

GREAT BRITAIN NOT IN FAVOR OF SEARCH AND SEIZURE PLAN

DECLINES TO AGREE TO THE PROPOSAL MADE BY SECRETARY HUGHES.

WILL TAKE PRECAUTION TO PREVENT VIOLATIONS

Canadian and Other Port Officials Instructed to Give Cooperation.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—Great Britain in a communication delivered today to the state department by the British ambassador, declined to agree to the suggestion of Secretary Hughes for a reciprocal agreement for the extension of the right of search and seizure so far as the American prohibition navy jurisdiction outside the three mile limit.

At the same time the British foreign office assured the American government that every precaution would be taken to prevent violation of the American prohibition law by the smugglers under the British flag. It was stated that Canadian and other port officials had been instructed to prevent so far as possible the issuance of fraudulent clearance papers and other practices prohibited in Secretary Hughes' prohibition note.

The British communication in reply to the refusal to accord the usual limits of territorial waters, would be considered as finally blocking any extension of such authority to prohibition officers.

Orders already in effect directing the prohibition navy to search the outside of the three mile limit except in the case of vessels in communication with the shore by means of their own small boats, and it has been the apparent belief of administration officials that no extension would be in accordance with international practice unless it were made on a basis of some specific agreement as that proposed by Mr. Hughes.

YARDMASTERS TO HAVE EIGHT HOURS AND OVERTIME PAY

GRANTED BY RAILROAD LABOR BOARD IN DECISION RENDERED MONDAY.

FORT WORTH & DENVER EMPLOYEES ARE INCLUDED

Amounts to Nearly 25 Per Cent Increase in Pay For Approximately 2,000.

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—An eight-hour day with overtime, which is said to amount to nearly a 25 per cent increase in pay, was granted approximately 2,000 yardmasters on 28 class one railroads and at six switching terminals by the United States railroad labor board today. This is the first time the board has established rules and working conditions for yardmasters who now are classified as subordinate officials and subject to the board's jurisdiction under the transportation act.

By establishing the eight-hour day with pro rata overtime wages, the yardmasters affected virtually have been awarded a 25 per cent wage advance, according to J. S. Hildebrand, president of the Railroad Yardmasters of America.

The ruling affects all yardmasters on the roads involved except such general yardmasters as were classified as officials under a ruling of the interstate commerce commission last November.

On at least 12 roads yardmasters have agreements with the railroads which will govern in these cases. The Delaware and Lackawanna, the Pennsylvania and the Illinois Central railroads were excluded from the decision today.

The rule provides yardmasters required to work seven days a week shall be given two days off each month.

The meeting, which was called by Austen Chamberlain, lord privy seal and government leader in the house of commons, will include the conservatives in the cabinet and the under secretaries belonging to the party.

It is believed Mr. Chamberlain will be backed by the Earl of Balfour, Lord Birkhead and Sir Robert Horne in his address to the premier but the attitude of several of the others is regarded as more than doubtful.

It is generally admitted the present situation cannot remain as it is. It is believed that the government is obliged to yield, resistance being impossible since the fascist court not only on the majority of the people, but also the tacit support of the army and police.

MAYFIELD LOSES FIRST ROUND IN CORSICANA COURT

OVERRULE CONTENTION ACTION SHOULD HAVE BEEN FILED IN TARRANT.

NUMEROUS PLEAS AND MOTIONS ARE FILED

Richard Mays Attacks Part of State to Take Part in the Suit.

CORSICANA, TEXAS, Oct. 15.—The defense in the suit instituted here to restrain the name of Earle R. Mayfield going on the ballot as the democratic senatorial candidate, lost its contention today that the action should have been filed in Tarrant county against the Tarrant county election officials and in Travis county against Secretary of State Staples. Those pleas were made by D. R. Trammell, attorney for the Tarrant county officials and in the interest of Mr. Mayfield and John C. Wall, first assistant attorney general. Judge Hawkins Scarborough sustained demurrers to the pleas.

Numerous pleas and motions were filed when court convened to consider the case. Among them was one by Mr. Trammell, asking that the hearing here be postponed until final action in the fifth court of civil appeals on the appeal from the temporary restraining order granted by Judge Scarborough. This hearing is set for October 31. Another by Mr. Trammell asked that the suit here be dismissed and no further action taken.

The plaintiffs, through Luther Nichols filed counter pleas and motions. Sustaining of the demurrers to the pleas that the suit should have been filed in Tarrant and Travis counties ended the morning session. The other motions probably will come to the attention of the court at a later date.

