HOUSE VOTES FOR INVESTIGATION OF OIL CORPORATIONS

AGREE TO REPEAL OF EXCESS PROFITS TAX EFFECTIVE JAN. 1921

DECISION REACHED BY REPUBLICANS OF THE HOUSE COMMITTEE

FREIGHT AND PASSENGER TAX TO BE REPEALED

Plan to Increase Normal Income Tax on Corporations Five Per Cent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Agreement for a thirty-day recess of congress beginning August 30, contingent upon passage by the house before that date of the tax and administration agricultural credit bills, was reached today at a white house luncheon conference between President Harding and Senator Lodge and Curtis.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Repeal of the excess profits tax and income surtaxes above 22 per cent, effective as of last January 1, and of all freight and passenger transportation taxes as of next January 1, was agreed today by republicans of the house ways and means committee. Chairman Fordney announced today.

The committee majority also agreed to increase the normal income tax on corporations 5 per cent, making a total of 15 per cent instead of 12 1/2 per cent, as suggested at the White House tax conference last night. A $2,000 exemption on corporations' income was understood to have been retained.

AGREE TO REDUCTION IN EXPENSE TAX AND IN EXPENSES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Reductions of approximately $60,000,000 in taxes and $25,000,000 in government expenditures for this fiscal year were agreed upon today at a conference between President Harding, Secretary Mellon and republican leaders of the house of representatives, including members of the ways and means committee.

Specific tax reduction on which it was announced agreements were reached included:

Repeal of the excess profits tax, retroactive to January 1, $45,000,000.

Repeal of one half of the transportation tax, effective next January 1, $10,000,000.

Repeal of the higher income surtaxes, retroactive to last January 1, $9,000,000.

Repeal of the so-called nuisance and clothing luxury taxes, $5,000,000.

As an offset against this cut of $75,000,000 it was agreed to increase the income tax on corporations by probably 2 1/2 per cent instead of five per cent as heretofore proposed effective as of last January 1, to yield an additional $125,000,000.

Decision was made, it was said, to abandon all new taxes suggested to the house committee last week by Secretary Mellon, including a license on automobiles, a bank check stamp tax and increase of the first class postage rate. Republicans of the ways and means committee are to meet today to draft a new revenue bill on the basis of the various suggestions and leaders said it was hoped to have it ready for a conference of house republicans next Monday. Hope for its passage by the house on August 29 was expressed.

Under the agreement reached at the White House conference, government expenditures this year would be reduced from the previous estimate of $1,575,000,000 to $1,525,000,000 and the income from internal taxes would be cut from $2,575,000,000 to approximately $2,500,000,000 or approximately $75,000,000 less than had been suggested by Secretary Mellon.

This total was agreed upon last evening at a White House conference presided over by the secretary of the treasury, Speaker Gillett, Representative Mondell of Wyoming, the republican and means committee, and other prominent house republicans.

At the same time decision was made, it was stated officially, to cut $25,000,000 from the estimated expenditures for this fiscal year, leaving the total at $1,525,000,000 as against the treasury's estimate of $1,575,000,000. This would be accomplished, it was explained, by somewhat drastic slashes in estimates for the war, navy and agriculture departments, the shipping board and railroad, and the refunding of $75,000,000 of disbursements on account of the public debt.

Chairman Fordney said his committee probably could have the new revenue bill ready for a consideration by a conference of house republicans next Monday and leaders generally thought the measure probably could be passed by the house by August 29, permitting congress to recess on that date for a month.

AUSTIN, Aug. 10.—The Witt-Willis senate bill providing that the court of criminal appeals shall not reverse on technicalities alone was killed outright in the house this morning when a motion to print on minority report was defeated. The bill was reported adversely by a one majority vote with a favorable minority report.

A resolution inviting Mr. Caleb A. Ridley, of Atlanta, Ga., who is scheduled to speak in Austin next Friday night on the Ku Klux Klan, to speak in the house of representatives, was tabled by vote of 12 to 24.

The resolution in no way commended or condemned the Klan, but merely gave Mr. Ridley the use of the house for six days. Representative Patterson, anti-Klan leader in the house, moved to table the resolution.

Speaker Thomas announced the free conference committee on conference with the senate committee on the emergency institution appropriation bill. It is composed of Representatives Quaid, King, Thrasher, West and Adams.

Governor Neff appeared on the floor of the house this morning for the first time this session, taking a seat in the rear and conversing with various members. During the regular session the governor often appeared on the floor, always unofficially and merely talking with various members.

The concurrent resolution by Miller of Dallas proposing a legislative investigation in the midcontinent oil fields of oil corporations as to violation of the anti-trust laws was adopted by the house this morning by a vote of 107 to 9. The resolution now goes to the senate for action there.

SENATE FAVORS PROPOSAL FOR DAVIS MOUNTAIN PARK

AUSTIN, Aug. 10.—The senate adopted a house concurrent resolution providing for the appointment of a commission to look into the feasibility of the establishment of a state park in the Davis mountains in Jeff Davis county, also a preserve for wild animals.

There was passed finally in the senate today the Suter-Witt bill changing the method of the apportionment of the available school fund so that such apportionment shall be made on the basis of actual school attendance of scholars instead of on the basis of school age as is now done.

A bill by Senator Lewis of Grimes to allow John D. Rogers of Walker county to sue the state was defeated in the senate today by a vote of 12 to 24.

The measure came up for engrossment. The amount involved is $28,127. Lieutenant Governor Davidson cast the deciding vote against the measure.

SENATE RECESSES AT 2:30 O'CLOCK THIS AFTERNOON.

GOVERNOR SMALL MAY GET CHANGE OF VENUE FOR A TRIAL OF CASE

STATE ATTORNEY INDICATES A WILLINGNESS ON CERTAIN CONDITIONS

GOVERNOR MUST AGREE TO HAVE A SPEEDY TRIAL

Warrant for Arrest Served Late Tuesday Afternoon and $50,000 Bond Executed

SPRINGFIELD, ILLS., Aug. 10.—State Attorney Mortimer today proposed conditions under which he will agree to grant Governor Small a change of venue from Sangamon county for a trial on charges of embezzlement of state funds for which the governor was arrested by Sheriff Meester yesterday.

The state's attorney offered the proposition after making a long statement in which he extolled the citizenship of the state and the honor of the proposition after making a long statement in which he extolled the citizenship of the state and the honor of the proposition.

That the governor's counsel file a petition for a change in venue and confer with Mortimer in an effort to reach an agreement on some county acceptable to both the prosecution and the defense.

That both sides agree to a speedy trial.

These indictments were returned against Governor Small by the Sangamon county grand jury on July 20, in which he was charged with embezzling half a million dollars of state funds while state treasurer and conspiring to defraud the state of $2,000,000 retention of interest on state funds.

The state's attorney offered the proposition after making a long statement in which he extolled the citizenship of the state and the honor of the proposition.

Mr. Mortimer declared in his statement that the state would not waive its rights to file an answer to the governor's petition for a change of venue but added that under the conditions offered, it would be granted without opposition.

GOVERNOR MAKES BOND IN SUM OF FIFTY THOUSAND

SPRINGFIELD, ILLS., Aug. 10.—Governor Small today made a $50,000 bond on indictments charging embezzlement and conspiracy for three weeks on the plea of executive immunity, or that he was not in office at the time the alleged crime was committed, as stated by his counsel, today finally submitted to Sheriff Meester after a bitter and heated fight in the state capitol with deputies for several hours.

The governor protested his arrest until the afternoon, when he was taken to the county jail and his bond was set at $50,000.

When the sheriff went to the capitol to perform duty as directed by Judge Smith of the county court, Governor Small, attended by several advisers, was in his office and refused to come out until the sheriff's request. He then placed deputies around the building to block any untended access of the governor and set down in the lobby to smother until the chief of police of the commonwealth should decide to emerge.

Crowds gathered around the state house in the afternoon, when the governor appeared within the structure as a flashlights boomed and the high rotunda filled with smoke. But the governor, standing on a high balcony, sending out two lists of appointments during the siege.

As the shadow of Lincoln's monument in the capitol grew long under the declining sun, the chief executive finally sent out word that he would surrender to the county officer at the executive mansion at 5 o'clock if it could be arranged to give bond at once. The capitulation was accomplished by Sheriff Meester, who withdrew under the terms of the agreement.

At 5 o'clock the sheriff with his warrants, somewhat thumb-worn from handling, drove to the governor's home.

"Governor, I am here with the warrants," said Sheriff Meester when he met the governor in the mansion. The sheriff then read the warrants and said: "Governor, you are under arrest."

