DALLAS, April 5.—Dallas today had a new organization as an outgrowth of recent fogging here, the Dallas County Citizens league. "We, citizens of the United States, state of Texas, county and city of Dallas, declare the laws to be sacred and any assumption of power by any individual or organization to administer such laws the highest treason against the constitution," the resolution continued. It denounced such organization as referred to as "mob rule" and as "leading anarchy, unless they renounce the Ku Klux Klan, should resign, or, as an alternative, should be removed from office by the people, as adopted, stated."

time," he asserted, "is an opportunity under the terms of the transportation act to work out their problems without unnecessary and burdensome interference and I have the utmost confidence that they will successfully surmount their present difficulties if given a fair chance to do so. I am also confident that they will provide the people of this country with adequate transportation at reasonable rates and lower rates than are to be found for similar service in other countries in the world. This the railroads did so under the faulty scheme of regulation in effect before the war, and how much more should they be able to do under a better and wiser scheme of regulation now in effect?"

WHY WE CENSURE THEM

"The year 1922 will see still greater strides toward a malaria-free Texas," Dr. Smart predicted. "Malaria control, in a municipal function just as much as street improvements," he said. "Many communities are recognizing this and are planning to have a trained director in charge of malaria control work, especially in cities where the malaria rate is high."

SAYS REPATRIATION OF THE MEXICANS MUST BE STOPPED

MEXICO CITY, April 5.—Wholesale repatriation of Mexicans from the United States and elsewhere must cease, according to Secretary of the Interior Calles, who declares the government is spending too much money for such purposes. He intimated that many Mexicans were being shipped on the government by seeking financial aid when this was not absolutely necessary.

BEGIN AN INVESTIGATION OF JURY IN BURCH CASE

LOS ANGELES, April 5.—Investigation by the court of charges of attorneys for Arthur C. Burch, accused of the murder of Belle Kennedy, that "somebody" had been guilty of contempt in "tampering" with the jury panel drawn for Burch's second trial, was scheduled to begin here today.

Feel Weak, Tired, "All Played Out?"

DUSLEY DISCUSSES "KU KLUX KLAN" IN WHITESBORO SPEECH

"MUST UPHOLD LAW AT ALL HAZARDS" DECLARES CANDIDATE

HAS ACQUAINTANCES HE BELIEVES ARE MEMBERS

Says He Knows Them to Be Patriotic and Law Abiding Citizens

WHITESBORO, TEXAS, April 5.—

"The Klan must live up to its professed purpose of law under the constitution or it will perish," said Clarence Dusley, candidate for United States senator in an address here Tuesday afternoon. "But," he said, after discussing prevailing gross immoralities, "the Ku Klux Klan is an unmasking of the Ku Klux Klan, let there be also an unmasking of the reprobates who are cloaked in social and business respectability. The constitutional guarantees outraged by prevalent outbreaks of mob law which he denounced severely, particularly the deprivation of the right of trial by jury and acts of tarring and whipping which he described as among the "crimes and unusual punishment" prohibited in the bill of rights. He had dismissed other issues and concluded with the following comment upon the Ku Klux Klan:

"There is wide spread and more or less excited conversation about the Ku Klux Klan. The discussion is wholesome so long as it does not become hysterical. We must uphold the law at all hazards and must resist every act that undermines its authority. There is no place in free government for self-constituted tribunals and no need for secret organizations to enforce the law. The court house is the place to try criminals and the processes are the established processes of law. Every office of the law is under oath to uphold the constitution and if he assumes any obligation contrary to that he should forfeit his office. "I know nothing more than the average man about the Ku Klux Klan, but every observing man of middle age has seen much of mass hysteria. Undoubtedly the Ku Klux Klan organization has raised up some vital questions of public order and it is the business of good citizens to be alert and courageous but it is important first to be informed. In my life time I have witnessed about as much evil from social exorcism in ignorance as from perverse purpose.

