

DR. H. TAYLOR, WHO WAS SHOT MONDAY, DIES IN HOSPITAL

LONNIE GRIFFIN, A PRISONER IN JAIL NOW CHARGED WITH MURDER.

TAYLOR UNDERWENT AN OPERATION WEDNESDAY

Witnesses Summoned For Examining Trial To Be Held Friday Afternoon.

R. H. Taylor, ex-policeman of Burkburnett, who was shot in the abdomen Monday night at 9 o'clock, died at the Martin hospital in that city at 3 o'clock Thursday morning.

Loonie Griffin, son of the city marshal of Burkburnett, who has been a prisoner in the county jail since Tuesday night, was formally charged with murder Thursday morning upon receipt of the information that Taylor had died.

An examining trial will be held Friday afternoon in the justice of the peace court room in this city at 2 o'clock.

Reports stated that the patient rallied following the operation, but that shortly after midnight a relapse set in and a few minutes after 3 o'clock he died.

Griffin was arrested near the warehouse of the shooting and his bond set at $5,000. Tuesday morning before the arrival of Sheriff Fred Smith the bond was reduced to $2,500.

According to Burkburnett citizens Griffin and Taylor have not been on friendly terms since the trial of the woman who was charged with the murder of Taylor.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Investigation and development of plans for warehousing corn on a large scale is to be undertaken by a committee appointed by the war finance corporation.

Announcement of this step was made today by the finance corporation which said the proposal had the approval of Secretaries Mellon and Wallace.

"It will be recalled," the corporation said, "that years ago when there was a temporary large surplus of corn, a similar plan was successfully undertaken in carrying forward the surplus."

It is believed that ways and means may be found by which a considerable part of the large surplus now on hand may be safely stored and financed on a sound business basis until it can be marketed or utilized with benefit to the farmers in the corn belt as well as to the entire nation.

"Crop records show that unusual yields do not continue indefinitely and the preservation of a surplus against a time of diminished production is in line with sound economic and financial policies."

The membership of the committee will be announced shortly, the corporation announced.

The purpose of the committee, Managing Director Meyer explained, is to enable farmers to hold their crops until a fair price can be realized for the crop. The corporation, he said, plans to advance funds through the banks to the farmers on the security of their warehouses, which would enable the farmers to hold their crops for better prices.

Reports stated that the patient rallied following the operation, but that shortly after midnight a relapse set in and a few minutes after 3 o'clock he died.

PRIORITY SUBJECT NEW ISSUE OF THE ARMS CONFERENCE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Indication by the Japanese delegates to the armament conference on arrival here that they desired and hoped to discuss first at the conference the question of limitation of armament rather than far eastern problems brought the question of possible priority to the forefront today in matters connected with the forthcoming meeting.

While there has been no certain indication of the attitude of the American delegates on this point, it is understood that their preparatory conferences to date have been largely confined to a study of the armament limitation problem.

THREE SEPARATE COUNTS CHARGED AGAINST HAMPTON

DRIVER OF AUTOMOBILE THAT FIGURED IN SMASH TO BE TRIED MONDAY.

MAXIMUM PENALTY IS 3 YEARS IN JAIL AND $3000

Speedy Trial Sought Following The Halloween Night Tragedy.

The complaint filed against J. C. Hampton, charged with negligent homicide, contains three separate counts. The case had been set down for trial Monday morning, November 7, by County Attorney E. L. Pultot and Judge Guy Rogers of the county court at law, where the case was filed.

The complaint alleges that the homicide occurred by reasons of the defendant driving his automobile on a public highway at a greater rate of speed than 25 miles an hour; that the homicide occurred by reasons of the defendant driving his automobile at a greater rate of speed than 15 miles an hour in passing another vehicle; that the homicide occurred by reasons of the defendant passing another vehicle going in the same direction on the right side instead of the left.

The maximum penalty that can be assessed where a defendant is found guilty of the charge of negligent homicide is imprisonment in the county jail for any term not exceeding three years or by a fine not exceeding $3,000, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Hampton is charged with having caused the death of Miss Onita White, who was a member of a Halloween party composed of local high school students.

The accident occurred on the Iowa Park paved road at a point about two and a half miles on the side of Iowa Park last Monday night.

Hampton surrendered to the police this Tuesday morning after the city and county officials had instituted a search throughout the city all night long in an effort to find the car and driver of the car that ran into the crowd of young people.