"Very well, what shall I do?" the governor asked.

G. B. Gillespie of the governor's counsel then produced a bond which had been prepared and asked the sheriff to take the sureties in the mansion, but the latter declined.

"You must go with me to the court house," the sheriff declared.

When Attorney Gillespie was insistent the sheriff said:

"Mr. Gillespie, you are not working for me; you are working for Governor Small. We must go to the court house now."

The governor entered Meester's automobile and went to the court house where bonds were signed by Roy and Harry Ide and C. H. Jenkins. The governor then returned home.

AMERICAN WAR HERO HAS PASSAGE THROUGH HEAD

Boston specialists are puzzled over the strange case of Harry Shanley, American war hero, who has an open passage in his head extending from ear to ear. The former soldier can pass his hand through his head from ear and out the other. He was in France with the Canadian army, when German shells exploded over his head, deafening him. Although his vocal cords remain, physicians have told Shanley he will eventually lose his voice. Shanley can put his hand of paper in his mouth and remove the same from either ear. He is being treated at the Massachusetts Eye and Ear Infirmary.

Two Men Held at Kansas City Make Written Statements to Officers

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 10.—The local police today were holding two men who gave their names as Edward Patton of Portland, Ore., and Louis Gordon of Seattle, Wash., and who late last night made written statements that they were implicated in a $25,000 bank messenger hold-up at the Metropolitan Hotel in Seattle, Wash., July 14, last.

Patton and Gordon, who were arrested at a downtown hotel with Patton and Gordon. The other members of the party, however, police officers do not operate of implication in the hold-up by statements of Patton and Gordon.

There also was in possession of the authorities $4,000 in currency, said by private detectives who caused the arrests to bear serial numbers similar to those on money taken in the hold-up.

BANK MESSENGER HELD UP AT BUSY DOWNTOWN CORNER

SEATTLE, WASH., Aug. 10.—The robbery in connection with which several suspects are held in Kansas City was one of the most daring ever recorded here. It took place at the corner of the busiest downtown corners, Leland High, a bank messenger, with a companion, carrying $25,000 in currency, was stopped by a party of five armed men who snatched a satchel containing the money. Witnesses said two other men were waiting in a car that was standing nearby, its engine running. The four sped away and escaped.

The police recovered several of the stolen $100 bills—identified by their serial numbers—which were put into circulation after the robbery. The license number of the car in which the bandits escaped was obtained by police from a newspaper photographer who went into the car and several days later the car was found abandoned.

AWAIT CONFIRMATION OF SPURGIN'S ARREST

Those Interested at Chicago Surprised at Not Receiving Word from Mexico

EL PASO, Aug. 10.—In a telegram received today signed by the chief of police at Chihuahua, denial is made that Warren C. Spurgin is held in jail at that place. The message says the missing Chicago banker is near Chihuahua City, but has not been apprehended.

CHICAGO, Aug. 10.—Officials of the office in Chicago interested in the capture of Warren C. Spurgin, missing bank president, waited impatiently for word today confirming the reported arrest of the fugitive near Chihuahua City, Mexico, late yesterday. Surprise that they had received no communication from the office in Chihuahua, where police were supposed to have been advised of the arrest, was expressed by W. C. Bruns, Chicago representative of the fugitive near Chihuahua City, Mexico, late yesterday.

"Very well, what shall I do?" the governor asked.

G. B. Gillespie of the governor's counsel then produced a bond which had been prepared and asked the sheriff to take the sureties in the mansion, but the latter declined.

"You must go with me to the court house," the sheriff declared.

When Attorney Gillespie was insistent the sheriff said:

"Mr. Gillespie, you are not working for me; you are working for Governor Small. We must go to the court house now."

RELEASE KILPATRICK WITH FIVE OTHER OF AMERICAN PRISONERS

SOVIET REPRESENTATIVE GUARANTEES OTHERS WILL SOON BE FREE

HITCH IN NEGOTIATIONS PENDING ASSURANCES

Prevents Delay and Possible Abandonment of Proposed Relief for Russia

RIGA, LETVIA, Aug. 10.—A guarantee that all Americans remaining in Russia will be given an opportunity to leave that country if they desire, was offered today by Maxim Litvinoff, soviet representative, at a conference held this afternoon with Walter L. Brown, European director of the American relief administration, over the question of American relief for famine stricken Russia.

Russia has released six of the American prisoners, who have arrived at Riga, Lithuania, but the fact that only this half dozen of Americans were sent out of the country was said today to threaten a long delay, in and perhaps the abandonment of the negotiations for American famine relief for Russia.

Walter L. Brown, European director of the American relief administration, which it has been planned chiefly to administer the proposed famine relief, arrived in Riga while the six Americans were set free and set out of Russia, through Lithuania, and were on the way to Riga, Maxim Litvinoff, the soviet envoy for the proposed negotiations, reached here about the same time.

Director Brown, it is understood, will insist that every bona fide American in Russia, whether in or out of prison, must be given an opportunity to leave Russia before the negotiations can begin. It was thought this forenoon that a conference between Mr. Brown and Litvinoff would be held this afternoon.

Mr. Brown is acting unofficially, but is in touch with the state representative, Capt. Evan E. Young, and has handed him a list of more than 100 Americans still in Russia.

On the Russian side the negotiations are ready to be inaugurated.

Mr. Litvinoff said this morning: "We are prepared to go ahead with the negotiations."

A staff of experts arrived with the Russian envoy. Another member of his party was Theodor Chailin, the great oil expert in America. Russia according to advice received today from Riga, Lithuania, by the Central News Agency here.

There appears to be no means of extinguishing the conflagration, the message added, and the loss of oil will be disastrous and more keenly felt on account of the famine and cholera in that district and the consequent scarcity of labor.

RUSSIAN SOVIET PREMIER TELEGRAPHS RELIEF APPEAL

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Aug. 10.—Nikolai Lenin, the Russian soviet premier, has telegraphed a relief appeal to the socialist newspaper Humanite here in which he predicts that the famine bids fair to approach that of 1921 in severity. He asks that the workers and agriculturalists of other countries come to the aid of Russia as a ready means of aiding the soviet republic.

Several Russian provinces," reads Lenin's appeal, "are afflicted by a famine which apparently will be only slightly less severe than that of 1921. This is a terrible consequence of the backward cultivation of this country and of seven years of imperialistic war and civil war imposed upon the workers and peasants by the landlords and capitalists of all countries. Immediate relief is indispensable.

"The soviet republic of workers and peasants awaits a relief appeal from the workers—the workers in industry and the small farmers. Both are themselves oppressed by imperialism, but we are convinced that notwithstanding their own miseries, their lack of work and the increased cost of living, they will respond to our appeal."

SIX RELEASED PRISONERS HAVE ARRIVED AT REVAL

REVAL, Aug. 10.—A special soviet automobile carrying the six Americans who have been released from Russian prisons, arrived here at 6 o'clock this morning where the American Red Cross will supply them with comfortable clothing to replace their discarded Cossack uniforms and other queer habiliments.

REMOVES LAST LEGAL FORMALITY IN CONNECTION WITH PROJECT; EXPECT EARLY SALE OF THE BONDS

The special irrigation bill requested by the Wichita Falls district passed the house at Austin Wednesday morning by a vote of 113 to 2, according to a message to the Times from Representative B. F. Johnson.

The bill had previously passed the senate and now goes to Governor Neff for his approval, which is considered certain.

Passage of the bill is thought to complete the long list of legal formalities in connection with the big project, and is confidently expected here to be followed shortly by the sale of the bonds.

A Kemp will leave Colorado Springs shortly for New York to see prospective bond buyers and some interesting news may result from his trip east.

He announced that the institute as an incentive to better breeding, had decided to offer cups and ribbons at various livestock shows, including the International Livestock show at Chicago, the American royal livestock show at Kansas City, the national western livestock show at Denver and the southwest fat stock show at Fort Worth. Prizes will be offered for the best bred loads of cattle, sheep and hogs.

SPANISH TROUBLES HAVE SPREAD INTO WESTERN MOROCCO

MADRID, Aug. 10.—Hostilities between the Spanish and Moroccan tribesmen, which have been going on in eastern Morocco for the past three weeks and have resulted in a virtual collapse of the Spanish campaign there, appear to have spread into western Morocco. The Spanish commandant at Tetuan reports that tribesmen on Sunday attacked the blockhouse at Mejas, in the Tetuan district, and that the garrison, after losing several men, was obliged to fall back upon Gouk-el-Arba. The commandant has declared that the incident was not important.

