FLORIDA RAILROAD PLANS EXTENSIVE BUILDING PROGRAM

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—One of the largest railroad construction projects which the interstate commerce commission has been called upon to authorize in recent years received the approval of the commission today. It involves the construction in Florida during the next five years by the Florida East Coast railroad of a 133 mile line between Oklawaha and Lemon City, a suburb of Miami. Cost of the project is estimated at $4,829,000. Construction of the new line, the commission was told, will provide transportation for 1,671,000 acres of land, much of it suitable for sugar cane growing. Funds for the project, according to the petition, will be furnished in part from earnings of the Florida East Coast railroad and in part from advances from trustees of the estate of V. O. Hines, Henry M. Flagler, who established the East Coast line.

HAVE FOUND BODY OF DENVER MINT BANDIT

struck him and he fell mortally wounded. Linton was removed to the county hospital where he died a few hours later. Before dying, however, he declared he had shot one of the bandits. Gathering up the money the bandits re-entered their car and sped away. As they left the man who had taken the lead during the actual robbery stood on the running board of the car and fired a final volley. The mint guards sent a shower of lead from the second story of the mint. One bandit was seen to lurch forward, only the quick work of his companions preventing him from falling from the car. According to Chief of Police Williams the man thus injured next left the car after that.

It is the theory of Deputy Coroner Boatwick that the bullet from one of the guns of the guards or possibly from the gun of Linton struck the man on the left side of the car and hit and penetrated his chest about a half inch above the heart. These witnesses declared the wound to be found on the body. It is the further theory of the police that the bandits drove directly east from the mint and in the direction of Denver. The car took, drove into the garage, found their leader dead, locked the garage and then left.

Later re-entering a car probably parked in some garage in the vicinity they left Denver. An autopsy will be performed this morning. There were no visible signs of powder marks to show that the bullet had been fired at close range, according to persons who saw the body.

ARREST IN CHICAGO IN CONNECTION WITH ROBBERY

CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—Daniel Culhane, who said he was a St. Louis gambler and otherwise was described as a member of a Chicago million dollar gambling syndicate, was under arrest here today in connection with the robbery in front of the Denver mint last December. Culhane's arrest was reported at approximately the same time the body of a man believed to have been the leader of the mint robbery was found at Denver and led to rumors that Culhane had confessed and indicated where his leader's body would be found. Later, however, it developed that Culhane's arrest and the discovery at Denver merely were coincidental. Culhane was arrested, according to Michael Hughes, chief detective, after he had telephoned to Kansas City, Mo. Detectives at Kansas City, were said to have had the pliers which Culhane telephoned under surveillance and to have been listening in on all telephone calls to and from it. Culhane's whereabouts immediately was given the Chicago police.

Culhane was surprised in his room by five detectives who pointed pistols at him. He slept with an automatic pistol beneath his pillow but made no effort to reach for it. He had a small amount of money and would not explain why he had several money wrappers sewed inside his vest lining. After hours of questioning detectives said Culhane denied knowledge of the Denver robbery.

WAS SHOT AND KILLED BY ONE OF THE GUARDS DENVER, Jan. 15.—The bandit who was found slain in a garage in the exclusive Capitol Hill residence district last night was shot and instantly killed by one of the guards of the Denver mint, who fired at fleeing bandit gang which had robbed a federal reserve bank truck in front of the mint of $300,000. It was established at a coroner's autopsy today.

The bandit who, according to the police, was the leader of the band and who was shot as he arose on the running board of the fleeing automobile to take a final shot at his pursuers, died from a bullet wound in the heart. He was shot but once, it was declared, the bullet striking his hand as he held his revolver extended and passed through his right side into the heart.