He was released from the county jail Wednesday after perfecting a bond of $1,000.

The Grisham home was most beautifully decorated for the occasion in autumn leaves and baskets of great yellow plume chrysanthemums, the leaves being used to form an especially attractive decorative motif in the punch room.

Barnum's List of Adjectives Needed for "Theodora"

By JAMES W. LEAN. NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Magnificent, marvelous, massive, glorious, gorgeous, gigantic, dazzling, stupendous, sensational, impressive, extravagant. Thus would P. T. Barnum have gilded "Theodora," the Italian film being released in this country by Goldwyn.

And all those adjectives truly describe the film, "extravagant" being the word that most aptly fits. The cost of the production in Italian money is not given. Had it been made in America it would have cost more than the world series receipts. This is extravagance because the are of the photoplay is not in proportion to the cost of production.

One of the most thrilling sights ever filmed is that of lions, more or less wild, turned into an arena of a circus, and thousands of spectators in pursuit of the players is quite thrilling.

And when Rita smiles "it is as though the garish light of a blue moon were beaming upon serried rows of tombstones. That is probably because she had adenaids when a child and slept with her mouth open.

I would recommend "Theodora" as a treat to all bald headed men. The Italian evidently realize that when a man loses his hair, he loses only his hair, that he is still more or less human, capable of being heroic or villainous.

The business of writing is picking up. Katherine Newlin Burt sold screen rights to "The Summons" before it appeared serially or as a novel. It is to appear in both those forms. Time was when a writer wrote a novel after it proved successful sold it for serial publication.

It has often been said by photoplay critics that an animal in a film seals the thunder of the star. Then Smoky, the chimpanzee, and Teddy and Brownie, canine comedians, were featured in comics. Now Strongheart, a police dog, is the hero of a serious photoplay, "The Silent Call." Strongheart was decorated by the Red Cross for war bravery.

Cinegrams. Bryant Washburn used to get it a performance for stage acting. The folly of being a "cat's paw" is illustrated in the next Aesop film comedy, "The Cat and the Monkey."

Pauline Garon, who supports Ma-

Rita Jolivet in the title role of "Theodora," Italian film spectacle based on Sardou's famous play. Released by Goldwyn.

Strongheart. He is the hero of "The Silent Call," a new movie. He was decorated for Red Cross work during the war.

rie Dore in "Lilies of the Field," stage play, will support Owen Moore in "Ship Ahoy."

The tribulations of a man shopping with his wife are the basis of Sub Pollard's next comedy, "Fifteen Minutes."

Betty Francisco and Antonio Moreno celebrate their birthdays on the same date. They started a new Vitaphone picture on their last anniversary.

Dr. Frank Crane has joined the lists of scenario writers. William H. Tucker, veteran character actor, is directing the film and playing a prominent role.

Gilbert Emery, author of "The Hero" which is being played on the stage by Richard Bennett, is also a movie actor. He supports Pearl White in her current production.

REV. N. F. GRAFTON SPEAKER THURSDAY BEFORE ROTARIANS

It was the preacher's turn Thursday at the Rotary club. It is a rule of this club that each week some member must address the club and tell about his business, its history, hardships, principles and methods.

Rev. N. F. Grafton addressed the club at the weekly luncheon Thursday and in a talk that was both entertaining and inspiring, told some interesting facts about the preacher's job. While he dealt more with the lighter side of the profession, he made more than one serious reference, too; for instance, that the average annual salary of ministers in the United States last year most exactly equals the average annual wage of section hands—about $700.

The speaker intimated that there are times when the preacher gets bored stiff by "warts" and "peanut-heads" and that he has to put with a lot. Mr. Grafton told several amusing stories out of his own experience, but the one that really brought down the house dealt with an old sister who told the speaker's bride, some years ago, that "preachers never had anything but books and babies."

"So far," said Dr. Grafton, "we have accumulated quite a few books."

Ivan Murchison charmed the diners with a solo "Little Crumbs of Happiness" and Gene Lewis of the Lewis-Worth stock company, recited George Cohan's famous verses on "Life's a Funny Proposition."

The members of the stock company, with several unexpected additions, were guests of the club. Enthusiastic greeting was extended by the members to H. H.

