SAYS FARMER AND LABOR HAVE FOUND THEIR JOINT POWER

FIRST SKIRMISH IN NOVEMBER ELECTION, REPORTS SPEAKER.

PRESIDENT MACHINISTS SPEAKS AT CONFERENCE

Delegates Stored Wrath of People Was Let Loose On Harding Administration.

CLEVELAND, OHIO, Dec. 11.—Farmer and labor have discovered their joint power through the primary and there is now hope that their political and industrial future is safer than it ever was before.

"Our first experiment is ended and our first preliminary skirmish on behalf of equal exact justice has come to a close," President Johnston declared, summarizing the recent elections.

"On November 7 the stored-up wrath of the people was let loose against the so-called captains of industry, the frontiersmen, plunderers and political puppets of the discredited Harding administration.

"We laboring people of the city and country have no selfish purpose. We want to see the country governed by those who will have justice, justice in peace and wages.

"We have consecrated our lives to the highest ideal of fair play in industry and the proper representation in politics. Thus there will be brought together in understanding and political fellowship those great constructive and productive forces upon which the welfare of the nation fundamentally rests."

CLEVELAND, OHIO, Dec. 11.—The two day conference for progressive political action opened here today with representatives of labor, the farmer-labor and national non-partisan league groups.

"Prior to the convening of the conference Mr. Johnston and other leaders said the formation of a third political party was not contemplated.

HOW ALMIGHTY HAS PLANNED FOR MAN IS SERMON THEME

"Foreordination—Election" was the subject selected by Dr. Grafton for his Sunday morning sermon at the first Presbyterian church, choosing his text from the 8th chapter of Romans, 23th verse: "For whom He did foreknow, He also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of His Son."

"These are the wonderful truths of God's word: That before man had existed, God had a great purpose and a great plan, and that plan was two fold, the creation of the world and the creation of man to be conformed to the image of Jesus Christ, and not that a few should be created in His image.

"You must open the door and invite Jesus to come into your life before there is any salvation for you; before there is any election for you, God will not create you; He will not force you against your will to accept Jesus Christ as a personal Savior but if we accept Christ, then the great plan and purpose for the human race as far as we are concerned is being carried on in that we may be conformed to the image of His only begotten Son."

OWNER OF STAR MACHINE WANTS $8925 DAMAGES

PETITION REJECTED BY COMMISSIONERS IN SESSION MONDAY MORNING.

ACTION OUTGROWTH OF COLLAPSE OF BRIDGE

I. G. Whitley, Plaintiff, States His Further Damages May Amount to $25,000.

I. G. Whitley, oil man, wants $8,925 from Wichita county because his Star drilling machine fell through the bridge across Beaver creek last Thursday morning.

Through his attorney, Buel R. Wood of Electra, he presented a petition Monday morning to the county commissioners in session in which he asked that the court allow him that much damage. He contends the bridge was a defective piece of workmanship and that the county was negligent in that it did not maintain the structure so that it would be safe.

WASHINGTON HOTEL AT SEYMOUR BURNS

Three Story Structure Erected in 1890—Blaze Starts in Kitchen.

SEYMOUR, TEXAS, Dec. 11.—The Washington hotel of this city, a three story structure of stone containing about 45 guest rooms, was totally destroyed by fire this morning at 4 o'clock by Ida R. Morris, whose husband, Judge E. R. Morris, was one of the original organizers of Seymour and a pioneer county judge of Baylor county.

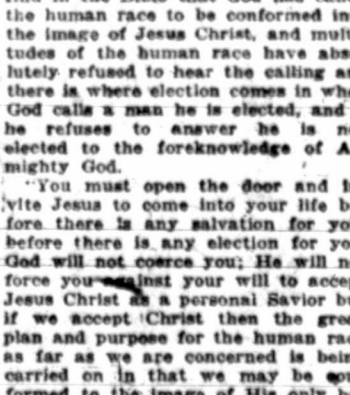

While origin of the fire is not known, it is believed to have caught in the kitchen. The local fire department rendered faithful service in their endeavors to save the building but the fire had reached such headway before an alarm could be given that it was obvious their efforts were futile.

WEATHER URGED IN PROTESTS AGAINST EARLIER CONGRESS

BILLS ARE DRAFTED FOR FARM CREDITS

Real Contest to Develop When Tax Measures Come Up in Congress.

By MARK SULLIVAN National Political Correspondent of the New York Evening Post and Wichita Daily Times. (Copyright, 1922, by the New York Evening Post.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—While there is good evidence that President Harding personally has no particular sympathy with going through the process of a constitutional amendment in order to change the date of the beginning of newly elected congresses, most of the republican leaders have no marked antipathy to it. Many of them, in fact, urged it long before LaFollette brought it up recently. So conservative an organization as the American bar association has gone on record in favor of it.

President Harding's hesitancy seems to lie in his belief that the present system is a concrete advantage. The theory is that the electorate may vote in haste and the country may be the better on occasions for a period of reflection between the casting of the vote and the assembling of the new congress. But the proposal that the congress elected in November should come together and go to work in January does not create much excitement among the regular republicans generally.

The chief objection brought forward is one of weather. The new proposal would cause the president, every four years to be inaugurated on the same day as the assembling of the new congress. And January in Washington is a very unpleasant time for the parades and other features of a presidential inauguration. The Washington shop keepers can be expected to do what they can in opposition. On several recent occasions when the March 4 inauguration has been embarrassed by bad weather there have been proposals not to advance the date but to postpone it until the milder month of May.

Neither is there much excitement among the regular republican leaders about the elimination of the archaic electoral college. That would be a perfunctory innovation, so long as the voting by states is retained. And even the progress-

As to the proposals for farm credit, the regular republicans have already drafted bills which go as far as any, except the most extreme radicals demand, in the direction of setting up institutions for farm credit under the auspices of the federal government and with the initial capital advanced from the federal treasury. It is in the matter of taxation, when it comes up, that there will be a real contrast of position between the conservatives and radicals.

