EVERIDGE OPPOSED D "BLOGS" WOULD SUPPORT PRESIDENT

AS HARD FIGHT AHEAD TO DEFEAT DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE.

REPUBLICAN LEADERS REGRET PASSING OF NEW

Appointment, However, is Based Largely On Personal Reasons.

By MARK SULLIVAN,
National Political Correspondent of the New York Evening Post and the Wichita Daily Times.

Evening Post.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—Let no one assume that Beveridge's nomination in Indiana was any phenomenon of aberration or that it was an "insurgent" or "Progressive" victory in the sense in which those words were used ten or a dozen years ago.

It is a healthy, sane, radical innovation. It is a sound conservativeism, the speeches in which Beveridge made his appeal to the voters of Indiana could make a worthy platform for such a party.

One of the most effective of his speeches condemned the "army of government agents, and government spies, who go up and down the country, harassing business." At that time he attacked the huge bureaucracies of federal employees that have been built up through the combined actions of taxation and of its deleterious effects on national prosperity was one of the soundest and most thorough arguments that have been made on any public question in or out of congress during the present war. At a time when a "farm bloc" is the balance of power in a republican senate and "contributes about the only compact leadership the senate has, Beveridge had the courage to say he opposed all "blobs" and believed in old-fashioned constitutional government.

Beveridge, since he terminated his previous service in the senate has had ten years in which to study the national government. The experience of writing his four-volume History of Chief Justice Marshall, and his times in the direction of the American constitutional movement, as few other men in public life have had. Beveridge in the senate—if he wins in the evening election—will be closer to the present republican senate than any other republican senator as a group.

On taxation and most domestic objects Harding's thought and Beveridge's are identical. It is the field of foreign relations where Beveridge may prove cautious in a mild way. Harding's policy is to ally to his in the direction of peace with European affairs. Beveridge, although he was at Africa at the time, was more of a pioneer in the fight against the league of nations than any of those who got the credit of official leadership.

This step of Beveridge's towards turning to public life is distinctly and good news. He has a disciplined mind and the will to work. When he was in the senate he was an outstanding figure.
In the coming senate he would even more so, for the competition is less than he had to stand comparison with men like Frye,
Cowan, Aldrich, Dooliver, the elder,
Morgan, Daniels, and the like.
Of course, Beveridge still has a battle to take before he sits in the senate. The contest between him and the democrat, Hallett, in November, will be a real fight. In that fight Beveridge undoubtedly will get more democratic votes, more independent votes, and more votes that would otherwise go democratic, than New possibly could have gained. Beveridge in fact is by far the strongest man the Indiana publicans could have put up, and will be muttering that some of the old guard republicans, in their disappointment about New's defeat, will knife Beveridge. But when the time comes, they won't.

As to Senator New, it is not only Harding who, for personal reasons, will regret his defeat. Everybody else in Washington, Republican or democrat, will have the same keen feeling of regret for one who was generally liked for his loyalty, his modesty, and other qualities he had in his personal relations and admired for his sound common sense, and team work in public affairs.

DETECTIVE FINDS CLOTHING AND OTHER STOLEN ARTICLES

Two suits of clothing and several smaller articles of wearing apparel were returned to their owner, James Montgomery, after having been found by City Detective Tom Shook late Thursday. The clothes were taken from a tent occupied by Mr. Montgomery in the 1600 block
Ohio street some time Wednesday night.

They were found by Shook in the 1100 block of the same street, but the officer was unable to find any clue as to the identity of the thief.

SEVERAL CHICKEN ROOSTS ROBBED THURSDAY NIGHT

Chicken thieves battered 400 or thereabouts Thursday night and took this city's feathered flock to decide cleaning. The invader's big inning came early at the expenditure of the 1400 block on Seventeenth street, three trips to the home coops netting a total of nine counters—three from each section.
Later on in the game the offerings of the O. F. Maricle produce tention, who lifted half a dozen more

SECRET OF GOOD DISPOSITION

A woman who carefully safeguards her health benefits her disposition. She will be happy and attractive to all. The world unfortunately is filled with great women who are unhappy because they are being back from usefulness by troubles so common among them. Profuseness and nervousness rapidly destroy good disposition. Sickness, all-worn-out women cannot make happy homes. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a safeguard of women's health. This is clearly proven by the many letters we are continually publishing in this paper, from women who have been restored to health and happiness by its use after years of suffering. Why don't you try it—adv.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS WHIRLIGIG VALLEY

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

"You've been here a good while, my dears," he said kindly. Just as the dove had promised, when the Twins had seen all of the wonderful circus in the sixth valley, Flippety-Flap, a little fairy, spoke to them. "You've been here a good while, my dears," he said kindly. "And the Fairy Queen's work is waiting. So is the dove."

"Come," said he kindly. "You're late, but you couldn't help it. Just one more valley and we're there, at the end of our journey."

OUR FIRST YEAR

I strung my beads on a linen thread while Jack finished his shaving. I hadn't expected to find each other perfect, I thought. I wasn't that I did most things the best I could—here fall a few tears almost as large as my beads—and I had believed that Jack had married me because he preferred me to all the other women.

