prime factors prompted our action in establishing this thoroughly modern, metropolitan store in Wichita Falls; first, the growth of our business demanded more space and greater stocks; second, our confidence in the future of Wichita Falls as well as in its substantial present is such that we are positive that Wichita Falls Jewelry buyers are entitled to and will support an institution that offers them the best.

A visit to Halton & Friedly on Monday will be a merchandising treat. As a citizen of Wichita Falls you will be proud of the appearance of our store, its beautiful fixtures and the wonderful brand new stocks of staple and novelty jewelry and diamonds. The enlarged stocks here, coupled with the reserve at our command as a result of our direct connection with our Fort Worth store and its $500,000.00 stock, gives an unusual opportunity to make your holiday selections

No goods sold on Monday between the hours of 4 and 10 p. m. Beginning Tuesday you will find ultra-values at Halton-Friedly. Stocks purchased by us on a readjusted market, meaning substantial savings for you. See the imported offerings in diamonds and novelties brought to U. S. from Europe by our own buyers.

Some Things About Veils

As veils of every known variety, size, and tint are occupying seats in the orchestra circle at this year's style show, the information and suggestions in the following clippings will be of interest.

The suggestions for the selection of the veil is especially pertinent. It is possible for even so charming a toilet accessory as a veil to be an atrocious, and comparatively few seem to be chosen with the definite facial characteristics and coloring of the wearer in view. Veils seem to lend an almost extraordinary charm of smartness to those who can wear them, and who select and adjust them to the best advantage.

Veil Completes The Costume.
"One hears much of the fashionable 'silhouette.' In it is recognized the elusive dictate of Dame Fashion that are here today and gone tomorrow. But the 'silhouette of the head,' while changing as does the silhouette of the costume is almost always improved by veil.

Many persons admire the trim, smart, tailored look of other women without realizing that the crowning glory of their entire costume is centered in the clean-cut appearance of the head, which can only be achieved by a veil. The veil should be adjusted with due consideration for the importance it bears to the wearer's appearance and in the selection of the veil you may lend to your entire costume an unquestioned air of good taste and elegance.

The one-sided patterns, simple and suggestive of a beauty spot over one cheek are almost always smart and becoming, especially to younger women. Chenille dots in groups are good style and much favored at present. For the woman of more mature years a heavier design is apt to serve the purpose better. Select a veil either heavier in mesh or closer in arrangement of the design and "covering effect" of the pattern.

Care of the Veil.
The veil is a thing of beauty and so dainty that it requires more or less care. The manner of caring for a veil so that it will always appear fresh and new can be given in a few simple rules. First, never roll your veil and be careful to rumple them as little as possible in handling. When you take your veil off shake it gently, spread it out flat and fold with extra care, remembering that the fewer folds you make the fewer creases you will have to smooth out the next time you use it. Women who are particular about their appearance have a dozen veils and it is really a matter of economy to have a large selection, since it is remarkable what a complete change in appearance may be effected by a change of veil. With more veils to select from fewer costume changes are necessary.

If in windy weather your veils pick up a great deal of dust they should be cleaned by laying them out flat on a smooth surface, such as a bed or table, and brushing them with a smooth velvet brush. Of course, special consideration must be given to veils with chenille or velvet dots; they must be shaken or brushed with more than ordinary care.

In putting on or taking off the veil, lift it gently and never pull it over rough straws or millinery ornaments. Even a strong, well-made veil will not stand rough handling and for that reason special pains should be exercised not to tear it on the head or point of the hatpin or some other obstruction. The hatpin should always be withdrawn before attempting to remove the veil.

Selecting Veils.
If your face is slender and your features clearly defined you should choose those veils in which the mesh is not too heavy, the figure small, and avoiding particularly veils of that reason special pains should be exercised not to tear it on the head or point of the hatpin or some other obstruction. The hatpin should always be withdrawn before attempting to remove the veil.

usually wear almost any pattern of veiling. The veils usually most becoming to a woman of high color are those having the heavier meshes and more pronounced designs. For the woman who lacks color the "complexion" veil works wonders. Veils made in a delicate mesh that often lend a touch of color which works a marvelous change.

Remember, most of all that your features will be accentuated by the style of veil which you select. Try the veil in several different positions—it may be much more becoming in one position than in another. However, the most encouraging thing which we learn as we study the artistry of veiling is that while the veil may be poorly selected and indifferently adjusted, nevertheless it almost invariably lends charm.

Adjusting the Veil.
In putting on a veil, first straighten it out and carefully shake out all the wrinkles. Seated in front of your mirror, place it in the right position, being sure that the figures are sufficiently distant from the eyes so that they cannot obscure the vision. Avoid most of all placing any figure in a grotesque position such as on the tip of the nose and also keep the figures away from the corners of the mouth. Veils vary so much in design that no hard and fast rules can be made, but as a general rule the above is safe to follow.

Patterns of all well-designed veils are given extremely careful study so that the design will fall properly on the average face. Clear vision should be a most essential point. Study carefully several adjustments until you find the exact position in which the veil becomes you most. Then draw the veil back snugly around the face and trim of the hat being careful not to draw it so tight that it will distort the mesh or figures; tie in a tight knot at the back so that it will remain snug over the face.

If you exercise proper care in placing the veil the ends should be of equal length after it is tied and these ends may then be tucked out of sight taking pains that the knot is left neat and inconspicuous.

It is a good plan to go over the entire veil after putting it on, smoothing out the wrinkles if any have developed. It is well to see that looseness is taken up, however, before you tie the veil at the back. Remember also to keep the veil down on the crown of the hat. Draw the bottom closely about the neck so that while it fits snugly, it will not have the appearance of cutting into the flesh. Pin at the back of the neck with a small pin or invisible hairpin.

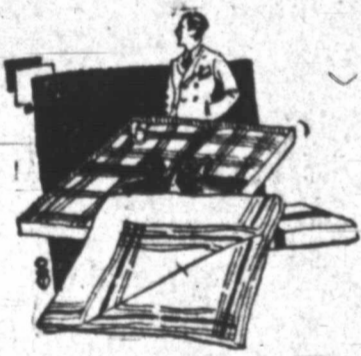

A veil is so much of a necessity during the blustery winter months that their popularity as Christmas gifts has increased wonderfully in recent years.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON BRIDGE CLUB MET WITH MRS. ROBERTSON

The Thursday Afternoon Bridge club met last week with Mrs. Walter L. Robertson at 1404 Rose. Two tables were arranged for the games, after which the hostess served a dainty luncheon plate of creamed oysters in patty shells, white and rye bread sandwiches, coffee and cranberry frappe. The plate favors were dainty buttonholes of sweet peas, carrying out the flower motif suggested in the tally cards. In the high score count it was found Mrs. Eugene Sherrod had won and she was presented with a pretty embroidered guest towel.

Those present included Mesdames H. O. Cravena, C. S. Dullin, J. W. Du Val, C. F. Spencer, J. C. Berney, A. Zundlowitz, Eugene Sherrod and Robertson.

Gifts with the Personal Touch

Appeal to All Femininity at Christmas

PRACTICAL GIFTS for EVERY CHRISTMAS LIST

As the happy day grows near and holiday shopping becomes more urgent, it is gratifying to find a list of gifts that is suitable, practical—just what you most enjoy giving—and which may be chosen without a great expenditure of money or time. Read this page carefully. It doesn't cover everything that you wish to remember but it gives space to gifts of enduring quality instead of to those which only give pleasure for a short time.

Gift List Needn't Cause Worries While There Are Still Hosts of Silk Underwear to Choose.

