GREEK-TURKISH CRISIS AT HAND

TRUCK BILL NOT TO BECOME EFFECTIVE UNTIL JANUARY 1922

WORD IS RECEIVED FROM AUSTIN SATURDAY OF NEW RULING. REPEAL LIKELY BEFORE IT GOES INTO FORCE

The measure known as the "truck bill" also as the "mileage tax bill," enacted by the last session of the legislature, does not become effective until January 1, 1922, according to a telegram received from Austin Saturday by County Tax Collector M. L. Tittle, as follows:

The attorney-general's office in conference today held that no part of senate bill 101 in reference to increased rates on commercial vehicles becomes effective until January 1, 1922. The new law will go into effect at that time.

NEWBERRY CONTEST IS FULL OF EXCITEMENT

Almost Physical Rows and Revision of Sick List Features Hearing.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Working through two prolonged sessions, the senate committee hearing Henry Ford's contest for the seat of Senator Newberry of Michigan today considered how far Senator Newberry was influenced as to his expenditures of his 1919 campaign, abated one almost physical row and about 40 minor ones between opposing counsel and revised the sick list among subpoenaed witnesses.

A neutral medical expert reported that Henry B. Joy, a Detroit capitalist, who testified in the Newberry campaign, might be killed by excitement or exertion, and the demand for his attendance was dropped.

Mr. F. Emery, office manager for the Newberry campaign committee, was reported by his wife as "somewhere in Canada," when the investigating doctors sought him, and renewal of search was ordered after Senator Edge, republican New Jersey, commented that all details of money handling as the witness developed them "seem to be up to Emery."

DEADBY IS EXPECTED TO DISCIPLINE SIMS FOR LONDON SPEECH

MAY BE OF SUCH NATURE AS TO PROVOKE RESIGNATION OF ADMIRAL. NOT SATISFIED WITH DELAY IN ANSWERING

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Anger at Admiral Sims' delay in answering his original orders regarding the anti-Irish speech in London, caused Secretary of the Navy Denby to give summary orders that the admiral return immediately to the United States, it was learned officially tonight.

Denby felt that Sims had unnecessarily delayed in replying to his original cable directing that officer to confirm or deny the London speech.

Denby's action today was regarded as the first step in disciplining Admiral Sims. His cable curtly called the officer to "return to the United States immediately and report at once in person to the secretary of the navy."

The cable revoked Sims' leave which the admiral had been spending in London and ordered Sims to acknowledge the present instructions.

The M. & T. railroad was successful in securing a pile driver from Altus, Okla., late Saturday evening and the crew began work repairing the 11 damaged bents on the bridge across Red river. CARPENTERS QUIT THE CONVENTION OF BUILDING TRADES

DELEGATION LEAVES AUDITORIUM FOLLOWING VOTE ON RESOLUTION

IMPORTANT MEETING OF THE AMERICAN FEDERATION

Organized Labor Meets at Denver to Outline Defensive and Offensive Campaigns

DENVER, June 11.—Delegates of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, representing more than 225,000 workers, today withdrew from the convention of the building trades department of the American Federation of Labor, when a resolution was adopted suspending any international union that failed to comply with the awards of the national board of jurisdictional awards.

The resolution, which adopted after a stormy debate, was directed at the carpenters' union, because of its refusal to comply with the award rendered against it by the board in its jurisdictional dispute with the sheet metal workers' union.

WILL OUTLINE DEFENSIVE AND OFFENSIVE CAMPAIGNS

DENVER, COLO., June 11.—Organized labor stood today at its Armadillo.

Battling with the most menacing forces that ever assailed the labor movement, union leaders of the country gathered here to outline their defensive and offensive campaigns.

The annual convention of the American Federation of Labor, which opens on Monday, will be faced by the most difficult questions of vital importance to union labor that have ever come to its attention.

Employment of approximately 4,000,000 men in the United States. The wage cutting movement.

The fourth arises from the ranks of the unionists themselves, the exposure of grafting business agents, especially in the building trades in Chicago and New York.

Leaders pointed to the membership figures of the federation as conclusive proof of the claim that the open shop movement had failed.

Coupled with the open shop fight, in the minds of the union leaders, is the unemployment situation. Some employers, labor claims, are deliberately cutting their forces, laying off men in order to aid the open shop movement.

Cutting of wages reached its maximum with the slashing of $400,000,000 from the payroll of the railroad workers effective July 1, according to belief of economists employed by organized labor.

Prices of commodities on which the principal plea for wage reductions has been based, are not stabilized, in their opinion. The new tariff and the prohibitive demand for export, are expected to bolster prices, they say.

The question of alleged grafting business agents in the building trades was taken up at the preliminary session of the building trades branch of the American Federation of Labor.

President John Donlin, addressing the delegates, demanded that any "traitor of graft" be wiped out. A resolution hitting at the building trades council of New York City was adopted by the building trades branch meeting.

The resolution, provided that if the New York branch refused to abide by the national regulations, its charter shall be revoked and a new building trades be started.

An early morning service will be held Sunday morning in Cameron park.

REPORT SHALLOW OIL IN TOWN OF DEL RIO

DEL RIO, TEXAS, June 11.—Oil in paying quantities has been struck at a depth of sixteen feet on city property here.

Four wells, located on the city pumping plant property, are producing from two to three barrels each a day of high grade oil.

Tests show the oil consists of 52 per cent high grade lubricating oil, 28 per cent kerosene and 16 per cent gasoline.

Drilling has been carried on privately for several months. Professor W. F. Jourdan, Del Rio; Dr. J. L. Wortham, geologist, Brownville, and A. H. Well, Harlingen, have been carrying on the experiments.

A state-went by a former soldier of Camp Michl, near here, that he believed oil could be found under Del Rio started investigation.

White Apron Tribe Reported Increasing; Are Dispensers Now

DENVER, June 11.—The tribe of the white aproned gentlemen who used to pass on the mist ones and put out the too befuddled one, is increasing.

The bartenders' union is actually gaining members. Edward Flore, Buffalo, N. Y., president, who is here attending the American Federation of Labor convention, said tonight:

"They call us beverage dispensers now, but we have the same old union, and we are going strong."

NOT SO PEACEABLE AS THE MERCHANT EXPECTED

RECKENRIDE, TEXAS, June 11.—The "just of blood" fight of oil field workers on the streets here has seemingly spread to the quadrupeds.

The latest life and death encounter reported is the one-sided fight between a litter of pups and a mal-encased armadillo. The principals were used as a window display by a local merchant, who thought that a piece of wire netting was enough to separate them.

Shortly before midnight, the daypod sealed the partition and engaged the pups in mortal combat. The canines were unable to pierce the boiler plate of the attacker and turning in the alarm by many distressing yells, drew the attention of an employee of the store, who happened to be passing. The battle was interrupted and the invading enemy of the pups better barricaded.

DELEGATION FROM KIWANIS CLUB TO DEPART THIS WEEK

Representatives of the Kiwanis club will leave this week for Cleveland, Ohio, to attend the international Kiwanis convention.

The replica of the irrigation district, which is being prepared by A. M. McPherson, is nearing completion, and will be ready to be taken to the Cleveland convention. The replica is six feet long by three and one-half feet wide, and will follow the project faithfully that a tiny stream of flowing water will be seen issuing from the storage dam down through the diversion dam into the district itself.

Such features as oil derricks, refineries and the buildings of Wichita Falls will be included.

Emil Hermann, local artist, is assisting Mr. McPherson in preparing the replica.

DALLAS, TEXAS, June 11.—A big automobile truck, which some said carried a cargo of "corn" instead of gasoline, tried a change today while crossing the Oak Cliff viaduct here.

The truck made a round trip on the viaduct, driving and crossing two smaller cars, and then ended its destructiveness by hitting the curb and railing of the "bridge."

PRESIDENT MACHINISTS IGNORED BY BOLSHEVIKI IS RETURNING TO U. S.

RIGA, June 11.—William H. Johnston, president of the International Association of Machinists, after waiting vainly a fortnight for permission to enter soviet Russia to investigate the labor situation and trade possibilities, left today for Berlin en route to the United States. The bolshevik gave no reply to any of his requests. "A month before I left the United States, soviet representatives called to Moscow for permission to pass through here," Mr. Johnston said before leaving here. "I came to Riga, fully expecting the soviets to welcome me, for I came with the desire to help them to establish trade relations with the United States. In Berlin I made a further application to the soviet legation there which agreed to wire Moscow and have the enter sent to Riga. The Riga legation also wired and I wired personally to Martens (Ludwig Martens, self-styled soviet ambassador to the United States, who was ordered deported from the United States). I have received no answer at all, although other Americans have been admitted to Russia or refused permission since I have been in Riga. It is very surprising that I have had no answer and I am too busy to stay any longer, as I have had ample time."

GEORGE HUSTED'S MOTION FOR A NEW TRIAL OVER RULED

SENTENCE IS PRONOUNCED AND A MOTION OF APPEAL IS FILED.

APPEAL BOND IS SET AT $5,000 BY JUDGE MARTIN

Other Two Defendants in Oil Theft Case Have Until July 2 For Further Action

The motion for new trial in the case of George Husted who was sentenced to two years in the state penitentiary on the charge of conspiracy to steal oil was overruled by Judge P. A. Martin of the 89th district court Saturday.

The trial court then pronounced sentence and the counsel for the defense filed a notice of appeal. The appeal bond was fixed at $5,000 by Judge Martin.

The other two defendants, Adolph Michon and C. A. McDonald, who were found guilty by the jury and given the same sentence have until July 2 to take further action in their cases.

William (Bill) Lee, one of the most prominent attorneys in the state of Texas and who took active part in the defense of Clara Smith Hamon with Attorney H. H. Clark represented the defendant, Husted, in his motion for new trial.

It was contended in the motion for new trial that no testimony was before the court and jury when the defendant was found guilty as to conspiracy to steal oil, to which count the defendant pleaded guilty. It was further argued that there was no such offense on the statute book of the state as conspiracy to commit theft. The third argument offered in defense of the motion was that the defendant should have been prosecuted as an accomplice if he was not a principal and not as a co-conspirator.

The defendant also contended that he was persuaded by his legal advisers to enter a plea of guilty and that he did not plead guilty because he was guilty. He was placed on the witness stand in order to support his contention.

"I pleaded guilty because I was afraid of a higher sentence and not because I was guilty. My attorney told me that I was stuck in the trial and I told him that I would rather get a death sentence on a plea of not guilty than to go in and plead guilty," was the statement made by the defendant.

His counsel who conducted the trial last month which terminated in the withdrawal of the plea of not guilty and pleading guilty to the second count in the indictment took the stand. Both of them testified that they believed that they were giving better service in having him plead guilty to the charge rather than proceeding with the trial at that time because they said in their opinion they believed that the jury would give him the maximum sentence.

J. B. FITTS TO MAKE RACE FOR ALDERMAN, OPPOSING BRALLEY

FORMER HODGINS SUPPORTER ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY LATE SATURDAY.

PROMISES ACTION ON GAS RATES, HE SAYS

R. L. Yates Not to Make Race—Hodgins Makes Formal Statement of His Decision.

J. B. Fitts, who was one of George L. Hodgins' most ardent supporters in the April election, announced his candidacy late Saturday for police commissioner in the election called for July 15. The announcement was not unexpected, there having been rumors the past week that he would enter the contest.

Mr. Hodgins had previously announced his decision not to be a candidate, and R. L. Yates, who was a candidate in April, on Saturday announced that he would not be in the race. C. C. Bunnberg said Saturday that he might enter the contest.

In his formal announcement, Mr. Fitts discusses the gas situation and promises some action on it if elected. He also expresses the belief that he can reduce police department expenses. His statement follows:

There has been great pressure brought to bear upon me to enter the race for fire and police commissioner of Wichita Falls. After giving the matter serious consideration I have made up my mind to enter the race. I have been a citizen of Wichita Falls for the past twelve years, and wish to say in the outset that I am not a candidate for any clique or class, but running upon my own merits. I believe that I can be of great assistance to the taxpayers of Wichita Falls. I believe I can run the police department with less expense to the taxpayers than it is being run at the present time. My motto will be, "that if we have work to be given anyone, let us give it to the citizens of Wichita Falls who live in the city, who support the town and help keep up its institutions."

