

DYNAMITERS ACTIVE IN CHICAGO

FIVE HUNDRED ARE EXPECTED TO MAKE BRECKENRIDGE TRIP

SHOP EMPLOYEES OF THE RAILROADS VOTE FOR A STRIKE LATER

WILL DEFER ACTION PENDING ANNOUNCEMENT OF WORKING RULES

WILL ALSO TAKE VOTE ON NEW RULES PROPOSED

CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—Railroad employees throughout the country today received an official announcement that railroad shopmen belonging to the six federated shop crafts unions have voted to strike against the general railroad wage reduction of July 1 last, but will defer action pending promulgation of working rules now pending before the United States railroad labor board.

Another vote will be taken on acceptance or rejection of the rules. The announcement was made yesterday by E. M. Jewell, head of the shop crafts organization, at a mass meeting of Chicago shop workers.

The unions seek to retain the present national agreements intact, and has been indicated will make a more determined fight for retention of present wages.

General charges were made at the meeting yesterday by Mr. Jewell that the railroads were opposing demands of the unions as part of a movement to crush organized labor.

The strike vote, completed August 1, was announced as showing a constitutional majority against the wage which went into effect July 1. This was the first official confirmation of the result which has been rumored for some time.

Condemnation of the operations of the labor board and of its decisions was voiced by all the speakers at the meeting. Mr. Jewell charged that the railroads were attempting to use the board to take an unfair situation in a practical way and announce the remaining rules simultaneously instead of piecemeal.

"Labor battle has always been on the defensive," Mr. Jewell said. "We ask only for justice—but will accept nothing less. There is hope for the future."

The present situation was declared to be the "most critical and most important" which ever confronted shop employees, by Edward J. Evans, representative of the Pennsylvania railroad. He said the members were unalterably opposed to many of the labor board decisions, especially that governing overtime payment, which was included in the seven rules so far announced by the board.

N. E. Good, chairman of the Pennsylvania system federation of shop crafts, told of his belief that the Pennsylvania railroad had been selected to make a fight for the open shop as the first step in such a movement on all railroads.

General charges that the railroads were opposing demands of the unions as part of a movement which Jewell said was backed by "nine billion dollars or more," were made. The object, he said, "was to crush organized labor."

He criticized unfair action by the railroads in offering to negotiate rules on each individual road and then failing to agree. Only five agreements had been completed among the unions as part of a movement which Jewell said was backed by "nine billion dollars or more," were made. The object, he said, "was to crush organized labor."

The most important project which we have launched in a long time," was the comment of various directors of the chamber of commerce following a meeting Monday morning for the discussion of the Breckenridge trade excursion. Hearty endorsement of the trip was given by the directors, practically all of whom declared their intention of being on board when the special train leaves this city at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Over 500 local Wichitans are expected to make up the party, according to J. W. Chatham Jr., traffic manager of the chamber of commerce, who is handling the details of the trip. A number of tickets have already been sold, but the big rush will come in the afternoon and will end with the arrival of the excursionists at the board of the Southern special.

Five hundred is a conservative estimate, Chatham believes, for interest in the trip is more pronounced than in any of the excursions thus far promoted by the local civic organization. A statement in which they gave their unqualified approval of the trip and which urged every Wichita Falls man would possibly do so to include himself in the party was issued Monday by J. A. Kemp, Frank Kell, T. B. Noble, W. D. Cline, C. W. Reid, W. Newton Maer, N. H. Martin, C. H. Clark, R. O. Harvey, G. Clint Wood and other members of the chamber directors' board.

The special leaves this city at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, not until 7 a. m. as has been previously announced, and will arrive in the Stephens county seat at 1:35 o'clock. The return trip is scheduled to begin at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon and will end with the arrival here at 11:10 p. m.

A band will be included as part of the regular train equipment and officials of the chamber of commerce are promising that enough noise and cheer will be provided to keep everyone in a cheerful frame of mind all day. Appropriate advertising novelties are being prepared by various merchants for distribution among the excursionists.

EMPEROR OF THE INVISIBLE EMPIRE

William Joseph Simmons, head of the Ku Klux Klan, in civilian clothes, and in his regalia as Emperor of the organization.

Department of Justice and Congress Will Investigate Invisible Empire

SALES TAX IS NOT INCLUDED IN SENATE REVISED TAX BILL

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—Federal authorities are going to fire two shots into the white-robed ranks of the Ku Klux Klan.

The first probably will be a thorough investigation of the order by the department of justice.

The second will be a congressional inquiry.

William Joseph Simmons, known as emperor of the Invisible Empire, may be summoned from his headquarters at Atlanta, to Washington to present his case.

The postoffice department is seeking to determine whether the Klan has violated postal regulations.

Heads of the American Federation of Labor are warning their thousands of adherents to steer clear of the Klan.

The Klan claims a total membership of 200,000 and says it is calling 1,000,000 recruits to the colors every week.

Its officers say it is a fraternal patriotic organization based on the tradition of the Ku Klux Klan which flourished in the south during the reconstruction period following the Civil war.

They say it is dedicated to loyal Catholic and anti-wish, anti-alien, anti-Semitic and anti-foreign propaganda and to stir up racial and religious hatred and internal strife.

It is upon these charges that federal action will be based.

Burns Ready to Act.

William J. Burns, chief of the bureau of investigation, department of justice, says he has not yet looked into the Klan's operation, but will do so as soon as he is authorized by Attorney General Daugherty.

Daugherty is not now in Washington. Burns says it is probable he will order a probe immediately upon his return.

MEASURE IS FINALLY APPROVED BY THE FINANCE COMMITTEE

Committee Accepts Principle of Amendment for Tax on Liquor

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—The Smoot proposal for a manufacturers' sales tax is not included in the revised house bill as formally approved today by the senate finance committee.

Senator Penrose said after some discussion of the proposal, no action was taken.

Smoot reserved the right to present the plan in the senate.

While accepting the principle of Senator Calder's amendment to impose a tax of $4.40 a gallon on all alcoholic liquors withdrawn from bond for other than manufacturing purposes, the committee did not include the text in the bill to be presented to the senate.

Chairman Penrose said Mr. Calder would offer the amendment in the senate and that practically it would be a committee amendment.

Before taking its formal vote on the house bill an amendment to repeal the one cent tax on amusement admission charges of ten cents or less.

Mr. Calder estimated that this provision would reduce government revenues by $5,000,000 a year.

The committee also changed its amendment relating to the tax on hotel charges so that hotels would pay 10 per cent on the full price charged for single rooms in excess of $5 and rooms for two persons in excess of $8.

As originally drawn this provision imposed a tax of 10 per cent on the amount of the charge of $5 and $8.

Treasury officials have yet to complete their final estimate on the total revenue that the amended bill will produce this year, but they have informed the committee that it would not be less than $2,000,000,000, or the minimum which Secretary Mellon has said would be needed.

Representative Leonard M. Dyer of Missouri, member of the house judiciary committee, is studying statutes and precedents to determine what action congress can take.

It is probable that we'll pass a resolution empowering some committee or subcommittee to make an investigation of the Klan, which he will present soon after congress convenes.

VOTE FOR SENATOR IN NEW MEXICO AS A POLITICAL INDEX

BOTH PARTIES EXPECT RESULT TO MIRROR ANY CHANGE IN SENTIMENT

FACTIONAL STRIFE AND THREE-CORNERED CONTEST

One of Trio of Candidates to Succeed Former Senator Fall, is a Mexican

National Political Correspondent of the New York Evening Post and Wichita Daily Times. (Copyright 1921 by the New York Evening Post)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—The first election of a national official since the republicans came into power occurs on Tuesday. Because it is the first of its kind, politicians of both parties look forward to proclaiming the result as an index to any change or lack of change in public sentiment since March 4. The election is in New Mexico and is for a United States senator.

In national elections, New Mexico is normally a doubtful state. Harding carried it against Cox by about 9,000, but Wilson carried it against Hughes by about 2,000. One of the senators now sitting, Andrew A. Jones, carried the state as a democrat by a majority of 4,000. The other member, Senator Holm O. Bursum, is a republican who holds the office by a temporary appointment from the governor, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Albert Fall when he became secretary of the interior. It is to fill this vacancy permanently that the election on Tuesday is being held. Bursum is the republican candidate to succeed himself, and the democratic candidate is Richard Hann. Both the republican and the democratic national committees are making the election an important matter.