Our display of silk underwear is the mecca of women who are desirous of presenting gifts of delicate beauty—remembrances that are certain to appeal to refined feminine tastes. The Italian silk Vests are either plain or tastefully embroidered. But the Bloomers, like the Camisoles, Chemise and Night Gowns score any pretense at severity by flaunting dainty, fine laces and ribbons upon ribbons. In flesh tint and white.

What Charm Lies in Naturalness and How Much it Rests With the Corset.

The ideal figure is the natural one. And your figure can only be natural when your Corset allows you to move—to walk, sit or bend without the least restraint. You will be comfortable, yes and modish, in one of our Corsets for every model, whether it is intended for a tall figure, short figure, slender figure, or heavy figure. It is built along graceful, correctly proportioned lines. Had you thought of giving a pretty Silk Corset for Christmas?

Veils are Very Acceptable.

Tuck gauzy Veils in with your other gifts. Really pretty ones may be selected for such trifling sums and they represent tokens that won't be found in average Christmas packages.

Millinery Department, Second Floor.

Exceptional Values in Men's Ties.

We always make it a point to show Ties that have unusual snap to them. Come and examine the smart, knitted Scarfs and those in beautifully patterned Silks and you will see big possibilities for gift selection.

A Welcome Gift Suggestion For Men of all Ages—Gloves.

If he drives a car he will appreciate a pair of fur-lined Gloves. It is, in fact, a splendid remembrance for any man that spends a lot of time outdoors in cold weather. Cape leather and buckskin Gloves for dress wear have an excellent gift value, too.

Men's Department, First Floor.

Christmas Neckwear in Host of Winsome Styles.

REFUSAL OF PERMIT FOR CABLE AND COLBY'S OIL NOTE TWO MOVES IN BATTLE.

NATIONAL AMBITION TO CONTEST BRITISH CONTROL

Brings About One Of Most Important International Conditions In Contemporary History.

By MARK SULLIVAN
National Political Correspondent of the New York Evening Post.
(Copyright 1920 by New York Evening Post.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Three incidents in the news that have arisen in Washington during the past week are related to one another and are phases of the most important conditions in contemporary history. None of these incidents has been made wholly clear to the public in all its bearings, and one of them at least is quite imperfectly understood. The first that I refer to consists of the various dispatches stating that a naval cable is on guard off the coast of Florida to prevent a cable, which is owned by the Western Union from being landed on the American coast.

This spectacle, as pictured by the bare dispatches, is most extraordinary. But I do not use the word "extraordinary" in any sense critical of the policy or of the government. On the other hand, having looked into the matter with some care, I think the navy department, the state department and the president, who personally refused the permit to land the cable, are all quite in the right. But the incident has a bearing which will only appear later and which it is not too much to say, will affect the course of the world.

It appears that the cable which the Western Union is trying to land runs only to one of the British islands in the West Indies. At Barbados it is intended to connect with a British cable line which runs to South America and which has a monopoly of the cable business in Brazil. If the Western Union were permitted to land this cable, it would follow that cable messages for South America originating in Western Union territory in the United States would be routed over a British cable and would be to the benefit of a British company, which aims to maintain a monopoly in Brazil. The point can only be understood when it is further borne in mind that there is an all-American cable, originating in New York, touching at Panama going down the west coast of South America, and competing with the British company in those countries of South America where the British company does not already have an exclusive monopoly. The action of our government is intended to protect the interests of the American company. This bare outline of the facts does not purport to be complete and is not enough to form a just judgment without the knowledge of further incidents and technical details. The whole subject of the fair and proper control of international cables is very big and extremely complex. Cables are, as it were, an international public utility.

Does Not Stand Alone.

But this cable incident does not stand alone. It is merely one aspect of a world-wide competition between the United States and Great Britain in foreign trade and foreign shipping. In this field, hitherto Great Britain's possession of a large proportion of the world's cable facilities has given her a great advantage. In the newly awakened national self-consciousness of the United States and in our new ambition to be a larger factor in world shipping and world trade, America is disposed to regard Great Britain's possession or control of so much of the world's cable facilities, as a handicap against us which we cannot afford to let continue.

The next incident, superficially, has no connection with the cable incident, but, seen in its true bearings, is a part of the same situation. I refer to Secretary Colby's note regarding the disposition of the United States, up to the time of assume an exclusive attitude in its relation to the oil resources of Mesopotamia.

The British empire on its economic side, rests upon commercial shipping. The British islands have no great resources such as we have—favorably located iron ore, coal and other raw materials; but their wheat and corn lands, and the like, her empire rests on her dominance in shipping. For generations it has been her ownership or control of a very large proportion of the world's shipping that has been the economic basis of the empire's existence.

Has Held Dominance.

Great Britain has held this shipping dominance by reason of several factors, including greater experience and greater skill in the business, a larger supply that has been trained for generations in this trade, and other advantages, such as the ownership of the world bunkers all over the world, banking and cable connections all over the world, and the control of a large share of the world's marine insurance and other commercial aspects of the shipping business.

The recent war, never seriously contested, nor thought of contesting, Great Britain's dominance in shipping—but since, as an incident of the war, we installed a huge shipbuilding plant and became the owner of what was for us an unprecedented quantity of tonnage, we have come to be ambitious in this field, and if the aggregate mind of our business world were distilled, it would probably be found that, consciously or unconsciously, we now have a national ambition to contest Great Britain's dominance in shipping.

At this point comes the significance of the Mesopotamian incident, coal as a fuel for ships is passing, and petroleum because of its vastly greater economy in labor and otherwise, appears destined to take its place. Knowledge of this fact will enable us to see the very great necessity of being upon Great Britain to own or control oil supplies adequate to her dominance in shipping.

So long as coal was the fuel, she owned abundant supplies on her home island. But if oil is to be the fuel, she must have her supplies wherever she can acquire them. This, it may be taken for granted, explains her concern about the Mesopotamian fields, and, to a degree, our new ambition to compete with her in shipping explains our concern that the Mesopotamian oil shall be open to all owners equally.

The third incident bearing on the same general situation is the emergence of discussion of the Panama canal act.

If we are to be a shipping nation, it is felt that we should give our coastwise ships the benefit of the fact that we built and own the Panama canal.

If we are to achieve a position in shipping and foreign trade, comparable to that which Great Britain has had for many generations, we can only do so through time, patience and the building up of the reputation for commercial skill and integrity that makes Great Britain's prestige in every part of Asia and Africa. We shall have to work hard and compete fairly. But probably we will not continue in our easy-going acceptance of advantages which Great Britain was permitted to hold by default so long as shipping was no great concern of ours.

A Most Important Question.

There is not space here to cover further incidents that have lately emerged bearing on this subject. Neither let it be said, in this space here to give adequate treatment either to the whole condition or to any one of these incidents. But it may be taken for granted, with much confidence, that what is here touched upon is one of the most important things happening in the contemporary world.

If the assumption is correct, it will be a subject for poets and historians for generations to come. If the assumption is correct, we are witnessing and participating in one of those great incidents of world history which occur only once in several centuries.

Great Britain won her dominance from Holland. Holland in turn won it from Spain, which had it at the time she provided the ships that dominated America, and began the colonization of the American continent. Spain took it from Portugal, Portugal from the Hanseatic league, and so on back to Carthage and Tyre.

CARELESS BUYING ONE CAUSE OF HIGH COSTS

Not Enough Attention Given to Merit of Merchandise.

There is too much laxity in buying methods. Still people complain of high prices—when, in reality, careless spending is instrumental in keeping up costs. Not enough attention is given to the actual value of merchandise.

For example: a housewife goes into a grocery store. She orders a can of this—a pound of that—a peck or a package of something else. She looks upon high prices as a condition over which she has little or no control.