The police department is not the only thing that is of vital importance to the citizens of Wichita Falls. There are various other matters that are of vital importance to our people. We feel that it is time to curb the heavy expenditures of the taxpayers' money. I feel the people of Wichita Falls are being grossly misreated by the corporation known as the North Texas Gas company. One of my first moves will be to try to have the gas rates reduced and a meter reader employed. If I fail to do this then I will manumit the North Texas Gas company to make them show their books, investments, profits and stockholders. I will come out with a clean-cut statement as to where I stand in all matters pertaining to the city government in the very near future. If the people of Wichita Falls want a commissioner who has the moral courage to stand up and demand for the people that which belongs to them, I will serve them to the best of my ability.

(Signed) J. B. FITTS.
Mr. Hodgins' statement follows:
To the voters of Wichita Falls: I have given the matter careful consideration from all points, and considering especially the expense to the taxpayers, I take this method of advising the voters of the city that I will not be a candidate in the election called for June 15 for the selection of a police commissioner.

Conditions are such at the present time that I do not believe it advisable to make the race, and I trust that my friends and supporters will approve of my decision. In this connection I wish to again thank all the voters who supported me in the last election.

Respectfully,
GEORGE H. HODGINS.

R. L. Yates gave out the following statement:

To the voters of Wichita Falls, Texas: As many of my friends have asked me lately concerning whether or not I would be in the race for police commissioner in July, I make the following statement to the public:

I made the race in the general election against Mr. Hodgins and Mr. Bralley and was defeated, and I understand that Mr. J. B. Fitts and Mr. Bralley intend to make the race in July for the police commissioner. I do not intend to run. However, I wish to thank my friends for their offer of support.
(Signed) R. L. YATES.

SUPPORT FOR BONDS IN ALL COMMUNITIES OF COUNTY PROMISED

SATURDAY'S MASS MEETING INDICATES LITTLE OPPOSITION MAY BE EXPECTED.

CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE OF CITIZENS IS NAMED

Frank Kell Explains Pending Proposal and Hearty Indorsement is Given.

ELECTED PRESIDENT OF UNIVERSITY EX-STUDENTS

ORVILLE BULLINGTON.

AUSTIN, June 11.—The Ex-Students Association of the University of Texas held its annual home coming celebration today.

Following a luncheon the election of officers resulted as follows:

President—Orville Bullington, Wichita Falls.

First Vice-President—D. C. Bland, Orange.

Second Vice-President—Mrs. May Lou Garden, Waco.

Third Vice-President—Dallas Scarborough, Abilene.

Treasurer—Alfred Ellison, Austin.

Secretary—John A. Lomas, Austin.

George S. Wright of Dallas, of the class of 1904, delivered the annual address.

Governor Neff was selected to deliver the annual address at the 1922 meeting. The plan of the State Federation of Labor to raise $100,000 for the purpose of endowing a chair at the University of Texas was approved.

The financial report showed that the association had aided 75 students to attend the university during the past year.

It will be noted that the present bonds could be sold.

"It would mean that the present bond issue of $1,500,000 would remain in force, and the county's bonded indebtedness would remain the same, with no prospect of selling the bonds soon."

Mr. Kell dwelt with some emphasis upon Wichita Falls' duty toward the state of the county.

"If we were to permit the work to stop now and continue to tax the rest of the county for Wichita Falls' benefit, it would be displaying a selfish attitude such as has never been in evidence here before," Mr. Kell said.

Mr. Kell pointed out that no increase in the tax rate would be required for the bonds. In conclusion, he urged support also for the several hospital bond issues, saying the communities that are trying to provide for their sick and injured had a right to expect Wichita Falls' help and support.

Iowa Park and Electra.

T. H. Arnold of Iowa Park said that community was heartily in favor of the proposition and that very little opposition to it had been found.

"In some remote parts of the county," Mr. Arnold said, "there is a disposition to oppose everything that Wichita Falls asks for. That isn't true in Iowa Park. We know that whatever helps the county as a whole will help us."

J. R. Engelking of Electra said that community had planned to have a large delegation at the meeting, but that the weather had prevented.

"We have already organized for the bonds," he said. "We have twelve committees at work, getting the vote lined up and we'll keep on working on election day."

No Tax Rate Increase.

County Judge Jones said that when his recent prediction of an increase in the county tax rate was made, as published in The Times, he had failed to take some figures into account. He was fairly certain, he said, that no increase would be required. Judge Jones announced that Wichita Falls was prepared to furnish speakers at all meetings where they were needed.

C. W. Reid said that the indirect benefits to the communities of the county ought to be considered by every voter. Mr. Reid said he thought it also ought to be made clear that no one in Wichita Falls was profiting at all by the bond deal.

Upon motion of T. B. Noble, a rising vote of endorsement of the bond issue was taken, practically everyone standing up. Mr. Kell moved that J. M. McCarty, Reid and Robert Stevenson be constituted a committee to select a campaign committee of twelve. This motion prevailed and adjournment followed.

DALLAS COPS MUST NOT SET A BAD EXAMPLE

DALLAS, TEXAS, June 11.—The cops can't gamble any more, at least officially.

A notice posted in detective headquarters today by Police Commissioner Tulley declared that he had been advised that police officers and civilians were wont to match nickels in the ante-room. The practice was ordered discontinued immediately.

Boys' and Girls' Clubs in Wilbarger Having Good Year

VERNON, TEXAS, June 11.—Work in the Wilbarger county boys' and girls' clubs for the past year has been on the whole probably more successful than ever before. It is thought that Wilbarger ranks among the best counties in the state in this respect.

In the boys' division, the crop clubs have been the most successful, although the pig club is also ranking with the leaders. The excessive dry weather experienced locally this season has hindered the work somewhat of those interested in the crop club work. Milo and kaffir clubs have done especially well this year.

Two girls, Misses Marie and Vera Collins, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. Collins of Collins, are assisting in the boys' division. The girls are raising two shorthorn calves, and are meeting with excellent success. Membership in the various clubs is as follows:

Pig club, 111; sheep club, 3; dairy calf club, 7; beef calf club, 11. The total for this division is 132. In the crop clubs there are the following: Peanuts, 14; corn, 58; cotton, 12; Irish potatoes, 3; milo, 48; kaffir, 23; lettuce, 12. Member in the crop clubs amounts to 192, and the grand total is 324.

The girls' division has been no less successful in its work for the year. There have been regular meetings on an average of twice each month, and the girls have been taught the performance of many useful household duties. They have learned to make sewing bags, cup towels, cook aprons, dresses, to darn, hemming of table cloths and napkins, bed spreads, and caps, summer patches, bread, salads and salad dressings, and cream soups. There have also been lessons in laundry and food values. Membership in the clubs is as follows: Poultry, 119; home improvement, 181; canning, 57.

TRAINING CAMPS TO GIVE YOUTH OF SOUTHWEST OPPORTUNITY TO FIT SELVES FOR MILITARY SERVICE

Citizen's military training camps will be held at Camp Travis, Texas, July 15th to August 14th, and at Fort Logan, Colorado, August 1st to 10th. A plan whereby the war department hopes to give to the young men of the country a basic knowledge of military training has been devised. This plan takes form in the citizens' military training camps.

These camps are to be conducted along lines similar to the Plattsburg camps held before the war which proved of such inestimable value to the nation during the recent world war. The camps held under the new plan, however, will have several advantages which prior to June 4, 1920, could not be had. Attendance at the Plattsburg camps was entirely at the expense of the individual attending. He was required to pay his own transportation to and from the camp, to buy his uniform and to pay for his food while at the camp. This expense to the individual of course limited attendance to persons of moderate means and gave no opportunity to the young man who could not meet these expenses. However, the act of congress, June 4, 1920, has remedied this situation in that all these expenses will be borne by the government. Persons attending the citizens' military training camps will receive free transportation to and from the camp nearest their homes, meals enroute, subsistence while in camp, uniform clothing and laundry service. However, individuals attending these camps will not receive pay during the term they are in camp. There are absolutely no obligations incurred by attendance at these camps, other than the obligation and duty of every citizen of the United States to support and defend the constitution of the United States and to maintain a high morale during camp.

The object of these camps is, to bring together young men of all types, both native and foreign born, to develop teach the privileges, duties, and responsibilities of American citizenship, of the country in the "improvement" of the individual taking the training and to military training as a benefit to the nation in the problem of defense.

Any physically fit male citizen between the ages of sixteen and thirty-five, subject to the approval of the commanding general, eighth corps area, Fort Sam Houston, Texas, may attend.

Three courses are outlined for these camps. These are the "red," "white" and "blue" courses. Only the "red" or basic infantry course will be held this year. It is intended to broaden these camps in the future to all three courses each year.

Successful graduates of the "red" course will be given a certificate that the candidate has the requisite military training for enlistment in the organized reserves of the United States. That the candidate has the requisite military training for appointment as a specialist or non-commissioned officer in the organized reserves; for the "blue" course, "that the candidate has the requisite military training for appointment as an officer of the officers reserve corps." It thus sees that the ultimate nature of these camps is to provide for national defense through the organized reserves.

The commandants of the camps to be held in the eighth corps area are: Brigadier General Hansen E. Ely, at Camp Travis, Texas, and Colonel Paul A. Wolf, infantry, at Fort Logan, Colorado. Both these men are eminently qualified for these duties and both were awarded the distinguished service medal in the late war.

The training in the red camps this year will be confined to the basic infantry course, which includes, close order drill, physical training, athletics, personal hygiene, first aid, first aid, and group recreation. The strictly military training given will return to civil life young men who have been given an understanding of the military profession, of the true meaning of discipline and above all their obligations and responsibilities in the government. This training will develop the young men, mentally, morally and physically, and will be of great assistance in the Americanization of our foreign born citizens.

Information relative to these camps may be obtained by writing to the Commanding General, eighth corps area, Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

VOTE FOR THE SUBSTITUTE BOND ISSUE.

If the voters of the county understand clearly the proposition they will vote next Saturday to substitute the proposed serial bond issue of $1,500,000 bearing six percent for the bond issue of that amount bearing five percent interest. The five per cent bonds are unsalable except at such heavy discount as would mean the loss of several hundred thousand dollars to the county while there is a contract already made for the sale of the six per cent bonds contingent upon their being voted and the money will become available immediately.

LARGE MARGIN OF PROFITS REALIZED IN SHOE BUSINESS

OUT OF ALL PROPORTION TO INCREASE IN COST PER UNIT.

CONDITIONS JUSTIFY A STILL FURTHER DECLINE

Report on Industry is Submitted by the Federal Trade Commission

WASHINGTON, June 11.—High prices of footwear which obtained during 1918 and were increased in 1919 result from "abnormal conditions of supply and demand, both economical and psychological, arising from the war," the federal trade commission today reported to the house of representatives.

"Incident to these conditions," the report added, "were large margins of profit taken by shoe tanners, shoe manufacturers, wholesalers, jobbers and retailers, and whose large earnings were declared to be 'out of all proportion to the increase in their cost per unit.'"

The advance in the price of shoes finally was terminated by the "so-called buyers' strike" in the spring of 1920. "The report," it stated, "declared that the 'buyers' strike' was a failure of leather and shoe prices to decline as extensively as did hide prices after the 'buyers' strike' was attributed by the commission to 'a temporary base selling prices on actual rather than replacement costs' and to the fact that other prices had not declined as much as had raw materials."

"In any event," the report concluded, "the present price of hides and skins and the conditions existing in these phases of the industry justify an expectation of still further declines in the quoted prices of leather and shoes."

The report claims large profits on the part of tanners, shoe manufacturers and wholesalers and retailers in 1918 and 1919. Earnings of 351 reporting shoe manufacturers representing 42 per cent of the 1919 production averaged 14.2 per cent on their total investment, according to the commission's figures. "These large earnings of tanners and shoe manufacturers," the report says, "were due primarily to the fact that their selling prices increased out of all proportion to the increases in their costs of production."

FEW SUGGESTIONS FOR ENFORCEMENT AGENT

Retiring Commissioner Advances His Ideas For Making Dry Laws More Effective.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Roy A. Haynes of Hillsboro, Ohio, entered today on the duties of national prohibition commissioner as the successor to John F. Kramer of Mansfield, Ohio, the first federal prohibition enforcement officer. He said that he had not formulated any general policy.

