BOUNDARY CLAIMS IN EVIDENCE

COTTON ADVANCES ANOTHER $10 BUT IT LOST THE GAIN

ARRESTS EXPECTED IN CONNECTION WITH ROBBERY OF TRAIN

TEXARKANA, TEXAS, Sept. 7.—Arrests are expected today in connection with the holding up of Kansas City Southern north bound train No. 2 last night seven miles south of this city. Officers claiming to have information which they consider sufficient to warrant arrest in the event they can locate a quartette of well known young men.

The four masked bandits are supposed to have boarded the train at Bloomingburg, Texas, and when the train approached the bridge across Sulphur River, seven miles south of this city, covered the engine crew, forced the disconnection of the mail car and compelled the engineer to pull this car to a point within two miles of the heart of the city, where the bandits left the train and escaped in a waiting automobile.

The officers learned this morning, they said, that late yesterday four young men, two of them well known to the police, visited a local garage in an automobile, had all tanks filled, as though in preparation for a long drive, and left in the direction of the scene of the holdup.

Physical authorities have not as yet given out any information as to the probable loot obtained in the robbery, though they admit the men secured "everything of value in the car."

The use of a gas bomb with which to force the mail clerk to open the mail car leads to the belief that one of the robbers had been in the chemical section of the army, officers said.

NO DETAILS OF ROBBERY YET RECEIVED BY P. O. INSPECTOR

AUSTIN, Sept. 7.—No details of the Kansas City Southern mail car robbery near Texarkana on Tuesday night have been received here this morning, George M. Sutton, postoffice inspector in charge for Texas and Louisiana, announced. Notice of the robbery has been received, however, and inspectors have been ordered by him to report to the scene of the bandit activities. Inspector Sutton stated.

QUELL REVOLUTION ON THE HONDURAN FRONTIER

MANAGUA, NIC., Sept. 7.—Prominent and energetic action by the Nicaraguan government in sending 2,000 well equipped troops to the Honduran frontier has completely quelled a revolutionary uprising there. The revolutionists had captured several small villages but were forced to flee into Honduras, where General W. W. Woodruff and the Honduran army has captured five lieutenants, 17 colonels, 26 captains, 45 lieutenants and 1,200 soldiers. It is declared that if the revolution had not been promptly suppressed it would eventually have involved several Central American republics.

WAXAHACHIE PHYSICIAN IS VICTIM OF SHOOTING

WAXAHACHIE, TEXAS, Sept. 7.—Dr. Charles W. Ray, aged about 25 years, prominent physician here, was shot and almost instantly killed shortly before noon today in his office. "Bill" Harris, a painter, surrendered to Sheriff W. F. Forster, but he did not make a statement. Dr. J. B. Jenkins received a bullet wound in his arm while pleading with Dr. Ray's assailant not to shoot, officers said.

TO DISCONTINUE DEALING IN INDEMNITY CONTRACTS

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—The Chicago board of directors today adopted an amendment to the rules of the association providing for the discontinuance of dealing in indemnity contracts. The vote was 54 to 41.

RAIL AND WATER LINES AUTHORIZED TO REDUCE RATES TO TEXAS POINTS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Rail and water carriers were authorized by the interstate commerce commission today to reduce rates on the Atlantic coast to Texas points by way of Galveston. The commission thereby reversed its former case in the case in which it had held that such reductions were not justified except in certain particulars.

Rates and practices of the Morgan line are subject to the provisions of the transportation act to the same extent as are the railroads. On this ground the commission decided that it became necessary to permit the Morgan line to reduce its rates to meet those of the Mallory line, over which the commission had no control, in order to enable the Morgan line to compete with the Mallory.

Is Afraid Wife Will Get Away

DALLAS, Sept. 7.—A young woman, claiming to be the wife of a prominent Dallas physician, appeared at police headquarters today and requested that officers ask her husband to stop tying her at night. "Insanely jealous," the woman asserted, the husband ties her "twist to his wrist and his ankle to her ankle each night before retiring because he fears she will desert him. A fishing line is used, she declared.

"We had a quarrel recently," she told officers, "but I haven't the least idea of deserting him and his actions annoy me considerably."

WELL-KNOWN BANKER DIES AT WACO AFTER LONG ILLNESS

WACO, TEXAS, Sept. 7.—W. T. Watt, 78, wealthy banker and planter, died at his home here today after a long illness. He organized the Provident National bank here in 1890. He retired several years ago.

ASSEMBLY OF THE LEAGUE POSTPONES BOLIVIAN QUESTION

ACTION TAKEN AT REQUEST OF THE RECENTLY ELECTED PRESIDENT

GENEVA, Sept. 7.—The assembly of the league of nations at its session this morning postponed again discussion of the request of Bolivia that the disputed question of the provinces of Tacna and Arica, now under the administration of Chile, be placed on the agenda of the assembly. The discussion was put over until a later date on the suggestion of the new president of the assembly, H. A. Van Karnebeek, the Dutch foreign minister.

When today's session opened Augustus Edwards, head of the Chilean delegation, took the floor and declared that the request of Bolivia ought to be rejected without debate. In an eloquent speech Senator Edwards defined Chile's position as uncompromising on this point. He recalled that the president of Bolivia had declared he would respect the treaty of 1904 between Chile and Bolivia, revision of which Bolivia has asked the assembly to take under consideration.

The incompleteness of the league to revise the treaty of 1904 was the principal argument of Senator Edwards' speech. He declared the covenant of the league of nations provides for the revision of a treaty only if the parties to it "can anyone pretend that this treaty, under which we have lived in peace for seventeen years, is inapplicable?" he asked.

He characterized the action of Bolivia as a "maneuver" to escape the obligations of a treaty concluded in due form.

Carlos Aramayo, head of the Bolivian delegation, then presented Bolivia's viewpoint, declaring the treaty was the result of 29 years of pressure. "That treaty," he cried, "is not only inapplicable, but it is, in fact, unapplied. There can be no honor for me in signed peace in South America so long as that treaty remains unapplied."

He proposed that Bolivia's application for revision of the treaty be referred to an investigation and report. He claimed this procedure would be regular under the rules of the assembly.

ASSEMBLY LEADERS DISCUSS THE BOLIVIAN CONTROVERSY

By Associated Press.

GENEVA, Sept. 7.—Leading figures in the assembly of the league of nations this morning in an effort to reach an understanding with Bolivian and Chilean delegates relative to the Bolivian request for revision of the treaty question, placed upon the agenda of the present meeting of the assembly, Carlos Aramayo, head of the Bolivian delegation, in South America, said that it seemed that no definite conclusion was reached.

Bolivia has indicated she would request that the league refer to a commission the question as to whether it was competent to revise the treaty before the success and renewed endeavor. President Van Karnebeek said that the president of the assembly had refused to give any assurance that the question would be referred to a commission. President Van Karnebeek told Senator Aramayo the assembly could not take the question of revision of the treaty as a precedent for possible revision of the Versailles treaty and would cause grave alarm in France and Germany.

During the conference the president of the assembly made an effort to have Bolivia consent to an indefinite postponement, but he failed to succeed and renewed endeavor was made to give any assurance that the question would be referred to a commission. President Van Karnebeek said that the president of the assembly had refused to give any assurance that the question would be referred to a commission. President Van Karnebeek told Senator Aramayo the assembly could not take the question of revision of the treaty as a precedent for possible revision of the Versailles treaty and would cause grave alarm in France and Germany.

ALLIES ARE INFORMED OF NEGOTIATIONS WITH GERMANY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—The American government has taken steps to advise the allied powers fully, although informally, as to the negotiations in Berlin which culminated in the drafting of the peace treaty between the United States and Germany.

While officials declined today to reveal the nature of the American communication to the allied governments, the expectation was expressed that they would bring from each power a statement of its views and approval of the treaty.

REMARKABLE GAINS BY STATE OF TEXAS IN INDUSTRIAL WAY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Manufacturing census figures for Texas, issued today, show the state made vast gains industrially during the five-year period between 1914 and 1919. The number of establishments was increased from 5,084 to 5,714 and the value of their output, less cost of the raw materials, increased from $106,135,000 to $298,825,000, a gain of 179 percent.

The number of persons engaged in the various industries rose from 31,114 to 121,389 while invested capital was increased from $282,546,000 to $588,797,000 and pay rolls increased from $44,821,000 to $116,543,000.

The total value of the products of Texas factories was close to a billion dollars, the exact figures given being $995,990,000.

CHARGES HE HUGGED AND KISSED TOO MUCH

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—Charging that he hugged and kissed her too much, Mrs. Mildred H. Hedin has filed suit for divorce here against Victor H. Hedin. She said she chose an affectionate husband because she was naturally of an affectionate disposition.

LANDIS MAKES A SLIGHT REDUCTION IN CHICAGO WAGES

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—Building trades workers were given slight wage decreases and new working rules were set up in an arbitration decision Judge Landis handed down today. The decision opened the Chicago territory to all contracting firms and, according to contractors and union men, opened the way to renewal of millions of dollars' worth of construction. A top price of $1.24 for fireproofers and $1.30 for bricklayers against the former hourly rate of $1.25 was fixed by the decision, which affects about 50,000 workers.

SITUATION QUIET IN FLUOR SPAR CAMPS

Recent Reports of Difficulties Contradictory and Real Extent of Trouble Not Known

HARRISBURG, ILL., Sept. 7.—Latest reports from Harrisburg and Jacksonville, Ill., indicated that conditions were quiet in the Fluor Spar camps, where there had been trouble between mine before owners or in fear of various reports of recent difficulties were so contradictory that the real extent of violence could not be defined.

King George is staying at Moy Hall, near here, and his presence in the immediate neighborhood is looked upon as most ominous, possibly before a few days the king will have a particularly influential role in the work of handling the Irish question.

Mr. de Valera had apparently served notice in Dublin yesterday that such an ultimatum would be tantamount to a declaration of the state of war which has been in force in Ireland for the last two months. He stated that an ultimatum would be the imposition of force and would mean war, not peace.

It seemed to be established that numbers of miners and members of their families had left the mining towns either before the outbreak or in fear of violence. District Attorney F. O. Ward is investigating the various stories, but he has as yet obtained no specific evidence of violence of a concerted nature.

