AGREEMENT OVER IRISH ELECTIONS RATIFIED BY DAIL

CONCERNS TREATY AND THE CONSTITUTION OF THE FREE STATE.

DE VALERA THREATENS TO WITHDRAW FROM DAIL

Republicans Fail in Effort to Shift the Meetings to the Mansion House.

DUBLIN, March 2.—Another threat to withdraw from the dail... De Valera today when Arthur Griffith refused, as president of the dail, to receive a question regarding the pact for the future of the Haulbowline dockyard at Queenstown on the ground that this was strictly provisional government work.

An effort by the republicans to shift the meetings of the dail to the Mansion house so the public could attend was defeated by a vote of 49 to 48. This motion was thought to indicate that Mr. de Valera's party expected a prolonged meeting of the dail, while the Griffith supporters, on the other hand, desired to terminate the session today if possible.

Before adjourning for luncheon the dail formally ratified the agreement in 60 far six minutes. The dail and the election to be on the issue of the treaty and its constitution of the free state.

REFUSE TO CHANGE THE PLACE FOR DAIL MEETING

By Associated Press.

DUBLIN, March 2.—When the dail resumed this session this morning, Charles Burgess, who was minister of defense in the cabinet of Eamon de Valera, moved that the future meetings be transferred from University college to the Mansion house. Mr. de Valera, who had the official reports of the proceedings published in a newspaper, reported contained misstatements.

Sean Milroy, opposing the motion, said that partisan crowds disturbing the proceedings were not wanted. William Cosgrave, minister of local government, declared the desire for publicity expressed by the other side was a pretense and that De Valera's party was in reality afraid of the people.

De Valera's party was in reality afraid of the people, who were to be elected in an election, let the anti-treaty faction know what they thought of it. The motion was defeated, 49 to 48, the vote, which was a roll call, being cast along party lines.

Questions were then in order. Answering Sean Milroy regarding the disturbances in Belfast, Mr. Griffith said the difficulty in dealing with this matter was owing to the delay in setting up the free state which Mr. de Valera and the "Irreconcilables" were united in opposing.

BONUS ONLY WHERE ADJUSTED PAYMENTS ARE NOT OVER $50

ADJUSTMENT SERVICE CERTIFICATES IN PLACE OF CASH FEATURE.

WOULD BE NEGOTIABLE FOR MONEY AT BANKS

No Change in Vocational and Land Settlement Features of Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—A unanimous agreement to eliminate the cash feature of the soldiers' bonus adjustment service bill was reported today by the special sub-committee of republican members of the house ways and means committee to which the whole bonus question was referred yesterday.

In lieu of cash for the other service men it was agreed to add a new provision to the bonus bill under which the men accepting adjusted service certificates could borrow immediately on those certificates from banks a sum equal to 50 per cent of the total adjusted service pay, computed at the rate of $1 a day for domestic service and $1.25 a day for foreign service.

This official statement of the agreement of the sub-committee was issued by Chairman Fordney.

"The sub-committee consisting of Chairman Fordney, Messrs. Green, Longworth, Hawley, Treadway and Copeland, tentatively agreed on the plan and prepared a provision to be submitted which in substance is as follows:

"The elimination of the cash feature of the bonus bill where the veterans are entitled to more than $5 adjusted service pay, but adding a new loan provision to the adjusted service certificate title which will enable holders of such certificates to borrow from any national bank or bank or trust company in cooperation under the laws of any state fifty per cent of the sum of the adjusted service pay prior to September 30, 1925. This date was fixed because after that time the bill as originally drafted by the committee provides for a larger percentage of loan by the government and has not been changed by the sub-committee."

Chairman Fordney said this plan was expected to meet with general approval.

Many details of the proposed amendment to the bonus bill remain to be worked out and Mr. Fordney said it probably would be a week before the plan was ready for submission to the entire republican membership of the committee.

HOPEFUL THAT SOLUTION OF BONUS IS REACHED

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Majority members of the house ways and means committee were hopeful today that a final solution of the soldiers' bonus problem had been found in the proposed plan to substitute for the cash feature of the bill under the laws of any state fifty per cent of the sum of the adjusted service pay prior to September 30, 1925. This date was fixed because after that time the bill as originally drafted by the committee provides for a larger percentage of loan by the government and has not been changed by the sub-committee."

Without changing the vocational training, farm and home aid and land settlement features of the Fordney bill, it is contemplated under the new plan, committee members said, to issue adjusted service certificates which by the addition of 40 per cent to the proposed adjusted service pay plus interest on the total for 20 years at the rate of 4 1/2 per cent compounded annually would have a total face value of approximately 2.33 times the amount that would be received under the cash feature.

URGES EARLY ENACTMENT OF THE COMPENSATION BILL

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The hope that "the administration will not continue to procrastinate very much longer and will fulfill the promise made in the last national election and pass the veterans' adjusted compensation bill without further delay," is expressed by Edwin S. Betteheim, Jr., chairman of the national legislative committee of the veterans of foreign wars, in a letter to President Harding, made public today.

Mr. Betteheim said that he was just in receipt of a report showing that 12,000 of the 30,000 former service men in Cuyahoga county, Ohio, are applying for the adjusted compensation voted by the state of Ohio, were unemployed.

"If this is indicative of the condition existing throughout the country," the letter said, "it would mean that approximately two million of the ex-service men are out of employment. How many of these are unemployed because of the lack of the compensation voted by the state of Ohio, was unexplained.

DEMAND CONGRESS INVESTIGATE ACTS OF E. MONT REILY

MADE IN HOUSE BY RESIDENT COMMISSIONER OF PORTO RICO.

LONG LIST OF CHARGES AGAINST THE GOVERNOR

Declares They Are Unable to Convince the President Removal Necessary.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Demand for a congressional investigation of the acts and conduct of Governor E. Mont Reily of Porto Rico, looking to his removal from office, was made in the house today by Delegate Felix Cordova Davila, resident commissioner of Porto Rico.

Declaring the people he represented asked that this step be taken "only after the Harding administration was given every opportunity to act," Davila, who is a member of the unionist party of the island, expressed the belief that if Governor Reily should be called as a witness before an investigating committee, "he himself will be the best evidence of the justice of our demand for his removal."

Preceding a long series of charges against the governor, Mr. Davila told the house that while he believed President Harding made a mistake in appointing him, he knew "the president was imposed upon," therefore "the appointment was not made knowingly or with the least malice toward the people of Porto Rico." He added, however, that "we have exhausted all of our means to obtain the removal of the governor by our administration."

"Unable to convince the president of the justice of our cause," he exclaimed, "I appear before you to ask a congressional investigation which will expose to public view the general reputation and conduct of Governor Reily."

Makes Other Charges.