CALOMEL GOOD BUT AWFUL TREACHEROUS

Next Dibs, May Salivate, Shock Liver or Attack Your Bones

You know what calomel is. It's mercury, quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into your bile like dynamite, wringing and wrenching you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your drug store and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it lones you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tonic straightens you right up and you feel great. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and can not salivate. (adv.)

DENTON, TEXAS, Nov. 3.—Deputy Sheriff Harvey Wilson of Justin went to Fort Worth today to try and identify two men in a hospital there as members of a party with whom Wilson and two other officers engaged in a gun fight four miles southeast of Justin last night. Several shots were exchanged after the men, hiding in the brush, fired upon the officers who were searching for liquor stills. None of the officers were wounded, but said they believed some of their assailants, who escaped in an automobile, had been struck by bullets. The officers discovered part of a still in the brush.

URGES THE REPEAL OF CERTAIN SECTIONS OF TRANSPORTATION ACT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Urging repeal of those sections in the transportation act which gives the railroad labor board jurisdiction over wages to be paid, and the interstate commerce commission control over the interstate rates, Judge Sam H. Cowan of Fort Worth appeared as a witness this morning before the senate committee which is considering the Capper bill. He insisted that the carriers should be left free to work out their own method in providing reasonable rates. Section 15-a, which establishes the fixed returns which the rates are to provide, was assailed by Judge Cowan, who asserted that it deprived the interstate commerce commission of any judicial authority, since what may be a reasonable rate on one road might not be on another.

How an EXPECTANT MOTHER Prepared for Baby's Coming

DO YOU know that thousands of women never really suffer at child birth? Perhaps you have thought with many others that this should always be the case. But how?

Let Mrs. Mattie Paul, of Ocala, Ga., tell you. She is one of thousands who has demonstrated this fact:

"As I am a young mother of one baby, I am writing for free booklet to 'expectant mothers.' I used only two bottles of Mother's Friend before I was confined and had a quick and easy time through labor. I can recommend Mother's Friend to all expectant mothers. I will never go through pregnancy without it."

You, too, can have this booklet for expectant mothers by sending coupon below.

It goes into the features of maternity and gives, in a plain, interesting manner, information about what the mother needs in clothing before baby is born; what clothing will be necessary for the baby; an interesting table as to the probable date of delivery; simple but necessary and helpful rules of hygiene to follow; and much other worthwhile information. This little booklet also tells about Mother's Friend and the wonderful good it is doing for expectant mothers.

Don't let false modesty keep you from performing this duty to yourself—your family—and your baby.

Send for your copy NOW.

WARNING: Avoid using plain oils, greases and substitutes—they act only on the skin and may cause harm without doing good.

Harvard and Princeton To Start Round Robin On Big Three Saturday

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Yale, Princeton and Harvard, now on the threshold of their own private football series, have finished what might be called the work of preparation for the historic round robin that will begin next Saturday with the conflict between Harvard and Princeton. On the whole, it has been an interesting season thus far for the warriors of the Eastern Big Three. Of the trio only Yale has escaped defeat, and the Elis ride on an even keel as their craft approaches the final tests ahead.

Son's Work Helped Father Get Revenge After 21 Years

AUSTIN, TEXAS, Nov. 3.—Revenge is sweet even after 21 years says Frank Godchaux Sr., president of an association of rice millers in Louisiana. In 1900 the Vanderbilt football team journeyed to Dallas for the second game ever played between the Texas and Nashville elevens. On that Vanderbilt team was Frank Godchaux Sr. The Longhorns walked the Commodores by a 22-0 score and mistreated the elder Godchaux so much that he was left in a Dallas hospital to be fixed up for the return trip to Nashville. "That's all right," Godchaux said in his room at the hospital. "Some day I'll see that defeat atoned."

During the state fair at Dallas recently the Vanderbilt team trounced the Commodores and otherwise materially helped in keeping the Texas from crossing their line was Frank Godchaux Jr., son of the rice association's president. Another family affair between the two teams was that of Tom Graham for Tom Ryan. Graham played on the Vandy team in 1903 when the score was 5-5. Ryan swung into action against Texas this year at one end of the team. Ryan is Graham's nephew.

