

OIL DEVELOPMENT IN YOUNG COUNTY HAS NEW IMPETUS

GRAHAM, TEXAS, March 17.—Spurred by spring weather and the near completion of the pipe line connections of the Prairie company, development work in Young county is taking on a new impetus. The increased activity has been reflected in Graham this week by the number of new arrivals here and by the heavy traffic to and from the fields.

WINNSBORO WELL AT THE INTERESTING STAGE

WINNSBORO, TEXAS, March 17.—The Morris No. 1 well of the Winnsboro Petroleum Company has reached the most interesting stage of its entire development. This well, which was believed to have found the Woodbine sand two weeks ago, is now known to have uncovered the Blossom sand, a formation found just above the Woodbine sand in the big wells of Louisiana, the tops of which are checking almost exactly with that of the Morris well.

To Our Friends and the Public. We wish to announce the purchase of the J. B. Green & Company insurance agency, which business will be continued in the name of McNutt & Fuller. Mr. McNutt has been the manager for this agency since it began business in this city, while Mr. Fuller, an old citizen of Wichita Falls, has just severed his connection as rate inspector for the state fire insurance commission, the rate-making body at Austin, after five years' service. Both Mr. McNutt and Mr. Fuller are former rate inspectors, and we can therefore offer our customers superior service in securing for them the best rates obtainable. We are exclusive insurance agents, and respectfully solicit your business, promising the same efficient service and courteous treatment accorded our customers in the past. Respectfully, McNutt & Fuller, 409 Morgan Bldg. 308-310

REVIVING INTEREST IN THE COLORADO TO THE GULF HIGHWAY

CHILDRESS, TEXAS, March 17.—Seven automobiles carrying about twenty-five business men of Amarillo, and also several cars from Clarendon, Memphis, and Estelline, arrived in Childress late Tuesday afternoon, for the purpose of reviving the interest in the spring travel over the Colorado-to-Gulf Highway. The train of automobiles was met in Memphis by Secretary T. Paul Barron and Director Ernest Davis of the Childress chamber of commerce, and lodged into Childress.

An enthusiastic meeting was held at the chamber of commerce, and the visitors were welcomed with short addresses by President J. C. Thomas and Secretary T. Paul Barron. Following this, speeches were delivered by F. R. Jamison, W. B. Estes, Editor Pope of the Amarillo News, Ernest Thompson, M. Carey Toney, Chas. Lindsay Nunn, all of Amarillo; A. L. Chase and Mayor Watson of Clarendon; Curry Greene of Estelline; C. Terrell and M. J. Hathaway of Childress.

The date of the annual Colorado-to-the-Gulf convention, which will be held in Fort Worth April 27 and 28 was announced, and special efforts will be made to get several cars to go from Childress.

A committee from the chamber of commerce assisted the Amarillo men in selecting a site for a large road sign to be placed near the city limits of Childress, which will have a map of the road to Amarillo.

The boosters returned over the same road Wednesday morning.

Perfect Plans for the Graham Legion Festival. GRAHAM, TEXAS, March 17.—Members of the local post of the American Legion at a meeting Monday night perfected further plans for the legion festival which will be held here during the week of March 21-24, inclusive.

Letter Reveals Murder of Negress at Denison. DENISON, TEXAS, March 17.—A letter revealed the murder of Jennie Jones, aged 40, a negress who was found dead in her home here late yesterday with an axe imbedded in her head. She had been dead since Sunday, it is believed. The letter, thought to have been written by the murderer, was mailed to a neighbor of the Jones' woman informing her that she would find the negress dead in her home. Robbery is thought to have been the motive for the deed.

EIGHTY TO NINETY EGGS DAILY FROM 125 HENS

VERNON, TEXAS, March 17.—Eighty to 90 eggs a day from 125 Rhode Island Reds are being gathered by S. D. Lawlis, living six miles northeast of Oklaunion, and of the 125 hens, 15 are setting. The week before last this progressive farmer sold over $50 worth of eggs, and he is continually receiving orders for both eggs and chickens from all parts of the country. The great extent of the territory acquainted with the quality of eggs produced by chickens raised by Mr. Lawlis is due entirely to the fact that the Oklaunion farmer "tells the world" about his wares through various mediums of advertising. Poultry journals have been prominent vehicles of information for him, and only recently an inquiry concerning what he had to sell came to him from old Mexico.

Mr. Lawlis has been breeding chickens for nine years and has met with ever increasing success. He has won premiums at every fair he has entered.

Mr. Lawlis breeds for color and egg production. He has made poultry raising an intensive study and intends during the next year to devote his entire attention to the work. He is convinced that the remuneration from this source will more than equal that from general farming, and he is more than willing to take a chance on beating the low price of cotton with high priced pens of chickens. Two pens were sold last winter by the Oklaunion farmer for $100 apiece. Forty roosters he possessed were sold from $2.50 to $25.

Makes Appeal for Further Aid for Near East Relief. Rev. John A. Travis of Amarillo, secretary of the Panhandle-Plains committee for Near East relief, in a letter to The Times, calls upon Wichitans to aid just a little more in this work.

Armenia, with more than 100,000 girls in Turkish bondage, cannot be rescued until provision is made for their care. There are 115,000 orphan Christian children who have no known relatives and who are dependent upon America. Every individual, church, Sunday school, lodge, club and young people's society should help and be glad to do so.

The land of Christ will become Moslem unless we save the Christians in it. This is a plea for an Easter offering, needy children of the Near East. Contributions may be sent to Mr. Travis, box 662, Amarillo, Texas.

HISTORIC BUILDING TO MAKE WAY FOR MODERN STRUCTURE

Contract will be awarded shortly for a new brick building, 7,250 sq. ft., at the corner of Seventh and Indiana. Saul Lehmann, proprietor of Saul's, who several weeks ago announced plans for a new building near Seventh and Indiana, said Thursday that he had decided to occupy the entire corner. A two-story building of unusually attractive appearance will be erected there.

Part of the site is now occupied by one of Wichita Falls' oldest structures, which will be razed to make way for the improvements. The corner building, a one-story structure, was this city's first city hall, and was also the birth place of the First National bank.

Mr. Lehmann's new building will front 22 feet on Seventh and 100 feet on Indiana, with an elaborate system of show windows extending along both fronts. With its completion, that of Indiana between Sixth and Sev will be almost entirely built up, a decided change from its condition few years ago.

THE MERRY JOURNEYS OF MARY JANE

Mary Jane and Joe Bluejay

ONE fine day when Spring had come and old Fatty Bullfrog had started to tell people "You-better-go-round—You-better-go-round" Mary Jane met Joe Bluejay. Joe was sitting at the edge of a twig making faces and calling names at Tabby White-nose, the cat. Tabby had a very bad temper anyhow, and what Joe said to her didn't make it any better. Mary Jane drove tabby away and told Joe he ought to know better than to start a rumpus on a beautiful Spring day like that. Joe said he knew it, but old Whiteface was too smart anyway. Mary Jane said "Well you know a lot, but I bet you don't know what I had for lunch." And Joe said what did she have for lunch.

BOND MARKET SHOWS INCREASED STRENGTH

Of the Large Number of Offers to Buy County Road Bonds Highest Has Been at $2.

It is apparent from the numerous offers made to purchase the $1,000,000 worth of county road bonds submitted in the past week that the bond market is showing increased strength. Judge J. P. Jones has received a large number of offers each day for the past four or five days. The highest bid made was at $2 net. The lowest one submitted was $9. One bond salesman stated that presumably in the middle of April would bring the bond market back to a sound footing again and that the road bonds would bring much more than any present offer.

We Will Also Sell 80 Beautiful SPRING DRESSES

that are exclusive and distinctive copies of New York originals (no known duplication elsewhere) same materials—exact style—and high quality workmanship—actual values ranging from $60 to $125.

Eighty ladies can get these 80 dresses during our demonstration offerings at $39.50.

Please remember these are not "job lots," "clearance shipments" or "surplus stocks." They are beautiful garments—in nearly every instance an exact duplicate of an exclusive $100 to $300 dress originally designed and added to the wardrobe of some charming and chic member of the Elite, New York. We make this special offering to impress on our friends the real advantages of buying exclusive garments at the MacDowell "House of Personality."

MacDOWELLS

"HOUSE OF PERSONALITY"
702 Indiana Ave.

An Invitation—

Mr. MacDowell is keeping a high-salaried expert buyer of long experience permanently located in New York for the exclusive purpose of buying and having made up by manufacturers the very latest modes and materials in dresses, suits and wraps.

MacDowell's store does not wait on jobbers and wholesalers, and does not depend on large orders to be turned out by manufacturers. The MacDowell store seldom receives a freight shipment. Through the MacDowell New York office, the best of modish materials are obtained from local and imported stocks. These materials are then made into original creations, or exact copies of the most exclusive garments of the high-priced Fifth Avenue shops. The manufacturing is done under the direct supervision of the MacDowell management and as rapidly as these originals and exact copies of latest New York modes are completed, they are sent by fast express or parcel post to Wichita Falls.

The result of this economical plan is the fact that MacDowell is positively offering the very latest New York modes every day—from thirty days to sixty days in advance of other stores, and the MacDowell prices on these distinctive and exclusive garments are exceptionally low—usually one-third to one-half less than the "job lots" and large quantity "freight shipments" of other houses.

To demonstrate what MacDowell's can save you and how MacDowell's can serve you, a special showing and sale of these exclusive garments will be held Friday, Saturday and Monday, March 18th, 19th and 21st.

Look over the suggestions in this invitation to you and come in early during this Spring Demonstration Sale. Whether you buy or not, you will be welcome—we just want to show you the one hundred garments now in our store from New York, and let you compare the quality and prices with the offering in other shops.

RHEA HOWARD MAKES STATEMENT ON RACE

Asks For Support Of White Voters And Makes Plain His Attitude In Contest.

Rhea Howard, candidate for aldermanic position No. 3 on the city council, has addressed a statement to the white voters of Wichita Falls setting forth his views in connection with some of the developments of the campaign. His statement follows:

To the White Citizens of Wichita Falls: At the solicitation of a few friends, I consented to become a candidate for city councilman, place No. 3. Before this candidacy was offered me the petition of another worthy citizen had been circulated, but on the last day for the filing of petitions, I decided not to become a candidate. Various reasons have been given for his declination, but the one most credited is that he did not want to get mixed up into a political campaign, which is a very good reason. Neither was I anxious to make the race, but realized that it was the duty of someone, and I therefore have consented, and if elected will serve the people to the best of my ability. I want to state further that I will not receive orders from any organization to act on matters concerning the welfare and interests of all the people unless it can be shown to me that such organization, presuming to dictate to a council elected by a majority of the people, gets its authority to act in the same manner. I will appreciate the votes and support of all white citizens.

My reason for making this appeal to the white citizens is that I notice by the Times, yesterday, that the League of Negroes or Negroes Business League, claiming to represent a negro voting strength of 700 or 800 negro men and women in this city, have pledged to vote as a unit for my opponent, Mr. R. E. Shepherd. No, therefore, even were I so inclined, an appeal by me for negro votes would be in vain. But I am not inclined that way, and will say frankly that I prefer going down in defeat rather than to humiliate myself to the extent of catering to negro men and women for their votes for a political office. Should I have resorted to that means and had secured their votes, the negro would naturally believe that I was indebted to them politically, and would want such debt paid in a political way should I be elected.

For myself, I have only to say that I have never mistreated a negro, and don't believe that as a race they should be mistreated, but I am old enough to realize the danger of white people mingling too much on an equality with negroes, and one way in which this is done is on occasions like the present. So long as the negroes are clean and band together, voting as a unit for any candidate or proposition, they certainly can have no complaint if a sufficient number of white people resort to the same method and vote as a unit to defeat whatever scheme they may have in mind.

If this happened to take the eye of some white citizen who does not share his views on this matter, then, sir, just consider I am not appealing to you for your vote or support. It is only for those who believe as I do, that when negroes band together there is danger lurking somewhere, and another day later will result in humiliation to white people and more trouble for the negro.

This plain announcement may cause you defeat, but I will have no complaint to make. I only want to set myself right before the white people, and leave it to their judgment, if my position on this matter of seeking negro support by the wholesale or as a unit is not the correct one.

RHEA HOWARD.

NOT EVEN RIGGS HIMSELF KNOWS MYSTERY MAN'S NAME

That even Riggs himself does not know the name of the mystery man who has the power to bestow a suit of clothes upon the first white visitor who inquires, "Have you seen Riggs?" was learned by scores of disappointed close friends of the popular clothing store, making himself known to Riggs by a quiet tip "just between friends, don't you know."

Riggs says he anticipated something like this, and, being a goodhearted fellow, was a bit afraid he'd weaken and, in omission or commission give somebody the "edge." For that reason, he requested a traveling man passing through the city to hand a certain little pass-word to any reliable citizen, and on March 24 that citizen is to come into Riggs store, making himself known, say the mysterious little word and then announce the name and address of the party first asking him.

"Have you seen Riggs?" by a liberal use of printers' ink and attractive prices, Riggs opened his store on the first day of his sale this morning to find a large crowd in waiting, and at last accounts buying was brisk.

CARS THAT COPPED THE HONORS IN BIG STYLE PARADE HERE

At the top is the Civic League car, driven by Mrs. N. O. Monroe, which won first honors in the organization class.

The middle picture is of the car of Frank Harmeler and family of Burk Burnett, first prize-winner in the out-of-town class.

The bottom picture shows the prize-winning car in the individual class, driven by Miss Mabel Shaw.