"Upon relinquishment of the post he held since November, 1918, Mr. Kramer issued a formal statement setting forth some of the more important problems before the new commissioner," Mr. Haynes said. "Mr. Kramer suggested that congress enact a law giving him authority to limit the number of prescriptions for whiskey for which physicians may issue, and the quantity of whiskey which may be manufactured and imported and to prevent the use of whiskey in medicines in which alcohol customarily has been used."

Primarily among the problems facing the new commissioner, Mr. Kramer said, will be the necessity of maintaining an organization which will loyally do the work he has to do. While a few prohibition enforcement officers have betrayed their trust, he declared, the great majority of them are absolutely loyal and honest.

"Second, alcohol will continue to be a problem," he said. "It must be enforced for industrial uses and purposes, yet the very alcohol which is so valuable in industrial lines of work can easily be made a potable liquor."

"Third, the prohibition is a serious one, in that liquors are smuggled into the country. This will remain a problem until foreign governments can see their way clear to so adjust their laws that they will not make it difficult for their neighbor and friend to carry out the laws which have been enacted by their said neighbor and friend."

"Fourth, the illicit making of whiskey, and this especially in the south, will remain a problem for some time to come."

"Fifth, the withdrawal of whiskey and alcohol from bonds on forged permits. This has been one of our greatest problems and is not altogether solved."

Local and state support to federal officials has become more pronounced, Mr. Kramer continued. "The people," he added, "have to a great extent adapted themselves to the new law and to the changed conditions which it brought about. This, of course, helps greatly in carrying out the work under the law."

Commissioner Haynes announced tonight the appointment of James E. Jones, formerly of Youngstown, Ohio, as assistant federal prohibition commissioner.

Mr. Jones has been connected with the department of agriculture since 1892, recently as assistant in charge of business operations of the bureau of plant industry.

CONFESSES CONNECTION WITH TWO MURDERS IS MOVED FOR SAFE KEEPING

LIBERAL, KAN., June 11.—H. K. Ellis, alleged to have confessed in connection with two murders near here, had been removed to Hutchinson tonight, as a precaution against possible mob violence, authorities announced.

Feeling is running high here. Ellis confessed, officials declared, that he and another farmer, F. W. Miller, participated in the murder of Henry Smith, a prominent farmer east of here, and also declared Smith participated previously in the alleged murder of John Longnecker, whose body was found shot through the head in a straw stack.

FARMERS BLOC HAS FORCED RECOGNITION IN THE U. S. SENATE

MEET HOOVER AND WALLACE TO DISCUSS PROGRAM OF LEGISLATION.

FARMING PROBLEM IS LAID BEFORE SECRETARIES

Conference is Said to Establish a New Precedent in Legislative Circles.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The "farmers bloc" in the United States senate practically won recognition tonight as a separate, semi-official group.

The "bloc" met Secretaries Hoover and Wallace tonight to discuss its program of legislation. The whole farming problem was laid before the secretaries with emphasis of legislative means of coping with the situation.

The conference set a new precedent in legislative circles. The discussion was to center upon Senator Norris' bill creating a federal farm export finance corporation with a capital of $100,000,000 to be subscribed from the federal treasury and with power to issue $1,500,000,000 in bonds. Wallace and Hoover were to be asked if in their opinion the government should guarantee such a financing enterprise in aid of foreign trade for the farmers. They were asked if it would be preferable to leave the financing to a privately formed corporation with exactly the same capital and the same purposes.

"Closest co-operation between the legislative end and the administrative agencies of government concerned with the farmers' problems will be established with this and other conferences," said Senator Kenyon, Iowa chairman of the "bloc." "We'll get their ideas and they will get ours. We will understand each other and I am sure coming to a closer agreement and do more good for the farmer than under the old system."

TOO MUCH MOISTURE HAMPERS DRILLING SHORTAGE VANISHES

OIL OPERATORS GO FROM ONE EXTREME TO ANOTHER IN WATER SITUATION.

NOBODY HAS FOLLOWED MAGNOLIA'S 25-CENT CUT

Report of Showing on Cooper Farm is Denied—Much Activity in Young.

Oil operators in northwest Texas have witnessed the transition during the week from a shortage of water to entirely too much water. In Young county and in the receivership area a number of rigs are partially under water, while throughout the Wichita Falls district muddy roads and interrupted rail traffic have delayed operations to a considerable extent.

Denial has been made of the report published in the Times of Friday that a showing of oil had been encountered in the well of the Pope-Irwin syndicate on the Cooper farm, eight miles north of the city. Owners of the well state that while they wish the report were well founded, no such showing has been encountered. The well is now down 1,350 feet.

The week passed without any of the pipe line companies meeting the last 25-cent cut posted by the Magnolia company.

Archer Developments. The Sun company on the Nat Henderson is drilling on a hard rock at 1,380 feet as is the Gamble Oil company Texhoma No. 2 Gose is moving in pipe line and is cleaning out. The same company has erected a derrick on the W. H. Taylor land, 50 feet north of its No. 1 Taylor, and will drill to the 1,600-foot sand.

The W. C. D. syndicate on the Beaver-Sanders is going along at 1,200 feet. Canadian Petroleum company is still fishing at 1,400 feet. On account of the death of Joe Le-Croix, one of the owners, the Le Croix well on the Henderson is shut down at 800 feet. The Radtke Drilling company is still waiting on the cement and will try to drill in either Monday night or Tuesday morning. The Stanley McGregor test on the Taylor was drilled in the past week and showed up salt water. The company is considering putting down another test on this property. The Nelson Drilling company is drilling at 1,350 feet.

In the Electra field water also retarded work of all kinds for the week. In the Iowa Park district Parker Bros. No. 1 Mattie Parker had a good well from the 1,350-foot sand and is now making 40 barrels on the pump. Jewell & Steelsmith also have a producer from the 800-foot sand on the Kemp-Kempner, four miles east of the K. M. A. field, making 45 barrels. In Young county the Clear Fork and its tributaries have already reached the flood stage and have caused considerable damage to the surrounding country. The Seaboard Oil company had a new derrick in the river bed swept away, and the Armstrong-Hickels three wells in the river bed are standing in about nine feet of water. The river is still rising and is now running over the Panhandle Refining company's McCluskey lease and has cut off their No. 11 well from the rest of the lease. The Anderson-Burch well, also in the river bed, is under water; they had just spudded in.

The Godley Oil company, No. 9 Graham, was completed this week on 2,100-foot sand and is now producing 1,400 barrels. No. 12 is drilling at 790 feet. Their No. 13 Graham is shut down on account of high water.

The Panhandle, although in the flood stage, has been able to continue operations on the majority of their wells. On the McCluskey lease Panhandle Refining company No. 8 is drilling at 1,350, No. 9 at 2,170 and No. 12 is now setting casing around 1,650. The Shamrock Oil company in their No. 1 Graham-Colcord put in a 20-quart shot at 1,850-1,935 and are awaiting results. Their No. 4 is drilling around 2,170, No. 5 is drilling at 2,200 and No. 9 and No. 10 on the same lease 2,230 and 2,300. A north American well on the Scott is on a sand at 2,184 to 2,187 and is showing oil. The Prairie Oil and Gas company on the Donnell is still drilling around 2,300. The Roxana Petroleum company on the No. 3 Ford is making 1,000 barrels test of gas and 60 barrels of oil. The same company is drilling at 2,790 in their No. 1 Burns lease.

On the Graham land the Seaboard Oil company have completed their No. 4 well at 2,565 to 2,587. This well was making 150 barrels but is now shut down due to the flooded condition in that locality.

The Coleman Drilling company No. 1 Munger has set their 68 at 1,740. Goodale Oil association No. 1 Mattie Parker has moved on a Star machine after trying to pull the 68 but being unable to move it; they are now running a string of 53-16 on lime shell at 1,574.

In the old Texhoma field the Jones Light Gas company has drilled through the gas sand at 1,323 to the oil sand at 1,372 and is now producing around 100 barrels.

On the Rexford the Texhoma Oil and Refining company No. 1 has also passed up the 1,300-foot gas sand, which is making 2,000,000 feet, and will drill deeper to the oil. Scott Shogor are drilling around 850 feet on their No. 1 Beach.

BUILDING TRADES CRAFTS AT OKLAHOMA CITY IDEL

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 11.—About 200 members of the building trades craft were idle here today as the result of a reduced wage scale becoming effective.

Union leaders claimed a lockout and claimed contracts had been violated, while employers charged the trouble was a walkout. The reductions in wage averages about 5 per cent and the action threatens suspension of work on a number of important public buildings under construction.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Honaker of Elizabeth have returned from Kenyon Military Institute from which their son Jack recently graduated; he was awarded the college medal for excellence in English.

NUXATED IRON

Helps make rich red blood and revitalizes weak nerves

WEAK NERVES AND THIN BLOOD

RUN HEALTH OF THOUSANDS WITHOUT THEIR EVER SUSPECTING THE REAL CAUSE OF THEIR TROUBLE—IRON STARVATION

An enormous number of people who are not too strong, vigorous and in the prime of life are constantly complaining of weak nerves, headaches, pains across the back, disturbed digestion, shortness of breath, palpitation of the heart, melancholy, bad memory, etc. all as a result of iron starvation of the blood.

There are 300,000,000 red blood corpuscles in your blood and each one must have iron. Without iron your blood loses its power to change food into living cells and tissue, and nothing you eat does you the proper good unless you get the iron to give it full strength out of it and as a consequence you become greatly weakened both in body and mind.

If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test: how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of Nuxated Iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see how much you have gained.

Over 4,000,000 people annually are using Nuxated Iron. It will not injure the teeth, nor disturb the stomach, because it is organic iron like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils, and apples and not metallic iron which people usually take. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturer if you do not obtain satisfactory results. Beware of substitutes. Look for the word "Nuxated" on every package and the letters N. I. on every tablet. Sold by all druggists—adv.

Laughing in His Sleeve

"I was told nothing but an operation would help my stomach trouble, and was getting ready for the operation when a friend advised me to try Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. The first dose helped me. I am now as well as ever in my life, and am laughing up my sleeve at the doctor's. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.—Mack Taylor and druggists everywhere. adv.

3 COUNTIES TO JOIN IN INSTITUTE HERE

Plans Are Laid Saturday For Meeting of 600 Teachers Here Next Fall.

School teachers of Wichita, Clay and Wilbarger counties, to the number of about 600, will hold a joint institute in this city next September, according to plans set on foot Saturday afternoon at a meeting at the office of County Superintendent Burt Bryant. Teachers of counties adjoining those mentioned will be invited to take part in the institute, and it is probable that a large number from Jack, Archer, Logan, and other northwestern Texas counties will attend the meeting. Prof. E. L. Doherty, now with the state department of education, but soon to be superintendent of the Vernon schools, was chairman of Saturday's meeting and was made chairman of the executive committee, consisting of county and independent district superintendents in the three counties.

Mr. Doherty was authorized to prepare a tentative program to be submitted to the executive committee, the final program to be drafted by Superintendent Clark, Superintendent Dohoney, and County Superintendents Fulcher of Wilbarger, Moore of Clay, and Bryant of Wichita. Messrs. Clark, Moore and Fulcher were appointed a committee to select a conductor for the institute. The program is expected to include talks by representatives of the State university, A. M. college, College of Industrial Arts, one of the normal schools and the state department of education.

It will be an agreeable surprise when you learn the location. Polk, Taylor and Filmore with 5th, 6th and 7th streets. On nice high ground, four blocks north from Floral Heights Methodist church, one block from one of the handsomest new homes in the city. The new City Park is situated just east of this property and adjoins it. Lots in the immediate vicinity of Sunset Heights are held by the owners at one thousand to fifteen hundred dollars each.

Do not get the wrong impression on account of the very low prices and easy terms. The property is in spirit and fact all that it is represented to be. And remember, as a recent example, that the agents for Highland Park, the most fashionable and exclusive residence place in Dallas, have just held a sale in that most aristocratic addition in Texas on terms of $10 per month.

Sunset Heights is restricted to nothing less than five room residences of particular specifications and has all other restrictions necessary to protect its values and desirability.

There are many excellent families in Wichita Falls who failed to secure one of the close-in, desirable homesites in the best district, in the early days of the city.

We only regret that we will not be able to supply all of these families. There are 164 fifty-foot lots, and in order to be fair to all we will place them on sale on the ground at 2 p. m., Saturday, June 18th, and our representative will remain on the ground continuously until the lots are all sold.