"What do we actually know about the Ku Klux Klan? I have tried to learn but I have gathered but little authentic information. I know that its chief officer, Col. Simmons, in his testimony before the senate committee several months ago professed fraternal benevolence and civic objects entirely lawful and in many respects laudable. I know, also, that during the last few weeks local klans in Texas have published statements in the newspapers disavowing acts of lawlessness and offering to aid officers in the enforcement of the law. There can be no reasonable objection to these official declarations of purpose. In addition I have close acquaintance with several men who I have reason to believe are members of the order and I know them to be patriotic and law-abiding.

Many Acts of Violence.
"On the other hand I know that since the organization came under general observation there have been acts of violence and outrage committed by masked men. In some cases the newspapers reported that warnings and utterances were issued as if coming from klansmen. In other cases the mobs either did not profess or they did expressly disavow Klan relations.

"On matters other than law enforcement my understanding is that the Klan excludes from its members all Catholics and Jews. A few months ago there were reports of distressing religious antipathies engendered by this attitude.

"I think no just man will deny the right of other men to organize and maintain a society for the purposes expressed, though many men question, as do, the need or the propriety of such an organization. I cannot fathom the motives of men or know the spirit of a secret order. Therefore, I cannot intelligently pass judgment upon the real merits of the society and I refuse to condemn the men who compose it. "But I condemn and denounce lawlessness and wickedly by evil men. It occurs to me that possibly some perversion of the professed purpose of the new order is being practiced now. If so, it behooves the well meaning men who belong to the order to purge it of any evil that may lurk within and to join other good citizens in suppressing the prevailing outbreak of mob law.

Urges Level Minds.
"The prohibition of masking will only destroy a ritual; it will not itself prevent mobs. Let us keep level minds and realize that a statutory attack upon a ceremony is a vain remedy for lawlessness. This is wholly a matter of policy from within and public opinion from without. The Klan must live up to its professed purpose of law under the constitution or it will perish. "I need be no worry about that. The thing to do is to attack lawlessness and intolerance by whomsoever practiced. Any other attack is a waste of energy. Burke, the statesman, said, 'you can't indict a whole people.' So in this case we can't indict a society. All we can do is to punish men who violate the law, and that we must do unsparringly.

"As to religious and racial exclusion I concede complete freedom of selection of membership. Men have a right to organize a society and exclude red-headed persons if they wish. But I protest that any activity tending to excite racial or religious prejudice is not only pernicious but it is subversive of the cardinal principles of American government. Some of our greatest statesmen, law-givers and jurists have been Catholics and some have been Jews. Neither Catholics nor Jews have a right to seek political advantages for their church or their race, nor have other churches or races a right to deny civil enrollment or political privilege to Jews or Catholics.

"But not all has been said that should be said when we thus endeavor to define purposes and practices. There is something back of this outbreak of mob punishment. There never was such a phenomenon without cause, and we need as good citizens to look a little further into this particular complex. While the violence now so rampant is destructive of law and order, the secret lawlessness is more deadly to social and moral order. Laws against Ku Klux parades will reach this evil. I join heartily in the protest against mobs which violate the most precious guarantee of the bill of rights, but I point to the underlying provocation. We can and we will sooner or later control the mobs. This country will not long tolerate secret tribunals and the right of trial by jury. The danger is that the mobs will provoke other mobs in opposition and develop a kind of civil war in subversion of orderly government.

"On the other hand we will make little progress in social welfare if we do not develop a public opinion and a social standard that will make Ishmaelites if not convicts of men who outrage the social and moral code. If there is to be an unmasking of the Ku Klux let there be also an unmasking of the reprobates who are cloaked in social and business respectability. Only the grace of God can save men from sin, but even Godless men and women can and should exert a moral influence for the social welfare. Civil order without moral order is a body of death.

"To sum it up, let us make every man understand that we have but one rule of civil conduct and that is the law of the land. We need only one charter of liberty and that is the bill of rights. Any disregard for these leads inevitably to the destruction of liberty and the subversion of government."

