UP TO 3" RECEIVED

Yes, Virginia, It Can Rain

Rain... that commodity which had been so scarce in the Friona area for the past seven months, finally made its way back to the area this week, and apparently the entire area is for once nice and wet.

Friona received 2.12 inches of rain during the past week, most of which fell Tuesday night, when 1.17 was recorded. However, many residents reported as much as two inches Tuesday night.

The dry spell began to be broken on Friday evening of last week, when a thunderstorm left .42 inch officially in Friona. Then Saturday evening, another .53 was received here in nice, gentle rain.

Tuesday, it really got down to raining. One thunderstorm blew across the city at about 5 p.m., threatening hail, but leaving very little of anything as it went on to other parts.

Then, about 8:30 that evening, the elements became organized once again, and what started out as another gentle shower became a steady downpour by 9:15, accompanied by thunder, lightning and some wind. The rain stopped, as if being shut off by a switch, at 10 p.m. Tuesday, but it was the most that had been received locally in over a year.

Farmland in the area apparently was well covered on all three of the above dates. Some of the cotton which had been planted may have been washed out, but the rain's benefits far outweighed its damages.

More than adequate moisture was provided for planting the area's maize crop—the money crop—which had just been started in many places. The rains should have provided adequate moisture to get the crop up to a good start.

The immediate Friona area escaped the storm-type weather, such as the tornadic wind that did some damage at Muleshoe, although Highway 214 south of Hub was closed to traffic during the heavy rain of Tuesday night, which caused the road to become impassible.

GAUGES GOT WET... Rain gauges around Friona, which had been of little use for the past five or six months, finally were put to some use during the past week, as upwards of three inches fell in the area. The above gauge, at 906 West Fifth Street, recorded 1.9 inches in the Tuesday night rain. The rainwater wasn't really that dark; food coloring was added to make it show up for the picture.

Chamber Announces Prize For Emblem

The Friona Chamber of Commerce announced a contest this week for a new logo type for the Chamber, which it can use on letterheads, envelopes, plaques, decals and other devices.

A $25.00 prize for the winning design is to be offered by the Chamber.

"We have not changed our design in some time, and we felt that we needed something portraying Friona as the Beef Capital," said Dale Cary, chamber president.

The contest was proposed at the monthly meeting of Chamber directors Tuesday at Earl's Farmer House Restaurant. Entries can be mailed or brought to the Chamber office, and must be in by June 12.

Other items discussed by the board was the fact that the carnival operator which has brought his rides to Friona at Maize Days for the past several years has leased his rides on a permanent basis and will be unable to provide rides this fall. A search is currently underway for a company to replace Golden Spread Amusement Co. in this capacity.

Board member Carroll Gatlin reported on the progress of the proposed livestock show barn, and also on plans for the Chamber's July 4th program.

A permit to stage the annual fireworks display has been applied for.

Other reports included the attending of the Panhandle Odyssey 2000 banquet by board member M.C. Osborn, and the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention in Fort Worth by Clarence Martin, a WTCC director.

New Plumbing Code Passed By Council

The Friona City Council passed a new plumbing code for the city at its meeting Monday night. The code spells out the materials which may be used in plumbing work inside the city, and provides that plumbers operating in Friona must have Master Plumber's License.

Plumbers doing business locally that do not have the license were given until January 1 of 1973 to secure it, in an effort to not cause any undue hardship. Securing the Master Plumber's License requires a test, to be taken in Austin.

The council also reviewed the proposed new Electrical Code for the city, which the local electricians have been pressing the city to adopt. Because of a technicality on one phase of the code, its adoption was tabled until the next meeting.

In other business, the council passed a motion to sell the recent $100,000 bond issue to Friona State Bank, on a bid of 4.85 per cent interest.

The bonds were approved in a vote here April 5, to provide $50,000 for water and sewer improvements, and $50,000 for the construction of a new fire station.

After the council agreed to sell the bonds to the local bank, an ordinance was passed authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

Friona Country Club's request to be re-instated for use of the municipal swimming pool by its members, on the same basis as in prior years, was approved. The Country Club is to pay the city a set amount each month per member for the three months that the pool is open.

The council authorized City Manager Jake Outland to offer Deon Awtry $15,000 for a block of land in the southwestern part of the city, for a proposed water well site. This is a part of the expenditure to be covered by the portion of the bond issue dealing with water and sewer improvements.

Reporting on the status of the proposed paving program for the summer, Outland stated that only two of 30 property owners involved in the proposed paving have deposited their money in escrow to take care of the pavement.

Three-Car Accident Leaves Two Injured

Two Friona residents were injured in a freak three-car accident 5.3 miles west of the city at 12:15 a.m. Monday morning.