The republicans have sent in Senator Cameron of Arizona to stump the state together with several other republican orators. Also, the republicans have three of their best western speakers at work. The democrats have sent in half a dozen congressmen from Texas and other nearby states.

It is doubtful if the public outside of New Mexico, need take as much interest in the outcome as the politicians do. Senator Bursum, because of the brevity of service, is not an important senator, and a difference of one vote in the senate is not vital at a time when the republicans have 57 to the democrats' 29. Moreover, the election will really be decided on real national issues. About 40 per cent of the state's vote is Mexican, and of the Mexican vote fully 80 per cent is normally republican. But within the last year the republican management within the state has displeased the Mexicans, with the result that a Mexican is running as a third candidate in the present election.

In several other respects the reputation of the republicans has suffered. In the election, the republicans have had a bad showing in the election, but recently events have cheered them up, and they are now watching and helping eagerly.

FIFTEEN HUNDRED STICKS OF EXPLOSIVES ARE SEIZED AND ONE OF THE GANG IS WOUNDED

CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—Fourteen hundred sticks of dynamite, three inches in diameter and ten inches long, and 100 sticks of TNT were seized today by the police following the capture of five dynamiters in the act of bombing a shoe repair shop.

One of the prisoners was shot in the side after the police had surrounded the shop for ten hours following a mysterious tip that it was to be bombed.

Richard Burke, 23 years old, the wounded man, was carrying the bomb when the five approached, three inches in diameter and ten inches long, and 100 sticks of TNT were seized today by the police following the capture of five dynamiters in the act of bombing a shoe repair shop.

As Burke turned to flee, Michael Hughes, chief of detectives, shot him. The other four surrendered. They gave their names as Michael Bench, James Smith, John Barry and Charles Young. Search of their homes disclosed the bomb making plant.

FORBES FIELD, PITTSBURGH, Sept. 15.—In clear but cool weather, the Pirates and Giants lined up this afternoon for the last game they will play together this season. Douglas and Adams were announced as the opposing pitchers.

The Pirates refused before the game to admit that they were out of the pennant race and declared that they expected to do much better against Brooklyn and Philadelphia, which teams will follow New York here, while New York is playing against Chicago and St. Louis. With two men out in the first inning, New York made its first score. Frisch singled to left, stole second and raced home on Young's single into left field. Kelly, the last batter, fanned.

Pittsburgh tied the score in the sixth when Adams tripped to left center and scored on Bigbee's sacrifice fly to right. Score 1 to 1.

Pittsburgh took the lead in the seventh inning when Cutshaw doubled to left, took third on Barnhart's sacrifice and scored when Douglas threw Grimm's hit to him wild to the plate. DAIL EIREANN HOLDS MEETING TO DISCUSS THE IRISH QUESTION

SESSION WITH A FULL ATTENDANCE LASTS FOR ONE HOUR

COMMUNICATION WILL BE GIVEN OUT TONIGHT

Another Telegram is Sent to Lloyd George By the Irish Republican Leader

By Associated Press. DUBLIN, Sept. 18.—The Dail cabinet today placed under approval a demand for a suspension of the recent disturbances there. Persons found on the streets of the district between the hours of 5:30 p. m. and 8:30 a. m. will be arrested, it was announced.

DUBLIN, Sept. 18.—The Dail cabinet held a full meeting this afternoon lasting an hour. Michael Collins, minister of finance, and Charles Burgess, minister of defense, left the meeting early. A communication to the press regarding the session is expected tonight.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—Eamonn de Valera telegraphed to Premier Lloyd George today asking whether Mr. Lloyd George's letter of September 7, was intended as a demand for a surrender on our part or an invitation to a conference free on both sides and without prejudice, should an agreement not be reached.

Mr. de Valera says that if the latter is meant, the Sinn Fein confirms its acceptance of the invitation to a conference and its delegates are ready to meet the British representatives at any time in the immediate future.

Mr. de Valera's telegram read: "Your last telegram makes it clear that misunderstandings are more likely to increase than diminish and the cause of peace is more likely to be retarded than advanced by the continuance of the present correspondence."

"We request, therefore, to state whether your letter of September 7, intended to be a demand for surrender on your part or an invitation to a conference free on both sides and without prejudice should an agreement not be reached."

"If the latter, we readily confirm our acceptance of the invitation and your appointment of delegates will meet your government representatives at any time in the immediate future that you designate."

Mr. de Valera in beginning his note declared that the Sinn Fein had no other thought of asking the acceptance of any conditions for the conference.

The Irish republican expresses the belief that a treaty of accommodation and association properly concluded between Great Britain and Ireland, and between Ireland and the states making up the British Commonwealth would end the dispute forever, enabling both Irish and British to settle down in peace and work together in friendly co-operation in affairs of agreed common concern.

DAIL EIREANN EXPECTED TO CONSIDER COMMUNICATION

By Associated Press. DUBLIN, Sept. 18.—Eamonn de Valera may call the Dail Eireann tomorrow to deliberate on the situation brought about by the latest note sent to Dublin by Prime Minister Lloyd George. This communication was received yesterday at an hour that prevented the British republican cabinet from considering it before today.

Readiness to meet Mr. de Valera or other delegates from the Sinn Fein in the capacity of the chosen spokesmen for southern Ireland, was expressed by the prime minister, but he refused to confer with them as "representatives of a sovereign and independent state." Mr. Lloyd George pointed out that when Mr. de Valera was born in London to begin conversations as to a basis for settlement of the Irish problem he was received as the "chosen leader of the great majority in southern Ireland," and Mr. de Valera accepted this designation.

Bishop O'Gorman died last night following a stroke of paralysis Tuesday of last week. He was 75 years of age. Rev. MORE THAN FIFTY WITNESSES HEARD IN MINGO INQUIRY

By Associated Press. WILLIAMSON, W. VA., Sept. 18.—After hearing more than fifty witnesses, from whom they obtained first-hand information of the industrial troubles in the Mingo coal fields, Senators Kenyon and Shortridge, members of a special senate investigating committee, went to the Mingo district today. It was at that little mining village that the now famous battle, in which ten men met death, occurred.

Up until midnight and out again at daybreak, the senators received a regular procession of witnesses and while they declined to discuss the nature of the testimony or to comment, it was evident that they were satisfied with their investigation here.

SITUATION IN INDIA MORE SERIOUS THAN AT FIRST BELIEVED

LONDON, Sept. 18.—Official investigation of conditions in India show that the situation is more serious than was at first believed. The military forces sent into the troubled district of the Malabar coast are experiencing difficulties owing to the rebels and the nature of the country. Formidable bands of rebels are scattered through the hills, which for the most part are covered with forests.

Two thousand rebels are said to be massed in the Pandalur hills, northeast of Calicut, where an action is imminent, and another band is endeavoring to join these rebels. Officials here hold that the insurgents can be started out if the main roads are held and certain areas are garrisoned.

TEXAS CATTLE MEN URGE ENFORCEMENT OF SLAUGHTER LAW

COUNTY ATTORNEY'S OFFICE STATES IT WILL PROSECUTE LOCAL VIOLATORS

BUTCHER MUST HAVE BILL OF SALE FOR EACH ANIMAL

Accurate Record Must Be Kept of Every Animal Slaughtered Sub- ject To Inspection

Texas cattle raisers are urging that county officials assist in the enforcement of the slaughter law and the county attorney's office of Wichita county advises that the law will be enforced in this county and all violators prosecuted.

The laws on the subject are lengthy and call for various requirements. Every person who engages in the slaughter of animals must take a bill of sale for each animal killed and must further keep an accurate record of every animal slaughtered. This record must be kept open for inspection at any time. Heavy fines are imposed on violators of these statutes.

A few of the important laws on the matter are herewith quoted: "If any butcher or any other person engaged in the slaughter of animals shall kill or cause to be killed, any unmarked or unbranded animal for market, shall purchase and kill or cause to be killed any animal without having taken the bill of sale or written transfer from the person selling the same, he shall be fined not less than $50 nor more than $200.

