SEARCH FOR THREE BANDITS WHO ROB VIRGIL, KAN. BANK

COFFEYVILLE, KAN., Jan. 12.—

Search was being made in this vicinity today for three bandits who yesterday looted the state bank at Virgil, Kan., kidnaped three men and eluded a posse of nearly 100 armed men.

After looting the cashier, a clerk and a customer in the vault of the Virgil bank the bandits took refuge in a nearby house and escaped in an automobile. Six miles south of Virgil their car became disabled and the bandits commandeered an automobile belonging to Danny Johnson, who, with Pike Ditty, a friend, was forced to drive the bandits out. In an exchange of shots with citizens the car passed through Coffeyville, Kan. Ditty was wounded and abandoned.

Near Toronto, Kan., the automobile broke down and being followed by the large posse, the bandits used Johnson as a shield and took to the woods. Possesmen were stationed about the woods to prevent escape but under the cover of darkness last night the bandits, with Johnson in tow, slipped through the Jordan overpowered Bill Peters, one of the posse and compelled him to drive them away in his automobile.

On the outskirts of Coffeyville the bandits alighted and ordered Peters and Johnson to return to Toronto. The two men came here and reported the escape.

Quick oats now— 3 to 5 minutes

If you want oats that are almost ready, ask for Quick Quaker Oats. This style cooks in 3 to 5 minutes. It is the quickest cooking oats in the world.

Just like regular Quaker Oats in that matchless quality. Flaked from queen grains only—just the rich, plump, savory oats. They have the flavor which has won the world to Quaker.

But in Quick Quaker the oats are cut before flaking. They are rolled very thin and partly cooked. So the flakes are smaller and thinner—that is all. And the small thin flakes cook quickly.

Your grocer has both styles. The Quick style is marked "Quick" on the label.

CHRISTMAS RELIEF IN EVIDENCE IN LONDON

Associated Press.

LONDON, Jan. 12.—An unmistakable feeling of relief that the first hours of France's Ruhr adventure passed without a breach of the armistice was evident here today. Although the French movement continues to be widely condemned and explored, there is no general desire to see Great Britain's ally involved in conditions which would seriously add to her burdens and above all, which would lead to bloodshed.

This attitude is reflected in some of the comments in the morning papers, which mention with approval the conciliatory tone of General De Goutte's proclamation to the Ruhr valley inhabitants. The newspapers also endorse such indications of British good will to France as this government's decision to allow the French troops to leave the British Rhine zone.

Although a majority of the press poses any cooperation by Great Britain in the Ruhr and criticizes the French, what the papers regard as a serious French blunder, it cannot be denied that there exists in Great Britain a strong anti-German sentiment and it is unquestionable that there would be considerable popular satisfaction should France's contention that Germany is blinding out her inability to pay be proven by the outcome of events.

This attitude has the outspoken support of the Morning Post and the Daily Mail, which wish the French press and reiterate an uncompromising distrust of the Germans.

FRANCE HAS GRIP ON PRODUCTIVE GUARANTEES

Associated Press.

PARIS, Jan. 12.—France at least has a grip on the "productive guarantees" she has sought in Germany and has served notice through her minister that she is prepared to extend her holdings if her economic situation of Europe, which she said satisfactory results. It was understood here today, in fact, that another Ruhr zone would be subjected to "unstable occupation" within five days.

Premier Poincare, however, in his statement to the chamber of deputies yesterday, warned the nation to expect that the opening of a Ruhr treasure house would be followed immediately by a flood of gold. He asserted that it would probably be some time before the control commission's efforts would be noticeably productive.

The Ruhr banker, Le Math says, showed the example of the coal industry by removing their assets and most of their debts. It is reported, however, that most of the evasions have been foreseen and that measures have been prepared which will punish such evasions and frustrate the Germans' hopes.

WILTO RACING MAY BE FEATURE OF FAIR, WITH NOTED DRIVERS

Automobile racing, with some of the country's best known drivers participating, may be a feature of the 1923 Texas-Oklahoma fair.

Routes of Indianapolis, representing Ellingbos and a number of other drivers, was here Friday to discuss with fair association officials. Owing to the fact that plans for constructing a track this year are not in a definite stage at present, an agreement was reached, but a suitable track is built before the fair, it is very likely that some arrangement will be made for the fair.

Ellingbos is prepared to bring his 28 drivers here, and to stage auto polo games in addition to racing. He conferred with C. H. Schuyler, fair secretary, and other officials Friday.

Avoid Influenza—Grip—Pneumonia

Apply Vicks to help avoid infection. Use Vicks at the first sign of an oncoming cold.

MOST medical authorities now agree that Colds, Grip, Influenza and Pneumonia are all germ diseases—most commonly spread by breathing in the germs.

Attack a Cold Immediately When you feel a cold coming on, go right home. Take a laxative. Make some hot lemonade, then take a hot bath—as hot as you can stand.

The Ingredients of Vicks Since the dawn of history mankind has been searching nature for remedies against cold troubles. The knowledge gained thru a thousand years has come down to us today.

In fact the germs of all of these diseases are frequently found in perfectly healthy persons. It is only when the bodily resistance is lowered—as by a cold for instance—that they are able to harm us.

Acts Two Ways at Once Vicks is of benefit in cold troubles in two ways. 1st—It is absorbed thru and stimulates the skin, thus helping to relieve the soreness, loosen the phlegm and make the breathing less difficult.

A Vapor Lamp in Salve Form Vicks is the discovery of Mr. L. Richardson, a North Carolina druggist. He realized that cold troubles were affections of the respiratory organs and that the only way to get medication direct to these parts was in the form of vapors.

Avoid Sneezers and Coughers It is best to keep away from the sneezers and coughers in the street cars and public places. Or if you must meet them, insert some Vicks in the nostrils before you start out.

Opposed to Bacteria The ingredients of Vicks are not only antiseptic, but rubefacient—that is, they summon the blood to the tissues where applied and this free blood circulation is nature's best method of repelling germ infection.

Oil of Eucalyptus—Germicidal, antiseptic and stimulant—largely used in chronic bronchitis and infections of the upper respiratory tract—its vapors are very efficient.

Adopt the DIRECT treatment for all cold troubles. ABSORBED, like a liniment and, at the same time, INHALED, as a vapor, Vicks reaches immediately the congested, inflamed air passages.

MER ROUGE MAYOR ACCUSES FOUR MEN

"To the mayor and good citizens of Mer Rouge, La. You are walking in a cesspool of corruption and lawlessness that has become a menace to the entire parish and surrounding country. You are shielding within your gates a number who live in open condescension with negro women, who manufacture and sell whiskey, who circulate plots to assassinate good citizens in the night time and who are deluging the good lawabiding citizens of your parish with written and oral threats against their lives. This condition of affairs must be rectified at once or we will swoop down upon your town and wipe out the organization that is responsible for the conditions and which are pleased to call themselves the Anti-Klux Klan.

