EXPECT BONUS TO REACH PRESIDENT WITHOUT A DELAY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—Approved by the senate, 47 to 21, the bonus bill was sent back today to the house by an overwhelming majority. House leaders planned to send the measure to conference today under a special rule which would limit debate sharply. Senate and house conferees will be the same as those on the tariff measure but since there are few points of difference, the president's veto should be dispensed with as they are expected to lay aside the tariff issue enough to frame a report. With favorable action on this report by congress, the bill could be ready for the president.

Both friends and foes of the bonus bill clamored to file satisfactory in this case. Foes pointed out that this showed 65 senators against the bonus, or enough to prevent passage over the president's veto. Friends pointed out that the number of senators supporting the bonus is the largest since the measure was first introduced in 1925.

COMPLETION OF THE STRIKE LEGISLATION NOW UP TO SENATE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—Passed by the house of the administration bill left congress today with a vote of 114 to 61, the measure being opposed by 28 republicans and supported by 28 democrats. It went through as framed except for a change in the amendment by Representative Sanders, republican, Indiana, providing that the law should end January 1.

The bill for control of coal distribution and prices was passed through the house yesterday by a vote of 114 to 61, the measure being opposed by 28 republicans and supported by 28 democrats. It went through as framed except for a change in the amendment by Representative Sanders, republican, Indiana, providing that the law should end January 1.

DEVELOPMENTS IN ANTHRACITE STRIKE INCREASE OPTIMISM

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 1.—Developments in the anthracite coal strike today occasioned renewed optimism for an early settlement of the dispute.

Significant facts of note of the negotiators to bring the two factions together has been successful, much importance was attached to the statement issued by the operators last night that they will yield on the wage controversy if impelled by a "public mandate."

Significance also was placed on the announcement by the operators that they will meet again Saturday. By many this was taken to mean that their attitude will be sufficiently flexible to warrant the resumption of conferences.

Police Investigation In Connection With "Confidence" Cases

DENVER, Sept. 1.—Announcement that there was a grand jury investigation of the Denver police department, filing of suit by one of the victims of the alleged "confidence" cases, and the arrest of a man in an effort to recover money the victim claims to have lost and disclosure of additional information as to the extent of the "confidence" cases, yesterday's developments in a district attorney Philip Van Cleave's campaign against the alleged swindlers.

The raid which resulted in the arrest of more than 30 alleged confidence men who were said to be members of a "million dollar

FRANK D. DUPPE IS HANGED AT ATLANTA KILLED BY DECEITIVE SELF-STYLED "PEACH TREE BANDIT" PAYS PENALTY FOR CRIME

Snatched at Tray of Diamonds From a Peach Tree Street Jewelry Store.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 1.—Frank D. Duppe, self-styled "Peach Tree Bandit," was hanged at the Fulton county jail here at 2:04 p. m. today for the murder on December 16, last, of Jerry C. Walker, private detective, who tried to stop him in his dash from a Peach Tree street jewelry store with a diamond he had snatched from a tray.

SENSATIONAL HOLDUP LEADS TO THE MURDER

The crime for which Frank D. Duppe was convicted was described by Atlanta police officials as one of the most daring and sensational holdups in the history of the city. Entering the jewelry store of Nat Kaiser, in the downtown section of Peach Tree street, in the heart of the business quarter where the streets were crowded with Christmas shoppers on the afternoon of December 16, 1931, the defendant asked to see a tray of diamonds.

PLAN CONTESTS SHERIFF AND REPRESENTATIVE

Two of Saturday's run-off races will be contested, it was definitely announced Friday. Fred Smith will seek a recount in the sheriff's race, which was won, on the face of returns, by W. W. Murphy by a margin of 53 votes. J. D. Farnell will contest the apparent victory of his opponent in legislative race, J. D. Avin, on the ground that absentee votes were illegally cast in that contest.

TRAINMEN ON THE NORTHWESTERN THREATEN STRIKE

A complete stoppage of the Wichita Falls and Northwestern was probably averted Friday afternoon in a conference held between the members of the "big four" and Superintendent F. W. Grace of the railroad.

New First Baseman Joins the Spudders, Indians Get Summa

The first effect of the decision is to take the reparations question out of the hands of the commission, which is to be determined by the guaranties as seems necessary.

HAVE PROHIBITED MEETINGS OF THE DENISON SHOPMEN

DENISON, Sept. 1.—The daily mass meetings of railroad shopmen on strike, which have been held here since the strike began effective July 1, are suspended, and "such meetings" anywhere in the territory have been prohibited "until further orders," in a general order issued here today by Colonel E. W. Nixon, commander of the national guardmen on duty.

BURKBURNETT HAS COMPLETED PLANS FOR CELEBRATION

Special to The Times. BURKBURNETT, TEXAS, Sept. 1.—Preparations are made and everything complete for Saturday's big celebration Monday. A trade trip was made Thursday with about 25 cars making up the party and the route covered included Grandfield, Devo, Rindlett and the north-west field. Another trade trip is scheduled for Friday afternoon and the towns to be visited are Iowa Park, Electra and Wichita Falls. A big street parade will be had on Monday morning and the formal opening of the highways will take place at 11 o'clock. Several thousand people are expected to attend the Monday celebration and a big crowd of buyers are expected to visit Burkburnett Saturday.