All lots will have the number and price in plain figures on a white card, tacked to the stakes. After the sale opens a purchaser has only to remove the card and present it forthwith to our representative, together with ten dollars. There will be no preliminary reservations. All will be treated alike.

The title is clear. A copy of the abstract will be furnished as each lot is paid out. All conveyances will be made by warranty deed.

Ten-per cent will be allowed for all cash.

There will be further announcements before the opening.

EARL ARBUCKLE IS FOUND NOT GUILTY OF CHARGE BY JURY

Earl Arbuckle was found not guilty of the charge of receiving and concealing stolen property by a jury in the county court at law Saturday afternoon. He was charged with having purchased 11 automobile springs knowing that the same had been stolen.

The defendant contended that the springs which were exhibited had been rebuilt by him with leaves that he had purchased second hand in this city. Wright was found guilty late Friday evening in the county court of having stolen the dozen springs which were taken from the freight platform of the Denver freight station. When he was arrested he is reported as having made a confession in which he stated that he had stolen them and sold 1 of them to Earl Arbuckle. When the case came to trial he stated that what he had told before was a lie. The jury found him guilty however and sentenced him to nine months on the county roads.

Raymond Rhodes who stated that he was with Wright when the springs were stolen also testified in the trial of Arbuckle. He told that the springs had been sold to Arbuckle. Wright was brought down from jail and stated that after the springs were stolen that he had thrown them in the river.

"BARNYARD GOLF" GROWING IN POPULARITY IN TEXAS

DALLAS, June 11.—Horse-hoe pitching, the game sometimes called "barnyard golf," is growing in interest to such an extent that a national championship match is expected and with it the spread of the game to Texas, according to members of the Texas Farm Bureau federation.

Illinois farm bureaus have established an annual state championship match, the Texas bureau announced. The increased interest in the game, it was said, is indicated by the posting of a forfeit in Ohio for a match between the champion of that state and the Iowa state title holder. Ohio and Iowa, it was announced, will hold state championships this year.

Other states are expected to recruit teams of horse-shoe pitchers, the Texas farm bureau said. Following is the announcement of the Illinois contest as received in Dallas:

The festive horsehoe and the elusive peg will play hide and seek before thousands this summer when the annual Illinois Agricultural association picnic is held. MANY APPLICATIONS FOR PLACES HERE AS TEACHERS RECEIVED

S. M. Rider, principal of the senior high school; H. A. Glass, principal of the junior high, and J. O. Holland, manual-training instructor of the senior high school, left early Sunday morning, the latter two to take up study in the University of Texas summer schools and the former to fill an instructor's chair at Baylor university. All three will be gone until the opening of the school term next fall.

Islands, according to Superintendent Clark, while several have come from New York and the New England states, some from the west coast and many from practically every state in the south. No official list has been compiled as yet of the teachers who will be given positions next fall, for the board of education has not passed on all applications and acceptances have not been received from many of the old teachers who were offered new contracts.

INSTALLATION OF 20 NEW FIRE ALARM BOXES STARTS SOON

Installation of the 20 new fire alarm boxes which have been ordered for several months will start early next week. Fire Chief McClure announced Saturday after the arrival of the new equipment. All necessary wiring has been strung for weeks, while the changes necessitated in the controlling apparatus have also been attended to. The new boxes will be placed in widely scattered parts of the city and when in operation will give complete fire protection to many sections which heretofore have had to depend on telephonic communication with the stations in case of fire. One hundred of the boxes have been in use since last August and have given entirely satisfactory service, according to fire officials, so it is the belief that the large outlay of cash which the new equipment represents will be well repaid. Henry Smith, assistant fire chief, who was severely burned about the face by a gas explosion early in May, is directing the installation. He has practically recovered from his injuries.

At the Churches

First Baptist Church.
Sunday school 9:45 a. m. We urge that all officers, teachers and pupils be in their departmental quarters early enough to begin work promptly at 9:45. All of the teachers and officers are asked to meet at the church at 8:30 Wednesday evening, June 16, for luncheon and a general conference on the work of our Sunday school. Summer is here, and with it there will be a large number of vacancies in our official force, and we need to be prepared to fill their places for the summer. In doing so, it will require the co-operation of the membership of the church, the officers and teachers and all the pupils. Let us earnestly strive to make our school as good as the best. The Sunday school lesson to be studied Sunday is that of "Making the World Christian." Golden text: "The earth shall be full of the knowledge of Jehovah, as the waters cover the sea." Isa. 11:9. The knowledge of Jehovah does not stop with knowing about Jehovah, valuable as that is, nor even knowing Jehovah himself as we may by His bounding mercy, but also having the knowledge which He has and graciously shares with us—the highest knowledge and the knowledge most worth having. The filling of the earth with His knowledge, even as the sea-basin is full of the sea, brings on the brightest day earth ever knew or can know. It ushers in the glory of universal enlightenment, righteousness and peace. Speed that glorious day. The pastor will have returned and will preach at the eleven o'clock hour Sunday, and also at the eight o'clock hour in the evening. Special music will be furnished for both of these services by Mr. R. Vaughn Ray, senior B. Y. P. U. at 8:45 p. m.—W. C. ASHFORD, Associate Pastor.

MAKE EDUCATIONAL TOUR OF AMERICA AND EUROPE
COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS, June 12.—The three Texas boys who won the national championships in stock judging at Atlanta, Georgia, last fall under the coaching of W. B. Cook, boys' work specialist of the Texas A. & M. college extension service, have departed on an "educational" tour of America and Europe, the trip being given to them as a prize with all the expenses paid by the southeastern fair association of Atlanta. The team is composed of three Texas farm boys, Gilbert Whiting of Marshall, Jack Turner of Hillsboro and Alva Debnam of Lamesa. They will be accompanied by H. H. Williamson of the A. & M. college extension service; B. Ross, county agent for Falls county, and I. W. Hill of the states relation service, Washington, D. C.

The party left Texas June 10 for New York city, from which point they will sail on June 15 for Liverpool on the steamship Carmania. A stop of two days will be made at Washington, D. C., en route to New York, where they will be received by President Harding. They will also be received by Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, Texas senators and representatives.

The boys will arrive in Liverpool on June 23 and will travel immediately to Chester and visit the Eaton Stud, which is under the management of the Duke of Westminster. Among the many places they will visit on the British isles, in addition to the English Royal at Derby, are the livestock farms of the Duke of Westminster at Aldford, Major Morrison's herd at Reading, and Deaton's herds near Reading. They will endeavor to visit the isles of Jersey and Guernsey, where they will see the homes of the two famous dairy breeds. Trips will be made to the agricultural sections of France, Belgium and perhaps Holland. The party will return via London and spend several days inspecting the differences between London and Glasgow from which point they will sail July 23 for Montreal, Canada.

Vierra's original Hawaiians who open the chautauqua program form a company which is the greatest organization of Hawaiian vocalists and instrumentalists that has ever toured America. They have been together ever since 1915 when they appeared at the San Francisco fair. There are seven members of the company. Albert S. Vierra, the greatest ballad singer the islands have ever produced, will head the company. The charming Mrs. Vierra is the only feminine member. James Fern, steel player, is a wizard of the guitar. His father for sixteen years was mayor of Honolulu. Charles Faka is the violinist and Ernest Manasse plays both guitar and ukulele. David Kekai will also be featured in his tenor solos.

REDUCTION IN PRICES OF CHANDLER AND CLEVELAND CARS ANNOUNCED SATURDAY

The third reduction within eight months' time of the Chandler and Cleveland machines was announced Saturday by the WILHELM Moulder Automobile company, local distributor for these two cars. The delivered price of the Chandler is now $1925 and the Cleveland $1325.

The present price of the Chandler is practically a pre-war price level, although such a comparison is not possible with the Cleveland as this car was not placed on the market until 1919, however, the present price is as low as it has ever been.

The recent addition of cord tires as standard equipment on both the Chandler and Cleveland is mentioned as representing another saving of $100 to the purchaser.

WIFE OF WAXAHACHIE BANKER ACCIDENTALLY KILLED BY HUSBAND

WAXAHACHIE, TEXAS, June 11.—Mrs. T. A. Ferris, wife of T. A. Ferris, local banker, died here early today, a few minutes after being run over by an automobile driven by her husband, who was backing the car out of the garage at his home. Mr. Ferris is a brother of Royal A. Ferris of Dallas, well-known Texas banker.

Mr. Ferris had placed equipment in the automobile for use in constructing a golf course at Bell Branch Country club, which he intended to spend the day. His wife accompanied him to the garage and as he backed the machine out of the shed she was struck and run over, sustaining a broken arm and internal injuries.

NEW LAWS PASSED AT LAST SESSION OF LEGISLATURE IN FORCE SATURDAY—CHANGES

Most of the new laws passed at the last session of the legislature went into effect Saturday and are now part of the statutes of Texas.

Of the new laws, perhaps the best known is the one which repeals in most cases the mileage tax bill. Other new measures require more strict sanitation on the part of bakeries, beauty parlors, barber shops and other institutions that serve the public in a more or less intimate way.

A summary of the more important laws which will go into effect on June 11 will be found below.

Postponing until Oct. 15 publication of delinquent tax lists and reducing the penalty for nonpayment from 10 to 5 per cent.

Providing for appointments of guardians for persons of unsound mind and habitual drunkards by the court without the necessity of jury trial. The act fails to say how persons can become habitual drunkards during these dry times.

Empowering county commissioners to fix compensation for county tax assessor for assessing levee improvement taxes in cities of over 75,000 population not to exceed the fees paid for assessing state and county taxes. Fees increased.

Increasing the fees of sheriffs and other peace officers in misdemeanor cases.

Authorizing the supreme court to make a disposition of cases in various classes of cases reaching that body.

Validating charters of cities of over 5,000 inhabitants.

Providing for the organization of road districts of one or more existing districts and other territory.

An honest-advertising law.

Permitting the making of certified copies of records and documents in the University library.

Allowing inmates of the Confederate Women's home to be transferred to the Confederate home where their husbands are in the home and retransfer where the husband dies.

Fixing Jan. 1 as the uniform date for county and precinct officers to qualify.

Exempting the property of art treasures from taxation.

Designating Nov. 11 as "Victory Day" and proclaiming it a legal holiday.

ANOTHER LITTLE KNOWN EVENT IN HOUSTON'S LIFE REVEALED BY STORY OF DUEL HE FOUGHT

Some lights on another obscure chapter in the life of Sam Houston, in addition to those discussed in an article in The Times of June 4, is shed by a contribution to the current number of the "Alcalde" by Congressman Fritz Lannam of Weatherford. It deals with Houston's duel with Postmaster White of Nashville, which duel it appears, was indirectly the cause of Houston's being elected governor of Tennessee.

A Tennessee congressman, who was a small boy when the duel was fought near his home, told Mr. Lannam that Houston's stopping at his house a few days before the encounter. He said:

"The story told by Congressman Houston was to the effect that, upon his return to his home in Tennessee, being chided by a number of his constituents because he was not having sent to them a number of much prized public documents, he had protested that the usual number had been sent, and upon an investigation had learned that the postmaster at Nashville had suppressed those documents and had not delivered them at all being opposed politically to the congressman. It would seem that postoffice rules were not as strict in those days as now. Be that as it may, the congressman publicly denounced the postmaster in many public places, charging him with being a dishonest man, a coward, a knave, etc., etc. Thereupon the postmaster had sent a challenge to the congressman for a duel to death. The congressman had contemptuously refused to receive it, stating as his reason that he could only fight with a gentleman, and that the postmaster was not in that class. He had suggested, however, being of an accommodating nature, that inasmuch as the second who brought the challenge was a gentleman by birth and breeding as well as by habit of life, he would not object to fighting him. It was thus arranged and that was the duel between these two men which was then impending."

The following quotation is from page 26 of a book by George S. Bryan entitled "Sam Houston," published by the Kimball company in 1917:

"While Houston was serving in congress during his second term, he fought a duel with a man who challenged him. In a speech to his friends afterwards, he said that on principle he was opposed to dueling, but that on this occasion he had felt obliged to defend his honor."