"Peggy!" I heard Jack call. "I did not answer. 'Peg!' Come back here!"

My husband's voice was stern. Never had I heard him speak so. My prolonged silence of the morning had produced some reaction. I was pleased to note.

But if Jack was exasperated, at least, so was I! I proceeded on my errand down stairs and paid no attention whatever to Mr. John Cuthbert's invitation.

"To be ordered by a husband—like that! Who would have dreamed that my considerate Jack could become so domineering! And what could a bride of spirit do but ignore a young husband's first harsh command?"

The postman had left nothing in our box. I gave it a swift glance, and rushed out of doors.

I had just enough common sense left to realize that Jack had not seen the postman, had not understood why I was going down stairs without him, had not asked why I wouldn't have let me go for the mail had he known, would have gone himself.

Moved I know not by what streak of stubbornness, I flew out of the house, hearing Jack on the stairs just before the door slammed behind me. A score of steps took me around the corner of the building.

I wanted to get away from Jack. I wanted to think alone, wanted him to miss me.

How could I make him feel that he needed me, that already I had become indispensable as long as I stayed at home and made him comfortable, as long as I amused him? That had been woman's ancient way. What had it got for her? For my own mother it had ended in divorce.

Well, I had learned from mother's experience. I would not forgive Jack too easily, that I decided, although by this time I was not very clear about what Jack ought to be forgiven.

And how was I to guess that Jack imagined the impossible, that

The White Desert

The whistles screamed. Up the grade, four engines to a plow, the jets steam rising upward, great columns of smoke leaping blackly up the mountain side.

A jarring crash that all but threw the men of the first crew from their feet and the Death Trail had been met. Then churning, snarling, roaring, the snow flying in cloud-like masses past their feet, the first crew bit its way down into the tremendous mass, while sweating men, Harry Houston among them, crammed coal into the open, angry fire boxes, the cold stream on gray tracks—and the cavalcade went on.

A hundred yards—the beams knocking down the snow above and all but covering the engines which forced their way through.

A shout. A pull at the whistle, screaming forth its note of victory. Then, the bare of the whistles was drowned in a rearing of great rocks as the snow of the granite apron above the Death Trail loomed at last and crashed downward in an all-consuming rush. The train, Harry Houston gave way before the constantly gathering mass of white, and joined in the downward. Great boulders, abutting rocks, splintering shale and wood, thundering toward the valley and crashing like a great avalanche there; to send the ten-foot thickness of snow, to spray the whole entire world with ice and snow and scattering rock; then to settle, a jumbled conglomerate mass of destructiveness, robbed of its prey.

And the men shouted, and screamed and beat at one another in their frenzy of happiness and spite of the fact that the track had been torn away from behind them as though it never had existed, and that they now were cut off entirely from the rest of the world. Only one snowbank remained, with but a feeble bulwark of drifts before it.

Night faded. Dawn came and then the sun. Clear and brilliant with the promise of spring again and of melting snows. The fight was over. Morning of the second day—and again the sunning shale and wood. Tabernacle was in the distance, while men and women waded through the soggy snows to be the first to reach the train. Harry Houston searched the thronging crowd, at last to catch sight of a gigantic figure, his wolf-dog beside him.

"Ba'tiste!"

Great arms opened wide. A sob came from the throat of a giant.

"Mon Bèrè! Mon Bèrè!" It was all he could say for a moment.

"We'll win, Ba'tiste! The line's open—they'll be running trains through before night. And if she keeps her promise, she'll have care of her, haven't you? I found her, she promised that she would tell the truth for me when I got back, that she would explain the lease and contract and tell Medaine that it was all a lie. She—"

But Ba'tiste's hand shook his head. "No, Bèrè! She's too late. I have just come from there. I have close her eyes."

CHAPTER XX

Dead! Houston saw Medaine Robi-hette pass in the distance, and his eyes followed her until she had rounded the curve by the dead, open eyes of lost hope.

"Without a word." It spelled blackness for Houston. "I—suppose you've taken charge of everything." "Oull! But I have look at nothing."

"I just had something here." Houston fumbled in his pockets. "She would want it around her neck—"

But the sudden glare in Ba'tiste's eyes stopped him as he brought forth the crucifix and his tangled chain. The giant's hands trembled. His lips twisted. A lunge and he had come forward, savage, almost beast-like.

"You!" he bellowed. "Where you get that? Hear me, where you get that?"

"From her. She—"

"Then, ome! Come—quick with me!" His almost dragging the younger man away, hurrying him toward the sled and his broad-backed old horse.

"We must go to the cabin, ool—yest Hurry—"

Houston saw that he was trembling. "Est is the thing I look for—the thing I look for!"

"Ba'tiste! What do you mean?"

and once more raised the revolver. But he did not fire.

A furry, snarling thing had leaped at him, knocking the revolver from his hand in its plunging ascent. There a cry—a gurgling growl. Teeth had clenched at the throat of the man; together they rolled through the door to the snow without. Golemar, his hold broken by the fall, striving again for the death clutch, the man screamed in sudden frantic fear.