KANSAS CITY REQUESTS BERTILLION MEASUREMENTS DENVER, Jan. 15.—Bertillion measurements of the bandit who was found slain in a garage in the Capitol Hill residence district here last night and who is believed to have led the band that perpetrated the $200,000 federal reserve bank truck robbery here December 18 last, were requested by Kansas City police today to establish possible connection of the bandit with the $7,000 robbery of the Drovers' National bank in that city. Captain of Detectives Rinker declared the frozen state of the corpse would not permit taking measurements this morning and an injection would be necessary.

MYSTERY SURROUNDS LOSS AND RETURN OF PEARLS WORTH $10,000 CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—The loss and subsequent return of five strands of pearls valued at $10,000, belonging to Mrs. E. A. Cudahy was still a mystery today. Mrs. Cudahy missed the pearls from around her neck while passing through the union station last night. Mrs. Cudahy failed to add to her statement of last night when she reported that the gems had been returned.

ported a negro was the assailant and that he abused her after killing her companion. A negro is held at Waco charged with the crime. Texas rangers are said to have not accepted the theory that the crime was committed by a negro. No Effort to Evade "I have been making no effort to evade process of the law," said Captain Shumate. "Ranger James White and I have been devoting practically all of our time to this case. Developments have shown there is an individual in Dallas who knows something of the case and it was necessary that we shift the scene of action to this city, at least for a time. We also felt that Dallas is an excellent place to bring Miss Boucher, since every medical attention as well as other care could easily be given her here." Since Miss Boucher, so far as is now known, is the last person known to have been with Grady Skipworth while he was alive it is absolutely essential that we confer with her frequently if we are to pursue our investigation to logical end—and to obtain definite information as to who killed Skipworth and threw his body over Lovell's Leap.

"Miss Boucher appears to be brooding over some horrible secret that robs her of her peace of mind, causes her to spend her nights in sleeplessness and her days in a turmoil of mental torment. We believe we should be permitted a little more time to complete investigation of the case."

JUDGE ALEXANDER INSISTS RANGER RETURN TO WACO

WACO, TEXAS, Jan. 15.—Judge J. P. Alexander insists that Captain R. D. Shumate appear before him with the prisoner, Miss Naomi Boucher and her two brothers instantly. He was unwilling to extend the time and Sheriff Stegall was instructed to bring the ranger captain and his prisoners into court at once. Sheriff Stegall called for Shumate at Dallas by telephone at 11:30 o'clock but the office there reported that they were unable to find the captain. When he talked to the sheriff this morning it was agreed that the latter would call back at 11:00 o'clock and advise him if the court demanded his presence at once. At 11:30 the sheriff had been unable to get in touch with Shumate. County Attorney C. S. Farmer today denied having advised the removal of the prisoners from the county. He had conferred with Captain Shumate, he said, concerning the arrests and had assisted in the filing of the complaints but had not participated further in the case.

GOVERNOR NEFF DECLINES TO DISCUSS HIS PLANS

AUSTIN, Jan. 15.—Governor Neff today declined to discuss what form of an investigation would be made into the action of Ranger Captain Shumate in holding in custody Naomi, Horace and Bernard Boucher, in connection with the death of Grady Skipworth at Waco last November. The governor is reported to have promised to investigate the matter. Adjutant General Barton stated today he has not been asked by Governor Neff to conduct an investigation. He said last information from Captain Shumate was that he was holding the prisoners in Dallas.

BEGIN REHEARING QUICKSILVER CASE IN EL PASO COURT

EL PASO, TEXAS, Jan. 15.—Rehearing of the "quicksilver case" began in Federal Judge W. H. Smith's court here today. Nine defendants are charged with violation of the anti-trust act in restraint of commerce by putting of boilers of locomotives on the Southern Pacific railroad at El Paso and San Antonio last year during the railroad strike. The defendants are John M. Morgan, general chairman of the striking railway shopmen at San Antonio; J. R. Williams, James L. Doak and John F. Doak, machinists; C. C. Hanley, general chairman of the machinists' union of Houston; John E. Yocham, secretary of the Houston union; Charles Poe, traveling organizer for the machinists' union with headquarters in Houston; and J. R. Williams, James L. Doak and John F. Doak, machinists. James L. Doak was arrested in El Paso in September by agents of the department of justice after locomotives in which he had been working, it is alleged, were found to have quicksilver in their boilers. The other machinists were arrested in San Antonio. The first time the case was called it was postponed, one of the jurors having taken seriously ill.