"If any person engaged in the slaughter and sale of animals for market, in any county, city, town or village in this state, shall fail to report to the commissioners' court of the county in which he transacts business, at each regular term thereof, the number, color, sex, marks and brands of every animal slaughtered by him since the last term of court, accompanied with a bill of sale or written conveyance to him of every animal slaughtered, save such as were raised by himself, which shall be specified, he shall be punished by a fine not less than $50 nor more than $200.

Another section of the law specifies that every person engaged in this kind of business is required to register his name with the county clerk and is also required to file a bond in a sum not less than $200 nor more than $1,000.

"Every person who shall carry on the business of butchering or slaughtering animals and shall fail to keep accurate and faithful record in a book kept for the purpose of all cattle purchased and slaughtered by him, together with a description of each animal, including sex, age, color, weight and from whom purchased and the date of purchase, or shall fail to give the name and address of such animal inspected by the inspector or some magistrate, within 24 days after such animal is slaughtered, shall be fined in any sum not less than $25 nor more than $200."

ADMIRAL SIMS SAYS HE WAS MISQUOTED

Makes Public Letter Written To National Merchant Marine Association

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—Declaring that Senator Carter Glass of Virginia was mistaken in quoting him as saying in a conversation in London that the United States ought not to undertake the development of a merchant marine of its own, Rear Admiral William S. Sims in a letter to the National Merchant Marine Association made public here today, explained that what he did say is that with the present restriction of our present shipping laws it would be very difficult for our country to develop a merchant marine commensurate with its needs.

The statement was made in a letter written by Sims to the national association in a reply to a letter from the association in which it was stated that Sims had been quoted as saying that the United States ought not to undertake the development of a merchant marine of its own.

"When I was asked in 1918, Admiral Sims said in his statement, 'I do not think it is wise for the United States to undertake the development of a merchant marine of its own. I think it is wise for the United States to undertake the development of a merchant marine of its own. I think it is wise for the United States to undertake the development of a merchant marine of its own.'"

"In the absence of a merchant marine to furnish the transport for the immense amount of supplies that a fleet would need, that fleet would be restricted in its operations to a comparatively short distance from its nearest base."

"If our fleet had to be sent to make an attack at a long distance across the ocean, it would require something like thirty thousand tons of supplies a day, including fuel and all other supplies. This is one of the essential elements that enters into the consideration of what we call the logistics of a military operation, and one of the subjects which receives the closest study of those who are charged with the preparation of naval plans."

"As I remember my conversation with Senator Glass, it was to the effect that with the present restriction of our shipping laws, it would be very difficult for our country to develop a merchant marine commensurate with our needs."

First Picture, Loading U.S. Food for Russia

This picture, which has just reached America from Filipe, Latvia, shows Russians working under the direction of American relief administration officers, loading American food for transport across the border into Russia, where thousands are dying from famine. The bags of food shown here were taken from the supplies already in Europe, where the A. R. A. is feeding babies of other countries. Thus no time was lost in rushing aid to the starvation areas.

INCH OF RAINFALL IS RECORDED NORTH OF ELECTRA SUNDAY

The dark clouds in the northwest Sunday evening that sent many automobile pleasure riders scurrying homeward brought no relief to Wichita Falls, but farmers north and west of Electra reported an inch of rainfall. The rain came in torrents, but the shower lasted only a half hour, they stated. The country north of Electra was in need of rain.

A small shower was reported just north of Iowa Park but it only was sufficient to settle the dust.

ANOTHER HOP STILL GOES TO REST IN SCRAP HEAP

Constable Frank Morgan and his deputies escorted another hot still to the scrap heap following a raid Saturday night. The 40-gallon still with ten gallons of mash was found on the big Wichita about seven miles from the city. According to the officers, a hot fire was burning under the still and everything was in readiness for a run. A pair of old shoes and a cap were the only belongings left behind by the proprietor. No arrests were made.

ARRESTED FOR COMPLICITY IN HUGE EXCHANGE FRAUD

LISBON, Sept. 19.—Pedro Arraujo, a prominent Oporto banker, has been arrested for alleged complicity with other persons in a huge exchange fraud. The arrest followed recent developments in negotiations between the Portuguese government and a company with headquarters in Antwerp, supposed to be backed by an American group of bankers, which proved to be non-existent. A number of well known bankers have been summoned to an inquiry into the alleged fraud, while the extradition of the chief intermediaries is to be asked for.

TRIANGLE WELL OPERATORS DELAYED BY WATER TROUBLE

VERNON, TEXAS, Sept. 19.—Triangle well operators have been held up the last few days through water trouble. This is the only outfit operating at this time in the field south of Vernon, where the oil boom started more than a year ago.

The Triangle was obliged to lay two and one-half miles of pipe, and when pressure was applied the main burst. The break has been repaired, however, and water is now in the tank. The drill is more than 300 feet down. Much stock in the company is owned locally and by residents in the nearby vicinity.

Klim users face no fears of milk shortage, no delayed deliveries, no undependable quality; they have no worries about souring. Klim does not sour in summer—it does not freeze in winter. In any locality, in any season, it is always the same excellent milk awaiting use.

VERDICT IN VERNON COURT IN FAVOR OF DENVER

VERNON, TEXAS, Sept. 19.—The case of Millers Indemnity Underwrit-

ers vs. Fort Worth and Denver City railroad in the district court here was won Saturday after a lengthy consideration by the railroad company. The suit was for $25,000 and arose over an alleged refusal of railroad employees on a freight train at Chillicothe to clear a crossing when a gin caught fire. It was charged that the fire department of the city was unable to fight the flames through this action. Attorneys for the railroad claimed that a crossing two blocks down was open and could have been used, and that the department was inadequately equipped to fight the flames even had they been permitted to cross the tracks.

THE WOMAN'S PAGE

Meetings Tuesday Include Business and Social Clubs

Tuesday's meetings include the opening of the Business Women's club, the third largest woman's organization in the city; the joint business and social meeting of the Pat Carrigan Legion and auxiliary, which is of special significance, and the fall opening of the Junior High Parent-Teacher organization. The Golf club will also have its fall meeting, with the open house hours changed from morning to afternoon.

A big attendance is expected at the Business Women's club, which meets for supper and business at 6:30 o'clock in the club rooms at the Y. W. C. A. Invitations were recently mailed to each member and an effort will be made during the fall to enroll every business woman and girl in the city in the club. Plans for the year's work are ambitious and practical, and the woman's business club expects to pull with the men's clubs for the social and civic advancement.

The Junior High mothers and teachers meet at 4 o'clock at the school auditorium, and they also are expected to have a full attendance. Other parent-teacher organizations are scheduled for meetings during the week, and the fall work of beautifying playgrounds and school interiors will begin at once.

The Legion auxiliary meeting will be the first joint social and business session of the woman's chapter has held with the men's and will be marked by the first report in the big campaign for membership.

Honorees at the Golf club party in the afternoon, beginning at 2:30, will include the following: Mesdames Jack Barnard, J. H. Barnard, M. J. Bashara, H. F. Baum, A. B. Booth, Scott Lower, L. R. Buchanan and T. R. Boone.

The service was said at 1 o'clock by Dr. Wallace Hassett, and shortly afterward Mr. and Mrs. Lynch came to Wichita Falls. They are at home to their friends at the William-Mary hotel.

Mr. Lynch is connected with the Saul store here.

TEACHERS ARE ENTERTAINED AT GOLF CLUB FRIDAY EVENING

All of the pleasures of the club were turned over to the teachers, many of them enjoying putting on the green, a di, in the pool, and various games. Fruit punch was served later in the event.

THINGS IN THE MIDDLE. You have heard a lot of about mothers the past week; so much about the right kind that maybe you forgot there were any of the other kind. And yet there are mothers and mothers in the world, and sometimes a mother who justifies Innescourt's challenge—"Show me the mother of the boy who has gone wrong, and I'll tell you when he started." Last week's news had a queer paragraph in it from a mother—the mother of the boy who committed two of the most brutal murders of the decade to gain a $5,000 touring car.

"I cannot understand why Harvey buried the man (Carl Ausmus) in the garage," was her only comment after listening to his recital of the details of the horrible double murder. "There is a vacant lot next door where all the dead cats and dogs in the neighborhood are buried. Why didn't he bury him there. Then they would never have found him."

