RATHENAU CONFERS WITH THE BRITISH OVER REPARATIONS

PROPOSED MORATORIUM IS FEATURE OF DISCUSSIONS IN LONDON.

ATTITUDE OF FRANCE MAY MUDDY WATERS

Argued That French Interests Will Be Served Equally With The British.

By Associated Press. LONDON, Nov. 30.—Reports that the British cabinet was considering the proposed moratorium for Germany were confirmed in official circles today. The point being discussed is under what conditions a moratorium could be put into effect.

Indeed the ten or more of the comments suggests that it is easy to bring the moratorium into line with the view. Attributed to financial experts, that a moratorium is desirable. France's position is discussed by the financial writers who assume that a moratorium will be distasteful to her, but they argued that French interests will be served equally with British and that France will gain more in the long run under a plan that will further occupation of German territory should Germany default in her payments.

Among the allied matters touched upon by the writers is the suggestion by France that it might be desirable to have an international bank for Europe patterned after the federal reserve system of the United States. The financial expert in the Morning Post says that doubtless Mr. Vandervip's motives are entirely praiseworthy, but that his idea is regarded in England as impracticable. The writer expresses the wish that Mr. Vandervip and others who are concerned for the economic state of Europe will try to furthering the success of the Ter-Muelen plan, "the one sound scheme for aiding the distressed countries of Europe," instead of diverting attention from it.

GOVERNOR NEFF ATTENDS THE BAPTIST CONVENTION

AUSTIN, Nov. 30.—Governor Neff left this morning for Dallas to attend the Baptist church general convention there tomorrow. He will return to the capital Friday.

By Associated Press. LONDON, Nov. 30.—Bolshevism is spreading through the large towns of Portugal, the Times declares this morning, and there have been many outrages, especially in the province of Alentejo.

When a number of foreign warships moored in the Tagus river at Lisbon recently, the sailors on a Portuguese gunboat are said to have been estrained only with difficulty from attempting to torpedo the Spanish vessels.

Dispatches to the Times assert that the condition of the country is such that it has been very difficult to find men willing to accept posts in the cabinet.

Dispatches from Portugal to the Associated Press have reported two distinct revolutionary movements in the past few weeks. In the first several members of the Portuguese cabinet, including Premier Franco, were assassinated following their resignations. A few days later it was reported that revolutionaries were plotting for the establishment of a monarchy. On November 24 dispatches from the Portuguese frontier of Spain reported another revolution being headed by Carvalho de Azevedo. The troops in Lisbon were said to have been confined to their barracks in preparation for eventualities. No advances have been received since that time as to conditions in Portugal.

There has been hope of prolonging this truce and adjourning the negotiations for an additional period of two months, but this hope now has been dashed.

By Associated Press. BELFAST, Nov. 30.—Sir James Craig, told Premier Lloyd George early in the Irish peace negotiations that if the British parliament or people ever entertained the British proposals for an all-Ireland parliament he would resign as premier of Ulster. This was the first time Sir James yesterday in the Ulster parliament in his report on the state of the negotiations that the basis of the British offer, was not to be thought of "under present conditions as negotiable." Whether the government was prepared to discuss other avenues for settlement.

Sir James reiterated that Ulster wanted a settlement, and said: "If there is any prospect of the signing of this truce, even at this late hour, we will renew the offer that, through the machinery of a council of Ireland, we are prepared to take the peace negotiations to a settlement of the Irish question and shooting from behind the chimneys of Belfast? It is preposterous."

NOT CONSIDERED AS CLOSING THE DOOR TO SETTLEMENT

LONDON, Nov. 30.—Refusal of Ulster to enter an all-Ireland parliament under present conditions, voiced in Belfast yesterday by Premier Craig, is not considered here as closing the door to settlement on the Irish question, it was advanced yesterday. Under the plan the terms offered Ireland would be drafted in treaty form and submitted to the house of commons. The treaty would embody provisions for an all-Ireland parliament but would give northwestern Ulster, as defined by a boundary commission, permission to declare itself out either at once or after a limited period. It is believed that the British parliament will not intend reconstruction of the boundary, although no lessening of the total area under control of the Ulster parliament is foreseen here. It is pointed out that severance from Ulster of Catholic districts might be balanced by acquisition of Protestant districts now assigned to southern Ireland.

Plans for prolonging the truce in Ireland, which both the British government and Sinn Fein desire, are embarrassed by the fact that about 5,000 men and women are in internment on charges of sympathy with the cause of Sinn Fein, and these being treated as prisoners of war.

Alternative Settlement Plan Requires Sinn Fein Allegiance To Crown.

LONDON, Nov. 30.—Government circles today expressed belief that the Irish conference would break down almost immediately as a result of the difficulties which have arisen and that the resumption of armed hostilities could not be postponed.

The alternative settlement plan submitted by the government to the Sinn Fein representatives last evening included the necessity for a definite understanding by the Sinn Fein to take the oath of allegiance to the crown.

The Sinn Fein has made many objections to the government's new plan, but even if it agreed to discuss this plan it will not give assent to the oath of allegiance proviso, it is stated.

Thus it appears, according to government officials, that the breach in the negotiations, which has been feared, will take place over the allegiance issue.

There has been hope of prolonging this truce and adjourning the negotiations for an additional period of two months, but this hope now has been dashed.

Reports read today showed $200,000 had been raised in Texas and that the women have set $800,000 as their goal.

The fund is being given very generously if we raise it in five years," Mrs. Dawson said, "but that sum is only what Great Britain has given in the past few years. One billion souls are in darkness and 175,000,000 is a small sum compared to the work to be done in bringing them the light."

The Pastors and Laymen's conference also was in session today, the subject of the day being the principal discussion.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF PACKING HOUSE EMPLOYEES IN SESSION AT CHICAGO

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—The good offices of Secretary Hughes and Arthur Balfour of the British legation to bring the representatives of China and Japan together for settlement of questions of Shantung, and the leased territory of Kia Chou, have been accepted by the delegations of both nations.

Conversations will begin immediately and the first meeting will be held tomorrow afternoon. Japan, it was announced, agreed to withdraw her guards of the Shantung railway as soon as Chinese police force could be substituted, but Japan objected to withdrawing her guards along the South Manchuria line, they said, of the danger from bandits.

A statement to the committee by Foreign Minister Hanza said that Japan also would remove her troops from Hankow as soon as China should take the necessary measures to maintain order. Japan, he also said, was ready to withdraw troops from North China as soon as actual conditions warranted. Japan would withdraw Japanese troops along the Chinese eastern railway as soon as Siberia should be evacuated.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Arrangements have been made, it was said officially today in armament conference circles for direct negotiations between the Japanese and Chinese delegations over Shantung.

The negotiations are expected to start immediately and in order to give the Japanese and Chinese delegates a free day for their discussions, the conference committee has postponed for a few days the meeting of the sub-committee and it was suggested that the Chinese and Japanese delegates should talk over the situation privately with the members of the committee.

Both the Chinese and Japanese delegates agreed to this and they left for the United States today.

The far eastern committee did not conclude discussion today of China's request for withdrawal of foreign troops from China and the matter went over. The committee took up another Chinese request for restriction of American military and air transport and radio systems.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Details of the American plan for limitation of naval armament were discussed today at a brief meeting of the sub-committee of naval experts of Great Britain and the United States at Japan. The session was adjourned shortly after 11 o'clock and it then was reported that the sub-committee had agreed to meet tomorrow.

There also was no indication that the full committee of naval experts, including the officers of the French fleet, would meet tomorrow. It is generally expected that the experts of the three powers reach a point where they cannot proceed further until the conference has decided the fundamental question of fleet ratio as between the United States and Japan, at which time the sub-committee will report to the main committee of the conference.

In American circles there had appeared to be a feeling that today might bring the discussion of the naval ratio question to a head so far as the experts were concerned. There was no indication that such a stage had been reached, however, when the sub-committee adjourned.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—The issue raised in Japan's desire for an increase in the relative strength allotted her under the American limitation proposal still held attention today as a pivotal question in the arms conference proceeding.

In some quarters prospects for an early agreement on the question were regarded as having been somewhat improved by the statement of Prince Tokugawa of the Japanese delegation that the announcement Monday of Vice-Admiral Kato of the Japanese advisory staff that Japan wanted a 70 instead of a 60 per cent naval ratio, was merely an expression of "personal opinion not endorsed by the delegation," which he is not a member.

As Prince Tokugawa declined to reveal, however, the actual view of the Japanese delegates as to what percentage of fleet strength Japan would insist upon, no definite deduction was possible from his statement.

The reiterated firmness of the American delegates at the same time against acceptance of any increase of the naval ratio for Japan was understood to have had the effect of definitely ending the consideration of the question in the sub-committee of the powers and it was said authoritatively that the committee would not even touch upon it at its postponed meeting today.

AMERICAN EXPELLED FROM MEXICO TELLS OF CONDITION THERE

OPPOSES RECOGNITION OF OREGON GOVERNMENT BY UNITED STATES.

EXPULSION DUE TO HIS OPPOSITION TO OREGON

Says Governor Nef Assumed Power Granted Only to President of United States.

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, Nov. 29.—William F. Buckley, expelled from the republic of Mexico because of his activities as president of the American association of Mexico in opposition to recognition of the Obregon regime by the United States, was expelled from the republic of Mexico last night in San Antonio en route to Austin, where he will devise future plans.

