FIND AN EIGHTEEN POUND SHELL IN A BELFAST THEATER

BELFAST, July 1.—Incendiaries were busy in Belfast last evening. The police, examining a moving picture house, found an 18 pound shell with fuse and detonator attached. Two bombs were exploded in a building in Carter street, setting the place on fire and a wholesale chemicals warehouse was set ablaze and considerable damage done.

GRAHAM, TEXAS, July 1.—Oliver Jacks, a service car driver who was well known in both Wichita Falls and Graham was shot to death here Friday evening about 3 o'clock at the southwest corner of the court house square by Jim Smith, proprietor of a rooming house, also a service car driver. Four shots were fired, all at close range, two being fired at the right breast about two inches apart, one in the left breast, passing through the head and coming out behind the left ear. The right cheek was badly powder burned.

TO THE WETS, A TRAGEDY; TO THE DRYS, A COMEDY

These boys are sitting on 12 tons of dandelions for which they were paid one cent a pound by the officials of Ponca City, Okla., in a campaign to rid the city of the weed. Many were eager to take the dandelions home; they make good weeds, you know—but disinfectant was put on them to ruin them for beverage purposes.

At the examining trial the first to take the stand was Mr. Bynum, who lives opposite Smith's rooming house. He testified that when he came out on the porch to read Smith and Jacks were talking quietly, Jacks sitting at the wheel of his car, and Smith standing by its side. He said the next thing he noticed was the first shot, which he mistook for a blowout, until the second, third and fourth shots followed in rapid succession. When he looked up, Jacks was lying in front of his car and Smith was advancing toward him, firing as he came.

Mr. Bynum was followed by his wife, whose testimony added very little except that Jacks had walked around his car and stopped as if to talk alone, Pearson left them. The shooting occurred in a few minutes. However, the officer who made the arrest, testified that Smith was reluctant to surrender his gun, saying that he feared an attack.

The gun was a 38 caliber German Mauser, which was found in the barrel when later examined. Deputy Sheriff George Black was the first to witness the dying man and found the cramp to the car already in place for cranking. Smith later claimed that he thought Jacks was a drunk and with a cramp was the reason for his shooting Jacks.

Mr. Jacks' father is a well known resident of Wichita Falls, residing at 525 S. 10th street. Jack's body was prepared for burial by a Graham undertaking firm and is being held until Mr. Jacks' father arrives. Smith, who is being held on $10,000 bond, and the trial set for some time in early September.

NEW SCHEDULES ON COTTON HAVE BEEN SET ASIDE

WASHINGTON, July 1.—The entire fabric of new rate schedules on cotton moving from the Mississippi valley to consumption points through seaboard ports and northern routes, which railroads prepared and attempted to put into effect last fall, was set aside today by the interstate commerce commission.

The general system of new rates was requested under commission orders carrying out the spirit of the long and short haul clause of the interstate commerce act and requiring the roads to cease maintaining rates from certain Mississippi valley cotton shipping centers to outlet points, which were lower than rates simultaneously in effect for shorter distances over the same route and constituting discrimination against shipping points back from the river.

The southeastern railroads in general attempted to iron-out the differences which the commission held unjust by increasing slightly the rates to the outlets from the Mississippi river points where water competition had lowered the rates unduly and decreasing slightly the rates from the interior points to the outlet. The commission held that the attempt in the new schedule to bring about a parity had resulted in too great increases from the Mississippi river centers.

NINE FULL WORKING DAYS IN DECEMBER KILLED IN CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Nine full working days were "killed" by the house in December in sounding up a quorum. Representative Garner, Texas, acting democratic leader, declared last night in a statement after a check up of the congressional record.

"There have been 169 no-quorum calls during the second session," said Mr. Garner, "and twenty-five minutes were required for each or a little more than 45 hours. For an average working day of five hours this would make nine full days consumed in getting the members of the house for business—some record with a republican majority of approximately 157."

THOUSANDS QUIT THEIR WORK IN COMPLIANCE WITH ORDERS FROM HEADQUARTERS OF THEIR UNIONS

By Associated Press. CHICAGO, July 1.—Thousands of railway shompen have dropped their tools today to join the nationwide strike call issued by the international presidents of the six shop crafts unions. Early reports indicated that shop mechanics and their helpers from the New England roads to the western transcontinental lines were generally joining the walkout, with about 80,000 already reported to have actually quit work at midday.