The following is from a book entitled "Sam Houston and the History of Independence in Texas," by Alfred M. Williams, published by Houghton, Mifflin & Co., 1923, pages 28 et seq.:

"It was during Houston's second term as a member of congress that his first and only serious duel took place. The appointments of postmasters under the new federal administration were naturally not of the Jackson-Houston party. One Colonel Irwin had been appointed postmaster at Nashville, and Houston had expressed his opinion about him with that vigor which always characterized his animadversions upon his political opponents. Houston's words were carried to Colonel Irwin, and it was understood that he would hold him personally responsible for them on his return to Tennessee. Col. Irwin selected as the bearer of his challenge one Colonel John T. Smith, a noted desperado of Missouri; Houston's friend, Colonel McGregor, refused to accept the challenge from Smith's hands.

The challenge was offered and refused in front of the Nashville Inn. McGregor dropping the paper to the ground as it was handed to him. No encounter followed between Smith and McGregor, as was expected, and the news of the action was taken to Houston, who was in a room of the inn with some of his friends. General William White, who was present, expressed himself to the effect that Smith had not been treated with proper courtesy.

Houston overheard the remark, and said to White, "If you, sir, have any grievances, I will give you any satisfaction you may demand." White replied, "I have nothing to do with your difficulty, but I presume you know what is due from one gentleman to another." Nothing further followed at the time and it was soon spread about the streets of Nashville that Houston had "backed down" General White. This attack upon his courage reached the ears of General White, and he sent a challenge to Houston, which was promptly accepted.

An attempt was made by the sheriff to arrest them both for the preservation of the peace, but Houston escaped to the house of a friend in an adjoining county, and sent word to White who had also evaded arrest, that he was ready to meet him across the state line in Kentucky.

The grand jury of Simpson county in June, 1827, brought in an indictment against Houston for felony in showing up William White with intent to kill, and the governor of Kentucky issued a requisition on the governor of Tennessee for his surrender. It was not complied with on the ground that the facts showed that Houston had acted in self defense. In fact, a prosecution for such an offense in those dueling days must have been understood as a farce, and the fight undoubtedly increased Houston's popularity.

In a speech to his constituents at Tullahoma, after his duel with White, Houston said that he was opposed to dueling, but had been compelled to fight in defense of his honor. "Thank God," he said, "my antagonist was injured no worse." There is no record of how his affair with the Nashville postmaster terminated, but it certainly led to no more fighting.

The following quotation is from the "Life and Select Literary Remains of Sam Houston," by Dr. William Carey Crane, former president of Baylor university, Independence, Texas. This work was published by Lippincott & Co. in 1884:

"The session of congress having ended March 4, 1827, an event occurred whose like had been avoided in all his former life, as it was also avoided in all his subsequent life. The event brought out in a new light the character of Houston, and gave him a place in the nation of the whole people of Tennessee, one of whose congressional districts he had represented. The obnoxious federal appointments in the new states, reaching to the removal of postmasters respected in the communities they served, and the substitution of mere political partisans in their stead, had led to personal collisions; into one of which Houston despite his fixed rule of action, was drawn against his will.

"On the 2nd of June, 1827, the grand jury of Simpson county, Kentucky, found bills against C. M. Smith and Samuel Houston, both of Tennessee, the former for murder, in killing Mr. Bank of Tennessee; and the latter for shooting, with intent to kill, General White, of Tennessee, which act, under the laws of Kentucky, was felony."

"The governor of Kentucky demanded the surrender of both from the governor of Tennessee. As the shooting was the result of a duel agreed on by both parties, obedience to the summons was not expected. As Houston had acted only in self-defense, the tide of popular sentiment, not only, staid him, but led to his nomination and election as governor. His popularity throughout the country is indicated in the fact that Niles' Register, of May 18th, Baltimore, Md., then the chief reporter of national events, gives a full report of Houston's speech previously made at Tullahoma, Tennessee, when called out by the people as their favorite. Replying to the charge that he was a duelist, he said: "The power could recur to the late exceptional event in his life but with mingled pain to his assailant. He had been, and and thankfulness so that Providence and his honor, and that without injury which enabled him to save his person still was, opposed to the practice of dueling. He had passed through the army without any act to sanction it. He had hoped to be as successful in civil life. The federal government, however, had made appointment of a postmaster opposed to the wishes of all the people, and of ten out of sixteen representatives of the state in the two houses of congress. His remonstrance was warm, and hence the challenge presented in public. He had risked his life in defense of his country, and he could not be less in defense of his honor. Thank God, he added, that my adversary was injured no worse."

Progress of Woman

IN VERY early days woman was looked upon as man's slave—a mere chattel. She served her master with food and also was burdened with the necessity of devising all means of food preparation, frequently compelled to forage for food materials.

Even in this country—not so many years ago—grain used for food was ground between two flat stones and woman did the grinding. The coarse meal, mixed with water, was placed upon beds of hot coals, on heated stones or in ovens of clay for baking. Today, gigantic mills are preparing the finest of flour for the American housewife, sending it into her modernized kitchen ready for immediate use.

Woman is no longer a slave. Love and protection have superseded the lash and punishment of cruel labor. The genius of man strives to save her as much work as possible and render her every effort most effective.

The modern range has replaced the open fire. The electric switch or turn of a gas jet has supplanted the rubbing together of two dry sticks in kindling a fire. Ease has taken the place of killing exertion. Unhealthy methods of leavening are fast disappearing.

It is now easy for the housewife to make and serve many dainty, delicious and wholesome dishes produced from flour. Puffy biscuits, golden brown pancakes, tasty cakes, flaky muffins, bread of many varieties, light as a feather, easily digested and wholesome.

This wonderful progress is due largely to the remarkable improvement in the manufacture of Baking Powder. Calumet gives the housewife a leavener of absolute purity—of positive dependability. It never fails to produce the most palatable and sweetest of foods.

You save when you buy Calumet Baking Powder—it is moderate in price. You save when you use it—has more than the ordinary leavening strength; therefore you use less. You save materials it is used with, never fails. And you save all the worry, the disappointment caused by faulty leaveners.

Calumet is made in the world's largest, most modern and sanitary baking powder factories. It contains only such ingredients as have been officially approved by the U. S. Food Authorities. And is the biggest selling brand of baking powder on the market.

Calumet Baking Powder is a perfect leavener which has contributed to the provision of better foods and made baking a delight, at a most economical cost.

AMUSEMENT CALENDAR FOR COMING WEEK

Motion Pictures

EMPRESS OFFERS BABE RUTH, BILL FARNUM AND OTHERS FOR COMING WEEK

"His Greatest Sacrifice," a William Fox production featuring William Farnum, heads the list of this week's photo plays at the Empress and is followed by three others of merit and interest.

For those who love fine dramatic acting this production will have an especial appeal, as the main plot calls for dramatic representation of the highest type. Farnum is cast in the role of that stereotyped and conventional anomaly, the struggling author whose aristocratic wife runs away and leaves him and then, after he wins fame and fortune, she returns to him.

The story is distressingly familiar, but Farnum's acting makes up, in large measure, for the mediocre plot. The production was directed by J. Gordon Edwards.

Wednesday brings a double bill, a big Cosmopolitan production "Proxies," which has drawn large crowds when shown at the movie houses of the north and a special feature called "The Last Door," her newest Reel-in picture in which it is said she shows, for once, some expression and gets away from the usual routine of the sub-titles to her acting for her.

Earl Williams in "The Romance of the Week" having been booked for the week on Friday and Saturday. This picture is of the type which does not seek to point any weighty moral or elaborate on some phase of life. The plot deals with the efforts of a wealthy man to save his daughter from the romance promoters that will know no type which lives by appealing on the affections of wealthy young ladies. Williams has ample opportunity to display his talents in this picture, and does so to the full satisfaction of all.

WARNER APPEARS TWICE ON MAJESTIC MOVIE BILLS HERE THE COMING WEEK

H. B. Warner has an option on the Majestic this week, having been booked to appear there three days in two separate pictures. Monday in "The Vagabond Prince" and Friday and Saturday in "The Raiders," both of which are numbered among his best productions. Just for good measure, Mae Murray and Buster Keaton have been thrown in on the days Warner is not appearing at the center of the stage.

"The Vagabond Prince" shows the star in a happy-go-lucky role, one in which he has a devil may care attitude and one which is replete with humor and unusual situations, while the final film "The Raiders" is an altogether different type wherein he has the part of a dashing westerner who gets into all kinds of trouble.

In "The Wild Lily," Mae Murray's starring vehicle which comes on Tuesday, she plays a girl who is brought to New York's great white way in a drama which has speed, beauty and power.

Buster Keaton's offering on Wednesday and Thursday is "One A Week" another of the comedies in which he never cracks a smile and which are always funny. William Duncan in "Fighting Fate" will also appear on these two days.

OLYMPIC SHOWS MEIGHAN IN A NEW ONE THIS WEEK

Thomas Meighan and Jacqueline Logan in a scene from the Paramount Picture "White and Unmarried"

STRAND OFFERS TWO FINE SCREEN PRODUCTIONS FOR LOCAL MOVIE FANS

Only two productions will be seen at the Strand the coming week, but both are exceptionally fine. It is said, and will no doubt draw capacity crowds at all performances. The initial offering will be Louise Glaum, the Associated Producers star, who comes in a production with the all enlightening title, "Love." The story centers around the love of a sister for the starving baby of another sister, and the main action of the plot devolves around the sacrifices she makes in order that it may be fed.

Supporting Miss Glaum is James Kirkwood and Joseph Kilgour. Wesley Ruggles directed the filming.

The final three days of the week brings Irvin Willats latest production "Down Home," a story of New England life with a liberal sprinkling of comedy throughout the six reels. The cast includes Leatrice Joy, Edward Heerne and William Daley in the leading roles, and Frank Braidwood, Agnes Marring, James G. Harrow, William P. Lockney, Florence Gilbert and others are seen in roles which they are said to interpret admirably.

"TIN CAN" MATINEE TO BE STAGED BY EMPRESS FOR BENEFIT OF CITY AND KIDS

A "tin can" matinee, something new in the way of moving picture features, is to be offered on Friday of this week when the Empress theatre will admit any child in the city, 12 years of age or under, who will present four tin cans at the door. The cans may be of any size, shape, brand, style or variety and may be of advanced age or comparative yearlings, just so they are tin cans.

The matinee is being staged by manager Harwell as an advertising scheme primarily, but the city health department is also back of the plan and has endorsed it as a good way to rid the city of a few objectionable debris. Manager Harwell is asking the cans be picked up from the streets or from vacant lots where they are execrable and disease breeders, but no questions will be asked as to where they came from.

This offer will hold good only from 11 till 5 o'clock on Friday, at which time Earl Williams in "The Romance Promoters," will be shown.

Reel Chatter

By JEAN DARNELL

Someone thought of a new name for Will Rogers the other day—the "post script" of the Goldwyn studios, he's called. And now Rogers is going about, pencil and paper in hand, and a dreamy look in his eyes, trying to live up to the first part of the title.

Edna Purviance, is developing into quite an emotional actress. She is following up her success in "The Kid" with excellent work in the next Chaplin picture "Vanity Fair."

Another "Grip" romance has just developed. Gloria Hope, playing in "The Grim Comedian" at the Goldwyn studios, and Lloyd Hughes have announced their engagement. Mr. Hughes is building a house in Hollywood, though no date has been set for the wedding.

Mae Marsh is visiting her mother in New York. There are rumors of her returning to the Griffith fold.

It is said Nasimova will have an important announcement to make in the near future as to her new company and releasing medium.

Billie Burke is resting for the summer at her summer home "Burkley Crest" at Haslin's-on-the-Hudson, New York.

Rumor says—Dorothy and Lillian Russell will appear in "The Girl Who Sings" which D. W. Griffith will make.

Buster Keaton is "stepping out" in many months.

Edith Storey has purchased a house in the beach colony in Los Angeles and intends making California her permanent home.

Helen Chadwick, lovely Goldwyn leading woman, received a pair of slippers from China recently. She says she is very much flattered, only that she will have to use them for powder puff holders, or something like that. "Measured by the standards of Chinese feminine beauty, I far exceed the dimensions," says the beautiful Helena.

The Carter De Havens with the little De Havens entertained a few of the film kiddies at Long Beach, California, where a great time was had by all—riding the giant coasters merry-go-rounds, etc. All voted daddie De Havens the best yet.

Nearly all of the church committees who are forming white lists of photographers, lead off with Shirley Mason's name. They say Miss Mason is so sweet and unassuming and her pictures always have such an innocent appeal with genuine wholesome moral. Hurrah for you, Shirley! I'm for you.