PRISONER REMOVED TO DALLAS COUNTY JAIL

Fort Worth Officers Take Precaution Against Possible Violence

DALLAS, Sept. 7.—Willis Todd, arrested in connection with the killing last week of James McNeal, Fort Worth service car driver, was brought here by Fort Worth officers last night and lodged in the Dallas county jail. His removal here was said to be a precaution against possible violence.

MINNESOTA FOREST FIRES UNDER CONTROL

To Investigate the Circumstances Surrounding the Burning of Village Tuesday

McGRATH, MINN., Sept. 7.—Fires burning in the district near Onamia, Hillman and Johnsdale early today were reported under control by state national guardsmen and citizen volunteers.

Fire fighters in the Solana section also were holding their own, although at one place the flames covered a five-mile front toward Artyde. Two hundred and fifty men were concentrated there back firing. A sudden wind would endanger twenty families still in the Solana region, and to connect State military authorities today were preparing to investigate the circumstances surrounding the burning of the village of White Pine yesterday.

Adjutant General W. F. Rhinow expressed the opinion that the fire was of incendiary origin, notwithstanding that a forest fire was burning at the outskirts of the town.

According to General Rhinow the wind had been blowing the flames of the forest fire from the town and he was unable to understand how the village caught fire.

WHEAT MARKET TAKES A SUDDEN ADVANCE AND SETS NEW HIGH MARK

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—The wheat market took a sharp upturn shortly before noon today with prices at a new high mark. The prospective production of 20,000,000 bushels in the Australian crop as compared with last year induced a great deal of buying as the market construed it as indicating a tightening in the world's supply and demand situation. September touched $1.20; December, $1.32; and May, $1.28. These prices were 2 1/2 to 3 cents higher than the opening today.

HEIR TO FORTUNE UNDER OLD WILL

ZION, ILL., Sept. 7.—Under the terms of a will made 145 years ago and just discovered, John Taylor, railroad auditor, will share half an estate of $25,000,000 in Holland, his attorneys announced today.

Peter Taylor, the great-grandfather, was born in Scotland but went to Holland in 1709 and amassed a fortune. He died, leaving a will which was not to be opened for 100 years, according to Taylor's attorneys. The will, made 145 years ago, was recently discovered by Amsterdam lawyers, John Taylor and a brother, Peter Taylor, of Scotland are said to be the only heirs.

CABINET APPROVES THE BRITISH REPLY TO IRISH LEADERS

ACTION AT MEETING WEDNESDAY MORNING WAS UNANIMOUS

By Associated Press.

INVERNESS, SCOTLAND, Sept. 7.—The British cabinet at its meeting here today unanimously approved the reply of the government to the late note of Eamonn de Valera, the Irish republican leader. The reply was handed to Bert Lorton, the Irish minister, who started for Dublin at 4 o'clock this afternoon with it.

By Associated Press.

INVERNESS, SCOTLAND, Sept. 7.—Settlement of the Irish question appeared to hang in the balance when members of the British ministry met Prime Minister Lloyd George here today. It was said the ministers were not all in agreement as to the best method of procedure to be adopted, some favoring further exchange of notes with the Irish. Others were said to be proposing that a virtual ultimatum be sent Eamonn de Valera, giving him and his colleagues a fixed time in which to accept or reject the British offer of dominion status for Ireland.

Mr. de Valera had apparently served notice in a statement issued to the press in Dublin yesterday that such an ultimatum would be tantamount to a declaration of the state of war which has been in force in Ireland for the last two months. He stated that an ultimatum would be the imposition of force and would mean war, not peace.

CONVENTIONS OF UNITED STATES OKLAHOMA AND TEXAS BROUGHT OUT AT OKLAHOMA CITY HEARING

Staff Special to The Times.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 7.—Here is the true, ancient and lawful boundary between Texas and Oklahoma, insofar as it affects the northwest field, if the contention of Oklahoma and the United States should be upheld.

Beginning at the foot of the bluff south of Burk Bet Island, a short distance up stream from the Grandfield bridge, and following along the foot of the bluff through the Isaacson and T. E. & L. surveys; then along the row of sand dunes about 250 feet north of the bluff through the Elizabeth Stone survey; then along the foot of the bluff through the William Rivers survey to the mouth of the creek.

The Oklahoma would take a line of about an acre each of the Michna and J. B. Evans properties, about 230 acres from Mrs. Lilla Morgan, and from 20 to 30 acres from C. T. Taylor and S. L. and M. Fowler, on the "Oklahoma" portion of the Morgan land there are now 26 remaining sections.

The extent of Oklahoma's claim was made clear Tuesday afternoon when Major Charles Miller, government river surveyor in 1919, his testimony a long time in his expert opinion, the south river bank was at the time of the signing of the treaty between the United States and Mexico in 1819. He had been summoned in the case and immediately directed to appear before the grand jury.

ATTEMPT IS MADE TO KILL DETECTIVE

Was Active in Exposing Alleged "Whiskey Ring" Operating in Chicago

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—Investigation of an alleged "whiskey ring" unearthed, according to federal authorities, when a call of whiskey shipped from Cincinnati was seized here, centered today around an alleged attempt yesterday to shoot Colonel M. G. Labee, a private detective.

Labee is said to have given government officials information that led to the exposure of the whiskey dealers and later to the indictments returned against a number of them. Labee claims shots were fired at him from the home of a man said to be connected with the deal.

With the arrest yesterday of Robert Welland, a prohibition agent, government officials asserted they had uncovered another liquor scheme which involved a number of prominent businessmen of saloon keepers. Federal agents said there were indications that the total amount extracted from saloon keepers by the alleged process of extortion would total $60,000.

FAVORABLE REPORTS RECEIVED FROM THE DISTURBED DISTRICT

CHARLESTON, W. VA., Sept. 7.—The 26th infantry early today awaited special trains to carry it back to Camp Dix, N. J., when the troops came last week for duty in the Logan-Boone district, where disturbed conditions obtained at that time. The chemical warfare service, which arrived with the 26th, expected to remain during the day at Edgewood arsenal, N. J., its home station.

Favorable reports continued to come from the Spruce Fork ridge region. They indicated that the operation of mines was being resumed and that federal troops were experiencing a difficulty in maintaining order.

TUNNELS WILL CONNECT BANKS WITH FEDERAL RESERVE INSTITUTION

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—Tunnels connecting downtown banks with the federal reserve bank are being planned here to prevent street holdups of bank messengers, it was said today. The first to be constructed will connect the Illinois Trust and Savings and Merchants Loan and Trust and Corn Exchange National Bank, it was said.

SIMMS TELLS OF HIS VISIT TO PRESIDENT OF CANTON REPUBLIC IN SECOND ARTICLE ON CHINA

(The crux of the disarmament problem rests in China. William Philip Simms, famous war correspondent, who has been investigating Chinese problems and conditions for the Wichita Daily Times, tells in this story, the situation in south China, which has separated from the Peking government and elected its own president of China, Dr. Sun Yat-sen. More articles will follow.)

By WM. PHILIP SIMMS
Written Expressly for the N. E. A.

CANTON, CHINA, Sept. 7.—This is the story of a story—an interview with Dr. Sun Yat-sen, president of the republic of Canton and of China—providing he can make the foreign powers see it the same way he does.

From the Shamen, an island in the Pearl river where in common with other foreigners, I made my base, I made the journey across Canton by chair. Three almost naked coolies carried it, the distance being about four miles, through streets so narrow that when corners were turned the leading coolie sometimes was forced to enter open front of a native shop to allow the boy bringing up with the rear to swing into the thoroughfare.

Now and then the sides of the sedan scraped the very walls while the jam of pedestrians brushed my elbows in the few inches of free space left them. Chinese shops of every imaginable variety bordered the way and odors of just as wide a range assailed the nose.

It took some 30 minutes to make the distance. It could have been done in less but for the crowds.

Presently the coolies emerged from the man-made jungle into a new, wide avenue. In front of me was a great gate in a high wall—a fancy gate like one seen in a Chinese picture and with colors in it like Korean Cloisonne. Beyond it, on either side, stood a sentry—first of a series guarding the seat of the military government of Canton.

For this was it—the headquarters of Dr. Sun Yat-sen's government.

The buildings were none of them more than two stories high. They covered an area large as a city square. The walls were whitewashed and the roofs were of a deep maroon—almost black—tile.

Through the fancy gate the coolies headed at a dog-trot, the sentries paying little attention to us as we went by.

Occidental Oriental.

Ahead of me was a long vista of covered walk with narrow, white-walled barrack-like buildings crossing it about every 150 feet. The walk went right on through the buildings, emerging each time into a courtyard where tropical trees grew high and let fall a very grateful shadow on the greenest of green lawns. An odor of jasmine, sweetest of all flowers to those who love the heavy perfumes of southern climes, filled the place.

After crossing two courts and passing through two of the cross-buildings, the coolies sat me down. I stepped out.

"Want to see somebody," said a pleasant voice behind me.

The speaker was a Chinese, but so Occidentally mannered and dressed that he required two looks to be sure. He might have been an American business man, a middle westerner at that.

"Dr. Sun, please?"

I asked to see Mr. Quo Tai-chi, formerly of Columbia university, now high up in the foreign office under Dr. Sun Yat-sen.

Mr. Quo, it was agreed, was to arrange my interview with the Canton president.

"He is in Shanghai," the Occidental Oriental replied in perfect English.

Here was a pretty howdy-do! I had come a long way to get the interview and the man who was to introduce me had been suddenly called away. Something, though, had to be done. I took out a card.

"Dr. Sun, then," I said, quite as if he were my buddy.

The middle western-looking Chinese took the bribe and turned to an attendant dressed in hot-country khaki and said something in the vernacular. Here was a pretty howdy-do! I followed which I did, down the walk. He opened a door into the left wing of the next transverse.

Lilies and Marigolds.

The room I now found myself in was about 60 feet long by 40 wide. The walls were of vertical planks, painted white. From the ceiling hung electric light wires, at the ends of which were solitary bulbs. A very inexpensive four-light "chandelier" was suspended in the center, over a table covered with a red felt cloth. Eight chairs, with white cotton coverings, stood about this table. On it, in the center, stood a vase of rose-colored glass, shaped like a lily, and in the vase several lilies of the "Easter" variety, and some marigolds.

The room was divided into two by two sliding windows on the two sides let in the air and afforded a glimpse at the green, sun-lit courts outside. On the floor were strips of ordinary matting and about the walls more chairs like those at the table, some tea tables and an occasional high stand—like those on any furniture store in any town in America—holding pots and flowers.

