HAD JUST DELIVERED AN ADDRESS AT MEMORIAL UNVEILING. TWO ASSAILANTS ARE PLACED UNDER ARREST

LONDON, June 22.—Field Marshal Sir Henry Hughes Wilson was shot and killed outside his house on Eaton palace, London, this afternoon.

Apparently he had just returned home when the tragedy occurred. The field marshal delivered a speech at the Liverpool street station in connection with the unveiling of the war memorial.

At a few minutes after this, however, it was reported he had died. A policeman who was near him at the time of the shooting was wounded.

At a few months ago Field Marshal Wilson accepted an appointment as military adviser to the Uster government and made frequent visits to Uster. He spent most of his time in London, however, attending the home of common.

The Central News account of the tragedy says Field Marshal Wilson was stepping from his automobile a few minutes after 2 o'clock this afternoon when two men suddenly appeared and opened fire upon him with revolvers.

The names of the two men arrested were given as "Cohnally and McBrien." With the Wilson assassination as their immediate motive, the assassins were taken to the house of common tomorrow to obtain a statement from the government.

The victim staggered and nearly fell. He was then seriously wounded. Four policemen rushed up. The assassins turned their weapons on the officers.

WILL BE HELD IN APRIL INSTEAD OF DURING THE SUMMER. REFLECT GENERAL CARR AS COMMANDER IN CHIEF

RICHMOND, VA., June 22.—The program for the closing day of the thirty-second annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans included a parade with the veterans of three wars participating and the laying of the cornerstone of the Matthew Fontaine Maury monument with a ball tonight as the final event.

Asserting the states of Mississippi, Texas, the Carolinas and Louisiana were now using histories "fair to the south," the report declared that the "young children of the south" will be taught that the Civil war was "deliberately and personally conceived" by Abraham Lincoln and that he was "personally responsible" for forcing the war upon the south.

General Julian Carr of Durham, N. C., was selected commander-in-chief and New Orleans was selected as the reunion city in April, 1923.

RICHMOND, VA., June 22.—Weary and happy, the men who fought for the south in the war between the states, after passing through the streets of their old capital in a long and colorful procession, today were ready to turn their backs on the city.

Along the way buildings, large and small, and many of the heart of the south and fired the heart of the soldier in '61 and '65.

As the procession was passing Monument avenue on which stands the famous statue of Lee, Jackson, Stuart and Davis, the motor vehicles in which the veterans rode paused, as if in respect to their great leaders.

CLEVELAND, June 22.—John L. Lewis, president; William L. Green, secretary of the United Mine Workers of America, were in conference with W. E. Carter, president of the Brotherhood of Firemen and Enginemen here today.

HERRIN, ILL., June 22.—Sounds of occasional shots were heard early today from the direction of the mining camp near here where striking union miners surrounded the camp in which approximately 100 non-union workers are quartered.

It was reported that 46 of the prisoners were being brought here, but several hours after the report was received they had not arrived.

It was not known whether the strike was still in progress, but late yesterday and ended as darkness set in, had been resumed. The shots and explosions were heard hourly by residents of surrounding towns. The shots continued intermittently as the morning wore on.

Telephone communication between this city and the camp is cut. HERRIN, ILL., June 22.—Three union miners are known to be dead (Continued on Page 7, Column 4.)

HERRIN, ILL., June 22.—A check-up at noon today made by the Associated Press showed 26 known dead and indications that the total would be more than 30 in the hostilities between striking union miners and employees of the strip mines of the Southern Illinois Coal company here.

Bodies were spread over an area 15 miles square, some of them riddled with bullets, others beaten to death and three hanging by ropes from trees. An Associated Press correspondent, after 10 ineffectual attempts today, finally persuaded a taxicab driver to take him to the scene of the fight. The strip mine had been fired and a freight train on a siding was burning while miners looted several cars of food supplies.

Out in a road near the mine six men tied together and terribly mangled by bullets, lay on the ground in a scorching sun, while hundreds of men and women laughed at their pleas for water made in the name of God. "Please, boys, give me a drink," he moaned.

A laugh from the hundreds of spectators was the only reply. "The correspondent rushed to a house for water, and when he returned he was faced by a sword, a club, a drawn pistol, and told to keep away." "When the men begged again for water "for God's sake," a young man placed his foot on the mangled body and said: "I'll see you in hell before you get any water."

in District Drops.

Another producer was added Wednesday to the new southeast extension of the South Electra pool when the No. 2 well of Kollman, Bailey et al was drilled into the sand at 1217 feet and began showing for a well as good as No. 1, which has been making around 165 barrels.

The No. 2 well is a southeast offset to No. 1, both being in section 8 of the John and Jeff Waggoner ranch.

F. F. Hunter's test in the same vicinity is down to 1,350 feet and is expected to be the next completion in this district. E. D. Harper's well is down 150 feet.

New Sand Looks Good.
The new and accidentally discovered sand in K. M. A. district in the Bankers Petroleum well in block 31 is good for about 300 barrels a day, it was estimated Thursday, after the well had made several additional flows. This sand at 1,531 feet was discovered earlier in the week when, while casing was being pulled preparatory to abandoning the well, a shot was administered to dislodge the pipe. The well started flowing from the upper sand. Arrangements were being completed Thursday to put it on the pump.

Although a number of other K. M. A. tests picked up the same sand, it was generally neglected in that vicinity starting other tests to the shallower sand, so that a resumption of activity is promised to relieve that district's long period of quiescence.

Production Slightly Off.
After registering continued gains for a number of weeks, the district's production registered a 1,000 barrel drop this week, the total being around 142,000. Figures by districts are:

Burkhardt	11,500
Electra	17,700
Kemp Mungler	2,400

SCHOOL DISTRICT VALUES TO BE ON SAME BASIS

School district valuations this year will be substantially the same as those of the city, the school board has decided, it no longer being necessary to use a higher basis of assessment.

J. M. Bland, J. N. Prethro and M. J. Gardner have been designated as the school district's board of equalization for the year.

A meeting of the board was scheduled for Thursday afternoon, at which time plans for the new high school, recently received from the architect, will be gone over in detail.

