RAIL AND UNION HEADS SUMMONED BEFORE BOARD STRIKE ORDERS MAILED TO CHARMEN OF SIX SHOP CRAFTS

CALL CONFERENCE TO DISCUSS RELIEF ORIENT RAILROAD

GOVERNORS OF THE THREE STATES AFFECTED ARE INVITED

THREATEN A SUSPENSION OF OPERATIONS BY ROAD

Call for Meeting Issued by the Chairman of the I. C. Commission

CHICAGO, June 29.—The Kansas City, Mexico and Orient railroad will not suspend operations July 1, W. T. Kemper, receiver for the road, announced this afternoon. The receiver plans to renew his petition to the railroad labor board and hopes to obtain a hearing next week, he said.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—Chairman McChord of the interstate commerce commission today wired the governors of Arkansas, Oklahoma and Texas, asking them to meet with the commission in Washington July 17 for a conference on the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient railroad, which now is in receiver's hands and is threatened with a complete suspension of operations after July 1.

Representatives of the railroad commissions of the three states were all expected to attend the gathering.

Chairman McChord's message to Governors Allen, Kean and Neff of Texas declared "The Orient railroad situation is so serious that vigorous steps must immediately be taken if it is to be continued in operation."

GOV. ROBERTSON WILL ATTEND IF POSSIBLE

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 29.—Governor J. E. A. Robertson said today it was uncertain at present whether he would be able to attend the conference July 17 at Washington with the governors of Texas and Kansas, called by Chairman McChord of the interstate commerce commission to consider the situation of the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient railroad. The governor said that if other official duties permitted he would make an effort to be there.

GOVERNOR NEFF TO ATTEND OR SEND REPRESENTATIVE

AUSTIN, June 29.—Governor Neff will attend the conference called by Chairman McChord of the interstate commerce commission concerning the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient railroad to be held in Washington on July 17, according to his statement this morning.

AMARILLO SHOP CRAFTS HAVE RECEIVED NO ORDER

AMARILLO, June 29.—None of the shop crafts in Amarillo has received the strike orders issued by shopmen's union officials today in Chicago, according to advices from local union officials. About 500 of the men employed in Santa Fe, Rock Island and Fort Worth and Denver shops here in the crafts affected by the strike order.

GORDON ACQUITTED OF MURDER CHARGE BY OKLAHOMA JURY

STILLWATER, OKLA., June 29.—Bart Gordon of Miami, Okla., a federal vocational student at Oklahoma A. and M. college here, was found guilty of the murder of Beckham Cobb of Birmingham, Ala., a classmate, by a jury in district court here today. Cobb also was under vocational training and was killed on the college campus May 9 while he was said to have been forcing Gordon to accompany him to his home to apologize to Mrs. Cobb for an alleged insult.

BROWNSVILLE ESCAPES CREST OF THE FLOODS

BROWNSVILLE, June 29.—The crest of the greatest Rio Grande flood on record here never reached Brownsville, according to irrigation engineers, who are unable to account for the fact that in the face of record stages everywhere upstream, gauges here did not reach within a foot of the high water mark. While the river continues to recede slowly it is not expected to return to banks for two weeks.

PASS THE NAVAL TREATY SEND TO PRINCE REGENT FOR HIS RATIFICATION

TOKIO, June 29.—The privy council today passed the treaty adopted at the Washington arms conference and submitted it today to the prince regent for ratification. The council's approval includes the provisions for the disposal of ships apportioned to Japan disadvantageous to the empire and requested the government to use greater care in the future.

GRAND JURY FINDS NO INDICTMENTS IN GEN. BLANCO CASE

LAREDO, TEXAS, June 29.—The Webb county grand jury, investigating the recent death of General Blanco, formerly of the Mexican army, and two others on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande today reported on its inquiry, but returned no indictment, and referred the case to the next grand jury.

ARREST MEN WHO ASSASSINATED THE GERMAN MINISTER

LONDON, June 29.—The men who assassinated the German minister, Dr. Walter Rathenau, last Saturday, have been arrested, according to a Central News dispatch from Berlin.

FOUND GUILTY OF USING THE MAILS TO DEFAUD

OMAHA, June 29.—Jack Mase, Harold Wohlberg, both of Los Angeles, W. G. Chipley of New York, and W. A. McWhorter of Houston, Texas, were found guilty of conspiracy to use the mails to defraud in connection with promotion of the William Berg Potash company of Omaha, each was sentenced to two years in the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan., and fined $10,000 by Federal Judge T. C. Minger of Lincoln, Neb., today. It was announced an appeal would be taken.

TELEGRAPH BULLETINS

WASHINGTON, June 29.—Postmaster nominated today include Omer K. Benedict at Tulsa, Okla.

LOS ANGELES, June 29.—F. J. Flynn, said to have been a member of the crew of the Merrimac which was sunk during the battle of the Philippines, died here today.

GALVESTON, June 29.—James Grace, 19, of Cleburne, was drowned while bathing in the Gulf here this morning. Red Cross life savers dragging for the body had not succeeded in recovering it up to noon.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—A duty of 24 cents a gallon on milk, as compared with the one cent raise in the house bill, was approved today by the senate, 45 to 18, after a two hour fight.

BATON ROUGE, La., June 29.—A bill to prevent the operation of handbooks on race horses was defeated in the house of representatives last night. It was announced a motion for reconsideration would be made.

URGES ADOPTION OF THE FREILINGHUYSEN TARIFF AMENDMENT

PLEA IS MADE BY PRESIDENT OF MANUFACTURERS ASSOCIATION

WOULD PROVIDE FOR TARIFF COMMISSION

Most Complete Answer to the Demand of Public, States Speaker

CHICAGO, June 29.—J. Phillip Bird, president of the Manufacturers' Association of New Jersey, speaking today to the National Grange and Farm Bureau Federation convention here, urged the endorsement by those organizations of the Freilinghuyzen amendment to the pending tariff bill.

Senator Freilinghuyzen's amendment would provide a permanent tariff commission to determine tariff rates on the basis of the difference between conversion costs here and abroad. Mr. Bird said in part: "In writing a protective tariff to the United States owes a duty not only toward its own people, but also to the peoples of the world who must not be unfairly discriminated against. The protective tariff should be high enough to insure protection to every phase of American business, including labor, agriculture, mining and industry, but it must not be so high that it acts as an embargo against the normal progress of our foreign trade both of imports and exports."

"For years there has been a public outcry both from republicans and democrats against our system of tariff making. Today the outcry has swelled in volume until it has become almost an insistent national demand that we shall be non-partisan and as expert in levying tariff duties as we are conducting our other great national and international affairs."

"The amendment to the present tariff bill, sponsored by Senator Freilinghuyzen, I believe, the most complete answer yet made to this demand. It sets up a permanent and expert tariff commission, the members of which are to be placed there above personal or political considerations."

HEAVY DAMAGE TO COAL MINES IN THE STATE OF COLORADO

DENVER, June 29.—Two mine dikes were burned, one coal mine flooded, and two railway bridges wrecked, in Colorado, coal fields in Boulder and Huerfano counties during the night, according to reports of Colorado state rangers to headquarters here today. It was announced by Governor Shoup today that he would send a party of rangers to determine what measures are to be taken, Colonel Hamrock stated.

WOULD RECRUIT FORCE OF COLORADO RANGERS

DENVER, COLO., June 29.—Adjutant General Patrick J. Hamrock announced today that he would seek permission from Governor Shoup today to recruit the force of Colorado rangers from 200 to 1,500 and, if necessary, to mobilize the state national guard to control any riotous activity arising out of troubles in the coal mining districts last night. The adjutant general will confer with the governor late today. It was announced.

GERMAN MARKS AT THE LOWEST LEVEL KNOWN IN HISTORY

NEW YORK, June 29.—German marks today reached the lowest level in history here, being quoted at a fraction under .027, or the equivalent of 100 marks for less than 27 cents. The mark's normal value before the war was about 24 cents.

CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES PASS RECRUITING BILL

PARIS, June 29.—The chamber of deputies today passed the recruiting bill, which fixes the period of active service in the army at eighteen months. The vote was 466 to 202. The bill now goes to the senate.

OPERATORS AGREE TO A CONFERENCE WITH THE MINERS

WASHINGTON, June 29.—White house officials at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon said acceptances had been received from the bituminous and anthracite coal operators and from all union officials who had responded up to that hour to President Harding's invitation for a joint meeting at the white house Saturday of the two parties to the nationwide strike.

CRUTCHES DISCARDED AT RICHEY SERVICES THURSDAY MORNING

"Put up your hands and ask God to come into your heart," Raymond T. Richey, healing evangelist, pleaded to over a thousand people who crowded the Palace theater Thursday morning to see a work of wonder performed.

"Come down and give God a chance," the evangelist asked. Nearly a hundred young and old "left the faith" before the altar, repenting of their sins and asking to be saved. The choir sang "Take Me As I Am" very softly, while Reverend Richey prayed over the sinners.

After praying earnestly the healing ceremonies were started. One young woman was brought on the altar in a cot and after a few minutes prayer she arose and walked across the platform without any assistance whatever. The audience cheered loudly as this work of wonder was performed.

Another young woman, a thin emaciated figure, was brought forward on a cot. The young lady was suffering from tuberculosis and could not speak. The evangelist asked that the entire audience pray for this poor girl, as she could not speak herself.

One man who said he had been dead in one ear for 49 years walked away after being prayed over, saying that he could hear perfectly without aid.

Another man who does not live in Wichita Falls, suffering from paralysis, walked off the rostrum while waving his arms, saying that he had been completely healed through the work of Jesus Christ.

Crutches were discarded and the owners walked from the theater without any help whatsoever.

A. J. Richey, brother of the evangelist, gave a few remarks upon the altar. He admonished the audience that it must have faith in Jesus before any person could be healed.

"Don't let the devil build up a wall of indifference around you," he said. "The devil comes around and tempts you, he even tempted Jesus. The only way you can escape the howling storms of temptation is by faith in Jesus Christ."

PROTESTS ACTIVITY SPECIAL GRAND JURY REVENUE AGENTS IN CAMPAIGN IN OHIO STARTS INQUIRY INTO MINE WAR JULY 10

WASHINGTON, June 29.—Charles L. Knight, member of the house from Ohio and a candidate for the republican nomination for governor in that state, today made public a letter to Secretary Mellon charging that deputy internal revenue collectors in Ohio had received orders from their superiors to work for the nomination of Carmi Thompson for the gubernatorial nomination.

The Ohio representative said he had documentary evidence to support his statements which he was willing to place in the treasury secretary's hands.

"If indeed this flagrant violation of justice is allowed to go unrebuked and unpunished," Mr. Knight's letter said, "the conclusion will be inescapable that the time has arrived when at least one department of the government proposed through its agents to interfere with and influence the people to elect high state officials of its own selection. Neither Ohio nor the United States is yet ready to adopt this pro-consult theory of government."

M'CURBER SAYS FACE OF RETURNS INDICATE DEFEAT

WASHINGTON, June 29.—Senator M'Curber, republican, North Dakota, said today that on the face of early returns from the North Dakota primary he appeared to be defeated.

Apparently from the early returns the early lead given will be overcome when returns come in from the county precincts, said the senator. He added that he would not finally concede his defeat, but it was leaked that in private conferences with republican colleagues he had said that he regarded his defeat as a virtually certain.

FARGO, N. D., June 29.—For re-election an senatorial nomination, 561 precincts gave M'Curber 34,823; Frazier, 27,544.

FARGO, N. D., June 29.—Returns from 124 precincts out of 264 for the republican senatorial nominations give M'Curber 18,691; Frazier 6,779; McHarg 491.

FARGO, N. D., June 29.—With Senator Porter J. M'Curber leading nearly 2 to 1 in the senatorial contest returns available early today from the Fargo Courier News, official organ of the non-partisan league, declared the nomination of John J. Frazier for the senate and the success of the entire league state ticket "seemed assured."

The claim was based on an apparent gain of 25 per cent in the vote cast in the larger cities of the state where the independent strongholds were and early indications that the rural vote would come more nearly up to the recall election last fall.

Independent leaders were withholding definite claims.

Governor R. A. Nease, independent endorsed candidate for re-nomination on the republican ticket, had a lead of nearly 24 to 1 over his nearest opponent, H. P. Baker, non-partisan, with rural precincts not yet counted. The "clean up" candidate, also sought the gubernatorial nomination.

Besides M'Curber and Frazier, the republican senatorial nomination was sought by Ormal McHarg, formerly private secretary to M'Curber. McHarg's vote in early returns was negligible. Only the returns from the senate and gubernatorial contests had been tabulated early today.

FORTY AMERICANS GET FREEDOM BUT NEW RAID STAGED

MEXICANS WITHDRAW FROM CAMP BUT THREATEN TO RETURN.

SEIZE 85 EMPLOYEES OF AN OIL COMPANY

Of the Number Now Held, However, Only About Six Are Americans.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—Mexican rebels who seized the Aguada camp of the Cortes Oil company in the Tampico region Sunday, holding the property and 40 American employees for 14,000 pesos ransom, withdrew on Monday without damage or injury to the employees but with threats to return, Consul Shaw at Tampico today advised the state department.

The department received a later message, however, which said the same rebels yesterday seized a camp of the La Corona Oil company, a Dutch-British concern, in the same vicinity, and were holding 85 employees, including about six Americans.

The dispatch did not indicate whether ransom had been paid in the case of the Aguada camp which is an American owned concern. On the strength of the second message sent last night the state department directed the embassy in Mexico City to make new demands on the Mexican government for protection of the Americans employed by the Dutch-British company.

OREGON SAYS REPORT IS ABSOLUTELY BASELESS

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—President Alvaro Obregon of Mexico in a telegram to the San Francisco Chronicle last night said that news from Tampico of Americans held captive by bandits was "absolutely baseless." He characterized the dispatch "as only one of the many malicious deeds to create unfavorable opinion between the two nations."

The Chronicle telegraphed to President Obregon asking for a statement as to conditions at Tampico and the truth of reports of Americans held for ransom. His answer read:

"As chief executive when I received your dispatch I knew that the news to which you allude is absolutely baseless and is only one of the many malicious deeds of persons whose intentions are inimical to the interests of Mexico. However, to satisfy public opinion, I telegraphed to the chief of operations at Huasteca for complete information. I herewith submit the telegraphic communication:

"General Guadalupe Sanchez, Chihuahua: "I see that newspapers in the United States publish in scandalous form a report from Tampico announcing that 40 Americans have been taken captive and held for ransom from the camps of Aguada de la Cortes Oil company by the bandit Goroave and although I feel positive that this report is one of the many painful means used by the agencies of Mexico to bring about difficulties between the two governments and to create animosity between the two nations, I want your official advice for submission to the press.

"Alvarado Obregon." His reply: "Chihuahua, June 28, 1922. "The President of the Republic: "No Complaint Made.

"Up to the present time no agency or any oil company has presented complaint in regard to the taking prisoner of 40 Americans. I made inquiries of General Juan Caselana, superintendent of the Cortes Oil company, who was in the barracks yesterday afternoon. He informed me that rebels had been near Aguada la Pluma and El Rosalillo camps, I immediately ordered General Fortias to proceed to the vicinity of those camps with orders to pursue and run down the enemy. I am sorry that owing to the long distance from the camps I have not the knowledge that other individuals who are in the neighborhood may have.

"Guadalupe Sanchez." "A later communication follows: "President of the Republic: "I have the honor to inform you that there has just arrived here from Osnalima an automobile containing General Pasunco, two officers and three troopers, having passed through La Aguada, La Pluma and El Rosalillo. They report everything is normal.

"Guadalupe Sanchez." "The above replies from the chief of operations tend to the certainty once more that there are powerful operations at work to great unfavorable opinion and animadversion between the two nations with no other object than to satisfy their own interests.

"A. Obregon."

Conservative Jazz The Popular Motif In Men's Clothing

PHILADELPHIA, June 29.—"Conservative jazz" will be the popular motif in men's clothing for next year, according to an edict of the International Association of Clothes Designers in convention here.

A number of the designers are apparently determined that knickerbockers for men shall come into more popular use not only in recreation, but in the business office as well. These men are wearing knickerbockers at the convention and are making speeches in behalf of the abbreviated trousers.

"Conservative jazz" clothes, it is understood, will fit rather snugly, but will not be considered extreme. Innovation designers are trying to put over an evening suit for summer wear. This consists of a black mohair tuxedo jacket and white flannel trousers. The designers thus attired will bring their convention to a close next Saturday night.