Mr. Buckley stated that after having lived in Mexico for 13 years and acquiring property valued at several millions of dollars, he was ordered to leave the country last Wednesday. He remained in the American embassy in Mexico City under the care of the American chargé d'affaires, George Summerlin, from last Wednesday until Sunday night, when he was granted "safe conduct" from Mexico City to Laredo.

"While in the embassy last Thursday morning I received a message from De La Huerta, minister of finance, asserting that if I would discontinue my efforts as president of the American association and would dissolve the organization I would be permitted to remain in the country. This I refused to do. I did not answer the minister's communication."

Against Recognition.

"I am against recognition of Mexico by the United States government because just as soon as America recognizes the regime, Obregon will proceed to take over American property, just as he did with Spain."

OWNED PROPERTY when his administration was recognized by Spain," Mr. Buckley declared.

"Although the official press in Mexico City has termed me an interventionist, I do not favor such a move. I thought I had proved able to the Carranzistas in 1914 when I declined to become American governor of the port of Vera Cruz.

"When asked what he thought of the action of Governor Nef in inviting President Obregon to visit San Antonio to meet Marshal Foch next week, Mr. Buckley said that the governor had not the right to extend an invitation to an official not recognized by the federal government and that he was assuming the power granted only to the president of the United States.

Mr. Buckley in a lengthy statement issued last night declared that the situation in Mexico with reference to American interests has not changed since Obregon assumed presidential duties in Washington.

"The Obregon government has refused to treat American citizens with justice and I understand that negotiations between Washington and Mexico City regarding recognition have been called off," he said.

Attacks Chamber Commerce.

Mr. Buckley attacked the methods employed by representatives of the American chamber of commerce to further trade in Mexico.

"American citizens desirous of obtaining the same amount of trade by telling the truth about Mexico as they can by putting out Obregon propaganda are doing more harm to the American people than any other method."

When asked whether he believed the Obregon regime would complete its term of office, Mr. Buckley refused to disclose his opinion, saying that the matter was purely Mexican internal politics and it would be against his good judgment to give his version of that situation.

He declared that an anti-American land law now in effect was one of the most stringent of Mexican statutes and it prohibited American citizens from buying valuable land within certain territorial limits.

He said that this land law prohibited the sale of property along the coast and boundaries to American citizens. This boundary, extending 60 miles on the north and south and 25 miles on the east and west coasts.

"This is bad enough," Mr. Buckley declared. "But, worse than that, every American citizen desirous of purchasing property anywhere in the country must first get the consent of the president of Mexico."

Mr. Buckley stated that Mexico's finances are in no better condition than they were before the revolt which resulted in the overthrow of Carranza. Bonds are far below par and there seems no chance for liquidation of the public debt. The republic's only hope was the proposed sale of the Mexican Republic's oil fields to American citizens. This boundary, extending 60 miles on the north and south and 25 miles on the east and west coasts.

Readjustment Process Continues To Have Distressing Effect On Economic Condition.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—Although Mexico's readjustment process continues to have a "distressing effect" on economic conditions in that country generally, the past month brought some encouragement, according to a report from Trade Commissioner Connell made public today by the department of commerce.

Several big industrial concerns have weathered the crisis, he said, and another favorable indication was a general lowering of food prices. Labor also was said to be more plentiful and cheaper.

Money was declared to be tighter in Mexico with an upward trend in interest rates while the disappearance of gold from circulation was

"Every time I look at my little girl's rosy cheeks my heart goes out in praise and gratitude to Tanlac." said Mrs. Mary Smith, of Peacocks, R. I., a suburb of Providence, recently.

"Until Mary was eleven years of age she always enjoyed good health and had a very happy, fun-loving disposition. However, during the past three years she became very thin and frail. She took on a very yellow color, her tongue coated over, she complained of a bad taste in her mouth, dull headaches, and of feeling languid and tired all the time. She lost her sunny disposition and became nervous, irritable and moody. Her appetite got so poor that I had to coax her to eat. Her sleep was fitful, her eyes dull, and her steps so heavy that I feared she hadn't strength to lift her feet from the floor.

"She had always stood high in her studies, but now her reports were so bad that her teacher called on me to find out why she had gone back so in her lessons. When I asked her why she had failed so in her school work she cried and said she studied as hard as ever, but couldn't seem to remember. Only a mother can understand what I suffered when I saw my daughter slowly, but surely, fading away each day. I could hardly keep back the tears when I looked at her.

"Six months ago we took her out of school, thinking this might help her, but she continued to grow worse. We were told she would get better when she got older, but I was afraid she couldn't live and have shed many a tear over her condition. In fact, my husband and myself, both, were downright sick from worry over her, and yet, nothing did her any good.

"One day my husband said, 'Why not have Mary try Tanlac?' Each morning I have read in the papers of someone who had been helped by it and it may be what she needs."

"Well, I had tried everything else, so as a last resort I had Mary try Tanlac and I have felt thankful a thousand times that I did. Before she finished the first bottle she was eating like I have been wanting to see her eat for three years. And the last to leave. She has gained fifteen pounds and is still gaining, and her face is as rosy and bright with health, her steps are light, and she is as full of life as a kitten. It does my heart good to hear her running around, singing and laughing and enjoying life and good health again. My gratitude to Tanlac is unbounded."

Tanlac is sold in Wichita Falls by Miller drug store, in El Centro by Tarleton drug store, in Burkburnett by West End Drug company and by all leading druggists. (adv.)

FOREIGN MINISTER OF HOLLAND SAYS NATION INTERESTED

GLAD TO COME TO ARMS CONFERENCE, HE STATES IN INTERVIEW.

NO AMBITION TO STAND IN THE WAY OF OTHERS

Had Already Given Up The Idea Of Constructing Capital Ships.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—Because of her vital interests in the far east, Holland is desirous of assisting in every way in the settlement of problems relating to that part of the world. Jonkheer H. Van Karnebeek, minister of foreign affairs of the Netherlands and delegate from that country to the Washington conference, told the Associated Press today in an interview.

"We have been very glad to come to the Washington conference," he said, "because although we have no special engagements in connection with China as other powers have and although we are not interested in quite the same way as other powers are in the far eastern problems, still everything that affects the situation there may be of great importance to us. As a matter of fact any modification in the far eastern situation might affect our most vital interests.

"We have in the far east an empire of more than 50,000,000 inhabitants covering an area equal to nearly half of Europe. That empire is the source of great riches not only to us but to the world at large and the policy of the Netherlands is a liberal one, giving opportunities to all foreign interests. The population of our East Indies is chiefly composed of people of Muslem creed, but there also are nearly a million Chinese. If one thinks of the significance of these colonies it is easy to understand that we watch very closely the development of the discussion in the Washington conference.

"Our policy is devoid of any ambition standing in the way of other powers, except the ambition to hold our own. All our colonies afford a vast opportunity for our activities, our participation in the development of the resources of other countries is necessarily limited. We feel, however, that if we can help in any way by suggestion or by experience to settle the problems connected with the far east we are willing to do what we can. On the other hand, we have our interests to defend."

Asked about the prospective reorganization of Holland's navy the Dutch foreign minister said:

"This program is the result of an inquiry of a state commission and provides means for the defense of the colonial empire and the fulfillment of international obligations in case it might be necessary to maintain the neutrality of the state. As a result of this inquiry Holland has given up the idea of building capital ships and consequently has already been moving in the direction of the Washington conference is following now. Holland is satisfied with sufficient defensive navy composed of small craft and is limiting her expenses on armaments as far as circumstances justify."

FAMINE HORRORS IN RUSSIA GROWING AS WINTER APPROACHES

By Associated Press.

RIGA, Nov. 29.—Famine horrors in Russia are growing as the approach of winter, official bolshevik government advices show.

In the Saratov region where 250,000 peasant are listed as starving, even the children have been without food five days and many persons are going mad, some being seized with a mania that they have plenty of bread. While in the summer many of the inhabitants subsisted on field mice, they are now reduced to eating cats, carrion and grass which only camels hitherto would eat.

Dispatches to the Rosta, official news agency, say that many mothers are bathing their children in a poisonous extract made from sheep's wool, hoping it will bring about their death.

Business Women Plan Furnishings For Club Room

The Business Women's club discussed other matters at their regular business meeting Tuesday evening at the Y. W. C. A. and a contest was announced by the executive board by means of which it is expected to arrive at a harmonious conclusion with regards to the doing-over of the club room.

The contest, which was opened to every member of the club, executives included, is an interior decorative one, and provides for the submission of complete and detailed plans for the re-decorating of the club room. Members entering the contest will be permitted to get help available in developing their plans, but are urged to make them complete and exact, with no guesswork over the effects.

The board voted to allow $175 for the re-decorating. The club room is a long room in the northwest corner of the building and is used by all of the Y. W. C. A. clubs. It is for the other clubs as well as their own that the business women are furnishing the room. The plans were asked for next Tuesday evening, and Mrs. C. R. Hartwood, Miss Elmer Gardner and Miss Du Bose were named judges. The membership prize for the week was announced for the winner of the contest.

Other Business.

A bunch of other business came up at the meeting, with reports from the secretary, treasurer and committee chairmen. Miss Mariel Schofield, assistant secretary, read the minutes of the last two meetings, and Miss Maud Thomas gave the treasurer's report, with some very encouraging figures. Miss Durham made a report and an announcement concerning the basketball contest, and Miss Du Bose took part in the "Tuesday Night" news contest, which ends Thursday evening, December 18. Miss Elizabeth McDowell made some announcements concerning the basketball contest and asked for those interested in a similar contest to talk with her later. Miss Irma Durnall, chairman of the hostess committee for the month, turned over her work to the new chairman, Miss McDowell.