All too often she entertains the perverted notion that a price-tag is a badge of quality—that high priced goods are naturally the most meritorious. She has lost the true perspective of worth in the jumble of high costs and judges by what she gives more than by what she gets.

It is a grievous error—and a predominating cause of high prices. Every buyer of foodstuffs and all other kinds of merchandise should consider QUALITY first. If an article that retails at a moderate price will answer your purpose as well or better than one that sells at exorbitant figures, favor the lower priced item by all means.

QUALITY THE ONLY TEST OF VALUE

Should Be Buying Guide for Every Housewife

This doesn't imply that all goods sold at a moderate price possess desirable merit. Poor merchandise at any price always proves expensive. Quality alone is the only test of value—and should be the buying guide of every housewife.

High-priced commodities that are not worth the prices at which they are quoted are sold because there is a demand for them. The grocer must handle them because his trade insists on having them. The grocer is not to blame. He hesitates to offer buying suggestions to customers because so many persons view such advice as an outright insult to their buying intelligence.

The conscientious grocer—and the huge majority of grocers are of that stripe—is eager to save money for his customers—willing and able to give them intelligent and helpful advice along the lines of economical buying. But the customer must display a willingness to be advised.

There should be a clearer understanding between the retailer and the consumer—a finer spirit of co-operation. The grocer is dependent upon the consumer. His interests lie parallel with those of his trade. He carries food products of greatest excellence produced by manufacturers who permit retail sales to be made at legitimate figures.

ENCOURAGE SALE OF SOUND QUALITY GOODS

I am fully convinced that the buying public should encourage the grocer to push quality merchandise that sells at an economical price. This will have a tendency to whip up production of goods of sound merit and fair prices—at the same time discouraging the manufacture, sale and use of products that represent extravagance and waste.

There should be no mistake about this matter of economy. The housewife who boils "potatoes with jackets" to prevent waste of peelings—who saves her left-over coffee—can, I am sure, defeat her splendid intentions many times over by unwise buying. Proper selection of foods is the first step towards reduction of food prices.

I am positive that the important things for the housewife to remember, practice and preach are, "don't buy food products that can be duplicated at a saving of cash and a gain in quality; investigate the food value of an article; don't accept high prices as final proof of high quality; do not accuse the dealer of holding up prices when you deliberately persist in buying goods for which he must pay high prices." Florence Kling, President National Woman's Association of Consumers.

COST THE LOWEST FOR GOOD BAKING POWDER

You save when you buy it. Moderate in price. It saves you money to be used for other purchases.

You save when you use it. Has more than ordinary leavening strength, therefore you use less. It goes further. Never use more than directions call for.

You save materials it is used with. Bakings are always a success. There is no waste. No loss. Nothing is thrown away.

Order a can. Know you are getting greatest possible value for your money.

Know that you are economizing in a way that will actually help lower living costs.

Know that you will have the most delicious and healthful of bakings.

There is no better baking powder. You are sure of that. So why run the risk of getting a brand that may not be anywhere near as good?

"They WORK while you sleep"

Do you feel bilious, constipated, headachy, upset, full of cold? Take one or two Cascarets tonight for your liver and bowels. Wake up with head clear, stomach right, breath sweet and feeling fine. No griping, no inconvenience. Children love Cascarets too. 19 25, 50 cents. (adv.)

Manufacturers' Outlet Sale

The last shipment has arrived, everything is now ready for our big MID-WINTER MANUFACTURERS' OUTLET SALE.

Mr. Anderson spent two weeks in New York and Chicago buying the best Mid-Winter apparel, and the best Holiday Goods at practically his own prices. Manufacturers and jobbers alike were forced to sacrifice their best wares for immediate cash. The banks were pressing them for loans that were due. We could hardly believe our eyes when we checked up and marked the goods he bought. We did not think it possible to secure such good values in merchandise of the better kinds, but the goods are here and ready.

MANY NEGROES ARE ARRESTED BY POLICE ON VAGRANCY CHARGE

The anti-vag campaign that has been waged for the past month has been switched to the negro sections of the city by officials here a score of blacks have been brought before the police court to explain their perpetual presence in the domino and soft drink parlors.

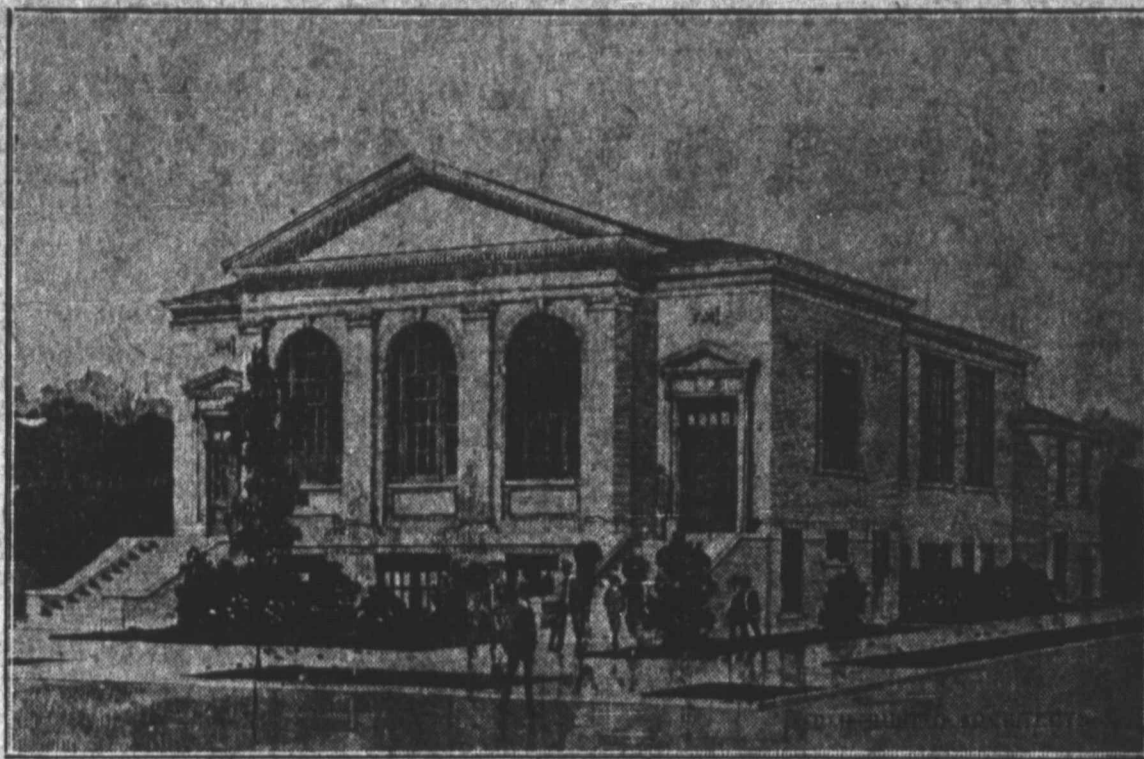

The raids are being made by Sergeant Hunter and Patrolman Ogil, who have devoted practically all of their time within the past two days to the scouring of the negro quarters of the city. On Thursday four blacks were rounded up in a soft drink parlor after the officers had ascertained that they spent over half the time between daylight and dark at the place. These were brought before Judge Ogil and given $10 fines.

On Friday the same officers descended upon a negro domino parlor and escorted nine negroes to the lock-up. In police court Saturday morning convictions were secured on five of these and they were fined $10 each for vagrancy. The others established alibis for not working.

According to the police these idle blacks are responsible for much of the petty crimes being committed in this city and the officers wish to know why able bodied negroes who spend their time in loafing are not at work.

While the City National Bank of Commerce is the largest bank in west Texas, its officers are never too busy and never consider themselves too important to give close personal attention to any customer who desires counsel or advice concerning business or financial matters.