ORGANIZE TO BUILD BRIDGE OVER RIVER NORTH OF CHARLIE

CHARLIE, TEXAS, June 29.—Some of the citizens of Charlie and Petrolia met at the Baptist church Monday afternoon for the purpose of organizing a Charlie bridge company, to build a bridge across Red river, north of Charlie, on the Henrietta, Charlie and Fort Hill old military road.

The movement met with great success. The company was organized, and the few present from Charlie community subscribed $15,000. Capital stock to the amount of $50,000 will be required, and it is thought that it will take only a few days to complete the subscriptions.

This is one benefit resulting from the approval of the good roads bonds, which amounted to $160,000. Work will begin at an early date on both the roads and the bridge.

Among those present at the meeting were H. W. Perkins, Felix Webb, Roy Fuiks and John Geriand of Petrolia, and A. H. Bevering, J.

PLAN FOR WALKOUT OF 400,000 MEN

of Labor. It is up to the railway executives at their meeting today. They can stop this strike today or tomorrow, but after Saturday at 10 o'clock, it is all off.

The general committee of ninety general chairmen today were the way to their home districts to take active charge of the strike. A sub-committee remained at headquarters to direct operations.

While union heads refused to discuss the strike call, it was said a statement would be issued later in the day.

Executives to Meet. The general committee of ninety general chairmen today were the way to their home districts to take active charge of the strike.

Members of the Association of Railway Executives under the chairmanship of T. DeWitt Cuyler, to whom the shogmen's ultimatum was addressed, were to meet here today in response to a call issued several weeks ago, but the program of their conference was not announced.

The text of the strike order follows: "In compliance with the strike vote, all shop craft employees below the rank of general foremen, are hereby granted sanction to suspend work for a day on all railroads and pulman shops in the United States. Notify all outside points. Wire number responding and answer remaining at work."

(Signed.) "William H. Johnson, International Association of Machinists. J. M. Kline, International Brotherhood of Blacksmiths, Drop Forgers and Helpers of America. J. A. Franklin, International Brotherhood of Boiler Makers, Iron Shipbuilders and Helpers of America. J. J. Haynes, Amalgamated Sheet Metal Workers International Alliance. James F. Noonan, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers. Martin F. Ryan, Brotherhood of Railway Carmen of America."

Railroad officials anticipated news of further strike orders to maintenance of way employees upon completion of the canvass of their strike vote at Detroit.

In spite of the impending walkout officials declared transportation would continue to be maintained by train service employees who constitute the "big four" brotherhoods, switchmen and telegraphers are not parties to the canvass over wages and working rules.

The shogmen's strike is in protest against the wage reductions, the abolition of rules by the railroad lay board and the farming out of shop work to contractors. Maintenance of way men balloted solely on the wage reduction.

WELGRAMS ARE SENT TO MEMBERS OF CRAFT

CHICAGO, June 29.—The first actual step toward a strike of railroad workers in protest against decisions of the general labor board, was taken last night when W. J. Kline, president of the International Brotherhood of Blacksmiths, Drop Forgers and Helpers, sent a telegram to the members of his craft numbered among the shop workers authorizing a cessation of work at 10 o'clock Saturday, July 1, according to newspaper stories published here today. Workers in the Pullman shops were included in the order.

The impending walkout makes Saturday a momentous day in the railroad world. On that date the $400,000,000 cut in freight rates ordered by the I. C. C. becomes effective simultaneously with a slash of $125,000,000 from the wages of railway workers ordered by the United States railroad labor board. The pay of the shogmen was cut $60,000,000.

BROTHERHOODS WILL NOT DO WORK OF THE STRIKERS. CLEVELAND, June 29.—Engineers, firemen and trainmen members of the railroad brotherhoods with headquarters in this city, will continue to perform their regular duties and will not take the places or do the work of any railroad employee on strike in connection with the strike of the shop crafts called for Saturday morning, chiefs of the brotherhoods advised the members of their organizations today.

Warren S. Stone, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and William G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Trainmen, issued instructions to this effect to all members of their organizations today.

In the absence from Cleveland of W. S. Carter, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, officials of firemen's headquarters announced they had agreed with President Stone to send a joint message of instructions to engineers and firemen.

STRIKE ORDER RECEIVED BY DENISON EMPLOYEES. DENISON, TEXAS, June 29.—Strike orders affecting six crafts were received here today by O. J. Shoemaker, general chairman of the Brotherhood of Carmen on the Katy railroad. The order calls upon the carmen, electricians, machinists, boiler makers and sheet metal workers to suspend work at 10 a. m. Saturday. About a thousand members of the six crafts here will be affected by the order.

WILL DECIDE WHETHER STRIKE WILL BE CALLED. DETROIT, MICH., June 29.—Decision whether to call a strike of the approximately 400,000 railroad maintenance of way men in the country probably will be made late today. E. P. Grable, International president of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Railway Shop Laborers, announced today.

GOREE BOOSTERS ADVERTISE THE BARBECUE-PICNIC TO BE GIVEN AT THAT PLACE ON JULY FOURTH

GOREE, TEXAS, June 29.—Goree has planned to have a barbecue-picnic on July 4, beginning at 9:30 a. m. and lasting until 11:30 p. m. They are expecting the biggest day the city has ever had and extensive plans have been made to entertain all who will attend.

The advertising committee has left nothing undone and have perfected their whole duty in advertising the program and the date. On last Wednesday morning about 50 people started out in 12 automobiles, including the Goree band of 30 instruments to make a booster trip over the district. Rev. C. O. Davis of the First Methodist church of Goree and Hon. E. L. Covey agreed to act as speakers for the day and each took their turn at the different cities visited to tell the plans of the picnic and give to each town and community a warm and friendly word on the Fourth of July.

Lomarton was the first city on the program and the citizens were notified by the booming horns of the automobiles that the boosters were entering their city and began flocking to the business center where the band played and the speech making took place. It was only 9 a. m. when the boosters arrived but at that early hour the town was alive with warm and bustling and a warm welcome was given the boosters.

At Lomarton the party was joined by a representative of The Wichita Daily Times who continued the trip with them through the remainder of their journey. They arrived at Seymour at 10:15 a. m. which was schedule time. Seymour was expecting the boosters and had made elaborate plans to welcome them. Hon. I. O. Newton gave a welcome address to the visitors and in response Hon. E. L. Covey spoke in behalf of the boosters, welcoming Seymour to the city of Goree. Refreshments were served by the chamber of commerce to the entire party and Seymour promised to attend the picnic in squad formation.

Red Springs was reached at 11:45 and here Rev. Davis made a historic speech that furnished the boosters amusement for the day. Lunch was served at Vera under the spreading roof of a large tabernacle which furnished shade. The ladies of the party had looked well to the preparation of the feast and all were fed from the tables which almost groaned from the burden placed upon them.

A short stop at Vera business section was made and the usual program of music and speech making was had. The people were very appreciative and rousing cheers were given the visitors. Benjamin was the next stop and the entire city came out to greet the boosters who returned drank the fountain dry at all the drug stores and cold drink stands and wound up on good old cistern water from the court house cistern.

Arriving at Knox City and still on schedule time the boosters were greeted with much applause and the citizens promised to come to the picnic and help make the occasion a success. Monday was last on the program and the greeting was very special and E. Duval of the First State bank welcomed the visitors to the city, and promised to bring the people of Monday to the picnic.

They reached home tired, worn out and duty from the long trip. The band played a last concert and dispersed amid the cheers of the home people.

treacherously assailed by recent Irishmen," says the proclamation. "The crash of arms and the boom of artillery reverberate in this supreme test of the nation's destiny."

"Gallant soldiers of the Irish republic stand firm in their defense and worthily uphold their noblest traditions. The sacred spirits of the illustrious dead are with us in this great struggle. Death before dishonor being an unchanging principle of our national faith, as it was of the Irish, they still inspire us to emulate their glorious efforts."

"We especially appeal to our former comrades in the Irish republic to return to that allegiance and thus guard the nation's honor from the infamous stigma that her sons sided her foes in retaining the hateful domination over her."

Richard Mulcahy, dall member of defense, in a message to the free state troops, says: "In Dublin some of you find yourselves today ranged in fighting against some who have been your comrades. The immediate reason for this is the seizure by their of your assistant chief of staff, Lieut. General O'Connell, as reprisal for the arrest of one of their numbers on charges of selling motor material, the property of a Dublin trader."

"Let us remember our comradeship and standing firmly by our duties, today with a steadfastness not less than that of yesterday."

VIGOROUS CENSORSHIP MAINTAINED IN IRELAND. LONDON, June 29.—Owing to the vigorous censorship in Ireland information reaching London today on the situation was rather scanty. Little is known of what is happening outside the metropolitan area of Dublin, particularly in those districts such as Limerick, Tipperary, Cork and the western counties where the republican wing of the army is strongest.

"That the free state authorities are alive to the possibilities of trouble from those quarters is indicated by the drastic measures taken to prevent help from the outside reaching Rory O'Connor, in command of the four courts insurgents. In the precautionary measures against aid to the insurgents from the outside the government has not only stopped train service into Dublin, but it has blocked the roads and thrown a cordon of troops around the city to head off reinforcements."

IRISH INSURGENTS HAVE REFUSED TO SURRENDER. LONDON, June 29.—Fresh terms were offered the insurgents in the Four Courts in Dublin today, says a Dublin dispatch to the Evening News, but they refused to surrender and after two hours delay firing was resumed.

The early evacuation of the stronghold is expected, however, as the water and lights have been cut off.

HERRIN, ILL., June 29.—The first arrest in connection with the mine disasters in Williamson county was made today when deputy sheriffs apprehended a union miner at Carterville and charged with having threatened maintenance men at mines of the Madison Coal company.

Growing sleepy, the boy left his playmates and went home. As he entered the house he was seized roughly by some person. A hand was thrust over his eyes and covering his eyes, and the boy says that it was the hand of a colored person that held him.

The boy's feet and arms were bound together and a handkerchief was tied across his eyes and mouth. He was then placed in the middle of the floor, and his captor evidently left immediately following this act, for in a few minutes the little fellow was able to twist the handkerchief from his face and scream. Neighbors arrived immediately, and Mrs. Abels reached home a little later.

No traces of the man was found, say nothing was missed from the house. Police officials are working on the case. The boy suffered no ill effects from the rough handling.

Deputy A. J. Berry of the sheriff's department left Thursday afternoon for Peccos City to bring back a man and woman and an automobile.

DISCARD CRUTCHES AT RICHEY SERVICES

Reverend Richey pointed out that many people who are Christians do not have "Christian friends." "I want a really good and true friend, be sure that he is a Christian," he warned. "There are too many people who are trying to lead a Christian life by themselves. You cannot do this without the help of Jesus Christ."

In closing the minister asked that no person try to discourage any, one if it happened that he was not particularly interested in the healing work of Reverend R. T. Richey. "Nothing can be gained by destroying the faith of another person. So remember, if you yourself do not believe in the work we are doing, please refrain from trying to convince some other person of your views."

Owing to the limited seating capacity of the Palace theater it was requested that parents who attend the night services refrain from bringing their children. It was impossible for Reverend Richey to reach all the adults Wednesday night. A special meeting for the children will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

Afternoon Services. Mr. Ford, owner of the Wichita theater, has given the evangelist permission to use the Wichita theater for services in the afternoon. Commencing Thursday Reverend Richey will conduct his work every afternoon at 2:45 o'clock in this building.

Among the persons who received treatment Thursday morning were: Mrs. C. A. Walker, 306 Eighth street; Mrs. Minerva Rhodes, 1614 Taylor; Juanita Price, 904 Austin; Mrs. Maud Price, 894 Austin; Mrs. T. W. Parker, 1311 Monroe; Miss Freda Lankhuf, city; Mrs. R. O. Stanfield, 304 Austin; Mrs. J. N. Dickson, city; J. M. Gehrig, 1523 McCor; Mrs. J. S. Fitch, 897 Seventh; Mrs. J. D. YOUTH BOUND AND GAGGED AT HOME WEDNESDAY NIGHT

The young son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Abels, 1609 Broad street, was bound and gagged by an unknown person when he attempted to enter his home about 10 o'clock Wednesday night. The boy's parents had gone swimming, leaving the little fellow playing at a neighbor's house nearby.

Growing sleepy, the boy left his playmates and went home. As he entered the house he was seized roughly by some person. A hand was thrust over his eyes and covering his eyes, and the boy says that it was the hand of a colored person that held him.

The boy's feet and arms were bound together and a handkerchief was tied across his eyes and mouth. He was then placed in the middle of the floor, and his captor evidently left immediately following this act, for in a few minutes the little fellow was able to twist the handkerchief from his face and scream. HOUSTON CITY BONDS HAVE BEEN APPROVED

AUSTIN, June 29.—City bonds of Houston amounting to $1,300,000 were approved by the attorney general's department, as were $1,600,000 worth of bonds of the city of Fort Worth. The Houston bonds are those which the city of Houston sought through the supreme court to have approved. The attorney general announced that an additional $100,000 worth of Houston bonds would be approved when presented.

Approval of the Houston bonds followed advice to the attorney general that the city of Houston had adopted an ordinance reducing the total tax rate to 25.50, the constitutional tax limit.

Local Folks in Colorado See a Traveling Garden

Wichita Falls folks in Colorado Springs must have been as surprised as the shock proof "natives" last week when the traveling garden arrived in Colorado Springs.

The thrill honors for trans-continental farm, it is said, go to a tourist from Kansas whose name was not learned by the local folks on the day of the arrival. He arrived there one day last week from his home town, driving a car of the make made famous by Henry. In the tonneau were store hams, fresh eggs, blankets, tents, chairs—everything that goes to make a home. Attached to the rear of the car was a crate containing chickens—relatable young fliers.

But of the keenest interest to the innocent bystanders, who are always by-standers at the Springs—was the fresh vegetable garden thriving on the running board of the car. The house had been enclosed with planks, the enclosure filled deep with wood, rich Kansas loam, and radishes and onions were proclaimed by the sign. The adaptability to change of scene and air.

The tourist didn't stay over at the Springs, according to reports, and he was driving to Denver. He drove up to a public fountain, filled a can with water and proceeded to give his garden a drink. Then he was driving to Denver and other photographers registered him on half a hundred cameras before he left.

From Here. Among the latest arrivals from Wichita Falls at the Springs are W. L. Cameron and Miss Fay Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Wilson, and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Taylor.

Miss Anna E. Zillman, Spanish teacher of the local high school, left Thursday for Mexico City by way of Beaumont. Miss Zillman is to attend the university at Mexico City, an expects to return the latter part of August.

MARRIAGE A LA MODE.

There are no flappers in Java. Girls there marry very young and marriage means they settle down. The night before her wedding the Javanese maid throws her dolls and trinkets into the fire, formally renouncing her girlhood. On her wedding day the guests congratulate her on her womanhood and make her valuable presents to recompense for those she has destroyed.

CHAPTER LXXV—SUGGESTS A SOLUTION.

CHAPTER LXXV. "Peggy! You don't want to earn your living on the stage. Nor anywhere else," said Mrs. Herrod. "Dear! In your secret heart you want to let Jack have his way." "I admit I do!" My tears washed the powder from my nose. "Then admit it to Jack, not to me." "Don't!" I replied. "I want to—but I won't. That's how the modern girls feel about lots of her emotions," Mrs. Herrod said. "In marriage she wishes to be free only as a man is free. I don't mean that she wants freedom for the sake of liberty and license. She reasons this way: When you depend upon anyone, when a girl depends entirely upon a man for bread as well as love, she is not free. "As long as a girl is ruled by love she is not free. She's a slave to somebody, married or single. "To stand up, shoulder to shoulder, to give and take equally, to swap fair in love, honor for honor, that's the truth—that is what the modern girl demands. "That is what Jack and I have been striving for and I thought we were working successfully. Up to yesterday, no matter what the strain, I have stuck to my principles, had expected I could be married and be independent." "But marriage has worked some charm, a mysterious change? You wish to obey your man, in the ancient way?"

Whom Shall Molly Marry?

MOLLY'S ELOPEMENT PLAN IS UPSET

At sight of the woman with Ben and hearing her piercing cry, Molly's consciousness all left her. Don, too, appeared stricken. Only Ben Wheeler remained unaffected. "Lella, oh—" stammered Don, "for heaven's sake stop it!" He tried to take her arms from about him, to still her sobbing repetition of his name. Molly tried to pity her—she was so cheaply and pathetically gotten up for effect, so obviously of the theatre, so fundamentally weak in character, so evidently the desperate woman who throws her whole life into one thing—and sees it leaving her. Without warning, she turned upon Molly. "You doll-faced little thief, how dare you try to steal him from me! He's my love. It's I he's promised to share his life with—success—New York—London."

