Work is underway from Hereford west to the Deaf Smith County line, moving utilities and other obstructions in the highway right of way, preparatory to widening U.S. Highway 60 to four lanes for the six or seven mile stretch out toward Summerfield.

We don't know what the work schedule is, nor if a contract has been awarded. However, it appears that work could begin just about anytime on this much-needed widening project.

Only bad part about it is that the four-lane program will not get as far as Friona. The 2.4-mile section in Castro County and the 14 miles or so in Parmer County have not been programmed as yet for widening.

About all that has been done along this line is a designation of a certain amount of money for buying protective right-of-way along the highway.

The trouble with this road is the fact that the portion of the highway in Castro and Parmer counties is in a different district to that in Deaf Smith County. The northern district is "way ahead of the southern as pertains to the Highway 60 project."

This much-traveled highway needs to be four laned all the way from Hereford to Farwell, but it will undoubtedly be years before this can be accomplished.

The federal government has been playing politics with highway funds, making some of the needed funds unavailable to the state, which directly needs to keep its highway program going.

About the only thing Parmer County bids to get for Highway 60 for the next year or so is a sealcoat job for the highway. That won't make it any wider. But here's hoping it's the last sealcoat application until the road gets four laned.

If you've made the trip lately, and gotten behind one of those hundreds of trucks that make the trip daily...you know what a problem the road has become.

Contributions to the Public Pulse like to remind us from time to time of the ephemeral nature of journalism. Their message goes about like this: "They'll be wrapping fish tomorrow with that 'brilliant' editorial you write today."

We are happy to report that science is about to catch up with this aggravating band of needlers. If things work out right, they soon will be eating their words and drinking them too. It now develops that old newspapers are a potentially tasty cowfeed.

Dr. David A. Kinus, a scientist at the Agricultural Research Center at Beltsville, Md., says a cow can polish off about a dozen average size newspapers per day if the newspapers are mixed with molasses, soybean meal, minerals and vitamins.

Unfortunately, this prospective news miracle probably won't ease our regular needlers for long. They will just switch from the fish-wraper taunt to dismissing the efforts of the press as "so much cowfeed."

"One man struck a match to see if the gasoline tank in his car was empty. It wasn't. One man patted a strange bulldog on the head to see if it was affectionate. It wasn't. One man speeded up to see if he could beat the train to the crossing. He couldn't. One man touched an electric wire to see if it was charged. It was. One man cut out his advertising to see if he could save money. He couldn't."

"Speaking of inflation, a lot of homeowners owe a lot to it...it's enabled them to live in a more expensive neighborhood without even moving."

A North Carolina magazine, "The State", observes some upside-down logic: "We have courts that protect criminals and condemn law officials; public officials who advocate violence instead of order; artists who win prizes for ugliness instead of beauty; moralists who condemn ethics and exalt license; ministers who preach against a Divinity and 'patriots' who aid our enemies. About all we need now is to try to cure people of sobriety, jail citizens for saving money, and paying their taxes, and award degrees for ignorance."

Squaws Vs Slaton In Playoff Game

Work Continues At MBP Despite Strike

The Friona Division of Missouri Beef Packers, Inc. resumed operations Wednesday, February 9, 1972, at 8 a.m., despite the strike called by the Amalgamated Meat Cutters Union.

Negotiations between the company and the union have been in progress since late November, 1971. The last meeting occurred Monday, February 7, 1972. At that time, the union stated that the last proposal by Missouri Beef Packers was not acceptable and that a strike would be called.

Pickets appeared at the Friona plant on the morning of February 8. The MBP Friona plant has operated without a contract since December 15, 1971, and Howard McLean, plant manager, has stated that he expects the plant to continue with operations at approximately the normal level.

Work is available starting at 8 a.m. February 9, for employees from all divisions who wish to return. The employment office at the plant is also interviewing for new employees.

The next meeting with the union has been set for Monday, February 28.

Bob Northcutt, chief steward of the local union, said the walk-out would continue until wage and hour agreements "are brought in line with Wilson and Swift."

Both sides appeared willing to resume talks before the February 28 date set for the next negotiating session.

"There is nothing sacred about the Feb. 28 date. If they have something worth talking about, we're ready," McLean said.

"We're hoping the company will call us back before Feb. 28. We have left the door open," said Northcutt.

It was estimated that all but about 40 of the 300 production and maintenance workers at the plant were union members and most of these were honoring the picket lines.

No slaughter work was done on Tuesday. Some 450 cattle awaiting slaughter were sent to MBP's Plainview plant Monday night.

Girls' Tilt Tuesday

The Friona High School Squaws are back in the playoffs again.

The Squaws of Coach F.C. Crofford claimed the District 3 AA championship with an overall record of 9-1 and will take on talented Slaton in a bi-district game next Tuesday evening at 7:30 p.m. at the new Wayland College Gymnasium on the Wayland campus.

Friona will be seeking revenge for last year's 41-36 loss to Slaton in a similar playoff game at Levelland.

However, the Squaws will have their work cut out for them, as Slaton apparently is a stronger team this season. The Tigerettes were unbeaten (12-0) in winning District 4 AA, and it is believed the team has lost only one game this season, to strong class AAA Canyon, which dealt Friona two of its four losses.

Slaton won two tournament titles this season, one being the giant, 22 team West Texas Girls' Basketball Invitational Tournament, which they hosted.

The Squaws, 25-4 for the season, are led in scoring by senior Diane Day, who has scored 605 points for the season, sporting a 20-point per game average. Sharon Smith has averaged 12 points, adding 350 to the team's total.

Other consistent point makers have been Jill Richmayer (252) and nonhomero Darla Rhodes (206).

Senior Vicki Ulen leads the guards with 114 rebounds. Janice Milner has 106, Cindy Hutson 84, Kathy King 66 and Terri Bingham 65.

The Slaton team is led in scoring by 5-5 junior Karla Kitten. Their forwards are not too tall. Cynthia Akin is 5-6, Mrs. Ann Beard is 5-7 and so on.

Family Host Sought For Exchange Student

Plans are being made by the Friona Chapter of the American Field Service to host an exchange student for Friona High School next school term.

The local chapter urges any family interested in hosting a foreign exchange student to contact high school principal John R. Cook as soon as possible, or call Hollis Horton, president of the local chapter.

"The deadline is just a week or so away, so those who are interested need to contact us soon," Horton said.

The local chapter met last Thursday with two members of the AFS headquarters staff from New York, Jane Clapp and Colleen Costin. Also coming here was Mrs. W.K. Husley, Tulsa, who is area AFS representative.