FAVORABLE WEATHER FOR PULITZER TROPHY RACE

OMAHA, NEB., Nov. 3.—Favorable weather conditions are predicted for today's second annual Pulitzer trophy race for heavier-than-air craft, with a speed of more than 140 miles per hour scheduled to start this afternoon. The course is five times around a route of 30 miles. The winner, in addition to receiving the Pulitzer speed silver trophy, will be given $1,000 in cash. Second and third places will win $2,000 and $1,000 respectively.

TOO MUCH MOISTURE IN GALVESTON FOR BRAVES

BOSTON, Nov. 3.—The Boston Nationals will not return to Galveston, Texas, as training grounds this spring. Manager Fred Mitchell said today that he was looking elsewhere for a spring camp. An excess of moisture at Galveston was one of the reasons responsible for the decision to change, he said.

TOMMY MURPHY.

By ROY GROVE. Tommy Murphy, veteran turfman, again leads the field both in money and in races won on the Grand Circuit for the season of 1921. In addition to winning six races at Columbus and five races at Lexington, Murphy pulled down the four-year-old trotting record to 1:58 1/2 with Arion Guy and also set a new world's trotting record, with the gelding Peter Manning, in 1:58 1/2. Murphy held a strong arm throughout the season with three-year-old trotters pulling the leather. He opened his hand by winning

To the average gridiron fan, the "big games" of the season invariably mean the approaching contests between Yale, Harvard and Princeton. How come? In the old days, before collegiate football had attained its present healthy growth, this eastern triumvirate got away with it because the size of the institutions gave them a better selection of material and more money for a coaching staff. It became a habit with the fans to wait for these expensively trained machines to clash. That was football to the 'nth degree in the old days.

Today practically every school in the country realizes the importance of having a good football team. High-salaried coaches have been hired. They have turned out teams that attracted students and so came more choice material. And now the Yale-Harvard-Princeton clashes are the big games only to those schools themselves, their alumni, and to their followers.

Consider the scores this season. Little Center College walloped Harvard, Penn State tied em and Georgia University held 'em to a 10 to 7 score. Princeton dropped games to both Navy and Chicago, although hampered by cripples, it's true. Yale is the only member of the trio that has showed chance of "big-time" stuff, and she's had a fairly easy early-season schedule.

Harvard has scored only 84 points to its opponents 24. Princeton only 74 to its opponents' 29, while Yale, with an easier schedule, ran up 153 to its opponents' 14.

Penn State, on the other hand, with a tough schedule, including Harvard and Georgia Tech ran up 183 to its opponents' 25. Army scored 172 to its opponents' 30, Cornell, which went against both Dartmouth and Colgate, piled up 296 to its opponents' 14.

Even in the east, it would be easy to find better grid games from the fans' point of view than the big trio clashes.

He sent him out to do his stuff. He'll never play another game; He ran the other way.

Yale ought to win from both Harvard and Princeton. She has a better balanced machine, both in offensive and defensive play, than either of the others.

Harvard has a better aerial attack than any of the three, but its line is woefully weak. Centre College went through the Harvard line and Penn State found little difficulty with it. Yale's rapid-fire ends will bring a lot of disaster to Harvard's aerial game.

Princeton is harder to dope because its stars have been out of many of the early games with injuries. The team got away to a bad start, but Princeton has the knack of capitalizing on early errors in its late season playing, and always has played better against Yale and Harvard than against other teams.

However, I'm picking Yale to beat 'em both.

Foreign followers of the boxing game fail to understand why it is that the leather pushers they send over here can't stand up to the American maulers in Europe.

England, France and other European countries develop whirlwinds in their class, in their own countries. Often they are so good in their own localities that they have to go to the heavier or lighter boys for their garlic and cheese. Then this champion, of England or France or Australia or whatever the place may be, is sent to America and receives the surprise of his life.

The explanation is that they are lacking on the methods of training and the methods of fighting that we use over here.

The writer saw Jimmy Wilde in action at the National Sporting Club of London. He was regarded as a wonderful boxer, and he sure looked sweet in the English ring—against the English. Although he never scaled more than 110 pounds, he beat them all in three classes in England. He stepped from the flyweight to the bantam and feather class, in order to get along.

He came to America. The English had all the hopes in the world that he could repeat anything he did in England. The first man he fought was Jack Sharkey, a third-class bantam. He played rings around Wilde for 10 rounds.

European boxers should be sent over for at least a year in advance to get accustomed to the methods of American fighters, if they expect to get anywhere.