"Take him off—I'll tell you about it—she did it—she did it! Take him off!"

"Golemar!" Ba'tiste had appeared in the doorway. Below the dog whirled in obedience to his command and edged back, teeth still bared, eyes vigilant, waiting for the first movement of the man on the ground.

Houston went forward and stood peering down at the frightened, huddled form of Thayer, wiping the blood from the fang wound in his neck.

"You'll tell about what?" came with sudden incisiveness.

"The man started, suddenly aware that he had spoken of a thing that had been mentioned by neither Ba'tiste nor Houston. His lips worked crookedly. He tried to smile, but it ended only in a mistaken snarl.

"I thought you fellows were looking for something. I—I—wanted to get the dog off."

"We were. We've found it. Ba'tiste, and Houston forced back the tigerish form of the big French-Canadian. "You walk in front of us. I'm afraid to trust you right now. And don't turn back. Do you promise?"

The big hands worked convulsively. The eyes took on a never, fierce glare.

"With an effort the Canadian obeyed, the wolf-dog trotting beside him. Houston following, one hand looked about the buckle of the thinner man's belt, the other half supporting him as he limped and reeled through the snow. "It's my hip—"

The man's mind had gone to trivial things. I sprained it—about two days ago—"

Houston over here with his hip up till the his place in front of the accused man.

"In the first place, Thayer," he commanded. "You might as well know one thing. You're caught. The goods are on you."

"I don't know anything about it. She told me she did it—that those were Mrs. Renaud's things."

"Ah! Then you have seen her then ring, which my Juliette, she wore on her finger. Ah, ho!"

Thus the battle progressed, Ba'tiste storming, the frowning, sullen captive in the chair replying in monosyllables, or refusing to answer at all. The afternoon grew old. The sheriff arrived—and still the contest went on. Then, with a sudden break of reserve, Thayer leaned forward and rubbed his gnarled hands, one against the other.

"All right!" he snapped. "Have it your way. No use in trying to lay it on the woman—you could prove an alibi for her. You're right. I killed them both."

NOBODY FROM HERE AMONG INJURED IN THE AUSTIN CYCLONE

Wichita Falls students at the State university and at St. Edwards college in Austin, local contestants in state athletic and declamation contests and other Wichitans in Austin all escaped injury in the tornado which visited that city late Thursday, according to advices Friday morning.

Damage was sustained at St. Edwards, where there are two Wichita Falls students, but none of the students was hurt.

Some concern was evidenced here for the several dozen high school students now at Austin for the state contest, but they were all in a part of the city that escaped damage.

SMALL BOY IS HURT WHEN HIS FATHER STEPS ON GAS

A small boy who was riding a temporary seat in the rear of a Ford truck took a headlong dive to the pavement at Eighth and Scott Friday morning, when his father, who was driving the car, went around the corner at a too rapid clip. The boy was bruised about the head and legs and was at first thought to be badly hurt, but his injuries proved not serious.

HAVE STARTED A SOIL SURVEY OF WARD COUNTY

STAMFORD, TEXAS, May 4.—A soil survey of Ward county by the federal bureau of soils in co-operation with the state bureau has been begun, according to information received by the West Texas chamber of commerce. Miles Beck and Robert Deversaux of the federal bureau have already started upon the work. They recently completed a survey of Reeves county and forwarded their reports to Washington. However due to the congestion at the government printing office it will probably be several years before the report will be put in book form for general dissemination.

The survey is being made of 24 west Texas counties. The survey will add much to the data on soils in the west and aid the farmer in arriving at conclusions as to the best place to locate with reference to particular products.

THE ECONOMY BAKING POWDER CALUMET

Calumet possesses the farthest-reaching baking powder economy. It is the most economical leavening agent. It saves in more ways—and makes more important savings than most other baking powders.

You save when you buy it. The price is moderate—it leaves you money over the cost of high-priced brands for purchase of other articles. Costs but little more than cheap powders—far more valuable in quality.

You save when you use it. Possesses more than the ordinary raising force—you use only half as much as is ordinarily required.

You save materials it is used with. Calumet never fails with any kind of recipe or with any kind of flour—always produces perfectly raised, delicious bakings.

You'll notice a great difference when you use Calumet. Calumet produces light, sweet, wholesome, flaky bakings. You will notice with some of the cheaper brands the bakings are soggy, heavy, dark in color, and sometimes have a bitter taste.

The Law Says 16 oz. to a Pound

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. cans instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

THIS FLORIDA FATHER KNOWS

What Children Often Need—Eighteen Happy Children in a Healthy Black-Draught Family.

Bottle, Fla.—Near here is the plantation homestead of Santa Rosa County's well-known family—the Taylors. To a visitor at the Taylor home, the Rev. W. N. Taylor authorized publication of the following statement:

"I am comparatively a young man; am healthy and can do a lot of work. I am the father of eighteen living children. Our last children were twins. I lost my first daughter from lung trouble, but certainly can say I have a healthy lot of children, about as healthy as you will find anywhere, and I feel I have been blessed.