The son of the great post-steamman, D'Annunzio has directed a picture in Italy called "The Ship" which will be released in America by Goldwyn. It is said that this picture far surpasses "Cabiria" and "Que Vadia" Italian films shown here about four years ago, and promises to be a sensation.

Little Marlene Elliott Hicks, who supports Mae Marsh in "Nobody's Kid" will be remembered by all as the little girl with the big goggles on, in "The Poor Little Rich Girl" with Mary Pickford. "I just loved her, she was so sweet to me. It seemed awful, to have to hit her."

Corinne Griffith is now being directed by her husband Webster Campbell, her latest picture "What's Your Reaction."

It is said Mildred Harris Chaplin will be seen on the speaking stage this fall. She should do well, she has a charming personality, is good to look at and her voice is pleasing.

It might be said that Wallace MacDonald, who was married to Dorris

AT THE STRAND THREE DAYS THIS WEEK

An Irvin V. Willats production "Down Home" distributed by W. W. Hodkinson

May last week, got a bad start in the game of matrimony. On the very day that he obtained the license to wed Miss May he proposed to Sylvia Breamer, leading lady, in "A Poor Relation" at the Goldwyn studio.

Leatrice Joy possesses a great many gingham dresses and is rarely to be seen out of one of them, except when dressed for a picture.

Tom Moore says he knows he is selfish but he wishes to keep Renee Adoree Moog, his bride, all for himself not allowing her to appear in any more pictures. Curse!

Harold Lloyd and his big goggles promises to produce some real thrills at the Beverly Hills speedway, June 6th, at the big actors fund show, everybody in the motion picture world is scheduled to be there.

Ignace Jan Paderewski, the well known pianist and former premier of Poland, was a visitor last week at the Goldwyn studio at Culver City and was shown the mysteries of motion picture making, by Rupert Hughes. The celebrated pianist admitted he was an ardent movie fan and expressed great amazement at the magnitude of the industry.

Ruth Roland assisted materially with the salvation army drive recently carried on in Los Angeles, by appearing one morning at the studio gates, with a large "mug" filled with "army buttons" and no one was allowed to enter without subscribing to the cause.

Say U. S. Export Trade Is Helped By the New Act

WASHINGTON, June 11.—A questionnaire recently sent by the federal trade commission to the associations operating under the export trade act (Webb-Pomerene law) has brought forth some interesting expressions of opinion as to the advantages derived under the act.

A comparatively small association, exporting household goods, states that "the benefits of the act are obvious" and "only through the solid front that our organization enables us to present, are we at all able to hold our own."

This corporation is of the opinion that the act has been of great service "in enabling us to carry on the export business much more efficiently than ever has been in the past."

On the other hand, one of the larger associations exporting metal products, reports "no particular obstacles" encountered during the past year, but is of the opinion that "the ability of its member companies to combine for export, unquestionably puts them in a better position as regards export business than they could be individually."

An association shipping chemical goods to Great Britain, France, Holland, Roumania, Cuba and China, calls attention to the fact that operation under the act "has enabled us to get the surplus product out of the country, to reduce the overhead on export business and we are of the opinion that it has effected a saving to the foreign buyer."

Another association which last year filled substantial foreign orders for plumbers' supplies reports that "interchange of experience among our members, has been helpful in meeting foreign competition. Adapting ourselves to foreign lists and packing methods has also been helpful in satisfying our customers."

An association exporting locomotives states that the arrangement under which it has been operating has proved of decided advantage to the locomotive building industry, and is likely to be of still greater advantage when the United States will have to face the keen competition of European builders.

A southern lumber association reports advantages of co-operation in completing orders and a western association exporting wood products calls attention to the fact that foreign buyers show more confidence in placing orders with the association than was formerly accorded to members exporting individually.

Altogether, associations operating under the act appear to have weathered the storm of business depression during the past year with gratifying success. As stated by an association on the Pacific coast in answer to the questionnaire:

"The American exporter is going to have a tough time making a head-way. But we believe that this act is a very decided step forward and we

WILL LECTURE ON "THE INDISPENSIBLE TOOLS OF DEMOCRACY," CHAUTAUQUA

Frank Dixon is never forgotten. He is one of the few men who strive more to make his audience think than to give them things they like to hear or already believe.

Frank Dixon is not especially interested in knowing whether you liked or enjoyed his speech. He is particularly pleased in spurring you to thought and action on questions that have not been decided and which are timely and that few have the courage to discuss.

The Indispensible Tools of Democracy is a pink tea lecture. Dr. Dixon has been likened to a surgeon who inflicts some pain on his patient for his ultimate good. There are few men in the country who think with the precision and clarity of Dixon or who can express their thoughts in the same manner.

No one forgets Frank Dixon. If you have heard him you will be there to hear this new lecture. If you have not heard him you have a profitable hour in store. Dr. Dixon will lecture on the afternoon of the third day of the chautauqua.

Famous Marne Taxies Going to The Scrap Heap

By EDWIN W. MULLINGER, United Press Staff Correspondent. PARIS, June 11.—The famous "Marne" taxies, that saved France in the early days of the war, are soon going to be hard pressed to hold their own in the peacetime battle for passengers.

Already their former undisputed control of the taxi field is being challenged by a fleet of brand new vehicles de luxe, with shiny exteriors and beautifully upholstered interiors and a few Ford's, which have taken their places in the taxi queues in steadily increasing numbers this spring.

While the interlopers are not sufficient in number to put the Marne taxis out of business, the fatal certainty with which passengers pass the old taxies by and climb into the new ones just as long as a single newcomer remains in line, shows clearly what the future has in store.

With the elimination of the Marne cars—the rattlestone, tough little two-cylinder Renaults—one of the quaintest institutions in Paris will pass into history.

The Parisian taxi is in a class by itself. A Parisian could recognize a Parisian taxi in any place on the globe, without the aid of his sense of sight, once the door clattered shut behind him. It smells different and feels different. No other known vehicle can sound as near like falling to pieces at the next moment and yet continue to hold together year after year.

And the Parisian chauffeur, with his broad shoulders that blot out the landscape, his red face and shrewd, bright eyes, his grave black beard or mustache, his quick repartee, is also unique in the transportation world. It would be difficult to think of either separated from the other.

In 1918 these rotund drivers changed their green uniforms for blue and red and transported France's army to the Marne in such quick time and in such numbers that the French were able to stop the advancing Germans.

And now the very same vehicles, or rather those that weren't shot to pieces on duty, are fighting their own fight to escape the scrap iron heap.

When their time comes—well, many a post-war American tourist probably will draw a sigh of relief. But the old-time genuine lovers of Paris will pause and meditate when the last little old, jolly old, Marne taxi clicks its last "Ceylon" produces the world's finest cinnamon.

A surprising feature of this year's chautauqua is the Ladies Philharmonic Orchestra. This is one of the greatest of all chautauqua musical organizations. This company was organized and trained especially as a feature number of a feature program. No expense has been spared to make their visit long remembered. When you see the staging and lighting in connection with the superb program of these charming young women, you will be entranced. This will be one of the biggest of all the big numbers this season. Charles F. Horner has devoted more than usual of his time in personally directing the organization and training of this unusual orchestra.

Close-Ups of Congress

By FRANK EDWARDS, United Press Staff Correspondent. WASHINGTON, June 11.—Immediately upon his election, Vice-President Calvin Coolidge went into intensive training to become the chief diner-out of the Harding administration. He is now battling a thousand in that league.

At one of the pre-inaugural banquets attended by Coolidge, snuff was the chief stimulant provided. The Vice-President elected sniffed and sneezed with the other diners. If this experience gave the silent censor of the senate a liking for snuff, the craving may now be easily satisfied. Among the remaining relics in the senate are two snuff boxes with rhinestone studs on either side of the vice-president's chair. Although few snuff sniffers remain in the senate, the boxes are kept religiously filled.

Many other ancient customs were found in the senate by the vice-president. There is the thumb-worn ivory cylinder that he uses as a gavel to quell any unseemly outbursts in the galleries. It has called the senate to order since the days of the continental congress.

capital grounds is pumped into the chamber. For the remaining 30 minutes of the hour, the floors are thrown wide to allow an ample exit for the "hot air."

Some people have queer ideas of what constitutes pleasure. However, in this land of the free, every citizen is permitted to pick his own brand—if he can get it. However, there is no legal inhibition hampering the favorite sport of the Hon. Zebulon Weaver, who represents the tenth North Carolina district in the house.

"Zeb" has a pleasant afternoon to discover some musty tomes on land laws in a hidden cranny of the supreme court law library. He then seeks a sequestered nook and reads it from "Kiver to liver."

What he don't know about land laws "ain't in the books," as they say down in North Carolina. As a result, when he takes a land case around his home, he usually receives a visit from the attorney from the other side with a proposal of compromise.

Representative Tinsler of Kansas He don't look as if he had ever seen a printing press. He used to sage brush country in the early days, run a county weekly in the Kansas In those days, the sheet depended largely upon the printing as a source of revenue. Without it he would have starved to death, he declares.

His paper was getting a fair share under the state republican administration, but he and his partner, Otto Lorton, now managing editor of the Tulsa World, became apprehensive that a Kansas political cyclone that was likely to sweep the republicans from the face of the political universe was imminent.

Tinsler hustled down to the capital at Topeka and succeeded in getting the legislature to create a job of county printer, which would give them a monopoly on the printing. Lorton became the republican candidate for the job and it seemed that the county was safely republican until the census was counted.

Although the republicans swept the state on all other offices, Lorton was beaten world without end. Tinsler then had to hustle back to Topeka to have the county printer law and Lorton's democratic conqueror legislated out of existence.

MAXWELL PRICES REDUCED $310 IN PAST NINE MONTHS

"At its last year's price of $1,185, the Maxwell was considered a splendid value by motorists generally," says S. Bemrod.

"When the first reduction of $160 was made last fall, this value became even more striking and the good Maxwell was acknowledged to be an exceedingly profitable investment.

"Not satisfied with this, however, the new and powerful organization worked toward a further reduction and have succeeded in taking another $150 from the price of the good Maxwell, making a total reduction of $310 in less than nine months.

"During this time, they have added many refinements and improvements, so that the good Maxwell, while selling at the 1921 price, is far and away a better automobile than it was in 1920.

"That the public is appreciative of its doubly increased value is shown by the stimulation in sales throughout the country."

DALLAS ON ATLANTIC GIVES INSTRUCTIONS BY RADIO FOR CAR CARE

When the big trans-Atlantic swimmer, Olympic, cleared from her New York dock last Sunday, it carried among the many passengers aboard several Dallas people. The tourists from Dallas included Mrs. Alfred Helo and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Cleaver and Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard King, Jr.

On Monday, though the great swimmer was well out to sea on her way across the Dallas folk were in communication with their home town. Mr. Cleaver remembered that he had forgotten a particular caution he had intended to give about his automobile, which had been left in storage until his return from Europe. It was a simple matter to use the radio.

Addressed to his firm under its listed cable address, the radio message came through promptly. "Tell Mungler to jack car up and see to batteries," a part of the message read. It simply meant that the tourist wanted to be certain his Cadillac roadster was put in storage in the proper manner. The Dallasites, part of them on business and part on pleasure bent, will remain in Europe for several weeks.

Pipeclay acts as a preservative of rubber and makes one of the best mediums for treating the rubber mats used in automobiles. Oil and greases are rubber solvents and ruin the floor mats if they are allowed to remain on them. The mats should be wiped quite dry and then pipe-clayed. The latter dries and sucks the oil out of the rubber.

WITH THE AUTO DEALERS

Dan Rubsam says he expects a carload of Oaklands in most any day. He is badly in need of more of these popular small cars.

Lloyd Weaver reports the delivery of a Hudson speedster to John Smircos of Wichita Falls, and the sale of two used cars, a Packard and Nash, during the week.

Ed Sparkman, new service manager for the Lloyd Weaver Automobile Co., is entirely at home in Wichita Falls now, as his wife and family have arrived from Dallas.

Carl Eckman of Eckman & Von Allmen, Humboldt dealers, left Thursday night on a business trip to Shreveport, La., to be gone a week.

W. K. Thompson of the Williams-Thompson company, local Packard distributor, didn't wait till the last of the week to go to Dallas this time, but pulled out Monday.

Two new Oaklands were driven up from Dallas last week by the Marshall Huff Motor company in order to fill the demand for the car here.