WEEKLY SHOOT TO BE HELD FRIDAY AFTERNOON

For the first time in several weeks, the weekly gun club shoot will be held at the regular hour—4 o'clock Friday afternoon. Recently the events have been held in the forenoon since the Spudders were playing at home and while the attendance has been all that could be desired, many who have been unable to get away from their work in the mornings will be on deck in the afternoon.

The sliding scale handicap, whereby the nimrod handicap themselves by the number of targets they break will be used again. This method of determining the winner of the weekly trophy has proved very popular with the members since the weak shooters have as good an opportunity of annexing the spoon as the strong.

FOR FAIR THIS YEAR;
$91,000 NOW PLEDGED

Indorsement of the plan to hold the first Texas-Oklahoma fair this fall, probably early in October, and election of a board of directors, were features of the meeting Wednesday night of the fair association stockholders at the Kemp. Directors elected were: George Keith, N. C. Chennutt, W. E. Norton, J. A. Kemp, G. C. Wood, T. B. Noble, E. S. Goodner, Judge W. M. Moore, W. P. Ferguson, R. M. Waggoner, W. P. Weeks, W. D. Cline, Frank Keil, Will Daniels, F. P. Timberlake, C. H. Verschoyle, J. F. Boyd of Iowa Park, R. H. Henry of Burk Burnett, W. C. Young of Archer City, E. M. Friend of Electra.

The directors will meet early next week to elect officers and complete organization formalities. The association's capital stock is $100,000, of which $91,000 has been subscribed; efforts to obtain the remainder are being made and it is hoped to complete the list shortly. Several of those present Wednesday night increased their earlier subscriptions, and the good news came from Archer City that $1000 had been subscribed there.

A committee headed by George Keith was at work at Iowa Park Thursday.

The decision to hold a fair this year was reached after some discussion, in which it was agreed that a start should be made without further delay. Negotiations for the Call Field site will probably be closed by the directors early next week.

NEW LAW SEVERE BLOW TO THE DRUG
TRAFFIC IN THE U. S.

EL PASO, TEXAS, June 22.—Signaling of the amendment to the Harrison narcotic act by President Harding was the severest blow ever dealt the drug traffic in the United States in the opinion of federal officers here.

The amendment stops the legal exportation of drugs from the United States to Mexico, which is not a member of the opium conference. Mexico has been the source of a big percentage of the supply of narcotics used illegally in the United States, because the narcotics act did not forbid the exportation of drugs

Common Sense
About Eczema
and Eruptions!

Here's Something About E. S. S. That You'll Be Glad to Hear.

You might just as well know it right now—the cause of skin eruptions, pimples, blackheads, boils and so on, is right in the blood. There is no getting away from it. Science has proved it. We prove it. You can prove it.

Let E. S. S. Give You An Angelic Skin! Common sense to simply treat the skin. A bottle of E. S. S. will prove to you what is happening in your blood. E. S. S. is a scientific blood cleanser—it drives out the impurities which cause eczema, leather, rashes, pimples, boils, blackheads, blotches and other skin eruptions. When these impurities are driven out, you can't stop several very nice things from happening. Your lips turn naturally rosy. Your eyes sparkle, your complexion clears. It becomes beautiful. Your face looks like that of a prosperous, ruddy, well-fed, refined gentleman, or if you are a woman, your complexion becomes the real kind that the whole world so admires. E. S. S. is also a powerful body-builder because it builds new and more blood cells. That's why it fills out sunken cheeks, bony necks, thin limbs, helps regain lost flesh. It costs little to use and this good thing is sold at all drug stores, in two sizes. The larger size is the more economical.

from the United States into Mexico, the officers said. Ninety per cent of all narcotics confiscated along the border were manufactured in the United States, shipped to Mexico illegally and smuggled back, according to federal officers here.

"Mexican purchasers bought them from the American manufacturers and dealers and smugglers saw that they were brought across the line and distributed back in the United States," explained William S. Wood, agent in charge of the narcotic law enforcement squad in El Paso.

Anybody in Mexico could send a draft to some American manufacturer of drugs and have his order filled with cocaine and morphine.

"Next to America, France supplies the most drugs to Mexico, Germany next and then Switzerland."

"While the amendment will help stamp out the traffic, it will have other effects. Within two months narcotics will jump in retail price. The burden will fall upon the individual drug user."

"I am of the opinion that while the amendment will go a long way to check the use of the drug, it may result in a crime wave in certain sections of the country, at least."

El Paso, however, and other border cities are not likely to have a crime wave because they are close to Mexican towns. The addicts can go across the river and buy the stuff at nearly the old price.

The penalty under the amendment is double that under the former act. A person selling or possessing the drugs is now subject to a term in prison of not more than ten years and a fine not to exceed $5,000.

Under the amendment, possession is sufficient to warrant conviction.

Mr. Wood said the work of enforcement of the law on the border would be a little more difficult from now on, but that he believed the department was prepared to meet the demand. Five more men will be assigned to the El Paso enforcement squad alone, he said.

No Other Tire Tempts Goodyear Users There are still thousands who think that one tire is much like another. But the largest single group of tire buyers in America evidently does not think so.

The proof of this is, that they continue to buy one Goodyear equipment after another, year after year.

If they did not prefer Goodyear Tires to any others, they would surely be tempted away by the special deals offered on scores of other makes.

Goodyear branches, Goodyear Service Station Dealers, Goodyear salesmen all say the same thing—that these customers buy, and buy, and buy again.

They firmly believe in Goodyear quality and Goodyear features, because they have found that they make these tires go farther, last longer and so cost less in the end.

There are Goodyear Service Station Dealers in Wichita Falls where Goodyear users can get Goodyear Tires and Goodyear Service. Go to any of them, when you want Tires. Take advantage of the economy and satisfaction they offer you.

Wear Firestone

The Kind That Cuts Mileage Costs

Mileage—the basis of wise tire-buying—is the measure of wear a tire gives.

Firestone Cord construction has shown to hundreds of thousands its uniformly superior wear. And a vast following recognizes the fact that Firestone Mileage is the most economical to be bought today.