"Our home remedy is Theodor's Black-Draught. I don't know when the time was that I haven't used it. I have used it ever since I was married. I know, when the little ones are feverish, or have colds, we make a tea from Black-Draught and give them. When they are older, they take the powder dry. I know it is fine for headaches, and stomach, indigestion, and other liver troubles.

"I don't know just what you would have done without Black-Draught. It has done wonders in our family towards keeping them well and healthy. Thanks to a good remedy.

"I am a preacher, farmer and merchant. It takes all to take care of us."

(In an article about the Taylor children, printed some time ago in many newspapers, the Taylor was quoted as saying that they had all grown up healthy, had always continued in good health, and hope is so continue). At all druggists.

OIL CONTROVERSY IS CREATING STIR AT GENOA CONFERENCE

MANY RUMORS CIRCULATED
REGARDING SOVIET AGREEMENT.

EQUALS IN INTEREST RUSSO GERMAN PACT

General Denial Has Been Entered
By Parties to Alleged Contract.

By Associated Press.
GENOA, May 5.—None of the American oil towns ever had greater oil excitement than Genoa has had over the rumors that various oil agreements have been entered into by the soviet delegation. Petroleum is gushing all over the Genoa conference; nothing has created such a stir since the Germans and Russians handed to the surprise conference the Easter treaty.

Baku has been literally moved to Genoa for diplomats who formerly had little idea where that republic was located. Some of them had never heard of it until this week. The Russian delegation has made "made" a contract for the sale of its output. Everybody from M. Tchitcherine down has denied reports of all contract. Colonel J. B. Hays, who represents the Royal Dutch and Shell companies here, which are reported to have signed contracts with the soviets has issued repeated denials from his sick bed here.

BEVERIDGE NOW HAS MAJORITY OF 20,472; RALSTON GRATIFIED

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., May 5.—Former senator Albert J. Beveridge, defeated Senator Harry S. New, by 20,472 votes in Tuesday's primary for the republican nomination for United States senator, according to complete unofficial figures from the 22 counties in Indiana as tabulated by the Associated Press today. The vote was: Beveridge 205,410 and New 184,938, making the total republican vote cast 390,348.

The complete unofficial vote of the state on the democratic senatorial contest showed that former Governor Samuel M. Ralston easily won the nomination, having a majority over all other contestants of 19,495, according to figures compiled by the Associated Press today. Ralston's total vote was 171,925. Dr. Jesse Sanders, who advocated the return of the beer and light wines, was second with 34,466. The other contestant's votes were: Dan W. Simms, 24,331; H. H. Shively, 21,928; and Charles F. Howard, 12,322.

By Associated Press.
INDIANAPOLIS, May 5.—Former Senator Albert J. Beveridge, the republican nominee for United States senator in the Indiana primary election Tuesday, was the recipient today of hundreds of congratulatory messages, many from persons identified with the progressive party in 1912.

OIL PRODUCTION TAXES PAYABLE THRICE MONTHLY UNDER A MEXICO ORDER

By Associated Press.
MEXICO CITY, May 5.—The oil production taxes will be paid by the operating companies thrice monthly instead of once each month, under an order issued by Secretary of the Treasury De La Huerta. Thirty per cent of the tax will be paid on the 10th day of each month, an additional 10 per cent on the 20th, and 40 per cent on the 25th. The order was issued at the request of the oil companies which have experienced inconvenience. It is said, in collecting sufficient gold on the dates hitherto designated. The export taxes are not affected.

SOUTH BEND HAS A NEW PRODUCER THAT STARTS EXCITEMENT

SOUTH BEND, TEXAS, May 5.—South Bend is again in the throes of great excitement over the coming of a new oil well. This time it is the Roxana North American No. 3 on the Garrett survey just south of town. The drill tapped a new sand at 2,310 feet and for several hours afterwards poured forth the golden fluid at the rate of 550 barrels a day. It was drilled a couple of feet deeper and the flow then increased to 55 barrels an hour. It is now flowing into tanks at the rate of 1,400 barrels a day.

FAVORABLE REPORT ON BILL TO CREATE A FACT FINDING COMMISSION

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Favorable report was voted by the house labor committee today on the Blain bill to create a fact finding commission for the coal industry. The commission would consist of 10 members representing miners and the public and government agencies directly concerned in coal, including the geological survey, and the bureau of mines and mining. Report to congress with recommendations would be required within two years. Chairman Nolan announced that efforts would be made to get the bill before the house as soon as possible, with the hope of its passage prior to summer adjournment.

ARMENIAN ORPHANAGES BROKEN UP BY TURKISH GOVERNMENT AT ANGORA

At Angora, it was reported by the Armenian national committee, the union secretary, G. H. Papazian. The letter mentioned a specific case at Harpoot, where the Turkish nationalists ordered the near east workers to close their orphanage. Miss Hurley, the head worker, and Dr. Parmelee, the physician, protested. Thereupon said the letter these two American women were ordered to leave Monday but they were hurried out on Sunday afternoon despite protests. TARIFF ASSOCIATION TO ORGANIZE TEXAS FOR PROTECTIVE TAX

MEETING HERE FRIDAY CALLS ANOTHER TO BE HELD AT DALLAS, MAY 22

KIRBY WILL SPEAK AT THEATER FRIDAY NIGHT

Representatives of Several Texas Industries Hold Conference Here

A reorganization of the Southern Tariff association along state lines, with an active working organization in each southern state, was planned at the meeting of the Southern Tariff congress at the Kemp hotel Friday morning.