Mr. Davila charged among other things: That Governor Reily "announced publicly that he intends to make $200,000 during the next four years in office, whereas the salary as governor is $18,000"; that he has endeavored to "stir up strife and discord among the citizens"; that he unlawfully interfered with the courts of justice and attempted to intimidate judges; that in public speeches he "utterly disregarded the feelings and sentiments of citizens"; and denounced the flag of Porto Rico as a "dirty rag"; that he declared to members of the senate he would have the government at Washington "annul the organic act" which provides that the senate shall ratify appointments, "unless the nominations were confirmed, which amounts to intimidation"; and that he has attempted to "poison the mind and prejudice public opinion" in the United States by stating in departmental speeches that prominent Porto Ricans were disloyal and traitors.

"I am strongly of the opinion from information submitted to me," said Mr. Davila, "that an investigation of Reily's past history will show he was not the kind of a man who should have been placed in an important position like that of governor of 1,300,000 people. His past is chiding to say the least."

Charging that Reily had been removed as assistant postmaster at Kansas City and that the postoffice at Kansas City was closed.

"Oh, you must have the air!" Fay protested. "If you are cold in the night—"

"Night?" Laurel exclaimed with a little laugh. "It's almost morning! Oh, Fay, dear, I'm so glad you don't care about Harry and me! There have been times when I almost hated you! Will you forgive me for being so horrid to you in my thoughts?"

Fay laughed.

"Of course, dear. I wish you and Harry all the happiness in the world. Good night."

It was nearly noon the next day when Martha opened the door softly and entered with the breakfast tray. Outside, the wind whirled through the trees and a hard driving rain slanted in at the open windows.

With a shiver the maid placed the tray upon the table and went over to close the windows. As she passed the door which the girl had opened, she stirred sleepily and turned over, but did not awaken, and from the other bed there came no sound or movement.

The younger girl was lying on her side with one arm thrown up over her head, which was almost buried in the pillow, and her dark hair fell over the side of the bed nearly to the floor.

Martha hesitated for a moment and then touched the bare arm lightly.

The next instant she had recoiled, for the arm was icy cold, and now, for the first time she noticed that a strange bluish shade had crept over the fair skin.

Laurel's lips had fallen slightly apart, her eyes were half unclosed and showed dull and glassy "the other's horrified gaze," while over the prominent features, tinged with the same hideous bluish pallor, it seemed as though a hand had been passed, robbing them of all expression.

"Miss Laurel!" the girl called in a strangled whisper from Martha's lips. "Miss Laurel, what is the matter? Speak to me!"

Her voice died away in her throat and she laid her trembling hand for a moment on the girl's breast. Then with a half-stifled cry she turned and fled from the room and down the stairs.

CHAPTER V.

An hour before noon, Sheriff Hulce and his assistant, John Barry, described the station car of the Tudors approaching them at a speed which aroused all the former's professional enthusiasm. He scanned all classes and he perceived the least qualification to be his governor. And I say to you in full truth, we can stand no more. The moment we have commended our respect to you. We appeal to you for relief from this administrator.

"The administration of Governor Reily has been a succession of insults to the people. When he went to the island he found a land of peace and happiness, and almost overnight he transformed it into a hot bed of dissension and despair. He could have had the everlasting friendship and affection of Porto Ricans of all classes had he possessed the least qualification to be his governor. And I say to you in full truth, we can stand no more. The moment we have commended our respect to you. We appeal to you for relief from this administrator."

Judge Landis Not to Enter Politics in City of Chicago

CHICAGO, March 2.—Kenesaw Mountain Landis, commissioner of baseball, who resigned as federal judge Tuesday, will not go into politics in Chicago, he has informed a friend in a letter, it became known today.

"I note what you say about mayoralty of Chicago," the letter stated, "and I thank you for your kindly sentiments, but don't get it into your head that I have it in my head ever again to be interested in holding a public office."

Something of Judge Landis' feeling since leaving the bench is expressed in the paragraph of the letter dictated to a friend last night. "This is my first day out of a job," said the letter, "and I am deeply content."

MEETING AT DALLAS TO DISCUSS MILEAGE SCALE

DALLAS, March 2.—The transportation committee of the Texas chamber of commerce will meet in Dallas Monday, March 6, at 10 o'clock in the morning at the general headquarters of the state chamber.

Among the subjects to be taken up are the proposed mileage scale of class rates from Mississippi river crossings to Texas, the authority of the interstate commerce commission to make minimum rates, import rates upon coffee, and the Texas tariff bureau's dossier for March 7. The meeting will also consider the complaint filed January 15 by the corporation commission of Oklahoma alleging that certain interstate and intrastate rates in southwestern states are discriminatory against Oklahoma shipping interests.

for some hours. I think I will go now and have a look at Miss Fay."

Fay had regained consciousness and was seated upon the side of the bed, wrapped in a dressing gown. Her hands were clasped tightly together and she was staring straight before her as though scarcely conscious of the presence of Harry and the sheriff, who hovered in the doorway.

The latter turned to the physician. "Anything suspicious about it, doctor? Anything in my line of work?"

"Yes. That peculiar bluish tinge which has suffused the entire surface of the skin. We find that usually in cases of asphyxiation, an hypoxemia manifestly impossible in this instance, since there was no illuminating or coal gas in the room, the windows were wide open, and the other occupants, Miss Fay, here, seems to have been quite unaffected."

Doctor Green drew a chair up to the bedside and possessed himself of one of Fay's cold, listless hands.

"My dear, what can you tell me of this? Did anything disturb you during the night?"

"Nothing. It was quite late, nearly morning, when the dance broke up and the guests left. Being in mourning, you know, I did not appear, but the lights and music and general bustle kept me awake, and when Laurel came upstairs we had quite a long talk. She was in the very best of health and spirits, doctor, in fact, I remember that she said she had never been so happy before in all her life! Has Aunt Clara been told?"

"No, and it must be done immediately. Do you feel strong enough to go to her?"

Fay hesitated, but only for a moment. Then the old indomitable spirit came to her rescue.

"I will go, Doctor Green."

The girl went slowly down the hall and opened her aunt's door.

"Why, Fay, how you startled me! Is anything the matter? Is Laurel ill?"

Fay took both her aunt's trembling hands in hers.

"Not ill, dear. You must be brave, and let me tell you, Laurel died in her sleep."

"My God!" the slim hands were torn from Fay's grasp and seized her shoulders in a vise-like grip. "You cannot know what you are saying, Fay! There must be some hideous mistake! Not Laurel!"

"Yes, Aunt Clara, Doctor Green is here, and the sheriff. Will you see them?"

"The sheriff! Why, what does it all mean?" She retreated to the bed, sinking down upon it with her wearisome eyes gazing into space. "Ask Doctor Green to come to me, Fay. And then I—I should like to be alone."

Fay closed the door softly and went down the hall to where the doctor waited with the young police official from the city.

SIX PROSPECTIVE JURORS ARE ADDED IN BUCHANAN CASE

WACO, TEXAS, March 2.—Six more prospective jurors were added to the panel in the case of Mrs. Inez Crow against Sheriff Buchanan, sued for $50,000 damages for the death of her husband, Louis Crow, in the 74th district court today, bringing the total up to 21. Four more are necessary for the attorney to exercise peremptory challenges.