JOHN M. FINCH FILES SCHEDULE IN BANKRUPTCY

John M. Finch, with offices in the Bob Waggoner building, Monday filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy in the United States district court and a schedule of his assets and liabilities. The petition did not state the nature of his business. The petitioner lists his liabilities at $112,306 and his assets at $108,214 of which he claims $1200 to be exempt. His liabilities, according to the schedule, consist of $72,456 of secured claims and $40,850 unsecured. Included in the assets are $31,200 worth of real estate and $31,714 debts due him on open accounts.

GAS CONSERVATION DISCUSSED BEFORE THE KIWANIS CLUB

Our company pursues the same policy as your City That Faith Built: we have invested $19,000,000 in faith." W. A. Morehead of the Lone Star Gas Company told the Kiwanis club at their noonday luncheon at the Kemp Monday when he spoke on the "Future of Natural Gas Supply."

Mr. Morehead traced the development of the natural gas industry and discussed the enormous expense attached to the operation of a production company. He said that the future gas supply in this country depended upon the policy of the company furnishing the gas, the ability of that company to finance the project and the cooperation of the public in conserving that supply. "The future looks good; there is no shortage of natural gas in sight for several months or perhaps years," but the producing companies are running no risks; they are continually opening up new fields and installing new equipment," Mr. Morehead explained. "Only the efficient use of gas in the home, the elimination of waste in the fields by the producing companies, will conserve our limited supply and keep natural gas within the reach of the consumer of average means," the speaker added.

E. C. Hucksabee, with his club quartet, furnished the musical program for the luncheon. William Archer, Ben Neal, Jarrel Pond and P. C. Hucksabee sang "Good-Bye, My Baby," and responded to repeated applause with the chorus. Monday was the first meeting day of the club since the election of the new officers and directors. The new directors held their first meeting since their induction into office and have made extensive plans for the coming year. Several projects which the directors have in mind for the year will be submitted to the club in the near future.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR MRS. CHARLES GORMAN HELD SUNDAY MORNING

Funeral services for Mrs. Gorman were held from the parlors of O. W. Hines, undertaker, at 10 p. m. Sunday, with Rev. C. V. Dooley of the First Presbyterian church officiating. Burial in Riverside cemetery. Mrs. Gorman, who died in El Paso Thursday while visiting there, had been a resident of this city and had a host of friends here. Pallbearers were J. L. Jackson, J. A. Richolt, T. T. Teece, H. F. Crawford, James Duncan and D. M. Perkins.

CONSTRUCTION COMPANY SUES IN FEDERAL COURT

The Burrell Engineering and Construction company of Chicago has filed suit in the United States district court against J. C. Hunt of this city on a suit for debt. The petition recites that under contract, a copy of which is filed with the petition, they were to erect an elevator. It is contended that there remains due as of October 1, 1922, $4,642.97, for which the plaintiff prays judgment.

Funeral services were held from the chapel of O. W. Hines Undertaking company at 3 p. m. Monday, with Rev. Barnes officiating, burial in Rosemont burial park.

SEARCH IN FILES FOR TAXES PROVES MOST PROFITABLE

Searching among the files of record in the county clerk's office for taxable property which was unrendered proves most profitable to Wichita county, according to the report submitted to the county commissioners Monday by Miss Sydne Hall. Her report showed that since her advent into this position that there has been added to the county tax rolls by means of the 1922 taxes, known unrendered and the 1920 and 1921 supplements, the rolls together with the amounts known to have been collected on information furnished, a total valuation of $7,122. In taxes this amounts as follows: State, $54,528; county, $61,341; and schools, $6,310, or a total of $122,179.

Psychologist to Address Business Women Tuesday

Dr. William A. McKeever of Chicago, who is here for a course of lectures on psychology, will address the members of the Business and Professional Women's club Tuesday evening on the subject, "Finding a New Angle in Your Life." Dr. McKeever states that he is anxious to tell young business men and women about the new psychology, and states that humanity is just entering the borderland of a new world of spiritual interpretation of every day life.

MUCH INTEREST IN TWO COMPLETIONS TEST BEING DRILLED BY TEXAS COMPANY NEAR WAURIKA, OKLA.

The deep test being drilled by Bradner brothers, in which several Wichita Falls men are interested, is attracting a great amount of attention from operators and others by the several good showings at various depths. The well is located in section 23-34-36 about five miles south of Waurika, Oklahoma. A number of sands were tested in the course of drilling operations, but were passed up. One at 1455 to 1496 had all the earmarks of a small producer, but casing was set and drilling resumed in an effort to reach the deeper pay. At present the test is down 1711 feet.

The first completion for the week in the district was made by the Texas company No. 214 in section 14-3, abstract 734, H. T. C., which was finished in the 1900-foot sand with an initial production of 250 barrels. This well is a second line well offsetting the Magnolia-Harvey tract to the east. No. 215, finished at the same depth, also is a producer good for 250 barrels. This well is an offset to the east of John O'Neil No. 4 Rio Bravo well. Pictures for the home make a real present. ### NEGRO WOMAN IS INJURED IN JUMP FROM CITY HALL

Jennie Lee Nash, negro, arrested Saturday night on a charge of shoplifting in a local clothing store, jumped from the detective office on the second floor of the city hall and sustained a broken leg from the fall. She was taken to the General hospital for treatment. About 10 o'clock Saturday night, two negro women were arrested and brought to the city hall on a theft charge. The jail was crowded and the officers, desiring of keeping the two apart until they could be questioned, placed the Nash woman in the detective's office on the second floor, on the southeast corner of the building. Shortly after midnight Night Chief Glenn was attracted by the woman's cries and ran to investigate the trouble. She was found on the sidewalk on Ohio in front of the building. A car was secured and she was taken to the hospital immediately for treatment. Mirrors for the home at Decorators Co., 712 Ninth street.—adv.