Christmas Party.

Miss Frances Brooks announced the Christmas party for December 15th at the Golf club, and further announcements developed the fact that it is to be a "bid" party for all who would come so dressed. An open house for all members had their friends was also announced for Thursday evening, December 1 at the Y. W. C. A.

Miss Bruce Dixon made an announcement concerning the Studio Players, of which she is president, and asked for an auxiliary club of players in the Business Women's club. She also invited the members to the Studio Players' first entertainment, 2212 Broadway.

Miss Jackson addressed the members on several matters of interest during the evening, and her remarks were received with approval.

In the membership contest, the materia-co-operation prize, offered by Kimberlin's, was won by Miss Bruce Dickson, and was a handsome fur choker. The members of the hostess committee for the month, including a score of girls, contended for the prize offered by Mrs. Green. The prize, a beautiful hat, was won by Mrs. Ramey Mathis. Prizes for next week are offered by the Wichita Music Co. and Little's Sporting Goods Co., and one of them will be awarded the winner of the interior decorating contest.

SAYS SHE WILL BANISH CIGARET

By ROE GIBBONS.

CHICAGO, Nov. 29.—Back to the taffy pulling parties and good old girls of yesterday who sent their beaux home at 9 p. m.

That's the trail a new school of reformers are hitting here in the wake of Miss Lucy Page Gaston, nemesis of the cigarette.

Miss Gaston plans to ban cigarette smoking by women—and men, too—rolled stockings, extremely short skirts and lots of other things she calls modern frivolities.

Miss Gaston calls her enterprise the "Clean Life Movement," an organization eventually to become national in scope under state and committee of 100.

Its slogan is "Clean Speech, Clean Sports, Clean Habits and Clean Thinking." Its pledge calls upon all members to abstain from tobacco—especially cigarettes—and from alcohol.

Will Ban "Pills."

"I fought for the elimination of cigarettes for years," she says. "Now I promise to exterminate them in five years!"

"We need less social speed today, more brain power and general getting back to the ideals of our ancestors that spoke for sanity and instruction as opposed to the general insane restlessness now prevalent."

Miss Gaston claims to have rallied 10,000,000 members round the standard of the Clean Life Movement, which she plans and ultimately hopes will become "a world-wide factor in the conquest of good over evil."

Embroidered panel effects flare a trifle over the hips.

The hat—another enlivening touch—red velvet.

SARAH EVELYN MORGAN HAS A FIFTH BIRTHDAY PARTY

Little Miss Sarah Evelyn Morgan celebrated her fifth birthday Saturday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. L. Morgan, 813 Tenth street. The children played games on the lawn and enjoyed trapeze stunts, while tin horns distributed by the little hostess added to the audible testimony of the success of the celebration.

Late in the afternoon the small guests were invited into the dining room, which was prettily decorated for the occasion, with a birthday cake bearing five pink candles as a centerpiece. Orange cups were filled with dainty refreshments, and each child was presented with a miniature candy-filled turkey in favor. The children who enjoyed the party included: Joan Hoffman, Jane and Buzzy Covington, Jack Spitzer, Nicki and Martha British, Charlotte Mae, Joyce Johnson, Mary Louise, Ellis and Babe Wilson, Jack Donohue, Mary Tom and John Carey Morgan, Kathryn Smith and Sarah Evelyn Morgan. The little hostess was assisted in entertaining by her mother, Mrs. S. A. L. Morgan, Mrs. Wilson and Miss Johnnie Morgan.

NEW FEEDING HALF MILLION CHILDREN IN FAMINE RUSSIA

THIS NUMBER WILL BE INCREASED TO 1,200,000 BY JANUARY 1.

FEWER DIFFICULTIES THAN WAS EXPECTED

Red Army Not Taking Any Food And Virtually No Loss From Theft.

By Associated Press. MOSCOW, Nov. 30.—A total of 1,200,000 children in the famine districts of Russia will be receiving regular food allotments from the American relief administration by the first of next year, it was stated by Walter L. Brown, director, on his departure from Moscow after an inspection tour.

"We are having fewer difficulties than was expected when we arranged for the relief work three months ago," he said. "Contrary to predictions, the red army is not taking any of the food and we are operating virtually without loss from theft. The amount of supplies stolen in Russia has been far less than was the case in Armenia, Austria and Poland."

"We are now feeding half a million children and by January the number will be 1,200,000. It is done at a cost of 50 cents a month for each child, or a total of $12,000,000 until the next harvest. This is exclusive of $4,000,000 for medical supplies and $1,500,000 for clothing. The soviet government is bearing the cost of shipping the supplies from the seaports."

"M. Kameneff has expressed his satisfaction and gratitude to me for the work done and also confidence that our aims are not political." (Leo Kameneff is president of the Moscow soviet and also head of the all-Russian famine relief commission.)

"The American relief administration has no plans for feeding adults nor for providing seed grain to insure the next harvest."

TAKE YEAST IN TABLET FORM

Splendid Results in Few Days from New Vitamins and Iron Tonic.

Effective, Convenient and Pleasant to Take

Thousands of weak, thin and sickly people have found in yeast the secret of glorious health and strength. But there are still many who are not taking yeast in the proper form. They are still eating the ordinary yeast which has been found generally unsatisfactory.

But now at last, all the objectionable features of ordinary yeast have been overcome. Ironized Yeast is the new yeast. They are taking it in convenient tablet form combined with iron and other health-builders, and the results in many cases are nothing short of astonishing.

This splendid combination of iron and yeast, which has been found to be pleasant to take, does not have any disturbing effect on the stomach, and the results are quicker. This is because you gain the benefits of two tonics, instead of only one. Furthermore, Ironized Yeast contains highly concentrated brewer's yeast, which is richer in vitamins than the ordinary baking yeast.

The reason so many people become weak, nervous, thin, sickly and worn-out easily is because the modern diet, due to modern methods of food preparation, is almost totally lacking in these health-building vitamins. Ironized Yeast supplies this lack, and also supplies the blood with the proper amount of iron.

If run-down, weak, anemic, nervous, or if you are suffering with loss of appetite, unsightly complexion, or loss of vitality, try Ironized Yeast. Usually it will show good results after the second or third day. Often it will clear up the worst complexion in less than two weeks. Ironized Yeast is packed in patented San-tape containers and will keep indefinitely. Costs no more per dose than common yeast. Each package contains 10 days' treatment and costs only $1.00—or just 10c a day. Special directions for children in each package. For the Ironized Yeast Company, Atlanta, Ga. For sale by Winston's Drug Store.

sure the next harvest and prevent a greater famine. It is apparent that if the adults are hungry they will eat the seeds instead of planting them. Whether the famine will recur after the next harvest depends upon the weather and also the amount of seed planted by the farmers. I understand that the soviet government is buying seeds in London. The food package system will be in effect with regularity in Moscow three days after their arrival."

Washington Takes a Keen Delight in "Arms" Delegates

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Ordinarily blasé, not "hard boiled" in its attitude toward big folk, Washington is taking a keen delight in watching the leading figures at the arms conference. This is especially so on plenary session days, when a multitude invariably assemble in the grand ballroom of the Pan-American building to watch the "big shot" and the other hurrying away from committee sessions at luncheon time.

Special to The Times. WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—There will be 12,000 pages of testimony in the report which will be submitted by the commission to the United States supreme court on the Texas-Oklahoma boundary case. Of this vast accumulation 8,000 pages were taken at hearings in Oklahoma and Texas and the remaining 4,000 at the hearing here.

CONFERENCE FAILS TO REACH A SETTLEMENT OF NEW ORLEANS STRIKE

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 30.—The conference arranged by Mayor Parker between operators and labor leaders which sought to terminate the strike of 15,000 harbor employees at the port, adjourned today without finding a basis for settlement.

The different interpretations last night of the Gadsden bill of handling cotton upon which both factions had practically agreed as a compromise was responsible for the failure in negotiations.

In the meanwhile the forces of non-union men on the river front are being augmented, and dispatch officials said, there are only three ships tied up in the weather for want of cargo.

Two Hops to Lausanne. LONDON.—Passengers are now being booked for the air express from this city to Lausanne, Switzerland. The journey is made with only one stop, at Paris.

Why Grow Old Before Your Time?

It isn't years alone that make one old. Many folks are younger at 60 than others are at 50. A lame, bent back; stiff, aching joints; rheumatic pains; bad eyesight, and bladder irregularities are often due to kidney weakness and not advancing years. Don't let weak kidneys age you. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Doan's have made life comfortable for thousands of elderly folks. Ask your neighbor!

Here's a Wichita Falls case: Mrs. Abner, 1465 Twelfth St., says: "My kidneys were in bad shape. My back pained badly and when I stooped, sharp, knife-like pains caught me making it hard to straighten again. I became dizzy and had a constant headache. My kidneys acted irregularly but Doan's Kidney Pills cured me and the cure has lasted."

Under the order of the court Mr. Tyler submitted the evidence without recommendation or findings, the court having reserved to itself an analysis of the testimony.

EXPECT EARLY VERDICT IN HENRI LANDRU CASE

By Associated Press. VERSAILLES, Nov. 30.—A verdict in the case of Henri Landru, charged with the murder of 19 women and the son of one of them, is expected to be reached late today.