A wave of heartbreak swept over Molly at the word, that had so thrilled her from Don's lips, the promise she thought she alone had inspired. Curious stragglers from the station platform were closing in upon them, staring. Don Manning, hero of many a dramatic scene, sat no heroic one in this. Despite the handicap, his actor's instinct ruled. "Molly!" His voice was tense and low. He bent toward her with the glow of sincerity in his handsome face. "Oh, Molly, every word I've said to you comes from my heart. I have every right to love you. What I feel here—With a gesture of simple earnestness he touched his breast—"I can control no more than the lightning. You are all that counts in my life."

"You may despise me, Molly. You—you may hate me, Lella. But love cannot be controlled. Molly—oh, my dear, what are you going to do with me?" Lella had drawn apart. Her breath came panting. In her eyes was fear that knew no words. Her glance was darting to left, to right, like a hunted animal, stricken and desperate. "Don was too absorbed in Molly to notice. Molly's face was turned in wretched humiliation away from the crowd. The Pittsburgh Express rumbled in the distance—closer, louder. Lella seemed for an instant petrified, as the engine's brilliant blazes lit her white face. Then it was as if it touched off some spring of madness in her. Without a cry she backed away from Don and Molly, her eyes wildly intense upon Don's. Then, with a frenzied scream and the speed of a terrified creature she turned and ran toward the oncoming train. It was Molly's voice that pierced the air: "Oh, my God, Don! Save her! And she bent her face in her hands. (To be continued.) (Copyright, 1922, NEA Service).

B. L. MORGAN MARRIES MISS BESS CHAPMAN

The marriage of Bynum L. Morgan of this city and Miss Bess Chapman of Vernon was solemnized Wednesday at 11 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother in Vernon, only relatives of the two young people witnessing the ceremony. Mr. Morgan was accompanied to Vernon by his father, J. R. Morgan, and sisters, Misses Wilma and Johnnie. Miss Chapman, who has been with the Carrigan-Montgomery, Britain and Morgan law firm for the past several years, left here Tuesday for Vernon.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Morgan left for Dallas, where they will spend two or three days before leaving for a month's visit in Colorado. On their return here they will be at home temporarily at Kemp hotel. Mr. Morgan is well known as a member of the law office force of the Carrigan-Montgomery firm, and of an old resident family. He served overseas as lieutenant in the 103rd field artillery during the war. Miss Chapman is also a member of an old Vernon family and has her home at Charlotte, Kemp hall for the past year here.

INVITATIONS OUT FOR THE DOUBLE WEDDING

Invitations are out reading as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Lee Clark invite you to be present at the marriage of their daughters, Virginia Blanche, to Mr. Paul Jessup, and Lela, to Mr. Clifford Eugene Deaton, on Wednesday evening, July 12, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, at 8 o'clock in the First Christian church, Wichita Falls, Texas.

How Do You Pronounce It?

"We've had an argument," stated a stenographer in an uptown office early Thursday morning, "about the word 'address.' One of us says it's 'ad-dress' with the accent on the second syllable, and the other says it depends on the form; whether it's a verb or a noun. Our dictionary is an old one and we want to know what all the dictionaries say about it."

Well, our dictionary is an old one, too, but it just happens that the word "address" was impressed on a second edition by one of the best informed etymologists in the south some years ago. There is no authority for the pronunciation of the word "address" with an accent on any but the second syllable in any reliable dictionary, standard, English or American. If you address all go out and sang a song of thankfulness. We were sure we saw Mr. Peerabout then."

Just then Jack's cap appeared over the top of a distant bunker. "The poor boy hasn't had much peace the last year," said I to Mr. "He has had happiness and excitement. And whenever he's been worried he's tried to get out of the more happiness and more excitement for the peace he needed. And where has our married life come out?"

I answered my own question in a single word: "Stale-mats." (To be continued.)

CHARLOTTE KEMP GIVES ENJOY SWIMMING PARTY

The young women who make up the household at Charlotte Kemp Hall enjoyed a very pleasant and picnic outing Wednesday evening at Lake Wichita, going out on the car. Lunch was spread under the trees after the din in the pool, and partaken of by the following: Mr. and Mrs. Sewell Beavers, Mesdames Basiah Douglas, Florence B. Harlan, Patton, McElrien, and Hilton; Misses Lucy Palmer, Whitehead, Esther Comstock, Jessie Hull, Kisa Adams, Sybilie Phigpen, Leona Murray, Virginia Bell, Blanche Patterson, and Sarah Beth Hogges.

MONTHS OF SUFFERING

How a Baltimore Girl Recovered Her Health

Baltimore, Maryland.—"For several months I suffered with severe backache and general weakness. I could not sleep comfortably at night for pains in my back. I found your book at home one day and after reading it began at once to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. These women know what they have suffered, they describe their symptoms and state how they were finally made well. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine made from medicinal roots and herbs, and without drugs, to relieve the sickness women so often have, which is indicated by backache, weak feelings, nervousness, and no ambition to get anything done or to go anywhere. It has helped many women. Why not try it?"

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS POLLY POLLYWOG HAS CLUE BUT IT LEADS NOWHERE

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

When Phil Frog heard Mr. Peerabout was lost he was amazed.

"No," she said. "You didn't see Mr. Peerabout, Old Comet-Legs, the fairy who is jealous of him, pushed him off the Moon. The Weather-man is running the Moon until Mr. Peerabout is found."

"Well, I declare," croaked Phil. "I'll have to help, that's safe, for honestly I don't know what he'd do without a Moon."

"When there's a nice Moon we're not afraid of losing our lives. We can see when Oscar Owl is looking for us, and Marty Mink snooping along the bank on the lookout for a nice fat pollywog."

Just then Polly Pollywog, who had been listening, spoke up. "What does the Moon-Mon look like?" she asked. "Anything like 'No,' explained Nick. "He looks like us. He has a head and arms and legs and feet."

"But Polly was too excited to listen. "Oh, I saw something," she cried out. "I know where Mr. Peerabout is. I saw him hiding in the tall grass near the bank. He's got arms and legs and a head and he's all ragged, too. I'll take you there."

"So off they all started. "There he is," cried Polly. "Right there."

And what do you think? Nancy picked up Kitty Brown's rag doll. "No, Polly," said she kindly. "This isn't the Moon-Man. He's lost yet. But you can keep on looking. I'm afraid when he fell he got his head jammed and lost his memory."

NEGROES INSIST ON BREAKING OUT BUT CAUGHT AGAIN

The negro prisoners housed on the 4th floor of the county jail, not content with breaking out the jail weeks ago to a state where it requires an expenditure of over $100,000 to attempt another jail delivery, Wednesday night, as in the previous instance they were caught the act.

The door of the cell in which the negro was effected two weeks ago was chained and locked with a heavy chain and a Yale lock. The negro succeeded in getting out of the cell by cutting through the chain with a file. He was caught by the jailer who was on duty at the time.

The jailer waited until the chain was cut and then he went to the cell and found the negro. He was taken to the cell and locked up. The negro was taken to the cell and locked up. The negro was taken to the cell and locked up.

WILL OF ROCKEFELLER ESTATE TO CHILDREN

Associated Press.
NEW YORK, June 29.—The bulk of the estate left by William Rockefeller, oil magnate, reputed to have been one of the richest men in the world, was bequeathed to his four children, under the terms of his will, for probate late today.

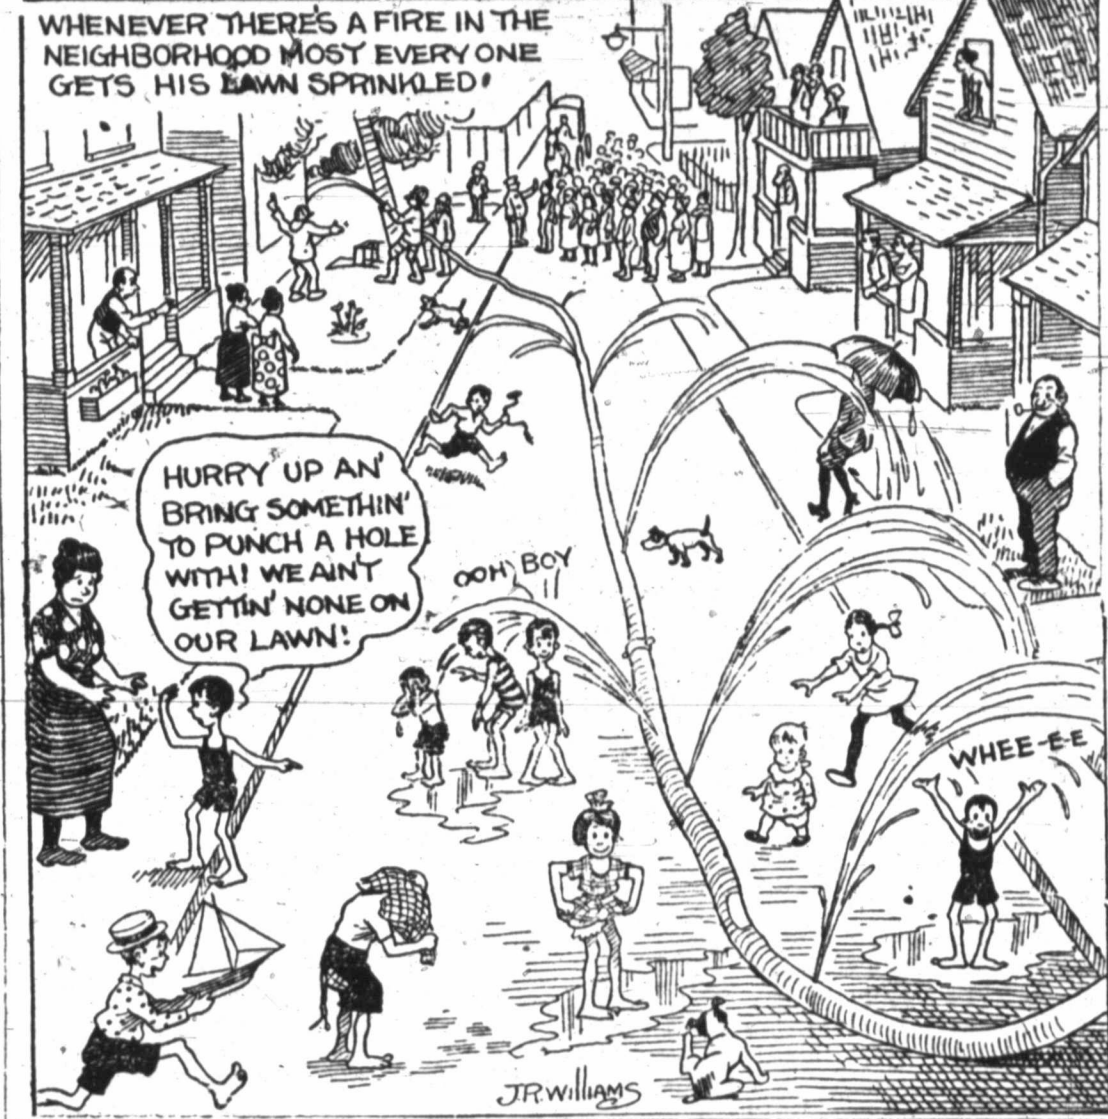

Virtually the entire estate, the use of which was cloaked in the phrase "over $10,000," was left to the immediate family with no charitable bequests.

After certain deductions, Mr. Rockefeller, who died recently at home in North Tarrytown, dictated that his estate should be divided into four parts and given his children, Percy and William G. Rockefeller, Mrs. Geraldine Dodge Rockefeller, and Mrs. Emma McAlpin.

LY A FARDON CAN SAVE ERNEST VICKERS
PORT WORTH, June 29.—Ernest Vickers, convicted of the murder of a girl, was sentenced to the state penitentiary for a term of 10 years, according to a sentence passed on him this morning by the court. His case was argued by the court of criminal appeals.

The Roman bridal wreath was of henna, plucked by the bride herself.

OUT OUR WAY

New Program at Majestic Theatre By Fox Stock Co.

An entirely new program will be presented at the Majestic theatre commencing tonight and running for the balance of the week with a Saturday matinee. The Fox Stock company presents what they promise to be their first feature production entitled "The Girl He Couldn't Buy." All new special scenery is promised with new vaudeville between the acts.

This story is woven around the life of a girl working in one of the big department stores in New York City, and is true to life, as few people really know the trials and tribulations a girl has to withstand in the life behind the counter of one of these large stores, working at a small salary which means living as cheaply as possible; also the insults that are imposed upon her as she goes to and from her work.

SEVERAL HUNDRED REBELS KILLED AND WOUNDED IN ITALY

ROME, June 29.—A large force of Tripolitan rebels was defeated by Italian troops in a sanguinary battle near Assisi on Wednesday, according to reports to the Central News.

The rebel casualties are given as several hundred killed or wounded, while the government forces lost 17 native soldiers killed and an officer wounded. Large quantities of arms and ammunition were abandoned by the rebels.

Cold water is said to be more stimulating on the heart than brandy.

Reader Takes Newer Form of Iron—Feels Years Younger

"Six weeks ago I saw a special offer in the paper telling how thousands of people grow old in looks and energy long before they are really old in years, because, as examinations by physicians have shown, an enormous number of people do not have enough iron in their blood. I have been taking Nuxated Iron for two weeks; the results are simply astounding. The roses have come back in my lips and cheeks, and I can conscientiously say that I feel ten years younger."

The above is a typical hypothetical case showing the results that have been achieved by a great many people since we started this "satisfaction or money back" offer on Nuxated Iron. We will make you the same guarantee. If, after taking the two week's treatment of Nuxated Iron, you do not feel and look years younger, we will promptly refund your money.

PERFUMES

—do more than charm the sense of smell

Have you ever considered the various properties and values of fine perfumes? They do more than charm the sense of smell—for they contain the qualities which are conducive to health.

The inhalation of delightful odors tends to quiet tired and overwrought nerves and produce a feeling of freshness and repose.

Perfumes also have antiseptic qualities. When sprayed about the room they quickly revivify the air.

When exhausted from a day's work, a shopping tour or a round of calls—bathe hands and face in water to which has been added a few drops of exquisite

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in Him, and He shall bring it to pass. And He shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noonday. — Psalm 37:5-6.

Light is, in reality, more awful than darkness; modesty is more majestic than strength;
and there is truer sublimity in the sweet joy of a child or the sweet virtue of a maiden, than in the strength of Antaeus, or the thunder-clouds of Aetna. — John Ruskin.

THE SUPER-SIX.

The six greatest men in history, according to H.
G. Wells, are Jesus, Buddha, Asoka, Aristotle, Roger Bacon and Abraham Lincoln.

The names are familiar to you, with the exception of Asoka. He was a king who reigned in India 146 years ago. Wells includes him in the super-six list because "He is the only military monarch on record who abandoned warfare after victory."

Roger Bacon was an English philosopher of seven centuries ago, who delved in Black Magic. Most of his greatness is based on myth and supposition.

Aristotle, the Greek philosopher, might be included in the list, though he was not great enough to induce his pupil, Alexander the Great, to refrain from waging vicious wars of conquest.

No two people will agree on a list of the six greatest men in history. Most Americans would exclude Jesus, believing him a divinity instead of a man.

What list do you nominate? In compiling it, keep in mind that real greatness depends on service to humanity.

The most important thing in civilization is the home. And most housewives, after thinking about it, will agree that the most important service to the home was the invention of the cooking stove and its big brother, the heating furnace. Noguea knows who invented them. But the honor of conceiving the fundamentals of the modern form goes to Benjamin Franklin.

Viewed from modern standards, it is probable that several of history's six greatest men are living today.

Marconi, inventor of wireless, belongs in the list.
We live too close to the crude, pioneering, early stages of his invention to conceive of the tremendous importance it will play in the life of our remote descendants. If people live on Mars or other bodies out in space, they will get in touch with us only by radio. Breaking man's earth-shackles and putting him in touch with far-off space would place the inventor of radio in every list of the great.

The Wright brothers, who flew the first airplane and opened the way for man's conquest of the air and distance, are among history's greatest.

Einstein also belongs on the list, for he is the forerunner of man's thinking in terms of four dimensions instead of three.

And how about Watt, inventor of the steam engine, without which the railroads would not have been built?

At the tip-top of the list should be Gutenberg or the other man, an unknown Chinese, who invented printing from movable type. Nine-tenths of our progress—physical, intellectual and spiritual—is due to printing.

DISINTERESTED TESTIMONY REGARDING SENATOR CULBERSON.