Tea Served.

I was asked to wait a moment. I sat down near a window. A minute later the door opened and another attendant, dressed like the first, came in bringing tea.

Without a word he put it down on the tiny table at my elbow and disappeared. The tea was served as always in Southern China. In a small cup with one saucer underneath and another on top. No sugar. No lemon. No cream. Tea just so. But deliciously flavored.

With my first sip the first attendant returned.

"Want to smoke?" he asked. And from his top coat pocket he drew out a large black cigar, and offered it to me. If I was supposed to smoke that up while I waited, I thought, it looked like a day.

"A bit heavy," I smiled, and lit a cigarette.

The chap smiled back and asked me what part of America I was from. He smiled again and left the room.

Chicago Man.

I indulged in a sip of tea and a puff of smoke. Then the door opened once more and a new personage appeared in the room—an officer in khaki.

Without a word he bowed to me and turned toward the door. Evidently I was supposed to follow. Via a stairway leading up from the hall, the officer led the way to a sort of second-story balcony, turned sharply and entered a large room similar to the one

This is the commonest method of transportation in China, in a chair borne by two half-naked coolies. Narrow streets, impossible for vehicular traffic, are largely responsible.

I had just left, but lighter owing to open windows around all four sides.

The room was furnished very much like the first, and several people were there ahead of me, mostly Chinese. Nevertheless, in a far corner I heard talking and caught a few words of English. Glancing in that direction I saw the faces of three people—two Chinese and one American, Bill Tausig, of Chicago, representative of a freight-car building concern.

Dr. Sun.

The three were talking to a fourth man whose back was towards me, a man of medium height as far as I could judge, and wearing a butternut colored suit of some thin material, probably cotton. The suit was that usually affected by Cantonese—that is, a species of military tunic buttoned up around the neck.

As I looked the party broke up and the man whose back was to me turned and walked rapidly over in my direction, holding out his hand as he came near. I recognized him instantly from having seen his pictures many times, only the expression of his face, his sad smile, his dreamy eyes and general air of modesty, almost of shyness, were all far more important than any portrait could convey.

It was Dr. Sun Yat-sen.

In his next story, Simms describes the plans that President Sun has made for the development of China by the little fields.

COTTON SELLS AT 20 CENTS ON THE STREETS OF QUANAH

QUANAH, Sept. 7.—A good rain throughout this section last night will materially add to the yield of cotton and late feed. Merchants and bankers are feeling optimistic over the outlook for good collections and increased business. Rains and the advances in the price of cotton have put the farmers in excellent spirits. Wholesale and retail merchants report that business volume is greatly increased, and that in spite of the short cotton acreage the period of financial depression is past. Cotton sold on the streets of Quanah Tuesday at 20 cents. The Quanah Tribune-Chief purchased this week its second model 14 Linotype and a high speed news press, and similar preparations for business in other lines are being made.

Medicated Smoke Drives Out Catarrh

Dr. Blosser's Cigarettes Give Out a Healing and Soothing Smoke-Vapor that Clears the Head, Nose and Throat.

Dr. Blosser is the originator of a certain combination of medicinal herbs, flowers and berries to be smoked in a pipe or ready prepared cigarette which is meeting with unusual success in catarrhal troubles. As the disease is carried into the head, nose and throat with the air you breathe, so the anti-septic healing vapor of this remedy is carried with the breath directly to the affected parts.

This simple, practical method applies the medicine where sprays, douches, ointments, etc., cannot possibly go. Its effect is soothing and healing and is entirely harmless, containing no cubebs, tobacco or habit forming drugs. It is pleasant to use, and not sickening to those who have never smoked and may be used by women and children as well as men.

If you suffer from catarrh, asthma, catarrhal deafness, or if subject to frequent colds, you should try this remedy. Satisfactory results guaranteed. Any well stocked drug store can supply Dr. Blosser's Remedy.

A trial package will be mailed to any sufferer for ten cents (coin or stamps) by The Blosser Co., 28 Del. Atlanta, Ga., to prove its beneficial and pleasant effect.

Legion Auxiliary Opens Membership Drive This Week

The Legion Auxiliary launched its big fall membership campaign at the Tuesday afternoon meeting, with "Every member get a member," the slogan for the drive. It is expected that the present membership of the auxiliary will be fully doubled at the close of the campaign.

A feature of the meeting Tuesday, which was well attended, was Mrs. Burdick's report to the auxiliary of her visit in San Antonio and Houston. A report has previously been given in The Times, but Mrs. Burdick had been unable until Tuesday to give the report in full to the auxiliary. She told of the great appreciation of the boys at Camp Logan for all that the local chapter of the auxiliary has done for them, and mentioned especially their receipt of the big boxes of fans sent from here, which was the first such gift they had received. She told of meeting the state auxiliary president, Mrs. Murray, and Mrs. Buller, the visiting chairman.

The auxiliary discussed at length the better furnishing of the legion club room, and other matters in connection, and the joint meeting which is to be held Tuesday evening, September 20. Delegates to the state auxiliary meeting in Houston October 2-7 were discussed, as well as the delegates to the national meeting in October-November. It is expected that these will be appointed at the next meeting by Mrs. Carrigan. Mrs. Carrigan also expects to appoint her permanent committees at that time.

Details of the membership campaign are to be worked out further this week.

Miss Elizabeth Miller, secretary of the Y. W. C. A. cafeteria, is home after a pleasant three weeks' visit in Colorado Springs. She was with her family there.

Mrs. Jack Gordon and Mrs. Norlan Lovell of Grandbury, Okla., are the guests of Mrs. F. J. Baimon at 1505 Fillmore.

GIRLS! BLEACH SKIN WHITE WITH LEMON

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quart of pint of harmless and delightful lemon bleach. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, then shortly note the beauty and whiteness of your skin.

Famous stage beauties use this lemon lotion to bleach and bring that soft, clear, rosy-white complexion, also as a freckle, sunburn, and tan bleach because it doesn't irritate.—Ad.

A SAFE TEST

For those who are in need of a remedy for kidney troubles and backache, it is a good plan to try Doan's Kidney Pills. They are strongly recommended by Wichita Falls people. Ask your neighbor.

Mrs. A. W. Robbins, Austin street, Wichita Falls, says: "I think Doan's Kidney Pills are the best remedy made for kidney trouble. About two years ago, my back and kidneys got in bad shape. The small of my back was lame and sore and I could hardly move. When I stooped over, a sharp twinging pain would catch me in my back, making it hard for me to straighten up. There was a continual pain in my back day and night and headache and dizzy spells added to my misery. I purchased one box of Doan's Kidney Pills from the Rexall Drug Store and their use cured me."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Robbins had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—(Adv.)

SHIRT WEAR FOR LADIES
OVER WOOLWORTH'S ON INDIANA

LATEST STYLE By LENORE

It may be said almost truthfully that this season fashion permits almost every conceivable variation in the sleeve of the daytime dress. So did that it is again quite new, the bishop sleeve makes its debut in fall styles.

In the semi-tailored street dress, shown in the sketch, the sleeve is the most ornamental member. The embroidery is a mingling of silk floss and chenille in black, scarlet, and threads of gold, extremely effective against the background of dark blue serge. Heavy ecru lace fills in the deep oval neck, a becoming line to almost every type, and the tubular effect at the sides of the skirt seems to be a favorite idea with this designer, for he has also featured it in a Russian blouse suit which I recently illustrated.

PATTERN NO. 233
A pattern for the above model (No. 233) can be obtained in sizes 34, 36 or 38, by sending to Lenore, 5 West 40th street, New York City, your name, address, and 50 cents in postage stamps. Be sure to keep the newspaper clipping of the sketch and description of the garment to use as a working model when the pattern reaches you—which will be within two weeks' time.—The Editor.

EIGHTY-EIGHT ATTEND THE HEALTH CLINIC WEDNESDAY

Eighty-eight persons, 63 of whom were patients, attended the Red Cross health clinic at the court house Wednesday morning. Sixteen of the babies were under 2 years of age and 47 were over. Twenty-four mothers made up the rest of the attendance.

The clinic and the respect in which it has come to be held by the visiting mothers are growing by bounds, due to the splendid work it is doing in Wichita Falls. It is estimated that at least a score of babies have been carried safely through the dangerous summer period solely through the advice and assistance the mothers have received from the clinic. Actual records are available in many cases of babies dangerously under weight, under nourished, and otherwise below normal who would almost undoubtedly have succumbed to various summer complaints during July and August, which shows steady improvement each week of the little patients.

Mrs. Madam Cotton, H. Willis and J. H. Martin assisted in bringing mothers and babies to the clinic in their cars, and Mrs. C. Y. Tully, Mrs. Cotton and Miss Leoti Clark assisted the nurses in the weighing and measuring. Messrs. E. V. Lawler and E. J. Harris were interested visitors from among local mothers.

'Golden Medical Discovery' was recommended to me by a friend. I took six bottles of it, which made me feel like a different woman. I consider Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery the very best liver medicine I have ever known.—MRS. C. A. FINN, 2214 Washington Ave.

PLAN ENTERTAINMENT FOR VISITING TEACHERS BIG AFFAIR TUESDAY NIGHT

The visiting teachers at the inter-county institute will be tendered a sure enough welcome and a rousing entertainment Thursday evening, when the members of the Wichita Falls Parent-Teachers association will be hostesses on the R. O. Harvey-W. A. "Pleasant lawn" at 531 Tenth street.

The presidents of all the local mothers' parent-teacher, and home and school council organizations will act as hostesses for the occasion, and they are all asked to be present before 8 o'clock. Plans for the entertainment have been considerably enlarged, and a most attractive musical program, to be carried out informally, has been arranged under the direction of Mrs. H. F. Pounds, president of the general federation. Invitations are extended for 8 o'clock, and all of the visiting teachers will be given a warm welcome.