"We know every one of the men who formulated and attempted to execute the plot to assassinate Dr. McKoin. Two of them have passed and the balance will soon follow unless they read between their lines and leave your community while leaving in good order the letter was signed 'Regulars'.

"The other letter, undated, addressed to the mayor of Mer Rouge and signed '100 per cent American' was similar to the first and said the mayor would be given 'ample time to clean up his town.'

"Planned to Meet "W. P. Norworthy, who followed up on the stand, said he had heard the Klan was hunting him and had planned to move to Texas and that Captain Skiptwith had assured him that 'everything was all right.'

"I was on a business trip and when I arrived in Spencer, La., I was told by Laurie Spencer that Mary Calhoun said for me 'not to come until you have seen me at his ranch. He is able to get you in trouble.' I went to Calhoun's ranch, John Spencer went with me. Calhoun told me he had been in the shop and he heard that the Ku Klux Klan was hunting me.

"Harp Testifies "Mr. Dade was excused and Kelly Harp was called to the stand. He testified he is a former member of the Klan and participated in the kidnapping of Daniel, Neelis and Andrews near Stamper, on the Calhoun road.

"Who else was there?" "Don't believe I should be obliged to tell that. I was a klanman then under cover."

"Did you hear Mr. Dade testify?" "Yes."

"Was his testimony correct?" "I am not in a position to say whether or not it happened when I was a member of the Klan and under oath of that order."

"Who named you as a committee member?" "I was named by the committee to run Miss Addie May Hamilton out of the country."

"Did you take an obligation as a klanman not to reveal anything?" "Yes, sir. I know I did."

"Why did you quit the Klan?" "Because I don't believe in the Klan. It leads to disorders. The Klan's constitution is all right, but in operations are all wrong."

"HAVE THE TESTIMONY OF TWO SCORE WITNESSES "BASTROP, La., Jan. 12.—State's attorneys digging into the Morehouse parish tragedy—the kidnapping and slaying of W. D. Daniel and Thomas Richard—had before them today the testimony of 20 witnesses dealing with differences between the peoples of the two principal towns, Bastrop and Mer Rouge, dating back for years and starting, according to several witnesses, with the opening of a breach by the drawing of a line between factions favoring and opposing the Ku Klux Klan.

Robert L. Dade, mayor of Mer Rouge, told the investigators at Bastrop today that the Morehouse parish tragedy—the kidnapping and slaying of W. D. Daniel and Thomas Richard—had before them today the testimony of 20 witnesses dealing with differences between the peoples of the two principal towns, Bastrop and Mer Rouge, dating back for years and starting, according to several witnesses, with the opening of a breach by the drawing of a line between factions favoring and opposing the Ku Klux Klan.

Robert L. Dade, mayor of Mer Rouge, told the investigators at Bastrop today that the Morehouse parish tragedy—the kidnapping and slaying of W. D. On the heels of this reform measure came the organization of the Klan which resulted in conditions termed "intolerable."

"Citizens Flogged "Dade, according to testimony, made one of the first remarks of the day, wearing the regalia of the Klan. Citizens were flogged, some ordered deported from the state and others given lectures.

The Klan, witnesses testified, approached the constituted authorities of the parish. The sheriff, the clerk and the district attorney and other parish officials, it has been testified, became aligned with the hooded order with Captain Skiptwith, officially known as the Klan's masked cylops, its ruler.

As related by witnesses conditions went from bad to worse. Rumors were current that the citizens of Mer Rouge planned to make a retaliatory raid on Bastrop. Citizens of Bastrop organized, armed themselves, surrounded the Morehouse county house in preparation for the raid. Citizens of Mer Rouge also armed themselves and prepared to stage off an attack.

"On January 11, 1935, then came the alleged attempt to kill Dr. McKoin as he was en route through the country. In answer to what was later declared a false call to attend a sick woman. Many citizens of Mer Rouge, according to the present mayor, do not believe any attempt was made to assassinate the physician, while citizens of Bastrop firmly believe such an attempt was carried out.

Several men were accused of the plot, one being Richard. On August 17 he was kidnapped in daylight on the main street of Bastrop and carried to the woods by a party of blank hooded men and questioned. Witnesses testified that Sheriff Carpenter of this parish was standing 100 feet away when the kidnapping was staged.

One week later Richard, Watt Daniel, W. C. Andrews and Watt father, J. L. Daniel, were seized by hooded men on a crowded highway, taken into the woods and flogged. "To" Davenport also was seized but not molested. Davenport, Andrews and J. L. Daniel were released but Watt Daniel and Richard were started off. Their permanent disappearance led to an investigation and during the latter part of last month their bodies were found floating in Lake La Fourche.

The motive for the double murder has never been brought out nor have the state and federal authorities been able so far to lay their hands on the alleged responsible parties.

The state has summoned more than a score of witnesses to testify today.

"INTOLERABLE CONDITION RESULT KLAN ACTIVITY "BASTROP, La., Jan. 12.—Continuing his testimony in the hearing to establish responsibility for the Morehouse parish murders, Mayor Robert L. Dade of Mer Rouge, replied to questions asked by the state as follows:

"Under the regalia of the Klan has there arisen a condition in this parish that is intolerable?" "Yes, sir."

"Isn't it a fact that the Klan has superseded the constituted authorities in a great measure?" "Yes, sir, in a great measure."

"Your sheriff, your clerk, your district attorney, are klanmen?" "I have been told they were."

"Before the Klan came everybody in Mer Rouge were like brothers; now there is a shamed feeling?" "After the kidnaping of Richard did you receive any anonymous letters?" "Yes, two."

"What was the substance of these letters?" "They were, we were allowing in a cesspool of lawlessness. They said for us to clean and clean up the town. If I didn't clean it up they would swoop 1,999 strong and do it themselves."

"How were they signed?" "One hundred cent American and vigilant committee."

"Upon the receipt of the letters what did you do?" "I came to Judge Odom. He told me to call in some of the good citizens of Bastrop and consult them."

"Did you ever call on Dr. McKoin after the receipt of those letters?" "Yes, sir. I called upon him in Monroe. I handed the letters to Captain Skiptwith, who was present also. He told me if I clean up the town I would not be getting such letters. Dr. McKoin said 'Why don't you clean up the town?' I said, 'It is just as clean as when you were mayor of it.'"

"Did you ever deliver the Klan message to Whipple, Milner and Campbell?" "I did. I told them what the captain had said. Campbell was vouchered for by Mr. Davenport. Whipple had already left. Milner was vouchered for. Davenport was to report to Captain Skiptwith that Campbell would keep his mouth shut about the Klan."

"The witness was excused until tomorrow morning. Mrs. Hugh Clark was called to the stand.