This is because Firestone has refused to sacrifice any manufacturing process, no matter how difficult, that meant added wear for the user.

Firestone Cords are built oversize with extra bulk of rubber and cord. The great strength of carcass for which they are famous is the result of double gum-dipping the cords, and curing under internal expansion on air-bags to align and straighten the cords instead of on the ordinary iron cores. Easier and cheaper methods might have been used, but only at a loss of mileage and dependability.

Firestone Cords give these plus values without additional cost to you, because large-scale production, thorough organization and exceptional facilities have effected big economies.

No wonder Firestone Cords give such mileage. Double gum-dipped air-bag cords—and every Firestone Cord is an air-bag. Note the cross-section in the illustration—the greater bulk of rubber and cord—of a Firestone as compared with an ordinary tire. Look before you buy—you are entitled to the most miles per dollar—and you get it in the Firestone Cord.

MAY ELIMINATE THE 'FARMING OUT' ISSUE FROM STRIKE BALLOT

HEARING TO OPEN MONDAY IN EFFORT TO SETTLE CONTROVERSY.

SEVEN CASES HEARD AND DECISION EXPECTED SOON

Railroad Executives Continue to Express Belief There Will Be No Strike.

By Associated Press. CHICAGO, June 22.—Removal of one of the three issues on which railway employes are taking their strike vote was in prospect today following announcement by the railroad labor board that hearings will open Monday on the contract controversy in which thirty roads are charged with "farming out" work contrary to the board's orders. Seventeen contract cases against various roads have been heard by the board and decisions are expected soon. In the case against the Indiana Harbor Belt railroad the board ruled last month against the "farming out" system and indicated the same general principles would be followed in future decisions. Posting of pending cases for an early hearing brought the possibility that one of the chief grievances in the strike referendum would be wiped out before it can be made a real issue. E. M. Jewell, head of the railway employes department of the American Federation of Labor, prepared today to assume active command of the headquarters where strike ballots are being tabulated as they are received so returns can be turned over to the general committee of ninety which is expected to start the canvass Sunday. Railroad executives continued to express belief that there will be no walkout next month despite the declaration by union leaders that a suspension will be authorized if the rank and file of the rail unions favor a strike.

APPEAL TO EMPLOYEES TO VOTE AGAINST A STRIKE. SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—In an appeal to shop and maintenance of way employes of the Southern Pacific, J. H. Dyer, general manager, yesterday asked for a vote against any proposed strike on "whether the railroad should be run by the right to contract their shops to outsiders and whether or not you will abide by the United States railroad labor board decision for a reduction in pay."

FOUR MEN AND WOMAN ARRESTED IN KANSAS HELD IN OKLAHOMA. WICHITA, KAN., June 22.—Four men and a woman arrested at Muskogee, Okla., in connection with the murder of Turner G. Tucker, Wichita taxi owner, near Augusta, Kan., last week, were in the Butler county jail at Eldorado today. E. W. Zickfover, Wichita chief of detectives, and Newt Purcell, Butler county sheriff, arrived with the prisoners late last night after a 250-mile automobile drive from Muskogee. The prisoners are said to have been taken forcibly, without the institution of extradition proceedings.

ELECTRA YOUTH IS DROWNED IN LAKE; BOAT IS CAPSIZED

ELECTRA, TEXAS, June 22.—The eleven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. More was drowned about 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, when a boat in which he was riding overturned in the municipal lake four and a half miles north of town. The young man, in company with other boys, had gone to the lake to ride and swim. A pulmotor was used for some time in an effort to resuscitate the youth, but without avail. The body had been in water about 40 minutes when it was recovered. Funeral services will be conducted in the local cemetery Thursday afternoon.

HAVANA NEWSPAPER SEVERELY ARRAIGNS THE UNITED STATES. HAVANA, June 22.—La Nacion, an afternoon newspaper, today launched another bitter attack against the United States. The attack printed on the first page under a seven column head, declared that "hated of the American must be our new religion."

ELECTION IN CORK TO BE INVALIDATED TAMPER WITH VOTE. CORK, June 22.—The north, west and south Cork elections will be invalidated, it was announced today, because when counting of the votes began this morning, it was seen that they had been tampered with. DUBLIN, June 22.—Cork county is the only district from which election returns are not complete, but it is known that Michael Collins heads the poll with three votes necessary to win. Labor candidates are expected to win two seats, displacing treaty opponents. Of the 113 seats already made public, five are held by Sinn Fein panel candidates favorable to the treaty, 33 by panel treaty opponents, 15 by laborites, six by independent farmers and the remaining four by Trinity college members. Attention is now turned to the fate of the draft legislation when it comes before the new house and to the future development of the various distracting influences.

LABOR FEDERATION ADOPTS LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM FOR 1922

By Associated Press. CINCINNATI, June 22.—By an overwhelming vote, the American Federation of Labor convention today adopted a program centering around four proposed constitutional amendments, repeal of the Sherman anti-trust law and other legislation as the means of curbing the courts on account of decisions adverse to labor. The program was drafted by a special policy committee and accepted without change by the convention. The election of officers of the federation was set for tomorrow morning and at that time the seat for next year's convention will be selected. Houston, Texas, and Atlantic City, N. J., are the only cities that have submitted invitations to the convention which will be held in October, 1923.

GOVERNMENT OF GREAT BRITAIN IS AGAIN DEFEATED. LONDON, June 22.—The government was defeated today in a financial amendment to the national health insurance bill in grand committee of the house of commons today. The committee immediately adjourned in order that the government might consider its position. The government was defeated yesterday in the house of lords on a question of the Palestine mandate. The amendment was carried against the government by a vote of 23 to 14. The defeat is considered in political quarters as of no greater importance than which occurred in the house of lords yesterday and is likely to lead to modification of the government's policy.