It was pointed out that requirements for host parents have been changed radically, in the elimination of a minimum age, and the stipulation that the family have a student in high school.

It was the opinion of some attending the local chapter meeting last week that the relaxing of these requirements might help in getting more applicants for host families.

Friona did not have an exchange student this school year, and the AFS representatives were most anxious for the community to host one for the 1972-73 term.

"Every year there are far more foreign exchange students who apply to come to America than we have places for," said Miss Costin.

The local committee pointed out that generally, the exchange student program has been a big success locally, with two of the former students returning here for visits. In addition, one local family, the E.G. Phipps family, went to Australia to visit Brenda Hawker, and to enable Mr. Phipps to participate in Brenda's wedding.

Students who have come to Friona for the most part have been widely accepted by the student body and community.

More information on the exchange student program can be secured either from the school, or by contacting Horton.

CHAMBER FETE

Banquet Takes Shape; Details Are Discussed

Final details regarding the annual banquet will be the principal topic of concern at the regular monthly meeting of the Friona Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture's board of directors Tuesday morning at the Parmer House Restaurant.

It was reported that ticket sales had been kicked off, but that so far, advance ticket sales are only moderate.

The meat for the menu, originally announced as roast beef, was discussed further, with the possibility of again serving steaks.

The choice of meat was left up to the menu committee - Ray Murphree, Marc Houser and Glenn Reeve, Jr.

Ron Davenport reported that the high school stage band would once again provide dinner music, prior to and during the meal.

Chairmen of the chamber's various committees to select the citizens to be honored at the annual banquet were requested to turn their final selections into Chamber president Ralph Shirley.

It was reported that a gift had been purchased for the banquet speaker, Jim Gillie of Bartlesville, Okla. Gillie is assistant to the manager of Phillips Petroleum Company's public affairs division.

Bill Ellis reported on the special publication on the chamber's work for 1971, to be published in conjunction with the annual banquet February 29.

City manager Jake Outland reported on the city's proposed paving program for 1972, and other activities.

The directors voted to again ask General Telephone Company to include the listings of the Hub and Parmer exchanges in the Friona section of the telephone directory. The telephone company's reluctance to establish a base station locally for mobile telephones was also discussed, although it was noted that the West Texas Telephone Cooperative had established such a station on the Hub exchange.

Other items discussed included the possibility of again pursuing opening the east end of 14th Street out to the Cemetery Road; and the possibilities of paving the Cemetery Road.

June Rhodes Seeking City Council Office

Mrs. Aubrey (June) Rhodes announced this week that she would be a candidate for the Friona City Council in the annual city election April 1.

Two spots on the council, in addition to Mayor R.L. Fleming's office, are existing. Terms of Councilmen Gary Brown and Bill Ellis are expiring.

Neither has indicated if they would seek re-election. Mayor Fleming is expected to seek another term.

In announcing her plans to seek a spot on the traditionally all-male council, Mrs. Rhodes said her announcement had nothing at all to do with "women's lib" or any other movement.

"I'm simply willing to give my time and serve in the office. I feel it is every citizen's duty to serve. Friona is my town, and I'm interested in its future, and the future of all of the young people of Friona.

"If elected I will be happy to work with the residents of the city for the betterment of our city," Mrs. Rhodes said.

Country Club Hosts Party

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Dear Editor,

I am like the person who wrote the letter to the editor last week, we really don't need a fire station for our firemen since all that it is used for is for our firemen to sit in on Thursday night. But—before we decide not to build one, I'd like to state a few questions and answers, if you please.

Have you ever seen a fireman put out a fire when there are icicles hanging out the end of the fire hose?

Have you ever seen a fireman get to a fire when his truck is frozen?

How would you like it if you called the fire department and your house burned to the ground because the firemen had to stop and scrape ice off the windshield?—Just because there was no fire station.

Have you ever been on main street and watched the firemen? If you have, you probably wonder why one fireman gets in the truck and pulls it out and then the other firemen load up. Well that's because they don't have enough room to load up inside. You see if they had more room they could load up while the driver is starting the truck and that way they might be able to save one more room of the house.

Have you ever asked yourself why more firemen don't take their families to the mountains in the summertime? That is because they spend their vacations going to fire school so your insurance rates will be lower.

Have you ever wondered who takes care of the fireman's family while they watch for a tornado?

Who gets called out to help if there is some other disaster, such as a bad wreck or a drowning?

Or when the siren goes off at 2 A.M. do you get up and follow the fire truck or do you help to get your man dressed and out the door and then say a silent prayer that your fireman does his best, and there is no loss of life and that the property damage is kept to a minimum?

In closing this letter I'll just have to say our firemen would like to have $100,000 brick fire station, but they'll settle for a barn if it is big enough to hold the equipment they have and need.

I am truly proud of our firemen and their department, and I sincerely hope the majority of the town is too.

Mrs. Ralph Shirley

Dear Mr. Ellis:

I think most everybody in Friona is proud of our volunteer fire department and thinks they do a real great job of protecting our town. They volunteer to put their very lives in danger every time the siren goes off.

I think if they wanted gold-plated fire hoses the people of Friona should provide it for them and a new fire station is not asking too much if they need it.

I certainly hope the fire boys don't think the letter printed in last week's paper is representative of the way that all Friona citizens feel about them, for it is not. (Name Withheld by Request)

Dear Editor,

You have probably heard the saying "Every community has its pillars and its caterpillars." I feel the 33 men under me in the fire department are classified as the pillars—they help to hold up and support this community—they represent 427 years of service to the community.

Of course the caterpillars of a community are people like the one who wrote the editor last week—trying to tear down a community.

Since this person did not bother to come and ask a fireman for a few statistics, I will try to pass a few along anyhow.

We have 5 pieces of equipment and only room for 3 (by maneuvering our equipment around, we can squeeze 4 pieces) in the fire station. The other fire truck is kept in a private garage, furnished free of charge to the city, by one of our firemen.

Sincerely Yours

By Rev. Albert Lindley

My goodness, did you ever hear of so many drafts in your life as was held last week?

Pity the poor boys who had to set around and wait for their number—then they didn't know if it was the Professional Football Draft or the draft for the Armed Forces. . . .

I have been assigned many numbers in my life time and I kept wondering if one of mine would be called. I really didn't want to play Pro football. . . . I sure didn't want to meet Bubba Smith like that. . . . And I didn't want to be drafted in the Armed Forces, either. . . . I taught them all I know once before.

I suppose the way we feel about the whole concept of "drafting" has a great deal to do with when our number is called and what we think about the object of the draft. That is, what are we being drafted to do.

I suppose we could think in terms of having "drafts" for other things—in fact, we do already.

