WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—Although the senate subcommittee which reported the bill on Monday night that led to the death of R. H. Taylor.

The court charged that if the defendant provoked the difficulty there that night which led to the homicide that the law of self-defense does not apply, and further stated that if the jury believed that the defendant committed a "wrongful act" in carrying out the alleged threats to execution and shot with the fear in his mind that he was about to be killed, the homicide was justified under the law and that in the event it should return a verdict of not guilty.

Assistant District Attorney Sam Holliday opened the argument for the state and was followed by Attorney J. V. Allford for the defense. Attorney Bernard Martin closed the argument for the defense and asked for a verdict.

County Attorney E. L. Full was scheduled to be the closing speaker.

"I'll get him if he ever crosses my path," are the words that Lonnie Griffin, on trial for the murder of R. H. Taylor, told the jury in his testimony Thursday morning. Miller was a state witness and was the second to take the stand after the defense announced that it had rested its case.

The reputations of the defendant and the deceased have become an issue in the trial of the case. Evidence was introduced by the defense which tended to show that Taylor was a man who was hostile to carry into execution any threats that he might make. The state introduced three witnesses at the morning session of court who testified that Taylor's reputation as to peace and quiet was good in Burk Burnett.

John W. D. Cardwell of Burk Burnett was the state's first rebuttal witness. He stated that on the afternoon of Halloween night that he was in the street in front of the city and that he passed the (Continued on Page 3, Column 3.)

NOTED NATURALIST AND AUTHOR DIES SUDDENLY

DENVER, COLO., Sept. 21.—Enos Mills, the naturalist and author, died at his home at Long's Peak, Colorado, today.

Mr. Mills retired as usual at his home last night. He awakened early this morning, called his wife and complained of feeling ill. He died a short time later. Overwork and loss of strength following an accident in the summer while in New York in January are believed to have caused his death.

Mills was familiarly known as the "father of Rocky Mountain national parks." In addition to conducting Long's Peak Inn, known to tourists over the country, Mr. Mills wrote extensively for leading magazines and was the author of many books having to do with birds, wild flowers and scenery protection and national parks. He also wrote of animal life. He had climbed Long's Peak, one of the loftiest in the Rockies, more than 100 times.

NATURALIST AND AUTHOR WELL KNOWN IN TEXAS

AMARILLO, Sept. 21.—Enos Mills, naturalist, who died at Long's Peak, Colo., today, was well known in Texas. He visited the Palo Duro canyon near here, the Davis mountains and other proposed park sites in Texas, and wrote a series of articles urging that these scenic spots be converted into state or national parks. His articles were published in a number of Texas and national periodicals.

Port notices calling the men back to work and notify the newspapers. Executives of the company said operations would be resumed at Highland Park, River Rouge and Dearborn, where the three largest plants of the concern are located, at daylight tonight. Assembly plants throughout the country that were shut down with the parent plants also will resume as quickly as their men can be recalled.

It is planned to put production immediately on the basis it was at the time of the closing.

FORD WILL NOT DISCUSS THE OPENING OF PLANTS

LIMA, OHIO, Sept. 21.—Henry Ford passed through Lima, south bound over his road, the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton, at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Neither he nor his secretary would discuss the proposed opening of his automobile plants tomorrow.

DETROIT, Sept. 21.—The plants of the Ford Motor company, Detroit, closed last Saturday because of the coal situation, thereby throwing 100,000 Ford workers out of work in different parts of the country, will reopen tomorrow morning. It was officially announced today.

Orders for the reopening of the plants were telegraphed here today by Edsel B. Ford, president of the motor company, who left Cincinnati, Ohio, for Detroit today. Ford said cancellation of the interstate commerce commission's service order No. 13 had made it possible to obtain coal.

The telegram read as follows: "Cancellation of the interstate commerce commission's service order number 13 has made it possible to obtain coal."

"Movement of coal to Detroit has started and we feel justified in starting the plants tomorrow (Friday) morning."

Body of the Miner Who Wrote Farewell Message Is Missing

JACKSON, CALIF., Sept. 21.—One body was missing today among those of the 47 gold miners who perished in the Arroyo shunt. It was the body of William Fessel, the man who wrote on the rock with the smoke of his miner's lamp the farewell message: "Gas getting bad. 3 o'clock."

This was three hours after the miners were trapped by the fire above them. It was Fessel's body, mine officials announced early today, that vanished. Only his dying message remained last night when the rescue crew of the United States bureau of mines checked their lists and found that 46 bodies had been removed from the vault.