No "Cessation of Hos-pitalities" This Week; Everybody Will Get to Go Somewhere; Many Pretty Parties

There will be no cessation of hospitalities, to twist a famous phrase, this week in Wichita Falls, and if Christmas is demanding special preparation, it is evident that the same will have to be postponed to next week.

However, Christmas will very likely be the inspiration of the decorations and holiday appointments at several of the elaborate entertainments during the week, including the big Cypher Club anniversary ball at the Kemp Friday evening, Mrs. Grisham's party for Mrs. Lillard Tuesday afternoon, and the reception at the Wichita club for Mrs. O. B. Kiel, at which Mesdames Mark Moore, T. R. Boone and W. L. Parker will be hostesses Thursday.

Tuesday will be a day full of activities. The young people who enjoy the Cypher, Avolch, Comus and Tuxedo dances here are chiefly interested in the big dance to be given in Burkhardt by the Wichita Falls and Burkhardt social club, which scores of them are planning to attend. A group of matrons will be entertained by Mrs. Grisham in honor of Mrs. Zack Lillard at the Grisham home, this being one of a series of hospitalities for the winter and house guest of Mrs. P. E. Timberlake. And besides these special events, the Tuesday Evening "45" club will meet, the Business Women will have a social program, the girls' four o'clock bridge will meet, the Au Fait Bridge club will meet, the Kill Kare club will meet,

SHADE MAKES PRETTY GIFT

For a welcome Christmas present combine one parchment shade and one transfer design. Color to suit the curtains, the wall paper or the personal taste. Add a scallop or gold braid and garnish with a Christmas card. The advantage of the home-made shade over the one already painted is that the former may be matched to any color scheme and made to cover any sort of light.

Making a shade is the work of an hour or two. For the woman who likes sewing and painting it is a delight.

TUESDAY'S CALENDAR

- Mrs. W. J. Grisham at home for Mrs. Zack Lillard.
- Parent-Teacher Federation, First Baptist, 3 o'clock. Mr. McKeever will make a short address.
- Tuesday Bridge club will meet with Mrs. E. T. Barker, 1905 Elvagh.
- Music Study club will meet with Mrs. Josette Bonner.
- Sibley Taylor Civic league with Mrs. D. D. Cook, 1107 Sibley avenue, at 5.
- Health and Efficiency club will meet with Mrs. J. W. Akin.
- Au Fait Bridge club with Mrs. Ralph Lewing, 1415 Bluff.
- Tuesday Evening "45" club with Mrs. O. W. Harvey, Tilden.
- Business and Professional Women, 6:30, at the Y. W. C. A.
- Standard club at the library.
- Catholic Daughters at 8 o'clock church hall; election of officers.
- Women's Benefit association of the Macabre with Mrs. W. A. Soule, 2107 Ninth street, 2 o'clock.

U. D. C. Have Splendid Lesson on Lee; Mrs. J. W. Stone Is Hostess

With Mesdames J. W. Stone, W. F. Bolding and E. T. Duff hostesses, at the home of Mrs. Stone, the United Daughters of the Confederacy enjoyed one of the most interesting and delightful meetings they have ever held Saturday.

The spirit of the Confederacy was beautifully suggested in the decorations, which were unusually striking and attractive. The mantelpiece in the living room backed white roses against Confederate flags, and gorgeous roses and greenery were in pots, baskets and vases all through the downstairs suite. In the hall a big United States flag was draped with roses and greenery.

The lesson, a continuation of the life of Lee, centered about the war life and domestic life after the war of the beloved general, and the program opened with the ensemble singing of Lee's favorite hymn, "How Firm A Foundation," with Mrs. Kay at the piano.

Roll call was answered by the names of incidents connected with the war, followed by a general discussion in which Mesdames Anderson, Prewett, Duff, Ferguson and Stone. During the afternoon Mesdames Ferguson, Lemen, Anderson, Grandbury, Kay, Stone, Barron, Felder, Mack Thomas, McKelroy, Shackelford, Barker, and Masters.

MR. AND MRS. BENTLEY ENTERTAIN S. S. CLASS

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bentley entertained Mr. Bentley's Sunday school class of the First M. E. church, Seventh and Lamar, with a party Friday night at their home on Travis.

Games and contests were enjoyed, with a picture gallery contest in which Mrs. G. I. Lorraine won a hand painted Japanese bon bon bowl and Mrs. John Biddow was consoled with a gift for least success. Late in the evening refreshments of cake, sandwiches and coffee were served to Messrs. and Mesdames G. I. Lorraine, John Biddow, Frank Jones, Ralph Davis, C. B. Jetter, R. A. Loye, E. O. Albert, Hale and J. W. Karrenbrock, Rev. Mr. Crabtree and Mr. Cowles.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS MARTY MINK'S MUSIC By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

The Green Wizard felt sorry for Marty and made him a nice little piano.

Marty Mink wrote to the Green Wizard for a magical piano.

"I do get so sick," said he, "of hurrying home to school to do my practicing. Would you kindly send me a magical piano so that when I touch it, it will play itself?"

The Green Wizard felt sorry for Marty and made him a nice little piano exactly like his old one, only that it had magical white keys and magical black keys that played anything you wished. When it was finished the Wizard delivered it and took the old one away.

As Mrs. Mink was out marketing, she never knew the difference.

"Won't she be surprised when she hears Marty playing so well?" laughed Nancy.

But what do you think? It is less than a week the Green Wizard had another letter from Marty.

"Fiddlesticks!" went the letter. "Ma says I've learned to play the piano perfectly now and she's bought me a fiddle. It's harder to learn than the other. Do you happen to have a magical fiddle, Mr. Wizard?"

The kind, patient wizard made a fiddle and sent it over with the Twins who gave it to Marty.

"I hope he's satisfied now," said the Wizard.