In an article on politics in the current issue of World's Work, Mark Sullivan, national political correspondent for The Times and recognized as an unbiased and acute observer of political matters, discusses the primary campaign in Texas and particularly the candidacy of Senator Culbertson.

He says among other things that the record of Senator Culbertson is unique in that the senior Texas senator has probably answered more roll calls and has voted more times and has made fewer speeches than any other member of the senate. He says this is probably on account of Senator Culbertson's physical condition, for the senator is afflicted with a palsy, which, while it prevents his making speeches, in no wise, Mr. Sullivan says, impairs his intellect.

Mr. Sullivan goes on to say that Senator Culbertson steadfastly supported former President Wilson and that his vote generally conforms to democratic doctrines. He says that Senator Culbertson gives close study to every question that comes before the senate.

Mr. Sullivan intimates that the people of some other states would profit by having senators like Senator Culbertson, who might then think more and give closer attention to their duties and talk less.

The friends of Senator Culbertson in Texas will be glad to have this testimony from such a disinterested and acute observer as Mr. Sullivan. It confirms their own appraisal of Senator Culbertson and his work in the senate.

COMMENDING THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

The county commissioners are to be commended for their action in ordering a general reduction in the assessed valuations of real estate in the county from the 1921 valuations.

Valuations have been high in the county and had reached a point where they were doubtless abnormal as compared with valuations in other counties in the state. If the valuations in Wichita county are higher than in other counties then the property owners of this county pay an undue share of state taxes, and they have been doing this too long already. A higher county tax rate, if necessary, with lower valuations will come nearer placing the tax payers of Wichita county on an equity with the tax payers of other counties than high valuations and a low county rate.

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

WORK THROUGH.

There is a saving power in the world—a something that follows us, that picks us up when we stumble, and that lifts our heads when they get too much in the habit of looking downward.

This power is work! And its application is to work through.

Many worry through, fret through, complain through. But the real rulers, the leaders, creators, dominators, doers—those who sow and reap and accumulate and leave something of worth and substance behind—work through.

It's not the easiest way. Sometimes you have to go through stone walls—walls that look absolutely impossible and impassable. But there is a way to get through them. It's to work through them.

Work is a healer. Work is a bolsterer. Work is the sum and substance of what it pays to make life out of. When you are in doubt as to the best next move, get right to some useful job—and by the time you have worked through it, the chances are that your vision will have cleared. Work through!

While the year is young, while newer things are budding, while so many are doing their best to make the world a little better and to give up what has been torn down through years of war and sorrow, you do your part—take the cue—work through!

Owing to illness Mr. Adams is unable to write his Daily Talks this week. He is taking this opportunity to reprint for his readers six Talks for which he has received many inquiries since their first publication, in the hope that all of his readers as well as those who have written him, will enjoy seeing them again.

THE BUSY SUMMER COTTAGE

Our friends have automobiles now. The summer cottage where we went To rest beside the water's blue in peace and indolent content

Is but an hour's swift ride away, so bright and early Sunday morn
Before the breakfast eggs are cooked we hear the honking of the horn.

We must have bathing suits for ten, although our family numbers four;
Beds must be made for all who come, though father
sleeps upon the floor;

Dishes and knives and forks and spoons are gathered in one huge display,
For we must be prepared to feed the visitors who come our way.

From Friday noon till Monday morn full many a weary trip I take,
Rowing the women and their babes upon the boom
of the lake;

And by that law which rules a host I'm at the mercy of the crew,
I must, until they say goodbye, do everything they wish to do.

The chef in yonder large hotel is not a busier man than I,
The fish for fifteen hungry mouths it is my duty
now to fry,

And thus my glad vacation time from dawn to dusk
is filled with chores,
For friends have made our resting spot the busiest place in all outdoors.

In the death house at Sing Sing,
close to the little green door, Salto Talgo, awaits execution in the electric chair the last week in June.

Talgo will die a Christian. His fellow-slayers in the death house have won him away from Buddhism.

There is something unique in the newspaper that deals with Talgo's case. It is going on even in penitentiary death houses.

THIRST.

You have heard that smuggled liquor is plentiful along the Atlantic coast.

The Boston Post makes a hoohoo survey and finds that liquor is becoming extremely hard to secure in that city, regardless of the thirty one weeks of the thirty one.

Drinking in Boston has all the props of a secret ritual, such as passwords and code knocks on the door.

Another instance of how "hoohoo"
is a failure.

INDIANS.

In Canada, 300 Indians march on Poinc Pelee government park, saying they will seize it as their property.

The royal mounted police have been called on to turn them back.
It is the official report of the Canadian press that half dozen of the redcoats will handle the job.

Like the riot in Texas, Rangers were sent for. Special train pulled in.

"What?" shouted the chief of police. "Only send one ranger?"

"There's only one rirrot, isn't there?" retorted the ranger.

FLAPPERS.

Dr. Dudley A. Sargent, head of the Sargent School for Physical Education, a girl's institution, rallies to the defense of the flapper, with this new line of thought:

"Who designs the styles that young women wear, and whom do they dress to please?"

The obvious answer to both it—
"Merchandise."

Criticism of women's dress should be directed, first of all, at its male designers. As usual, blame is not placed on the original source.

TRICHINOSIS

By DR. R. H. BISHOP

When you consider the great number of diseases man can have,
and the countless millions of germs watchfully waiting to surge upon unsuspecting victims, you cannot but marvel that we are living at all.

A sudden outbreak of a certain disease always attracts scientific attention. One such epidemic of trichinosis, a rather rare disease in this country, in New Jersey recently.

Trichinosis is caused by organisms in the form of small round worms, barely visible to the eye, which occur in eggs, or mem-berous pouches, in the muscles of infected meat-eating animals, generally the hog, the rat and man.

They are known to remain alive, though inactive, in the hog for at least ten years. When the raw or imperfectly cooked meat from such an animal is eaten, the worms are liberated during the process of digestion, grow and multiply in the intestine and the young worms or larvae then bore their way into the blood stream and finally into the muscles of the new host. Here they gradually become encysted and remain until they die or are, in turn, liberated, as before.

The degree of illness is thought to vary with the number of living trichinae eaten. The number of worm larvae in a pound of infected pork has been estimated as high as 200,000.

Thorough cooking of the infected meat kills the larvae. The disease is, therefore, confined in most cases to those of nationalities which eat pork raw or only slightly cooked.

The epidemic of this disease regarded in the present case, investigation proved conclusively that the source of the epidemic was an infected hog which had been slaughtered recently, a part of the meat having been eaten as sausage.

There are 50 alphabets now in use.

There are five women house surgeons in English hospitals.

LITTLE BENNY'S
NOTE BOOK

I climbed over our back fence this afternoon to save me the trouble of opening the gate, and I got a splinter in my hand on the way over, not being a deep one and I was just going to take it out myself when I had a deer, thinking of it all around and ask Mary Watkins to take it out.

Which I went around to do and she was sitting on her front steps with Fuds' Simkins, me thinking,
Heck, sint that guy got any home?

And I went up holding my hand to Mary and Mary Watkins sed, My Benny, wats a matter with your hand?

O nothing, I jest got a splinter in it, that's all, I sed, and she sed, O, my goodness, duxint it hert, something dreedful! and I sed, Yes, but wats the different?

Meaning wad did I care for a little pane, and Mary Watkins sed, O deer, Im going to take it rite out for you, jest you wait till I get a needle, and she sed, O do you one and started to take the splinter out, Fuds Simkins saying, Aw, I wish I had a dollar for every splinter that she had without running around showing them to people.

Which Mary Watkins kepp on taking mine out with the needle, saying, Does it hurt, Fuds? and she saying, Yes, it herts fears, but thats all rite, go ahead.

One time I had a splinter in my finger so deep it started to come out the other side, and I never even mentioned it to nobody, thats how much I think of a splinter, sed Fuds Simkins. And he started to talk about other splinters he had in an insulting voice, and I sed, Aw, who cares? Youre welcome to your own splinters, you dont interfere with mine, and I sed, O do you think so, Id jest love to be a nese, thats jest wad Im crazy to be, I think its wonderfull of you to say thats.

Aw heck, sed Fuds. And he got up and went away jellus as chything, and I kepp on setting there till he went, and I sed, O do you telling Mary Watkins how much she aint, and I sed, Proving was rite about it being a good deed.

LEARN A WORD
EVERY DAY.

Today's word is subsidy, with acronym, S. U. B. S. I. D. I. Y.

It's pronounced—sub-sid-y, with stress on the first syllable.

It meant originally, in England,
a parliamentary grant to the crown of a sum raised by extraordinary taxation.

It was later extended to mean one state to another, as to a friendly power to aid the latter in war;
a governmental grant of funds or property to a private person or corporation to assist in establishing or supporting an enterprise deemed advantageous to the public; a sub-vention; any gift by way of financing.

It comes from—Latin "subsidium," the troops stationed in reserve in the third line of battle; reserve in the third line of battle; reserve in the third line of battle.

It's used like this—"In ordinary usage," says Webster, "subsidy often carries a derogatory implication."

ENIGMA.

How much do you know?
Can you apply your knowledge to the unraveling of "mysteries?"

Try yourself on this:
There is a familiar quotation containing 34 letters. Regrouping of various letters in the quotation form a new word; a short definition of the words are given. When you have found the right word, the numbers indicate the position the letters occupy in the quotation. For instance:

A continent—30, 17, 6, 2—Asia. The first "m" will be the thirtieth letter in the quotation; the "a" will be the seventeenth; the "s" will be the sixth; and the final "a"
will be the third.

Now figure out the rest and you will have the quotation.

A number—7, 11, 25, 16, 10,
a boy's nickname—9, 22, 13,

Part of a vessel—4, 21, 7,

It Always Seems to be More Fun When There's Company

SCARAMOUCHE

by Rafael Sabatini

"Now, my friend," said M. Binet,
"will you be M. Parvissimus and play Scaramouche tomorrow, or will you be Andre-Louis Moreau of Gavillac and go to Rennes to satisfy the king's Lieutenant?"

"I yield to your most eloquent and seductive persuasions, M. Binet," said Andre-Louis sweetly.

CHAPTER V.
Dressed in the close-fitting suit of a bygone age, all black, from flat velvet cap to ruffled shoes, his face whitened and a slight up-curved mustache glued to his upper lip, a small sword at his side and a guitar slung behind him Scaramouche surveyed himself in a mirror, and was disposed to be sardonic—which was the proper mood for the part.

He bowed to his reflection in the mirror.

"Jufrou!" he apostrophized it. "At last you have found yourself."

Ten minutes later the three knocks sounded, and the curtains were drawn aside.

Andre-Louis was assailed with nausea in that dread moment. He attempted to take a lightning mental review of the first act of this scenario, which he was himself to play the author-in-chief, but found his mind a complete blank. His arm was clutched, and he was pulled violently toward the wings. He had a glimpse of Pantoloon's grotesque face, his eyes blazing, and he caught a raucous growl:

"Climene has spoken your cue three times already."

Before he realized it, he had been huddled on to the stage, and stood there foolishly, blinking in the glare of the footlights, with their tin ra-factors. So utterly foolish and bewildered did he look that volley upon volley of laughter welcomed him from the audience, which this evening packed the hall from end to end.

But they never did discover it.
Scaramouche's bewildered paralysis lasted but a few seconds. He realized that he was being laughed at, and remembered that his Scaramouche was a creature to be laughed with, and not at.

A ripple of laughter from the audience had been steadily enheartening him. It was clear they found him comical.

When at last the curtain fell for the last time, it was Scaramouche who shared with Climene the honors of the evening, his name that was coupled with her in the calls that summoned them to the wings.

CHAPTER VI.
It seemed to Andre-Louis in those days that he had found his real career, and not only was he beginning to like it, but actually to look forward to a career as actor-author that might indeed lead him in the end to that Mecca of all comedians, the Comedie Francaise. And there were other possibilities. From the writing of skeleton scenarios for improvisors, he might presently pass to writing plays of dialogue, plays in the proper sense of the word, after the manner of Chenier, Regnard, and Beaumarchais.

Now, dream though it was, he did not neglect the practical side of it.

"You realize," he told M. Binet,

Adams Involved. The Spudder prey has returned from St. Louis with nothing new to report but a partial verification of the rumor that "Shorty" Adams was in some way mixed up in the deal whereby the two hurlers and outfielder were obtained from the Cubs. President Harvey did not state point blank that Adams figured in the deal, nor did he deny it. Hence it is safe to assume that the Cubs have an option of Adams' services at the close of the 1922 Texas league campaign. The Cubs might as well get "Shorty" as any other major league club as it has been a foregone conclusion that he would not be in a Spudder uniform next season any more than "Pat" Summa will. He gave no inkling as to who the "unknown" hurler is, but the rumor still persists that it is Alex Froomer.

Expected This

As was predicted about a week ago, the Bailey deal did not materialize. Bill goes to Houston in league whereby Ray Blades is to go to the Cards at the end of the season. The Spudders also receive a catcher and will get two more players if Blades is called in at the end of the season. The Spudders evidently did not go high enough or had nothing which the Cardinals wanted. Bailey should make the Houston club. He would have made the Spudders.

Friday's Day

The "split" meeting is scheduled for Friday in Houston. Five club owners are expected to attend. Their names were not divulged, but it doesn't take any deep thought to figure who they are. It is possible that the season may be split before July 5 as the Spudder-Panther series will not be such an attraction over the holidays if the Samites go into Fort Worth trailing so far that they cannot overcome the lead. They are six full games behind now, but the complexion of the race may be changed before the current series are finished between the Spudders and Buffs and the Cats and Cubs.

How Walter Johnson has slipped

Three consecutive shutouts. May Realize One. Tex McDonald had two ambitions when the 1922 campaign got under way. One was to lead the league in stolen bases and the other to show the way to the rest of the league in hitting. His injury forced him out of the game long enough to cost him his first, but he's making a great bid for the second. In four days he has increased his swat average 20 points and he's going stronger than ever now. Once Tex reaches the state of Texas coming down every time he gets on. Though not the youngest man on the squad by any means, he bows to very few when it comes to burning up the path. One of the greatest topics indulged in during the fanning breeze is the relative speed of the Spudders. Summa, Bischoff, McDonald, Miller and Adams all have their admirers and there is a wide difference of opinion as to which man is the fastest going to first and the fastest circling the bases. One thing is certain—it isn't Beck. Nor is Kitchens' name mentioned often in such discussions.

A Matter of Opinion

He has only an outside chance to lead the loop in stolen bases, but if he doesn't finish at the top it won't be for lack of trying. One can usually count on Texas coming down every time he gets on. Though not the youngest man on the squad by any means, he bows to very few when it comes to burning up the path. One of the greatest topics indulged in during the fanning breeze is the relative speed of the Spudders. Five Club Owners Want Meeting

Texas League Moguls to Hold Confab in Houston Friday. DALLAS, TEXAS, June 28.—President Roberts of the Texas League yesterday issued a call for a meeting of league club owners at Houston Friday. The meeting was called at the instance of five owners who gave no reason for the request, Mr. Roberts said. It is considered likely in sport circles that the question of splitting the league schedule will be the principal order of business at the meeting. For the last three seasons the season has been split on or about July 1 because some one team was leading the league by a wide margin. Following yesterday's games Fort Worth is leading Wichita Falls, its closest rival, by six full games.

Methodists and Pond Laundry Win

Only two Twilight league games were played Wednesday, the Shriners and First Christians forfeiting their contests to the University Club and Legion. The Methodists had things their own way with the Braves, winning easily by the score of 19 to 2 while the Pond Laundry-Baptist Imbrogio wound up in a 5 to 5 deadlock. A double by Ross knocked the count with two men on in the seventh chapter. Darkness interrupted the contest. A home run by Martin of the Laundry was a feature.

HILLCREST COUNTRY CLUB, Kansas City, Mo., June 28.—Two rounds of matchplay in the western amateur golf tournament yesterday produced some of the greatest contests ever seen in any titular competition and closed with several stars eliminated and several others left in only through breaks in luck which came when they seemed certain of defeat.

"SHORTY" ADAMS, CUB PLAYERS AND CASH INVOLVED IN BIG DEAL: "JUMBO" RAMSEY BACK

By PAUL W. LARKIN

President R. O. Harvey of the Spudders is a quarry. He has one of the greatest stories regarding a baseball deal tucked under his bonnet that he has ever broken in class. A baseball player and he's just itching to let the fans in on it. But for reasons best known to himself and President Bill Weeks of the Chicago Cubs, he can't divulge it for a few days. Probably not before July 5, but not later than that. Suffice it to say, however, that Earl "Shorty" Adams, a bunch of Cub players and a wad of cash are involved.