And maybe you've heard a lot about "beautiful" men, but you probably haven't heard of one so handsome as young Dr. H. E. Oliver, of Chicago. Dr. Oliver was hailed in court by his landlord, who wanted possession of the apartment occupied by the Olivers. "He's too handsome," the landlord charged. "The other tenants are going to move if he doesn't. He's handsome, and his wife is jealous. She thinks he is so darn pretty that every woman wants him, and they fight from 6 in the evening to 8 in the morning, and the tenants can't sleep." Out of nineteen tenant cases, this was the only one with a decision in favor of a landlord.

MOVIES and MORALS

How Do Employers Regard Girls? Mrs. Calhoun Tells

Movies and morals are being discussed everywhere as a result of the Arbuckle case. "What price must a girl pay for a movie career?" people ask. The question is answered in this series of articles written especially for the Wichita Daily Times by Mrs. Florence Calhoun, mother of Alice Calhoun, the Vitagraph star who in five years has risen from a $5-a-day extra to a $1,000-a-week performer.

By FLORENCE CALHOUN Mother of Alice Calhoun, Vitagraph Star, the Youngest in the Movies That beauty is the only asset required to assure a girl success in the movies is a fallacy, but it is a popular belief.

Animated by it, many of Alice Calhoun's fans send her their pictures, asking if the originals are qualified for camera work.

Some are so charming that she often wonders why fate directed her instead of some other into the world of photo play.

Beauty is essential—but beauty of face and figure alone will not suffice for enduring success.

There must be beauty of soul—and this beauty is achieved by resistance to the temptations that beset the girl on her way to stardom.

These temptations are not necessarily of shadowland. There are many outsiders who make it their avocation to prey upon the girls and women of screen or stage. These seem to think that because a girl entertains the public, she is public property.

Strength of soul usually goes hand in hand with health of body.

And given a certain amount of good looks, of a kind which will photograph to advantage, good health is the next essential to film stardom.

It cannot be denied that beauty of a certain special type which directors and camera men recognize at a glance is a factor in the making of a star.

But there is a tremendous wear and tear upon beauty in the movies of which the young aspirant and the fans seldom dream.

This is not the wear and tear of disipation—but the strain and tension of quick and precise acting before the camera.

Every woman knows the effect of overwork upon good looks—until one has recuperated.

The movie industry is run primarily to make money. A high-salaried star is a large investment. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are invested in her name alone.

Hence movie producers want a star to safeguard her health. They prize most the star whose private life is such that she will serve them longest on the screen.

This means that every girl, hoping to make a substantial success in the movies must ordain her life with care.

But there is a supreme morale without which no movie artist ever arrived anywhere. Of it I will write tomorrow.

Roll each oyster in a slice of bacon and fasten with toothpicks. Heat a frying pan very hot and put in the prepared oysters. Cook, turning frequently until the bacon is crisp and brown all over.

While both these recipes demand excessive heat, the oyster is protected in such a way that the increased temperature does not affect the oyster.

FASHIONS

Very naive and fetching is this frock for the dance, in deep rose taffeta snugly laced with black velvet ribbon over a pointed tunic cut to disclose a rich foundation of silver lace. A saucy puff which pretends to act as sleeve is made of plicated strips of the taffeta, and while the square neck is very attractive, a round of V-neck will be harmonious with the general lines and character of the design.

In many of the French collections this picture type of evening frock was suggested, notably at the house of Molyneux. Here, however, instead of using the tight-fitted bodice usually associated with the bouffant skirt, the long-waisted bodice with no curve to the seams was employed, with the dropped shoulder-line neck of the 1830 period, which is so

PREVENTING THE FLOODS.

When North Texas builds great irrigation reservoirs to catch and hold the flood waters before they get far on their swirling and destructive way and when South Texas builds levees and dikes along the lower courses of the streams the floods will be robbed of most of their terror.

A start is being made in Wichita and several other North and West Texas counties toward providing reservoirs to store the flood waters. From South Texas is coming the suggestion that the state no longer wait on the federal government in providing levees and in straightening the lower reaches of the rivers.

The federal government has in unmistakable terms made it clear that it will take no part in the work, in so far as the purpose relates to protection of individual interests, but would confine itself to whatever work has relation to navigation; therefore the state alone must deal with the great question of flood prevention.

The ink was scarcely dry on the editorial page before the floods again took their tragic toll of lives and property. If the editorial be not accorded the dignity of correct prophecy it should at least serve to emphasize a need which has been made, if possible, more apparent than it was before.

The question is, and always has been, and until the work is done, will continue to be, a big one. It is not political, it is not sectional, it is not local. It is a question of business, of economics, of statewide interest, of common sense and common humanity.

Whether floods will or will not come, is not a matter of probability, or conjecture, but of absolute certainty. They have been coming from a time so far back that the memory of man runneth not to the contrary.

They have reaped at each coming a ruinous harvest of crops and barns and houses and homes and livestock, and human lives, and have left desolation and bankruptcy in their wake.

Every man knows this to be true. It is history, written in lines of horror and sorrow and financial ruin, yet no man has ever proposed to begin to see if some plan of prevention cannot be put in force.

Legislators have spent thousands of dollars wrangling over the arrangement of legislative, senatorial and congressional districts.

They have employed marvelous ingenuity in discovering some new object to tax.

The Colorado from Austin to the Gulf of Mexico, the Brazos from Waco to the gulf and the Trinity from Fort Worth to Trinity Bay should be not only cleaned out but straightened.

These rivers traverse areas which can and do produce as great a variety of products and in as great quantities as does any other territory on earth, yet more than once when the far-spreading fields were rich in promise of a prodigious harvest they have, in the twinkling of an eye, been swept clean and bare, and ruin and want took the place of plenty, and yet no legislature has ever sought, except in a local, restricted way, to prevent such calamities.

The very silence of the present desolation in the wake of floods is an eloquent and appealing call for help.

A LOCAL NEED

Apparently one of the real contenders at the St. Louis golf tournament this week will be one Willie Hunter, the postoffice clerk, who recently won the British championship and who has come to America in an effort to capture some western laurels.

The fact that a clerk can attain sufficient proficiency in a game requiring such constant and assiduous practice attests to the democracy of golf in Great Britain. We look in vain for similar testimony on this side of the Atlantic.

In this country, golf is just breaking away from the "rich man's game" class; not that all its devotees in this country are, or have been, wealthy men, but it has been very largely a sport for the well-to-do, at least. It is a sport that requires a rather elaborate playground and more or less expensive equipment; in most cases, it has been a feature of a club that has expensive features and the sport has had the reputation, merited or not, of being only for those with ample pocketbooks.

Golf is too good a game, too entertaining, too relaxing, too diverting and too fascinating, to be thus limited. It ought to be made available for those of moderate means. The public golf course idea is gradually gaining in this country, there has been some talk of it in Wichita Falls. It is a really worth while movement. Whether or not the notion of "chasing a gutta percha ball around a cow pasture" appeals to the average office-worker, clerk or salesman, a few hours at it will convert him. He will get moderate exercise, plenty of fresh air, a world of relaxation and, not a little genuine sport. Perhaps some day some Wichita man can afford to do so will make a public course possible in Wichita Falls.

President Harding is getting lots of good use out of the presidential yacht, Mayflower, and we're glad to see it. Being president of the United States is a most strenuous job. President Wilson's health broke down under the strain. We don't want to see the same thing happen to President Harding and so long as the latter will throw off the cares of his office frequently for a sail on the Mayflower or for a trip to the White Mountains and things like that it is unlikely that he will break down. All of us need relaxation occasionally even if our jobs are not so strenuous as President Harding's and there is nothing like it to keep us in good health.

The Abilene Reporter Sunday issued a 78-page edition preliminary to the West Texas fair at Abilene September 26-October 1. This fair will be one of the big events of the year in West Texas. It has become a valuable asset to Abilene. Wichita Falls is passing up a big opportunity in not having a fair that would be representative of Northwest Texas. Getting back to the big edition of the Reporter—it is as splendid as it was big and will be a big boost for the fair and for Abilene.

Sleeping porches will soon be sleeping alone.