It was hoped to find Fessel's body today. It was believed possible that he, evidently a leader of the stricken shift—had crept from the chamber of death to a higher level, hoping to find some means of escape for his comrades. The men from the bureau of mines were sent, however, that they counted 47 bodies when, late Monday night, the gruesome discovery was made. Fessel considered it more likely that Fessel's body was buried in a cave, in since the work of removal began.

FORT WORTH, Sept. 21.—Ranger Captain R. W. Aldrich, who has been investigating charges of intimidation by ranchmen against miners in the Texas coal fields, was closeted with United States District Attorney Zwickel and other federal officials this morning, following his return from the strike area. Aldrich will leave tonight for Austin to report there. After Aldrich had left the federal building, John Wilkinson, district president of the United Mine Workers, who made the charges against the ranchers, conferred with Zwickel. Aldrich declined to make any statement regarding his findings.

Husband Testifies At Trial Involving Paternity of Child

SOUTH BEND, IND., Sept. 21.—Examination of Professor John Terman, husband of Mrs. Augusta Terman, who charges Harry Poutin with the paternity of her ten-month-old child, was continued when the hearing of the case was resumed here today.

"It's a damned lie—it's a damned lie," Professor Terman shouted from the witness stand to Attorney Sam Parker, chief counsel for the defense, when Parker asked in cross-examination, "Is it true, Prof. Terman, that you are the father of a boy?"

Three times the question was asked and he passed, the professor answering at the top of his voice. Prosecutor Floyd Julligan vigorously protested against the methods of the defense.

Finally through the continued protest of the prosecutor, Mr. Parker ceased his line of questions and order was restored in the court.

CUSTOM BROKERS HURRY TO WITHDRAW MERCHANDISE

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Custom brokers made haste today to withdraw merchandise from government warehouses before the new tariff rates become effective at midnight.

Owners of large consignments of goods now in transit joined the race on the last day adding to the hundreds of brokers besieging the customs house with inquiries for manifests of vessels due or a few hours away. Every available clerk in the customs department was called upon to assist in putting through emergency orders for withdrawal of goods in government storage.

REGULATE TRADING IN GRAIN FUTURES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—The Capper-Thomas bill providing for regulation of trading in futures on grain markets was signed today by President Harding.

The act which becomes effective November 1, was passed by congress as a substitute for the regulatory provisions of the future trading act of 1921, which provisions were declared inoperative by the supreme court. It follows along the same line as the act of 1921, except that it is based on the power of congress to regulate interstate commerce while the statute to which the supreme court found objection was predicated on the taxing power of congress.

Grain exchanges coming under the new act are those at Chicago, Minneapolis, Duluth, Kansas City, St. Louis, Toledo, Milwaukee, Francisco, Los Angeles and Baltimore.

Secretary Wallace, who as head of the department of agriculture, is entrusted with enforcement of the new law, declared in a statement issued after the president's signature had been placed on the act, "legitimate dealers in grain and from all others who favor free, open and competitive markets."

ATTORNEY GENERAL IS SATISFIED WITH THE INVESTIGATION

MARIETTA, ILL., Sept. 21.—Constable John Kelly of Zuffield, indicted two weeks ago for murder in connection with the Herrin mine killings, expressed himself as "well satisfied" with the results obtained by the jury. Simultaneously the Williams county board of supervisors adopted a resolution denouncing the 22 killings on June 21 and 22 last, and demanding that the truth be brought to immediate trial.

Assistant Attorney General Midekuff announced the jurors had been selected for the trial relating to the killing of the three union men, June 21, but that other witnesses would be questioned as to the killing of the miners and the jury will feel it has done all possible to bring those guilty of the union men's deaths to justice.

Attorney General Daugherty has refused to produce witnesses, saying they prefer to take no part, either way, in the investigation.

FIFTY MILLION DOLLARS INTEREST ON WAR DEBT DUE U. S. OCTOBER 15

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—Great Britain's payment of interest on her war debt to the United States due October 15 will amount to approximately $50,000,000, according to the belief expressed today by high treasury officials.

In setting forth this opinion treasury officials disclosed that the British government had asked the United States for an approximation of the $50,000,000 interest due next month, and of the $10,000,000 of interest due November 15 might be made in October, pending arrangements for refunding the $10,000,000 British debt. The British debt at present bears interest at the rate of five per cent, payable in semi-annual installments, but there is a probability that the funding scheme would provide for interest at 4 per cent treasury officials.

Officials of the road stated a committee of striking shippers made preparations for a settlement and was told the policy of the "Katy" would be to reemploy strikers only as new men, without any seniority privileges.