R. L. Smith, an insurance man refused to answer when asked if he belonged to the Ku Klux Kl. today. The court is accordingly compelled to answer and attorney accepted when the court declared the jurors qualified. Similar proceedings followed the refusal of J. E. Roselle, a member of the city department, yesterday to answer the same question.

The plaintiff announced ready for trial today, but the defense asked for another day to decide.

The insolent alarm clock that went off at the wrong time

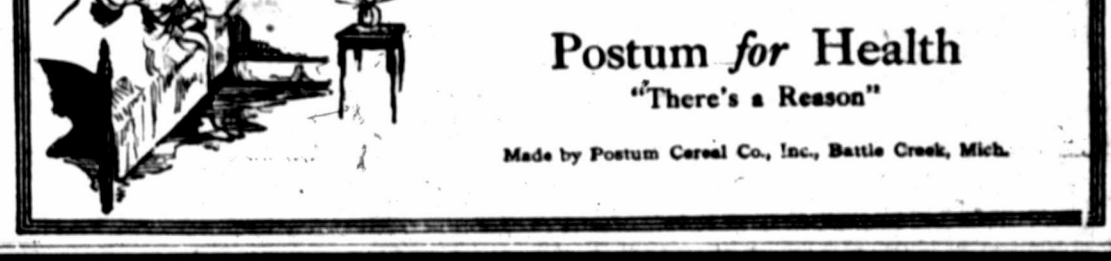

For a little while it gave the call at 7 a.m., and was useful. When it began calling at midnight and 2 o'clock in the morning, it became a nuisance.

When tea or coffee stimulates the nerves at mealtime it seems pleasant, but when it gives the wake-up call at midnight and leaves nerves hungering for sleep at mid-afternoon, the pleasure is gone and serious harm is on the way. This often happens.

Thousands of people have found it fully as pleasant and far more safe, to get the comfort of a hot meal-time cup of Postum—and to know that there's not going to be any irritation to nerves afterward.

Postum is delicious and satisfying, and it contains no element that can harm nerves or digestion. Postum is a safe and delightful drink for every member of the family, at any meal.

Your grocer has both forms of Postum: Instant Postum (in tins) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes.

PREPARE NOW for Baby's Coming

MOTHER'S FRIEND

THE expectant mother owes it not only to herself to prepare for an easier delivery, but to her child who should be stronger, healthier and more robust thru her care and intelligence.

What is one of the most important things a mother-to-be should do?

The universal answer from thousands of experienced mothers is this: The mother-to-be should massage the muscles and nerves involved in the function of child-bearing, daily, with an application of Mother's Friend. Because—

Three generations of mothers record the virtue of Mother's Friend for not only allaying distress in advance, but for assisting nature in securing a speedy recovery for the mother.

So thoroughly has Mother's Friend proven its wonderful efficacy in thousands of cases, that any expectant mother who does not employ its use as directed deprives herself of a powerful agent for her relief and well-being, during the period of pending maternity, and of her prospects for an easier delivery when the eventful hour arrives.

The women who appreciate Mother's Friend the most, and who are loudest in their praise of it, are those who unfortunately did not use it with their first baby and who, thru its use with the second one, were able to fully realize the almost unbelievable relief it gave.

Mr. Olive Vanden, 10 Grape St., Galipolis, Ohio, says: "Before using Mother's Friend I suffered from Wednesday 'till Sunday. With my next child I used Mother's Friend and was sick only about three hours."

Many doctors and nurses recommend Mother's Friend. For external use it is perfectly harmless. Begin its use at once. Sold by all druggists.

FOR SLENDER LINES

By MARIAN HALE.

NEW YORK, March 2.—Though this season's skirts may venture to any fullness, the bodices are snug affairs which cleverly bring out the slender lines when they exist and create them when nature fails.

In this lovely black and lavender frock Claire has even dared to accent the curve at the waist, line by fastening over the hip of a soft, lavender rose with polished black foliage. The effect of this hip trimming is quite lovely indeed.

The neck of the frock follows the line so popular just now, close up at the front and back and cut quite away at the sides. Very few of the new gowns have the once so much worn V neck, they are either round or collared.

The sleeves are quite short as summer sleeves are bound to be, though this season seems to be going all of those past and better in cutting the sleeves off just below the shoulder line or forgetting them entirely.

The Central Presbyterian mission women reminded that the kitchen shower to have been held tonight has been postponed to a date to be announced later.

LADY RHONDDA TO SIT IN HOUSE OF LORDS OF ENGLAND

By Associated Press.
LONDON, March 2.—The petition of Lady Rhondda to sit in the house of lords was granted by the committee on privileges of the house of lords today. If she takes the seat awarded her by this ruling she will be first woman to sit in the upper house of the British parliament, as Lady Astor was in the lower chamber.

Lady Rhondda is the daughter of the late Viscount Rhondda, Great Britain's war time food controller, who died in 1918 from an illness brought on by overwork. His only child was the daughter, wife of Sir Humphrey Mackworth.

Lord Donoughmore presided over the committee, composed of Lords Desart, Haldane, Chelmsford, Hylton, Wrenbury, Phillimore and Askwith.

After Lady Rhondda's right to the present title was established, her counsel argued that the sex discrimination removal act had clearly applied to a case like the present and that the disability existing in the past now being removed Lady Rhondda was entitled to sit in the house of lords.

After further argument the attorney general, on behalf of the crown, said he raised no objection to the petition, which was therefore granted.

Lady Rhondda thus becomes the first woman to sit in the house of lords.

Interviewed after the decision Lady Rhondda expressed her delight that the case had gone in her favor.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS THE RED FEATHER

The feather instantly tied the two into a knot.

Nancy and Nick ran to the house and got their goloshes, then slipped on over their Green Shoes.

The Magical Mushroom had gone, but in his place was a little branch sticking up with a note on the end of it addressed to the Twins.

Nancy opened it and out fell a tiny red feather. There was a note, too, and she read: "My dear children. This feather shall be your guide. Hold it before you when in doubt and go in the direction it bends. Affectionately yours, The Magical Mushroom."

Nick put the feather in his pocket. "Let's look at it, Nickie," she cried. "If it is so important it must be different from other feathers!" So Nick took it out.

Nancy was very right. When the children looked close, behold the bright little feather was made up of a thousand tiny herbs, sharp as the finest needles, but set so firmly together that not the strongest blacksmith with the greatest grip-pers in his world could pull out one of them.

"It's very queer," said Nancy. "It doesn't look as though it could bend without breaking."

But scarcely had she spoken when the feather instantly tied itself into a knot, then into a bow, and straightening itself did a series of gymnastics that was quite astonishing.

"It must be magical!" declared Nancy.

"Very magical," agreed Nick. Suddenly the red feather bent toward the east and stayed that way.