An official statement issued last night relative to the fighting near Meja states that the conflict at Mount Arbat, in the district of Meja, a force of men have been surrounded for several days, has completely ceased, and that the enemy forces in that region appear to be less numerous. Another report received here, however, states that General Navarro's position is becoming increasingly critical. It is said that the Spanish troops can get in by melting ice brought by airplanes. The political crisis which has resulted in the defeat of the Spanish in Morocco continues to be center of interest here. In political centers there is an almost general demand for the establishment of a strong administration that may be capable of handling the critical situation. A parliamentary government, under the presidency of Antonio Maura, conservative leader, is favored.

MUCH OF TENSION OVER UPPER SILESIA HAS BEEN RELIEVED

PARIS, Aug. 10.—Tension over the Upper Silesian question, which was marked when the supreme allied council began its sessions here on Monday, appeared to be materially decreased when the council met today. Yesterday's frank exchange of ideas and the agreement of France, Great Britain and Italy, in principle, to the frontiers to be drawn between Poland and Germany through the Upper Silesia plebiscite area, appears to have cleared the situation and there seemed every reason to believe that the remaining sessions of the council will be featured by the peaceful disposition of other questions. France and Great Britain have at various times shown divergence of policy regarding the Upper Silesia, which have arisen in the Near East, but yesterday's exhibition of conciliation appeared to hold a promise that these two governments, as well as Italy, would agree upon the policy to be pursued relative to intervening in the Greco-Turkish situation and endeavoring to arbitrate the points at issue between those countries. The extent to which the allies would be restricted in the matter of supplying the belligerents with munitions was also one of the interesting points to be considered today. Russian matters are still to be discussed by the council and it is probable that the letter written by Pope Benedict, invoking success for the famine-stricken districts of Russia, may be laid before the council during the present meeting.

BIELIAN QUESTION IS PUT TEMPORARILY ASIDE

PARIS, Aug. 10.—The allied supreme council put the Silesian question, now apparently near a definite settlement, temporarily aside today while awaiting the reports of the experts engaged in drawing the new boundary line between Germany and Poland in this area, agreed upon in principle between France and England yesterday. The experts informed the council that they expected to be ready to present their conclusions, embodying the complete frontier line, by 7 o'clock this evening. Thereupon the council decided that meanwhile it would discuss the Greco-Turkish situation and German disarmament questions. In taking up the former subject the council decided unanimously to adopt an attitude of strict neutrality in the Greco-Turkish war without interfering with trading by private firms with either of the belligerent countries. Ambassador Harvey said this decision was in conformity with the policy of the United States previous to its entering the world war and he concurred in the council's finding.

MEXICO TAXES OIL FOR MONEY TO PAY THE NATIONAL DEBT

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 10.—Revenues derived from the export tax on petroleum during the month of July will be deposited within a few days in the Banco Nacional de Mexico, President Obregon told newspaper men last night. He said the money would be immediately applied toward the payment of the national debt. At the treasury department it was said the tax on oil sent out of the country during the past month would total more than two million pesos. President Obregon emphasized the fact that the money derived from these taxes would be devoted to the retirement of Mexican bonds held in other countries and to the payment of interest upon them, and he said the amount would be increased monthly.

WOMAN WAS AFRAID SHE'D NEVER RECOVER

After Suffering Fifteen Years
Houston Woman Is Soon
Restored to Health

"It is the most wonderful thing I ever saw the way Tanlac took hold of my troubles and restored me to health," said Mrs. Addie Bryan, 2115 Crockett street, Houston, Texas. "I had suffered agony for 15 long years and was told that an operation was the only thing that would save me, and none of my people thought I would ever get up again. This is the very condition I was in when I began taking Tanlac. I suffered all the time with indigestion and my appetite left me entirely. For there was nothing I could eat that wouldn't torture my stomach and bring on an awful spell. I just dreaded to see bedtime come, for it only meant another night of restless misery to me and I grew thinner and weaker every day. The last spell I had kept me in bed for two whole weeks, and that was when they said I would have to be operated on, for there was no hope for me. I was in despair myself, for everything else had been done for me and every medicine that we had found had failed to help me. "I tried my first bottle of Tanlac as an experiment and it improved me so much I kept on taking it. My appetite came back and my digestion is perfect. I sleep like a child every night, my rest strengthens me and I have already gained 15 pounds in weight. All my nervousness has disappeared and I'm happy to think what Tanlac has done for me. It certainly is the best medicine ever made." Tanlac is sold in Wichita Falls by Miller drug store, in Electra by Tarleton drug store, West End Drug company, Burkburnett, Texas, and by all leading druggists. (adv.)

He has been searching for gold in this region for a quarter of a century. He first attracted attention when he staked the famous claim No. 16, Eldorado, in Klondike camp. JUDGE WELDON ORDERS THAT AUTOMOBILE BE RESTORED TO STEVENS

A mandatory writ of injunction was granted by Judge H. F. Weldon of the 20th district court late Tuesday evening in which the judge ordered that an automobile now in the hands of Charles Bebout be restored to R. H. Stevens, who filed the suit.

In his petition Mr. Stevens contends that on or about August 9, 1921, he was the owner of one 1921 Ford roadster, but that Mr. Bebout, a representative of an anti-theft automobile association, seized the car, alleging that it was a stolen car. The plaintiff claims that he has a bill of sale for the car and that by reason of the car being seized that he has been damaged to the extent of $3,000.

PLUMBER COMPLAINS THAT HE IS ATTACKED

Trouble is Reported to Have Resulted Over Controversy Involving Material

P. G. Williams, a local plumber, appeared at the police station early Wednesday morning in a bloody and disheveled condition and filed complaints against three men who, he alleges, attacked him earlier in the day. Bob Elliott, one of the proprietors of the Elliott Supply company, Sixteenth and Lamar streets, was arrested by Officer Howell and charged with affray.

The attack was reported to have been made at the Elliott company office and is said to have come up over a controversy involving some plumbing material which Williams had purchased from the supply house. In his statements to the police he declared that three men had beaten him, one of whom, he said, hit him with a metal pipe.

The case will be tried in police court Thursday.

MURPHY DECLARES AUDIT UNNECESSARY, BUT DOESN'T OBJECT

County Auditor W. W. Murphy, when asked with reference to the order of the commissioners' court of last Monday with reference to an audit of the county affairs since 1917 stated that although he was not present at the time this order was passed, he had no objections to an audit of all departments but that if such an audit was made he would insist that it be made by a local concern.

In speaking on the matter further he stated: "I do not, however, see that much good is to be accomplished by an audit, as the county auditor is required by law to audit all departments of the county, which has been done regularly covering the period from 1917 to the present time.

"The county auditor does not handle the county's money, and a contract for an audit is not an audit well against the county treasurer until an account has been presented to the commissioners, and examined and approved for payment by them.

"Since the county auditor would have nothing to gain by making regular audits of the various departments, it is no reason why the commissioners court should spend $10,000 at this time for a special audit. However, if it is permissible under the laws, and a contract for an audit is let, I shall welcome the audit, as we have a system of bookkeeping and accounting that we are proud of and would be very glad to have the criticism and comments of the findings by any reputable auditing concern."

Forces Youths to Chase Rabbits and Drink Corn Liqueur

Chasing jack rabbits is a lot of sport but the task takes on a different aspect when one is compelled to do it with a pistol barrel following your movements. It isn't the fun to take a drink of whisky voluntarily but it is sure is awful when you are forced to it.

This is the story told by four youths as to what happened at Arcadia park Tuesday evening about sundown. According to their story the pistol was in the hands of a local oil man and he had the boys doing all kinds of stunts until the law interfered.

The man was tried in the county court at law Wednesday morning before Special Judge I. Bibb and found guilty of the charge of carrying a pistol. He was fined $150. Immediately after the trial in the county court he appeared before the justice of the peace and paid a fine for drunkenness.

Legion Auxiliary To Make Pajamas For Camp Logan

The Woman's Auxiliary to the American Legion was permanently organized at a meeting held Tuesday afternoon at the Salvation Army canteen. It was unanimously voted to remain in the temporary officers permanently. The report from the nominating committee is as follows: Mrs. A. H. Carrigan, president; Mrs. Joe E. Hatchett, vice president; Mrs. R. C. Thaxton, secretary; Mrs. T. R. Brunson, treasurer, and Ma Burdick, chaplain.

Following the announcement of the election of officers, Mrs. Carrigan, who has served for the past several months in the capacity of president, and who was one of the main factors in the organization of the local unit, made a very touching talk in accepting the office of permanent president.

Bulletins were read from state headquarters showing that the Wichita Falls auxiliary is still receiving honorable mention for the valuable services they are rendering.