ATLANTA GAMBLING INJURING FOOTBALL

Rutgers Graduate Manager Writes Of Conditions When Rutgers Met Georgia Tech.

ATLANTA, GA., Nov. 3.—The charge that professional gamblers of Atlanta are casting a shadow over football in Atlanta and that if it is not stopped it may prove injurious, is made in a letter sent Atlanta by William P. Garrison, Rutgers graduate manager of the Rutgers football team, which was defeated by Georgia Tech on Grant Field here Oct. 23 by a score of 48 to 14. Speaking of this phase of the football situation in Atlanta, he writes: "Last year when we were invited by Tech to play we were aware of the break with Centre and Pittsburgh and the attending publicity it attracted. In addition, we heard ugly rumors concerning other conditions in Atlanta which made us pause and think the situation over. The game was scheduled on the advice of some of our alumni, who assured us from personal observation that Tech was a desirable opponent. The game was therefore scheduled and prepared for to the best of our ability.

"Our squad had not been an hour in Atlanta last Friday before a number of people interested in gambling on the result of the game sought our coaches, managers and players for opinions and information. This was a brand new experience for us. Ugly rumors having to do with gambling activities soon began to go the rounds, and I confess that the atmosphere was so foreign to anything that we had ever encountered that it shocked us.

"It seemed to us deplorable that Atlanta should put her worst foot forward in this fashion. People interested in the gambling made their presence felt up to game time, and even in the grandstand, where I sat. It appeared to me that every touchdown, every penalty, every move of a player meant something to somebody's pocket book, to be accompanied by the cheers of the winners and the curses of the losers as the case might be.

"I know this situation exists in any sport crowd, but seldom to this extent. The press in Atlanta is naturally interested in supporting and upholding the fair name of the city. The greatest favor nepespeps can do Atlanta and Tech is to use your powerful sporting page to combat the gambling tendency on the part of certain elements in your population.

"Another thing for Tech they might do is to temper the comment concerning the visiting teams, with mercy and accuracy. The gambling element everywhere is threatening professional as well as amateur sports. Unless the situation is taken in hand, we will one day find intercollegiate football being played before alumni and students only, if at all."

PRELIMINARY BASKETBALL PRACTICE AT TEXAS UNIV.

AUSTIN, TEXAS, Nov. 2.—Preliminary basketball practice has started at the University of Texas under the direction of L. Theb Belmont, athletic director and basketball coach. Among the old men who will be back for the squad are McCullough, star end of the football team; Hill, guard, both football and basketball; Newman, center, and Barrett, forward.

"Pap" Peyton, who tossed more goals than any other member of the team last year, will not be back. He has withdrawn from the university. His loss will be keenly felt as his spectacular tossing pulled the Longhorns out of numerous bad places.

Eligible from the freshman team of last year are Joe Ward, tackle on the varsity football squad; Robertson, halfback; Glatrap, football halfback; Curtis, end on the varsity eleven; and Ragland, Fendergast, Schuhard and Ashby.

DALLAS BASEBALL CASE POSTPONED

Court Sets Hearing in Injunction Proceedings For Saturday Afternoon.

DALLAS, Nov. 3.—A three-day delay was announced yesterday in the hearing on the injunction brought by the Sablosky to restrain Jess Hassell and Ham Patterson from changing the character of the lease on Marine field, and to hold in status quo certain other matters in connection with the local Texas league club.

Judge E. H. Muse, presiding in the Fourth District court, where the proceedings will be heard, set the case for 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon after conference with the attorneys for both sides at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when the court was expected to convene on the hearing.

The attorney for the defendant in this case, Judge Muse announced, "has not filed his answer. If he had, Mr. Willis would have to file his answer to it. The hearing will take place at 3 o'clock Saturday, and will continue until 7 if necessary."

The Sablosky, the plaintiff, who seeks to enforce the terms of the alleged sale of the Dallas ball club, one feature of the suit being the injunction proceedings, was in court where the proceedings were held. Fort Worth, now associated with him. Patterson and Hassell were both present, as were their wives, stated to be the owners of the stock of the Dallas Baseball association. In addition to counsel for both parties, the courtroom held a scattering of spectators, most of whom are identified with baseball here in one way or another. Joe Gardner, former holder of the Dallas franchise, and who, as agent of the Gardner Park Amusement company, recently sold the park to Jess Hassell, was among those present.