One Time Hobo Offers Pay for Rides He Stole

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—Nils Hanson, one time hobo and now a missionary in India, says he owes the railroad of the United States for 40,000 miles of stolen rides. Furthermore he has offered to pay. His story is told in the Pennsylvania News, published by the Pennsylvania railroad system. When he was converted to Christianity Hanson said he became conscience-stricken. His offer to pay was made in a letter to J. B. Aiken, station master at the Chicago union station. Mr. Aiken replied that so far as the Pennsylvania was concerned Hanson could consider the debt canceled. "Inasmuch as there is a complete understanding between you and me, I am sure that the fall reporters you have made will justify you in feeling that the matter is entirely settled," Mr. Aiken wrote.

OUSLEY SPEAKS BEFORE AMERICAN VETERINARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 1.—The closing sessions of the convention of the American Veterinary Medical association were being held here today following a five day gathering attended by delegates from all parts of the United States and several foreign countries. Clarence Ousley of Fort Worth, Texas, formerly secretary of agriculture, in an address declared that millions of head of livestock are suffering or dying and millions of dollars are being wasted as a result of lack of veterinarian attention to animals throughout the country. Mr. Ousley asserted that the veterinarian was a vital factor in the economic and social welfare of the country because he is the "instrument of conservation of animal values and a conservator of human health." He added the science of animal husbandry was being regulated by the federal government and that the state colleges of the country are becoming the leaders in veterinary education. He said the veterinarian of today was compelled to pass more stringent regulations than in former days when he was called a "horse doctor."

GOVERNMENT FORECASTER AT HOUSTON IS DEAD

HOUSTON, Sept. 1.—Dr. R. Bunnemeyer, government weather forecaster here more than a decade, died at home at 2:30 o'clock this morning after a six months illness. Dr. Bunnemeyer was born 43 years ago and came to this county at the age of 19. He enlisted in the United States army, shortly afterwards, serving in the signal corps, which then controlled the weather bureau, and had a varied career in the different branches of the government service. He was sent here 12 years ago. He will be succeeded by L. H. Dalgnerfeld, now in charge of the Hawaiian island station.

STRIKE BEFORE MEETING OF EPISCOPAL BISHOPS

PORTLAND, ORE., Sept. 1.—The case of 400,000 striking railroad shopmen was expected to be placed before this morning's session of the Episcopal bishops by representatives of the six federated shop craft of Portland for the trouble or inspection of the bishops if in their eyes the position of the union is an unwarranted one. Audience was granted following a communication from the union. Bishop Arthur C. Hall of Vermont, spokesman for the conference, said inasmuch as the bishops are meeting in formal conference only they would hear the representatives of individuals and not as the house of bishops.

CALOMEL SALIVATES EVEN WHEN CAREFUL

Freshness Drug in net be Treated and Next Case may Start Trouble. Calomel is dangerous. It may salivate you and make you suffer terribly from soreness of gums, tenderness of jaws and both, swollen tongue, and excessive saliva dribbles from the mouth. Don't trust calomel unless you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic. It is a few drops which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and stimulate you to better and quicker than nearly calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money. If you take calomel you will be sick and nauseated tomorrow; but if you take Dodson's Liver Tonic you will be healthy and cheerful today. No medicine is so perfectly harmless and so effective as Dodson's Liver Tonic.

Jails and Battlefield Groomed Cosgrave and Mulcahy for Jobs

By MELTON BRONNER. LONDON, Sept. 1.—Ireland looks to Richard Mulcahy to be a second Michael Collins and William Cosgrave to be a second Arthur Griffith. Mulcahy, already named commander-in-chief of the free state army, is generally believed to have been Collins' own choice for the post. Cosgrave will likely head the ministry when the fall session meets September 7. Short of stature and spare of frame, with the youthful smooth-shaven face of a scholar rather than a fighter, Mulcahy is credited with having been the organizing brains in military affairs behind Collins' daring leadership. Cosgrave is one of the few fall members having a wide knowledge of public affairs, best fitted, it is thought, to take the political helm. Both men strongly supported the treaty with England negotiated by Griffith and Collins.

MULCAHY

Was Postal Official. Mulcahy in the son of the postmaster of Clons and himself began life as a postal official. In 1916 he joined the uprising and was the real leader in the fight at Ashbourne. Dismissed from the postal service, he became a student in the medical department of the National University. Later he was admitted to the inner councils of the Sinn Fein and rose to chief of staff of the republican army during the famous battle in the fall over ratification of the treaty last winter it was conceded that the result hung upon Mulcahy's stand. Quickly joining Griffith and Collins, his speech was doubly effective. The majority of the soldiers, who loved and trusted Collins and Mulcahy, followed them into the treaty. Mulcahy became minister of defense in the provisional government and remained chief of staff of the army.

Released from Jail. Cosgrave was one of five in the fall cabinet who sanctioned the peace treaty. During the long fall debate he was notable for his soft-spoken, witty speeches which subdued the anger of treaty opponents. He converted wavering members by his mastery of government affairs. Like Mulcahy, Cosgrave is below middle height. He is fair, with gray hair and mustache, and his face shows indelible marks of prison suffering.