"That's the direction we must go to find the lost record," pointed Nancy. "It's showing us the way."

"The seven mountains and the seven valleys must be over there," pointed Nick. "Let's start."

Away they went, little guessing that many days and events would pass before they reached even the first of the mountains, although it seemed so near.

When the verdict was announced, her counsel rushed to the telephone to acquaint her with the news at her hotel.

Counsel for Mrs. Wilkenning filed notice of an appeal.

MRS. ROBERT J. THORNE REPORTS LOSS OF JEWELS SHE VALUES AT $25,000

CHICAGO, March 2.—Mrs. Robert J. Thorne, wife of the former president of Montgomery Ward and company, reported to the police the loss of jewels valued at $25,000.

Mrs. Thorne returned to Chicago yesterday from South Carolina. She was unable to remember whether she had left the jewels, which were in her hand bag, on the train or in a taxicab in which she rode from one station to another upon her arrival here.

Neither Mary nor her husband, Douglas Fairbanks, were in court when the verdict was announced.

Her counsel rushed to the telephone to acquaint her with the news at her hotel.

Runs Away With Mother-in-Law; 2 Divorce Suits

MATSVILLE, Ky., March 2.—Two divorce suits are pending in the Mason county district court here because Carl Kellum, 32 years old, and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Addie Gallagher, 64, ran off together, according to the petition filed by Mrs. Ida Gallagher Kellum, 18, against her husband, and John Gallagher, 18, against his wife.

Mrs. Kellum says she was married two years ago and was very happy on her husband's farm four miles from here. A short time ago she alleges her mother, who lived at home on an adjoining farm, ran off with Kellum and never returned.

Gallagher's petition unfolds the same story. Kellum and Mrs. Gallagher are living together in this county now, off with Kellum and never returned.

AN UNCANNY POWER.

Scientific journals are predicting that inventors one of these days will stumble on a way to make an airplane stand still in the air without falling.

Many bright minds are working on the problem now.

An invention of this nature would put man close to the absolute conquering of gravity. In a faint way the pull of gravity on lead and some other substances has been reduced in scientific laboratories.

Suppose that man learns how to free himself from gravity. What then?

For one thing, hard labor could be made easy. A moving van, with an anti-gravity device, could make a piano as easily handled as a feather.

Heavy freight trains would become light.

With gravity under control, friction would be reduced.

Flying would become safe and simple, no machine required. Man, regulating his weight, could fly with his wings attached to his arms.

All this, you say, sounds like a pipe-dream? Admitted. But not more of a pipe-dream than the moving picture, wireless or airplane would have been considered even as late as Abraham Lincoln's day.

Gravity is a natural force.

Man, if he follows far enough the road he now is traveling, will wind up with all natural forces harnessed—under control.

Today we send the human voice thousands of miles through the air on wireless waves. In a strand of insulated copper wire we imprison and transport an electric current of 1,000,000 volts.

You can complete the list—thousands of them, each an accomplishment as wonderful as counteracting the law of gravity.

It's a good thing to ponder such possibilities occasionally, just for the training it gives our imagination.

To be successful, people are going to need their imaginations increasingly as the years roll on. Imagination of today is the commonplace accomplishment of tomorrow.

GOVERNMENT GETTING FURTHER FROM THE PEOPLE.

The United States supreme court has upheld the authority of the Interstate Commerce Commission to remove undue and unreasonable discrimination against interstate passenger rates, the effect of which is to give the commission power in fact to fix passenger rates between points within a state.

Although more than four-fifths of the states of the union joined in the petition to the court against the over-riding of state commissions in the matter of fixing intra-state rates the court construes the act of congress as giving the commission this power and upheld the authority of congress to do so.

The drift toward control of the railways by the federal government has been rapid in recent years and the decision of the supreme court in the intra-state passenger rates now makes this control virtually complete.

We must now go to Washington for relief on all railway matters. Government is getting further and further from the people.

DESTRUCTIVE ECONOMY.

The American navy is about to be tied up for a period of many months because congress has failed to appropriate money enough to buy fuel to operate it.

This is economy that is destructive and demoralizing and which the people do not want. It will go far toward destroying the efficiency of our navy.

Crews will be kept in idleness when they ought to be gaining practice and efficiency in maneuvers. It will be difficult to maintain morale under these conditions. This breaking in morale will extend to the whole people. It will go even beyond America and will tend to make our navy a thing to be joked about by other people.

Steps have recently been taken to limit the American navy together with the navies of several other countries. If we are to accept naval limitation we really want our navy to be efficient. The failure to appropriate money for necessary fuel would be a wise blow to efficiency.

ANOTHER OHIO MAN.

W. B. Soboy of San Antonio has been appointed director of the mint by President Harding. Mr. Soboy is a native of Ohio. He was at one time clerk of the Ohio legislature. He is a personal friend of President Harding. Representative Wurzbach, Texas republican congressman in the San Antonio district, probably wasn't asked about the appointment. This is another instance of a friend from Ohio being favored, for which President Harding is not to be blamed.

LEAVING THE MEAT OUT OF THE BONUS BILL.

The ways and means committee of the House has eliminated the cash payment feature from the proposed bonus bill. The cash payment involving hundreds of millions of dollars was the rub in the bill. With this feature eliminated the measure will go through congress with a whirl. But while the cash payment was the rub in the bill it was also the meat of the measure. Without a cash payment the bonus bill will fail to satisfy the veterans and to satisfy the veterans is its purpose.

When the Prince of Wales was thrown from his pony some bystander probably remarked, "The prince of wails."

Not knowing where we are going is no excuse for not being on our way.

"Look prosperous anyway," advertises a pressing shop. Yes, the power of the press is great.

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

GUESTS
The beauty of friendship lies so much in its elasticity. Your friend doesn't even have to be around to give you happiness. Most of us carry our friends with us anyway.

How often I place in the vacant chair opposite me at the hotels and strange places I no often frequent, the smiling and inspiring personality of some friend—as my guest!

The little snatches we get of those whom we love is a precious inheritance.

It's a rapidly moving world—with no permanent stops. Therefore it is that guests bring to us such happiness and such newness of experience and expression. Notice how all people are at once animated the minute they meet friends unexpectedly or on occasions of special invitation.

And how still and dull and empty the whole world seems when the train, or simply time and space, leads our guest away.

We need guests—many of them. It's a poor home that doesn't have its stream of guests to help mend many of the chords of its experience, which get snapped so easily and so often.

I like to be a guest. I like to be shown into the "guest room." I always think of all the good things possible so as to honor that room and make it just a little more beautiful for future guests.

But, most of all, I like to have guests that I may call my own!

How wonderful to have been a guest in the home of Stevenson, or Browning, or Wendell Phillips, or Lincoln!

The story of Jesus and Zacchaeus comes to me. Zacchaeus was a small man in size so he climbed into a tree that he might see Jesus when he came along on his trip through the town in which Zacchaeus lived. Jesus was too keen a student of human nature not to understand Zacchaeus, so he looked up and called to him to come down—for he was to be a guest at his house that day. I can imagine the thrill that shot through Zacchaeus, at that announcement.