The exact nature of the deal cannot be told until it is consummated and the Spudder proxy states that the deal will not be closed before next Wednesday. The reason is because Cub batters are mixed up in it and Manager Bill Killefer will need every hurler he has to wade through two or three twin bills before the fifth. Outfielder and Pitcher Weiss and Pitcher Vietz—Keene are sure of coming. Two other twirlers, a right and left hander, will also probably be added in addition to another player whom the Spudders may select. One of the pitchers will undoubtedly be an outright purchaser while the others will figure in some sort of trade for Adams. But under no conditions will Adams be turned loose until the end of the championship season and another season series that the Spudders might get into.

Almost as frequent.

When asked whether Alex Freeman was one of the other hurlers, the proxy refused to answer one way or the other, but he smiled broadly. One of the big reasons for keeping the deal secret was that Manager Killefer of the Cubs feels that if any of his hurlers were to be traded to the Spudders, it would mean that they are to come to Wichita Falls they might lay down on him if worked again before coming.

Houston has just obtained Bill Hayes and the deal was a big one. Ray Blades will go to the Cards at the end of the season as a result and since the Cubs recently refused $2,500 for Blades some idea of the size of the deal can be obtained. The

EARL "SHORTY" ADAMS

Spudders are to get other players besides Hayes. But this deal is not as big as the one the Spudders are cooking up. President Harvey gave Branch Rickey first shot at Adams when he was in St. Louis. The latter figured that he should have first crack at him since he had sold him to Wichita Falls, but the offer he made for him did not begin to approach that made by the Cub mogul. The Spudder president went to St. Louis to strengthen his team not to tear it down and had been conceded to Rickey's demands. He would have been in some phase then when he left.

During the course of a telephone conversation with Manager Walter Rupp Wednesday night, the manager declared that he didn't see how he was ever going to get McDonald out of the outfit. His feeling on the road has been sensational in the extreme and he has showed the way to all the others in hitting. He also stated that James was about ready to go and that he looked like a million dollars in the bull pen. There's considerable difference between pitching in the bull pen and in the box, but Salm says "he's the stuff."

Ramsey came to Wichita Falls Thursday in response to a telegram from Harvey. He wired him to report here immediately. When he arrived, President Harvey didn't know what it was all about. Ramsey said that he was only bound to the Wichita club and was subject to recall at any time. Ramsey always had great success against the Spudders and it may be that Walter Rupp would like to have Ramsey back for the coming season. "Jumbo" elbow, which was giving him a bad time, is now all right. He is fine fettle and he declares that he would like nothing better than to get a couple more cracks at the Spudders. He suggests his wish though everyone seems to be in the dark here as to why Salm sent for him.

One thing is certain. When the Spudders return to Wichita Falls next month the fans won't recognize the hurling staff. If the Spudders aren't more successful than last year, it will be the fault of the hurlers unless substitutes with good records in the big show fail to progress. President Harvey got what he wanted. He was in a position to do the dictating and he did not have to accept anything he didn't want. When a minor league club has a couple of majors bidding for the services of a man, the little fellow usually gets something worth while. The Spudders have done just that.

President Harvey doesn't feel that all chances of winning the first half have gone yet. It looks like an impossibility for the Wichitans to overtake a six game lead in two series, but there are five scheduled games to be played in Port Worth, while the Spudders will find stiffer opposition in Galveston for three days than the Spudders will in Houston.

How I Got Rid of Burning Feet

And Pains from Corns and Blisters Without Soaking, Powders, Plasters, Etc. After Suffering Indescribable Foot Misery for 20 Years.

Prof. F. J. McIntyre, well known world tourist and lecturer, says: "For years I was compelled to wear shoes two sizes too large, to be able to walk with any comfort at all. I tried soaking my feet in medicated baths, powders, plasters and foot-treatments galore, but the burning, itching, and soreness refused to go, while the pains from corns and bunions continued to torture both mind and body, which upset my entire nervous system. One day, very fortunately, I met a lady from Egypt who gave me a little box of Gypsy Foot-Relief, which she said was a secret from the desert. After using it a short time, the awful burning stopped, the callouses came off in chunks, leaving the skin of my feet clean and smooth, while the pains from corns and bunions seemed to disappear as if by magic. From that time I said a joyful good-bye to over twenty years of foot-misery. I would not take a hundred thousand dollars to again go through those years of misery. Now I feel like telling every foot-sufferer to get a box of the wonderful Gypsy-Foot-Relief."

Note—Gypsy Foot-Relief, referred to by Mr. McIntyre, may be applied in a minute, without fuss or bother. Sure, quick relief comes three minutes later, or the makers give back the small amount you pay. It is sold in this city by Palace Drug Co., Wilford Harrison Drug Co., Mack Taylor, Drug Co., and other good druggists.—adv.

WIFE AND SISTER SPARRING PARTNERS

Sammy Good, cont. lightweight; Josephine, sister, and Beas, his wife.

By NEA Service

LOS ANGELES, June 28.—Sammy Good was fair as a fighter before his sister, Josephine, and his wife, Beas, began training him, but now he's one of the best light weights on the Pacific coast.

The two handsome and determined young ladies put the superlative into Sammy's sparring by slapping his face soundly with the gloves every day during the crucial period of his development.

"I'll tell the world it was 'true' that I was cruel and unusual!" "It was cruel and unusual!"

"While in Arizona, in the 10 round game I needed sparring partners. My wife and my sister were keen to don the gloves. So I taught them. They learned surprisingly fast."

"They need to come at me like wildcats, and because they knew I wouldn't back 'em out for the count they made it exceedingly hot for me. Honestly, I credit the two of 'em for greatly increasing my speed and footwork. They have learned to fight like veterans."

Mrs. Beas, (lighter—the lighter-weight's real family name) and Mrs. Josephine McClelland, recently married, still take a prominent part in Sammy's training.

"I'd rather box than eat," says Josephine. "As a school kid I had several honest-to-goodness fights. And nobody ever hit me. Josephine—not even brother Sammy."

"Now, as then, the other girls know I can and will use my fists if occasion demands. I consent, I am not subject to that sass and insult with which women are so free because they fear no painful retaliation."

"It's a lot better to scrap with your fists than with a sharp tongue. And since bobbed locks have made their pulling next to impossible, I believe the art of self-defense will no longer be exclusively manly."

In 22 fights Sammy-Good has lost but one, to Ben Viera. He has "kicked" to wife and sister's trainings—licked such men as Young Hoppe, Kid Julian, Eddie Langdon, Walter Kane, Jack Daley and Young Morrell.

TIMES DAILY MARKETS

COTTON MARKET.

New York Cotton. NEW YORK, June 29.—The cotton market opened with a slight advance of 15 to 16 points on relatively quiet Liverpool cables and reports that continued showers in the south were promoting insect activity. There was a fair demand from Wall Street and outside houses buying on the advance to 21.75 for October and 21.55 for December. Considerable Liverpool and New Orleans selling was encountered at these prices, however, and the market turned easier shortly after the call under continued realizing or liquidation. Two more private crop reports were issued, one making the condition 7.5 while the other made it 7.7. These were within the range of reports recently published and were without any special effect on the early market. Middie declines were followed by rallies during the early afternoon as both wires came to net from the eastern belt and scattered covering. Gains were not fully maintained but October contracts raised around 21.37 shortly after 2 o'clock or 10 points net higher. There was a flurry of covering during the middle of the morning on a private crop report making the condition only 6.7, or lower than any of the reports previously issued. This raised the price of October up from 21.44 to 21.81, or 24 points net higher, but as soon as the more urgent demand for cotton was supplied, the market turned easier under continued liquidation and scattered selling which appeared to be partly for southern account. October sold off to 21.53 before midday, or points net lower. Cotton closed steady.

New Orleans Cotton. NEW ORLEANS, June 29.—Prices were irregular in the early trading in cotton today and the market had no disturbed trend. During the first half prices were up 4 points net compared with yesterday's close at their lowest. Scattered showers in the central and eastern divisions of the belt put the net to net gains of 12 to 22 points, but liquidation in July affected the whole market. At the end of the first hour of business prices were 1 to 15 points up, but yesterday's market was traded as high as 21.65 and as low as 21.34. For a while the market was held down by the circulation of a few July notices. Liquidation by long carriers pushed prices off to net gains of 10 to 22 points but when July reached 21.31 new support came in, being encouraged by reports of a heavy rain of weevil infestation in many sections of the belt and a private estimate of 6.7 per cent of normal. At 11 o'clock prices were 2 to 11 points net higher, July standing at 21.53. In the late trading moderate selling resulted from the report that the railroad strike had been called off at 12:30 o'clock prices were 3 points up to 4 points down compared with yesterday's close. Cotton closed steady at net 4 points up to 7 points down.

New Orleans Spot Cotton. NEW ORLEANS, June 29.—Spot cotton steady and unchanged. Sales on the spot, 1,340 bales to arrive, 1,165. Low middling, 20.00; middling, 21.05; good middling, 22.50; receipts, 990; stock, 152,182.

Liverpool Cotton. LIVERPOOL, June 29.—Spot cotton in fair demand; prices steady. Good middling, 13.64; fully middling, 13.24; low middling, 12.15; low ordinary, 11.39; ordinary, 11.35. Sales, 10,000 bales, including 6,000 American.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE

CHICAGO, June 29.—Wheat scored a quick advance in price today after an early setback. The opening, which varied from 5c decline to 5c gain with July 1.13 to 1.14 and September 1.13 to 1.15, was followed by a moderate drop and then by a rise to well above yesterday's finish. Strength in the wheat market was associated more or less with news of the spread of black rust and with assertions that crop reports to be issued tomorrow would show a decided reduction in the estimated yield of winter wheat. The prospective fall strike counts also as a bullish factor. Prices closed unsettled, 5c to 10c net higher, with July 1.14 to 1.15 and September 1.15 to 1.16. Corn and oats fluctuated in line with the change in wheat. After opening off to 5c up, July 62 to 63c, corn sagged a little and then made a general upturn. Announcement of liberal exports of corn helped advance the market in the later dealings. The close was firm, 5c to 10c net higher, July 62 to 63c and September 63 to 64c. Oats opened July 36 to 37c. Higher quotations on hogs gave firmness to provisions. Open High Low Close WHEAT: July 1.12 1.15 1.13 1.14; Sept. 1.10 1.13 1.11 1.12; Dec. 1.17 1.18 1.17 1.18. NEW YORK STOCKS. NEW YORK, June 29.—Oils were the feature of the speculative interest set at the very mixed opening of today's stock market, the foreign group moving upward, while domestic issues, especially the California division, showed distinct heaviness. Petroleum rose 3 points to 1.85 in the first few transactions, but profit taking soon canceled this

Pan-American Petroleum

Pan-American Petroleum was higher by 1 1/2 to 2 points and several asphalt reflected short covering. Standard Oil of California lost 2 points and California Petroleum 1 point. Atlantic Gulf, Tobacco Products and Anacosta were lower. Steels and motors moved confusingly. Crucible showing a 2 point gain with renewal of yesterday's heaviness in Studebaker. Leading foreign companies were lower, the German mark establishing a new minimum at a fraction under .0027. The relative steadiness of railroad shares during the morning, despite the acute weakness of many industrial, encouraged the bull faction to make a demonstration in that quarter in the early afternoon. C. C. and St. Louis was marked up 3 points. New York Central, Reading, Louisville and Nashville, New Haven, Rock Island, St. Paul, Peabody, preferred and Baltimore and Ohio and Peoria and Eastern 1 to 1/2. An inquiry for du Pont carried it 2 1/2 above yesterday's final figures, while Brooklyn Transit, Studebaker, Bethlehem Steel, Marine preferred and New York Dock gained a point each. Oils and others of the earlier week issues recovered somewhat but another drop in Mexican Petroleum to 17, the lowest point on the reaction since it touched 20 1/2 caused the entire market to recede again. The closing was irregular. Sales approximated 750,000 shares.

SOOTHES AND HEALS THE BOWELS

Arrests and Relieves Most Obstinate Cases of Watery Diarrhoea, in Adults and Children, Harmless and Tasteless

Dr. James Ware's Red Powder is a tried and true prescription for that very painful, debilitating and dangerous disease—Watery Diarrhoea.

Taken as directed, it promptly stops the discharges, soothes the irritated bowels and lets the healing processes begin at once. It is harmless and tasteless—you can't take enough of it to hurt you and even children do not object to taking it.

Formulated by Dr. James Ware, a famous Southern physician, in use for over 40 years. It gives relief in all acute and chronic cases of Diarrhoea, Cholera-Infantum and such kindred ailments of adults and children.

Ware's Red Powder, Ware's Black Powder or Tablets, Ware's Baby Powder—standard family remedies. Price 50c and $1.00 a package. Send for booklet on stomach and bowel troubles—free. The Ware Chemical Co., Dallas, Texas.—Adv. 5

10,000 MILE HIKE TO SETTLE DISPUTE BETWEEN DOCTORS

A 10,000 mile hike to be made in one year, 11 months and one day, is the goal set by an "unnamed" pedestrian who passed through Wichita Falls Thursday morning.

If the "unnamed" succeeds in accomplishing this feat he will win a prize of $10,000. But here is what makes it more difficult still. While on this tramp the "unnamed" can eat only meat, eggs bread and butter, and the only drink allowed besides water is milk.

This is the diet prescribed by two Chicago doctors who are offering the prize to test out the vitamins theory. One doctor believes that all foods contain vitamins, and consequently a person does not have to choose what he eats. The other argues that this is not true, and that only certain foods contain this very important substance. Each one of these doctors, both of whom are members of the Chicago Medical Association, have invested $5,000 each to prove their theories.

If this pedestrian succeeds in covering the distance in the time allowed the two doctors will agree that all foods contain sufficient vitamins, and if he fails the decision will be vice versa.

The "unnamed" pedestrian, who refuses to make his identity known, left State and Madison streets, Chicago, on the first day of May, and to date has covered approximately 1,500 miles, and is a little ahead of schedule now. To cover the allotted distance in the time given him he will have to average 15 miles per day. During the past two months he had made about 23 miles a day.

The "unnamed" walker says he only eats one meal a day, that about 6 o'clock in the evening. He takes excellent care of his body, and expects to be able to accomplish the feat that has been assigned him. He says that he only sleeps about seven hours during the 24, often waking at night when it is cooler.

The man who is after the $10,000 prize claims to have been walking long distances for the last five years. He first started hiking when he was in the U. S. army. After being discharged he continued, and just completed a 10,000 mile hike before undertaking the one he is now on. He is 25 years old, of average build, and carries a suit case weighing about 25 pounds.

This is part of the contract, he told listeners at the police station this morning.

COUNTY BOARD TO TAKE RECESS SUBJECT TO CALL

The county board of equalization will take a recess Thursday evening subject to call at any time when necessity demands. No adjournment will be taken before August 1.

Thursday afternoon was spent in making adjustments on assessments of the banks of the county. The members of the board stated that this was one of the most strenuous sessions ever held by the board.

No indication can be given at this time what the total valuations of the county will be and for that reason no intimation can be given as to whether the county tax rate will need to be changed.

SULPHUR SOOTHES UGLY, ITCHING SKIN

The First Application Makes Skin Cool and Comfortable.

If you are suffering from eczema or some other torturing, embarrassing skin trouble you may quickly be rid of it by using Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist.

This sulphur preparation, because of its germ destroying properties, seldom fails to quickly subdue itching, even of fiery eczema. The first application makes the skin cool and comfortable. Rash and blotches are healed right up. Rowles Mentho-Sulphur is applied like any pleasant cold cream and is perfectly harmless. You can obtain a small jar from any good druggist.—adv.

ONLY TWO CASES IN POLICE COURT WEDNESDAY

Thursday morning proved to be another light day on the police court docket. Only two cases were presented before Judge W. B. Chaussey.

A violation of traffic regulations brought a minimum fine of $5. The other case in which the defendant was charged with being intoxicated was deferred until Saturday night.

RESIDENCE BURNS ON BUCHANAN ST. EARLY THURSDAY

Fire destroyed the residence of E. R. Ellis, 1912 Buchanan street about 1 o'clock Thursday morning. A delayed alarm turned in by a street car conductor proved too late for the fire department to save the building, which was a five-room frame structure.