FUNERAL OF J. L. HINDS IS CONDUCTED AT VERNON

VERNON, TEXAS, April 5.—J. L. Hinds of Springer, New Mexico, father of C. R. Hinds, living south of town, was buried Sunday afternoon in East View cemetery at Vernon. Mr. Hinds died March 28 of apoplexy at his home in Springer, and his body was brought to Vernon that it might find a resting place in a spot chosen by Mr. Hinds before his death.

He was the father of eleven children, ten of them living, and seven were present at the funeral. W. S. Bourland, pastor of the Primitive Baptist church, officiated at the ceremony conducted at the Underwood chapel. Mr. Hinds was 62 years old and a devout Christian. While visiting his son in this county at one time, Mr. Hinds drove past East View cemetery and was so impressed with the beauty of the setting that he requested that it be his final resting place.

SIX VERNON PEOPLE ARE IN AUSTIN FOR PASTEUR TREATMENT

VERNON, TEXAS, April 5.—As the result of the antics of a pet collie, presumably mad, Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Bennett and three children and Walter E. Hoffman, all of this city, are in Austin undergoing Pasteur treatment. Although Hoffman is the only one in the party bitten by the animal, it is feared the Bennett family was directly exposed to hydrophobia through constant association with the dog. The animal had been raised from puppyhood by Mr. Bennett, but it became too rough for the small children in the family. Accordingly it was taken by Mr. Hoffman and two companions to the Westbrook farm west of town, where it is said to have bitten several cows, horses, and assumed a ferocious mien. The dog was killed Monday a week ago and its head taken to Austin by Mr. Hoffman. Owing to decomposition no definite analysis was possible and physicians advised that those in immediate danger of infection be brought to the state capital for treatment.

TATUM WHO TOOK BOY SECOND TIME DISAPPEARS HERE

MAN WAS RELEASED FROM CHARGE OF KIDNAPING BREAKS INTO HOUSE

OFFICERS SEARCH CITY BUT FIND NO TRACE

Mother Makes Repeated Trips to Court House Crying for Her Lost Son

W. H. Tatum, who was arrested and held in jail Tuesday on a charge of kidnaping, was released from the charge late Tuesday evening and within an hour and a half took the four year old boy in question for the second time and succeeded in effecting a complete and mysterious disappearance.

Following the arrest of a writ of habeas corpus in his behalf late Tuesday afternoon and after Assistant District Attorney Sam Holliday had seen the boy in court that he had investigated the case and believed that Tatum was the father of the child, he was released.

Tatum had been arrested on Monday night at Ringgold after the little four year old boy and eleven year old Elizabeth Tatum had disappeared from the office of Juvenile Officer R. L. Yates Monday afternoon. The little girl had jumped from the train as it moved out of the yards and had returned and told the story that led to the arrest.

According to the mother, Mrs. Tatum, who has made repeated trips to the court house, pleading aid from the officers for the recovery of her son, Tatum entered the house at 411 Lee street Tuesday night by breaking a lock. The little girl was with her mother. The girl tells that Tatum entered, picked up the boy in his arms and retreated. Shortly afterward the mother and her sister entered the house.

Officers were summoned and the service car driver that took Tatum and the boy away from Lee street was located. The driver states that he drove to Ninth and Lamar streets where Tatum left the service car after paying for the service. Not a single trace can be found from this point although officers have searched extensively.

Officers stated that Tatum declared that he was the father of the little boy whom he has twice taken. Mrs. Tatum asserts that the boy is her son by a former marriage.

The prosecuting officials stated that if the boy is Tatum's that no charges of kidnaping against him could be substantiated, which they state was the reason for releasing him Tuesday night.