TO ASK FRANCHISE FOR EXTENSION OF SOUTHLAND LINE

Application for a franchise for the new line from Avenue G and Kemble Avenue in connection with the Southland line, will be made by the traction company at Monday's council meeting. The company has started work on the line under a temporary permit reaching the new high school site. The route sought by the company is as follows: A Pacific street to Bell, north on Bell to Avenue F, east on Avenue F to Harrison, and north on Harrison to Collins and the present terminus of the Southland line. The proposed new line would serve the new high school and a considerable portion of the city that is now without street car service.

CITY COUNCIL TO CONSIDER RATES ON STREET LIGHTS

A revised sign ordinance, reducing the cost of installing electric signs in the business district, is being prepared and is expected to come up for discussion at the meeting of the city council Monday afternoon. The council ordinance is scheduled to come up for the third and final reading; no objections have been offered at the first two readings. Statistics and data have been prepared by the electrical rates being paid by the city for current used in street lighting and at the power plant. Some adjustment is expected on the rates now being paid. This statement on rates in other cities will be brought to the attention of the council Monday afternoon. The historical, present ordinance and other matters of importance will also be brought up at that time.

Louis Graveure

FOR the last seven years America has been enjoying to the full one of the most beautiful baritone voices that has ever fallen to the lot of man.

Louis Graveure is the possessor of an exceptional voice, on which, as if it were a rich toned musical instrument, he plays with a feeling and power that is as remarkable as it is rare.

Sonorous, of magnificent volume, liquidly flexible, of splendid range, it lends itself with consummate grace to the greatest operatic arias, the simplest English ballads or the passionate entreaty and faith of religious song.

Graveure Sings January 17th at the PALACE THEATER

GO hear him and you, too, will acclaim him; as the critics have, "A vocalist so far ahead of other baritones as to seem representative of an altogether different art from theirs."

So enthralling is this renowned artist's singing that, having heard him, you will regret the concert's end. But it need not end for you. You can hear him as often as you wish through Columbia Records because Graveure has made many beautiful recordings of his splendid voice. Ask any Columbia Dealer to play Graveure's records for you. We suggest these selections as examples.

Pagliacci Prologue
Herodiade—Vision Fugitive	A-5792
Flow Thou Regal Purple Stream
Tommy Lad	A-2047
Sylvia Vale	A-3548
Rose in the Bud
Love's Garden of Roses	A-3310

As you listen to these records, the richness of tone, the velvet smoothness of out-pouring melody will bring back the singer himself in all his magnetism and charming personality. Graveure makes records exclusively for Columbia.

D. C. PLANS BIG RECEPTION FRIDAY AT J. A. KEMP HOME

The United Daughters of the Confederacy will entertain Friday evening, January 13th, at the home of Mrs. and Mrs. J. A. Kemp in celebration of the Lee-Jackson birthday anniversary.

The reception will especially honor the Wichita Falls Confederate Veterans, and the daughters, sons, and their friends are cordially invited. There will be a musical program and other entertainments, as this is the big social day of the calendar for the Daughters.

The Lee-Jackson celebration was planned at the monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Walker Hiddy.

The Friday home presented a charming setting for the Valentine meeting, with scarlet decorations in beautiful bowls and vases in the dining room, and white carnations in the living room. The Valentine motif was further carried out in the decorations and refreshments.

