MORE VENIREMEN SUMMONED FRIDAY FOR IDA BELL JURY

ONE PLACE YET TO BE FILLED WHEN PANEL IS EXHAUSTED.

PLANS NIGHT SESSION TO SPEED TRIAL UP

Only Two Peremptory Challenges Left For Each Side Friday Afternoon.

With the initial special venire and the regular jury panel for the week and an additional venire of 20 men summoned, and only eleven jurors selected, Judge H. R. Wilson at 10 o'clock Friday afternoon ordered Sheriff Murphy to draw 20 more names from the jury wheel, and summon them instantaneously in the case against Mrs. Ida Bell charged with murder.

A large number of the jurors had been excused during the course of the day when challenged for cause. In the majority of cases prospective jurors had formed an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the accused, while in other instances jurors held a prejudice in the case one way or the other.

Both the state and the defense had but few more peremptory challenges remaining, each having exhausted. Each had two challenges remaining.

It was believed that the jury would be completed within a short time after the additional special venires were reported. Judge Wilson declared an hour's recess to give the sheriff and his deputies time to summon the men.

Judge Wilson also announced at that time that he would hold a night session beginning at 7 o'clock Friday night. It is highly probable that another night session will be held Saturday night as both the state and the defense have a large number of witnesses to introduce.

WETLAND BELIEVED ON RECOMMENDATION OF FECH By Associated Press. PARIS, Jan. 26.—Announcement of General Weygand's appointment as high commissioner of the Ruhr district now is said on good authority to be waiting for the French cabinet to conclude differences which have arisen over the selection of his officer not directly under the war office for so important a post. It is understood that President Flandin, whose General Weygand because he was recommended by Marshal Foch.

A majority of the cabinet is with the premier in holding that the Ruhr occupation is not distinctly a French action but an allied operation.

The movement of French troops so far as they alone are concerned will remain under direction of the French war office and Marshal Foch and General de Gastaie. General Weygand's mission will be to coordinate the French and Belgian action.

It is pointed out in well-informed circles that Marshal Foch would naturally be expected to organize any extension of the military operations. Hence, it is said to be quite natural to select Foch's chief of staff for the mission.

SHAKEUP EXPECTED AT EARLY DATE IN VETERANS' BUREAU

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—In spite of vociferous denials the belief is current here that another and more far reaching shakeup in the Veterans' Bureau is impending.

There is growing dissatisfaction among the ex-service members of congress over the way in which the business of the Bureau is conducted and while many of them believe Director C. E. Perles is not to blame they hold he is responsible for holding the men who are in the executive positions they occupy.

One report has it that Director Perles is planning a trip to Europe and that the reorganization will occur coincident with his departure. This is denied at the bureau and inquiries at the White House have elicited the information that no changes are contemplated.

The American Legion has voiced its dissatisfaction on several occasions recently and it is known that some of the ex-service members of congress have under contemplation a resolution calling for a thorough investigation of the bureau.

This resolution probably would be little more than a gesture for this congress will adjourn sine die on March 4 and no committee it has would have power requisite to function in such an investigation as would be required after that date.

However, these sponsoring the idea declare that such evidence already has been assembled and that if such a committee is named it could get down to business within a week, resulting in disclosures which would be so alarming that a real shakeup would follow immediately.

It is felt they insist that the "highest law" in the bureau would never fail for the committee to organize but would begin sending in their resignations upon the passage of the resolution.

POSTPONE CASE OF ELEVEN ACCUSED IN COURT AT ARDMORE

GROWS OUT OF SLAYING OF THREE MEN NEAR WILSON, OKLAHOMA.

KLAN IS DEFINITELY BROUGHT INTO CASE

Hearing Brought to Close When Witness Refuses to Answer Questions.

ARDMORE, Okla., Jan. 25.—Trial of 11 prominent men here and at Wilson, Okla., on charges of murder growing out of the alleged operations of a band of masked men in December, 1921, was postponed until Monday, when called here today in district court.

ARDMORE, Jan. 25.—Eleven prominent citizens of Carter county were to face trial today in district court here on charges of murder growing out of the slaying of three men near Wilson, Okla., during the operations of a masked band on the night of December 15, 1921.

The Ku Klux Klan was definitely brought into the case by the state when it questioned at the preliminary hearing as to the existence of the organization in this county and as to a meeting which was said to have been held here a few nights prior to the killings.

The story of the affair, as related by the county attorney James Mathers was that on the night of December 15 a band of more than 50 men, led by C. G. Sims, local police chief, left here in automobiles to "get" Joe Carroll for alleged dealings in illicit whiskey. They took with them "buckets of tar and pillows of feathers." At a point a few miles outside of Wilson, where Carroll lived, the band halted in a field and a committee of a dozen or more men was assigned to bring Carroll before the gathering.