Services Sunday in New Lamar Baptist Church

The initial services in the Lamar Avenue Baptist church at the corner of Fourth and Lamar will be held Sunday, December 5, by Rev. A. J. Holt, the church's pastor, and Sunday school will be conducted there also for the first time, although the building is not fully completed.

New furniture, to cost $2200 will arrive in a few days.

The new building is constructed to accommodate a congregation and Sunday school of 1,000 people. It is substantially constructed and is finished with light gray brick. It covers 55 by 100 feet of ground and is equipped with Sunday school rooms, quarters for choir, tank and dressing rooms.

The labor and materials for the building have been paid for as the work has progressed, and the expenses yet to come are provided for, so that there will be no debt hanging over the church.

New residents and new business enterprises are coming to the Wichita Falls district week by week. The City National Bank of Commerce welcomes them and extends to them the facilities of its various well organized departments, assuring the most helpful service in the handling of any banking matters.

DAIRY COWS REQUIRE TUBERCULOSIS TEST

City Ordinance Forbids Sale Of Dairy Products Until Such Test Is Made.

The city ordinance regulating the sale of dairy products requires that all such products sold in this city shall come from cows which have been tested and found to be free from tuberculosis.

This requirement applies to individuals living in the city who sell dairy products from one or more cows just as much as it applies to dairies proper. The ordinance is in the interest of public health and therefore must apply to all sources. The testing of the cows must be done by a veterinarian who is authorized by the state livestock sanitary commissioner and the health department is prepared to furnish one who is properly qualified. Arrangements for the testing may be made by phoning 5415.

The department has designated January 1, 1921, as the time limit for dairy cows to be tested, consequently after that date complaints will be filed against those who violate this provision of the ordinance.

Come-hear Rachmaninoff on the New Edison

RACHMANINOFF has not only made RE-CREATIONS for the New Edison. He has also made recordings for one of the standard talking-machines.

We are glad to announce that these talking-machine recordings may now be heard. We want you to hear them—and compare! Determine for yourself which gives you the real Rachmaninoff.

Let us play Rachmaninoff's Edison RE-CREATIONS for you. Mark how clear, how true the piano tone. See how every note in his runs, every accent in his interpretation, every shade in his pedalling is perfectly RE-CREATED.

This was proved by a test made at Mr. Rachmaninoff's home in New York City. He played the Second Hungarian Rhapsodie (Liszt) in direct comparison with the RE-CREATION of his performance by the New Edison. The absolute fidelity of the RE-CREATION to the artist's original performance astounded the listeners.

Make the Rachmaninoff comparison. It will guide you right in selecting your Christmas phonograph.

Ask also about our Budget Plan

It brings your New Edison for Christmas without squeezing your pocketbook. Remember, too, that, in buying a New Edison now, you are virtually buying a before-the-war-value with an after-the-war-dollar. The price of the New Edison has increased less than 15% since 1914, and a portion of this increase is war tax. "Edison stood the gaff" to keep his favorite invention within the reach of every one who loves beautiful music.

DOKEY CEREMONIAL WILL BE CONDUCTED THURSDAY AFTERNOON

PROMINENT KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS ATTENDANCE.

PARADE WILL FEATURE PROGRAM FOR OCCASION

Will Be Staged At 4 O'clock And Will Traverse Principal Business Streets of City.

Read herewith, Oh subscriber to The Daily Times, the story of the Dokey ceremonial to be conducted in our fair city next Thursday afternoon by Pioneer Lodge No. 49, Knights of Pythias. Read carefully, and wonder as you read; for there will be cause for wonderment if thou knowest no more about Dokey than does the writer of this tale.

The Dokey ceremony, which is a creature separate and distinct from other men who belongeth not to the order of the Knights of Pythias. When a K. of P. becomes a Dokey, he also becomes a bear, a curly wolf and a ring-tailed dipodomys—and since this is true, Oh subscriber to The Daily Times, you can appreciate in advance the joyous carnival that will be manifested on the streets of our city when the Dokeys of this section of Texas gather here next Thursday for their ceremonial.

Henry Miller Coming.
The youngest old man in Texas will be one of the distinguished guests, and this in itself will bring forth of redoubtable delight from every black-bearded Dokey. Reference is made to no other than "Uncle" Henry Miller of Weatherford, Grand Keeper of the Knights of Pythias Records and Seals for the state of Texas. Uncle Henry has been keeping said records and seals for the past 25 years, and unquestionably will hold the office for life. He has his own private system of bookkeeping, and his job is safe because the man does not

STOMACH ON A STRIKE

Wonder what upset your stomach— which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sick, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented and turned sour; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food—just eat a tablet or two of Pape's Diapepsin to help neutralize acidity and, in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

live who can make head or tail of the records and seals except Uncle Henry himself. Charles W. Brewington of Stamford, also will tread our wooden paving blocks—and Charles W. is the Grand Chancellor of Texas, which, booted down Texas, means he is quite some little K. of P.

Supreme Representative Coming.
The editor of the Denison Daily Herald, Henry E. Ellis, joined the Knights of Pythias when he was young, and despite the handicap of being an abused newspaper man he has risen to the height of being Supreme Representative of this fraternal order—which proves there is hope for even the humblest reporter! And Henry E. Ellis will be in Wichita Falls next Thursday to talk how he "fit" to such heights.

There will be visitors also from Eubank, Iowa Park, Bowie, Burkburnett, Throckmorton, Vernon and other nearby cities—and the members of Asotia Temple No. 174, Dramatic Order of Knights of Khorassan, of Fort Worth, have engaged a special train of three Pullmans and a baggage car to come to the local ceremonial. More than fifty Dokeys and Dramatic Knights (sounds like a road show, eh?) will make up the Fort Worth party, including Briggs, Elvans and the Drum Corps, all in full uniform. All the Dokeys in this city will meet the Fort Worth Knights and Dokeys (and brigands).

Will Be a Parade.
Yes, verily, there will be a parade. It will form at 4:00 p. m. at the K. of P. hall, 603 Scott avenue, and will march as follows: South on Scott to Tenth; east on Tenth to Indiana; north on Indiana to Seventh; east on Seventh to Ohio; south on Ohio to Eighth; west on Eighth to City National Bank of Commerce Bldg., and promptly at 5:30 p. m. there will be a whole of a banquet in the Wichita club, with Dr. DuVal of this city, as master of ceremonies. The members of the local Knights of Pythias will head for Electra Monday afternoon to have a little "confab" and good time in advance with the Electra lodge brethren. They are asked to meet at Dr. DuVal's office, second floor of the American National Bank building, at 2:30 p. m.—and those who own cars are requested to bring 'em. Dokeys in the party should wear their fezzes.

IMPORTANT MEETING OF THE KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS SCHEDULED FOR TUESDAY

Pioneer lodge No. 49, Knights of Pythias will have their regular meeting Tuesday night at castle hall, 603 Scott avenue, beginning promptly at 7:30 o'clock. There will be initiation in the rank of page, and every knight is expected to be present and witness that beautiful and impressive lesson of all the knights as portrayed by Damon and Pythias.

There will also be nomination and election of officers for the ensuing year, and every member of the order is urged to attend and take part in this very important matter. It is also requested that every knight in this city be present at this meeting, wearing his fez, as a final program will be mapped out for the big dokey ceremony that will be held in this city on next Thursday afternoon and night.

It does us good to see the family spirit which this fraternal group to generate everywhere. 205-150c

Will there be a Victrola in your home this Christmas?

If any one thing more than another can add to the joys of Christmas, it is music—and the Victrola can bring into your home any music you may wish to hear.