While there was no way of compiling accurate figures which might be all-inclusive, dispatches from points scattered from Boston to Kansas City, showed that the strike had taken effect in shops on nearly all the important roads of the east and middle west.

CHICAGO, July 1.—All hope of averting the nation-wide strike of 80,000 railway shompen apparently had vanished today and the hour for the walkout approached. Ten o'clock was the time set in the strike call for union leaders Wednesday.

Approximately 100,000 shompen—one fourth of the entire number—are at railroad shops in Chicago and environs. It is M. Jewell, head of the railway employes department of the American Federation of Labor, who defied summons to appear before United States railroad labor board yesterday, had apparently decided to remain consistent with his ultimatum last week.

Jewell successfully avoided subpoena servers after the board issued a writ calling upon him to appear. Efforts to locate him were fruitless until after midnight. He declined to comment on the situation. In his ultimatum Jewell told rail executives that the only possible avenue to peace for the railroads to follow was to ignore the decision slashing $6,000,000 from mth wages of the shompen and to restore rules governing overtime pay and working conditions along with an agreement to discontinue the system of piece work on shops farmed out work to contractors.

Declaring that the "blood was on Jewell's own head," Ben W. Hooper, chairman of the labor board, said Jewell's bold appearance and defiance could not result in any reversal of the strike order in time to prevent suspension of work. Railway executives who answered the board's summons and appeared at yesterday's conference virtually removed one of the strike issues when one by one they announced they would abolish the contract system. The board in several cases ruled that the carriers were violating provisions of the transportation act in farming out work.

As the strike loomed inevitable railroad officials declared that the public would scarcely be aware of the walkout except through reading the news. The transportation would continue uninterrupted, they asserted, and in some centers it was indicated that shops would be operated on an open top basis. Definite word from headquarters of the maintenance of way employees at Detroit early today indicated the track workers would remain at work until July 3, at least, pending conferences, left the shop crafts alone in the walkout today.

In pledging to abolish the contract system the New York Central made its agreement only as a means of avoiding a strike. Counsel for the roads, who lines consider the practice legal. The following table prepared from information supplied by the railroad officials, indicates the number of employes in each craft receiving authorization to strike today:

International Association of Machinists, 60,000. International Brotherhood of Boilermakers, Iron Shipbuilders and Helpers of America, 15,000. Brotherhood of Blacksmiths, Forgers and Helpers of America, 10,000. Amalgamated Sheet Metal Workers International Alliance, 11,000. International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, 12,000. Brotherhood of Railway Carmen of America, 15,000. Apprentices, 20,000. Total, 491,000.

Special motorized details of police were assigned by Chief of Police Fitzmorris for duty in streets situated near railroad shops. "I do not anticipate trouble," the chief said, "because I believe the unions realize the value of an orderly strike and the communication to the labor board intimating his intention to ignore its summons to appear at yesterday's conference and questioning the authority of the board to intervene and impose conditions on the shompen, Mr. Jewell declared that union leaders are going to Chicago in conference."

300 SHOPMEN HERE OUT; ROADS PREPARE TO MAKE CONTRACTS

The strikers, in compliance with the strike order, included blacksmiths, carmen, electricians, and machinists. The maintenance of way men remained at work and will do so until the results of the national conference in Chicago is announced. The strike was also included in the walk out.

TURN TO THE TASK OF CLEARING-OUT IRISH INSURGENTS

FREE STATE TROOPS ARE AFTER OTHER NESTS OF THE REBELS. ENCOURAGING REPORTS FROM THE PROVINCES. Ruins of Four Courts Were Still Blazing Furiously Saturday Morning.

By Associated Press. DUBLIN, July 1.—The provisional free state government today turned to the task of clearing out the remaining nests of insurgents following the fall of the four courts, their chief stronghold. The surrender this morning of more than 50 rebels in the Capel street area was heralded as evidence that the morale of the republicans had been weakened by the yielding of Rory O'Connor and Liam Mellows.

The message still confronting not only Dublin but the nation was recognized and the daily minister of defense in a proclamation to the troops of the national army declared that the morale of the people's will and with your aid we will see it to a successful finish.