Carroll is shot. They summoned Carroll to the door of his rude little hut and shot him when they discovered that he was armed. A hail of bullets was hurled down on the masked men by members of his family and after the marauders had taken to their automobiles, Carroll's body was picked up a few paces from his doorstep.

John Smith of Wilson, who, according to statements of a confessed member of the band, was forced out of a sick bed and made to accompany the "committee" on its expedition, was found near Carroll's home a few minutes later. He had been wounded in the fight and died shortly afterwards.

The next day officers at the direction to Jeff Smith, the confessed participant in the attack, went to the field and found Sims' body. He evidently had also been wounded in the fray and had been taken back to the field and left to die.

Three days later, 17 men, one of them a minister in whose home Jeff Smith had taken refuge while suffering from a bullet wound in the leg, were under arrest. Charges against six of these, including the minister, were dismissed by the state attorney general who came here to take personal charge of the prosecution.

At the preliminary hearing, Ray L. Beede, an Ardmore automobile dealer, and one of the defendants, was pointed out by Carroll's brother as the man who "murdered my brother." Carroll later retracted his accusation, saying that he "might have been mistaken."

The other defendants, all of whom have been at liberty on $10,000 bonds, are: Dan Ridpath, contractor; C. G. Hittchcock, oil supply man; J. H. Pitzer, automobile dealer; Tom Hattes, automobile supply salesman; Frank Cardwell, insurance agent; Jeff Smith of Wilson; Dr. E. C. Harlow, optometrist; W. L. P. Hill, oil lease broker; J. B. Curley; Smith of Wilson, and J. A. Gilliam, rancher.

BRITISH CABINET DISCUSSES FRENCH RUHR OCCUPATION

COLOGNE GARRISON IS ALSO CONSIDERED AT THE MEETING.

BONAR LAW ADVOCATES RETURN OF THE TROOPS

Washington Views Received With the Closest Attention in London.

LONDON, Jan. 25.—The occupation of the Ruhr and the cognate question of maintaining or withdrawing the British troops in Cologne garrison, were understood to be the chief topics of discussion at the full meeting of the cabinet today.

While it was believed that the recent assurances given to Lord Crewe at Paris had been accepted as removing the likelihood of the recurrence of such incidents as the Lazenauer expulsion, it was said the whole situation was causing the government increasing anxiety and that the time had come when the opinion of some of the cabinet members the whole question of the British attitude toward the French policy must be reviewed.

According to some of the political writers in the morning newspapers, the cabinet is divided on this question, especially as regards keeping the British troops in the Rhine zone. It is reported that Premier Lloyd George favors the return of the troops. The diplomatic expert of the Telegraph says the views of Washington and American opinion are received with the closest attention here.

British labor organizations are planning a campaign against the Ruhr occupation and are arranging an international protest against continuance of a situation which they are convinced is leading to disaster. Secret communications are constantly passing between the leading British and continental labor organizations and socialist parties, including German, French and Dutch.

The continental workers are reported to be looking to British labor to lead in the movement by exerting pressure upon the London government to recall the British troops and to refuse to countenance further the Franco-Belgian policy, thus forcing abandonment of the Ruhr adventure and bringing the whole reparations problem before an international conference at which organized labor would be represented.

It is said that American labor is moving in the same direction.

The continental workers are reported to be looking to British labor to lead in the movement by exerting pressure upon the London government to recall the British troops and to refuse to countenance further the Franco-Belgian policy, thus forcing abandonment of the Ruhr adventure and bringing the whole reparations problem before an international conference at which organized labor would be represented.

It is said that American labor is moving in the same direction.

English labor organizations are planning a campaign against the Ruhr occupation and are arranging an international protest against continuance of a situation which they are convinced is leading to disaster.

Secret communications are constantly passing between the leading British and continental labor organizations and socialist parties, including German, French and Dutch.

Declared Dead By Eight People Body Still Held

PHOENIX, ARIZ., Jan. 25.—The body of George Stevenson, declared dead by eight persons, but asserted to be in a state of suspended animation by members of his family, is in an undertaking establishment here today in accordance with an order issued by Coroner Fred C. Bolen last night.

The order, which was issued over protests by the family and friends of Stevenson, provides that the body will remain undisturbed in the undertaking establishment for several days and that members of the family will be permitted to watch over it.

Members of the family declared that Stevenson, who once was a practicing physician, has made a study of the disease with which he was afflicted and had predicted that it would produce a state of suspended animation.

'PUTS WAR-TORN NATIONS' DEBT TO CHILDREN FIRST AMONG REPARATION CLAIMS

By MARIAN HALE

The whole world is talking of what one nation owes to another. But the real reparations are due to the children.

Such is the assertion of Mrs. Winifred Stoker, the famous teacher and exponent of "the natural system of education."

"How the war-torn countries are to pay their debts among themselves," she says, "is infinitely less important than how they are going to pay their debts to their little ones."