THREE ARE DEAD RESULT OF RAID ON MOONSHINE STILL

ALBANY, ORE., June 22.—Three bodies torn by gunshot wounds were brought here today. They were those of Rev. Roy Healy, pastor of the First Christian church of Albany; Sheriff C. M. Kendall of Linn county, and Dave M. West, 76 year old rancher and trapper. Their deaths were the result of a raid on West's moonshine still yesterday afternoon by Sheriff Kendall, accompanied by the Rev. Mr. Healy. The sheriff and minister were shot and instantly killed by the rancher who, after barricading himself in his house and holding off a posse four hours, crept from the building when night came and ended the episode by blowing off the top of his head with his rifle.

MINE OWNERS IN OKLAHOMA PROPOSE OPEN SHOP BASIS

OKMULGEE, OKLA., June 22.—Encouraged by the recent decision of the United States supreme court holding that union organizations are liable for property damage wrought by their members during labor troubles, Oklahoma coal operators have launched a movement to reopen coal mines of the state on an open shop basis. Announcement was made here last night that the Oklahoma Coal Operators association would meet in McAlester Friday to discuss plans for starting up the mines without an agreement with the striking union miners. It was understood the operators plan a general opening up of the coal fields and will look to the state to prevent any possible outbreak, using the Oklahoma national guard, if needed, to maintain order.

Circuses Held by Shriners Now Big Amusement Factor

The Shrine circus idea, which originated at Detroit two years ago, has developed into one of the stellar attractions of the country, according to information given out at local Shrine offices, as follows: "Around the corner and up the stairway on Scott street at Tenth street, the Shrine circus is in the house of lords yesterday and is likely to lead to modification of the government's policy. The Shrine circus is an honest to goodness affair and furnishes the highest class of entertainment at the lowest prices. Every act in the big top will be a feature attraction and in most cases has been the act or feature at some previous Shrine circus. "The idea of a Shrine circus originated at Detroit, Michigan, two years ago. Motion Temple assembled several good high class circus acts during the winter months and the affair went over so big that they have made it an annual event. This year it lasted for two weeks and they could not take care of the crowds. Hundreds were turned away every night. Early in the afternoon and evening pedestrian traffic was blocked for several hundred feet waiting for the people to clear the box office. The same condition obtained at Louisville, Ky., when Kolar Temple held their circus despite the fact that the armory building has a capacity of 13,000 people. Maskat Temple band and patrol are offering $5 high class attractions in the big top. Outside of the regular circus camouflaged the big top circus when completed assembled will be better than any of the larger shows. "More bill board advertising has been put up in this section of the country than is ordinarily used by a circus for a week's stand in a

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Charity gives itself rich; covetousness hoards itself poor. —German proverb.

HOSTS OF GRAY RAPIDLY PASSING.

The Denison Herald notes that the thirty-second annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans is being attended by less than four thousand followers of the stars and bars, revered flag of a republic that rose and fell, notes the Denison Herald which comments as follows:

"From a throng of many thousand when the organization was launched, attendance upon its annual reunions has dwindled to a mere handful, so to speak, and even these their tottering forms and feeble steps betoken the mutations of time and reminds that ere many cycles have joined the accumulation of past years such gatherings as are held must be under auspices of and conducted by the sons and daughters of those who yet survive as well as their comrades who have passed over the river and rest under the shade of the trees. Into their keeping will be committed a heritage of priceless value—that of keeping alive forever and aye the sacred principles for which their fathers struggled and fought and which were not altogether lost, albeit the tide of battle turned against them.

"It was appropriate that the reunion should this year be held in Richmond, around which centers largely the history of the confederacy. Perhaps many of those who incurred risks of physical discomfort and even taxed their physical strength to the breaking point in order to attend the gathering, were in the army that defended the city when it was besieged. To them it will be in the nature of a home-coming—for did they not fight as gallantly in its defense as they would have for their cabins in the woods when invaded by enemies or strangers? No other city in the south arouses sentiments of such tender significance in the breasts of confederate veterans as does Richmond, and since this will probably be the last time the hosts of gray will ever assemble in the capital of the confederacy from which its leader was forced to flee before the overpowering army of Grant, the occasion will be made memorable by recollections of the past as well as the generous hospitality accorded by citizens who have not forgotten and who will never forget.

"The fifty-seven years that have elapsed since the southern cross sank at Appomattox finds the nation more firmly united than it was before the division was brought about. It has been proven that time is a wonderful healer of wounds, a skillful subduer of passions and an effective remover of prejudices. In no part of the south nor in the heart of no southerner does the bitterness and hatred born of the war between the states survive today. From the stars and bars which for a short time floated over a proud and chivalric people, we turn with patriotic admiration and love to the stars and stripes, emblematic of liberty and of freedom, not only accepting but proclaiming it to be representative of the greatest nation on the face of the earth. Twice since the south fought against it, have sons of the south fought and died beneath its folds that the principles for which it stands might be perpetuated. No chasm separates the south from the north now, Mason and Dixon's line is but a memory—a tradition. And while the battle-scarred heroes of a cause lost though just meet in annual reunion to go over the scenes and events of the struggle in which the brave sons of America participated on opposing sides, they will yield to no man in bestowing praise upon the government and in loyalty to its institutions. And their sons and daughters will continue to assemble from time to time after their fathers shall have passed into the great beyond not only to pay just tribute to their memory, but to keep sacred the glorious principles that animated them and led them through four years of tragic war."

SECRETARY WEEKS' BOLD DECLARATION.

We must admire Secretary Weeks' courage even if we doubt his discretion. A few days ago the Secretary attacked the primary method of nominating candidates and yesterday he assaulted the Volstead act.

Even before his declaration about the Volstead act Senator Capper had declared that Mr. Weeks act to resign as wholly out of sympathy with the administration. What he will say since Secretary Weeks' attack upon the Volstead act can only be imagined.

"The people want beer and light wines, and if I were in congress they would have them," said Mr. Weeks. "I have found a general sentiment in favor of an amendment of the Volstead act. I am in favor of a modification of the law. I believe it is the cause of most of the unrest today."

As said, this is a bold declaration. The storm is doubtless breaking in congress as this is written.

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

YOUR LITTLE DEVILS.