Wichita Falls ought to send a large and representative delegation to Breckenridge Tuesday. The trip will celebrate the linking of Breckenridge and Wichita Falls by railroad and will be an important event in the history of both towns. The completion of the railroad makes more accessible to Wichita Falls the great oil district about Breckenridge. It opens a splendid territory of Wichita Falls wholesalers and jobbers. It opens opportunities of every kind for Wichita Falls business men. It opens similar opportunities for Breckenridge. It is proper that the event be celebrated. Breckenridge is making great preparations to receive the Wichita Falls delegation. Lets have a big and enthusiastic one.

Marshall, Texas, is to be the home of the new million dollar Darco corporation, according to an announcement by a representative of the company. The company will manufacture Darco, a substance used for clarifying sugar. Lignite will be used in its manufacture. Large deposits of lignite are to be found near Marshall. The district has a great gas supply. The lignite is treated with great heat to make it into Darco. Here are two natural resources of Texas that will be used to manufacture a finished product. There are many other natural resources that await only capital and the genius of man to make them useful to civilization.

Our definition of an optimist is a democrat who takes a civil service examination under the Harding administration.

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

WHAT'S A TEMPER FOR?

The other day I stood on the corner of a busy street in a big city and watched, for quite a time, a policeman handle the traffic.

Every once in a while he lost his temper and took it out on some driver or pedestrian who, he said, "didn't use their head." Well, I was a witness to the fact that they didn't. But I didn't like to see this officer lose his temper! He could have used it for something more important!

I have no idea why tempers were invented. Unless it was that we might learn the shortest method whereby they might be controlled.

It is significant that the more temper you give away, the more you accumulate.

So that it would appear that the wisest way of handling your temper is to keep it as far away from other people as possible. And not to humor it. For it is a great deal like a chained dog. Harmless while chained, but if irritated too much, there is the danger that the chain may break with much damage resulting.

What's a temper for, then? To let alone! A temper must be a good thing, or else we all would not have one. But usage never improves it. As we all know.

There is a difference between "righteous wrath" and a fiery temper. The former, under the proper circumstance, exhibits the sterling stuff that most good humans possess, but the latter pictures the worst of a man or woman and shows them up at their weakest.

What's a temper for? To KEEP! You rarely see an important or a useful man lose his temper. For, you see, he needs it. He uses it to make him stronger. To make him understand the failings in other people, and to teach him that he is very fallible. Don't let anybody take your temper from you.

MAKING A MAN.

I'm trying hard to make a certain fellow here behave.

I'm trying hard to teach him when it's proper to be grave.

I want to make a man of him, the sort of man I know.

Who gets a welcome and a smile wherever he may go;

I want him to be straight and true, I want him to be strong.

A fine example for the boy who follows him along.

I've set myself a mighty task, this man I hope to change.

Annoys me with his wilful way and all his manners strange;

His temper is a sudden thing and when he lets it fly

He's very likely to forget his boy is standing by.

And on such sad occasions I am always grieved to see

That he is not at all the man I've wanted him to be.

I try so hard to make him walk the broad and open way

And give so much of thought to him that when he goes astray

An' does some petty selfish things—in pity more than blame—

I take him from the throng awhile and tell him of his shame.

Then for the boy who follows him, the two of us agree

That I will keep on trying hard to make a man of me.

CURRENT COMMENT

Men and Jobs.

Jobless men seem to be on the increase in the north, and at Boston they are putting them up on the auction block. New York is preparing to buy the way of a lot of her surplus population to other points, in order that they might not be here there to be cared for during the winter. The financial condition of the country is not the best, but it has not been possible for this authority to place a very grave face on the unemployment question. We have always had a sneaking notion that a lot of unemployment has been caused by picking jobs, by the farmer farmer want to Wichita Falls the other day for picking cotton and came back with only one. There is an immense food crop raised in the country and with this on hand there does not seem to be imminent danger of starvation. Perhaps some of these jobless men could get a job heading maize in the Texas setting vine, half the crop for heading the rest—Baylor County Banner.

There are some men who would raise their heads and go out to a place like Wichita Falls than to go into the country and make a real living at real work. There is not much unemployment in Wichita Falls there was a few weeks ago. This is partly on account of the cotton fields having provided employment for many of those who really wanted to work. Among the men who were here there are still, however, a number of men who really want work of any kind anywhere at which they can earn a living. In the instance of Texas setting vine farmer we must believe that he just didn't know how to find them.

Little Benny's Note Book

By LEE PAPE

Me and Skinny Martin was taking a walk and just taking a walk and we came to 2 Eysytallians with no collars and a pushcart full of oranges taking to each other and waving their arms and shoulders as if they were trying to talk with as much as possible, and 2 girls was standing there watching them, being 2 bewty looking girls, Skinny wispering to me, Hay lets portent we can translate was theye talking about.

And we stopped next to the 2 bewty looking girls and one Eysytalian sed something and waved his shoulders and everything, and I sed, Did you hear that, Skinny, and I sed, Did you hear that, tomorrow if I dont raise, I dont raise.

With the 2 girls started to giggle and look at me and Skinny, and the other Eysytalian sed something back to the first Eysytalian and Skinny sed, G, that a hot one he asked him wat makes him so funny looking.

Making the 2 girls giggle more, and the first Eysytalian sed something else, and I sed, Ouch, Skinny did you get that, he sed he expects to eat 47 onions and 19 garlicks for supper.

And we kept on pretending to translate wat they sed and making the 2 bewty looking girls giggle, and all of a sudden something came down on the pavement with a fearsome squish, being a soft orange, and I looked up and the first Eysytalian was holding another one in his hand and looking at me and Skinny. Wassas da mat? You no like my language?

Heck, lets go, sed Skinny. Which we did, wawking away with a expression as if we was just going to wawk away anyhow but feeling kind of funny on our backs on account of not knowing weather he was going to throw the 2nd orange or not.

Which he dident.

The Men Who Fail

By DR. WM. E. BARTON

At a commercial men's dinner which I attended a few days ago a man, prominent in the business world and an authority of some note, said:

"Out of every hundred business men in America, ninety-eight fail. I have heard that statement before, and I wonder if it is true. He has means of more accurate knowledge than I, and yet I am disposed to doubt the truth of the statement, and I should be inclined to think that the proportion of successes is much larger.

The way is straight and the gate is narrow which leads to success anywhere, and few there be that find it. For wide is the way and many are the tributary paths that lead to failure. But this I think is true, that no where near ninety-eight per cent of American men fail permanently. The success as a real thing, makes a man who fails as a preacher goes into life insurance and succeeds. The man who fails as an editor makes a success as a stock broker.

In this land the opportunities are so free, and the spirit of generosity in business is so broad, that few men fail permanently. If they have character, health and industry.

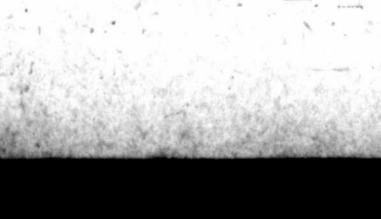

All of us have failed at something, and no one of us is anything like the success he ought to be. Success in America is almost too easy, and should be stronger men; if we had to toil more earnestly for our success.

You have tried something and have failed; Phillips Brooks, and Ulysses Grant was no great success as a farmer or a general.

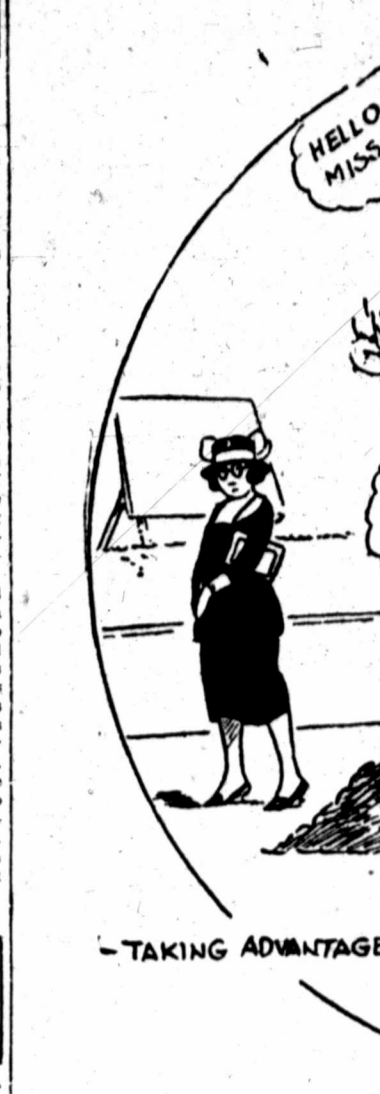

No man is a complete failure till he gives up the struggle. So long as a man has courage to try again, no one has a right to call him a failure. If you have failed, get up and try again.

