DAMAGE HIGH

Hailstorm Cuts Swath At Black

We borrowed the following from "Today's Farmer" magazine. We thought it was appropriate.

"With all the beef about high meat prices, I decided to run an unofficial study of the situation at our local grocery store.

I parked myself at the check-out counter first. Presently, a lady shopper shoved her cart into the slot by the cash register. I watched her unload a giant-sized box of washing powder, a family-size tube of toothpaste, a tablecloth (our grocery store sells about everything), a carton of cigarettes, a six-pack of beer, a four-pack of toilet tissue, a loaf of bread, a half-gallon of milk, a pound of bacon and a package of lunch meat.

"I'll swear, I don't know how we're going to eat if food prices get any higher," said the lady shopper. She waved the package of lunch meat in the air. "I have to feed my family this stuff," she said. "We just can't afford to eat steaks and chops and roasts anymore."

I got a quick look at the label on the package and went to the meat counter to check it out. The package contained six ounces of lunch meat, and sold for 45 cents. That comes to $1.20 a pound, if my arithmetic isn't acting up on me.

In the same meat case, chuck steak was 79 cents a pound. Loin pork chops were the same price. And a special on Choice T-bone had them at $1.39 a pound. That gave me something to think about.

While I was thinking, another lady came to the meat case. I was acquainted with her. Her husband is a mechanic at the garage where they charge me $7.50 an hour to work on my pick-up.

"Meat's awfully high, isn't it?" the lady said.

"Compared with what?"

"Well... compared with just six months ago," she said, surprised like. "The government ought to do something about it."

I sensed that it would do no good to explain that six months ago cattle feeders were just starting to make a little profit and pork producers were barely breaking even.

"You're right," I said. "I think they ought to roll prices back to what they were 20 years ago."

"Now you're talking," said Mrs. Mechanic. She paused a moment, then asked: "What were meat prices 20 years ago?"

"About the same as now," I said. "In fact, in 1951, farmers got a little more for Choice steers than they got this year. What were mechanics' wages 20 years ago?"

"I... uh... well, I don't remember, exactly," she said. "Are you sure farmers aren't getting any more for their beef now than they were 20 years ago?"

"Positive," I said. "The retail price of beef is some higher, but farm prices are no higher than 20 years ago."

"I didn't know that," she said, wheeling her cart toward the dairy case.

"Too many people don't," I called after her.

I felt so good about having educated a "consumer" that I looked around for another one. A young lady was aiming her cart in my general direction.

"How do you feel about meat prices, ma'am?"

"Oh, I don't mind high meat prices so much, since I've hit on a system," she said.

"What kind of system?"

"Well, when meat prices go up, I just shift my menu planning to other dishes," she explained, angling toward the frozen fish section.

"Yes?"

"Sure. For instance, instead of beef, we now have fish three times a week," she said, selecting a package of frozen ocean perch.

"But that fish is 89 cents a pound," I said. "You could feed your family beef arm roast for the same price."

"Yeah," she agreed. "But with the fish, they don't test near as much of it."

About there is where I called off my unofficial survey.

I didn't even point out to her that an empty soda pop bottle is worth five cents' deposit today. The same bottle, full of soda pop, only cost a nickel 20 years ago."

A devastating hail storm cut a swath about two miles wide across the Black community last Saturday afternoon, destroying some crops and heavily damaging others.

Up to three inches of rain was received during the downpour, which assailed crops and buildings with golf ball-sized hailstones for the better part of an hour.

Farms of Wesley Barnett, Charles Bass, Ed Clark, Travis Stone, Bruce Parr, Bill Carthel, Tom Lewellen, Clyde Hays, Johnny Mars and others all sustained heavy crop damage.

The hail battered young maize, corn and sugar beets. It also did extensive damage to wheat which was nearing maturity.

At the Tom Lewellen place, a building being used to house an airplane and a trailer house was blown down by the gale-like wind which accompanied the storm, and extensively damaged the spray plane owned by Joe Lewellen, and the Lewellen's recently acquired trailer house.

The wheat was hardest hit, as it was near maturity. Much wheat was blown down, and will not straighten up. The 45-acre field of sturdy wheat on the Charles Bass farm didn't blow down, due to its short stature, but probably half of the wheat grains were knocked from the heads. Bass had a 60-acre field completely under water until Monday, after the hail and rain deluge.

Pock marks were still evident at mid-week in the fields, giving evidence of the large-sized hailstones.

At the Wesley Barnett farm, knee-high corn was battered, with all stalks broken off in one devastated area.

On the Johnny Mars place, a beautiful test field of triticale, also nearing maturity, was smitten, and much of the crop was lying on the ground.

The storm blew in about 5:30 Saturday afternoon. In Friona, only a trace of hail accompanied the cloud which left 1.30 inches of rainfall in the official gauge.

Ironically, the storm came almost a year to the day after the tornadic storm which caused over a million dollars in damage at Friona in 1971. That storm was on June 11, and last Saturday's date was June 10.

To the north and northwest, hardly any rain had been received by midweek, and again, in areas south of Black, another inch-plus of rain was logged on Monday afternoon.

INSPECTS DAMAGE... Charles Bass, who farms near Black, surveys the damage to a wheat field on his place, which was about ready for harvest when last Saturday's storm hit. Many stalks and grains were beaten to the ground. The dark area Bass is pointing to is an indentation from a hailstone, which was easily as large as a golf ball.