The meeting opened with the ritual, and with a discussion of current events in answer to the roll call. This feature was particularly interesting due to the big news events of the week. Miss Katherine Sullivan sang two beautiful songs which were very much enjoyed. Mrs. G. D. Anderson discussed the old time political life in well prepared paper, prepared by Mrs. Eugene Sherrod giving a timely and interesting discussion of the entry of southern women into present politics. Mrs. T. B. Greenwood, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. A. H. Britain, gave a violin solo, after which plans for the Friday night reception were discussed and decided on.

At the reception, a silver offering for the purchase of books on the lives of southern heroes, to be put in the Kemp library, will be taken.

Members present at the Saturday morning meeting to whom the hostesses, assisted by Mesdames Duff and Selding, joint hostesses, served a lovely refreshment plate of ice cream in pink carnation molds, and individual angel food cakes, included: Mesdames Charles Popenoph, T. L. Magee, E. T. Duff, W. F. Bolding, J. L. Jackson, E. Y. Ferguson, E. V. Leman, G. D. Anderson, Grandberry, John C. Kay, C. B. Felder, D. J. White, P. F. Langford, H. B. Patterson, Mithwa, E. T. Barker, W. Wilson, W. P. Smith, A. H. Britain, John Frewell and Mollie McKirby, and Mrs. Emma Kemp, specially honored guest, and Mesdames Morgan and Potts.

SIXTH BIRTHDAY PARTY IS A HAPPY OCCASION

Little Maria Margaret Blaylock entertained a group of friends with a party at her home, 1212 Kemp boulevard, Saturday afternoon, celebrating her sixth birthday. QUITS SICK BED AFTER TWO YEARS

Mrs. E. F. Williams Unsettled in Fringe of Tanlac Following Remarkable Recovery.

The results of Tanlac in the case of Mrs. E. F. Williams, of O'Neal, E. C., have been truly remarkable. According to her statement she has "recovered her health and strength" after being confined to her bed for two years and being nearly all hope of getting well.

"Honestly, I don't believe I would be alive today if it had not been for Tanlac," says her statement. "I had been confined to my bed for two years, suffering from a nervous breakdown and stomach trouble, and don't see how I could have stood it much longer. My nerves made me almost frantic at times and I never knew what a sleep night's rest was, and my stomach was in such a bad condition that I scarcely ate enough to sustain life."

"By the time I finished my second bottle of Tanlac I began to feel better. I have taken ten bottles of Tanlac now and it has built me up until I feel strong and well. My stomach has stopped troubling me and I rarely ever feel a bit nervous. I sleep well and feel like a new person. All praise to Tanlac."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists.

A Nature Girl and Lives in a City

By GENE COHN
NEA Correspondent
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 13.—You hear about "natur' babies" now and again. "Nature young women" are scarcer. Boys sometimes stay pretty close to nature until they reach a considerable number of years, but the girl babies generally outgrow it before they're much past the baby stage.

Cynthiana Scott is a "nature young woman," or very near it; she's 17.

Cynthiana has lived all her life in the big city of San Francisco, too. Her father's business.

She never has worn stockings except during school hours. Her teachers insisted. So Cynthiana puts her stockings on as she enters and takes them off as she leaves.

Her attire is a loose, sleeveless slip-on and a pair of bloomers.

By preference she goes barefooted. Sometimes she dons sandals. She owns no hat, has never had on a corset, a belt or a tight dress. She never has "put up" her hair.

She's never been sick. She never even has had a cold.

She says what she likes—by no means auto and valet service.

Most of her spare time she spends out of doors, on the slope of Twin Peaks—more or less open country but within the San Francisco city limits and close to her home.

Cynthiana is clever at her studies.

"She has a pretty face," a "peaches-and-cream complexion" and artists say she has the Venus de Milo is not more beautifully formed.

She lives according to no particular "plan," either of her own selection or of her parents'.

She has no special ambition to shine as a classical dancer, in the movies or on the stage.