Your real enemies are your little Devils—those silent, unseen little fellows in the garb of gloomy and sulky moods, fear, gossip, lying, mistrust, discouragement, cynicism, that hang to your heels and follow you, irritate you,adden you. It is they who block your success, when you allow them to stay with you.

Your first and biggest task each day is to start off right by ridding yourself of your little Devils. For otherwise, if you give them an inch they will seek to take miles—and all your smiles!

The little Bad Mood Devil that takes you into your day with a grouch over some trivial thing—the Shrug-Shoulder Devil that seeks to cast a slur upon a character—the little Mistrust Devil that sits impudently at conference when your judgment and courage should be alone—away with them all! Their increasing-powers that grow from day to day so long as you let them hang around, sap and suck at your very lifeblood, your independence, your happiness.

Your biggest task each day is to start off right by ridding yourself early of your little Devils. Don't allow them to deceive you. They wear false faces, they smile smoothly. Also, they speak softly sometimes. But be on guard. They will follow you from place to place, but if you are brave and calm enough, ever self-controlled, your little Devils might as well not exist—you won't need to fear them, because they won't be able to see you.

BALANCING LIFE.

Pile it up, the sin and shame, Filth and care and strife; Count the crooks who play the game, Heard the worst of life All together in a heap, Toss the vices in, Tawdry, shallow men and cheap, Villains dyed with sin, Picture all the grief and gloom, Anguish and despair, But above it all will loom Lasting beauties rare.

Cynic, I will match you here Joys for every woe, And a smile for every sneer Proudly will I show, Show your women false and base And I'll show to you Many a sweet and tender face, Brave and good and true; 'Gainst your heap of what is bad, Vice and shame and wrong, I will balance evenings glad, Glad with mirth and song.

I will bring you faith to cure All the stings of woe, Strength and courage to endure Fate's untempered blow; For the tawdry men you've found At life's ragged ends, I will match you, round by round, With a host of friends, Sin and shame and hurt are here, Failure, vice and care, But the world at which you sneer Still is wondrous fair.

DE WUS TROUBLE BOUT RUSHIN' DE MAN WHUT YOU TRYIN' T' DO BIZNESS WID, HE'S LIABLE T' KETCH YOU ON DE CHIN, COMIN' IN!!

Men catch cold more easily than women, also tend more to keep their noses running. The average man, bundled up in winter like an Arctic explorer, wonders why women can dress so lightly in the coldest weather without getting chilled to the bone and dying of pneumonia.

Easily explained, says Dr. Dudley A. Sargent, head of Sargent School for Physical Education of City College.

His explanation is that women are protected by a layer of fat over their blood vessels. Men lack this protection. Hence have their blood circulatory system nearer the skin.

Individuals vary. Sensible plan is to dress, at all times, so you are comfortable—neither too warm nor too cold.

DRINKS

Deaths by alcohol in New York City, doctors report, are four-fifths fewer than in the old saloon days.

New York police said that arrests for public drunkenness were less than a third as many as in 1919.

The national situation is similar. But still there are people who believe that "there's more drunkenness than ever before." The wish is father of the thought. The dyed-in-the-wool wet has himself hypnotized on the liquor question.

FAILURES

The two principal reasons for failure in business are lack of ability and lack of capital. Alexander Maurocaddo tells this to a convention of representatives of 200 of the country's leading department stores.

From this expert counsel, the man who wants to get into business for himself learns the wisdom of selecting the business for which he is best fitted by nature, also not biting off more than he can chew financially.

Success is largely a matter of getting into the right job. Many lawyers, for instance, should be blacksmiths. And many blacksmiths should be lawyers.

By tackling the wrong job—or the right job at the wrong time.

PRICES

An upward movement in prices is now "distinctly visible the world over," says a report by National City Bank.

In America, average wholesale prices have been on the up-grade for a year. The climb is slow, with an occasional slip-back.

Whether this secondary period of inflation will be permanent is doubtful. The world-wide price rise, however, has a silver lining for the consumer: It means that business recovery is world-wide, which is a healthy sign.

Prices rise with confidence. They fall with fear.

SYSTEM

In Canada, 300 Ojibwa Indians started an "experiment" to save land which they claimed under an old treaty.

Not many years ago, such an uprising was a serious matter. This particular war, however, is called off because the Ojibwas find themselves unable to finance it. The white man has stolen the forest, the best source of food for wandering fighters.

The Ojibwas, like the rest of us, are caught in "the system." They are fighting their regular life—union farming.

COIN COBS

Coin cobs are being turned into automobile fuel, also a hard-rubber substitute used for phonograph records, pipe stems, varnish, buttons and electrical parts.

This commercial alchemy happens not in Germany, famous for its utilization of by-products, but right here in America. It is the result of six years of research by La Forge and Mainz, chemistry experts of the department of agriculture.

Chemical engineering is one of the biggest fields open to young men today. It is the modern Aladdin's lamp.

LEARN A WORD EVERY DAY.

Today's word is MORON.

It has not yet been long enough in use to appear in the dictionary, but usually is pronounced more-or-less with the same syllables almost equally accented.

It means—a man or a woman who is mentally deficient, but above the mental grade of an idiot, an adult with a child's mind, a neurotically mature, whose mental growth stopped at the age—generally so placed—of 8 to 12.

It comes from —Greek "moros," fool.

It's used like this—"A moron, neglected, is a danger to society, but with proper training, he may become a contented and useful laborer."

There are fewer foreign-born farmers in the south than in any other section of the country.

HATS

Men and boys wear hats for protection and because other men and boys do, while ladies and girls wear them because they think they make them look better, which sometimes is so.

Men buy their hats in a hat store, while ladies get theirs in a millinery shop to sound more expensive, which it is. When a man buys a hat he tries it on and if he likes it he takes it, but when a lady buys a hat she tries it on and when she does she takes it, and then she don't know which one to take and often don't. Men's hats only have a few shapes, but there is no shape a lady's hat can't be and often is.

Nothing looks funnier on a man than a too big of a hat except a too small of a one. The only thing that makes a too small of a hat look funnier is when it blows off. All hats that blow off look funny especially when they blow off in a public place, on account of making 2 things to laugh at instead of one. Proving the more the merrier.