AWARDS FETE

Lions Ladies Nite Event Is Thursday

R.A. (Lip) Lipscomb, a past District Governor and Director for Lions, International, will be the principal speaker for the annual Lions Ladies Night banquet Thursday night at the Friona High School Cafeteria.

The banquet, for members of Friona Lions Club and Friona Noon Lions Club and their wives, begins at 8 p.m.

A local adult musical group, directed by Charles Faulkner, will provide entertainment for the gathering.

Albert Lindley will serve as master of ceremonies.

Lipscomb, a worker in Lions International for many years, is described as "One of the best known men in Lions International." He has served his local club in every elective capacity, and also served as Chairman of the State Membership committee in addition to holding the job of District Governor and International Director.

Lipscomb's wife Irene is expected to accompany him for his Friona speech.

PROMOTION SET

Piggly Wiggly Sets Anniversary Event

Friona's Piggly Wiggly Super Market is observing an anniversary this week, and is celebrating by staging a tremendous anniversary sale. (See the four-page section inside this issue, pages 5 through 8.)

"Friona has been good to us, and we are taking this means of showing our appreciation for the patronage of the people of this area," says Kenneth Moore, store owner.

As a part of the promotion, Piggly Wiggly will offer four days of double-stamp shopping within a week's time. Double S&H Green Stamps will be given on Friday and Saturday, June 16 and 17, and Tuesday and Wednesday, June 20-21.

On Saturday, June 17, free ice cream cones and cokes will be given to shoppers. Also, hot dogs will be featured for a time that day only.

The special anniversary sale will run for a week, June 16 through 21.

Moore has had parking stripes painted on the store's parking lot, which will be a big help to customers.

Moore purchased the local super market in July of 1964. He secured the Piggly Wiggly franchise for the store in June of 1967. A native of Vernon, Moore operated a store at Chillicothe before coming to this area. He moved to Olton in 1964, purchasing a store there at the same time he bought the local super market.

However, in 1966 the Moores moved to Friona, and the Olton store was sold to Leon Noack, who had managed his local super market.

Moore has been involved in the grocery business for about 30 years, starting out as a checking stand sacker after school at the age of 12.

The local super market employs 12 persons in addition to Moore. They are Pete Graham, Lorene Turner, Carol King, Mary Diaz, Naomi Davis, Scott Lillard, Gary Woodruff, Bobby Moore, Jackie Caswell, Jessie Morales, Gloria Perez and Martin Mercado.

Piggly Wiggly is a member of the Affiliated Foods organization and features Shurfine products, as well as other major brands.

New Store Opens Here

Glen Stevens of Muleshoe opened a new and used furniture and appliance business in Friona this week.

Stevens' business is located in the Bill McGlothlin building, 122 Sixth Street.

His family has been in the furniture business in Muleshoe for about 25 years. He invites the people of Friona to come by and get acquainted.

"We don't have very much in stock at the present, but we will be adding to it as we go along," Stevens says.

CHAMBER NOTES

Maize Days Logged; Still Need Carnival

The Friona Chamber of Commerce's board of directors confirmed the dates for the city's Maize Days celebration as September 11-16 at its monthly meeting Tuesday morning at Earl's Farmer House Restaurant.

The board voted to set the dates, although a carnival has not yet been lined up for the celebration. The company which has supplied rides for the carnival for the past several years, Golden Spread Amusement Company, has leased its rides to MacKenzie Park in Lubbock and will not continue to make the circuit.

Board vice president Wendell Gresham has been making a determined effort to secure a carnival for the celebration, and told the directors Tuesday that he still had a couple of leads, but had not been able to catch the owners, or had not received an answer from correspondence.

In other business, the board reacted favorably to a proposal to change from a shaving permit to a "sleeve garter," with a Maize Days advertisement on the garter.

Board president Dale Cary presented a letter from promoters of a donkey baseball game, and instructed Chamber secretary Peggy Bryant to write for further information.

The board voted to allow the Fine Arts Council members, Mrs. H.K. Kendrick and Mrs. Robert Alexander, to choose a third member to replace Mrs. Steve Messenger, who has resigned. The board also indicated it would support the council's Summer Workshop, which will feature Del Lewis.

Cary told the board that he had received the names of five prospects for manager from the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, and had begun to review their qualifications with the possibility of finding a prospect that would fill the vacancy in Friona.

The chamber's July 4 program was discussed. Earnest Langley of Hereford is to be the principal speaker for the patriotic program, which will be capped off by the annual fireworks display at Chieftain Field.

Also discussed at some length was the proposed Friona Community Center, which also will serve as a 4-H and FFA show-barn, by board member Carrol Gatlin, chairman of the committee.

Gatlin reviewed progress on the showbarn drive. The committee had met with the Friona City Council on Monday, June 5, at which time the city agreed to act as escrow agent for the drive, and work with the school on the ownership and maintenance problems.

Gatlin and his committee were slated to meet with the school board on Wednesday night. Their proposal is to build the building, a 100x150 foot structure, on school property, just west of the bus barn.

Cary displayed the entries in the Chamber's logo contest, all three designs entered by Mrs. Bill Ellis. The board vested Cary with deciding on the design to best fit the Chamber, which will use it on letterheads and other printing.

PCA Office Additions

Dwarril Simpson has joined Friona's Production Credit Association as a loan representative, according to Dale Cary, manager.

In other changes, Cary announced that Mrs. Kenneth (Thelma) Watkins, secretary in the PCA office since it opened here, had resigned to accept a position with the new Friona Industries office.