"Did you hear that T. F. Richard had been kidnaped in Bastrop on August 17?" "I did."

"There has been testimony to the effect that after Richard had been kidnaped that if he was taken out again he would not get out so light. These remarks are said to have been made by you in a moving picture show."

"Well, if I made them, I was just like all other women, talking about something that everybody else was talking about."

"Was it a usual thing for people to be kidnaped?" "No, not that I know of."

"Had you heard that Addie May Hamilton had been ordered out of town?" "Yes, while I was in a hospital at New Orleans."

"Was your husband a member of the Klan?" "If he was I did not know it."

Hugh A. Clark, Mer Rouge citizen, who followed his wife on the stand, testified that he circulated a "petition" seeking consent for Addie May Hamilton to return from Little Rock to Mer Rouge. He said the young woman wanted to return and was under the impression she could not without the permission of the Ku Klux Klan. He said he obtained several names to the petition and presented it to Captain Skiptwith. Clark said Skiptwith told him it would be all right for the young woman to come back. Clark declared he was a klanman. Clark testified Addie May Hamilton told him she "had been ordered by five or six Ku Klux Klansmen to leave Morehouse parish."

GOVERNOR URGES LAW ENFORCEMENT

to realize her duty toward her boys and girls in an educational way." School Question.

"The governor emphatically declared himself in favor of a system of education from the bottom to the top; from the little red school house to the splendid institution out here on the hill. Texas should enter the educational market and barrier for the best educational system obtainable. It has been estimated that $10 per capita per year is necessary to give every child in this state the proper educational advantages. We are now investing far less than this amount. My recommendation is that the state furnish $25 of this amount and that the local school authorities be given the task of raising the remainder.

"But as emphatic as I am in furnishing Texas with a worthy educational system, I am unqualifiedly opposed to buying such a system unless we have the money to pay for it and I serve notice here and now that I will not approve any measure passed by the body which appropriates money and does not provide for raising that money. We spent $25,000,000 for education last year, but there is a big question whether the children get their just measure of education. We must do more than merely raise money; the provision of an adequate educational system requires more than that."

"Transportation. "Closely related to the educational problem and scarcely less important is the transportation question. We must provide a system of state highways. It is impossible to travel for 100 miles in Texas on good roads. A traveler passes from a good road in one county into a mud hole in the next. This is the result of our road building policy which regarded the county as the unit instead of the state. We have spent millions on roads but we have no state system of highways. Highways should be under state and not county control."

"The general question of pressing importance is that of taxation. We have no tax laws in Texas worthy the name. We have a patchwork of laws which are unjust and discriminatory. Landlords and home owners bear the brunt of taxation and it is unevenly distributed even among them. Some counties pay nothing in support of their government on the other hand they take money out of the state treasury. Taxation in Texas is a disgrace to a civilized land."

"A considerable amount of white blood was found concealed in the portion of the jail where Toussaint was being kept. The chemicals, it was discovered, had been ordered from a house in the New England states. A test was made as to its powers and it was found that steel, the same kind that is termed saw proof was cut into as though it were tissue paper.

Sheriff Smith destroyed the chemical found when the jail was reached, as he had been informed from indirect sources that such a chemical had been inducted into the jail in some manner. He stated that Toussaint had no confederates and outside assistance, as it is argued that had he been assisted that he would have been permitted to make his appearance on the main streets of the town.

Reports were received Thursday night and Friday morning from various places. One in the Texoma shallow field near Burkhardt where he is supposed to have eaten dinner and the other place at the Freeman-Hampton pool in Archer county where he applied for work and told the men that his name was 'Toussaint.'

The grand jury examined a large number of witnesses Thursday evening in connection with the case. Five prisoners from the county jail were also brought before the body to testify.

"CHILLICOTHE MAN IS FATALLY INJURED BY AIR PIPE EXPLOSION "Special to The Times. "CHILLICOTHE, TEXAS, Jan. 12.—Carl Sager, aged 24, an employe of the Moore flour mills of this city was fatally injured at 10 o'clock Friday morning when the left side of his skull was torn away by fragments of an air pipe which exploded.

According to physicians who afforded emergency treatment, and ordered his removal to the sanitarium at Qpanah, the man has practically no chance whatever to recover.

Sager, who resides with his family west of the city was employed in the engine room of the mills. The compressed air pipe is used in kicking off the engines. Sager was standing directly under the pipe when it burst. A valve on the pipe flew off and is believed to have struck the man on the side of the head.

Physicians stated that a large portion of the skull was torn away and that the brain lay exposed. Another employe who was in the engine room at the time was knocked down by the force of the explosion but suffered no injuries. The damage to the plant is nominal.

When Toussaint left the death cell Wednesday night after placing a dummy in his bed, he was seen to hide him in a most conspicuous place, the long piece of adhesive tape that he had continuously worn in the same position for over a year.

ROCK ISLAND WILL SURVEY FOR LINE EAST OF WAURIKA

BELIEVED TO BE PLANNING CONNECTION WITH RINGLING ROAD.

TOWN GETTING READY TO CELEBRATE NEW LINE

Completion of Road From Myers In To Be Appropriately Commemorated.

Rock Island surveying parties will be at work very shortly between Waurika and Ringling, locating a route for the Rock Island's proposed line to enter to a connection with the Ringling-Ardmore road, according to C. S. Storms and W. F. Morrison of Waurika, who were in Wichita Falls Friday.

The building of such a line would add a substantial section of southern Oklahoma to Wichita Falls territory, and would be of great benefit to this city.

Waurika is already getting ready to celebrate completion of the Myers-Waurika road into the city, the visitors said. Plans are under way for a banquet at which Frank TGI will be the guest of honor, and to which Wichitans will be bidden. Inventions now are that trains will be operating over the road within 30 days.

Waurika people are much interested. Mr. Morrison said, in a report that it is on the Burlington program to build from Waurika into Oklahoma City, via the Robinson and Leoc oil fields.

We wish to thank our many friends for the kindness shown and for the many beautiful floral offerings during the time of our sorrow and death of our loved one, Mrs. Joe W. Oden, wife of Mrs. A. B. Oden, H. D. Oden.

B. C. TROUTON, well-known Atlanta, Ga. manufacturer, who declares Talcum restored him from an apparently hopeless state of health. That permanent benefit comes from taking Talcum is demonstrated in the case of B. C. Trouton, 438 Whitehall St. Atlanta, proprietor of the Talcum Co. Six years ago he was taken with a disease which he obtained from Talcum, and recently declares he is still hearty, again praising the medicine. "I could hardly walk, and honestly got my sleep. I lost weight, but no appetite and apparently was in a hopeless state. "But when I took Talcum I felt better, sleep soundly, and feel like a new man. I wouldn't give Talcum for all the medicine in the world. "I am now 43 years old, and have been a good deal of a sufferer. Over 25 million bottles sold."