The Victrola is the one instrument to which the greatest artists have entrusted their art—an unanswerable acknowledgment of its artistic achievements. Moreover, the Victrola is the only instrument specially made to play the records which these great artists have made.

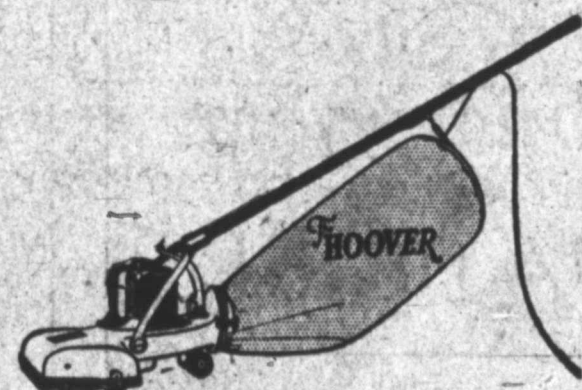

Christmas Day and any other day through all the years to come, the best or the newest of all the world's music may be yours to enjoy.

By all means get a Victrola this Christmas, but be sure it is a Victrola and not some other instrument made in imitation. $25 to $1500.

Take Final Scenes of the Local Movie; To Exhibit Monday

The final scenes of the local movie, "The Girl from Wichita Falls," were taken on the Majestic stage Saturday night before one of the largest crowds that assembled to witness the filming of the picture. The climax of the picture was saved for the last night and those who were on hand Saturday evening were rewarded by seeing a real treat in the movie line.

According to Director Charles Le Witt, the picture has been a great success and he is more than pleased with the work of the cast. Not a hitch was experienced throughout the entire production and because of this it is believed that there will be none of the hesitancy and "weak spots" which are common to most home talent dramas. Just how much future talent has been discovered remains to be seen, but something definite will no doubt be announced by the director in a short time.

As was stated at the beginning of the Community Photo Play company is not in the business of taking home talent pictures for the profit they receive in marketing the film. In fact their royalties in the various cities do not begin to pay expenses, but when a real star is discovered, the Community company exacts substantial tribute from the big-producing companies for his or her services, and that is the primary object of the concern.

Director Le Witt states that two of the most famous movie idols on the screen today were discovered by the community photoplay idea, namely Mary Miles Minter and Thomas Meighan. Both of these stars first attracted attention by their performances in home talent plays and were later given chances in the big shows. In addition to these, a score of lesser lights have been found and added to the movie pay rolls through the local director and his company.

"The Girl from Wichita Falls" is being assembled, edited and printed in finished form over Sunday and will be exhibited at the regular picture programs at the Majestic theater Monday.

Ministers Attend A Private Showing Of "The Stealers"

A private showing of the powerful photo-drama, "The Stealers," which is to be shown at the Empress theater next week, was given at the theatre Saturday morning before five ministers of this city. The story of "The Stealers" was written by William Christy Cabannes, and that the picture is a wonderful one is beyond dispute.

The pastors who witnessed the showing were Rev. W. L. Tittle, pastor of the Floral Heights Methodist church; Rev. N. L. Grafton, pastor of the First Presbyterian church; Rev. O. L. Powers, pastor of the First Baptist church; Rev. F. T. Danson, rector of the Episcopal church, and Rev. E. L. Fettinger, pastor of the First Methodist church, North. Without exception the ministers highly endorsed the film and admitted that it carried a powerful sermon in an interesting manner.

DORIS KENYON FEATURED IN PICTURES AT THE GEM

Doris Kenyon has the leading role in the picture programs which are to be shown at the Gem theatre this week. This popular star is to be featured in two of the main presentations, on Monday in "The Great White Trail" and on Friday in "The Harvest Moon." The Tuesday program will offer May Allison in "Held in Trust" Wednesday brings Edm. Bennett in "Partners Three" and Thursday's William Farnum in "The Lash of Duane" will be seen. A Larry Remon comedy will close the week's bill on Saturday.

"The Great White Trail," which is to be shown Monday, is a spectacular drama of domestic warfare, treated in a manner far removed from the usual method of handling these types of pictures. Miss Kenyon, as the star of the picture, offers a new interpretation of the role of a mistreated wife, and ably supported by a cast which includes Paul Gordon, Thomas Holding, Hans Robert and Edgar Davenport; gives a thoroughly interesting picture.

Haltom and Friedly Formal Opening is On Monday Evening

Haltom & Friedly will hold a reception to the public in their new quarters, at the corner of Eighth and Indiana Monday from 4:00 to 10:00 p. m. Their new room is the one formerly occupied by the Wichita State bank.

This occasion will be among the memorable business-house receptions for which Wichita Falls has become so justly noted in the past year and unless weather conditions are extremely unfavorable is expected to be one of the most largely attended.

TAX COLLECTOR TO VISIT OTHER POINTS IN COUNTY

For the convenience of the tax payers who reside distant from Wichita Falls, County Tax Collector M. L. Tittle has made arrangements to accommodate the residents of the county by appearing in Electra on December 10 and 11 for collecting taxes from this district.

On December 14 and 15 he will be in Burkburnett and on the 17th and 18th he will be at Iowa Park. He asks that all tax payers in these districts be on hand at these dates.

For the first two months this year for the payment of taxes the receipts have exceeded that of last year during the same time by approximately $4,000. Thus far this year 505 poll taxes have been paid and 98 exemptions issued.

Taxes collected during November and October of 1919 were as follows:

October—State, $8,871.87; county, $14,152.28. November—State, $20,354.94; county, $22,175.52; total, $42,530.46.
For the same months of 1920 the figures are:
October—State, $9,460.95; county, $14,350.31. November—State, $21,159.75; county, $28,018.81; total, $49,178.56.

Week after week the City National Bank of Commerce gains in the scope of its activities and in the confidence of the public, because it depends upon the right kind of service to bring its due reward.

WILDCAT OPERATIONS HOLD THE CENTER OF LOCAL OIL INTEREST

MATTIE PARKER LAND PROVIDES SPECIAL SUBJECT OF GENERAL ATTENTION.

TESTING THE BLUE GROVE WELL IN CLAY COUNTY

Two Gassers Are Brought In During Week In Clay County By Lone Star Company.

Wildcat operations held the center of interest in local oil circles last week with the main tent pitched on the Mattie Parker lands. The Lone Star Oil company completed its No. 1 well on the Parker tract and although the first indications pointed toward a better well than the discovery well, it is now pumping about the same amount of oil. Both wells are reported as making from 75 to 100 barrels every 20 hours.

The latest producer from this territory, however, is the Temple & White No. 2 well, which was drilled in by the Tillicum Oil association Friday. Mr. Temple stated yesterday that there was about 250 feet of oil in the hole. The producing sand was struck at 1320 feet and has been drilled into about a foot. In view of the fact that there was only about 160 feet of oil in the discovery well 24 hours after it was drilled in, the No. 2 well looks to be a better producer.

Ready to Drill It.

The Clinity Oil company is waiting for the machine that drilled in No. 1 to be drilled in No. 2. Casing has been set on top of the sand and they expect to drill in early in the week.

The Bill Rowe Oil company did not find a sand that would produce in sufficient quantities and it is thought that the well will be abandoned. C. W. Anderson is reported as drilling around 1100 feet at the No. 1 well and the Fagan Oil and Gas company is drilling around the same depth. The McFos Oil company and Kane & Garrett are said to have passed the 500-foot mark.

No completions were announced in Young county last week but active drilling is still going on. Several wells are nearing the sand and there will be a few completions during the coming week. The Panhandle Refining company will make a gas well out of its No. 2 according to the last report and will not drill deeper. An exceptionally good gas sand was struck around 2540 feet a couple of weeks ago and it is said to be producing 45,000,000 cubic feet.