A letter was read which had been received from Ma Burdick who is visiting in Houston. In this letter Mrs. Burdick states that there is a great need for pajamas for the boys in the Camp Logan hospital. The only pajamas issued by the government are made of a heavy, coarse material which the sick boys find very uncomfortable in this hot weather.

The members of the auxiliary decided to spend the day Friday in making pajamas to send to Camp Logan, and they urgently request every woman and young girl in Wichita Falls who can possibly do so, whether they are eligible for membership in the auxiliary or not, to come to the Salvation Army canteen to assist them. Machines and materials will be furnished, but the women are asked to bring their own scissors, thimble and needle. Picnic luncheon will be served at noon, each woman being asked to bring her own lunch.

The secretary of the local unit announces that anyone who is eligible for membership in the auxiliary will be heartily welcomed into the organization. This includes not only residents of Wichita Falls, but also women living in the county. Mothers, wives, daughters and sisters of men who were killed during the war or who are members of the American legion are eligible to membership in the auxiliary.

LATEST STYLE BY LENORE

The simple dinner dress in the sketch is so full of charm and that agreeable sense of being "right" that there is no wonder the lady carries it with such an air of serene assurance.

With its simple foundation of black satin and graceful loosely gathered lace ruffles, it is quite one of the nicest models shown for dinner and theatre wear. It has been copied in black, grey and brown—the lace dyed to match. But please, if you decide on brown, be certain it suits you for no color is more full of peril for faded hair and dull, lifeless skin and eyes.

SIXTY-FIVE AT HEALTH CENTER ON WEDNESDAY

Perhaps the largest crowd of babies and pre-school children that have ever been in attendance at the Red Cross clinic were brought in on Wednesday morning. Twenty-three mothers from various parts of the city brought in 17 babies and 25 children over 2 years of age.

Those who telephoned to the Health Center to have their children examined home after being examined. Drivers for this week were Mrs. T. F. Hunter and Mesdames L. F. and W. F. King. On Wednesday Mrs. D. J. White and Mr. C. J. Shumake furnished cars and drove them.

Mrs. Tully registers the children as they are brought in, and as they leave they are weighed and measured, and the food they require to bring them to the correct weight.

W. C. Heath & Co., has pledged a donation of $1 per month for the benefit of the clinic.

The interest which the mothers are manifesting in the assistance which they may receive is very encouraging to those in charge. One mother having heard of the attention which her child needed from the Health Center walked two miles to bring it to the clinic for examination.

The regular physicians and Misses Dorsey and Quincy, the Red Cross nurses, were in attendance on Wednesday.

The clinic will be open as usual on Wednesday, August 11, and all mothers who are interested are urged to bring their children for attention.

JUBILEE'S PARDNER

by Judd Morimer Lewis
Illustrations by Edna

When I had let Jubilee down this morning by the rope in his teeth it was raining so I did not go downstairs right away and I thought I might as well practice being an actress and I got up on the footboard of my bed and tried turning over in the air. I done pretty good for the first time, and the second time I done a little better and almost landed on my feet and then I thought maybe I could do it better backwards and I tried that, and I do not know what would have happened if one of the slats had not come out of my bed, because I came down square on my head, and now I have got a stiff neck, and when I got up my father was standing in the door with his hands on his hips and he said "Till tell the world I am darn glad you ain't twiss!"

Then he told me to put on my pants and get out and milk the dummed animal and to do it quick, but just then Mr. Farrie's auto began to make funny noises and I clumb out of our window on the roof and run up the peak so I could see what it was doing and then it went sailing out of the yard and I saw my father go out and look in our barn and then he turned and come in the house and I clumb down by the fence as fast as I could and me and Jubilee hiked into our barn and gave the cow and her datter some hay and went in the house to get the pail and my father had just come downstairs and he wanted to know where I had been and I said I had been having the cow and her datter, and he looked kinda funny but did not say anything about it, so me and Jubilee and the cat went out and milked.

When we went in everybody was eating because my father was afraid he was going to be late for work and him and my uncle went off together, and I went out and skun out through the main door and when we was up in the slippery elum tree Banty said he bet he could climb down it head first, so I held his feet till he got his arms around the tree and then he said he didn't believe he could do it, but he had bragged so much I thought I would make him do it anyhow, so I turned his feet loose and he went down the tree so fast and hit the ground so hard that I could almost see the stars flying around his head and now him and me has both got stiff necks and he says it is my fault. BILL IS INTRODUCED PROVIDING A CENTRAL PENITENTIARY PLANT

DESIGNED TO MEET RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE COMMITTEE

GOVERNOR REFUSED TO SUBMIT THE QUESTION

Numerous Provisions Suggested to Improve Management of State Prison

AUSTIN, TEXAS, Aug. 10.—Whether action is taken on the recommendations of the special session of the legislature, a bill for a central penitentiary plant is before the assembly for consideration.

Carrying out the recommendations of the investigating committee, Senator Hertzberg of Bexar county has introduced a bill in the special session seeking to apply these recommendations. The bill was also introduced in the house by Representative Ter of Williamson county, a member of the committee.

Despite the fact that Governor Neff refused the request of the committee to submit the recommendations for action by the special session, Senator Hertzberg held that the matters could be considered by the session because the governor had opened the way to penitentiary legislation when he submitted the request of the prison commission for approximately $300,000 to operate the system for the next fourteen months and to liquidate old debts of the system.

The Hertzberg bill follows: "The main penitentiary of the state of Texas, located at Huntsville, and the following farms belonging to the penitentiary system of Texas: Wynn farm, Gorse farm, Eastman farm, Ferguson farm, Shaw farm, Clemens farm, Darrington farm, Ramsey farm, DeRive farm, Imperial farm and Blue Ridge farm, shall be abandoned as prison and prison farms and shall be sold in such manner and upon such terms as shall be fixed by the commission herein created.

Sufficient land shall be purchased with the funds realized from the sale of said main penitentiary and prison farms for the said prison farm and the erection of a modern penitentiary plant, all of said land to be in one body, not to exceed 5,000 acres, said land so purchased to be located within 75 miles of the city of Austin, Texas, and said land for said penitentiary site to be purchased by the commission herein created.

The main penitentiary of the state of Texas, located at Huntsville, and the following farms belonging to the penitentiary system of Texas: Wynn farm, Gorse farm, Eastman farm, Ferguson farm, Shaw farm, Clemens farm, Darrington farm, Ramsey farm, DeRive farm, Imperial farm and Blue Ridge farm, shall be abandoned as prison and prison farms and shall be sold in such manner and upon such terms as shall be fixed by the commission herein created.

There shall be installed in said penitentiary system and plan proper equipment for vocational training for all white male prisoners under the age of 25 years and there shall be at least three different characters of said vocational training.

There shall be established by said commission at some point in close proximity to said central prison a modern prison building, sufficient to care for the female convicts of the state of Texas, said plant to be properly equipped for vocational training for women.

There is hereby created a commission of three persons, consisting of the lieutenant governor of Texas, the speaker of the house of representatives of Texas and the land commissioner of Texas, who shall be known as the Texas penitentiary relocating commission. Said commission is hereby empowered to offer for sale and to actually sell said main penitentiary at Huntsville and all of said farms belonging to the penitentiary system of Texas, either in whole or in parts, for cash or upon such terms and conditions as they may determine, and they shall immediately after the passage of this act determine upon a general policy and proceed to dispose of said land and improve it under said plan as rapidly as possible. The proceeds of said sales shall be reinvested by said commission in the purchase of a new site for a central penitentiary plant, as herein provided for, to be located within 75 miles of the city of Austin, Texas, and to consist of not more than 5,000 acres of land. The commission shall, however, not be compelled to wait for the proceeds derived from the sale of said lands, if same shall be sold by them on deferred payments, but said commission may, as soon after the passage of this act as shall seem proper to them, contract on behalf of the state for the erection of said buildings and improvements and for such equipment as may be necessary for a modern, fireproof penitentiary plant for the state of Texas and to have under its control and direction the erection of said buildings and improvements on said site and the installation of all equipment and machinery for the purpose contemplated by this act.

In relocating said penitentiary and while disposing of said land the commission shall hold back sufficient farms and buildings to house the prisoners of the system until the relocated plant is ready to receive said prisoners and said farms so held back for housing said prisoners shall, as soon as prisoners have been transferred to the relocated prison, be sold as the other farms and properties by said commission.

For the purpose of establishing and erecting said prison plant, the relocating commission is hereby by their empowerment to use such convict labor as may be necessary to erect said buildings and perform such other labor as may be necessary in laying out and establishing said plant and the board of prison commissioners of Texas shall, upon requisition by said relocating commission, furnish such convict labor.