SEVERAL ACTS VIE FOR FIRST HONORS IN WEEK'S VAUDEVILLE AT PALACE

Headed by Harry Richman's "Varieties of 1921" and closely backed by three other fine acts, this week's vaudeville bill at the Palace got off to a running start toward success Wednesday evening. In the opinion of those who were on hand for its debut the bill is the best that the Palace has offered since its opening, for none of the acts are weak, and a large majority would serve as headliners on an average bill.

Richman's Variety outfit gets the cement bicycle for veracity, because their act is what they claim for it—different. The songs, dances and comedy, while patterned along the standard lines, has a snap and swing which is lacking in many of the "two-a-day" productions, and the chorus—oh my. Richman himself is a very capable comedian and takes the best when it comes to long distance piano playing. His supporting cast, composed of Norma Hair, Jack Waldron and the Ward sisters, is also above the average.

Pushing the headliners for premier honors of the evening at every turn was the Kellam and O'Dare team, Frank and Patricia, respectively, who turned out to be a pair of stars from the word go. Their songs and dances are not of the "bottled in bond" type which are boxed up and carried over the circuit with the rest of the baggage, but they had the personal vivacity and originality which is an attribute only of real artists.

Lillian's Comedy Pets are warranted to entertain the youngsters, or grown-ups either, for that matter, for they are all dinky little canines that look about as big as a minute on the stage. However, their antics are pleasing and contain a large per cent of comedy.

In "My Home Town," Mary Marble came back with all the pep and ginger which has made her a favorite on the stage for many moons. Her present skill was written especially for her, and fits her like a glove. The supporting cast is very capable, and altogether the act is entirely pleasing.

Hillie Stone, the only solo performer on the bill, has a whole lot of lines of songs and stories, and some new, some otherwise, which he knows how to put over in the latest approved fashion.

Billie is all right, and his debonair bearing on the stage made a big hit with the ladies.

Ed Zolo and his partner, who opens the evening's festivities, have a new line of tumbling, knock-about stunts in which public approval is courted at the risk of their own necks. Plenty of comedy is contained in this presentation also.

The remaining offering of the evening was given by Lou Reed and Al Tucker, a pair of comic violinists who romped over the stage to the latest popular airs, played by themselves on their own little fiddles. Tucker and Reed were one of the strong points on the entire bill, and came in for a large share of applause.

TRUCK OPERATORS TO BE HARD HIT BY NEW TAX MEASURE

IF GOVERNOR SIGNS, MUST PAY ONE CENT A MILE AND UP ON ALL RURAL TRIPS.

JOHNSON TELLS ROTARIANS OF LEGISLATURE'S LABORS

Club Starts Move To Foster Public Speaking Contests By Offering Rotary Prize.

Somewhat slipped one over on the motor truck owners of Texas at the recent session of the legislature, according to R. Frank Johnson, who spoke at Thursday's session of the Rotary club. A bill was passed and now awaits the governor's signature, levying a tax of one to eight cents a mile, according to capacity, on all trucks operating outside of the city limits.

The tax would add an enormous expense to operating expenses of oil companies in this county, which daily send truck loads of pipe and equipment to their leases. Mr. Johnson said that he opposed the bill vigorously, but was almost alone in doing so.

Mr. Johnson's discussion of various legislative activities was one of several talks on the Rotary program Thursday. W. M. Friddy, in a short talk, started a movement to encourage public speaking in the schools of the city and county, by the offering of a Rotary prize. He thought that every aid should be given the public speaking activities in the schools, and after adjournment secured promises of assistance from a number of Rotarians. E. B. Goodner spoke on "What Rotary Means to Me as a New Member." Declaring himself absolutely "sold" on Rotary, Mr. Goodner said that by reason of the fellowship, the creed and ethics and the type of men that Rotary gave to him, he had found that membership in the organization was something of real value.

Miss Shafer, accompanied by Miss Lorimer as pianist, gave two enjoyable vocal selections. The report of the passage of the truck tax bill was given by Mr. Johnson in connection with an account of legislative proceedings. He said that the injustice that was being done the motor truck industry did not seem at all apparent to the house membership, which saw only a means of producing additional revenue. Mr. Johnson called attention to the fact that the governor has not yet signed the bill.

Mr. Johnson spoke of the irrigation bill as one of the most constructive pieces of legislation enacted. Changes which had been made in the state contracts law and in the minimum wage law, he said, made those laws more beneficial; on the minimum wage law no attempt will be made to lay down one rule for the entire state, but by means of a "zone system" the law will apply differently as living conditions and expenses are different. Mr. Johnson defended the legislature for its big educational appropriations, saying there could not be real economy in such matters.

BRIDGEPORT WELL REPORTED TO HAVE 1,700 FEET OF OIL

NOCONA, TEXAS, March 17.—The test well, located about six miles west of Bridgeport in Wise county, and 25 to 40 miles south of the Big Six well, out southwest of Nocona, is reported to have 1,700 feet of oil in the hole from sand found at 4,300 feet. This well has been drilled for about two years. This is an important strike, and not only brings into view considerable new and deep territory, but shows the possibilities that lie between the Bridgeport well and the Healdton and Hewitt fields with Montague county lying between. This strike will again bring this county to the attention to those who are inclined to wildcat in the hopes of making a good strike, rather than pay the high prices usually demanded for close-in leases about a well, some distance removed from production. It will also show that, up to the present time, this county has not had a well drilled sufficiently deep to make a good test. A 30-foot sand was found in the Pure Oil company test in the Healdton field, which, it is believed, will make a paying well throughout some distance. The oil is 45 gravity. Another well has a sand with oil showing at 2,785 near the Hewitt field. The Healdton-Hewitt and Bridgeport strikes would make the 2,100 foot level in the Pure Oil company and Gulf Phillips wells interesting, and possibly 2,400 feet at the Big Six, though these figures may need some corrections when the wells have been drilled deep enough to test out the horizons at which pay sands may come in. The Pure Oil and Gulf Phillips wells will drill for deep tests. An effort is being made to work out a deal for drilling the Big Six well to 2,500 feet. It begins to look like something would be found by deeper drilling in this well. A showing of oil and gas was found at 1,450 and gas at 2,180 feet, which would indicate the well is located in a saturated zone. The Bridgeport well brings the Big Six structure to view with renewed interest. The Pure Oil company test on the Heide farm, about eight miles northwest of Nocona, started with 20-inch casing, and is having some difficulty with gumbo formation below 400 feet. The Gulf Phillips test on the Bouldin ranch, near Spanish Fort, is making progress around 900 feet, and is drilling with rotary.

SOUTHERN'S ENTIRE LINE NOW COVERED BY WORK CONTRACTS

Contracts for construction of the entire new line of the Wichita Falls and Southern, from Newcastle to Jimkern, have now been awarded by the railroad company, it was learned Thursday. Contracts for the portion from Newcastle through Graham to the Brazos river, and for the bridge across the Brazos had previously been let, and the balance of the line over the remaining portion of the new road. About 20 different contractors are sharing in the work. Reports Thursday told of continued steady progress at all points where work is under way.

The Greek Interpreter

By A. CONAN DOYLE

The McClure Newspaper Syndicates.

PART ONE.

"During my long and intimate acquaintance with Mr. Sherlock Holmes I had never heard him refer to his relations, and hardly ever to his own early life. This reticence upon his part increased the somewhat inhuman effect which he produced upon me, until sometimes I found myself regarding him as an isolated phenomenon, a brain in a vat, as a deficient in human sympathy as he was pre-eminent in intelligence. His aversion to women and his disinclination to form new friendships were both typical of his unemotional character, but not more so than his complete suppression of every reference to his own people. I came to believe that he was an orphan with no relatives living; but one day, to my very great surprise, he began to talk to me about his brother."

"It was after tea on a summer evening, and the conversation which had raged in a desultory, spasmodic fashion from golf clubs to the causes of the change in the obliquity of the ecliptic, came round at last to the question of aviatism and hereditary aptitudes. The point under discussion was, how far any singular gift in an individual was due to his ancestry and how far to his own early training."

"In your own case," said I, "from all that you have told me, it seems obvious that your faculty of observation and your peculiar facility for deduction are due to your own systematic training."

"To some extent," he answered, thoughtfully. "My ancestors were country squires, who appear to have led much the same life as naturalists to their class. But, none the less, my turn that way is in my veins, and may have come with my grandmother, who was the sister of Veret, the French artist. Art in the blood is liable to take strange forms."

"But how do you know that it is hereditary?"

"Because my brother Mycroft possesses it in a larger degree than I do."

"This was news to me, indeed. If there were another man with such singular powers in England, how was it that neither police nor public had heard of him? I put the question, with a hint that it was my companion's modesty which made him acknowledge his brother as his superior. Holmes laughed at my suggestion."

"My dear Watson," said he. "I can not agree with those who rank modesty among the virtues. To the logician all things should be seen exactly as they are, and to underestimate one's self is as much a departure from truth as to exaggerate one's own powers. When I say, therefore, that Mycroft has better powers of observation than I, you may take it that I am speaking the exact and literal truth."

"Is he your junior?"

"Seven years my senior."

"How comes it that he is unknown?"

"Oh, he is very well known in his own circle."

"Where, then?"

"Well, in the Diogenes club, for example."

"I had never heard of the institution, and my face must have proclaimed as much, for Sherlock Holmes pulled out his watch."

"The Diogenes club is the queerest club in London, and Mycroft one of the queerest men. He is always there, from the quarter of five to twenty to eight. It is six now, so if you care for a stroll this beautiful evening I shall be very happy to introduce you to two curiosities."

Five minutes later we were in the street, walking toward Regent's circus.

"You wonder," said my companion, "why it is that Mycroft does not use his powers for detective work. He is incapable of it."

"But I thought you said—"

"I said that my superior in observation and deduction. If the art of the detective began and ended in reasoning from an arm-chair, my brother would be the greatest criminal agent that ever lived. But he has no ambition and no energy. He will not even go out of his way to verify his own solutions, and would rather be considered wrong than take the trouble to prove himself right. Again and again I have taken a problem to him, and have received an explanation, which has afterwards proved to be the correct one. And yet he was absolutely incapable of working out the practical points, which must be gone into before a case could be laid before a judge or jury."

"It is not his profession, then?"

The two men had stopped opposite the window. Some chalk marks over the waistcoat pocket were the only signs of billiards which I could see in one of them. The other was a very small, dark fellow, with his hat pushed back and several packages under his arm.

"An old soldier, I perceive," said Sherlock.

"And very recently discharged," remarked the brother.

"Served in India, I see."

"And a non-commissioned officer."

"Royal Artillery, I fancy," said Sherlock.

"And a widower."

"But with a child."

"Children my dear boy, children."

"Come," said I, laughing, "this is a little too much."

"Surely," answered Holmes. "It is not hard to say that a man with that bearing, expression of authority, and sun-baked skin, is a soldier, is more than a private, and is not long from India."

"That he has not left the service long is shown by his still wearing his ammunition boots, as they are called," observed Mycroft.

"He had not the cavalry stride, yet he wore his hat on one side, as is shown by the lighter skin on that side of his brow. His weight is against his being a sapper. He is in the artillery."

"Then, of course, his complete mourning shows that he has lost some very dear. The fact that he is doing his own shopping looks as though it were his wife. He has been buying things for children, you perceive. There is a rattle, which shows that one of them is very young. The wife probably died in childbirth. The fact that he has a picture-book under his arm shows that there is another child to be thought of."

I began to understand what my friend meant when he said that his brother possessed even keener faculties than he did himself. He glanced across at me and smiled. Mycroft took snuff from a tortoise-shell box, and brushed away the wandering grains from his coat with a large, red silk handkerchief.

"By the way, Sherlock," said he, "I have had something quite after your own heart—a most singular problem—submitted to my judgment. I really had not the energy to follow it up save in a very incomplete fashion, but it gave me a basis for some pleasing speculations. If you would care to hear the facts—"

"My dear Mycroft, I should be delighted."

The brother scribbled a note upon a leaf of his pocketbook, and, ringing the bell, he handed it to the waiter.

"I have asked Mr. Melas to step across," said he, nodding on the floor above me, and I have some slight acquaintance with him, which led him to come to me in his perplexity. Mr. Melas is a Greek by extraction, as I understand, and he is a remarkable linguist. He earns his living partly as interpreter in the law courts and partly by acting as guide to any wealthy Oriental who may visit the Northumberland Avenue hotels. I think I will leave him to tell his very remarkable experience in his own fashion."

A few minutes later we were joined by a short stout man whose olive face and coal black hair proclaimed his Southern origin, though his speech was that of an educated Englishman. He shook hands eagerly with Sherlock Holmes, and his dark eyes sparkled with pleasure when he understood that the specialist was anxious to hear his story.

"I do not believe that the police credit me—on my word, I do not," said he in a wailing voice. "Just because they have never heard of it before, they think that such a thing cannot be. But I know that I shall never be easy in my mind until I know what has become of my poor man with the sticking plaster upon his face."

"I am all attention," said Sherlock Holmes.

"This is Wednesday evening," said Mr. Melas. "Well, then, it was Monday night—only two days ago, you understand—that all this happened. I am an interpreter, as perhaps my neighbor there has told you. I interpret all languages—or nearly all—but as I am a Greek by birth and with a Grecian name, it is with that particular tongue that I am principally associated. For many years, I have been the chief Greek interpreter in London, and my name is very well known in the hotels.