The chief counsel for the defense, Daniel G. Reaume, said he expected to complete his address to the jury by 5 o'clock this afternoon. The only possible delay might be caused by Landru himself exercising his right to address the jury. But he was reticent today, refusing to tell even his own counsel whether he intended to speak.

REFUSE TO TESTIFY ON AN INVITATION, ISSUE SUBPOENAS

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—August Belmont and other directors of the Interborough Rapid Transit company invited by the state lawsuit commissioner to appear and explain financial transactions of 1917 and 1918, refused today to testify by invitation.

James I. Quackenbush, general counsel for the Interborough, notified the commission of the directors' refusal. He said the practical result of the hearing was to encourage hostile attacks on the company by Clarence H. Vassar, "notorious speculator in law suits and professional litigant who masquerades under the name of the Continental Securities company, the General Investment company and other aliases."

George McAneny, commission chairman, immediately ordered issuance of subpoenas to compel attendance of the directors. Seven subpoenas returnable at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning then were issued for August Belmont, Edward J. Berwind, Cornelius Vanderbilt, Daniel G. Reaume, C. C. Sullivan, Thomas Dewitt Cuyler and Morgan J. O'Brien.

The chief point on which the commission desired to question the directors was that of the company's practice of declaring large dividends in 1917 and 1918. Testimony showed these dividends were frequently preceded or followed by the borrowing of large sums.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 30.—Officials of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railway are holding conferences with representatives of their employees with a view to reaching wages "Dear 16," it was announced today by W. E. Williams, general manager of the road.

The road, it was stated, proposes to establish the scales in effect March 1, 1920, but definite reductions have not been determined. Mr. Williams explained, and the purpose of the conference is to attempt to reach an agreement on the amount of the reductions.

Should the scales of March 1, 1920, be re-established, the reductions would range from 10 per cent on the road.

"ALL THINGS COME TO HIM WHO WAITS."

This runs an old proverb and it contains a medium of truth even though most of us in this country have been raised on the principle that only the go-get-em-boy gets ahead. The present indication of the truth of the old proverb is that China is gradually but slowly achieving international justice after a century or more of pillage of the most high-handed nature.

England, for the sake of profit forced upon her the Chinese; France wanted to make money off her so she did a few things on the side; the Kaiser could not stand to see all this going on so he did some first-class second-story and porch-climbing work along about the same time Japan outdid the whole bunch of them. In fact Japan's job was so thorough that the Chinese barely had left the right and ability to protest against such treatment.

Her natural resources were in the hands of foreigners, her ports all were either owned or controlled by foreigners, her railroads, her shipping, her postoffice, even her government was in the hands of foreigners experts, who knew what they wanted and proceeded to get it without delay. Not content with taking all of the best goods from around the edges the foreigners promptly arranged and proceeded to execute the arrangements of taking over great portions of the Chinese empire, or republic, as the case happened to be at the particular time of the steal.

With patience never before equalled nationally the Chinese stood it all, stolidly insisting that they were not being fairly treated. But the international rape of China continued unabated until the recent conference at Washington which seems to be well on the road of establishing an international code of morals governing the action of foreign governments in China.

All foreign troops are to be withdrawn by agreement, except those now in China by special treaty of those attached to legations. The ever popular and profitable practice of opium smuggling will be stopped immediately by the Chinese themselves; she will run her own postoffice and customs departments, with the aid of foreign experts, and in general be treated as a grown-up in the family of nations and not as though she were a "child" grown older. The apparent readiness on the part of the representatives of the interested nations now meeting in Washington to agree to this honest and fair, though extremely tardy treatment, of China is an indication of improvement in the international conscience. It is another proof of the compelling force of public opinion properly directed. The very fact that the plans are so near agreement makes one hopeful of the future international dealings.

It is only fair and right China had such recognition coming to her, and she has earned it by her perseverance and her patience. She has seen the sun rise and set, the moons come and go for centuries, she has gone through conquests and victories, through defeats and disaster, she has met her successes and failures in the same manner. She has been a good sport at both the winning and losing end of the game. She knows, as does no other nation, what the ups and downs of national existence are, so she never tears her shirt in an emergency. She learned centuries ago that "all things come to him who waits," so when she wants something she waits for it to come and in the course of the fluctuations of the international conscience—which is but the collective individual conscience of the world—she knows that she will get her just dues.

The heathen Chinese is not peculiar, he is just plain smart.

MR. VANDERLIP'S PROPOSAL
Collection of the debts owned by European countries to the United States is one of the difficult problems that faces the administration. For the United States to force the collection of these debts would bankrupt every nation in Europe with possible one exception. It would so seriously affect exchange relations as to add to the distress of American industry. To cancel these debts absolutely is unthinkable and would never have the support of the American people.

Frank A. Vanderlip, a New York banker, has come forward with a proposal that will appeal to many Americans. His proposal is that the United States have all the countries who borrowed from the United States to acknowledge the debt and arrange to repay it in installments extending over a long period, the United States to devote the money thus repaid to the rehabilitation of Europe.

By this magnanimity the United States would win the everlasting gratitude of the peoples of Europe, some progress might be made toward the stabilization of the exchange situation and American industry would be benefited.

It to collect the debts would ruin others and insure ourselves and it to apply it to the rehabilitation of the people of the countries owing the debts would mean that at the same time help ourselves, Mr. Vanderlip's proposal would be sensible as well as magnanimous.

Women have taken out 6000 patents. It is simply wonderful how much one can do with a Astoria.

Men are praising girls' knickerbockers even though there isn't anything to blow about.

Some can't understand the naval programs even though it is illustrated with cuts.

Some soldiers. At this rate some American women would have to pay $1999.

TODAY'S TALK
By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

A BANKRUPT.
He was walking down the street. The morning of life would never come to him again. His body was bent. His clothes were old and ill kept.

A sign was on his back. It read: "Bankrupt Sale, etc."
And I wondered if he realized that he was carrying the sign of his own sad fate. Maybe he did. But I at least admired his willingness to do something—while pity, as well as sympathy, crept into my heart.

I wondered about the years that had gone before. I had a curious desire to get him aside that I might learn the whole, true tale.

And then my mind ran to the other end—to the store that was to sell its stock and the man, or men, back of this commercial failure. And then I thought of the many failures happening all the time—everywhere.

Why is it that some men fall and others cannot? I asked this of myself.

What a thing of tragedy is a bankrupt business, or a bankrupt man. But deeper in darkness is a bankrupt mind!

And that is where, I believe, all bankruptcies start. We win largely because we say in our hearts that we will not fail. We keep our minds stored and prepared against the unexpected.

I believe the first thing a boy should be taught is to lay up something for the future—something to give him strength and will when the unforeseen comes.

There is nothing in this world that breaks down the grand structure of one's will as using up all the resources at one's command with the coming and passing of each day.

But there are extremes in saving as well as in wasting. There are many who become rich in money, but who face their end pitiful bankrupts in soul.

He succeeds best who helps others to succeed. And there can be no bankruptcies here!

AUTOMOBILES AND CHURCH ATTENDANCE.
(Houston Post.)
For a long time the ministers were rather unanimous in blaming the automobile in cutting down attendance at church. They saw the car as a serious rival of the church services, and were disturbed by it. It was one of the world diversions the church had to contend against on Sunday.

But the ministers are not so much alarmed today as they were formerly, and numbers of them are finding the automobile an ally rather than an enemy of the church, according to the American Motorist, an automobile magazine, which has conducted an inquiry among the ministers of many cities as to their experiences with the automobile and church attendance.

From the replies, the magazine concludes that with the present wide use of the automobile, church attendance is scoring a net gain.

There is reason to believe that this is true. It is a fact, of course, that Sunday is the great motoring day of the week. The lure of the road calls strongly on that day. Church members as well as others often yield to the call and absent themselves from services.

But on the other hand, the automobile has made the church more accessible to the congregation. Members living at a distance find it possible to be more regular in attendance. As a convenience in transportation the car is as valuable to the churchgoer as to the business man going to his daily business. It is not to be doubted that hundreds of people in every city go to church on Sundays in their cars, who if they had to walk or ride on street cars, would not attend often. It is necessary to take into consideration the fact that the car today is regarded as a utility rather than a pleasure vehicle.

The great fleets of cars seen parked around every church during the hours of service on Sundays give evidence of the helpfulness of the car to the church. Those who habitually go motoring at service hours on Sundays are not likely to be very loyal members of the church under any circumstances. If the car did not take them off, something else probably would, so the automobile is hardly to be blamed for human absenteeism. It is still a question of whether the church can claim their loyalty over outside diversions.

COMMON SENSE WAYS TO KEEP WELL
HEADACHE POWDERS

It is ignorance that prompts so many women to hasten immediately for pills or powders when their heads begin to ache.

If it were not for ignorance they would know that a headache is always a symptom of something more serious. Therefore, instead of resorting to pills or powders, the thing to be done is to find out what is wrong and correct it.

In most cases, the victim of a headache feels it worse lying off, in which case it invariably returns, or she doses herself with pills or powders.

It is a strange fact that a headache may come from any one of a dozen ailments and it is often extremely difficult to locate the exact seat of the trouble. There may be irritation in the nasal passages, or it may be the first evidence of a brain tumor.