MRS. WINIFRED STOKER

Back from Europe Mrs. Stoker is just back from Europe, whither she went to study conditions among children.

"Everywhere," she relates, "the seeds of hatred are still being sown."

"The German children are taught to hate the children of England and France."

"The French children are bitter and disillusioned."

"In Italy the little ones are unbelievably greedy and grasping."

"In Austria they are practically in a state of coma from under-nourishment."

"The children of Europe have seen dreadful sights. They are older than their parents. They must be brought together in common interests and in a spirit of friendliness and love if we are to avert another war more terrible than the last."

Mrs. Stoker proposes a plan of constructive education. She visited all the leading European capitals to arouse interest in an international league, representatives of which will meet in London in July. The gathering's purpose will be the study of child welfare.

"This five causes of war," says Mrs. Stoker, "are ignorance, greed, need, different tongues and different creeds."

"To combat these we must agree on some secondary language to be taught to every child as well as his own. Thus the children of the world may become acquainted. Then good music, games and education must establish friendly relations among them. They must return to happy homes and be shown that the two big things in life are self-control and the joy of service."

WESLEY GIRLS ENJOY A DELIGHTFUL PARTY

The members of the First church Wesley Girls' class enjoyed a delightful party at their class rooms in the church Thursday afternoon, when Mrs. C. M. Richardson was responsible for the entertainment and Mrs. Bert Adrian's section acted as hostesses.

An original feature of the party was the contest of "mummers" in which every month in the calendar was represented by a charade, and had to be guessed. The months of the year, were acted in regular order, and Mrs. W. W. Silk was the only member who guessed it correctly. A number of the charades were especially laughable, that for October, for instance, being "gathering nuts," enacted by one of the hostesses calling a group of members to the center of the room. A spelling match was for September, the playing of the "Spring Song" for March, and the distribution of pumpkin seeds came for November.

Miss Ines Adrian and Mrs. J. I. Burt gave several piano solos which were very much enjoyed, after which the contest of "mummers" and cake was served to the following: Mesdames George Cooper, F. C. Harrell, Bert Adrian, W. W. Silk, W. C. Russell, Lee Faught, Fred Ebner, L. C. Ulrich, Elbert Hanks, O. I. Norton, Lige Woodruff, Dick Levy, O. J. Mahern, J. I. Burt, F. B. McKelvey, W. C. Cole, A. F. Calvert, J. J. Jenkins, L. L. Lucey, W. Thorne, M. T. Junker, E. C. Ward, L. M. Byard, W. C. Andrus, L. M. Haggitt, J. C. Russell, W. L. Fisher, P. Satterfield, C. M. McFarland, R. P. Howies, J. R. Welch, J. H. Marlon, Oral Jones, Thomas Glass, Grover Billington, H. C. Hammond, W. W. Gaud, Leo Neidigh, H. C. Cheasire, Jason Walker, C. E. Fross, G. N. Walker, Roy Reader, C. A. Fitchard, L. C. Tanner, Arthur McLauren, F. E. Frasier, J. A. Stover, O. P. Dorsey, S. W. Walton and Walter J. Daugherty and Miss Myrtle Humphrey, and Mrs. H. N. Branson of Elk City, and Misses Ines Adrian and Blanche Kline, guests.

Blouses are promised for next spring as well as for this winter. They are expected to follow the same lines as those of the present season.

Blouses are promised for next spring as well as for this winter. They are expected to follow the same lines as those of the present season.

Three-piece suits are being shown at the Paris openings for spring. They're divided between the dress and jacket and the skirt, blouse and jacket combinations.

Sleeveless jackets are expected to be popular with the spring suits, and blouses such as these will be shown to advantage.

In the meantime, and before spring comes, the elaborate blouse with the silk slip continues to be one of the really modish costumes of the season.

GROUP OF HOSTESSES HONOR MRS. LINCOLN

Mesdames T. F. Kelm, J. M. Ibell, C. C. Parfet, A. C. Price, A. D. Pattilo, S. L. Conn, and Joe Shipley were hostesses Thursday afternoon to the members of the Standard club in compliment to a member, Mrs. R. A. Lincoln, who is leaving Friday to make her home for several months in Perry, Okla.

The party was given at the home of Mrs. Conn, which was most attractive in cut flowers and potted plants, with prettily shaded lights. Tables were arranged for bridge and five sets of players enjoyed the game, in which Mrs. O. F. Maricle won high and Mrs. F. E. McConnell low. Both were presented gifts, and Mrs. Lincoln was remembered with a handsome Venetian glass bowl.

After the games a contest of book characters was held which was especially interesting. Mrs. E. E. Fisher proved the most discerning, and was rewarded with a beautiful pair of candlesticks.