The relocating commission shall make its first report to the first succeeding session of the 37th legislature, to be held hereafter, if any shall be held, and if not, to the regular session of the 38th legislature.

Upon the completion of said plant, same shall be turned over to the management and control of the board of prison commissioners of Texas and nothing in this act shall be construed to interfere with the management and control of the prisoners of the prison system of the state heretofore vested in said prison commission, but during the erection of said plant as herein authorized and provided for, the prison commission shall have complete control of the treatment, feeding, clothing and management of the prisoners of said system.

Said relocating commission is further empowered to inaugurate and install such plants as it may see fit for producing or manufacturing as it may deem to be the best interest of the state of Texas and in which producing or manufacturing the convict labor of the penitentiary system may be best adapted to.

The members of the Texas penitentiary relocating committee shall be paid all traveling expenses while engaged in their duties hereunder. The lieutenant governor of Texas and the speaker of the house of representatives of Texas, as members of said relocating commission, and while not actually serving the state in any capacity incident to their respective offices for which they are entitled to and do receive compensation, shall receive as compensation the sum of $10 per day while actually engaged in performing their duties as members of the relocating committee.

The measure closes with an emergency clause.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Opposition to the administration bill for funding about $500,000,000 debts for the railroads developed openly today before the senate interstate commerce committee.

Senator LaFollette, republican, Wisconsin, started fire on the bill. Director Meyer of the war finance corporation defended it vigorously as a measure for general countrywide as well as railroad rehabilitation and denied the senator's charge that it was a loan or handout.

Senator LaFollette inquired deeply into the origin of the legislation. Mr. Meyer said he personally conceived the plan without suggestion from anybody. His plan, he said, was approved by President Harding, Secretary Mellon and Secretary Hoover.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Troops at Camp Pike, Ark., have been ordered to move in preparation for abandoning the cantonment, Secretary Weeks announced today.

The troops will begin moving to new posts as soon as possible after September 1. The same order applies to Camp Meade, Md.; Devens, Mass.; Sherman, Ohio; Grant, Ill.; Jackson, South Carolina; and Bragg, North Carolina.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—The American Sugar Refining company today passed its dividend of $1.75 on common stock but declared its regular quarterly dividend of $1.75 on preferred.

The stock immediately broke three points to 62, the lowest level of the year.

A statement issued by Earl D. Babbitt said that since the crisis a year ago in the sugar industry the company has been without adequate earnings on its refining operations. Its income from investments has decreased also. Meanwhile, it has taken losses on inventory and by reason of repudiation of contracts for sugar sold to the trade.

POLICEMAN KILLED AND THREE ARE WOUNDED BY POSSE THROUGH MISTAKE

MEMPHIS, TENN., Aug. 10.—A telephone message from Collierville, a suburb, shortly after noon stated that one Memphis policeman was killed and three wounded by a posse of sheriff's deputies which fired on them in mistake for bandits who earlier in the day shot and killed two police officers and wounded another after an unsuccessful attempt to rob an employe of the Ford Motor company here of a bag containing $8,500.

The men killed were Polk E. Carraway, policeman, and Howard L. Gamble, a special agent of the Ford company. W. C. Harris, a policeman, was wounded. Gamble and E. E. McHenry, a clerk, were confronted by four men when they reached the entrance of the plant and ordered to hand over the bag. McHenry darted into the building without releasing the catch and was fired on by the bandits. Gamble and the two policemen, who were near the plant, returned the fire and in a running fight Gamble and Carraway were wounded fatally and Harris was shot in the shoulder. The bandits escaped in an automobile.

Spudders Make Clean Sweep of Shreveport Series, Winning 7 to 2

By PAUL W. LARKIN.

The Gassers said good-bye to Athletic park yesterday afternoon for the season of 1921 and the Billy Smith left the orchard his face was wreathed in anything but smiles. And he had good reason to feel as he prepared to leave. The season had been a success. A final playoff at his charges, the victors assuming the form of a 7 to 2 sweep for them. Yes, sir, poor Billy almost wept as he had high hopes of going back to Louisiana with his club well up in the race and ready to hop onto the top rung at a moment's notice. But it was not to be. It will take a much better aggregation than that from Shreveport to stop the Spudders, and it is doubtful whether the latter would ever lose another game were they to continue playing as well they did yesterday.

Most of Billy's weeping came in the fifth chapter. When the chapter opened the count was knotted at one apiece and "Mollie" Craft, if not exactly starting, amount of success with his chucking. But "Mollie" decided to make a dizzy ascent in this regard and Hollohan also chose this frame to come through with a costly miff. Before the debris was cleared away the Spudders had chased the tallies across the pan and had tucked their ninth consecutive win away.

Jim Sewell, who has long had the Indian sign on his front door, was the flier who was nominated by Salm to clean up the series. Jim got into several difficulties during the course of the fray, but his comrades worked behind him like a bunch of big leaguers and simply would not let him lose the game. Tanager, who was quizzed by Jake Miller broke into the limelight with starting plays while a perfect peg from right by Cecil Griggs in the opening batter kept the Gassers in their cages.

Buddy and Tex also had great days with the willow, each garnering three safeties. When the leader, Tanager, half of the sixth they found Moore facing them for the second time in as many days and the Spudder counting was quickened to a terrific pace. Moore tried to sneak one more run across the first inning he faced them, but that was all. He had things his own way thereafter. The detailed score will show how it all happened:

First Inning—Shreveport grounded out, Sewell to Stow on the left field, Bascher, Tanager made a brilliant stop of Ewoldt's grounder and threw him out at first. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Wichita Falls—Bascher cracked one at Craft who threw him out at first. Tanager tried a double to deep center but was stopped by a moment later when McDonald, who had just returned from the bench, threw him out at first. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Second Inning—Tanager threw out Jackson. Eibel singled to center and took second while Clark and Works were disposing of Hollohan. Long singled to right, a terrific peg by Griggs catching Eibel at the plate. No runs, two hits, no errors.

Wichita Falls—Clark led off with a two bagger against the left field fence, took third on Miller's sacrifice. Craft to Hollohan, and scored on a squeeze play. Griggs going out, Eibel was struck. Wood started, Long singled while Craft held the ball, but Kitchens' best was a weak pop to Ewoldt. One run, one hit, no error.

Third Inning—Henry began a base on balls and a victim of a double killing which came on Craft's hit, Tanager to Clark to Works being the official report of the play. Stowey went on, Clark to Works. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Wichita Falls—Sewell fanned, Bischoff, who had relieved Bascher in the second, fouled a bunt in front of the plate and was thrown out by Henry. Tanager doubled to Eibel. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Fourth Inning—Shreveport—McDonald threw out Hartford. Ewoldt singled to center and took third when Jackson doubled to center field. Eibel was purposely passed, filling the bases. Hollohan grounded to Sewell who threw to the plate, forcing in Long. Long singled down the third base line. McDonald made a brilliant stop and threw, forcing Jackson at the plate. No runs, two hits, no errors.

Wichita Falls—McDonald singled to right and was forced at second by Clark. Ewoldt to Hollohan. Miller stole second after Griggs had pegged to Hollohan. Ewoldt threw out Works. No runs, two hits, no errors.

Fifth Inning—Shreveport—Henry singled to left, the hit being held to one base, by Bischoff's fast throw. Henry was in succession, the latter's blow scoring Henry and putting Stowey on third. On an attempted sacrifice play Ewoldt missed the ball, Stowey being tagged out on the line by Kitchens. Ewoldt then went out via the park to Works route. One run, three hits, no errors.

Wichita Falls—Kitchens walked and took second on Sewell's sacrifice. Craft to Eibel. Bischoff hit out an infield hit to Ewoldt. Kitchens making third from where he scored when Tanager singled to right. Bischoff went to center, scoring Bischoff and putting Tanager on second. Both runners advanced a station while Hollohan was retiring Clark. Jake Miller then hit an easy pop up which Hollohan caught under and dropped after catching it fairly. MARINES ADD NEW BLOOD ON EVE OF SPUDDER SERIES

The Hampats arrived today, determined to break their vengeance on the Spudders. They were not in a most pleasant frame of mind after dropping two straight to the Panthers and they could see nothing but red. Announcement was made to the effect that a new third sacker named Krigbaum had been purchased from the Mineral Wells club of the T. O. League who will relieve Decker. Decker came to the club well touted, but failed to make the boat and has been turned back to Mineral Wells. The purchase of Krigbaum, Shangling from the Moose Jaw club of the Western Canada league was also announced. Patterson is leaving no stone unturned to bolster up his club as the Dallas fans are now pennant mad.