Several other conferences were scheduled for Friday afternoon, and the principal meeting of the congress will take place tonight at the Wichita theater at which time the principles and purposes of the tariff movement will be outlined in an address by John H. Kirby of Houston, president of the Southern Tariff association.

The state organization of the Southern Tariff association, which was decided upon at the morning session, will consist of an executive committee representing the principal industries of Texas, and men will be selected who are not only in favor of a tariff on their product, but who are willing to give their time and efforts toward getting a proper measure through congress, according to Ed Woodall, cottonseed oil manufacturer of Hillsboro, who presided at the morning conference.

DIDN'T BELIEVE ALL SHE HEARD, BUT NOW KNOWS

After Taking Taniac With Such Good Results, Mrs. Crawford Says It Certainly Deserves All The Praise It Gets.

"I couldn't believe all they said about Taniac until I tried it myself, and now I never doubt what I read about it," said Mrs. Anna B. Crawford, 5209 N. 23rd St., Lincoln, Neb., wife of a well known retired business man.

"I got into a badly rundown condition," she continued, "and suffered greatly from indigestion. I had headaches for days at a time, slept poorly and woke up mornings so weak and dizzy I could hardly get up. Then rheumatism set in and made walking difficult and I could scarcely use my arms for the pain."

"But Taniac has made a clean sweep of my troubles, brought back my appetite and enabled me to gain much weight. It is a pleasure to make a statement in praise of this great medicine."

that is being made in Washington through the Southern Tariff association and declared that the future of southern industry was wrapped up in the tariff measure now pending and that unless ruinous foreign competition was minimized his industry, as well as many others, was doomed. Without the assistance of the Southern Tariff association, which is recognized in Washington as the official spokesman for southern productive industry, he stated that cottonseed oil industry could not have secured recognition and urged a continuation and enlargement of its activities.

The idea that one can't be a democrat without being a free trader is being exploded every day, Woodall stated, and cited the position of early democrats on the question which he said coincides with the position now being taken by southern producers who are coming to view the question as an economic and not a political one. "Some members of congress have taken the cry that we are not democrats," he said, "but the protection for our products, and the record will show that these same men have repeatedly voted with the republicans and east for a tariff on manufactured articles while voting to keep the products of the south on the free list."

Woodall said, "The time has come in the history of the south when the question is going to be approached from a business angle and the destiny of southern productive industry is not going to be left for politicians to settle."

A meeting of the tariff association at Friday morning's session to organize a Texas division will be held at Dallas May 12, when a field organization for educational work in Texas will be set up. Delegates named at the meeting Friday to represent leading industries at the Dallas meeting were: Cottonseed industry, W. A. Bennett of Dallas; J. E. LeClercq of Dallas, W. J. Penland of Durant, Okla.; wheat industry, H. J. Hanks of DeLeon, A. C. Barlow of Fort Worth; flour milling industry, J. Perry Burrus of Gainesville, Frank Kell of Wichita Falls; cattle industry, Marion Sansom of Fort Worth, Ike T. Pryor of San Antonio, Caesar King of Kingsville, C. B. Lucas of Berclair, W. N. McKee of Fort Worth; cotton manufacturing industry, T. P. Files of Topeka, A. L. Smith of Hillsboro. A committee of leading citizens interested in securing tariff protection for Texas industries will be named later, according to Mr. Woodall.

INSPECTOR CLOSES 32 GASOLINE PUMPS OUT OF 85 IN CITY

DEVICES ARE CONDEMNED BECAUSE OF INACCURACIES FOUND

OFFICIAL SAYS SAME DEALERS MAKING BLENDS

Defective Pumps Cannot Be Used Until Repairs Are Made to Insure Accuracy

Thirty-two gasoline pumps in local filling stations have been condemned and closed in the last week by State Weights and Measures Inspector Cam H. Murray. Fifty-three of the 85 pumps tested were given a clean bill of health.

Until such time as the condemned pumps are repaired and can satisfactorily pass a state test they must remain closed, Inspector Murray announced.

In an exhaustive report issued Friday afternoon Mr. Murray gave it as his opinion that some of the irregularities found were due to a blending of gasoline and in other cases to worn parts in the pumps themselves. The mixing of different brands of gas will, according to Murray, cause the delicate mechanism of the pumps to function improperly, thus resulting in a shortage of volume.

The wearing out of parts also tends, of course, to cause irregularities in the volume of gas obtained. In most cases where the pumps have been found faulty a shortage in measure has been the difficulty, although in a few instances the pumps were giving over measure. This made no difference, however, the pump is closed until it registers correctly.