About 4,000 shippers went on strike on the "Katy" and of this number about 1,000 have been released, it was said.

WITHDRAW FROM NEUTRAL ZONE LEAVING LINES TO THE BRITISH SUPPORTED BY THE TWO FLEETS

SETTLING TURKISH QUESTION

The Turkish question was "settled" after the Crimean war by the Treaty of Paris, March 30, 1856, when the empire was formally taken into the society of European nations. How well it was settled is shown by the chronology of the high spots in subsequent Turkish history:

1875—Herzegovina rebels. 1876—Bulgarian revolution causes massacre. 1877—War with Russia. 1878—Treaty of San Stefano, ending Russian war, makes Bulgaria an autonomous state of such large dimensions that other powers object. Treaty of Berlin arranges new territorial settlement of Balkans which endured substantially until 1908.

1885—Bulgaria advances frontier as result of war with Serbia. 1887—Bulgaria declares independence, but real government of Balkans which endured substantially until 1908.

1895—Nationalist society of "Young Turks" proclaim establishment of constitution and set up "Committee of Union and Progress" which becomes dominant power.

1908—Bulgaria proclaims independence of Turkish suzerainty. Austria proclaims annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina. 1909—Unsuccessful counter-revolution against Young Turks is accompanied by Cossack massacres.

1911—Italy invades Tripoli and Cyrenaica. 1912—First Balkan war with Bulgaria, Serbia, Greece and Montenegro against Turkey begins one day before peace is signed with Italy. 1912—Division of Turkish spoils brings on second Balkan war, ending by Rumanian intervention.

1914—Greece annexes Crete, creating friction with Young Turks. 1914—Turkey allies herself with Germany in world war. 1918—Trouble with Greece is renewed. 1922—Kemalist army forces Greek retreat and captures Smyrna.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 21.—The French and Italian detachments and flags were withdrawn today from the neutral zone of Imdid and the Dardanelles on orders from their respective governments.

The lines are now held exclusively by British troops, supported by the combined Atlantic and Mediterranean fleets. In the meantime, Kemal's vanguards are reported to have reached the neutral zone of the Dardanelles. The next few hours will show whether the Kemalists contemplate action.

By Associated Press. LONDON, Sept. 21.—While the allied powers are feverishly endeavoring to arrange a peace conference to clean the slate between Turkey and Greece, the Turkish more fighting in the near east, rumblings of impending hostilities continue to come from Constantinople and the Dardanelles.

A relatively small force of British troops is holding Chanak, the key position on the southern shore of the straits, while the Turkish national forces are further east, demanding after their overwhelming defeat of the Greeks are concentrating outside the neutral zone at Izmir and the Dardanelles.

The Kemalists, official Greek dispatches say, have available for use in such a drive 1,000 modern fighters, 6,000 rifles, 100 machine guns and enough ammunition for a two years campaign which they captured from the Greeks.

If the spokesman at Constantinople is to be believed, the Turkish army is determined that the allies shall not stand in the path of their desire to reconquer the straits.

An Associated Press dispatch quotes this spokesman, Hamid Bey, to the effect that the Kemalists army will certainly declare war on the British if the British attempt to interfere with a movement across the straits.

A ray of hope, however, is seen in the fact that the British have fifteen Mustafa Kemal Pasha and General Pello, French high commissioner, to which Yusuf Kemal Bey, British ambassador in Ankara, has been hastily summoned from Angora. The calling in of Yusuf Kemal points to the discussion of important wide strike injunction at 11:25 this morning, and Assistant Attorney General A. A. McLaughlin began summing up for the government.

BAYLOR COUNTY FAIR ATTRACTS BIG CROWD; SPLENDID EXHIBITION

SEYMOUR, TEXAS, Sept. 21.—Knox and Throckmorton counties had an inning at the Baylor county fair and rodeo today, when the largest crowds that have attended the exposition were pouring into the grounds Thursday morning. The 100-piece Knox county band arrived and was dispensing some lively airs. The association secretary declared at noon today that the day's attendance would reach at least 15,000.

Features of the morning were the rodeo, Fox Hastings and Florence Hughes, nationally famous female artists, help make up an interesting arena program during the forenoon. They are performing twice daily and drawing immense crowds of spectators.

Cowboys and girls from every part of the United States, who have come to participate in the Seymour rodeo, declare nothing in the way of a rodeo ever attempted in the southwest can vie with that now being conducted at this place. The grandstands and bleachers have been filled daily and that the crowds are thoroughly entertained and have no complaint at the superiority of the rodeo events is attested by the fact that not a word of disunion has been laid against the performances that are executed with precision and without any of the commonplace amateurishness.