It may signify disease of the kidneys, or of the arteries. It may mean poisoned blood, whether from tea, lead, tobacco or intestinal parasites. It may be the result of indigestion, or it may be the result of a nervous system which is called neurasthenia.

Often the immediate cause of a headache is overstimulation of the heart. Undue heart stimulation accompanies a number of organic disturbances and results in abnormal blood pressure within the brain.

The majority of headache remedies offered for sale contain powerful heart depressants which bring only temporary relief and leave the heart in a more dangerous state than before. These always mean, however, in taking any drug sufficiently strong to depress the heart.

When you have found the cause of the headache, an attempt should be made to apply the remedy. If it is indigestion, give the stomach a rest for a day or two, or cut down the quantity of food.

If it is a lack of exercise and ventilation, take a walk in the open air. Walk slowly at first and gradually increase your speed as the pain departs. See that the rooms where you live are always well ventilated even in the coldest weather.

Such causes as defective teeth and strained eyes should be attended to immediately. A competent physician can usually tell by a few well directed questions just what the cause is.

ABOUT NEIGHBORS

It is my impression that the war, to which it is so fashionable to attribute everything wrong, did not a little to make people less neighborly. There are many obligations, which are not always recognized, that we owe to our neighbors.

These obligations are not always recognized, that we owe to our neighbors. They are not always recognized, that we owe to our neighbors.

Neighbors are the best things we have, except our religion and our country. Have you a new neighbor? Go in and be neighborly.

"Perfect" Men and Women Myths

By DR. EUGENE LYMAN FISK, Medical Director of the Life Extension Institute.
NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Surrounded by the luxuries and conveniences of the twentieth century, we are lightened by modern education and religion, the average visitor to a museum of natural history regards the exhibit of the extinct man with a high and complacent sense of superiority. Aside from the mental improvement, however, is this complete lack of interest in the evolution of man?

Anthropologists tell us that we are evolved from a ground ape and figure the beginning of man from the time the primate first arose from all fours and walked on two feet. Centuries after, came the Pliocene man, the Heidelberg man, the Neanderthal man and the Cromagnon man—types now all extinct.

The intelligence of the Cromagnon man was comparatively high. He was an artist, and tilled the fields and yet his type passed away; simply because he was physically inefficient.

One of the evolution of some 100,000,000 species—now all extinct, we have man in his present state, the genus homo. Most of us are rather proud of the fact that evolution has done its work, and that ours is the type that will finally go on through the centuries until earth's surface is dotted with the cities of American city editors is running.

It is an unjustified promise, for there is little scientific evidence to show that man is more fit physically than the ape. The fact of history, as a matter of fact, all the evidence points in the other direction; that man is deteriorating physically and mentally. It is to progress physically, science must take up the task where evolution has dropped it.

ONE MAN INJURED, $8000 LOSS RESULTS AT MOTOR FACTORY

BUILDING USED FOR LIVING QUARTERS BY EMPLOYEES IS DESTROYED.

USE "BUCKET BRIGADE" IN CAMBATTING FLAMES

FIREMEN UNABLE TO LAY HOSE Owing to Distance, of Nearest Water Plug.

One man was painfully burned, property loss estimated at between $8,000 and $10,000 was sustained and six men were rendered homeless at the Wichita Motor company factory when fire broke out in living quarters of company employes shortly after 9 o'clock Tuesday night.

Belief that an overheated gas stove was responsible for the blaze was expressed Tuesday night by firemen and officials of the motor company.

Wet sacks and an old fashioned "bucket brigade" were the only fire fighting methods available with which to combat the fire.

PIONEER RAILROAD CONSTRUCTOR DIES

Was First President of The Canadian Pacific Railway Company.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—Lord Mount Stephen, pioneer railroad constructor in Canada and first president of the Canadian Pacific railway company, died last night at his country residence, Brocket Hall, Hatfield, Hertfordshire.

The life story of Lord Stephen was a romance of early struggles against poverty, of a rapid rise to eminence after he came to Canada in 1859, of pioneer work in railroad construction which culminated in the connecting of the Atlantic and the Pacific by the Canadian Pacific railway; of the acquisition of a $600,000 fortune, much of which he gave away to relatives, and finally of an old age spent as a man in a historic home known as Brocket Hall, Hertfordshire, in England, which had at times been occupied by two prime ministers of England, Lord Melbourne and Lord Palmerston.

As a boy, Stephen played barefooted in the streets of his native village, was a shepherd on the nearby bleak moors, and then a draper's clerk. Coming to Canada, he entered the store of an uncle in Montreal, a cloth merchant, whom he ultimately bought out.

About this time Stephen came into business relations with Donald Smith, a cousin, who afterwards became Lord Strathcona. Smith interested him in the construction of a railway to the Canadian west, which he knew through his association with it as resident governor of the Hudson's Bay company.

Smith and Stephen joined forces in 1882 and afterwards became partners in the construction of the Canadian Pacific railway. The railway was completed in 1885 and Stephen was made president of the company.

UNDESIRABLES ARE ESCORTED TO LIMITS TOLD TO MOVE ON

Orders to keep traveling in the general direction of straight ahead were issued by police late Tuesday afternoon to a motley crew of negroes and Mexicans, "st-circus men," according to their own assertions, who were arrested by Officers Miller and Thompson. The men, six in all, were loaded into the police patrol, driven to the edge of town and told to make tracks straight away from Wichita Falls. The arrest of these six constituted the only police campaign against the circus ruffians. Inasmuch as the Santa-Floto show which exhibited here Monday, disbanded for the winter season, it was expected that this city would harbor a number of undesirable castoffs from the small army of circus employes. None were found, however, aside from the six arrested by Miller and Thompson, and officers expressed confidence Tuesday night that with the deportation of this one bunch the city had been rid of the last stragglers. No charges could be placed against them. Chief of Police Moran stated after the arrest, for they had not been in town long enough to be classed as vagrants. "They didn't do anything," he said, "and the best thing to do was get them out of town."

SUGGESTIONS FOR NEW TRACTION LINES MADE BY KESSLER

George E. Kessler, author of the city plan for this city, will be here next week for final consultations and report on the plan. It was learned Tuesday. The exact date of Mr. Kessler's visit is not yet known. Mr. Kessler has submitted, in addition to previous features of his plan, recommendations for extension of the street car system. Mr. Kessler believes that despite the increased use of automobiles, the street car must continue the chief means of urban transportation, and he makes some interesting suggestions for extensions. One of these suggested extensions, that to North and South streets, is to be included in the traction company's program. The line to North Wichita should go out via Fifth and South streets, says the Kessler report. He suggests the following extensions: Branch westward from factory line via Tenth street and Garfield avenue, following Seymour road. Line south on Scott via Walnut, paralleling Katy right of way. Line east on Seventh street to ball park and adjacent territory. Line south from present Southland line south on Holliday road through Wiley Taylor addition. Extensions of Southland line through Ferial Heights to Kemp boulevard.

"PEPSIN" HAS ODOR TOO MUCH LIKE CORN, YOUTH IS JAILED

"There goes my syrup of pepsin," wailed Fatty Pipes, Wednesday morning as a pint bottle crashed to the concrete sidewalk shortly after he had been arrested at Eighth and Ohio streets early Wednesday morning. City Detective Linley Humphries took Fatty into custody following receipt of information from county officials that he was wanted in connection with an alleged holdup last Sunday night. "Fatty," who is still on the sunny side of 21, denied any knowledge of the affair. However, he did admit ownership of the "syrup of pepsin" bottle that fell from a hip pocket immediately following his arrest. The detective stooped over the broken flask and the aromatic odor of spirits de corn were wafted upward. "All right," he remarked, "let's go tell the judge about it." Fatty went.

15 YEAR OLD BOY DESIRES A HOME PREFERS A RANCH

A fifteen-year-old boy, bright and intelligent, is in the custody of Justice of the Peace E. L. Yates and a home is being sought for him. The boy, who has reached the eighth grade in school, prefers a ranch, as he says he loves horses and cows. Details of the affair were not given out by officials Wednesday morning. This is used car week at Nolinger Co., 201-211c.

OFFICERS STATE HI-JACKING DONE BY LOCAL TALENT

Officers who have been working diligently on the various robberies and attempted holdups of the past two nights are firmly of the belief that the deeds were committed by local talent and not by members of the disbanded troop of circus performers and workers. The highway robbery on the Iowa Park road, the hold-up of three men on the streets of the city, the burning of a farmer's grass and the looting of his house and the stopping of an automobile occupied by three women all transpired while the circus people were in the city but officers are of the opinion that parties who live here took advantage of the situation in the belief that officers would be misled as to who committed the acts. No charges of any nature have been preferred against any one in connection with the robberies but all peace officers of the county and city are diligently at work.

CLAIMS NEGRO WOMAN ROBBED HIM OF $42

A man whose name was not made public by the police appeared at the city hall Tuesday night with a story that he had been hi-jacked by a negro woman and robbed of $42. The alleged robbery took place near Austin and Eleventh streets. Details of the affair were not given out by officials Wednesday morning. This is used car week at Nolinger Co., 201-211c.