Richard P. Mays of Corsicana entered the case today as an attorney. He attacked the right of the state to sue in this case and which the suit here be dismissed and no further action taken.

Final decision on proceeding with the hearing in the court here on whether the temporary restraining order should be made permanent is expected to await disposition of the numerous motions and pleas.

HEARING ON INJUNCTION SENATORIAL CONTROVERSY. CORSICANA, TEXAS, Oct. 15.—It was expected counsel for both sides would be ready to proceed today when a hearing on the temporary injunction granted two weeks ago restraining Secretary of State Staples from placing the name of Earle R. Mayfield on the November election ballot as democratic senatorial candidate is called before the court. Judge Scarborough, Judge Scarborough is to decide whether to make permanent the injunction which he granted on the petition of the republican state committee and George E. Paddy, republican candidate for the United States senate.

The republicans alleged Mayfield was improperly nominated because he exceeded the $10,000 expense limit in the primary campaign.

SECRETARY STAPLES NOT TO ATTEND THE HEARING. AUSTIN, Oct. 15.—First Assistant Attorney General John C. Wall is in Corsicana today representing the state at the hearing scheduled there today on the temporary injunction restraining Secretary of State Staples from certifying Earle R. Mayfield's name as senatorial candidate for the hearing.

Although Attorney General Keeling held that the appeal to the court of civil appeals at Dallas took jurisdiction, out of the Navarro county district court, Wall says he will present the state on any matter that may develop. Mr. Keeling said Mr. Keeling and Assistant Attorney General Sutton will leave here tonight for Dallas where the appeal is set for hearing tomorrow. It is probable a motion to dissolve the temporary injunction will be filed there tomorrow.

RECENT CHANGES IN RIVER BASIS FOR U. S. MOTION

DEFENSE VETERANS BUREAU BEFORE FOURTH ANNUAL CONVENTION

SAYS FIRST LANGLEY BILL TO BLAME FOR SITUATION

possibility of indefinite prolonging of the Red river boundary case appeared Monday when a telegram was received at the office of Frederic A. Delano, federal receiver, announcing that the United States was claiming that recent important changes in the Electra flood plain made it necessary to reopen the case and admit additional testimony on this point.

The telegram, which was from J. S. Flannery, an attorney in the case, advised that the admission of this testimony, adoption of the claim by the court would probably indefinitely postpone the decision in the case.

Nothing is known here as to what alleged changes in the river north of Electra have taken place to form a basis for additional testimony. Mr. Flannery's telegram follows:

"The United States has suggested recent important changes in the river adjoining the Electra flood plain, and the necessity for additional testimony to show changes. Unless admitted by Texas, if suggestion should be adopted, it may result in indefinite postponement of decision."

The supreme court Monday announced its adjournment to November 12, without further action on the case is to be expected soon.

FRENCH DELEGATE IS CONVINCED THAT PEACE IS ASSURED

By Associated Press. PARIS, Oct. 15.—Henri Franklin Bouillon, French peace envoy to the Turkish nationalists, arrived in Paris today and immediately proceeded to the foreign office, where he was received by Premier Poincare.

"I am convinced that peace is assured," he said. "I have used all my personal influence with Mustafa Kemal Pasha, but the fight was much easier on the side of our British allies. They were stubborn, albeit courteous, but France played a predominant part in the establishment of peace in the near east."

The French intervention on the shores of the Bosphorus created great enthusiasm among our Turkish friends—for they really are our friends, added Mr. Franklin-Bouillon.

"This memory of our part in bringing peace to the east will be cherished in Turkey."

The French envoy was all smiles as he spoke of France's part in the Turkish situation. He said he was quickly sobered up at mention of Prime Minister Lloyd George's Manchester speech.

"I shall have something to say about this," declared Mr. Franklin-Bouillon. "The British reinforcements had nothing to do with the peace making and the British minister's speech would go a long way toward endangering it now were it not built upon solid basis."

CHARGE PHONE IN HOME OF RECTOR HAD BEEN TAPPED

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Oct. 15.—A charge that the telephone in the home of Mrs. Edward Wheeler Hall, whose husband was slain with Mrs. Eleanor Reinhardt Mills, a chair singer in the church of which he was rector, had been tapped, was made today by Ralph V. M. Gorsline, vestryman of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, who at one time was questioned as to his whereabouts on the night of the murder. Mr. Gorsline declared he was not greatly concerned about the wire tapping as he had nothing to conceal.