A salad plate with cake and tea was served to the following by the hostesses: Mesdames Lincoln, O. N. Dierke, E. E. Fisher, T. M. Cooper, F. E. McConnell, C. E. Bailey, R. W. Gutzler, O. P. Maricle, G. A. Wilson, J. C. Berner, and Charles Morris of Mound City, Mo., and Miss Chella Hendricks.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS VALENTINE POST CARDS

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

"There's a little fairy who writes valentines to order."

Some people sent valentine post cards. Nancy couldn't help reading them as she put them into the mail boxes in hickory tree postoffice.

There were valentines for nearly everybody, even for those woodland folk who had not returned from Dreamland. Their mail would be waiting for them when they came back.

One to Phil Frog went: "Your vest is white, your coat is green. You look just like the Fairy Queen. And if at last a bug you see, just give a hop and think of me." "Crabby" said Nancy.

"That's a home-made one," declared Mr. Stamps.

"Aren't they all home-made?" asked Nick.

"Goodness, no," answered Mr. Stamps, perfectly surprised. "There's a little fairy called—oh, I forget what her name is—she writes valentines to order. Nice, ones, lovely ones—oh, just any kind at all. Ha, I have it. He's called 'Forget-me-not.'"

"Here's one he wrote. It's for Chick Chickadee to send to Bellinda Bluebird. She'll be here very soon from the south. Listen!

"Robins are red, and bluebirds are blue. Skylarks sing sweetly and so do you. I looked in the east; I looked in the west. But you are the one I love the best!"

"That's a fine one!" said Nancy. "I think the chickadee has some manners. Did anyone send him any?" He's stayed around the woods all winter and I think he deserves one."

"They looked all over the mail, but there was none for the little gray bird. So Nancy wrote one like this: "Chickadee-dee, way up in your tree. Old winter will soon be over. And soon 'twill be spring and then you can sing. All day long 'mid the daisies and clover."

"He'll be ever-so-much obliged," said Mr. Stamps kindly. "He's a nice little fellow. Oh, say! Just look at this. A perfect whole of a valentine for Miss Pig from Buster Deigham. The league is planning a taddy party social for Friday night week at the home of Mrs. Cook, on Twenty-second street."

EMPIRE COMPANY HOST AT BANQUET FOR TWO HUNDRED

RE-ACQUAINTED MEETING AT ELECTRA WEDNESDAY EVENING.

GROWTH OF BUSINESS IS EXPLAINED BY OFFICERS

Wichita Falls Bankers Are Among Guests and Speakers For the Occasion.

ELECTRA, TEXAS, Jan. 26.—The Empire Oil company was host Wednesday night to 200 employees and guests at a get-acquainted banquet served in the basement of the First Methodist church. Ladies of the church furnished edibles. After supper T. Howard introduced V. R. Schaefer, superintendent of leases of the Empire interests, from Bartlesville, who acted as toastmaster.

Mr. Schaefer explained that the purpose of the meeting was to acquaint employees in the Electra field, where the company has purchased $1,000,000 worth of property of the Planet Petroleum company, and citizens of Electra and Wichita Falls an idea of what the company is and what it proposes. It was pointed out by various speakers that the parent company of the Empire is the City Service company, which owns oil and gas lands, pipe lines, electric plants, trolley lines, and artificial gas plants in twenty-nine states: Canada, Mexico, and South America, serving such cities as Denver, Colo., Spokane, Wash., Toledo, Ohio, Kansas City, Mo., and others. The company has 110,000 stockholders and next to the American Telephone company, United States Steel company, and the Pennsylvania railroad is the largest in the United States. The net value of its properties are more than $500,000,000.

A. R. Collins, head of the accounting division of production department, told his hearers that the Empire company in 1911 consisted of a force of 13 people and three offices in Bartlesville, Okla. Now the number has grown to 4,100 and office space has increased until it occupies seven floors of an office building covering more than one-fourth of a block. It owns 2,900 wells, has more than 2,000 miles of gas pipe line mains, more than 1,000 miles of pipe line, five refineries and five casinghead gasoline plants. Systematic saving was urged upon the men. R. E. Hanna, of the gas division, pointed out numbers of cases of men who are now practically independent because they had acquired a systematic habit of saving. The company encourages its men to save, and offers them an opportunity to acquire stock in the company if they wish. They are urged to study and if any man takes a correspondence course, 15 per cent of the cost is refunded by the company after he has completed the study. "We have men who swim with the I. W. W. now," said William Betts of Kansas, "because we have made the men feel that cooperation is better plan, and we want to cooperate with them. Years ago we did have a lot of trouble in Kansas with agitators."