PYTHIANS ACQUIRE NEW LODGE HOME. NOMINATE OFFICERS

A new lodge home has been obtained by local Knights of Pythias and will be ready for occupancy by Jan. 1; the new home will be at Ninth and Travis, in the hall formerly used by the Arcadia dancing academy, in the Maer building. The hall is to be remodeled along modern and comfortable lines and will, when completed, rank with any lodge hall in Texas. A committee consisting of Dr. J. W. Duval, W. K. White and M. A. Bundy is superintending the work, and their plans call for rest rooms, cloak rooms, dancing room, and billiard and domino parlors. Officers for 1922 have been nominated by the lodge, as follows: M. A. Bundy, chancellor; E. L. Cole, preside; C. L. Bentley, master of work; C. C. Westfall, master at arms; A. E. Brown, inner guard; Roy Westfall, outer guard; A. L. Plitta, keeper of records and seal; John T. Butts, master exchequer; J. W. Duval, master finance; H. O. Craven, trustee; O. T. Gorline, grand representative. A Christmas fund for the Pythian orphanage at Weatherford is now being raised by the lodge, under the leadership of a committee consisting of W. T. Harris, O. P. Maricle and O. W. Hines. More than 40 members have already contributed liberally, and the committee's headquarters are at the county clerk's office where other members are urged to call. The lodge here has more than 300 members and is in good financial condition. This is used car week at Nolinger Co., 201-211c.

COUNCIL HOLDS CALLED SESSION FOR PASSING FRONT STREET ORDINANCE

At a hot and run called session of the city council Wednesday morning, the front street paving ordinance was put on third and final passage. The council is speeding this ordinance through so that work may continue on this connecting link without interruption. Front street links Indiana avenue to the county having and property owners on Indiana and Front asked for fast work so that their connection may be complete by the time Ohio avenue is opened to the bridge. This is used car week at Nolinger Co., 201-211c.

SALM AND GRAY TO LEAVE ON 'IVORY HUNT' TONIGHT; SEVERAL PLAYERS NEEDED

By PAUL W. LARKIN

Albuquerque, N.M., Nov. 29.—Walter Salm and Secretary J. Gray of the Spudgers were scheduled to leave tonight on their "ivory hunt" and to take in the annual meeting of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues which opens in Buffalo, N.Y., tomorrow.

Before going to Buffalo, they will stop off at St. Louis and Pittsburgh for a few days to see what can be dug up in the way of 1922 Spudger material. The Spudger team was unable to state definitely what would be the result of the trip, but he assured the writer that there would be plenty of swapping if such a thing was possible.

He was not a bit hesitant in declaring that many new faces would be seen at Athletic Park next season and that many of the old ones would be gone. He mentioned the name of three new infielders, three seasoned hurlers, possibly an outfielder and a catcher, he was willing to bet that they would turn up by the first of September. If he gets new men for these positions who can fill them capably, he will have no small job on his hands and no one realizes it any better than he.

Starting with the infield, it's an open secret that he will have to dig up a new first baseman and a new shortstop at least. He struggled through the past season with "Caddy" orks as Deal O'Brien alternating at the hot and the cold. He is confident that Jack Johnston filling out in the final stretch long enough to lose a couple of important games. From Friday day of spring training until the last game of the season, Salm was never satisfied with the man he had at the initial corner.

A Spring fielder, however, as he was assured by Barney Dreyfus and George Gibson of the Pirates that they would turn over to him one of the greatest first basemen in the game. They claimed that the only reason they were letting him go was because they had found who is second to none in the National league in their estimation. As a result, Walter made no effort to lose a first baseman, the spring he went over to Hot Springs where the Pirates were training and saw "Caddy" in action and was visibly impressed himself. But "Caddy" turned out to be one of those "flowers that bloom in the spring, but die in the fall." He was far from satisfactory and Walter is convinced that he will never be a better asset as long as he lives. His fielding was average, but that is all.

Who was used principally against southpaws, could hardly be considered a Class A first baseman. He filled in Fuch better in the outfield than he did at first. He is a handy man to have around a ball club as there are few better utility men, but he could hardly be considered a first baseman.

Walter learned his lesson last year, however, and stated that he will not depend on the Pirates or any other club this year. If he knows a man he wants (and he knows of a couple now) he'll sign him and pay real money if he can land him. At the time he was in the market last year that all the Pittsburgh reports of works did not pan out. It was too late to get the proper man.

He has no doubts about the value of leading Jim Galloway, but nothing further can be done on that deal until the Marine tangle is settled and he becomes a free agent. He is whether Jim is a free agent. If he is, the chances are that he will play here next year.

Second base is still a problem. The Tigers grabbed Danny Clark and there is no telling whether or not he will be turned back. He is inclined to believe he will, though he gave out no reasons why he should feel this way. He is all ready with Danny. It is practically a foregone conclusion, however, that Clark will not play second base for Detroit next year with "Topper" Higley at short. Both players are smart enough for Class A maybe, but would hardly work well together in the big show their first year in Pitt.

Of the two, we incline to the belief that Rigney's chances for sticking are better than Clark's, though both may be turned back. We base our belief on the fact that Rigney is a much better fielder than Clark though he is hardly in his class as a hitter. Detroit has fast fielders more than heavy hitters. The Tigers have plenty of power with the willow and can sacrifice slugging "for fielding."

But Salm is going to take no chances and will try to line up a keystone guardian upon whom he can depend if Clark is not turned back.

Shortstop badly needed.

Wichita Falls needs a new shortstop. There is no doubt about that. Buddy Tanner and Danny Gross gave all they had last season, but their skill was hardly enough. The latter has gone, but Buddy is still Walter's property. He slumped up alarmingly last season and knew it.

CALIFORNIA ISSUES DEFI TO THE EAST

University of California has again won the championship title of the Pacific coast conference.

The team which humbled Ohio State last year at the Tournament of Roses had no fear, but annexing the coast title for the second in succession.

Coach Andy Smith, the former University of Pennsylvania star, who has met with such great success at California, believes his eleven is better than anything in the east. He is more than willing to go anywhere to prove such a statement.

Who will play California at the coming Tournament of Roses is still a matter of doubt. An invitation has been extended to a number of teams in the American League.

"Billie" Muller, who was the big star at California last year, was hurt in the Nevada game, and has been out of the team ever since. He is still badly ground for the big game with the east. However, a youngster by the name of Stephens has more than filled the bill at end.

BABE RUTH WILL ASK FOR $85,000 SALARY IN 1922

By BILLY EVANS

Fifty thousand dollars from the New York Americans, and five thousand dollars from each other club in the American League, that is the salary that Babe Ruth will ask for the season of 1922. It is the highest salary ever offered to a player in the American League.

Ruth has a sliding contract with the New York American League club. His actual salary was $21,000. He received a bonus for his home-run record, which perhaps carried the figure to $35,000.

Ruth's contract with the American League expired at the close of the 1921 season. When he confers with the New York club, he intends to ask a combined salary that will total $85,000, which is the highest figure the president of the United States receives.

This will be the first time that a player has demanded a salary from other clubs in the league, to which he is in no way affiliated. He is just being a member of the team.

"I broke the home-run records in 1920 and 1921," says Ruth. "Likewise I broke a lot of attendance records. Fifty-nine home runs are a large flock. I am going to be mighty lucky if I break that mark in 1922. If I don't break it, I am going to fade out of the picture."

"I am a big card right now; the moment I quit smacking those old home runs, every one is going to forget all about me."

"The time to get the dough, is to get it while the getting is good. If I can't get it now, I never will be able to come through."

"I feel that I am an asset at the rate to every club in the league. That is why I feel the burden of my salary should be divided."

The Yankee invitation.

Walter Salm must have had a change of heart. He has always maintained that he did not want a big league club training at Athletic Park. But still, Babe and his associates are different from the rest. It would be a great thing for the city if the Yankees would accept the chambers of commerce invitation to train here next spring, but it is our personal opinion that if Wichita Falls fans see the slugger in action next year it will be in a exhibition game. The size of the bonus that will probably be demanded by the owners will be out of reach of the local club.

Babe wants $85,000 next season. It may be a case of "try and get it" but the figures will be pretty close to that amount. The Yanks have got to get that back some way.

High school basketball.

A basketball meeting was scheduled to take place at the high school today for the purpose of electing a captain and talking over plans for the year. One of the principal issues to be decided is whether the team will play indoors or on an outdoor court. If they can make suitable arrangements with the American legion, in our opinion, they would be foolish not to play all their games there at night. The hall is plenty large enough for a court and to seat a few hundred spectators. By charging a small admission they could put the court on a paying basis for the first time. They might not be able to reap a huge profit, but they could at least keep out of debt.

To Name Coach Soon.

Athletic Director Danheim and Harry Viner, football coach, talked the proposition over yesterday, but arrived at no definite conclusion. Viner is known to be in receptive mood regarding the coaching position, now and as long as the boys want him, and since Danheim favors him for the position, the chances are that Harry will issue his first call for candidates very soon. Leo Clark, superintendent of schools, is to be consulted before the appointment is made, but it is expected that he will agree to Viner.

FORMER COLLEGIANS WILL PLAY SUNDAY AT ATHLETIC PARK

Wichita Wildcats and Burkburnett All-Stars Set Date For Battle.

The Wichita Wildcats and Burkburnett All-Stars will meet Sunday at Athletic Park according to the management of the local squad. It was thought at first that the game might have to be put off a week to allow the Wildcats to work the links out of their limbs, but they have been rounding into shape so rapidly at the Junior High grounds they feel that they will be in good enough condition to whip their challengers.

Light scrimmaging was indulged in yesterday, but the bulk of the practice was devoted to getting signals down pat and trying out trick plays. All kinds of plays have been professed by the members of the team.