TEN PASSENGERS KILLED IN BOMBAY TRAIN WRECK

COLLIER, STAYTON AND CLIFFORD ELECTED MAYOR AND ALDERMEN

FRANK COLLIER

BURTON A. STAYTON

N. M. CLIFFORD

Frank Collier, Burton Stayton and N. M. Clifford won their respective races for mayor, utilities commissioner and street commissioner in Tuesday's election, with the largest vote yet polled in a municipal contest: 2,765 votes were polled. The vote:

Table with 2 columns: Candidate Name, Votes. Includes Mayor (Collier 1,608), Utilities Commissioner (Stayton 1,258), Street Commissioner (Clifford 967).

The vote in the majority contest, 1929 for Collier to 552 for J. W. Stone, was a surprise, as the general expectation had been that that contest would be fairly close.

Collier's majority was considerably more than 3 to 1. O. B. Kelley, who announced for mayor on a platform of which an attack on the irrigation district was the chief feature, ran a poor third.

The race for street commissioner was the closest of all. Clifford's plurality over D. M. Perkins being 140 votes. Perkins had a lead at the city hall box, but this was overcome by Clifford at the court house box.

The race between Burton Stayton and J. H. Stokes ended with Stayton 242 votes to the good. Stokes' majority at the city hall box was far from sufficient to offset the lead given Stayton at the court house.

Of the three successful candidates, all have been residents of this city for many years. Collier and Stayton have lived in Wichita Falls practically all their lives, and Clifford has been here for about 15 years.

Frank Collier, mayor-elect, has been in the mercantile business for a number of years. He is well known both in sporting and Masonic circles, in both of which he has been very active.

Burton A. Stayton, new utilities commissioner, is a graduate of the local high school and is also a merchant. He has been prominent in civic affairs for several years, being at present chairman of the business council of the chamber of commerce. He was formerly president of the Retail Merchants' association.

N. M. Clifford is cashier of the Security National bank, and has been in the banking business for about five years. Previously he was engaged in railroad work here. The new officials will be sworn in next Monday night, when W. D. Cline, W. N. Bonner and W. S. Curlee will retire from municipal service.

The Orient's operating expenses are said now to be exceeding all revenues $50,000 monthly.

HUMBLE REDUCES PRICE OF GASOLINE

Cut of Two Cents is Made at Various Points Where Operating in State

INSPECTOR IS ADDED TO BUREAU ANIMAL INDUSTRY

FORT WORTH, April 5.—Another inspector, A. Keith of Jackson, Miss., has been added to the Texas office of the bureau of animal industry, according to orders received from Washington today. He will be placed on duty at the stock yards here.

WOMAN CAN'T VOTE IF HUSBAND IS NOT A CITIZEN OF U. S.

AUSTIN, April 5.—A woman who, although otherwise a citizen of the United States, is the wife of a man who is not a citizen, is thereby herself an alien, not a citizen of this country, and not entitled to vote in Texas so long as such marital relation continues and her husband remains an alien, holds an attorney general's opinion issued today.

If such woman, after termination of marital relations, becomes the wife of a man who is a citizen of this country, she then becomes a citizen and is entitled to vote, it was held, also if later than one year after termination of the marital relation with the alien husband she registers as a citizen of the United States she gains the same privilege.

Mr. Caves holds that a woman who, otherwise an alien, is the wife of a citizen of the United States, is thereby a citizen and entitled to the privileges as such, so long as such marital relation continues. However, such women must be of a class or race of people who are entitled to citizenship.

Her citizenship will remain in force after termination of marital relation with her citizen husband as long as she remains a resident of this country and does not renounce such citizenship, it was held.

CHICAGO POLICEMAN ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF KILLING TWO MEN

ALL THE NEWS OF ALL THE SPORTS ALL THE TIME

RED SOX, CUBS AND BOTH PHILADELPHIA CLUBS SEEM BOUND FOR LOWER HALF

By NEA Service.
The Chicago Cubs seem destined for a second division berth. Manager Hill Killifer does not seem to have strengthened the club enough to make it very troublesome.

The Cubs were a very poor seventh last year and will have to step out to better that position in 1922. It looks as if it would be a fight to bitter death between the Cubs and Philadelphia as to who will escape the cellar position.