More encouraging news was received from the provinces early today, including accounts of victories for the national troops in Buncrana and Letterkenney. The government forces are declared to be in control of the entire Tipperary area. As far as Dublin is concerned the plan of action against the irregulars who have established themselves in hotels and other premises that probably assume the form of an intricate movement with intense fields of action in certain areas.

The total casualties in the three days fighting have not yet been ascertained but it is estimated they will not greatly exceed 100. The fatalities being placed at about 70. The next area to receive attention will probably be the Sackville street district, where the republicans last night took over a block of buildings including the postoffice, the Greaham, Granville and Hamman houses. The guests were summarily ordered to leave and turned out into the deserted streets carrying their belongings.

It is reported on good authority that Eamon de Valera is in personal charge of the Sackville area for the republicans. This morning the windows of the building, the ruins of the four courts were still blazing furiously this morning. Nothing remains of the magnificent dome which was a distinguished feature of the building.

The government movement against the Sackville street area was apparently under full headway during the forenoon. An important move made by the national army troops when they took over the buildings in Sackville street opposite the block seized by the republicans.

By Associated Press. EAST ST. LOUIS, July 1.—The 1,100 shop men employed by the Toledo, St. Louis and Western railroad (Clove Leaf) did not strike today because W. L. Ross, president of the road, refused to reduce wages in accordance with the railroad labor board's decree, employees of the road here announced today.

President Ross not only refused to reduce wages of shompen but has asserted he would not reduce wages of any employees at this time. It was explained, Mr. Ross took the stand that commodities and living conditions in general have not returned to normal sufficiently to warrant any wage reduction at the present, it was added.

Miss Gladys Lindsey Attributes Her Slender Grace to Swimming, Diving, and a Medicine Ball.

Beach Athletics, Sea Dancing and Floating Teas—What Next?