Exide BATTERIES

Bright Lights on the Farm

Out on the prairie, in New England valleys, on lonely mountain sides, thousands of farm homes, churches, schools, and stores are now electrically lighted by the current from Exide Batteries. A large majority of all small electric light and power plants on farms and on yachts are equipped with Exide—the long-life battery.

You use an Exide Battery daily—every time you telephone, it is the current from an Exide that sends your voice over the wire. Submarines are propelled under the sea, as are mine locomotives below the ground and street trucks and electric passenger cars on the ground, by Exide Batteries.

Exide was the pioneer battery in automobiles as well as in the other fields where batteries are used. The result is a starting and lighting battery of long-lasting power—a matter of real comfort and economy to you in motoring.

When you require a new battery or repairs on any make of battery we hope for an opportunity to show you the calibre of Exide service.

HOLD RUTH'S SHARE OF SERIES RECEIPTS

Lands Pays All Yankees Except Babe, Bob Meusel And Bill Piercy.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Babe Ruth's share of the world series receipts, together with the shares of Bob Meusel and Bill Piercy, who accompanied Ruth on the barnstorming jaunt, though warned they were violating baseball rules, remains unpaid, it was learned today.

Distribution of the players' share of the series purse is directed by Judge Landis. When Judge Landis learned of Ruth's exhibition tour, in defiance of orders, if it is said he sent word to the owners of the Yankees team of his intention to hold up the offenders' shares, and this report, it is said, might have caused Ruth to abandon his tour.

Ruth, Meusel and Piercy each have a claim for $2,262.25. Twenty-five members of the Yankees team come in for full shares and all have been paid with the exception of these three men.

Judge Landis' delay in making a decision in the Ruth case may be due to the fact that he holds this weapon over the players' heads. It has been stated, those inclined to speculate declared that the justice figures it is a good plan to let the players think over the offense until they realize their mistake. They decide he will offer parole, then by withholding their pay or he will come forth with a statement denouncing the rule involved and give the men their money, together with a speech on respecting the rules of organized baseball.

NEW ALBANY, IND., Nov. 2.—Miss Marie Miers arrived here today from Fort Worth, Texas, and after meeting "Bo" McMillin, famous football player of Centre college, Danville, Kentucky, boarded an engine train with him for Danville. She denied reports from Fort Worth that she and McMillin would be married immediately, adding that her reason for coming to Danville was to witness McMillin in action in the remaining football games of this season, his last with Centre college.

CALOMEL, SALTS AND PURGATIVES ARE HARMFUL

Irritate Membranes And Contract Muscles Unnecessarily.

Many things in the medical profession that were considered all right in our grandfathers' time are not approved today. Among them are the purgatives and laxatives which cause cramping pains and irritation when they act. Calomel, salts and cathartics irritate the membranes and contract the intestinal muscles, leaving the bowels in a disordered condition and hindering rather than helping nature in its work.

Ferrasal acts in nature's way, gently and smoothly. It heals and relaxes the intestine. It neutralizes the acids which cause a part of all digestion troubles, and it cleanses and purifies the whole digestive system.

A WONDERFUL INVENTION SOMETHING NEW Just Out —AN— ELECTRIC MAIL BOX

Notifies You Any Hour of the Day When There Is Mail in Your Box

OUR CITY BOX

The Electric Mail Box Company supplies a long felt need for either city or country use. Our City Box is a combination door bell and electric mail box. Cheap and easy to install. A great convenience to private residences and especially apartment houses. Rings a bell and automatically closes itself when postman delivers your mail. It protects your letters against wind and rain and makes it absolutely private as it requires a key to take out mail. When absent from home you positively know that your private letters are safe when delivered in this box. Postman cannot leave box open nor deliver you a letter without ringing your apartment. We believe this box will take the place of all door bells in cities, and we anticipate that every apartment house ranging from one to ten stories will install one for each and every apartment.

OUR RURAL MAIL BOX

This is the greatest mail box ever invented and will be a great convenience to people living on Rural Routes. A farmer can press a button in his home and tell any hour of the day whether there are letters in his box. He never has to watch for rural carrier, and it absolutely does away with useless trips to his box. This mail box is far more attractive than any other now in use, yet it is cheap and easy to install. Once installed there is nothing to get out of fix and will last a lifetime. Works like a telephone on one wire from box to residence any distance. Bell in house will not ring unless there is mail in the box.