Mrs. Irs (Bessie) Holt will join the PCA staff as a secretary.

The addition of Simpson will give the local office five staff members. This is three more than when the office first opened some 12 years ago.

Other staff members are Richard Francis and Mrs. Kenneth Williams.

WTSU Coaches To Be Here Thursday

Members of the West Texas State University coaching staff will be in Friona on Thursday to meet with the high school coaching staff and other backers.

Coach Gene Mayfield and assistants are scheduled to have breakfast at Earl's Farmer House with the Friona Kiwanis. Meeting the WTSU staff will be Coaches Bob Owen and Ray DeBord, Raymond Cook and Dale Houlette.

Thursday morning, the group will visit in downtown Friona, selling season football tickets and talking football. The group will meet with the Friona Noon Lions, also at the Farmer House.

At about 1:30 p.m., the visiting coaches and their hosts will play a round of golf at Friona Country Club.

Anyone interested in meeting the visitors is invited to attend any of the functions during the day.

"Try something different-bite a blue apple and conquer the fear of risk."

This was a recently published statement seeking to sell a book by the title, "Bite A Blue Apple."

Now I haven't seen the book nor have I any idea about its content other than what I read, some of which I stated above.

It was the title and brief explanation that caught my eye. I can see some value in reaching out into the unknown and untried for new areas of reflection and response. We don't really have to continue in the same old rut.

Neither do I think it is a bonified reason to "jump the traces" just because we get the chance or maybe because we have always done it the same way. . . .

But where can you get a blue apple?

Have you ever seen the experiment at the Fair where a certain company seeks to prove (conclusively, as far as I am concerned) that what a chicken eats really goes into the make-up of the egg? To prove their point they put some food coloring in the chicken feed and then break the eggs that are laid to reveal purple, red or blue egg yolks. . . try that with a blue apple.

Believe me, it would be some conquering before I would ever be able to eat a fried, blue egg yolk-a blue apple I think I would eat but not an other colored egg yolk.

A good point to make here, however, is that if the yolk were colored differently in the first place, we would be just as skeptical of the yellow. . . right?

Does the little rhyme fit here?

"I never had a purple cow
But I can tell you anyhow,
I had rather see than be one."

I do think there are times when we fear anything that is different and we shouldn't be possessed in that manner.

There are reasons for reaching out into the unknown and untried for the purpose of further advancement.

Where would we be without the formerly untried efforts of the poets, artists, scientists and merchants?

I talk brave about this but I still question the purple egg yolk. . . .

I guess I'm here like everything else-I don't mind doing things different-just don't mess with my prejudices-they are right, whatever the truth is. . . .

For shame, for shame. . . .

It takes some amount of risk to move into the wet untried areas and yet these are often so very necessary.

I know a man who tried the untried and was crucified. . . .

Sometimes the risks are great. . . . But look at what he did. . . .

I suppose that is my conclusion today. . . . why not risk some time by looking at what he did. . . .

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Dear Editor:

I too was in the ice cream shop in Clavis: didn't see any dresses at all. 'Twas either pants or "Hot-pants"

A.L. Outland

Dear Bill:

I have been extremely busy this year working on water problems. I am presently serving as First Vice Chairman of the Interstate Conference on Water Problems and if all goes well I will be moved up to chairman of the conference in December. I have also been serving on the Executive Board of the Southern Water Resources Conference and as Chairman of the Intergovernmental Relations Committee of the National Legislative Conference. This has kept me busy, but also has allowed me to keep in touch with what is going on around the country.

Now the elections are over until November, but lots of things will be happening in the next few weeks that will affect us all. During the special session of the Legislature we will have to pass an appropriation bill to finance state government operations for the next fiscal year.

With a lame duck Governor, Lt. Governor and about one half the members of the Legislature it will be interesting to see how quickly we will be able to do our job. I am hopeful that we will get down to business and finish within the month; however, many observers say it will be hard to do.

Besides the appropriation bill there are several pieces of legislation that I hope we can pass. One is a bill to correct the brake and light provision on trailers that was passed last year. I have introduced such a bill and it is co-sponsored by several others who are interested in this. I believe it has a good chance to pass.

If the Governor opens the call of the special session there will probably be several local bills introduced and passed. There is only one local bill of interest to the area and it affects the Bailey County Hospital District.

Hopefully, we may get by without a big tax bill this time. It is still too early to tell for sure. If anything develops in the appropriations or tax bill or any other legislation as far as that is concerned that is of interest to you I would appreciate having your views on the matter.

Later on in the year I'll be sending you another newsletter concerning the fourteen Constitutional Amendments that we'll be voting on in November at the general election. Some of these are very important and some are very controversial and I'll try to provide you with information both pro and con on the issues that may be helpful.

If I can ever assist you in any way please let me know, because it is always my pleasure to serve you.

Sincerely yours,
Bill Clayton

Pause and Reflect

By Nelson Lewis

Looking back through our files we see that we have just about exhausted our stock of things to say about Father on Father's Day.

So this year we have decided not to tout the "old man" regardless of his worth.

Women's Liberation has nothing at all to do with this decision, because most fathers are already aware of the force behind the Women's Lib movement. In fact a few we know could write a book on the subject.

A great many Fathers will welcome some constructive criticism on the proper handling of municipal, state, and national affairs.

The select few Dads who hold the highest offices in the land look forward to the day of retirement when they can hand the "hot potatoes" of government over to eager offspring--be they boys or girls.