AGED WOMAN LEAVES PROPERTY TO CHILDREN IN WILBARGER COUNTY

Mrs. Showers left a will in which she left $15 to each child except Mrs. Emma Caulderwood to whom she left all of the estate after the expenses and $75 was paid to each child. Mrs. Caulderwood lives in Lewis-ton, Pa. Rufus G. Garrett of Lewis-ton was made the executor of the will, which was probated in Pennsylvania. He is in Vernon at this time looking after the estate. Mr. Garrett stated after a consultation with the interested parties that the estate would probably be divided equally among each of Mrs. Showers' children. The children are: Ira G. Showers, W. J. Showers, A. W. Showers, Mrs. Elizabeth Dennis, Mrs. Emma Caulderwood, Mrs. Katie Higham, Mrs. Annie Dow and H. B. Achley, a son-in-law.

FOUND NOT GUILTY OF CHARGE OF PETTY THEFT

Joe Rhinefeldt, who waived his right to a trial by jury in the county court at law, was found not guilty of a charge of petty theft by Judge J. W. Johnson Thursday afternoon. It was charged that he had stolen a number of parts used in drilling oil wells, from a neighboring lease. It was proven that it is a universal custom for drillers to borrow pieces of this nature from adjoining leases when in need. It was also proven that the watchman of the lease was present when the man secured the pieces. The question of ownership was also involved although the money was not called upon to pass on this issue.

EPISCOPAL RECTOR REPLIES TO LETTER; DOES NOT RESIGN

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—Churchmen were not agreed today as to whether the refusal of the Rev. Percy Stickney Grant, rector of the Protestant Episcopal church of the Ascension, to recant his belief that Christ when on earth did not have the power of God, would result in a trial for heresy, as was indicated by Bishop William T. Manning in his recent letter criticizing Dr. Grant for pulpit utterances. Dr. Grant, in a formal reply to Bishop Manning, neither recanted nor offered to resign. Instead he restated his belief regarding the divinity of Christ, and defended his views with the declaration that much of the Bible must be interpreted in the light of new knowledge. He said that he could not accept literally the story that Christ walked on the water, because given the humanity of Christ, that would violate the law of gravitation. He declared he could not love God with his mind and at the same time believe that the laws of God were ever violated. His argument was a lengthy defense of his pulpit utterances and he quoted many authorities to support his position. He denied disloyalty to Christ or to the church but declared the limit of belief to be the truth. He said that to him the language of the "Apostles' creed" was symbolic. Reciting from the creed: "He descended into hell," Dr. Grant said he was certain there was no such place below the surface of the earth to which spirits go.

DEVOL HIGH WILL MEET COYOTES IN GAME FRIDAY NIGHT

A team with only one defeat this year, undefeated by any high school team in Oklahoma, and championship in interscholastic basket ball in southern Oklahoma—that's Devol high school five that will invade the Coyote camp at the Legion hall Friday night. A battle, filled with action, surprises and spectacular plays is in store for the fans Friday night. Captain Coffey will be back in the game after several weeks on the side line with a broken hand; Coyote rooters are convinced that his return to the team will have much to do with the Friday night game. The Coyotes will go into the fray handicapped by the absence of Beck; Howell and Mackechny, but their substitutes will go into the game in their fighting clothes. The Coyotes are expecting as close game as the two previous ones with Electra and Iowa Park, but are hopeful, yet almost confident of an entirely different result.

events in 1812 that weren't recorded because there were so few newspapers. Even Boston had no daily paper until 1813.

In 1812, when Russell was 10 years old, events were more interesting. New Hampshire had become a great manufacturing state, with 25 cotton factories, 20 iron mills and 23 distilleries.

Liquor seemed to keep great minds busy in 1812. Thomas Edwards inventing a process of plating lead pipes with tin, for "stills."

Nicholas Longworth, of Cincinnati, in 1822 began the manufacture of wine from muscatel grapes.

During the year, Commodore Porter led a naval force against the West Indian pirates and dispersed them. The public cheered, but a more important event was the setting up and starting of the first American steam-printing press by Benthamsen, Albany (N. Y.), printer.

Congress in 1823 made its first venture in railroad legislation, incorporating a company to build a railroad from Philadelphia to Columbia, Pa. This was considered decidedly less important than the completion of the Champlain Canal, connecting Hudson river with Lake Champlain.

Yes, Joe Russell has lived through tremendous changes. He saw a backwoods America develop into the richest and most powerful nation in all history.

It makes you wonder whether you also will not see equally great changes if you, like he, live to 110. Life seems startling, magical, today. And yet our marvels of 1923 will be antiquated before the century is up, and will be laughed at as old-fashioned by the people of the year 2,000.

By THOMAS J. WALSH, U. S. Senator from Montana.

WAS on a Senate committee with Senator McNary of Oregon. We were holding a hearing on agricultural affairs and one of the witnesses was E. S. Walsh, head of the so-called Farmers' union.

There was a number of little things between the two. For Walsh was rather a canny talker, and McNary, head of the so-called Farmers' union, was that of a scoffer on anything congress had done or was likely to do for the farmer.