It doesn't take a full purse to have frequent guests—just a full heart.

FAILURES.
Brave the storm and ride the gale!
What if now and then you fail?
What if difficulties rise?
Just ahead the victory lies.
Keep in mind when you're assailed,
Every conqueror has failed.

TRIALS mark the path of men.
Hope has dawned to set again.
Many a victor, cheered today,
Had to battle with dismay;
Long before success he knew
He was called a failure, too.

FAILURES mark the path to fame.
Men must fight through loss and shame.
Hurt and heartache and distress,
For the glory of success!
Every leader on the earth
Has been tested for his worth.

Brave the loss and bear the blow!
What if hope shall come and go?
What if failure strikes at you?
Keep the faith and fight anew,
Keep your courage when assailed,
Few succeed who've never failed.

THE INCREASE IN FREIGHT BUSINESS
(Denison Herald)
"The increase in the number of carloads of freight shipped has been so substantial and persistent since the opening of the year 1932," says the Railway Age, "as to constitute a very persuasive indication that general business is reviving."

"Not only did the number of carloads of freight shipped increase in every week from that ended January 7 to that ended February 4, but in each of these weeks the total shipments were larger than in the corresponding weeks of 1931. The total freight car loadings in the four weeks ended February 4, 1932, were 2,854,768 as with 2,812,837 in the same weeks of 1931, an increase of 41,931. While the total number of cars loaded with freight in these weeks was somewhat less than in 1931, it was larger than in 1932 and, in fact, seems to have been larger than in other previous years.

The most significant feature of this increase in shipments was that it was due to an increase in the number of cars loaded with most kinds of commodities. In the four weeks ended February 4 there was an increase as compared with the same weeks of last year, of 32,319 cars in shipments of wheat, 17,894 in shipments of coal, 129,476 in shipments of merchandise, and 1,849 in shipments of miscellaneous commodities. Shipments of coke showed a decline of 11,000 carloads, shipments of forest products a decline of 4,486 carloads, and shipments of ore a decline of 16,999 carloads.

"When carloadings began to show an increase in the second week in January it was thought that this might be due to temporary causes. The taxes on transportation were removed on January 1, and it was believed the decline in freight shipments in December was partly due to the fact that some shippers were holding back commodities to avoid paying the tax and would forward them in January. If, however, the increase in shipments had been due to the release of goods held back to avoid the tax, it would hardly have continued at an accelerated rate clear into February.

"It might also be thought that the increase in shipments was due to a larger movement of coal in anticipation of a coal mine strike on April 1, but while there has been an increase in shipments of coal it has been smaller relatively than the increase in shipments of other kinds.

"After experience with the fluctuations in the railroad and other lines of business the last year and a half most people are somewhat slow to acclaim any apparent improvement as permanent, or as the harbinger of still further improvements. Certainly, however, if the recent increase in car-loadings indicates anything at all they indicate a distinct tendency toward improvement in general business."

When the Prince of Wales was thrown from his pony some bystander probably remarked, "The prince of wails."

Not knowing where we are going is no excuse for not being on our way.

DIET FOR NURSING MOTHERS

By DR. R. H. BISHOP.
There is a generally accepted belief among women that particular foods have specific effects upon the character of their milk.

There is nothing to support this belief. Foods are broken down in the digestive tract and made over in the body. Any wholesome diet, ample in fuel and body-building materials is suitable for the production of good milk.

However, it must be remembered that the milk glands are exceedingly sensitive to any nervous influences, and disturbances of digestion react unfavorably upon the milk-secreting mechanism.

For this reason, any food that disagrees with the mother, or whose effect is doubtful, should be avoided.

Increased demands for food make the work of digestion unusually great. There is therefore more chance of an upset and the diet should be correspondingly simpler and easier of digestion.

Emotional and physical disturbances must be avoided. Excitement, worry, anger, fear, fatigue and constipation all react quickly and with varying unfavorable results on the mother's milk.

Successful nursing demands a quiet, contented life in which food is intelligently chosen and exercise, fresh air and mental diversion are supplied in moderation.

YOU AND I

VIOLATIONS.
Deaf and dumb people dance to jazz music in Boston, at their annual ball.

They could not hear the music, but started vibrations in air, walls and floor. These vibrations, entering the dancers' bodies through the soles of their shoes and their skin nerves, carried the jazz rhythm and time to their brains, like shocks of electricity.

Brains telegraphed the vibrations on to the emotions.

The body is a wireless apparatus, receiving the vibrations of sight, hearing, smelling, tasting, feeling.

What is vibration? If you could answer that, you could explain the mystery of life. Life is motion. Motion is vibration.

What is vibration? If you could answer that, you could explain the mystery of life. Life is motion. Motion is vibration.

LOST.
Canneries in British Columbia report that production costs are going to be smaller this year, "as in is now being received from the United Kingdom, and at half the price that formerly obtained from the United States."

This may not seem an important item of food, but it's only one of thousands of similar items. Combined, they affect your job.

Price is the gravity of business.

COLDS.
Get your feet wet and you're apt to catch a cold. It's a dangerous disease, according to distinguished medical men.

They say that, even a gas mask over the mouth and nose is not sure protection. A germ of flu or common cold is apt to blow into the eye and from there spread through the system.

If some germ expert could discover a certain over-night-cure for common colds, it would do more to prolong the average life than a whole regiment of monkey-gland doctors.

STORAGE.
Cold storage warehouses in our country contain 543,773,000 cubic feet of refrigerated space, says Department of agriculture.

For each man, woman and child that is about five cubic feet, or a space that would hold only a fourth as much as that, there is a five cubic feet of refrigerated space for such of us as makes cities a possibility.

BLAAT.
Privately-owned subways, elevated and surface car lines of New York City being acquired for about $745,000,000, based on par value of outstanding bonds and stocks.

A transit commission now recommends that this be cut 50 per cent. It suggests basing valuation on original cost less whatever is necessary to put the properties in first-class service conditions.

This is the first flame of what may become a national fire: The digestion of capitalization will be the big problem after the last bloated price is pricked.

REORGANIZATION OF THE NAVAL RESERVE PROPOSED BY DENBY

TENTATIVE BILL IS SUBMITTED TO OFFICIALS OF ASSOCIATION.

PROVIDES FOR RESERVE FOR MERCHANT MARINE

Certain Merchant Ships Would Be Provided With and Fly a Reserve Emblem.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Complete reorganization of the naval reserve is proposed in a tentative bill prepared by the navy department and forwarded to officials of the naval association, by Secretary Denby for comment before it is presented to congress.

The bill would abolish all existing naval or marine corps reserve and establish a naval reserve as a "competent part" of the navy, consisting of three classes, the fleet reserve, the merchant marine naval reserve, and the volunteer naval reserve.