Mr. Murray has recommended that every dealer in gasoline in the city provide himself with a standard five-gallon measure and make daily tests of his apparatus, thus insuring absolute accuracy and fairness both to himself and the public. There still remain in the city some fifty or more pumps that must be tested and reports on these will be made by Mr. Murray as soon as his inspections have been completed. It is understood that the work of testing both weights and measuring apparatus in the city will be carried on by officials of the health department after the state inspector leaves.

KIRBY INDICATES ISN'T PLANNING TO RUN FOR SENATOR

"It's just talk," said John H. Kirby of Houston Friday morning, when questioned about rumors that he might make the race for United States senator as an independent this year.

Mr. Kirby denied that he was a party to any such plan, but thought that if the democratic primary did not result in a suitable candidate from party, there ought to be well organized opposition; he did not express any preference among the candidates, but indicated an antipathy to a certain one of them. It has been reported in republican circles that Mr. Kirby, running as an independent candidate for senator, would receive the republican endorsement, and that J. C. Culbertson of this city would be the G. O. P. nominee for governor.

Knot hole gang passes will be good at Saturday afternoon's city league game at the baseball park, officers of the league said Friday. They hope that the boys will turn out in full force.

BUSINESS COUNCIL MEMBERS SIGN UP FOR SUMMER TRIPS

The first trade trip, scheduled for early June, attained 25 per cent of its necessary quota within a few minutes at the business council luncheon at the Kemp Friday. A total of 25 of the members signed up for the trip, this being one-fifth of the minimum needed for the trip.

B. J. Bean, trade trip chairman, made a brief but emphatic talk, explaining the plans for the trip, and declaring that if this city was to ever establish itself as a jobbing center and show that it appreciates the patronage of its neighbors, the summer's program of trade trips must be taken.

It was announced that the expense of $40 for the three trips covers all expenses except meals; these will be furnished from a baggage car which will be converted into a lunch room. Plans for the trips, as previously announced, were perfected at a meeting of the general committee Friday morning.

R. E. Fenick and C. P. Warman, local wholesale dealers, spoke briefly on the situation; that was discussed at last week's session. Mr. Warman, whose house handles mill supplies, said that he believed price and service of any out of town house could be met here. The council adjourned early to hear the talk of J. H. Kirby at the tariff luncheon.

RETAINS TITLE

SEDALIA, MO., May 4.—Johnny Layton of Sedalia was still world's three cushion billiard champion to- day, having defeated Charles Mc- Court of Pittsburgh, challenger, in a three block match of 180 points here, played on day, Tuesday and Wednesday nights. The final score gave Layton 180 points to his oppo- nent's 128.

HORNSBY GETS DISTANCE RECORD IN CUB PARK

Last week in a contest between the St. Louis Cardinals and Chicago Cubs, Rogers Hornsby drove out two cir- cuit smashes and both drives are said to be the longest ever hit in the Cub park. His first smash bid fair to clear the left field bleachers until some rabid fan stood up and speared it. Balls have been driven into these bleachers before, but none had ever cleared it. Later on he connected for a blow which was even more lusty than the first. His second wallop hit the scoreboard in center field, the first time such a feat has ever been accomplished. Kenneth Williams may wrest the batting title of St. Louis from Rogers, but none of his drives have had as much power behind them as those two of Hornsby's.

One Player Often Makes A Ball Club

One man has quite often made a ball club. The latest illustration of this is to be had in Cleveland where John (Stuffy) McInnis, the pride of Gloucester, has suddenly made the Indians the big threat in the American league race.

Rabbit Maranville, with a pair of big hands, came near pulling Pitts- burgh to a pennant last year. It was the addition of Maranville that "made" the Pittsburgh team. The New York Giants rode to a world's championship on the slender shoulders of Dave Bancroft and Babe Ruth's bulky shoulders car- ried the New York Yankees to an American league championship.

Cleveland was runner-up last season. Cleveland was figuratively and literally "one man army of a cham- pionship." The Cleveland team, world's champions in 1920, were de- clining and all agreed that Speaker must get new blood to build up his faltering hosts. But Speaker did better than that—he got McInnis.

The Cleveland defense, strong as a whole, was weak in spots and the weakest spot was first base. Then, last winter, Cleveland landed McInnis and bolstered the team in its weakest point. It is not alone the sparkling play of McInnis, for to date he has played the best baseball of his career, and the psychological effect of having the great fielding Stuffy on first base that has had such remarkable effect upon the Cleveland team and that makes a great many people believe that another American league championship is "on its way to Cleveland. McInnis is not alone a great individual player, but he is a remarkable man when it comes to holding up an infield and the pitchers.

Cleveland's weakness, according to the experts, is questionable. If Cleveland can get good pitching the Indians look to be one of the best ball teams in recent history. But, speaking of pitching, the success of a pitcher depends mostly upon his defense and when it comes to defense Cleveland right now has the best defense in the American league, so the matter of pitching should be taken good care of, chiefly because of the coming of McInnis.