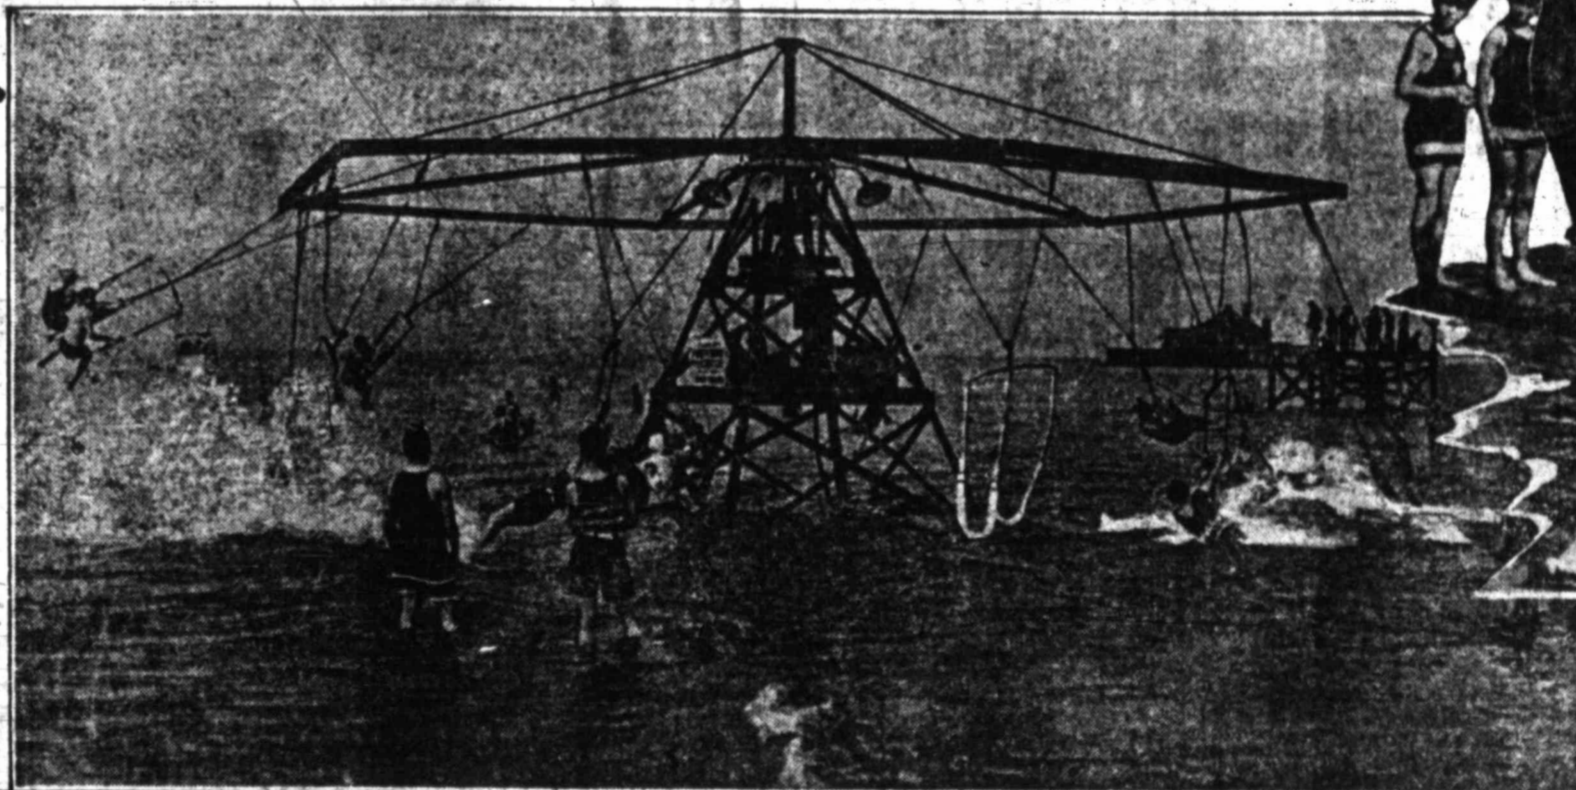

Bathing Fans No Longer Content With a Dip,
Live Now as Amphibian Creatures—
They Patronize a Mechanical Ducking Stool and Even Marry in the Briny.

If some astute professor were trying to prove that humanity was in the act of reversing the process of evolution he could get considerable support for his theory at some of America's innumerable watering places. It would be a bit far-fetched to say that the lovely water sprites he would see there are reverting to a tadpole state. But the amazing ease with which some of them have accommodated themselves to the water does suggest the amphibious rather than the dry land animal.

Thus far this season they have regular classes in calisthenics, played athletic games, done esthetic dancing and had tea served in the water. What may come next is a matter for the imagination. A Savannah, Ga., girl, who says she is never so comfortable as when floating, is thinking of devising a suit which will sustain her in a horizontal position in the water while she takes a nap.

One of the most interesting aquatic novelties developed this season is the water dancing. These movements are called dancing for lack of a better name, although sea eurhythmics comes nearer expressing the art. As a matter of fact they are much more delicate and liquid than ordinary dance movements, principally because the undersea dancer can move in three dimensions. The dry land dancer, except for a few leaps, is limited to two.

These dances were originated by the Beckenham

Wilson Beach on Lake Michigan Has a Ducking Machine for Chicagoans Who Might Hesitate Otherwise.

Ladies' Swimming Club of England. They started as a series of exercises in floating. The first figure formed was the one usually called "The Raft." Five or six swimmers lay horizontally in the water side-by-side, with head and feet alternating. From this figure they would split up in a "Human Waterwheel," which would revolve in the water like a phonograph disc. By splitting up into groups of three they could also form such figures as stars, circles, triangles and the like. Seen from above, these figures, especially when in motion, have a sinuous beauty quite unlike anything ever attempted in traditional dancing.

The activities of the Beckenham Club attracted so much attention that swimmers all over the Continent and in America began experimenting along similar lines. Mile. Ronsey, the celebrated Parisian dancer, worked out a series of folk dances to be executed in the water and popularized the idea so quickly that she established an aquatic school at Monte Carlo. The Farnolds, a French provincial dance, as done in the water by her pupils, is now one of the show events of the resort.

In America, the season has seen several notable contributions to water esthetics, water athletics and water etiquette. It's now bad form at certain California beach resorts to interrupt a swimming party for tea—that is, for tea served in the traditional way.

Tea is now served in the water. When the tea hour arrives, a waitress appropriately clad for the occasion, makes her descent into the water and with the aid of a specially designed floating tray, passes tea around to the swimmers. Of course the fair tea drinkers must know how to tread water to make "tea a la mermaid" a success.