"We've lived always in apartments, flats and hotels," says her mother, "but it made no difference to Cynthiana. I've let her follow her own inclinations and she's grown up a nature girl."

"And it's taken some courage," adds Cynthiana. "I've had to accustom myself to being stared at and having people consider me queer. I've been stopped on the street even, by policemen who didn't approve of what I do."

"They talk of morals!" They don't seem to think anything of health.

"People are sheeplike. They can't understand anything they don't do themselves."

CYNTHIANA SCOTT.

BE CAREFUL WHAT YOU WASH YOUR HAIR WITH

Many soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much free alkali which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle. The best thing to use is Mulisified coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It is very cheap and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get Mulisified at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Two or three teaspoonful of Mulisified in a cup or glass with a little warm water is all that is required. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub the Mulisified coconut oil in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to manage. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff. Be sure your drugstore gives you Mulisified.—adv.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS PUSS-IN-BOOTS

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

Dusty Coat sprinkled a little powder on his tail as he passed and he turned into Puss-in-Boots at once.

Dreamland was a queer place but just the same everybody had a good time. "Nancy and Nick and Dusty Coat saw to that. With a pinch of his magic powder here and a sprinkle of his magic dust there, the little fairy and his dog did wonderful things. One thing he did was this—

After they had played school for awhile, everything got tired and wanted to play something else. "Let's play 'Pussy Wants a Corner,'" called out Wally Woodchuck. "All right! Who'll be puss?" asked Nick.

"Let's get Caesar the Cat," said Nancy.

Instantly Jack Jumping House said, "Oh, no, no, no! Please don't," and nearly abridged his tail off. And Chirk Chipmunk said, "Oh, no, no, no! Please don't!" and nearly abridged his ears off.

"Oh, he won't hurt you!" declared Dusty Coat. "Because I'm going to change him. When he comes to

"Oh, all right!" agreed everybody. So Dusty Coat said a charm: "Puss in your corner, Like little Jack Horner, Oh, please to shut your eye, And when you're asleep, Off to Dreamland creep, You'll get here by and by."

Almost instantly Caesar the Cat entered the little rose gate to Dreamland. Dusty Coat sprinkled a little powder on his tail as he passed, and he turned into Puss-in-Boots at once, politely bowing to everybody. He was as shiny as a new overcoat. He wore a red coat, red boots and a brave white ruffie around his neck.

Oats Ready Before the coffee

Quick Quaker Oats Cook in 3 to 5 minutes

Quaker Oats now comes in two styles, the Quick and the regular. Quick Quaker, perfected by our experts, is the quickest cooking oats in the world. It cooks to perfection in 3 to 5 minutes.

Both have the flavor which has made Quaker Oats supreme. Both are flaked from queen grains only—just the rich, plump, flaky oats. We get ten pounds from a bushel.

But in Quick Quaker the oats are cut before flaking. They are rolled very thin and partly cooked. So the flakes are smaller and thinner—that is all. And the small thin flakes cook quickly.

Take your choice. If you want the Quick Quaker look for "Quick" on the label.

Why We Should Bathe Internally

Physicians agree that most human ills are caused by accumulated waste in the lower intestine—Headaches, biliousness, and "that tired, dragged-out feeling" are but the forerunners of much more serious ailments, and more drugs are used with the mistaken idea of ridding us of this waste than for all other ills combined.

Wichita Falls can justly feel proud of its wonderful Public School system, which is gradually being enlarged and bettered as the growth of the city demands it. Besides the public schools there are many private schools that give education to the present generation of children, which in the future will be the business people and workers for the good of this community.

Miss Carrie Craig, the initiator of the Wichita Falls school systems, in 1881 taught her classes in a dugout.

In 1882, a private school was taught by Miss Hattie Seely at her home on what is now Ohio Ave.

Although our school history begins in 1881, it was 1883 before the Wichita Falls school district was incorporated. The Masonic Temple now stands on the spot which was first occupied by the first public school building, a small log cabin, James Humphries, the teacher, came here from Missouri with the Barwise family in 1879.