This box is round and revolves part way when postman drops in letters, at the same time it automatically closes a switch which gives the contact with the farmer's home. When released it flies back to its natural position and is closed.

It is built in two compartments and postman can take the outgoing letters or leave papers and magazines without ringing, so when the farmer puts on his switch if the bell rings he absolutely knows the carrier has left a letter for him. This box is also much more convenient for the carrier as he never has to carry a key. The farmer carries his own key and he is the only one who has access to the first class mail when it is once delivered. He also knows his letters are safe when absent from home as they are locked up in a box that is weather proof, that automatically closes itself when postman delivers his mail.

Where the farmer has no electricity in his home a small magneto with bell attached generates the current and will last a life time without any repair or getting out of fix. Any fourteen-year-old boy can install a rural box by running one wire grounded from the box to the house either on fence or telephone poles and connecting it to the magneto in the residence. Will work any distance up to five miles. In the northern and eastern states over half of the farmers have electricity in their homes which does away with using magneto, thus reducing the cost of installation about $5.00.

The city box will retail around $10.00, and the rural box about the same where the farmer has electricity and where he has to use magneto around $15.00.

Both of these mail boxes work absolutely satisfactory. They have been inspected by expert electricians and telephone men with the General Electric, Western Electric, Electric Appliance and Westinghouse, none of whom can find any fault or suggest any improvement. Thousands of people have seen it exhibited at the Oklahoma and Texas State Fairs and it is the unanimous opinion of everyone that it is a useful article and should be a great seller when placed on the market.

We have also perfected and will immediately apply for patent on our device whereby we can change the rural box approved by the government to an electric mail box. We do this simply by taking off the door and slipping on our door, which works automatically at the same time throwing a switch which connects with the farmer's home. We have been before the Post Office Department in Washington, who have assured us that they will protect us in this patent. Their committee thought this electric mail box would be a great time saver as well as convenience to the farmer.

MANUFACTURE AND DISTRIBUTION OF THESE BOXES

We have been having our sample boxes manufactured in Cincinnati, and we find that by furnishing our own tools and dies that any big tool and stamping company can turn them out by the thousands at a very low cost and probably cheaper than we could in this state if we owned our own factory. We plan to have them manufactured in St. Louis, which is more centrally located and where they have some very large stamping factories. Not having to build a factory we find that it will not take any great outlay of money to start manufacturing these boxes, and we hope to be turning them out by the thousands in the next two or three months.

We are now forming a company called the ELECTRIC MAIL BOX COMPANY with a capitalization of $100,000, to cover the entire United States. In order to let large contracts at once for the manufacture of our boxes we are offering $60,000 worth of treasury stock for sale in shares of $10.00 each. Only enough shares will be sold from time to time to carry on the operation of the company. This is a small capitalization for a company of this kind covering the entire United States without any competition and bids fair to become the most valuable stock you have ever had an opportunity to purchase. If lots of brokers had this propositions they would capitalize it for a half million dollars and sell stock all over the United States. With our small capital you are permitted to get right in on the ground floor with our present stockholders. Eastern brokers would be glad to have an opportunity of placing our stock for us, but as this is a home enterprise invented and backed by Texas men, we much prefer to give our friends the first opportunity of coming in on this great proposition. A small investment may mean thousands of dollars to you.

This is perhaps the first time in your life that you have ever had offered your stock in an invention that should cover the entire United States without competition. Just think of the millions of dollars that are made every day in the year in the manufacturing business. Think how some of them started out with all kinds of competition and where they are today; the Ford car for instance. You can well remember when the Ford factory would not make a decent garage for a rich man's home of today.

As there are twenty million homes in the United States that are prospective purchasers for these mail boxes, you may quickly figure the great possibilities of this company if we only sell one out of five making from $2.00 to $3.00 profit on each box. Also take into consideration that thousands of new residences and apartment houses are built annually and that we will be protected by patents for seventeen years.

DISTRIBUTION

It is our intention now to place these boxes on the market and handle them the same as automobiles are handled. We will appoint reputable state agents, who will have district agents under them. In this way the factory will deal with live, responsible state agents who will have to produce the business in order to hold their jobs. There will be no state or county rights for sale.