In a sense we are "drafted" or chosen, to serve on a jury. We really want this kind of system but we don't always like to serve in that manner. . . .

There are those, not me, yet, who have been "drafted" into running for President of our United States and the reluctant person always tries to "dodge" it—about like a run-away steam engine. . . .

How would you like to be asked to serve in that awesome position with the absolute weight of the nation and often the world, upon your shoulders? No wonder we don't always agree with or understand the actions of whomever our President might be, or even actions of some of the government agencies. . . . I'm not whitewashing, just calling to mind that we don't know the whole picture, since we haven't been "drafted" to those positions of responsibility and leadership.

Many of you even follow a certain type of "draft" in getting the minister who serves as your pastor. Drafts are handled in different ways but basically it means to be chosen by a force other than that person's own desire or decision. That person might agree with the decision alright, but still the force comes from elsewhere.

Have you ever thought about the choice or decision or "draft" that you have a part in, in the daily life you live?

Just for the fun of it, why don't we just kick that thought around. . . .

To get the game started, let us just call ourselves the "draftees"—we are the object of the draft.

Now we will need a force or power that has authority to do the drafting, choosing or assigning a draftee for a specific purpose. We will just call him "Force," for the time being.

Now, we must also have a purpose for the draftee—something for which the draftee is drafted, to do—we will call that "purpose."

I suppose we should also deal with a problem that sometimes pops up and that is there are those who are "drafted" or chosen for a "purpose" by a "force" and they don't like the idea for some reason—and they cut out and don't do that for which they have been chosen to do—now let us call this, the "draft-bamboozler". . . . he shirks it, is a goldbrick, a flunker-welschertuant. . . . I don't want to use "dodger" here because that has all kinds of meanings that I don't want us to mix with right now.

The ground rules are laid—now here is our game and we all play it, every day. . . .

Go back and replace the idea of "draftee" with ourselves—that's who we are. . . . and replace "Force" with God. . . . replace "purpose" with "God's intention for you"—and replace "draft-bamboozler" with "sin". . . .

See, we play it all the time. . . . I'm kinda sorry I brought this all up now—it isn't a fun-sort of game—I might kid myself into believing that my "bamboozling" is fun but it still comes out—copping out on God. . . . you know, he will let us win. . . . Just allow ourselves to be chosen for the purpose he has for us. . . . and do that purpose.

When there is a fire the trucks have to be moved outside before the firemen can load up, which you can see is very valuable time wasted.

When the equipment needs working on, we either have to move part of it outside or take it to some garage, so we have room to get around it.

Following is a list of equipment that the firemen bought and paid for, by long hours of extra work: 3 trucks, 1 panel, 2 pick-ups, 1 station wagon, 1 air-compressor, 1 light plant, 1 projector for training courses, two-way radios, breathing equipment, coats, hats and boots, the cost of all of this comes to over $37,000.00. This has been given to the city of Friona by the firemen with no extra cost to any taxpayer.

We have attended Fireman's Training School for 23 years of which there has been 106 men go, which amounts to 3180 hours of fire fighting training.

The value of this equipment and experience is well over $100,000.00, and we feel we do need a place to keep it.

If every body would vote for the bond election in April, it would not raise your taxes, but it would give us, the firemen, a new station at a cost of approximately $40,000.00.

Now I would like to extend an invitation to anybody that might be interested. We would like to have any of you come to our meetings or visit the fire station at any time.

I will sign my name to this letter so if there is any questions you will know who to contact.

Thank you,
Ralph Shirley
Fire Chief

WAR HERO... Capt. Gary McLaughlin is congratulated by his wife, Annie, after receiving the Soldier Medal for heroism in Vietnam. Lt. Col. John O. Childs made the presentation at a ceremony on the WTSU campus January 25.

Former Friona Man Receives The Army's Highest Award

Capt. Gary Dean McLaughlin of the Military Science Department at West Texas State University received the Soldier Medal in ceremonies conducted Tuesday at the University.

Lt. Col. John O. Childs made the presentation. Capt. McLaughlin is the son of Mrs. Francis Davis of Friona who is a local award-winner, herself.

Last year she received the Friona Chamber of Commerce award for the Employee of the Year. McLaughlin is a 1962 graduate of Friona High School.

The Soldier's Medal is the Army's highest award for heroism not involving actual conflict with an armed enemy.

The medal was given to Captain McLaughlin for action he took when fire threatened to destroy the helicopter refueling point at Fire Support Base Buttons, Phuoc Long Province, in Vietnam on July 20, 1971.

The military release said, "Captain McLaughlin's selfless and resolute actions quickly brought the dangerous situation under control and materially reduced the resulting damage to the helicopter refueling point and adjacent facilities. He repeatedly entered the fire area, assisting other members of a United States Reaction force organized just minutes after the fire began. He assisted in setting up a fire watch in the event of a sudden expansion by the fire. Captain McLaughlin's heroic action was in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Army and reflect great credit upon himself and the military service."

Captain McLaughlin is also the holder of two Bronze Stars, the Army Air Medal, the Army Commendation Medal, the Purple Heart, the Vietnamese Gallantry Cross with Palm, a Meritorious Unit Citation, Combat Infantry Blade, National Defense Service Medal, Vietnamese Service Medal, and Vietnamese Campaign Medal.

He served in Europe from February 1966 to October, 1967 and in Viet Nam for two tours of duty.

ELECTRICITY NATIONAL IS FOR PEOPLE. FEB 6-12, 1972. ELECTRICAL WEEK

NEW

FEBRUARY 6-12, 1972

N.E.W. — to many, these initials stand for NATIONAL ELECTRICAL WEEK, an annual event designed to call attention to the many wonderful things electric power has made possible.

N.E.W. — to us, these initials also mean NORMAL EVERYDAY WEEK. For whatever the occasion or celebration, our work goes on — 24 hours every day and every night.

Electricity which has done so much in the past to raise the living hopes of millions is now, say many experts, the one hope for the future of our environment.

Dependable electricity, cleanest of all energies at the point of use, is being depended upon as the means for effectively and efficiently cleaning up our environment.

But, that's what you'd expect from us, isn't it?

ELECTRICITY — IT DOES SO MUCH GOOD

License Plate Booth Here Next Week

Tax Assessor Collector Hugh Moseley will be in Friona next week, opening a special vehicle license plate booth at the Law Enforcement Center (old City Hall council room) Monday through Friday.

Moseley will operate the special booth between the hours of 10 a.m.-12 noon and 1-4 p.m. for the five-day period. Vehicle operators in Friona are urged to take advantage of this one-week booth.