"It happens not unfrequently that I am sent for at strange hours by foreigners who get into difficulties, or by travellers who arrive late and wish my services. I was not surprised, therefore, on Monday night when a Mr. Latimer, a very fashionably dressed young man, came up to my rooms and asked me to accompany him in a cab which was waiting at the door. A Greek friend had come to see him upon business, he said, and as he could speak nothing but his own tongue, the services of an interpreter were indispensable. He gave me to understand that his house was some little distance off, in Kensington, and he seemed to be in a great hurry, bustling me rapidly into the cab when we had descended to the street."

"I saw into the cab, but I soon became doubtful as to whether it was not a carriage in which I found myself. It was certainly more roomy than the ordinary four-wheeled diables to London, and the fittings, though frayed, were of rich quality. Mr. Latimer seated himself opposite to me and we started off through Charging Cross and up the Shaftesbury Avenue. We had come out upon Oxford Street and I had ventured some remark as to this being a roundabout way to Kensington, when my words were arrested by the extraordinary conduct of my companion.

CAMPAIGN PROMISE THAT CAN'T BE WHOLLY KEPT

Tug of War As to Which Shall Be Taken Up First, Tariff or Tax Revision.

By MARK SULLIVAN
National Politics Correspondent of the New York Evening Post. (Copyright 1921 by the New York Evening Post.)

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The republican leaders are in a tug-of-war as to which to take up first—the tariff or the revision of taxes. On this question there have been conferences between President Harding and some twenty of the republican leaders. The conferences have ended without decision.

It is a disagreeable thing to decide, because each course promises disappointment at the end. It is a competition in reluctance.

A few of the old republican leaders who regard protection as an unfailing guarantee of national prosperity, want to jump into that immediately. The high priest of these is Fordney of Michigan. Fordney and these other old leaders remember the McKinley tariff of a generation ago, and think that what protection did them know what they will do now. They think protection is a prosperity miracle maker at all times and under all conditions.

There is a group of younger leaders, however, who believe that there is a wide difference between the conditions of the '90's and the conditions of today. They are far less certain that the mere device of high protection will now accomplish the things it seemed to accomplish in the time of McKinley and of Dingley. These younger leaders are by no means unfriendly to the protective tariff principle. On the contrary, they are emphatically in favor of it, but they have grave doubts whether protection alone will revive prosperity, and they don't want to be in the position of reviving the tariff without doing anything else, of leading the country to expect prosperity from that revision and then running the risk of the punishment to the party that would follow disappointment to the country.

What these younger leaders want is to take up the revision of the taxes first. They believe that the corporations and firms engaged in productive business can not make their plans intelligently until they know what taxes they must pay, and they want to get this uncertain factor out of the way first.

this younger school of republican leaders. One need not be a seer to foresee that in the outcome this struggle will be won by those who want to take up tax revision first. The mere fact of time will decide it if nothing else should. Everybody with any experience knows that the writing of a tariff will consume a minimum of six months. Anyone who wants to satisfy himself on this can look up the history of the tariff of McKinley, of Dingley, of Payne and of Underwood.

The house, which works much more compactly, can write a tariff in a comparatively short time, but no tariff bill can go into the senate and come out under six months. Senators must talk. If the republican leaders should take up the tariff first, it is a fair prediction that they would not complete the work before close to the end of the present year.

The revision of taxes, on the other hand, can be accomplished in a comparatively brief time.

Rate Will Not Be Less.
On this point of the revision of the taxes the public can take a few things completely for granted. The first will strike the taxpayer with a good deal of dismay. Every person who has just written his check for the income tax payment due Tuesday can rely with confidence and with alacrity on the fact that the check he will be paying a year from Tuesday will not be less than the check he is writing now.

What I mean, of course, is that the rate will not be changed and that the percentage of his income which he must pay will be the same.

I know this is contrary to the republican campaign promises to reduce taxation, but every well-informed republican leader knows now, and possibly some of them knew it during the campaign, that this is a promise that can not be wholly kept.

As one of them said the other day, "We have promised to solve the insoluble." It is true, the excess profits tax will be reduced in rate, or possibly wiped out altogether, but the excess profits tax has already ceased to be a revenue producer.

To the degree that the excess profits taxes have been reduced by the disappearance of profits, and to the degree that they may be reduced by any change made in the rate, to that same degree must the amount of revenue derived from income taxes be increased.

The rate of taxation on individual incomes will be the same next year as this year. There might be slight reductions in the rate on very large incomes.

In a rough way, the republican leaders draw a line on incomes of about $10,000 a year. They say that on incomes above that amount the rate of taxation can not be reduced. On incomes above that amount the rate may be reduced, not of course, for the purpose of making it easier on the rich, but rather to induce the rich to quit putting their funds into tax-free municipal bonds.

Government Must Pay.
The amount of money the government must pay out in a stubborn fact and must be met. To a certain extent, through the use of perfectly legitimate devices, the amount of the government's immediate outlay can be reduced. Appropriations can be pared, but all that can be done in that respect for the current year has already been done.

In another way an able secretary of the treasury can effect a certain amount of rearrangement of the government debt. That is what Secretary Mellon is busy on now. Short-term Liberty bonds can be refunded into long-term Liberty bonds. Payments of the government debt, which are now planned to be made over a period of twenty years, can be extended over a period of forty years, or even sixty years.

Nurse Tells of the Life of Stillmans While in Canada

By DALE VAN EVERY
United Press Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK, March 17.—The first account of events at the summer home of James A. Stillman, near the village of Grand Anse, Quebec, during the summer of 1918 was given to the United Press here today by Miss Isabel Armstrong, former nurse of the Stillman children.

Miss Armstrong came east from Pasadena, Cal., a witness for Stillman, millionaire banker, in his divorce action. The events at Grand Anse figured largely in the divorce evidence.

"I was at Grand Anse with Mrs. Stillman from March to September, 1918," Miss Armstrong said. "Mr. Stillman was not there during most of the summer.

"Fred Beauvais, (the French-Canadian named by Stillman) had complete authority as general manager of a whole establishment. He had power even to hire and discharge Mrs. Stillman's servant."

"Beauvais smoked cigars in the house. He was very highly regarded by all members of the family. He was very strong. I have seen him handle three sacks of cement with perfect ease.

"Mrs. Stillman was always out of doors in good weather. She was very much interested in farm work and spent much of her time inspecting the growing crops and seeing that everything was properly attended to.

"I remember seeing her riding on the seat of the big gang plow, and helping with the haying. Once I saw her weeding the vegetable garden. She had a horror of weeds. There were two houses on the farm which stretched along St. Marie river. The forest came right down to the edge of the farm. One of the houses was occupied by Mrs. Stillman. This was called the white house.

"The other house which was a stone's throw distant, was occupied by the Beauvais family. I was the only servant with Mrs. Stillman except members of the Beauvais family. Miss Anne Stillman slept in a tent which was very delightfully furnished, right near the house.

"I had the care of Alexander Stillman, then the youngest of the family, since Guy Stillman was not born until the following November.

"Guy Stillman is the infant made co-defendant with his mother in the divorce action."

"Bud" (James Stillman, Jr.) and Miss Anne were there during most of the summer. Some times Miss Anne and "Bud" made trips into the wilderness with guides or visited Camp Williams, which was some distance from the farm.

"Bud" was very fond of shooting. He was always firing at targets or something, also he had a beautiful little yacht, the "Happy Second" on which he spent much of his time. Fred Beauvais was often with him."

SHOOTS WOMAN AND THEN KILLS HIMSELF
ROCKFORD, ILL., March 17.—Arthur Bauscher, president of the Bauscher brothers company, florist of Freeport, Illinois, died here early today from a self-inflicted bullet wound and Miss Helen Wilson of Rockford is dying from a bullet wound in the head inflicted by Bauscher as they alighted from an interurban car here late last night.

Miss Wilson recently divorced her husband, Clarence Wickham, an automobile salesman of Rockford. Bauscher, her employer and a widower, employed her to marry him.

Miss Wilson, it is said, became reconciled last week with her former husband and had planned to marry him. Last night she left Freeport on an interurban car bound for Rockford where Wickham was waiting for her. Bauscher also boarded the car and as she alighted at Rockford, Bauscher shot her through the right temple then fired a bullet through his brain.

Is Rheumatism Really Incurable?

Misdirected Treatment Will Make You Think So

Rheumatism is a very insidious disease. In fact, its pains may hardly be noticed at first. But they become more frequent, and gradually increase in severity, and before you hardly realize it, you are firmly in the grip of a disease that may make you helpless.

First of all, you must realize that Rheumatism's pains are not on the surface, and cannot be rubbed away. Then you will discard the liniment bottle, and seek the source of the disease.

Many forms of Rheumatism are due to a tiny germ in the blood, which multiplies by the million and spreads its pain to different parts of the body.

When you realize the logic of this conclusion, you will see that you are really wasting your time and money if you are expecting any permanent relief from the use of liniments, lotions, and other locally applied treatment, which can only reach the surface and have no effect whatever upon the origin of your trouble.

Any disease should be treated at its source, and especially one that causes as much suffering as rheumatism. For what you want is not mere temporary relief from the torturing pangs of pain, which will promptly return with renewed severity. The only treatment worth while is one that will show some progress toward getting at the source of the disease, and freeing the victim from its shackles.

S. S. S. is the logical treatment for Rheumatism, because it purifies the blood and eliminates the disease germs.

DRILLING FOR OIL IN FLORIDA, HAVE AN UNUSUAL PROPOSITION TO OFFER THE GENERAL PUBLIC

THE FLORIDA OIL COMPANY With 260,000 ACRES—THREE DRILLING WELLS $500,000 CAPITAL—PAR VALUE $10.00

OFFER A LIMITED AMOUNT OF SHARES FOR SALE TO BE USED FOR DEVELOPMENT PURPOSES

WHAT WOULD IT MEAN TO YOU TO HAVE SHARES IN AN OIL COMPANY WITH 260,000 ACRES OF LEASES SHOULD AN OIL WELL BE OBTAINED? Can you imagine what this amount of holdings would figure in millions with an oil gusher on it? You are well acquainted with the Burkburnett Northwest extension pool. This oil pool, covering approximately 4,000 acres, has already produced about $150,000,000 worth of oil and will be producing for the next ten years.

Here Is Our Proposition in a Nut Shell

THE FLORIDA OIL COMPANY, with approximately 260,000 acres of leases practically in a solid body in Walton County, Florida, has formed a Company with authorized capital of $500,000, with headquarters at DeFuniak Springs, Fla. The Company is operating under a Trust agreement, and all Shareholders and Trustees are exempt from personal liability. We are now drilling two wells and have our derrick up for the third well. The wells now drilling are thirty miles apart and the third well is about half-way between, and we own the leases between almost solid. Not one single acre has been reserved and all goes into the Company, and all shareholders will participate in the sale of leases as well as production. The log of the two wells drilling already convinces us that there is oil in Florida; but whether we discover oil or not, we are confident that with this enormous amount of acreage we can make all our shareholders money as we are in a position to sell acreage all over the United States if necessary. Several geologists have passed favorably on Western Florida and Southern Alabama, and our proposition is becoming so well advertised in that section that almost daily we are offered large tracts of land if we will only drill them an oil well. You can readily see that there is no limit to our possibilities should we discover oil as we would immediately become one of the big companies.

It stands to reason that if the Gulf Coast contains oil from Tampico to New Orleans, that there should be lots of tests made from New Orleans to Tampa, Florida. While we don't believe there is a chance for you to lose a dollar invested in our Company, just think what it would mean to you should we find oil. Your stock would immediately jump to 20 to 1, and possibly more. It is said that there are more than FOUR THOUSAND persons who became millionaires by starting out in a small way in the oil business. According to reliable statistics, 32 per cent more people lose money and fail in farming than in the oil business, and 20 per cent more in the business of banking. There is no other business in the world that gives the small investor such a chance to win wealth through the resources of Nature as does the oil business. One acre of oil land can produce more money in one year than the same acre could produce in potatoes in a thousand years at $3.00 per bushel.

In conclusion, I wish to state that this proposition has cost a lot of money, time, worry and effort on our part, but I honestly and sincerely believe that it is one of the fairest and best propositions ever placed on the market in the oil business. Believing that I have something good, I naturally come to my friends first to let them in on it. I do so conscientiously believing that it offers immeasurable returns with a very slight chance of losing a dollar. However, we don't want anyone's money who cannot freely and willingly take a chance in the oil business. We want optimists who are willing to take reasonable risks in life. Suppose you fail once, twice or even six times, in the end you will succeed. Like Charles M. Schwab, we believe that return is always in proportion to the risk. Don't sit around and hallow business depression and financial stringency. That is just what's the matter today. There are too many people waiting for things to adjust themselves. What we need is more action and less talk.

A Word As to the Officers and Managers of This Company

A. L. HUEY, President
As President of the Florida Oil Company, I have no bouquets to throw at myself. I do wish to state, however, for the benefit of those who may think that I have been promoter of many dry hole and fake propositions, that during my fifteen years' residence in the city of Wichita Falls that I have never promoted nor been an officer of but one Company that failed to pay good dividends, and this particular Company paid back 40% of its capital. I organized and successfully managed two corporations that put Floral Heights and Scotland Additions on the market, two of the largest additions to the city of Wichita Falls. As to how successful they were financially, four-fifths of the stockholders now residing in this city can tell you. The Scotland Addition is still paying dividends, having paid 100% last year and 35% already this year—and will continue on paying dividends. I always endeavor to make money for my stockholders and I personally guarantee them a square deal in this company.