The modern Male Chauvinist can not help but remember that Eve picked the first apple and/or that the Golden Apple that began the Olympics was the sole property of a gal named Atlanta.

Cleopatra, speeding up the Nile (with Men rowing!), explained the deal in no uncertain terms to Mark Anthony. Florence Nightingale was not a character to be ignored nor was Madam Curie, Amelia Earhardt, Elizabeth Barrett Browning, Gene Stratton Porter or Eleanor Roosevelt.

Lives there the Dad with soul so dead, who never to himself hath said, "Pat Nixon is the loveliest Lady ever to inhabit the White House."

No friends, we will not write today of Fathers, although we are reminded that nearly fifty thousand Fathers and potential Fathers will not return from Southeast Asia.

Perhaps this is the year to establish a new "Day" or at least add a word to the designation of a familiar one.

How about a "Founding Father's Day"?

Those patriots whose life, limb, and personal property were laid on the line so that we might enjoy saying our piece in a country newspaper.

Those men who put the good of a new world before fame and fortune.

Those men who dared to carve "Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness" from the ages old hard rock of Tyranny.

During this year of political stride, war, inflation, and discord we can do no less than to remember the real Fathers of our United States.

Letter Excerpts Leave One Baffled

(Editor's Note: The following are excerpts from actual letters received by the Department of Public Welfare in Phoenix from wives, mothers, fathers, etc., regarding welfare and allotments. They illustrate how confused we get at times).

1. Please send me my elopement as I have four months old baby and he is my only support and I need all I can get every-day to by food and keep him close.

2. Both sides of my parents is poor and I can't expect nothing from them as my Mother has been in bed for a year with the same doctor and won't change.

3. Please send my wife's form to fill out.

4. I have already wrote to the President and now I don't hear from you. I will write to Uncle Sam and tell him about you both.

5. Please send me a letter and tell me if my husband made application for a wife and baby.

6. I can't get my pay. I got sex children. Can you tell me why this is?

7. Sir, I am forwarding my marriage certificate and my children, one is a mistake as you can see.

8. Please find out for certain if my husband is dead as the man I am living with won't eat or do anything until he knows for sure.

9. I am annoyed to find out that you branded my children illiterate. Oh, the shame of it--it is a dirty trick, as I married their father a week before they was born.

10. I am writing to tell you that my baby was born two years ago and his age is two years. When do I get relief??

11. In answer to your letter, I gave birth to a boy weighing ten pounds. I hope this is satisfactory.

12. I have no children as my husband was a truck driver and worked day and night when he wasn't sleeping.

13. You have changed my little boy to a girl. Does this matter?

14. In accordance with your instructions, I have given birth to twins in the enclosed envelope.

15. Unless I get my husband's money soon, I will be forced to lead an immortal life.

16. I am glad to say my husband, who was reported missing, is now dead.

17. My husband had his project cut off two weeks ago and I haven't had any relief since.

18. I am a poor widow and all I have is in front.

19. I want my money quickly as I can get it. I've been in bed with my doctor for two weeks and he doesn't do me much good. If things don't improve, I'll be forced to send for another doctor.

Friona's Delegate
Now At Girls State

The 28th Session of the American Legion Auxiliary Bluebonnet Girls State began registration Tuesday at Texas Lutheran College of 513 young high school girls from all sections of Texas, the highest enrollment in the history of the program.

The 1972 Session of Bluebonnet Girls State has grown from an experimental conference of 94 girls, held at Baylor University in 1941, to become the largest single extracurricular educational program for high school girls in Texas. More than 9,725 girls in Texas have participated in this top-level citizenship program.

Attending from Friona is Sharon Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Smith.

The girls, just having completed their junior year of high school will arrive in Seguin by air, train, commercial and chartered buses and private cars. Two girls from Mexico are accepted at Girls State each year sent by the American Legion Auxiliary of Mexico. The first few days of the session will be devoted to organization of cities and political parties and the study of city, county and state government.

The political parties are purely mythical and are for the sole purpose of enabling the girls to form their own governments using existing Texas Constitution and laws as guides. Operating under a "learn by doing" philosophy, Citizens of Girls State participate in legislative processes, elective and appointive politics. The program is free from propaganda. Non-partisan, the purpose is to provide citizenship training, affording the girls the opportunity to live together as a self-governing group, and to inform them of the duties, rights and responsibilities and privileges which they will assume when they become adults.

The elected state officials of Girls State will be sworn in during ceremonies at noon on Monday, June 19, in the rotunda of the State Capitol. Each will be escorted to the bar by her counterpart in Texas State government. 1972 marks the fifteenth consecutive year that the Girls State elected officials have taken their oaths of office, administered by the Honorable Meade Griffin, former Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, in the State Capitol.

In addition to inaugural ceremonies, the girls will tour the Capitol Building, Library, Archives, Courts Building, State Offices Buildings and will visit in the Governor's Mansion.

Prominent speakers from local, state and national governmental posts address the citizens throughout the program.

Climaxing the session, which ends June 23rd, will be the selection of eight outstanding girls for 1972 from which two will be sent to Girls Nation in Washington, D.C. There the two young Texans will join with 98 other girls, two from each state of the Nation, to continue studies of American citizenship and the democratic processes of government.

"SUBROGATION?"

This is an insurance term which means that your insurance company pays your insurance loss to you, but then assumes the right to collect the loss from the responsible party. Subrogation can mean full payment of an auto collision loss, even tho you have $50 or $100 deductible.