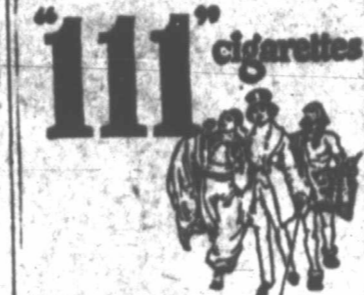

Granted Amnesty in 1917. Cosgrave was elected Sinn Fein member of parliament for Kilkenny City. He was sent to Mount Joy prison by the British and took part in the famous hunger strike that resulted in the death of Thomas Ashe. He was released in bad health and became minister of local government in the first fall, devising the plan whereby local boards refused to turn over books, papers and money to British government representatives. Jails were soon filled with Irish town clerks, but the local government was paralyzed as far as the British were concerned.

Peace Treaty. Cosgrave was one of five in the fall cabinet who sanctioned the peace treaty. During the long fall debate he was notable for his soft-spoken, witty speeches which subdued the anger of treaty opponents. He converted wavering members by his mastery of government affairs. Like Mulcahy, Cosgrave is below middle height. He is fair, with gray hair and mustache, and his face shows indelible marks of prison suffering.

The presence of troops was said to be the cause of the action. Leaders of railroad unions and officials of the road knew nothing of the report, they stated.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS Nancy and Nick Get Queen's Wand

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

Nancy wondered and wondered how she and Nick could get the Fairy Queen's wand for a Flip-Doodle, the purple fairy, who had stolen it. Flip-Doodle and the Twins were sitting together out of bowls with chopsticks. The Twins had invited Flip-Doodle to have some lunch.

Flip-Doodle never once guessed that the little Chinese boy called Nick Oo Ting was just plain Nick. Nan, boy was his twin, Nancy. So he didn't worry much.

He went on eating his rice and flapping his big ears, never noticing that Nancy was motioning to Nick behind his back.

All at once he heard Nick say: "Please, Green Shoes, take us down to the Earth, to the Fairy Queen's palace."

Flip-Doodle made a jump and a grab, but he was too late. The Twins, holding tight to the magic wand, were already far away in the sky, traveling heading toward the earth as fast as two little comets.

U.S. GOVERNMENT ENJOINS STRIKERS

obligation by the railroads should be met by the strikers. The government is not making any attempt to prevent the strikers from continuing their strike. The government is not making any attempt to prevent the strikers from continuing their strike.

The suit was filed shortly after the arrival of Attorney General Daugherty in Chicago. The plea for injunction named the railroad employees department of the American Federation of Labor, the six striking shop crafts and 120 system federations. The suit seeks to restrain strikers from interfering in any way with the operation of the railroads. It was filed before United States District Judge Wilkeon almost immediately after the attorney general arrived.

SUIT FOR INJUNCTION FILED BY GOVERNMENT

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—Suit for an injunction against all striking employees of the railroads of the United States and their union officials was filed in the United States district court by Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty here today.

The suit was filed shortly after the arrival of Attorney General Daugherty in Chicago. The plea for injunction named the railroad employees department of the American Federation of Labor, the six striking shop crafts and 120 system federations.

Soon after the arrival of the attorney general, Blackburn, Easterning, assistant attorney general, appeared before Judge Wilkeon and began reading a copy of the petition for a restraining order. The application was sweeping in character and sought to prevent all interference with operations of trains or with railroad property in any way.

The application for injunction specifically named the presidents of the various union organizations involved in the present strike, which started July 1, last, following wage decisions of the railroad labor board reducing wages of railway employees throughout the country.

The suit also enjoined against conspiring, combining, confederating, agreeing and arranging with each other or with any other person or persons, organization, or organizations, to interfere with or hinder said railway companies in the conduct of their lawful business of transportation of passengers and property in interstate commerce and the carriage of the mails.

Provisions for restraining the suit sought to enjoin all railway employees, attorneys, servants, agents, associates and members and all persons acting in aid or in conjunction with them, primarily, until final hearing and permanently thereafter, from in any manner interfering with, hindering or obstructing the railway companies, their agents, servants or employees in the operation of their respective railroads and systems of transportation or the performance of their public duties and obligations in the transportation of passengers and property in interstate commerce and the carriage of the mails and from in any manner interfering with, hindering or obstructing the agents, servants and employees of said railroads and systems of any of them, engaged in interstate commerce, from the use of trains, locomotives, cars and other equipment, or from preventing or attempting to prevent any person or persons from freely entering into or from continuing in the employ of said railway companies for the purpose of inspection and repairs of locomotives and cars or otherwise; or to induce, interfere or hinder any employee of the railway companies in the performance of their duties as such employees or while going to or returning from the premises of said railway companies in connection with their said employment, or at any time or place by displays of force or numbers, the making of threats, intimidation, acts of violence, improper force, suggestions of danger, taunts, entreaties or other unlawful acts of conduct towards any employees or officers of said railroads, companies or towards any persons desirous of or contemplating entering into such employment.

CHARGE GOVERNMENT HINDERING THE RAILROADS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—Leaders of the striking shopmen will not share their attempts to make their strike effective whatever action is taken by the court in Chicago as a result of injunction proceedings instituted by Attorney General Daugherty, it was said here today by W. H. Johnston president of the International Association of Machinists, one of the largest striking groups.