ANNUAL BANQUET
VERNON CHAMBER
FRIDAY EVENING

VERNON, TEXAS, Jan. 12.—Mrs. I. N. Grimes has purchased lots 3 and 4 of the A. P. Peck subdivision from R. D. L. Killough. Mrs. Grimes is at present operating the Vernon hotel tea room. The property purchased by Mrs. Grimes is located near the Vernon automobile park and Mrs. Grimes may put in a filling station and bread shop where she would serve light lunches and fresh bread rolls and bread. The consideration paid was not made public.

John Maxwell of the Wichita Daily Times was in Vernon yesterday. Mr. Maxwell is well known in Vernon, having been here quite a long time. He is now in Vernon. He was invited to address the Vernon chamber of commerce on Friday evening. Mr. Birmingham was with Mr. Maxwell.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Murchison have returned from a visit with relatives in east Texas. Mr. Murchison has purchased the property now occupied by Dr. T. E. Standifer from W. G. Burton of Fort Worth. John Burgess was tried in the county court on Wednesday of this week for reckless and careless driving of an automobile. He was tried before a jury and was convicted and his fine assessed at $25 and costs.

A. C. Nicholson, district attorney of Wilbarger and other counties in this judicial district, is in Vernon today. Mr. Nicholson stated that there were nine murder cases pending in his district. One of the cases will probably be in the Wilbarger county district court for the February term.

Great preparations are being made for the chamber of commerce banquet which will be held in Vernon tonight. Already 125 tickets are sold for the occasion and a great deal of interest is being manifested in who will be the two directors of the chamber for the year. Their names will be announced on Friday evening at the banquet.

GENERAL OPTIMISM OVER PROSPECTS FOR NEW CROP

NEW ORLEANS, La., Jan. 12.—Farmers are turning their attention to next year's prospects with general optimism with the harvesting of 1933 crops practically completed. It is reported in a regional semi-monthly crop and livestock statement covering Texas, Michigan, Arkansas, Oklahoma and Louisiana, for the period December 16 to 21, 1933, as reported by the bureau of agricultural economic's agricultural statisticians in these states. Hardly enough crop for local use is reported in Texas. The Texas wheat crop is in good condition generally, but moisture is deficient in some sections. The rice crop in Louisiana is in good condition. The current season's crop is mostly sold in Texas.

Rye continues to improve generally in Oklahoma while oats in Texas have had a full fall acreage sown, growing well and furnishing good pasturage. The crop is growing well in Arkansas and Mississippi.

Louisiana produced 47.6 per cent of the nation's rice crop this year. Arkansas 11.5 per cent, and Texas 14.2 per cent.

In Texas on account of weevil infestation and lack of moisture, the crop of cotton is in poor condition, especially loosened. Killing frosts have affected crop through the northern half of the state and picking is about completed for all open cotton except for scattered small areas in the south half of the state.

Range conditions in Texas show improvement. Alfalfa in irrigated sections are one-half shipped, the balance in storage, with prices good. Pastures are in good condition in Mississippi in Texas are in excellent condition with spring prospects of increase very favorable. Good spring range conditions will find Texas with surplus of grass in the plains sections as marketings have been heavy throughout the year.

Citrus shipments are increasing in volume in Texas and strawberries are ripening there. Hurdle feed in Texas is selling at from five to ten cents, prices advancing on grain and forage. The grinding season in the cane belt in Louisiana is drawing near the close.

BRITISH FARM HANDS WELCOME IN AUSTRALIA

LONDON, Jan. 12.—Australia, unlike America, wants immigrants so much that she is paying the passage of thousands of them, and finding them jobs after they land. And the British government is so desirous of ridding England of her surplus unemployed labor that it is helping pay the way of those who leave to find new homes on the other side of the earth. In 1932 about 40,000 persons were sent from London to Australia, and in 1933 twice as many will go, emigration officers estimate.

Australia is very particular about the kind of people who go there to live. In the first place they must be of the white race, and preferably British. Little encouragement is given continental Europeans.

Few passenger ships sail to Australia from continental ports, and the Italian, Greek, Armenian or what-not who comes to London hoping to have part of his passage paid to Australia by the commonwealth government finds that the ship is already filled with Britishers. A Britisher of sound body, some sense and grit enough to tackle farm work need not have a cent in the world; all he must have is character, and John Bull will see to it that he gets to Australia, and finds a job.

The Australian and British governments will pay most of the passage, and the commonwealth will lend the immigrant enough to make up the difference and also sufficient change to provide food and shelter until the intended farmhand gets his feet in the furrow and his hands on the plough.

The commonwealth spends thousands of pounds every year seeing to it that the type of emigrant who goes to Australia is live, vigorous and of good character. The weeding out process begins in London, where many hear the call to a new home—over the seas—with passage paid, but where few are chosen.

The greatest need is for farm hands and prospective farm owners. Almost as loud is the call for domestic help. It is not being answered, as servants are hard to get in England, and there are not enough of them to supply even the home demands. All of the Australian states are also desirous of having young boys, from 16 to 20, go there and grow up with the country.

WHITE HOUSE MARKET OPENS DELICATESSEN DEPARTMENT

Always on the alert to secure something new that will help the housewife solve the ever-perplexing problem of "what shall we have to eat today" and also to maintain the standards of a leading food purveyor, the White House market has just installed a most complete and up-to-date delicatessen at the establishment, 704 Indiana.

The new delicatessen will make a specialty of Frank's famous Milwaukee sausage, all varieties of kraut's cheese as well as their own style of home-cooked meats, baked hams, barbecued beef and pork and Mexican chiles.

This department of the store is being operated in connection with their fresh meat department and the two departments will, they believe, adequately solve the good eats problem for those who want the best to eat at all times.

AGENTS NORTH OF CITY REPORT LOW MERCURY READING

Very few changes in weather conditions were noted in the district covered by local railroads Friday morning. However, on the north side of the line, agents reported temperatures which are lower than they have been during the past week. With this one exception, the ideal spring weather conditions which have prevailed practically since the beginning of the new year continue. During the night, Thursday, the minimum mark reached by the thermometer locally was 46 degrees while during the afternoon Thursday the high mark of 71 was reached. No clouds were sighted Friday morning and it was evident that another day of pleasantness was on the program. Those who have resided in this country for many years are anticipating a sudden change some time next week and it is the general belief that the change will come unheralded in the form of an extremely cold norther.