COMMON SENSE WAYS TO KEEP WELL, DON'T BE DEAF

By DR. R. H. BISHOP

Deafness may be prevented by leaving the ears alone and taking care of the nose and throat. Those who are in the habit of catching colds usually are afflicted with ear troubles which in time result in deafness.

Studies of people who become hard of hearing at middle age show that the condition is somewhat disposed to run in families and it is those families which are particularly prone to colds and "grip" in which partial deafness always results.

Any measures which one may successfully employ to prevent colds in the head will prove of great benefit in the prevention of deafness. Good bodily health, strenuous exercise in the open air, and proper dressing are important measures. Much harm may come from overwrapping or bundling up the neck as it also may come from neglect to dress warm enough for cold or damp weather. One should never allow his skin to become so sensitive or his body resistance to become so low that the slightest draft or cold air will bring a cold.

City people spend much time indoors. They should therefore see that their homes are well ventilated as well as properly heated. Fresh air may be had during the winter and at the same time one can keep warm if ventilation and heating are linked together in the right way. Wrong ventilation or a lack of it and improper heating causes colds.

THE HISTORY OF YOUR NAME

By PHILIP FRANCIS NOWLAN

KING. Variations—Kingson, Whiting, White-ings. Root—Origin—English. Source—A nickname.

Whence come the tremendous number of King families which are to be found in every section of this country? One thing is certain. The family names in this group do not come from kings at all.

There is only one instance on record in English history where a person of royal birth adopted the parental title rather than the parental name as his surname, and if there is one point to which contemporary historians always pay attention, it is to the doings of their kings. One of the Henrys once did choose to style himself "Fitz-Empress" (son of the empress), but he did not pass the name on to his posterity. King as a family name could not have developed from such a source as this without leaving abundant historical record; and save for this one exception, there is no such record.

But among the most important diversions in the lives of the medieval English were the pageants or festivals with which the numerous feasts in the religious calendar were celebrated. Every great nobleman not only had a professional "fool" but at certain seasons his followers would choose a "King of Miracle" to lead the merry-making, as for instance in the Christmas celebrations. Besides, each village in the land enthroned its "king" and "queen" on May Day.

One old record reads: "We, Adam Bakhouse and Henry Nycol, hath made account for the Kingam (king-games) that tym don William Kempe, Kenge and Joan Whytebrade, Quen, and all costs deducted, 4 l. 5 s. 0 d."

Naturally those who took the part of kings in such festivals got such nicknames from their neighbors, and in the course of time the nicknames became family names. Whiting and Whiting are contractions of "White-King."

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Harvey W. Church, confessed slayer of Bernard J. Daugherty, automobile salesman, and Carl A. Ausmus, demonstrator, will face trial alone for the double slaying. It was announced at the state's attorney's office today.

Two indictments charging him with the murders separately are to be asked of the grand jury tomorrow, it was stated.

Both Clarence Wilder and Milton Walker, held as suspects, are to be released from jail, it was indicated today, as they have established satisfactory alibis. The case of Leon Parks, who confessed a part in the murder, is being further investigated.

WICHITA FALLS MAY INAUGURATE A FAIR ON EXTENSIVE SCALE

POSSIBILITY OF MOVEMENT IS SUGGESTED AT MEETING ON MONDAY

OBLIGATED TO ENTERTAIN WEST TEXAS NEIGHBORS

If Undertaken Matter Will Be Developed To Include A Large Territory

The possibility of Wichita Falls having an extensive fair next fall was hinted at Monday morning by the directors of the chamber of commerce when they met to consider the Breckenridge trade excursion and also the duties of the city regarding such an event. The fact that Wichita Falls was obligated to entertain its neighbors with a fair, barbecue or other municipal social affair was brought out forcibly by T. H. Noble, president of the board, and no definite action was taken Monday enough interest was stirred up to warrant the conclusion that the matter will be agitated further in the near future.

Suggestions that a barbecue be held here before cold weather set in and that invitations to come and partake of the city's hospitality be extended throughout the Wichita Falls trade territory, were turned down by the board on grounds that the time was too short for proper arranging of such an event.

"When we do put on something of this sort we want to be sure that it will do the city justice and be a credit to it," one director said, and his opinion was accepted by the others as final. Further discussion revealed that a barbecue would not answer the purpose of entertaining visiting business men satisfactorily.

In event the fair becomes a reality, members of the board believed that it should be made permanent institution and that it should be operated on a North Texas, Texas-Oklahoma, or a similarly impressive scale.

On the suggestion of Frank Kell, the board moved that a standing invitation be extended to Breckenridge business men to visit the city on Tuesday party to visit the city and enjoy the view as they fit. The same invitation applies to all her points included in the Wichita Falls trade territory.

REVELING LYING BY SIDE OF BURKBURNETT WOMAN TELLS A SILENT STORY

BURKBURNETT, Sept. 18.—A revolver lying beside Mrs. J. L. Bell of Burkburnett when neighbors entered the house after hearing a shot Sunday noon told a silent story of its own. Mrs. Bell was dead with a bullet through her heart.

According to officers who were called to the scene, Mrs. Bell had been in ill health for some little time. The justice of the peace stated that in his opinion death resulted instantaneously and that the wound was self-inflicted. The deceased is survived by the husband and an eight-year-old daughter of a former marriage. Mrs. Bell's immediate family resides at Vernon.

NEW U. S. AMBASSADOR AND FAMILY REACH JAPAN

By Associated Press. YOKOHAMA, Sept. 17.—Charles R. Warren, the new United States ambassador to Japan, arrived here today with his wife and three sons on board the steamer Golden State.

"I come to Japan not only for the purpose of seeking to be useful to my own country as an American, but also to become familiar with the Japanese people in the hope that I may be helpful in representing their attitude to my own government and people," Ambassador Warren told the newspaper correspondents on his arrival.

It was apparent Ambassador Warren struck a note pleasing to his hearers. His arrival, which was anticipated by numerous articles in the newspapers, is attracting special attention because Japan now is plunged in preparations for the Washington conference.

Rheumatism Due To Waste Products In the Blood

For Genuine Relief Your Blood Must Be Purified

As the blood circulates it has two functions to perform. First: To carry nutriment to all parts of the body. Second: To take up the waste products and cast them out through the proper channels. There is no disease more painful; nor a disease that is lead to as much serious trouble as rheumatism. Genuine relief can be had only by correcting the basic trouble—waste products.

Thousands and thousands of men and women during the past 40 years have cleared their blood of waste products with S. S. S. It is the ideal remedy for rheumatism, because it removes the poisonous waste matter which is causing the trouble. There are no bad after effects and the effect is wonderful. Begin taking S. S. Plans to Attempt N. Y. Auction Sale of the Unemployed

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—Urban Ledoux announced today that one unemployed woman and 25 men have asked to have their services sold at the auction which he proposes to hold on the steps of the public library tonight, notwithstanding objections of the police, labor leaders and others.

If the police should interfere he said the only weapon used in defense would be a song by a former service man, "The World is Dying for a Little Bit of Love."

Besides Ledoux, another volunteer worker who has attracted notice by his attention to problems of the unemployed, is Edward Brown of Denver, a brother of William C. Brown, formerly president of the New York Central road.

He described his observations on a tour of the city which he made at night in his old clothes. He is 45, and says he has studied the many unemployed in many cities in recent years. He saw hundreds of men sleeping in parks and even on pavements and in the streets, and doing their laundry in the morning at public fountains.

LEGITIMATE RUSSIAN INTERESTS WILL BE CAREFULLY GUARDED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Assurances that "legitimate Russian interests" will be carefully guarded at the disarmament and Far Eastern conference have been conveyed to the Russian people by the state department.

The assurance were contained in a message which was directed to the authorities of the Far Eastern republic at Chita in response to the request of the republic for its representatives be admitted to the conference.