"The filing of this suit is just another blunder to be added to the large list which the administration has already made in dealing with the railroad situation," Mr. Johnston said. "I am surprised Mr. Daugherty isn't attempting to restrain the railroads instead of the men. The administration has done everything it could to help the railroad management."

Mr. Johnston asserted that "it would take more than a mere injunction suit or an injunction to prevent the complete collapse of some of these railroads in the next 30 days," and added: "We shall continue with the strike whatever happens. We are not afraid of anything the courts can do. Men still have some constitutional rights in America and we shall stand on them."

Word of the court action begun in Chicago had a bombshell effect among labor leaders generally and there were many expressions of surprise among government officials themselves. The secret of the contemplated action had been well kept and the attorney general had slipped out of Washington with few of his close associates knowing of his intentions.

At the department of justice officials would make no comment whatever on the proceedings, saying the position of the government was set forth fully in the petition submitted to President Harding's recent address to congress in which he pledged his administration to "use all the power of the government to maintain transportation and sustain the right of men to work."

President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor asked for all details about the Chicago proceedings before he was willing to comment, but indicated that the federation would act before the public, before the day was over, its opinion of the use of the injunction in connection with a strike of the magnitude of that now in progress.

Officials of labor organizations in the meantime pointed out that there had been "a bushel of injunctions" granted to railroads against local strike organizations which they asserted had in no way interfered with the effectiveness of the strike.

The shopmen, according to the labor view, are not engaged in unlawful action and cannot be forced by injunctions to go back to work.

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—Police and federal operatives launched a vigorous drive here today against railroad and terrorist believed to be behind railroad wreck and bomb plots.

The roundup began with the arrest of a man charged with bombing the home of two workers in the Illinois Central shops at Burnside.

Frank R. Hartman, one of a trio arrested yesterday in connection with an alleged plot to blow up the "western express" on the New York Central, was still in custody today, although the other two were released.

WHIPPED BECAUSE HE DIDN'T WORK AND THEN WHIPPED BECAUSE HE DID.

A traveler in a covered wagon who passed through Byers a few days ago told a tale that got onto the first page. The man said that he lived in West Texas and had nothing to do. One night he was taken out by a party of men and whipped and told to go to work. He said he went to Marshall and got a job in the railroad shop and worked one day when he was seized by a party of men and flogged for writing. The burlesque traveler told people at Byers that he was on his way to Mexico where he expected to take out materialization papers and live with a little more freedom.

The man's story may or may not be true. It might have happened just as he told it. The resort to the lash in beating all too common. In the first place the man was probably violating some law that caused him to be whipped. His first whipping was certainly as lawful as anything he had done. It was more lawful for it struck at the foundation of organized government and constitutional right. His second whipping was doubtless administered because the job he took had been vacated by some railroad man who had gone on a strike. It was no less lawful than the first.

A strong man would have stayed with it and would not have been run out of the country. But if we were all strong there would not be much need of government or of laws.

COME ON WITH THE INFORMATION, CYCLOPS PARKER.

Texas, as is well known, received a generous share of federal appointments during the Wilson administration. Cyclops Parker says eighty-five per cent of Wilson's appointees were Catholics. Just how many Catholics can the reader recall appointed by Mr. Wilson in Texas? Of course, Cyclops Parker can tell because he has raised the question of parity between the former president and himself. But if Cyclops chooses he can keep the public in ignorance because nobody else seems to have the information.

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

SHAMS.

In nature there are no shams. The dead and rotting tree falls at the side of its strong and vigorous brother. The wilted flower loses its decay upon the breast of its budding companion.

Every genuine and deserving character despises shams.

And yet our every day is woven with them like a spider's net. And we are all caught in their web. Sometimes I even think that many people enjoy being hoodwinked.

Nevertheless these same shams despoil our personalities and lead us astray from our best ideals.

Whether because of force of circumstance, or a literal straying of our free will to choose or decide, I am not quite sure, but it is certain that we accept too much, weigh too little, and take too much for granted.

We smile in the face of these shams, court them, and then support them as though they were to us our own children born.

How many friendships there are which are nothing more nor less than shams. The dog doesn't put up any sham friendship—either he is for you or against you. And yet we human beings will smile a soft smile to one of our kind and then say mean things behind his back.

The great evil of much money is that it feeds on shams, boasts and insincerities.

I saw a piece of rare looking furniture the other day. It was sold for a genuine old piece—but my friend, who is an expert, showed me the sham of it all.

You, as an employe, either are practicing shamery or else you are a loyal, happy worker. You can't be a half-way and succeed long at it.

What you are speaks louder than anything you may be able to say.

Genuineness is a silent proposition. Its only advertisement is itself.

The God in whom I believe is full of mercy and His love is as wide and deep as space, but He has a patience with shams. He will forgive seventy times seventy—but a sham He will pass by. Sincerely it always the best policy.

JUST FOLKS

By Edgar A. Guest

THE PARADE OF THE YEARS.

Viewed by the men and women in a throng. I stand among them as they pass along Seeking, as they, some pleasure new to try. A thimble hour to hold my eager eye.