Boys' hats are generally cap and on the other hand they hide their bald heads. Proving a fair exchange is no robbery.

Boys' hats are generally cap and are useful in different ways such as to play Baby in the Hat with and to hunt for wen you don't want to go on an errand too suddenly.

SWAT THE FLY

By DR. R. H. BISHOP

If there is a fly in your home, keep constant vigil against flies. Any fly may carry the germs of infantile paralysis. True, the cases in which flies have proved to be the carriers of the disease are few. Still, no risks should be run.

Generally infantile paralysis passes directly from the sick to the well person, yet it may be transmitted by a third, who has been in contact with a victim.

The early symptoms, as a rule, are weakness, irritability and vomiting. Later there is pain in the back, neck, arms or legs, accompanied by great rigidity of the muscles. In a few days, these are known as abortive cases. They, however, are as infectious as the others. If paralysis is to occur it usually appears from the second to the fifth day.

The germ or tiny virus of the disease is present in the discharges from the nose, throat and bowels of patients. It may also be present in the noses and throats of healthy children in the same family. Thus it is necessary to keep the children of a family in which there is a case of infantile paralysis away from other children.

All cases of infantile paralysis must be reported to the local department of health, which then placards the house.

During an infantile paralysis epidemic it is well to observe certain rules.

The house or apartment should be kept absolutely clean.

LODGE INVINCIBLE IN MASSACHUSETTS WRITES SULLIVAN

NOT A CHANGE TO BRING ABOUT HIS DEFEAT FOR SENATE.

STATE IS PROUD OF THE RECORD HE HAS MADE

Rumors of Possible Defeat Only Found in Comment Distant From Scene.

By MARIC SULLIVAN
National Political Correspondent of the New York Evening Post and Wichita Daily Times.

BOSTON, MASS., June 22.—Every once in so often you read in newspapers for distant parts of the country that the political party in Massachusetts is going to elect a Senator. It is not going to be the big figure of the party, but the little figure of the party. It is not going to be the big figure of the party, but the little figure of the party. It is not going to be the big figure of the party, but the little figure of the party.

SULLIVAN
In all this kind of talk there is more hope on the part of the national democratic leaders than there is in the minds of the national republican leaders. Here on the ground in Massachusetts, as things stand today, you can't figure out any way that Lodge can be beaten. Only something unforeseen happening between now and November can give the democrats the faintest chance of retiring Lodge.

There are plenty of persons in Massachusetts, and many of the good people and important people, who disapprove of Lodge for his course on the league of nations, but most of them will vote for Lodge in November just the same. What good would it do them to replace Lodge with a democrat when everybody knows that the republican organization in this state is more anti-league of nations than Lodge himself?

For that matter, the league of nations is not cutting any figure in the present political thought of this state. In Washington and New York and elsewhere it has been widely printed that Lodge's opponents were going to beat him by making use of another candidate, ex-governor Samuel W. McCall. There was never anything in that. McCall, himself, never gave any countenance to it and never had any real thought of becoming active in the campaign. If McCall had determined to run in the republican primaries against Lodge he would not have received one vote in five. The republican organization is completely satisfied with Lodge and will be for him with a strength that no outsider can overcome.

The only strategy that could possibly endanger Lodge would be to persuade McCall to run on an independent ticket in November. In such an event McCall might get enough republican votes to give victory to the democrats. But no one can expect McCall to do that. He is a man who has spent almost a whole life time as a republican governor. He is not going to end his career with a spite candidacy that could have no possible outcome except to help the democrats. Lodge is pretty near invincible in Massachusetts. The state thinks of him, with his 30 years in the senate, as its most distinguished public figure and the best going to come from such in Massachusetts. The democrats haven't anybody they can nominate, who even faintly approach Lodge in the public opinion of the state. If ex-President Wilson should take a personal hand in the effort to beat Lodge, as he has in the case of the league of nations, that is the temper of Massachusetts.

If the other democratic leader, Mr. Cox, should come into Massachusetts to speak against Lodge, that affair would help Lodge. If the affair should turn out to be unimportant to Massachusetts, it is not likely it will, the Massachusetts republicans will say Lodge is not to blame.

They will say that Lodge would have made a good tariff if those wicked western farm bloc republicans had let him. In short, the length and the shining of his public career have given him an invincible hold on Massachusetts. You could not more dislodge Lodge than you could dislodge Wood from the statehouse wall. There will be candidates and a fight for the democratic nomination, but that is not the future of Massachusetts. The future of Massachusetts is in the hands of the men who are fighting the battle of Uster. I do hope there will be no further doubt in the minds of any man about what Uster is up against. The battle is not for us alone but for the empire and if anything is needed to steel the nerve and heart of Uster it is that fact.

CRISIS OF 'SHAM' MEET NEWS OF THE KILLING
By Associated Press.
BELFAST, June 22.—News of the sham meeting in the Uster parliament of the assassination of Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson, which was held in the Uster parliament building, places beyond argument the existence of a wide conspiracy against the men who are fighting the battle of Uster. I do hope there will be no further doubt in the minds of any man about what Uster is up against. The battle is not for us alone but for the empire and if anything is needed to steel the nerve and heart of Uster it is that fact.

SIR HENRY WILSON SHOT AND KILLED

Field Marshal Sir Henry Hughes Wilson was former chief of the imperial general staff of the British army. He retired from this post early this year. He stood for parliament as a unionist candidate for North Down, Ireland. He was elected member for this Uster district on February 21 and shortly afterwards was appointed premier of the Uster government.

The field marshal went to Belfast from England early in March with plans for restoring order where it was submitted to the premier. While the choice of Field Marshal Wilson as premier was a gratification measure was favorably received in Uster, it had a contrary reception in southern Ireland. The former British chief of staff was regarded there as a man who had been in the south that he would be strong in sympathy with the Orange side of the factional feud.

Reports from Houston state that the Richey meetings were well attended there and that God performed the healing through the faith of the patient.