Parts business is still good around the Gaines camp, according to reports from that section last week. Mitt Gaines is planning on a two weeks' pleasure trip to Galveston in the near future.

Eckman and Von Allmen report Hupp business promising, but few sales during the last day or so.

T. C. Buxton, Packard technical service man who has been in the city for the last ten days, left Saturday after inspecting all the Packards in town. The "rank the man who owns one" cars are now running like tops, Williams-Thompson report.

A new Oakland five-passenger touring car was delivered last week to a local purchaser by the Marshall Huff Motor company, local Oakland, Jordan and McFarland distributors.

He has been making a swing around the territory the past week, stopping in at Henrietta and Petrolia. He left for Fort Worth Friday night to attend to some business at the Chevrolet assembly plants.

The L. I. Fritz Motor company is in the position right now of not having a Marmon on the floor. However, a carload is expected in any day.

G. J. Moulder received word Friday of a reduction in the prices of Chandler and Cleveland cars.

We have noticed two or three new Dodges on the streets this week, and Bob McFall says, "We ain't seen nothing yet."

Carl Waelder is getting his share of it since the Franklin price reduction.

PUBLIC RESPONDS TO PRICE CUT IN THE JORDAN CAR

On May 31st, the Jordan June production schedule of 100 cars had been entirely sold, with the exception of 21 cars, according to Dan Rubsam of the Marshall Huff Auto company.

The unusual response to the recent Jordan announcement of a $500 to $500 reduction in price has swamped the factory with orders.

May saw production jump to peak levels. June forecasts a month of tremendous production which will be inadequate in face of the demand for Jordan cars which now exists.

"We are entering a period of keen competition in selling," says Edward S. Jordan. "The recent cuts in tires and automobiles are but the beginning of the fight for business in which service to the user will be the determining factor for ultimate success."

A new automobile tire of English invention is made of solid rubber with large, deep chambers cut into it from the side, which is fitted against the wheel rim.

The shares of a Quebec inventor's tractor plow move transversely on end-axle belts as the machine is moved over the ground, which thereby is tilled in two directions at once.

For motor truck owners a crane on casters has been invented for removing and replacing the wheels of heavy vehicles.

An inventor has patented a motor-driven machine to pick nuts from the ground and convey them into a container, saving much hand labor.

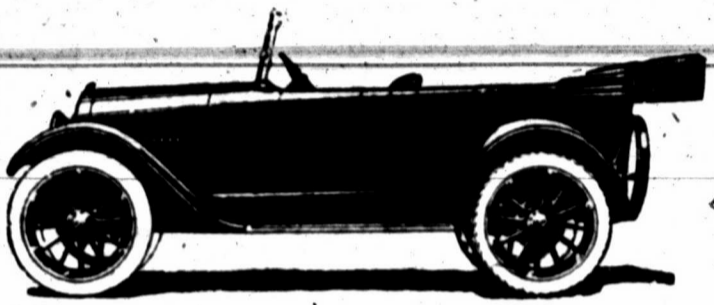

An Argentinian has invented an airplane designed to rise directly from the ground or to rise along a road like an automobile.

Operated by a vacuum motor connected with an automobile's intake manifold by flexible tubing, a new windshield cleaner is kept constantly in motion as long as a valve on the motor is kept open.

The tails of a duster coat designed for automobiles can be wrapped around a wearer's legs and buttoned to form loose trousers.

To lessen the labor of testing the air pressure in an automobile tire a new gauge forms part of the valve stem and is covered with a heavy glass dust cap that is transparent.

A backfire or slight popping back through the exhaust may usually be accepted as a sign of insufficient intake valve clearance. When the intake does not close, the burning charge escapes through the valve and ignites the incoming charge in the manifold. Loss of compression causes a loss of power and the gas blown back deranges the carburetor momentarily.

THE MOTORISTS' PROBLEMS'

By WILLIAM H. STEWART, JR.

Motor Department: Please let me know if possible why my engine misfires when I speed up. It seems to run all right on low speed, but misfires as soon as I speed up. The battery seems to be strong enough. Where shall I look for the trouble?—P. K.

Clean and adjust the distributor points, also clean the distributor head contacts. Test your spark plugs and make sure you have no defective porcelain. Clean the gas strainers of the fuel line and remove any foreign matter in the carburetor. If the compression of each cylinder is good and the carburetor properly adjusted, you should have no trouble.

Motor Department: I have a 1917 Ford. Have to crank on battery at first even in warm weather. After the engine runs a little it will crank on magnets very well and runs good on magnets. Please tell me the trouble?—C. T.

The magnets may be growing weak or there may be a defective wire from magnet to coil or a loose terminal. Possibly your engine is losing compression also.

Motor Department: I wish you would explain the difference between the Ford magnets and the usual type?—S. V.

The magnets are revolved instead of the armature; it has sixteen field poles and armature coils and revolves at crankshaft speed to fire a four-cylinder engine. It is not timed, but the low tension current generated is timed by the commutator in circuit with the induction coils. The voltage of the current varies with the speed of the engine.

Motor Department: Would like very much if you would send me names of manufacturers that make racing cars.—Reader.

No manufacturer specializes on racing cars. Pick out some manufacturer or making a powerful car and treat with him in the matter.

Motor Department: Some weeks ago I read an article in which there was reference to the use of mesh balls dissolved in the gasoline to add to the efficiency. I have tried to dissolve them in gasoline but met with very little success. Kindly advise.—T. S.

It is not advisable to try adding any such substance to increase the power of the explosion. Such experiments are unscientific and may damage your engine.

Motor Department: Which is better to use for grinding valves, emery or carborundum? I can get a grinding compound containing either, but I wish to know which is better.—H. O.

Carborundum is harder and sharper than emery and so cuts more rapidly. In your case it is doubtful if the difference will be noticeable. Both compounds are good.

Motor Department: Please explain the reason for my inner tubes being punctured. Have not run over nails or sharp stones and the shoes are in good condition. Use demountable rims. Do you think the gravel works into the shoes and causes this trouble?—K. T.

The difficulty you experience may be due to many causes, such as glass working its way into the shoe, roughened fabric, sharp projection, or probably creasing of the shoe. Remove the shoe and examine the inner fabric very closely when bending the walls. More than likely you will find the fabric broken at some point and this is what pinches the tube in service.

Motor Department: While adjusting one of the bearings in one of the rear wheels I had occasion to take a bearing out and in doing so lost one of the balls. Will it injure the bearing to run without the lost ball?—Owner.

Out delay, taking particular care to observe. You should replace the lost ball with one of the exact size, so that all the balls you do not replace the lost ball the additional strain put upon the others may cause the cutting of the ball race. bearing will be very short. When this starts the life of the whole few cars a steel spike locked on the front wheels to prevent theft. It was about six inches long, with pointed end. Does such a device really prevent stealing of the car?—J. L.

Such devices cause delay and any risk of being caught. A quick and thief-tampering with it takes a big grateful get-away is a thief's best protection.

Motor Department: What is the advantage of over-also tires? Are they really worth the extra money?—L. S.

As they give a greater supporting surface for the weight carried, there is less strain on a given part of the surface, consequently less danger of punctures and a longer life. They will prove to be a good investment.

Helpful Hints:
Most people neglect the tires because they are apt to get their hands soiled. Go over the treads carefully from time to time, digging out small stones and filling the cuts with tire putty. You will be surprised at the increased mileage you will get.

Before you sell all your damaged tubes pick out the best one and lay it aside. Rubber bands cut from it 1/2 inch wide are just the proper thing with which to fasten a folded tube, as they do not cut into it.

Don't leave the chalk out of your tool kit. Some of it should be shaken into the shoe every time you change tires. It helps the tube to settle into place and reduces friction between tube and shoe, thus prolonging the life of the tube.

Your dealer will show you how to roll the air out of a tube and fold it properly, but if it is left too long in a folded condition it will crack. Be open to occasional and fold another way, if this is not done the tube will become almost useless.

In case of an emergency, a patch can be cut from a piece of old tube and applied with cement. Cut the edges thin, so that the patch will not pull away readily.

It is never necessary to add acid to your battery when it is functioning properly. While discharging, the acid is absorbed by the plates, and while recharging, forces the acid out of the plates into the solution again. Only the water is evaporated.

KNOWLEDGE FOR THE AUTOMOBILE OWNER

The tread of an automobile is the same as the standard wagon tread.

The improper adjustment of valves or irregular ignition will cause jerky running of a car.

Front wheels are "undergathered" or narrower at the bottom than at the top to permit easier steering.

To prevent trouble when driving screws into hard wood, apply beeswax to the screw, thereby relieving the friction.

Some of the most important parts of a car and the parts most susceptible to wear if not properly watched are the bearings.

Remove the drain or drain valve from the gasoline tank and carburetor occasionally to drain off any sediment which may collect there.

Because the corr tire is more flexible and has greater air capacity, the air pressure is about 18 per cent less than in the fabric tire.

When there is a squeak in the car, try loosening the body bolts and apply oil to all parts where the body of the car touches the frame, then tighten the bolts.

An old tire valve with the inside taken out may be attached to a compressed air line and will be found very useful in blowing water out of the ignition apparatus, etc., after the car has been washed.

When it is desired to overcome the noise of a set of badly worn gears it must be understood that the replacement of one of the gears will not do the trick. Only by replacing both members can it be hoped to quiet the noise.

Should a gear of the differential or transmission break so that a movement of these parts would result in the ruin of other parts, a car equipped with a full-floating axle can be towed to a garage by simply pulling out the driving axle.

Hemp string and soap is the proper material to use for packing the stuffing box of a gasoline pump. It is a well known fact that gasoline will dissolve practically any kind of oil used as a lubricant, but has no effect on soap. The latter is also excellent for use in making screw joints tight.

Grass Protein for only 20lbs of Milk

How does she make that extra 10 lbs.?

COWS that get only enough protein and calcium from grass to make 20 lbs. of milk may make 30 lbs. for a time on grass alone. They do it by drawing upon their bodily tissues for the other 10 lbs. But their milk will suddenly fall off unless a concentrate is fed.

Do You Buy a Motor Car "Sight Unseen?"

You see the vital aspect of a car only by the way long, hard service affects it.

Will it become loose and noisy? Grow wasteful of oil and fuel? Lose efficiency? Require replacements, frequent repairs and adjustments?
Or will it remain free of these disabilities?

There Is a Simple Way to Tell

Not by a mere salesroom examination. That cannot show the differences which make some cars continue to serve reliably and economically for years. It cannot show superiorities of mechanical design, nor the painstaking workmanship on details that in all likelihood you will never see.

And even a demonstration tells nothing of how a car will wear in steady service.

But it is easy to find and examine the real proof: What have cars of the same make shown over a period of several years?

What is the future expectancy of good service from such cars after twenty or thirty thousand miles.

You have the all-important advantage of being able to ask owners. Make use of it. Find out how the car you are thinking of buying has served other owners. Learn what mileage they get on gasoline, oil and tires. Is the second or the third 10,000 miles more costly than the first? Is it just as satisfactory in performance? Would that owner buy another car of the same make?

Of course there are basic reasons why Essex differs from other light cars—why owners compare it to costly cars.

And we will be glad of an early opportunity to explain the many points of advantage that only costly cars share with Essex.

AUTOMOBILES NOT EXPECTED TO DROP TO PRE-WAR BASIS

(From Wall Street Journal)

Detroit—Price reductions in automobiles this year have not placed cars on a "pre-war basis" nor are immediate future cuts likely to do so. Developments and improvements in the motor industry have been so revolutionary that there is little possibility of many manufacturers being able to set the price level at the 1917-1918 level.

There is something of a uniformity in this spring's price adjustments. Chevrolet's cut of $175 on the open touring model to $645 places that car between the 1917 price of $550 and the 1918 price of $735.

Hupp's $290 cut places its touring model, now $1,455, in the similar period, 1917-1918. The 1917 Hupp price was $1,265, and the 1918 list $1,500. Jordan's production places it a year later—between 1918 and 1919. The new price of $2,250 for the 5-passenger open car compares with $1,995 in 1918, and $2,675 in 1919.

Because of the marvelous development of motor cars, the introduction of new models, etc., prices before 1917 scarcely admit of comparison with existing levels. Taking twenty-six prominent cars as an index, giving effect to reductions of last fall, but not those of this spring, an average price increase of 51 per cent in the years 1917-1921 is indicated.