The latest report from the Blue Grove well in Clay county states that the oil sand struck at 2310 feet is being tested. The hole has been cleared out and the casing set.

The Lone Star company brought in two gassers in Clay county during the week on the Stone lease, south of Petrolia. The No. 1 had five feet of gas sand around 1725 feet and is producing 200,000 cubic feet daily, while the No. 2 is producing 700,000 cubic feet from a depth of about 1545 feet. Casing has been set on top of the sand at 1650 feet at the Nos. 9 and 11 and they are now balling out to test the sand.

The Bryan Oil corporation's No. 2 well which is swabbing about 210 barrels, was the best completion announced from the Electra field. It is also reported from this field that the Arcadia Oil company has another good well on the Melton. The pay sand was struck at a depth of 1432 and is now being tested.

STRANGER BUYS CAR BUT CHECK AT BANK PROVES WORTHLESS

VERNON, TEXAS, Dec. 4.—A stranger came into Vernon one day this week, deposited some checks with one of the local banks, and then began a tour of the various automobile agencies and attempted to buy a car. He decided upon a Chalmers sport model at a local agency and in part payment gave a check on a Vernon bank from which he showed his deposit slip. He requested, however, that the check be held a few days. He then left; the check was deposited and it was then found that those he had left originally were bogus. The stranger's arrest is expected soon.

LIBERAL DONATION MADE TO BUCKNER ORPHANS' HOME

VERNON, TEXAS, Dec. 4.—The Buckner Orphan Home of near Dallas will be richer by about $250 when it receives the donations which were sent from the Baptist church of this city Thursday. The women of the missionary society got together clothing and food and packed three barrels and one box. Each of these is valued at $75. A contribution similar to this is sent from the local church every year.

GENEROUS RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR CLOTHING

VERNON, TEXAS, Dec. 4.—So generously did the people of Vernon respond to the call for clothing made by the Methodist Missionary society that six large dry goods boxes were packed Thursday to be sent to the needy of Poland. Many stores in town donated large amounts of new underwear, coats and shoes. The valuation of the six boxes was placed at $405. The boxes will be sent to Newport News today.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL TOTAL IS NOW $127

VERNON, TEXAS, Dec. 4.—The fourth Red Cross roll call in Wilbarger county has been brought to $1127, according to the treasurer and some of the rural districts have not yet reported the amounts they have collected. A final report will be made in a few days.

DISMISS CHARGE AGAINST TENNESSEE CONGRESSMAN

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—On the ground of insufficient evidence, the government today rolls pressed the charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated which was placed against Representative Finnis J. Increases Flow Two Gallons.

Many cows are capable of giving five gallons of milk per day and are only producing about two gallons. The reason for this is the feed you give them. If by proper feeding, which would probably cost you three dollars extra per month, you could increase your milk flow about twenty dollars worth don't you think it would be a good investment?

Furina Cow Chow recently increased the milk flow from two to four gallons for one of our customers. Ordinary increases are from one-half to one gallon per day. By proper feeding you get more milk for less money and your cow will have a much longer milking period.

Transportation Innovation

The photographs above were taken during recent experiments by the Wichita Motor Company to prove the adaptability of the gasoline driven truck as a substitute for the steam locomotive in shifting small quantities of freight and in handling passenger traffic over short hauls.

MOTOR TRANSPORTATION OCCUPIES ASSURED PLACE AMONG AMERICAN FREIGHT AND PASSENGER SYSTEMS

Motor transportation now occupies an assured place among American systems for the carriage of freight and passengers, the National Bank of Commerce in New York says in the December number of its magazine, Commerce Monthly.

large metropolitan centers. Through these truck lines the farmer can sell his produce without loss of time and at a minimum loss of expense.

"In passenger service for public service the motor vehicle encounters the active opposition of electric railroads. The outcome is not yet apparent; for the proper division of the field can come about only through free competition, and this unfortunately is not the situation where franchises are granted and rates fixed.

"The production of motor fuel has not kept pace with its consumption," the bank says. "Between 1909 and 1915 the number of motor vehicles in use in the United States increased about 1,700 per cent, while the domestic production of gasoline increased but 560 per cent, and that of crude oil, the source, but 95 per cent.

fuel at much higher prices than those of today. Motor transportation finds no threat of extinction in the fuel situation, but only the necessity of modification.

"Highway construction and maintenance have always been a problem which has now become so pressing as to cause alarm. Under the present system of road financing it is impossible to build all roads of a type which can bear heavy truck traffic.

The Wise Chauffeur Says: The Red Cap storage battery makes good on any motor car, and that's a fact. Why? Because it is built that way.

When motor transportation must stand upon its merits. Trucks should be taxed in proportion to their destructive effect on roads, or rather in proportion to the cost to the community of providing roads for their use.

While the City National Bank of Commerce is the largest bank in west Texas, its officers are never too busy and never consider themselves too important to give close personal attention to any customer who desires counsel or advice concerning business or financial matters.

The Way to Go From Constipation to Health (Monday Health Talk No. 14) (By P. L. MYERS, D. C.) Constipation is the father of many ailments. When clogging waste matter prevents intestinal tract from being kept clean, there is trouble that may express itself in many ways from mouth sores, indigestion and headache to neuralgia and rheumatism.

A class to suit any age. The pastor will preach at both services. At the morning service, special attention will be given to the reception of new members. Junior Endeavor will meet at 2:30 p. m. and Senior Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. The evening worship at 7:30. Be our guest at any of these services.
GUY DAVIS, Pastor.

Lamar Avenue Baptist Church.
We are glad to announce that we are moving into our new building on the corner of Lamar and Fourth. All services will be held there Sunday. Although the building is yet incomplete, it will be comfortable. The work will be continued during the week. Many have made sacrifices on this building, people both within and outside the church, for which every one of us have due praise. May such sacrifices continue for a while longer, until the building is finished. We especially hope for a large attendance at the first service. Misses Jones and Bartlett will render a special number of music at the morning service. Sunday school at 10:30 a. m., Fred Cone, Supr. Preaching at 11:00 a. m. and 7:15 p. m. Subject for the morning sermon, "The Way of Greatness." Announcements for the other services will be made from the pulpit.

Stills Stilled By Hands of the Federal Officers

A young distillery that fell into the hands of the Federal officers following a raid on a house on the Jeff Waggoner ranch a week ago last Saturday. Upper left-hand corner, J. M. Allen, U. S. deputy marshal; upper right-hand corner, J. M. Hubbard, assistant.

Those who went to worship at the shrine of Bacchus or to those who intend to do so in the future as figures and events of the past will show.

Mr. Allen took his office last April and Mr. Hubbard has been assisting him since last September. During that time 105 violators of the national prohibition law have been brought to justice; 1,800 gallons of liquor confiscated and 4,500 gallons of sour mash destroyed.

Viewing the figures and also taking notice of the fact that Mr. Allen and his assistant have had but three days' assistance from the national prohibition officers, serves as the predicate for most favorable comment in speaking of the two men.

Eight automobiles are also in custody of the deputy marshals. The machines were taken over by them in cases where a man was caught transporting liquor in an automobile, as the law provides that the automobile should also be taken into custody.

who have in the past endeavored to distill liquor or to those who intend to do so in the future as figures and events of the past will show.

Eight automobiles are also in custody of the deputy marshals. The machines were taken over by them in cases where a man was caught transporting liquor in an automobile, as the law provides that the automobile should also be taken into custody.

Equipment Captured.
The photograph above shows the distilling equipment which fell into the hands of the officers last Saturday when a raid was made on a house located on the Jeff Waggoner ranch, twenty-five miles northwest of the city. The various objects shown are the four stills, the coils, the coolers and other paraphernalia required in the distillation process.