FEDERAL RESERVE BANKS HAVE PLAN TO FURTHER LOWER REDISCOUNT RATE

WASHINGTON, June 22.—Lowering of the five per cent rediscount rate of the federal reserve bank of Minneapolis, Kansas City and Dallas was said today at the treasury to be expected as a result of what was regarded as a general reduction from the present level now under way in the rest of the system.

DENIES OPERATORS PLAN TO GO ON AN 'OPEN SHOP' BASIS

MALESTER, OKLA., June 22.—J. R. Wilson, president of the Oklahoma Coal Operators association, denied today that Oklahoma coal mine operators contemplated opening mines in this state on an open shop basis as reported last night following an information conference of four officers of the association at Okmulgee. Mr. Wilson attended the meeting and returned to his home here today.

Mr. Wilson added, however, that Oklahoma markets are rapidly being encroached upon by coal from non-union fields of Alabama, Florida and Kansas and some steps may be taken to obtain a conference of district operators and miners at an early date to negotiate a settlement of the strike.

UNION MEN FIGHT STRIKEBREAKERS

and nearly a score of men wounded as the result of an open fight between striking union miners and non-union men employed by the Southern Illinois Coal company at its strip mine six miles east of here, which broke out late yesterday and continued until darkness influenced its cessation.

Unverified reports were that more than 12 men were killed in the pitched fight at the mining camp of Carterville and May, near the scene of the trouble, in an attack on a truck carrying non-union men to the mine, which occurred near Carterdale. It was impossible to verify these reports because of confusion at the camp.

Joe Pitchovic, a union miner of Herrin, died in a local hospital early today, after being seriously wounded in the fight. The other dead man is Jordan Henderson, also of Herrin, who was killed in the action. His body was brought in an undertaking establishment here.

TWO CABINET MEMBERS DISCUSS THE SITUATION

WASHINGTON, June 22.—Reports of bloodshed in fighting between union and nonunion miners near Herrin, Ill., today brought a conference between Secretaries Davis and Hoover, the two cabinet members who are watching the coal strike situation for the administration. It was understood that no action was decided on.

FARRINGTON REPEATS TO DISCUSS HERRIN TROUBLE

CINCINNATI, June 22.—Frank Farrington, president of the miners' union of Illinois, who is attending the labor convention here, refused today to discuss the labor trouble at Herrin. Mr. Farrington was asleep in his hotel room and when awakened he refused to be interviewed, however, to make any comment.

WILL LEAVE FOR HERRIN TO ACT AS PEACEMAKER

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 22.—Senator William J. Sneed of Herrin, the only "union man" in the constitutional convention, announced at noon today that he would leave immediately for Herrin to act as peacemaker.

DENY RESPONSIBILITY FOR HERRIN TROUBLE

CINCINNATI, June 22.—Phillip Murray, vice-president of the United Mine Workers, commenting today on the mine troubles at Herrin, Ill., said his organization denies any responsibility for the trouble.

President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor said as he understood press reports from Herrin the firing first came from within the mine stockade and it was then that the miners returned the fire.

"Organized labor," said Gompers, "does not countenance any such acts from either side."

"The strike is on far too high a plane for violence to have any place in it."

Commenting on reports that a message from President Lewis of the miners had been received at Herrin terming the miners at work there as "common strikebreakers"

BLAMES PRESIDENT OF ILLINOIS COAL COMPANY

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 22.—Blame for the open warfare between union miners and sympathizers and the steam shovel workers in the Herrin district today was placed upon W. J. Lester of Chicago, president of the Southern Illinois Coal company in a statement issued by William J. Sneed, president of the Herrin district of the United Mine Workers.

NO REPORT RECEIVED FROM ADJUTANT GENERAL

WAUKESHA, Ill., June 22.—Governor Len Small said this afternoon he had no reports from Adjutant General Black indicating the riots in the Herrin coal field were serious or that the death list is large.

When shown reports that the death toll exceeded 20, the governor said: "I believe that is not possible in view of my reports from General Black, but if it is true, then Atterbury General is doing a very good job of the man responsible for keeping me here at this time, away from my affairs as governor."

SHERIFF IS REQUESTED TO EXPLAIN SITUATION

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 22.—Sheriff Melvin Thaxton of Williamson county, was called upon today by Adjutant General Black to say what measures he had taken to protect life and property at Herrin. The general called attention to press reports of 26 killed and to the further fact that no appeal for help had been received here.

CALOMEL SALIVATES EVEN WHEN CAREFUL

Trencherous Drug can not be trusted and Next Dose may Start Trouble

Calomel is dangerous. It may salivate you and make you suffer fearfully from soreness of gums, tenderness of jaws and teeth, swollen tongue, and excessive saliva dribbling from the mouth. Don't trust calomel. It is mercury, quicksilver.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you will take Dodson's Liver Tonic you will wake up feeling great. No salivation necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and can not salivate.—Adv.

COUNTY WOULD GET $25,000 REVENUE BY TAXATION OF NOTES

CHIEF DEPUTY ASSESSOR ANDERSON MAKES STATEMENT.

REFERS TO REPORTS OF HIS ACTION IN MATTER

Says $2,000,000 Worth of Taxable Notes Disclosed by Search of Records.

Chief Deputy W. R. Anderson of the county tax assessor's office has prepared a statement on the vendor lien notes taxation question which is addressed to the citizens of Wichita county and follows:

"It has been reported, so I have been informed, that I am responsible for the county commissioner's court placing vendor lien notes on the tax roll. The facts are as follows:

"The commissioners employed a young lady and instructed her to work under the supervision of the assessor's office, I being in the office all the time, it developed upon me to instruct her as to her work. The greater portion of her time was spent in the county clerk's office where she secured the information wanted from the filings for record. In this manner about two million dollars of vendor lien notes were assembled during the first five months of this year.

"In order that the public may understand the matter, I will state that this or similar work has been carried on by the court for more than two years. However, so far as I know there were no partial reports made to the court, and some members of the court expressed themselves as doubting whether or not it was a paying proposition and for this reason a partial report of the work was made by me. The notes that were so listed would have produced approximately $25,000 in taxes.