David Wilkerson, 18, appeared to be the most seriously injured. He sustained a broken pelvis, and was transferred to Amarillo Monday afternoon for further treatment.

Eldon K. Long was hospitalized and released Tuesday from Parmer County Hospital.

Investigating officers said that Long was driving a 1971 Chevrolet station wagon belonging to Joe Mabry at the time of the accident.

A 1961 Oldsmobile which David Wilkerson was driving was stalled on the highway, patrolmen said, and his brother, Raymond Wilkerson, had his car parked nearby, using his headlights as the two were working on the Oldsmobile.

Long didn't see the stopped vehicles in time, and crashed into David Wilkerson's vehicle, knocking it into the 1963 Pontiac belonging to his brother. David was caught in the wreckage, officers said.

Josie Carter was a passenger in Long's vehicle, but was not seriously injured. The couple was travelling toward Friona on FM 175.

PRIMARY RESULTS

Briscoe Runs Off With Local Vote

Dolph Briscoe ran off with the vote in Friona and Parmer County last Saturday, in a Democratic primary that saw incumbents deal stunning defeats.

Hollis Horton was elected as county Democratic Party Chairman, with 340 write-in votes to 253 for Dolph Moten.

In Precinct 3, longtime commissioner Guy Cox of Farwell was defeated by Cecil Atchley, 294-231.

Briscoe was the overwhelming favorite in Friona, where 378 voters placed their "X" beside his name. This amounted to 66.1 per cent of those voting in the governor's race. A distant second was Preston Smith, whose 74 votes represented only 13 per cent of the voters.

Ben Barnes was third in the Friona voting with 68 votes, or 12 per cent, and Frances Farenthold, who gained the runoff spot against Briscoe, received only 47 in the local box, 8.2 per cent of the total.

Briscoe's margin in the county totals was equally as impressive, with 978 votes, or 63 per cent of those voting in the governor's race.

The Uvalde rancher won every voting box in the county, including the absentee box, which he won 35.8 over Smith. Briscoe's percentage was greatest at Friona. His smallest, at Black, was still a majority of the votes in that precinct, 52.4.

Friona voters favored Briscoe, with 329 votes to 173 for Ralph Yarborough. Sanders also led in the county totals, with 810 votes to Yarborough's 543.

Sanders won seven of the nine voting boxes, losing only at Bovina, 106-92 and Rhea, 15-13. Friona voters favored Wayne Connally in the race for lieutenant governor, with 296 votes.

Albert Fay was the favorite gubernatorial candidate of Friona and Parmer County Republicans in last week's Republican Primary.

Fay led the ticket in both the Friona precinct voting and county totals. He garnered 18 votes in Friona, and had 50 from Parmer County. A total of 48 people voted in the primary in Friona, almost half of the county's total of 105 votes in the Republican camp.

Other votes in the governor's race in Friona were: Henry Grover, 3; Thomas McElroy, 8; Joseph Jenkins, 1; John A. Hall, 6; and David Reagan, 7. Grover, who led the ticket in statewide balloting, finished next-to-last in the field for the city and county voting.

Friona Republicans were against Daylight Savings Time, 35-12, and expressed their opposition to busing, 36-8.

Forrest Osborn, county commissioner candidate on the ballot, was nominated, receiving 38 votes. Glenn E. Reeve Sr. was named precinct chairman at Friona with nine write-in votes.

The county totals in the primary were: Governor—Regan, 19; Hall, 10; Jenkins, 1; Fay, 50; Grover, 8; McElroy, 15; Senator—John Tower, 105; Treasurer—Maurice Angly, 97; Railroad Commissioner—Jim Segrest, 98.

Referendum: Daylight Savings—For: 17, Against: 59; Prohibit busing: For: 17, Against: 63.

Glenn Lust received 16 write-in votes for county chairman.

Bill Hobby, who led the voting statewide, was next with 103 votes, and Ralph Hall garnered 101.

Connally also led in the county totals with 762 votes, to 331 for Hobby and 257 for Hall.

Friona voters also favored incumbents Crawford Martin in the attorney general's race, Robert S. Calvert in the race for Comptroller of Public Accounts; Jesse James for state treasurer; John C. White for Commissioner of Agriculture, and Byron Tunnell for Railroad Commissioner.

Horton won five of the eight precincts in taking the office of county chairman for the Demo-

FARMERS MUST LIVE TOO

Food prices have risen, but before condemning farmers and ranchers and threatening them with a wave of controls, a few facts must be considered if the nation wishes to continue eating in the style to which it has become accustomed.