The urgent need for a high school was filled by the erection of a 12-room brick building in 1890.

As Wichita Falls expanded and its industries grew, and as the schools must grow with the city, the present high school building was built in 1909. Two wings were added to this building in 1916. In the meantime several grade schools were erected.

A Junior High School was established in 1919 to assist in the accommodation of new students.

The high school and Junior College will be the capstone of a public school system that represents an enormous investment, and that is outranked by very few systems in southwestern cities. It comprises nine ward school for white children, a school for negroes, a school for Mexican pupils, a junior high school and senior high school. When the new building is completed, the present high school will become the junior high school and the present junior high school will become a part of the ward school system.

In selecting a site for the school, the school trustees sought a place that would be convenient to the city of the future and that would allow ample room for athletics. The site chosen comprises 20 acres in Highland Heights, on an eminence which is practically the highest point in Wichita Falls.

The ward buildings are all brick construction, most of them with heating systems and thoroughly modern in appointment.

A corps of 170 teachers is employed to instruct the 5,000 children who are served by the schools.

NOTE—Pictures of the Fannin School and Mexican school do not appear on this page.

JACK DAW ON ICICLE ISLE

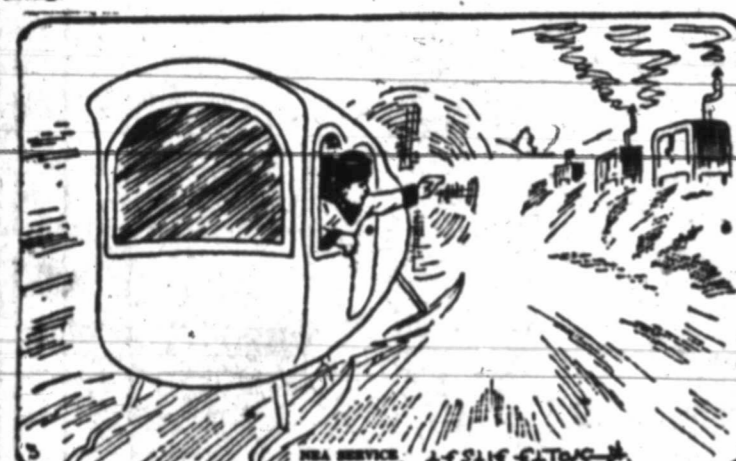

By ELTON

Snow Villages and Frosttown sounded like very interesting places to Jack and he was glad of the chance to visit them. "How do we get there?" he asked, turning to one of the Snowmen. "Why, that's simple," replied the fat white fellow. "I'll call our Snow Villages bus."

Shortly after the odd-looking bus arrived, Jack and Flip had crawled inside and Jack then heard a funny voice, peering out the window he saw that a prospector was making the bus start. "We're on our way," shouted several Snowmen, and they followed the bus as it sped rapidly along.

After he had traveled a short distance, Jack again stuck his head out of the bus window. Just ahead he noticed some of the funniest looking things he had ever seen. "What are those things, anyway?" he asked. "Why, those are the houses of Snow Villages," came the reply. (Continued.)

DECLARES GRIP ON GOD NECESSARY IN BIG CHURCH TASKS

At the Sunday morning services of the First Methodist Episcopal church, South, Tenth and Lamar, the pastor, Dr. C. M. Simpson, spoke on the general theme of the advances of the Kingdom of God as related to the Methodist church, using as his text "Speak unto the Children of Israel that they go forward" as found in the story of the Children of Israel crossing the Red sea.

NORTHWEST WIND CLEARS SKY AND SHRINKS MERCURY

A northwest wind that supplanted one from the north Sunday cleared the sky and Sunday night sent the mercury down to the 34 degree mark after it had reached the 66 degree point during the afternoon Sunday.