At the extreme left of the picture is shown several trunks that once contained a large amount of whiskey. This whiskey according to the dictates of the federal court judge has been turned over to the hospital in the district.

National statistics show, at least contend that there is a still to every four families in the country. Although it is generally accepted that there is a large amount of whiskey sold and purchased in Wichita county, it is a safe bet that the national average in this county due to the efforts of Mr. Allen and his assistant does not hold true.

In most instances the raids on stills are done at a personal loss to Mr. Allen. The life is not one of pleasure and safety. Many times wild rides in the night are made over the roads of the county. As has been seen in many instances safety is thrown away on these raids. Last Thursday night Mr. Allen experienced two bullets passing through his coat when he attempted to place some men under arrest.

Native Born Texans.
Both Mr. Allen and Mr. Hubbard are native born Texans and have been engaged in the enforcement of law and order for many years.

Mr. Allen had much experience among the "Red Dones" of Louisiana.

These people are mixed breeds and of an illiterate type. Several times Mr. Allen was shot at but was struck but once by a bullet. A deep scar and hole in the left side still give evidence of the attempt on his life.

Only one time in this county, besides that of a few nights ago was Mr. Allen shot at. The first incident occurred while he was going in the direction of Newtown, when someone opened fire on him while he was driving his automobile. He said the bullets whizzed all about him but none found their mark.

Mr. Hubbard was a peace officer in Young county for eleven years before coming to this county.

Both men are due a great deal of credit, which the results of their work well justifies.

MISSIONARY TELLS OF MASSACRES BY JAPANESE TROOPS

TOKIO, Dec. 4.—Canadian missionaries in Manchuria have sent a signed statement to the Associated Press telling of alleged massacres by Japanese troops in Chien Tao.

Dr. Martin, a Presbyterian missionary at Yong Jung, says: "The Japanese sent 15,000 troops into this part of China with the seeming intention of wiping out the entire Christian community, especially young men. Villages were methodically burned daily and the males in them were shot. Yong Jung is surrounded by a ring of villages, which suffered from fire and wholesale murder."

Dr. Martin gives accounts by survivors which describe the Japanese infantry as surrounding the villages and setting fire to the crops and shooting the male inhabitants. He names villages in which massacres occurred, or which were burned. In one village he says 148 persons were killed. Reports received from other missionaries tend to corroborate the story of Dr. Martin.

The war office here today informed the correspondent that there were 50,000 troops in the region referred to. Churches and schools, it was said, had been burned only when there was evidence that they were used for the purpose of creating disaffection. It was also declared that the only villages burned were those in which a majority of the inhabitants were leagued with outlaws.

WHOCAN BEAT IT Fresh from our roasters each day—chosen with extreme care, the pick of the best crop, with that rare rich piquant taste demanded by connoisseurs. BERT BEAN COFFEE CO.

"Christmas, Merry Christmas, All Over the Land! Christmas, Merry Christmas, Will Soon Be at Hand"

AND OUR Display of Christmas Goods Is Wonderful

In keeping with our custom, we are again amply supplied, at this time, to care for the regular big army of Christmas shoppers who crowd the aisles of our store during Christmas shopping season. During our twelve years of merchandising at 804-806 Ohio avenue, it has been our chief aim to have a large variety of Holiday Goods each Christmas, in order to induce still more shoppers to "Get the Habit" of trading at our store.

And This Year Our Buyer Has "Gone the Limit"

For two months he scoured the New York Toy markets and purchased all the new and novel Toys that could be found. Lack of time and space prevent us from even attempting to tell you everything we have in the way of Toys and Holiday Goods; therefore, we can only extend to everyone a cordial invitation to visit our stores early—don't put it off, as we are already enjoying a big trade on this line of merchandise, and if you delay you will have less to select from, besides experiencing our inability to serve you so satisfactorily.

NOTE: To new customers we wish to call attention to our rules on Christmas goods, namely: no goods guaranteed, taken back or exchanged, or set aside without a cash deposit.

Several years ago Mr. Lancashire decided to test the appetites of Toledo's kids by giving away 5,000 crates of oranges...

Another concern that is helping to make this city a distributing center is the Victor Motor company...

The children are always delighted and the Toledo motorists are proud of the letter just to humor the kid...

STORAGE BATTERY DOES NOT STORE ELECTRICITY

"The storage battery does not store electricity as the great majority of motorists suppose," declared Casey Dillman...

"As a matter of fact," he continued, "the battery transforms the chemical energy into the electrical form when discharging and changes electricity into chemical energy when being charged."

Expects Revival In Auto Industry After January 1

"When we say that the sale of automobiles has been slow for the past seven or eight weeks," said S. Benford, "we are not at all likely to meet with contradiction by anyone who is in the business in this part of the country."

"The trade journals in general, which have representatives in all sections of the country, seem to expect better conditions soon, but admit that just now everybody knows business is bad, and there would be nothing gained by disguising the fact."

In view of the general financial situation it is very doubtful if the price reductions so far announced this fall have had any stimulating effect on the sale of cars.

"This depression was bound to come as a result of the orgy of spending which has been indulged in for the past four or five years, but that it would come with such suddenness and severity, we think was a surprise even to bankers and business men of long experience."

These are the things she would like to have for Christmas—hand made ties, slumber robes, night dresses, breakfast coat, fancy garters and many other novelties.

KNOWLEDGE FOR CAR OWNERS

Interesting and Important Facts That Every Motorist Should Know.

The commonest anti-freezing compound is composed of denatured alcohol and water.

Batteries should never be allowed to stand for any length of time without charging.

If your engine shows a disposition to gallop when climbing a hill in high gear, try cutting down the mixture.

Backfiring when starting is caused by a cold engine and should be avoided in cold weather.

A little neatfoot oil or motor oil applied to the leather washer of the pump will prevent air from filtering through, thus causing a loss of time.

Look at your battery occasionally and if the solution has sprayed or spilled, wipe clean with a moist sponge.

A simply way to tell whether the spark is advanced far enough for speed of the piston at any time is to advance the spark until the engine begins to knock.

One of the most important things to watch in putting new tubes into your casing is to see that they are not pinched under the tire.

For the first time, the discovery of gasoline is to be screened to patrons of the moving picture shows.

It is said by the technical staff in charge of the making of the picture, that this scene will be one of the most difficult ever attempted in motion picture photography and at first was considered too dangerous to be attempted.

Country in Healthy Condition Says the Head of Nash Firm

"Bankers, in putting on the brakes in the early fall, saved the United States from what might have been a very serious condition," says C. W. Nash, president of the Nash Motors company.

"In fact the situation might have been such that even the federal reserve system with all its powers could not have prevented serious consequences."

"Isn't it better that we should all weather a temporary slump and stay on top than go over the precipice in spring into chaos from which it would take some years to recover?"

"Had the bankers given every business man all the money he wanted every one would have gone out and bought everything in sight and the result would have been such an overstocked condition that wild cutting of prices would have led to demoralization."

"Business, having become stabilized is picking up. By that I mean it is not going to return to normal overnight, or in a week, but it is coming along naturally for we are now getting our breath. When spring rolls around the over supply will all be behind us and conditions will have become more normal."

"People are now recovering from that state of mind in which they felt the country was going to the dogs and it was therefore incumbent upon them to hold on to every dollar they could get."

Picture to Show The Evolution of Modes of Travel

For the first time, the discovery of gasoline is to be screened to patrons of the moving picture shows. It is embodied in a picture showing the evolution of travel from primitive times to the present day and is being produced by the Cole Motor Car company.

screen the exact occurrence that led to the discovery of gasoline. It is said that special asbestos-protected equipment is being secured and that the cameramen, the directors and everyone else who is to have a share in the photographing of this scene, is being fitted with special asbestos suits, masks and hats, to protect them in case an accident occurring as a result of the explosion.