Foremost among these facts is that farm prices still remain at preinflation low levels. Food prices have risen because of inflationary increases in handling costs. The plight of the farmer is well expressed in an article appearing on the editorial page of a major daily newspaper. It is pointed out that "Farmers and ranchers are expected to stay on the land rather than join the job-seekers in the city..."

On the other hand, farmers and ranchers are not expected to make more money ever because if they do the cost of food will go up. When beef prices rise to levels of 20 years ago, the protest is loud and clear...

Bear in mind that farmers and ranchers are consumers, too, and as consumers their expenses have gone up more than 100 percent during the same period that prices they receive for their products have remained stable."

The conclusion reached in the article quoted above is much to the point—the food we buy today is one of the best bargains in the marketplace.

Pause and Reflect

By Nelson Lewis

Agricultural news item: "Arrangements have been completed whereby breeding cattle will be shipped from Texas to Spain."

So as Shakespeare's King Lear remarked, "The wheel is come full circle."

Christopher Columbus, on his second voyage to the New World, brought cattle to the island of Hispaniola (Santo Domingo as it was then called).

Cortez paved the way for more importations when he began the conquest of Mexico in 1519. Two years later Gregorio Villalobos brought over from Santo Domingo "a number of calves so there might be cattle in New Spain." He is on record as the first person to import cattle to North America.

After Cortez became established in the mainland he developed a huge hacienda and very appropriately called it Cuernavaca (cow horn). This ranch was stocked by animals shipped over from his thriving enterprises in what is now Cuba.

These Spanish cattle must have found their new home well suited to propagation because Coronado had no problem when in 1540 he rounded up thousands of cattle, hogs, sheep and goats to furnish provisions on his long trek north.

There is no record of any of these first Texas cattle living to become the ancestors of the Longhorn.

A study of the expedition with its perils of heat, cold, deserts and mountains make it seem very doubtful if any of these critters lived long enough to stock even the remotest ranges.

Another factor in their probable demise was the large numbers of half-starved Indians living in the area.

Proof that the southwest was destined to become a great cow country is found in the journals of Ibarra who also moved north out of Mexico twenty-five years after Coronado. In the province of Sinaloa, Mexico, he found thousands of wild cattle, evidently descendants of animals that had strayed away from the herds of former explorers.

For many years, Spanish ships sailed eastward from New Spain with cargoes of hides and tallow. No doubt their balast was tons of silver from the mines in northern Mexico. Upon their return voyage the ships brought manufactured articles and fresh bloodlines to improve native herds.

Four and one half centuries of commerce between the Old and the New World have resulted in new breeds of humans as well as cattle.

We modern Americans are a mixture of many ethnic groups and cultures; therefore it is well that we share with other nations our advanced technologies be they moon data, medicine or livestock.

On a mountain somewhere in South Texas an old Longhorn cow will lift her muzzle from the dry grass and watch as a big silver freight jet streaks toward Spain.

Reckon she will realize that the wheel of time has come a full circle?

Sincerely Yours

By Rev. Albert Lindley

About this time of a voting year I began to think of the successful man with growing prestige as the one who, after the elections, has the bumper stickers on his car of several of the winners of the polls.

I have even thought about collecting several bumper stickers and about midnight, when all of the ballots are counted, to go out and stick the winners on my car. Boy, wouldn't that cause people to wonder at my inside trick?

I suppose I must candidly admit, however, there are some winners that I still wouldn't want people to think I voted for...

But, that is our form of government and we live with what we put in office. I still live with the confidence that our system of checks and balances will equalize, even though there are some very dark moments and years that seem to reject this thought at times...

Gee, I had better not go any further or I'll have to pay for a political ad in the paper.

Isn't it funny, tho, the way we think about success? We have our many ideas and thoughts about a "successful life".

I remember the story, as do you, of the guy who was so successful in the world of finance that he knew that when he died, God would show his approval by allowing him to "take his money with him." Remember? He placed it in the attic so he could pick it up on his way to heaven and sure enough, he didn't pick it up, causing his wife to be confirmed in her thoughts about her husband all the time. He evidently went the other way...

Or, just look at my success. Who would have thought that at my young age I would be a columnist for a fine outstanding paper like this...

See, it's what we think is important. What do we measure? The guy who had to borrow money in order to buy a pencil and paper so he can write his "success" story for a magazine, isn't.

I'm afraid that success isn't always measured by what the majority believes, either. I mean by that, that a man might be considered a success and still be at odds with the masses. (Re: Jesus.)

But it usually takes time and testing to evaluate what real success is. This, of course, takes time...

So, what happens in the meantime?