A seaside athletic club was started by Dr. C. A. Vail at Miami, Fla., during the past season and proved so popular that Dr. Vail had to call in several assistants. He evolved the theory that if the morning bath were preceded by setting-up exercises it would be made much more enjoyable and the bathers would be kept in splendid all-round condition. Everybody who joined the classes declared the plan a sure cure for that tired feeling brought on by a previous evening of fox-trotting.

It was also at Miami that the medicine ball was introduced into aquatic diversions. Miss Gladys Lindsey, an athletic instructor, tossed one out among the bathers one day. After that many of them took the ball into the surf with them regularly.

California saw the start of the new game—water pushball. This sport was introduced to the public at Bimini Hot Springs, California, a few days ago, when two teams of women from the Los Angeles Athletic Club staged a battle. There are six members of each team. The side which scores the greatest number of goals in twenty minutes wins. The rules are simple, being based on polo and not much equipment is needed. All that's needed is an inflated ball, three feet in diameter.

The growing popularity of this game has also started a renewal of the agitation in favor of one-piece bathing suits at such resorts as bar them. The players say that anything more complicated than a one-piece interferes with movements that are necessary to the game.

In Chicago, the Wilson Beach concessionaires are lustily advertising their city as the best summer resort in the country and are making it more attractive by inaugurating several new devices for giving bathers thrills. One of these is the new electric swing which is built on pretty much the same idea as the old-fashioned ducking stool. At each revolution everybody aboard is plunged into the water.

A few months ago one of the new school psychologists said that the inevitable tendency to sing while taking a bath was due to a fear complex that the race had developed during the reptile stage.

Arthur Brisbane, the celebrated editorial writer, contests this theory. Water has always been a friend to the straggling human species, he says. The amphibians were able to get away from their enemies by running into the water. Primitive man worshipped the water as a God. Farther along in human affairs water became a tremendous agency of development. By floating ships he could reach remote places that were inaccessible by land. Even as far back as the Phoenicians, men were beginning to recognize that the waterways of the world were drawing the species closer together.

It is more likely, Mr. Brisbane said, that when a man sings at his bath, he is giving vent to feeling of delight that his primitive ancestors bequeathed him.

Early in the spring two couples were married in the water at Atlantic City. The whole wedding party of fourteen equipped themselves with waterproof rubber suits, sailed out to a point about a hundred yards beyond the steel pier, and leaped in.

When there were no real weddings to be had, a mock wedding would be framed. At a water carnival recently held at the West Side Y. W. C. A. in Chicago, Miss Ruth Campbell and Margaret Vallo, acting as bride and groom, went through the ceremony while the other participants crowded around, cheered and splashed water on the groom's mock broadcloth.

Jones Unable To Locate The Platter and Buffaloes Even Series With Spudders

HOUSTON, TEXAS, July 1.—The Houston Buffs evened up their series here yesterday with Spudders by winning 10 to 8. John Paul Jones, one of the latest additions to Sam's hurling staff, performed on the mound for the first time and his debut was anything but a success. He was extremely wild and the home boys had little difficulty in hitting him in the platters.

Manager Whitman also sent a new hurler to the rubber. Milstead, obtained from Bonham, did the honors. Only seven hits were collected off his delivery. He also batted out a couple of knocks himself which figured in the run scoring.

He presented the Spudders a tally in the first. A pass hit batsman wild pitch and sacrifice fly have been responsible. Summa's sacrifice fly scored the runner and it was his single in the third which chased in two more. Bischoff's sacrifice fly in the fourth after White had doubled and taken third on Ruth's sacrifice accounted for the Spudders' fourth tally. Summa's third hit, followed by a wild pitch and White's single gave them their last run in the eighth. The detailed score:

FAILURES IN AMERICAN LEAGUE BUT SUCCESSFUL IN NATIONAL

By BILLY EVANS.

Funny how a change of scenery often gives some ball player a new lease on life.

Every now and then some player is waived out of the National league only to be claimed by some American league club.

In new surroundings, amid different environment, the player waives out of the National league performs in a most creditable manner in the junior organization.

In like manner, players regarded as of no use as American leaguers often go over to the National and prove very valuable to their new clubs.

While most of the critics feel that the New York Giants will continue to show the way in the National league, still the St. Louis Cardinals must be considered very dangerous.

The Cardinals have a strong offense, and if the club gets consistent pitching is certain to hang on to the very end.

On the Cardinals are three players who are performing valiantly, doing their bit in keeping Ricker's club up in the race. These three players were permitted to drift out of the American league.