But mind you he soon received a third letter.

"I'm never satisfied. She says I've learned the fiddle so fast, she bought me a saxophone. Oh, please send me a magical saxophone. I'll never learn to play this thing."

No magical saxophone he got.

Women Make Better Secretaries Than Men, Says Texas U. Prof; Says Opportunities Are Numerous

AUSTIN, TEXAS, Dec. 11.—Opportunities for women to secure positions as secretaries are numerous, according to Fritz William Graff, associate professor of business administration and assistant to the president of the University of Texas.

Every executive of any importance at the present time employs a private secretary. It was stated, and women who are well trained along such lines have equal chances with men to succeed.

The qualifications of a good secretary were summarized by Mr. Graff as follows: "Together with a business education a woman should have a technical education in order to be able to apply her business knowledge. She must have good business sense and possess executive and initiative ability, so that it will not be necessary for her to have detailed directions for carrying on her work. Above all, she must be dependable, so that she can be counted on to do each task to the best of her ability. Enthusiasm and love of work are also necessary, for without these the secretary will find her work to be drudgery and there will be no team work in the office. Office work requires a high degree of accuracy in details, and a private secretary must keep her eyes and ears open and her mouth shut. Furthermore, she must go into the office with a desire to make good and not as a stepping stone to matrimony.

Private secretaries who can be relied on and depended on are in great demand, according to Mr. Graff. It is important for an executive to have a secretary in whom he can place confidence. The more important the office, the better equipped secretary he demands. Women often make better secretaries than men because they have the habit of doing things on scheduled time, and they do routine work better than men. It is often the case, he said, that women are recommended to fill secretarial positions, in preference to men.

Each year in the University of Texas there has been an increase in the number of women taking business administration. It was stated, and graduates of the school have made records for themselves in the field of business. The university now has a greater demand for competent secretaries than supply, however, for no student will be recommended who makes below a C grade, and the A and B students are given consideration.

"A student taking business administration can not get by with a C or D grade," Mr. Graff said. "For it shows a lack of interest in the work and indicates his future business ability. There is an unlimited number of mediocre secretaries seeking positions, but only the efficient can hold good ones. A good secretary has every opportunity to make herself a notable career in the business world of today. She must go into the work with the spirit to win out and the determination to succeed."

ELSIE FERGUSON HAS REACHED NEW HEIGHTS IN THE "OUTCAST"

By JAMES W. DEAN.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—"Outcast" Elsie Ferguson brings to the screen its greatest individual contribution of acting.

She has perfected the sort of acting that George Arliss introduced to the screen in "Diarral," the acting of the mind. But there's more than mere mental attitude displayed in "Outcast." The thing Miss Ferguson does baffles words, but it is something at once mental, physical and spiritual.

When I watched scenes of "Outcast" being filmed I wrote that Miss Ferguson evidently hypnotized herself into believing that she was in reality the outcast girl of the play. After seeing the finished picture that impression is strengthened.

Heretofore I have found the acting of Miss Ferguson for the screen much below the quality of her acting for the stage. Robbed of her voice she seemed to be entirely mute. Then in "Footlights" she seemed to have gained a deeper appreciation of pantomime, a realization of the vast difference of the stage and screen as mediums of expression.

Now she is an entirely different screen actress; different from all former Ferguson, different from all the other actresses of the screen.

Excellent Comedy Begins at Palace; Cast Is Increased

Tonight will mark the opening of George V. Hobart's great comedy success at the Palace theater, "What's Your Husband Doing?" Mr. Hobart's plays are known to theater goers all over the country as every one he has written has made a big hit every where staged. "What's Your Husband Doing?" had a very long run in all the large cities in America and has only been offered to stock companies in the last few weeks. It is the intention of the management of the Edna Park Players to offer a higher grade of plays for the balance of the season and to do this Mr. Edwards has contracted for a number of new players to join at once. One of these will appear this week, Mr. Edward D'Olse, a noted actor, who came here last week from New York. These new people will join

HIGH SCHOOL FINE ARTS HAS PROGRAM WEDNESDAY

The opening meeting of the Fine Arts club of the high school will be in the auditorium of the school at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, with a presentation of a program divided between the finest local artists and the best of high school talent. The program is to be as follows:

1. Triunfo—The Coyote Orchestra.

"Lovely Night" from "The Tales of Hoffman," by Offenbach—Miss Franco.

"Butterfly," by Grieg—Miss Georgia H. Leath.

"March" from "Il Trovatore," by Verdi—David Clark.

Reading—Miss Bernice Martin.

"By the Waters of Minnetonka," by Liszt—Mrs. Ferguson.

"Caprice Viennoise," by Kreisler—Mr. Raub.

"Reverie," by Chopin—James Youngblood.

A section of the auditorium will be reserved for music students of the high school, their parents and friends, but the meeting will be open to all who are interested in music in the school and city.

Refreshments have been ordered by Mrs. Parker, music instructor of the high school, and these will arrive by the time the first business meeting after Christmas is held, at which time a choice will be made regarding the musical productions which the Fine Arts club expects to stage in the spring.

SAYS PSYCHOLOGY CAN CURE MOST OF TODAY'S TROUBLES

"Seventy-five per cent of the troubles that come from sin and despair can be cured through psychological study," declared Dr. Wm. A. McKeever at the meeting he addressed in the First Methodist church, South, Sunday afternoon.

"Children in their younger age have a natural desire to do certain things, and if restrained by their parents, reflect in their later life, many times, very seriously, and so the psychological laboratory is used as a means to correct these things."

Psychology is not a religion or a substitute for religion. If it is worth while, it is a servant of religion. It is not a healing power in itself, but it is a contribution to any kind of healing powers.

Dr. McKeever directed psychology into seven ages, the age of infancy, the age of childhood, the age of adolescence, the age of youth, the age of studentship, the age of adulthood and finally the spiritual age. He described the characteristics of each of these ages in an interesting way.