County Prosecutor Strickner, of Middlesex, also declared he had good reason to believe that the wires leading into his office had been tapped.

Investigators today claimed to have learned that shortly before the murder the slain couple had spent a day at Manhattan Beach near Coney Island. As tending to prove that an affection existed between Mrs. Mills and the rector, a letter alleged to have been written him by the choir singer was made public. This letter, apparently referring to the Manhattan Beach outing, read in part:

"Yesterday I was happy in a way, in the boat and in the water, but on the way home I was thinking hard. Oh, my darling babykins, what a muddle we are in. But I will be content. I will be."

LEGION COMMANDER DELIVERS ADDRESS AT ANNUAL MEET

INTEREST OF DISABLED VETERANS THE FIRST RESPONSIBILITY, HE SAYS

HAVE JUST STARTED TO FIGHT FOR COMPENSATION

"We know it is right—and right always prevails in America," says member.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 15.—A declaration that the American Legion regards the interests of the disabled service men as its first responsibility and that "with regard to the adjusted compensation act, we've just started to fight" were outstanding points in the address of Hanford MacNider, national commander, delivered before the fourth annual convention of the legion at its opening session here today.

"With regard to the adjusted compensation legislation," a report declared, "We've only just started to fight. We know it is right—and right always prevails in America. A great, well financed attack by interests which we can not help but feel are sordid and selfish, has given us one little setback."

"The legion is recognized as the voice of the men and women who serve with the wholehearted devotion of the whole generation. It must be our duty to build it to its tremendous power may be directed to the highest service—to our God and to our country."

"Never before in the history of America has such a great force in our national life been organized and has such power and prestige been granted. I urge to you the words of one of the greatest soldiers of modern times—The American Legion is the cradle for the whole future of America."

"This year started auspiciously. The reception for our distinguished guests at Kansas City and all over the United States constituted a tremendous and successful performance. The fact that our country but to our allies gripped and held the public mind."

Membership grows. "Starting a year of membership during one of the greatest international depression America has experienced, the American Legion has grown in membership. Its posts active and functioning in departments in this country and 23 others scattered over the globe, number eleven thousand two hundred odd. I am awfully proud to stand with this country and to carry out your commands has not sided in recruiting or holding these posts. Financial goals as its goal, or who are not willing, as good Americans, to forget their personal prejudices and serve the whole. These men have lost the best thing the service ever gave—the conception of their duty to serve with the best of men and with the best of the world."

"I feel personally that tremendous results for the betterment of the disabled veterans—our first duty always—has been attained. The national rehabilitation committee is now formed on a permanent basis."

Construction service. "Starting the day before Christmas with a successful appeal for bedside decisions to save the lives of men harassed with every worry and checked with red tape, this committee has built up a tremendous record of constructive service. You by your membership have given the legion the power and prestige to carry on this work."

"Let me acknowledge the financial assistance of the American Red Cross, which has made possible the maintenance of our liaison representatives in every veterans' bureau district."

"The military affairs committee has had a particularly active year. You have heard and read of its many accomplishments and you will be particularly interested in that part of its work which covered our recommendations for a universal draft system."

"The report of the committee on naval affairs was not completed before our whole naval program was endangered. It was my duty to ask that adequate defense be maintained. Our support has been acknowledged. We will continue to fight for the final outcome of the administration."

"The national legislative committee presents to you a record unsurpassed by any organization in the history of the nation. It has established the legion as the greatest force for constructive legislation for the nation and for the returned service men."

"More than 40 per cent of the men students earn at least part of their expenses at the University of Wisconsin."

Kleagle of Klan Is Staging Drive On Bootleggers

SACRAMENTO, CAL., Oct. 15.—Warrants for the arrest of 11 alleged bootleggers will be sworn to today by Edgar Fuller, kleagle of the Ku Klux Klan, according to the statement yesterday when he turned over to the police department large quantities of liquor of many varieties which he said had been purchased from grocers, cafe men and soft drink merchants in Sacramento.

Fuller said this was the "first act of the Ku Klux Klan in making Sacramento too hot for bootleggers."

He claimed he had 175 men combing the city for places where illicit liquor is dispensed and asserted the liquor he had in his possession was Klan intended to turn over to the police.