A new league record was set there in the Panther series when the two clubs played to 26,392 people in four days.

The Marines have just emerged from their hardest series of the year, while the Spudders have been going along smoothly for a couple of weeks, winning games without any apparent exertion on their part. Whether the strain of two hard series will tell on the Hampats will soon be known, though it is hardly likely as they are hustlers and do not know the meaning of the word "quit".

The addition of Bobby Stow has bolstered up the club wonderfully. Martin Smith has done creditable work for his employer, but he is not in Stow's class. In fact, very few are. Bobby's work between second and third last year is well remembered by the fans, and practically everyone predicted that the Panthers were done when he went to Atlanta. But Jakey ate took a man who couldn't do anything with the Marines and who is now topped a peer in the Texas League.

Many Good Ball Players.
However, Bobby Stow isn't the only real ball player on the Marine club. "Big News" Jim Galloway at the initial corner would not do anything when it comes to fielding his position and a more dangerous man with the club can not be found in the circuit. The big field leader of the Hampats is a popular man around the circuit and one who commands the respect of all with whom he comes in contact.

Eddie Palmer at second base is one of the old soldiers of the Texas league, but Eddie can still show the young ones a trick or two. He goes better against the Spudders than any club in the league and has a very mean habit of breaking up ball games with his club at Athletic park. The same holds true in Dallas. Eddie must have a grudge against our fair city as he is anything but a genial guest at the hot corner in the person of Krigbaum, and he is more or less an unknown quantity. Dallas critics have nothing but words of praise for him and, as he has not worked around the circuit yet, their word must be taken for it.

Falk, Munson and Mattick in the outfield compose a trio that will be hard to beat anywhere. All are dangerous hitters and can field with any in the league.

Robertson and Wilson behind the bat take care of some of the best hurling that has been seen in the Roberts loop for some time. In "Lefty" Swartz, Tipple, Harper, Hill and Conley, Ham has a quintet of hurlers who will hold their own any place. The latter is easily the best fielding pitcher around the circuit and is also the best hitting pitcher.

Spudders Have Edge.
But, despite the good ball players on the club, it is hard to see where they have a thing on our Spudders. There isn't a big sacker in the league playing better than the Spudders.

An O. HENRY Story

The Octopus Marooned

By O. HENRY

"ONCE," said Jeff Peters. "And the state seal of New Jersey never bit into a charter that opened up a solid and safer piece of legitimate octopus. We had everything in our favor—wind, water, police, nerve, and a clean monopoly of an article indispensable to the public. There wasn't a trust buster on the globe that could have found a weak spot in our scheme. It made Rockefeller's little kerosene speculation look like a bucket shop. But we lost out."

"You remember I told you that me and Andy Tucker was partners for some years. That was the great talented conniver at stratagems I ever saw. Whenever he saw a dollar in another man's hands he took it as a personal grudge, if he couldn't take it any other way. Andy was educated, too, besides having a lot of useful information. He had acquired a big amount of experience out of books, and could talk for hours on any subject connected with ideals and discourses. He had been in every line of graft from lecturing on Palestine with a lot of magic lantern pictures of the annual Custom-made Clothes' Association convention at Atlantic City to flooding Connecticut with bogus wood alcohol distilled from nutmegs."

One spring me and Andy had been over in Mexico on a flying trip during which a Philadelphia capitalist had paid us $2,500 for a half interest in a silver mine in Chihuahua. Oh, yes, the mine was all right. The other half interest must have been worth two or three hundred thousand. I often wondered who owned that mine, and how it came into my hands. It was in the United States me and Andy stubbed our toes against a little town in Texas on the bank of the Rio Grande. The name of it was Bird City; but it wasn't. The town had about five hundred inhabitants, mostly men. I figured out that their principal means of existence was in living close to tall chaparral. Some of 'em were stockmen; some gamblers and some horse speculators and plenty were in the smuggling line. Me and Andy put up at a hotel that was built like something between a roof-garden and a sectional bookcase."

"Now, there were three saloons in Bird City, though neither Andy nor me drank. But we could see the townpeople making a triangular procession from one to another all day and all the night. The third day of the rain it slacked up awhile in the afternoon, so me and Andy walked out to the edge of town to view the mudscape. Bird City was built between the Rio Grande and a deep wide arroyo that used to be the old bed of the river. The bank between the stream and its old bed was cracking and giving away, when we saw it, on account of the high water caused by the rain. Andy looks at it a long time. That man's intellects was never idle. And then he unfolds to me a instantaneous idea that has occurred to him. Right there was organized a trust, and we walked back into town and put it on the market."

"First we went to the main saloon in Bird City, called the Blue Snake, and bought it. It cost us $1,200. And then we dropped in, casual, at Mexican Joe's place, referred to the main, and bought him out for $500. The other one came easy at $400. The next morning Bird City woke up and found itself an island. The river had busted through its old channel, and the town was surrounded by roaring torrents. The rain was still raining, and there was heavy clouds in the northwest that presaged about six more mean annual rainfalls during the next two weeks. But the worst was yet to come."

"Bird City hopped out of its nest, waggled its pin feathers and strolled out for its matrimonial foot. Mexican Joe's place was closed and likewise the other little 'dobe life-saving station. So, naturally the body politic emits their ejaculations of surprise and portis helium for the Blue Snake. And what does it find there?"

"Behind one end of the bar sits Jefferson Peters, octopus, with a six-shooter on each side of him, ready to make change or corpses as the case may be. There are three bartenders, and on the wall is a ten-foot sign reading: 'All Drinks One Dollar.' Andy sits on the safe in his neat blue suit and gold-banded cigar on the lookout for emergencies. The town marshal is there with two deputies to keep order, having, been promised free drinks by the trust.

"Well, sir, it took Bird City just ten minutes to realize that it was in a cage. We expected trouble; but there wasn't any. The citizens saw that we had em. The nearest railroad was thirty miles away; and it would be two weeks at least before the river would be fordable. So they began to rumble amiable, and throw down dollars on the bar till it sounded like a selection on the xylophone."

"At the fashionable hour of noon everybody went home to dinner. We took the bartender to take advantage of the lull, and do the same. Then me and Andy counted the receipts. We had taken in $1,200. We calculated that if Bird City would only remain an island for two weeks the trust would be profitable. The Chicago University with a new dormitory of padded cells for the faculty, and present every worthy poor man in Texas with a farm, provided he furnished the site for

"Andy was especial roared by self-esteem at our success, the rudiments of the scheme having originated in his own surmises and premonitions. He got off the safe and lit the biggest cigar in the house. 'Jeff, say, I don't suppose that anywhere in the world you could find three cormorants with brighter ideas about down-treading the proletariat than the firm of Peters, Satan and Tucker, Incorporated. We have sure handed the bird in every line of graft in the sole appetitive region. No?'"

"Well, says I, it does look as if we would have to take up gastritis and golf or be measured for kilts in spite of ourselves. This little town is, verily, all to the Skibo. And I can stand it, says I. I'd rather batten than bant any day."

"Andy went into the back room awhile and came out dressed in his best clothes. There was a kind of murderous and soulful look of gentle righteousness in his eye that I didn't like."

"In less than an hour Andy's skate had turned to an ice yacht. He went out to the pier and managed to preserve his aquarium, but inside he was impromptu and full of unexpectedness."

"I'm the crater of a volcano," says Andy, "and I'm all aflame and crammed inside with an assortment of words and phrases that has got to have an exodus. I can feel millions of synonyms and parts of speech rising in me says he, and I've got to make a speech of some sort. Drink says Andy, 'always drive me to oratory. I've got to get this oral distension assuaged or it may turn in on me and I'd go about feeling like a dejected edition de l'oe of Mrs. E. D. E. N. Southworth.'"

"Well, Andy, says I, if you are bound to get rid of this accumulation of vernacular suppose you go out in town and work it on some indigent citizen. Me and the boys will take care of the business. Everybody will be through dinner pretty soon, and salt pork and beans makes a man pretty thirsty. We ought to take in $1,500 more by midnight."

"So Andy goes out of the Blue Snake, and I see him stopping men on the street and talking to 'em. By and by he has half a dozen in a bunch listening to him; and pretty soon I see him waving his arms and elocuting at a good-sized crowd on a corner. When he walks away they string out after him, talking all the time; and he leads 'em down the main street of Bird City with more men joining the procession as they go. It reminded me of the old legend that I'd read in books about the Pied Piper of Helmstedt charming the children away from the town."