Greatest increase was in that group of cars selling under $1,000 in 1917. Seven makers in this class increased an average of 68 per cent. The increase was smallest in the $1,000 to $1,500 group where a 45 per cent advance was noted. This increased to 47 per cent in the $1,500-$2,000 class and again to 53 per cent for those cars selling above $2,500.

Because of changes in models, it is practically impossible to study price variations of some of the most prominent manufacturers. In the following table as nearly as possible the price fluctuations of a constant model have been followed. It should be pointed out that in some cases of greatest increase the manufacturer has developed his car to the point that it has passed entirely from its original price class.

The movement toward lower prices in the industry is unquestioned and further recedes are expected from now until next spring. But manufacturers assert that with the constant increase of motor car refinements the decline can not be so rapid or drastic as in many other fields.

S. Bemrod is expecting a carload of Chalmers in the first of the week. There has been an increased demand for both the Chalmers and Maxwell since the recent price revisions.

AUTO ROW SLOWS UP BUT STILL GOING STRONG; TOURIST TRAVEL LIGHT

In spite of drenching rains which slowed up operations to some extent, business along auto row was brisk and satisfactory, according to reports from many of the local dealers, all of whom were cheerfully optimistic over conditions as a whole. The total of new car sales did not reach that set by the week previous, but this was blamed in large measure on the weather, which confined salesmen to the offices most of the time.

Tourist travel out of the city seems to be rather negligible, if reports to the dealers can be taken as a correct criterion by which to judge, for very few parties of outbound tourists left during the week and, furthermore, there are, at present, no indications of a resumption of this popular summer pastime. Tourist travel through the city will probably be as heavy or heavier than at the same previous year, dealers believe.

FIRESTONE SCHOLARSHIP AROUSES GREAT INTEREST IN HIGH SCHOOL CIRCLES

Various government agencies and national organizations are announcing the "Good Roads and Highway" transport essay contest which is open to all pupils of high school grade. The national prize is a four-year scholarship in the university or college chosen by the successful contestant, the scholarship being offered by Harvey K. Firestone, well known tire manufacturer of Akron, Ohio, and is valued at $4,000, which is sufficient to pay tuition and all expenses at the school.

H. A. Dodson, local dealer, gives further details regarding the contest. He says the essay must contain no more than 500 words. The subject is "Good Roads and Highway Transport," and all essays must be in the hands of the local committee by June 15. School superintendents will be glad to give complete information.

ship offer was responded to by nearly a quarter of a million students," says Mr. Dodson, "the prize being won by Miss Katharine Butterfield of Wabash, Idaho. In addition to winning the scholarship, Miss Butterfield was recently paid the high honor of being called to Washington to receive her certificate at the hands of President Warren G. Harding.

"The idea of this contest is to bring before the pupils and their parents and everybody the urgent need for immediate improvement in the national highway system."

TWO GEESSE TAKE UP WITH 10-MONTHS OLD BOY

Taylor, Texas, June 11.—The unusual attachment of two geese for a 10-months old boy was discovered in Taylor by Major J. A. Brackenridge, who served in the 144th infantry, 24th division. The youngster is Clayton Lattimore, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Lattimore, associate judge of the court of criminal appeals at Austin. The geese—a goose and gander—are the property of Miss Ella Miller, who lives one block from the Lattimore home.

The geese have virtually adopted the boy and stay with him during his daily play hours. They attempt to feed him delicacies of their liking—insects, roots, grass and other geese edibles—bringing them to him and dropping them in his lap or in front of him. Although the geese will allow none to come near them while feeding, they feed contentedly from Clayton's hand.

Every morning the geese appear at the Lattimore home and start squawking and hissing, stopping only when the boy appears. They follow him diligently during his stay outdoors, protecting him from all harm and making vain attempts to show their fondness for him.

The geese had never seen the youngster or been at the Lattimore home until they followed Major Brackenridge and Clayton home one day. The major tried to drive them back and they attacked him, biting and biting at him. He took Clayton in his arms and the geese renewed the attack more forcefully. The old goose tried to protect the boy, spreading her wings over him and making a great fuss. From that day Major Brackenridge watched with interest the attachment of the geese for the boy. Mrs. F. S. Miller, whose husband, Colonel Miller, commanded the 144th infantry in France, corroborated the major's statements. The Millers live across the street from the Lattimores.

Karl Thompson made a quick round trip to Dallas last week.

PANAMA CANAL IS DUE FOR LIMELIGHT FROM TWO SOURCES

COST OF OPERATION GIVEN CONSIDERATION BY SECRETARY WEEKS

QUESTION OF FREE TOLLS FOR AMERICAN VESSELS

Bill to be introduced and pushed vigorously by a group of U. S. Senators.

By MARK SULLIVAN
National Political Correspondent of the New York Evening Post, and the Wichita Daily Times.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 11.—Very shortly the Panama canal is going to come into the news in two ways. It is expected that some senators will introduce and push vigorously a bill for the exemption of American ships from paying toll at the canal. More immediately there is likely to be a good deal of commotion about the cost of operating the canal.

A commission appointed by Secretary of War Weeks, in whose jurisdiction the canal is, is now on his way to Panama to investigate waste and inefficiency in the management of the canal. The beginning of this investigation rests on certain reports which were brought back to the United States by members of a party of congressmen and senators who visited the canal during March. One of the official party, Senator McKinley, of Illinois, was shocked by some things he learned. Senator McKinley is a business man who has operated the canal during March. One of the official party, Senator McKinley, of Illinois, was shocked by some things he learned. Senator McKinley is a business man who has operated the canal during March. One of the official party, Senator McKinley, of Illinois, was shocked by some things he learned.

Claim Pay Excessive.
The broad point made by Senator McKinley is that in 1920, the canal was used by an average of 723 ships per day and that the force of men maintained on the government payroll to put this number of ships through the canal was 17,500. This force consists of, roughly, 4,000 white Americans and 14,000 colored West Indians, in addition to the excessive number of men maintained in proportion to the work done. Senator McKinley and his fellow officials were impressed by the excessive amount of pay given to the workmen.

Back in 1905 about the time the United States began the work of building the canal, health conditions were bad at Panama and it was necessary to give inducements to get men to go there. But now, through the work of General Gorgas, Panama has been made completely healthy and an extremely agreeable place to live, nevertheless, now the scale of wages which were established at the beginning to induce reluctant workmen to go to Panama are still maintained. The basis of the scale of pay in Panama is to give the current rate of pay in the United States, plus 25 per cent, according to Senator McKinley's report, which incited Secretary Weeks to action. Some of the rates now being paid are as follows:

Rates Being Paid.
Bricklayers $1.84 per hour. That

The Musical Grenadiers is said to be one of the most unusual bands in the country. They will give two snappy programs on the second day of the Chautauqua. These programs will include every imaginable combination made possible by the varied talents of the nine artists. A men's organization of this kind can make some wonderful and stirring music and nine men singing as these fellows sing is enough to make even the most critical audience enthusiastic.

The Redpath-Horner Company declares that it has never produced a better uniformed or more thoroughly professional band. The atmosphere which is supplied by a surprising color combination and lighting effect takes the audience off its feet. The program opens with a smash and the whole of the time goes with precision and snap.

means for an eight hour day, the bricklayers get $12.32. Carpenters get $1.33 per hour, electricians $1.36 per hour, plumbers $1.52 per hour, marble setters $1.44 per hour.

In addition to these high wages workmen at the canal get the following free advantages: Two months vacation each year with full pay, free transportation to the United States for vacation, free house rent. Furthermore, the laws of the workmen are cared for by the government. Whenever an employee moves, the government supplies him with free cartage.

According to Senator McKinley, the government spends $400 per year in keeping each house in repair and the total spent by the government for the upkeep of the houses and trimming of lawns was about $500,000 last year.

The two main points which the commission, now on the way to Panama to investigate are the unnecessarily excessive compensation to employees and the disproportion between the amount of use got out of the canal and the cost of maintaining it.

Unnecessary Expense.
Senator McKinley's report makes the point that at Panama there are 893 men on the monthly payroll for lock operation, for putting through an average of 723 vessels per day—whereas here in America in the locks of Sault Ste. Marie, an endless stream of vessels goes through by their own power. There are number of other specifications of unnecessary expense in Senator McKinley's report (including $46,000 alleged to have been lost in one year's operation of a government chicken farm).

In due course, Secretary Weeks' commission will return and report on this matter. Certain western senators intend to press a bill exempting American ships from paying tolls at the canal. It is understood that President Harding very much favors the theory that American ships should be free from the payments of tolls at canal. But between the senate's way of accomplishing this and President Harding's way of accomplishing it, there is something of the same difference that there is between the senate and President

TUESDAY IS FLAG DAY, 144TH ANNIVERSARY OF OFFICIAL ADOPTION STARS AND STRIPES

Next Tuesday, June 14, is the 144th anniversary of the United States flag, which officially came into being June 14, 1777.

It is getting to be more and more of a custom on Flag day to display the national flag from the home or business house, and patriotic organizations in Wichita Falls are urging Wichitans to follow this custom next Tuesday.

Before they adopted a flag of their own, the American colonies had adapted one from the British flag. It had the 13 red and white stripes, but in place of the field of stars the upper left corner bore the English cross of St. George. Some of the colonies had flags of their own after independence was declared. One of these showed a coiled rattlesnake with the warning words, "Don't Tread on Me." A pine tree was the emblem of some of the southern colonies.

The flag as first adopted had a circle of 13 stars, white on a blue field. When two additional states were created, congress increased the number of both stars and stripes, but foreseeing that to keep on adding stripes would give more of a barber pole effect than was deemed suitable, it was later decided to add a star for each new state and to let the number of stripes remain at 13. In this manner the flag as it is known today came into being, with a total of 48 stars, at which number it will probably remain until Texas is carved up into two or more states.

It is not generally known that the American flag is one of the oldest in the world. The official standards of France, Germany, Italy and scores of other nations are all of more recent date.

The origin of the use of flags is not clearly known. Some students contend that it is the assignment of the ancient military custom of commanders carrying long whips which were both the emblem of authority and a means of enforcing authority, when necessary. It is certain that the carrying of banners and flags in battle, whether derived from the use of whips or not, is a very ancient custom. It has practically been abandoned in modern warfare where the sentiment that once attached to it has been waived in favor of military necessity. To use a flag in trench warfare would be to die while carrying it, and there were few flags in evidence in the great battles of the last war.

WHY WE ARE PARTNERS

The Public, the Wichita Falls Electric Company and the Employees of the Company are partners in the enterprise. The interests of the three are so interwoven as to be identical.

The public requires service to the end that this community may grow, develop and prosper. Without the service furnished by a proper, adequate, up-to-date power and light system no community can develop in a modern way.

The employees of this company are interested in the prosperity of the company because such prosperity means better wages and working conditions—more prosperity FOR THEM.

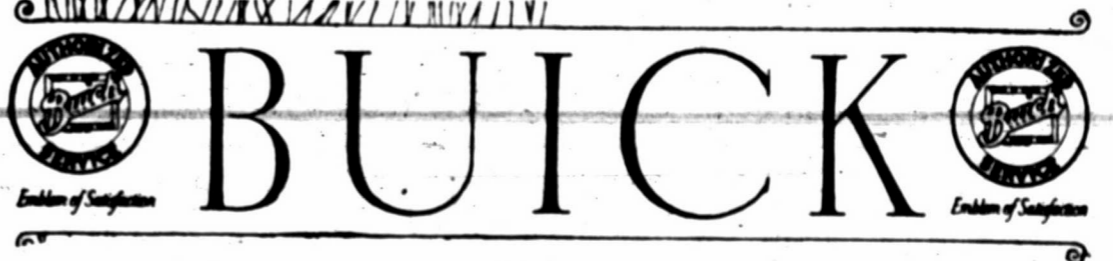

This company is interested in its own prosperity, because upon that depends its ability to attract the constant inflow of new capital needed for it to keep pace with the growth of the community it serves.

Thus, SERVICE, upon which the development of this community is conditioned, the WAGES and WORKING CONDITIONS of our employees and the INTEGRITY of INVESTMENT all DEPEND wholly and solely upon the PROSPERITY of this company.

That is why the PUBLIC, this COMPANY and the EMPLOYEES are PARTNERS, equally interested in the success and prosperity of the enterprise.