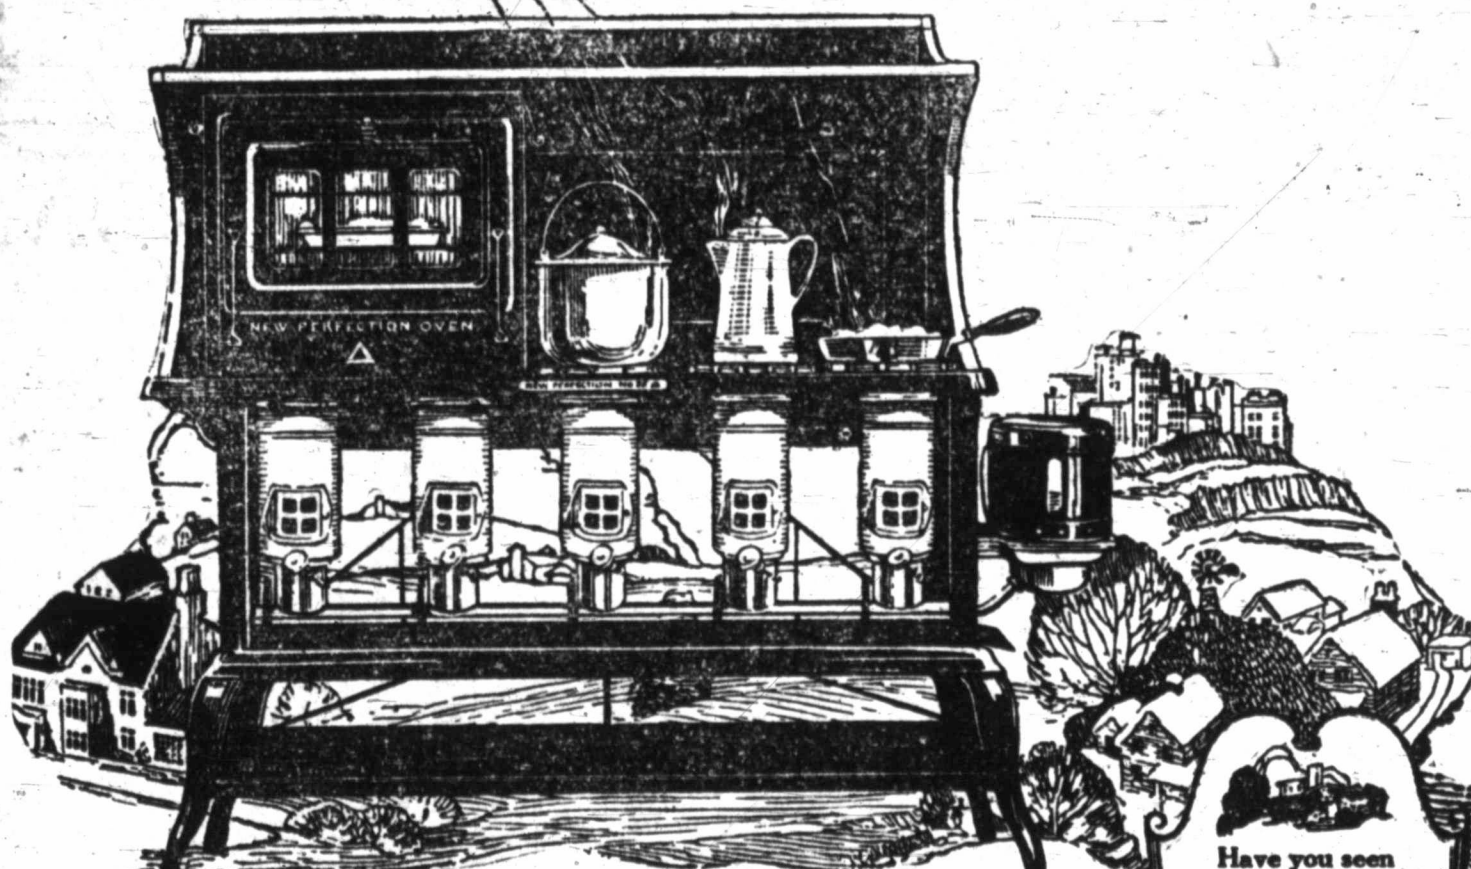

The origin of the fire is unknown. The only persons in the house at the time the fire started was Mrs. Ellis and her two children, who were awakened by the smell of smoke.

Practically nothing was saved from the house, and the loss is estimated at $4,000, part of which is covered by insurance.

SHRINE CIRCUS OPENS SATURDAY FOR ONE BIG WEEK OF FUN

MASKAT TEMPLE IS ONE OF THE CITY'S BIGGEST INSTITUTIONS

It was Frank Collier, Otto Siehlik, W. Y. Hammack, Joe E. Ward, E. M. DeLocher and others in 1920 who started work on the Shrine Club for Wichita Falls, which resulted in the granting of dispensation for a Temple at the Imperial Council session held in Portland, Oregon, on June 24th, 1920. Wichita Falls, never saw a greater crowd on any occasion than was gathered here on August 31st, 1920, when Maskat Temple was instituted by Imperial Potentate Ellis Lewis Garretson, now deceased.

Walter Deering Cline stepped to the firing line about the time the boys got ready to ask for dispensation and as they were commencing plans for the Portland trip. Everyone knows how Walter worked with his collar rolled up to his ears, and his own (his own) at Portland to put over the dispensation for Maskat Temple. A year later the Temple having progressed under the most favorable conditions, Walter again visited the Imperial Council session at Des Moines, Iowa, and secured a charter of permanent authority for Maskat Temple, which now has a membership of 1450.

Walter is not only "some pots" (we think, the best in North America) but he is also "some politician" and "some oil man," as well. He served the City of Wichita Falls as Mayor during the boom period and accomplished a great deal of constructive work. His oil interests are scattered all over Texas and Louisiana. He also has a plantation in Louisiana where he can often be found fishing "n everything." He is known in Shreveport as "Golden Smile Walter," where he can often be found fishing "n everything." He is known in Shreveport as "Golden Smile Walter," where he can often be found fishing "n everything."

Potentate Walter D. Cline, says that our Band and Patrol recently up with any of the uniformed organizations that attended the Imperial Council session held in San Francisco. The Band was organized by Noble Joe E. Ward at the time the Shrine club started to secure dispensation for a Temple for Wichita Falls. Joe was also its first manager. He served in this capacity until recently when he was succeeded by Dr. D. H. Douglas. Noble Douglas is now assisted by L. V. Lawler, as director, and Jesse Smith as secretary. The Band made a big hit at the Imperial parade. They will create some comment when they lead the patrol down Pennsylvania, Washington, D. C. All the band boys are enthused over the Shrine circus and are working night and day for its success. The membership is as follows: H. M. Craig, L. C. Taylor, R. V. Ray, F. E. Martin, W. H. Bennett, R. W. Gutzler, J. F. Stell, R. Scholberg, H. McMillan, A. E. Cashburn, L. V. Lawler, K. E. Bauch, W. G. Church, W. P. Crews, J. M. Burkett, B. Vesch, B. Dunning, C. J. Templeton, O. S. Carpenter, A. F. Quimby, H. C. Kimes, M.

Muehberger, R. M. Hurley, C. B. Clement, B. R. Ellis, A. H. Douglas, R. J. Yax, J. M. Williams, F. Malacord, A. J. Oheim, W. F. Jones, D. E. Blue, R. K. Pond, A. H. Schumm, J. W. McGuire, W. S. Robertson, G. Woodruff, J. S. Smith, W. E. Bishop, H. B. Goodrich, Eugene Hardy, M. H. Benson and R. G. Stephenson.

Next we come to W. W. Gardner—just "Bill" for short. Bill was reared on a farm over by Jolly good nature and disposition. He is a left handed golf player, and the only time he has ever been known to get mad was on the golf course. On that occasion he threw his golf club away. He is vice president of the Wichita State bank and well known throughout northwest Texas.

Next we call your attention to R. E. Shepherd, oriental guide of Maskat Temple, and the greatest singer in these parts. "Shep" is always singing—at Sunday school, church, Shrine meetings—everywhere. The temple would not be complete without Shepherd. He is cashier of the City National Bank of Commerce, and is well known in banking and fraternal circles throughout this section.

We have now reached the man who handles the money, W. M. McGregor, who has been treasurer of the temple ever since it was instituted. His dependable services are greatly appreciated by the officers and members of the Maskat Temple. He is president of the First National bank. He was recently inducted to sit for a picture to be used in the official publication of the temple—"The Maskat Wildcat"—the result of which is that a life size portrait of him now hangs above his desk in the bank, having been presented to him by the directors and employees of that institution.

Last, but not least, we approach the ceremonial director in very cautious manner, as the director in any Shrine temple will always bear watching (by the novices during a ceremonial session). Albert Ellis has been director of work ever since the temple was instituted. He was assistant director of work for Esarab Temple, Atlanta, Ga., before coming to Wichita Falls, and he is well versed on all matters pertaining to the operation of a Shrine temple. He has made a great many friends since coming to Wichita Falls. No single individual has given more time and interest toward the advancement of the temple than has Director Ellis. He has never made a report on his trip to the Shrine Directors of North America.

ONLY HIGH CLASS ACTS TO BE SHOWN IN SHRINE CIRCUS

The band will soon play, the circus callopie will soon arrive and in a loud voice proclaim to all Wichita Falls that the circus performers are arriving to get in the harness for their big performances in the circus tent.

All through this section of the country can be heard remarks such as "Is this a real circus?" "Are they actually going to have real, honest-to-goodness professional clowns and real show folks?" We'll set everybody's mind at ease, the circus production committee, after five weeks of hard labor, is now ready to inform the public that 20 actual clowns and real artists who have appeared at every big city in the country in the past few years will now arrive in Wichita Falls. Besides, this circus has a lot of extras, the biggest snakes ever captured alive, all of which go to make up the big show, will be here. Every act is a real one. Every performer has in the past years appeared with the biggest in the country.

"Sensational human, trapeze and iron jawed marvels." This is the headline of the Rosards Trio.

The next attraction, Hays & Hays, gymnasts, wire walkers and acrobats, cradle trapeze ring act and slack wire acrobat act. This is what the Hays & Hays troupe features. They are making a jump from Detroit, Michigan, where they recently appeared in a Shrine circus.

From Des Moines, this is a real act.

Stofer & De Onzo wired yesterday from Spanish Fort Park, where they were held over for two more weeks, that they will arrive here Friday night. This phenomenal roller skating and barrel jumping act was a great attraction at New Orleans.

Every circus wants something different, and Maskat Temple has contracted with a novelty feature act—the Aerial Magicians—who are now appearing at the King Kool Karaval at Hensetta, Okla. "What a wonderful and original act!" This is the comment of the Oklahoman.

They carry costly rigging and a magnificent wardrobe. From press reports and Spanish interpretations this attraction is proclaimed by the city of Duquesne, Ala., South America, to be something out of the ordinary.

The Evansville Courier of May 13 states that the McCune-Grant trio received more applause than any other act that appeared there in the Shrine circus in May. This attraction carries 2,000 pounds of

SIDE SHOW COMMITTEE IS ARRANGING SPECIAL STUNTS

If the plans of Julian Montgomery and Norris Ewin, chairman and vice chairman, respectively, of the home talent side show committee of the Shrine circus, do not miscarry the side shows will be the outstanding feature of the Shrine circus to be held at Spudder park for seven days beginning Saturday, says an announcement, which continues:

"In addition to its chairman and vice chairman, the personnel of the committee of live wire handling this feature of the circus, is as follows: Luther Hoffman, C. C. Handie, Sherrill D. J. Carithers, Joe B. Hatchett, J. M. McFall, Dave Paul and J. Wilkie Talbert, the latter to serve in the role of official 'balahoos' for the side shows."

"In the world renowned 'Luciel, Have You Seen Luciel?' these Shrine men offer to the public a feature which has been shown before in crown of Europe. It is reported that upon its presentation in London, England, that the house of lords, then in session, suspended all business and adjourned in a body to witness the marvel of the ages, Madame Luciel, the most perfect physical specimen yet known. It is claimed by those who have seen Madame Luciel that she surpasses in beauty and charm any living creature. So shapely is her body that all other famous beauties are put to shame in comparison with her the famous Annette Kellerman appears as a harvest hand. She is declared by all to stand alone in the realm of Europe in which she rules. In bringing her to Wichita Falls the committee feels that they have accomplished much. An enormous expense was incurred, for the madame commands—a salary which equals that received by the most famous artists of the world. She is able to receive more than Madame Homer and Madame Schumann-Heink combined. Heretofore she has only appeared in the large cities of Europe. This is absolutely her first and only appearance in America. It was only through her devotion to J. Wilkie Talbert, a member of the committee, that she was persuaded to risk the heat of Wichita Falls at this season of the year. A hard struggle, love finally conquered and she agreed to come to Wichita Falls for the work of the Shrine circus, when she found that the sweetheart of her youth was a member of the committee.

In addition to this stellar act of Luciel, this committee will also have charge of the great five-in-one show. This show will especially appeal to the frugal, since five shows are offered for the price of one. The first half of the week these offerings will be: 'The Shimmy Shaker,' 'The Bridal Chamber,' 'Fancy Diving,' 'For Men Only' and 'The Great American Hat.' The last half of the week an entirely new program consisting of the following will be offered: 'The Great Swimming Match,' 'The Market Menagerie,' 'The Original Teddy Bear,' 'Bonaparte Crossing the Rhine' and 'The Attack on the Block House.'

The side show committee has spent no small amount in contracting for the finest features available, and when the gates are finally swung open on Saturday next, the committee knows that its efforts will be appreciated by all who like good, clean, wholesome amusement. Much could be written on each of these shows, but the men in charge had rather leave the final verdict to the friends of Maskat Temple. Suffice it to say that if you should miss either of these great shows, you will have missed the funniest, cleverest and most mirth-producing attractions on the entire lot. Make a note now that you will see both 'The Five-in-One Show' and the great feature, 'Have You Seen Luciel?'

FOUR THOUSAND FEET OF CONCRETE POURED TO NORTH OF ELECTRA

ELECTRA, TEXAS, June 22.—Four thousand feet of concrete have been poured on the highway extending six miles north of Electra, and the project somewhat, as has the charge of the work for the H. K. McCollum Construction company, expects to have a mile of the road finished by Saturday night. His crew is working in the Magnolia flats just north of Electra.

Shortage of labor has hindered the project somewhat, as has the extremely hot weather. Saturday afternoon the men quit unloading rock and gravel because of the heat.

MASONIC OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED AT SEYMOUR

SEYMOUR, TEXAS, June 23.—Last Tuesday evening Seymour Lodge No. 404, A. F. and A. M., installed its incoming officers for ensuing year as follows: Dutton J. Balle, worshipful master; Rev. J. T. Strange, senior warden; J. R. Fancher, junior warden; E. T. Goss, secretary; G. E. Whiteside, treasurer; H. L. Jett, senior deacon; J. C. Gowin Jr., junior deacon; and M. L. Coy, sayer.

The lodge has almost matured its plans for the early erection of a Masonic temple to cost about $25,000.

SHRINE CIRCUS PARADE IS TO BE A GORGEOUS PAGEANT

In order that no detail of the circus would be overlooked, C. U. Daniels—Dan for short—was appointed as chairman of the parade committee. Dan built the staff at the end of Seventh street. He made good. The parade under his direction will be an overwhelming success. As soon as Dan found that he had been "slugged," he began to look around for an able assistant, which he found in George A. Alexander Jr. George has worked hard, but he says he will be rewarded after the folks have seen the parade on July 1. If you have an entry for the parade or need any assistance, call George at 2312; he will assist you.

In addition to his able assistant, Dan appointed 14 committees to attend to the details and see that all merchants, industries, oil companies, civic clubs, fraternal organizations and others were given an opportunity to be represented in the pageant. Among the features will be the Shrine Divan in full regalia on a special float designed for the occasion, the wonderful Shrine band in full uniform, the incomparable Arah patrol, the Electra drum corps, De Molay patrol, Boy Scouts, fraternal societies, civic clubs, decorated cars from the various oil companies, banks, automobile dealers; in fact there will be a place for every one who wants to assist in the parade. Perhaps the most beautiful section will be that of the civic clubs which will be handled under the able assistance of Mrs. T. B. Smoek and Mrs. John Naylor. The retail and wholesale merchants will have an exclusive section and it is expected that their floats and cars will be a huge display. The fire department will be out in full array with Mr. McClure, the big chief in the lead.

It is understood that the parade will be the greatest demonstration of local pride and progress that has ever traversed the streets of Wichita Falls, and it is estimated that fully fifty thousand people will be on hand to witness it. Eighth street from Lamar to Indiana, and Indiana street from Ninth to Ninth will be roped off and cleared at 11:30 p. m., so that every one will have an opportunity to view the parade. No vehicles will be allowed in the roped space until after the parade passes. The pageant will form on Scott street south of Tenth with an end line on Fourteenth street. Mounted Officers Horrace A. Robbins and I.

beautiful float; $25 for the second, and $15 for the third. A reviewing stand is to be provided on one of the downtown corners where there will be five lady judges who will award the prizes.