Well, we could think in terms of what we think truth and honesty are. It would seem that "success" (my humble opinion) would be that which relates to the "right," "true" and "honest." If it can withstand these attacks and still be in existence, then I would consider it successful. This takes time.

So, to be successful, it would seem that one should go to the source of its attributes...

See, I can talk about politics and religion without getting into a hassle... that is success.

Briscoe Sweeps...

crats, plus getting two absentee votes to none for Moten, the publisher of the Bovina Blade.

Horton's 235-42 edge in the Friona box was too much for Moten to overcome, although Moten was given substantial margins at his home box of Bovina (86-11), at Oklahoma Lane (40-5) and Farwell (64-27).

Friona voters overwhelmingly expressed their opposition to busing, in the public opinion referendum.

The vote in Friona was 484-50 in the "for" column, which meant the voters were against busing, and countywide it was 1,086-192.

Friona Flashbacks

...from the files of the Friona Star

40 YEARS AGO--MAY 6, 1932

Cashier Ester Noble has a force of men busily employed this week doing some very commendable work on the Friona State Bank building. All of the outside woodwork is being repainted and repaired, the windows are being tightened and repainted, and the new coats of paint are sure giving the entire building a decidedly rejuvenated appearance.

After having won the mile run in the district meet, Orville Lansdown, accompanied by Coach Stevens, left for Austin Tuesday afternoon to participate in the state meet.

30 YEARS AGO--MAY 1, 1942

A varied and colorful career came to a peaceful end on April 21, when George W. Taylor, one of Friona's real pioneers, died at the age of 90. Mr. Taylor and his brother had settled in Fort Worth when that city was just a small settlement. In 1877 he worked for "Buffalo Bill" Cody who had a contract to furnish meat for a Santa Fe construction crew in Western Kansas. Taylor moved to Parmer County in 1910.

20 YEARS AGO--MAY 1, 1952

The naming of Dale Hart as the Star Lone Star Farmer of the Littlefield District of FFA chapters this week heaped additional honors on this FFA worker and on the local organization which seems to have the habit of chalking up honors wherever they compete.

H.V. Rockey, junior student in the Friona schools, will attend the annual Boys State convention at Austin in June, it was announced this week.

10 YEARS AGO--MAY 3, 1962

Miss Kay Burleson, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T.I. Burleson of Hub, was crowned "Miss Deaf Smith Rural Electric" at the annual meeting Thursday in the Hereford Bull Barn.

Jimmy Grimsley, young son of Mr. and Mrs. David Grimsley, was bitten by a rattlesnake last Sunday afternoon. He was treated at Parmer County Community Hospital, and reportedly suffered no ill effects.

LYNN DAILEY, who has been employed by Friona State Bank for four years, has worked that period in the bookkeeping and proof department. Personnel director Jerry Hinkle says he also plans to train Mrs. Dailey as a relief teller for the noon period.

THELMA JOHNSON has been with the bank for two years. Thelma runs the encoder machine, which puts numbers on checks in magnetic ink when a customer uses a check without the magnetic number.

A typical scene in the bookkeeping department at Friona State Bank's modern new building. Employees double check their work for accuracy in all fields.

Hobo King Going Strong At Age 63

Friona has undoubtedly had its share of hoboes come through town throughout the years. But last Thursday it was privileged to have hobo royalty, when Richard Wilson, the "King of the Hoboes" spent the night locally.

Wilson, grizzled, toothless and a veteran of 47 years of panhandling from one town to the next, was asked about his retirement plans.

"I'm ready to retire if I can find a rich widow," he said with a sly grin.

The ruddy-faced road veteran was dressed in blue denim overalls, wearing an outlandish hat adorned with various souvenir buttons and feathers. He added a Friona Maize Days button and a feather from a recent peasant season to the hat during his stop here.

Roscoe Parr, Jr. picked Wilson up at Bovina last Thursday afternoon and brought him to Friona. The veteran traveller had a 40-pound sack with him, containing clothing and all of his worldly goods. The Parrs gave him his supper, and he was soon on his way. However, he ended up spending the night after falling to get a ride by nightfall.

"The hippies have made it hard on us. Rides are harder to come by than they used to be," said Wilson, whose own hair proved to be collar length, in keeping with the times.

The "King" title isn't self imposed. "We have an annual Hobo Convention, in Britt, Iowa. That's where the title comes from," Wilson told a representative of the Friona Star.

He said that the number of hoboes attending varied from five to 25 each year.

"Things have changed. We used to be able to set up little stands and make knock-knocks which we would sell in order to make a little spending money," Wilson said.

Asked if he had spent nights in jail, he readily quipped "I always say I've been arrested 500 times. One thing about it—the jails and their food have improved from the old days." "There are just not many true hoboes left. They are mostly winos today," Wilson concluded.