Not enough good pitching is the one big thing that will keep the Cubs in the second division. Killifer has only two veterans, Alexander and Martin.

Alexander was far below form last season. He won only 15 and lost 13 in 1921. Of course that is a better average than his club had in the standing, but far below the Alexander standard.

When one time Alexander could win regardless of the club that he pitched on. However, age is beginning to tell on Alexander. His arm isn't as strong as it once was.

The big fellow is certain to have a better year than last, but the Cubs need more than one pitcher. Martin, the other veteran, won 11 and lost 15 in 1921. He should show to better advantage.

The rest of the Chicago pitching staff is a big problem that unquestionably has Manager Killifer much worried.

Arnold Stans was the sensation of the Pacific Coast league last season. If he can maintain his minor league gait he will add much strength to the Cubs' outfit.

Some of the recruits taken on the training trip have shown enough to cause Killifer to enthuse. The club will start the season with much the same lineup as in 1921.

Manager Killifer looks to have a tough time ahead. Any position he finishes above seventh will be a very creditable performance on his part.

Philadelphia's Predicament.
Philadelphia fans have an exciting season ahead of them.

Connie Mack, last for seven years, says he will finish out of the cellar this season.

The Philadelphia National league club, which finished in the cellar position in that organization last season, is also fighting to lose that place.

Connie Mack's team has considerable color because Mack is always experimenting, showing his fans new faces. He is constantly trying.

There certainly isn't much to enthuse about the Philadelphia National for the coming season. If the team finishes better than last it will probably be a great shock to all concerned.

Fletcher is far from the player he was when with the Giants. He is getting old in a baseball sense, has slowed up considerably, but still retains the old fight that endeared him to McGraw.

Regardless of his play, Fletcher will be a much more valuable man to the Phillies than anyone who has departed around short last year. His very presence should make the Phillies a better club.

The rest of the infield will be made up of regulars at first, Parkerson at second and Rapp at third. In the outfield will be Williams, Walker, Labourer and King. This is a speedy quartet and pretty good hitters.

Leo Meadows is the star of the pitching staff. Other veterans regarded as regulars are Timmerling, Wilbur Hubbell and George Smith. Of the recruit pitchers, Plate and Snover have shown up best and seem certain to start.

WEST POINT COACH SAYS GRID VIRTUES SURPASS FEW EVILS

Major Daily Disagrees With Editors Of Big College Papers In This Matter.

What is the matter with football? Princeton, Harvard and Yale are all excited about that question.

The three university dailies seem to think the game is going to the bow-wow.

From our point of view the entire discussion is without rhyme or reason. As a matter of fact, football is a thing wrong with the modern article is fast and snappy, replete with action. The ball is in the air much of the time. It is easy to follow the play. Sport enthusiasts like it.

The big games, with from 50,000 to 80,000 in attendance, are magnificent spectacles. No matter how many you have seen there is always a thrill.

Football must be all right, a pretty good game, or the lovers of the gridiron sport wouldn't patronize it as they do.

When any sport so progresses that 50,000 people are enough interested to stand or sit at a football game through two hours of drizzling rain, as is often the case, it must be a worthwhile sport.

In every big enterprise, and football has reached such proportions, certain evils are bound to creep into the administration of the game from the playing as well as business angle.

Certain individuals, and the action of these individuals reflect on the sport. Football and baseball only recently have passed through such a period.

However, the game is far greater than the individual. The recovery of baseball overnight after the White Sox scandal proved the public had faith in the game, even if a few players proved false to its traditions.

Major Daily, present coach of the West Point football team, is a Harvard man. Few greater players have ever represented the Crimson on the gridiron. His career as a coach has been equally successful.

What is the matter with football was the question recently put to him. "Absolutely nothing," he replied. "It's the greatest game of them all."

"The trouble is that a few people insist on pointing out the evils of football rather than extolling its many virtues.

Text Satisfied.
There are those fans around town who believe that Tex-McDonald's statements should be taken with a grain of salt, but in all justice to the player that is the wrong attitude to take.