At length Walsh said: "Senator McNary, I'll challenge you to debate this whole subject with me out in your own back yard."

"Quite useless, quite useless," McNary replied. "I make it an invariable rule never to debate on a subject on which my opponent knows nothing."

"Well," Walsh retorted, "ordinarily I stick by the same rule. But I never refuse willing to waive it in your case."

YOU AND I

BY ALBERT APFEL

DEPARTED. A constitutional amendment, by which we could not be declared unless the people vote on it in referendum, is urged by Congresswoman Winifred Mason Hues.

She wants our president to tell other world powers that we'll insist on the plain people's right to declare war—provided the other countries do the same.

And yet the referendum on war will have to come before there can be any really lasting peace. A preliminary step should be a law by which legislators voting for war would have to join the first field army.

THIS JAZZ STUFF IS GETTING MONOTONOUS

CAPTAIN BLOOD

By Rafael Sabatini

Whatever may lie between me and your uncle, you may be sure that I shall not follow the example he has set me. Lord Willoughby's recommendation to me is that I shall treat him without mercy. My own intention is to send him back to his plantation in Barbados.

She came slowly forward now. "I am glad that you will do that. Glad, above all, for your own sake." She held out her hand to him.

He considered it critically. Then he bowed over it. "I'll not presume to take it in the hand of a thief and a pirate," said he bitterly.

"You are no longer that," she said, and smiled. "I am not," he answered. "I think there's no more to be said, unless it be to add the assurance that Lord Julian Wade has also nothing to apprehend from me. That, no doubt, will be the assurance that your peace of mind requires?"

"For your own sake, yes. But for your own sake only, I would not have you do anything mean or dishonest."

Her clear hazel eyes considered him for a moment wistfully. Then she put out her hand again.

"I am going, Captain Blood. Since you are so generous to my uncle, I shall be returning to Barbados with him. We are not likely to meet again—ever. Is it impossible that I should part friends? Once I wronged you, I know. And I have said I am sorry. Won't you say 'goodbye'?" He took the hand she proffered.

Retaining it, he spoke. "And Lord Julian," she asked, "his eyes watching her, bright as sapphires in that copper-colored face."

"Lord Julian will no doubt be going home to England. There is nothing more for him to do out here."

"But didn't he ask you to go with him?" "He did. I forgive you the impertinence."

"A wild hope leapt to life within him. Or will you ask me to go?" "And you? Glory be, we'll not be telling me ye refused to become my lady, when . . ."

"Oh, yes, an inufferable!" She tore her hand from him, and backed away from him. "I should not have come . . . Goodbye!"

She was speeding to the door, he sprang after her, and caught her by the arm. "Arabella!" he cried on a note of pleading. "Must I leave ye? Must I let ye go and never set eyes on ye again? Oh, will ye make this little endeavor until we can go home together? Oh, ye're crying now! What have I said to make ye cry, my dear?"

"I . . . I thought you'd never say it," she mocked him through her tears.

They had, of course, a deal to say thereafter, so much, indeed, that they sat down to say it, whilst time sped on, and Governor Blood forgot the duties of his office. And meanwhile Colonel Bishop's guest had come to anchor, and the Colonel had landed on the mole, a disgruntled man in the company of a friend. He was accompanied ashore by Lord Julian Wade.

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

RECOGNIZE YOUR OWN LUCK. We will never understand luck very well until we recognize that it isn't something that is given away—"without money and without price."

Luck is something that you have to earn as you do your bread.

I have never heard a person spoken of as lucky without smiling to myself. And I have usually said to myself: "Well, I am of the opinion that he is a worker."

For work is in reality the tree that bears the fruit of luck.

Don't waste your time bemoaning your luck. That's why you have none.

Luck, after all, is pretty fairly distributed in this workaday world. The luckiest man isn't the one who makes the most money or accumulates the greatest fame. Nothing like that. The lucky man is he who has discovered most about himself—and used that knowledge to the highest degree for the benefit of others.

Ineligibles Put Up Good Fight But Lose; Knights Win Game

In their first game in city league basketball, the high school ineligibles proved an eye-opener to other teams that have considered their record clear; in spite of the fact that they were defeated by the Methodist five by a score of 20 to 14.

With the beginning of the play the Methodists realized that the game would not be handed them. The close guarding of Pardo for the ineligibles and the good floor work of the entire team kept Neal and Courtney busy to maintain a lead over their opponents.

Line-up: METHODIST. Pos. INELIGIBLES. Neal ..... Ferguson. Nelson ..... Right Forward. Courtney ..... Haney. Summers ..... Pardo. Meade ..... Walker.

Substitutions: West for Haney. Haney for West, Sken for Pardo. Hughes for Walker, Pardo for West. Field goals: Neal, 4; Courtney, 2; Ferguson, 1; Haney, 2; Pardo, 2; West, 2.