The Burk aggregation will furnish them plenty of opposition and they know it. This squad has been practicing more or less since Armistice day when they first defeated the Burkburnett High eleven. There is no scarcity of material in that town and, according to Abe Bremer, manager and coach, his greatest difficulty lies in picking the best men for each position.

Several new men appeared at the Junior High grounds yesterday, and all were assured that they would be given an opportunity to break into the game Sunday.

Should the game prove a success here, a return game will probably be played a week from Sunday. The proceeds of this game will be divided among the players probably on a 60-40 basis with the winners on the long end. One hundred tickets have been given to the High school to be disposed of as it sees fit and these proceeds are expected to swell the athletic fund considerably.

KILLINGER OF PENN STATE IS ONLY PREMIER AT HIS POSITION, DECLARES EVANS

By BILLY EVANS

Picking an All-American football eleven is ordinarily a rather easy task, as certain players usually stand out prominently.

This year it is different in the east. There are a lot of mighty good ball players on the eastern eleven, but only one who is the premier at his position, Killinger of Penn State.

For the past fifteen years it was the exception to have the critics differ on more than three positions from the start of the season as to the best player in the other positions.

It is going to be mighty different this year. A lot of the experts in the east are going to differ widely in their selections. This was evident to me at the Yale-Princeton game. I asked five of the leading experts of the east as to the best ends. Sively of Princeton was the only player to get as many as three votes in the five selections.

Last year Stanley Keck of Princeton was practically a unanimous choice for tackle. He was regarded as the best in the east, yet, in the country, at that position, Keck is as good if not a better tackle than any other player in the Yale game. A number of critics for that reason may weaken on Keck, but to my mind, it is impossible to overlook his great ability.

In the west McGuire is rated as a great tackle. In the first two periods of the Chicago-Princeton game McGuire slightly outplayed Keck. Coach Roper easily explained this by saying that Princeton had expected Chicago to play an open game, and that he had instructed his line to play high and keep their heads up. Instead, Chicago played a running game, stiff tackle and runs and the ends. The Chicago forwards charging low were making trouble for the Princeton line, and McGuire was putting Keck out of many a play.

Keck is Real Star.

McGuire himself admits that when Keck got down and started to charge low it was impossible to make any advance against him. Into of Yale draws the other tackle.

The ends in the east this year are generally regarded as being very good. In fact there are not very many good ends in the east.

AT EASTERN ELEVEN

Player	Position	College
Snively	End	Princeton
Macomber	Guard	Yale
Brown	Guard	Harvard
Stewart	Center	Pittsburgh
Carney	Guard	Annapolis
Keck	Tackle	Princeton
McGuire	Tackle	Harvard
Killinger	Q-back	Penn State
Alvlich	Halfback	Yale
Davis	Halfback	Pittsburgh
Owen	Fullback	Harvard

Many good ends in the east. Sively of Princeton is a wonder at throwing forward passes and is a good defensive player. Macomber of Harvard is a fine running mate for Sively. On offense he knows how to beat the tackle, and is a wonder at getting interference out of the way. He is also a good man at receiving the forward pass. Sturn of Yale and McGuire of Penn State are two other good ends.

Brown of Harvard is just about the best guard in the east. In the Yale game he was at his best. He smeared most of the plays directed at him, and made many tackle behind the line. Carney of Annapolis is also a mighty fine guard. His work has featured practically every game the Navy has played. Against Princeton he scored his touchdown. Baker of Princeton is class up.

Stewart at center has played his usual fine game. In only the two games he has been called to play, he has been the strength of the Pittsburgh line, and has done some open field tackling than any man on the team. Williams of Princeton and Shurtliff of Brown are close rivals.

Killinger got the quarterback job. He is the one outstanding star of the east, who can do everything well.

Alvlich ends Position.

Aldrich of Yale by his fine work all year, and his stellar performance against Princeton and Harvard, is entitled to one of the half-back positions. I have my doubts as to the other. I like Davis of Pittsburgh. True he has not been in the headlines as much this year, however, not due to any weakness on his part but rather his team. He is in such a great position that it is almost impossible to pass him up. Maloney of Yale, Lightner of Penn State, Kay of Cornell, Robertson of Dartmouth, Gilroy of Princeton are other good backs.

Owen of Harvard has played consistently good football all year, and I have placed him at fullback.

VERNON HI TO PLAY CHILDRESS FRIDAY

Post Season Game Will Give Wilbarger Boys Chance to Avenge Earlier Defeat.

VERNON, TEXAS, Nov. 29.—In what will undoubtedly be the feature game of the local football season, Vernon will meet Childress High school here Friday afternoon at the fair grounds at 2:30. The contest will be a post-season affair, and has been staged to afford Vernon an opportunity to revenge a crushing defeat administered early in the season by Childress, when the locals were badly crippled by the loss of several stars through injuries.

It is possible that many Vernon business establishments will close their doors during the hours of several stars through injuries.

FIFTEEN PLAYERS AWARDED LETTERS

Red and Black Warriors To Lose Only Two Men By Graduation.

Football letters were awarded to fifteen members of the high school football squad yesterday. The players who will receive them are "Dutch" Anderson, Frank Shaw, Joe Hemble, Gerald Coffey, Carroll Johnson, Joe Bell, "Honky" Walker, Captain Leo Hauer, Fryl Brauh ar, German Kenley, Hubert Stringer, Albert Chewing, Clifford Waggoner and Clyde Robinson.

Of these fifteen, only two will be lost to the squad next year on account of graduation, Captain Hauer and Robinson.

Black V-neck sweaters with the roll collar and a big, block red "W" will be given the letter men by members of the University club as soon as they can get here from the factory. It is hoped that they will arrive in time for the football banquet which will be held in the near future. Election of next year's captain will probably be made at the banquet.

JESS HOLLAR WILL LEAD 1922 SQUAD

Vernon Quarterback Chosen Captain at Banquet of Football Men.

VERNON, TEXAS, Nov. 30.—Jess Hollar, quarterback on Vernon high school's football team the past season, was last night chosen captain of the 1922 team at a banquet held at the Vernon hotel by the Lions' club of this city. Hollar is playing his second year on the local team and his work from mid-season until the present has been above the ordinary. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Hollar, and his father is county superintendent of schools.

Hollar started this season at end, but was shifted to quarterback after several games had been played, and has since successfully piloted the team from that position.

TODAY'S Sport Angle

This is the open season for football championships. A lot of pencils and reams of paper are going to be used by the experts in their attack on comparative scores.

The other day a supporter of Iowa depicted it but that Iowa on comparative scores was 691 points better than Harvard. His dope was so intricate that no one but a college professor would have been able to decipher it.

Penn State was going great until the Pittsburgh game. That tie game with Glenn Warner's team has upset calculations a trifle.

Washington and Jefferson, which beat Pittsburgh 7 to 6, is pointing to that victory, to prove that it is a stronger team than Penn State.

In the middle west Notre Dame and Iowa are the big favorites for college championship of the universe. On the coast they are shouting the praises of Andy Smith's California eleven.

Because of the scrambled condition of the Big Three, due to Princeton's victory over Harvard, Yale's win over Princeton, and Harvard's defeat of Yale, no claims are being made.

It is to be regretted that there is no way set by the college honors to the satisfaction of all concerned. However, it is absolutely impossible to arrange schedules that will meet the situation, which will result.

While the public is interested as to who is really the champion, few of the colleges consider it of any great importance.

The sport is the thing with the colleges. Not who won the championship.—B. E.

GERMANY MAY BE ADMITTED TO NEXT ARMS CONFERENCE

NEW NATIONS OF EUROPE MAY ALSO GET AN INVITATION.

ACTION DEPENDS ON SUCCESS OF PARLEYS

No Further Move by President Until Definite Results Are Obtained.

By MARK SULLIVAN
National Political Correspondent of the New York Evening Post and Wichita Daily Times.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—The one thing definite and sure in all this talk about a new or an enlarged conference, which was overshadowed by everything else since it came out of the white house, is this: President Harding is a man of marked tenacity about what he calls his "commitment." He has told the country several times that he would take steps leading to an association of nations, and he is going to fulfill that promise. That much of all this talk is solid rock. The rest is of varying degrees of dependability. Such steps as President Harding is likely to take in the near future will not go so far as to justify the alarm of the irrecconcilables lest we are about to be led into, or as they put it, betrayed into, the league of nations. The apprehensions of Senator Borah, already forcefully voiced, are based on the fact rather than on the wish in what is happening. So also is the presumed alarm of Senator Borah's fellow-irrecconcilable, Senator McCormick, who, in view of the success on his way to conduct a sensational investigation in Haiti, and whom Washington pictures as begging the captain to turn the ship around and bring him back to America, that he may save the country once more.

These of us who attribute to ourselves the superiority of not getting as excited at the prospect of both sides know full well that America's commitment to enter the league of nations is, on the whole, rather more binding, because it comes from the people, than President Harding's commitment to bring about an "association" of nations. In purely good-humored railway we laugh a little at the irrecconcilable "leaders" in conference who get round gun and stand guard at the rat hole," but in all seriousness we know that they are merely the mandate from the people which cannot be reversed by any means other than a future popular election on the same issue.