Begin Translation Of Sheets Dated in Reign of Ptolemy

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 15.—Translation of fifty sheets of papyrus, dated in the reign of Ptolemy of Alexandria, but which were written many years earlier was to be begun today at the university of Pennsylvania.

One of the sheets, which was found in the tomb at Thebes, is the first of a series of three living scholars capable of reading hieroglyphics, which are the shorthand of hieroglyphics.

The sheets were found in sealed cylinders or jars in the forecourt of a tomb at Thebes.

Enough deciphering has been done on the sheets to ascertain that they contain information as to how taxes were levied and collected in Ptolemy's reign. The system was said to have been so evenly distributed that it brought in tremendous revenues with no apparent hardships to any class.

Mrs. Adams retired from the stage about three years ago. At the General Electric company's plant in Schenectady she was given a section of the building and permission to work in seclusion. The masters included living accommodations.

"I feel personally that tremendous results for the betterment of the disabled veterans—our first duty always—has been attained. The national rehabilitation committee is now formed on a permanent basis."

BERKELEY, CAL., Oct. 15.—The "poor working girl" has it all over a college professor in the matter of allowances made by employers for assistance, according to Mrs. Dorothy Hart Bruce, wife of H. L. Bruce of the faculty of the University of California. She said that the professor's wife was given "choices between childlessness and the anguish and humiliation of many years of debt and drudgery if she were to try on the salary of her instructor-husband."

AMERICAN LABOR PARTY IS OFFICIALLY LAUNCHED

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—The American labor party was officially launched yesterday at a meeting presided over by Morris Hillquit for many years active as a socialist leader. The new party is a political partnership of the socialist party, the farmer-labor party and a number of local labor organizations.

Mr. Hillquit said that the new party was started in February last by 300 men and women representing 2,000 organized farmers and other workers who met on the initiative of the organized railroad workers. He predicted that in the next few months the party would be only two parties, one representing a property owning class and the other a property renting class.

IDaho REPUBLICANS WILL HOLD TO THE WALLACE PLATFORM

BOISE, IDAHO, Oct. 15.—"Notwithstanding the attitude of Senator Borah," in the language of their resolution passed last night, the Idaho state party committee will hold to the Wallace platform.

The resolution, which was adopted by the committee, stated that the senator recently denounced and will proceed with its campaign for re-election.

Thirty-three of the 44 counties were represented at the session called to meet the situation created by Senator Borah's "assumption" that he is fighting for his political existence and his statement that a place of honor would have been better than the platform adopted by the convention in August.

Although several speakers urged Senator Borah and took his part, final action on the resolution was unanimous.

ONE IGNORANT, UNREASONABLE MAN IN COMMUNITY IS MENACE. JUDGE KAY TELLS HIS CLASS

"Taking 'ignorance' as his subject, Judge Kay spoke to his Bible class at the Olympic theater last Sunday morning on the story of Christ before the elders in the temple.

"If there is one vicious, ignorant, unreasonable man in the community, he constitutes a danger to you and to yours," said Judge Kay. His address follows:

"How many of you ever looked into the eyes of a leopards? In that cold eye, there is no friendship. He refuses to know you, or to reason with you, or to make a treaty with you, or to listen to your proposition, or to enter into any agreement with you."

"Now, there is a worse wild beast in the woods than the leopard, and that wild beast is ignorance. Ignorance refused to know you, or to accept the truth, enjoys a feud, and despises friendship. No treaty can be made with it no plan can be laid for it. It is no thing that can be tamed, nor any good."

"Now, if that one thing is true, it behooves us to bend all our efforts to the eradication of ignorance, but all the minds in the community. No matter how wise you may be, how well educated, if there is one ignorant, unreasonable man in the community, he constitutes a danger to you and to yours. And that is the reason that the wise men among us have laid the foundation for our educational system, and that is the reason that the forefathers of Texas, and of other states, have said that we must educate or perish."

"The ignorant is a menace, except one based upon wisdom and understanding. As well have them. The ignorant is as strong in his opinion as the learned. He will fight for it, and die for it."

"Now, we have got here the Savior, a little boy, going up to the temple, and listening to the doctors and listening to the doctors in his knowledge."

"There were two names for him in the Bible. I guess most of you know that. When the Bible speaks of Him in His divine character, as a King of kings, and Lord of lords, He is called Christ. And when it speaks of Him in His human character—the human side of Him—He is called Jesus. He is Jesus in this lesson. Jesus then, is His human name, and Christ His divine name."