SHOP EARLY

There Are Only 11 More Shopping Days

The time is short and you will have to hurry if you are to get the selection of gifts that you want. Don't wait until the last minute because you will not be able to find what you want. Get yours now while the merchants have full selections for your choice. Shop now while you can do so with leisure.

CHRISTMAS! It's right before us. It is carnival time in gift buying. It is the season of the year that stirs us with a desire to give.

Put the Christmas spirit behind your gift buying by using tact, knowledge and thoughtfulness in selection.

The stores listed here admit scope not alone for the finest of gifts but for the modest as well. And quality is emphasized at all times in every article sold—whatever the price—it may be taken for granted that the offerings are worthy values, even though inexpensive.

Salespeople being human,
Have their patience sorely tried,
By those who postpone buying gifts
Till just before Yuletide.
'Cause Christmas should inspire all
With love and charity,
And wipe out all vain-glory
Of unjust disparity.

And Santa's annual visit,
Should teach us all to be
Considerate for others,
And to heed his urgent plea—
BUY WISELY, SHOP EARLY,
DON'T WAIT Till Christmas Eve,
If you would have your friends enjoy
The presents they receive.

JACK DAW IN HOOPLAND

By ELTON

"Hop aboard the hooper!" shouted a little hoop who was apparently Heena Hoop's servant. Jack instinctively climbed in and was jumpy over the side. The little hoop looked almost too small to be able to pull such a big load, but suddenly the hooper started around.

Down the road a voice shouted, "Turn to the right," and the hooper turned. This made Jack wonder where the voice came from, and looking around he saw Heena Hoop and several other hoops rolling along in the dust. Then Jack heard strains of pretty music in the distance.

"Where is the music coming from?" asked Jack. And Heena Hoop explained that the little Hooper had spent most of their time in song and play. "They are just hopping it up and making merry," he said. "When the hooper rolled into the settlement where the hoop girls lived. (Continued.)"

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR JUDGE HUFF AT VERNON ON SUNDAY

ESCORT PROVIDED BY VERNON COMMANDERY

VERNON, TEXAS, Dec. 11.—A great concourse of mourners gathered here today for the funeral of Judge S. P. Huff Sunday afternoon at the First Methodist church, where his funeral was held. Judge Huff was chief justice of the seventh court of civil appeals at Amarillo, where he died Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from intestinal paralysis.

The body arrived at 1 p. m. Sunday accompanied by Mrs. S. P. Huff, his daughter Mrs. R. N. Pittman, and her husband Mr. R. N. Pittman, and their son Mr. Vance Huff, and Judge R. W. Hall, and Judge Will Boyce, the other judges of the court of appeals, and Mr. J. M. Oaks, the clerk of the court. An escort from the Vernon Commandery of which Judge Huff was a member and former eminent commander, met them at the train and escorted the body to the Youngblood and Underwood undertakers' parlors. The family went to the home of Judge and Mrs. W. D. Berry, where they will be guests while in Vernon.

The funeral services were held at the First Methodist church of which Judge Huff was a member while in Vernon and where he was one of the first Sunday school superintendents many years ago. Dr. R. E. Dickenson, pastor of the church, conducted the services. A quartet composed of Mrs. E. L. Donohy, Miss Benney Work, Mr. Jodie Brock and Mr. Smith sang "Lead Kindly Light" and "Nearer My God to Thee." Miss Vera Harrington played the pipe organ. The pastor's tribute to the judge was beautiful, and many eyes were filled with tears as he spoke of the esteem in which Judge Huff was held by his many friends, and of his good life.

The active pall bearers were Judge W. N. Stokes, G. C. Morris, C. M. Colloch, L. K. Johnson, Joe Sumner and Frank Massey. The honorary pall bearers were J. D. Sumner, T. J. Youngblood, W. O. Anderson, T. H. Shive, W. D. Berry, Dr. J. E. Dodson and L. G. Hawkins.

Sir Knight R. D. L. Killough had charge of placing cars at the church and Sir Knight Keith Berry had charge of the escort of the casket to the train and at the church and cemetery. The burial was at East View cemetery, four miles east of Vernon, on the paved road, and was under the direction of the members of the Blue Lodge of Masons of Vernon, Mr. T. J. Youngblood, J. A. Crasner and E. L. Witty conducted the services of the lodge.

Beautiful floral offerings were placed on the grave, and the flowers were in great abundance. The grave was banked high with these tributes of love of the judge's many sorrowing friends. The presence of many visitors from many parts of this judicial district of which he was formerly chief justice showed the esteem in which he was held by them and the love they had for their friend. Judge Perkins and a number of friends were here from Quasah, Judge Fries from Childress, Mr. Bell and a number of friends from Sewell, and Mr. C. E. Basham, Judge Leslie Humphries and a number of other friends from Wichita Falls.

Protest Free State Treatment

Stamford SOCIAL ITEMS.

STAMFORD, TEXAS, Dec. 8.—Thursday was a big day for St. John's M. E. church here, when the missionary societies of the Stamford district convened all day. At noon a luncheon was served in honor of Mrs. A. L. Moore, conference officer, and the many out of town delegates in the circle from Throckmorton, to Seymour, on the Wichita Valley, to Benjamin on the O'Connell, to Spur and all intervening towns.

Informal Dinner.—Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Donaldson entertained with a party of friends at their home for the employees of Central West drug store, and their families. The table was beautifully decorated with autumn-leaves and burning tapers around the centerpiece. Hand painted cards marked places for Mr. and Mrs. Albert Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Blake, Mr. Milburn Thompson, Miss Lillian Donaldson, Mrs. Hermine, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Donaldson and Miss Cecile Donaldson. Following dinner games of "41" and bridge were enjoyed.