Watergrass has become an increasing problem in High Plains sorghum fields in recent years, and can cut yields in half.

The weed has recently become a serious pest in sorghum because herbicides used to control pigweed are not very effective against watergrass. Good pigweed control has resulted in cultivation being reduced or even eliminated.

Watergrass is actually a general term that includes both jungle rice and barnyard grass. It is most common in flat fields where water accumulates after irrigation or rain.

Dr. Allen Wiese and other Texas A&M University scientists have grappled with the watergrass problem since 1969, and have found that the best control is obtained with a pre-plant application of propazine followed by cultivation.

The propazine is most effective when applied to performed beds and incorporated with a rolling cultivator just prior to preplant irrigation. The irrigation should be delayed until one month before planting.

The researchers also found that certain experimental herbicides applied with directed sprays offered some watergrass control, but the chemicals will need more testing before recommendations can be made.

A "red alert" is being sounded throughout the state as screwworms continue to assault livestock and other animals.

Weather conditions were favorable for heavy screwworms buildups last winter in northern Mexico as well as in parts of the Southwest, explains the agent. Some infestations were also spread by transporting infested livestock last fall, and the insect pest spent the mild winter in new quarters. This spring overall conditions were "ripe" for a massive screwworm invasion.

More than 5,000 cases have been confirmed in Texas this spring, the earliest and heaviest outbreak in the history of the Screwworm Eradication Program.

Although sterile fly production at the Mission Lab is running at its peak--200 million a week--treatment with these flies is not enough to stop the destructive, flesh-eating livestock pest. All livestock producers and owners of other animals (dogs, cats) are urged to follow certain precautions:

1. Carry out all approved preventive practices to help eliminate screwworms.

2. Inspect animals regularly and carefully and treat all wounds whether they are wormy or not.

3. Delay all surgery until cool weather this fall. Shearing, docking, castrating and dehorning only provide additional wounds for worm infestations. Studies show that almost 90 percent of all worm samples come from calf navels and man-made wounds.

4. Spray animals with an approved product before shipping them. This is a preventive measure against spreading the infestation.

5. Be cautious of livestock shipments coming from infested areas. If buying such animals, be sure to check them thoroughly for wormy wounds.

6. Care should be taken not to move infested livestock across state lines. Infestations resulting from this practice may bring about a quarantine and the regulated movement of livestock.

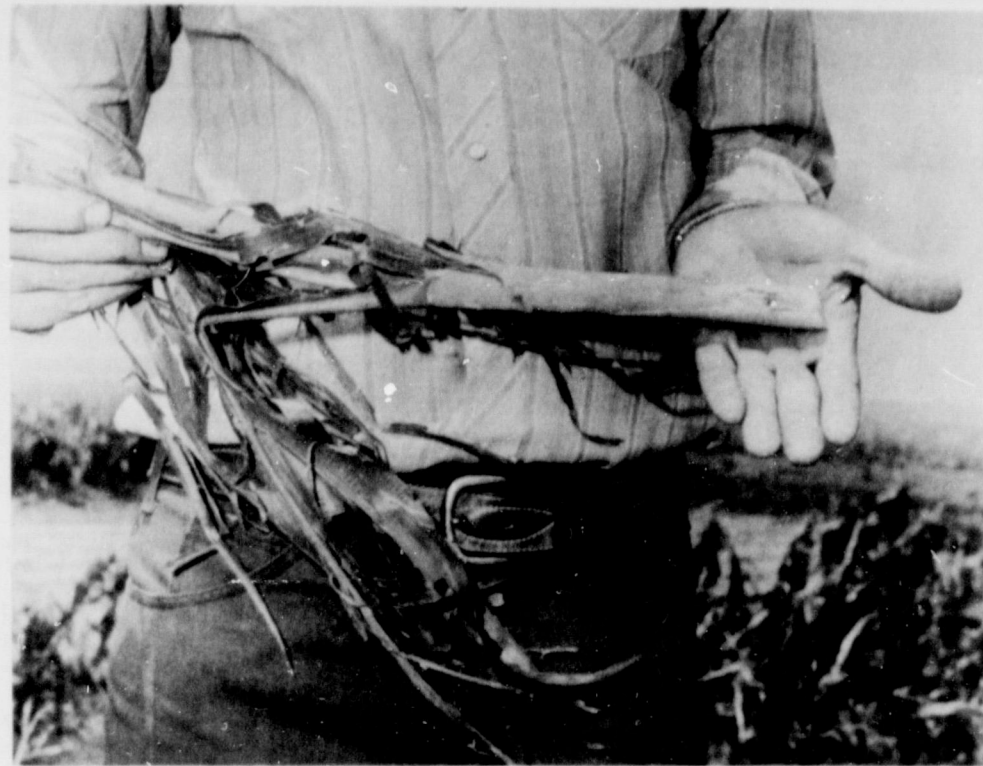

7. As soon as a wormy wound is found, send a worm sample to the Screwworm Laboratory, Box 969, Mission, Texas 78572. If the case is positive, sterile flies will be dropped as soon as possible to further protect animals in the area.

Everyone must cooperate if the screwworm eradication program is to be effective. This means farmers, ranchers, pet owners, auction managers and others who work with or own animals.

DAMAGED CORN. . . . Typical of the crop damage in the Black area during the past week due to hail was fields of corn, which were heavily battered. Charles Bass holds a large stalk. The damaged plant fibre in the palm of his hand was caused by hailstones.

Camping and cookout time is here again and here are just a few tips to make your outdoor cooking more enjoyable.