Those who are assisting on the parade are as follows:
Mrs. T. B. Smoek, Mrs. John Naylor, Frank Collier, Charlie Nolen, Charles Eubanks, J. H. Barnard, E. E. Shepherd, W. B. Brown, Clarence Moore, Leet Cathy, Albert Ellis, Joe Bashara and Will McClure.

The parade as well as the circus is an attraction that is open to the public and everyone is cordially invited to attend.

SACRED ELEPHANT IS TO BE FEATURE OF THE CIRCUS

What had been planned to spring as a surprise party, a coup-d-etat as it were, and something to be announced at the last minute, has been forced from its secret hiding place in the archives of the circus management, on account of unwarranted curiosity on the part of certain would-be knockers.

That the men in charge of the Shrine circus are experienced and veteran show men, every one who has met them will admit. That an experienced show man knows without being told, that a circus is not a circus without an elephant, everybody likewise knows.

That these same veteran show men who have from day to day started an unsuspecting public with announcements of new features in every new issue of the press, would naturally hold back something and not lay all their cards on the table at once, has been surmised by the public.

Notwithstanding this apparent masterly manner adopted by the management to daily announce more extraordinary features than the day before, some impetuous persons have persistently been dinging at the committee, "How about the elephant?" "You haven't said anything about the elephant." "A circus without an elephant," etc., etc.

To stop all this hub-bub about an elephant, Recorder Cliff Frits of the Shrine stated to a representative of the Wichita Times that the management had not only not overlooked this important feature, but had secured more than an ordinary elephant, they have arranged for the temporary loan of a sacred white elephant. This unusual feature has been kept a secret for many reasons but principally because of the reverence in which the sacred white elephant is held by natives of some countries and a prejudice on their part against using the sacred white elephant for anything other than religious ceremonies.

Elephants are not as easily handled as lap dogs and they sometimes have notions of their own. Elephants as a rule are attached to their keepers regardless of who the owner might be and a sacred white elephant constantly in charge of one keeper from babyhood on (the elephant, not the keeper) fed on the choicest morsels of elephant diet; kow-towed to, worshiped, fawned over and idolized, in time becomes peevish and spoiled! Al Ellis, Maskat's iron hand ceremonial director, says it is absolutely out of the question to attempt to accomplish anything with a white elephant by speaking harshly to it. He says you can't even do anything with him by speaking gently either, so far as that goes, because a white elephant doesn't understand United States lingo. He says to get anywhere with a white elephant you have to talk Hindoo to him and Al says he is awfully rusty on his Hindoo. When Al took his troubles to Pote Walter Cline the latter told him nothing doing and furthermore said he didn't propose to take any chances on mixing his Hawaiian phrases with Hindoo, thereby causing confusion with the new Hawaiian Imperial Potentate.

There was only one thing to do, if the sacred white elephant was to show his Hindoo keeper had to show with him, and on the Hindoo keeper's own terms, so this was agreed to. Recorder Frits says it is the best arrangement after all, as if Maskat had the sacred white elephant on its hands for a week in advance it would probably eat up all the profits, and as it is, the keeper has to look after his feed and pay for it himself. The officers of Maskat Temple have decided they don't want to take any chances on having a sick elephant on their hands and possible international complications with a foreign government. The Hindoo keeper will have charge of the elephant and he will be in the big parade.

AUTO DISPLAY PROMISES TO BE BIG FEATURE OF CIRCUS

The accelerator is a piece of phenomenon which responds quickly and accurately to the touch of a combination of muscles, tendons, tarsals and meta-tarsals, which emits the necessary fluid to escape through the manifold into the carburetor where it is properly mixed with the ingredients of hydrogen, oxygen and carbon dioxide; thence conveyed by force of gravitation to the cylinder head where it is promptly greeted by a sharp spark of light which has quickly wended its way from the trembler over insulated wires to the spark plug; the consequential effect is that a combustion occurs which in turn forms a power acting with force against the piston, a metallic device in the cylinder which conveys the power to the crank shaft; at juncture it is highly important that a few simple maneuvers be performed with planetary gear system which unites with the transmission; the mechanism is so constructed that nothing more is required but a slight backward movement of the clutch, which provides the missing step, and without further enlightening explanatory remarks it is useless to remind the individual that you are on your way for a joy ride.

However there was one matter of momentous bearing that is pertinent to bear upon, namely, the lubrication. Inasmuch however, as this is performed automatically by an intricate and complex constructed pipe of mechanism it would be unbecoming conduct to comment further.

All of which goes to prove that we common folks know but little about an automobile.

Bearing this in mind and with the best of intentions to make the Shrine circus educational as well as entertaining, Potentate W. D. Cline, Caruso R. E. Shepherd and several other of the hi-moguls who perceived the idea of giving away automobiles as souvenirs, finally succeeded after months of pleading to have the local automobile dealers condescend to put on exhibition their latest model cars and explain to the unsuspecting public that nowhere in the United States is it possible to purchase and behold such beautiful, wonderworking and economical cars as are sold right here in our very midst.

But no fooling, the local automobile dealers admit it that their tent will be the most entertaining place on the grounds and that anyone who fails to enter this enclosure will have sadly neglected a patriotic duty.

The man in charge of each car will be able to prove to you conclusively that an automobile is like a Shrine especially in one respect and that is that it doesn't take a great deal of lubrication to make it most active.

The automobile tent has been di-

GREAT CROWD AT RICHEY SERVICES WEDNESDAY NIGHT

PALACE THEATER NOT LARGE ENOUGH TO ACCOMMODATE THROG.

FORTY-NINE RESPOND TO APPEAL OF EVANGELIST

Several Give Evidence of Relief From Deafness and Other Afflictions.

By FRANK S. REID.

At 6 o'clock last evening the Palace theater was half full of people eager to hear and see Mr. Richey, the healing evangelist. At 7:30 hundreds were turned away; the entrances were densely packed with people who could just get to the door. Perhaps never in the history of Wichita Falls has such a scene been witnessed of a religious nature, as has been seen at this time.

Of course, many came out of mere curiosity; others with every faith to believe that his call be cured; others out of a religious sense of duty, and others who truly are seeking God. Mr. Richey selected for his text the sixth verse of the eleventh chapter of Hebrews, wherein it says: "Without faith it is impossible to please Him." He said: "You have faith in your business; you have faith in the firm you are working for; you have faith in your state officers; you had faith that here tonight or you wouldn't have come. What is faith? It is the following of God. Let us have faith and expect God tonight. Faith is trusting in God. Let us hear God tonight; God wants us to trust Him tonight; accept Him for the healing of your bodies. God wants us to invite Him. How many of you in this house have ever invited God; how many have faith and trust in God?"

CALOMEL GOOD BUT AWFUL TREACHEROUS

Next Does May Sallivate, Shock Liver or Attack Your Bones

You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It cracks into your bile like granite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system. If you feel blood, headache, vomiting and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money. Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tonic straightens you right up and you feel great. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and can not sallivate. (adv.)

PUBLIC WEDDING IS TO BE A UNIQUE CIRCUS FEATURE

For the first time in the history of Wichita Falls the citizens of this city and vicinity will witness a public wedding, and Maskat Temple Circus production committee is to be congratulated on this novel idea. When the first announcement was made and the circus production committee sent out a call looking for the prospective parties that were waiting to be married, some of the boys on the committee were very skeptical. They were under the impression that it would be impossible to get any response. Well, you would be surprised. Letters came pouring into the office in bunches. Out of almost a score of contestants, and after careful consideration, Burt Smith and Miss Jennie Richey were selected. You heard the old saying: "Here comes the bride, close by her side, in this case they don't have to hide. The preacher 'll be there to see that everything is fair, what funny smiles the couple will wear. The atmosphere may get hot, for the wedding in the circus top when the room at eight o'clock gets about Maskat's band they will play, while the couple to the preacher 'll away, all attired in their wedding array. If you've never had any fun and want to see things start a hum, you start toward the circus tent on the run. Remember the date, before it gets too late. Its Wednesday at

Wednesday morning about 50 live wire boosters from Goree accompanied by their band arrived in Seymour in the interest of their July 4 celebration, their visit lasting about an hour and a half. Hon. E. L. Covey, state representative was among the boosters and spoke in behalf of Goree and its plans for the celebration. Hon. I. D. Newton responded in behalf of Seymour and extended a welcome to the visitors. Thirteen million people attend moving picture plays each day in the United States.

JUMBO, PET SNAKE, HAS AN APPETITE ALL OF HIS OWN

Several weeks ago the recorder of Maskat Temple in contemplation of the Shrine Circus ordered a large Mexican bull snake. The snake arrived in due time and was an office pet for several weeks. He was introduced to a great many of the town folks, much to their satisfaction. Three weeks ago, the snake was taken out on Pearl street, where the weeds and sun flowers are the highest in Texas, and turned out. Several days ago the Recorder happened to be driving down Pearl street and noticed the snake. He had made an enormous and phenomenal growth. After some inquiry it developed that the neighbors on Pearl street had missed dozens of chickens, cats and cove of eggs, that the rats, mice, moles, in fact all the rodents had disappeared. The snake is now 22 in circumference 36 feet long and weighs 283 pounds. Sunday afternoon the Recorder motored down Pearl street. He heard a rustle in the dry weeds and turning around he saw Jumbo. Jumbo saluted, raised his head, crawled into the back seat of the automobile, and will furnish a side show attraction July 1st to 8th, at the big Shrine Circus at Athletic Park.

WOMAN HAS REDUCED WEIGHT OF NATION FULLY FOUR AND A HALF MILLION POUNDS

By NEA Service.
 NEW YORK, June 22.—A woman has reduced the weight of the nation four and a half million pounds. That's equivalent to 30,000 persons of 150 pounds each.

She is Dr. Lulu Hunt Peters of Los Angeles. Many pounds overweight, she set out to come down to normal. She succeeded, wrote a book and passed the secret on to 150,000 others, who lost an average of 30 pounds.

Would you like to reduce this summer. Then read the following article.

By DR. LULU HUNT PETERS
 Author of "Diet and Health: With Key to the Calories."
 Do you want to reduce?
 Then remember—
 Over-eating is the cause of overweight 999 times out of 1,000.
 We are too fond of food—particularly sweets. We have not known food values. As a result—
 Three-quarters of the adult population of this country are too fat! Some of them have taken to dieting—without results.
 I know I did when I was a little girl. I was fat and hated it. So I decided to cut down on my eating. I would go without supper, taking instead—
 An ice cream soda—more fattening than the meat!
 Yet that is the way many persons diet. No wonder they can't reduce. But anybody—no matter how fat he may be—can lose weight by going at it scientifically. It's simple.
 First: Find your ideal weight. To do this, take your height in bare feet, multiply the number of inches over five feet by 5½ and add to 110.

DR. LULU HUNT PETERS AND SOME OF HER ANTI-FAT HINTS

- (1) Some carbohydrates and fats for the fuel foods. Cut these down, but not out.
- (2) Many vegetables, especially of the leafy type. Scrub clean and eat raw. Do the same with fruit.
- (3) Protective foods—milk, and its products, and leafy vegetables on account of their vitamins and essential salts.
- (4) Enough protein to supply your repair needs.
- (5) Ninth: Chew as you never chewed before. Prolonged chewing reduces the appetite and is beneficial in many ways.

BANNER YIELD FOR WHEAT AT ELECTRA FOURTEEN BUSHELS

ELECTRA, TEXAS, June 28.—The banner yield of wheat officially reported for this section so far is 14 bushels to an acre. It was grown by a farmer in the Geyer community, just over the Willinger county line.

When the harvest started many farmers were confident of getting a yield of 20 bushels to an acre, and some ventured to assert that their fields would turn out 30 bushels. Black rust is responsible, in the main, for the disappointing yield. However, red rust has also taken a considerable toll, according to Sam Kelly, a leading farmer.

Late wheat is practically a failure according to J. T. Gibson of the Pioneer Implement company. Mr. Gibson has been in touch with farmers from all parts of this section and they tell him their crops looked flattering enough before going into the field. The heads were large and apparently well filled, but upon closer examination they found the stem covered with black dots and when a head was rubbed through the hand it left a black stain. There was nothing but husks. One farmer tested out fifty bundles and secured only a bushel of wheat. He stopped cutting.

Most of the wheat is testing No. 3, although the first load brought to town by O. M. Stidham graded 40 pounds to a bushel. Local buyers are paying $1.03 on basis of No. 1 wheat.

Carrying the furniture of the former Kaiser to Holland called for $3 railway vans.

MERCURY CLIMBS TO NEW RECORD WHEN BULB REACHES 108

Just how high the thermometer would have risen Wednesday had it not been for the breeze is merely speculative but with the breeze blowing the mercury set a new mark for the season when it hit the 102 degree mark at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

The mercury stated at this point but 15 minutes when it dropped back to 107 and receded slowly throughout the night. The minimum temperature for the night was 84 degrees.

A heavy shower fell at 5 o'clock Wednesday evening west of the city. Residents of Call Field reported a heavy rain at that time. A slow rain was also reported from Dalhart on the Deaver from 8:30 to 10:30 o'clock Wednesday night.

High temperatures were reported from all points on local railroads

Wednesday and the night was a comparatively warm one. Partly cloudy skies were reported from the south and east Thursday morning.

A diamond weighing 20 carats and worth $10,000 was found in Arkansas.

DECLARES THE KLAN IS AN INCUBATOR OF HATE AND PREJUDICE

ORGANIZATION DENOUNCED BY FORMER COUNTY ATTORNEY

SAYS THE DEFINITION OF WIZARD IS MALE WITCH

Offers $25 If Klansmen in Robes Will Permit Him to Talk to Them.

WACO, TEXAS, June 29.—Speaking in the Auditorium theatre here against the Ku Klux Klan at a mass meeting called by the Citizens League, former County Attorney O. H. Cross referred to the Klan as an incubator of hate and prejudice.

"I have been begged and persuaded with to change my position, and even on my way here tonight I have had people come to me and tell me my reputation would be ruined if I did not. To hell with my reputation. I'd rather be the most unpopular man in Texas and be right than to be the most popular man and be wrong," declared the speaker.

In part Mr. Cross said: "My heart bleeds for my friends here who have joined the Klan, but I have a different feeling for that bunch of lounge lizards at Atlanta, with hearts of stone who have brought this organization into existence."

Defines Wizard. "Do you know what a wizard is? It's a male witch. Having failed as teacher and preacher, but with an itching palm has succeeded in racking communities, in causing sorrow and heartaches."

"He and those who have been associated with him in this enterprise have stolen the name of the Ku Klux Klan, an organization formed to rid the south of the carpetbagger and the scalawag, organized in self defense to protect men and women of the south when justice was shackled."

"It was not organized to persecute the Jews and the Catholics. A Catholic stood by when Bedford Forrest organized the Ku Klux Klan in Tennessee."

"If Jackson and Lee and Jeff Davis could return to their earth, can you imagine their indignation toward those who have stolen the name of the Ku Klux Klan, to create religious bitterness and prejudice?"

Klan Changes Commandments. "In the cabinet of Jeff Davis, an attorney general, then as secretary of state, was Phillip Benjamin, a Jew, and his statesmanship is known throughout the land."

"No man ever sang the songs of the south as did Father Ryan, the poet-priest."

"Perhaps tomorrow I shall be ordered banished because I have had the audacity to quote from a Catholic priest. The man who reads Father Ryan's poems and doesn't appreciate them hasn't enough sense to read the first reader."

"We got the commandments from a Jew, and the greatest of these injunctions is 'Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.' The Klan has changed it to read 'Thou shalt hate thy neighbor like the devil!'"

"God selected a Jew to be the mother of the savior of the world."

"When it seemed like the Continental army would surely lose, Franklin appeared to France, Catholic, France, for help, and she responded, and Catholic soldiers of France, under Lafayette, Rochambeau and DeGross, marched side by side with Washington's men in the Continental army and helped win the independence of America."

"To Lord Baltimore, a Catholic was given a charter that would have permitted him to absolutely exclude all religions in Maryland, but he decreed that man should be absolutely free to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience. The second state to do declare, following the Baptists, was under Roger Williams in Rhode Island.

Klan and Law. "During the recent investigation of the Klan in Washington, by congress, when they had Imperial Wizard Simmons on the stand, they found that a mansion had been bought for him, and the deed was taken in the name of Edward Young Clark and Mrs. Elizabeth Tyler, and then someone noticed that Simmons was wearing a diamond as big as my fist. One of the members of the congressional investigating committee called Simmons' attention to the diamond, and William Joseph said: 'That's not a diamond; it's an imperial stone,' and then he faints."