No serious accidents.

Despite the wildness of the steers and the perilous positions some of the riders have been subjected to, not a single accident has marred the occasion.

The agricultural and livestock exhibits are fully up to all expectations. The Baylor county general exhibit has been acclaimed by ex-

MOTHERS AND DAUGHTERS

Read This Letter from Mrs. W. S. Hughes

Greenville, Del.—"I was under the impression that my eldest daughter had had some serious troubles ever since the first time her sickness appeared she had to go to bed and even had to quit school on a for a number of weeks. I always take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound myself so I gave it to her and she has received great benefit from it. You can use this letter for a testimonial if you wish, as I cannot say too much about what your medicine has done for me and for my daughter, Mrs. W. S. Hughes, Greenville, Del.

Mothers and oftentimes grandmothers have taken and have learned the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. So they recommend the medicine to others. The best test of any medicine is what it has done for others. For nearly fifty years we have published letters from mothers, daughters, and women, young and old, recommending the Vegetable Compound. They know what it did for them and are glad to tell others. In your own neighborhood are women who know of its great value.

Mothers—daughters, why not try it?

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS TO BEAMY GLEAM STAR

By OLIVE ROBERTS BAGTON

Suddenly he heard a thump from the tree.

The twins met Rubadub, the fairyman, and told him what had happened.

"We went to see the wizard of the Dingle Dell just as you advised," said Nick, "but we've only had bad luck."

"Bad luck!" exclaimed Rubadub. "How's that?"

"Well, we did just what he told us when we asked him how we could get the Fairy Queen's wand back, but every time we did what he told us we got into trouble. Once we got into a thistle-patch and had to be saved by the thistle-patch fairy; once we got into a deep mud-puddle and had to be saved by the Brownie; and once we were dropped into the ocean and had to be saved by a whale."

"Jemima's nanny-goat!" exclaimed Rubadub. "That's just awful and too bad as well! I believe that 'Fairy-Doodle is to blame for everything.'"

Suddenly they heard a laugh that seemed to come from the branches of a tree right over their heads.

"And looking up didn't they see Fairy-Doodle himself grinning down at them?"

"Yes, he!" laughed the silly fellow. "Yes, I did it all. I heard you say you were going to get the wizard of the Dingle Dell to help you, so I made myself into a wizard and when you came along you never knew the difference."

"The Wednesday meeting was otherwise featured by a talk on council work by Miss Bonnie Stewart, principal of the school. Mrs. Goodness led the devotionals in a short program, and Mrs. Lee Clark, accompanied at the piano by Miss Mary Spert Clark, sang a solo. Plans for the fall work were discussed and settled.

Something New in Pie Plates

NO matter how many Pyrex dishes you own, you haven't enough unless your set includes this new wide-flange Pyrex Pie Plate.

Just as roasts, vegetables, potatoes, biscuits, and puddings are more appetizing when baked in Pyrex, pie baked the Pyrex way are a revelation. They are so much more juicy, tender and flaky than pies baked in ordinary tins.

All foods ordinarily cooked on top of the stove are better when baked in Pyrex. They are cooked evenly and thoroughly on all sides—through and through. Besides, Pyrex means only one dish to wash instead of two, and it never dings, chips, discolors, weeps out, or breaks from oven heat.

LOCAL BUSINESS MEN VIOLATING LAW, SAYS YATES

Juvenile Officer R. L. Yates stated that following an investigation in the business district, he finds that many local business men are violating the law which prohibits the employment of boys and girls of the school age.

In many instances, the juvenile officer stated, the men are employing the boys and girls without a knowledge of the law, but stated that within a few days he would start prosecutions. He states that the law makes it possible for the assessing of a fine of $15.

Boys and girls of school ages are required to secure a permit from the county judge before they can be employed, and employers who have boys and girls working for them must have such a permit on file or be subject to prosecution.

SALVAGE OF HUMAN LIFE IS NEGLECTED BY ALLIED VESSELS

CHARGE MADE BY MEDICAL DIRECTOR OF THE NEAR EAST RELIEF.

NEARLY DOZEN WARSHIPS REMAIN IN THE HARBOR

Nine Show Disposition to Aid Except the American Destroyers.

ANTWERP, Sept. 21.—Although eight days have passed since fire obliterated Smyrna, 15,000 survivors remain exposed on the coast, destitute, disoriented and abandoned. No allied vessel has offered to salvage the last wreckage of human life in the greatest disaster in Asia's history.