Knights Defeat Texhoma
In spite of hard fighting, close guarding, and everything in the Texhoma basket ball category, they were unable to compete with the Knights of Columbus five Thursday night when they were defeated by a score of 24 to 14.

Line-up: KNIGHTS. Position. TEXHOMA. Kubacka ..... Sharp. Collogan ..... Mackebney. Walchney ..... Johnson. Coffey ..... Penrod.

Substitutions: Martin for Mackebney, Mackebney for Sharp. Referee, McElhinney.

WACO-NEW YORK YANKEES SAYS CONNIE MACK
By NEA Service. PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 26.—Don't figure the Yankees out of the American league race simply because of the horrible showing the New York team made against the Giants, says Connie Mack.

"The Yankees are sure to be dangerous. Perhaps the second reverse at the hands of the Giants will work for good," says Mack.

"In doping out the American league race you simply can't overlook Detroit. Pratt will fill the hole at second, while Egan and Blue are certain to be given better players the coming season."

"Collins is a fine pitcher, but inclined to be erratic. If he gets away to a good start, he may be just the man to make the Tigers a strong pennant contender."

BULLSEYES OF BASEBALL
BY DILLY EVANS
No. 22: THE MOST UNUSUAL PLAY I EVER SAW.

Ray Schalk is one of the greatest pitchers the game ever produced, largely because he does other things, aside from the mere giving of signals, catching and throwing the ball.

MURKEY WEATHER FOR GOLFERS WHO COMPETE FRIDAY

SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 26.—A new problem of visibility, hitherto not encountered by the nearly 100 visiting professionals entered in the $8,000 Texas open golf championships, will face players this morning when play begins in earnest for the title and prizes.

Partly cloudy skies and a drizzle of rain are expected to baffle many of the players who went the entire round last year under blazing sunbaths.

In the entire field of more than 200 professionals and amateurs who played yesterday for qualifying, no one broke 70, a tribute to increased difficulty of the course which is at least three strokes harder than last year. Undulating and sloping greens and lengthened fairways have made the difference. On the other hand greens are faster this year than last and have a better growth of grass.

Followers of national tournaments here, commented last night on the fact that Walter Hagen, British open champion, and Tom Armour of New York, are cast in the same foursome this morning. It was recalled that Hagen never has lowered Armour's score in the tournament in which both have been entered. Tom Lally of San Antonio and Alex Armour, brother of Tom, are the others of the quartet.

Other four-somes which promise large galleries today include Joe Kirkwood, 1. Australian open champion; Johnny Farrell, New York; John Golden, Tuxedo, N. Y.; and John Rogers, Dayton, Ohio.

John Broderick of Corpus Christi and Charles Hoffman of Philadelphia, are cast with Tom Burke and Carl Anderson.

The 9 o'clock foursome will be Jim Barnes, Clarence Mangham of San Antonio; William Melhorn, Shreveport and Fred McLeod, Washington. Bill Cravay of Kansas City, and Ervin Nelson of New Orleans, play Jack Tarrant and Joe Lally of San Antonio. Tarrant, a youngster, shared with Tom Boyd yesterday honors for best ball, making a 64 which is the municipal course record.

Today Boyd is matched with Willie Hunter against Jack Burke of St. Paul and Bob Peebles of Louisville, Ky.

Championship play in the tournament is for 72 holes, medal score.

INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE FOR ACADEMY ASSOCIATION
WACO, TEXAS, Jan. 26.—A standing committee of investigation for the Texas Academy Athletic association has been appointed by the association president, F. A. K. B. Bridges, athletic director of Baylor university. The men who will serve on this committee are all members of the Baylor university faculty, consisting of Dean A. G. Flowers, Doctors Sims Allen and Homer Caskey.

This committee will have full authority to act on all questions of eligibility and league rules. Their suggestions are final. They will have power to reprimand, suspend or expel any athlete or any academy member found guilty of violating any association rules.

DARTMOUTH GRID STAR ALSO SHINES AT HOCKEY

By NEA Service. HANOVER, N. H., Jan. 26.—Lloyd "Fudge" Neidlinger, outstanding star of Dartmouth's 1922 football team, is a versatile athlete.

Neidlinger's greatest game of the football season was against Harvard in that contest he stopped George Owen, Harvard star, to a whistle. Boston critics were unanimous in calling him the best tackle of the season.

WHEN FOHL RETIRES PAGE SISLER
By NEA Service. ST. LOUIS, MO., Jan. 26.—Just at present Manager Lee Fohl is riding on the crest of popularity. The placid leader of the St. Louis Browns made a fine showing last season. With a faltering pitching staff, he landed the Browns in second place—just one game away from the league leaders.

No manager in the world could have done more with the Browns than Fohl accomplished in 1922. With an ordinary pitching staff, inclined at times to be very erratic, an infield that lacked stability at third, and forced to be without the services of his big star, Sisler, when he was most needed, the Browns were in the fight until the very last.