Gasless Night as Result of Closing The Wrong Valve

KANSAS CITY, KAN., Jan. 12.—Assumption of gas service was planned for this morning after a gasless night here, resulting when an employee of the Wyandotte County Gas company closed the wrong valve. Besides the discomforts suffered by 100,000 gas consumers, deprived of the use of their stoves yesterday for the preparation of the evening meal, the distributing company was reported by W. H. McKenzie, general manager, to have suffered a loss of $1,000. This, he said, included $1,500 in revenue and from 3,500,000 feet of gas, usually distributed during the period of the night's shut down, and wages for 400 persons employed overtime to instruct consumers to close all gas outlets before it is turned on, to obviate the danger of escaping gas. These messengers walked from house to house last night, completely canvassing the city. Gas was shut off when a workman closed the main distribution valve, mistaking it for one on an intake line which he wished to close. Installation of a new intake valve was in progress. To turn on the gas again, Mr. McKenzie explained, until all consumers had been notified to close all outlets which were left open at the time the gas was turned off would have been extremely dangerous.

Prescription Not Followed, Smash And Fine Result

"I didn't take it according to directions; judge; that was my trouble," a man charged with drunkenness and reckless driving told Judge Martin in the city court Friday morning. The man claimed that he was a resident of Plainview and that on the way to this city he had a prescription filled. By the time he reached here, the prescription was exhausted and at the corner of Ninth and Van Buren his car collided with a bicyclist ridden by a small boy. The car struck the rear wheel of the bicycle and damaged it slightly; the boy was unhurt. The defendant in the case, he remembered nothing of the accident. The boy testified that the man got out of the car and offered to pay for the necessary repairs on the wheel. Judge Martin assessed a fine of $25 on a plea of guilty to the charge, the defendant to pay the payment of repairs on the wheel. Only one case came to trial; seven arrests were made Thursday in each case the offense was traffic violation. Six cases were passed until Saturday morning.

Moon to Darken The Planet Venus Saturday Morning

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., Jan. 12.—Harvard astronomers made arrangements today for observations of the darkening of Venus tomorrow morning when the moon will swing between the planet and the earth. This occultation will be visible in most parts of the country. For those in Jacksonville, New Orleans, and Chicago, it will be visible about 5:00 a. m.; in Denver an hour earlier. Venus and the moon now are almost at their nearest point to the earth; and Venus is only a fortnight removed from the period of its greatest brilliancy. As seen through a telescope the eastern sky will show two thin crescents in conjunction, that of the moon nearest the earth. To the unaided eye Venus will appear to hang like a bright spot on the moon, first on the eastern limb of the crescent, and as it emerges, in shifting contrast with the darkened limb.

MANY TOWNS WILL BE REPRESENTED AT C. OF C. MEETING

A large number of northwest Texas and southwest Oklahoma communities will be represented at the chamber of commerce banquet next Tuesday night, judging from acceptances received at the organization offices, and the response is considered very gratifying. In the meantime, chamber of commerce officials are urging Wichitans to obtain their tickets without delay.

MEXICO WILL NOT BE ABLE TO ATTEND COMING PAN-AMERICAN CONGRESS

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 12.—Mexico's regrets that she will not be able to attend the Pan-American congress to be held in March at Santiago, Chile, were on the way to the Chilean government today. A note headed last evening to the Chilean minister, Foreign Secretary Peni says that Mexico is forced to decline the conference invitation because she has not an accredited representative at Washington and therefore cannot comply with one of the requirements for admission to the conference circle. Asserting that Mexico has given proof of her ability and capacity to comply with international obligations and that she maintains an "unprecedented cordiality" with the Latin-American nations and the United States, the note says Mexico has hoped "that the time will come when she may contribute to the fulfillment of the aims of the Pan-American fraternity."

OIL MEN TO FIGHT VALUATION BASIS FIXED BY COUNTY

The basis recently adopted by the commissioners for valuation of oil properties will not be accepted by oil operators and oil companies, it was indicated Friday, and there is promise of a contest over the matter.

The oil men, through their committee W. D. Cline, H. H. Martin, R. O. Harvey and C. H. Clark, contend that production should be valued at a lower figure for this year than for 1922.

HENRIETTA MAKES PREPARATIONS FOR ANTICIPATED BOOM

HENRIETTA, Jan. 12.—That Henrietta is anticipating a big oil boom was verified when the chamber of commerce decided to get a list of all available furnished and unfurnished rooms in the city to be listed with the secretary, so when the large crowds begin to come they can be taken care of.

A committee from the chamber of commerce visited the county commissioners and insisted that the shortest route to the Gulf Production company's Well No. 1, east 12 miles east of Henrietta, be laid out and a good road built.

Thin? Run-down? Sure Way to Get Right Weight

Do you know why insurance companies refuse to insure a great many men because they are under weight? Simply because to be under weight then comes low fighting-power in the body. It often means you are missing nerve-power, minus red-cells in your blood, minus vitality. It is serious to be thin, but the moment you increase the number of red-blood-cells, you begin to become plump. That's why S. S. S. since 1888, has meant to thousands of underweight men and women, a new life of strength.

Monday drilling was resumed on the Spivey well on the well east 20 miles south of here. The Spivey people first leased 7,250 acres around their tract and since that the Central, Gulf, Sinclair, G. & O. Co. and Sun companies have acquired part of this acreage.

Louisiana Lady Says She Has "Never Found Anything Better Than Cardui for a Run-Down Condition"

Morgan City, La.—"It would be hard for me to tell how much benefit I have derived from the use of Cardui," said Mrs. E. O. Bowman, of 1217 Front Street, this city. "I was so run-down in health I could hardly go. "I was thin. "I had no appetite. "Could not rest or sleep well. "I was so weak, and so very nervous, I was no pleasure to myself or any one else. "I suffered some pain, but the worst of my trouble was from being so weak and easy to get tired and out of heart. "This nervous condition was worse than pain. "Some one told me of Cardui, and I decided to use it. "After using a few bottles, I regained my strength. I wasn't so nervous, and began to eat and sleep and grew stronger and was soon well. "I have never found anything better for a run-down condition. "If you suffer as this Louisiana lady did, it is reasonable to suppose that you, too, will find Cardui helpful for your troubles, as thousands of women have. "Take Cardui, the woman's tonic. Get a bottle from your druggist today—today."

JACK DAW ON ICICLE ISLE

By ELTON

Flip had grown tired of keeping his head buried and he now sat up right on the sled. Jack, too, made himself a bit more comfortable, and he was relieved to see that they had reached to end of the icicle woods. Everything ahead was pure white and snow was everywhere.

As the sled finally came to a stop, right in front of one of the funny looking snow men, Jack looked up and said, "I wish you were alive, so you could tell me where I am." And you can imagine the little adventurer's surprise when the snow man answered, "I am alive, honey."