"Now, it says that He grew, not only physically, but mentally; got wiser as He grew. Now, that is the finest thing that could be said about Him or about anybody else. Now, you could grow spiritually and mentally, if they would. Children could do it. Ah! How much brighter the children are than we. A little new mind, open to impressions, pure-minded, willing to learn."

"What a man I would have been, if I had been willing to grow. What a man you would have been if you had been willing to learn. What a man you would have been if you had been willing to grow. What a man you would have been if you had been willing to learn."

"What a man you would have been if you had been willing to grow. What a man you would have been if you had been willing to learn. What a man you would have been if you had been willing to grow. What a man you would have been if you had been willing to learn."

England seems to be going through a period of depression. There are a multiplicity of causes for this. The population is homogeneous and the war and has not improved. They adopted a policy of the unemployed and the unemployed are not to their loss. They are not to be blamed for the country's depression.

Twenty million bags a year but only a limited amount can qualify

Practically every country of the tropical world grows coffee in amounts varying from a few bags up to many millions with Brazil, Central America and Columbia standing first in order of importance.

High grade coffee is extremely scarce and out of this enormous production, only a very small percentage can pass the tests to which coffee are subjected by Hills Bros. Yet none, if used alone, would be satisfactory to the taste of those who have become accustomed to Hills Bros. Coffee, for no single lot of coffee, however fine, is equal to a blend. Every coffee has some particular characteristic. It may have fine flavor, but be decidedly weak, or it may have heavy body but lack in flavor. Of course, there are hundreds of different types, and the combining of these many lots into one perfect coffee is the work of the coffee tester and blender.

This particular division of the coffee business is of the utmost importance, for here counts skill and knowledge that can be obtained in but one way—long years of study and experience. This particular division of Hills Bros. business is under charge of three experts whose combined years of service amount to nearly one hundred years. A THOUGHT FOR TODAY
Yes, the Lord shall give that which is good.
—Psalm 85:12.
So long as God has anything for us to do in the world he will take care of us and deliver us from danger.

BARNUM WAS RIGHT.
High finance now is performing some of its most interesting tricks of magic since P. T. Barnum discovered America.

Bookkeepers to the rescue! Instead of paying out the $400 as cash dividends, a stock dividend of $400 is declared. So the stockholders, formerly owners of $200 of stock, now own $600.

THIS DECISION WILL BE APPLAUDED.
The Texas Synod of the Presbyterian church has decided that the Presbyterian Orphanage shall remain at Albany where it has been located for a number of years.

Several months ago one of the main buildings of the orphanage burned and there was agitation for its removal to some larger city. Richard McCarty, editor of the Albany News, made an appeal through his paper for the retention of the orphanage in Albany.

It may be for the larger good, but somehow it doesn't seem right that after some small community has worked and sacrificed for some denominational institution, some larger community, better located and with larger financial support, comes along and invites the removal of this institution and the invitation is accepted.

About the only difference between the girl of 1908 and the girl of 1922 is 22 years.
Golfing is an indoor sport that develops the jaw.

Since oysters came back nine million pieces of shell has been mistaken for pearls.
Bookkeeper has books showing every penny he ever earned. But there are still other reasons for the paper shortage.

ABOUT THE WORLD'S GOLD SUPPLY.

SOMEBODY has figured out that eighteen billion dollars worth of gold has been produced in the world since Columbus discovered America.

Only about eight billion dollars worth exists or money or is stored in the treasuries of nations or in bank vaults. And nearly half of this amount is in the United States. The remaining ten billions produced since Columbus' time has either been converted into jewelry and the arts or has been lost.

The belief was once quite general that a store of gold by any nation meant great prosperity for that nation. Whether we understand anything about it or not, the information that the United States has nearly half of the world's available supply of gold seems very satisfying. But it hasn't brought any particular prosperity. In fact our great store of gold has become embarrassing. It is acting as a hindrance to the free exchange of goods with other nations and as a damper to trade.

The worst of it is that there is small prospect for relief. Instead of diminishing, our stock of gold is getting larger and that of other countries growing smaller. If the present situation keeps up we may some day have all the gold in the world. Then our situation will be desperate indeed.

TODAY'S TALK

"DRUGS AND MUSIC."
You see many strange things in a small town. The other day I passed through a little settlement of perhaps 300 people. Merely a handful of houses, one street—Main street, of course—and one store.