Reports from agents located on the north end of local railroads were to the effect that practically the same conditions existed there and that there was not any indication that a change in the conditions could be anticipated.

Locally not a cloud could be sighted in the sky Monday morning and reports of agents from all directions from the city showed that generally clear skies existed over the entire railroad district.

Helping the Dealer to Sell

Every manufacturer appreciates, in some degree, the importance of helping the retailer sell his product.

It is nothing short of a false assumption, unsound and untrustworthy, to think that merely stocking up the dealer with a product constitutes effective distribution.

Too often the manufacturer thinks of his advertising as a clever means of impressing the dealer with the desirability of stocking up with his goods.

It is the business of the dealer to provide the goods which the public demand. He would be foolish to do otherwise, and would soon cease to be a dealer.

SAYS RECOGNITION OF JESUS' DIVINITY NOT READILY GIVEN

Rev. F. T. Daleon of the church of the Good Shepherd selected a portion of the 27th, 28th and 29th verses of the 8th chapter of Mark for his Sunday morning text. "Jesus asked his disciples, whom do men say that I am? Peter answered, 'Thou art the Christ.' Mr. Daleon said: "From the time of this question to the present there have been just two opinions regarding the person of Jesus; but these two opinions have been as far apart as the east and the west. Some have said that Jesus was a man, others have said that he was a god, and still others have said that he was a messenger from the court of God, but still only a man. Others have said, 'He is the Messiah; the desire of the ages; the fulfillment of prophecy; the Son of the Eternal Father; the savior of men.' "Now it is easier, of course, to think that Jesus was simply a man, but an idea is not to be entertained simply because it is easy. It is easier for me to think that the sun goes round the earth, for I think I have seen it do that very thing. I have seen the sun rise in the east, rise across an untraced sky in a golden chariot, and disappear behind the horizon of the west. Of course the theory is that the sun is the center of our system; that our sun is swinging about another center so far distant that it never has been seen; that this again swings another center, and so on until the mind is dizzy. Of course the old Greek conception was easier to understand. It was that the sun was only 75 miles distant and that the stars were brilliant tacked on the inside of a hollow sphere. This claim of the newer theory is that it will explain things; the seasons, the eclipses of the sun and moon, the swinging of the constellations, the brightening and fading of the nebulae, and a hundred other phenomena of the sky. "Now in the same way I want to show you that the hold to the highest conception of Jesus in order to explain a score of things in His person. His sinlessness, the change of His life in the lands across which His name has been carried; the movement of thought and feeling in all those centuries since His life, and the fact that His name has been opened in human hearts. How else shall we explain His sinlessness? Jesus laid His finger upon

LIBRARY IS ADDING MANY MAGAZINES TO ITS TABLES; IS ASKING FOR BACK ISSUES

The sins of others, and tracked them to their first spring in secret imagination, and yet you show me a trace of paternal sin. He taught others to confess their sins and to cultivate repentance and to seek forgiveness, but he himself, John the beloved says in Him was no sin. St. Paul, the apostle, says He knew no sin, and the something is said by others. One ought to be impressed by the testimony of Judas. If he could have fixed upon some single blot in all these years he spent in following Him, he would have said and smothered his remorse, but because he could not think of one single fault he flung down the olive and died like a man shouting, 'I have betrayed innocent blood.' "Not only is the sinlessness of Jesus a problem, but also His piety, and by this I mean His habit of personal religion. His piety was maintained without the means which men have found to be indispensable. Human piety springs from a perfect repentance. So far as I know, there can be no piety among men except by repentance, and this repentance has been the cause of the world's greatest sorrow. Jesus proclaimed and Peter published at Pentecost, calling upon men everywhere to repent for the remission of sins. He was always been man of deepest repentance. Isaiah was a wonderful man, and he, one time saw 'the spirit of the Lord' and he was upon his knees and confessed that he was a man of unclean lips.