"One o'clock came, and then two; and three got under the wire for place; and not a Bird citizen came in for a drink. The streets were deserted except for some ducks and ladies going to the stores. There was a light breeze falling from the west, and a homesome man came along and stopped in front of the Blue Snake to scrape the mud off his boots."

"Pardner, says I, 'what has happened? This morning there was hectic gaiety, merriment, and now it seems more like one of them ruled cities of Tyre and Siphon where the lone lizard crawls on the walls of the main porticulis.'"

"The whole town," says the muddy man, "is up in Sperry's wool warehouse listening to your sidekick make a speech. He is some gray on delivering himself of audibly sounds relating to matters and conceptions," says the man.

"Well, I hope he'll adjourn, sine qua non, pretty soon," says I, "for trade languishes."

"Not a customer, did we have that afternoon. At six o'clock two Mexicans brought Andy to the saloon lying across the back of a burro. We put him to bed while he still muttered and gesticulated with his hands and feet."

"Then I looked up the cash and went out to see what had happened. I met a man who told me all about it. Andy had made the finest two-hour speech that had ever been heard in Texas, he said, or anywhere else in the world."

"What was it about? I asked. 'Temperance,' says he. 'And when he got through every man in Bird City signed the pledge for a year.'"

Women On Pleasure Bent Insist Upon Keeping Floating Lace Veils in Fashion. They Know It Adds to the Picturesque Quality of a Hot Weather Costume. So They Have Invented Odd and Pleading Ways of Making It Different From What It Has Been.

The tailor-made woman looks her worst in whatever floats, dangles, drips. For her type the straight severe line is imperative. She must be in shipshape condition throughout her life. She has not the chance to hide carelessness in dressing or personal disorder by a multitude of accessories which the other kind of woman keeps in bureau drawers, boxes, closets.

The severity, the cleanliness, the glittering order of a man-o-war are for her. Possibly, being a woman, it might be more graceful to compare her to a yacht. If she understands her type, this tailored woman, her life is simplified. If she misunderstands it, if she puts desire and theory above truth and fact, she is in the wrong.

Do you remember what the girl said to the clown in Locke's novel, "The Mountebank" when urging him to find his luck through knowing his type, by accentuating its defects and never failing to live up to them? He made her remember, through following this advice.

It is thus that the dressmakers should talk to women. The tailored type has a difficult time in choosing clothes, because of her limitations, but she can arrive at actual distinction by accentuating her type, by being proud of it, and assuming that it has distinction.

But not for her the floating veil, the coquettish jewelry, the bracelet above the elbow, the dangling nose over the eyes. These are the things for the slim woman throwing her effeminacy before and around her as a swinging rose throws its perfume. It is her type—and it is in the majority—that has kept the floating veil in fashion. She does not imitate in it the majesty of the Arab who gave the inspiration to this device; she imitates the coquetry of Spanish women who took the long lace drapery from the mad, mad Moors on their white horses and made it the symbol of feminine mystery and romance. She has tired of the veil in its primitive condition. She no longer desires it to float down her back. She feels that it needs character, that it should be made to appear different from what it has been. So what does she do? She draws up its folds and catches them to the right shoulder with a long bar pin glittering with colored stones; then she runs a bracelet up her arm, nearly to the shoulder so all the world may see she has matched her two pieces of jewelry.

Of course these accessories are green if it is possible for the woman with the floating veil to secure them; that color has caught the world by the throat. Emerald, jade, quartz, crystal, it's all the same, except to the purse.

An unusual way to wear a veil which is of taupe-colored lace with long and caught on shoulder with emerald bar pin. Green bracelet worn above elbow matches the pin.

"What's In a Name?"

By MILDRED MARSHALL
Facts About Your Name; Its History; Its Meaning; Whence It Was Derived; Its Significance; Your Lucky Day and Lucky Jewel.

NELLIE.
THERE is considerable room for doubt in assuming that Nellie is a derivative, or a contraction, of stately Eleanor. Though some etymologists claim that the former name is evolved in the lengthy process between the original Helen and the final Lina, there are two other sources from which Nellie might well be sprung without such a formidable history of derivation.

The Dutch have a name which they call Nelle, meaning "horn," which is pronounced the same as our Nellie and might easily be the direct progenitor of this popular little name. For those who reject this derivation there is the German Nelli, which has wide vogue in all countries under teutonic influence. It evolved through the quaint English Petronella, a feminine name given in honor of Saint Peter.

The first Petronella was said to have been his daughter. For that reason the name was exceedingly popular in Spain as Petronilla. In Norway it made its appearance as Petronille and was shortened to Nille, a name which corresponds very closely to our Nellie. The historians of Nellie's talismanic gem. It will preserve her health and protect her from diseases, especially from those which affect the blood. Tuesday is her lucky day and I her lucky number.

A DREAM of an umbrella is a rather mixed omen if the mystic interpreters may be believed. The scientific, psychological interpreters of the preudian school also pay considerable attention to umbrellas seen in dreams, regarding them as symbolic manifestations. The mystics say that an umbrella is a sign of vexations and petty quarrels which the dreamer will be called upon to undergo. In this they seem pretty well agreed, but predict nothing of a serious nature from the dream.

To dream of lending an umbrella is a prediction that the dreamer will have his confidence in some one whom he has trusted destroyed, and to dream of borrowing an umbrella indicates that the dreamer's distrust of a friend or acquaintance will eventually bring about an estrangement. One who dreams that a storm turns his umbrella inside out will suffer, or is already suffering, vexations from others who are trying to belittle him. To dream that you are walking in the rain with an open umbrella over your head is a rather favorable omen as it indicates that you will bear with equanimity the aspersions of your enemies and will suffer no harm from anything they may say against you. For a young lady to dream of an open umbrella is a sign that she will soon have a new admirer. But it would be better for her to remain faithful to her old lover if she has one.

Today's talismanic gem is the coral. It is believed to be especially lucky for those who are ill, bringing them strength and vitality, and also to protect those who grow tired easily or are in fear of contagious diseases. However, an unbroken bit of it must be worn, since if broken the coral loses its mystic powers. The amethyst is the natal stone of those born today; besides endowing its wearer with common sense and sobering one who is inclined to be too frivolous it is believed to have great curative powers. In olden times it was sometimes crushed and given as a powder to those who were ill. Coral pink is today's color, and is attributed with power to bring its wearer strength, health, and great powers of resistance. Most appropriately, today's flower is the scarlet geranium, which brings friends and gaiety to the household which it adorns.

Youthful Marriages

A GIRL of fifteen writes me that she is very much in love with a boy of seventeen, and that they are planning to elope as their hard-hearted parents refuse to let them be married in the conventional manner. And she wants to know if I think she will be happy.

Not a chance of it, my dear! It needs no prophet to foretell that if you marry at fifteen you will be divorced at twenty, and that just about the time when the other girls of your age are having their coming-out parties you will be crawling in, broken-hearted and ashamed, to the home you are so eager now to leave!

The only certain thing about a child marriage is that it is bound to end in disaster, and bring lifelong regrets to the two poor, silly young creatures, who gambled with their lives before they were old enough, and wise enough, to realize the risks they took, or how hazardous is the matrimonial game, and what skill and finesse it takes to play a winning hand in it.

Of all the follies that any human being, male or female, can commit, none equals the supreme idiocy of a very youthful marriage because it lacks every single, solitary thing upon which it is possible to build a house of happiness, or out of which you can construct a binding tie between a man and woman.

It lacks love. It lacks money. It lacks congeniality and suitability. It lacks self-control and experience of the world. It lacks satiety of the pleasure, of youth. It lacks the desire to settle down and be about the business of life that is the real bed rock of domesticity.

Of course any young girl who thinks she is in love will scorn me when I tell her that chicken love is the most ephemeral thing in the world, and that like the dew on the rosebud, it vanishes while we are still looking at it. Nevertheless, it is true, and because you like to dance with some boy whose step matches your own, or you dream about the way he slicks his hair back, or you thrill when he kisses you good-night and holds your hand at the movies, is no sign you entertain a deathless affection for him.

Consider, my dear, the things you raved over last summer. Recall the boy at the beach that you thought just too cute for anything. Remember the sandaurs you doted on, the frocks you were crazy about. How you despise them now! You smile with pity at the unsophisticated girl you were then. How your tastes have changed; improved! And how favor of letting this country have the exclusive use of the air of "My Country 'Tis of Thee." He did not care for the sentiments expressed in at least one of the verses of the national anthem that was always played when he appeared in public. In fact, it was said that he wished to have Dr. Watts' stirring hymn "O God Our Help in Ages Past" substituted for it on formal occasions.