From quite a distance, as you looked down this street, only one sign was visible. It hung over the sidewalk into the street, and this is what it said: DRUGS & MUSIC.
One would think that these two made up the sole necessities for health and happiness in that small town.

I will agree as to the music. But as to the drugs—well, it's too bad!
Drugs. It got me to thinking that you don't have to go into drug stores to get drugs. Many of us make our own—or so we sorrow.

A man can drug himself with such drug-thoughts as: "Tomorrow," "Sometime," "It doesn't matter much anyway," "It can wait," "I'm so tired," "I'll never be happy," and "I was born out of luck."
On the other hand he can whittle and sing himself into heaven itself—for heaven is where happiness is. And there is always music there. Mostly, it's low, sweet music for which you have to listen patiently—music from some hidden or distant violin, or harp, or flute—gentle, like thoughts which have first been bathed in love.

THE RICH BEGGAR.
I met a poor old millionaire, as sad as could be, "I do not beg for money, sir," he slowly said to me. "The thing that I am hungry for is friendly company.

THE TEXAS SYNOD OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH HAS DECIDED THAT THE PRESBYTERIAN ORPHANAGE SHALL REMAIN AT ALBANY WHERE IT HAS BEEN LOCATED FOR A NUMBER OF YEARS.

SEVERAL MONTHS AGO ONE OF THE MAIN BUILDINGS OF THE ORPHANAGE BURNED AND THERE WAS AGITATION FOR ITS REMOVAL TO SOME LARGER CITY. RICHARD MCCARTY, EDITOR OF THE ALBANY NEWS, MADE AN APPEAL THROUGH HIS PAPER FOR THE RETENTION OF THE ORPHANAGE IN ALBANY.

IT MAY BE FOR THE LARGER GOOD, BUT SOMEHOW IT DOESN'T SEEM RIGHT THAT AFTER SOME SMALL COMMUNITY HAS WORKED AND SACRIFICED FOR SOME DENOMINATIONAL INSTITUTION, SOME LARGER COMMUNITY, BETTER LOCATED AND WITH LARGER FINANCIAL SUPPORT, COMES ALONG AND INVITES THE REMOVAL OF THIS INSTITUTION AND THE INVITATION IS ACCEPTED.

GOLFING IS AN INDOOR SPORT THAT DEVELOPES THE JAW.

BOOKKEEPER HAS BOOKS SHOWING EVERY PENNY HE EVER EARNED. BUT THERE ARE STILL OTHER REASONS FOR THE PAPER SHORTAGE.

YOU AND I

SCOTCH.
Lord DeWax, distiller of the "mountain dew" that bears his name, says: "Scotch whisky is so scarce now, and so few in the business, that the majority are rationing out orders to their old customers who, in many cases, only get about 50 per cent of what they ordered."

FRANCE.
In France it now costs 352 francs to buy a medium average, the same commodities that sold for 100 francs before the war.

FEET.
Dr. Charles Crook of San Francisco says that a painful ailment known as "motorist's foot" is caused by motorists keeping the foot on the accelerator.

MOONSHINE.
Nine year old Severino Cabral's mother gave him a small dose of moonshine liquor as medicine. He liked the taste, found the bottle and drank a half pint. Two doctors and four nurses tried to save him, but he died.

REVEL.
Drug addicts in the orient chew the betel nut, which makes their teeth black and their breath stinking. These false teeth are manufactured black. Oh, create the betel nut chewers spurn them.

THE FLAMING JEWEL

BY ROBERT W. CHAMBERS

CHAPTER V.
In the moment of his silence, neither spoke. Trooper Stormont seated himself after a while. And, after a while, Eve turned on her pillow and spoke to him.

"I thought I had no time to spend with children at their play. To walk a stream with fishermen and dream the hours away. I had no time for neighbor folk who smiled from day to day."

"I've watched men from my office room go wandering afar. Building their friendships year by year where all life's pleasures are. Sharing a tent beneath the sky or sailors at a spar."

"But I was seeking yellow gold and had no time for mirth. I had no time for friendly words or laughter round the hearth. I reckoned every hour that came by what its gain was worth."

"Today I have the wealth I sought, I own a stretch of land, But I am hungry day and night to clasp one kindly hand. I'm begging for a friend or two who'll hear and understand."

"I'm starving now for comradeship, but happy men go by And no one sees my loneliness and no one hears me sigh. They call me rich and never guess how poor a man am I."

THE ZOO.
Just think of all the many different animals. It takes to make a Zoo. You stand outside their cages looking at them.