"Now, don't be frightened," continued the frozen fellow, "for I won't hurt you. You have coasted your way through White Mountain and landed on Icicle Isle. Little boys seldom find their way here, but when they do we treat them to the sights and wonders of our land." (Continued.)

with the same degree of optimism that moves the inventor to work on a perpetual motion machine.
"She will keep on trying, until convinced of its futility."
"When convinced of its futility, she will have made the verdict unanimous, since other nations arrived at such a conclusion long ago."
"The conclusion arrived at by other nations had had no effect on France, and that is the most discouraging feature of the case. France is still sure of her ground, sure that Germany can pay, sure that force will make Germany pay."
"The only way to make her see that she is mistaken is to let her go ahead."
"Neither is there much danger of her going too far. Nothing makes people so cautious as responsibility."
"Whatever happens because of this invasion of the Ruhr, France will be responsible for it, and more important still, she will have to bear the responsibility alone."
"She is bound to be acutely conscious of all possibilities."
"She is bound to measure the risk with the chance to succeed."
"There is little danger of her pulling down the ladder on her own isolated head intentionally."
"She will make a spectacular gesture, but it will be in the nature of a bluff, and its main object will be to find out whether Germany is bluffing."
"Once satisfied that she can't get the money, or that she is likely to precipitate real trouble, she will withdraw, and she will do so gracefully, for that is the French way."
"After that, everybody, but most of all, France, will feel better."

WICHITA DAILY TIMES, FRIDAY, JANUARY 12, 1923.
Texas Viewpoints
The Mer Rouge Horror.
Denison Herald: Six months ago the country was horrified and stupefied by the sickening account of the Mer Rouge, Ill., massacre in which helpless men were overpowered, driven down the public road like a herd of cattle and shot dead in their tracks, not because they had committed an offense against the law of the land, but because they had accepted employment at minor supervisory ties up by a strike.
The public had had time to recover from the mental depression resulting from acts of barbarity in a civilized nation, another tragedy is revealed of such horrible nature as to strike dismay to the hearts of men who profess to believe in the supremacy of law. From the standpoint of demagogical vengeance on helpless victims the Mer Rouge tragedy in which two men were tortured beyond human belief stands out as the greatest blotch on a Christian civilization of which history records. Testimony adduced at the inquiry now being held in the case of the law, from the standpoint of the most merciless punishment known to man by a band of midnight marauders, and the fact that the two men were beaten into a pulp with a knotted rope wielded by the hand of a demon, placed in an yet unknown context with the fact that the two men were cruelly mutilated by the skilled hand of a surgeon, and then while the flame of life still burned the survivors were treated with the feelings and agonies of the doomed victims were hushed in the stillness of death, then consigned to the waters of a lake with weights with the belief that the bodies of the two men would never be known.
In the days of Nero Christians were hanged and quartered at the orders of the tyrant and were treated with horror from the pages of history when we read of the revolting acts of this cruel Roman emperor. But as compared with the deaths of the two Mer Rouge men came to their death in obedience to the decree of a masked society, Nero's instrument of torture was scarcely more than the unfortunate victims of his wrath died quickly. But in Morehouse parish, Louisiana, on August 24, A. D. 1912, while men with an inheritance of two centuries of Christian civilization looked on in astonishment, their victims were slowly crushed to death for no greater offense than a refusal to obey the dictates of a self-constituted censor of personal conduct. In writing of this horror of horrors as described by the Rev. J. M. D. Demore, editor of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat employs the following forceful language: "The code of morals of men who, though mighty in power, were cut off in remote parts from the influence and restraints of their fellow-men in civilization is said to undergo a constant retrogression. The more remote the place is said to be a tendency in that direction which must steadily be fought against. If it is to be neutralized, the law must be at least a tendency with men who, though among us, are not of the rest of us, who set themselves aside from all others through concealment and who follow strange doctrines and throw off the wholesome restraints recognized by men generally and place their own laws and principles above the practices of a civilized society has ordained and established. Among such men, separated from their fellows, not in impassable distance, but in a distance that is a barrier of an invisible domain, may there not be a tendency toward reversion to savagery comparable to that of man in the wild? Is there not a place of the earth? This abnormal case at Mer Rouge might lead one so to think. Could they have looked, unmarked, on the agonies of the victims? Rather did they not from the very fact that their identity was shrouded from the eyes and that tongues were muffled by oath-bound repression, acquire a fearful daring and venturousness in cruelty which otherwise they would have lacked? Undoubtedly they will maintain excellent manners, have entered this available sanctuary of stripes and instruments of torture. In all reason, should not this Louisiana case open their eyes to the barbarism that is a part of Americanism that tends to 100 per cent barbarity and all the possibilities when men of certain temperament break their own hands and administer punishment from dark refuges of secrecy? The fractured limbs and broken skulls of the murdered men, the service man and this planter's murdered son form an exhibit whose silent appeal ought not to be lost on humane America."

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY
Say ye to the righteous that it shall be well with them, for they shall eat of the fruit of their doings.—Ecclesiastes 3:10
The virtuous delight in the virtuous, but he who is destitute of the practice of virtue delighteth not in the virtuous. The bee retreats from the forest to the lotus, whilst the frog inhabits of shelter.—Hippocritus.

A MOMENTOUS VENTURE.
Germany has defaulted in her reparation payments. France has occupied the Ruhr district which comprises iron and coal mines and in which are located great industries, to enforce payment of French claims.
The situation in Europe today seems as unsettled as at any time since the signing of the armistice. No one can forecast what the morrow will bring.

"France is undertaking a momentous venture," says the Houston Chronicle, "but France realizes it better, perhaps, than anybody else."
Continuing the Chronicle says:
Germany having been virtually declared a debtor, and England having refused to sanction such a position as the treaty of Versailles provided, France is technically within her rights when she undertakes to invade the Ruhr.
"This technical justification, however, is unimportant compared to the practical possibilities involved."
"Just as the law is no stronger than the sentiment behind it, so are treaties."
"In deciding upon such a drastic step as further imposition of her military power upon Germany, France comes face to face with factors more profound than the provisions of any written document."
"It is not to be imagined that Germany will resist, especially in the ordinary sense of the word. Germany lacks the power to do so, even if she felt disposed."
"But any people, when driven to distraction, and the matter how important it may appear, can find means of resistance in extraordinary ways."
"It is within the bounds of possibility, for instance, for the German people to embrace bolshevism, or to split up into several small states, or to adopt an attitude of non-cooperation."
"Such things have happened before, and what has happened before can happen again."
"Throughout Europe the situation has become veritably desperate. Famine along the Volga, anarchy in Moscow, chaos in Austria, jealousy in the Near East, demoralization everywhere, are all having a pronounced effect on the popular mind."
"The Germans have more to distract them than their own troubles. So have the French. So, indeed, have all people who come under post-war influences."
"There is a lack of pulse in every quarter, a disposition to act on impulse, a flareback of elemental emotions."
"Under these circumstances it is impossible to predict where any major move may lead. To a material extent, the customs and conventions of civilized society have broken down. Facing emergencies all along the line, there is a universal clamor for emergency measures."
"Most people and many governments in Europe actually believe they have come to grips with life itself. None are sure what tomorrow will bring forth. The question of promoting and bettering civilization as a universal blessing has given way to the struggle of nations, tribes and cults for existence."
"Since the power by which treaties are made has become shaky, the treaties themselves are looked upon as rather unreliable. While France avails herself of the Versailles agreement to apply force, it is upon the force, not the agreement, that she depends."
"The downfall of Germany has been succeeded by the downfall of the entente, and we can write 'Fint' as the second chapter of this epoch."
"But let us not be dismayed. If Germany had to fall in order to free Europe from a threat of despotism she would have followed in order to remove the stronghold of a super-government."
"We are amazed, chiefly because the task of reorganizing civilization was bigger than we thought, and because we regarded Germany as the only stumbling block to be gotten rid of."
"We were dealing with many centuries of accumulated evil. Yet we thought to dispose of it in a few years. Neither nature nor human nature operates in that way."
"We thought to set up a league of nations, not only on a victor's code, but to carry out the victor's will. We thought to institute a reign of justice, with half the world excluded."