All present members of the various classes of naval reservists, both officers and men, and the naval militia would be brought into the new system, officers not to be above the rank of lieutenant commander except for a "small percentage" in the rank of commander.

R. H. Hollinger Company

This is one of the most enterprising establishments in Wichita Falls. There seemed to have been an excellent opening for a business of this kind when it first started. Eleven years ago Mr. Hollinger started the business with a small typewriter exchange, and two years ago he added a full line of office fixtures and has increased the business very materially, but he has not lost sight of the importance of the typewriter business, and the demand for super service in the parts and repair department of this feature of the establishment. The painstaking care of the manager with all its patrons, and his ability to instill this policy into the minds of his employees, and the unusual business courtesy of all connected with the place is the principal factor of the great typewriter trade and office supply business this establishment has built up in so short a time. The company owns the building, known as the Hollinger Building, located at 807 Ninth street, and carry a full supply at all times of office fixtures of all kinds, including a great variety of filing systems, loose-leaf records, blank books ruled in all the standard lines, a full line of office stationery, office safes, that will protect valuable documents and records, fine office desks, waste baskets, ink wells, etc. And in the typewriter department is a full stock of typewriters of the standard makes, including the irreplaceable Corona, and typewriter supplies of all kinds. The repair department is most complete with an ample stock of typewriter parts and accessories for all makes of standard machines. All work is positively guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction in every way.

OMAHA BUFFALOES TO PLAY HERE IN APRIL; SALM IS NOW TRYING TO LAND INDIANS

CONFIDENT BUT NOT OVERCONFIDENT SAYS CLARA HIGH SCHOOL

Wichita County Quintet On Way to Austin for Scholastic Finish.

"My boys never felt better now than they have in better condition at any time this season," stated Coach E. E. Rogers of the Clara basketball team last night as he and his group of players were waiting for the train which would take them to Austin for the intercollegiate championship finals. "They are simply not overconfident and though they may not bring back a title to Wichita county, you can gamble that they will give their 'all' and will lose out only to the best teams in the state of Texas. There will be no alibi.

"The team has improved steadily since the season opened. The county tournament, greater basketball in the district tourney here and their greatest game of the season in their bi-city contest with Eastelline. They have not worked hard enough since the last game to grow stale. They are all on edge now and ready to give their best.

One look at the eight players who will represent this county in the greatest intercollegiate basketball tourney ever staged in the Lone Star State would be sufficient to convince any one that Coach Rogers spoke volumes. The boys are apparently in the pink of condition and Millard Chambers' hand which bothered him to no little extent in the district tournament here, has rounded into perfect shape. Captain Marvin Chambers backed up every statement made by his coach, declaring that "it's the biggest event in which we ever participated, but I know we'll give a good account of ourselves. I think we have done well to advance as far as we have, but our hardest task is still to be faced and anything like an even break in the drawing Friday morning would be one of the last things to be eliminated, if eliminated at all.

The 16 competing teams will draw for opponents Friday morning and play will start at 10:00 o'clock. Of course, some teams are bound to be drawn against the stronger and Clara is hoping that she will draw one of the "weaker sisters" for the first match. The squad, which included Captain Marvin Chambers, Millard Chambers, Raymond Johnson, Bain, Lancaster, Jordan, Bailey, Coach Rogers and E. W. Culver, superintendent of the schools, left Wichita Falls at 11:00 o'clock last night and will reach Austin today in plenty of time for a good rest before the first game Friday.

Billy Evans says

One of the ways to curb the deficit and dismember that has crept into college athletics, is to permit athletes to work during the summer for pay.

There should be certain restrictions placed on such permission. It might be wise to say that it is all right to play baseball for pay, provided the team is in no way connected with organized professional baseball.

Baseball offers a big field for the college athlete. Every small town in the United States has its representative team. The rivalry that exists between small towns is keenly felt, and many of the promoters have a heavy charge of expense. Victory is a big thing.

There are a great many students who through the money made by playing summer ball are enabled to support their college course. It doesn't seem fair that these chances, which the money means so much, should be denied the right to earn it by playing baseball after the close of the college season.

It is a very easy matter to evade the rules and escape professional. Such an evasion makes for the loss of the honor of the college. Vogel, two University of Illinois players, is just one of the reasons why the big ten rule relative to summer ball is a joke.

These two star players were members of the Denison, Iowa, team last year. Daniel Yoss, former University of Illinois athlete, arranged for the two Illinois stars to play with Denison. Yoss is one of the leading citizens of that city.

Knowing big ten conditions relative to professionalism, Yoss saw that the boys were protected on that score. Here is the way Yoss explains it:

"Vogel and Hellstrom came to Denison at my invitation. They worked on a paving job. They received their pay from the contractor who had charge of it. They played two or three games of ball a week. Not one cent did they receive for playing ball, but I might add they were well paid for their work on the paving job.

"I took care of their team and board. The contractor allowed them

DEVELOPS MANY MAJOR LEAGUE STARS

WALTER MCCREDIE

Who is the greatest developer of major league talent in the minors? Out on the Pacific coast they will tell the world that it is Walter McCredie.

For years McCredie has directed the destinies of the Portland club of the Pacific Coast league. It was while in that city that he developed most of the players that have made the grade in the big show.

This season McCredie will manage the Seattle club of the Coast league. He says he will be disappointed unless he sends at least three men to the minors for a trial. About three dozen players have been discovered, developed and sent to the minors by McCredie. It would be impossible to report more convincing proof that he is the Connie Mack of the minors.

"Get them young, pick 'em right. You can make a rough diamond out of anything. It has been said that he 'found himself' in the outfield last season after he was shifted all over the lot by Hub Northern, now managing the Athletics. He is also noted on good authority that if Salm can't use him this season, Northern will, hence, 'Spec' will receive most of the playing attention here when the men report.

No other contracts have been received and the holdout situation is the same as it was a few days ago. President Harvey declared today, however, that as the training season approaches he believes those players maintaining their siege will give up and will return to work.

It is extremely doubtful now whether the rookies will get their action here next Tuesday. The men are still under orders to report on that date, but changes may be sent out by Gray any day now.

BOXING FOR CLEVELAND REGARDLESS OF MAYOR

CLEVELAND, March 2.—Cleveland boxing fans will not be deprived of witnessing professional bouts this summer even if Mayor Fred Kohler decides to keep the ban on boxing. This fact was assured with the recent organization of the Leftover Athletic club of Warrenville.

A boxing commission was named by trustees of the little village, and dates assigned to the new club, which is located ten miles from public square and three quarters of a mile from North Randall race track. It is the intention of the club to construct an open-air arena within a distance of 15 to 20 days of the opening date assigned. Other dates awarded are June 9, August 7 and Labor Day, September 4.

Fifteen rounds bouts to a decision will be permitted.