The program will be about as follows: Vocal solos, Madames J. C. Mytinger and Lee Clark, Messrs. R. Vaughn Ray and Ivan Murchison. Quartette, Madames Fred Barron, C. Y. Tully, E. C. Huckabee and R. A. Lyle. Stringed instruments, M. A. Ellis, A. Bobb, Duke Harwood and S. D. Maxwell. Piano solos, Miss Mary Spert Clark, Mrs. F. R. Collard. Violin solo, Miss Ceclia Adickes. Harp solo, Miss Louise Clark. Readings, Miss Juanita Kinsey, Mrs. W. S. Pagan, Mrs. A. P. Oakes. Miss Mira Dent has returned from a two or three weeks' visit in Chicago, Ill., under the direction of Mrs. E. L. Fulton, assisted by Misses Elvia Allimen and Berenice Jackson. Ensemble number, Madames F. R. Collard and O. E. Nichols, and Miss Marion Maer and M. A. Ellis.

HE HAD ENOUGH OF THE "BREAD LINE" IN THE ARMY

A young fellow who had supper at the Y. W. C. A. cafeteria Tuesday night with a bunch of other teachers, was telling Mrs. Coyne, the director, of the efforts he had made to get his noon meal there, and of the long line that confronted him.

"You wouldn't have had to wait long," she said. "The line looks long, but it only takes fifteen minutes to get around to the tables from the stairway. You men are just too fidgety. You hate to wait."

"Hate to wait! Sa-a-y!" he exploded. "I just served two years of that waiting-in-chow-line in France, lady. I sure am fed up on it!"

MRS. B. F. STEWART HOSTESS TUESDAY EVENING AT HOME

Mrs. B. F. Stewart was hostess Tuesday evening at her home on Buchanan street at what the guests laughingly termed a "hen party." Delicious refreshments were served to the following after a pleasant evening: Madames Gillespie, Gibbs, Wharty, Wilson, Pyle, Holland, Cushman, Stanley, Swinford, Capps, Baker, Dunaway, Dalling, Moore, Yeakley, Heard, Hair, Hutson, Glass, Hattleston, Weatherly and Misses Burk, Putman, Martin, Gillespie, Dunaway, Baker, Hutson, Ship, Breckenridge and Gilliams.

Miss Mira Dent has returned from a two or three weeks' visit in Chicago, Ill., under the direction of Mrs. E. L. Fulton, assisted by Misses Elvia Allimen and Berenice Jackson. Ensemble number, Madames F. R. Collard and O. E. Nichols, and Miss Marion Maer and M. A. Ellis.

TEACHERS APPRECIATE LOCAL HOSPITALITY

The teachers, who are comparing the expense of their institute visit here this year with previous years, are very much appreciative of the kindness of the local women citizens who have taken them into their homes at such a nominal price.

The houses for the several hundred visitors were secured by a committee from the Parent-Teachers' federation, of which committee Mrs. Walter S. Curfise is chairman, and plenty of hospitality was provided. The teachers were taken to the homes free of charge by the Clisbee Auto Service, and many of the citizens have been providing transportation to and from the sessions in their own cars for their visitors.

Those who may have wondered just what good the general organization of the Parent-Teachers would effect, have one concrete answer in the present happy situation. More than four hundred visitors from out of the city will carry away a splendid advertisement of Wichita Falls in their entertainment here at a time when they did not come as the city's guests, and when little was expected.

Piano students who are contemplating studying with me, also those who have already spoken for lessons for this season, are hereby requested to present themselves for enrollment at my studio, 710 1/2 Indiana avenue, next Saturday from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m.—Ernest Katz, 117-30c

The Dollar and Fall Shopping

Interest and enthusiasm in Fall shopping is not merely the result of attractive merchandise that is so new and so desirable. Everything seems so much more interesting because every dollar has such increased value. This means the possibility of better qualities and greater quantities of new fall merchandise for almost everybody.

New Fall Suits

From the tips of their clever collars, to the conspicuous irregularity of their hems, their mission is to be seen. Coats are variously styled—some new long coats with princess lines being especially smart developed in black velveteen. Krimmer, Caracul, Mole, Persian Astrakhan and squirrel prove smart for trimming. Rich pile fabrics and twills are smart in Genesee Red, Balsam, Forest Brown, Terra Cuite, Midnight and Sorrento.

Suits $25.00 to $149.50

Wool Skirts Emphasize Gay Plaids

At no time during the year does the Wool Skirt of gay plaids, checks or stripes, make the appeal that it does in the fall. New Fall Skirts borrow from the forest their browns, greens and yellows, and combine them in a discreet gayety suggestive of fall sports. Prunella cloth is especially attractive and often uses fine beige stripes in combination with wider ones of more definite coloring. Some very new pleated skirts of plaid are made on bias lines.

Skirts at $7.50 to $19.50.

SCREEN DOOR SAVES LAY AND FAMILY FROM SERIOUS INJURY

WERE SEATED AT SUPPER TABLE TUESDAY NIGHT

No Trace Found of Party Who Fired Shot Gun at the Rear of His Home.

A partly closed screen door that deflected the shot discharged from a shotgun at moderate range saved William Lay, a deputy constable, and his family from serious injury Tuesday night while the family was seated at the supper table.

Shortly after dark Tuesday evening Mr. Lay and his family sat down to the table in the kitchen of their home at 1214 Twenty-first street. The little child of the family sat facing the door and Mr. Lay and his wife sat at either end of the table. The baby and Mr. Lay were plainly visible from the point where it is believed the shot was fired.

There was a loud report of a shotgun and Mr. Lay heard buckshot sprinkle all around the screen door, which stood partly closed. He immediately turned out the light in the house and proceeded cautiously to the door. The alarm was spread, but not a trace of the party who had fired the shot could be found.

Mr. Lay reported Wednesday morning that the screen door was the only thing that saved he and his baby from injury as the screen wires give evidence of having been struck at least thirty different places.

The peace officer states that he has no idea who the party was, but that he had heard from different sources that certain alleged law violators had threatened to harm him. Mr. Lay and several other members of the constable's department have been working on some important cases lately, and it is believed that the parties alleged to be incriminated in these affairs were the ones who engineered the attempt at the officer's life Tuesday evening.

AUTOMOBILE MUST HAVE A REAR AND TWO HEAD LIGHTS

Automobiles traveling on the county roads at night must exhibit two headlights and a tail light in order to keep out of trouble. The county has issued a warning that this law will be enforced as a matter of safety.

The four motorcycle officers who are stationed on the paved roads have been instructed to arrest the violators of this law.

It was pointed out that during the past week several accidents have occurred, due to the violation of this particular law. A rear end collision occurred because no red light was showing and another accident occurred when two cars brushed together because one of the cars had but one headlight burning.

Detectives Hawkins and Glenn arrested the men Tuesday night.

According to D. Hookey, a negro, the three men came to him Tuesday afternoon, making him a proposition to buy his automobile. The three men insisted, however, that they give the car a tryout before the deal was closed, and the owner consented.

An hour passed and the owner of the car got worried and notified McCormick. The officers started in pursuit and found the automobile eight miles from town near the Jones ranch, ditched. Officers state that the car was badly damaged, having been driven into a deep ditch.

Two of the men were found near the car, but the third one had started back to Wichita Falls to try to make it square with the negro. He was arrested shortly afterward.

Ranger McCormick stated that one of the men told him that they had taken the car out in order to get some whiskey.

CURFEW ORDINANCE ASKED OF COUNCIL BY JUVENILE OFFICER

A draft of a curfew ordinance requiring that boys and girls under 16 years of age be off the streets after 9:20 p. m., unless accompanied by their parents, was laid before the city council Tuesday night by juvenile officer R. L. Yates. Mr. Yates declared that such an ordinance was badly needed here and would be a great aid in dealing with the problems of his office. The ordinance after some discussion was referred to City Attorney Mann.

Mayor Cline expressed the opinion that with the present limited police force it would be difficult to enforce such an ordinance, and Judge Bonner said that a similar ordinance at Vero had been declared void by the courts.

The failure of the Wichita Falls Electric company to furnish service to the residents of the Scotland addition before the council again, and again the council failed to act to force the company to give the desired service. P. A. Rogers, manager for the company, said that as the matter was in litigation it was in the hands of the company's attorneys. Mayor Cline suggested that representatives of the company and of residents of Scotland addition meet at his office to see if some agreement could not be reached.

Ed Wilson presented a petition asking that the council prohibit railway companies and others except industrial concerns owning trackage in that section from storing railway cars between Holliday and Brook streets. Mr. Wilson pointed out that the practice of storing cars on the tracks obstructed the view and added to menace of railways crossing the streets. The petition was referred to the city attorney.

Several requests for sewer and water extensions were received.

P. B. Cox asked for the extension of the sewer from Hays street to his own and other residences on the Seymour road. W. A. Campbell asked the extension of the water service two blocks on Tulsa street from Seymour street. These requests were referred to proper committees for recommendations.

Roy Riner and family have returned from a two months' visit in Colorado Springs.

PLAN TRANSCONTINENTAL SHRINE MOTOR CARAVAN TO THE NEXT CONVENTION

Special to The Times.
DALHART, TEXAS, Sept. 7.—The Colorado to Gulf highway field director, Captain Bernard McMahan, who organized and was train commander of the first army truck train across the United States from Washington to San Francisco two years ago, is now planning a transcontinental Shrine motor caravan to California for next year to the annual convention of shrines.

There are ten Shrine temples on the Colorado to Gulf highway and it is proposed that the eastern Shriners will join the caravan at one of these temples. Shriners from the north and northeast are to motor to the Denver and Pueblo temples and then join the southern contingent at Raton, New Mexico.

The Grand Canyon will be visited and as a fitting climax to the first transcontinental shrine motor caravan one of the California temples has promised to put on a big ceremonial in Yosemite Park.

The details of this big California caravan will be worked out with the various temples along the Colorado to Gulf highway on the official highway inspection tour which leaves Denver Monday, September 12, arriving at Brownsville September 22.

SUPPLY AND DEMAND

Immediately following the war we kept the industries of the country speeded up to their war limit of production. We were turning out raw materials and manufactured goods in quantities such as we never before thought possible.

Europe was broke and could not pay for our goods, no matter how badly she needed them; we did not have the proper credit facilities for handling their long term paper, so business conditions in the United States continued to go from bad to worse.

But the turn has been made for one industry, the cotton industry. The recent great increases in the price of cotton put fresh courage in the hearts of the cotton growers all over the south.

The supply of cattle is fast being diminished; and the world is short, extremely short, on construction work. Before long the cattle and the steel industries will be served with the advance notices of better prices and a growing market for their products.

The dawn of the better business day has appeared. We will soon be happy in its presence, forgetful of those trying days of the deflation period.