HOBO KING, . . . Richard Wilson, who says he is the "Hobo King," paid a visit to Friona last Friday. He was picked up by Roscoe Parr, Jr., left, outside of Bovina, and transported to Friona. Mrs. Parr adjusts a new feather for Wilson's well-bedecked hat.

Soil Stewardship Week Is Designated May 7-14

Soil Stewardship Week, a nationwide observance which places emphasis on man's obligation to God as stewards of the soil, water and other resources, will be observed, May 7-14, according to Leon Grissom, chairman, Parmer County Conservation District. "Creative Conservation," the theme of this year's observance, underscores the responsibility which each citizen has in fulfilling his or her role as caretaker of the realm. The Parmer County Conservation District and some 3,000 companion Districts throughout the nation along with their State and National Associations are sponsoring the event for the 18th consecutive year.

The Parmer County Conservation District will distribute upon request to churches of all faiths, attractive program blanks, bulletin inserts, posters, and booklets created particularly for this year's observance.

The materials were prepared by the National Association of Conservation Districts, in consultation with a Soil Stewardship Advisory Committee composed of leading church men in the nation. The committee consists of the Rt. Rev. John George Weber, National Catholic Rural Life Conference; the Rev. Harold S. Huff, Board of Missions of the Methodist Church; the Rev. Henry A. McCanna, National Council of Churches; Ray W. Owen, Southern Baptist Convention; Daniel O. Parker, United Church Board for Homeland Ministries; and Mr. Os-good Magnuson, Lutheran Council in the U.S.A.

Travelers checks let you carry your ready money in a form that's refundable "on the spot" if lost or stolen. Available through most banks, First National City Travelers Checks are refundable in more places than any other around the world or in the U.S., are accepted everywhere, and come in convenient denominations from $10 to $1,000.

When in doubt about the water anywhere you travel, boil it a cup at a time for at least five minutes. This precaution may prevent a stomachache that could spoil the rest of your trip.

At Home In Parmer County

Jana Pronger
County HD Agent

Things have changed in the last 30 years.

And two of the most notable changes involves the food we eat and the money we make.

Today's pay check buys more and better food than it did in those days. Food prices have increased in the past 30 years, but the average family's income has grown, too.

Income has increased considerably more than has the price of food. And this means that today's dollar actually buys more than it did then.

Today's pay check buys a larger variety and a better quality of food than it did in 1942. The quality is the result of the improvements in inspection, grading and sanitation control.

The modern homemaker finds food available in a number of different forms. She purchases it fresh, frozen, canned and cured. Developments in food processing provide good nutrition in cans, boxes and freezer cartons.

The work of sorting, cleaning and often cooking is now done before some foods ever get to the grocer's store. And these conveniences save much time and energy in the preparation of meals.

Modern means of transportation and marketing bring us fresh foods the year round. Even though many fresh foods remain available during any season of the year, the homemaker has a choice of buying them in this form or in processed forms.

And it's smart to compare the prices and values of foods in these different forms in order to get the most for the food dollar at different times of the year.

So with today's dollar you can have more and better food. You'll also buy foods that save you work, time and energy. The price of pantyhose, nam-pers, paper towels, plants, toothpaste and a whole host of non-food items are all too often figured in the monthly food bill in most households.

In fact, recent surveys of the homemaker's grocery cart revealed that $2.80 out of every $10 spent at the supermarket goes for these non-food items.

But that's only one of the many items that may inflate "food costs" at the market place. The modern, busy and sometimes working homemaker needs many built-in labor savers in the foods she buys. A wide selection of top quality food items ready to pop into the oven, sauceman or skillet fits her lifestyle, and allow her more time to spend on other personal or family needs. The wide variety of package sizes helps make shopping more pleasant and are much easier to store in freezer or pantry. These conveniences, as desirable as they are, do increase labor costs. In fact, perhaps as much as 47 percent of the cost of food marketing goes for labor.

So think twice and check that grocery cart before you complain about your costly grocery bill each week. It may not be food that is so expensive but the extra non-food items that make the difference.

Bond Sales Are Noted

In releasing Treasury figures, County Bond Chairman, Frank A. Spring announced that sales of United States Savings Bonds in Parmer County during March totaled $4,215. During the first quarter of 1972, sales were $19,167 for 19 percent of goal achieved.

Texans purchased $18,288, 542 in Savings Bonds during the month compared to March 1971 sales of $17,180,080 - an increase of 6 percent. Quarterly sales totaled $56,927,138 for 28 percent of the state's goal of $202.3 million.