Moseley reminds the motorists to bring the three-part form that they received in the mail, plus their personalized check books.

The county tax assessor will also be in Bovins on February 22 and 23, and will be at Lazbuddie at the Sherry Anderson Elevator, on February 24.

"You don't have to stand in line anymore in order to register 'Old Betsy,' or whatever you call the faithful family car," Moseley said this week.

Moseley said that motorists can get their 1972 license plates by sending the three-part form to him, along with the registration fee and one dollar to cover mailing.

But whether the motorist uses the mail or applies for the license in person, the important thing for him to remember is to be careful NOT to separate the three-part form, Moseley points out.

With the form, a certificate of title and last year's registration receipt is not needed.

The deadline for affixing the 1972 plates is April 1.

No One Files For Democratic Office

No one filed for the position of County Democratic chairman, according to present chairman Nelson Welch. The deadline was this past Monday.

"It will be up to the County Democratic committee to fill the position, I suppose," Welch told the Friona Star this week. However, the position will appear on the May 6 ballot, and voters will have the privilege of writing in nominees for the job.

Welch reiterated his statement of last week, that he would serve only through the primary election. "I will serve until Monday, May 8, on which date the election returns are canvassed," said the longtime county Democratic leader.

No other last-minute candidates came forward.

There will be no contested countywide races, with Sheriff Charles Lovelace, Tax Assessor-Collector Hugh Moseley and County Attorney Herschel Harding running unopposed.

In Precinct 3 (Farwell), incumbent commissioner is opposed by Cecil Atchley of Lariat. Two persons are running for the Farwell justice of the peace office. They are Wanda Walker and Raymond Mears.

Tom Lewellen, commissioner of Precinct 1, is unopposed on the Democratic slate, but Forrest Osborn has filed on the Republican ballot.

Other students making the finals were Sally Kendrick in persuasive speaking and Troy White in poetry reading. Steve Stone made the finals in prose reading, and Gary Stone in poetry reading.

Those making the semi final round included Vicki Beck and David Renner, poetry reading; Hope Mays, prose reading; Danny Simpson and Veva Welch, informative speaking; David Hardgrove, Davey Hill and Jeannie Thompson in persuasive speaking.

January Construction Very Slow In Friona

New construction got off to a very slow start for 1972, according to building permit figures released this week by A.L. (Jake) Outland, city manager.

Only one building permit was issued, and that was for a storage building, worth an estimated $800.00. This was one of the lowest January totals on record for the city.

Other monthly figures released by Outland showed that the city's tax collections, as of February 1, stood at 92.98 per cent, about a full percentage point below the figure for the same date one year earlier which was 93.91 per cent.

Only one new water tap was made, but one service was discontinued, leaving the number of active taps as of February 1 at 1277.

A total of 8,465,000 gallons of water were pumped during the month, an average of 273,064 gallons per day, and down slightly from the previous month.

Moisture for the month of January also was light, standing at .06 inch of moisture, from light snowfall on two occasions.

Five fire alarms were sounded during January. Only one was inside the city limits and it was a grass fire. The biggest fire was one at Farwell which the local department was called to help, in which a grain elevator burned, an estimated loss of $150,000.

Twenty-eight arrests were made by the police department. Fifteen involved traffic violations of some sort. Four were for drunkenness, and two more for driving while intoxicated.

Six complaints were investigated - three thefts, two for vandalism and one for burglary. Three accidents within the city limits resulted in one minor injury.

KEEPS GROWING AFTER 10,000,000 YEARS

It takes about 120 years of drippings to form one cubic inch of cave oxal at the famed Caverns of Luray in Virginia, but because the natural wonder is already ten to 12 million years old, it stalactites (growing down from the ceiling) and stalagmites (growing up from the ground) are big enough to attract more than 400,000 visitors a year.

DAFFODILS LOOK NATURAL

When planted at random in clumps. Many varieties are right for "naturalizing" in a semi-wild area round the house. Be sure to ask the dealer for varieties that multiply, and in a few years, daffodils will grow around your house like dandelions.

When "naturalizing" bulbs, plant about eight inches deep. Every few years, dig up the bulbs after the leaves turn dry and brown, and separate the bulbs, spacing them farther apart.

March 1 is the deadline for farmers to file their income tax returns. The Income Tax Act of 1971, passed in December, has changed some of the regulations affecting your 1971 tax liability. The most important change is the reinstatement of investment credit. Under this law an investment credit of seven per cent is available for depreciable, tangible personal property subject to depreciation recapture and having a useful life of at least seven years. All livestock, except horses, meeting these conditions will also now comply.

For assets obtained in 1971 to qualify for investment credit, they must have been ordered on or after April 1, 1971, or if ordered prior to April 1, delivered after August 15, 1971. In general, if the asset would ordinarily qualify and was not ordered before April 1, the investment credit will apply. However, if an order was placed prior to April 1 and unless the actual delivery was delayed until after August 15, the investment credit is not applicable.

Never before has it been more important that producers increase cotton production than in 1972. Last year's low yields, coupled with increasing demands for U.S. cotton at home and abroad, makes it imperative that we increase production to prevent further market loss to synthetics. Without an adequate supply it is difficult to convince our consumers, the textile mills, that we can deliver cotton in adequate quantities and qualities when they need them.

Along with favorable prices and good underground moisture, the prospects for profitable cotton production look bright in our area. Producers should make every effort to put in motion their best management skills in planning this year's cotton crop. The latest information on all aspects of cotton production can be obtained in fact sheets, bulletins and leaflets at your county agent's office.

Last fall's rainfall interfered with crop harvest, but it stored valuable moisture for this year's crop. Recent soil moisture determinations for the 14-county Soil Moisture Survey, prepared annually by Meteorologist Oliver Newton, indicate that sub-soil moisture is comparable to that of 1969-70. This means many growers have an opportunity to reduce or even eliminate pre-plant irrigation applications. Water that is applied in excess of the soil's capacity is lost. Efficient irrigation management pays by reducing production costs and conserving water. Operating and labor costs will be about 90 cents per acre-inch for wheel roll sprinkler systems, $1.20 for self-propelled center pivot sprinklers, and 70 cents for furrow irrigation. Decisions on whether to irrigate before planting should be based upon an evaluation of possible returns from the water applied.

More water is normally applied during the pre-plant irrigation than during later applications. It appears that only small quantities of water will be needed this year to bring the soil moisture content to field capacity. The water application guides sent earlier can help growers estimate application quantities. Extra cooles are available for both sprinkler and furrow methods. High water infiltration rates can occur in wet soils as well as dry, especially in sandy soils. When soil particles are holding all the water possible, water will flow more freely through the soil pore space due to gravity forces. This can give a false indication that the soil is storing the water. The 14-county Soil Moisture Survey is a good general guide for efficient pre-plant irrigation management in counties it covers. This year's survey will be available about mid-February.