HOPEFUL SIGNS OF THE DAY.

Orders for cotton goods are pouring into the mills, the price of cotton is going up, closed railroad shops are re-opening, railroad earnings are increasing. These are some of the encouraging signs of business revival.

The increase in the price of cotton has brightened prospects in the south especially. Farmers will be able to pay their debts and perhaps have a surplus left over. Merchants will be enabled to liquidate their loans and the banking situation will continue to improve.

Today's Talk By George Matthew Adams

Effort. William James once wrote a chapter on Habit. To me it is one of the greatest things ever written in its clear and inspiring form. I first read it in my college text book as a part of his book on psychology.

Habit is what we are. But lack of all habit must come the willingness to do, in other words effort must be spent. James says in this notable little book, "keep the faculty of effort alive in you by a little gratuitous exercise every day."

Another inspiring sentence is this: "Let no youth have any anxiety about the upshot of his education, whatever the line of it may be. If he keeps faithfully busy each hour of the working day, he may safely leave the final result to itself."

But let satisfaction and a medium amount of contentment come about by simply doing our best each day and making the best effort that we know how. For the greatest credit is due to the one who makes the greatest effort!

HUMANISMS Inner Lights on Lives and Whims of Personages in the Public Eye

THE HISTORY OF YOUR NAME

By PHILIP FRANCIS NOWLAN. Variations—Beault, Beault. Racial Origin—Anglo-Saxon. Source—Geographical, also a title. There are two principal sources from which the family name of Biddle and its variations are derived.

TRIPLETS, AH-OY!

The world is in for a six years epidemic of triplets and twins. This is the prediction of Prof. Charles Kirschhoff. Where does he get his information? From the stars? Kirschhoff is an astrologer. He says the stars that "govern" the earth are in proper astrological position to increase the productivity of humans, and that the influence of these stars will be felt as powerfully as that which the moon exerts on tides.

"Babies will arrive by twos, threes and even fours," says Kirschhoff. "Within six years, the birth of a single child will be exceptional. Twins and triplets will be the rule."

A few hundred years ago, nearly every one swallowed whatever the astrologers told them. But no more! In Budapest, a woman has just given birth to quintuplets—five children within a fortnight.

This case is authenticated. It has roused interest in European medical circles. Quintuplets occur only once in 700,000 births, says Barsony, Budapest-scientist.

Twins are not so rare. Columbia, Mo., has 32 pairs of twins in a population of 16,373. Thirty pairs of twins recently were counted in three public school in Spokane, Wash.

Folks are not apt to have twins, triplets, quadruplets or quintuplets unless "it runs in the family." Multiple births are hereditary, as a rule.

And a family with one set of twins is apt to have another. Thus Judge and Mrs. Richard Doherty of Jersey City have five sets of twins and one other child, after nine years of married life.

That is a record rivaled only by the champion farmer, R. C. Bland, North Carolina farmer, father of 34 children, 15 by his first wife, 19 by his second.

Man knows nothing about the mystery of life. Birth is a riddle. So is death.

Hence many can guess, but none can answer, "What causes multiple birth?" All we know is that single births are the rule. Occasional twins, triplets, quadruplets and quintuplets emphasize that there are exceptions to all rules, even in nature.

WHY?

DO YOU KNOW— WHO is Sancho Panza? WHY do we say "Amen" at the end of prayers? WHAT is platinum? WHEN will mercury freeze? WHERE is the "Flour City"?

origin. Second, from the Anglo-Saxon word "bydel," which was descriptive of an office or occupation, in short, a title.

Undoubtedly by far the greater number of families bearing the names Beadle and Bedell got them originally from the latter source, as well as a very large number of those bearing the name Biddle.

The Anglo-Saxon "bydel" was a person of some importance. He was an official messenger, a herald, a proclaimer. We have today a modern form of "bydel" in our word Beadle, which, however, is fast becoming obsolete, and in the common acceptance of today is used mostly in connection with church affairs, and very seldom at that.

But the "bydel" was in a sense an officer in the royal courts of ancient England and the number of persons who held the office was fairly numerous, and it was natural that the word, though not found in the official nomenclature of the Normans, should have persisted in the speech of the greater part of the English people, who were Anglo-Saxons, and that through the form of "bydelson" it should have descended to us today as a family name, and, a shade less so often, the case in family names, shorn of the termination "son."

The Wind. Wind is air going some place. It is one of the principle parts of the weather.

Wind is air in standing still people just breath it without even thinking about it; but as soon as it moves around a little everybody starts to notice it. Proving if you stay in one place people forget you are there.

Wind going in one window and out another makes a draft and is one of the best things to catch a cold in. The first thing you do when you sneeze is look around for a draft and if you don't see one you enjoy your next sneeze much more. The first part of a cold is a sneeze but that don't say the last part of a sneeze has to be a cold, on account of there being more sneezes than colds.

In summer when the wind blows in peoples houses they brag about it, but in winter when it blows in they are ashamed of it. This proves there is a time for everything.

One of the funniest things the wind does is blow off other peoples hats and one of the worst things it does is blow off yours. Proving we don't realize we are always somebody else's to others.

The wind is a great help to a balloon if its going the same way but on the contrary if its not.

The 4 chief winds are north, east, south and west, and this prevents any from blowing either strait down or strait up.

Just Folks by Esbar A Guest

Thoughts of a Returning School Boy. I used to think my Pa was wrong. When he would say, the years fly by; I thought the weeks an' months were long.

An' when I wait for Christmas, I am sure the days will never go. An' weeks seem just like years right then. But now time does go fast, I know. I've got to go to school again.

It seems a dreadful time between my birthdays, but my Pa says, "wait. When several more of them you've seen."

They'll come around at rapid rate. I don't believe that can be so. And yet I've got a new suit on. And back to school I've got to go. Vacation time has been an' gone.

I used to count the weeks, and say that there were 10 of them that I could spend all by myself in play. And now the last of them's gone by. It doesn't seem 10 weeks ago. Since school let out, they've gone so fast.

But Pa just grins and says: "Oho. You've learned that time does fly, at last."

Ten weeks to Christmas! that seems long. Ten weeks to school days! an' the An' teachers an' the study gong! That isn't any time at all.

The fun you've got goes wizzin' by. An' my vacation's done today. I'll bet the school days, though, won't fly.

origin. Second, from the Anglo-Saxon word "bydel," which was descriptive of an office or occupation, in short, a title.

Undoubtedly by far the greater number of families bearing the names Beadle and Bedell got them originally from the latter source, as well as a very large number of those bearing the name Biddle.

The Anglo-Saxon "bydel" was a person of some importance. He was an official messenger, a herald, a proclaimer. We have today a modern form of "bydel" in our word Beadle, which, however, is fast becoming obsolete, and in the common acceptance of today is used mostly in connection with church affairs, and very seldom at that.

But the "bydel" was in a sense an officer in the royal courts of ancient England and the number of persons who held the office was fairly numerous, and it was natural that the word, though not found in the official nomenclature of the Normans, should have persisted in the speech of the greater part of the English people, who were Anglo-Saxons, and that through the form of "bydelson" it should have descended to us today as a family name, and, a shade less so often, the case in family names, shorn of the termination "son."

DR. NUTT ADDRESSES TEACHERS' INSTITUTE ON SCHOOL HYGIENE

FEATURE OF FORENOON PROGRAM WEDNESDAY MORNING

WILL DELIVER ADDRESS TO PUBLIC THIS EVENING

Supt. Boswell Speaks in Behalf of the Inter-Scholastic League Work

The organization of county associations of the interscholastic league, under the direction of Superintendent G. C. Boswell of Byers, who made an address on the league just before the noon hour, was the feature of Wednesday's proceedings of the inter-county institute.

The institute met again in the Christian church, having adopted that building for the remainder of the convention. Superintendent Boswell made a rousing talk in the interest of the league, which forms a department of the state university's extension work among the public schools and which has done a big work in the past few years in promoting a better familiarity among young people with public speaking, spelling, etc.

Dr. Nutt's address during the first general session from 9 to 10 o'clock on problems of school hygiene, was another feature of the morning. Dr. Nutt's talk Tuesday afternoon on high school teaching methods was declared by many of the teachers to be his strongest and most helpful address so far. He talked Wednesday afternoon on differences in individuality among high school pupils, and the problem of motivation. Superintendent Dobony addressed the meeting on school laws immediately after the opening Wednesday afternoon, and S. H. Whitley of the Commerce Normal school made an interesting short talk at the close of the session, representing all of the state normal schools.

Wednesday's attendance kept up the previous days' records, with about 600 young men and women present in the church auditorium. The section meetings were especially interesting, and provoked discussion in and out of the meetings. (A Wednesday's program for section leading talks were: Miss Henrietta Pyle, B. M. Dinamore, Miss Vance, Miss Hooper, Miss Ida Falls, Miss Marie Hall, Miss Martineau, J. O. Holland, Miss Crabtree, Miss Hooper and Miss Ora Lee Killen.)

Dr. Nutt tonight. Dr. Nutt will deliver his only evening address Wednesday evening at the First Baptist church, and the general public is invited. Dr. Nutt is one of the most forceful and energetic speakers who has visited the city in some time, and his talks before the institute have been a most appreciated feature. His address tonight will be on the subject, "The Relation and Responsibility of the Community to Constructive Education for Democracy."

PLAINTIFF TAKES NOY-SUIT IN DISTRICT COURT CASE

In the case of A. S. Bradford et al vs. J. S. Riggs et al, the plaintiff took a noy-suit after the trial was under way Tuesday afternoon. The case was being tried before a jury in the 8th district court. The plaintiff prayed for a judgment of $1,000, which he alleged was due as commission on a deal. The defendant alleged fraud.

JUANITA YOUNGBLOOD FOUND NOT GUILTY OF VAGRANCY

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Carter, Joe Snyder and Miss Lois Lindemann came in Tuesday morning from Medicine Park, Okla., after a 10-hour trip in the wake of the hard rain Monday night. They left Medicine Park, where they spent Sunday and Monday, at 11 o'clock Monday night and got into Wichita Falls shortly after 3 o'clock Tuesday morning.

A drive over the city shows very few vacant houses, and almost no desirable ones vacant, this month. The Gulf company, with its quota of families, is not given the whole responsibility for filling up the untenanted houses as rental agents declare that there have been few houses vacant all summer.