Shortly after the close of the season it was rumored that Sisler might succeed Fohl. Such rumors were soon set at rest by the quick announcement from headquarters that Fohl would again be in charge. However, it seems certain that when Fohl gives way to a successor at St. Louis, Sisler will be the man.

It is a well known fact that he was offered the management of the club when Fohl took charge.

"I have no desire to manage a club at this time," was Sisler's response. "The worries of the job would certainly affect my play. I feel that I can be of the most service to the club at this time as a mere player."

ATHLETICS FINISH IN SEVENTH PLACE YET WERE FIRST IN HOME RUNS
If leading the league in making home runs is any consolation to a seventh place team, the Philadelphia Athletics have a rightful claim to that meager honor. For Connie Mack's gang topped the American loop in circuit smashes in 1922, compiling 111 of these blows.

"Tittle" Walker and "Bing" Miller were the pace setters for the Quakerstown entry, the former crashing out 27 four-ply knocks, and the latter 21. Then followed Dykes with 12, Welch 11, Hauser 9, Galloway 6, Perkins 5, Scheer 4, and Hasty, Naylor, Young Johnston and McGowan with one each.

Of this cluster, Walker ranked second to Kenneth Williams for the league premiership and Miller tied with Hellmann for fourth place. Dykes came in eighth, dividing the honors with Burns of Boston and Falk of the White Sox.

NEGOTIATIONS FOR DEMPSEY CONTEST CONTINUE FRIDAY

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—Negotiations will be continued today between Jack Kearns, manager of Jack Dempsey, and several boxing promoters who are anxious to stage several championship bouts with the titleholder and some of his challengers next summer.

Despite the six day option sold yesterday to Tex Rickard, one of the promoters, binding the champion from accepting for a week any offer that may be made by other bidders for the champion's services, it is expected that "conversations" will ensue today.

Kearns probably will confer with Harry Frazer, owner of the Boston Red Sox, and Tom O'Rourke, matchmaker for the club which has a license to stage bouts at the Polo Grounds and perhaps he will see Rickard again today.

While negotiations are continuing, Luis Angel Firpo, the Argentine giant, will be preparing to embark for the United States. He will arrive here about February 12.

Reports are that Firpo is much improved in ring ability and capable of taking care of himself when he meets Bill Brennan at Madison Square Garden March 12.

SHOOTING PAR IS TOUGHEST JOB IN ALL SPORTSDOM
Knowing that you must shoot par or better in order to win, is the most difficult thing in all sportedom, according to professional golfers.

Shooting par is a tough job with nothing at stake, but when such a feat is necessary to win a championship, it is the toughest job in all the world, say the leading golfers.

This feature of play was brought out in the national open last year which was won by Gene Sarazen. After Sarazen had finished with the low score of the tournament, the word was passed that the veteran, John Black, had an excellent chance to beat him. Sarazen simply smiled and replied:

"I have already made my low score." The logic of Sarazen's remark was proved when Black, who seemed certain to beat him out, just failed of the mark.

anxious to stage several championship bouts with the titleholder and some of his challengers next summer. Despite the six day option sold yesterday to Tex Rickard, one of the promoters, binding the champion from accepting for a week any offer that may be made by other bidders for the champion's services, it is expected that "conversations" will ensue today.

Kearns probably will confer with Harry Frazer, owner of the Boston Red Sox, and Tom O'Rourke, matchmaker for the club which has a license to stage bouts at the Polo Grounds and perhaps he will see Rickard again today.

While negotiations are continuing, Luis Angel Firpo, the Argentine giant, will be preparing to embark for the United States. He will arrive here about February 12.

SHOOTING PAR IS TOUGHEST JOB IN ALL SPORTSDOM
Knowing that you must shoot par or better in order to win, is the most difficult thing in all sportedom, according to professional golfers.

Shooting par is a tough job with nothing at stake, but when such a feat is necessary to win a championship, it is the toughest job in all the world, say the leading golfers.

This feature of play was brought out in the national open last year which was won by Gene Sarazen. After Sarazen had finished with the low score of the tournament, the word was passed that the veteran, John Black, had an excellent chance to beat him. Sarazen simply smiled and replied:

"I have already made my low score." The logic of Sarazen's remark was proved when Black, who seemed certain to beat him out, just failed of the mark.

and Chase agreed that when a batsman singled to right field with one out, Chase would continue to play a deep first base and pay no attention to the runner. This was to cause the runner to rush first and take a big lead toward second in case the ball was fumbled.

Schalk's part of the play was to rush to first just behind the runner. It was the duty of the right fielder to make a snap throw to Schalk, in order that he might get the runner if he tried to get back to first, or be in a position for a throw to second in case the runner decided to advance.