ENGLISH GOLFER MAKES DRIVE OF 415 YARDS

LONDON, March 2.—A drive of 415 yards is credited to Frank Dennis, 26-year-old professional of the Crawley Golf club. The distance is vouched for by two members, according to the Star. The ball was hit from a tee slightly above the green, 325 yards away. It pitched on the ground, which was frost-bound, and ran over the green 80 yards beyond the hole. Dennis' achievement is considered one of the greatest recorded.

James Haid, a leading English professional, has driven a ball on frost-bound ground at Walton Heath, a distance of 355 yards, and declares that to be his longest drive. H. H. Horns, another British professional, noted for long-distance driving, has recorded a distance of 283 yards at North Berwick.

Lots of leisure time at a nearby lake. I supplied them with the use of an automobile. They went back to Chicago in the fall with a sock full of money to carry them through the year. There is no chance of declaring them professional. We were very careful about that. The state of Iowa was full of big ten ball players last year playing under the same conditions.

Summer ball should be permitted. That would do away with deceit. From September until June, the athletes should be placed on their honor. Playing any sport outside of the college during that time should call for immediate expulsion.

STAR HURLER PICKS BEST PERFORMANCE IN AMERICAN LEAGUE

Johnston Regards Pitching of Fifty-Six Scoreless Innings His Best Feat.

By WALTER JOHNSON.

What do you regard as your best pitching performance?

Most pitchers when asked such a question would probably refer you to their best record. I, however, worked, if fortunate enough to have broken into that class.

I made my debut in the American league in 1907. It was not until 1910 that I was lucky enough to turn in a no-hit game. When I say lucky I mean it.

In the long series between 1907 and 1910 I had many times threatened to break into the no-hit class, only to have my record spoiled at the last moment, a couple of times after two men were out in the ninth.

However, I do not regard that no-hit game as my best pitching performance. It is a rather interesting fact that I pitched my no-hit game after I had been on the shelf for several weeks with a sore arm and a few other ailments.

In fact the no-hit game bobbed up at a time when a lot of experts were predicting that I was through. In 1912 Joe Wood and I hogged the lightning for a considerable part of the season with strings of 15 straight victories, which by the way, is an American league record.

I pitched good ball during that long run, but was favored by the breaks and excellent assistance from my teammates.

It really is rather hard for me to decide what I regard as my best performance. I am in doubt about the 56 scoreless innings I pitched in 1912, when I started the opening game of the season on April 19 with a shut-out and went to May 15 before being scored on, or when I pitched three shut-outs game on successive days against the New York club in 1912.

I am inclined to think the 55 scoreless innings I pitched in 1913 was the best twirling effort of my career.

Tomorrow Johnson tells what type ball is best to use.

OPPORTUNITIES by Paul W. Barkin

Holdout Out. One needs only to listen to a manager of a baseball team tell of the excuses ball players find for being out to come to the conclusion that they are the most "opportunity" human beings in existence. That is, if one falls for these excuses and is not a manager, he is not a player.

The same conditions are true in both majors and minors and only in the amount of money demanded is there any material difference. The ball player's life is not always one of pleasure and there are some rules that might be changed whereby he would be benefited. But every year at this season he seems to think it necessary to start squawking and declare that he is "opportunity" and every fighter above the welter weight has been mentioned at some time or other as a possible target for the champion's smashes. But after all are mentioned there is one who stands head and shoulders above the rest, white or black, and that is the "opportunity" man, the "opportunity" man of the "opportunity" man.

Preliminary plans are now under way for a match between these two, according to those who are always in close touch with these men, both Dempsey and Kearns have expressed willingness to meet Wills, and it is upon Wills' battle with Kid Norfolk tonight in the Garden that the signing of articles seems to depend.

Wills Favored Tonight. Wills will enter the ring a big favorite over Norfolk tonight and there is every indication that he will be signed to meet Dempsey in Jersey this summer if he disposed of the Kid. Though Norfolk holds the belt emblematical of the colored heavyweight championship and has an enviable record, it is not thought by the majority of critics that he will be able to withstand the terrific smashes of Wills. Should Wills take a knock he will never get a shot at the champion. It will be the first appearance of Wills in the Madison Square Garden.

A QUERY—THURS SPORT... The contention is made that when baseball was originated, if the pitcher's baseball, if the batter was entitled to take first base on such an act, as well as all other base runners advance one base. Is that correct?

MYERS VS. ENGEL. CHICAGO, March 2.—Johnny Myers of Chicago, claimant of the title of "champion" wrestling crown, and Hemel Engel of Dubuque, Iowa, will meet here tonight in a 15 round wrestling match. GOLF STAR THOUGH ONLY 6 YEARS OLD

Youngster Averages 75 to 100 Yards on Drives and Gets Direction

Every sport has its child prodigy. For years Willie Hoppe was known as "Boy Wonder" of the billiard game.

As a matter of fact Hoppe was still known as the child prodigy long after he had outgrown his boyhood days.

Now again is around the 10 mark today. Every since he was 12 Bobby has been the "Boy Wonder" of the golf game.

Once again the state of Indiana comes forth with something different in the world of sport. It presents the golfing marvel of the age in Edwin "Chick" Harbert, six years old.

"Chick" is the son of E. E. Harbert, who is the professional for the Marion, Ind., country club. In his case it would seem that his "Chick" proficiency in golf was a heritage from his father.

The youngster has the earmarks of a great player. He has a perfect stance, plays naturally and seldom makes a mistake in judgment or execution. He also says he never asks any advice from his caddy since he carries his own clubs.

The elder Harbert has never taken any particular pains with his son, but he has shown the proper way to do things and that is about all. He asks no odds from anyone and goes off by himself on the course which is handled by his father.

The youngster drives from 75 to 100 yards at every whack. That is very remarkable when one considers his age and size. Best of all, he gets direction to his drives.

His dad is authority for the statement that "Chick" has played a number of the most difficult holes on the Marion course in par.

The youngster is just about ready to claim the championship for his age and weight and is willing to defend it against any who dispute.

FORMER CHAMP MAY BECOME EVANGELIST

Jim Jeffries Turns Interest to Religious Affairs, Says Report.

LOS ANGELES, March 2.—J. J. Jeffries, former heavyweight champion of the world, may become an evangelist, if nothing happens to prevent it, according to the Los Angeles Examiner.

Jeffries, now a farmer at Burbank, near here, has become interested in religious affairs through a visit from A. P. Suttner, a friend of the former pugilist's father, who was a minister of the gospel, according to the newspaper.

"My desire is to bring religion closer to the hearts of the men of today," Jeffries is quoted.

JUNIOR CAGE TOURNEY TO BE HELD IN VERNON

VERNON, TEXAS, March 1.—A junior boys' basketball tournament for schools throughout the county will be held in Vernon Saturday, March 4. All schools are eligible to compete, but players participating must have been under 14 years old September 1, 1921. J. A. Morrow, coach of Vernon high school, is in charge of the event. The tournament fills an insistent demand made of late by the younger school boys for the privilege of competing in intercollegiate contests.