Retail apparel and accessory stores made a profit almost twice as high as gas and service stations per dollar collected—9.13% versus 4.87%—according to a survey of individual proprietorships conducted during a recent business year by Dun & Bradstreet, the business information agency.

Consumers are making an impact. A recent regulation passed by the Federal Trade Commission requires that wearing apparel and piece goods for wearing apparel be permanently labeled for care and maintenance. The rule will take effect July 3, 1972.

With the introduction of so many new synthetic fibers and advanced textile design over the past 30 years it has become increasingly difficult to prevent fabric shrinkage, colors that run and damage caused by heat if proper care information is not provided. Although most manufacturers do provide this information it is usually on detachable labels or hangtags which are easily lost or destroyed. The customer will ultimately pay the cost of the labels but a net savings will result due to fewer losses from the improper care.

Sewing workshops were one of the many times that Parmer County Family Living Committee, planned for the upcoming year. Other Extension programs they hope to initiate in the upcoming year are a Seminar on Mental Health and Retardation and various programs on Family Health and Safety.

Mrs. Earl Whitten of Bovina was named chairman and Rhea Norman Taylor of the Rhea Community was named secretary for the current year. Other committee members attending the meeting were Mrs. Kenneth Ferguson, Friona; Mrs. George Cervantes, Bovina; Mrs. Roy M. Miller, Lazbuddie and Mrs. Gilbert Gilliam, Farwell.

4-H Foods and Nutrition projects are underway now after a leader training session in Bovina, January 29. Leaders and Junior Leaders attending that meeting were: Mrs. Wayne Magness, Audrey and Arlene Magness and Mrs. Kenneth Whitecotton, Bovina; Mrs. Ben Foster, Jr., Lazbuddie; Mrs. Keith Brock, Friona; Mrs. Norman Taylor, Rhea; Mrs. Leon Langford, Jacqueline Langford, Mrs. Hubert Gohlke and Cheryl Gohlke, Farwell.

Special emphasis is being given in the 1972 Easter Seal Appeal to the disabled citizen or his family in Parmer County who may need assistance and not know where to obtain it. Any disabled person can contact Mr. Jones at the Security State Bank, Farwell, who will refer the request for services to the Easter Seal Society. A determination of the extent and type of assistance needed and the most efficient means of obtaining that assistance will be made. Arrangements for needed treatment or service will be made by the Easter Seal Society.

Shanks Ivy Chosen Conservation Farmer

The Parmer County SWCD has recognized J. L. "Shanks" Ivy of Lazbuddie as its Outstanding Conservation Farmer of the Year for 1971.

Ivy has been living in the Lazbuddie community since 1926. In 1948 he bought 640 acres just north of Lazbuddie where he has made his home.

The farm needed conservation work badly. Ivy was actually aware of the problems existing on the land and patiently worked trying to correct them.

Finances were a major obstacle to his program but as they permitted, he applied conservation. As time went by he had many opportunities to buy more land and expand his operation, but he was determined to improve what he had to the best of his ability.

In 1966, Ivy was told about the Parmer County SWCD. He found technical assistance available. With the technical help, he developed a complete conservation plan for his farm. As a result of this plan, he found the Great Plains Conservation Program to be ideally suited to his needs. The financial assistance available through the GP program would allow him to accelerate his rate of applying conservation objectives more quickly.

This would allow him to improve his operation to meet his desires within three years instead of progressing slowly as he had been forced to do.

Then tragedy struck. On a cold January day in 1968, during a blinding snow storm, Ivy and his wife were in a major automobile accident. Mrs. Ivy was killed in the wreck and Ivy's entire body was crushed and mangled.

He clung to life in the intensive care ward for over eighty days. The doctors gave him no chance for recovery, but he astonished everyone and lived. After he was taken off the critical list, they said he would be in a wheelchair for life.

In the words of SWCD Director, Alton Morris, "He should not have survived, let alone ever walked again, but HE WALKED." The doctors had not bargained for Mr. Ivy's determination. Within two years he was doing much of his own farming again.

With all this misfortune, most people supposed Ivy's conservation program would be forgotten. Again his persistence had been overlooked. He never lost sight of his conservation goals.

After his extended convalescence, Ivy again took up the conservation banner and went to work. He became interested in wildlife development and stocked his farm with pheasant and quail. His farm pond was stocked with fish.

This done, he began, with District assistance, to manage his crop residues and grassland to improve the cover and food supply for his pheasant and quail. Game birds were always considered when conservation practices were installed. As a result, he now has an operation of which he is proud.

With district assistance, Ivy has installed irrigation pipeline for more efficient water distribution, a tailwater recovery system to profitably recirculate irrigation water, two grassed waterways for erosion control, pasture planting with cross fences to control grazing, and a livestock well.

"Because of his tenacity and courage, Mr. Ivy has been an inspiration to all who know him. Because of his devotion to conservation, he has become a missionary to the cause. J. L. Ivy has hurdled obstacles insurmountable to most to become truly The Outstanding Conservation Farmer of the Year," states Herb Evans, District Conservationist.

Herb Evans, District Conservationist, congratulates J. L. "Shanks" Ivy as Outstanding Conservation Farmer of the Year.

Life Holds a Little More Because of Electricity

A Salute to National Electrical Week, and a pledge to try to make life better and brighter.

And it's right at the tip of your fingers -- with an unobtrusive light plug, a small switch to flick. That's what starts industries humming and farms producing. That's what floods homes and buildings with brilliance. There also are a lot of little -- but important -- things that get going this way, too. The toaster toasts. The family laundry comes up sparkling. TV presents entertainment and information. Newspapers record instant history. Oh, yes. Life is a whole lot better because of electricity. We're looking forward to making it even more exciting and satisfying -- starting now.

What Does The Bible Say?

Question: "Is there a single, identifiable authority in religion?"

Answer: "He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day" (John 12:48).

When Jesus uttered these words, He settled forever the question of authority in religion. Regardless of race, creed or ethnic origin, every man on earth is subject to the authority of Christ. He may not know it, he may not want it or he may not accept it, but it is still true.

"And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus..." (Col. 3:17). This passage affirms the need for and the source of authority since the phrase "in the name of" means "by the authority of." Since only the word of God furnishes us unto all good works, (2 Tim. 3:16-17) gives the terms of salvation (Acts 2: 22-38), and the promises of eternal life (Rev. 22:14) we conclude that it is the sole authority in religion.