Railroad tickets to Iowa Park have gone almost entirely begging since the opening of the Wichita Falls-Iowa Park road, according to the local ticket office force. The sales have fallen off to almost nothing and travelers are going by car. "If they don't have cars of their own, they can walk a little way and get picked up," one of the agents stated. "Naturally they are not going to spend any money for tickets by train."

Local trades people are busy outfitting the college students for their fall term to the educational centers. The bulk of the late summer business in several stores was agreed to be the student outfitting as several hundred boys and girls leave the city each fall with most of their clothing and accessories for the school year.

There is to be a special business meeting of the Ladies' Bible class of the First M. E. church, South, at the church Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock and all members are asked to be present. Election of officers will be present. Election of officers will be the main business of the afternoon.

ADCOX FELONY CASE DISMISSED BY STATE

Charges of conspiracy to commit the offense of murder placed against A. L. Adcox Tuesday was dismissed Wednesday morning by the state and a misdemeanor charge of contributing to the delinquency of his 8-year-old son was preferred against him. The case was filed in the county court and will be tried Saturday morning, at which time the little 8-year-old son will also be tried.

The charges preferred against the elder Adcox grew out of an investigation following the shooting and killing of Wesley Thompson at Iowa Park last Friday. According to officers, the father told his son that if anyone bothered him in the hamburger stand that he (the boy) should shoot.

The Thompson boy was shot by a .22 caliber rifle and died the following morning in the hospital. It is believed that the killing was an accident, but it was reported by officers that the little boy has been causing trouble in the neighborhood where he resides. The family lives in Iowa Park.

ALLEGED VIOLATOR OF MANN ACT HELD UNDER $500 BOND

A young man, 18 years of age, is held here under a bond of $500 on a charge of violation of the Mann white slave act. He was apprehended on the streets of Wichita Falls Tuesday evening when he was pointed out to officers by the girl, who is but 16 years of age. The young man plead not guilty before United States Commissioner J. A. Lantz and his bond was set at $500 in order to give him opportunity to summon witnesses before the examining trial is held.

According to the story of the girl, the young man promised to marry her in Grandfield, Okla., provided she would go to Graham with him, where she said he told her the ceremony would be performed.

She relates that after spending two days and nights there that she told him that if he did not marry her the next day that she would be compelled to tell someone. The next morning he was gone and while changing trains in this city the girl saw the boy on the street, which led to his arrest.

Harold Johnson of the Times city force is spending the week with relatives and friends in north Texas.

TOWNS ON SOUTHERN TO COME HERE ON SPECIAL TRAIN

Graham, Ellaville and Southbend will return the visit of Wichita Falls to those towns sometime during the first week in October. A special train will be run from Breckenridge and all the towns on the Wichita Falls & Southern will send delegations to visit Wichita Falls.

Invitations to visit Wichita Falls are being extended to all the towns along the Wichita Falls & Southern through the chamber of commerce. Hon. B. F. Johnson attended a meeting of the Ellaville chamber of commerce Monday night and invited the people of that town to visit Wichita Falls. The invitation was enthusiastically accepted.

Old Father Time Himself

A REMARKABLE CHARACTER

ONE of the most remarkable characters in the State of Mississippi, is "Uncle" Jack Terry, whose picture is shown above, representing "Old Father Time," whose venerable appearance he greatly resembles. His home is in the Eastern end of Union County, and he probably holds the longevity record of North Mississippi, having been born in 1812, the year that Napoleon declared war on Russia, making him now over 108 years old.

"Uncle" Jack Terry was converted at the age of 99 and baptized by the Reverend S. B. Guilett, of Blue Mountain, and when he was well over the century mark, this venerable Baptist brother used to be a regular attendant at the mid-summer revival meetings in his community.

Mr. Terry was born in Lawrence County, Ala., where he married, and he and his wife lived together for 63 years. His daughter is now over 70 years old. These old people live together amid the beautiful surroundings and picturesque scenery of the Mississippi backwoods, where his daughter still carries on the old-time home industry of hand-carding and spinning the wool for her dresses and his clothes.

Mr. Terry retains remarkable vitality for a man of his years, and is always glad to meet visitors, with whom he converses with much interest. He was in the Confederate Army for two years, and when over 50 years old he fought at the Battle of Chickamauga. His grandchildren are greatly interested in the stories he tells of his army days.

So remarkable a character could not fail to attract the attention of the motion picture producers, and a camera man was sent to Mr. Terry's home, to record the history of his daily life and show him on the film for the benefit of the patrons of the movies. In this film he will shortly appear as one of the principal characters of a cast consisting almost entirely of old folks over 100 years old.

According to the 1920 Census, many people in the U. S. are over 100 years old. Mr. Terry is one of those so recorded. His health is excellent, his mind is clear, and his memory is good.

To a visitor at his home, Mr. Terry authorized the publication of the statement given herewith, in regard to his continued use of Thedford's Black-Draught.

Mr. Terry Says

"I have taken THEDFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT

for years; in fact it is the only medicine I take at all, for it's all that does me good.

"I am a firm believer in Thedford's Black-Draught Liver Medicine, and have been for years."

Spudders Kick 'Em and Can't Hit 'Em So They Drop Eighth Straight

DALLAS, Sept. 6.—The Marines continued to wreak their vengeance on the Spudders by knocking them out of the pennant race today by practically killing their chances to top the last year's team.

Tanner started the fireworks in the next round when he kicked Stow's grounder with one away. After Tipple had sacrificed, Munson was hit by a pitched ball and Skinner socked one over Benny Allen's head in deep center for two that Robertson sent to Galloway doubled Allen at first. No runs, no hits, no errors.

DALLAS: Munson drew a life when Works fanned. Skinner walked. Galloway went to center on second with a single to right. Robertson singled to center. Skinner and Galloway were held at second. Robertson got in the way of Mattick's drive and was called out going to third and Mattick to first. The Marines worked a successful double steal when Clark returned Kitchens' peg wild to the plate. Mattick's quick return to Galloway doubled Allen at first. No runs, no hits, no errors.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT OF SPORT

Babe Adams

THIRTY-EIGHT YEARS OLD BUT HOLDS THE SEASON'S RECORD FOR CONSECUTIVE VICTORIES

THIS IS WHAT THEY'VE BEEN SAYING SINCE FOOD IN THE BIG LEAGUES

Babe Adams is an old pitcher with a new record. He has won nine straight victories at this writing. And that's the season's record for pitchers.

It was Babe who helped the Pirates, back in 1909, to win the pennant and a world series. Five years previous he began his professional baseball career with St. Louis. The Cardinals sent him back to Louisville for more seasoning. He came to Pittsburgh in 1908.

When a player like "Buddy" Tanner, who is supposed to be about the coolest under fire and the steadiest man on the club, cracks under the strain it's just about time to give up.

Well, we've still got a chance, but we'd sell it for about a dime. When a club starts skidding it never knows when to stop. Our main trouble is that we started to hit the bricks so late and won't have time to recover like the Pirates did, for example.

When a player like "Buddy" Tanner, who is supposed to be about the coolest under fire and the steadiest man on the club, cracks under the strain it's just about time to give up.

We didn't think such a slump was possible—nor did we think that the Braves could take four straight from the Athletics in 1914, nor did we think that the Giants would clean up on the Pirates, etc. It's sudden turns like that which make baseball the great institution that it is. We had lots of fun while they were up there, anyway.

The Spudders have 12 games to be played—two with Dallas, six with Shreveport and seven with Fort Worth. The Panthers have 12—one with Shreveport, four with Dallas and seven with Wichita Falls. Should both clubs win all their games before meeting each other the Spudders would have to take five from the Panthers. The percentage would then read: Wichita Falls .667, Fort Worth .667. But will both clubs win all their games before meeting each other? Or will Fort Worth drop more than Wichita Falls? Or vice versa? Or can we take five out of seven from the Cats. Possible, but hardly probable.

We can still be optimistic in defeat, however. Maybe it's just as well for the Athletics in 1914, nor did we think that the last half was "fixed" for the Spudders to win so that the club owners, players et al would figure in a little extra money won't have a chance to holler. And don't fool yourselves into thinking that there wouldn't be a goodly number of those who would be heard wailing in Fort Worth after the first game of the recent disastrous series.

Have you noticed how those Cardinals have been creeping up? St. Louis has been treated to some great baseball this season by both its clubs. It has been better in spots, but both outfits have been fighting all year.

We haven't had much to say about the Yankees' recent success, but we note they're still up there. We'd bet to pick at least one winner. If the Yanks go back on us we'll be in.

pitching the Pirates have been getting all season. Babe Adams, the hero of the world series of 1919, may have a chance to repeat this fall, the way the Pirates are going.

Regaining the top and setting a season's record after 17 years of professional baseball is some feat, we say.

Hugh Fullerton's class as a baseball forecaster and Jim Corbett's class as a fight picker.

To get back to the old topic of the reliability of wire reports from the field on a ball game, let's see what happened yesterday. In the first inning it was reported that Robertson singled to center. What's the conclusion? Ramsey is getting hit hard. Yet, the Dallas scribe states that Tanner kicked Robertson's grounder. Once more in the same inning—according to the operator's message on the double steal that was made, Clark handled the ball and threw wild to the plate. As it really happened, Tanner handled the ball and Kitchens let it get away from him. There's three discrepancies in one inning alone, and the chances are that three players were unjustly blamed. We're going to win that one anyway.

Al Devoever, recruit catcher, dropped in one inning alone, and the chances would have been an easy out. After the damage was done Manager Huggins pulled Devoever out and sent Schang in, but the damage had been done.

BEST IN THE TENNIS WORLD TO MEET IN SINGLES TITLE EVENT

128 Contestants From All Parts of Globe Will Start Play Sept. 9.

By Newspaper Enterprise. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 7.—This has been the biggest year ever in tennis, and the climax of the season will be reached in the seven days of playing—September 9-15—to decide the singles championships. All told, there will be 128 contestants for the tennis crown, representing not only the cream of America, but of the entire world.

In addition to Champ William T. Tilden, the American entries will include William M. Johnston of California, the former champion Richard Norris Williams, II, another former national champion; Wallace F. Johnston, Watson Washburn, Charles S. Garland, S. Howard Voshell, Walter M. Hall, Dean Mathew, Willis E. Davis, Robert Howard Kinsey, Bates and Levey of the University of California, and Neer of Leland Stanford, and last—and many would not be surprised if he came out first—Vincent Richards, the 18-year-old marvel.