PLAN TO ENIRCLE GLOBE IN AIRPLANE.
A number of years ago Jules Verne's imaginative writing, "Around the World in Eighty Days," was as much talked about as Emil Cohn's "Auto Suggestion" today. Verne's dream was fulfilled in comparatively few years and, indeed, modern transportation has gone far beyond many of the things Verne foresaw with his great imagination. It is now possible to encircle the globe in less than half the time that Verne set.
And science is ever spurring to new efforts in transportation and locomotion. Just now British flyers are planning to encircle the globe in an airplane. The time may come when one may encircle the globe in a little more than eighty hours.
The very interesting and forceful editorial, "Rum, Romatism and Rebellion" reprinted in Thursday's Times was taken from the Waco Times-Herald. Through accident the proper credit was not given.
Since the receipt of its copy of the World Almanac for 1923, The Times feels itself well equipped for publication during the year. We are now in a position to offer to answer all queries that may come in.
Here is an auto-suggested Confession for a borrower: Day by day, in every way, I become debtor and debtor.

TODAY'S TALK
By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS
PLAYING UP TO YOURSELF
No matter how well favored we may be, there are times when we all, I believe, have sinking spells—when such that we thought we had gained, seems to have slipped away.
And we are not, at such times, very good companions—not even to ourselves.
Life is a great deal like a musical instrument, needing adjustment and tuning during its entire period of use.
You need to play up to yourself—to your better self—all the time.
Keep aiming beyond your immediate ability to gain the end you have in mind. In other words, keep buying yourself up, so that there shall be no melting away of valuable reserves at critical moments.
The most valuable time that we spend is that which we have as our very own, in seclusion and solitude. At such times will you be able to grow, broaden and enlarge your soul—or else witness just the opposite.
What you are is your asset—Increase it each day!
Play up to yourself. Put a real valuation on yourself; then prove that valuation before the world.
Be an inhabitant in a city of visions.
Keep breaking the shells of your outgrown experiences and, in the words of Oliver Wendell Holmes, "make each new temple nobler than the last!"
All life will become a more livable proposition as you become a better companion to yourself.

JUST FOLKS
By Edgar A. Guest
SLAVE
I know that I'm supposed to be an independent man and free. Here where the flags of freedom wave No man need struggle as a slave. And yet this liberty's a sham, A bound and fettered self I am; Humble and meek and chained limb, I serve a little tyrant's whim.
What matter it that I would read? She would go prancing on her head, And I'm the horse upon whose back She'd gallop. Should the pace grow slack, This little monarch knows just what Will bring me to a faster trot; And though my poor old body tires, I wait to serve her next desires.
I that am awkward dance about That she may put away her pout; I that possess no voice to sing Chant many a long forgotten thing To please her fancy; or I crawl, Bear-like, about the room and hall. Here is a tyrant absolute, Who masquerades as sweet and cute.
This monarch on a self-made throne Lays title claim to all I own, Lays life gold chain is nothing more Than junk to throw upon the floor.
Not I lie down and close my eyes— Not if she will it otherwise! Freedom no more is mine to claim, I lost it when the baby came.

Fred Fernot and the Morgidae. Soggy outside of a house. Fred Fernot—Wata all that weeping and other sounds of sorrow? I think I'll just step in and see if I can do some good in the world.
Ack 3
Scene—Inside of a house.
Old mother—O spare us kind sir and don't put us out on a life like this. Listen to the thunder, look at that lightning, imagine that rain!
Old father—This is a cool act kind sir, was it ever do to deserve that? Where you put poor family out on a life like this?
Villain—Id put them out on my side. Give me the money to pay this mortgage, excellent man, and I'll keep the house. I just need a house anyway.
Old Mother—O dear this is terrible, what will become of our children's education.
Villain—That's your business.
Old father—We haven't even any money or food, much less mortgages. There's not even a piece of steel bread in the house.
Villain—Then why are you so lousy about staying in it? Go on now, get out. I'm tired of telling you.
Fred Fernot—Stop! Leave us see that mortgage. Ah, just as I thought, this is a forgery. Because me wife I tare it up.
Villain—Folled, baffled.
Old mother—Young man you've saved our house and maybe our life, you are as good as you are a hero. How did you know the mortgage was false?
Fred Fernot—I didn't. I just took a chance.
Old father—You must stay for supper and we'll open a bottle of champagne to celebrate the occasion.
Fred Fernot—Hurray.

WAGES
The pay envelopes of 400,000 wage earners in 23 industries are checked up by national industrial conference board, finds that the average wage last September was about 45 cents an hour. This compares with an average of 24 cents an hour in July, 1914, on the eve of the war.
The board makes the point that wages have a trifle more than doubled. What of it? How about cost of living? It has doubled, and what's supporting a family on 45 cents an hour, have left these days after the landlord, grocer, butcher and others get through with him? The pre-war standard is bunk. Some progress forward should be expected in nine years—provided we all produce more.
DESTROYED
Enough trees to yield 22 billion board-feet of lumber were chopped down in our country last year.
No figure is available, to show how many more trees were cut down than were planted. But it'd be a mighty figure.
Few economic perils are more dangerous than the rapid depletion of our forests. Why kill by degrees, the goose laying gold eggs?

CAPTAIN BLOOD
By Rafael Sabatini
© RAFAEL SABATINI ABOUT THE SERVICE
The order of their going was as follows: Ahead went their improved fire-ship in charge of Wolverstone, with a crew of six volunteers, each of whom was to have a hundred pieces of eight over and above his share of plunder as a special reward. Next came the Arabella. She was followed at a distance by the Elizabeth, commanded by Hagthorpe, with whom was the now shipless Cahusac and the bulk of his French followers. The rear was brought up by the second sloop, and some eight canoes aboard of which the prisoners and slaves had been shipped and most of the captured merchandise.
The Spaniards did not sight Blood's fleet in that dim light until some time after Blood's fleet had sighted them.
Straight for the admiral's great ship, the Encarnacion, did Wolverstone head the sloop; then, lashing down the helm, he knifed from a match that hung ready lighted beside him a great cloud of thickly platted straw that had been steeped in bitumen. As he swung it round it burst into flame, just as the slight vessel was crashing and banging and scraping against the side of the flagship. His six men stood at their posts on the larboard side, stark naked, each armed with a grapple, and the nearest galling scuttles into the hold, and thereupon diving overboard in his turn, to be picked up presently by the longboat from the Arabella. But before that happened the sloop was a thing of fire, from which explosions were hurling blinding combustibles aboard the Encarnacion.