A minstrel evening with his merry song. Purchase the waxen figure of a wrong. Shall stalk the street of life and leave a sign.

Still, as a child intent on novel things, I watch the hours and days and weeks pass on, Blended with the joy the brilliant moment brings, Frightened by all of grief I look upon.

Yet finding always some sweet charm which clings. Some wonder day to treasure when it goes. (Copyright, 1932, by Edgar A. Guest)

Hunt the bright side. Rail strikes make mail-order packages late.

Professor says there is no sin. Then what is it for some men to take the money?

Some towns have all the luck. Detroit quick doctor got caught.

Laugh and who laughs with you depends upon what you laugh at.

In the fall a very young man's fancy turns to thoughts of school.

Funny that it happens. Illinois couple has been married of rather long shooting each other.

Jakie Atz and His Cats Again Humble Slipping Spudders

By PAUL W. BARKIN

PORT WORTH, Sept. 1.—The Spudders looked like anything but pleasant contestants here Saturday as they dropped their second game of the series to the Panthers by a 7 to 2 count and flopped to two and a half games behind their hosts in the Texas league race. They did everything that a ball club should do. They kicked the spheroid; they fumbled it; they threw it every place but the right; they pitched it, and they failed to hit it opportunely. Outside of that Walter Fahner's charges played good baseball. The team's manager, however, they performed in a manner that would have dissatisfied a class 5 organization and they didn't deserve to win.

Fahner pitched right ball, but it was not championship stuff by any means. He had little to work for, however, as the boys were not up to his teammates. They rapped "Sugar" Pate in delicate style and asked at the plate as if a stigmatism had gripped them by the neck of the neck. They managed to slip three tallies over the pan, but two of them were due to ragged fielding behind the plate. The boys were so nervous, they were worse than a crowd of grammar school kids. Not since the season opened last April have they been so nervous. The club seemed to crack at once. Of course Homer Summa put his usual steady and scintillating game in the field, but he was unfortunately subdued by Pate at the plate.

Cave's Success

The slugging headlines of the game were the exploits of Cave, the home cove. Jack Calvo, who had been out of the game for some time, came back to the lineup and was the star of the game. He hit a double, a triple and a home run. He also had two RBI's. He was the only player to get on base three times. He was the only player to get on base four times. The ball is hot and that the pitcher is not quite so good. However, one must not forget that the lively ball makes considerable stuff for the pitcher.

During the last few days, some interesting data has been uncovered which tends to show the strike that has been made in the last few years.

At the close of the 1917 season the average team batting average of the American league was .267. In 1921 it was .282. In the National league it was .265 five years ago, while in 1921 it was .282.

Five years ago there were 12 batters in the American league whose batting percentage was .300 or better. In this list of 12 batters were seven players that had gone to the major league in 1917.

SPORTS by Paul W. Barkin

FOUR WORTH, Sept. 1.—The new pitiful exhibition put up by the Spudders this season. It was beyond description.

Slipper Downcast

The slipper was more downcast after the contest than he has been all year. He can't do it out. One or two players which crack at the same time, but the whole club blew Thursday.

Great Money Club

Say what you want to about the Astoria, but they're a great money club. They seldom crack in the pitcher.

Far From Luck

One could not help being pessimistic Thursday night, but the Wichitaans are far from lucked. They still have three games with the Dixie champs and if they don't take it will be from lack of trying. They may be better prepared, but they're not out by a long shot.

Steady as a Rock

Umpire Kane, who was working behind the plate, threw several balls out on bats, but the latter made them all look like pro tempore. He floated up to the plate. He may have roughed 'em and he may not, but he had the ballgame buffed.

Beams Not Showing

Fort Worth fans can't see how "Big" Summa is leading the league in hitting. He hasn't got a hold of a ball in two games. His inability to hit has proved costly, too.

Mad Dog's Thunder

Pate had been called out of his head. The limping first sacker whiffed three times with great gusto to the stadium.

Fan Get Focused

The Co. workers became more partisan Thursday and some of their remarks directed at the Wichita Falls fan and players were entirely uncalled for. They had plenty of opportunity to cry and had their done so in a sportsmanlike fashion. The Wichitaans would not have objected.

Attendance Falls Off

The attendance fell off about 100, but there were enough on hand to make the Panther game shake.

John Ann to Game

They don't make us much game than Jake Atz. The Panther pilot was barely able to move with his excitement and tongue fever, but you can't keep him away.

Not Hay in Kintigh

The Spudders had better get young Mr. Moore, entertained the crowd before the game started by snoring all kinds of drives in right field. "He's the best outfielder you've got," Walter, was heard from several fans.

Engraving in Perfect

Once again the umpiring was perfect. Jack Daly missed a play at first base when Beck hid his view, but umpire Harry Kane, who saw the play and promptly reversed his decision. It hurt the Spudders, but it was correct.

Wants Another Try

"Please don't give any of those birds my uniform today," whined Ed's Freddie Thursday. "I know you haven't got enough to go around. Walter, but, give, I gotta work once more before we get outta here and I don't want get dirt."

Want to "Dish Up"

They're all scared stiff for fear they won't be able to "ditch up."