Questions invited. Address "What Does The Bible Say," Box 515, Friona, Texas.

THIS WAY, AUNT... The Friona Squaws have an unusual situation this year, with an aunt (Darla Rhodes, at right), and a niece (Sharon Smith, left) on the varsity. Sharon is a junior, and is in her second year on the varsity. Darla is a sophomore. Both are forwards. That's right—the niece is a year older. Asked if Sharon calls her "Aunt Darla," Miss Rhodes replied, "She'd better not!"

But the Tigerettes have held on the guard end. They are led by 5-11 Elnora Moore, who Friona fans will remember from last year's bi-district game, 5-8 Patsy Gamble and 5-7 Corla Gass.

Slaton is coached by Mrs. Gay Benson, former Olton coach and a former Wayland Flying Queen All-American.

This will actually be a "rubber game" for the two playoff veterans, as Friona took a 55-34 win in a bi-district match in 1965.

The game will be the tenth appearance for the Friona girls in a bi-district playoff in 15 years. The Squaws stand 6-3 in bi-district play. Last year's loss to Slaton snapped a streak of winning four consecutive such games.

Should Friona win the game, it would send the Squaws to the regional tournament next weekend. Friona has not been in the regional meet since their string of three straight appearances in the state tournament in 1963-64-65, when the team placed third, first and second, in that order.

NEWS OF EXPERIMENTS IN SOCIAL ACTION THAT HAVE PROVED HIGHLY PROMISING

VOLUNTEERS...STEP FORWARD!

By James D. Farley
Executive Vice President
First National City Bank
New York, N.Y.

Have government social service programs displaced the volunteer worker?

Not in the least, according to reports we receive daily from social agencies, and from those people already doing volunteer work. The need for part-timers to teach, wrap bandages, read to the sick or advise those in trouble continues to grow. It is a need that businesses can help meet.

In New York City, for example, Citibank's community activities include financing of low-income housing, as well as such programs as job training and minority business development. Helpful as these projects are, we recognize that not all of a community's problems can be solved with government spending or corporate urban affairs projects. Often, it is the individual volunteer that makes the difference in the lives of the disadvantaged.

Helping your neighbor through volunteer service is a part of the American tradition. In our ranks, we have many who contribute their time and effort. Their role has raised questions about how a business can add its contribution.

Looking into the problem, we discovered there were many people who wanted to get involved but didn't know what organizations needed people. We also found organizations that didn't know where to recruit volunteers. So we set up a match-making service. Soliciting requests for volunteers from outside agencies, we listed the available jobs. Then we notified our employees. We were able to match up skills, and talents and preferences with the available openings.

At last look, bank employees were involved in some 35 different volunteer projects. Assignments include teaching, helping blacks start a business, repairing homes for the poor, working with drug addicts and helping control noise.

Programs such as this do not spring into existence full blown. Interest in them tends to spurt, then sag, and then spurt again. We have found it requires some motivating. Pictures of volunteer workers in the company paper help for special mention of their efforts does encourage others to participate. And then volunteers do come forward to help. The faces will change, but like the incoming tide, the force and direction of the volunteer will be constant.

Chili Supper Here Friday

The Friona Booster Club is holding a chili supper at the high school cafeteria here Friday, prior to the basketball game. The boosters also will serve pie following the basketball action.

Council Annexes Plot For Industries Office

The Friona city council approved the plot dedication and voted to annex the property just east of the present city limits, where an office building is to be built to serve several local industries.

Reeve Chevrolet was awarded the bid on a 1972 model automobile to be used by the Police Department, on a low bid of $2,458.00, with exchange.

The council voted an expenditure of approximately $2,000 for the removal of water mains under Grand Street in the Highway 214 project, and re-installing them on each side of the street.

A payment of $4,458.78 was approved to J.E. Hicks, realtor, representing a portion of the amount owed Hicks on utility refunds from the development of his addition in the north part of town.

The council heard a report from city engineer M.R. Smith of Lubbock, on recommendations of possible ways of improving the water pressure in the western part of town. The board voted to retain the First Southwest Company of Lubbock as financial advisors and bond attorneys in connection with the proposed bond issue April 1.

A request from Mrs. Pat Fallwell, to mark off one-half of the interest owed on an old paving debt to the city, was approved.

A resolution ordering the city election was passed. The auditor's recommendation that a total of $98,67 be charged off as erroneous tax assessments, was approved.

The contract of Howard Perdue, attorney, for collecting delinquent taxes, was extended for a year.

Also discussed at length were the city's plumbing and electrical codes, and the possibility of more rigid enforcement of these codes. The need for an upgraded code was discussed, and will be taken up at a later meeting.

Tips On Upholstery Care

Time spent keeping upholstered furniture clean today will pay dividends in longer life and better looks. Upholstered furniture represents a substantial investment, and it merits planned and careful care. Soil and stain untreated soon become difficult, if not impossible, to remove. Here are some tips for keeping your upholstered furniture in like new condition:

CARE BEGINS BEFORE YOU BUY . . . Before you buy any upholstered furniture, ask yourself, "How will it wear and clean?" Most fabrics used today are blends of different yarns. Durability and shrinkage cannot be determined for every blend on the market and do not correspond with the characteristics of fabrics rated individually. Generally, tighter fabric weaves indicate quality and give longer wear.

ROUTINE UPHOLSTERY CARE . . . Vacuum once a week and reverse cushions. Keep furniture away from direct sunlight. Brush with "soft" brush only (stiff bristles can damage fabric fibers). Remove spots immediately. Use partial slip covers (on arm and head rests since they receive the most wear).

RECOMMENDED CLEANING PRODUCTS . . . For synthetic fibers and cotton you may use light-duty detergent foam (but this is risky because the liquid may cause over-wetting and also must be rinsed). Or use Upholstery Shampoo specially formulated to dry into solid, hard crystals for easy removal by vacuuming.

For leather, use saddle soap, paste wax, leather preservative or Upholstery Shampoo. For plastics, use a mild detergent and water solution or Upholstery Shampoo. For fabric over foam rubber, use Upholstery Shampoo (never use spirit solvent cleaning fluids because they can damage the rubber padding.)

For a free booklet containing a stain chart and complete information for upholstery care, write to Jane King, Bissell Home Service Institute, Grand Rapids, Michigan 49506

OFFICERS. . . Officers of Friona's volunteer fire department display a Scott Air Pack, complete with masks that aid firemen in smoke-filled areas. From the left are Ruben Taylor, Curtis Butler, Dick Vickery, J.C. Blankenship, Joe Reeve and Ralph Taylor.

INSTALL GAS AIR CONDITIONING NOW?