The Chita government's request was handed to the American minister at Peking, but the American government made no formal reply since the so-called Far Eastern republic has not been recognized by the United States or other governments. The American minister at Peking, however, was instructed to convey the American views, which were paraphrased in an announcement by the state department today as follows:

"In the absence of a single recognized Russian government, the protection of legitimate Russian interests must devolve upon the United States upon the whole conference. It is regrettable that the conference, for reasons quite beyond the control of the participating governments, is being held at the disadvantage of Russian co-operation in its deliberations, but it is not to be conceived that the conference will take decisions prejudicial to legitimate Russian interests or which would in any manner violate Russian rights.

"It is the hope and expectation of the government of the United States that the conference will establish general principles of international action which will deserve and have the support of the people of Siberia and all Russia by reason of their justice and efficacy in the settlement of outstanding difficulties."

GRAND JURY TO REVIEW ARBUCKLE CASE MONDAY NIGHT

SHERMAN SUBPOENAED TO APPEAR AND TESTIFY

District Attorney Furnishes New Evidence to Government in Liquor Case

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—Dr. Arthur Beardlee, house physician at the hotel St. Francis and one of the witnesses in the case of Roscoe C. Arbuckle, accused in the death of Virginia Rappe, telegraphed District Attorney Brady from Bridgeport, Mono county, today that he would be in San Francisco tomorrow.

Dr. Beardlee left the city after the party in the St. Francis in which Arbuckle is charged with having attacked and fatally injured Miss Rappe.

The grand jury is to meet tonight to review all of the evidence at hand on the Arbuckle case. William U'ren, assistant district attorney, said:

Lowell Sherman, an actor who was present at the party, has been subpoenaed to appear before the grand jury here, U'ren announced. Sherman is reported to be en route to Chicago and there is no way by which he can be brought back, the district attorney said.

The district attorney sent for Robert H. McCormick, assistant United States attorney general in charge of prohibition prosecutions, to present new evidence that liquor was brought out and served at the party in the St. Francis.

STARTLING DEVELOPMENTS MAY RESULT FROM INVESTIGATION

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—Federal indictments under the prohibition laws in connection with Roscoe C. Arbuckle's party in a hotel here will be delayed, Robert H. McCormick, special assistant to the United States attorney general, announced today because he expected "startling new developments," he said.

McCormick is conducting an exhaustive investigation into the source of the liquor supply alleged to have been consumed at the Arbuckle party, the outcome of which may result in the arrest of Virginia Rappe, film actress. Belief that his investigations will unearth a system of liquor smuggling from Mexico to Los Angeles and San Francisco was expressed by McCormick.

Mrs. Arbuckle (Minta Durfee) arrived in San Francisco early today from New York to assist in her husband's defense against murder charges preferred against him for the death of Miss Rappe.

Charles Brennan and Milton Cohen, Arbuckle's attorneys, met Mrs. Arbuckle at Sacramento and denied her to interviewers, but she gave out the outcome of which was the death of Miss Virginia Rappe, film actress.

"I know and his friends know that he is innocent," the statement says. It declared that only one side of the case had been made known to the public and expressed belief that when the truth is known, the people of this country will be completely exonerated and his good name thoroughly cleared and that he again will take his place in the hearts of the American people.

The Arbuckles have been separated for five years, according to friends.

BILL TILDEN HOLDS THE TENNIS HONOR

Winner of Numerous Net Titles Defeats Johnson in Straight Sets

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 18.—Playing phenomenal tennis on the courts of the Germantown "Crickit" club here this afternoon, William T. Tilden II of Philadelphia, won the national singles championship by defeating Wallace F. Johnson, also of Philadelphia, 6-1, 6-2, 6-1.

It is doubtful if Tilden, holder of both American and English championships, ever rose to greater tennis heights. Before his game this afternoon, Johnson, a semi-finalist in several past seasons and always a ranking star, was helpless. He could not handle either Tilden's service or drives and lost after 43 minutes of play, which is said to be a record for championships.

CALL A MEETING OF TEMPLARS TO FORM DRILL TEAM

Otto Stehlik, captain general of Wichita Falls Commandery No. 49, has called a meeting of the Templars to be held in the Masonic Temple Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock for the purpose of organizing a drill team. It is anticipated that considerable interest will be taken in this meeting, as the members of the drill team will make a trip to the grand commandery to be held in Fort Worth in April next year, and also to the grand encampment of the United States of America to be held at New Orleans during the same month.

The drill team will consist of fifty Knights Templar, and membership can be maintained only by punctual attendance, as outlined in the by-laws which will be submitted at this meeting.

Several months ago the commandery made an appropriation to defray the expenses of the trip, and a transportation committee was appointed to arrange for Pullman service and for the parking of Pullman cars at Fort Worth and New Orleans.

It is estimated that one hundred Templars from Wichita Falls will attend the triennial convocation of the grand encampment to be held at New Orleans.

Galveston Man's Condition Was So Desperate Family Had to Sit Up With Him

"Tanlac knocked out my rheumatism after electrical and antitoxin treatments for rheumatism had failed," said A. W. Bruce, 825 Avenue G, Galveston, Texas.

"I suffered so I couldn't sleep or move myself and members of my family had to take turns sitting up with me. On nice days, with the help of my wife and my crutches, I could get from my room to the porch. I lost nearly 50 pounds in weight, too."

"When I had finished my third bottle of Tanlac, I was able to walk to the drug store myself and get the fourth bottle. All my rheumatic pain is gone now, my appetite is splendid and I am 'resting fine every night.' Tanlac has done for me what I thought was impossible for a medicine to do."

Tanlac is sold in Wichita Falls by Miller Drug Store, in Electra by Tartton Drug Store, West End Drug Company, Burkburnett Texas and by all leading druggists.—Adv.

Eighty-Eight Cases and Three Barrels of Whiskey Stolen

BLOOMFIELD, KY., Sept. 18.—Twenty masked and armed men overpowered two guards at the B. McCleskey and Sons distillery, bound them with wire torn from a telephone line, blindfolded them with curtains from the distillery office and escaped in seven touring cars with 88 cases and three barrels of whiskey early today.

Field Meet and Comedy Feature Final Clash of Season In Fort Worth

FORT WORTH, Sept. 18.—The Panthers and Spudders continued the hip-podroming started in Wichita Falls last week in the final game of the season here today and the 1921 champions had little difficulty in snowing the visitors under by the county of 13 to 6. The home club got away to a commanding lead in the third round and the contest developed into a farce thereafter.

Previous to the game a field meet was held by the two clubs and the honors were fairly well divided. Chick Taylor was the big winner and his all-around ability netted him $25. He won the distance throw, the one hundred yard dash and the Cecil Griggs and Ebbey Griggs in circling the bases. Rube Marshall and Abe Bowman split the purse in the pitchers' accuracy test. Sears and Darrough tied in the punt and race to first against time but the Panther won the runoff. Danny Clark was second in the distance throw. In the catcher's accuracy throw Haworth had an edge on Kitchens. Tiny Goodbred and Rube Marshall hooked up in a special 35-yard run which the former won by a nose.

"Lefty" Johns, who started on the left for the Cats, was presented a gold watch for by his Knights of Columbus admirers. Jake Axt broke into the lineup in the final chapter by taking his turn at bat and playing a season at short stop. Rube and Tiny worked the last few innings and their antics were worth the price of admission. Both comedians were at their best and kept the fans in a continual uproar.

The Cleveland boxing commission is to be commended for refusing to allow Jack Dempsey to handle the Kilbane-Mush scrap.

Commission members agreed that Jack, while a classy fighter, was an inexperienced referee, and that with a title at stake, the third man should be the most capable referee obtainable.

Feather Champion Began His Fight Career in 1907

Johnny Kilbane, successful in defending his featherweight crown against Danny Frush, in his home town Saturday, was born in Cleveland, April 18, 1889.

He spent 1910 and 1912 eliminating all the aspirants to the throne on which Abe Attell then sat. His first title of any note was his match with Mexican Joe Rivers. He got licked. They were rematched during the elimination series and this time Kilbane knocked Rivers out in the sixteenth round, leaving him the logical contender against Champi Abe.

Kilbane beat Attell on the coast in 1912, taking the title in the twentieth round.

SPORTS SHOTS by Paul W. Barkin

It evidently made no difference to the Spudders where they finished as long as they couldn't wind up at the top.

There's no reason in the world why a field meet could not have been staged here before the season closed. They were staged in every other park around the circuit.