ALMA MATER CALL RINGING IN EARS OF CHARLIE ROBERTSON

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—With the call of the alma mater ringing in his ears, Charlie Robertson, the White Sox pitcher of "no-run, no-hit, no-body-reach-first-base" fame, is anxiously awaiting to make the trip back to Texas so that he can resume his duties as coach of Austin university at Sherman, Texas.

As coach of the Texas school's athletics, Robertson takes a hand in all sports. He supervises football, baseball and track athletics and in this capacity the institution looks for him to be a hard work without school spirit or soon thereafter.

It is likely that permission will be given the star to make the trip, providing he is a member of the team in spare the star twirler. As a baseball coach, Robbie put together a baseball team before he joined the White Sox which he had to be proud of. It won 15 of 14 games. Robertson takes great pride in talking of his college diamond performers.

G SAN DIEGO

rather live 10 years longer in a $1,000 bungalow than pass away at 55 in a $100,000 apartment house.

San Diego's water system, by which pure mountain water is brought down from the mountains, has been developed at great cost—about $12,000,000, maybe more—anyhow too much for a city of this size and millions more have been spent on the acquisition grounds in the parks containing what probably is the most picturesque group of public buildings in the west; millions more have been spent on sewers, streets, municipal wharves, etc., and in consequence the city has a big bonded debt and a pretty stiff tax rate.

But All in All—

The city government is a hybrid affair with a full-fledged paid city council and mayor, and a $600,000 salaried city manager thrown in for good measure. Either plan would be fine, but so long as the city is unable to understand why both manager and paid council are needed, San Diego, an hour away in Old Mexico, is a sink hole of money and gambling with a racing season in winter, and it is perfectly surprising how nearly every citizen finds it necessary to make semi-regular excursions to "Quaint Tinajas" just to take a friend along.

And the National act is punctured pretty badly all over this district, they tell me, maybe owing to insufficient city ordinances like those in cities farther north.

But these things are the exceptions. The rule is a life of unusual content and happiness and delight—as I said at the first, a land of beauty and fascination.

San Diego has a fine street car system but, alone of California cities, has the same fare system. If you ride downtown you pay a nickel, outside, 75 cents. The idea is good—you pay for what you get in practice it works a hardship on the small property owner who bought his home before the rise in fares. But such is the small property owner's lot.

There are no jitneys in San Diego, due to the desire on the part of the city to give the street car monopoly to one firm to furnish service, and it is admitted that the service is excellent.

San Diego owners occasionally speak about the "back country," by which they mean the several thousand square miles of valley and mesa and mountainous tracts, like a great amphitheater back from the bay and ocean.

One night at a big booster banquet after a lot of oratory had been spilled over this "back country" thing, one-minute speeches were called for by the toastmaster. A tall, spindly-stemmed, kindly-looking fellow from Alpine rose tremblingly to his feet and said: "Mr. Speaker, I'd just like to ask one question about this here back country we've heard so much about. What keeps it back?"

Why It's "Back."

In the case of the speaker which greeted the query no one thought to make answer. But of course, the answer is simple. The twin forces holding the back country back are lack of water and lack of roads.

Today, the best of the great water systems is being developed by the hundreds of miles of paved trunk lines and laterals are rapidly girding mountains and valleys, and former lawless San Diego country, the most southwestern political subdivision of continental United States, will be fragrant with the odors from a thousand citrus orchards in winter and a thousand peach and plum and apricot orchards in springtime. A thousand carloads of winter vegetables raised on her frostless, or nearly frostless mesas will go out to every part of the country, and a lot of folks will make a lot of money. But best of all, homes, just simple, little, flower-bedecked homes of mighty comfort, will be built here for those folks who are tiring of the rush and whirl of the big city and who would

COTTON MARKET

New York Cotton
NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—A more optimistic view of European affairs and better domestic labor news, combined with talk of continued favorable weather in the south and expectations of a bullish government crop report led to a firm opening in the cotton market today. Liverpool was higher and prices here showed an advance of 15 to 25 points on covering and 10 to 15 on commission houses buying. There was considerable southern selling on the advance, however, and after the initial buying orders had been supplied the market was rather unsettled by renewed liquidation or realising. Liverpool cables reported a quiet market with the northern firm on a basis of an advance to the German financial outlook. Trading was active with the market showing considerable strength before the publication of the official crop figures. There was active covering and fresh buying on the advance which carried December contracts up to 25.95 later, or 43 points net higher, and back to 24.95 on the decline, however, and after the market was quiet around 24.95 at 10 o'clock with prices some 15 to 20 points up from the lowest of 23.95 for December contracts. Later selling and fresh buying on the south promoted weakness in the market and after a sharp setback to closed at 23.95 with prices net decline. Cotton closed easy.

BYERS RAILROAD WORK DELAYED BY INJUNCTION FRIDAY

LAND OWNERS GETS RESTRAINING ORDER AGAINST CROSSING LAND.

CREWS HAD ALMOST FINISHED THEIR WORK

Had Entered Land Without Process and Made Rapid Progress When Halted.

The mills of the law grind slow-sometimes.

They ground a little too fast Friday, for contractors building the Byers-Waurika cut-off. The grade had almost been completed and the needed strip of land needed to reach the river, when the owner of the land requested District Judge Wilson out of town. On Friday, secured a temporary restraining order, and had work stopped.