National sales of E and H Bonds amounting to $582 million were reported for March, 13.3 percent above 1971 sales of $513 million. Sales for the three-month period totaled $1,640 million - 31 percent of the national goal of $5.3 billion.

4-H Members Compete In District Contest

The District 1 4-H Elimination Contest was held April 29 on the West Texas State University Campus in Canyon, Parmer County. It was their share of the honors by entering eight different teams and individuals in the Junior and senior divisions. This contest qualified all first and second place senior teams from throughout the Parmer County to attend the state contest in College Station on June 6-8. Competing in the district contest were Greg Moseley, Mark Foster, Danny Howard, Regan Winner and Randy Smith in the Share-the-Fun Contest; Jacquelyn Langford and Annette Langford in Food and Nutrition; Deborah Harding in Home Improvement; Ronald Powell and Michael Mimms in Farm and Ranch Management; Cheryl Gohlke and Billy Roberts in Poultry; Linda Gohlke and Yolanda Martin in Horse Demonstration; and Tommy Mesman and William Martin in Poultry Marketing.

Cheryl Gohlke and Billy Roberts placed first with their senior Poultry Demonstration. They are members of the Oklahoma Lane 4-H Club. Deborah Harding of the Farwell 4-H Club placed first with her senior Home Improvement Educational Activity demonstration. Jacquelyn Langford, also from the Farwell club, placed fourth with her Senior Food & Nutrition demonstration. Winning second place with their Junior Farm & Ranch Management demonstration were Michael Mimms and Ronald Powell of the Lazbuddie Club. William Martin and Tommy Mesman placed third with their Junior Poultry Marketing demonstration.

The two winning senior teams will compete in the State 4-H Roundup, held on the campus of Texas A&M University. These youngsters will be in College Station, June 6-8, to compete with youngsters from throughout Texas for state honors.

Irrigating wheat for grain de- serves special attention in May, and adequate moisture at this time is especially important in producing ton wheat grain yields. Maximum yield increase per acre-inch of water applied is normally received from these May irrigations. One reason for this expected yield increase is that plant moisture requirements are highest at heading to flowering. Three to three and one-half inches of water will be removed from the soil by plants and evaporation each 10 days during this peak moisture requirement period. This rate of removal rapidly depletes available moisture stored in the soil root zone.

Good yield response can be obtained from an irrigation at heading to flowering since an application at this time normally boosts yields more than any single irrigation during the season. Research on wheat irrigation shows that this time-ly application will normally in- crease yields 10 to 20 bushels per acre. This yield increase is profitable unless an ex- cessive amount of water is ap- plied. Adequate moisture dur- ing the grain-filling stage is also important. Even though daily water requirements are two to two and one-half inches every 10 days, an irrigation when rainfall didn't supply needed moisture. This irrigation will normally increase yields 8 to 12 bushels, and it is also a profitable water expenditure for small applica- tions.

Spring wheat growth are good this year due to adequate sub- soil moisture from heavy fall rainfall. However, moisture stress now and during grain filling is likely to limit yields more than if spring growth has been less vigorous. An irri- gation by flowering and another during early grain filling has increased yields 20 to 30 bush- els where production potential is high.

Livestock producers need to be on the lookout for possible screwworm outbreaks in area animals. A constant vigil needs to be maintained to eliminate the chance for this important pest becoming a problem in this area. Please collect and sub- mit any suspect larvae to your county agricultural agent or to the Mission Screwworm labora- tory.

Few insect problems exist on area crops with moisture being the most limiting factor. The alfalfa weevil is still active in the Eastern counties of the Pan- handle but many fields are being cut at this time. Brown wheat mites have been reported in some counties but are not caus- ing economic damage.

Planning to follow or over- seed this year's grain sorghum crop with wheat or other small grains? If so, plans should be made now to minimize herbi- cide residues which may injure small grain seedlings. One way to avoid problems is to treat grain sorghum with a short re- sidual pre-emergence herbi- cide such as Igran. In addition to being relatively non-per- sistent chemical, Igran can be used on sandy and loamy sand soils. If Millogard (propazine) is to be used as a pre-emerge in sorghum, plant early and band, don't broadcast the herbi- cide. Also, use the lowest rate recommended for your soil type. If no pre-emerge is used or if a low rate is used and small weeds become a problem after sorghum reaches a height of 15 inches or more, Karmex applied as a directed spray will provide good, economical con- trol and pose no residue prob- lems. Do not use a long re- sidual herbicide such as Atrax (atrazine) for post-emergence treatment.