CHARLES E. LOGAN, Vice-President
I have been intimately acquainted with Mr. Logan for twenty-one years, and while he is comparatively a young man he has put over some mighty big propositions. For the last twelve years he has resided in Kansas City. He promoted and was President and General Manager of the Good Roads Company, a corporation of $750,000 capital. This Company invented and manufactured a good roads machine for making oil and asphalt macadam roads, one of which machines was sold to this city less than two years ago. Mr. Logan is Active Manager of the Florida Oil Company, travels by airplane and does big things in a hurry. He has a pleasing approach and can call on the biggest of men from the United States senators on down. The largest bankers of Kansas City recommend Mr. Logan very highly.

H. E. McCONNELL, Treasurer
Mr. McConnell needs no introduction to the people of Wichita Falls, having resided here for the past nine years. As to his financial success, the leading banks of this city and R. G. Dunn & Co. can tell you. His success has been achieved by his honesty and good business judgment in the oil business.

I. W. DAVIS, Secretary
Mr. Davis is from Tulsa, Okla., and was chosen secretary of this company on account of his thorough knowledge of the oil and refining business and being an expert accountant. He has a wonderful system of bookkeeping and the stockholders in this company can rest assured that not one penny can get by Mr. Davis without being accounted for.

Trustees
Our Trustees consist of the very biggest bankers and business men that we could find in Western Florida and Southern Alabama, all of whom are enthused over the oil business and have always believed that there was oil in Walton County.

Topography and Geology of West Florida
I suppose many people, like myself, had Florida pictured in their minds as being a low, flat, swampy country with frogs and alligators. Never was I more surprised in my life to find in Walton County, where we are operating, a country that is hillier than either Young, Stephens or Eastland Counties, Texas. There are plenty of domes and anticlines and more oil seepages than I have ever witnessed in any country. Several noted geologists have passed favorably on Western Florida and Southern Alabama—viz.: Aldridge, Clapp, Conley, Barnett and many others whom I do not recall. Mr. Barnett has an office at 303 Morgan Building, this city, coming here from California two years ago. He is positive that there is plenty of oil in Florida.

Our Drillers and Prospects of Getting Oil
We have as good drillers as can be procured, several of them having brought in gushers in this county as well as Goose Creek and Humble. One of our drillers brought in his first gusher in Oil City, Pa., 27 years ago and since that time has brought in over two hundred gushers, having operated in all the principal oil fields of the globe. One of our wells, drilled with rotary, is now down 1,200 feet and has had two good gas showings. The log of this well is identical with those at Goose Creek. The other well, which is thirty miles closer to the Gulf, is being drilled with cable tools and encountered two oil and gas showings up to 680 feet. Last week at 770 feet we struck an oil sand after going through a salt water and quicksand. Drilling with an open hole full of water, the quicksand was so bad that we could not go deeper. After repeated efforts we could not get closer than two feet of the bottom any more, but each time the tools were lowered oil would rise through the salt water. We repeatedly bailed oil from the well for three days. We took all of our drillers out to the well together with a large crowd of visitors and it was the unanimous opinion of drillers and all that we had some kind of an oil well, but how large we were, of course, unable to determine. Being a six-inch hole, we are now reaming down with a ten-inch bit to set new seven-inch casing which we had on hand. As soon as we case off the water and quicksand I am of the honest opinion that we will drill into a good paying oil well—and it may be a big one for that depth as I have never seen a well make a better showing with the chance it had.

To verify the above I desire to quote you a letter received from one of the visitors who is in nowise connected with our Company. This gentleman is President of the Marshall State Bank of Marshall, Ill., and has had lots of experience in the oil business.

DeFuniak Springs, Fla.
March 12, 1921.
MR. CHAS. E. LOGAN, Gen. Mgr.,
Florida Oil Company,
DeFuniak Springs, Fla.
Dear Sir: In regard to my visit at your well drilling in Sec. 22, Twp. 1, R. 17, near Bruce, Fla., I am greatly pleased with the showing of oil that was repeatedly bailed out of the well yesterday. I will anxiously await the results of your plans to case off the cavings and quicksand in the hole. Then you will know whether or not you have a producing oil well.
This shallow oil is an agreeable surprise to myself and confirms my belief in the possibilities of the deeper oil sands. Yours truly, three oil wells and nearly have them drilled before offering any stock for sale? Remember, we have reserved nothing, but put everything in our Company, including leases, drilling wells, casing, six well equipped offices, automobiles, brand new three-passenger Curtis aeroplane, etc.—all goes into the Company and everyone guaranteed a square deal.
GEO. G. ROBERTSON.

Should we discover oil, our transportation facilities would be excellent as the big boats come up the river within four miles of one of our wells, and it is only eleven miles from this well to Freeport, on the Choctawhatchee Bay, where there is a harbor. We are also just seventy miles east of Pensacola, the deepest harbor in the South, and on a through line of the L. & N. Railroad.

Whether you purchase any stock or not, we would like to have you call at our offices, 305-306 Morgan Bldg., where we have Maps, Literature, Pictures of Drilling Wells and all data pertaining to the proposition.

HAMON CASE TO JURY LATE IN AFTERNOON

would see that she was acquitted if she released claims against the Hamon estate, is a fine example of a law-abiding citizen.

The prosecution is run by those who want to project their clutches in the middle of Hamon's millions.

The state asked Clara if she had any children and if there was a will.

There is only one way to raffle the Hamon estate—that is to hustle her off to the penitentiary.

"Hamon was drunk that day. Everyone who saw him said he was drunk but Kelly Roach and Bill Nichols—and they were drunk too."

"Those interested in the Hamon millions are the ones who cooked up the state's case."

Champion grabbed the pistol, laid Jimmie Mathers, another defense attorney on a table to visualize the state's charge that Clara shot Hamon while lying in bed.

Mathers was propped up with law books as a pillow.

"Jim, you're Jake and I'm Clara," yelled Champion brandishing the gun. Murder fans laughed at this; Clara cried.

Prince Freeing, who is in the powder burn of the shirt if Hamon was shot with the gun against his breast? asked Champion.

He strove Hamon's bloody percale shirt out on the table. Clara sat on one side; Mrs. Hamon on the other.

"Was there a reconciliation between Hamon and his good wife? They say he was going to change his life and join the church."

"Wasn't he making a good start—getting drunk with the Nicholls and Kelly Roach on the Sabbath and then pick up a chair and try to kill a little girl?"

"If he grave could open up the dead man would say to you."

"Remember I am the one who stole this girl from Hamon's house?"

"Remember I set a horrible example of open and notorious adultery."

"God, breathe there a man who would say the death penalty for this little girl."

"There's no middle ground in this case, either death or liberty—there's no middle ground."

"Girls like this will forever be acquitted as long as the spirit of God lasts."

Mathers for Defense.

Jimmie Mathers, Ardmore prosecuting attorney who is one of the defense attorneys appeared before the jury next.

"Gentlemen," he said, "your verdict will be flashed to millions of mothers over the country."

"There she sits like a mouse in a trap with the Hamon millions closing in on her."

"No verdict can give back to her her sweet childhood. That she had when she met this social outlaw."

"Jake Hamon burned the scarlet letter on her breast. Your verdict will say whether she will be the sport of every passing libertine."

"Gentlemen, tell her to go and sin no more."

"The state does not expect a conviction. It expects a hung jury. It wonders if the gold of Hamon has not lined the pockets of a jurymen."

"This bullet of states, nations and empires whispered to this little girl thirteen years ago."

"The state said this little curly haired girl of sixteen robbed Jake Hamon."

"If Hamon had not been a man of wealth, the attorney general, my superior officer would not have been here."

"The gold of the Hamons can not extend to the jury box to require you to stultify your conscience."

"Every detective money could buy has worked to find something slimy about this girl."

Questions Testimony.

"The whole fabric and basis of this prosecution is founded on perjured testimony."

"It is a cheat of gold against this girl."

"The odor of the prosecution outstretches the cesspool of hell."

Mathers ridiculed the witness for the state and her testimony.

Called Kelly Roach, Walter Hardy, Bill Nichols and others.

"and all of Hamon's friends lied when they gave out statements that Hamon shot himself accidentally."

"They would as soon swear to a lie as tell one," he shouted, jerking off his coat.

"It was charged by Mathers that Dr. Hardy was recalled to the stand five times by the state because "he was called when they wanted good lying done."

"Who is to blame," cried Mathers, "is it the man who was so powerful he could make presidents and dig twenty millions out of the earth or is it this innocent little girl?"

"The bullet that sent Jake Hamon to his death was the just execution of the sentence of God."

"I like Attorney General Freeing but I do not want him to walk into the governor's chair through the tears of this little girl."

"If there is still justice in America, then this jury in ten minutes will flash a verdict of not guilty to the civilized world," Mathers said.

McLean Closes for Defense.

"Wild Bill" McLean jumped to his feet at the opening of the afternoon session and started to harangue the jury in Clara's defense.

He launched into the alleged dying declaration of Hamon that Clara had shot him in cold blood.

"A great many people think a man will not lie before he dies, but the law books do not say that," he shouted.

"The court ruled out of the room every child under 18 years of age."

"Every child should hear this trial. The preacher said he didn't know why God did it. Well show why God did it!"

"I think God did it to the man who deserted his wife and family," "Wild Bill" who yelled in a southern accent, pulled off his glasses and jerked open his vest. "The woman we should pity is not the defendant—it is Mrs. Jake L. Hamon," he continued.

"There has never been a stain on her—the deceased published himself before the country before he was shot."

"Hamon was teaching his noble son it was all right to marry a good woman and then live in adultery with another woman."

"I see the dear old mother of Clara who could believe her daughter was in adultery."

"That's what makes us men—they don't believe such things."

"They always lay it on the woman. There was never a woman in America that seduced a man. There never was a twenty year old girl who ever seduced a forty year old lawyer—and you know it."

Does Not Argue Evidence.

"The evidence is blank and I will not argue."

"Hamon accomplished his purpose before Clara was out of school."

"Wild Bill" launched into letters written by Clara to Hamon to prove that she shot him, was the aggressor in the unannounced love affair.

"The story told by the state is unreasonable," he said. "She would have been justified in pumping him full of bullets because he attacked her."

"They should have been an exonerated of the defendant."

"She may have sinned. He wrapped her in furs, put diamonds on her, led her to the opera and after which Freeling will speak for the state."

"McLean closed at 2:35 and the court recessed for five minutes after which Freeling will speak for the state."

Defense Waives Argument.

Confidence of the six attorneys for the defense that Clara would be freed led them late yesterday to attempt to waive the right of a closing argument and move that the jury be given the case immediately.

The judge followed the argument to the jury by H. H. Brown, who is assisting Freeling in the prosecution.

The judge held up decision on this most unusual motion of the defense and sent out Prince Freeing, who was not in court at the time Brown spoke.

Freeing objected most strenuously, saying the defense had to make an argument according to law, after which he would have something to say.

The judge adjourned court until this morning, at which time he will make a ruling.

The state, it is generally conceded here had a very weak case against the defendant and has been unable to shatter the case of the defendant.

The speed with which Clara's trial has been rushed through has been a record for sensational murder trials.

It started just a week ago. The jury was completed the first day. The state in two days presented its witnesses who testified that Hamon was not drunk on the day he was shot and that before he died the oil king made driving declarations that he had been deliberately shot by his paramour.

Slightly over a day was consumed by the defense in proving its contention that Hamon was drunk and that Clara shot him in self defense after he had beat her and swung a chair at her.

Trial Sensational.

The trial of the girl who shot the millionaire republican national committeeman has been the most sensational one, attorneys said, since the famous Thaw trial.

During the trial it was brought out that Hamon married his wife and two children and has lived with the defendant for eight years in his dinky love hotel in the second rate Randol Hotel.

Testimony also brought out that Hamon was a power politically and that when he was mortally wounded his concern was to get his friends who had helped him sweep Oklahoma into the republican column taken care of with political jobs.

One of his last requests to W. D. Nichols was to "go straight to Warren Harding to get my friends taken care of."

Hamon was shot on November 21 in his rooms at the Randol hotel. He walked to the hospital and the next day statements were given out he ac-

PRODUCER'S PROBLEM NOT YET SOLVED SAYS THE PETROLEUM NEWS

The better tone lent to the crude oil situation by the resumption of 100 per cent purchases from existing connections by all agencies in the Mid-Continent except the Prairie Oil & Gas Company, was strengthened during the past week by payment of slight premiums over the 117 1/2 posted price in two pools, says the National Petroleum News of Wednesday.

At the same time, there still exists an excess of production from wells already completed over the amount that can be handled from day to day by refineries running so much as the demand calls for and during the past week the Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association's committee on conservation and conciliation felt called upon to warn producers against taking the increase in purchases as proof that the congested period was ended.

The committee emphasized that the condition which existed in December, when purchasing agencies were compelled to curtail runs for their own accounts, is possible of repetition if producers, believing there exists a ready market, bring in the large number of wells now shut down on the sand. It estimated the daily average production of the Mid-Continent, including Oklahoma, Kansas, central and north Texas and north Louisiana, to have been 520,000 barrels daily, which was 20,000 to 40,000 barrels, daily, above pipe line capacity, and hence without market. The high point in runs by refineries of the Mid-Continent in 1920, was 218,000 barrels.

Drilling Status in Petroleum.