The fact that Cecil Griggs tied such men as Taylor and Gross in circling the bases no doubt surprised many local fans. Cecil has never been given credit for the speed he possesses.

Tiny Goodbred got his seventh hit of the year off Rube. It was a triple, and as Tiny slid into the bag Rube ran over and congratulated him.

We made one prediction at the beginning of the season which will come true, anyway. After a Detroit sport scribe had commented rather sarcastically on the Spudders and Texas League ball in general, we stated that the Spudders would finish higher in their circuit than the Tigers would in theirs.

See where our Yankees were perched this morning? Expenses for the 1921 world's series should be light. Owners won't have to worry much about it.

Three Texan are included in the 44 golfers who took off today in the 44-hole qualifying round for the national amateur title. Tommy Cochran survived the big cut Saturday as did Lester Jacoby of Dallas.

Especially, despite unemployment, has boomed during the season. And the boom has resulted in attendance records being broken at many parks.

The two Fowlers were instrumental in scoring the first run made by the winners in the second period. V. Foster led off with a single, went to second on a passed ball and scored on a bunt.

The White Sox-Red Sox series in 1913 holds the high record to date for receipts. Three-quarters of a million dollars was turned in at the gate during the eight games by 25,725 fans.

The University runs were scored on a single by Pipher, followed by a double by McClure. Smith's single, a sacrifice fly by Bashara and a squeeze play with Carter at the bat.

All-Stars—618 605 20x—5 7 1 University Club—600 600 20x—4 6 2 Batteries: Beasley and Brooks, Conley, Smith and McClure.

War time restrictions and the turning of public interest from the world series to the White Sox-Red Sox series made the 1913 games between the Red Sox and the Cubs more or less a job. For the six games the players got as their share only $49,527, as compared with more than $150,000 turned over as the share of the players the year before in the same number of games.

Five heats is the best any other entry has been able to do in coping the flag.

The All-Stars, composed of ex-city leaguers, won the first game of a series with the University club yesterday afternoon at Athletic park by the count of 5 to 3. ST. LOUIS, Sept. 17.—Sixty-four of the best amateur golfers of the world met today at the St. Louis Country club in the 36-hole qualifying round for the national amateur championship.

Scattered through the string of players were such prominent golfers as Bobby Jones, winner of the Claret Open years ago, who scored 79 on Friday, playing with H. Chandler, Green, Portland, twice a champion; E. E. Knipper, Sioux City, Iowa, champion and runner-up to Evans in the western amateur championship; Francis Oulmet, Boston, formerly national open and amateur champion; John H. Johnson, Boston, winner from Massachusetts; and Bob Gardner, who not only won the national title but carried Cyril Tolley to 27 holes for the British title last year.

The favorites for the title among those who watched the preliminary play are Jones and Evans, although Oulmet and Knipper have a strong following and several others in the contest have a good chance.

BIRMINGHAM VISITOR SPEAKS AT LUNCHEON

Campaign Manager for Candidate for Governor is Guest of Kiwanis Club

In the absence of B. F. Johnson, who was unable to speak on account of illness, F. D. McArthur, prominent Birmingham attorney and campaign manager for W. W. Brandon, candidate for governor of Alabama, was the principal speaker at the weekly Kiwanis luncheon in the Kemp hotel Monday.

Mr. McArthur spoke in a humorous vein and finished his address mainly to anecdotes, stating that he wished to have his speech like the modern women's skirts—short enough to be interesting, but long enough to cover the subject.

He paid a tribute to the citizens of Wichita Falls and emphasized the fact that he had met the "best bunch of fellows" in this city that he had come across since his advent to the state.

"DIVINELY SAFEGUARDED" DR. GRAFTON'S SUBJECT AT SUNDAY MORNING SERVICE

By FRANK S. REID. Dr. Grafton's sermon Sunday morning was taken from the 17th chapter of John, 14th verse, "I pray not that I should be taken out of the world, but that I should keep them from the evil," choosing for his text the subject, "Divinely Safeguarded."

Said Dr. Grafton: "It is no small thing to rear a child in the present-day atmosphere; it is no small thing to undertake to live the good life in a crozier front atmosphere, as you know I dread to read the front page of the daily paper, black not only with ink, but with the stories of evil-living."

"How are we to be protected and how of the carnal life? In the first place, we are protected by and through the sense of peril. The Great Father has given us a sense of danger; a shrill, clear, conscious, of the presence of evil."

"I call your attention in the second place to the fact that we are protected through the carnal life."

WANTS A DISCUSSION OF NUMEROUS QUESTIONS AT WASHINGTON CONFERENCE

TOKIO, Sept. 19.—Japan would insist upon discussing at the Washington conference, late this autumn not only questions regarding the far east, but also matters affecting the American coast, including Mexico, and also Australia, says Viscount Takaki, Katō, president of the Senate, in opposition party, in a statement issued here.

The withdrawal of fortifications from all islands in the Pacific, the neutralization of the Panama canal, the removal of limitations on coastwise trade throughout the world and the settlement of racial discrimination on the principle of the co-existence of mankind and the spirit of justice and humanity should be included in Japan's proposals at the conference, in the opinion of the National Policy Investigation association. This body was organized to educate the public concerning the conference.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—Cotton advanced about $3 a bale, or approximately a cent a pound here today.

The heavy liquidation responsible for last week's decline of $15 to $25 per bale, as compared with recent high records, seemed to have left comparatively little sentiment in the market and there were reports that spot cotton had become harder to buy at the lower prices in the south.

There were reactions of 15 or 20 points during the middle of the morning, but the market recovered and the market showed increasing strength early in the afternoon.

COTTON MARKET. NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The decline of late last week were followed by sharp recovery in the cotton market here today.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—Cotton advanced about $3 a bale, or approximately a cent a pound here today. The heavy liquidation responsible for last week's decline of $15 to $25 per bale, as compared with recent high records, seemed to have left comparatively little sentiment in the market.

There were reactions of 15 or 20 points during the middle of the morning, but the market recovered and the market showed increasing strength early in the afternoon.

HAGENBECK-WALLACE CIRCUS IS SCHEDULED FOR OCTOBER THIRD

With the arrival of the advance advertising car of the Hagenbeck & Wallace circus, Circus day in Wichita Falls has been definitely set for Monday, Oct. 3.

On that date the big circus comes to this city for two performances, afternoon and evening, in its entirety. The only big circus to visit Texas this year comes here from Fort. Worth and Dallas, en route to all large cities of the state.

One of the big features of the circus is the daily street parade, other big circuses have abandoned their "daily street parading," however, with modern appliances enabling, the Hagenbeck circus management continues the old standard of "daily street parades."

"RICH YOUNG RULER" IS SERMON SUBJECT SUNDAY BY EVANGELIST IRELAND

The revival services at the First Methodist church, Seventh and Lamar, throughout the Sunday were featured by special music, consisting of flute solos throughout Sunday were featured by Mrs. Ireland, and duets by Rev. and Mrs. Ireland and Dr. and Mrs. Pittenger; also by the pipe organ work of Professor Krumpal.

Preaching in the morning on "What Must I Do to be Saved," taken from Mark 12:34, Rev. Ireland told the story of how the rich young ruler was almost saved, but was lost. He said that some of the worst horrors of life were the sinking of a passenger-laden ship when in sight of the shore and the wrecking of a train with the passengers just ready to step off at the station, to see a soldier go through the war and die of influenza just as he was ready to be discharged, and to find a man that had been lost in a sea storm, fallen dead at his own door because he had not the strength to open it. We may be almost saved, but we perish as the rich young ruler perished. There is a time when the hearts of men and women are stirred, in both temporal and spiritual things, and that is the revival time.

cheek of youth and brings on decay. Wealthy men would sometimes give all they possess for one moment of time, but death is no respecter of persons. Death will sooner or later close the door of opportunity for accepting Christ as our savior. Procrastination is the thief of eternity for us. There is no soul so deep in sin that the grace of God cannot save it.

ord. We may hide acts in our lives from our fellowmen, but memory will bare them. What we do with Christ in our lives determines our destiny in eternity. Christ will save if we will let Him. God cannot save us after death. Our case is settled then. Christ wants to save us now. Death and judgment are two sure things to prepare for.