Nearly a dozen warships remain in the harbor, but none show a disposition to aid the wretched population except the American destroyers. Deportation continues and the Turkish soldiers are beginning to carry off Greek and Armenian girls, leaving their parents in a frantic state.

Sporadic shooting and thefts continue. Smoke is still emerging from the ruins. The Turkish medical director of the near east relief, has urged the Turks to bury their dead in order to prevent pestilence. He also has appealed to them to vacate every one in order to guard against cholera and smallpox.

Interviewed by the Associated Press today, Dr. Faust said the allied ships did not do more in salvaging human life. The work of all the vessels on the night of the fire was magnificent, but on the succeeding days when the impulse of the great disaster disappeared, there was a lull in their energy and spirit.

If we had kept up the work there would have been no evacuation problem and thousands would have been saved which might otherwise have been deported or killed. Even before the fire there was indiscriminate killing and looting. There are no money hoards in the streets that I had on one occasion, tonight from my automobile to lift the dead out of the path of the fire as a spectacle.

It was like a gigantic scene staged by Nero, or a chapter from the "Ten Commandments" which was complete that it had every appearance of being malevolently planned in advance.

Are your child's eyes efficient? Are they slightly defective? Do you know? An optical examination, such as we make, will remove the doubt. Faith Optical Co., 215 Scott avenue.—Adv.

CALOMEL MAY TURN ON YOU NEXT TIME

Next Dose You Take May Salvage and Steal Your World of Trouble

Calomel is mercury; quicksilver. It enters into your life like dynamite, exploding and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your drugist and get a bottle of Doan's Liver Tonic for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a couple and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel ever will, then making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Doan's Liver Tonic straightens you right up and you feel great. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and non-saltative.—(Adv.)

Winner of Prize In Baby Parade May Be Adopted

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Fourteen months old Paul Carewe, winner of the Governor's cup at the recent Asbury Park baby parade, may become heir to a princely fortune, it was learned today. He is now at the summer home of Arthur Hudson Marks and Mrs. Marks, once Lady Lydia Talbot of England, and a former opera singer, and may be adopted by that family.

Paul was offered for adoption by his mother, Mrs. Laura Carewe, shortly after he had won the governor's cup. Mrs. Carewe, widowed four months before the baby's birth, has found it impossible to care for him and educate him as she felt he deserved. The boy's father served as an army lieutenant in the A. E. F. and died from the effects of exposure soon after returning to America. Mrs. Carewe is earning her living as a nurse.

Prospective parents are wealthy. Mrs. Carewe selected Mr. and Mrs. Marks from among the hundred who applied for the privilege of adopting Paul, and took the boy to Lockledge Sunday. Definite announcement of his adoption by the Marks family is expected soon. In the meantime Paul is dominating the eight negro servants in the Marks home and most of the remaining 45 employees on the big estate in the autocratic manner of extreme youth.

STARVATION FACES THOUSANDS OF THE GREEK POPULATION

FOOD PROBLEM SO GRAVE INTERNATIONAL HELP MUST BE GIVEN.

THOUSANDS OF REFUGEES FLOODING THE COUNTRY

Insufficient Wheat Supply Complicates Situation in That Country.

ATHENS, Sept. 21.—With thousands of refugees arriving daily from Asia Minor and an insufficient wheat supply at home, Greece is confronted with a food problem so grave that international help, given quickly, may alone save thousands from starvation.

Already some 200,000 refugees are here, having been dumped ashore or disembarked on the islands of the Aegean where not only food but water is lacking.

Three days' supply of wheat has been purchased in Egypt and Greek banks have agreed to turn over to the government about 100,000 pounds in foreign exchange to finance further purchases of wheat abroad.

FLORAL METHODIST CAMPAIGN GETS UNDER WAY WEDNESDAY

The first meeting of the campaign workers of the Floral Heights Methodist church was held Wednesday night, 59 of the 100 team members were present, and 14 of the 20 team captains adhered to roll call. One of the goals, 100 at prayer meeting was 90 per cent realized, and the meeting was marked by great enthusiasm. Every worker responded heartily to the plans as outlined by the pastor.

Definite assignments were made to the various teams with instructions to press the work vigorously until next Wednesday night, at which time all the workers will meet again at the church. The opinion was freely expressed by those present that the goals which had been set for this campaign would be realized.

Dr. Grossness announced that special services would be held October 1-3, in which he would have distinguished help from without the city.

CHARITIES BUDGET EXPECTED TO TOTAL $40,000 THIS YEAR

The 1922 budgets for the various organizations operating through the United Charities are expected to total about $40,000, an increase of $5,000 over the 1921 budget.