What might easily happen should the policy of restraint that has been pursued since the Mid-Continent association's committee inaugurated its conservative plan on conservation, February 24, be disregarded is indicated by a report on the status of drilling operations, including only wildcat tests and wells which might extend producing limits of various fields, taking no account of wells within defined territory. On March 1, there were 2,110 rigs, drilling wells and wells shut down before completion, in the Mid-Continent, excluding north Louisiana. Of this total, 761 were rigs, 1,503 were drilling wells, and 906 were wells shut down at various stages, one-third of the latter class estimated as being on the top of the

POLICE AND RANGERS FIND STOLEN GOODS HID ON RIVER BANK

Practically all of the goods stolen from the Noble store at Petrolia were recovered early Thursday afternoon by State Ranger J. H. Asher, Police Chief Huff and Police Commissioner Brailley.

The goods were in a suit case which has been carefully buried on the Wichita river bank about three miles north-west of the city. The chief had dug a hole and partially filled it with rotten wood and brush to absorb the moisture and had also packed wood and brush about the suit and covered the hole with it. The goods are valued at $3,600.

Frank Ellsworth, arrested late Wednesday in connection with the theft, told officers that he had packed specialty wood around the goods to protect them from dampness until he could return for them. Ellsworth also told the officers that he had seen where the goods were hidden, but he had not been with them until he was taken there again.

"I'll be out of the penitentiary again in three or six months," he said, "then I can come back and get those goods again." He told where the goods were hidden, but he had not been with them until he was taken there again.

Some of the stolen silk was found in a wagon yard restaurant Thursday morning.

J. H. Asher, state ranger, had an active part in the exciting chase Wednesday afternoon that resulted in the capture of Ellsworth. A detailed account of this chase, which appears on page two of the Times Thursday, falls to mention Mr. Asher as one of the participants.

His step was clean and springy as he crossed the room and looked keenly at his guests—last and loudest at Kate.

Indians and Yankees Look Like Best Bets in American League Race, Says Farrell

SPORT SHOTS

By HENRY L. FARRELL. United Press Staff Correspondent. NEW YORK, March 17.—Up and down Broadway, they're talking about a "private world's series" on the Polo ground this fall.

Bischoff, the latest addition to Salvo's catching staff, was out on form yesterday and warmed up a couple of hurlers. Last season the Memphis backstop hit the ball at a .351 clip and fielded at the rate of .360.

Wichita Falls' Gats. In Wichita, Kan., they claim that Frank Isbell, president of the club, let Abe Bowman go because he was in wrong with the club. It seems that Bowman jumped the club during the season and drew a suspension and fine for the stunt.

Dick and "Commy" Step Out. Dick Nelson is gradually coming into his own and looks better out around that first sack every day. It took him some time to work out the kinks, but it was finally boiled out and he's going along in fine style now.

Buddy Walloping 'Em. Every day at Athletic park some individual catches the others when it comes to walloping the ball, but for consistent walloping during the past week you've got to hand it to Buddy Zang. It makes no difference to him whether the hurlers lob the ball over or whether they put all they've got on it. Buddy thumps 'em just the same.

Jake Should Rise. Jake Miller is one who should boast his batting average this season. He fell a few points short of the 300 mark last year, but he is able to hit to the right field this year. He has been practicing hitting to left field faithfully, and if he gets that down pat he'll be better than ever.

At last we'll see who is the better of Wilson or O'Dowd. It took a lot of money to get these two birds together, but a little thing like money is no consideration to the right to five on Wilson. Of course, the champion is always the favorite, but for once we'd be pretty safe in stringing along with the challenger.

MISS STERLING RECEIVES WARM WELCOME IN ENGLAND. LONDON, March 17.—Miss Alexa Stirling, woman golf champion of America, arrived today on the Carmelia. She was met at the pier and welcomed by a large delegation of golf players and enthusiasts.

GIRL CHESS EXPERT TO PLAY BOY PRODIGY

Miss Alma Wells, pretty nineteen-year-old Chicago girl, one of the leading female chess players of the country, who will match her wits against the Polish boy wonder, Samuel Rzesnowski, at the Illinois Athletic club in Chicago.

Twenty-five members of the University of Illinois track squad are ready for their journey to Chicago to participate in the western conference indoor track meet at Northwestern gymnasium Friday. Coach Bill declares the prospects for the success of the Illinois never brighter.

Decision is expected today on the plea of the state for postponement of the trial of White Sox players indicted in connection with the 1919 world's series baseball scandal. Attorneys for the players told Judge DeWitt at Chicago they were ready to proceed with the trial, but more time is requested by the prosecution for gathering evidence.

Manager Cobb of the Detroit Tigers, in addition to rounding into shape for the championship season in baseball is devoting early morning hours to golf at the public courses of San Antonio.

NEW YORK, March 17.—Sixth place in the American League pennant race will satisfy Ty Cobb this year. He has hopes, however, that his team may do better. He is not certain that he will finish better than sixth Cobb says he will feel thankful and will be ready to pay respect to any player who can do better than he has done in the past.

As to my expectations regarding what I can accomplish this year, I have very little to say," says Cobb. "I have about the same team which finished seventh in the 1920 pennant race. There is nothing I could do in the way of making chances, trades and the like, for the simple reason that the men who did not do so well last year may be more successful under different conditions this year. As a result, I must wait and find out the men who will show themselves to my methods. If I should discover after two months or so that certain players cannot deliver the goods then I would go about making changes."

"Last year we finished seventh. This year I hope to be able to finish at least sixth. If we should be lucky enough to finish higher I would feel very thankful. Will Do His Best. "I've never claimed anything for our club or myself as a manager. I am simply going to do my best and finish as high as I can. One thing sure, we will endeavor to let the opposition know that they are in a ball game every day."

WOMAN GOLF CHAMPION AFTER EUROPEAN HONORS

Claude Davenport, the lanky New York Giant rookie pitcher, snapped at the Giants' training camp at San Antonio, where he looks like a real find. Davenport is a little fellow, standing only six feet seven inches. Those who have seen him perform say he has a world of speed and makes the ball take numerous hops.

The SPORTLIGHT by Grantland Rice

Advancing civilization continues to grow more and more complex. You either step into a tangled mass of confusion, or you step out of it. Civilization merely means that many more bunkers to the course of existence. Take the case of Judge Landis. He has the baseball middle finger on him. And three thousand years ago all Hercules had to clear out was the Augean stables.

THE LEVELLER BALL. It is with no intention of jumping at the modern batting eye that we call attention to a few vital statistics connected with the modern baseball bat. Just how much livelier the present baseball is than the ball used eight years ago we cannot say. But you can do a bit of arm-wrestling on your own back after perusing these figures. In 1913 the hard hitting Athletics with Collins, Baker, McInnis, Strunk, Schang, holding another club at work accumulated 142 base hits for a grand average of .250. Last year St. Louis gathered 1416 hits for a grand average of .308. Also it might be noted that the St. Louis club was hit with about 50 per cent more runs.

CASING HEAD PLANT NEARING COMPLETION USES NEW PROCESS

Work is nearing completion on the gasoline plant of H. E. Borer and associates, in the Burk Burnett field near Bridgetown, and it will probably be in operation before the end of the month.

CANNUCK LOSES IN EFFORT TO RIDE WHITE LIGHTNING AT EXPOSITION'S CONTEST

Before a crowd that completely filled the big arena from the top tier of seats down and which utilized every available inch of standing space, Yakima Cannuck, title holder of many bronco riding contests, and the man who took five months of the money show at Fort Worth during last week, met a clean cut defeat Wednesday night while trying to contest White Lightning, the seemingly unridable and star bucking bronco of the bunch of noted contest horses carried by the T. O. (Jack) Burroughs Wild West, a feature attraction on exhibiting with the Frisco Exposition Shows at the ball park.

It was conceded by the three judges that Cannuck made a clean get-away, having secured the mount called for under contest rules but with a squeal of rage, and living up to his name, the beast with two lightning-like movements, threw the rider from the saddle. Expressing himself as having been completely taken by surprise, Cannuck had nothing to say, other than that he would try again. Thursday night Charlie Williams, known as the boy rider of the Big Horn and who claims to have won more contest money and trophies than any other man in the country and who won fourth money at Fort Worth last week out of 81 riders chosen for the finals, will undertake to conquer White Lightning. Williams, who has once before attempted to ride the horse and failed, will ride under the same conditions as Cannuck; he says the result will be different as he has solved White Lightning's method. Only one exhibition will be given and it will start at 8:30.

FLAN SPECIAL MEETING AT FLORAL HEIGHTS BAPTIST

A series of special meetings will begin Easter Sunday, March 27, at the Floral Heights Baptist church, with Dr. H. W. Virgin, pastor of the First Baptist church at Amarillo, in charge. The meetings have been under consideration for some time, and in securing the services of Dr. Virgin, Rev. J. W. Loving, the pastor, feels that he has obtained a man of unusual ability. Dr. Virgin was active in overseas work during the war.

JOHNSON RETURNS FROM LEGISLATURE

Sees Small Chance For Redistricting At Special Session—Crude Tax To Come Up Again.

Small chance for redistricting and entirely too much chance for the three per cent tax on crude are in prospect for the special session of the legislature, according to E. Frank Johnson, representative of the Wichita-Wilbarger district. Mr. Johnson got home late Wednesday from the regular session which ended Saturday, making the trip in his car.

Mr. Johnson confirmed previous reports that Governor Neff had declared he would submit the three per cent measure at the special session, which means that the oil men's fight must be made all over again. The principal matter before the special session will be the appropriation bill, and the governor has indicated that he will submit very few other bills, but that the production tax will be among those submitted.

WORKING AGREEMENT WILL HAVE FURTHER CONSIDERATION SOON

Further consideration is to be given the new working agreement which has been placed before the various trade unions at the Labor Temple during the past month. It is believed that the agreement has appeared before practically all of the trades and is ready for final endorsement of the central body. It was stated Thursday that several meetings are scheduled for the next week at which time this agreement will receive more attention.

RECEIVER DELANO TO BE HERE NEXT WEEK ON PERIODICAL VISIT

Frederick A. Delano, federal receiver for disputed oil lands on Red River, will be back in Wichita Falls, some time next week, as was learned at the receiver's office here Thursday. No special significance attaches to Mr. Delano's return at this time, it was stated, as he is being one of his trips to "take his periodical census" as one official expressed it.

HEADQUARTERS FOR OIL ASSOCIATION TO MOVE HERE SHORTLY

Wichita Falls has become headquarters for the Texas-Louisiana division of the Mid-Continent Oil and Gas association, as soon as suitable offices can be obtained. It was decided Wednesday, following the visit here of Homer Bennett, secretary of the division. Mr. Bennett was here to confer with W. D. Cline, president of the Texas-Louisiana division, and the move was decided upon.

EVERYBODY STAYING AT HOME, PASSENGER RECEIPTS MAKE NEW LOW RECORD

In the face of a statement that passenger traffic was maintaining its equilibrium despite the advance in rates, comes the experience that Wednesday night the ticket agent at the Union depot had the smallest receipts in many years. The sudden falling off of receipts however is regarded with optimism by railroad men as the new rates have not been in effect long enough to draw a real comparison. Each year, however, in the spring there is a falling off in traffic as many trust to their automobiles as methods of conveyance through the country.

SAYS INDORSEMENT OF CANDIDATES NOT MEANT TO BIND NEGROES' VOTES

Ocie Williams, chairman of the publicity committee of the Negro Business league, called at The Times office Thursday to correct an impression concerning the endorsement given by the league Tuesday night to two candidates for aldermen. "Our endorsement," said Williams, "was not intended to bind any member of the league to vote for these candidates or that we could not endorse other candidates for the same positions. These two candidates appeared before us and stated their platforms. We endorsed them and our endorsement was not intended to commit any negro to vote for them."

OFFICERS ARREST SIXTEEN ON VAGRANCY CHARGES

Deputies Robinson and Clynck of the sheriff's department, Wednesday evening arrested sixteen negroes on charges of vagrancy. The majority of those taken into custody paid fines and were released while the remainder spent the night in the county jail.

South is Turning Against Calomel

Mr. Dodson, the "Liver Tone" Man, Responsible for Change for the Better

Every druggist in town has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it." Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle doesn't cost very much but if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, just ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headaches, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience all the next day like violent calomel. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day—Advt.

OUR STANDARDS
Our system of Neuro-Ophthalmology recognizes standards, which we get direct from Nature, which are arrived at and recognized as fixed just as the temperature of the body which is accepted to be 98.6; or the law of astronomy or mathematics.

Having accepted a fixed Standard, we make use of deviations from that standard, in arriving at conditions, but always with the object of restoring the conditions back to the normal or standard.

Eyes that are below our standard of vision are brought up to same—if possible—and those above our standard are reduced to same, for the relief of the strain which is always required to produce better than normal vision.

We would no more increase the vision beyond one normal standard than the physician would increase the temperature of the body above the normal, and neither would work to a condition below the normal standard.

OIL DEVELOPMENT IN YOUNG COUNTY HAS NEW IMPETUS

GRAHAM, TEXAS, March 17.—Spurred by spring weather and the near completion of the pipe line connections of the Prairie company, development work in Young county is taking on a new impetus. The increased activity has been reflected in Graham this week by the number of new arrivals here and by the heavy traffic to and from the fields.

REVIVING INTEREST IN THE COLORADO TO THE GULF HIGHWAY

CHILDRESS, TEXAS, March 17.—Seven automobiles carrying about twenty-five business men of Amarillo, and also several cars from Clarendon, Memphis, and Estelline arrived in Childress late Tuesday afternoon, for the purpose of reviving the interest in the spring travel over the Colorado-to-Gulf Highway.