"I also explained to the court that it was a matter for them to see whether it was proper to tax the notes. I informed them that it would produce enough money to pay the expenses of the assessor's office for about two years. Now, if the above statement of facts, which are the facts and all the facts can be construed by the unbiased person to place the responsibility on me, I will accept the responsibility.

"In conclusion I brand the matter as a deliberate evasion of the burden of taxation by a class who are more able to pay than the class upon whose shoulders they have succeeded in shifting the burden. I further claim and rightfully so, that I am a 100 per cent. American and I believe in the enforcement of all the laws. No man can be consistent and advocate the enforcement of a law against his fellow man and claim for himself the right to be exempt nor can he expect others to obey the law that he tries to evade. It looks bad and it is bad.

"If the law is bad and unjust, the proper course is to have it repealed but to abide by it so long as it is on the statute books of the state should be the matter of every 100 per cent. American. To do otherwise is to adopt the methods of those who claim that the laws of society are unjust and refuse to abide by them.

"The burden of taxation in this city and county is already very heavy and it is now necessary that we vote more school bonds which is an absolute necessity. Every friend of the public schools should go to the polls and vote for it.

"Our schools are only a small part of our tax burden. Just now, there is some talk of an amendment to our city charter by which they can raise the tax rate and that seems to be about the only solution. But the question that we voters are most interested in is it more money or more economy?"

DOUBLE HEADER AND SHRINE PRODUCTION AT BURKBURNETT

A double header baseball game at Harding park, Burkburnett, next Sunday, June 24, at 2:30 p. m., is going to cause intense excitement.

Preparations are being made to take care of a large crowd of visitors, as a great many from Wichita Falls, Iowa Park and Electra have already signified their intention of being there.

The Magnolia Petroleum company and the Burkburnett city team will play the first game, following which a seven inning game will be played by the Burkburnett Shrine club vs. the Burkburnett business men's team. A great many tickets have been sold for the occasion and with each ticket the promoters are giving away a gate ticket to the Shrine circus to be held in Wichita Falls, July 1 to 8.

Cap Ramsey, who is general yard master of the Katy at Burkburnett, has been extremely busy all week seeing that the tickets are properly distributed.

The Burkburnett Shrine club has leased the Liberty theatre and will give a home talent production on June 28. It is understood that the show will be a very high class nature and that several of the star home talent performers of Burkburnett and Wichita Falls will take part in the play. A special feature between acts will be the Shiek dance, under the direction of Miss Ruth Nolen of Wichita Falls. The same company of six girls which entertained the Shrine men at their ceremonial on May 23 will perform for the Burkburnett folks.

Tickets for this home talent play are now being sold and with each ticket for the show a gate ticket for Maskat Temple circus from July 1 to 8 is being given free.

Burkburnett has always cooperated with Wichita Falls in every undertaking and, with the completion of the paved highway, the two cities will be hand in hand. It is expected that a great many Shrine men and their ladies will motor to Burkburnett to attend the show on July 28.

FIRE DESTROYS UNOCCUPIED HOUSE IN HIGHLAND HEIGHTS

A small four room house in Highland Heights was destroyed by fire about 10 o'clock Wednesday night.

The house was some little distance from other residences and about three blocks from a fire plug. It had practically burned to the ground before water was available.

Fire department officials were trying Thursday morning to ascertain the ownership of the house.

Judge Dismisses Mrs. Taylor's Case; Defendant Weeps

Mrs. Roy Taylor gave way to tears in the city court room Thursday morning after a charge of distributing circulars on the streets had been dismissed by Police Judge Chauncey.

With a bundle of the circulars in one hand, and a $5 bill in the other, Mrs. Taylor confronted the court when her case was called, and said that she had read the ordinance since being arrested and that she was guilty, she went on to say that circulars had been distributed on the streets ever since she could remember and that she had never heard of anyone else being arrested. She had not known that it was against the law, she said.

"A man told me if I sent a boy out with the circulars he would be arrested, so I thought if anybody had to be arrested, it had better be me," she told the court.

Patrolman Marks told of arresting Mrs. Taylor at the corner of Seventh and Scott, after he had telephoned the city hall for instructions in her case. Taylor accepted one of the red-linked circulars; he said he didn't.

City Prosecutor Gipson suggested that the case be continued, with a view to dismissing it.

"Let's settle it now," said Mrs. Taylor. "I want to get it over with. You don't need to keep on persecuting me."

She agreed that no more circulars would be distributed.

In view of the fact that you did not know you were violating the ordinance and have promised not to violate it any more, the case is dismissed," said Judge Chauncey.

Mrs. Taylor began crying, and was struggling vainly with her emotions as she left the court room.

The circulars which Mrs. Taylor was giving out when arrested dealt with the recent conflict between herself and police department and with the move, in which she is an active part, for the recall of Police Commissioner Fitts.

It was another light day in police court, only four cases being up for trial. There were only five on Wednesday.

"TINCTURE" SHOWS EXCESSIVE KICK, SELLERS WARNED

The practice of selling tincture of Jamaica ginger as a non-intoxicating beverage by several business places in the city will be stopped and the offenders warned, according to Police Commissioner Fitts.

This decision was reached after the city health department made tests of this "tincture" and found it contained 24 per cent alcohol. Doctor Douglas of the health department said that this drink is purely alcoholic beverage. Sellers of this tincture of Jamaica ginger were arrested a few weeks ago, but were dismissed when they claimed the drink they were selling was non-intoxicating. Following this the police authorities had tests made of the supposed non-intoxicating tincture.

Several arrests are expected to be made Thursday afternoon.

Hire a Policeman May be Plan for Increasing Budget

"Hire a policeman" may soon become the slogan here.

With the city forced to reduce the police budget to $2,500 a month, according to Mayor Collier, and with $4,000 a month needed for the department, according to Police Commissioner Fitts, civic organizations which are interested themselves in the matter are considering calling on the public to contribute to the police budget.

The committee from the University club and Lions' club have been looking into the budget matter, and it was reported Thursday that some of the committee members are asking the public to help out with private donations to the police fund.