A definite report on the amount will be made at a meeting of the executive board of the United Charities Thursday evening in the basement of the Morgan building. Representatives of the Welfare Council, Day Nursery, Salvation Army, Red Cross, Children's aid society, Y. W. C. A., Boy Scouts and probably the American Legion will attend the meeting and submit their budgets for the following year. While no action has been taken on the matter, it is generally understood that the legion will be a part of the organization for the next year.

Plans for the drive to raise funds to cover this amount will be made which time all the workers will meet again at the church. The opinion was freely expressed by those present that the goals which had been set for this campaign would be realized.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that they affirm consistency, that they which have believed in God might be careful to maintain good work.—Titus 3:8.

It is the business of anybody who can, to set right what anybody has set wrong.—Aton.

Texas-Oklahoma Fair, September 30 to October 4, Wichita Falls

WICHITA FALLS INTERESTED IN DALLAS-DENTON PROJECT.

The city of Dallas has accepted the proposal of C. W. Hobson and associates for the electrification of the Katy's track from Dallas to Denton for the operation of an interurban between those cities.

This action means that the long talked of interurban connection between Dallas and Wichita Falls is a little bit nearer, for having started in this direction with a line to Denton it is certain that Dallas interests will not rest until the line is extended to Wichita Falls. This is the more certain because Wichita Falls is urging the extension as well as Dallas.

The line from Dallas to Denton is said to be the most costly in construction of any part of the proposed line from Dallas to Wichita Falls. From Denton to Wichita Falls there are no stretches of costly construction. This will make the building more feasible.

And as attractive as an electrical interurban connection between the metropolises of North Texas and the metropolis of Northwest Texas appeared a few years ago when the project was first seriously considered, it is now about to become doubly attractive not only for Dallas but Wichita Falls as well through the building of the great irrigation system here. Dallas will furnish a splendid market for the crops and produce of the irrigated farms and an interurban is peculiarly adapted for the transportation of these crops.

Wichita Falls wants an electrical interurban connection not only with Dallas but with Denton and all the other fine communities along the route. It hears with much interest of the acceptance of the proposal for the electrification of the Katy from Denton to Dallas.

THE BOOK VALUE OF A MAN.

The "owners" of one Willie Kamm, baseball player, have taken out a $125,000 insurance policy upon his life. As a piece of baseball material, judged by the standards of that sport, he has that value to the organization which, according to baseball law, has first claim upon the services of his arm and his head.

Mr. Kamm may be said, therefore, to have a "book value" equal to the face of the policy. In ten years, more or less, he must earn that amount, plus his salary and plus interest on the sum invested in him, if the venture is to be a profitable one for the purchasers. He must bring to the Chicago club an average of $30,000 a year for ten years, figuring it roughly, to "prove the wisdom of the transaction by which it acquired him.

There is no arbitrary limit to what a man may be "worth" to those whom he serves. A man, by his habits, his training, his temperament, fixes the only limit there is. Mr. Kamm's habits, training and temperament have combined to make him of superlatively outstanding value as a third baseman, and if he should die his owners would require an amount running into six figures to compensate them for the loss of his services.

It is a lot of money for one man. But the man may be worth it.

MR. BRYAN'S SUGGESTION.

In a recent speech at Los Angeles, William J. Bryan said he favored cancellation of Europe's debts in return for a guarantee of disarmament and peace. As has been pointed out, America's cancellation of these debts would be tantamount to America's paying Germany's war bill. That this country should do such a thing out of the goodness of her heart is one thing; that she should use Europe's indebtedness to do some profitable trading is something else again.

The Times believes that under certain conditions, cancellation of the debts might be the part of wisdom; if such an act could be made to assure the future peace of Europe, it would be worth the price, especially in view of the fact that a good big portion of the debts can't ever be collected anyhow. If Europe wants the debts cancelled but enough to mortgage her dreams of conquest, her selfish imperialism and her ancient and modern grudges, it might be worth trading for.

Maybe it would be wise to see just what European nations would promise in return for their debts; let's get the matter on a trading basis.

Business seldom comes to a man's place without an invitation.

Some towns have all the luck. In Detroit, a reformer moved away.

THE NEW TARIFF BILL GOES INTO EFFECT.

The new tariff bill was scheduled to go into effect today. The bill has been called by its opponents a measure to increase the cost of living and to restrict trade. Its first effects will doubtless be seen in an increase in the prices of many of the manufactured articles on which heavy duties are laid by the bill. Secondly, it is probable a number of republican congressmen will be retired in the November elections.

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

ON WALKING HAPPILY AHEAD.