Kolossal Kead Klub.—Wednesday afternoon Miss Cecile Donaldson was hostess to the Kolossal Kead Klub. In bridge the high score prize was presented to Mrs. Lawrence McElwee. Later a two course luncheon was served. The members present were Mesdames Geo. Zachary, Lawrence McElwee, Herbert Carter, R. H. Harmon, R. Robertson, Murray Doyle, W. B. Harrison, Lewis Dial, Arthur Vernon and Miss Lewis Pender.

Jack and Jill Club.—Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Lewis Pender a new bridge club was organized, called the "Jack and Jill club." The ladies prize in bridge was awarded Miss Marie Dee and the men's prize went to Harry Yates. Pumpkin pie and coffee were served to Misses Cecile Donaldson, Lucy Bunkley, Suzanne Inglist, Marie Dee, Agnes Pender, Messrs. Ralph Daniels, Guy Langford, A. L. Lawrence and Jim Neigh, Harry Yates and Mrs. W. H. Gardner.

Forty-Two Party.—Friday evening the members of the Woodmen Circle enjoyed a "42" party. After the games pumpkin pie, sandwiches and coffee were here from Wichita Falls, the guest MEMPHIS, TEXAS, Dec. 11.—The first annual show of the Hall County District Poultry Association was held here Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. A total of 238 birds were entered, 223 chickens and 15 turkeys. Prizes were awarded to 23 winners in the different classes. There was a large attendance and the members of the association are delighted with the success of their first effort. Hall, Donley, Childress and Collingsworth are included in the district.

Court House Contract Let.
The contract for the erection of the new Hall county court house, to be built upon the site of the old house upon the public square at Memphis, was awarded by the commissioner's court to the Walker Construction company of San Antonio at $121,320, the lowest of five bids. Other bidders were: J. C. Jopling and company, Wichita Falls; K. H. Muse, Fort Worth; R. Schmidt, Austin; H. H. Gowings, Dallas.

Other bids for lighting, heating and plumbing were also awarded; the total cost of the building, with-out furnishings, being $136,324.51. The work of tearing down the old court house on the public square has begun. The old building was erected 30 years ago and was recently condemned as unsafe by the state inspector.

Street Sweeping Machine.
A new street sweeping machine for use upon the recently paved area, consisting of the public square and twenty-three blocks, comprising the business section, has just been received and put to work.

Two Swindlers Captured.
Officers including Constable Thomas and Sheriff-elect Merrick captured a still and eight barrels of mash in a raid in the Pease river breaks, four miles south of Tapeso, in this county. The still, improvised from a seamless-steel gasoline barrel and a wooden barrel of smaller size, had a capacity of perhaps 40 gallons. The moonshiners made their getaway unseen by the raiders. Sheriff Prentiss, the other officers, captured a 40-gallon copper still about 10 miles from the above location, west of Ox Bow bridge between the Red rivers, also in this county and about the same time. Both outfits were brought to Memphis today.

Medical Society Meets.
A move business session of the district medical society was held here. This district consists of the following four counties: Childress, Hall, Donley and Childress. The meetings are held monthly. Some twenty visiting physicians were present and an interesting meeting reported.

Request Bond Issue.
At a citizens meeting last night a resolution was unanimously passed requesting the school board to submit the issuance of bonds to the amount of $100,000 for the purpose of erecting a high school building, which is badly needed to take care of the increased attendance.

Farm Labor Union.
A meeting of the Hall County Farm Labor Union was held at Lesley Saturday. The Farm Labor Union has 11 local unions and a membership of over 1,200 in this county. Dinner was served and the families of members attended. An executive business session open only to delegates and visiting members was held in the afternoon. A report from delegates attending the state conference at Fort Worth this week was a feature of the meeting.

Rain Benefits Wheat.
Several good showers of rain within the past few days have been of value to growing wheat crops for pasturage because of the shortage of feed crops. The rains have also wonderfully improved the condition of the roads, for the purpose of the returns of the election held in Hall county to determine whether $150,000 in bonds should be issued for the erection of a new court house resulted in a vote of 19 to 1 in favor of the bond issue. Only a light vote was cast.

NEW ORDINANCE ON PUBLIC DANCES TO BE PRESENTED SOON

Continued complaints against local public dance halls have caused the framing of a new city ordinance governing the operation of public amusement places of this character. The ordinance is similar to the one submitted several weeks ago; but is less stringent in its demands. Commissioner Pitts, author of the ordinance will submit it to the city council at the Monday afternoon session for the first reading.

Ordinance 422, regulating the parking of service cars on streets in the city fire limits, will come up for the third reading. The ordinance has passed the two first readings without protest or amendments.

GARDENS KEEP ON PRODUCING UNTIL FREEZE OF SUNDAY

Warmer weather here Monday followed the freeze of Sunday morning, temperatures of around 46 degrees prevailing.

The freeze was the first of the winter, and put the finish on a number of fall gardens, which had been doing nicely as a result of the rains and warm weather. Up to Saturday, quite a few Wichitans were getting fresh vegetables out of back yard garden patches, in spite of the fact that December had arrived.

A maximum temperature of 61 was attained Sunday afternoon.

Burkburnett All-Stars Win From Breckenridge In Hard Fought Contest

In a game that lacked many of the elements of first class football, but which had enough variations to make it decidedly interesting, the Burk All-Stars defeated the Breckenridge Legion eleven at Athletic park Sunday afternoon 9 to 6.

About 400 people saw the game and fully expected to see something more later, as there had been indications of first class action between the eleven after the final whistle. Nothing happened, however, save the customary polite talk for the opposing teams by each side.

Several times during the game, players sought to take the edge off their energy by means of pushing and shoving, and in one instance blows were exchanged; in some instances hard words were the only things exchanged. There was considerable roughness of one kind and another, and whatever the two teams lacked in knowledge of general play, passing and blocking, they lacked nothing at all in tackling.