PHILADELPHIA 'BUGS' JUMP OUT OF BLEACHERS

Antics of fans at Shibe park in Philadelphia have reached the point where the management proposed to screen the bleachers so as to keep the nuts off the field. In the Phila- delphia park there is a low fence with no screen; the bugs reach out and grab batted balls, or if the occasion seems to require they put a leg over and hop on the field. Such antics have been the cause of many protests and the limit has been about reached. Now the suggestion is to put up a wire screen that will confine the Sigeans inside the barrier and thus permit the game to proceed without their interference.

GOTHAM FANS BEGIN TO CHEER HUGGINS

New York fans are at last begin- ning to give Miller Huggins a bit of the credit for the showing made by the Yankees last year. They are realiz- ing that maybe it wasn't Babe Ruth, after all, who put the Yankees at the top of the heap. The Huggins have been holding their own with the rest of the American league clubs to date and neither Ruth nor Munsie have been in the lineup. It must sound strange to the diminutive Yankee pilot to be cheered instead of jeered, but that's what is happening.

STEEL INDUSTRY TO LOCATE PLANT IN A TEXAS CITY

WILL EMPLOY FROM 25,000 TO 30,000 MEN—LOCATION NOT DECIDED.

R. W. JACKSON ANNOUNCES PLAN AT NOONDAY MEET

John H. Kirby and Others Explain Reasons Why Tariff is Important Issue.

A steel industry will be located somewhere in Texas within the next year that will employ between 25,000 and 30,000 men.

John H. Kirby, president of the association, and Ed Woodall of the Texas Cotton Crushers Association of Hillsboro, also spoke on the vital importance of a tariff that will enable producers of raw materials to compete with oriental products.

Mr. Jackson spoke but five minutes. He told of the step that was about to be taken in the establishment of one of the largest steel plants in the country in the state of Texas.

With the South American exporting centers practically at the doors of Texas, he cited the importance of a tariff that would protect the home industry.

Mr. Kirby stated that he would speak at the Wichita opera house at 8 o'clock Friday evening. He said that some people who have tried to put the tariff question into politics were embarrassing the association as the issue was not a political one, but one of economic importance.

Mr. Woodall of Hillsboro, who is in the cotton oil and seed business, told of the cheap labor with which similar products were being produced in the orient and in the South sea islands.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS TO HAVE THEATRE PARTY MONDAY

for the long account, largely in shares not ordinarily very active, featured the later dealings. Purchases were also on a large scale in some of the recognized leaders especially Studebaker.

Lower money rates and higher sterling contributed to favorable sentiment. Maxwell and Pierce-Arrow motors, Electric storage battery, Postum Cereal, Lorillard, Manhattan, Consolidated Gas and Cuba Gas were bid up one to three points.

Cash money eased two three and one-half per cent. The closing was irregular; sales approximated 1,900,000 shares.

BOVOLOPUS STILL UNSUBDUED AFTER THURSDAY'S EVENTS

WILD STEER IS ALMOST RIDEN BUT NOT QUITE—BIG CROWD ATTENDS.

NEW BULLDOGGING RECORD IS HUNG UP

Jim Massey Downs Steer in Less Than Ten Seconds—One Accident Thursday.

The untamable, unconquerable wild Brahama steer, Bovolopus, is untamed, unquenched and unridden. Ben Johnson roped and tied a calf in 10-2-3 seconds.

Jim Massey crossed the wire, left his mount and threw a steer in the bulldogging event in 9-4-8 seconds. Kenneth Cooper barely noped out a victory over Rufe Hogan in the wild horse race.

Duffey Mapes, photographer, attempted to take an action picture of the bucking tragedy as he left the chute. Tragedy made a run for the picture machine and the camera and Mapes both took a ride through the air.

Delbert Bledsoe fell between his mount and the wild steer he attempted to throw in the bulldogging event and he was rushed to the hospital in the waiting ambulance, with a badly wrenched knee.

Over 1,500 people watched the 20th anniversary of the scene that were common in the days of yore on western ranches.

These were the outstanding features of the second day of the annual round-up and rodeo at Athletic park Thursday afternoon.

Tommy Douglas, almost conquered the untamable Bovolopus, who has never been ridden. Five more seconds and he would have left the grounds with honor but as it so happened he left with a bruise on his shoulder as this was the first part of his anatomy that struck the ground, 18 feet to the left front of the plunging long-horned animal.

Florence Hughes and Bea Kirnan stuck to their wild mounts as they came out of the chute. Both women riders were severely on their knees as the referee's whistle blew.

Tommy Kirnan, Bob Olsen and Chet Byers drew rounds of applause as the opening number in their fancy roping. All three men demonstrated clearly the art of roping.

Kenneth Cooper exhibited the "nick-titiveness" of a cow boy when he freed the steer from the man with the exception of one hour. Cooper stuck to the horse as the steer drove him around in front of the grand stand.

Once he got both hands on the horn, only to be thrown a second time and after being dragged 20 more feet he was compelled to let his animal go.

WOMAN IS FINED $25 FOR ALLEGED ATTACK ON KELLEY

Mrs. Nora Hejper was found guilty of the charge of assault and battery in the county court at law Thursday evening and fined $25. It was alleged that she assaulted O. B. Kelley, recent candidate for mayor.