It is the attitude which we take toward our work and our life that establishes, largely, our viewpoint on life in general.

Mortimer Granville in his book, "How to Make the Best of Life," has this to say: "It is not by being anxious in an inordinate or unduly fussy fashion that men can hope to live long and well. The best way to live well is to work well. . . . One of the most seductive and mischievous of errors in self-management is the practice of giving way to inertia, weakness and depression. . . . Those who desire to live should settle this well in their minds, that nerve power is the force of life and that the will has a wondrously strong and direct influence over the body through the brain and the nervous system."

More and more, it does seem, that this world is getting to be one great family of fretters!

It isn't work that kills. Work builds. It builds bodies, minds and souls. It establishes standards. It washes away that which is not beautiful and puts in its place that which stands as an inspiration.

Walk merrily ahead and you will walk happily ahead.

Digest a meal in anger and depression and you feed yourself enough poison to weaken your body machine for days!

Mix your food with laughter and a happy frame of mind and you will rise to go forth "from conquering to conquer," though that meal be nothing more than the simplest fare.

Get into the frame of mind of never being whipped. Then, perchance, should you ever be so unfortunate as actually to be whipped—why, you won't even know it!

God hates a whiner. He hates an excuser. He hates a fellow who will never admit that he is wrong, but who harbors perfection. That is, I think that He hates these chaps.

But he who whistles his way along—comes what may—I am sure is destined to live the happiest sort of life, though it be spotted at times with gloom and discouragement.

The difficult thing about this life of ours is not to face and solve the difficult things, but so to organize our minds and our hearts that we may efficiently use every moment given us in a way to get the most done.

SAID FATHER TIME

Old Times comes sweeping down the way And says: "Well, here's another day! Another stretch of hours for you To work and laugh and scamper through. And when the last of them is gone, Will you be any farther on?"

"Tomorrow with the rising sun I'll come to see what you have done, Think you that I shall find at dawn That you have mowed your patch of lawn, And fixed the gale which needs repair, Or put away that rubbish there?"

"Tomorrow when I call again And find you in the haunts of men, Will you have anything to show For all the hours which come and go? Or will you still be sitting down With nothing done to your renown?"

"Tomorrow when I pass your door, Will all be as it was before, With nothing changed and nothing new To mark the day you've squandered through? Shall I go by and smile and say It's just the same as yesterday?"

"Let's mark the spot you're standing near. Tomorrow shall I find you here, The goal you seek as far away As now it seems to be today? Or when I call will you be gone, Fighting your battle farther on?"

YOU AND I

Mail will be delivered from New York to San Francisco in 25 hours, promises Paul Henderson, postal official. The fastest bird, named "Swift," could not keep up with the mail plane. The "swift" can fly faster than 100 miles an hour, but it's not a bird.

It is less than 20 years since the Wright brothers were first to soar in an airplane, yet man already flies faster and higher than any bird.

Also, more safely, for Henderson announces that the air mail service this year has flown 2,000,000 miles without a fatality.

The toddler, camel-walk, and similar fancies are observed in Chicago by E. K. Newman. Then he takes a long trip into central Africa—and finds the natives dancing the same steps. This surprises him, but it shouldn't.

The distance from the Congo savage to civilized man is mainly one of mileage. Civilized savages in the Congo say if three men are adrift long enough in a boat, the weakest two generally are eaten.

The mark is being thrown overboard, says a German newspaper. The dollar taking its place in price quotations, that league of German consumers protest to their government. They say the sudden swing to the American dollar is making its price rise faster than the people's income can keep up with it.

In this year the German finance right-about-face. Speculation in the dollar takes the place of gambling with the mark.

Polis Negri arrives in New York. She will make pictures in American studios. It is rumored that her American managers are taking out $1,000,000 insurance to protect them in case she marries. Rumor further says that her contract agrees to relieve her of all obligations in event of marriage.

What chance has a serious economic subject when the public is called on to wonder if Polis is engaged, also the identity of "him"? Big problems remain unsolved only because the public refuses to believe really interested in them. Average person is 95 per cent emotional, 5 per cent intellectual, which, after all, may be for the best.

He takes out citizenship papers at the age of 96—Dr. James R. W. Ward. He says he has practiced his profession all over the world and that he becomes a citizen of United States because "it is the only country with genuine liberty of thought and education."

Crabs will sneer at this. But the average person, being more level-headed than the professional spotlight-bosser, knows it is true. America is not perfect. But, taken as a whole, it is nearer perfect than any other country. Be thankful for occasional grumbling. It indicates a desire for perfection, the only force that can bring steady improvement.