There was a time when Tex and other ball players could afford to tell their bosses where to head in, but that time is no more. They aren't so many clubs seeking their services now and the majority of them realize that a job is a job. It is true enough that McDonald could catch on with numerous clubs were he a free agent, but Salm would have something to say before that occurred.

There are plenty of fast amateurs in Wichita Falls and many of them are trying to sign up every good player in town for the contest.

SAYS MATHEWSON WILL EVENTUALLY RECOVER

AUSTIN, TEXAS, April 5.—Christy Mathewson, world-famous baseball pitcher, will recover from the attack of tuberculosis from which he is now suffering at Sarana Lake, N. Y.

Mr. Stoughton and his wife visited friends in Austin, New Orleans and other southern cities, leaving Austin for their home in Lewisburg, Pa., recently.

"I have never felt that Christy would recover," Mr. Stoughton said, "but I have always thought that a man of his calibre, disposition and physique could combat almost any disease."

BONUS IS TO HAVE STRONG OPPOSITION BEFORE THE SENATE

FIGHT IS NOT EXPECTED TO DEVELOP STRENGTH TO DEFEAT

EIGHTEEN OR TWENTY ARE KNOWN TO OPPOSE

Believed President Will Veto Measure Without Sales Tax Provision

By MARK SULLIVAN, National Political Correspondent of the New York Evening Post and Wichita Daily Times.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 5.—The bonus bill is going to be brought to a vote in the senate. The opponents of it will be in a form not estimated the number of politicians who want to get on record as being favorable to it, and underestimate the confidence of the politicians in such a record as a personal political asset.

When the bill passes the senate it will go to President Harding. Harding has never said in so many words that he would veto the bill in its present form. It is a matter of general policy with him not to take a position of that kind.

When the bill passes the senate it will go to President Harding. Harding has never said in so many words that he would veto the bill in its present form. It is a matter of general policy with him not to take a position of that kind.

Whether the advocates of the bill will get a majority of two-thirds vote to pass the measure over the president's veto remains to be seen. Without much doubt, the bill will pass in the house.

As to the senate, there are only about 18 or 20 of the 48 senators who are definitely known to be opposed to the bonus. The number has been increasing from week to week, but it must by this time have reached nearly its maximum.

After the senate committee has considered the bill and made such changes as are determined on, an effort will be made to introduce the bill in the senate. That also will be contested. By that time the senate will be in the midst of the tariff debate.

In the meantime, none of the bonus advocates have suggested any dependable means for raising the necessary money to pay the bonus. The likely outcome of the whole matter would seem to be that the bill will reach election time with all the senators and representatives who want to be comfortably on record as having voted for the bonus, but with no money in the soldiers' pockets and no real bonus bill on the statute books.

INDIANA COAL OPERATORS REJECT NOLAN PROPOSAL. TERRE HAUTE, IND., April 5.—Indiana coal operators today rejected the proposal of Chairman Nolan of the house labor committee for a joint wage conference of operators and miners unless the entire central competitive field comprising western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, were represented in the conference.

BOARD BILL IS PAID AFTER 51 YEARS WITH SIX PER CENT INTEREST. UTICA, N. Y., April 5.—Because he left Colgate university in 1871 unable to pay a board bill of $7, Frank E. Lyon of Waverline, Mich., has sent to the treasurer of the university $27.42, which is equal to $1 and simple interest at six per cent for the 51 years intervening.

DR. MARTIN SAYS WICHITA IS CURSED WITH DIVORCE EVIL

An assertion that Wichita Falls was cursed beyond measure with the divorce evil, and that the real men of the city exert themselves vigorously toward remedying such a situation was voiced by Dr. Martin in an address to the Lions club Wednesday noon.

In his lecture on his remarks concerning divorces Dr. Martin touched on a variety of subjects dealing with the problems of men. Honesty of purpose, with its various ramifications, was used as one of his central thoughts, while other statements, tending to impress on his hearers the fact that the divorce evil is in demand now as never before, were given in plain English.