I have reference to Catcher Eddie Ainsmith and First Basemen Jack Fournier and Del Gainer.

Good catchers are always eagerly sought. For years Ainsmith was a valuable member of the Washington club. He won much fame as the battery partner of Walter Johnson when the "Speed King" was at his best.

Popped Out.
Ainsmith was later sent to Detroit.

Evans vs. Von Elm.
By Associated Press.

KANSAS CITY, MO., July 1.—The middle west faced the far west today when "Chick" Evans of Chicago and George "Von Elm" of Salt Lake City faced each other in the final of the western amateur golf tournament over the Hillcrest course with "Chick" six times held title as champion at stake.

LATONIA DIBY FOR 3-YEAR-OLDS TODAY

By Associated Press.

CINCINNATI, July 1.—Latonia again today will be the battle ground of the east against the west, the occasion being the running of the famous rowing of the historic Latonia derby. The race is for three year olds over distance of a mile and a half and it is added a purse of $100.

Hopes of the east reposed in Olympus and Homer from the Harry Payne Whitney stable, while the westerners led their trust in Thibodeaux, the Cincinnati-owned colt that defeated Morvich for second place in a $50,000 Kentucky special a week ago and was less than his own length behind Whiskaway, winner of that event. Other entrants are Yomi and Margaret Winsor.

GIBSON RESIGNS AS MANAGER OF PITTSBURGH CLUB

PITTSBURGH, July 1.—George Gibson, manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates since the spring of 1920, yesterday announced his resignation effective immediately to his players when they went to the showers after their defeat by St. Louis. Less than an hour later the management of the team announced that Wm. McKechie of Wilkesbarre, assistant manager, would succeed Gibson.

Gibson was for a number of years a first catcher playing in this capacity in the 1890 world's series with Detroit. He was later released to the New York Giants as a coach. He returned to Pittsburgh in 1920, succeeding Hugo Besler.

MITCHELL KNOCKS OUT BURNS IN FIFTH ROUND

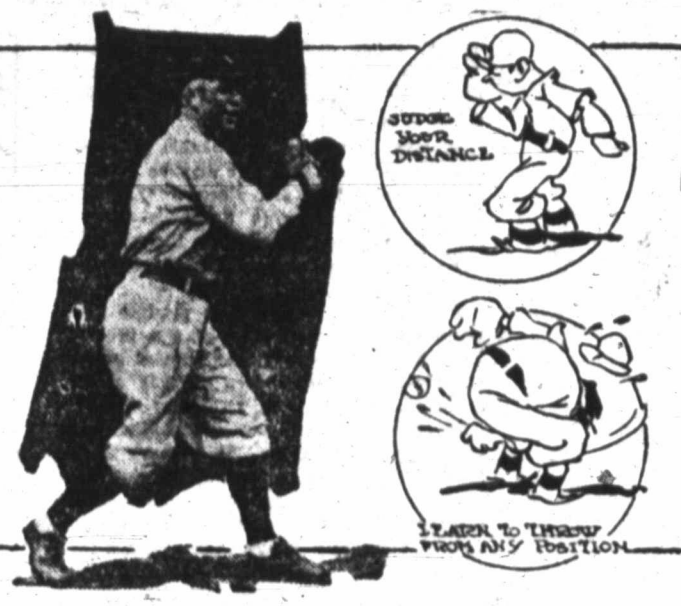

PEORIA, ILL., July 1.—Pinkey Mitchell knocked out Billy Burns of Duluth, Minn., in the fifth round of a scheduled 10 round bout here last night. A right to the solar plexus sent Burns down for the count and he had to be carried from the ring.

Don Allison of Keokaw, Ill., scored a technical knockout over Billy Long of Terre Haute in the seventh round of their scheduled eight round bout. At the close of the seventh round Long's seconds by mistake gave him a drink from the ammonia bottle instead of the water bottle and he rolled off the chair in his corner writing in pain. He was unable to continue the final round.

HOW TO PLAY BALL

By TRIS SPEAKER

Manager of the Cleveland Indians

Never try to make a play on a runner unless you believe you have a good chance to complete it. Taking a foolish chance by throwing the ball home or to third, often enables the batsman to reach second on a wasted effort, when proper baseball would have been to have thrown the ball to second and held the batsman to first.