The squaring of a circle is a problem belonging to mathematics. It is quite possible, however, to square the word 'circle', in the above words square. The remarkable formation of the letter 'E' is an additional help toward finding the missing words. Fill in the stars with the correct letters, and you will find six words reading the same from left to right as from top to bottom.
If a train travels from Philadelphia toward New York, 90 miles away, at 60 miles an hour, with a 15-minute stop; and another starts from New York to Philadelphia at 50 miles an hour, which will be farthest from Philadelphia when they meet? Each train will be exactly the same distance from Philadelphia! The mathematical calculations have nothing to do with the problem!
STATE MAY HAVE FREE TOWING SERVICE
MUFFALO, Jan. 12.—A statewide free towing service for automobiles whose engines "go dead," or whose machines are damaged in collisions, is under consideration by the executive committee of the New York State motor federation. Several local clubs already have provided free towing service for their members within a limited radius and the committee has taken up the proposition to offer similar facilities to members of clubs affiliated with the federation in any part of the state that accidents may overtake them.

Minors Humbugged By Majors, Says Coast Man, Landis Lets Him Rave

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 12.—The crash of the first barrage in what was asserted to be a first class war between the American and National baseball leagues on the one hand, and the minor leagues of the country on the other, was echoing throughout sports today. The gun fire was set off last night by W. H. McCarthy, president of the Pacific Coast league, who in a statement expressed his opinion of the proposal of the majors to send players back to the minors subject to recall and of the action of Commissioner K. M. Landis in approving that plan.

WACO, TEXAS, Jan. 12.—Two weeks of practice and the return of Bradshaw and Williamson to the squad have made the Baylor basketball team look a hundred percent better than it did before the Christmas holiday tour. Day by day in every way the Bruin squad is improving, and by the time they meet Texas at Dallas next Monday and Tuesday night they will be able to present Dallas fans a well rounded game five.

Yanks' Infield Has Weak Spot

By NEA Service. NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—The infield of the New York Yankees is far from being the class that one expects of a pennant winner. Joe Dugan at third is perhaps the most valuable player in the American league at that position. The Yankees, however, cannot do much bragging about the other three positions.

$2,000 DAMAGE IS AWARDED WOMAN BY JURY THURSDAY

The jury in the 9th district court this morning heard the evidence in the case of Mrs. Emma Liggett against the Keystone Pipe and Supply company returned a verdict Thursday evening and found for the plaintiff all issues and awarded her damages in the sum of $2,000. The plaintiff had brought action against the defendant company for injuries alleged to have been suffered when struck by an automobile belonging to the company and driven by an officer of the company. The jury found that the driver of the car was negligent and that the plaintiff was not guilty of contributory negligence. They also found that she did not suffer her injuries by reason of falling off an unbalanced. The jury also found that she was entitled to the amount of damages awarded. The jury reported to Judge Wilson this Thursday afternoon.

MAN ARRESTED ON $2800 SWINDLING DEAL THURSDAY

Constable White of Burk Burnett arrested a man Thursday morning in Burk Burnett in connection with a $2800 swindling deal which was perpetrated by some one over six months ago. The man was turned over to county officials Thursday afternoon and held pending investigation of the grand jury. An oil operator lost $2800 worth of checks which had been sent him through mail for oil runs. It is believed that the checks were found on the street and some one deposited them in the name of the operator in one of the banks at Burk Burnett. Later the man who made the deposit had someone to identify him as the man to whom the checks were issued and before the fraud was discovered the man had drawn out over $2,800. The man arrested Thursday by Constable White was formally charged with swindling.

DEFENDS THE EXCLUSION OF NEGRO STUDENTS FROM FRESHMAN DORMITORIES

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—President A. Lawrence Lowell of Harvard, in a letter to Roscoe Conkling Bruce, prominent negro educator of the university, published in the New York Times today, defends the exclusion of negro students from freshman dormitories. Mr. Lowell declares that while the negro is entitled to the same opportunity for education as the white man, "we do not owe it to him to force him and the white into social relations that are not, or may not be mutually congenial." Mr. Bruce's recent request that a room be reserved in the freshman halls for his son, who is preparing to enter Harvard, was denied. President Lowell's letter says: "I am sorry that you do not feel that the compulsory residence position about the freshman dormitories. It is not a departure from the past to refuse to compel white and colored men to room together. We owe to the colored man the same opportunities for education that we do to the white man but we do not owe to him to force him and the white into social relations that are not or may not be mutually congenial. We would give him freely opportunities for room and board wherever it is voluntary; but it seems to me that for the colored man to claim that he is entitled to 'live' with the white man compelled to live with him is a very unfortunate innovation which, far from doing him good, would increase a prejudice that as you and I will thoroughly agree, is most unfavorable and probably growing. On the other hand, to maintain that the compulsory residence position established for 85 per cent of the students because the remaining one-half of one per cent could not properly be included, seems to me an untenable position."

FRENCH REPUBLIC GIVEN AWARD AGAINST U. S.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—The French republic was given an award of "reparations" against the United States railroad administration today by the interstate commerce commission amounting to $11,463. The director general of railroads was ordered to pay that sum to the French agents on or before February 29 on the ground that illegal demurrage and storage charges were assessed against French shipments of munitions of war at Wilmington, Del., during 1919. The French agents have a series of complaints against the railroad administration arising out of similar war time transactions in which it alleges that it was required to pay overcharges.

DELEGATE TO LAUSANNE RETURNS FROM ANGORA

By Associated Press. LAUSANNE, Jan. 12.—The return from Angora of Hassen Day was followed today by a manifestation of renewed intransigence on the part of the Turkish delegation. At a meeting of the conference dealing with the economic capitulations, the Turks rejected the allied project that the tax exemption hitherto granted to religious, educational and charitable institutions in Turkey should continue for five years, after which they should be placed on the same footing as similar Turkish institutions. The Turks declared the equality of treatment must begin now. Furthermore they attempted to reopen other questions which had been considered as already settled by the conference. There is considerable uneasiness in allied circles over the general problem of capitulations, especially as regards the special courts for foreigners. It is reported Hassen Day brought instructions from Angora that the Turkish delegation should no longer discuss this question, on the ground that the Turkish government has already polished all capitulations.