The railroad, on condemnation proceedings in entering the land, access to which was highly important for the program of the state.

On Thursday one of the Byers brothers, owners of the tract, ordered a sub-contractor to go off the land, but the order was not obeyed. Mr. Stine went to Hays, Kan., to get a restraining order. He returned Friday morning with the order, and the Byers brothers immediately complied with it.

The injunction proceedings form another chapter in an interesting clash between the railroad builders and the Byers brothers. The latter could not agree with the Byers right of way committee as to a price for the land, and a condemnation proceeding awarded them $100 for the right of way.

The railroad appealed and last week the district court at Hays set aside the award and granted half in two, awarding the Byers $500.

It had developed in the meantime that the railroad would need another strip of the Byers land, and that it had to have it at once or be subjected to an expensive and troublesome delay.

Negotiations with Mr. Stine being fruitless, the railroad decided to take the land first and settle the legal points of the matter be settled later. Accordingly, it got ready with its equipment and had completed the grade across the additional strip, when Mr. Stine obtained the injunction.

The matter was set for hearing at 10 a. m. Friday, but was delayed by another case. It was thought that it would be reached sometime Friday afternoon.

"MONTE CRISTO" IS GREAT PRODUCTION, COMES ON MONDAY

Human, hair, love, passion, intrigue, the suffering and final triumph of the innocent, and the ruin and defeat of those who seek prosperity by treachery, are all brought out in "Monte Cristo," beginning at the Strand Monday, and of which an advance showing was given Friday morning in a way that makes this picture stand out as a really great production.

John Gilbert, who plays the role of Edmond Dantes, who is betrayed into the hands of political enemies and imprisoned until he escapes 18 years later, is a wonderful actor, who has the interest and sympathies of the audience in his fortunes from start to finish. The climax of the story is in the dramatic moment when, after his rescue by pirates from the sea, where he had been thrown by prison guards who thought he was the dead Abbe Faria, he throws his arms and cries, "The world is mine. Now for Monte Cristo!"

Locating the fortune in the island of Monte Cristo, he is given the name of Monte Cristo by the Abbe, he returns to Marseilles as the Count of Monte Cristo to avenge his wrongs. Three times the flow of vengeance falls. The first victim is Monte Cristo, who betrayed him to the king's prosecutor and secured his release here. The second time, Villefort, the judge who sent him to the Chateau d'If to die, pays the price of the deed. The third time, Danglars, who helped to betray Dantes and wrote the letter saying that the prisoner had been executed, feels some of the suffering he has inflicted on others. The acting is good throughout, and the lighting effects are beautiful.

FINES COLLECTED TOTAL MORE THAN PAY OF POLICEMEN

The police department during August made arrests that netted $27,814.66 in cash fines, yet the department's payroll for the month was only $23,932.90, according to the monthly report of Lenley Humphreys, desk sergeant.

A total of 278 arrests were made, of which 253 were charged with 35, and intoxication was next with 25; other charges were traffic violations 21, disturbing the peace, affray 21, displaying pistol 1, gaming 26, sanitary violations 6, assault 1, investigation 21, ticket 2, transferring 2, transferred to court 4, transferred to federal 12, theft 2, forgery 2, held for officers elsewhere 2.

Of the 210 cases tried, 140 resulted in fines, 48 cases were dismissed, 19 were appealed, 19 went to the street court and had fines remitted, and one escaped.

Total fines assessed were $23,814, of which $23,150 was collected in cash, $242.50 was remitted out of the streets, $225 was remitted. The department has a total of $65 in hot checks.

Services at Temple Israel will be resumed Friday evening at 8:00 Dr. Goldberg having returned from his vacation. Among other things plans for the registration of the children for the Sabbath school will be announced. All members are urged to attend and the public is cordially invited.

AMERICAN CONSULATE AT NEWCASTLE ON TYNE IS CLOSED INDEFINITELY

By Associated Press. LONDON, Sept. 1.—The closing of the American consulate at Newcastle on Tyne following cancellation of the consular executives by the British government, is apparently for an indefinite period.

Frank O. Slater, the consul, has been ordered to Corunna, Spain, and Russell M. Brooks, vice-consul, and the British archives have been transferred to the consulate at Hull which is the nearest one to Newcastle.

The action of the British government is said to have been taken on the grounds that the two consular officials were unduly active in recruiting for the U. S. shipping board and that attempts were made to coerce British subjects into joining American vessels. This was denied by Mr. Slater in an interview last night.

ELECTRA REACHES 26,000 BARREL MARK IN OIL PRODUCTION

The week's production from the north and central Texas fields shows an average of 146,100 barrels daily, a gain over the week's average of approximately 1,300 barrels. Due to some small gains in the south pool and a loosening up of crude held in storage, Electric's output shows a gain of over 2,000 barrels in the week's run. Burkburnett again fell short of the 20,000 barrel mark. Production in the Yates field fell off slightly. All other sections remained practically the same. Below are the figures for the week from the various pools:

PLANS WELL UNDER WAY TO BRING LEE HIGHWAY THROUGH WILBARGER CO.