Many others are entered, but these are the ranking players. All told, 10 countries will be represented in the tournament—the United States, England, France, Denmark, Canada, Japan, India, Australia, Mexico and South Africa.

Great Britain will be represented by the veteran F. G. Lowe, Maxwell Woosnam, the Olympic star; O. G. N. Turnbull, a great doubles player; and J. B. Gilbert, who won the all-England plate at Wimbledon this year.

Zeno Shimidzu and Ichiji Kumagata and Seichiro Kashio will represent Japan. Australia will be represented by one, possibly two, of the following players who came to this country for the Davis cup matches: Norman Peach, E. O. Anderson, J. B. Hawkes and Clarence V. Todd.

Gohert, the noted French player, will be on hand, as will be the three Danish stars—Tegne, Ingerly and Henriksen. Jacob Steen Deane and Fyee, who represented India in the Davis cup matches, are also expected to enter.

One of the big foreign stars will be B. C. Norton, the brilliant young South African, who forced Tilden to five sets in the challenge round of the world's championship at Wimbledon in June.

Indiana 2, Brown 1. CLEVELAND, Sept. 6.—Elmer Smith's double drove the winning run across for the Indians in the sixth round of today's 2 to 1 victory over the Browns. The Indians' other run was the product of Walter Mills' annual base hit and a triple by Jameson. Joe Sewell saved the day for Cleveland by a remarkable stop of Tobin's smash in the eighth and threw to the plate that nailed Vandler.

Score by innings: R. H. E. St. Louis 000 000 100—1 7 9 Cleveland 001 001 000—2 5 1 Batteries: Walker and Severed; Malia and O'Neil.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—By winning four games in two days, the St. Louis Cardinals today were within thirty-seven points of the New York Giants, who hold second place, and fifty-one points from the pace-making Pittsburgh Pirates. St. Louis' four victories were staged against the Chicago Cubs. Seven points about one full game separates the league leading New York Americans and the Cleveland champions. The Yankees yesterday lost a tight contest to the Boston Red Sox, while Cleveland defeated St. Louis.

PETER MANNING WINS. HARTFORD, CONN., Sept. 7.—The "race of the century," feature event of the Grand Circuit meeting yesterday, was won by Peter Manning, champion trotter, in 2:02.1 and 2:06.

SPORT SHOTS

Well, we've still got a chance, but we'd sell it for about a dime. When a club starts skidding it never knows when to stop. Our main trouble is that we started to hit the bricks so late and won't have time to recover like the Pirates did, for example.

When a player like "Buddy" Tanner, who is supposed to be about the coolest under fire and the steadiest man on the club, cracks under the strain it's just about time to give up.

We didn't think such a slump was possible—nor did we think that the Braves could take four straight from the Athletics in 1914, nor did we think that the Giants would clean up on the Pirates, etc. It's sudden turns like that which make baseball the great institution that it is. We had lots of fun while they were up there, anyway.

The Spudders have 12 games to be played—two with Dallas, six with Shreveport and seven with Fort Worth. The Panthers have 12—one with Shreveport, four with Dallas and seven with Wichita Falls. Should both clubs win all their games before meeting each other the Spudders would have to take five from the Panthers. The percentage would then read: Wichita Falls .667, Fort Worth .667. But will both clubs win all their games before meeting each other? Or will Fort Worth drop more than Wichita Falls? Or vice versa? Or can we take five out of seven from the Cats. Possible, but hardly probable.

We can still be optimistic in defeat, however. Maybe it's just as well for the Athletics in 1914, nor did we think that the last half was "fixed" for the Spudders to win so that the club owners, players et al would figure in a little extra money won't have a chance to holler. And don't fool yourselves into thinking that there wouldn't be a goodly number of those who would be heard wailing in Fort Worth after the first game of the recent disastrous series.

Have you noticed how those Cardinals have been creeping up? St. Louis has been treated to some great baseball this season by both its clubs. It has been better in spots, but both outfits have been fighting all year.

MISS BLANTON URGES ORGANIZATION OF THE TEACHERS OF TEXAS

WOULD FORM LIVE WIRE CITY AND COUNTY ASSOCIATIONS

AS PROTECTION AGAINST THE STATE LEGISLATURE

Address Features Tuesday Program of Teachers' Institute at This Place

Organization of the teaching profession into live-wire city and county associations with a proper state affiliation, to the ultimate end that education in the state of Texas may not be at the mercy of the state legislature, was the keynote of Miss Annie Webb Blanton's address at the First Christian church Tuesday night.

The state superintendent of public instruction said very little about the recent action of the legislature in cutting down certain educational appropriations, and offered none of the blistering criticism which has characterized some of the remarks of state educators since the action. She got down to fundamentals instead, offering the fact that it was not reasonably or sensibly for any such gathering, unacquainted or only generally acquainted with educational standards, needs and absolute requirements, to make the final decision on a matter of such momentous concern with only a few hours' consideration.

"When any other big interest is after something, it doesn't send a committee down to Austin to say what it wants and then slip home," she said. "It sends it down there to stay right on the ground, and keep on saying what it wants, and showing who is behind that want."

That the people of Texas would be solidly behind the educational wants if they were sufficiently informed, and that the teachers, in proper organization, could keep them informed, was another argument. Miss Blanton brought up the big Better Schools campaign waged the past year with the later 2-to-1 vote in favor of the school tax amendment as striking proof of the action of a public informed on educational matters, and gave it as an example of what a proper teachers' organization could effect.

DRILLING TRIANGLE WELL TO THE SOUTH OF VERNON

VERNON, TEXAS, Sept. 7.—Drilling on the new triangle well south of town is under way and the old one, formerly known as the Burton well, has been thoroughly cleaned out.

The hole is now more than 600 feet deep and 78 feet were negotiated yesterday. Progress is through fine sand and the formation is said to be practically the same as that encountered in the Pyramid well.

It was necessary to move the rig for the triangle operations a mile and a half from the old location. This task was completed after great difficulty, and the hole cleared out in six days, officials expect to take the well down to 2,100 feet by October 15.

Pyramid well No. 2 will be started next week, not later than Monday, according to a statement from the Slinger office. The derrick will be completed Wednesday and the services of two of the best drillers in Texas secured for the work of putting the hole down. Eli Simon will be the hole driller and J. S. Russell will have charge of the night work.

"NO MAN CARES FOR MY SOUL" IS THEME

People Neglect Nothing But Their Spiritual Life States Evangelist

Taking the dependent cry of David from Psalm 142:4, that "No man cares for my soul" as his text and preaching on "The cry of a lonely man," Evangelist Ireland brought a strong appeal to his hearers last night to give time and work for the saving of lost souls everywhere.

He brought out the contrasts of life that are found everywhere, showing how a man might be lonely in the midst of a crowded street; of how the funeral dirge is heard along with the wedding bells, and then applied the text of the evening to modern day conditions.

He stated that the Christian life is not a life of ease nor an ornamental life, but is one of hardship and service; that the present church needs persecution to strengthen it, kill off the drones and put the true Christians to work; that men and women will break their necks to get cheap bargains in calico or oil lenses, while their souls perish, and that culture will not avail when sin has control and the soul is in rebellion against God.

God has set the example and shown the way. He cares for the saving of lost souls by giving His only Son as a ransom for them, and the preacher urged his hearers to help all others, of whatever class of wealth, social standing, or other condition to turn from the sinful life and get right with God.

The fifteen minute song service preceded the sermon and was featured by a melody solo by Mrs. Ireland, a solo by Rev. Ireland, and a duet by Revs. Ireland and Pittenger. Everyone is urged to be present in time for the song service this evening, which starts at 7:45. The subject for this evening will be "Some Evidence of the New Birth," and everyone is invited.

WAVE OF ENTHUSIASM SWEEPS OVER NATION

Thousands Write Grateful Letters of Appreciation As Famous Medicine Continues to Accomplish Remarkable Results—Great Tanlac Laboratories Running at Top Speed to Supply Record Breaking Demand—Over Half a Million Bottles Behind With Orders.

By CHARLES MURRAY GILBERT
ATLANTA, GA., Sept. 7.—"Tanlac made me feel younger." "It put me back on the payroll." "I now have a fine appetite." "I can eat whatever I want." "No more dyspepsia for me." "I gained weight rapidly." These and scores of like expressions are now heard from tens of thousands, as grateful users of Tanlac tell of their experiences.

Leading drug men of the country are amazed at the tremendous sales of Tanlac, and point out enthusiastically that nothing has ever equalled the phenomenal demand for this preparation.

At the great Tanlac laboratories at Dayton, Ohio, letters and telegrams are pouring in daily asking that shipments of Tanlac be rushed at once. Many of these orders are for full carload shipments, and quite a few of them for two and three carloads. Although running at top speed, the Tanlac laboratories are now over half a million bottles, or approximately twenty-four carloads behind with orders.

This announcement will be received with great surprise in the drug world, because business in many lines, especially in the drug and medical business, has been off from 40 to 50 per cent.

Agents in Every Town.

One druggist in every city, town and village in the United States and Canada, where agencies have not already been established, will be awarded the exclusive publicity agency for Tanlac within the next thirty days. These agencies will carry with them a big publicity campaign exclusively for the one druggist in each city and town who secures the agency.

Tanlac is going right ahead more vigorously than ever before. For Tanlac there is no such thing as business depression. In fact, Tanlac does not believe there is such a thing as hard

SMALL ATTENDANCE AT FUNERALS SCORED

Pat Carrigan Post American Legion Names Hoffman as Commander

Attorney Joe B. Hatchitt, who has taken an active part in the affairs of Pat Carrigan post of the American Legion ever since its organization, scored the lack of attendance at military funerals at the meeting of the post Tuesday night, at which time officers were elected. Attorney Luther Hoffman was named as post commander for the year.

Attorney Hatchitt stated that legionaires apparently did not realize the solemn duty they owed to their comrades who lost their lives overseas, as was evidenced in the past when practically only a "corporate guard" attended.

It was agreed that hereafter more publicity be given to military funerals and a committee of ten was appointed whose duty it shall be to inform every legionaire to be present when the last solemn rites are performed.