The first half was scoreless, although Breckenridge kept making the Burk goal, missing two tries at goal. Early in the second half, Boriski of Burkburnett intercepted a forward pass in mid-field and sprinted to a touchdown. Shortly after the next kickoff, Burgess of Burkburnett kicked a field goal.

In the final quarter, Breckenridge, after hammering vainly for a while at the Burk goal, got a touchdown when a forward pass was judged by probably half a dozen players before it was grabbed by Brown and carried over the goal line. Goal was missed.

Lack of generalship kept the Breckenridge team from making a better showing. Burk showed more aptitude for breaking up forward passes, and was also helped by Boriski's kicking. Neither team could gain to any extent on straight line plays. Linemen were:

This Husky Athlete Makes Scales Groan

Leo Redmond of Western State Normal School at Kalamacon, Mich., is believed to be the heaviest player in college football. In the proverbial pink of condition he tips the scales at 328. His position is center.

There is more to Redmond's football ability than mere beef. He is exceptionally fast and a hard and sure tackler. Getting down the field on punts before his ends is his specialty.

Bill Sappington, now head coach at Minnesota, formerly was football mentor at Western State Normal School. Redmond has finished his statement that Redmond would be able to win a place in the line of any "Big Ten" team.

Redmond has finished his football career, as the past season marked his fourth with Western Normal. He had been a member of a "Big Ten" team he would have been one of the most talked about players in the middle west.

Captain Pitney of Ohio State is the only western player who rivals Redmond as far as weight is concerned. That respect, and leading coaches who have seen him play say he would have outplayed the famous Pitney had they been pitted against each other.

ARMAMENTS DEVELOP STORMY DISCUSSION
 By Associated Press
 BUNOS AIRES, Dec. 10.—The discussion of the question of South American armaments, precipitated by the Brazilian invitation to Argentina and Chile to participate with Brazil in a tripartite conference on the subject, has reached the stage of a stormy interchange of arguments between the newspapers of Argentina and Brazil. The newspapers of Chile, Uruguay and Peru also participating.

Rumor Heilmann May Be Traded

By NEA Service.
 DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 11.—Frequent rumors, circulated since the close of the baseball season, have Harry Heilmann, Detroit's slugger going to another American league club.

One report that gained wide circulation, takes Heilmann and two other Detroit players (still to be decided upon) to the Philadelphia Athletics for Edwin Rommel, Connie Mack's great knuckle-ball pitcher.

However, one fact that has not been published is that Heilmann is under a two-year contract to the Detroit club and this contract runs through the season of 1933.

Heilmann demanded $15,000 last winter. The player and Frank J. Navin, president of the Detroit club, finally agreed upon a two-year contract at $12,500 a season. Published reports said the contract was for one year and that gave grounds for the various rumors involving Heilmann in trade.

Heilmann was the batting champion of the American league in 1931. He finished fourth this year with an average of .356. He injured his shoulder in a collision with first base late in August and was out for the remainder of the season. This gave rise to another rumor—that Heilmann's playing days were over.

Heilmann, after spending some time in a hospital in Washington, was brought to Detroit where his collar bone was broken by surgeons and reset. He did not leave the hospital until a week before the season closed but the injury has entirely mended.

$75,000 PLAYER IS HALL COUNTY BOY, GETS RECORD PRICE

MEMPHIS, TEXAS, Dec. 11.—Sammy Hale, third baseman for the Portland, Oregon team, for whom Connie Mack of the Athletics recently paid $75,000, was reared at Estelita, this county, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hale, still reside there.

Hale used to play with the Memphis team, and his professional career has been followed with much interest by his friends here.

The price paid for him is one of the highest on record in professional baseball. Hale is an exceptionally fast and accurate fielder, and he batted .366 last year.

Cleveland Makes A Fancy Offer

Cleveland has offered $20,000 and several players for Myatt. Practically every major league club has made a bid for his services.

Myatt is a left-handed batter and very fast as an outfielder. He has a fine arm and is ripe for the big league. Because of Joe Perkins, Connie Mack had one of the best catches in the country. Myatt seldom got a chance to work when with the Cleveland's big offer indicates that the management of that team has definitely decided to rebuild the Indians.

START THOMASSON WELL NEAR NOCONA ON JORDAN FARM

SUPPLY TEXAS RANGERS AT DENISON WITH HORSES
 DENISON.—A shipment of horses has arrived in Denison for use of Texas rangers stationed in Lonson under command of Capt. Tom Hickman of company B. Captain Hickman said several men will be mounted immediately for duty. The rangers are on the plains and must be broken to city life before used in the down town section.

Paul Goebel, captain of the Michigan varsity crew of 1932 and one of the best ends in the western conference, threw out his knee in practice before the season opened. The injury did not mend and he has insisted on coming out whenever Goebel strained it.

To enable Goebel to play, the Michigan trainers devised a steel brace—a hinge. This apparatus, attached above and below the knee, gave Goebel fairly good leg action because of the hinge.

Before the game Goebel liberally oiled the hinge to get free action and also to prevent friction.

Goebel did not finish a game all season, for after playing a yard in the first two, the constant action would dry the oil and then the steel would become so hot that Goebel could not continue playing.

In the Michigan-Illinois game the steel brace reached such a high temperature that the skin was badly burned.

FURTHER STEPS IN CAMPAIGN TO HAVE A DRY CHRISTMAS

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—Further steps in the campaign to make the Metropolitan Christmas dry are taken last night in the issuance of drastic orders to every patrolman in the city.

The new regulations are designed to check up on every saloon, restaurant and cabaret in the city, and also to check upon the police who enter them.

Officers stationed in premises previously raided are required to submit at the end of the daily round of duty a report which includes a broad check on the character of the names of the owner, the waiters, bartenders and other assistants, the approximate number of customers served daily, whether or not the place is equipped with dumb waiters running to floors above or below, and what supplies are carried there, as, whether the saloon is a tinner and the number of persons interested in the ticker information, the kind of liquor served to customers and the prices charged therefor, as shown on the cash register, and the names of all police who enter the establishment.