EIGHTY TO NINETY EGGS DAILY FROM 125 HENS

VERNON, TEXAS, March 17.—Eighty to 90 eggs a day from 125 Rhode Island Reds are being gathered by S. D. Lawlis, living six miles northeast of Oklahoma, and of the 125 hens, 15 are setting. The week before last this progressive farmer sold over 400 worth of eggs, and he is continually receiving orders for both eggs and chickens from all parts of the country.

BURKBURNETT AUTOIST PAYS FOR NEW LIGHT GLOBE

It didn't take long, after the new street lights were installed, for the first accident to be recorded. A Burk Burnett autoist drove his car into a lighting post near the St. James hotel, causing no damage to the post, but shattering the light globe. He was arrested and released after depositing eight dollars, the cost of a new globe, with the police department.

LETTER REVEALS MURDER OF NEGRESS AT DENISON

DENISON, TEXAS, March 17.—A letter revealed the murder of Jennie Jones, aged 60, a negress who was found dead in her home here late yesterday with an axe imbedded in her head. She had been dead since Sunday, it is believed. The letter, thought to have been written by the murderer, was mailed to a neighbor of the Jones' woman informing her that she would find the negress dead in her home. Robbery is thought to have been the motive for the deed.

My, Wouldn't the "Nursery Wail" Be A Readable Sheet!

If the Day Nursery could get out an Evening Nursery Wail, or something appropriately titled like that, it would have lots of interesting news notes in it.

Tuesday's feature would have been a heading: "Virginia, Venita, and Margaret Celebrate Birthday." The write-up would have detailed the nursery decorations for the event, (only you shouldn't stretch 'em, children; only a regular newspaper can do that) the favors, the handsome gowns (beautiful blue cover-alls), and the "Among Those Present were." Also, being a Nursery, they could have told the world how good the cats were—cake and ice cream and candy—M-m!

Another item would state: "Two Hundred Babies Enrolled Since Opening" and the editors might get up a lot of data about the two hundred and fifteen who have material for a regular library. They would probably tell you the youngest baby ever at the nursery was, and who the oldest was. Also, how many red-headed ones there had been in all. Statistics are always kept on red-heads.

Another would be a small box border item stating that Thursday's enrollment of "regulars" was twenty-five, and that the week's high record was thirty-three on Tuesday.

Then there would be a visitors column, of course, and special mention would probably be made of little Joe Pitman, who wanted to go home to dinner at noon Tuesday, of course that would seem worth a story to the Nursery babies, who know that nursery can fix a pie for a dinner for children and babies at the Day Nursery folks.

Somehow on the news page the reporter would tend to the Rowena Circle thanks for a nice gift of sheets they never have enough sheets and towels and wash rag, and for two beautiful new gingham dresses, some petties and other goodies for a little ten-year-old regular whose mother couldn't get to the family for doing the family washing.

And the head city-man on the Wall would write a nice little story about how dog-gasted being a man scarce brings out the best in a woman, and that his head had been combed that very morning with something that had only eight teeth and a half. It would, and it should, be several pairs of brushes and combs would set especially well with him, personally, and probably the other inmates of the other inmates. He would mean the story to be modestly portioned off to some obscure corner on the Wall, of course, where only the folks looking for it would see it, and then when the make-up man gold hold of it, he would put a head on it like a tack and set it in the middle of the front page, like this:

DAME FASHION REVIVES THE ART OF HAND EMBROIDERY

That the art of hand embroidery is again coming into its own is significant with the showing of the new spring and summer dresses. These two Jessica models, which were hand-made by French peasant girls, are striking examples of the latest creations.

When I was going out with the pail and Jubilee to milk the cow and her datter this morning I thought I heard a burglar shouting Mr. Farrel and I dropped the pail and plumb the fence and it was Mr. Farrel and his auto which he has got fixed up again from the last time something happened to it.

Because if I stayed there he would come back in the yard and blamed me for it. I get blamed for everything.

My teacher says there are lots of fights in the Are (one) that was afraid to fight with each other for fear they would get into the nose, but they would go out on the line and let the Germans shoot at them and not think anything about it.

Girls! Buttermilk Creates Beauty Overnight

The first application of Howard's Buttermilk Cream will astonish you. It creates beauty almost like magic, but the most important thing is that it is the fact that whilst it turns the dulliest and most lifeless complexion to radiant beauty and makes red or rough arms snowy white, yet there is not the slightest sign of its use after application.

Coffee Bavarian Cream

The Designer for April has the following good recipe for coffee Bavarian cream on its "Experienced Cooks" page. Bavarian cream is one of the most delicious of the gelatin-foundations desserts, but not all recipes for it work out well, so the Designer's recipe may come in handy.

One-half box gelatin; One cup clear, hot coffee; One cup milk; One-half cup cold water; One cup sugar; One pint cream; One-half teaspoonful vanilla.

BOND MARKET SHOWS INCREASED STRENGTH

Of the Large Number Of Offers To Buy County Road Bonds Highest Has Been at 92.

It is apparent from the numerous offers made to purchase the $1,500,000 worth of county road bonds submitted in the past week that the bond market is showing increased strength. Judge J. P. Jones has received a large number of offers each day for the past four or five days. The highest bid made was at 92 net. The lowest one submitted was 89. One bond salesman stated that presumably the middle of April would bring the bond market back to a sound footing again and that the road bonds would bring much more than any present offer.

County officials state that they will not under any circumstances sell the bonds at such a great discount. The best offer made thus far would mean a cash discount of $120,000.

Wednesday afternoon, Judge Jones stated the mails brought him five different offers on the bonds.

EARL WRIGHT BRINGS HABEAS CORPUS PROCEEDING

Habeas corpus proceedings have been instituted in the Earl Wright case, who is being held on a charge of theft by bailer. The writ has been set for hearing before Judge Ed Naylor of the 23rd district court for next Monday morning. An examining trial has been set for Saturday morning in the justice of peace court at which time bail bond will be set.

REPEATED REQUESTS MADE FOR WHISKEY FROM SHERIFF

Within the past few days the sheriff's office has been visited by not less than a dozen people for whiskey. They come with pitiful pleas that they have sick relatives who are in dire need of such a stimulant as well as a doctor's prescription for themselves. The sheriff has stated that he has no whiskey on hand.

CATTLEMEN WILL MEET IN FORT WORTH IN 1922

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, March 17.—Fort Worth was selected as the next meeting place by the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers' association at the conclusion of their 45th annual convention here this afternoon.

All officers with the exception of R. M. Kieberg of Kingsville, vice president, were re-elected by acclamation. Mr. Kieberg was succeeded by H. L. Johnson of Arizona. The officers are: W. W. Turner, president; C. B. Lucas, first vice president; H. L. Johnson, second vice president; S. B. Burnett, treasurer, and S. B. Spiller, secretary.

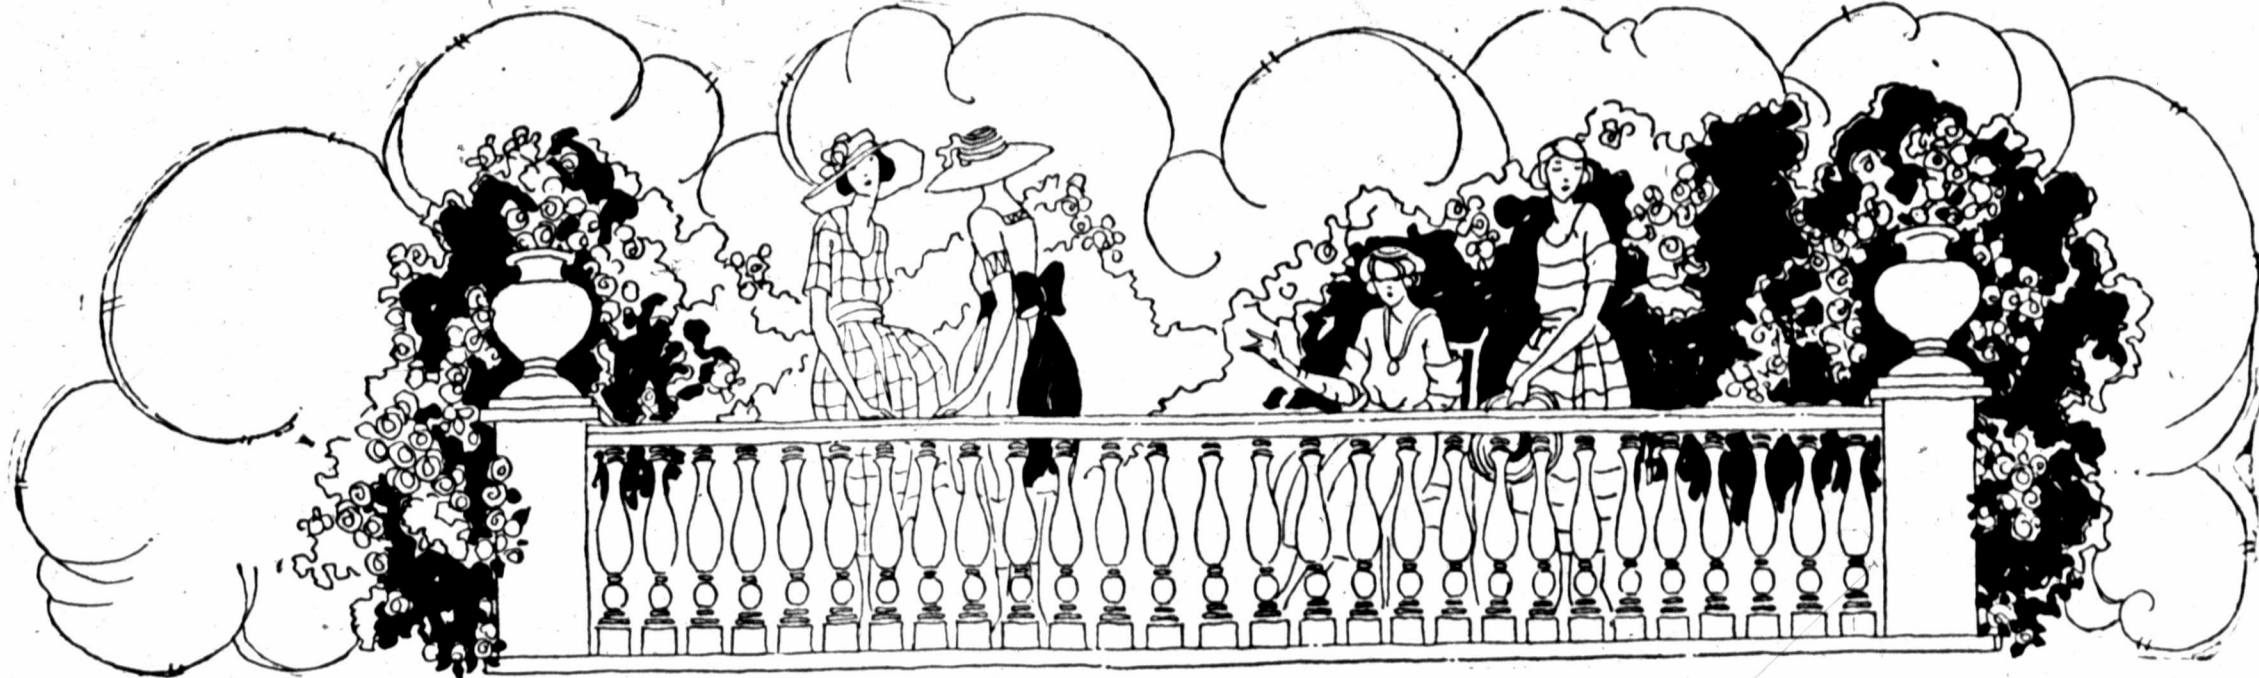

At today's session Judge R. L. Ball of San Antonio defended the federal reserve board in curtailing and bringing about price deflation. Ed C. Laster of Palfurias, and W. G. Armstrong of Fort Worth previously had criticized the board's action.

SPRING DEMONSTRATION SALE

Friday—Saturday—Monday

Our New York Buyer Has Just Shipped Us

100 SPRING DRESSES

The newest Spring modes direct from New York via fast express and parcel post special delivery will reach us Thursday and Friday morning.

These dresses are original garments and exact copies of exclusive creations of Fifth Avenue tailors. The originals cost from $100 to $300.

The actual values of the 100 dresses, based on the selling prices of others, range from $50 to $80.

To demonstrate the MacDowell plan, these 100 dresses will be sold as long as they last on Friday, Saturday and Monday at $30.45.

We Will Also Sell 80 Beautiful SPRING DRESSES

that are exclusive and distinctive copies of New York originals (no known duplication elsewhere) same materials—exact style—and high quality workmanship—actual values ranging from $60 to $125.

Eighty ladies can get these 80 dresses during our demonstration offerings at $39.50.

Please remember these are not "job lots," "clearance shipments" or "surplus stocks." They are beautiful garments—in nearly every instance an exact duplicate of an exclusive $100 to $300 dress originally designed and added to the wardrobe of some charming and chic member of the Elite, New York. We make this special offering to impress on our friends the real advantages of buying exclusive garments at the MacDowell "House of Personality."

MacDOWELLS "HOUSE OF PERSONALITY" 702 Indiana Ave.

An Invitation—

Mr. MacDowell is keeping a high-salaried expert buyer of long experience permanently located in New York for the exclusive purpose of buying and having made up by manufacturers the very latest modes and materials in dresses, suits and wraps.