A blood stained rock, which Kelley testified absolutely fit into the rear window of his car, was exhibited in the court room. The defendant pleaded that she was present at the time the assault took place but that she took no part in it and that the party who threw the rock, ran down the street. No one knew who the party was.

2 FIRES THURSDAY CAUSE $2000 LOSS TO LOCAL BUILDINGS

Two fires late Thursday afternoon and night, one said to have started from an overheated flue and the other from a gas explosion, caused property damage of well over $2,000 to local buildings.

The first blaze broke out in the Wichita-Potato-Chip factory at 1108 Ohio avenue shortly after 8 o'clock and caused considerable damage to the roof before being subdued. The flames were discovered under the eaves just above a stove pipe and it is supposed that heat from this was responsible for the trouble.

A heavier loss, one that will run between $1,500 and $2,000, was sustained at 8 o'clock last night when the one-story house at 2105 Eighth street, occupied by Robert Whitlock, was gutted by fire. The owner of the place, a relative of Mr. Whitlock, is said to live in Graham.

One room at the rear of the structure was a total loss while heat, smoke and water caused considerable damage to the other portions. The flames were confined to the interior and for this reason the property damage did not at first appear to be as heavy as it really was.

No one was at home when the fire started, but neighbors reported to firemen that a gas explosion had been heard, a few minutes before the flames were discovered.

Thursday's fires were the first of any consequence that the local fire department has been called on to combat in three weeks' time.

He laid particular stress on much-needed government economy, criticized many of his co-workers in congress and exhibited specimens of poker chips and whiskey flask which he charged were sold out to members of congress at government expense on their stationery allowance.

He also made favorable comment regarding his sister, Miss Annie Webb Blanton, who is in the race for the unexpected term of Lucien W. Parrish from the 13th district.

ANOTHER BUSY DAY FOR POLICE FORCE ARRESTS TOTAL 68

RAID ON HOTEL NETS CITY AN AGGREGATE OF $465 IN FINES.

MAYORALTY CANDIDATE SUCCEEDS IN DEFENSE

O. B. Kelley Dismissed On Reckless Driving Charge—Other Cases Numerous.

A total of 68 arrests, including 21 vagrancy cases taken from a local hotel late last night, were reported by police as being the fruits of their labors between 9:00 o'clock Thursday morning and the same hour Friday. Altogether it was the busiest day and night the department has had since the boom days.

The hotel raid which netted the 21 vagrants on a swoop was the most important case undertaken. The raiding party, headed by Chief of Police J. W. McCormick and composed, besides himself, of State Ranger Koonman, City Detectives Shook, Belcher and Johnson and Night Sergeant Ebbout, went through the holsters from top to bottom, collected the quota of vagrants which included a number of women and incidentally with a gallon of whiskey found in various rooms.

This latter detail was attended to by Shook and Ebbout who accidentally stumbled on the vagrants. Three men believed to have had it in their possession put up cash bonds of $75 each at the city hall and were released, the officers being of the opinion that it would be impossible to prove a case on the trio. None of the three have been seen since.

Of the 21 vagrants, 19 paid cash fines of $10 each and the other two were fined $25. Thus the city coffers were swelled a total of $465 by this one raid alone. The Friday morning police court session also contributed heavily as a large per cent of the cases brought for trial resulted in conviction and fines. O. B. Kelley, candidate for mayor in the last municipal election and who has had more than an average share of trouble with the law since that time, successfully defended himself in a reckless driving charge brought by a local physician. The case was dismissed for lack of evidence, according to the court report.

Other cases, usually conducted here a dozen drinks and the usual number of traffic violations.

ROAD MAINTENANCE BEING PAID FOR BY INTEREST ON FUND

AUTOMOBILE LICENSES ADD OVER $50,000 ANNUALLY TO THIS ACCOUNT.

INTEREST LAST MONTH $1182, EXPENDITURE $947

County Treasurer Reports Total of $185,072 Remaining in Road Maintenance.

The cost of road maintenance in Wichita county is being paid for by the interest on the money in the road fund, according to the county treasurer's figures. For the month of April, the county treasurer was credited with $1,182 interest and the entire cost of the road maintenance equid for material and labor amounted to but $947.

The county proportionate part of the money received for automobile licenses amounts to approximately $50,000 annually and officers of the county are confident that with this yearly addition to the fund that the cost of maintenance of the concrete and all improved roads can be paid for with the interest derived from this fund.

County Treasurer Tom McHam reports that a total of $185,072.91 remains in this fund.

Many people who opposed the construction of concrete roads in the county voiced their objection in the direction of the high cost of maintaining them after the original cost. County officials are confident that the total annual expenditure of keeping the concrete roads in good condition will not amount to over $12,000.

There is a move on foot to resurface the entire Fryberg road from one end to the other with money of the maintenance fund. It is estimated that this will cost in the neighborhood of $14,000.

The money that is harbored in the maintenance fund can be used for no other purpose than the maintenance of improved roads.