Hot scrambled eggs will entice even the sleepiest camper to greet the day with a hearty breakfast. To prevent eggs from breaking en route to the campsite, break them yourself at home, pour into a plastic container and store in the ice chest. When morning comes, shake the container, transfer beaten eggs to a hot skillet and scramble.

A varied assortment of canned meats stock most market counters. Look for canned roast beef, beef steaks, corned beef, ham, meat balls, chicken, turkey or chicken fricassee.

Also try tuna fish, crab, shrimp, salmon, chili and spaghetti. A few cooking tricks can add variety to canned meals. Spoon chili con carne over toasted cornbread squares. Chopped ham loaves can be sliced and served cold with salads or sandwiches, or can be sliced and broiled or fried. For a special treat, top chopped ham with brown sugar, molasses or honey and stud the meat with whole cloves.

If you have a yen for corn at the sea shore, use the sea to "shore" up the flavor. Remove the silk but not the husks, and place corn in a weighted burlap bag. Soak in salt water for about an hour. A cool stream will add a tasty life, too! Then cook corn as usual.

Stores offer many kinds of puddings, breads (date or brown bread) and even cakes in cans that make excellent take-alongs. Also select cheese in jars or cans that keep almost indefinitely prior to opening.

For closer-to-home cookouts, pack several pint-size hibachis. These are great for individual grilling of sausages, nibblers and marshmallows.

Prevent pots from blackening over the campfire by rubbing outsides with soap, keep biscuits warm by placing them on

First Load

Tom Whaley marketed the first load of wheat for Goodpasture, Inc. last week.

Whaley cut his load off a 350-acre semi-dryland field north of Friona. He said it looked like his wheat would average 20 bushels per acre. The elevator's first load was Concho variety. The test weight was 61.5 pounds per bushel, and the moisture content was 13 per cent.

A rock preheated in the campfire, squelch sudden and dangerous grease fires by suffocating the flames with baking soda or salt.

Dry milk, an economical camping trip pal requires little storage space and no refrigeration until reconstituted. Prepare only the amount needed for the meal with ice water.

If you are in the market for some good outdoor cooking suggestions and recipes there is an excellent Extension Service Bulletin available at the Home Demonstration office in Farwell for only 25¢.

Lectures, participation and demonstrations with children in music, art, social studies, science, puppetry, dramatics and literature were among featured activities.

Miss Knight, who is a graduate of Friona High School and Texas Tech University, Lubbock, is the teacher at the ABC School here.

Sunday will mark the 62nd anniversary of Father's Day, which originated in Spokane, Washington. Mrs. John B. Dodd, who wished to honor her father, who raised her and her five motherless brothers, initiated Father's Day in Father's Day in June of 1910.

The custom soon spread to all parts of the country and for a number of years Father's Day has been traditionally celebrated on the third Sunday of every June.

Gift giving is a custom that is first recorded in Genesis, when Cain and Abel offered the fruits of their labors on an altar as gifts to God. Gifts bestowed on Dad, padre, pater, otoson, otoson or father in any other language are as varied as the people who give them.

In the United States gifts bestowed on Dad by his appreciative family range from slippers to smoking jackets, from shirts to spirits and from fishing gear to elaborate hunting equipment. Most of us put a lot of thought into selecting just the right gift.

Even though this takes some time and effort, maybe we should be glad we don't live in some other land. A Dinka son in Africa can give only one acceptable gift: the skin of the first lion he kills.

Local merchants have good selections of merchandise suitable for Father's Day gifting at reasonable prices. Let's keep this in mind this week as we plan that special gift for that special man.

As usual, a lot of Frionans have been going hither and yon during the last few weeks. Some who have returned are Dr. and Mrs. Paul Spring, Susie and Johnny. The four Springs spent two weeks seeing places of interest in the South.

They went to Atlanta, Georgia; Washington, D.C.; Vicksburg, Mississippi and Williamsburg, Virginia. They made the trip by car and stopped at points of interest along the way.

Mrs. J.C. Beck and daughter, Vicki, drove to Cleveland, Texas, Friday, for a brief visit in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. M.V. Ivy and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ivy, who are Mrs. Beck's parents and brother and sister-in-law.

Cris Beck, who had been visiting his Cleveland relatives since right after graduation, returned home with his mother and sister Sunday evening.

Nell and Buster Davis, our down the street neighbors, returned home Tuesday evening after visiting one of Buster's nieces and her family in Idaho Falls, Idaho.

They were accompanied by one of Buster's sisters, who lives in Artesia.

While they were gone, the trio went to Yellowstone National Park, saw The Grand Tetons and many other interesting sights on the trip.

Orville and Oleta Houser spent a weekend in Phoenix. One of Oleta's nieces was getting a degree, doctorate, I think, from Arizona State University, Phoenix, so several members of the Hartman family met for the event.

Wana Brewer is home after a drive, which took her all the way to Natchez, Mississippi.

She reported, "I drove all the way down and back without seeing a drop of rain until I got back home." Think that is a little bit unusual for that part of the country at this time of year.

I'm wondering about the signs I see painted in large letters on different makes of cars. For several years it has been hard for me to recognize different cars, so it is good to see "Plymouth," "Dodge," etc. painted in large readable letters. However, I'm still curious about the lettering.

Several Frionans were surprised at the spring graduation of Rice Institute in Houston. Larry Frank Truitt, a member of the graduating class, walked upon the stage to receive his degree without knowing he was graduating Cum Laude.