Another way to reduce the carryover problem is to use a mixture of long and short re- sidual herbicides. A one-to-one mixture of Millogard and Lorox (linuron) is one of the commer- cially available combination herbicides intended to reduce residue problems. Unfortu- nately, annual grass control with the combination herbicides is less consistent than that ob- tained with Millogard alone. Also, remember that the com- bination herbicides are intended to reduce residue problems,

BAKING TIME. . . . That longtime occupation of young girls, making mud pies, came back in style early this week. Here, 10-year-old Margo Davis is shown mixing up her batter. She was visiting in Friona with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T.C. Gardner. She also is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. L.P. Davis of Friona.

Delegates Named To Democratic Convention

Twenty-one delegates to the county Democratic convention were elected at the Precinct Convention of Friona Democ- rats last Saturday, meeting at Friona High School.

Those attending voiced no preference for a Democratic nomination for president, and a motion was passed electing the delegates on an "at large" basis, enabling them to vote their own conviction at the county convention.

If supporters of one presiden- tial candidate had secured a vote of 70 per cent of those attend- ing, the precinct's 21 votes would have been bound to that candidate.

Delegates chosen to attend the county convention were Ri- chard Collard, Oscar Baxter, Steve Messinger, Andy Hurst, Gary Brown, Robert Neelley, Clarence Martin, D.L. Carmi- chael, Bill Leafman, Phillip Weatherly, Raymond Fleming, Bill Ellis, Herschel Johnson,

C.W. Tannahill, Charles Bass, Hollis Horton, W.L. Edelman, A.L. Black, H.K. Kendrick, Danny Carmichael and Harry Hamilton.

A motion was passed desig- nating wives as alternate dele- gates to the convention.

A resolution was passed urg- ing haste in implementing a wa- ter import plan for our area, which is seeing its water table decline year after year, a sit- uation which threatens the very life-blood of the High Plains.

A second resolution was pas- sed in opposition to Daylight Savings Time, recommending that Texas refrain from partic- ipation in the annual time change.

A third resolution was passed urging that steps be taken to change the nation's system of electing a president, so that he be elected by popular vote, ra- ther than through the antiquated electoral college.

Smith Names Month For Sr. Citizens

Governor Preston Smith is urging communities throughout Texas to select an outstanding older adult for recognition during May, Senior Citizens Month.

"Our older Texans should be commended and respected for their continuing efforts to build a better society for all," he said.

"There is a need for greater public awareness of the contributions of Older Texans," he said. "Senior Citizens Month offers us the opportunity to recognize their talents and abilities."

Guidelines for selecting outstanding senior citizens have been sent to all local committees on aging and County Home Demonstration Agents.

Emphasis is placed on the selection of a person who has achieved independent living and has contributed volunteer service and leadership in the community.

Local committees on aging are formulating the final criteria for selection. Rules will vary from county to county.

Thank You

Thanks to the tremendous response by voters in last Saturday's write-in campaign. We felt it was an especially good backing, for a write-in effort. The Democrats of Friona and Parmer County also owe a debt of gratitude to Nelson Welch, for his 20 years of service to the party. We will attempt to do a fair job for all Parmer County Democrats.

BASKETBALL CAMP

We are in the process of setting up our second annual basketball camp for girls who will be in the 6th, 7th and 8th grades next year. We plan to have the camp from June 26th through June 30th. The girls will have to furnish their own place to stay or drive back and forth. They should also bring a lunch or they may go to the cafes in town to eat. The fee of $27.50 will cover the cost of the camp.

We plan to work on fundamentals from 9:00 A.M. to 11:30 A.M.; then we will divide them into groups according to grades and have league games from 1:00 until about 4:00 P.M. We plan to take them swimming several times during the week. This camp will be held in our beautiful high school gym. There will be at least four people working with the students at all times.

WEEK PROCLAIMED. . . Mayor Raymond Fleming of Friona, is shown signing a proclamation making the week of May 14-20 "HEALTHY BABY WEEK" in Friona. The project is sponsored by the New Horizons Junior Study Club in conjunction with the National Foundation-March of Dimes. Shown witnessing the signing of the proclamation are Mrs. Valton Howard, New Horizons Junior Study Club's Healthy Baby Chairman and Mrs. Jimmy Bynum, publicity chairman.

Club Sponsors Healthy Baby Week

The week of May 14 through May 20 has been proclaimed National Healthy Baby Week by The National Foundation of the March of Dimes, and is being supported locally by the New Horizons Junior Study Club.

Healthy Baby Week has a long range goal: Prevention of birth defects. Beginning on Mother's Day, members of the New Horizons Junior Study Club will speak out on prenatal care as an important step in this direction.