VERNON, TEXAS, Sept. 1.—An act of road in Texas has been designated as the route of the Lee highway through this section. The highway is to be built through the state in a series of sections. The state is prepared to make an effort to bring the highway through this section through here. Complete data concerning the route together with pictures showing present and proposed road conditions have been furnished by Dr. E. M. Johnson, director general of the Lee highway association, for his consideration.

A delegation of Vernon citizens at Austin last week achieved laudable results in the matter of inducing the highway officials to place the Lee highway through this section in the class of a secondary road. From that time on, the highway has been placed in the secondary class, with four per cent designation. From Vernon in Coppell, however, and from Ft. Worth in Dallas, the highway was without this aid. As a result of the efforts of the local automobilists, the two gaps were completely closed, and the highway given the consideration of the road.

OFFICER LOCATES GORDON WITH WRONG NUMBERERS ATTACHED

K. E. Bond of the criminal department Thursday night located a Ford roadster that possesses a variety of numbers and license tags. The car is being held by the officers while an effort is made to straighten out the puzzle.

The state seal number, according to the records of the state highway department, were issued to Thomas E. Ford on January 31 for a Dodge automobile.

The Hudson number was issued to W. W. Bond on March 29 of this year for a Hudson Superior.

The officer who reports that the car is being held by the engine has been tampered with and changed.

Airplane War on Cotton Weevil is Proving Success

GREENVILLE, Miss., Sept. 1.—Use of an airplane against the cotton weevil has proved a success in the fight against the pest, according to experts who watched the demonstration given on a 14,000 acre cotton plantation near Scott yesterday. It is probable that less poison will be used by this method, they assert, because of the action of the air currents in the wake of the planes.

FATHER ASKS FOR ANNULMENT OF A MARRIAGE CONTRACT

J. E. Cleveland of Burkburnett has brought a suit in the 20th district court in behalf of his daughter, Beulah Cleveland, asking that the marriage contract between the girl and John Teichert be annulled and held void.

The plaintiff alleges that the girl is 17 years of age and that the defendant is 49 years old. He charges that the defendant purchased the marriage license in this county and made a sworn affidavit that the girl was 21 years of age. The plaintiff charges that this is false and that it was so known by the defendant.

The petition recites that the defendant lives next door to the plaintiff in Burkburnett and that the defendant bestowed his attention on the daughter when the latter went next door to play with defendant's children that she is under the age of 21. It is alleged that the license was procured and the marriage ceremony performed on August 22.

THIEVES SELECT THE AUTO WHICH IS NOT INSURED

During the past week two local business men have lost an automobile each by way of the theft route. In each instance the car stolen carried no theft insurance.

The peculiar incident attending this is that one of the business men owned a total of 14 cars, 13 of which were insured against theft. The thieves got the one on which no protection was carried.

In the other case, which was an all man, eleven out of 12 cars were insured. The twelfth, not insured, is the one the thieves carried away.

The Faith Optical Company, 315 Scott avenue, is strictly a Wichita Falls institution, owned and operated by men with established reputations who have lived in this city for many years, and finally give as references the banks and business men of the city. Adv.

Oklahoma Town Objects to Being Aroused at Night

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 1.—The idea of 12 o'clock of "Hush" being broken and the residents of the village being aroused about it. A delegation came to Oklahoma City yesterday and registered a vigorous complaint with the county attorney. They admitted to the prosecutor that interruption of their slumbers was becoming a serious matter and that the Harrahites were becoming impatient.

Every night long after the lights are turned out and the village is settled down for a good rest the clanging of the 12 o'clock curfew sounds through the town. The delegation told the county attorney and the situation is becoming well nigh unbearable.

The delegation wanted to file a complaint against the city watchman who stays up until 1 o'clock to sound the curfew. The county attorney, however, discovered that under an ordinance recently passed in Harrah it was the duty of the watchman to ring the curfew bell if he had to stay awake until 1 o'clock and run the risk of waking up the town.

RETURN TO THEIR HOME AFTER VISIT TO SON

BURKBURNETT, TEXAS, Sept. 1.—Mr. and Mrs. G. L. McCauley, father and mother of W. T. McCauley of 421 East Third street of this city, returned home yesterday after an extended visit with their son and family. The father is 55 and the mother is 75 years of age and both are reported to enjoy the very best of health. Thirteen children were born to this union and 15 are living. The oldest son is 45 and the youngest, 24 years of age, and all live sufficiently close that the parents can visit them in a day's drive in an auto.

They live at Vinson, Oklahoma, where they have made their home for the last 25 years. They were born and raised in Mississippi and came to Bill County, Texas in early 1910, moving from there to the home where they now reside.

MERCURY REACHES 107 DEGREE POINT DURING AFTERNOON

During the afternoon, Thursday, the mercury rose to the 107-degree point in Wichita Falls. The day was a most uncomfortable one as the air seemed heavy along with the extreme heat.

During the night, the temperature only receded to the 86-degree mark. A very light breeze had little effect to counteract the heat.

Friday morning the wind assumed a little greater velocity but the clear skies and the heat of the early morning sun was indicative that the temperature would once very near equalize the mark of the day before.

Clear skies were reported through out the district Friday morning. Locally showers in some places but soon filled up soon as the old timers forecast a change in weather conditions when the moon is full.