"I am informed," the speaker said in concluding his address, "that you have in this city over a thousand divorce cases on your court docket. If this is true, it constitutes a curse to your city that you business men cannot well permit to pass unchallenged."

Continuing in this vein Dr. Martin assailed the feminine "franchise" and the "moral weakness" of men themselves as being the most prevailing cause of divorce, and in closing this phase of his talk he pleaded that the matter be left alone to the courts but that the men of the city interest themselves to the extent that the judges be told "what was wrong."

In the course of his address the speaker paid his respects to the movie industry and in closing referred to the "moral weakness" of men themselves as being the most prevailing cause of divorce, and in closing this phase of his talk he pleaded that the matter be left alone to the courts but that the men of the city interest themselves to the extent that the judges be told "what was wrong."

RECOVERY by the democrats of control of the county boards in two of the four counties of the 21st congressional district, and their reported return to power in other central Illinois communities, was today interpreted by democratic politicians here as evidence of a general tendency back from the republican landslide of 1920.

OBJECT TO REMOVAL OF SCOUT EXECUTIVE H. E. TAYLOR

MASS MEETING HELD ON TUESDAY EVENING

Agreement and Decision of Meeting is Signed by Seventy Local Scouts

Local boy scouts are up in arms over the action of the executive board in asking for the resignation of Scout Executive H. E. Taylor, according to expressions heard Tuesday night at an informal mass meeting of scouts called for the purpose of protesting the removal of Mr. Taylor to the board.

"We, the members of the Wichita Falls Boy Scouts, pledge our support to our executive, Mr. H. E. Taylor, who, we feel, has been unjustly removed from his position as Scout Executive H. E. Taylor and to no other."

In defense of their stand, the scouts have enumerated some dozen or more reasons why they believe Taylor is a loyal, patriotic, obedient and just man. We therefore pledge our allegiance and loyalty to Scout Executive H. E. Taylor and to no other."

Hunter Russell Tells Jury That He Contracted to Do Job for Hundred Dollars

Hunter Russell, a prisoner in the county jail under conviction of robbery and sentenced to two years in the state penitentiary, told the jury in the case of Tom Scruggs against the Hartford Fire Insurance company, on trial in the 15th district court, that he was hired by the owner to burn the car and "do a good job of it."

This testimony was brought out by the defense, who allege that the car had been burned by the owner and insured by the Hartford Fire Insurance company, the plaintiff, in asking for judgment of $1,200, the value of the car. The car had been driven 7,000 miles, he said.

Scene, vicinity of Friberg school house. Mr. J. Lepus Rabbit discovered in foreground, browsing on some young wheat.

J. Rabbit—Oh, dear, there comes some men with guns; and just as I was getting ready to take a nap I am nonchalantly across field, and discovers some more men with guns.

J. Rabbit—Dear, dear, they are thick today. Guess I'll take a turn of to the right. (Chases himself off to right, not quite so nonchalantly. Discovers some more men with guns.)

J. Rabbit—My, this is beginning to look serious. Maybe I'd better take a turn to the left. (Hikes to the left, still less nonchalantly. Meets more men with guns, and finds several of kindfolks killed.)

J. Rabbit—It sure does look like my finish now. Guess I'll all around on both sides, and at their closing in. Oh, this is awful. Why did I ever leave home? Well, my only chance is to bust through their lines.

(Men with guns circle closer and keep on shooting J. Rabbit's kindfolks.) J. Rabbit—Ah, there's a man with a kindly face. Maybe he'll let me slip by. Here goes. (Rushes toward Nick Carter who is waiting with gun.)

Nick—Oh, look who's here! Watch me, Abe. Pulls trigger. Nick's gun—Click! Nick—Oh, goodness! I forgot to throw off the safety.

ANOTHER CLASH IS STAGED IN SENATE OVER CIVIL SERVICE

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Senate republicans and democrats clashed again today over the question of whether the Harding administration has been observing or violating civil service regulations.