"Between 100,000 and 200,000 children are born with birth defects every year. . . around one every 5 minutes," says Mrs. Dale Houlette, President of the local club. "A mother's health before and during pregnancy is of prime importance in the prevention of these defects. During these times, German measles (rubella), X-ray damage, meningitis, malnutrition, RH incompatibility and many other factors can cause irreparable damage to the unborn child. Professional scrutiny at this time can detect possible danger to the baby. Still, approximately 30% of the expectant mothers in the United States receive no prenatal care at all."

Every woman should have medical advice about proper diet, nutrition and vitamins. If toxemia is spotted early enough, the condition can be corrected. A woman exposed to infectious illness, particularly venereal disease, should have prompt treatment. And mothers certainly should be warned against smoking. There is no longer any question about the link between cigarettes and low birth weight, often a threat to the child.

Healthy Baby Week is a national public health education project sponsored by the National Foundation of the March of Dimes and supported by leading service groups.

Activities being planned by the New Horizons Junior Study Club in observance of the week include: Selecting and honoring a local citizen as "Mother of the Year," the displaying of posters in downtown store windows, a congratulatory rose will be sent to the mother of each new baby born at the Parmer County Community Hospital during Healthy Baby Week. The week will conclude with a tea in honor of the club member's Secret Grandmas in recognition of the example these grandmothers have set as a mother's job well done.

What Does The Bible Say?

In his letter to the churches of Galatia, Paul marvelled that they were forsaking the true gospel for a false one; and that there were some who would "pervert the gospel of Christ" (Gal. 1:7). He then proceeded to point out that if men or even angels "should preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you" (Gal. 1:8-9), they would fall under the curse of God.

To "pervert" a thing is to change it into something else. When one "perverts" the gospel of Christ, he is making something else out of it. The gospel of Christ is the "power of God unto salvation" (Rom. 1:16) and when one changes it, then the result is "another" gospel—that is, a gospel of a different sort that cannot save from sin but rather becomes a power to condemnation.

Jesus said this pure gospel should be preached to every creature and that those who believed it and were baptized "shall be saved." (Mark 16:15-16).

Questions invited. Address "What Does the Bible Say?" Box 515, Friona, Texas.

***** G. H. Brock Rites Set

G.H. Brock, 79, a Friona resident since 1929, passed away early Wednesday morning at Parmer County Community Hospital.

Funeral services have been scheduled for 2 p.m. Friday at First Baptist Church. The family requests that no flowers be sent, but donations may be made to the G.H. Brock memorial fund at First Baptist Church.

Burial will be in Friona Cemetery, under the direction of Claborn Funeral Home.

Survivors include his wife, Laverna, one son, Keith of Friona, and a daughter, Mrs. L.C. Roots of Lubbock. Six grandchildren also survive.

Mr. Brock was a retired farmer, a veteran of World War I and a former member of the American Legion and the IOOF Lodge.

When Wendy Watson and Joe Boggess were married at Durango, Colorado, Saturday afternoon, the two families of Watsons could have been very confusing to strangers.

Since Joe's mother, Doris, was named Watson before she married, Joe and Wendy may have to say "My Grandmother Watson," and "Your Grandmother Watson" to keep things straight.

Another second generation member of the Ed Boggess family, Roberta Reed, also married a Watson, but as far as can be determined by local residents, none of the Watsons are related.

People who live in And Around Friona are in for a special treat during the coming months. Several works of art by local artists are currently hanging in Friona Public Library for everyone interested to see.

Plans are to change the hangings from time to time. Right now those hanging are winners in last fall's Maize Days show.

By the way, isn't it time we started a fund for a new library building for Friona?

Muleshoe, our neighbor to the south, has a new facility that would be a credit to any town of comparable size. Then our southeast neighbor, Dimmitt, will soon be constructing a new building.

I'm not necessarily impressed with the idea of "Keeping up with the Joneses," but would kind of like to keep up with the capitals of Bailey and Castro Counties.

One of Black's most colorful residents, Mrs. T.J. Presley, was honored with a televised report on Channel 4 Monday evening at 6. Guess the news commentator doesn't rate the Star's advertising columns very high. He said, "Advertising has been done on a mouth to mouth basis—someone telling someone else—until Mrs. Presley has become known from coast to coast."

We like to think that her advertising in the Star is due some of the credit.

Several of our readers have asked me during the past few months about an art class being planned by Carol Ellis. Think I promised about a dozen persons I'd let them know the beginning date.

Now, I've really got a problem. I failed to make a list and now I can only remember names of a few.

Plans are for the class to begin at the end of this month, so if you are interested in being apart of it, call me again, or call Carol.

Are you an optimist or a pessimist? One test is whether you see a big doughnut or a small round hole. The optimist sees the doughnut. The pessimist sees the hole.