The other three surprised people, who were sitting in the audience, were his parents, Frank and Carmaleet, and wife, the former Shirley White.

Larry Frank and Shirley expect to be home about the middle of July and will be here for a couple of weeks or so before leaving for Syracuse, New York, where he will begin work on his master's degree.

The Library Corner

BY MRS. VON EDELMON

Activity at the Library during the summer doesn't slow down just because students are not having to write term papers. The Summer Reading Program for students in grades 1-6 create a lot of interest and traffic in the Library. One hundred and three have signed up. Won't you make 1047?

The Library has two new summer employees--Glenda Walker and Christine Grant. Both are recent high school graduates and have proved to be a big help to the librarian.

"Come Out Smokin'", the story of Joe Frazier is our newest sports book. With Memorial Day just past you might be interested in "Hallowed Ground," the story of our national cemeteries. Recent graduates will be interested in "Career Choices for the 70's." The latest best seller on our shelves is "The Word" by Irving Wallace.

The children's book room has some new shelves that are low enough for the children to reach the top shelves. The youth and adult room will soon be receiving additional shelves. If you haven't been in the Library for awhile, stop by and see the additions that have become necessary because of the growth.

Children in this agricultural area will be interested in "Plants That Feed The World" and "The Story of Soil."

Peace Must Come Within The Hearts Of Men

Read Mark 12:28-34

Above all things have fervent charity among yourselves. (1 Peter 4:8)

Charity is love. Charity pardons the unpardonable and loves the unlovable--the one power that man has in common with God. This power in common is a fact; there is too much love and goodness in the world to conclude otherwise.

Not all love is charity. Charity is no mere disposition, natural affection, or attachment of friendship. It is a spiritual, supernatural binding force which deepens with knowledge and sacrifice.

To quickly forget a hurt we must start loving, even when we cannot give ourselves a reason why. The Golden Rule says to do unto others--that is, love them--as we would have them love us. We simply just start loving them and forget it. And we will never go wrong.

This world of ours is as far from peace as men are separated from one another by want of love. We do not really establish the foundations for peace in conference halls alone, but in men's hearts. Love is not organized. It is grown in the soul and cultivated in our relations with others. This alone is charity because it shares in the likeness of God's love for us.

PRAYER: O God, give me love, for it is better to be lifeless than loveless.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: Even after faith and hope are no longer necessary charity will remain.

Bill's TV Remains Jr. Minor Leader

Bill's TV remained undefeated in the Junior Minor (T-Ball) League last week, but the team had to score three runs in the sixth inning to edge Friona Parts, 14-12 and stay on top of the League standings.

Earlier in the week, Bill's TV had coasted past Tasty Cream, 26-1.

Friona Parts had stayed on the leaders' heels by edging Piggly Wiggly in a slugfest, 28-26 on Tuesday.

In the Thursday game, Piggly Wiggly scored its first loop win, a 22-4 decision over Tasty Cream, to move into a tie for third place with the Tasties in league standings.

The Friday game between Bill's TV and Friona Parts was the game's top contest, with the lead changing hands seven times. With one out in the sixth inning and the score standing 12-11 in favor of Friona Parts, Jim Norwood singled, and scored on a triple by Mark Tucker. Greg Nichols delivered the game-winning hit that scored Tucker from third.

Friona Parts was involved in the week's other close game, against Piggly Wiggly. It, too was a see-saw contest, with each team scoring practically in every inning. Friona Parts scored seven runs in each of the second, third and fourth innings to take a 22-15 lead, and then managed to hold off Piggly Wiggly. Joe Ortiz and Keith Adams were on base five times for the winners, as were Rick Roden and Joe Garcia for the Pig-Wigs.

MAJOR LEAGUE

Bankers, Feed Yard Split, Remain Tied

Friona State Bank and Friona Feed Yard split a pair of games last week in the Major League, to remain tied for the leadership. Both teams stood with 3-1 season records at the end of the week.

Friona Feed Yard held the lead following Monday's action, when they toppled the Bank, 10-6. This left the Feed Yard at 3-0 and the Bank at 2-1. However, on Thursday Friona State Bank evened the score with a 3-0 win to deadlock the standings once again.

In other action, Reeve Chevrolet edged past Friona Star, 3-2 on Tuesday, and then coasted to a 20-2 win over the same team on Friday, to take over third place in league standings. The Star is the only team which is winless in the loop.

Jesus Mata socked four hits on Monday in leading the Feed Yard to its 10-6 win over the Bank. Jeff Whiteside went the distance for the winners on the mound. The Bank had a three-run uprising in the fifth, but that was all they could muster, and the game was called because of the time limit.

Reeve Chevrolet pushed across a run in the sixth inning on Tuesday to edge the Friona Star, 3-2. Mike Hutson and Koty Kothmann hooked up in an excellent pitching duel. Kothmann gave up only three hits, to Hutson's nine, but the Star left nine men on base.

Clint Mears pitched a two-hit shutout for Friona State Bank against Friona Feed Yards on Thursday. Mears faced only 21 men, striking out eight. The Bank scored all three of its runs in the second inning, helped by two errors.

Reeve erupted for 14 runs in the third inning enroute to its 20-2 win over the Star on Friday. Reeve blasted out eight hits and were helped by two errors and two hit batsmen. The game was stopped after four innings.

For those who say the railroads are at the beginning of the end, here's a progress report from Santa Fe that says it's much, much more like the end of a beginning.