Dr. J. R. W. Ward, 96, says he smokes 50 cigars a day and is against prohibition. Before grabbing his heavy smoking as the cause of his advanced years, consider this probability: He is old despite his smoking, not on account of it.

Ward attributed his longevity to minding his own business and never worrying about anything. A sensible formula.

LITTLE BENNY'S NOTE BOOK

By LEB PAGE

I was down town with ma today and we started to go past a cigar store with a big sign in the window saying, Special for today, Prince Ignata cigars 40 cents for a package of 12.

I meant that reasonable, and look there just the shape of the ones your father smokes, I've got a good mind to surprise him with a dozen, ma sed.

And we went in the store and ma sed to the man, I want a dozen of those Price Ignata cigars, they're just the shape my husband smokes, is there any difference between the different cigars besides the shape?

Very little, very little, the man sed. And he rapped up a dozen saying, I suppose your father will look down on these cigars because they didn't cost a fortune, and I sed, Well, ma, my don't you take some of the bands off his cigars and put them on these and see if he knows the difference.

I believe I will, ma sed. Wich she did, did, pop only having 12 cigars left in his box and ma taking the bands off and putting them on 12 Prince Ignata cigars and putting them in the box instead, and after supper pop lit one and started to smoke it, saying, Yes, good, wait this, am I smoking on Lord Dunderberg or a piece of rope? I never knew this to happen before, yes, good. And he put it down and lit the other one, saying, Good, this is worse, I'm being afflicted, paw, smell the darn thing, just wait till I get hold of my cigar, ma, my don't you put the 2nd one down, ma saying, Wy, it smells all rite to me.

Then you're lucky, pop sed, and ma sed, Yes, good, wait this, am I smoking on Lord Dunderberg or a piece of rope? I never knew this to happen before, yes, good. And he put it down and lit the other one, saying, Good, this is worse, I'm being afflicted, paw, smell the darn thing, just wait till I get hold of my cigar, ma, my don't you put the 2nd one down, ma saying, Wy, it smells all rite to me.

LEARN A WORD EVERY DAY.

Today's word is—BOSPORUS.

It is a narrow waterway between two seas or between a sea and a lake. Generally it is used in reference to the Strait of Constantinople, called "Bosphorus" by the Turks, connecting the Black and Marmora seas. It is not necessarily the same significance.

It comes from Latin "Bosporus," with the same meaning as in English. It is used like this—"The world's eyes today are fixed on the Bosphorus, as the principal point of international danger."

(A variation of the spelling is "Dosphorus.")

CARE OF TEETH

By DR. R. H. BISHOP.

People always admire a beautiful set of teeth. Why is it, then, that more people don't take good care of their teeth and have beautiful sets of their own?

The nose and the mouth are the busiest parts of entry for disease in the human body. The mouth is particularly so, if the teeth are defective.

The mucous membrane of the mouth is, in itself, quite resistant to disease germs, yet at times it becomes infected and pus-forming germs bore their way to the roots of the teeth and the bones of the face, producing suffering, disfigurement and sometimes even loss of life.

It is a fact that too many people dig their graves with their teeth.

The best way to clean the teeth is to place the bristles of the brush firmly against them, then, applying pressure, as if trying to force the bristles between them, to proceed with a slight rotary scrubbing motion. The brushing finished, take a mouthful of lukewarm water, and with lips, cheeks and tongue, using all the force you can, force the water between and around the teeth, repeating this cleansing process several times.

The teeth should be cleaned in the morning, before retiring at night and after each meal, if possible.

Long life, happiness and prosperity depend much upon a clean mouth full of healthy teeth.

'Smile Week' for Washington State Begins Oct. 14

OLYMPIA, WASH., Sept. 14.—Governor Louis F. Hart today issued a proclamation calling upon the people to observe the week beginning October 14 as "Smile week."

His statement said: "Let everyone forget trouble. . . . Great each one with a smile; say some cheerful word, if possible. . . . Do a kindly act; disseminate joy; visit the shut-in."

"I wish the newspapers, the theatres and the movies would eliminate the murders and all depressing and sorrow breeding items, such as pictures."

"Take the 'funnies,' both papers and pictures to the hospital, the sanitarium and all places where the unfortunate are confined that all may forget their troubles and enjoy hearty laughter."

Don't neglect your plain duty to your children. Let the child's necessity be the guide. Give it every chance to become a happy, prosperous citizen, even though it is necessary for it to wear glasses.

What does food economy mean to you?

DOESN'T it mean good living at low cost? Foods that are "short" in nourishing value and "long" in waste are never economical.