We are beseeched by agents every day wanting to start out and sell these boxes as they know they will be great sellers. The rural carriers all like this rural box and are anxious to see the farmers install them. They can be counted on to work through the district agents in each state. In this way every farmer in the United States can be seen and many of them will purchase as soon as they see the box.

Our greatest demand for these boxes will be in the northern and eastern states. As soon as the general public becomes acquainted with what we have we believe this stock is going to be in great demand. Our capitalization is very low considering that we own these patents and are putting the whole United States in one company without any competition as there has absolutely never been another ELECTRIC MAIL BOX before the Patent Office in Washington. After we get this company in operation we will be greatly disappointed if we can't pay our stockholders one hundred per cent dividend every six months.

SAFEGUARDS IN MANUFACTURING

This proposition is not speculative like the oil business. You absolutely see with your own eyes what you are going into and you can tell whether it has merit or not. It is a business that does not come and go like the oil boom, but continues to grow year by year if successfully managed. If after we get in operation we find the business is too big for us and that we are not capable of managing same, there is not an officer in this company but what will gladly step down and out and employ capable men who can run the business for the best interests of the stockholders.

THINK! COMPARE! ACT!

Few people are born rich. The vast majority of us have to work, and work hard for every dollar we get. Yet thousands and tens of thousands achieve riches. How do they do it?

Ben Franklin said: "Early to bed and early to rise, makes a man healthy, WEALTHY and wise." With all due deference to Ben, it DOES NOT! The pluggler who works faithfully day by day and saves his money carefully, sometimes acquires enough to live on in his old age, but rarely more. Did any single one of them make their fortune that way? The chances are 1000 to 1 against it. They made their fortunes by making an investment. Think that over.

How did American MILLIONAIRES of today make their money? Here's one way. Thousands and tens of thousands of millionaires and multi-millionaires made their money in the manufacturing business! Get that? What a vast number then, must have made thousands, a competence enough for all their needs, by owning stock in good manufacturing industries. Future generations will look back on the money-making opportunities of today with astonishment and envy.

MANUFACTURING, THE MILLIONAIRE MAKER

Thomas Edison started out as a telegraph operator. He turned his attention to inventions and is now a multi-millionaire. Henry Ford invested his small savings in the manufacture of an automobile. He started with practically nothing and all kinds of competition. Today he is estimated to be worth from fifty to one hundred millions.

Chas. M. Schwab started life as a mechanic and later accumulated millions as a steel manufacturer.

Alexander G. Bell, while teaching school in a Deaf and Blind institute invented the telephone. This wonderful invention is still making millions for its stockholders.

Authentic statistics could be quoted all day giving names of millionaires who have massed their fortunes in the manufacturing business.

Faint heart never won—anything of consequence. It takes action to win—action and willingness to take a chance. Will you hoard every dollar, keeping it where it can only earn moderate interest at best, or will you set aside a part of your money—the part you can spare without suffering—and give it a chance to win a fortune for you. What does common sense and good judgment counsel? Are you content to sit back and never even have an opportunity to make the big money? Surely not!

MAIL YOUR ORDER TODAY

By attaching to this an order blank we have tried to make it easy for you to order. Figure out what you can spare, make out your order and send in today. This stock will only be on the market a short time.

"MA" BURDICK IS NATIONAL CHAPLAIN LEGION AUXILIARY

"OFFICERS WERE IN ROOM AT TIME OF SHOOTING"—SMITH

Officers Spiller and Belcher were in the room at Kemp City at the time of the shooting and death of Marvin Caple and William Toney, as the statement made by Wiley Smith who has written to The Times in answer to an interview from Doc Snow, published a week ago.

"A few days ago you published an interview with H. C. (Doc) Snow, in regard to the incidents which happened at Kemp City on the night when two officers were murdered and Snow's subsequent trial and conviction.

"Now in order to correct the statement made by him so that no misunderstanding can be had that would affect Mr. Spiller and Mr. Belcher I want you to publish this article in your paper.

"I was talking to those gentlemen in the very room that the shooting occurred in at the time of the shooting. I announced their presence prior to the shooting.

"It is true that at one time I was in the penitentiary, but you will find I was pardoned and restored to full citizenship. Snow's attorneys knew this at the time of his trial and they did not raise the question, which is in itself explanatory.

"If you will give this article space in your paper, I believe it will correct an erroneous impression that has been caused by Snow's remarks.