Other officers named at the meeting were: Henry Smith, assistant fire chief, vice post commander; Attorney Zeb Nixon, post adjutant; H. F. Taylor, finance officer. The executive committee selected is composed of Dr. J. H. Fletcher, Joe B. Hatchitt, Dr. C. W. Wilson and D. M. Perkins.

Post Commander Hoffman was named as one of the five representatives to attend the state convention at El Paso. He was empowered to name four others who should go as delegates and it was further urged that as many as possible who could afford to bear their own expense make arrangements to attend this state gathering.

A joint meeting of the post and the women's auxiliary will be held next Tuesday evening. Several important questions will be discussed.

Plans for making the Pat Carrigan post of the American Legion an effective force in the civic life of the community as well as an organization of helpmates to the veterans of the world war will be formulated at a meeting of the new executive committee of the legion at a meeting to be held at three o'clock Thursday afternoon in the offices of Bullington, Boone and Humphrey in the Commerce building.

REVIVAL BEGINS SUNDAY IN THE TEXHOMA FIELD

Next Sunday evening, September 11, the First Christian church of Wichita Falls and the Central Christian church of Burkburnett will begin an open air revival in the Texhoma Field on the Quash lease one mile east of the Victory refinery. Elder J. Lem Keevil and Evangelist Ed S. McKinley will be the principal speakers. Splendid singing can be expected, for the gospel teams will furnish song leaders. The people of the shallow field are delighted that a revival is to be held in their midst. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone. Come, bring your children and your neighbors. A big welcome for all.—ED. S. MCKINLEY, County Evangelist.

ESTIMATE TURKISH LOSSES AT 12,000 KILLED OR WOUNDED

By Associated Press. GREEK GENERAL HEADQUARTERS in Asia Minor, September 1.—The Turkish nationalist forces have been driven from new positions they had occupied, but are retiring slowly, defending every inch of the ground. Last night the Turks launched wild attacks and temporarily succeeded in recouping their lost positions. Later, however, they were again driven out.

TEXAS MINERS AND OPERATORS CONFER

Appears Doubtful If Settlement of Wage Dispute Will Be Reached. FORT WORTH, Sept. 7.—Settlement of the Texas coal mining situation and the reopening of the mines which have been closed since April 1, appeared doubtful today, when representatives of the local unions at Thurber, Strawn and Lyra declared they were unwilling to accept reduced wages. W. K. Gordon, vice president of the Texas-Pacfic Coal and Oil company, previously had offered a settlement of $5 a week and $2 tonnage rate was the only basis for negotiations.

WICHITA DAILY TIMES, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1921.

NEW YORK STOCKS—GRAIN AND PROVISIONS—COTTON—LIVESTOCK

COTTON MARKET. NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—The cotton market showed continued activity and excitement at the opening today, first prices being 19 1/2 cents higher in response to the further big advance in Liverpool. September contracts sold up to 21.50c, or nearly 2 1/2c higher than the price touched on the reaction just before the government report of the last week, and spring months sold well through the 20 level, or up to 22.30c for the heavy side. The heavy side of the market was followed by the quick reaction of 70 to 125 points, where the market was staided by the heavy buying of international houses here against sales in Liverpool because of the wider differentials. Private cables reported a wild market at Liverpool, where the spot sales amounted to 15,000 bales, and the spot quotation was 26 1/2 American points higher. Some of the spot houses were sellers on the London market, but southern interests were credited with buying.

NEW YORK STOCKS. NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—Further covering of short contracts in oil, steel, equipments, motors and food issues were noted at the opening of today's stock market. Mexican Petroleum, Crucible Steel, General Electric, Chandler Motors, Mountain Sugar and Manati Sugar registered early gains ranging from liberal fractions to almost 2 points. The heavy side of the list was represented by U. S. Rubber, Harvester and American Smelting, preference in which substantial reactions occurred. "So" was strongest of the rails, using 2 points in connection with the sale of $10,000,000 of bonds. Mexican Petroleum again asserted its leadership at midday, showing an extreme advance of 5 1/2 points. General Asphalt, Pan-American and Houston were higher by 1 1/2 to nearly 2 points. Great Northern and Northern preferred were included among the strongest rails and equipment, also improved.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 7.—An amazing rally in the opening call market today when on the opening call in the first trades all months rose 200 to 250 points, and the market closed at a high of 200 to 250 points. The official weekly crop reports were considered unfavorable and spot prices advanced from 150 to 200 points. Under these features the market started at 150 and closed at 141 to 161 points. The market was very active and the call market was very active. The market was very active and the call market was very active.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE. CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—Wheat opened unchanged to 1/2 cent higher on the deferred deliveries here today, and 1/2 cent higher on the spot market. The market was very active and the call market was very active. The market was very active and the call market was very active.

LIVESTOCK. FORT WORTH, Sept. 7.—Steady prices were paid for best steers today, the cow and heifer trade was also steady, but calf trading remained slow. The market was very active and the call market was very active. The market was very active and the call market was very active.

MISS MUSGRAVE HAS NARROW ESCAPES ON HER NEBRASKA VISIT

Miss Eunice Musgrave, daughter of G. W. Musgrave, well known Wichita county farmer, narrowly escaped death twice in the past few weeks at Shelton, Neb., where she and her parents are on a visit. On one occasion she was riding in an automobile with her sister, Ruth, when the radius rod broke and the car overturned. The car was demolished but almost miraculously the occupants escaped serious injury. The second narrow escape for Miss Musgrave was while bathing in the Platte river.

The Shelton newspaper contains the following account of her rescue: "Miss Eunice Musgrave of Wichita Falls, Texas, and Miss Geneva Bentley and John Fines Jr. of Shelton were saved from drowning at the Platte river four miles south of here Sunday afternoon by Alden Williams of Prosser. Both Miss Musgrave and Fines had gone under the second time when Williams plunged into the deep hole and when they came to the surface he called to Fines to swim to the bank, at the same time telling the young lady to hold onto him. Williams swam to the shore with Miss Musgrave and Fines after a hard struggle reached a point a few feet from the bank. His father, who was clinging to some brush at the edge of the deep water, swung one foot out where the young man could get hold of it and assisted him in getting to shore.

The young people had accompanied some of the older folks to the river for a little outing at a point a short distance from the L. C. Hatterston home. They had been enjoying a plunge in the shallow water which at no place appeared to be more than six feet deep. The two couples started wading down stream, evidently searching for a deeper place in which to swim. Miss Musgrave and Fines were ahead and before they knew what had happened, they stepped off into a deep hole and immediately went under. By that time Miss Bentley and Williams were in water over their heads and after swimming out with the young lady, William hurried back to the rescue of the other people.

Miss Musgrave's father and mother and a sister were in the party at the river Sunday. They were visiting here at the home of Mrs. C. Hatterston. The young ladies stated that they could swim and were anxious to accompany those who went in bathing. Fines is an inexperienced swimmer, but would no doubt have stayed on top of the water and reached the bank in safety had it not been that he was endeavoring to save the young lady from drowning. He stated that he was unable to swim and hold her above the water and that he was completely exhausted when Williams came to their rescue.

The Musgrave family left Wichita Falls June 4th for a visit with relatives in Arkansas, Missouri, Illinois, Nebraska and Kansas. They went by train to Eureka Springs, Ark., remaining there four weeks and then buying a car and starting for Illinois. They went by J. H. Musgrave's farm near Nevada, Mo. Mr. Musgrave writes: "Henry has a fine farm. The land in southwestern Missouri is the cheapest for the price of any we have seen. There is no fruit in Arkansas nor any place else. Brother Henry went with us to Illinois to visit father, sister and brothers remaining until August having a good time with old schoolmates. Corn was good in most places. Leaving Illinois we got to Shelton, Nebraska, in three days. Had good roads except fifty miles of mud. Visited father's brothers. Here's where our troubles began. While young Fines had Ruth and Eunice out riding in a Ford the radius rod broke, turning the car over and breaking out the windshield and one front wheel and almost demolishing the car. But all three got out without any serious injury. Then on Sunday, August 31, the kinfolks were given us a farewell picnic when Eunice came near being drowned."

MISSISSIPPI CAFE WRANGLE AIRED IN CITY POLICE COURT

A wrangle that had for its setting a kitchen in a Mississippi street cafe, and in which the principal characters were the chef and a waitress, were aired in the city police court before Judge Ogil Wednesday morning.

The judge could not determine the credibility of the witnesses nor the weight of the testimony, so he dismissed the charges of disturbance of the peace against both. The chef says he ordered the waitress and waiter out of the kitchen because they were spooning, while the waitress says the waiter declared the chef ordered them out of the kitchen so that he could do the spooning act with a former waitress. At any rate, the thing would up in a hot squabble which ended when the police interfered. The scene was enacted Tuesday afternoon.

BICYCLE RACE IS GROWING WARMER

Several Have Turned in the Required Number and Verification is in Progress

There is a hot race on now between the girls and boys who are working for Ranger bicycles offered by the Times for 25 new subscribers, to see who will be the next to be awarded a $50 machine fully equipped. There are several who have turned in the required number, but part of their orders are awaiting verification. Friends of any of the workers who have given them subscriptions and who our verifiers have been unable to see can help out if they happen to be in town by stopping at the Times office and giving us a verification of the order. Several have already done this. From present indications there will be as many of these Ranger bicycles awarded outside of Wichita Falls as there will be in the city, as the workers in Burkburnett, Electra, Iowa Park and Vernon are very active.

Teachers Pleased With Reduction in Prices in the City

The visiting teachers are commenting enthusiastically on the greatly reduced cost of living in Wichita Falls this year. "Last year I paid two dollars and a half for a room, every day of the five, and about two dollars for the three meals—no breakfast where we spent the night, by a long shot. It cost every man I know from four to six dollars a day to attend the institute here.

"This year we are all paying one dollar for bed and breakfast, and lunches and dinners cost about half or two-thirds as much. "They certainly are treating us nice this year. It has been a mighty expensive proposition before, but we couldn't ask anything more than we are getting now. We certainly appreciate it."

All of the local restaurants and cafes enjoyed a good business Tuesday afternoon, with the institute sessions transferred from the high school, where lunch was served Monday at the cafeteria, downtown to the Christian church. A big bulk of the crowd seemed to be at the Y. W. C. A. cafeteria, where the line extended from the serving table in the dining room down the long hall, the stairway and out on the sidewalk for nearly an hour.