There isn't any conflict between the verdict of the election of 1920 and the thing that Harding is about to do. For those who want to keep their feet squarely on the ground here is what is just ahead of us: First of all, the present conference is going to stick strictly to the two subjects it was called for. All the vigilance that Harding and Hughes have exercised to keep other subjects from slipping in through the cellar window is not going to be thrown overboard. The present conference is limited to the successful agreement on naval limitation within a week or ten days. Within a few days more it is going to come to an agreement about the far east, slightly less definite in terms because of the differing nature of the case, but no less successful than the naval agreement.

Then, and then only, after there is complete and accepted success on these two points, there will be a new conference, or an extension of the present one, which will take up one or more definite and limited subjects. President Harding's hint of a promise of a new conference provides a stimulus for some nations to help eagerly towards success for the present one, that is first class politics. The most obvious and immediate subject for the new conference will be the limitation of land armament. For that subject certain additional nations will be invited, probably including Germany. Germany has no concern with armament because she has no ships. The same is true of Poland, Czechoslovakia and Jugoslavia. These new nations have no navies, but the aim of their armies lies, for example, at the heart of how large an army Italy feels she must have, and is tending to come up with the question of the limitation of armament by land.

Wants Limit Subjects. The outstanding feature of the secondary conference, and of any future conferences that Harding may call, will be the same as outstanding feature of the present one, namely, a strict limitation of the agenda of each gathering to probably one, and certainly not more than two, specific subjects agreed upon in advance. This is done and in itself a sufficient distinction between these conferences and the league of nations to carry complete reassurance to the irrecconcilables both in the senate and throughout the country. There will be no big or loose conferences to take action upon the state of the world in general.

It is true that a conference which considers land armament will find it difficult to keep reparations, inter-national debts and other economic aspects of Europe outside the doors. Just as soon as France is asked to reduce her army she will ask how she is going to enforce the payment of German reparations. But when, and if America calls a conference which is to include reparations and other economic matters, America will do so, not in her present role of one of the directly and primarily interested parties, but rather, in the role of a mediator who offers his services to help bring about agreement between others.

President Harding is rapidly emerging upon the world as one who has an unusual faculty for generating and radiating harmony for as he sometimes says, "getting men to march in step." It would be quite in the spirit of this role for him to call the nations of Europe, who are chiefly interested, into a conference to settle the primarily European troubles of land armament and reparations.

During the county's fiscal year which ends tonight at midnight, only four prisoners out of a total of 2,011 who have been locked in the county jail escaped, which according to officers, is a remarkable record.

The total of 2,011 does not actually represent that number of different prisoners, but is the number that have been carried over from month to month in addition to those who are added to the prisoner list during the month's period.

The four men who escaped were all negroes and these made their escape during the past six weeks. Jailor Cass Tarver has been very successful in selecting the trustees as not one of the four men who had escaped were trustees. The latter selected his trustees from men who were charged with practically all the crimes on the list with the exception of murder.

A bent number plate on the rear of a Ford car so that the "16" was turned to the side and the license number of 164,303 led to the arrest of two men in connection with the incident that transpired on Tenth street Monday night when three ladies in an automobile were stopped by two masked men and then later permitted to go.

The two men, who were booked as G. G. Durnell and Leon F. Oates, are each charged with assault with intent to rob and assault with a prohibited weapon. The three ladies who figured in the incident identified the two men.

The incident which led to the arrest occurred on Monday night when two men stopped an automobile in which Miss Grace Higgins, Mrs. C. A. Stuckey and Miss Covey were riding. The men were masked, according to the ladies but the masks were removed when the two men begged pardon for having stopped them, saying they were the wrong parties.

One of the women noticed the number plate on the Ford car in which the men drove away and took down the license number. Upon investigation it was learned, however, that the license number originally belonged to a Chevrolet car in a county along the border.

Deputy Constable K. F. Bean, however, brought his record into play and discovered that he had picked up a Ford car bearing this same number several months ago.

All the county and city officers assisted in running down the various traces of the car and the men with the result that in a very short time after the affair two men were arrested.

The officers are still at work on the other cases of robbery that occurred the same night.

ODD FELLOWS ARE HAVING BUSY WEEK

Number Go to Henrietta Tuesday Night and Others to Visit Electra.

Wichita Falls Odd Fellows are enjoying a busy week and next week also promises to be one of unusual interest to the local membership, and will be featured by a visit from F. A. Mowell of Fort Worth, grand chief patriarch of Texas, on Thursday night, December 1.

Monday evening of this week the third degree was conferred on a number of candidates, while on Tuesday evening about 15 members of the local lodge visited Henrietta and witnessed the conferring of the degree "From Jerico Egale to Jerusalem," which they report having enjoyed very much.

Tonight quite a number will go to Electra to witness the Encampment and Canton work. Preparations are well under way for the "roll call" meeting on Monday night, December 5, and something of unusual interest is promised those who attend in the way of a splendid program, including a number of surprises.

FORMER EMPEROR AND EMPRESS ARE TREATED AS GUESTS BY GOVERNOR

PUNCHAAL, P. L. AND OF MEXICO, Nov. 30.—Former Emperor Charles of Austria-Hungary and former Empress Zita are living quietly in their exile.

Their only guard at the Villa Victoria where they reside is a plainclothes policeman who accompanies them on their journeys about the island to prevent beggars from bothering them and to avert other annoyances.

Charles and Zita are treated as honored guests by the new governor, Major Acacio Correa Pinto, and the other Portuguese officials. They attend mass on Sundays and have engaged Canon Antonio Homen de Gouveia as their private chaplain.

After mass recently a few women outside the church attempted to kiss Zita's hands, thus showing their affection for a member of the family of Dom Miguel de Braganza, pretender to the Portuguese throne.

It is considered likely that the former royal pair will engage the Villa Victoria for a permanent residence. The villa adjoins the grounds of the Palace hotel, at which the British consul is staying, but the exiles do not mix with the hotel guests. Charles is taciturn, but Zita is affable and talks cheerfully to those she meets.

WARNS SPEEDERS TO ANSWER SUMMONS TO COME TO COURT

Arrest of some 12 or 15 local men and women on charges of ignoring speeding charges is promised by Deputy City Clerk John Thomason to take place this week of the offenders continue their refusal to appear in court.

A speeder, when stopped by a motorcycle officer, is given notice to report at the city hall within five days' time and stand trial on the charge. The name and address is taken by the officer and the motorist allowed to go on his way without making bond.

The large majority of those stopped by the motor cops accept the notice and square themselves at the police station within the allotted time. Over a dozen, however, have neglected the formality of answering such notices during the last two months and warrants have now been issued for their arrest.

DIDN'T KNOW HIS BROTHER

"My brother got so bad with stomach and liver trouble that when I saw him after a year I didn't know him. He was emaciated and yellow as a pumpkin and was often in great pain. He couldn't have lived long the way he was going. Doctors and medicine gave him no relief. I picked up a little booklet on Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, which he said described his case perfectly. The first dose of it gave him great relief and in a month he was good as ever." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Mack Taylor and druggists everywhere. (adv.)

DENVER RAILROAD LEASES HENRIETTA CITY WATER PLANT

LACK OF RAIN FORCES COMPANY TO TAKE OVER CITY'S OLD SYSTEM.

FOUR WELLS HAVE DAILY CAPACITY OF 50,000 GAL.

Connections Made and Rental Made For a Period of Twelve Months.

Exhaustion of the water supply in the railroad tanks at Henrietta, as well as at many other points along the line has brought about a deal between the Fort Worth & Denver City Railroad company and the city of Henrietta, whereby the former has leased the old water pumping station from the city for a period of 12 months.

Negotiations for the trade have been in progress for several weeks, when it became evident that the tank at Henrietta would soon be a dry hole and there was not much chance for a rain of sufficient amount to replenish the water supply. The trade was consummated several days ago, but announcement was not made from the offices of the railroad until Tuesday night.

The railroad completed the connections with the pumping plant and its supply tank Tuesday night and it was reported that the pumps would be started Thursday morning. The city of Henrietta abandoned this old station some 10 months ago when a new station was put into operation. There are four wells connected with the pumps and the total capacity is 50,000 gallons per day.

The terms of the lease were not made known except that it covered a period of 12 months and that the railroad will only be required to pay for those months in which the station is used. In case the company's water tank at that point is refilled by rains and the station is not used during any months, there will be no rental for those months. The railroad company, however, is forced to repair the machinery and will be compelled to bear the expense of keeping the pumps and engines in running condition.

GIVES DEMONSTRATION OF COOKING BY ELECTRICITY

On Tuesday afternoon Nov. 29, a number of Wichita Falls women met at the handsome home of Mrs. J. W. Murph, 1804 Grant street, to hear Miss Veda C. Craig of Chicago, "the home economist," whose specialty is in giving lectures and practical demonstrations on the electric way of cooking. During the afternoon Miss Craig conducted various and sundry toothsome dishes, cooking them to a nicety on the electric range that has been in use by Mrs. Murph for the past two years. Miss Craig was ably assisted by Mrs. Lucy Jopling Smith, special applier of electricity of the Wichita Falls Electric company.

Miss Craig will deliver practical demonstrations from 3 to 5 p. m. Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the Wichita Falls Electric company, 311 Indiana avenue. Those who have heard Miss Craig lecture on the art of cooking on an electric range and seen her practical demonstrations are very enthusiastic in the manner Miss Craig goes about her work in describing the advantages of electric cooking.

Miss Craig can be met by appointment during her short period in the city at the Kelp hotel. Paths photographs for a Christmas present on easy terms. The Decorators Co. 197-212c