"If I were some of those preachers who today permit those masked, hooded figures to come down the aisles of their churches and lay a few paltry dollars on the altar, as Satan did in the Garden of Eden, and then say to them, 'Oh, you white angels,' I'd feel like Judas Iscariot did when he betrayed his Lord and

I'd go out and do as Judas did; I'd hang myself.

"Those preachers are good men; they mean well, but this is what religious intolerance has done."

"We hear that the Klan stands for law and order, but whoever heard of men wearing masks, unless it is to train robbers and burglars?"

"They have to journey to Atlanta and kneel before Edward Young Clark and Mrs. Elizabeth Tyler to get permission to tell the truth."

Heads Threat Klan Sent. "And I have been told that the Klan doesn't threaten people any more. Let's see about that."

Mr. Cross then proceeded to read a letter addressed to a young man at Mart, 18 miles southeast of Waco.

"This letter," said the speaker, "is written on the official stationery of the N. B. Forrest Klan at Mart, and it bears the official seal of the Klan."

"The letter suggested to the party to whom it was addressed that he get some work to do, and not be a parasite on the community, and also that he not permit his mother to work in the field.

"I have been informed that the mother of this boy says that he works in the field by her side, and that she is half crazy, not knowing what the Klan intends to do with her son. We have a statute that makes it a felony to send a threatening letter to a person, and every member of the Klan sending this letter becomes a felon as a result of the sending of this letter," declared Mr. Cross. "The letter was signed 'K. K. K.'"

Motive to Help. "In my opposition to the Klan," said Mr. Cross, "I have but one motive—to help the people I love best. I want no office of any kind. If I hear that the Klansmen must protect his fellow-Klansman in all things three-malicious murder, rape and treason. Don't you know that there's no such thing as malicious murder in Texas?"

"Recently you read in the Dallas News about the edict that Klansmen must trade only with Klansmen, if they think they will get the Jew by boycotting him in a mercantile way, they are mistaken. There is a law against boycotting. I want to urge my friends who are in the Klan to turn from it, for God will not let them prosper."

"Nearly every editor in Texas knows what the Klan is doing, but we seldom read an editorial comment against their practices. I'm so sick of these weak kneed politicians. If we had one that had the sense to come out boldly and fearlessly for the right, he'd sweep the country."

Stirs Up Hate. "The Klan preaches and preaches about the separation of church and state, and it has converted the churches into cauldrons of hate. If stirring up hell is better than paradise, they are preaching a dandy doctrine. I challenge any Klansman, from the imperial wizard to the gent, to meet me anywhere, any time, in joint debate, in a discussion of the Klan. If they'll put on their robes and hoods and come let me talk to them, I'll give them $25. I still have an abiding faith in the men and women of this state and country to destroy this monster of ku kluxism. I believe that we will preserve that masterpiece of the century written by the founders of this country—the constitution."

Oakland Wins!

OAKLAND wins the Sweepstakes Cup—grand prize for cars of all classes regardless of cost, size or weight—in the Sixth Annual Los Angeles-Camp Curry, Yosemite Valley Economy and Endurance Run. Oakland also wins the first prize for cars of its own class.

Fifteen other makes of cars yielded to Oakland's phenomenal record of 49.2 Ton Miles per gallon, according to official A. A. A. records! The actual mileage per gallon for the Oakland car was 29.37. No oil was used and only two pints of water—and the length of the run was 360 miles!

Think of it! Nearly thirty miles to the gallon—through city traffic and over rain-soaked country roads; up steep mountain trails and through sand, hub-deep!

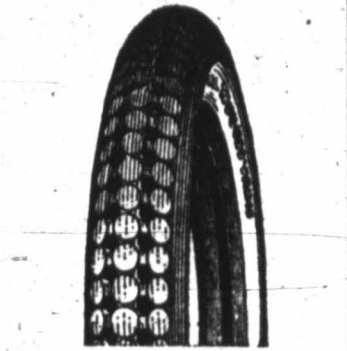

And remember—the New Oakland Car that accomplished this remarkable feat was a stock, five-passenger touring car. You can buy an exact duplicate—you can buy this same economy and dependability in any New Oakland model!

Truly, Oakland is the economy car. It is the only car, backed by 15,000 mile performance guarantee. It is the light-six sponsored by the resources and the prestige of the General Motors Corporation. Can you afford to overlook The New Oakland Six once you decide to spend around a thousand dollars for a motor car?

"Last night I came home with great news. Our savings account had passed the thousand dollar mark!"

"A few years ago I was making $15 a week and it took every cent to keep us going. Then one day I realized why I wasn't being advanced—I couldn't do anything in particular. I decided right then to invest an hour after supper each night in my own future, so I wrote to Scranton and arranged for a course of special training."

"Why, in a few months I had a whole new vision of my work! An opening came and I was promoted—with an increase. A little later another raise came—I could save $20 a month. Then another—I could save $30 each pay day. So it went."

"Today I am manager of my department. We have a thousand dollars saved—and there is a real future ahead."

CRUDE PRODUCTION SHOWS A DECREASE OF 4,350 BARRELS

ESTIMATE DAILY AVERAGE IN U. S. FOR WEEK ENDING JUNE 24

NORTH TEXAS DISTRICT SHOWS SLIGHT INCREASE

Central Texas Field Decreases 5,000 Barrels Daily According to Report.

NEW YORK, June 29.—The American Petroleum Institute estimates that the daily average gross crude oil production in the United States for the week ended June 24 was 1,441,280 barrels, as compared with 1,445,780 barrels for the preceding week, a decrease of 4,350 barrels.

The estimated daily average gross production of the mid-continent (light oil) field, including Oklahoma, Kansas, north and central Texas, north Louisiana and Arkansas for the week ended June 24 was 784,000 barrels, as compared with 787,200 barrels for the preceding week, a decrease of 3,200 barrels.

The estimated daily average gross production of the Gulf coast (heavy oil) field was 107,750 barrels, as compared with 113,100 barrels for the preceding week.

The combined daily average gross production of the southwest field was 551,750 barrels, as compared with 590,300 barrels for the previous week.

Oklahoma-Kansas shows an increase of 3,350 barrels; north Texas an increase of 50 barrels; central Texas a decrease of 5,000 barrels; north Louisiana a decrease of 2,450 barrels and Arkansas a decrease of 2,700 barrels.

The estimated daily average gross production of the Wyoming and Montana field showed an increase of 700 barrels.

According to figures collected by the Institute the imports of petroleum (crude and refined oils) at the principal United States ports for the week ended June 24 totaled 1,922,370 barrels, compared with 2,305,100 barrels for the week ended June 17. Receipts at Atlantic coast ports were 797,000 barrels, against 1,662,100 barrels for the week ended June 17. Receipts at Gulf coast ports were 1,125,370 barrels against 542,600 barrels for the week ending June 17.

FAVORABLE REPORT ON BILL FOR DEVELOPMENT OF RIVERS AND HARBORS

WASHINGTON, June 29.—The senate commerce committee today ordered a favorable report on the big rivers and harbors development bill after adding to the house measure more than a score of amendments to authorize development of the big rivers and harbors.

Chairman Jones was instructed to poll the committee for a final vote on acceptance of amendments directing the federal purchase of the Cape Cod and Dismal Swamp canals, on neither of which action was taken at today's meeting.

Numerous projects as well as new surveys were ordered for the Mississippi river including a survey of the west bank of the river to determine the practicability of a harbor at St. Paul, Minn. The committee also added an amendment giving the Mississippi river commission jurisdiction over the river as far north as Cairo, Ill. instead of the present jurisdiction extending only to Cape Girardeau, Mo.

JAPAN TO PROTEST THE BURNING SUB-CONSULATE

By Associated Press.

TOKYO, June 29.—Japan is preparing a protest to Peking against the burning by Chinese bandits of the Japanese sub-consulate near Chientao in Manchuria across the Korean border.

Special dispatches from Seoul, Korea, report three Japanese killed at Chientao and the hospital and thirty houses burned.

BIELASKI ESCAPES BANDIT KIDNAPERS AFTER FOURTH DAY

SHOWS PLAINLY MARKS OF HIS IMPRISONMENT ON RETURN.

WALKS THIRTY MILES TO SCENE OF CAPTURE

Eludes Captors Before Payment of Ransom Had Been Made By Friends.

MEXICO CITY, June 29.—Escaping from his bandit kidnapers after four days of captivity, A. Bruce Bielaski, former head of the American department of justice investigations bureau, has returned to Mexico City. Covered with dust and showing plainly the marks of his imprisonment, Bielaski was taken to his apartment where his wife and half a dozen friends greeted him.

His friends declare he escaped at Teococ, walking the 20 miles to Cuernavaca near where he was captured last Sunday while motoring. Jules Lacade, head of the Mexico City banking firm which is understood to have furnished the 10,000 pesos ransom on the order of Bielaski's New York company, said he had been authorized to state that Bielaski eluded his captors before the money was paid. Bielaski suffered no more ill effects than might be expected from days of roughing it in the mountains.

Dozens of automobiles carrying Americans who since Sunday have tried to get in contact with the bandits, returned last night, each person telling a different version of the affair and ascribing credit for Bielaski's safe return to several sources.

Press dispatches from Tampico quote W. P. Taylor, manager of the Tampico branch of the Cortes Oil company, as confirming the capture of 40 employees at the company's Aguada company by the bandit Goraave, but do not state whether the ransom has been paid.

WICHITAN IS PART OWNER OIL LAND NEAR EASTLAND

EASTLAND, June 29.—Contracts were let yesterday for two additional wells on the Dakan farm following the bringing in of Dakan No. 1, estimated good for 500 barrels following a shot with 160 quarts.

John Seale and associates will drill the two wells.

Dakan No. 1 is located two miles southwest of Eastland and 1,800 feet from the States Oil Corporation's Martin which came in Sunday with a production of 2,000 barrels. The bridge is being drilled out of Dakan No. 1 and it will then be brought in.

The Dakan farm is owned by W. E. Dakan of Eastland and H. C. Dakan of Wichita Falls. H. C. Dakan has been in Eastland for several days and was present when the well was shot.

Twin Babies for Adoption—

SHRINER family preferred—

These babies will bring comfort and happiness to the home. They will clutch at the heart strings, swaying all before them. Their little voices are so sweet, with just the right tone, not too loud and yet with sufficient volume to bring joy and contentment to all who hear them.

These babies are of noble parentage, well rounded out, not large enough to appear out of place in company, yet big enough to defend themselves in a drawing room.

They are not what you would term the decided blonde or brunette type. In fact their color leans more towards a pretty chestnut hue. Don't think these babies would be expensive to support after once arranged for, because really they are not human as you and I, although they sometimes seem so, for they are the famous

The Tremendous Amount of Oil a Giant Steamer Consumes in One Round Trip

Upper Right—A close-up of the men who see that the "Berenaria" takes aboard all the oil needed for her voyage overseas. The size of the pipes gives one an idea of the large amount of oil-fuel consumed on one trip.
 Upper Left—A birdseye view of the Tanker in the shadow of the huge "Berenaria" the day some 12,000 barrels of oil were being taken aboard. Close examination of the picture will show the coil of pipe through which the oil is gushing into the steamer's great tanks.
 Lower—Jutting out tremendously beyond her pier is the giant Cunarder "Berenaria," recently converted to oil-burning. On the left can be seen the Tanker which loaded her with oil for the return voyage.

Fuel for Atlantic Crossing Can Be Placed in the Giant Cunarder in Half a Day—Her Storage Tanks Filled by Two 8-inch Hosepipes—No Vibration As She Glides Along at 23 Knot Clip.

It takes just about 32,000 barrels of oil to drive the "Berenaria" one way across the Atlantic," said Chief Engineer James Macdonald, O. B. E., R. N. R., as he sat in his cozy dining cabin receiving the congratulations of Chief Consulting Engineer Austin of the Liverpool office of the Cunard Line after the big ship had ended her first trip as an oil-burner. The latter was pleased that the large vessel of 52,000 gross tons had made the crossing so economically. It had been estimated before she left Southampton that it would require 6,000 tons of oil (about 42,000 barrels) to carry her to New York. She came over at a fast clip and at a saving of 10,000 barrels of oil. It is now expected that on an average round trip she will consume about 55,000 barrels of oil.

The Chief Engineer was very much pleased with the behavior of his ship. With the fires kept at a certain pitch—an impossibility with coal—the "Berenaria" clove through the Atlantic at a steady speed which knew no fluctuations. Every hour many tons of oil were fed into her by the simple turning of valves. He said the oil installation was a complete success in every particular and that he was entirely satisfied with it.

MAN AND WOMAN HELD AT PECOS CITY FOR THEFT

Vernon Voss and Lucille Smith of this city are being held by officers at Pecos City, Texas, awaiting the arrival of a deputy sheriff of this city.
 The pair were arrested following the making of a complaint by the man's mother who contends that her son stole her automobile and ran away. According to the sheriff's department the pair were arrested near El Paso early Wednesday morning but were released before word was received from local authorities.
 Wednesday evening, however, they were again arrested at Carlsbad, New Mexico, and returned to Pecos City.

 Wall papers at Decorators, 45-71c

There is no noise such as you find in a big hotel accommodating half as many people as we carry. For instance, you never hear the crashing sound of dishes being washed. There are no smells of cooking. These are carried off automatically. Of course there are pleasant odors about cooking. This chicken—and he tapped his plate—"would please even the most delicate nostrils. But we carry all odors up into the air above the smoke stacks just the same.

Can Be Fueled in Half a Day.
 The Chief Engineer said the big ship could be fueled in half a day. An hour after her arrival at the pier tankers were beside her and oil was flowing into her bunkers through large hosepipes stuck into her side. By this means 600 tons of oil were transferred to her hourly. This was being done while her passengers were disembarking, but no one knew anything about it, so noiseless was the operation. There was no dirt and consequently the portholes and windows were wide open. It is very different fueling a coal-burning steamer. The coal dust flies to the decks and seeps into staterooms and other interior parts of the vessel. During coaling the ship is closed up tight. After coaling a passenger vessel the entire crew has to turn to for a day or so to scrub the grime from the decks.

The "Berenaria" has 46 water tube boilers. There are five oil-burners to each boiler, or 230 in all. One man looks after 15 burners, and his labors constitute little more than being on guard.
 The system of draught to the furnaces is the closed stokehold instead of the forced draught system. The oil installation is a modified arrangement of the "White" oil fuel burning system to suit the closed stokehold system of draught.

Oil Heated for Easy Flowing.
 The oil fuel is carried in the bunkers at the sides of the ship, but not in the double bottom tanks. Eight settling tanks, two in each boiler room, are provided. All storage tanks are fitted with heating coils to facilitate the flow of the oil through the suction pipes. Two 8-inch bore filling stations have been arranged on each side of the ship. From the filling and suction mains a 6-inch bore pipe leads to each side storage tank and each settling tank. An oil transfer pump capable of delivering 100 tons of oil per hour has been fitted in each boiler room. These pumps draw from the storage tanks through the suction main and discharge to the settling tanks. Three pumping and heating units have been fitted in each boiler room. Two units, under full power, are used to supply oil to the twelve boilers in the respective boiler rooms, while the other unit is kept as a standby.

 The oil fuel pressure pumps draw from the settling tanks through the suction strainers and discharge through the heaters and filters to the burners on the boiler front. All outlets for air from the boiler rooms and funnel hatches have, to suit the system of draught, been closed up so that the only outlet for the air is through the furnaces and up the funnels.

The Ship's Propelling Machinery
 The main propelling machinery consists of Curtis-Vulcan turbines driving four shafts. For normal running the turbines are arranged in triple series, the steam passing first to the H. P. Ahead Turbine, then to the L. P. Ahead and lastly to the two L. P. Astern Turbines, which are arranged in parallel. The connecting pipes are so arranged that each shaft can be run independent of the others if required. There are also two H. P. Astern and two L. P. Astern Turbines.

One of the immense rotors of the turbines, containing 50,000 blades, weighs 135 tons and develops itself over 22,000 H. P. The whole of the turbines contain some 700,000 blades, which if placed end to end would stretch for a distance of 124 miles. The casing inclosing the rotors is 25 feet long and 18 feet wide. The shafts are 1 1/2 feet in diameter, and the four propellers are 16 feet in diameter.
 While the power of the ahead turbines is some 62,000 H. P., that of the astern turbines is 35,000 H. P. The ship has four boiler rooms. Each settling tanks, two in each boiler room, are provided. All storage tanks are fitted with heating coils to facilitate the flow of the oil