Install GAS air conditioning now and beat the rush that always comes with the first hot days. While everyone else is waiting on installation, central GAS air conditioning will be quietly and efficiently cooling your whole house. And another benefit of installing now is you have the time to consider the advantages that GAS air conditioning has over the other kinds.

A GAS air conditioning system is ruggedly built and operates on a simple principle. Heat from the steady blue flame circulates a refrigerant through the system to cool the air. There are fewer major moving parts and no compressor to break down or wear out. It's this simplicity that gives GAS air conditioning its low operating costs, its long life with no loss of cooling capacity, and its easy maintenance with few repair bills. GAS air conditioning also filters the air to reduce dust and pollen.

If you have a forced air heating system, you may be able to use the same ductwork for GAS air conditioning.

So, be foxy. Call Pioneer Natural Gas Company for a free air conditioning survey of your home or business.

The Library Corner

BY MRS. VON EDELMON

Parents, how many of you have been made to feel less than intelligent by your children because you are not up on the modern math terms or because your English grammar terms are out-dated? Well, the library offers you an opportunity to "be with it" in the field of English literature. The students still read some of the old classics we older ones read in school. So if you missed out now is your chance to catch up. We have "Scarlet Letter" and "House of Seven Gables" by Hawthorne, and "Tale of Two Cities" by Charles Dickens or "Silas Mariner" by Elliot or a number of Shakespeare's works. Some of the modern classics are also available. "Gone With The Wind" by Mitchell. Some of the history buffs might be interested in the three volumes of John F. Kennedy's papers or the two volumes by Lyndon B. Johnson's papers.

Story Hour continues on. This Thursday a Valentine Party is being planned for the young patrons.

Term papers have kept the librarian on the run filling orders about the Galveston tornado to the Vikings. We probably have material on your subject—Try us, you'll like us!

MRS. KENNETH DALE SMITH

Ferguson-Smith Vows Read Here Saturday

Doris Faye Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V.M. Ferguson, Route 1, Friona and Kenneth Dale Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Smith of East Liverpool, Ohio, exchanged wedding vows at the Calvary Baptist Church Saturday, February 5, at 10 a.m.

The double ring ceremony was read by Rev. Raymond Wiley, Hereford, assisted by Rev. R.C. Hester, pastor. The altar, which was centered with twin candelabra holding white tapers entwined greenery, white carnations and blue bows, was flanked by an arrangement of white pom pom mums tied with blue bows.

Vickie Payne, Lubbock, served as maid of honor. She wore a formal length gown of blue crepe with an empire waistline and short puff sleeves. She wore a matching headpiece and carried a long stemmed white carnation with blue streamers.

Wendy Ferguson, Ft. Worth, niece of the bride, was candle-lighter. She wore a pink street length dress with long sheer puffed sleeves.

Kent Ferguson, Ft. Worth and Gary Ferguson, Friona, nephews of the bride, carried the ring on white satin heart shaped pillows edged in lace.

Best man, Joel Jett and ushers Randy Breaux and Paul Reynolds are all from Cannon Air Force Base, at Clovis, N.M.

Traditional wedding selections were presented by Gayla Self, organist. Phil Phipps, accompanied by Mrs. Phil Phipps, sang "Whither Thou Goest," Mr. and Mrs. Phil Phipps sang, "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride was escorted to the altar and presented in marriage by her father. Her formal wedding gown was designed of bridal satin with a fitted lace bodice, a ruffled lace insert in the skirt and a train of tulle edged with lace.

Her finger tip length veil of illusion was held in place by a crown of iridescent beads. She carried a lace covered Bible topped with a white orchid with white streamers.

For something old the bride carried her Bible, something new were her shoes, something borrowed was her veil and she wore a blue garter.

The bride's mother wore a blue knit dress and a white gardenia corsage. In the absence of the groom's mother his aunt, Mrs. Hermon Nibert, wore a red knit dress and a white gardenia corsage.

Wedding guests were registered by Mrs. Fred Ferguson and Mrs. Kenneth Ferguson, Ft. Worth, sisters-in-law of the bride.

Special guests signing the register were Mrs. Goldie Smith, paternal grandmother of the groom and Otis Massey, maternal grandfather of the bride.

Out-of-town guests were Lester Ferguson, Hale Center; Mrs. Jack Givins, Olton; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ferguson and family, Ft. Worth, and Mrs. Burnis Barrow, Clovis, New Mexico.

A reception was held in Fellowship Hall of the church following the ceremony. The serving table was covered with a lace cloth over blue. A centerpiece of white carnations and blue bows was flanked by candelabra of white and blue candles.

The tiered wedding cake, which was made and decorated by Mrs. Kenneth Ferguson, sister-in-law of the bride, topped with white doves nestled on a blue rose covered dome, with the bride and groom setting between the tiers divided by risers was served by Sherrie and Jerri Ferguson, Ft. Worth, Reba and Glenna Holt, all nieces of the bride.

Assisting with the reception was Mrs. W.S. Crow, Mrs. Mae Magness and Mrs. Ira Holt, sister of the bride.

For her wedding trip Mrs. Smith chose a gray knit suit and the corsage lifted from her Bible.

Mrs. Smith is a 1969 graduate of Friona High School, attended Amarillo College for two semesters and is a student at Southwest Business College, Plainview. Her husband, a 1971 graduate of East Liverpool, Ohio High School is now serving in the U.S. Air Force and stationed at the Cannon Air Force Base, Clovis, New Mexico.

The rehearsal supper was prepared and served in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hermon Nibert, aunt of the groom.

Jan Gromowsky, Steve Smith Wed In Candlelight Ceremony

Bovina Church of Christ was the setting of the nuptial vows Saturday evening, January 8, which united Miss Jan Gromowsky of Bovina and Stephen Dale Smith of Sudan, Cecil Bunch, minister, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The atmosphere of a quaint, Polish ceremony created an illusion of a harvest garden as the couple exchanged vows beneath a canopy of flowing, aged linen with candelabra holding burnt orange tapers illuminating the ceremony. Bouquets of dried pampas grass and glistening orange ribbon flanked the canopy. Ribbon bows and scented votive candles completed the rustic theme.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of white organza with full sleeves attached to deep cuffs. The high neckline, cuffs and front of the gown were enhanced with bands of Venice lace underscored with satin ribbon. Her headpiece was a caplet accented with fresh Wooden Abby roses attached to an elbow length veil of illusion. Her bouquet was a hogarth arrangement of Wooden Abby roses, satin love knots tied with orange streamers and centered with a Japette orchid.