- MORE POWER
We're adding 52 new giant diesels and rebuilding 50 older units to provide a locomotive fleet producing over 3,850,000 horsepower.
- MORE CARS
1910 additional cars are coming in 1972, including 100 giant refrigerated hopper cars for in-bulk movement of potatoes, oranges and other perishables.
- MORE TERMINALS
Santa Fe's new million dollar rail and truck terminal has now been completed at Houston, Texas to meet expanding truck, Piggy-Back and container traffic.
- BETTER SERVICE
Run through trains with connecting railroads link —east, west, and southwest and save hours moving through Santa Fe's electronic classification yard in Kansas City.
- BETTER PIGGY-BACK
We're expanding Piggy-Back and container service all along the Santa Fe to handle increasing domestic and international shipments.
- BETTER IDEAS
An expanding microwave network linked to our data system for car tracing and locomotive utilization, and plans for the development of a unique coaxial train for moving containers are just a few of the new ideas at work on the Santa Fe.

MORE and BETTER are key words at Santa Fe. What we're doing, is why we're saying, rail service is still one of the most efficient ways to move freight. What we're spending says so too: over $100 million this year in railway capital expenditures. One billion in the last 10 years. Two billion since World War II.

The railroad industry and the Nation need sensible transport regulatory policies—administered with an even hand. We can take it from there—into a new era of railroading. Still think the railroads are at the beginning of the end? For Santa Fe it's more like the end of the beginning!

LITTLE DRIBBLERS

Friona Girls Are 2-2 In National Tourney

The Friona All-Stars made it to the quarter-finals of the Girls' Little Dribblers National Tournament last weekend, before being eliminated. Friona won its opening game of the tournament, 20-10 over New Deal. Later the same day, Springlake-Earth caught Friona in a cold spell to win, 23-14. Friday, Friona met New Deal for the second time, and again were victorious, 32-21. However, the local all-stars could not overcome the girls from Loop in Saturday's action, and lost, 15-11. Loop went ahead to defeat Littlefield and Springlake-Earth and win the tournament championship. Each girl participating in the tournament was awarded a medal.

Eight FHS Delegates Attend FCA Conference

James Bartlett, Gene Strickland, Mike Martin, Ray DeBord (sponsor), Willie Bailey, Bill Bailey, Johnny Bandy and Kevin Wiseman from Friona High School attended a Fellowship of Christian Athletes' conference June 4-9 at Estes Park, Colo. The five-day program of "inspiration and perspiration" is one of 17 FCA national conferences scheduled this summer, involving 9,200 high school, college and pro athletes and coaches. In addition to "huddle" group discussion sessions, the daily schedule consists of Dogpatch Olympic competition, athletic demonstrations, coaches' clinics, special events and evening assemblies highlighted by messages from prominent sports figures. Staff members at this year's conferences included John Wooden, Roger Staubach, Tom Landry, Darrell Imhoff, Brooks Robinson, Jeff Mullins, Carroll Dale, Mike Kolen, Paul Crane, Bob Vogel, Frank Eroyles, Paul Anderson and many others. The FCA's purpose is, "to confront athletes and coaches, and through them the youth of the nation, with the challenge and adventure of following Christ and serving him through the fellowship of the church and in their vocations." The year-round program includes Weekends of Champions, pro chapel services and athletes and coaches meeting in over 1,600 high school huddles and college fellowships from coast to coast.

GO CLASSIFIED FOR THE ACTION YOU WANT

YOU DON'T NEED TO USE NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING! IF YOU THINK SO, THEN

PREACHERS - Should preach only one sermon or so a year. We are all against sin anyway, so why harp on it?

TRAFFIC LIGHTS - Should be turned off at dangerous intersections to save electricity. Everybody knows it's a dangerous spot and that is sufficient.

TEACHERS - No need to review lessons. Tell the children just once and they'll never forget.

HIGHWAY POLICE - Stop driving up and down the highways. No need to caution drivers by patrolling highways. Drivers know the law and should obey.

MAIL ORDER FIRMS - That send catalogs are wasting their money. Everyone knows what is sold at area stores and of course they'll shop there.

IF YOU ARE ONE OF THE foolish kind, like the Notre Dame Cathedral that has stood for six centuries but still rings the bell every day to let people know it is there; and if you believe in consistent profitable advertising, then you will . . .

Two Tied For Lead In Sr. Minor League

Two teams remained tied for the lead in the Senior Minor League after the second week. Both Hi-Pro Feeds and Parmar County Implement Co. are undefeated with 4-0 records. The two teams were to meet for the first time this season on Tuesday night of this week. In games last week, Hi-Pro had to score two runs in their last time at bat to edge Ethridge-Spring, 13-12 and remain unbeaten. On Tuesday, Parmar County Implement blasted the B-J Bees, 15-2. Thursday, Hi-Pro had a little easier time of downing Ethridge-Spring, 17-6, and on Friday, Parmar County topped the B-J Bees, 11-1. This game was a no-hitter for Randy Eakins of Parmar County Implement. Two hit batsmen and two bases on balls scored the winning runs for Hi-Pro in their Monday game with Ethridge-Spring. The lead changed hands in the game five times. The Parmar County Implement-BJ Bee game on Tuesday was shortened to four innings by the ten-run rule, and the same was true on Friday when the Implement boys scored an 11-1 win in the no-hit contest. On Thursday, Hi-Pro scored 11 runs in their last two times at bat, to down Ethridge-Spring, 17-6.