In a close ball game when there are runners on the bases and the batter hits safely, it is well to hold the batsman to a single, if his run is the tying or winning run.

It is a great asset to a fielder if he is expert on ground balls. If he is weak he should practice constantly. Working on the infield practice helps overcome this fault.

Likewise he should practice being able to throw from any position after receiving a fly ball or handling a grounder.

Tomorrow Harry Hooper will give his ideas on outfield play.

UTILITY COUPÉ

F. O. B. Flint, Mich.

Built Especially for Busy Men

Here is a new closed car built especially for utility purposes in city or country driving.

It also possesses distinct advantages for salesmen, business men, suburban residents and those who need a car for every day use, providing protection against all kinds of weather.

Farmers and ranchers have long wanted a low-priced, economical, closed car of better quality and great durability—completely equipped with all the essentials of modern motoring.

Chevrolet Utility Coupé satisfies this need in every particular.

Under the rear deck is a compartment approximately twice as large as those usually found on coupes.

Chevrolet Invites Comparison Because Comparisons Sell Chevrolet

Consider What Chevrolet Equipment Means:

Standard Rear Axle Construction. The New Superior Chevrolet has the strong, quiet Spiral Bevel Gear Axle that "quiets the gait" without breaking.

Standard Transmission—three speeds forward and one reverse.

Standard Braking System—foot service brake, hand emergency brake.

Standard Electrical System: Starter, storage battery, Remy ignition, electric lights front and rear, on battery circuit.

Standard Cooling System—pump circulation, large, honey-comb radiator and fan. This means a cool, efficient engine, saving gasoline and oil and ensuring driving comfort.

Standard Doors—two on roadster and coupe, and light delivery, four on touring and sedan.

Powerful, Valve-In-Head Motor. The same type as used in successful cars selling at much higher prices.

Standard Instrument Board, containing speedometer, ammeter, oil pressure gauge, lighting and starting switch, and choke pull.

Standard Type of Carburetor, with exhaust heater—one reason why you get most miles per gallon of gasoline with a Chevrolet.

Demountable Rims—extra rim on rear. No trouble to change tires on a Chevrolet.

Many Other Advantages which will be noticed on inspection, comparison and demonstration.

No matter what car you own or think of buying, see the New Superior Model Chevrolet.

SCARAMOUCHE by Rafael Sabatini

CHAPTER VIII. "The door," Alina commanded her footman and "Mount here beside me," she commanded Andre-Louis, in the same breath. "A moment, Alina. No turned to his companion, who was all amusement and to Harlequin and Columbine, who had that moment come up to share it. "You permit me, Alina," said he, breathlessly. But it was more a statement than a question. "Harlequin will take care of you. Au revoir, at dawn." With that he sprang into the carriage without waiting for a reply, and the royal equipage rolled away, leaving the three comedians standing after it open-mouthed. Then Harlequin leaped.

The Resurrection of the Dead OSCAR MAGNUSON

"There shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust."—St. Paul. DEATH, the common and hated enemy of mankind, has led billions to sheol, hades, hell—the good, the bad, the civilized, the heathen. Generation after generation, as waves of the ocean break upon the shore, have broken upon the curse, "Dying thou shalt die." Death has held autocratic and unlimited earthly sway for 6000 years; but King Death has had his day—like other kings.

THE TIME is near for the breaking of the bonds of Death's prisoners! The scriptures emphatically declare that death shall be destroyed. Fulfilled and fulfilling prophecies prove that the world stands upon the threshold of this happy event.

HEAR and consider the proof given in this remarkable lecture that the next few years will witness the awakening of the dead, the reuniting of families, the cessation of wars, profiteering and crime, and the ushering in of the Golden Age of world-wide blessing for all, long hoped for.

"The Truth About Faith Healing" H. D. KNICKERBOCKER'S subject Sunday morning at 10:50 a. m. at the First Methodist Episcopal church, South, corner Tenth and Lamar. Is the day of miracles past? Is there a limit to the power of faith? How much can God do for a man? Was faith intended to take the place of medicine? These and many other interesting questions will be answered from the scriptures, philosophy and common sense. The subject at 8:15 p. m. will be "AMERICA AND THE MENACE OF SEXUAL IMMORALITY." Local facts will be used to illustrate this subject. The preacher will, also, have some plain words to say concerning rumors and gossip about certain members of this church in relation to the above subject!