ANOTHER BROKERAGE FIRM IN NEW YORK HAS FAILED

NEW YORK, March 2.—One more brokerage house went to the wall today when it was announced from the postroom of the Consolidated stock exchange that the firm of Scott and Stump had been suspended.

An involuntary petition in bankruptcy was later filed against the firm. Liabilities were estimated at $200,000 and assets at $100,000.

SCHENCK ACCEPTS APPOINTMENT AS DISTRICT ATTORNEY

GRAHAM MAN HEARS FROM GOV. NEFF THURSDAY MORNING.

TO BE HERE SHORTLY TO ARRANGE HIS WORK

Will Probably Participate in Cases Scheduled for Trial in 89th District Court.

W. F. Schenck, Graham attorney, who was recommended by the local citizens association for the district attorneyship, was notified Thursday morning of his appointment, and informed that he would accept it. He will probably be here early next week. Schenck, who is about 45 years old, was raised in Bell county, Texas, and is a personal friend of Governor Neff, of whom he was a schoolmate. During the 1922 campaign he made speeches for Mr. Neff, being at that time a resident of Lubbock. Mr. Schenck graduated from the University of Texas in 1912, being classmate of Attorney General Keeling. He served for a time as assistant attorney general under Judge Cretton. He has been a resident of Young county for about a year and has established an excellent practice there. He was endorsed for the district attorneyship by the entire bar of Graham. Mr. Schenck is a Mason and Odd Fellow.

WIRE SERVICE IS BEING RESTORED BY MANY CREWS

Restoration of wire service out of Wichita Falls continued actively Thursday, with good weather favoring the repair work being carried on by many crews. Although far from being isolated, Wichita Falls could not connect with the outside world none too readily. At noon, service westward had been restored as far as Vernon, with the expectation that probably 24 hours would elapse before communication with Amarillo by direct line is possible. Connections with Fort Worth and Dallas were sufficient to care for emergency calls. The situation northward into Oklahoma was improving slowly. Practically all telegraph and telephone messages are subject to delay, until the situation is entirely remedied.

IMPRESSIVE RITES MARK INSTITUTION OF DEMOLAY LODGE

With impressive and significant rites, the ceremony of institution of Hope Chapter, Order of DeMolay, was enacted at the Wichita theater Wednesday night, three score young men and 100 or more Master Masons being in attendance. The chapter was instituted, officers installed and the ceremony of initiation presented for a large class of candidates. William R. Ellis of Dallas was installing officer, assisted by L. E. Evans of Dallas and a number of local Masons. The initiation ceremony was staged by the young officers of the chapter, without assistance, and in a manner that will be remembered no less by the Masons attending than by the two score youths on whom the degrees were conferred. The degrees are both beautiful and impressive, and carry moral teachings that are profound and vital. The officers were garbed in the regalia of the order, and the scene was striking and impressive. During the ceremony, brief talks were made by Mr. Ellis, Mr. Evans, W. D. Cline, who has been very active in bringing the chapter into existence, Judge Akin, and a number of the young men themselves. Mr. Ellis very highly complimented the local chapter upon the excellence of its portrayal of the work. The work is based on the story of Jacques DeMolay, who, as head of the Knights Templar, was burned at the stake by the court of the Spanish Inquisition for refusing to betray the secrets of the order.

MERCHANTS AND FARMERS UNIVERSALLY JUBILANT

VERNON, TEXAS, March 2.—Vernon and Wilbarger county are enjoying the first snow of the season, and the first appreciable touch of what may be considered real winter. A fine drizzle which fell much of Monday changed during the night to snow, and a full fledged blizzard has been the result. Merchants and farmers are universally jubilant over the abrupt change from the mild weather heretofore prevailing. The snow should prove a salvation to the wheat yet alive, beside proving an immense aid for the success of all other crops as well.

ISSUE OF VALIDITY OF GRAND JURY NOW GOES UP ON APPEAL

The question of the validity of the grand jury which returned 55 indictments in the 89th district court this term now goes up to the court of criminal appeals at Austin, following the action of Judges Naylor and Martin Wednesday afternoon in overruling the decision of the district court. Police Commissioner J. B. Pitts announced Thursday. Under the provisions of the new ordinance those law violators who have been forced to lay out fines in jail will be mustered into a street sweeping, ditch digging and "jack of all trades" crew. Their services can be utilized to good advantage, Mr. Pitts believes, in caring for the streets, and he also intends incorporating in the new ordinance some provisions whereby the police department will be remunerated from the street funds for the services of the prisoners. City prisoners have been used by the health department for some time past in cleaning near-by alleys but never before have they been pressed into agriculture as regular workmen.

THREE PASSENGER COACHES DERAILED ON KATY AT CARTER

A coach car, a combination and a chair car left the Katy tracks near Carter at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, according to a report from the local offices of the Wichita Falls and Northwestern. None of the passengers were injured. A few reports have been received that they had been badly shaken up. According to orders that have been in effect since the storm struck this area all trains were compelled to run slow and the fact that this passenger train was running at no greater rate of speed than 15 miles an hour, is said to have prevented a disaster. No reason for the derailment was given but it is believed that it was caused by the snow drifts that in many instances in the northern part of the state reached large proportions.

CITY PRISONERS TO WORK HEREAFTER IF ORDINANCE PASSES

An emergency ordinance which, if passed, will result in the establishment of a street gang of prisoners from the city jail is being drafted and will be presented to the city council at an early date. Police Commissioner J. B. Pitts announced Thursday. Under the provisions of the new ordinance those law violators who have been forced to lay out fines in jail will be mustered into a street sweeping, ditch digging and "jack of all trades" crew. Their services can be utilized to good advantage, Mr. Pitts believes, in caring for the streets, and he also intends incorporating in the new ordinance some provisions whereby the police department will be remunerated from the street funds for the services of the prisoners. ACCURACY in Small Watches

As you reduce the size of a watch movement so you increase the care necessary in its making. There are many thousands of small watches made abroad, but now reposing in American bureau drawers, useless to their owners because they were made at a price and not to keep time. ANNIVERSARY OF INDEPENDENCE OF TEXAS OBSERVED

The 54th anniversary of Texas independence was being observed in Wichita Falls, and throughout Texas, Thursday, March 2 having the same significance in Texas history that July 4 had in that of the nation. The declaration of independence, a document that compares in eloquence and forcefulness with that of the American colonists in 1776, was signed on March 2, 1836, at the little town of Washington-on-the-Brazos, by Texas colonists who had determined to throw off the yoke of Mexican oppression. Texas independence was achieved at the battle of San Jacinto, fought about six weeks later. Chief features of the local observance are special programs in some schools, and the annual regatta of the "Texas Exes" former students of the State university, at which institution the observance of March 2 as a holiday was really started. Reunions of the "Exes" are planned for Tuesday night in practically all Texas cities, in New York City, Chicago, San Francisco and other points where ex-students resident in sufficient numbers. Holiday hours were observed at the postoffice Thursday. The local banks were closed for the day.