But, owing to the conservatism of the public, this was never done. Perhaps they associated the familiar air so much with the long reign of Victoria that they did not care to change.

While the World War was going on objection was made to the singing of "Yale's" famous song, "The College Year," to the tune of the "Wacht Am Rhein."

In fact the class of 1920 went so far as to offer a prize for a new air to be fitted to the old words. When the matter was brought to the attention of the Alumni advisory board recently that body suggested that the corporation decline gratefully the offer of "Ninety-nine," and this advice was taken.

It is easy to understand why Yale men should not care to sever such a link with the past. The song would hardly be recognizable if set to new music. Besides it would be difficult to get a satisfactory substitute.

But the real explanation is still more to the point. Since the Declaration of the Armistice there has been a "Watch on the Rhine" kept by Americans and American flags have been flying from the castles overlooking the haunts of the Rhine maidens of the ancient legends.

So it will be natural to think of the new watch, instead of the first one, whenever Yale men gather together for any sort of celebration.

As a matter of fact the "Wacht Am Rhein" did not become popular in Germany until some time after the close of the Franco-Prussian War. It did not represent the spirit of the armies that had been led by the old King and by Von Moltke. It was, on the other hand, an expression of the new spirit that was to bring about in 1914 the invasion of Belgium and the fighting which should end in the Argonne Forest and Belleau Wood.

A precedent for retaining the air is also to be found in the case of "America" which is sung to the air of "God Save the King" that fell into unpopularity in America round about the time of the Boston Tea Party and the pulling down of the statue of George III at Bowling Green in New York.

WE SHAPE THE ROAD.

The home, the shop, the school, the church, the town—
We either lift them up or drag them down.
Their fame impair, or give them new renown.

Lives unaffacting life we cannot live:
The world around us is so sensitive
That some impression each will others give.

We cannot live alone; our lives will touch.
The things around us, and will make them such
As we are, be we little, be we much.

The home is happier or home is sad,
The shop complaining or the labor glad,
Because our part in each we each have had.

The scholars make the school; and they who kneel
Make up the church; the citizen, ideal,
If high or low, decides the common weal.

In town and church, school, shop, and man's abode,
Each footprint helps to shape for all the road.
Friend, do you help or hinder with the load?

LAVISHNESS VS. VULGARITY.

There is but one step between the lavish and the contemptible. To entertain our guests by offering a bountiful repast is but a sign of hospitality, but to ask them to a table that groans under the weight of more food than could possibly be eaten at a meal, expensive flowers and priceless silver is to show ourselves lacking in good breeding.

When foreigners—as not infrequently happens—leave this country with the impression that wealthy Americans are vulgar, it is because they have been entertained with over lavishness. They have sat through thirteen course dinners, at which every dish offered was worth enough to feed a workman's family for a week, and every dish that was not hot-house grown was imported from over the sea.

Such Americans corn on the cob is delectable only in mid-winter, and strawberries and tomatoes are never worth eating save when the snow flies.

In England more than here it is considered absolutely ill bred to make a point of serving dishes out of season, and in this prejudice at least the English manner is better than ours. It took the European war and our entrance into it for American hostesses to learn that lavishness was silly if not wicked.

Already the results have been excellent. The many-coursed dinner is entirely out of vogue. So, too, is the afternoon tea that is as bountiful as an old-fashioned dinner and much more elaborate. Well-bred hostesses are no longer serving bouillabaisse, patties, salads, French pastries and ices at afternoon receptions. For the afternoon bridge party or other entertainment the rule among leading women in every community is either for no refreshments or a "one-course" refreshment. If an ice is served, then there is no salad before it, if hot chocolate is selected then there would be merely wafers or small cakes, and if tea or coffee is served a light sandwich would complete the refreshments.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 1, 1922.—The House of Representatives today passed a bill to amend the act of March 3, 1907, known as the "Hurd act," which provides for the construction of a national system of roads.

One of the principal features of the bill is the provision that the roads shall be built and operated by the federal government, and that the roads shall be open to all.

The bill also provides that the roads shall be built and operated in a manner that will be most economical and efficient, and that the roads shall be open to all.

The bill is expected to pass the Senate in the near future, and will become law if it is signed by the president.

The bill is a landmark in the history of the automobile industry, and will have a profound effect on the way in which roads are built and operated in this country.

TRAFFIC SIGNALS TO BE INSTALLED ON BUSY CORNERS

AUTO DEALERS REVIVE MOVEMENT STARTED BY THEM SOME TIME AGO.

WILL EXPERIMENT ON SCOTT INTERSECTIONS

Extend to Other Streets Later—Commissioner Fitts May Name Dealers Special Traffic Officers.

Traffic signal posts will be installed on three of the downtown street corners within a few days' time, according to information gleaned Monday from the traffic committee of the Wichita Falls Automotive Dealers' association which, in collaboration with the police department, is backing the movement for better traffic conditions in the city. Metal sign posts will be placed at the Scott street intersections of Eighth, Ninth and Tenth streets for the time being and if these prove satisfactory 12 others will be constructed and placed at all principal corners in the business section.

The campaign for better traffic was launched by the dealers' association several months ago and a committee composed of Carl Waeider, Milton Gaines and E. V. Leslie appointed to confer with police officials in regard to the matter. After considering the situation from all angles, the committee recommended that the association finance the placing of signs at advantageous points throughout the city. The advisability of the police department furnishing traffic cops at specified times during the day was also considered, but nothing has come of this.

It was learned Monday, through the committee, that 19 local auto dealers were to be appointed special deputies by Police Commissioner J. R. Fitts, these men to act as traffic directors on such occasions as their services might be needed.

The metal signs, it is said, will be built at a local foundry and will be of bell shape construction so that when struck and knocked down by passing cars they will right themselves, unharmed. Plans for the posts are now being worked out by Voelcker & Dixon, local architects.

SUPPOSED MAD DOG IS KILLED THURSDAY AFTER BITING CHILD

A stray dog, believed by many to have been suffering from rabies, was killed in Floral Heights Tuesday afternoon, after it had bitten Fred Taylor, aged eight, son of Mrs. Myrtle Taylor of 2204 Park.

The dog's head was severed and turned over to Dr. W. F. Lowry, city health officer, who will send it to Austin for examination for hydrophobia. The dog was running loose in the vicinity of Tenth and Park at a time when many of the children of that neighborhood were out playing in their yards, and it caused much alarm by its actions. It is said to have snapped at a number of children, but bit only one.

Leeman Taylor, a son of 15, brother of the boy who was bitten, killed the dog with a 22-caliber rifle after it had created a near-panic in that part of the city.

It is thought that the Taylor boy was bitten before the animal went mad, but no chances are being taken on that score.

REDISTRICTING BILL PUTS WICHITA WITH 7 OTHER COUNTIES

The passage by the senate at Austin Tuesday of the senatorial redistricting bill is expected to result in a new alignment of senatorial districts by 1924. A similar bill had already passed the house, and while the two measures do not coincide all points, it is considered very probable that they can be reconciled.

The bill puts Wichita county in with Hardeman, Ford, Knox, Wilbarger, Daylor, Archer and Young counties and is considered much more satisfactory from this county's standpoint, than some of the other proposed districts. There are nine west Texas districts under the new bill, as compared with only five under the existing arrangement. The chief injustice done to west Texas by the bill is that it is not to become effective, if the state senate has its way, until April 1, 1924, but it is possible that this feature will be eliminated before the bill is finally passed.

All of the counties in the twenty-third district which includes Wichita county, are in this city's trade territory, most of them are oil counties, and all have much in common with Wichita county and with each other. The twenty-second district is designed to include Montague, Jack, Wise, Denton, Palo Pinto and Parker. The twenty-fourth, which adjoins the twenty-third on the south, consists of Scurry, Fisher, Jones, Haskell, Shackelford, Stephens, Eastland, Callahan, Taylor, Nolan, Mitchell and Throckmorton. West of the twenty-third district, beginning with Childress county, is the thirty-first district, which includes all of the Panhandle.

GIFT OF 2 BUFFALO IS MADE BY WICHITAN TO OLD HOME TOWN

Through the generosity of Reese S. Allen, local oil man, the city of Sedalia, Missouri, his old home, has received two buffalo, a bull and a cow, which it is hoped will provide the start for a state herd of buffalo for Missouri.

Mr. Allen made the gift in connection with the Missouri centennial celebration, to be held this year.

The buffalo are from the Goodnight ranch in the Panhandle and were shipped recently. Mr. Allen was largely instrumental in preventing the Goodnight ranch falling into alien hands several years ago.