Without much fuss or flurry, two democratic resolutions on the subject were disposed of temporarily, but a third caused protracted debate.

The two resolutions of Senator Caraway, democrat, Arkansas, relative to President Harding's discharge of 29 executives of the bureau of engraving and printing were referred, with the senator's assent, to the senate civil service committee.

One proposed an investigation of the bureau case by a special senate committee, and the other would ask the president for his reasons for the bureau dismissals.

SULLIVAN

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 5.—The bonus bill is going to be brought to a vote in the senate. The opponents of it will be in a form not estimated the number of politicians who want to get on record as being favorable to it, and underestimate the confidence of the politicians in such a record as a personal political asset.

When the bill passes the senate it will go to President Harding. Harding has never said in so many words that he would veto the bill in its present form. It is a matter of general policy with him not to take a position of that kind.

Whether the advocates of the bill will get a majority of two-thirds vote to pass the measure over the president's veto remains to be seen. Without much doubt, the bill will pass in the house.

As to the senate, there are only about 18 or 20 of the 48 senators who are definitely known to be opposed to the bonus. The number has been increasing from week to week, but it must by this time have reached nearly its maximum.

After the senate committee has considered the bill and made such changes as are determined on, an effort will be made to introduce the bill in the senate. That also will be contested. By that time the senate will be in the midst of the tariff debate.

In the meantime, none of the bonus advocates have suggested any dependable means for raising the necessary money to pay the bonus. The likely outcome of the whole matter would seem to be that the bill will reach election time with all the senators and representatives who want to be comfortably on record as having voted for the bonus, but with no money in the soldiers' pockets and no real bonus bill on the statute books.

ANOTHER THREE-TENTHS INCH OF RAIN IS RECORDED

WEDNESDAY MORNING USHERED IN AS AN IDEAL SPRINGTIME DAY

GRANDFIELD RESERVOIR REPORTED FILLED UP

Canadian River Showed Signs of Going Wild But Later Report Allays Fears

Another three-tenths of an inch of rainfall was recorded here last night as the result of the showers that began in the afternoon and continued slowly until about 10 o'clock. This makes a total of 2 1/2 inches of precipitation recorded here in the past three days.

Wednesday morning was ushered in as an ideal springtime day. A warm sun shone unobstructed and nature itself rustled in the early morning breeze and everything appeared fresh and wide awake.

The Wichita Falls and Northwestern reports that the reservoir at Grandfield, which had been dry for the past two months, was filled up as the result of the recent rains. The company had been forced to haul water to this point during all this time and the rain relieved this situation and expense.

The city of Altus is also rejoicing as a result of the rains. The city reservoir from which the North-western was also feeding its boilers was nearly dry. Officials report that a sufficient amount of water was caught to tide the city over for another 60 days.

The rains of Tuesday evening were general over the entire district touched by the railroad. The amount was also the same as reported here.

Clear skies were reported from all points south and west of Elk City. North and west of this point came the reports of partly cloudy skies. High temperatures prevailed and the minimum point reached here during the night was 60 degrees.

Late Tuesday night the Denver officers here were notified that the Canadian was showing signs of going on a rampage. Wednesday morning the waters, however, had started to recede.

DECLARES POLITICAL BLOC A MENACE TO WELFARE OF NATION

CHICAGO, April 3.—Political blocs constitute a menace to the nation's welfare, declared Mr. Wilson Compton, secretary and manager of the National Lumber Manufacturers' association, in an address here today at the fourth annual lumber congress.

"Should this nation become committed to the system of political blocs," said Mr. Compton, "collusion, for instance, of farmers and labor to legislate in their own interests regardless of the interests of others would, if it commanded a majority vote, permit the extension of federal government activities involving large expenditures for the benefit of the farmer and wage earner, more than 90 per cent of the expense of which would, under our present system of taxation, be paid to somebody else."

Government blocs, Mr. Compton declared, is iniquitous among a people that care for individual liberty and freedom of opportunity.