THE ELEPHANT STAYS ON HIS FEET ALL DAY.
Looking strong and hairy but pale. How carefully he waves his trunk. And don't do a thing with his tail.

THE MONKEYS JUMP AT THE BARS OF THEIR CAGES.
Because they have no trees to climb, But you can't enjoy feeling sorry for them.

GAMBLING.
In September 21,735,938 shares of stock changed hands on the New York stock exchange. This was exceeded in September of only three previous years, 1918, 1919 and 1920. The stock exchange is nearly twice as active as a year ago.

way when he came in with the sea and broke. He set the tin tray on her bureau and came over to the bedside. "Eve," he said, "you look very white and ill. Have you been hurt somewhere, and haven't you admitted it?"

After a moment she turned her head and buried her face in the pillow, trembling now in overwhelming realization of what she had endured for the sake of two cakes of sugar-milk chocolate hidden under a bush in the forest.

She seemed unable to speak, and he took both her hands and looked anxiously into the lovely, pallid features.

After a moment she turned her head and buried her face in the pillow, trembling now in overwhelming realization of what she had endured for the sake of two cakes of sugar-milk chocolate hidden under a bush in the forest.

For a long while the girl lay there, the feverish flush of tears on her face, her hands tremulous, restless, now seeking to escape his grasp, now striving to clutch his clasped, uncertain little hands that seemed to tell so much and yet were telling him nothing he could understand.

She was equally positive regarding tariff. "I'd vote every time for a tariff that protects," she said.

Mrs. Felton's views on prohibition are of course, of course, of course. "I'd a million times rather cut off my right arm than see whiskey brought back into our country, or see that matter see the splendid prohibition act modified in any degree."

There is likelihood Mrs. Felton will take her seat in the senate, even though it doesn't meet until December. Governor Hardwick, who appointed her, seems certain of election as Watson's successor.

She will not run in the primary. Instead, she is supporting Hardwick.

FIRST WOMAN SENATOR

IN 55 YEARS AGO. Actively manages her large plantation. Has written two books. Contributes to many magazines, and for 30 years conducted a newspaper department. Has been active in politics 30 years. Favors prohibition. Has pioneered in suffrage and educational work.

CARTERSVILLE, GA., Oct. 16.—"Needless worry is the bane of American life. And when you come down to it, most worry is of the needless kind."

Such is the motto of Mrs. William K. Felton, Georgia's "Grand Old Woman." Its tenacity is attested by the fact that since she has passed her 83rd birthday she has become the first woman Senator-elect in the country's history.

Whether she is a senator now, by virtue of Governor Hardwick's appointment, or whether she will wait until the next election, she is a woman of considerable influence in the broad cotton plantation she actively manages, Mrs. Felton amiably discusses politics, neighborhood events, and cooking recipes with callers.

"I would have worked for a bonus for the brave lads who went across the ocean to fight," she says. "But like Uncle Joe Cannon, I would have fought to the last against a bonus to home guard officers who had to have spurs to keep their feet from falling off their desks."

She is equally positive regarding tariff. "I'd vote every time for a tariff that protects," she said.

MRS. WILLIAM K. FELTON

Writing for something you think is wrong just because your party happens to be championing it. America's greatest need."

"More of the teachings gained at the knees of our mothers, at little red school houses and at Sunday school. No law ever written, can improve the earnest admonition of the scripture to 'love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy strength and with all thy mind, and thy neighbor as thyself.'"

T. C. U. SIMMONS GAME PIONEERED COLLEGIATE PLAY

College football has been pioneered in Wichita Falls. College football made its debut to local grid followers Saturday, an auspicious advent with one of the most fought battles that will ever be waged across the local field.

The Beaumont franchise, for which Waco and other towns were bidding, will remain in Beaumont. B. A. Steinhauser, mayor of the city and president of the club, informed the meeting that the Beaumont franchise was to be sold to a group of business men to take over and operate the franchise. He himself will remain a minority shareholder.

The Sunday meeting fixed the 1923 playing year to start on September 15. The club will have a playing manager, but not of a bench manager, and adhered to its old arrangement. The new rule, abolished a year ago, was restored, but the price was raised to $1,000 and the period during which the club was to be on players released to leagues of equal or lower classification limited to the playing season.

Waco and other towns were bidding for the franchise. The club was to be sold to a group of business men to take over and operate the franchise. He himself will remain a minority shareholder.