For something old, the bride placed pennies minted in the years of their birth in her shoes. A gold watch, a gift from the groom, was something new. Her wedding ensemble was borrowed from Mrs. Randy Barrett and the blue garter was given to her by Mrs. Crystal Moss, her dorm mother.

Miss Terri Gerik of Pep served as maid of honor, Miss Jyl Gromowsky of Bovina, sister of the bride, and Kathy Rice of Sudan were bridesmaids.

They wore old-fashioned formal length gowns of beige homespun designed with square necklines, full bishop sleeves and empire bodices outlined with aprons of soft orange voile. Calico braid edged the necklines, cuffs and aprons. The attendants wore circlets of baby's breath and carried bouquets of dried field flowers tied with orange streamers.

The attendants gowns and bouquets and the decorations for the church and reception were designed and created by Mrs. Janet Woodard of Hub, friend of the bride.

Serving as best man was Johnny King of Sudan, Mike Smith of Houston, brother of the bridegroom, and Damon Province of Sudan served as groomsmen. Ushers were Widdy Gromowsky of Bovina, brother of the bride, Bob Smith of Lubbock, brother of the bridegroom, and Steve Edwards of Sudan. Their boutonniere were fashioned from dried flowers.

Acappella music filled the church as Bob Linville of Clovis, N.M., sang "Somewhere My Love" and "Where Do I Begin" preceding the ceremony. As the bride was escorted down the aisle by her father, Mrs. Orchid Hunton of Clovis sang "Because." Following the ceremony, Mrs. Hunton sang "The Lord's Prayer," Mrs. Hunton and Linville sang "Go With God" for the recessional.

Shannel Woodard of Hub was flower girl. She wore a dress identical to that of the attendants and carried a woven straw basket filled with dried field flowers, Shayne Woodard of Hub was ring bearer. Lighting the candles were the bride's twin cousins, Michael and Stephen Bury of Clovis.

Wedding guests were registered by Mrs. Ronny Dye of Bovina. Shea Woodard of Hub presented thank you scrolls to each guest as they registered.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Gromowsky chose a coat and dress ensemble in brown, orange and beige tones with parchment accessories.

Mrs. Smith wore a soft lemon suit with matching accessories. Cymbidium orchid corsages complemented their apparel. Orange swag ribbon and bows led the way to the reception area where the guests were received by the bride and groom.

The bride's table was laid with a scalloped satin cloth, topped with a net overskirt with orange bow accents. Fresh flowers in harvest colors decorated the Ectorian cake. Punch was served from a crystal bowl resting on a gold base. Gold and crystal appointments completed the setting.

Cherub scenes on an ecru cloth covered the bridegroom's table. Chocolate cake squares, spiced tea and coffee were served from silver appointments.

Members of the houseparty were Keiley Jennings of Brownfield, Ann Denney of Littlefield, and Mrs. Dyer.

For a wedding trip to Mexico, the bride chose a three piece navy blue and orange pant suit. She wore an orchid corsage lifted from her bridal bouquet.

Following the wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Smith will be at home in Sudan where he farms. The couple attended South Plains Junior College in Levelland where Mrs. Smith will graduate in May with a degree in fashion merchandising.

Students Take Field Trip

All of us are proud of the 1971 72 Squaws and wish them well in their future endeavors. It was interesting to note that the bi-district game this year is on the same date as last year's. We are also facing the same opponents.

One thing we are looking forward to changing this year is the number on the scoreboard. This time we're hoping for a win.

Let's all support Coach Crofford and the girls all the way.

Students in Room 3 C, along with their instructor, Mrs. June Rhodes, made a field trip to the rock shop in Canyon last week.

The trip was the culmination of a rather intensive study of rocks.

J.C. Voelms, who operates the shop, is a stone cutter by trade, and showed and discussed many different rocks.

Mothers who went along were particularly impressed with the replicas he has cut from quartz crystals of all the world's famous diamonds.

Mothers making the trip were Mrs. Ronnie Shafer, Mrs. Melvin Lloyd, Mrs. Troy Young, Mrs. Forrest Osborn, Mrs. Sam Perez and Mrs. Danny Smith.

Dawn Study Group Will Meet Tonight

The Rays of the Dawn Study group will meet Thursday night from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. in Room 26 of the High School. Room 26 is in the southwest corner of the building and can be reached most easily by using the southwest entrance.

Quoting from the chapter on worry, which will be studied, Mrs. Jerry Winkle said, "Nature did not intend that we should worry. She endowed us with a brain wherein is stored wisdom, instinct, intellect, will power and the Power to Reason. Furthermore, Nature intended that we should use these attributes intelligently so that our lives would be such a beautiful, harmonious expression that any condition that creates worry would be foreign to our experience."

The Rays of the Dawn Study group will meet again on Tuesday afternoon from 1:30 to 3:30 in the choir room. To locate the choir room, come in the front entrance and turn down the first right hall and go through the double doors and the choir room is on the right.

The public is cordially invited to attend either or both of these studies.

And now a word about H&R Block's competition.

Because we think our competition represents more of a threat to you than it does to us, we're going to help you sort them out.

Your Family

The greatest people in the world. Most of the time. Unfortunately, most of the time doesn't include income tax time. Because the last thing you need when you're doing your taxes is an aunt who took an accounting course just before she dropped out of college. Or a father who thinks how much money you make and what you do with it is something the rest of the family should know about.

Your Neighbors

You know the type. The mild-mannered shoe salesman next door who suddenly turns into a mathematical genius just about the time income tax is due. He knows all the angles. Some of which even the Internal Revenue Service doesn't know about yet. And he's willing to share them with you. "Just to be neighborly."

You

Your own worst enemy. All year long you can't balance your check book, but that doesn't stop you. Armed with your W-2's, a few reams of paper and a couple of gallons of coffee you bravely attack that stack of forms. You may be taking deductions you're not entitled to, and entitled to deductions you're not taking. So, should you be doing your own taxes?

Us

We're H & R Block, with over 6,000 conveniently located offices manned by thousands of specially trained tax preparers who eat, sleep, and drink income tax returns. People who set out to save you money and much of the time do it. The cost? Fees start at $5 and the average cost was under $12.50 for over 7 million customers we served last year.

Furthermore, if your return is audited we will accompany you, at no extra cost, to the Internal Revenue Service and explain how your return was prepared, even though we will not act as your legal representative.

And everyone is eligible to receive our year 'round service which is covered by our one time fee. No extra charge for help with audits, estimates, or tax questions.

We know the people we've just told you about will do your income tax return for less than we can but we don't think you can afford them.

DON'T LET AN AMATEUR DO H&R BLOCK'S JOB.

H&R Block.
The income tax people.