THE MOTORISTS' PROBLEMS'

By WILLIAM H. STEWART, JR.

Motor Department: My engine runs on all four cylinders regularly, but does not seem to have as much power as it had. Will you please let me know some of the things that might cause such a condition?—K. B.

The most common cause is poor compression in the cylinder. If the carburetor is adjusted to give either too rich or too lean a mixture loss of power will result. Should the bearings of an engine be set too tight the same trouble will result, due to the additional friction. Also when the clutch slips and does not transmit to the rear wheels the full engine power. Brake rods sometimes get out of adjustment, causing the brake bands to rub on the drums of the wheels, even when the brake is not applied.

Motor Department: I have considerable trouble in starting my engine these cold mornings. I prime the cylinders, clean the carburetor and draw out the choke, but still it is hard to start. Please give me some advice on starting.—T. P.

You probably have too rich a mixture, which is almost as bad as too lean a mixture. Use less gasoline. Try advancing spark slightly. Applications of hot cloths to intake manifold and carburetor will also facilitate starting. Be sure that spark gap at plugs is not too wide and the breaker points are clean and correctly adjusted.

Motor Department: Having used ether for priming the engine to start it in cold weather and noting the snapping explosions it gives, I have wondered if it would be advisable to mix some with the gasoline to give it more power. Please give me your opinion of it.—Owner.

It would undoubtedly give more power, but would tend to flatten the bearings and might even break some part, such as the piston head. While ether has been used in races it is not thought advisable to use it in ordinary work.

Motor Department: Please advise if it is necessary to remove the Schebler Model B carburetor from the car in order to clean out the float chamber. I have had considerable trouble with dirt and wish to clean it.—A. M.

The float bowl is readily removed from this carburetor by loosening the nut at the bottom. You may have to remove the gasoline pipe where it joins the carburetor, but this may be bent sufficient for the purpose of cleaning.

Motor Department: After my engine has stopped for any length of time I cannot start it and keep running for any length of time without using the choke for several seconds, and if I open the throttle wide it chokes her altogether, but have no trouble afterward. I do not think it is because the engine is cold.—T. T.

It would seem that you are not getting enough gasoline through the spray nozzle. Adjust for stronger mixture while engine is running, then adjust down. Then open the throttle and if engine backfires at high speed adjustment for stronger mixture. Be sure the muffler is not choked.

Motor Department: Could you tell me why I cannot get any explosion from my machine, as I have good spark? Do you think the carburetor has anything to do with it?—W. H.

If there is good compression in each cylinder and the valves timed correctly as well as the ignition, then you must look to the carburetor for the trouble. If by priming the cylinders you cannot obtain an explosion, then you must be wrong. As regards the spark only a careful checking will locate the source of trouble.

Motor Department: Please let me know through your column if it is advisable or not to have a storage battery recharged as long as it turns the engine over pretty fast. Also if any damage will result from losing about a teaspoonful of the solution from the battery.—F. L.

Test your battery with a hydrometer. Instructions come with it. Don't let your storage battery run down. It is best to keep it fully charged. No harm will result by losing a little of the solution. Replace the loss by adding distilled water. Always keep the plates covered with electrolyte.

Motor Department: In overhauling my Ford I find I can't remove the rear wheels. I have a good strong wheel puller, but can get no results. Have packed hub with kerosene, tightened nut screws, tapping some with hammer, also tried heating hub with blow torch. Can you advise me best method? Kindly tell me if crankshaft that has been worn slightly egg-shaped can be turned down so as to give an even bearing. Thanking you in advance.—R. S.

In the older models you will find a pin through the hub and shaft at the end where the hub cap covers. Knock out this pin and you should have no trouble in removing the wheel.

Motor Department: Please let me know what good a muffler cut-out does to a machine? Does it add power, and how much?—E. L.

When properly designed and kept clean the muffler takes away from two to three per cent of the power of the engine and the cut out restores this loss. The cut out is of greatest use when testing the engine for missing cylinder, as then each explosion may be heard and the absence of an explosion noted. The use of the cut-out is prohibited in many states.

Motor Department: Please tell me why I have trouble in shifting my gears, especially when I start in the morning, after leaving the car standing all night. It does not give me any trouble during the day, but only seems to bother me in the morning when I start out.—C. W.

This trouble is probably due to using too heavy a transmission grease. It thickens on account of the cold, and so holds the gears back. You should use a heavy oil in winter.

HELPFUL HINTS.

During the winter use a slightly thinner oil since it is exposed to a very low temperature at the bottom of the crank case and may not be fluid enough to lubricate properly unless of a lighter grade.

From time to time during the winter draw off some of the oil from the bottom and look for water. If any is present it will freeze and may wreck the pipe and pump.

Keep oil measure clean and in a clean place. No grit should be permitted to reach the oil reservoir of the engine.

Gear case grease should not be too stiff. It should be able to flow freely between the teeth of the gears freely. For this reason a lighter grade of lubricant should be used during cold weather.

If in doubt about the effect of cold weather on your oil, place some in a glass where it will be exposed to the cold. If it thickens so much that it will not readily flow, it is not suitable.

MEXICO PLANS TO SPEND MILLION FOR AIRPLANES
GALVESTON, TEXAS, Dec. 4.—Mexico will spend $1,000,000 on modern airplanes for her army, according to official advice to Meade Piore, Mexican consul here. The despatches said Provisional resident de la Huerta had authorized Raphael O'Neil, director general of the army school of aviation, to expend that amount for aircraft in London.

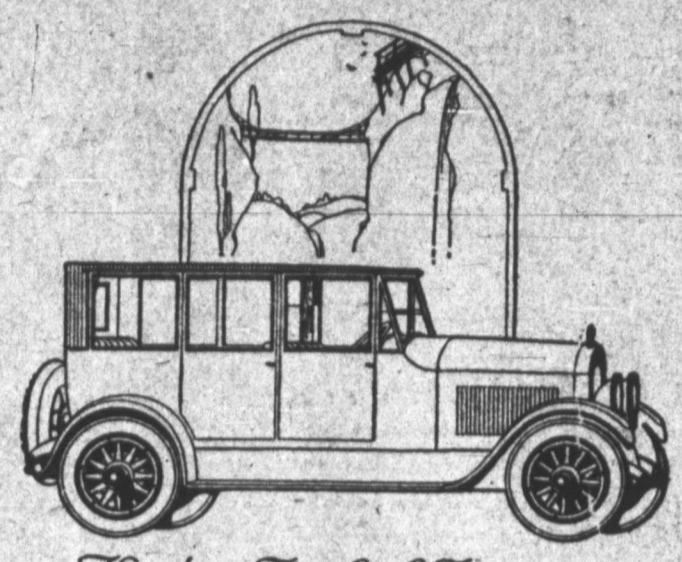

Florida is apparently underlain with a great abundance of flowing water.

Here is one way that a car can be made to last longer. Drain the oil from the crank case every 500 miles, clean the crank case with kerosene and then refill it again with fresh, clean oil. Do this consistently and you will save repair bills and prolong the life of the car.

More Eggs or Money Back!
The Purina System of Feeding keeps the flock laying in the fall and the winter, because it supplies plenty of material for whites as well as for yolks. This enables the hen to make complete eggs of all the yolks that develop in her body.
When a grain ration is fed there is not enough protein for whites. Many yolks that form are not laid, but are eventually absorbed back into the system as fat.
More-Eggs Guarantee
Purina Chows, when fed according to directions, are guaranteed to make hens lay more eggs than any other feed, or the money paid for Purina Chows will be refunded.