MacDowell's store does not wait on jobbers and wholesalers, and does not depend on large orders to be turned out by manufacturers. The MacDowell store seldom receives a freight shipment. Through the MacDowell New York office, the best of modish materials are obtained from local and imported stocks. These materials are then made into original creations, or exact copies of the most exclusive garments of the high-priced Fifth Avenue shops. The manufacturing is done under the direct supervision of the MacDowell management and as rapidly as these originals and exact copies of latest New York modes are completed, they are sent by fast express or parcel post to Wichita Falls.

The result of this economical plan is the fact that MacDowell is positively offering the very latest New York modes every day—from thirty days to sixty days in advance of other stores, and the MacDowell prices on these distinctive and exclusive garments are exceptionally low—usually one-third to one-half less than the "job lots" and large quantity "freight shipments" of other houses.

To demonstrate what MacDowell's can save you and how MacDowell's can serve you, a special showing and sale of these exclusive garments will be held Friday, Saturday and Monday, March 18th, 19th and 21st.

Look over the suggestions in this invitation to you and come in early during this Spring Demonstration Sale. Whether you buy or not, you will be welcome—we just want to show you the one hundred garments now in our store from New York, and let you compare the quality and prices with the offering in other shops.

RHEA HOWARD MAKES STATEMENT ON RACE

Asks For Support Of White Voters And Makes Plain His Attitude In Contest.

Rhea Howard, candidate for aldermanic position in the city council, has addressed a statement to the white voters of Wichita Falls setting forth his views in connection with some of the developments of the campaign. His statement follows:

To the White Citizens of Wichita Falls: At the solicitation of a few friends, I consented to become a candidate for city councilman, place No. 3. Before this candidacy was offered me the petition of another worthy citizen had been circulated, but on the last day for the filing of petitions he decided not to become a candidate. Various reasons have been given for his declination, but the one most credited is that he did not want to get mixed up into a political campaign, which is a very good reason. Neither was I anxious to make the race, but one, and I therefore have consented, and if elected will serve the people to the best of my ability, but in no case further than that I will not receive orders from any organization to act on matters concerning the welfare and interests of all the people unless it can be shown to me that such organization, presuming to dictate to a council elected by a majority of the people, elects its authority to act in the same manner. I will appreciate the votes and support of all white citizens.

My reason for making this appeal to the white citizens is that I believe that the Times of yesterday that the League of Negroes or Negroes Business League, claiming to represent a negro voting strength of 700 or 800 negro men and women in this city, have pledged to vote as a unit for my opponent, Mr. E. J. Shepherd. No therefore, even were the negroes to appear by me, the negro votes would be in vain. But I am not inclined that way, and will say frankly that I prefer going down in defeat rather than to humiliate myself to the extent of catering to negro men and women for their votes for a political office. Should I have resorted to that means and had secured their votes, the negroes would naturally believe that I was indebted to them politically, and would want such debt paid in a political way should I be elected.

For myself, I have only to say that I have never mistreated a negro, and don't believe that as a race they should be mistreated, but I do believe that I realize the danger of white people mingling too much on an equality with negroes, and one way in which this is often done is on occasions like the present. So long as the negroes are clamorous and hand together, voting as a unit for any candidate or proposition, they certainly can have no complaint if a sufficient number of white people resort to the same method and vote as a unit to defeat whatever scheme they may have in mind.

If this happens to strike the eye of some white citizen who does not share my views on this matter, then, sir, just consider I am not appealing to you for your vote or support. It is only for those who believe as I do, that when negroes hand together there is danger lurking in the future, and sooner or later will result in humiliation to white people and more trouble for the negro.

This plain announcement may cause my defeat, but if so I will have no complaint to make. I only want to set myself right before the white people, and leave it to their judgment if my position on this matter of seeking negro support by the wholesale or as a unit is not the correct one.

RHEA HOWARD.

NOT EVEN RIGGS HIMSELF KNOWS MYSTERY MAN'S NAME

That even Riggs himself does not know the name of the mystery man who has the power to bestow a suit of clothes upon the first white citizen or visitor who inquires, "Have you seen Riggs?" was learned by scores of disappointed close friends of the popular politician early this morning when they slipped down for a quiet tip "just between friends, don't you know."

Riggs says he anticipated something like this, and, being a good-hearted fellow, was a bit afraid he'd weaken and by omission of commission give somebody the "edge." For that reason, he requested a traveling man passing through the city to hand a certain little pass-word to any reliable citizen, and on March 24 that citizen is to come into Riggs store, making himself known, say the mysterious little word and then announce the name and address of the party first asking him.

By a liberal use of printers' ink and attractive prices, Riggs opened his store on the first day of his sale this morning in first a large crowd in waiting, and at last accounts buying was brisk.

SEVERAL ACTS VIE FOR FIRST HONORS IN WEEK'S VAUDEVILLE AT PALACE

Headed by Harry Richman's "Varieties of 1921" and closely backed by three other fine acts, this week's vaudeville bill at the Palace got off to a running start toward success Wednesday evening. In the opinion of those who were on hand for its debut the bill is the best that the Palace has offered since its opening, for none of the acts are weak, and a large majority would serve as headlines on an average bill.

Richman's Variety outfit gets the cement bicycle for veracity, because their act is what they claim for it—different. The songs, dances and comedy, while patterned along the standard lines, has a snap and swing which is lacking in many of the "two-day" productions, and the chorus—oh my. Richman himself is a very capable comedian and takes the belt when it comes to long distance piano playing. His supporting cast, composed of Norma Hark, Jack Waldron and the Ward sisters, is also above the average.

Pushing the headlines for premier honors of the evening at every turn was the Keilam and O'Dare team, Frank and Patricia, respectively, who turned out to be a pair as fine from the word go. Their songs and dances are not of the "bottled in bond" type which are boxed up and carried over the circuit with the rest of the baggage, but they had the personal vivacity and originality which is an attribute only of real artists.

Lillian's comedy Peas are warranted to entertain the youngsters or grown-ups either, for that matter, for they are all dinky little canines that look about as big as a minute on the stage. However, their antics are pleasing and contain a large per cent of comedy.

In "My Home Town," Mary Mable came back with all the pep and ginger which has made her a favorite on the stage for many moons. Her present skit was written especially for her, and fits her like a glove. The supporting cast is very capable, and altogether the act is entirely pleasing.

Lillian's comedy Peas, the only solo performer on the bill, has a whole of a line of songs and stories, some new, some otherwise, which he knows how to put over in the latest approved fashion.

Billie is all right, and his debonair bearing on the stage made a big hit with the ladies.

Ed Zolond and his partner, who opens the evening's festivities, have a new line of tumbling, knock-about stunts in which public approval is courted at the risk of their own necks. Plenty of comedy is contained in this presentation also.

The remaining offering of the evening was given by Lou Reed and Al Tucker, a pair of comic violinists who romped over the stage to the latest popular airs, played by themselves on their own little fiddles. Tucker and Reed were one of the strong points on the entire bill, and came in for a large share of applause.

TRUCK OPERATORS TO BE HARD HIT BY NEW TAX MEASURE

IF GOVERNOR SIGNS, MUST PAY ONE CENT A MILE AND UP ON ALL RURAL TRIPS.

JOHNSON TELLS ROTARIANS OF LEGISLATURE'S LABORS

Club Starts Move To Foster Public Speaking Contests By Offering Rotary Prize.

Somewhat slipped one over on the motor truck owners of Texas at the recent session of the legislature, according to E. Frank Johnson, who spoke at Thursday's session of the Rotary club. A bill was passed and now awaits the governor's signature, levying a tax of one to eight cents a mile, according to capacity, on all trucks operating outside of the city limits.

The tax would add an enormous expense to operating expenses of oil companies in this county, which daily send truck loads of pipe and equipment to their leases. Mr. Johnson said that he opposed the bill vigorously, but was almost alone in doing so.

Mr. Johnson's discussion of various legislative activities was one of several talks on the Rotary program Thursday. W. M. Priddy, in a short talk, started a movement to encourage public speaking in the schools of the city and county, by the offering of a Rotary prize. He thought that every child should be given the public speaking activities in the schools, and after adjournment secured promises of assistance from a number of Rotarians. E. S. Goodner spoke on "What Rotary Means to Me as a New Member." Declaring himself absolutely "sold" on Rotary, Mr. Goodner said that by reason of the fellowship, the creed and ethics and the type of men that Rotary gave to him, he had found that membership in the organization was something of real value.

Miss Shafer, accompanied by Miss Lorimer as pianist, gave two enjoyable vocal selections.

The report of the passage of the truck tax bill was given by Mr. Johnson in connection with an account of legislative proceedings. He said that the injustice that was being done the motor truck industry did not seem at all apparent to the house membership, which saw only a means of producing additional revenue. Mr. Johnson called attention to the fact that the governor has not yet signed the bill.

Mr. Johnson spoke of the irrigation bill as one of the most constructive pieces of legislation enacted. Changes which had been made in the state contracts law and in the minimum wage law, he said, made those laws more beneficial; on the minimum wage law no attempt will be made to lay down one rule for the entire state, but by means of a "zone system" the law will apply differently as living conditions and expenses are different. Mr. Johnson defended the legislature for its big educational appropriations, saying there could not be real economy in such matters.

BRIDGEPORT WELL REPORTED TO HAVE 1,700 FEET OF OIL

NOCONA, TEXAS, March 17.—The test well, located about six miles west of Bridgeport in Wise county, and 21 to 28 miles south of the Big Six well, out southwest of Nocona, is reported to have 1,700 feet of oil in the hole from sand found at 4,100 feet. This well has been drilled for about two years. This is an important strike, and not only brings into view considerable new and deep territory, but shows the possibilities that lie between the Bridgeport well and the Healdton and Hewitt fields with Mustang county lying between. This strike will again bring this country to the attention of those who are inclined to wildcat in the hopes of making a good strike, rather than pay the high prices usually demanded for close-in leases about a new well some distance removed from production. It will also show that, up to the present time, this country has not had a well drilled sufficiently deep to make a good test. A 30-foot sand was found in the Pure Oil company test in the Healdton field, which, it is believed, will make a paying well though some trouble is being experienced with collapsed casing. The oil is 45 gravity. Another well has a sand with oil showing at 2,785 near the Hewitt field. The Healdton-Hewitt and Bridgeport strikes would make the 2,100 foot level in the Pure Oil company and Gulf Phillips wells interesting, and possibly 3,400 feet at the Big Six, though these figures may need some corrections when the wells have been drilled deep enough to test out the horizons at which pay sands may come in. The Pure Oil and Gulf Phillips wells will drill for deep tests. An effort is being made to work out a deal for drilling the Big Six well to 3,500 feet. It begins to look like something would be found by deeper drilling in this well. A showing of oil and gas was found at 1,450 and gas at 2,138 feet, which would indicate the well is located in a saturated zone. The Bridgeport well brings the Big Six structure to view with renewed interest. The Pure Oil company test on the Healdton farm, about eight miles northeast of Nocona, started with 20-inch casing, and is having some difficulty with gumbo formation below 400 feet. The Gulf Phillips test on the Bouldin ranch, near Spanish Fort, is making progress around 900 feet, and is drilling with rotary.

PART ONE.

During my long and intimate acquaintance with Mr. Sherlock Holmes I had never heard him refer to his relations, and hardly ever to his own early life. This reticence upon his part had increased the somewhat inhuman effect which he produced upon me, until sometimes I found myself regarding him as an isolated phenomenon, a brain without a heart, as deficient in human sympathy as he was pre-eminent in intelligence. His aversion to women and his disinclination to form new friendships were both typical of his unemotional character, but not more so than his complete suppression of every reference to his own people. I had come to believe that he was an orphan with no relative living; but one day, to my very great surprise, he began to talk to me about his brother.

It was after tea on a summer evening, and the conversation which had revolved in a desultory, spasmodic fashion from golf clubs to the causes of the changes in the obliquity of the ecliptic, came to rest on the question of atavism and hereditary aptitudes. The point under discussion was, how far any singular gift in an individual was due to his ancestry and how far to his own early training.

"In your own case," said I, "from all that you have told me, it seems obvious that your faculty of observation and your peculiar facility for deduction are due to your own systematic training."

"To some extent," he answered, thoughtfully. "My ancestors were country squires, who appear to have led much the same life as is natural to their class. But, none the less, my turn that way is in my veins, and may have come with my grandmother, who was the sister of Vernet, the French artist. Art, he heard is liable to take strangest forms."

"But how do you know that it is hereditary?"

"Because my brother Mycroft possesses it in a larger degree than I do. This was news to me indeed. If there were another man with such singular powers in England, how was it that neither of us had ever heard of him? I put the question, with a hint that it was my companion's modesty which made him acknowledge inferior to his superior. Holmes laughed at my suggestion.

"My dear Watson," said he, "I can not agree with those who rank modesty among the virtues. To the logician all things should be seen exactly as they are, and to underestimate one's self is as much a departure from truth as to exaggerate one's own powers. When I say, therefore, that Mycroft has better powers of observation than I, you may take it that I am speaking the exact and literal truth."

"Is he your junior?"

"Seven years my senior."

"How comes it that he is unknown?"

"Oh, he is very well known in his own circle."

"Where, then?"

"Well, in the Diogenes club, for example."

"I had never heard of the institution, and my face must have proclaimed as much, for Sherlock Holmes pulled out his watch."

"The Diogenes club is the queerest club in London, and Mycroft one of the queerest men. He's always there from quarter to five to twenty to eight. It's a beautiful evening I shall be very happy to introduce you to two curiosities."