FRENCH OFFICIALS NOT INCLINED TO BE HARD ON SIKI

PARIS, Dec. 11.—A second Carpentier-Siki fight seems to be a certainty according to Le Journal, which points out that President Roosevelt of the boxing federation is inclined to be lenient toward the Senegalese.

Siki will box Siki under any condition at a date to be fixed upon his return to Paris this evening. Carpentier telegraphed Le Journal from Brighton, England, last night, which points out that President Roosevelt of the boxing federation is inclined to be lenient toward the Senegalese.

Siki offered this morning to deny in person that he had committed suicide or that he had been thrown into the Seine as had been widely reported.

Siki was limping painfully in his right leg this morning as he left his suburban home and walked to the city gate where he entered an automobile and disappeared. He avoided any explanation of the limp which apparently accounted for reports that he had been thrown into the river.

The Senegalese was absent yesterday and today from his usual haunts in the neighborhood of the Avenue Orleans. His wife explained that he stayed home Sunday to play with his dog.

"PEAK of the LOAD"

To get gas service when, where and how you want it, without telephoning or asking for it means that we must have equipment to meet the demands of "A Peak Load" at all times.

This equipment is costly. It takes money to keep it in good condition, ready at all times to serve you. The same number of men have to be on the job at all times whether the "peak load" come or not. Mains must be laid and maintained in good condition at all times whether gas is being used by a single consumer or not. Does the average consumer ever stop and consider those vital things in gas service? Gas without service is like a ship without a rudder.

SAYS CHURCH MUST LEAD THE NATION OUT OF CONFUSION

"Clouds" was the subject chosen by Rev. Fred T. Dutton at the morning service of the Church of the Good Shepherd, on Sunday, the text being from the 27th chapter of Job, the 16th verse: "Dost thou not know the balancing of the clouds, the wonders which order and loom in perfect knowledge?" Mr. Dutton said:

"To the lover of nature no study is more fascinating than that of the clouds. So much is known of them and yet so little. Man has always noted the dependence of nature on the clouds—yet the sun shining. The Greeks, great lovers of nature as they were, pictured this dependence in the myth concerning the marriage of Cronos and Zeus. It is that upon the airy the lot is cast, to nature's life and fruitage and beauty.

"We too often hold the clouds in ill-repute when in truth they are the expression of the true balancing of nature, and are earth's greatest blessings. For they are the link between the earth and the sky, they give their waters to revive the earth, they also feed the souls of man with expressions of divine beauty in an ever changing, upward and studies the clouds he feels something of the Psalmist's meaning when he sang: 'The heavens declare the glory of God, and the firmament showeth His handiwork. Day unto day uttereth speech and night unto night showeth knowledge.'

"Have you ever watched the balancing of the clouds? With what perfect precision they are balanced, though ever changing. They do not, though how the heat of the sun is balanced by cloud and storm? Remove these balancers and there would be no life on earth. And in the moral and spiritual world; the awful accuracy of those balancers of God! No man need fear Divine justice, for it is just and true. It is not 'An eye for an eye, but the hands of the living God for the sincere and just, may one even long, knowing the misjudgments of man, it is the authority for the balance that God may give mine iniquity.'

"How often during the past few years have we seen the nations under our assurance of God's guidance in human affairs. By it America came with stout heart to the stars of our country and offered her wealth and loved ones for the battle of democracy and justice. And it is the faith that we have in the unchangeable character of the living God, that gives us comfort and poise in these days that are ours.

"For seemingly—never were the nations so united in their purpose, the political life, the labor life and the business life, the moral and spiritual life, all in a sincere sincerity of heart and a desire for better life. Man is everywhere struggling—sometimes he knows not for what—and our struggle is for a better life. By the better things. By the war, God has ordained a new order. Out of the struggle the nations will emerge united in their purpose and purpose alone can endure. The days are yet dark, but here and there are indications that the storm is clearing and a brighter future is ahead. We are standing at the curb startled the heart of the theatrical district today. At least 20 shots were exchanged. No one was hurt. Charles Rosen and Mayer Elberts were arrested after detectives charged they threw revolvers into the street. The automobile was partially wrecked on the steps of the Longacre hotel, when its chauffeur let go the steering wheel to join in the shooting. The police expressed the opinion that the shooting was due to gangsters' disputes. The shooting took place on West 47th street near Broadway.

PASTOR SPEAKS OF NEED OF RELIGION IN EVERYDAY LIFE

Jesus at a busy man's desk in a hurried day's work was the theme of Dr. Simpson's sermon at the First Methodist Episcopal church, Sunday morning. He chose as his theme "Jesus and I and My Common Task," drawing it from a story given by John in the last chapter of his gospel. He used as his text "As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there and fish laid thereon and bread. And Jesus said, 'Come and dine.'

"You will remember," Dr. Simpson said, "that John's gospel is wholly different from the other three, usually spoken of as the Synoptics. They generally speak, trace the ancestry to the birth of Jesus and then tell us where He was born, where He went, what He said and what He did, how He died, how He arose from the dead and went back home to Galilee. But when we reach John, he made no such attempt to give a running story of the life of Christ. He chose a great theme and set about to prove the substance of that theme. The whole book is proving that Jesus is the 'Christ, the son of God, and that those who accept this truth shall have life eternal.' This theme is at the end of the twentieth chapter. This last chapter is a sort of postscript to his book, but contains a vital part of the gospel related nowhere else. It is bringing the resurrected Christ back into vital contact with the humdrum duties of daily life.

"Men had thought of Jesus touching their lives while He lived among them, but now since He had died and risen from the dead, they were finding it hard to think of Him any longer as being so near. He was daily drooping. This story brings Him back among the common things of daily living. He here presents a personal contact with His own hands for a batch of tired fishermen, and in connection with it brings His divine power into contact with a falling day's task that