Five minutes later we were in the street, walking toward Regent's circus. "You wonder," said my companion, "why it is that Mycroft does not use his powers for detective work. He is incapable of it."

"But I thought you said—"

"I said that he was my superior in observation and deduction. If the art of the detective began and ended in reasoning from an arm-chair, my brother would be the greatest criminal agent that ever lived. But he has no ambition and no energy. He will not even go out of his way to verify his own solutions, and would rather be considered wrong than take the trouble to prove himself right. Again and again I have taken a problem to him, and have received an explanation which has afterwards proved to be the correct one, and yet he was absolutely incapable of working out the practical points which must be gone into before a case could be laid before a judge or jury."

"It is not his profession, then?"

The two men had stopped opposite the window. Some chalk marks over the waistcoat pocket were the only signs of billiards which I could see in one of them. The other was a very small, dark fellow, with his hat slouched back and several packages under his arm.

"An old soldier, I perceive," said Sherlock.

"And very recently discharged," remarked the brother.

"Served in India, I see."

"And a non-commissioned officer."

"Royal Artillery, I fancy," said Sherlock.

"And a widower."

"But with a child."

"Children my dear boy, children."

"Come," said I, laughing, "this is a little too much."

"Surely," answered Holmes, "it is not hard to say that a man with that bearing, expression of authority, and sun-baked skin, is a soldier, is more than a private, and is not long from being a sergeant."

"That he has not left the service long is shown by his still wearing his ammunition boots, as they are called," observed Mycroft.

"He had not the cavalry stride, yet he wore his hat on one side, as is shown by the lighter skin on that side of his brow. His weight is against his being a sapper. He is in the artillery."

"Then, of course, his complete mourning shows that he has lost some one very dear. The fact that he is linguist. He earns his living partly as an interpreter in the law courts and partly by acting as guide to any wealthy Oriental who may visit the Northumberland Avenue hotels. I think I will leave him to tell his very remarkable experience in his own fashion."

A few minutes later we were joined by a short stout man whose olive face and coal black hair proclaimed his Southern origin, though his speech was that of an educated Englishman. He shook hands eagerly with Sherlock Holmes, and his dark eyes sparkled with pleasure when he understood that the specialist was anxious to hear his story.

"I do not believe that the police credit me—on my word, I do not," said he in a wailing voice. "Just because they have never heard of it before, they think that such a thing cannot be. But I know that I shall never be easy in my mind until I know what has become of my poor man with the sticking plaster upon his face."

"I am all attention," said Sherlock Holmes.

"This is Wednesday evening," said Mr. Melas. "Well, then, it was Monday night—only two days ago, you understand—that all this happened. I am an interpreter, as perhaps my neighbor there has told you. I interpret all languages—or nearly all—but as I am a Greek by birth and with a Greek name, it is with that particular tongue that I am principally associated. For many years, I have been the chief

Sloan's Liniment (Pain's enemy)

We had reached Pall Mall as we talked, and were walking down it from the St. James' end. Sherlock Holmes stopped at a door some little distance from the Carlton, and, cautioning me not to speak, he led the way into the hall. Through the glass partitioning I caught a glimpse of a large and luxurious room, in which a considerable number of men were sitting about and reading papers, each in his own little nook. Holmes showed me into a small chamber which looked out into Pall Mall, and then, leaving me for a minute, he came back with a companion who I knew could only be his brother.

Mycroft Holmes was a much larger and stouter man than Sherlock. His body was absolutely corpulent, but his face, though massive, had preserved something of the sharpness of expression which was so remarkable in that of his brother. His eyes, which were of a peculiarly light, watery gray, seemed to always retain that far-away, introspective look which I had only observed in Sherlock's when he was exerting his full powers.

"I am glad to meet you, sir," said he, putting out a broad, fat hand like the flapper of a seal. "I hear of Sherlock everywhere since you became his chronicler. By the way, Sherlock, I expected to see you round last week to consult me over that Manor House case. I thought you might be a little out of your depth."

"No, I solved it," said my friend, smiling.

"It was Adams, of course."

"Yes, it was Adams."

"I was sure of it from the first. The two set down together in the how-window of the club. To any one who wishes to study mankind this is the spot," said Mycroft. "Look at the magnificent types! Look at these two men who are coming toward us, for example."

"The billiard-marker and the other?"

"Precisely. What do you make of the other?"

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid liver.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 15c and 30c.

DRILLING FOR OIL IN FLORIDA, HAVE AN UNUSUAL PROPOSITION TO OFFER THE GENERAL PUBLIC
THE FLORIDA OIL COMPANY With
260,000 ACRES—THREE DRILLING WELLS
$500,000 CAPITAL—PAR VALUE $10.00

OFFER A LIMITED AMOUNT OF SHARES FOR SALE TO BE USED FOR DEVELOPMENT PURPOSES

WHAT WOULD IT MEAN TO YOU TO HAVE SHARES IN AN OIL COMPANY WITH 260,000 ACRES OF LEASES SHOULD AN OIL WELL BE OBTAINED? Can you imagine what this amount of holdings would figure in millions with an oil gusher on it? You are well acquainted with the Burkburnett Northwest extension pool. This oil pool, covering approximately 4,000 acres, has already produced about $150,000,000 worth of oil and will be producing for the next ten years.

Here Is Our Proposition in a Nut Shell

THE FLORIDA OIL COMPANY, with approximately 260,000 acres of leases practically in a solid body in Walton County, Florida, has formed a Company with authorized capital of $500,000, with headquarters at DeFuniak Springs, Fla. The Company is operating under a Trust agreement, and all Shareholders and Trustees are exempt from personal liability. We are now drilling two wells and have our derrick up for the third well. The wells now drilling are thirty miles apart and the third well is about half-way between, and we own the leases between almost solid. Not one single acre has been reserved and all goes into the Company, and all shareholders will participate in the sale of leases as well as production. The log of the two wells drilling already convinces us that there is oil in Florida, but whether we discover oil or not, we are confident that with this enormous amount of acreage we can make all our shareholders money as we are in a position to sell acreage all over the United States if necessary. Several geologists have passed favorably on Western Florida and Southern Alabama, and our proposition is becoming so well advertised in that section that almost daily we are offered large tracts of land if we will only drill them an oil well. You can readily see that there is no limit to our possibilities should we discover oil as we would immediately become one of the big companies.

It stands to reason that if the Gulf Coast contains oil from Tampico to New Orleans, that there should be lots of tests made from New Orleans to Tampa, Florida. While we don't believe there is a chance for you to lose a dollar invested in our Company, just think what it would mean to you should we find oil. Your stock would immediately jump to 20 to 1, and possibly more. It is said that there are more than FOUR THOUSAND persons who became millionaires by starting out in a small way in the oil business. According to reliable statistics, 32 per cent more people lose money and fail in farming than in the oil business, and 20 per cent more in the business of banking. There is no other business in the world that gives the small investor such a chance to win wealth through the resources of Nature as does the oil business. One acre of oil land can produce more money in one year than the same acre could produce in potatoes in a thousand years at $3.00 per bushel.

In conclusion, I wish to state that this proposition has cost a lot of money, time, worry and effort on our part, but I honestly and sincerely believe that it is one of the fairest and best propositions ever placed on the market in the oil business. Believing that I have something good, I naturally come to my friends first to let them in on it. I do so conscientiously believing that it offers immeasurable returns with a very slight chance of losing a dollar. However, we don't want anyone's money who cannot freely and willingly take a chance in the oil business. We want optimists who are willing to take reasonable risks in life. Suppose you fail once, twice or even six times, in the end you will succeed. Like Charles M. Schwab, we believe that return is always in proportion to the risk. Don't sit around and hollow business depression and financial stringency. That is just what's the matter today. There are too many people waiting for things to adjust themselves. What we need is more action and less talk.

A. L. HUEY, President

As President of the Florida Oil Company, I have no bouquets to throw at myself. I do wish to state, however, for the benefit of those who may think that I have been promoter of many dry hole and fake propositions, that during my fifteen years' residence in the city of Wichita Falls that I have never promoted nor been an officer of but one Company that failed to pay good dividends, and this particular Company paid back 40% of its capital. I organized and successfully managed two corporations that put Floral Heights and Scotland Additions on the market, two of the largest additions to the city of Wichita Falls. As to how successful they were financially, four-fifths of the stockholders now residing in this city can tell you. The Scotland Addition is still paying dividends, having paid 100% last year and 35% already this year—and will continue on paying dividends. I always endeavor to make money for my stockholders and I personally guarantee them a square deal in this company.

CHARLES E. LOGAN, Vice-President

I have been intimately acquainted with Mr. Logan for twenty-one years, and while he is comparatively a young man he has put over some mighty big propositions. For the last twelve years he has resided in Kansas City. He promoted and was President and General Manager of the Good Roads Company, a corporation of $750,000 capital. This Company invented and manufactured a good roads machine for making oil and asphalt macadam roads, one of which machines was sold to this city less than two years ago. Mr. Logan is Active Manager of the Florida Oil Company, travels by airplane and does big things in a hurry. He has a pleasing approach and can call on the biggest of men from the United States senators on down. The largest bankers of Kansas City recommend Mr. Logan very highly.

H. E. McCONNELL, Treasurer

Mr. McConnell needs no introduction to the people of Wichita Falls, having resided here for the past nine years. As to his financial success, the leading banks of this city and R. G. Dunn & Co. can tell you. His success has been achieved by his honesty and good business judgment in the oil business.

I. W. DAVIS, Secretary

Mr. Davis is from Tulsa, Okla., and was chosen secretary of this company on account of his thorough knowledge of the oil and refining business and being an expert accountant. He has a wonderful system of bookkeeping and the stockholders in this company can rest assured that not one penny can get by Mr. Davis without being accounted for.

Trustees

Our Trustees consist of the very biggest bankers and business men that we could find in Western Florida and Southern Alabama, all of whom are enthused over the oil business and have always believed that there was oil in Walton County.

Topography and Geology of West Florida

I suppose many people, like myself, had Florida pictured in their minds as being a low, flat, swampy country with frogs and alligators. Never was I more surprised in my life to find in Walton County, where we are operating, a country that is hillier than either Young, Stephens or Eastland Counties, Texas. There are plenty of domes and anticlines and more oil seepages than I have ever witnessed in any country. Several noted geologists have passed favorably on Western Florida and Southern Alabama—viz.: Aldridge, Clapp, Conley, Barnett and many others whom I do not recall. Mr. Barnett has an office at 303 Morgan Building, this city, coming here from California two years ago. He is positive that there is plenty of oil in Florida.

Our Drillers and Prospects of Getting Oil

We have as good drillers as can be procured, several of them having brought in gushers in this county as well as Goose Creek and Humble. One of our drillers brought in his first gusher in Oil City, Pa., 27 years ago and since that time has brought in over two hundred gushers, having operated in all the principal oil fields of the globe. One of our wells, drilling with rotary, is now down 1,200 feet and has had two good gas showings. The log of this well is identical with those at Goose Creek. The other well, which is thirty miles closer to the Gulf, is being drilled with cable tools and encountered two oil and gas showings up to 680 feet. Last week at 770 feet we struck an oil sand after going through a salt water and quicksand. Drilling with an open hole full of water, the quicksand was so bad that we could not go deeper. After repeated efforts we could not get closer than two feet of the bottom any more, but each time the tools were lowered oil would rise through the salt water. We repeatedly bailed oil from the well for three days. We took all of our drillers out to the well together with a large crowd of visitors and it was the unanimous opinion of drillers and all that we had some kind of an oil well, but how large we were, of course, unable to determine. Being a six-inch hole, we are now reaming down with a ten-inch bit to set new seven-inch casing which we had on hand. As soon as we case off the water and quicksand I am of the honest opinion that we will drill into a good paying oil well—and it may be a big one for that depth as I have never seen a well make a better showing with the chance it had.

To verify the above I desire to quote you a letter received from one of the visitors who is in nowise connected with our Company. This gentleman is President of the Marshall State Bank of Marshall, Ill., and has had lots of experience in the oil business.

DeFuniak Springs, Fla.
 March 12, 1921.

MR. CHAS. E. LOGAN, Gen. Mgr.,
 Florida Oil Company,
 DeFuniak Springs, Fla.

Dear Sir: In regard to my visit at your well drilling in Sec. 22, Twp. 1, R. 17, near Bruce, Fla., I am greatly pleased with the showing of oil that was repeatedly bailed out of the well yesterday.

I will anxiously await the results of your plans to case off the cavings and quicksand in the hole. Then you will know whether or not you have a producing oil well.

This shallow oil is an agreeable surprise to myself and confirms my belief in the possibilities of the deeper oil sands. Yours truly,
 GEO. G. ROBERTSON.

We Absolutely Control This Wonderful Field

three oil wells and nearly have them drilled before offering any stock for sale? Remember, we have reserved nothing, but put everything in our Company, including leases, drilling wells, casing, six well equipped offices, automobiles, brand new three-passenger Curtis aeroplane, etc.—all goes into the Company and everyone guaranteed a square deal.

Should we discover oil, our transportation facilities would be excellent as the big boats come up the river within four miles of one of our wells, and it is only eleven miles from this well to Freeport, on the Choctawhatchee Bay, where there is a harbor. We are also just seventy miles east of Pensacola, the deepest harbor in the South, and on a through line of the L. & N. Railroad.

Whether you purchase any stock or not, we would like to have you call at our offices, 305-306 Morgan Bldg., where we have Maps, Literature, Pictures of Drilling Wells and all data pertaining to the proposition.
